THE LAST LINK SEVERED.—The Canadian Gleaner, published at Huntingdon, Province of Quebec, gives the following paragraph on the death of Mr. Fortune, of that place at the ripe age of 95. Mr. Fortune was uncle of our townsman, Mr. W. W. Fortune.—"The death of Mr. Fortune, esq., as recorded in the proper place, is notable as severing, perhaps, the last link in Canada between this generation and Robert Burns. When a boy the great poet visited the house where he was at the time, and addressed a few kindly words to him. Mr. Fortune said there was nothing particular about the appearance of Burns, and that he looked like any other ploughman. Mr. Fortune retained all his faculties to the end of his life, and was able to move about until four months ago."

INDUCTION OF REV. MR. SMITH AT HALIFAX.—The Halifax Citizen says: The Rev. J. K. Smith, late of Galt, Ont., was inducted on Thursday evening, 31st Oct., into the charge of the Fort Massey Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Prof. McKnight preached an excellent sermon, after which the Rev. Mr. Logan, of Cornwallis, put the usual formula of questions to the newly chosen Minister, who upon replying to them satisfactorily was welcomed as a member of the flock. Mr. Logan then proceeded to address him dwelling on his duties as a Christian gentleman, a Christian student, and a Christian minister. The Rev. Mr. Sedgwick addressed the people in his usual ray and forcible style, after which Mr. Smith was welcomed among them by the members of the congregation. Not the least pleasant part of the evening's proceeding was that in which the congregation through Mr. Best, handed to Mr. Smith a check for his first quarter's salary in advance.

THE JUDGE TO-DAY GAVE HIS DECISION IN THE FOLLOWING CASE: SLEMAN vs. WATKINS.—Hop case—Verdict for plaintiff, $250, in addition to the $200 paid into Court. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Hon. E. B. Wood for defendant.

CUMMINGS vs. WEBSTER.—An action between landlord and tenant in reference to the non-payment of rent. The defendant had a lease of the farm for 7 years, and objected to paying, in the last year of the lease, the rent claimed, $205, on account of the plaintiff having occupied a house on the farm, and for which the plaintiff paid no rent. The contention on the part of plaintiff was that there was an understanding that he should pay no rent for his occupation of the house. The defendant only demands rent for 4 years as he knew the plaintiff to be a poor man with a large family, and, therefore, compassionated him. The plaintiff deposed that he was only made aware in April '71 that he would require to pay rent, and that if he thought he had to pay rent he would never have occupied the house. This case was tried before the Judge, alone who gave a verdict for $163, having allowed $78 as a set off. Mr. Drew for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

CARLIER vs. MORRELL.—Action on a covenant of mortgage, for $700, principal and interest; no defence and no Jury. Verdict for plaintiff. Mr. McMillan, instructed by Mr. Robt. Mitchell, for plaintiff; Mr. Drew for defendant.

BERWICK vs. ROWDEN.—Action of ejectment; verdict, by consent, for plaintiff, subject to a Chancery suit between the parties, in which a temporary injunction has been granted in favor of the defendant. Mr. Robert Mitchell for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

ROSE vs. BALLEW.—The parties live in Peel. The action is brought by plaintiff to recover damages for trespass and for the removal by defendant of certain trees and timber belonging to plaintiff. The defendant's land lies immediately adjacent to that of plaintiff, and his contention is that he did not know the line of division, and that the damage said to be done was of a trifling character. Mr. Cross for plaintiff; Mr. Drew for defendant.

The plaintiff proved that defendant had run over about three acres of bush; he valued the trees taken away at $50 and considered that in consequence of defendant's trespass damage was done to the value of the land, if coming to a sale, from $150 to $200. Several witnesses were called to prove the line and the removal of the timber.

The defendant and his sons were called who deposed that they did not know the line of division, that his sons only hauled off a very few cords of wood, and cut down but a very few trees. The plaintiff is brother-in-law of defendant. The jury, after a short absence, returned a verdict of $5 damages for plaintiff. Mr. Cross for plaintiff; Mr. Drew for defendant.

ROBERTSON vs. WATSON.—Verdict for plaintiff one shilling damages, reserving leave to defendant to move the court to enter the verdict for him.

HOLMAN vs. ANDERSON.—Mr. Dunbar for plaintiff, Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

MUNN vs. MUNN.—Mr. A. H. Macdonald for plaintiff, Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

MACCORMICK vs. WILKINSON.—Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff, Mr. J. P. McMillan for defendant.

STEWART vs. SYMON.—Mr. Mathewson for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant. These four cases were reserved for trial at the December Court of Sessions before his honor Judge Macdonald, by the MAHON vs. MAHON. This case was referred to arbitration, the arbitrators being Messrs. Martin Cassin and Alexander Smith, of Puslinch. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff, and J. W. Hall for defendant. The Court then rose.

Wellington Fall Assizes. Before Mr. Justice Morrison. Tuesday, Nov. 12.

GORDON vs. G. W. R. COMPANY.—His Lordship in presenting the case to the Jury strongly admonished on the very loose way in which plaintiff evidently conducted his business, and also upon the "looseness" of the railway company in allowing the grain to be transferred to Fraser without proper authority from Gordon. Had they taken a receipt from the party who got the grain from the disputing ear, probably this law suit would never have arisen. In reference to the question of interest raised by the plaintiff, His Lordship noted his objection.

The Jury having retired for a few minutes, returned a verdict for plaintiff for $413 damages.

HARRISTON vs. PRESTON.—The parties reside in Harriston, Minto. The action is brought to recover $100, the amount of a note given by defendant to plaintiff. It appears that the plaintiff is the son of Archibald Harriston, the original founder of the village of that name, who sold certain lots in that village to his son William, who in turn sold them to the defendant; the latter was to reserve $100 of the purchase money until a good title was given to him by the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleged the defendant has got; and that defendant has actually sold his interest in said lots for a considerable sum of money. The defence set up that these lots styled in the plan as registered as Court House lot, Fair Ground lot, are dedicated to the public, and that therefore he has not got a good title.

For the plaintiff Mr. Owen Hughes was called, who proved that the Fair Ground in question was fenced in by the Township of Minto, on application of the Agricultural Society of Minto, and that Archibald Harriston consented that they should do so for four years. It was also elicited that the lot in question had been also used for cattle fairs.

Mr. Guthrie here raised the objection that the agreement sued on contains no consideration beyond the promise, and that the plaintiff's case must fail; also that the deed produced contains a release in favor of the defendant.

After considerable discussion Mr. Drew consented to have a verdict entered for plaintiff, subject to the points of law raised. Mr. Guthrie objected to this and wished his Lordship to note his objection, but this the Judge refused to do, holding to the opinion that he must either non-suit the plaintiff subject to the points raised, or else the case would have to go on. Mr. Guthrie considered that this would be over-ruling his objections.

Mr. Alex. Dow was called to prove that he had bought lots in Harriston from Archibald Harriston on the understanding that the disputed lots in this action were dedicated to the public; and that Wm. Harriston sold to Preston he tore down the fence which had been erected around the lots. Mr. McMorrin was also called to prove that when the Township Council voted money for the erection of the fence there was no limitation as to time, which the plaintiff's witness Hughes who was acting as assistant Clerk to the Council at the time contended there was. Mr. Guthrie consented that the verdict should stand as his Lordship should direct. The Judge therefore directed the Jury to find for the plaintiff on the 2nd and 4th issues, and for the defendant on the other issues, with leave to move for a new trial.

The Aberfoyle assault case of McIntyre vs. Smith is postponed till next Court.

WEDNESDAY, 13th Nov. The Judge to-day gave his decision in the following case: SLEMAN vs. WATKINS.—Hop case—Verdict for plaintiff, $250, in addition to the $200 paid into Court. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Hon. E. B. Wood for defendant.

THE BOSTON FIRE. Terrible Accident among the Ruins.

Assistance Arriving—No Despondency Among Merchants.

London, Nov. 12.—It is believed here that the amount of insurance in London companies upon property in the burnt districts of Boston is $2,500,000. A commission is to be sent to Boston by the London companies to make an investigation of facts in relation to the origin and progress of the conflagration, as a matter of general importance to insurance interests.

Boston, Nov. 12.—A terrible scene took place at the furnishing store of Hickman on Washington-st., where the walls had been wrapt in deadly embrace by the flames, and had become weak and tottering through the intense heat. At length they fell, and three men were buried up to the shoulders among the heavy fragments of brick and stone. The cries of agony which they uttered filled the frightened crowd with horror, but at first no one advanced to their succor. After a few moments two or three men crossed the street to where a portion of the wall was still overhanging the spot where the victims were begging and shrieking for help, and tried by the utmost exertion of main strength to pull and wrench them out of the terrible vice. But these efforts only made greater their sufferings, and the bricks and debris were still falling at every moment. The men relinquished their perilous and fruitless risk, and retreated from the dangerous spot; and shortly afterwards, in frightful paroxysms of pain, and with cries that will ring in the ears of many of the spectators to their dying day, the crushed masses of humanity gave up the breath of life, and were a moment afterwards buried by another crushing fall of the wall.

Quite a large amount of money has already been contributed for the relief of the families burned out. The rear of the Post Office building was entirely destroyed, it having been blown up by gunpowder. It was this that stayed the flames and prevented them from reaching State-st. Otherwise the entire northern portion of the city might have been laid in ashes.

There is no feeling of despondency in Boston, but a disposition is everywhere manifested by our business men to meet the reverse manfully, and to conquer them.

The Foster Brother; OR The Orphan of the Wreck.

CHAPTER XXIV. WITHIN DOORS.

"What discovery can he make?" returned Garrett. "The mine shaft may give up the body, but cannot give up our secret. Dead men tell no tales. I wish that were all we have to dread."

"Not decidedly," answered Nathan. "I always tried to bring him to utter that opinion, but he wouldn't. He always spoke of what he called a contingency, and we can never feel secure so long as that man breathes."

"Well," cried Stephen, with a flush of triumph. "Suppose the worst we fear concerning him should come, I am safe. Argowan is mine still, for no other heir lives."

"But all will come to light—all; mark you, all!" "Still, what then? I am safe. 'Twas you who concocted the imposition. I was your victim as much as any one."

"Oh ho! Then you would desert me?" said Garrett, daily. "You think to slip your head out of the noose, and leave me to dangle for us both. Not so fast, Captain Gibson. If I am snared, I swear you shall not escape. We stand or fall together. So, I'd advise you not to turn traitor under the idea that you will be safe."

"Why what could you do?" exclaimed his confederate, almost mockingly. "I would swear that I was the victim of your conspiracy, and you would have no proof to show the contrary."

"You think so," returned Garrett, with a sneer. "Well, probably you would find yourself mistaken. But have you forgot that there is as much in last night's work as will do us both, were it revealed?"

"Ay, were it revealed; but have you not just said that nothing can be proved against us?"

"Not if we both hold our tongue. But think ye I would keep silent then? No, Captain Gibson, I would have my revenge by sending you to the sea-bed."

"Wretch, fiend!" shouted Stephen, livid with rage and fear; "you are the author of all my misfortune. But for your first devilish machination I had not been drawn into this peril. You tempted me; you—you—"

And in the whirlwind of his ungovernable passion he flew at Garrett's throat, and twisting his hand in his handkerchief, made a desperate effort to strangle him, his eyes meanwhile glaring with murderous fire.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.—LANCASTER, Pa., July 31, 1871. Mr. James I. Fellows—Sir: I am pleased to inform you that my health is improving under the use of your Hypophosphites. Excessive tax of the brain had so exhausted my body that I could neither work nor enjoy myself, and it was with difficulty that I could sleep at all. I tried rest, active exercise, various medicinal remedies, and the most popular physicians, and accidentally heard of your syrup in New York. I purchased three bottles at Caswell & Hazard's, and until I used that nothing relieved me. Now I can eat well, sleep well, work well and feel well, and have good reason to consider your syrup a most surprising and capital restorer of the mind and nervous system, and advise all who have much brain work to take it. You are at liberty to use this as you may. Yours very truly, JEROME SHENK, Insurance Agent.

Thousands have been changed by the use of Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) from weak, sickly, suffering creatures to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. For Dyspepsia and Debility it is a specific.

LUMBERING IN BARCELONA.—Messrs. Miller & Mason, proprietors of the Riversdale Saw Mill, have this season cut and shipped a million feet of lumber, which they have sent to Oshkosh from Kincaidine, besides having out and sold for local consumption half a million more. Mr. McGill has bought out the shares of several parties holding interests in the Greenock pines, for which he is reported to have paid $80,000. He is about to build a large saw-mill at Chespey. Mr. Mickie, of Guelph, another large holder in the pines, has erected a large saw-mill on the Teeswater river, about 14 miles from Pinkerton, and he commenced sawing last week.

Mr. Culham Moore, of Beverley, died on Friday last, having reached the great age of 91 years.

THE REASON WHY

Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calaisa is called a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, because Phosphates constitutes more than half the material of the human body, and are absolutely essential to the growth of Bone, Muscle and Nerve, which cannot attain full development without them. They promote a good appetite, perfect digestion, create pure, healthy, vitalizing blood, and supply the waste constantly going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion.
Being combined with Calaisa, the Peruvian Bark, the only specific for Chills and Fever, and that condition of Nervous Prostration and General Debility arising from low vitality and exhaustive diseases, it forms an elegant and agreeable, invigorating Tonic, purely physiological in its action, that may be taken safely under all circumstances, and all diseased conditions of the body, as it builds up the constitution in the same manner as our daily food.
Sold by all Druggists at $1.

POSITIVELY A FACT.

Mustard's Catarrh Specific
Cures Catarrh, Cold in the Head, Neuralgia, Torticollis, Nervous and Sick Headache, Weak and Sore Eyes. The Specific is a new remedy, prepared from Medicinal Barks, Roots, Gums and Flowers. Free from poisonous Drugs, it is harmless, novel, and philosophic in its operation. Try it if you are afflicted with the above diseases. It is also one of the best Cough and Croup Remedies extant.
Mustard's Vegetable Pills should also be used in connection with the Specific for Sick Headache and Catarrh; and those who are afflicted with Rheumatism should try Must-ard's King of Oils.

They regret, however, having again to call attention of the public to the continuance of the disreputable practice of importing English Blankets and selling them as Canadian. These Blankets are made largely of Shoddy and Cotton Waste, with a small percentage of pure Wool, and though slightly in appearance, closely imitating the Cornwall Blankets, and ticketed "Canadian Manufacture," have neither warm nor wear, but can be sold at a lower price than the Cornwall Blankets (which are made of Pure Wool) can be produced for.

The public is cautioned against this attempted deception, and respectfully informed that the name of the CORNWALL MAN-UFACTURING COMPANY is printed on the ticket of every Blanket made by them.
