THE WIRE WORKS.

The announcement last week that the Lloyd-Thompson Wire had gone into liquidation was no surprise to those who were familiar with the situation. What the outcome will be is a matter of specmlation and a more definite opinion can be formed after the meeting of the cred-Itors which is to be held in Toronto on Friday of this week. The liquidation has been busy taking stock this week and a statement will be prepared for the meeting on Friday. The town's interests have been protected as far as it is possible to protect them by a mortgage on the entire plant, but what the outfit would bring at a forced sale is another question. A proposition has been made to give the present management an extension of two or three years to see what can be done, but, as far as we can learn this is not meeting with favorable consideration. If they cannot meet their obligations after receiving a bonus of $15,000 and going to the wall in a period of 18 months they are not likely to make a better showing in the course of two or three years. The prevailing sentiment favors a complete me-organization with a responsible local auan in charge. It is up to the town to make the best of the situation and there is no time for recrimination.

CANNED tomatoes are going to be high this winter. Some say a good deal high-er than they are really worth—and for this state of affairs various reasons are as-signed. There was a time when the re-tailer could sell tomatoes at three cans tailer could sell tomatoes at three cans for 25c: later they were made 10c straight but from now out it looks as though the best will be two for a quarter, and some of the stores will get 15c per can. Canned tomatoes can be bought in the States at 87½c a dozen, while in Ontario the figure now quoted by what some style the trust is $1.27½ a dozen. This is ten cents a dozen higher than last year. There are about thirty factories in Ontario known as Canners. Limited. This tario known as Canners, Limited. This combination has raised the price. Outside the Canners, Limited, there are about fifteen independent packing houses. These firms have their own individual prices, but the syndicate keeps a steady quotations and the independents are therefore able to do business within a small margin of what might be called the standard.

Good Breed of Bees.

Mr. A. C. Attwood, a prominent fruit grower and beekeeper, of Vanneck, re-ports that he has successfully introduced ports that he has successfully introduced in his apiary three Italian queens of the Moore strain, which arrived safeiy by mail to him from Kentucky. It appears that there is as much difference in the strain of bees as there is in cattle, sheep or hens. The Moore strain has the reputation of being the best in America. Having a longer tongue they can gather honey from the red clover; they are not subject to much swarming, and they are said to be hardy to winter. They will not work on Sundays (in winter); are quiet to handle, and will only sting when strongly tempted to do so, or when they feel like it, and think it is necessary. It is hoped that Friend Attwood may have good success with his Italian bees next

The Woods in Autumn.

Just now the autumn woods call to the lover of nature in cities. The "man with the hoe" may have little time to foregather with their charms. He is busy as a nailer getting in the fruits and root crops, cannot find time to hitch up with a load of hay for market with the price at $17 a ton, or oats at $1.40 per hundred-weight. he is on hand to pay his notes at the bank he does well under the pressure of work which must be rushed while the fine days last. But that he is both able and ready to this, hardly ever more so, is a good sign of the times. While he labors tard in these warm, hazy October days the woods appeal to the aesthetic sentiment of townspeople. Resplendent in garb of gold, russet and brown or splashed with scarlet or vermillion, they attract visitors in crowds, who love to wander amid such gorgeous foliage and dip their feet in the rich carpet of rustling leaves. The annual coming of these forest beauties, is a grateful heritage to Odtario, something that dwellers on the far western plain would "give worlds" to possess. They have the soil with its vait potential wealth, their wheat lands of waving grain extend for miles "like a sea of gold," and fill their dreams of 'independence, but no such rich forest depths or particolored fringes to the One reared in the west and young people are eager to forsake of Western Ontario would bring the wealth and unrivalled charms of nature and in homes of perennial com-

Reason to be Thankful.

The last day of the month is set apart for national Thanksgiving. In no other land is the true spirit of the occasion manifested more than in this country. The Canadian has many things to be thankful for even in this year of nineteen hundred and seven when crop yields have fallen off somewhat. Prices for nearly everything the farmer produces rule higher than for several years past. Peace and Broken Rules.

Montreal Witness: An engineer on the Grand Trunk has been sentenced to nine months in jail for breaking the company's rules with a fatal wreck as the result. It was all the court could do. There was a catastrophe; there was the broken rule. The punishment, in view of the results, is very small indeed. It was no doubt made as small as it could be made, in view of the well understood fact that in such cases the rules are broken for the purpose of fulfilling the demands of the company with regard to timekeeping. When no harm results the company finds no fault. It is often indeed probably safer for landscape as Ontario farmsteads pre- the company's general working to sents all summer long and best in keep on time, even at some risk, than to cerange the whole system by mixwho is visiting Ontario for the first ing up the time-table. But when time raves upon the scenic splendors harm does result, it is of course the of the Octobor woods, calling the trees flowers. It is an 'experience", a refreshment and inspiration such as the him, in order that engineers in gentourist abroad finds in ancient do-mains and old cathedrals. Why tain a better record with the comthese pleasant haunts for the fairest pany by taking risks and keeping of prairie outlooks, is hard to under-time, and soon get on better, yet it stand. The same work in the fields is at the risk not only of killing people and probably being cast aside as being unnerved for the work, but also of going to jail. The last is by no means the biggest of the penalties of failure, but it is the law's part in the matter—apparently all the law can do.

Poisoned By a Razor.

Don't trim your corns with a razor, use a purely vegetable remedy like Putnam's Corn extractor. No pain, certain cure, and all for a quarter. Every dealer sells "Putnam's."

Panic Prices.

The big prices that are being paid for grain of all kinds today are due in some measure no doubt to panic. There is no doubt but that the world has a shortage of marketable grains of all kinds. Statistics tell us this, and the world is fairly well covered with information bureaus. But there is a limit, when substitu tion takes the place of an article much desired. The likes and wants of the people have set the demands, but let that want change ever so/little and let the tastes be diverted into some other channel and the prices fall away with almost unexplainable certainty What there is in the situation other than a big element of panic to justify the paying of second prices at this time of the year does not yet appear.

Not many farmers will feed oats at 60 cents per bushel, or barley to hogs at 80 cents Hay at $24 a ton will stay in the barns for later sale. Many farmers are feeding straw, corn and roots to save the hay in spring, in case they can get along without it. This means in all probability, a supply that will ease the demand. Many people thus are predicting lower prices in the spring. At any rate no farmer or feeder need purchase in a panic.-World.

Be Thorough.

It is a mistake to teach children a little of everything and nothing thoroughly. About all education can do for a man or boy is to set him to thinking for himself. The germ of originality in the individual needs cultivation, needs stimulant. The head crammed with other people's ideas has little room for its own thought. Many a boy is so thorough ly schooled that the common sense, the will power, the self-reliant man hood, is driven out of him. A load of facts with no education in their use is of little value. The most successful business men in our cities are those whose scanty education embraced a thorough knowledge of the simple rule and studies, but whose necessities have since demanded vigorous thought, Incessant industry and the best use of every resource of mind and body. The hotbed sys-tem of education enfeebles rather than strengthens. Only a few require classics, astronomy or a knowledge of the dead languages,

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 18 .- The news that Seorge Gouin, a former Ottawan, and nephew of J. A. SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound

WHO SHE WAS

Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused it to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

This remarkable woman, whose maiden name was Estes, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 9th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family. For some years she tanght school, and became known as a woman of an alert and investigating mind, an earnest seeker after knowledge, and above all, possessed of a wonderfully sympathetic nature.

In 1843 she married Isaac Pinkham In 1843 she married isaac rinknam, a builder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies—calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest in the study of roots and herbs, their char-acteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so bountifully provides in the harvest-fields and in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search tive medicines for her own family and

But in 1873 the financial crisis struck Lynn. Its length and severity were too much for the large real estate interests of the Pinkham family, as this class of business suffered most from fearful de-pression, so when the Centennial year dawned it found their property swept away. Some other source of income had to be found

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filing a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medicine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pinkham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence newspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until to-day Lydia E. Pinkham and her Vegetable Compound have become household words everywhere, and many tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture. are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live Tydia E. Finkham herself did not hive to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it herself.

During her long and eventful experience she was ever methodical in her work and she was always careful to pre-serve a record of every case that came to her attention. The case of every sick woman who applied to her for advice and there were thousands—received careful study and the details, including are study of roots and herbs, their charteristics and power over disease. The Meat Inspection Act.

The custom prevailing among farmers throughout Canada of slaughtering animals, particularly swine, upon their own premises and selling the dressed carcases on the local market, is one which entails more or less loss to the producer. Before the advent of packing establishments, the domestic trade was supplied by the local butchers, who were necessarily com-pelled to provide for future supplies, and, as a result, the local markets were crea-ted. Conditions have changed however the local dealers are no longer supplying the domestic trade, which has passed into the hands of the packing houses, which are now the distributing centres for meats. Packers can afford to, and actually do pay higher prices and sell at lower values than the local butchers for reasons which are obvious when one considers that proare obvious when one considers that prothis are represented by the by-products. The packers are adverse to buying dressed carcases as they represent smaller proed carcases as they represent smaller profits in by-products: again dressed carcases are imperfectly handled by the farmer, and the meat in many cases being bruised and unsightly, this, as well as improper chilling, being deterrent to good prices. Animals, especially hogs, require scientific chilling, otherwise those parts which enter into the process of curing become sour and upfit for market. Packers prefer to buy their meats on the hoof, and for the reasons set torth above, are able to pay higher prices for the same.

to pay higher prices for the same.

In view however, of the large trade carried on in some parts of Canada, more particularly during the fall and winter, in dressed pork, as well as in other dress-ed meats, attention may be directed to one of the requirements of the regulations made under the new Meat Inspection made under the new Meat Inspection Act, which is likely to have a considerable effect on the business above referred to. The Department of Agriculture at Ottawa having assumed the responsibility of inspecting and practically guaranteeing the healthfulness of all meats and meat products sent out by the packing houses must of necessity protect itself houses, must, of necessity, protect itself by making sure that no diseased carcases are permitted to enter these establish-ments, The most effective way of prements. The most effective way of preventing the entry of such diseased meat is, of course, the careful ante-mortem inspection provided for by the regulations, but in view of the large trade carried on m dressed carcases and of the fact that both farmers and packers have been in the habit of handling meats in this way, the officials in charge of the enforcement of the Act have decided to admit to the establishments under inspection, dressed carcases under such conditions as will enable them to judge with reasonable carcases under such conditions as win-enable them to judge with reasonable certainty, as to whether the animal, prior to slaughter, was free from disease. Pro-vision has therefore, been made for the admission on inspection, of dressed car-cases with the head, heart, lungs and liver held by their natural attachments, such carcases to be inspected before ensuch carcases to be inspected before en-tering the establishment and if found fit for food to be so marked and admitted for packing purposes, while if found diseased, to be condemned and tanked. This being the case it is incumbent up-on every farmer bringing dressed hogs or other animals to market to remember that unless the carcases are dressed in that unless the carcases are dressed in accordance with the regulation mentioned above, namely, with these organs left in their proper positions, it will not be possible for the representatives of the packing houses to buy such carcases for use in any of the establishments coming under the operation of the Meat and under the operation of the Meat and Canned Foods Act.

The presence of the buyers or agents of these establishments on our local markets has always been, at least to some extent, a sateguard against possible attempts by local combinations of butchers and others to depress the price of dressed meats, and it will be well for producers to bear in mind the new conditions and when, for any reason, unable to market their stock on the hoof as they should undoubtedly do whenever possible, dress their hogs, as well as other animals in such a way as to meet the requirements of the new Act.

SPECIFICATION OF WORK SPECIFICATION OF WORK

The contractor is to furnish all material required and all labor necessary for the completion of the work.

The trench for the tile is to be dug with a perfectly even grade in the bottom and to follow the centre of the present open drain from st. 0 to 69½ and from 69½ to 80% it is to follow the line of stakes to be dug out the numbered side thereof and about 6 ft. therefrom. The commissioner will set up stakes or pickets for the centre line of the trench, making as gradual curves as possible in all cases and the contractor will follow these stakes or pickets for the line of the trench. Where any abrupt turn occurs the ends of the tile shall be bevelled a little by sawing them in order to make a closer joint more particularly at £, 10x70 and at 34. The tile are to be evenly and neatly laid with close joints and in perfectly steakish lines excepting where bends occur. No tile to be covered up until it is inspected by the commissioner. It is then to be covered to a uniform depth of 1 foot where it is in the bottom of the present drain and to the full level of the natural ground where it is not in the bottom of present drain. The earth on filling over the tile to be tamped with a medium weight pounder.

The tile are to be of the best quality of agricultural lile and of the sizes shown and figured on profile. So vast a country is the Canadian West, that no matter how favorable the climatic conditions, a general crop failure may be regarded as almost impossible, Taking the general crop result of the West and lumping up the good and the bad, the Winnipeg Free Press considers the country has made, in view of the weather conditions prevailing over the whole world, a really enviable record justifying the remark of Senator Cox, who has said that he has more confidence in its capabilities than ever before. In the great majority of districts there has been a wonderful growth of straw and grass in a very short season. In too many districts frost may have come too soon, but notwithstanding this, the growth came, and came quickly. In the Yorkton district, for instance, only a few green blades appeared above ground on June 6, but the last week in August saw fields of oats containing hundreds of acres, in which the plants were five and six feet high Similar growth is reported in a number of other districts.

With such a showing, and the abnormally high prices prevailing for products of the soil of almost every kind, the value of this year's western crop will not fall far behind last year's -Advertiser.

The Domestic Service Problem.

Farmer's Advocate, on a vexed problem:

Does not the real solution of the servant question lie in doing away large ly with the need for servants by building smaller houses, furnishing them more simply, and bringing about a state of affiairs in which a more rational wholesome home life will prevail among the rich and middle rich? If half the senseless cringing to Mother Grundy were done away with we would hear a great deal less about the servant problem.

Granted that domestic help may be needed in homes where families are large and the mother overworked. But when the servant-girl question is adjusted on something like a healthy basis, there will be no social reflection cast on the girl who assists a friend in such circumstances, and the young man who calls on her will be no more compromising his social standing than if he called on the daughter of the house. At present it is not so, as every young man or woman in the city very well knows.

Boil the Water Well

The Health Officer of the city of Toronto has acvised that the water supplied citizens be boiled before drinking. This is for the purpose of destroying disease germs in the sew age which has come in contact with the city supply.

There are disease germs in the fil h which lies at the bottom of thousands of wells on Ontario's farms. Whenever these wells get low some of these germs are drawn up by the pump and danger to the household follows in drinking the water. Therein is found the most frequent cause of the spread of typhcid fever in rural sections. Farm wells should be regularly cleaned out, but no matter how careful the cleaning, there will always be the possibility of contamination of the drinking water when the well is low. The only sure preventive of disease in such cases is to see that there is boiling before drinking.

The Faling Leaves.

'The leaves are falling, falling, falling, falling,''
Says the little trembling stoat,

And I hear the Autumn winds a calling; "Here's your overcoat."

The chipmunk sits where the leaves are talling; There's a big lump in his throat, For he hears sweet voices calling: "Here's your overcoat!"

And my snake when leaves are falling To his little home doth tote, For he hears the Father calling: "Get your overcoat."

My snakes, my toads are safe and well, I hear no mournful note;
But the question is: Where in thunder Will-I-get-an overcoat?—The Khan.

Monarch Pine Felled.

What is said to he the tallest cork pine what is said to he the tallest cork pine that has been converted into lumber for twenty-five years was cut recently in Chippewa County, Northern Michigau. The lumber it produced aggregated 4,116 feet. After this pine monarch had been levelled it cut four logs fourteen feet long cach four twelve feet long, and two ten. each, four twelve feet long, and two ten feet long. If the trunk had been left un-cut there would have been one log 12 feet

The bottom cut of the tree measured orty-tour inches in diameter and the cut om the top was twelve in was nearly one nundred feet from the roots of the tree to the first limb, it was clear of crotches or large limbs, nearly the whole of it being clear lumber. It sold for $80 a thousand feet. The big log was cut in the Merchant timber camp near Strongville.

Farmers Rush to Market Wheat.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 18.—The increaswinninger, Man., Oct. 18.—The increasingly high price of wheat and oats has caused an unprecedented rush to market all over the North-West. Any available cars of the C. P. R., Northern Pacific, and Hill lines are being rushed to elevators and farmers, hurried to Port Arthur, and returned for more freight. More of and returned for more freight. More of the crop has been moved thus far than during the whole of last winter. The elevators are running night and day to accommodate the mad rush of farmers to get the benefit of high prices.

Robbed a Deaf Woman.

Strathroy, Oct. 22.—A desperate robbery occurred early Saturday morning when Mrs. Frank, a dumb woman, living lone south of the railway tracks, was udely awakened about two o'clock by a obber. The intruder pulled the clothes robber. The intruder pulled the clothes off the bed and tried to tie the woman up but she managed to get free and ran across the road in her nightdress to a neighbor's house, and roused the inmates. When the party returned to Mrs. Frank's place, the robber had decamped, but before he left he managed to find her little store of money about foe cents and little store of money, about 60 cents and

The man broke open the door to gain an entrance, but the woman could not hear him. Her family are grown up, and are all away working for themselves.

The Granting of Bonuses.

A correspondent sends us a clipping from a Toronto evening paper reporting the vol-untary assignment of a company owing one of the towns in Western Ontario a very large sum of money, which had been granted the firm as a bonus, repayable in twenty years. 'It would seem fair to suppose," writes our correspondent, "that in future the town in question will be slow to go fishing for incorrespondent, "that in future the rown in question will be slow to go fishing for intant industries. But quite aside from the possibility of failure, why in the name of common sense should any municipality fall all over itself to bribe into its midst a concern too weak to stand on its own hind legs? Or why should a town without the naturel advantages necessary to induce an industry to settle there attempt by a bonus to take it from another town that has those advantages? Is not the giving of bonuses by municipalities wrong in principal as well as often disastrous in its results? Does it not put a premium or business adventure, and therefore hinder rather than help legitimate enterprise? Would it not be better for the self-respect and for the ultimate good of the community if the money squandered in bonusing mushroom manufactories, etc., were invested in municipal improvements i"—Toronto Saturday Night. natural advantages necessary to induce an improvements j"-Toronto Saturday Night

Mr. R. L. Borden Cracks a Joke.

Despite his somewhat matter-of-fact style of speaking it must not be supposed that the Conservative leader, Mr. R. L. NITRO-GLYCERINE FACTORY BLOWS UP AT PETROLEA,

Was Smashed Into Matchwood, Great Hole Dug In Ground, and Country for 30 Miles Around Shocked -Houses Damaged-No One Killed.

Petrolea, Oct. 17.—A terrific explosion started the inhabitants of Petrolea and the surrounding towns at four o'clock this morning, when the magazine of the Petrolea Torpedo Company exploded with terrible force. The magazine is situated on the 12th line, about two miles north of the town, and contained about four hundred quarts of nitro-glycerine at the time. The cause of the explosion is a mystery, as the proprietors say they have not been manufacturing since last May. There was no one around the works since early yesterday morning, and when the yes left the place everything was in

BUILDING TOO WARM.

One reason given for the explosion is that there was too much heat in the build-ing, causing the nitro-glycerine to melt, and the friction that ensued caused the deadly fluid to explode. The company's factory was situated about one hundred yards west of the magazine, and was a yards west of the magazine, and was a complete wreck. It was built of wood and is now nothing but a heap of matchwood, Residences situated on the 12th line within a radius of a mile of the magazine were all more or less damaged, doors being torn off and windows being broken and blown in.

Messrs. Glass and MacIntyre and Bray-brook were the heaviest losers, the residence of the former being almost completely ruined. Braybrook's barn was blown off its foundation, and his pumping rig walls were badly damaged. His loss will total about one thousand dollars.

The magazine was a one story building

The magazine was a one story building, was about thirty by twenty feet in Where it stood is nothing but a size. Where it stood is nothing but a hole in the ground, big enough to swal-low it—perhaps sixty feet by twenty— and not enough of the building can be found to tell what it was. In Petrolea considerable damage was incurred by the breaking of glass. Eight large plate glass windows that faced the north on Main street were completely de-north on Main street were completely destroyed.

Dozens of residences also lost window lights. The explosion was also felt in Wyoming, a town five miles north of the scene of the accident, where, it is reported, the damage is even greater than in Petrolea. Fortunately the accident happened at a time when no person was pened at a time when no person was around or the loss of life would doubtless have been considerable.

NO LOSS OF LIFE.

This vicinity has been the scene of several severe explosions of nitro-glycer-ine in years past, but the present explosion is the first in which no loss of life sion is the first in which no loss of life was incurred. Some time ago complaint was made to the council of the township of Enniskillen that the magazine was situated too near the residences along the 12th line. This fact will bring up a serious phase of the damage question and residents whose property has been destroyed will doubtless try to hold the council responsible for their loss.

The company's intention could not be learned this morning, but they will doubtless rebuild the plant, as the business is a very profitable one, notwithstanding its dangerous nature. The only serious in-

SHALL THE NEW READERS BE FREE ?

The Question is Under Consideration by the Department of Education.

In connection with the forthcoming supply of new Public School text books, the Education Department has under con-sideration the advisability of supplying the readers free, as well as of reducing the list of other authorized text books to the minimum. It is understood that Hon. Dr. Pyne has had several conferwhitney, and the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Mr. Matheson, as to whether the proposal is financially practicable or not. Should the plan meet with approval the new readers, whose subject matter is already under consideration by Dr. Goggin and his associates, will be issued to the parents and pupils entirely free of charge.

The free books are not expected to extend further than the readers at the present time, but preparations have been made to secure a very material reduction in the price of all other authorized text books.

Do You Ears King?

When they buzz and seem slightly doaf when they buzz and seem slightly dos, beware of Catarrhal inflammation. This grows steadily worse, but can be cured by Catarrhozone. J. A. Hammil of Greenmount, P. E. l., proved the merit of Catarrahozone and writes: "No one could have worse Catarrh than I had for years. It caused partial deafness, bad taste, upset my stomach, made me sick all over. Catarrhozone cleared my nostrils, stopped the cough and gave a clear feeling in my breathing organs. I am absolutely cured." Doctors say nothing is better than Catarrhozone. Try it and you'll say so too. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

First Aid in Accidents

A country boy knows that the fine dust of the brown fungi he calls puffballs will stop bleeding. When he cuts himself he hunts for one of these if the cut is not hunts for one of these if the cut is not serious. If the cut is deep it is wise to bathe in warm water. Carefully remove all foreign matter in washing, and then, pinching the lips of the cut together, put on strips of adhesive plaster. Be sure and leave little spaces for pus to run out. This running pus comes in unreasonable quantities. Sometimes the blood flows so rapidly that you cannot close the wound with plaster. If so, tie a bandage tightly above the wound before you attend to the wound itself. This will stop the flow of blood, and nature having formed her clot, you can do your part with plaster.—Harper's Bazar. with plaster.—Harper's Bazar.

Lambton Medical Association

The regular meeting of the Lambton Medical Association was held in Forest, on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Those present were Dr. D. B. Bentley, Dr. J. A. Bell and Dr. J. F. James, of Sarnia; Dr. Wm. Reid, of Wyoming; Dr. F. A. Mulligan and Dr. R. S. McAlpine, of Petrolea; Dr. J. P. Hubbard and Dr. H. N. McCordic, of Forest. Dr. Bentley presided, and subjects of interest to the profession were discussed. The question of establishing a sanitarium for the care of persons suffering from tuberculosis, and inagurating an educational campaign for the prevention educational campaign for the prevention of the disease, was given special atten-tion. It was decided to procure from the Provincial Board of Health a supply of literature on tubercular diseases, to be sent to all the school teachers in the county, who will be asked to distribute the same, and give lectures on the subject. The grant of $25, made by the County Council, will be used in the distribution of this literature. A committee was appointed to wait on the County was appointed to wait on the County Council, at its next session, and urge up-on that body the advisability of establish-

After the meeting the visiting members were entertained at dinner at the Franklin House by the Forest members.

What is so eagerly sought for must be good.

Brown Eyes and Blue.

According to the London Mail, the British Association is asking the public to co-operate in hunting down a secret of which some fascinating hints have just been discovered. The difficulty of investigation is more than noting down the color of eyes in the family. In the light of science there are collective sorts of the of science there are only two sorts of eyes —blue and not blue. It is a fact that all eyes are blue or blue-grey in ground, but eyes are blue or blue-grey in ground, but a great many have some other pigment in front of the iris. Hence appears a strange law of heredity. It is asserted that where both parents have blue eyes at the children have brown eyes; where both parents have brown eyes; but it is where the parents' differ that this alleged law of the parents' differ that this alleged law of the parents' is most entryising. In this case, heredity is most surprising. In this case brown eyes are said to be dominant, and blue eyes excessive, so that of the child-ren of mixed parents three of every four will have brown eyes and one blue eyes

Mrs. Chadwick's Old Will.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 17.—While the body of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was being lowered into the grave at her childhood home, Woodstock, Ont., yesterday, there was made public in this city a will which she made two years before her strange criminal career was exposed. It disposed of over $1,000,000 in property, much of which was to have gone to charitable institutions. The document was, of course, revoked by the will made since her imprisonment, and would have been totally void in the light of later developments.

Dies From Assault.

If an editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if a doctor makes a mistake he buries it. If an editor makes one then there is a law-suit, swearing and the smell of sulphur, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and a smell of varnish.

A doctor can use a word a yard long without knowing what it means, but if an editor uses it he has to spell it. Any old college can make a doctor. You can't make an editor; he has to be born.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The run at the city cattle market for today was 90 loads, with 1,500 head of cattle, 80 sheep and lambs, 340 hogs and 174 calves.

340 hogs and 174 calves.

The market has been so much overrun with cattle in the poorest condition of late that prices have got down about as low as they can very well get for the commonest cattle. Prices are steady for choice quality, butcher or export cattle, but outside of these the market is generally weak. Trade was slow today, though there was a good attendance of buyers. The right kind of cattle, however, are not on hand just now to meet the demand for good useful butcher cattle. Feeding cattle were a little easier today, quotations being about a shilling lower.

NEW WHEAT.

Experiments With Wheat Give a Variety to Surpass Our Western Hard-Varieties Crossed to Get Best Results.

A discovery that may ultimately revo-

A discovery that may ultimately revolutionize farming is announced by a group of Cambridge scientists. Very careful experiments have been made during the last eight years in testing and crossing the qualities of both plants and animals. The immediate results of the Cambridge experiments has been to create varieties of wheat and barley which will surpass the quality even of Manitoba hard grain, and increase the value of English grain by ten per cent. or more.

Prof. Middleton, Prot. Wood and R. H. Biffin during the last eight years have been conducting the experiments at Cambridge university, experimental farm at Impington. All the known varieties of wheat throughout the world collected together and grown on a small scale. As was to be expected the majority absolutely refused to be acclimatized, but a few showed a disposition to be kinder. Eventually a few hopeful varieties were selected for such characteristics to the attacks of with a few and supposition of the supposition of the street of the street was the search of the supposition of the attacks of which were selected for such characteristics to the attacks of with a supposition of the supposition of selected for such characteristics to the attacks of rust, good cropping capacity, fine milling quality, stiff straw, and such like, tand were crossed with British wheats with the Idea of combining all these good qualities in one variety. By the careful application of the recently discovered Mandelian laws, a number of new varieties have been produced and have been "fixed." Passing through various trials, they were eventually submitted to the tests of milling and baking, with the most satisfactory results.

Possibly the most fascinating of the experiments is at present in its infancy. It is being tried upon sheep, the object selected for such characteristics to the at-

Investigating Petrolea Explosion.

Petrolea, Oct. 21.—It is stated here, on good authority, that following the explosion of last Thursday which completely wrecked lhe fine plant of the Petrolea Corpedoes, Ltd., a detective wa in from Toronto to investigate the cause of the disaster.

After careful examination of the wreck

After careful examination of the wreck, he is said to have come to the conclusion that the explication was the deliberate work of some person or persons. Fuses which had been ignited were found outside where the building stood, while the fuse, which had been stored within the building, was found intact.

The theory at first advanced was that the explication was caused by fire from a may be looked for.

No reason can be assigned for anyone-blowing up the place if the detective's theory is correct that this was the cause of the wreck.

One result of the explosion has been the passing of a bylaw prohibiting the manufacture or storing of nitro-glycerine within in the town limits. The Bradley Torpedo Co. were affected by this bylaw and were given orders to remove within twenty-four hours. This they have failed to do and the manager of the company has been summoned to appear to-morrow morning to explain.

FEED SUPPLY SHORTAGE.

Ontario l'armers May Have to Use Frosted Wheat.

The Ontario Department of Agricul-ture has been making inquiries with a view to aiding the farmers of the Pro-vince, if possible, to meet with the ser-ous conditions likely to arise this winter owing to the shortage of the feed supply. The practicability of obtaining frosted wheat from the western Provinces for the purpose has been especially investigated, and as a result of its efforts the department on Saturday gave out the following statement:

atement:—
"As to the quantity available, the opin-

statement:—

"As to the quantity available, the opinion is general that there will be a large amount of frosted wheat of too low a grade to be used for milling. How much of this wheat will be placed apon the market as feed it is difficult to determine until thrashing is completed, but the Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Alberta states that if the total wheat crop of the Northwest reaches the eighty million bushel mark there will probably be from ten to fifteen million bushels that will be marketed as feed wheat.

"As regards the quality or feeding value of frosted wheat, the same authority states that it has been pretty generally demonstrated in the west, and also by experiments at Ottawa, that frosted wheat makes excellent feed. It is the opinion of the Secretary of the Northwest Grain Dealers' Association that for the purpose indicated it has all the value of No. I wheat, and that it is much safer to use on account of the higher percentage of bran it contaius, which would naturally be mixed with it in the grinding.

"As to its keeping qualities, it is stated ing.

"As to its keeping qualities, it is stated that the fact that wheat is frosted does not impair it in this respect, provided it is thoroughly dried before being thrashed; but there is always a danger of feed wheat heating where green, half-matured berries are present, as is usually the case.

berries are present, as is usually the case.

"With reference to the practicability of using this wheat for feed in Ontario, the question of cost will be the determining factor. If it can be laid down here at a price that will warrant farmers in feeding it to hogs and other classes of stock, there can be no doubt that large quantities could be marketed in Ontario and fed to advantage. Coarse grains are selling at a could be marketed in Ontario and fed to advantage. Coarse grains are selling at a good price over the whole continent. Prices have fluctuated during the pastmonth. It is likely that the price of feed wheat at Fort William and Port Arthur will become fairly well established in the course of the next two weeks, and Ontario farmers will then know at what price this grain can be delivered at various points in Ontario. The freight rates will be the same as for any other grade of wheat from Fort William to Ontario points. The Secretary of the Grain Expoints. The Secretary of the Grain Ex-change, Mr. C. N.
