DEANERY MEETING AT ANNAPOLIS

Successful Sessions Held in the Historic Town on Monday and Tuesday

The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Annapolis met on Monday at Annapolis Royal, Nov. 28th and 29th. During the first afternoon a financial meeting of rectors and church wardens took place, at which the Deanery apportionment of $3,150.00 for missionary and other purposes was subdivided among the parishes.

At the clerical chapter meeting the study of the Epistle to the Ephesians in the original was continued. Canon Morris contributing another of his interesting and instructive papers on this subject.

Other papers read were as follows: "The Mother's Union" by Rev. A. W. L. Smith, and "The Unconscious Influence of the Catholicity of the Church on the World at Large" by Rev. M. Taylor; both were practical and impressive and were followed by interesting debates.

The usual routine business was transacted and a grant of $50.00 from Deanery funds was voted toward the King's College campaign.

The Rev. E. Underwood, rector of Bridgetown, who has been secretary of the Deanery for fourteen years, made a vain attempt to resign that office, but was met by such a storm of protest that he eventually withdrew his resignation. The official Deanery Service was held in St. Luke's Church on Tuesday morning, when the Holy Communion was celebrated by Rev. W. Driffield, Rural Dean, and the sermon on clerum was preached by the Ven. Archdeacon Watson.

Services also took place on both Monday and Tuesday evenings, participated in by all the assembled clergy; the preachers were: Rev. Canon Morris and Rev. M. Taylor. Arrangements were made for the next meeting at Granville Ferry next April, papers on interesting subjects being promised by the Revs. J. Reeks, T. C. Mellor and E. Underwood. Thanks were expressed by unanimous vote of the chapter to the Rector and Mrs. Mellor, the hostesses who entertained, and the organist and choir who braved the elements to be present at service. The whole gathering was a delightful and profitable one, in spite of exceedingly inclement weather.

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL

(Spectator)

Mrs. F. C. Whitman returned from Halifax Saturday.

Alton Collins spent the week end at his old home here on his way to Halifax, having been transferred from the Yarmouth to the Halifax agency of the Royal Bank.

Miss Jean McGillivray, stenographer at the Entomological Laboratory, has been called to Boston by the illness of her sister, and Miss Marie Cox, of Cambridge, has taken her place. Rev. L. F. Wallace assisted Rev. Mr. Gibson at the Baptist Church here last Sunday evening, much to the pleasure of his many old friends, and also preached at Granville Centre in the afternoon.

Fort Anne had a visit this week from Capt. Knight, Royal Canadian Engineers, who condemned the bridge over the moat and ordered a new deck of 3-inch plank besides new stringers where they had rotted. He also staked out the ground for the new town building, 100x110 feet, for which the necessary lease documents will now be drawn.

The capacity of Frost's Restaurant was tested very creditably on Monday evening at a banquet given by Mr. Bennett to workmen to whom he had promised a spread if they rushed the work on King's new theatre so that it could be used for the meeting last Saturday night. There were 26 participants and at the close Mr. and Mrs. Frost were highly complimented. A very pleasant function was that of Saturday evening last at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McDermott when they were given a surprise party by a few friends of St. Luke's Church and a basket of dainty things was presented to Mrs. and Miss McDermott on all participants, including the rector, who with Mrs. Mellor, were among the party.

The Spectator deplores the probability that George E. Sanders, the talented chief of the government Entomological Laboratory in this town, will leave here at the end of the year to accept a lucrative commercial position in Louisville, Kentucky. If Mr. Sanders really goes it will be a distinct and serious loss to the town, to the entire Valley, to the fruit industry and to the government officials, for as an entomologist he has risen to the world's foremost rank in ability and as a citizen he is universally esteemed. His fine farm at Round Hill is advertised for sale.

JOHN PARIS IS GUILTY OF MURDER

Troun Man Charged With the Murder of Sadie McAuley, Convicted at St. John.

St. John, N.S., Dec. 2.—"Guilty" was the momentous word that fell upon the ears of John Paris, charged with the murder of nine-year-old Sadie McAuley near Riverview Park here on August 2nd, when shortly before midnight tonight he stood in the courtroom to hear the verdict pronounced by the foreman of the jury. Paris shook his head from side to side and seemed to be muttering to himself and breathing heavily when the verdict was announced. He was taken out of the courtroom back to the jail. Judge Chandler announced that he would not pass sentence on the prisoner this evening. The jury was out approximately four hours before they returned with the verdict.

The trial which culminated this evening in the conviction of Paris was drawn out over a period of ten days. All the witnesses in the case were in on Thursday evening and both of today's sessions of the court were occupied with the addresses of G. H. Vernon, for the defense, and Hon. J. P. Byrne, Attorney General of New Brunswick, for the Crown, and the charge of Judge Chandler to the jury. The Judge completed his charge just about six o'clock and then sent the jury for their evening meal announcing that he would hold the court open during the evening in case they should arrive at a verdict.

Three times during the course of the evening the jury came in for the last time at 11:30 they returned to the court for information. On the first occasion they asked for instructions regarding the law on manslaughter. On the second occasion they wished to have certain evidence read to them, and the third time they wished to hear the testimony of another witness.

When the foreman announced that the jury was ready with its decision, the Judge ordered the prisoner to be sent for, and in a short time he was brought from the jail. When the verdict was announced, the Judge refused to allow the crowd to leave the room for several minutes afterwards.

Despite the fact that the courtroom had been closed the news of the verdict filtered out through the large crowd that were outside the building unable to gain admittance. When the prisoner appeared in the custody of several officers and was about to be placed in the patrol wagon, some one in the crowd shouted "lynch him," but no demonstration followed.

The trial just concluded was the second trial of Paris in the McAuley murder case. The first trial, which was begun towards the last of September, resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

DEATH OF MRS. PYLE

A Prominent Nova Scotian Passes Away in New York.

Late New York newspapers contain the following obituary: PYLE—Hester A., widow of the late James Pyle, on Tuesday, Nov. 30th, in her 94th year. Funeral private.

Mrs. Pyle was formerly Miss Hester Whitman, a native of Boylston, Guysboro County, N.S. In New York city she married James Pyle, (also a native of Guysboro County) and they lived a long and happy married life in that city. Mr. Pyle was known almost the world over as the originator and manufacturer of "Pyle's Pearline"; and he died over 25 years ago—a wealthy manufacturer. He left his great business to his sons, but death claiming them, the business was sold and is carried on by others, though under the original name of "Pyle's Pearline."

Mr. and Mrs. Pyle were personal friends of B. B. Hardwick, Esq., the popular Mayor of Annapolis Royal, who has travelled the entire American continent in the interest of "Pyle's Pearline."

CITIES AND TOWNS IN DARKNESS

Four Days Storm at End and Restoration of Public Utilities Service Near

Boston, Nov. 29—Word from the weather bureau that the storm which has held central New England in an icy grip for four days was about over, brought hope to-night to many cities and towns that they would be able soon to have light, power and normal telephone and telegraph services which have been interrupted for two days. All of the places affected, fifty of them, in the vicinity of this city, were again in darkness to-night, however, and with street car schedules reduced or suspended.

The public service corporation, repair crews were able to make but little headway toward bringing conditions back to normal while the storm continued to-day. Emergency repairs were made by lighting companies so that current could be supplied to hospitals and other institutions, but the danger to the public from dangling wires was considered too great to warrant turning on the power generally.

Telephone and telegraph services continued demoralized. Officials of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company said trouble reports had come in during the day much faster than they could be cleared. The toll lines were especially hard hit, trees weighted down by a coating of ice having continued to fall on wires and high tides flooded conduits, carrying cables to points along the coast.

Daily newspapers in several of the smaller cities were obliged to suspend publication because of lack of power to operate presses. Others carried little or no telegraphic news.

The storm tied up shipping at this port, and with few arrivals at the wharves prices soared to the highest levels in months.

Much sympathy is extended to our pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown, in the death of his brother in Massachusetts. Rev. Brown left last Wednesday to be at the funeral Friday.

The election seems to be all the talk at present, especially among some of the women. Too bad that the men don't let the women run the whole country, even the buying and selling of the stock on the farm.

Mr. Frank S. Mosher and son Leslie have ploughed about twenty acres of land this fall. That is more than all the rest of the farmers have ploughed in this community. The old saying is true where there is a will there is a way.

MURKINS IN OUR SCHOOLS

(Issued by the Department of the Public Health, Nova Scotia)

During the year which ended September 30th, last, more than 44,000 Nova Scotia school children were examined for physical defects by the public health nurses working under the direction of the Department of the Public Health and the school boards of several of our towns. Practically sixty per cent. of these children were found to be suffering from one or more defects, which in many instances were interfering with progress in school work and prejudicing the future health of those so affected. When defects were found, the parents were notified, and nearly twenty-five per cent. have been corrected.

No estimate can be made of what this means to the rising generation, but the removal of handicaps to school progress and to proper physical and mental development must necessarily greatly increase the prospects for a useful, successful and happy career.

Public health work is by no means limited to attempts at controlling the spread of infectious disease, but embraces all measures which tend to improve the general health of our people. The public health nurses are rendering us a service of which the importance can scarcely be over-estimated.

"BOLSHEVIK"

The word "Bolshevik" comes from the Russian "Bolshoi," meaning "many." Just as we say "great-greatest," so the Russians say "bolshoi-bolshevik." The final "i" in bolshevik—is simply the plural ending. The root "bol" in bolshevik corresponds with the Latin "mul" in mullets, the "bol" and "mul" having the same meaning, namely, "many." Bolsheviki, therefore, means "the greatest number."

In forming a noun from this word the mistake has ignorantly been made by many newspapers and other writers of printing it "bolshivism," when it should be "bolshievism."

OFFICIALLY UNFURL FLAG OF AIR FORCE

Camp Borden, Ont., Nov. 30—The flag of the Canadian Air Force was consecrated and officially unfurled here this afternoon. The training depot station formed three sides of a square around the flag pole. On the arrival of the Inspector General, Sir Willoughby Gwatkin, the parade was called to attention by the Commanding Officer, Lieutenant-Colonel J. L. Gordon, A.F.C.

The consecration of the colors then took place. The chaplain, Captain The Rev. J. S. Tupper, officiated.

IRISH SKIRMISH

Ennis, Ireland, Nov. 29—A serious clash occurred Saturday between auxiliaries and civilians at Corofin. One civilian was seriously wounded and others were slightly hurt. The trouble arose over the attempted removal of ammunition from the barracks of the auxiliaries, near which the riot occurred.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON FORESTRY

By the Canadian Forestry Association

Q. Is Canada supplying most of the oak used for interior finishing in our homes and public buildings?

A. By no means. We now import the greater part of our oak, ash and elm from the United States. Hickory is also an imported article. These woods grew on our best agricultural lands and were the first to be destroyed.

Q. How much of Canada's lumber cut is used annually by Canadians?

A. Not more than one-sixth. The United States is our greatest market for forest products.

Q. Is Scotland planning to afforest her waste lands?

A. Yes, and is making excellent progress. Scotland has an acreage of 19 million acres. The existing reserve of woodland is just 650,000 acres. During the next ten years 125,000 additional acres will be planted with timber trees. The British Isles are enormous wood consumers and yet hold the smallest percentage of area under timber of any old-world nation except Portugal. A great programme of forestry is now under way.

Q. Is it true that Canada faces a timber famine?

A. Not true in the sense of a bread or clothing famine. There could be a timber famine with a general decay of our industries and decrease in population even though the casual observer could see plenty of trees about the country. Timber can only be profitably cut when in relatively dense stands. A few scattered trees do not make a stand and such trees would make enormously expensive lumber if cut. The present danger is that our forests are growing steadily thinner, the burnt areas are rapidly extending, and valuable species are disappearing. Canada needs constructive forest policies.

Q. How many forest fires, large and small, do we have in Canada in an average year?

A. Five thousand would be a fair estimate. Ontario alone had 1,269 forest fires this year, burning over 750,000 acres, and the Government spent $78,000 on fighting them. In the United States this year, more than 14,000 forest fires broke out in the pulpwood regions alone.

Q. What causes our forest fires; is there any means of preventing them?

A. Ninety forest fires in every hundred are started by settlers, railroads, campfires, smokers, and other human elements, very few by lightning. These men require the timber areas to give them occupation or recreation, yet their personal carelessness is killing one of Canada's mightiest assets.

CANADA LOST CHAMPIONSHIP

Chicago, Nov. 30—The United States wrestled the wheat championship from Canada to-night when George Kraft, Bozeman, Mont., was crowned 1921 wheat king at the International Grain and Hay Show, for which $10,000 in prizes was awarded by the Chicago Board of Trade.

Kraft takes the title from J. C. Mitchell, of Dabinda, Sask., who had held it for two years.

GEORGE HOW

The funeral of George How, who died in Halifax November 24th, was held from St. Luke's Church, Annapolis, at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Interment in the family lot at St. Alban's cemetery. Mr. How was the second son of the late Rev. Harry How, for many years rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. He left Annapolis Royal when a lad, and was in the Union Bank of Halifax for some time. Later he went to Winnipeg, where he married. About a year ago, owing to over work, his health broke down, and he returned to Nova Scotia, hoping that some months in his native province would restore his strength, but in spite of all that medical skill could do he continued to fail, and passed away on Thursday, November 24th.

Mr. How is survived by a wife and several children, a mother, several brothers and sisters.

INFANT MORTALITY RATES

The birth registration area of the United States comprises 23 states with a population (1920) of 63,638,400. The infant mortality rate of England and Wales for 1920 was 89 per 1,000 births. For Nova Scotia, the rate was 111.3. What's the matter with Nova Scotia? Is she all right?

SEA BABIES

More babies were born at sea during last year than at any period since records have been kept.

The official figures show that in British ships alone 276 babies were born at sea in ships "to and from England and Wales" in 1918, and 151 in 1919.

Babies born at sea are usually very lucky, as the inevitable collection among the passengers usually reaches $500, and very often more.

Most of the babies are born in the third-class accommodation, although mothers who always travel first-class have made the journey for the sole reason of having a baby born at sea.

Every baby born at sea in a British ship comes by that fact a British subject, wherever the ship may be.

WHAT MAKES A GOOD FARMER?
(Farm Life)

It is a bigger thing to be a good farmer than some of us think. There are those who seem to think that if we draw on a pair of overalls, follow the plough all day and worry a whole lot about the weather and things, there we are fine farmers. Land sakes, a stovepipe hat and a book under your arm don't make you a preacher. The thought you put into your work, the smiles you get from the earth when you tickle it in the ribs, the real good you do—these are the things that make you a farmer. Size yourself up once in a while. It will do you—and the rest of us—lots of good.

Owing to the scarcity of lobster some of the fishermen of LaHave Islands and Mosher's Harbor, have taken their traps ashore. ITEMS OF INTEREST

Most of the speeding is done out of working hours.

When they get to selling eggs by the pound, someone will make the pound smaller.

Duty has to yell for attention. Pleasure merely whispers and gets a big audience.

Curtain lectures should not be delivered until the curtains are drawn and the public excluded.

It is said that music will make hens produce more eggs. Try your hens with a phonograph.

Many a man fills about as important a position in the home as a great big fly—and buzzes and fusses around in about the same manner.

A newspaperman always speaks of an article written for a newspaper as a story; probably because that doesn't sound as harsh as to call it a lie.

Experienced shepherds declare that sheep turn their heads to the wind when the day is going to be fine; if they graze with their tails to windward it is a sure sign of rain.

BRITISH COLUMN CUT TO PIECES

Two Officers And Twenty-two Indians Killed, And Others Wounded.

Jews Make No Mistakes

Two boys, one a Jew and the other Irish, both received a dollar bill for Christmas.

They started out the next day together and little Mike spent some of his dollar in the first store they came to.

Levi, however, simply asked to have his dollar changed into nickels and dimes.

Going to another store, Levi had a clerk change his money back into a dollar bill.

"What makes you keep changing your money, Levi?" asked Mike.

"Sooner or later someone is going to make a mistake," replied Levi, "and it ain't going to be me."

The History Student

Now, children, said a school teacher, I want you to understand that the time to ask questions in my class is whenever anything is said which you wish explained. Do not wait until I have finished, and then tell me you did not hear or did not understand when I talked to you. The children replied Yes'm in chorus. Very well, said the teacher; we will begin to-day with James the first, who came after Elizabeth. A scholar raised his hand. Well, asked the teacher, graciously, what's it. What made him come after her? asked the scholar eagerly.

RIDDLES

What is the difference between a little girl with a bad toothache and the weather?

One is roaring with pain and the other is pouring with rain.

What are the bells that never ring? Dumb-bells.

What can go through a wood without touching a twig? An echo.

As Near As He Could Get It

At the university examinations an unusually large number of students failed. One of the boys went to his professor and said, "I don't think this is fair, sir; I don't think I should have a zero on this examination."

"I know it," replied the professor, "but we do not have any mark lower than that."

Before The Days Of Prohibition

"Did yer take yer husband's temperature as I tell ye, ta, Mrs. Purdie?"

"I did that, doctor; I borrowed a barometer frae a neighbor and put it on his chest, and it said 'Verra dry.' I gie'd him a pint of beer and he's gone off to work."

Bound To Have Her

"Miss Smith, will you be mine?"

"Never!"

The young man was jarred, but not wholly discouraged.

"Well, will you let me be yours?"

Didn't Start It.

His wife reproved him sharply.

When he his razor cursed.

"Why don't you scold the blade?" he said.

"It lost its temper first."

ARREST CHORUS GIRLS IN RAID AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Dec. 1—Five chorus girls now playing at the Gayety theatre appeared before the recorder this morning charged with being found in a disorderly house during a raid conducted last Tuesday night. They were released, but had to pay the costs of the court.

Montreal, Dec. 1—It was learned to-day that insurance companies in Montreal have lost during the year between $350,000 and $400,000 on the "disappearance" of approximately 130 automobiles, which have completely vanished.

Officials of several companies are unanimous in their opinion that the waters of the St. Lawrence coast many of the "stolen" cars.

THE CREATOR OF BUSINESS

A statistician and business adviser says:—"It is a great mistake to consider advertising as an index of business as one would consider bank earnings, railroad earnings, or foreign trade. Advertising is far more—it is the creator of business. When railroad clearings may be compared to the thermometer which registers the heat, advertising may be compared to the sun, which creates it."

"How about swimming, teacher?"

The Weekly Monitor

Established 1873 Under new management since June, 1917. D. S. DUNHAM, Editor and Manager

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 7th, 1921.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION

As Christmas approaches, with its return of fond recollections of father and mother, the old place and the "Old Town," are we going to forget that the boy and the girl and the friend now far away, are hungering for the people and the things of the happy old days? "Home" is still the greatest word in the English language, or any language, and no matter how rich or how poor they are who have gone away from us, their hearts are still tuned to the fond recollections of yore. Is your boy or girl off in the city, struggling among strangers, struggling to make good among the tall buildings and smoke stacks, among new friends, good, bad or indifferent? What will bring a fuller hour of joy to their hearts regularly every week than the "Home Town" paper? And believe us, the boy or girl, man or woman who finds happiness in reading about the news of old home and old friends is the man or woman who is proof against the snares of the old tempter. Is there an old neighbor or old friend who is plodding his or her path through life among strangers? Wouldn't the home paper with its budget of news from the old place, delivered regularly every week in the year, bring cheer and comfort to them? Come in and subscribe for The MONITOR for that boy, for that girl, for that father or that former neighbor. Or, if you think they would rather subscribe themselves send them a copy of this week's paper with this article marked. Or send us their name and we will do it for you.

BOOSTER VS. KNOCKER

When the Creator had made all the good things, there was still some dirty work to do, so He made the beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when He had finished He had some scraps that were too bad to put into the Rattle Snake, the Hyena, the Scorpion, and the Skunk, so He put all these together covered it with suspicion, wrapped it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak and called it a KNOCKER. This product was so fearful to contemplate that He had to make something to counteract it so He took a sunbeam and put in the heart of a child, the brain of a man, wrapped these in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet and a grasp of steel and called it a BOOSTER, made him a lover of fields and flowers, and manly sports, a believer in equality and justice, and ever since these two were made mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his associates.

MANY SHOWERS

Mrs. Lansdale Pigott was hostess on Thursday evening at her residence, Granville St. West, where she gave a lovely shower in honor of Miss Grace Ricketson who is soon to be one of the principals in an interesting event. The lovely gifts prepared for the prospective bride were arranged on the table which was decorated with pink and white streamers from the electric lights. Those who were there report a very pleasant evening, leaving for their home at midnight with best wishes for the future bride. The same evening a shower was held at the home of Conn. and Mrs. H. E. Hicks, South street, in honor of the latter's sister, Miss Josephine Kinsey, who takes part in a happy event to-day, December 7th. Another shower was given Miss Ricketson at the home of Mrs. John Lockett, Granville street, last night, when more gifts were added to those received Thursday evening.

A NEW ADVERTISER

We welcome to our columns this week a display advertisement for Mr. W. W. Chesley, one of Bridgetown's oldest established business houses, which has now joined the list of MONITOR advertisers. We feel sure that we can be the means of considerably increasing his sales. There are now only one or two local merchants not represented in our columns. We can assure them that their loss is greater than ours. However, they will always find us ready to assist them and again remind them that while they feel they cannot afford to advertise they cannot afford to be without it. Miss Josephine Graham is back from Annapolis Royal occupying for a time her old position in the Western Union office, says the Middleton Outlook.

Local Happenings

It is easier to reform a man than to keep him reformed. In warm weather it doesn't do to be all wrapped up in yourself. Let us endeavor to so live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry. About 50,000 barrels of apples have been shipped from Halifax recently for the English market. The champion pig this year so far reported is that of Thomas Russell, Stony Beach, which dressed 614 lbs. While your point of view may be more correct, remember, it's the customer's that controls the profit of your business. Don't forget the Cricket Club Basket Social Dance, in the Court House, Monday evening, December 12th. See posters.

Some people are so absent-minded that if they should think before they speak they would forget what they were going to say. Luck means rising at six o'clock in the morning, living on half you earn, minding your own business and not meddling with other people's. Our oldest residents say it was more than thirty years ago when we had good sleighing in November. This winter looks like the real thing. Yesterday many men had to run blue ribbons around the top of their pajama coats so they could fool the baby white mother went to vote. Mr. S. C. Hall has our thanks for late copies of the Boston Globe containing full particulars of the late storm in the New England States. The total foreign-born population of the United States on January 1st, 1920, numbered 13,920,692, representing an increase of 404,806, or 3 per cent.

Mr. George H. Warey, of Bridgetown, representing the Confederation Life Association, has our thanks for the first 1922 calendar received this year. George Taylor, of Hortonville, had his barn, which was filled with grain and hay, totally destroyed Saturday by fire, the origin of which is unknown. By a fire in St. John on Saturday afternoon in the house of Mr. John King, who was a trainer of canary birds, 70 of these songsters perished in smoke. A practice of the First Degree will take place in Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F., to-morrow (Thursday) evening at which a full attendance is especially requested. The newspapers say that a man named I. M. Wise who got married recently now wants to change his name. One letter will do the trick. Let it be I. M. Wiser.

The fact that thousands of weekly newspapers have been forced out of existence in the past few years has brought the survivors to realize that all subscriptions must be paid in advance. Mr. C. A. Jordan, proprietor of the Columbia Hotel at Digby, is asking the Mayor and Town Councilors of Digby to resign and call a public meeting to consider civic affairs in that town. He has written a letter to the MONITOR in which he says he is prepared to back up all his statements. Messrs. Beeler & Peters are moving the machinery from their Bridgetown mill to their new mill at Clementsport where they expect to be ready June 1st to manufacture staves, heading and barrels. They will also set up their planer in the Clementsport mill where all orders will be promptly attended to.

The Women's Institute of Paradise held their first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. H. D. Starratt, with the new president, Mrs. Phinney, in the chair. Roll call was responded to with some helpful suggestions for Xmas. Officers for this year are as follows: Mrs. J. C. Phinney, President; Mrs. F. W. Bishop, Vice President; Miss Bessie I. Durling, Secty-Treasurer. Much satisfaction was expressed over the work done last year and all are anticipating more prosperous and helpful work being done this year. The social committee furnished a musical programme, after which refreshments were served.

X. B. POTATO CROP LARGEST IN CANADA Statistics issued by the New Brunswick provincial department of agriculture on the provisional estimate on the yield of field crops in 1921 shows the potato yield per acre in New Brunswick to be 216½ bushels, the highest in years and higher than any other province in the Dominion. P. E. Island is said to be second with an average yield of 201½ bushels.

LAWRENCE TOWN METHODIST CHURCH

(Wesleyan) Rev. H. T. Jones, B.A., minister. At the Brooklyn appointment nine were baptized and received into church membership on profession of faith. The work at this appointment was graciously revived as the result of union special services. We expect to hold similar services at three more of our many preaching places. The Inglisville Church was moved to a new site successfully. The work was superintended by the veteran re-mover of buildings, Mr. Chute, of Bear River. The comfort of the congregation will be greatly improved and our good friends feel delighted because a much needed work is done. Rev. Robt Longley gave the missionary address at Lawrenceport. This is his old home church and many expressions were heard of appreciation of his practical and earnest presentation of his message.

NOT AS LONG AS VANCOUVER'S

What is thought to be the longest of all flagstaffs is that which not long ago was sent from British Columbia to Great Britain as a gift from the Provincial Government. It has been set up in the famous Kew Botanical Gardens, a few miles from London. The tree from which this flagstaff was made was a perfect specimen of fir pine, and the staff itself, which is 216 feet in length, is without a flaw. (The above is going the rounds of the Canadian press. The staff opposite the Vancouver Court House where Judge Ruggles, an Annapolis County man, presides, is said to be 224 feet. It is a single stick without a break and was placed in position under the superintendence of a Nova Scotia sea captain.—Ed. Monitor.)

A GOOD ADVERTISING MEDIUM To the Editor of The MONITOR:

Dear Sir:—Please remove from your columns my advertisement for a young man. I have received more letters than I have time to answer. The MONITOR is certainly a good advertising medium and, judging from the number of letters I have received from Digby County, you must have a large circulation in the Western part of Nova Scotia. Yours truly, "W. Y."

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

CHARLES EDGAR HEALY

The death of Charles Edgar Healy was received from Lynn, Mass., by telegram, November 10th, of which morning he passed away at 8:15, his death being due to cancer. Mr. Healy was a member of the Baptist Church, a mason and carpenter by trade. In his younger days Mr. Healy was quite a military man, joining the ranks when sixteen years of age and working himself up until he became captain. He was a man of much travel, at one time in his life being quite a sea-going man. He spent one year in Jamaica at his trade. After his marriage to Miss Margaret McKinzie, of Lynn, Mass., they lived eight years in San Francisco, Cal., (he being there at the time of the earthquake) after which time they returned to Lynn, thence to Outram, N.S., where they spent the winter of 1916 with his aged mother, returning to Lynn the following spring. His work soon took him to Ohio, where he spent several years. It was there that he took with the dread disease and returned to Lynn, Mass., some six months ago, where he has been a great sufferer but bore it all patiently, was often heard to remark that it would be alright which ever way it went with him. "Charlie" as he was commonly known, was a first rate chap, was always ready and willing to help anyone who was needy or in trouble. He made lots of friends wherever he went and lots will regret to learn of his demise, but what is our loss is his gain. He leaves to mourn, a wife, three brothers and three sisters, H. G. Healy, of Middleton; Alfred, of Outram; Rowland and Mrs. William Hall, of St. Croix Cove; Mrs. Elijah Risteen, of Hampton, and Mrs. James Bragg, of North Range. His was a Masonic funeral held in Memorial Chapel on Saturday, November 12th. The carpenter union, to which he belonged, was also present. The floral tributes were beautiful. Many friends came to show their last respects to one who has gone before. He was laid to rest in the Lynn cemetery.

JOHN MCCORMICK

His many friends will regret to learn of the death of John McCormick, which occurred at Upper Granville, Thursday night, December 1st, after a brief illness, aged sixty-five years. Mr. McCormick was an Episcopalian and many years warden of the church, and took a deep interest in religious affairs. He was noted for his integrity and was a good business man, having accumulated considerable wealth. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick and resided in the old homestead at Granville Centre until last spring when failing health necessitated the sale of the homestead. He is survived by a widow, who was formerly Miss Annie Chesley. He also leaves two brothers, A. E. Principal of the Granville Ferry school, and G. T., of Granville Centre. In politics he was an enthusiastic Conservative. The funeral was held from his late home in Upper Granville Sunday afternoon, with interment in the family lot at Granville Centre cemetery. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. E. Underwood, rector of St. James' Parish, and at the grave by Archdeacon Watson. The pall bearers were M. C. McCormick, Annapolis Royal; G. I. Salter, A. E. Phinney, G. M. Bent, G. T. and A. E. McCormick, Granville.

A. S. FREEMAN

Mr. A. S. Freeman, formerly of Milton, Queens County, N.S., passed away in the hospital in Buffalo, N.Y., Monday, November 28th, aged 63 years. His illness had already been reported in our columns. He was a member of the Baptist Church and of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, and was highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances. He leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter, all of whom reside in Buffalo with the exception of the oldest son, Karl, who is in New Haven, Conn. He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. J. B. Freeman, of Milton, Queens County, and five brothers, M. V. and H. S., Halifax; E. H. and Karl, Bridgetown, and Ernest, in Saskatchewan; two sisters, Miss Emily, at home in Milton, and Mrs. W. L. Archibald, of Wolfville. Funeral took place from his late home Friday, with interment in Buffalo, the services being conducted by the pastor of the First Baptist Church in the city.

MRS. RACHAEL GRAVES

We regret this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. Rachael Graves, widow of the late Deacon Walter Graves, which occurred at Port Lorne at an early hour last Wednesday morning, November 30th, aged 91 years. She was a member of the Baptist Church and was highly respected, having led a Christian life that none could excel. She is survived by one son, John Graves, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph and Mrs. Freeman Brinton, all of Port Lorne. Freeman Brinton, all of Port Lorne. Freeman Brinton, all of Port Lorne. which took place on Friday and which was largely attended were present her grand children and great grand children. The services were conducted by Rev. D. W. Dixon, pastor of the Port Lorne Baptist Church and there were many floral tributes.

BAPTIST NOTES

Last Wednesday evening the Bridgetown Baptist Church held a most successful Roll Call. In spite of the very unfavorable weather over one hundred assembled for supper at six o'clock. Rev. E. S. Mason, superintendent of Home Missions, addressed the evening meeting. The church Roll was called by the clerk, Mr. M. C. Foster. Many responses were received either in person or by letter. A thank offering of $200.00 was received for church repairs. The choir rendered splendid music and presented an excellent appearance in their new gowns and caps. These gowns were recently presented to the choir by Mr. Harry J. Crowe, a member of the church now residing in Toronto. The church feels very grateful for this generous gift which will be a great help to the choir in carrying on its work.

The ladies of the church are to hold a sale of aprons, fancy articles and food in the vestry to-morrow (Thursday, Dec. 8th) at 2 p.m.

The regular services of the church will be held next Sunday, December 11th. The pastor is to speak in the evening on "Why I Am Opposed to Rosellism or Millennial Dawnism."

The following resolution regarding church union was adopted by the Maritime Baptist Convention held in October last:—

"In view of the various pronouncements of organic church union which are being made by various religious bodies this Convention of the Maritime Baptists in session wish to make known our sincere desire for most sympathetic relationship with all other Christian bodies, but deem it wise and necessary to make it quite plain that any negotiations looking toward closer union would not be entertained which did not recognize the validity and equality of our ordination with that of all other religious bodies."

The man who holds the ladder at the bottom is frequently of just as much service as the man at the top.

AGRICULTURE

THE PRESENT AS THE CONSTRUCTIVE BREEDER'S OPPORTUNITY

(Experimental Farms Note)

With five stock farming acting, as always will, as the main contributing factor in the upkeep of the fertility of the land and of a permanent crop of agriculture, there should never be a time when the live stock breeder need curtail his breeding opportunities or lose sight of his goal—quality live stock for efficient production. In periods of low prices, it is sometimes necessary for the farmer to neglect the future in order to take care of the present. It may also be necessary for a farmer who lacks capital to follow methods which would change under other conditions. In general, it is advisable to have a system of live stock farming that will ensure a steady and ever-increasing return.

Such returns can not be looked for when the breeder is handling stock of questionable productivity and working on an "in and out" system. Under such a system, he is usually "set" when he should be "in," and vice versa. On the other hand, the breeder who has high quality, productive stock and who holds on through thick and thin, reaps his reward when the law of supply and demand again raises prices to a remunerative level. It is not sufficient to stay "in." Every effort should be bent to increase the efficiency of the live stock. The breeder who did not get rid of his inefficient stock when prices for meat were at a high level missed a golden opportunity, but it is no reason why he should let them continue to eat their heads off now. It would, in many cases, be more economical to give them away than to keep them.

It would be a gloomy outlook indeed if the foregoing picture had not its sunny side as well as its dark one. Practically every improver of live stock must be continually looking outside his own herd and flock for new blood if he is to continue effecting improvement. Therein lies the sunny side, for even the breeder of high-class stock has been hit, though not so hard as the breeder of mediocre stock, and he has had to meet the falling off in demand by a reduction of prices. As a consequence breeder stock of quality to bring about rapid improvement in the average herd or flock can be obtained at reasonable prices. This is particularly true of sheep and swine and to a lesser degree of cattle and horses. Any farmer or breeder who feels or knows that he is handicapped under the present conditions by the lack of productivity or quality in his stock, should take steps immediately to secure improved sires to put at the head of his herd and flock. Unoubtedly, there is no way in which improvement can be wrought more thoroughly and more economically than through the use of improved sires. If you have been using scrubs, replace them by purebreds of the highest quality obtainable. If you have been using purebred sires, have given their progeny a decent chance and have not achieved any improvement, then the purebreds used could not have been of desirable type and quality. Discard them and, when procuring others, demand and get even through at greater cost, sires from proven ancestry.

While the use of top-notch sires is one of the best methods of improvement where capital is limited, the introduction of a few choice females into the herd or flock, where capital will permit, will bring about the desired improvement much earlier. Let every person, then, who calls himself or herself a "breeder of live stock"—that is, which there is no modifier attached—bend every effort and grasp the present opportunity to put their herd and flock into a state of efficiency that will enable them to produce economically throughout any kind of a seasonal or market situation. Bring back industry by being industrious. It is possible to be industrious and not accomplish anything, but not so with the efficiency industrious.

OUR MORAL STANDING

(Farm and Dairy)

Canada's reputation for morality and decency is under a severe strain nowadays. Among those who are temperate and law-abiding of the people of the great republic to the south, we are classed along with Cuba and Mexico as "bar-tenders to the continent." Our race tracks are the rendezvous of the gambling crooks of America. We have obtained this unenviable reputation in spite of the fact that the great majority of our people are opposed to both evils. The legislation that allows these evils to continue can be changed only by action in the Dominion House.

Hum-running along the international boundary has reached the proportions of an international scandal. The Provincial police of Ontario and the other dry provinces could cope with the situation were it not that the Dominion law permits liquor to be brought in from outside points, where shipment across the line is comparatively easy. These warehouses belong to companies recently organized under Dominion law for the express purpose of exporting liquor to our dry neighbor; in other words, the big rum-runners are operating. In a measure at least, under the cloak of Dominion legislation.

Our connection with the evil of race-track gambling is even more reprehensible. The legal aspect of rum-running is an unforeseen development. Legalized betting on race tracks is permitted by an act that was approved by Parliament with all information before it as to the degrading character of the vice. In this connection we make but a sorry spectacle when compared with other the Old Land or the United States. Some years ago two men set up partumet machines on one of the English race tracks. They were promptly convicted as rogues and vagabonds and that is still the law in England. The year before last, an attempt was made to induce the Parliament of Great Britain to legalize the partumet machines but without success. In the United States, control of the race tracks is vested in the State legislatures and legalized betting has been prohibited in all but four states. In such great states as New York and Michigan did away with the vice years ago. Can Canada, for her good name's sake if nothing else afford to tolerate evils that are being outlawed elsewhere?

APPLE STORAGE TROUBLES

(Canadian Horticulturist)

Trouble with apples spoiling in common storage many times is traced to faulty construction of the storage house that can be overcome by slight changes or better management. The United States Department of Agriculture has found. The first consideration, it is said, is the condition of the fruit when it is stored. Apples that are bruised or diseased, too green or over-ripe, or that are of a variety known to keep but a short time cannot be stored satisfactorily.

But, even with the apples carefully selected, the fruit may not keep because of certain conditions in the storage house, particularly those relating to temperature. The storage house must be like a thermos bottle, keeping the heat out during the warm days and holding it during the very cold ones. This result can be obtained only if the building is properly ventilated and insulated. Insulation is effected by filling the hollow walls with ground cork, mineral wool, saw-lark or other material that will keep the heat from passing through. So that there will be no leak, the doors are insulated the same as the walls, and there should be as few windows as possible.

Ventilation is provided by means of openings near the ground under the floor, for cool air to enter and, air shafts leading upwards from the ceiling to carry off the warm air. These are kept open during the night or the cooler part of the day—in the fall—and are closed during the hot hours. The arrangement of the boxes in the storage house has much to do with proper ventilation. The best arrangement is one that permits the air to circulate around each separate box. This can be managed by leaving a space around each pile of boxes and by placing cleats between the boxes in the pile.

THE PRICE OF MEAT

An application has been made to Hon. George H. Malcolm, minister of agriculture for Manitoba, for the appointment of a provincial government commission to investigate the spread in meat prices, between the price paid producers and the price charged in retail stores. As was pointed out to the minister, many farmers claim they cannot raise cattle and hogs at a reasonable profit based on present prices. While the live weight price has decreased 200 to 300 per cent. in many cases, there has been very slight decrease in retail prices of meat. The investigation, it was suggested, should determine whether or not undue profits were being made by local packers or butchers.

"Well, you see, I as-ask-asked a summer girl to hav-hav-have me, and she said that she'd rather be ex-ex-excused, and I was such a to-to-fool, I ex-ex-excused her."

THE LOST PAPER

Oh pity me, I cannot talk; So, put me in the files. Don't leave me lying round about In bunches or in piles.

You've been looking for me everywhere and the file clerk has gone on oath against your own declaration. My whereabouts is unknown.

There has been a hurried and furtive flopping about of various piles of correspondence and records.

You need me in a hurry—Where am I?

Drawers are pulled out and slammed shut. The desk blotter is cleared and lifted and discloses nothing.

You must have me within five minutes—Jones is waiting.

"It's—!" you say, "here's the very spot. I remember perfectly."

"Not so," say I, "your memory plays you false. Try your pockets."

Out come papers, forgotten bills, lodge membership cards, all in a muddle. No results.

Only two minutes more.

"Try wife and ask her to look in your other suit," I suggest.

The telephone is rung and after a couple of wrong numbers, the home partner tells you she can find nothing.

One minute more.

The conference will be waiting.

"Where is—?"

A few more things are thrown around and you bury your head in your hands, then get up and walk excitedly up and down, back and forth, calling upon memory—blank despair!

Time is up—'Tis three o'clock.

Across the room you walk and then your eye catches "Here I am on top of the filing cabinet, under Letter X-Y-Z."

I laugh and chuckle with glee. You hear it and then—

"Who the devil are you," you ask.

"Me?—Why I'm the Imp of the Lost Paper," I reply, "and, man alive, be careful next time; I'm only paper, but I'm damned important."

THE OLD ORCHARD

When looking backward to the haunts Where boyhood days were spent, There's one that always thrills me with A tender sentiment.

It is a hillside orchard, filled With gnarled old apple trees; Knee deep the sweet red clover crew, A lure for thieving bees.

In springtime 'twas a picture, with Its wealth of snowy bloom, The air around was laden with Its fragrant, fresh perfume.

These were its charms in early spring, But I'll admit we boys Derid a greater pleasure from Its less aesthetic joys.

And when the golden summer days Drew out their lazy length, 'Twas then the orchard held for us A charm of magic strength.

For rosy apples, ripe and sweet, Bent low the parent stem, And all our boyish interest Was centred upon them.

'Twas many times we had been whipp'd When captured with the prize, This only made the apples seem More precious to our eyes.

And often, now, when city streets Stretch 'round me everywhere, I'd love to smell the clover and The apple bloom out there.

Unsettled

The editor of a country newspaper received from a subscriber the query: "Can you tell me what the weather is likely to be next week?" In reply he wrote: "It is my belief that the weather next week is likely to be very much like your subscription." The inquirer puzzled his head for an hour over what the editor was driving at, when finally he happened to think of the word "unsettled." He sent a cheque the next day.

"POPPY DAY" A GREAT SUCCESS

More than $80,000 Will Go to the French Children's League as the Result of Campaign

Ottawa, Nov. 30—More than eighty thousand dollars will go to the French children's league as a result of the Poppy Day campaign in Canada carried through under the auspices of the Great War Veterans' Association. It was announced at Dominion Command headquarters this morning. At the same time ninety thousand dollars remain in the hands of the various branches of the Association to be exclusively used for the relief of unemployment among soldiers during the winter months. These funds will not be used for any other purpose.

The success of the campaign can be gauged by the fact that more than 1,050,000 small poppies were sold together with approximately 100,000 large poppies and wreaths to the value of five thousand dollars. The poppies were manufactured in France by orphan children of French soldiers and practically every poppy sent to Canada was sold.

The poppies were purchased by the G.W.V.A. at six cents each, and this was practically the only charge against the fund.

The Dominion Command paid all distribution and incidental expenses out of its own funds and the poppies were carried free of charge on the railways.

Retrains from the different Provinces, while not complete, show that from coast to coast organizations of all kind united with the G.W.V.A. to make "Poppy Day" a success.

MASONIC BUILDING AT PARRSBORO IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Parrsboro, Nov. 30—Fire of an unknown origin which was discovered at four o'clock this morning in the two story wooden building on Main street owned by the Masonic fraternity, completely destroyed the building so that nothing but the charred walls remain. The ground floor of the building was occupied by Johnson and Pettis, two returned men, who conducted a meat and grocery business, where the fire apparently started, and by A. P. Smith, barber.

This upper story was used as a lodge room by the Minus Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Knights of Pythias and Oddfellows. Johnson and Pettis lost about all their stock. Part of the furnishings of the barber shop and lodge room and the lodge papers were saved. Fire Chief Walsh and six men did excellent work in getting the fire under control.

The York Block, 12 feet away, was badly scorched, while the Gillespie Building, which is connected with the building by a stairway, was practically untouched. The stock of Johnson and Pettis and the furnishings of Smith were partially covered by insurance. There was $2,000 on the building.

UNKNOWN SOLDIER TO BE BURIED AT OTTAWA

The body of an unknown Canadian soldier is to be brought from the Old Western Battlefield and buried beneath the Victory Tower of the new Parliament Buildings, Ottawa. It is proposed that the body shall be placed in a vault excavated in the solid rock foundation under the great archway of the Victory Tower and between the two portals which give entrance to the buildings.

As the tower has not yet reached completion, and as the arrangements which would have to be made will take some time, it is unlikely that the ceremony will take place before Armistice Day, 1922.

MOVING PICTURES ON COOKING FISH

Fisheries Department also Issuing Fish Cook Book to Help the Housewife Out

The secret of making fish thoroughly palatable lies in the ability of the cook. Many, many times delicious or absolutely improper methods employed in the kitchen. If a well-prepared fish dish were placed before those of us who have very little respect for this variety of food, there is no doubt our aversion would be at once dispelled. The route, therefore, by which to develop an appreciation of sea food lies in the education of housewives in the secrets and tricks of purchasing, preparing, cooking and serving.

Realizing the all-importance of training housewives to do justice to this cheap and abundant commodity, the Fisheries Branch, Department of Marine and Fisheries, has on the press a cook book, which covers much of this ground and in addition gives good practical recipes. This is to be circulated through the retail fish trade.

The department is supplementing this work with a moving picture giving very detailed instructions to the cook. Government photographers visited Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, recently and the domestic science staff and pupils of Macdonald College staged extensive demonstrations. Dr. H. C. Harrison, principal of the college, very generously co-operated and provided every facility to make the film thorough and complete.

The film version, explains the fundamentals which apply to the cooking of virtually every variety of fish on the market. About a dozen different kinds of fish are prepared—baked, boiled, fried and planked. It tells how to select fresh fish, how it should be wrapped by the retailer and cleaned for cooking. The preservation of left-over fish is particularly interesting and invaluable hints are furnished as to what to do and what not to do in cooking fish. The film is the most comprehensive thing of the kind that has ever been undertaken and experts in the work have given liberally of their time and energy to make it interesting and informative.

LOWER COSTS ESSENTIAL

Costs are gradually being lowered, and therein lies the hope for the future. The downward course is, however, not nearly so marked as in the price of the farmers' product. Feed costs are about the only thing comparable with prices for products in this respect. Labor costs, while considerably less, are not back yet to pre-war levels. Machinery costs are lower, but they have a long way to go before they reach pre-war values. Then there are the necessities the farmer requires, such as clothing, boots and shoes. While the cost of these is downward, they are still sufficiently above pre-war levels as to cause serious thinking on the part of the farmer. Boots and shoes have dropped about 25 per cent. in value during the past year, but they are still so high as compared with the price of hives as to be considered exorbitant. Clothing generally is in a better position so far as the farmer's relative buying power is concerned. Woolen goods show a greater tendency to lower values than cotton fabrics. The latter have not shown the same trend downwards as the former and there are indications that prices may advance. The outlook, therefore, from the farmer's viewpoint, while more hopeful, is not one to grow very enthusiastic about.

FISH IS BECOMING MORE POPULAR IN THE DINING CAR

Probably no indications of the growing demand for seafoods is more noticeable than the increasing popularity of fish on the dining cars of the Canadian National Railways. Close to two hundred thousand pounds of fish were consumed on Canadian National trains during the year 1920, and during the present year there is evidence of a big increase.

Statistics of the varieties of fish served on the trains tell the same tale as statistics of our general fish consumption. During the year 1920 thirty-one different varieties of marine food were offered for sale on the Canadian National Railways but the great bulk of sales was confined to whitefish, lake trout, salmon, halibut and cod. Mackerel was popular in its season.

The habit of reading with a pair of scissors close at hand is an invaluable one to the busy housewife. So often there are recipes, household hints and other odd bits of information that would prove useful but we have lost account of what and where they are. directed mail, who could, if the general public were more careful, be used to give better service in other lines!

Much trouble is due to careless writing, to the use of a pencil in writing the address, and to failure to give the proper address or to keep mailing lists up to date.

With the Christmas season at hand, bringing immense quantities of mail to be dealt with, it will be necessary that the public adopt more careful methods in the preparation of its mail matter, if the daily average of misdirected mail is not to amount to an overwhelming figure.

In this connection the following points to be observed are pointed out: Prepay postage fully; Address plainly and fully; Place name and address of sender on all mail matter; Carefully pack and wrap all articles sent by parcel post, but do not seal the parcels as sealed parcels are subject to letter rate of postage; Mail Christmas parcels early; Insure valuable parcels.

BANDIT WANTED FOR A SHOOTING

Boston, Nov. 30—Frank Greenback, arrested here to-day on suspicion of having been concerned in the $28,000 payroll robbery at Chelsea last Saturday, was found by the police to be wanted at Buffalo, N. Y., in connection with the shooting of a policeman. He was immediately booked on a charge of being a fugitive from justice.

Greenback who, according to the police, admitted having been concerned in a gun fight at Buffalo, was found to have three bullet wounds in his body. He denied shooting the policeman. He said he compelled a Buffalo physician at the point of a gun to dress his wounds.

The police found a letter in the man's pocket addressed to "Teddy Nowak, 454 Hudson Avenue, Buffalo," which they said was an alias.

Greenback and a man who gave the name of Samuel Silverman were arrested in the south end section of the city.

THE PRINTER WAS PEEVED

A local printer got slightly peeved at a letterhead from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letter-heads, different sizes, different grades and different colours, and wanted the printing form held standing. So, Mr. Printer took his type-writer in hand and wrote:

"Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two or five inch incision—with or without ether, also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotations to include putting same back and cancelling order. If removed, successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about sixty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gall-stones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."

MISTAKES

It's not a crime to make mistakes. If we'll but profit from our doers, and with determination seek to break up the place that's weak.

Nor is it rated a disgrace to meet an error face to face. Our failure doesn't start till when we make the same mistake again.

Perfection in the first degree is hardly asked of you and me. None look for us to go along, and never make a move that's wrong.

But still, it's neither wise nor nice to make the self-same blunder twice; and each mistake that we repeat but shoves us nearer to defeat.

MISDELIVERY OF MAIL

Whenever delay to, or misdelivery of, a letter occurs, the sender or the addressee is prone to adversely criticize the Post Office. Frequently, however, the delay or misdelivery is due to the carelessness of the public, in failing to properly address the mail matter in question.

During three days this month, 128,300 pieces of incorrectly and insufficiently addressed mail matter were handled at 55 of the larger Post Offices. This is a daily average of 42,800 for the 55 offices, or a rate of 16,000,000 for a year of 365 days. Think of the number of postal clerks engaged in handling this mis-

Mrs. H. P. Barrett, of Republic, suburb of Birmingham, Ala., gives the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac as follows:

"During the past fourteen years I have spent more than one thousand dollars trying to get rid of a complaint that was gradually sapping my strength, but until I got hold of Tanlac nothing helped me. For the past four years I have lived almost entirely on milk and bread, and finally even that went against me."

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Tanlac I got so I could eat anything, and I certainly bless the day I first got this medicine for I believe it has added years to my life. The people in my neighborhood were so surprised at the change in me that fourteen of them by actual count are now taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Bridgetown by S. N. Weare and by leading druggists everywhere.

WHAT MOTHER EARNS

A contemporary carries the following story in its current issue and declares that every newspaper in the land should print it. We agree, and here it is:

"She never earned any money—she lives on an Ohio farm, but she lives on almost every other farm. She is somebody's mother, maybe your own. She has earned nothing, not but during her thirty working years she has served 422,583 meals; she has made 3,123 garments, 32,000 loaves of bread, 5,296 cakes, 7,832 pies, 1,500 gallons of lard; she has grown 1,432 bushels of vegetables, and has raised 7,660 chickens; churned 5,436 pounds of butter; put up 3,826 jars of preserves; scrubbed 177,725 articles of laundry; and she has put in 35,539 hours of sweeping and washing and scrubbing. At accepted prices for this work it is worth $115,480.50. She can't retire on her savings—she has to keep on. Not earning! No. How do you define the ordinary woman's contributions to her family wealth?"

THE ROCKING CHAIR

The rocking-chair has never appealed to the taste of people in Europe. Over there they call it an "American chair," and admit their failure to understand why anybody should wish to take exercise while sitting down. We, of course, could hardly get along without rockers. In every farmhouse one finds at least one rocking-chair; and in this connection it seems worth while to call attention to the novel idea of Moses W. Carden, of Opelika, Ala. He has constructed a chair which makes it practicable for the farmer's wife to churn her cream for butter by the mere performance of rocking. Fastened to the side of the chair is a box-shaped churn which, for additional support, is upheld by two uprights resting upon a third and supplementary rocker. As the farmer's wife rocks the cream in the churn is agitated. The final result is butter. When the butter is made the churn can be detached.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU

"If you want to live in the kind of a town Like the kind of a town you like You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long long hike. You'll find only what you left behind For there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself, when you knock your town. It isn't your town, it's you."

FOUR AMERICAN AVIATORS KILLED

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 30—Four army aviators, two officers and two privates, were killed to-day when the two airplanes in which they were performing combat duty drills collided while at an altitude of 2,000 feet, and crashed to earth near the post field, Fort Sill, Okla.

MISTAKES

It's not a crime to make mistakes. If we'll but profit from our doers, and with determination seek to break up the place that's weak.

Nor is it rated a disgrace to meet an error face to face. Our failure doesn't start till when we make the same mistake again.

Perfection in the first degree is hardly asked of you and me. None look for us to go along, and never make a move that's wrong.

But still, it's neither wise nor nice to make the self-same blunder twice; and each mistake that we repeat but shoves us nearer to defeat.

Hard On The Judge

"Describe the man you saw talking to the prisoner," said the judge to the witness.

"I don't know how to, sir."

"Did he look like any of these lawyers?" inquired the judge. "Did he look like me?"

"Oh, no, sir," said the witness. "He looked like an intelligent gentleman."

MISDELIVERY OF MAIL

Whenever delay to, or misdelivery of, a letter occurs, the sender or the addressee is prone to adversely criticize the Post Office. Frequently, however, the delay or misdelivery is due to the carelessness of the public, in failing to properly address the mail matter in question.

During three days this month, 128,300 pieces of incorrectly and insufficiently addressed mail matter were handled at 55 of the larger Post Offices. This is a daily average of 42,800 for the 55 offices, or a rate of 16,000,000 for a year of 365 days. Think of the number of postal clerks engaged in handling this mis-

TROUT SCOOPED UP WITH HANDS

Tels of Fishing in Northeastern Ungava Where Eskimo Use Five-inch Mesh Net

How prolific in fish some of the rivers in our north country must be! What a paradise for sportsmen! Can you imagine catching trout in nets of five-inch mesh? Can you think of picking big beauties up in baskets—two barrels in two hours? Yes, away up in the virgin waters of Ungava near the Labrador frontier, where the hand of commerce has not slightly troubled the naturalness of pristine life, such are the conditions.

Sargeant J. E. F. Wight of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who is stationed at Fort Burgell, Ungava, recently visited a bay in this district which the Eskimos call "Thibbarok" or "Calm Bay," on account of its being well sheltered from the wind by high overhanging hills. But let him tell the story himself.

"On landing to make camp we discovered two Eskimo families camped on the beach. They had been employed for a few days fishing trout and had twenty barrels salted down."

"As it was then quite dark we saw nothing. Next day being Sunday we rained heavily I did not move about much but on Monday I visited the natives where they were gathering trout. They fish with nets set out in the lake and each woman attending the nets kept a man on shore busy splitting the fish brought in."

"The nets are of a five-inch mesh and only catch the larger fish and all are of a uniform size. For myself I took a small flat boat and went up one of the streams which terminated at a small lake of fresh water about a mile and a half from the bay where we made camp. All the way along, the stream was dotted with trout on their way up to the lake. The water ranged from eight inches to three feet deep.

"At a shallow place are still the remains of Eskimo fish traps made from stones, which were used previous to their obtaining nets. The traps could still be made serviceable. These traps do not interfere with the trout going up stream but can be driven the fish among the rocks along the sides.

"On my way down from the lake we pulled the flat boat on a rock and caught two barrels of large trout, in less than two hours with our hands among the rocks."

Mrs. H. P. Barrett, of Republic, suburb of Birmingham, Ala., gives the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac as follows:

"During the past fourteen years I have spent more than one thousand dollars trying to get rid of a complaint that was gradually sapping my strength, but until I got hold of Tanlac nothing helped me. For the past four years I have lived almost entirely on milk and bread, and finally even that went against me."

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Tanlac I got so I could eat anything, and I certainly bless the day I first got this medicine for I believe it has added years to my life. The people in my neighborhood were so surprised at the change in me that fourteen of them by actual count are now taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Bridgetown by S. N. Weare and by leading druggists everywhere.

WHAT MOTHER EARNS

A contemporary carries the following story in its current issue and declares that every newspaper in the land should print it. We agree, and here it is:

"She never earned any money—she lives on an Ohio farm, but she lives on almost every other farm. She is somebody's mother, maybe your own. She has earned nothing, not but during her thirty working years she has served 422,583 meals; she has made 3,123 garments, 32,000 loaves of bread, 5,296 cakes, 7,832 pies, 1,500 gallons of lard; she has grown 1,432 bushels of vegetables, and has raised 7,660 chickens; churned 5,436 pounds of butter; put up 3,826 jars of preserves; scrubbed 177,725 articles of laundry; and she has put in 35,539 hours of sweeping and washing and scrubbing. At accepted prices for this work it is worth $115,480.50. She can't retire on her savings—she has to keep on. Not earning! No. How do you define the ordinary woman's contributions to her family wealth?"

Took "Redmac," The Great Tonic GAINS 22 POUNDS

A Montreal Man's Amazing Experience

Mr. Tremblay, of Montreal, says, since taking Redmac, the Great Herbal Tonic, he has gained 22 pounds. I feel, and people say, I look 30 years younger. I had been suffering from a run-down condition, nervousness, loss of strength, poor appetite and thinness; today I feel hungry, sleep well, nervousness has disappeared and hard work never bothers me. Redmac was a God-send to me. The reason REDMAC brings such wonderful results is because it feeds run-down glands the cause of many run-down conditions, by supplying them with the extracts of Certain Herbs and Roots and Tropical plants, the glands are made strong and healthy—just like re-charging a storage battery.

If weak, pale, thin, or run down, try REDMAC, the King of Tonics. This remarkable medicine brings results quickly. It has helped thousands to regain youthful health and strength. Try a bottle; a large generous bottle can be procured from your druggist at a reasonable price. If you have indigestion or stomach trouble, if you feel all out of sorts, REDMAC will put you on your feet in a short time.

That is particularly so along the South Shore.

At Yarmouth, the tern schooner J. Scott Hankinson, Capt. ## DEATH OF A. A.

Pioneer in the New England Sea Business

Many persons throughout the Provinces will be in connection with the death of Mr. R. one of the pioneers of the Scotia-New England sea.

Mr. Carder, who was time, was in his eightieth year, was born in Caledonia N.S., in August, 1842, in connection with the sea, in which he played an active part for many years. He was one of the earliest owners of the Scotia.

Mr. Carder, who was a steward and later a captain, was one of the most successful of the Scotia's crew. He was promoted to be the Scotia's captain in 1880. At that time, he was a warm friend of the Scotia, wherever he was, and of an exceedingly generous nature, a characteristic of his to the end of his life.

About thirty-seven years ago, he was transferred to the Scotia as agent of the Nova Scotia Company there, when the Scotia's Railway took over the Scotia, he became a seaman agent for the Scotia, that position for several years.

He retired from the Scotia about fifteen years ago, but he was still in the Scotia's service for a number of years, in connection with the Scotia's transport.
