THE BELGIAN SOLDIERS HUNG ON THE SCALES OF ENEMY

Battlefield at Soissons Dotted With Hundreds of Dead Who Made Last Stand.

PATHETIC LETTERS

French Artillery Across Aisne Commands Most of Old Position at Crouy.

Canadian Press Despatch. BEFORE SOISSONS, Jan. 19.—(By Courier to Berlin, via London.)—The correspondent of the Associated Press reached the battlefield of Soissons over the turnpike leading from Soissons, approaching by automobile as far as the village of Crouy, a scant mile from the French outposts which were the scene three days earlier of desperate combats. The road is cut into the side of the hill between the plateau and the valley. The narrow margin of roadside on one hand being the drop into the valley had become one long cemetery. The Germans had interred there their dead of past months in long rows of graves, each surmounted by a stone or wooden cross, tall and sometimes a meter or 20 or 30 or more soldiers lying beneath. On the opposite side of the road were trenches, close, narrow, and deep, and in some places several hundred feet into the hillside. Within the quarries had been lodged German troops, the trenches being caverns varying from a company to a regiment. The village of Crouy itself presented a familiar picture of shell-wrought destruction.

Panorama Unfolded. From the battlefield on the plateau above was unfolded a panorama of the precipitous sides of the Aisne valley and the French positions on the opposite hills. Soissons, in full view below, seemed startlingly close, with towers of the cathedrals and the 13th century walls rising from the maze of stone houses.

The prominence along the exposed side of the plateau, the village of Soissons and the bank of the Aisne, held in force by the French, gave a rather uncanny feeling of insecurity. Here, ever, it was less dangerous than it seemed, as a slight breeze rendered the little group in German field grey invisible to French eyes. The valley, almost empty, lay far below to direct an effective fire.

Field Dotted by Bodies. The battlefield is still dotted with corpses by the hundreds, principally of French soldiers, who fell during their hasty retreat from the trenches. They had to cross open fields under artillery and machine gun fire and death overhead as they ran. The positions of the bodies show that most of the French soldiers retired fighting, although some were found with their faces as they were stumbling toward the rear.

Made Gallant Stand. At the edge of the plateau lay a long line of dead men. They had turned for a last stand against the advancing Germans and had met their fate during the study of the situation showed that they had made no attempt to rush down the hillside to temporary safety. The bayonets on all rifles were fixed, and in a number of cases the chambers of their pieces still held exploded shells. Two or three rifles were broken off at the grip, evidence of the severity of the hand-to-hand fighting.

There was little feeling of horror or revulsion at the sight of these hundreds of corpses. They were a number of human beings, the impression of human slaughter. The human note often came out when one of the dead was found in the contents of a knapsack or grasped in the hands of these dead French soldiers. Intelligence as to the fate of such letters for the officer to give to the family of the soldier, was a little. For one of the letters found at home with sentences about the health of the children and delicacies to little presents and always the hope for the end of "this terrible war" and the safe return of the loved one.

It was necessary to walk with precaution over the battlefield, particularly in the vicinity of the trenches, as abandoned hand grenades were seen thickly about, ready to explode at any moment from a careless footstep. German burial parties collected thousands of these weapons, which are nothing more than square boxes of explosive bound to wooden handles 18 inches long.

French Opened Fire. Most of the captured cannon already ready had been removed from the battlefield, the German units in receipt of the reward given each unit making a capture. But in the ravine of the canal, on the eastern extremity of the battlefield, there were still six siege guns. The French had not been able to remove them in time, and they were in possession of the Germans.

While the artillery captain in charge was explaining that they were a continuous defence weapons, calling attention to the stores of ammunition also taken by his men, the French suddenly opened fire on these German positions. The fire was a signal for the opening of a further general engagement and on the line it was the first activity manifested since the termination of the battle three days before.

TURKEY IS CRUMBLING

Serious Credit Given to Reports Concerning Action of Bulgaria.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—A Daily News despatch from Petrograd today says: "The Germans in Poland are beginning to realize that they are under the tragic compulsion of having to lay their hopes on the Austrians, who are protecting their right flank. Their two months' struggle towards the middle of the Vistula has brought them only enormous losses and has not prevented the Russians from steadily developing their advance in the crumpled line of the capital. The appointment of Baron Burián as minister of war was familiar, then awaiting settlement. These questions have now been arranged. The new minister of war, Major-Gen. von Hohenborn, has been appointed to succeed Gen. von Falkenhayn as minister of war. The emperor in relieving Lieut-Gen. Falkenhayn, at his own request, of the office of minister of war, sent him the following order: 'I agree with your reasons regarding the appointment of a new war minister and relieve you, according to your wish, from the office of minister of state and war.'"

Major-Gen. von Hohenborn, according to the announcement, has been appointed to succeed Gen. von Falkenhayn as minister of war. The emperor in relieving Lieut-Gen. Falkenhayn, at his own request, of the office of minister of war, sent him the following order: 'I agree with your reasons regarding the appointment of a new war minister and relieve you, according to your wish, from the office of minister of state and war.'"

The retirement of Lieut-Gen. von Falkenhayn from the office of minister of war, one of the dual functions of the office of minister of war, which he was entrusted after the withdrawal of Lieut-Gen. Count von Moltke, was occasioned by the fact that the work of the two posts was far too arduous for any one man. His retirement would have taken place simultaneously with his appointment as chief of staff of the field army if there had not been various important questions of organization, which Lieut-Gen. Falkenhayn as minister of war was familiar, then awaiting settlement. These questions have now been arranged. CANNOT HAVE DEWEY AND SPANISH WARSHIP

Spain Doesn't Relish Prospect of Unpleasantness at Exposition.

Canadian Press Despatch. MADRID, Jan. 21, via Paris, Jan. 22, 12:45 a.m.—At a cabinet meeting today the Spanish government decided not to send the battleship Espana to the opening of the Panama Canal. It is understood that the government became apprehensive that the presence of Admiral Dewey might occasion some unpleasant manifestation. An additional reason for cancelling the engagement is said to be that the international situation necessitates the presence of all Spanish warships in home waters.

(GERMAN OFFICIAL)

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Jan. 21.—3:40 p.m.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends the following despatch from Berlin, giving the German official version of the day's events. "The English press has been misled by the news that our airships in order to attack the fortified town of Great Yarmouth, were obliged to fly over other towns from which, it is stated, they were fired at. These attacks were answered by the throwing of bombs. 'England has no right to be indignant, as her flying machines and ships in broad daylight have attacked open towns, such as Freiburg, Darmstadt and Swatow. 'Aircraft are recognized to be legitimate weapons in the carrying on of modern warfare as long as their operations are conducted in accordance with the rules of international law. This has been done by dirigibles. The German nation, forced by England to fight for its existence, cannot be compelled to forego the employment of legitimate means of self-defence, and will not do it, relying upon her good right.'"

BOARD THE MINUTES OF BOARD MEETINGS

Polman Evans Urged Eight Years Ago to Make Statement.

LIABILITIES INCREASE

Wrong Side of Ledger Made Big Gains and Surplus Fell Off.

Only one witness was called for the prosecution on the fourth day of the trial of the Union Life Case.

At noon the court was compelled to adjourn owing to the fact that some practical joker distributed sneezing powder about the court.

At a meeting of the Maritime Board of the National Agency held on June 23, 1908, the following entry was made: "The chairman and secretary reported that they had gone carefully over the annual statement for 1906 and 1907 and that they had also consulted with Mr. Polman Evans in regard to matters they could not understand."

They find that while the assets have annually increased, nearly $150,000 the liabilities appear to have increased $90,000 and while the statement for 1906 shows a surplus of $25,074 the statement for 1907 shows only a surplus of $42,074.

The same minute read: "In view of the condition of the report the secretary was instructed to write to Polman Evans urging his early presence at Halifax in order that the board may be in a position to give to the shareholders here some correct statement in regard to the affairs of the company."

G. T. Clarkson, liquidator of the two companies, reported the board minute book and identified a number of books in court.

Extracts from the minutes of the Union Life for September, 1909, to the British negotiations and the verbal report of the president and secretary upon their recent visit to Great Britain in connection with placing stock of the debenture issue made by the National Agency.

Further reading went to prove that the executive committee of the Union Life had met on the 19th of June, 1905, when it was resolved that the National Agency should be required to contribute to the Union Life for general purposes by way of premium on subscriptions to its capital stock, seven per cent to be payable in 1905 and the 10 per cent to be accepted according to the terms specified.

On July 5, 1909, it was decided to accept an agreement existing between the two companies as to the payment of commission to the agency.

The agreement was given permission to visit Great Britain or elsewhere to carry on negotiations which would result in increasing the financial resources of the company.

Harry Symons, K.C. and Mr. Evans on September 2, 1909, reported on the result of their visit to England and recommended that the proposed issue of debentures by the National Agency should not be proceeded with at the present time in favor of the offering to the public of shares in the capital stock of the Union Life.

A valuation of the Union Life by Edward A. Risher, secured by Symons, was submitted. The meeting was adjourned with a direction to Mr. Evans to visit Europe for the purpose of negotiating for the sale of shares. He was given power of attorney to deal with this business.

At a special meeting called on August 5, 1910, the secretary made a statement that the subscription in the United Kingdom amounted to 5-30 shares at a premium of 24 a share.

H. Carr, director of the Union Life and originally accountant for the National Agency, stated that he remained connected with both companies until July, 1913. He was connected with the National Agency two or three months before the Union Life was taken into existence. He was made director of the agency in 1906 and was perfectly familiar with the business transacted in the head office.

The pamphlets issued by the National Agency were recognized by witnesses, including the one issued after December 31, 1906, which was called "Success of Assurance Company has not been exceeded by other companies in Canada." Statement of business for two years.

He stated that premiums were paid weekly and consisted mostly of 5c and 10c and consisted of a number of policies on children's lives. The premiums were mostly collected by agents and called industrial insurance. There were substantial losses but he could not tell to what extent. He said that all the directors signed the power of attorney to Mr. Carr to issue the prospectus. The only asset the company possessed was stock in the Union Life and it depended on the success of that company.

Mayor Moves That Board of Control Supervise Education Estimates.

Controller Foster moved yesterday that the board of control recommend that the resignation of Fire Chief Thompson be asked for. Controller O'Neill moved an amendment that respecting the board of education the resignation of Fire Chief Thompson be asked for.

He also moved that application be made for legislation for a declaratory act regarding the pavements of the Toronto Suburban line on Davenport road, restoring the intentions of the parties and giving the city municipal control of its own streets and restoring the terms of order of the court of appeal of Ontario, declaring that the company is liable for restoring the pavements as well as repairs.

A special meeting of the city council will be held a week from next Monday to consider matters that are to be brought before the legislature.

May Less Hall. If the unemployed now using St. Andrew's Hall don't stop the speech-making they may be without a place to meet. This was the decision of the board of control yesterday.

It has not yet been decided what to do with Catfish Pond in High Park, but as soon as a decision is made work will be commenced. About 400 men will be employed, and the cost will be $25,000.

A public reception will be tendered to Sir Douglas Mawson, K.B., D.Sc., B.E., the Antarctic explorer, in the council chamber this morning at 10.45. The mayor saluted yesterday that he thought the $40,000 spent on Winchester rifles was money thrown away.

Fire Loss Increased. According to Chief Thompson's annual report the fire losses for the year totaled $1,414,864, $467,008 more than last year. The total insurance paid was $1,825,258.

Canadian Union of Municipalities, of which Mayor Church is president, will meet Feb. 5, in Ottawa to consider the new Railway Act, the reintroduction of the good highways bill, and the question of unemployment.

Appropriations Passed. The total of the interim appropriations passed by the board of control yesterday was $1,322,222. It includes $25,000 for cleaning snow from sidewalks.

Controller Thompson desires to have the wards of the city increased to ten, and a redistribution made. His motion will go to the city solicitor for report.

Street Commissioner Wilson will place 100 more refuse boxes on the streets this year.

EDUCATION BOARD DECLARES WAR NOW

Will Strongly Oppose Suggestion of Mayor to Limit Power.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS
Conditions Prevailing Afford Opportunity to Purchase More Sites.

War was openly declared by the board of education last night against the announced policy of Mayor Church to obtain legislation to reduce the powers of the trustees. Trustee Brown said that it was important that immediate action be taken to offset the aims of the mayor.

The board by unanimous vote appointed a special committee consisting of the members of the finance committee with the addition of Trustees Boland and Dinesen to oppose such changes being made during the approaching session of the legislature.

Chairman Hodgson gave his inaugural address. His chief point was that conditions this year for the purchase of sites for new schools were most favorable, and that it would be true economy to take advantage of the situation.

FOE'S DEFENSIVE WILL BE BROKEN
Allies Made Ten General Advances in Past Two Months.
NEED ONLY PATIENCE
German Offensive Has Failed Utterly in East and West.
(FRENCH OFFICIAL)
Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, Jan. 21.—There was given out this afternoon an official statement under the caption of "The War From Nov. 15 to Jan. 15."
After a detailed survey of operations, the report concludes: "Summing up: We got ten general advances on the part of our troops which were distinctly perceptible at certain places, as compared to 20 general withdrawals on the part of the enemy, always with the exception of the situation to the northeast of Solons. This is a comparison of the last two months. To complete it, it should be added that: First, the German offensive in Poland has been restrained for a month past; second, the Russian offensive continues in Galicia and in the Carpathian Mountains; third, the Turkish army in the Caucasus has been in large measure annihilated; fourth, Germany has exhausted her resources in officers (an average of twelve officers to a regiment), and will not in the future be able to develop her resources in effective men except at the expense of the existing units; fifth, the armies of the allies, on the contrary, are finding it possible to strengthen themselves further to a measurable degree. It can consequently be affirmed that to obtain final victory it is sufficient that France and her allies know how to wait for it and at the same time prepare for it with inexhaustible patience.
"The German offensive has been broken; the German defensive will be broken in its turn."
ONLY HALF ANSWERED WHEN WORK WAS READY
Bureau Claims Cases of Misrepresentation on Part of Some Unemployed.
Only 800 out of the 1800 men who were sent for on Wednesday by the civic employment bureau to go to work shoveling snow turned up. A number of them turned up yesterday, saying that they had been sick and couldn't work.
The officials of the bureau claim that there have been a number of cases of misrepresentation, and cited an instance of one man who gave his address at a certain house, when all the time he was living at the Victor Mission. Out of the 14,000 registered about 4000 have been taken off, both because they have received jobs and for failure to turn up when sent for.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

MADE IN CANADA SALE AT EATON'S

Profits Will Be Given Up to Boost Canadian-Made Goods.

WIDESPREAD EFFECTS

Unemployment Will Be Alleviated if Others Follow the Example.

Made in Canada as a principle of application at the present time has received a very practical endorsement at the hands of the T. Eaton Company. The big store will shortly announce the result of preparations that have been going on for some time to hold a big sale of Made-in-Canada goods. This sale will be a feature of the store's business program for the next few weeks. It is the result of a compact made with manufacturers of Canadian goods of various kinds by the T. Eaton Company. They agreed on each side to sell goods during this sale without profit—the manufacturers at cost of production; the store at its cost. The result has been the collection of a large quantity of reasonable goods to sell at manufacturers' cost.

"It is a practical exemplification of the 'Made-in-Canada' idea," said an officer of the T. Eaton Company, "and it certainly should attract attention to goods made in Canada."

Relieve Unemployment. The example thus set if largely followed, business men say, would do a great deal to alleviate the unemployment situation in so far as an unemployment is a feature of the war-time conditions in this country. "Give a man a job," is the slogan in Cleveland, and it is being acted upon with good results. This Made-in-Canada effort is to be conducted partly with the "give a man a job" suggestion as a motive. If all factories in Canada could be kept running in this way for the next few months, this country's period of unemployment scarcity might be tided over, it is said. Amid the many measures for keeping men at work during the interval this cooperative effort and mutual sacrifice of profits between manufacturer and retailer is the latest, and it is felt by the Eaton Company that in backing this method to the doctrine of Made-in-Canada it should be doubly effective.

GIRL UNDERGRADS VISIT LIT. MEETING

New Departure of Varsity Students—New Version of Solomon Levi.

A departure was made by the Literary Society of University College last night, when a union-meeting was held at which the co-eds. were present. The usual program was varied, and additional musical and social features were introduced. A novel proceeding was the singing of a new version of the famous college song "Solomon Levi," the original of which was banished by two Hebrew students at a recent lit. meeting. A faction of the lit. intend to have the old version retained on the university song sheet, and will introduce a motion to that effect in the next meeting of the society.

The co-eds. showed a lively interest in the affairs of the lit., and over 80 were present.

DAINTY EXAMPLES OF HIGH COLLARS

"Choker" Appears With Many Interesting Features in New Styles.

BOUDOIR NOVELTIES

Caps Exhibit Variety of Styles, Materials and Decoration.

Now that the "choker" collar has at last been accepted as the inevitable, the Dame's determination never fails to subdue the most ardent protesters—the shops are launching the most extreme models in dainty neckwear, and finding plenty of willing purchasers. From the attractive, modestly out neck of the "V" type the devotee is thrust into high, close collar topped with ruffles of lace, tulle, or organdie, with only a few weeks of the half-high collar, which rose from the back of the waist to humor her into feeling content with the idea of being buttoned up close to the chin.

The "choker" however, is usually developed in a dainty charmuse, flesh-tinted, of which the accompanying blouse is fashioned. One model of this type is fastened with small round buttons covered with the charmuse, and a delicate fall of organdie is a pretty finish.

Revealed Vest.
A reversed vest in sheer white organdie displays some interesting new features. The stand-up collar, which is not tight about the neck, in this instance is daintily hemstitched and completed with a smart cravat of black velvet ribbon. On a similar model a row of white organdie buttons are very effective, and in still another, nobby little pearl buttons soften the masculine aspect. Lace and moire are combined in more dressy examples, and their dainty, filmy appearance will soon win approval from the feminine eye.

Caps in Many Styles.
There are a few successful new editions in boudoir attire, chiefly in styles material and decoration. The famous college song "Solomon Levi," the original of which was banished by two Hebrew students at a recent lit. meeting. A faction of the lit. intend to have the old version retained on the university song sheet, and will introduce a motion to that effect in the next meeting of the society.

METHODISM SHAKEN BY HYMNAL STRIFE

Many Protests Uttered Against Manner of Revision by Special Committee.

Letters Commendatory of New Book Published in Press to Be Ignored.

Canadian Methodism threatens to be shaken by the storm which is about to strike with full force the new committee on the new hymn book. The developments yesterday were of more than usual interest. In addition to a charge from the fashionable city church had been chiefly catered for, it is asserted that the "experts" consulted in regard to tunes have been Anglicans, who happened to occupy the position of organist at certain prominent Toronto and Montreal Methodist churches.

An outburst of indignation has reached the general conference offices here from the general membership over the exclusion of the favorite and familiar old hymn tune known as "Martyr," which has been associated for a long period with the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

It is claimed that the chairman of the committee, Rev. Dr. Rose, is sitting on the safety valve by chapeauing to ignore all protests published by Methodist members in the press and by listing March 1 as the latest date for receiving suggestions.

In a reply issued yesterday from the general conference offices here, Rev. Dr. Rose said: "The general conference have instructed us to proceed with our work as expeditiously as possible, with proper discharge of our important task. We hope to hold the final meeting in April."

ANNIVERSARY ANNOUNCEMENT

66 Years Old

We cannot let this, our 66th Anniversary (and the most memorable one in our history) pass without our annual word of greeting and appreciation to the thousands of music-lovers of Toronto whose patronage and good-will are reflected in the continuous growth of this institution.

Many truths, before unappreciated, are being driven home to all of us in the crisis through which we are passing. One of these, important equally to you and to us, is that music is a necessity, not a luxury.

During the last few months, since the war commenced, many strong and staple firms have suffered serious loss and one piano factory has closed. The Victor Company, makers of the Victrola, are building additions to their present huge plant, and the Edison Company cannot begin to meet the demands made upon them.

The music industry as a whole has withstood the effect of the war as well as most necessities and better than many.

There facts show that while man, or a home, may dispense with music entirely, even as he may with many other necessities, he suffers for it. And while other necessities contribute to our physical welfare, music builds and strengthens our mental and spiritual condition. And who shall say that such mental food is not equally as necessary to progress as is physical food for sustenance.

Upon the quality of our goods, the fairness of our prices, and the character of our service is this institution based. To those who have made it possible we extend our appreciation on our 66th birthday. To our friends we to be with us extend a cordial invitation to acquaint themselves with us.

NORWAY RATEPAYERS SUGGEST PARK SITE.
Delegates Appointed to Wait on City Parks Committee Regarding Purchase.

Many topics of local interest were discussed at the executive meeting of the East End Ratepayers' Association last night at the residence of J. H. Lennox.

Some discussion took place relative to the purchasing of a park site for the Norway district, and the following committee was ultimately appointed to confer with the parks committee in connection with the buying of a four-acre property on the north side of Norway avenue, just east of Woodbine: Messrs. J. H. Lennox, W. R. Bullock, G. Shields, B. Adams, and A. Rolis.

Another resolution was passed to the effect that the presidents of the various Ratepayers and Conservative organizations in the eastern section of ward should be appointed with a view of having them attend the board of control and urge the division of Ward One at Greenwood avenue. It was decided to ask one of the controllers or aldermen to deliver an address at the next meeting of the association on the transportation problem. The committee will try to have a speaker for every regular meeting of the association in the future.

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22.

Chief Thompson's Resignation

After forty years of service the Chief Thompson need have no hesitation about laying down his responsibility. He has conducted the work of the fire brigade thru many difficult situations since the much regretted Chief Ardagh gave up his life for the city in 1886, except for the brief regime of Chief Graham.

Toronto in that year had a population in the neighborhood of 180,000, and it is three times as great today. The problems that arise in the growth of a great city are altogether different from those which belong to a smaller municipality, and it is no reproach at all to an official, experienced and scarred that he be in service, to be told that the times have moved on, and that his experience, valuable as it has been in the past, may to some extent unfit him for the consideration of new problems and the new points of view that must be taken.

This applies to choice of equipment, to methods of selection of men, and to a thousand things in which long familiarity tends to establish a preference, with a corresponding prejudice against novelties. With all this goes the necessity for tuning up the discipline, which is a different affair in a force of 500 to what will pass in a force of a third as much.

Chief Thompson has done good work in his time, and we repeat there is no reproach attaching to him when he lays down his commission at the end of a long and useful career. The great night of the 19th of April, 1904, will be a notable one to keep the memory of the chief green among the citizens.

Germany and the Empire

German arrogance has made itself conspicuous in many forms, but perhaps the most flagrant is that which assumed that, while laying down the laws of war to other nations, they were completely justified in having a different code for themselves. It would be difficult to find even one rule of international law—not to speak of the recommendations of The Hague convention—that the modern Huns have not flagrantly violated. Yet the German press holds up dripping hands of protest because the men of the British Empire have risen as one man against the German effort at its disruption.

Every now and again news items appear about the percentage of failures in spelling tests. Examples of the more flagrant errors are usually given for the amusement of the public, albeit it is more than doubtful whether the ordinary man on the street would fare any better were he subjected to a similar experience. This is the result of a system which makes correct spelling an acquired art instead of the simple matter of replacing sounds by letters that exactly represent them. That desirable consummation has already been reached by several modern languages which, to that extent, have gained a material advantage over English as now written.

Out of a number of more or less difficult English words given out to 25 students of the Illinois State University many mistakes in spelling occurred. Indeed out of the 25 only 13 reached the required grade. If this happens in a university, something must be radically wrong either with the system of spelling English or the system of teaching it. The World is inclined to place the blame on the chaotic spelling that unites a prescribed concatenation of letters with a contradictory method of pronunciation. Much waste of valuable school time is caused thereby and a needless obstacle placed in the way of the foreigner who sets himself to learn English. Illogical and misleading spelling bars the way of English as the language of international exchange.

EIGHT EXPLORERS PERISHED.

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Captain Robert Bartlett, commander of the steamer Karluk, which carried the Stefansson expedition to the Arctic, expressed the belief today that the eight missing explorers of the expedition perished long ago.

The Submarine.

A writer in McClure's Magazine claims that the submarine was invented by a freshman at Yale College named David Bushnell, 1776. All the authorities mentioned Bushnell among the early experimenters, some of whom date back several hundred years. No doubt the principle was well understood, but the undersea boat either slowly developed to the point of practical proficiency or its possibilities were for a long time underrated. Certainly Bushnell's countrymen had no submarines to use against Cervera's fleet in the Spanish war, and they have made little progress since then in that arm of the naval service. Up to the present, they have been measuring the early experimenters, some of whom date back several hundred years. No doubt the principle was well understood, but the undersea boat either slowly developed to the point of practical proficiency or its possibilities were for a long time underrated. Certainly Bushnell's countrymen had no submarines to use against Cervera's fleet in the Spanish war, and they have made little progress since then in that arm of the naval service.

But in the present war the submarine has done deadly work perhaps finding more favorable conditions in the North Sea than it would encounter in almost any other theatre of naval action. Hence the rush toward submarine construction. A naval battle has now become a three tiered affair, with fighting on the surface of the sea, in the heavens above and in the waters under the earth.

When the photograph and telephone appeared almost at the same time, the latter was thought by many to be of little commercial value. Yet today the photograph could be spared without any great inconvenience, while the loss of the telephone would reduce modern society to something little short of chaos.

Reduction in Hydro Rates

Reduction of the city hydro rates is now an accomplished fact. Without desiring to renew the controversy which lasted last year, it is evident that the delay has justified itself and placed the local commission in a stronger position than if it had drained its treasury by a reduction a year ago. When it is necessary to call upon the city to pay higher rates for municipal services it is clear that an earlier reduction on the private rates would have been premature.

The reductions are intended to secure patronage from large households on which hitherto the scale of rates bore rather heavily. The floor area terms have been adjusted, and a radical cut has been made on all current consumed above a certain quantity. The more current used the greater will be the cut to all consumers.

What Handicaps English

Every now and again news items appear about the percentage of failures in spelling tests. Examples of the more flagrant errors are usually given for the amusement of the public, albeit it is more than doubtful whether the ordinary man on the street would fare any better were he subjected to a similar experience. This is the result of a system which makes correct spelling an acquired art instead of the simple matter of replacing sounds by letters that exactly represent them. That desirable consummation has already been reached by several modern languages which, to that extent, have gained a material advantage over English as now written.

Hidden Motive Suspected in Un-usual Announcement.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Jan. 21.—The official journal of the patents office contains two applications relating to armaments from the Krupp firm of Germany. One patent is sought for a gun mounting, another a projectile fuse. The fact that the Krupp firm should reveal secrets of the great plant at Essen to a hostile government has aroused much comment. Patent agents suggest that some hidden motive may lie back of the application.

ACCUSED SOLDIERS RELEASED ON BAIL

Welland Merchants Furnish Bond of Sixty Thousand Dollars.

Canadian Press Despatch.

WELLAND, Jan. 21.—Corporal Archie Kay and Privates Kinsman and Macleod, of the 44th Canadian Infantry, charged with manslaughter in connection with the shooting of Walter Smith, the American duck hunter at Fort Erie, Dec. 28, were released from Welland jail on $60,000 bail today. Eight Welland merchants provided the surety. The men at once joined their company at Bridgeburg.

C. N. R. CONDEMNED TO PAY DAMAGES

Chief Justice Falconbridge Found Company Injured Residence in North Bay.

Chief Justice Falconbridge gave judgment at Osgoode Hall yesterday in the action of North Bay, Ontario, against the Canadian Northern Railway. The court found for the plaintiff for $475 and granted fifteen days' stay.

The plaintiff stated that the railway company constructed a line close to his property, and by reason of the vibration and noise he had been unable to make any use of the land. It was also alleged that the company when building a subway had disconnected the main sewer to the plaintiff's house and caused damage to the residence.

The defendant company submitted that as it did not take any part of the plaintiff's property, it was not liable for damages arising from smoke, noise or vibration. Being ordered by the railway board to construct a subway on a certain street the company stated that it was necessary to disconnect the plaintiff's sewer from the plaintiff's property. The town changed the route of the sanitary sewer and it was impossible to make connections with the property until a new sewer was connected. This was finally done, and the disconnection lasted only about five weeks.

MOTT TO ADDRESS STUDENT MEETINGS

Series to Start Sunday at University—Public Will Be Excluded.

Tickets were distributed yesterday for the John R. Mott meetings which start on Sunday. Prior to the opening of the series there will be a workers' meeting in Wyndale College on Saturday afternoon. Students only will be admitted to the college sermon on Sunday morning. Precautions have been taken to exclude the general public, as Dr. Mott has made it understood from the outset that the meetings are solely for students. A meeting for women is being held on Sunday afternoon at 4.15, and a students' meeting is scheduled in the evening. On Monday and Tuesday nights there will be services for men students.

A student executive of twenty men have been preparing for the meetings. It is intended to have a meeting in Massey Hall on Sunday afternoon, at which the public would be admitted. Dr. Mott objected. Admission will be by special tickets, which have been issued to the men of the various faculties. It is assured that the seating capacity of Convocation Hall will be taxed to the utmost at each meeting.

DUKE TO INSPECT CORPS OF STUDENTS

Sixteen Hundred Men Have Been Drilling for This Event.

Over 1000 students turned out yesterday afternoon for the last parade to be held before the inspection by the Duke of Cornwall, which will take place this evening at 6 o'clock. There will be over 1600 men in the ranks. Only the officers and a few of their batallions will be in uniform. The uniforms are supplied from Ottawa has not yet been received.

PROVINCE ESTIMATES MILITARY INSOBRIETY

Hotelkeepers Asked to Return Records of Uniformed Men Drinking in Bars.

Hotelkeepers in Ontario are now receiving notices from the provincial secretary asking returns giving the number of the uniformed who enter their bars during a week's time. The circular is explained as sent thru a desire to learn the extent of drunkenness among the troops.

ASKED FOR REBATE FROM ASSESSMENT

John Kenyon, the owner of a slaughter house on Christie street, appeared in the court of revision yesterday and asked that he be allowed a rebate in assessment as he has had a vacant slaughter house for the past several months. "Why?" by Chairman Drayton, he stated that they had all gone to the civic abattoir to have their cattle killed. Judgment was reserved and an assessment official will investigate the case.

Light Rates Lighter.

A reduction of lighting rates has at last been granted to the residents of Toronto. The Hydro Commission yesterday advised the reduction, which will also apply to stores. It will take effect immediately, but will apply only to power used from the beginning of 1915. The new rate will mean a considerable saving to the people of Toronto, the new rate for current over a month being 1.1-3 cents. A house with 1500 ft. of floor area, burning 200 k.w. hours at the old rate would pay $5.94, and under the new rate $3.82.

CANADIANS TRAIN UNDER DIFFICULTY

Battalions Flooded Out by Worst Rains in Southern England in Two Decades.

Drilling Suspended for Several Weeks as Result of Muddy Conditions.

By John A. MacLaren, one of The World's Staff Correspondents with the Canadian Expeditionary Force. SALISBURY, ENGL., Jan. 5.—Possibly when this letter is published the Canadians will be across the channel or at least preparing to leave England. Nothing of an official character has been written or said to this effect, but the conviction has settled in every mind that the delay in this camp will be short. Conditions for training could not be worse, and it may be said safely that from this standpoint alone there is little use in the contingent remaining here any longer. Practically none of the battalions have any training for over two weeks, owing principally to the mud and rain. Southern England is said to be experiencing the worst flood in twenty years. Sections of the Canadian camp have been inundated, roads are one, two and three feet deep in water, and it is almost impossible for even the transports to carry supplies. The four brigades of infantry have been more or less idle for a month, and are endeavoring to keep dry. The latter has been futile.

There has been considerable talk of the division going to southern France. The minister listened sympathetically, but in view of prevailing financial conditions it is not likely that the request will be granted this year.

REGISTRARS SEEK MORE REMUNERATION

Deputation Urges Upon Hon. I. B. Lucas the Right to Better Pay.

The registrars of provincial constituencies appeared before the attorney-general yesterday seeking a raise in the stipends they receive. Logical reasons were proposed, and it was shown that altho their obligations and responsibilities had increased the remuneration had not kept pace. The minister listened sympathetically, but in view of prevailing financial conditions it is not likely that the request will be granted this year.

DETENTION QUARTERS FOR ALIEN ENEMIES

Ottawa Authorities Seek Provincial Permission for More Farm Sites in North.

The federal government is seeking more sites for detention camps, in which to place alien enemies now in Canada. On behalf of the military authorities at Ottawa General Sir William Otter approached Premier Hearst yesterday asking for the use of crown lands near Fort William and Port Arthur. There are 400 prisoners of this character under detention at different points, and a centralization is necessary.

The Women's Conservative Club received yesterday a further cheque of $100 thru the men's organization from the sale of the "Allied for Right" buttons. It is hoped from the balance now being held in the city and county to be able to give between three and four thousand pairs of woolen socks to the second contingent of the army. His honor refused to alter the finding of the court. The total cost of paying the lane was $2897, of which the city pays $658.

No doubt the principle was well understood, but the undersea boat either slowly developed to the point of practical proficiency or its possibilities were for a long time underrated. Certainly Bushnell's countrymen had no submarines to use against Cervera's fleet in the Spanish war, and they have made little progress since then in that arm of the naval service.

But in the present war the submarine has done deadly work perhaps finding more favorable conditions in the North Sea than it would encounter in almost any other theatre of naval action. Hence the rush toward submarine construction. A naval battle has now become a three tiered affair, with fighting on the surface of the sea, in the heavens above and in the waters under the earth.

When the photograph and telephone appeared almost at the same time, the latter was thought by many to be of little commercial value. Yet today the photograph could be spared without any great inconvenience, while the loss of the telephone would reduce modern society to something little short of chaos.

Reduction of the city hydro rates is now an accomplished fact. Without desiring to renew the controversy which lasted last year, it is evident that the delay has justified itself and placed the local commission in a stronger position than if it had drained its treasury by a reduction a year ago. When it is necessary to call upon the city to pay higher rates for municipal services it is clear that an earlier reduction on the private rates would have been premature.

The reductions are intended to secure patronage from large households on which hitherto the scale of rates bore rather heavily. The floor area terms have been adjusted, and a radical cut has been made on all current consumed above a certain quantity. The more current used the greater will be the cut to all consumers.

What Handicaps English

Every now and again news items appear about the percentage of failures in spelling tests. Examples of the more flagrant errors are usually given for the amusement of the public, albeit it is more than doubtful whether the ordinary man on the street would fare any better were he subjected to a similar experience. This is the result of a system which makes correct spelling an acquired art instead of the simple matter of replacing sounds by letters that exactly represent them. That desirable consummation has already been reached by several modern languages which, to that extent, have gained a material advantage over English as now written.

Hidden Motive Suspected in Un-usual Announcement.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Jan. 21.—The official journal of the patents office contains two applications relating to armaments from the Krupp firm of Germany. One patent is sought for a gun mounting, another a projectile fuse. The fact that the Krupp firm should reveal secrets of the great plant at Essen to a hostile government has aroused much comment. Patent agents suggest that some hidden motive may lie back of the application.

WHEN BALL PLAYER IS A FREE AGENT

O. B. Now Say Year After Term of Service - Feds Continue Attack.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 - The question of the federal courts' jurisdiction and the renewed declaration that the National Amateur League have so modified their contracts that a player becomes a free agent the year after the expiration of his agreed term of service was the subject of a hearing in a federal court. Judge Landis brought up the question of jurisdiction and the Federal League organized baseball, discussed it at some length after the Federal League lawyer, Pepper, quoted authorities to show that there must be a federal action involved to secure hearing in a federal court. He declared the intervening suit of the National League was inadvisable and said the only federal question was that in the charge that the defendant maintained a monopoly in restraint of interstate commerce of the Clayton law were then cited to show that labor is not regarded as an article of commerce, and the defendant is the Hammerstein Metropolitan Opera Co. case was brought in as an authority on the subject. The defendant, however, stated that the labor of ball players was not commodity of commerce, and that the Federal League was not a monopoly. Judge Landis did not decide the question. In his general argument which followed, the plaintiff declared he had ended his presentation of the plaintiff's case, and Quincy A. Meyer, counsel for the defendant, stated that the defendant's case was not a monopoly. Their grievance is not that we prevent them from being the young ball players on the lot and developing them thru training in service, but that we in one bound the advantage we have gained thru ten years of labor, they want to profit from the skill developed by our money he said.

Pepper declared there were few cases of individual hardship worked against players by the ten day clause, the reserve rule and the judgments of the national commission. "It is noteworthy that neither the ten day clause nor the reserve rule were specified by the ball players' fraternity as objectionable," he admitted, "but having made some mistakes, I do not believe I would have treated an old war horse like Mordred Brown the way he was treated, but I ask that the answers of the defendants to the affidavits of the players be read carefully."

Mr. Pepper gave a history of the game and formation of the first agreement between the American and National Leagues, which preceded the national agreement. These agreements, he declared, were not for the purpose of protecting the parties to them from outsiders, but against each other.

The new rule regarding the option on a ball player's services, an attorney emphasized, made for his liberty. "He is a free agent when he has served one season after the expiration of the term he signs for," he declared.

HOLLY WAS IN DEMAND
Timiskaming Reaches a New High Level on the Present
Movement.

Both sessions of the Standard Exchange yesterday were marked by activity and buoyancy. The advance in Big Dome was one of the outstanding features and the movement has been entirely consistent with the opening of the year. The opening of the year
was thirty points up at $6.25 and later
reached $6.60. Selling pressure appeared to have been entirely consistent with the opening of the year. The opening of the year
was thirty points up at $6.25 and later
reached $6.60. Selling pressure appeared to have been entirely consistent with the opening of the year.

No definite news has come out of the camp to account for the movement, but buyers say the advance is an anticipation of the very favorable outlook for the four-week period
as the ore reserves and mining costs, which are reported to be gradually decreasing. The advance in Holly was brought to $2.25, the previous high. Here, too, the market appears creasing.

Timiskaming was the big feature in the Cobalt group, selling up to 1 1/2 and closing at the top. Reports from the camp are to the effect that the vein running in from the Beaver at the 530 foot level has been followed for forty feet, all excellent ore. The strike is four inches wide and the tons of rock have been already broken out. The ore is still being carried up the Beaver workings, but this is being run thru the Timis-kamining to the new find which is in a territory that the management never expected much from.

Beaver was strong again selling to 37 and closing at that price. The advance in Holly was brought to $2.25, the previous high. Here, too, the market appears to be anticipating a very favorable outlook for the four-week period as the ore reserves and

The directors of the Standard Exchange have decided to charge a brokerage of 1 per cent on the money involved on mining stocks selling at $15 and over. At the present time a brokerage of 1/2 per cent is charged on stocks selling at $10 and over and stocks over the latter price must pay a commission of 1 per cent on the money involved.

Net profits of $93,364 for the year are shown in the annual report of the Dominion Bank for the year ending December 31. As compared with the year ago, which is somewhat remarkable in view of the months of depression which have been passed.
During the year $188,655 was received as premiums on new stock and this added to the net profits and the $47,588 carried over a total of $1,110, which is disposed of as follows: dividends and bonus $825,325; contributions to officers' pension fund $25, 000; to relief fund $28,500; written off bank premises $100,000; reserved for possible depreciation in value of assets $300,000; carried forward $284, 818. The reserve fund is now an even $700,000 on a capitalization of $6, 000,000.

Of the total liabilities $80, 000 of some $27,312.100 is in readily convertible form, or approximately 30 per cent, an extremely good margin. Of the loans outstanding $4,000,000 are on call and $47,196,000 in the shape of current loans and discounts in Canada. Government notes to the amount of $9,598,000 are held together with $2,400,000 in notes and cheques on other banks while the balance with other banks amounts to $1,444,000. Bank premiums are put in at $6,051,000. The annual meeting will be held on Wednesday next, January 27.

NEW YORK FINDS
ADVANCE ON CURB

Money Cheap—Loans Freely
Made at Low Interest—
Copper Metal Higher.

Canadian Press Despatch.
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Stocks had their fourth consecutive advance of the week today, despite persistent profit-taking in standard shares and further participation in secondary issues. Business was highly larger than on Tuesday the record day.
Missouri Pacific's increasing activity at higher prices was again noteworthy. Another feature was the broad inquiry for various low priced railway issues, as well as industrials.
Activity slackened appreciably in the late trading and Missouri Pacific shares as well as the convertible 5s and 4s, weakened in connection with rumors.

Monetary conditions were virtually unchanged so far as open rates were concerned, but many loans were made at lower rates. The eight months money being offered at 2 1/2 per cent. The extraordinary ease of the local money market was the result of the fact that New York institutions have retired all but $400,000 of the $144,000,000 emergency currency issued in August.

Copper metal made another advance, but this favorable fact was not reflected to any material extent in the market. An announcement of the reopening of additional steel mills testified to the steady improvement that has been taking place.
London's business in America was the largest since the reopening of that market, bank clearings at that center showing an increase. The Bank of England added $3,800,000 to its gold and increased total reserves
by almost $5,000,000.

RECORD TOUCHED
IN WHEAT PRICES

Export Demand Did Not Back
Up Speculators—Market
Then Sagged.

Canadian Press Despatch.
CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Holding by factors was the main feature today with making wheat bring the highest prices yet—$1.45-8-8, a rise of 7-8c a bushel compared with yesterday's lowest level. Today's advance, however, was not well maintained, the market closing unsettled at the same level as last night. The market closed at 1 1/2-8-8, a rise of 5-8c and lost 1-4c. Provisions had an irregular finish, varying from 2 1/2c down to 2 1/2c. The market was according to an "authority" farmers were looking for higher prices, and could see no special incentive to sell any more wheat than was necessary.
It was shown that through the country primary receipts were running down, the total being 1,200,000 bushels today against 1,100,000 bushels a week ago.

Absence of any great export business was the chief factor responsible for the fact that the wheat market underwent a series of backward swings after touching a new high record.
The market was considerably selling of corn as the result of the setback in wheat. The buying power was amply sufficient to absorb the offerings. The market was evidence of foreign buying.

TRANSACTIONS FEW
IN LISTED STOCKS

Balance of Offerings of Detroit United Absorbed by Montreal Exchange.

Canadian Press Despatch.
MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—The only features of interest in today's business were the absorption of the balance of offerings of Detroit United at the minimum of 6 1/2c and a brisk demand for Waynaburg bonds which pretty well cleaned up the market in that issue at the 7 1/2c minimum.
Business was lighter than for a long time back, and Detroit United, with transactions in only 75 shares, ranked as the most active stock.
Prices on the Montreal Stock Exchange were steady throughout the list. Total business for the day 250 shares and $18,600 bonds.

WHY T. H. AND E. PASSED DIVIDEND
It is explained that the recent passing of the dividend on the $2,000,000
of the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Company was due to the large amounts expended during the past six months for construction of its new line,
the Erie and Ontario, between Smithville, Dunnville and Alexandria on the north shore of Lake Erie at the mouth of the Grand.

FRENCH WAR LOAN.
Subscriptions to the French war loan amount to $800,000,000.

BANK CLEARINGS
Clearings of Toronto banks for the week ending yesterday show a total of $33,813,102, compared with $36,069,831
last week and $39,813,752 in the corresponding week a year ago.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 21.—Bank clearings for the week ending Jan. 21, 1915, showed a total of $2,456,000, compared with $2,456,000 for the week ending last year in 1914. $25,375,989.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Bank clearings this week were $48,043,488. Last week $48,810,979, and this week a year ago were $55,359,158.
