DR. REAUME SAYS BISHOP GOT HIS REPLY

Forwarded Statements as to Authorship of Newspaper Article — Premier Whitney Defends Mr. Hanna From Insinuations — Comment on the Situation.

Hon. J. O. Reaume, minister of public works, in reply to Bishop Fallon's statement, in which the bishop said that four months ago he had drawn the minister's attention to the journalistic activities of his recent secretary, and had received no acknowledgment, yesterday issued the following statement:

I had no knowledge or suspicion of the person guilty of giving out Mr. Hanna's letter until the morning of the 16th instant, when my secretary confessed—first to me and then repeated his confession to one of my colleagues and myself—that he was the guilty person.

I am sure Bishop Fallon would not intentionally do me an injustice, but he seems to have forgotten that I did investigate the authorship of the article in The Detroit Free Press, and that I sent him the letter of my secretary denying it, together with the letter of H. E. Willmot of The World, who declared he was the writer of it, and that he had written and forwarded the article for publication without reference to Malcomville.

I feel that those who know me will accept my statement.

The Premier, Sir James Whitney, having reference to a display story in last night's Star, headed "Hanna Deeper in It Than Bishop Declares"—Fallon's Belief in Him Does Not Quiet All Comment on Provincial Secretary's Conduct—Knew Malcomville Leaked and Conferred With Him—Did Not Impugn His Honor," issued the following statement:

My attention has just been drawn to an article on the first page of The Toronto Star of today. The provincial government has had several opportunities within the past year or two of judging as to the standard of ethics which governs the action of The Star newspaper. Neither fair play, truthfulness, nor malice have any part in those motives, as may easily be shown.

Forty-eight hours have hardly elapsed since Bishop Fallon's newspaper boasted to an acquaintance on a railway train that "of course we know perfectly well who gave out the letter, but we are going to keep it up on Hanna, and we are going to show that his object is to assist Bourassa and Monk in the Province of Quebec." This is only a fragment of the rhodomontade indulged in by the editor. He has evidently received his instructions in morality from the editorial sanctum.

I may possibly have more to say on this subject later on, and perhaps The World reporter will let the public into the secret of how he prospered in his mission.

Hon. W. J. Hanna would not be interviewed. He was in conference with Sir James Whitney several times during the day, as was also Dr. Reaume, and no statement was forthcoming. It is assumed that the Premier was satisfied with the provincial secretary's explanation of his connection with the affair.

Oliver Asselin's Comment.
MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Nationalist, Oct. 17, was asked today about Bishop Fallon's statement. "I am unable to say if his lordship's description of the awful ignorance of the French section of his flock is accurate, because I don't know. What I do know, however, is that the Bishop of London, who is now cursing the bilingual schools, wrote to the press on Sept. 27: 'I have just received a copy of any objection to the teaching of French or of any other language in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario.'"

"Now Bishop Fallon's change of front was made imperative by the publication of the several affidavits, showing that his lordship had not told the truth before. Bishop Fallon tells the truth under compulsion only, why should he be believed when making statements

NEW LABORATORY AND DIRECTOR SUGGESTED

Dr. Hastings, M.H.O., Favors Appointment of Dr. Geo. Nasmith to the Civic Service, to Superintend Management of an Improved Adjunct to Health Department.

The appointment of Dr. George O. Nasmith, associate director of the provincial board of health, as director of the laboratory of the city's medical health department.

Improving the equipment of the laboratory so as to make it efficient and up to date, with an initial outlay of from $3000 to $3500.

The ultimate transfer of the control over medical inspection of school children to the city of education to the medical health department.

These are the proposals of Dr. Hastings, the city's new medical health officer. The two first named are direct recommendations contained in a report which was sent last night to Ald. Rowland, acting chairman of the local board of health, and which will be dealt with at a special meeting of the board to-morrow.

The third proposal, and most important of all, is one which Dr. Hastings does not intend to press at present, but upon which, nevertheless, he holds very strong views. He explains that he wishes a somewhat strained situation to clear itself before undertaking so radical a departure.

No salary recommendation for the laboratory director is made, but it is understood that it will be close to $3000. It is said that Dr. Nasmith recently received an offer of $2500 to leave his present position.

Requirements for Laboratory. Speaking of Dr. Nasmith, the report says: "Under the circumstances, the efficiency of the health department hinges largely on the efficiency of the laboratory equipment and the high scientific knowledge and experience of its director. The work done in the laboratory must be such as to defy adverse criticism." It is pointed out that health on the continent and the first thing is to appoint a director.

Dr. Nasmith, says the M.H.O., is the only man in Canada who is fully qualified both as a biological chemist and bacteriologist. Dr. Hastings equates if there is a man better equipped on the continent. Dr. Nasmith holds the degrees of M.L.S.C. and Ph.D. He has for eight years specialized in the work of water and milk analysis, and the sewage disposal of large cities. It is understood Lindsay and Calgary have sought his services.

Idea Finds Support. "I have consulted a number of medical men and they are all of opinion that the plans should be carried out," says Dr. Hastings. "The World," when asked concerning the plan, says it hopes to do credit to the city. "I want no frills in the laboratory and will ask no larger amount than is really needed. The work of the laboratory will cover a wide range of usefulness, including examination of swabs."

The plans do not contemplate that Dr. Fleming, the present city analyst, be superseded, but that he be associated with Dr. Nasmith.

As to medical inspection in the schools, the M. H. O. says: "I prefer to just let matters stand until the system has completely gone down. I believe, however, that everything affecting the health of the city should be under the control of the health department, which has to share the responsibility. It is of the utmost importance that disease which in the mildest forms should be detected early, as the most serious forms may result from the contagion. It is not good policy to attempt to bring about a decided reform just now, but later on I hope for a radical change."

Give System Fair Test. Ald. Rowland, while somewhat inclined to favor the transference of authority, thinks that the present system should be fairly tested. It had made a success in New York schools, and he doubted whether, after all, greater efficiency could be obtained by a change.

Apparently the support of the mayor in the reorganization plans is assured. His worship declared yesterday that the work of the laboratory should be made more efficient, and that he had resigned his office, and was ready to go to work with it.

He remarked that no typhoid germs in the city water were shown either in the reports of the provincial or civic analysts, reference to which is also made in Dr. Hastings' report.

Dr. Hastings announces that he is considering a campaign against not only the bad odors from abattoirs, but also street noises which have a like effect. He is not sure, however, whether the whistling of factory whistles, etc., comes under his jurisdiction. He invites the public to pour in their complaints.

TROUBLE WITH THE TWINS

THE VICTIM: I wish I'd never adopted them.

"CUBS" LAID LOW BY BENDER'S TWIRLING

Not One Passed First-Base Until the Ninth Innings — The Athletics' Infield Played Marvelous Ball — Coombs and Brown Opposing Pitchers To-day.

By TY COBB
Champion slugger of professional baseball—Copyright by The Philadelphia Press Company.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 17.—Chief Bender's wonderful pitching and the offensive work of Frank Baker won for the Athletics over the Chicago Cubs in the opening game of the world series of 1910. It was a phenomenal game and when it is considered that the Chicago players did not pass first base for 8 innings, it can be recorded as one of the greatest games in a big series ever played. This goes to show what bang-up ball the Athletics played. Orvis Overall did not seem to have his usual break on his curve when it came to the Mack men, were in a hitting mood.

I cannot forget the work of Baker. He led the attack in the second inning with a two-base hit into the left field crowd. Davis cleverly sacrificed, putting Baker on third, with one man down. With the strong hitting Murphy up, to decide whether the Athletics should forge to the front, he responded with a sharp single to left between third and short, and there was a roar from the stand. This did not satisfy the Mackmen, Murphy stole on the much-touted Kling and Barry out advanced him to third. Thomas cleverly worked the pitcher for a pass after having two strikes called.

The Cubs, having in mind a pitcher's weakness at bat, thought Bender would be easy, but the chief is always a good stickler, unlike most twirlers, and he contributed a beautiful single, too hot for Zimmerman to handle. It came down with a high, hard bound and carried off his hands into centre field, giving the Athletics a two run lead.

Bender then continued his airtight pitching, using his usual over-the-shoulder "smoke ball," which is a high fast one along the shoulders, making the Cubs look helpless.

In the Athletics' third inning, Lord led off with a two-base hit, which was a terrific drive over the head of Hoffman, Cub centre fielder, into the crowd. Collins contributed a neat sacrifice and Baker again responded with a solid smash over short, scoring run No. 3.

Then Bender resumed his wonderful work on the mound, mowing the Cubs down with strike outs or swing outs, which struck into the infield. Bender kept up this remarkable work until the 9th inning. The chief only issued one pass and struck out seven batters. Baker and Collins accepted the majority of the chances.

The Lively Ninth. In the ninth, after Thomas had a chance to retire Tinker on a pop foul, he hit a solid smash over scores, which Strunk booted in centre. Tinker reaching second. Kling hit a terrific line drive over second, the third and final hit of this game, scoring Tinker, with the Cubs' one run. Beaumont was sent in to bat for McIntyre and was retired, Kane, running for Kling, reaching second. Sheekard was Bender's eighth strike-out victim of the game, making it down. Bender had some savage breaks to his shoots at this juncture and Schulte succeeded in walking.

With Hoffman up, and scores of the old-time Cub rallies possible, it brought the immense crowd to their feet. Bender put on a final burst of speed and Artie grounded to Baker, the one man who had led the vicious attack on the wonderful Cub machine—an attack which had humbled the proud champions of the National League, he having the honor of retiring the last man, after stepping on third, forcing out Kane.

However, this great victory was received with scarcely the enthusiasm that one would expect in keeping in keeping with the Quaker motif.

It is safe to say that Catcher H. Thomas will be the mainstay of the Athletics in this series. Ira's throwing did not suffer in the comparison with that of Johnnie Kling, who is touted as the greatest backstop in the National League. Schulte was the only runner who dared to try to steal a base on Thomas, and twice he was caught at second by a quick, true throw.

Mack's Infield Stuck to It. The much-mooted question as to the Athletics' infield standing up under the strain of the championship series was settled to-day. The infield as a whole did phenomenal work, and again I cannot help but refer to the grand machine-like performance of Baker, Barry and Collins. The Cubs are going to find Mack's infield combination

NO WORD FROM WELLMAN BUT OUTLOOK HOPEFUL

Five Ships Flash Signals in Attempt To Reach Airship by Wireless.

Over the wastes of the Atlantic in a position which can only be broadly approximated as somewhere off the coast of New England or Nova Scotia, Walter Wellman's airship America is in all probability pursuing its lonely flight in the general direction of the northern steamship lane and its objective the British Isles.

In the absence of any direct word from the navigator, or of any positive information about them whatever since Sunday noon, the most reasonable conjecture in the minds of their friends and supporters is that they are still pointing toward their goal. It is the natural contention that lack of definite news by no means detracts from a more hopeful outlook.

SIACONSETT, Mass., Oct. 17.—Five westbound Atlantic liners, all in touch with each other and all anxious for news of Walter Wellman, reported to the wireless station here at various intervals to-day that they had seen nothing and heard nothing, either directly or indirectly, of his dirigible airship America and her crew of six.

The first ship to call the operator constantly on duty here was the Finland, then 110 miles east of Nantucket, at 5.30 this morning. Then came in succession the Main, for Philadelphia, the Ryndam, the Niagara, and finally the Kronprinz Wilhelm, for New York. Not a word had they heard.

All five ships had sent out the pre-arranged call, "W," at frequent intervals. They followed the regular westbound lane for Trans-Atlantic travel, and taking into the reckoning their wireless zone covered an area which they thought should have included Wellman, if he was able to reply.

Just before the America drifted out of contact with the world, her wireless operator notified the station here that "justice was precious." It was thought here to-day she might be husbanding her strength for a crucial need, unwilling to spend it on gossip, however interesting it might seem to those "justice was precious." It was thought here to-day she might be husbanding her strength for a crucial need, unwilling to spend it on gossip, however interesting it might seem to those "justice was precious."

All the stations in this chain, and all the vessels reporting to them tell of heavy rains and a violent electrical storm on Sunday evening, followed by fine weather and a calm sea.

For the next two days at least, in the region now being traversed by Wellman and his crew, the weather officials give an assurance of continued fair weather, which should be ideal to further the progress of the America toward English shores.

As nearly as can be computed the great balloon, if it has met no unexpected accident, ought to be in the neighborhood of Sable Island some time to-night, with Cape Race, 350 Sept. 27. I have just received a copy of any objection to the teaching of French or of any other language in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario."

WARD 5 CONS. OPPOSED TO CIVIC PARTY POLITICS

W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., Hon. Thos. Crawford, and Claude Macdonell, M.P., Lead.

The Fifth Ward Conservative Association gave the proposal of the Central Conservative Association to elect candidates for municipal offices on a party basis what is politically termed the "six months' hole" last night. There was an attendance of about 100, and those present seemed to take their cue from W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., who felt that a great risk was involved in adopting such a course.

Hon. Thos. Crawford also spoke against it. He claimed that half the Conservatives of Toronto were against the proposition, which would prove a serious blow to the party in the city.

Mr. McPherson pointed out that in 69 out of 100 times party experiences were such that the independent vote could swing the majority. This question had been brought up twenty years ago, but had not been generally discussed because the ward system had not been organized. The late E. F. Clarke at the time was opposed to it. So far, there had been no adequate reasons advanced for the change. The affairs of the city had prospered and they had had no scandals under the present system. No man could foresee the ultimate result of such a course as was now proposed. They were Conservatives, not radicals, and should not feel that any change whatever would be a change for the better. Would there be any value in having a council of 60, 75 or even 100 per cent. Conservatives? The fault with the Whitney government to-day was that there was too large a majority.

John Tyler, past president of the Fifth Ward Association, said at the convention when it was carried as a matter of sentiment. While no scheme had been devised better than party government. It was not possible to the party lines in municipal affairs. They had only to look at the beneficial effects of the party system in the United States.

Claude Macdonell, M.P., did not endorse the proposal. "For the first time party men are beginning to take a sane and sensible view of the matter," he said. "There was no party principle at stake in the issues in this city. It was merely a matter of 'ins' and 'outs.' I will fight for principle, not for 'ins' and 'outs.'" he said.

A resolution to adopt the suggestion of the Central Association was moved and seconded, which was amended by Hon. Thos. Crawford, seconded by N. Barbour, to "lay the matter on the table for six months," which was adopted unanimously.

Ald. May, Ald. R. H. Graham and Ald. John Dunn were other speakers. All were against the resolution.

CUBA SUFFERS TERRIBLY BY WIND AND RAIN STORM

Greatest Material Disaster in History of the Island—May Have To Request Foreign Aid.

HAVANA, Oct. 17.—The island of Cuba has probably sustained the greatest material disaster in all her history in the practically continuous cyclone, which began with light rains on Thursday morning, turning into torrential floods and devastating hurricanes and continuing until this evening. The western half of the island suffered more severely than the eastern.

The first cyclone, of which there was some warning, had hardly abated on Sunday night, when suddenly the wind, which up to then had been southeasterly, changed to southwest, and with renewed fury the cyclonic blasts swept over Pinar del Rio, Matanzas and Havana provinces, completing the destruction wrought by the first storm.

Even now there are some fears of another cyclone, on account of rumors of the approach of a third storm, reported to be forming south of Jamaica. At 3 o'clock to-night the rain was heavy, but the wind had abated considerably, and the sea was falling.

Millions of Dollars' Damage. It is impossible to estimate, even roughly, the amount of the damage done, which doubtless will aggregate many millions of dollars. Besides, the great destruction to sugar and tobacco plantations, many thousands of peasants in the three western provinces have been rendered homeless and destitute by the loss of their homes and the food crops, especially plantations and corn.

It now seems probable that the republic may be compelled to request international aid for the relief of these sufferers, whose condition is most deplorable.

While all communication with the interior has been cut off, there is reason to hope that Oriente, Camaguey and Santiago de Cuba have escaped the greatest fury of the storm. In the City of Havana the losses probably will exceed a million dollars, mainly due to the destruction of the customs houses, which were filled with perishable goods, the sinking of scores of lighters, many of them containing valuable cargoes, which had been unloaded from steamers, and the submerging of about one square mile of the residential section of the city, facing the sea.

Few fatalities, up to the present, have been reported. Three men were drowned in the harbor, but no deaths from the storm occurred in the city. It is probable, however, that the casualty list in the interior will be large.

STEAMERS FOR HUDSON BAY.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—A line of steamers navigating Hudson Bay and establishing a new and more northern Atlantic trade, is the prediction of Col. Featherston, a British expert, who has just come from that little-known region on his way to England to present his report to British capitalists interested in the scheme.

The British capitalists interested in the scheme are heads of fleets of British steamers on the outlook for new fields of enterprise.

Raising the Dividend. MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the Moosebank & Co., President Macpherson stated that the shareholders had a right to expect the dividend to be raised from 10 to 11 per cent.

BOY WAS STEALING BIDE WHEN FATALLY INJURED

Young Chum of Albert Blake Tells How He Clung to Side of Trailer Until Jolted Off.

Because, as the evidence showed, Albert Blake, nine years of age, was killed as the result of trying to steal a ride on a street car, the jury at the inquest last night returned a verdict of accidental death.

Not until James Phillips, a playmate, gave his story was it really known how the boy met his death. The accident happened on Sunday, Oct. 9, at 6.20 p.m., and, according to the boy's testimony, he and his brother, and young Blake were walking east along King-street from Sunnyside about six o'clock. At Cowan-ave, Albert Blake ran for a car and jumped on to the rear end of the trailer next the devil strip.

Questioned closely, the boy explained that the rain curtains of the trailer were down and that young Blake hung on to the side by a strap, with his feet on the iron rod under the car. Phillips saw him in that position until the car was near Dufferin-st.

"Why did he jump on that side?" asked Assistant Crown Attorney Monahan.

"Because the conductor was on the other side," said the boy.

There was no evidence to show that any car going west had passed the car going east which might result in Blake being crushed between them, and the supposition is that the boy was jolted off. One leg was so broken that it had to be amputated, and an arm was crushed. He died about seven hours after the accident.

COMM'R COOMBS DENIES Corrects Statement Inaccurately Made by Canadian Associated Press.

The World yesterday saw Commissioner Coombs, head of the Salvation Army in Canada, relative to the C.A.P. despatch concerning himself. He stated that the statement that he had resigned in connection with the... As an evidence of this he is now engaged in arranging a tour to the coast with Colonel David C. Lamb of international headquarters, England, who has just arrived in this country on his annual visit in the interests of immigration and colonization. His going is made more necessary by his recent resignation of Colonel Howell to take up a position with the C.N.R.

It is, however, true that the commissioner has suffered a breakdown in health, and will not be able to conduct public meetings for some time to come, although it is hoped by all his friends that he will soon be himself again.

As to international headquarters being opposed to Canadian aspirations, it was rather the fact that international headquarters was in harmony with Canadian aspirations, and appeared to be as enthusiastic as Canadians themselves.

RIOTING IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Shots were fired, bricks thrown, twelve persons were injured, and sixteen were arrested in a riot here to-day when a squad of police attacked a mob of striking garment workers. Nearly every window in the first floor of the Hart, Schaffner and Marx plant on the west side of Chicago was broken.

$23,000 SUCCESSION DUES.

The provincial secretary yesterday received a cheque for something over $23,000 in settlement of the succession duty on the estate of the late Charles Cockshutt, Brantford. The amount of the inventory of the estate is not given.

THREE CENT FARES Would Be Charged by Proposed Municipal Car Lines in Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The failure of the Street Railway Co. to lay down tracks in Elmwood, in the northeastern section of the city, requested by the municipal authorities a year ago, may lead to the establishment of a municipal service within a couple of years.

It is suggested that new lines be operated by the city, on the basis of three-cent fares. This will be made possible by the introduction of electrical energy from the city's big plant at Point Du Bois, now under course of construction.

The city is entitled, by its agreement with the company, to give permission to competing concerns to construct and operate lines where the present company declines to do so. In this case it could give permission to itself.

CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Hotelkeeper Ejected Man From House and His Death Followed.

NORTH BAY, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—High court opened before Judge Teleton this afternoon, with George Tate Blackstock, E.C., prosecuting attorney. The grand jury returned a true bill against Wm. R. Montgomery, hotelkeeper of New Liskeard, charged with manslaughter. In that he did cause the death of Elmer Kline on July 1, 1909. Montgomery ejected Kline from his hotel.

Wm. Martin, jr., ex-tax collector of the Town of North Bay, charged with misappropriation of funds, was released on suspended sentence. Efforts at restitution have been fairly carried out, and the town council by resolution suggested that permanent suspension of sentence would meet the ends of justice.

Silk Hats.

The time to buy a silk hat is when the fall styles arrive, and they are all in now. The Dineen Company are sole Canadian agents for the greatest of the hat designers, Henry Heath of London, England, who makes hats for His Majesty. Heath hats sell in New York for sixty per cent. more than you will be asked for them in Dineen's Toronto store to-day.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

CHARGED BY WIFE WITH ATTEMPT TO KILL HER

Had Loaded Revolver in His Possession When Arrested by Detective

HAMILTON, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Acting Detective Barrett to-night arrested Peter Vecky, who was charged by his wife with attempting to kill her.

When arrested he had a loaded revolver in his possession. Constables Gravelle and Buckingham took Edward Near into custody to-night for firing off a revolver on the street. Near, who had a revolver in his pocket when examined by the officers, said that a man and woman fired at him, and that he fired back.

A branch Sunday School Association was formed here at a meeting of Anglican ministers and Sunday school teachers in Christ Church Cathedral Sunday school room last evening. Bishop Macdonald occupied the chair, and an address on modern Sunday school teaching methods was delivered by Canon Sutherland. The following officers were elected: Rural Dean Howitt, president; Canon Abbott, vice-president; Rev. E. N. R. Burns, secretary; Rev. W. White, treasurer; Miss Hamilton and Miss Thompson, delegates, with the officers on the diocesan committee.

The 6th annual meeting of the Hamilton Orphan and Aged Woman's Home was held this afternoon. The report submitted indicated that the institution had enjoyed one of the best years in its history. The receipts amounted to $2360, and a balance of $133 remained after all expenses had been paid.

Among other interesting items mentioned in the report was the fact that a young man, who had once been an inmate of the home, was now studying for the ministry. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Stuart, honorary president; Mrs. Renwick, president; Meadames Wade, Gunn, Hendrie, Fairgrieve, Steinhilber, Waugh, Robinson and Husband, vice-presidents; Mrs. E. B. Greening, treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Spratt and Mrs. N. D. Gaultbreath, secretaries, and Mrs. W. J. Waibren, financial secretary.

The police commissioners met this afternoon and decided to pay Deputy Chief Whitley $1500 a year, to date from Oct. 15. Cornelius Keough died to-night at his home, 279 West Hunter-street.

Railway News.

President William Mackenzie and Third Vice-President D. B. Hanna of the C.N.R. left yesterday for the west. It is thought that their trip may be in connection with the Hudson Bay Railway. There are several old charters in existence for such a railway, which have never been carried out, and it is possible that the C.N.R. may decide to buy up one or more of these should the measure be given legislative terms with the minister of railways in connection with the building of the proposed government railway in the district.

All idea of a new thru passenger train from Hamilton to Montreal via North Toronto must now be postponed indefinitely. The P.R. cut-off from Mimico to Kingston, which is the missing link needed, will not be ready for operation for at least three months, owing to the delay in trunk not having provided the necessary interlocking arrangements at Mimico.

To Construct a Will. The will of the late Hon. John Sandfield Macdonald of Cornwall, will be construed at Osgoode Hall next Monday. The will begins: "I commit my soul to the hands of my Creator, by whom I believe, and as to His estate I will dispose of the same."

Under the will the widow received an annuity of $1200. What she trustees want to know is: What portion of the estate is to be paid to her? Two daughters, Mrs. Adele Pemberton and Mrs. Louis Appleby, are applying for the construction.

Boy Burglars Arrested. Three 12-year-old boys were arrested yesterday charged with having burglarized two stores in the neighborhood of Bathurst and Dupont-streets. They are Chas. Armstrong, 51 Barton-ave., Walter Winslow, Euclid-ave., and Frank Younger, 590 Bloor-st. TREAT THE MINORITY FAIRLY, SAYS HERALD

Montreal Liberal Organ Takes Exception to Appointments to the Senate.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Special)—The Herald says: "Mr. Lavergne has been appointed to succeed Sir George Drummond, and Mr. Dassaules was appointed to succeed Sir William Hincks (the senate), and by these acts the Quebec minority, indeed, all branches of that minority, has been subjected to a reduction of their representation and of their influence. In both cases the minorities concerned have seen fit not to carry their natural resentment to the point of open hostility. Only a false friend of the government or of the majority in Quebec would ask to have this accepted, to say the least, as a precedent. And if there were none the situation would be still worse, for it would only mean that the populations concerned accepted their exclusion as natural, inevitable and likely to be progressive.

FREDERICKHOUSE TOWNSHIP

Already There is a Hum of Activity There.

John Ferguson, North Bay, was at the King Edward yesterday, en route to Ottawa. He is vice-president of the Federation of Canadian Boards of Trade and Municipalities, of which a council meeting is to be held to-day. "We wish to ascertain the attitude of the government regarding the construction of the Georgian Bay Canal," Mr. Ferguson told the World.

Another important bit of business occupied Mr. Ferguson in the city yesterday, by which the title of the new townsite on the Frederichouse River were is crossed by the National Transcontinental was completed. This Col. J. L. Davidson was interested in the Davidson & Hay estate in it have been taken over by J. K. Wallace, Montreal, Dupont, McLaren and McFerguson, who expect to develop the property forthwith.

A postoffice has been established, and a saw mill and a door factory is being erected, and Mr. Ferguson. The railway people are just now considering on which side of the road the station will be built. The new government wagon road from Cochrane is being proceeded with, and settlers are flocking into the country.

"It is hoped that no further barriers will be placed by the government in the way of settlement," added Mr. Ferguson. Frederickhouse, as the town is likely to be known, is eight miles west of Cochrane, and there may be some rivalry between the places.

The future of the country is expected upon agricultural development, and with the rich resources of the district, eight miles is not considered too close. The site is in the heart of this day belt.

a stumbling block to their ambition to be the world's champions of 1910. While I have mentioned these in particular, the steady and effective playings of Captain Harry Davis at first must not be overlooked. Eddie Collins is the real magnetic centre of the Athletics' team, as he is continually snuffing them on. Anxious to give up a good position to take up the work of gathering in money for the blind pool which ran dry at a single instant. Sheldon is an expert at a cleft stick. Sheldon is a man of great energy and initiative, and he is a man of great energy and initiative, and he is a man of great energy and initiative.

The fact that the Mackems made six hits and three runs in the first three innings convinced them that it was not one of O'Leary's days, and they present thought the ball was going into 20th-street for a home run when it left Baker's bat. This one drive will make him much-feared batter during the series.

McIntyre's work was finished and he showed much class. He used a good side-arm curve, with a side-arm grip to say the least, and a pitcher which greatly aided his effectiveness.

"I saw their finish." The Cubs seemed to know that defeat was to be their portion after the sixth inning. I noticed that King took in from the bench with his chest protector on, with mitt and mask in hand, ready to resume his work, altho' only one man was out. Johnny apparently took it for granted that the game was impossible to win. It showed that "Chicago" knew that Bender's pitching was going to win.

Manager Chance gave a good example of his generalship in the third inning, when he pitched the ball to rest Orvie and kill the Athletics' rally spirit. He stood near the mound watching King and Orville, and it was not until Chief Umpire Connelly ordered them to continue, that Chance allowed the game to go on. To-morrow Coombs and Brown are sure to battle it out for the second game of the series. The man from Colby should have a stiff battle on his hands, as the three-fingered wonder is some pitcher. However, if Coombs is in form I can't see where the Cubs can do his wonderful drop ball game.

It is likely that Eric Lord will be heard from during this series. Not only his batting, but this clean fielding may be a feature of the games to be played.

A Prediction. I think that my opinion "that the great offensive play of the Athletics would win them the title of world's champions" is going to prove correct. To the superstitious this winning of the first game looks like a sure title of world's champions for the Athletics, but time will tell.

The crowd was not nearly as large as one would expect. Many people were frightened away because of their belief that they would not secure tickets. The stands were filled from left to right, but there was room for several thousand more.

A PARTY APPOINTMENT

Hon. Frank Oliver Was Contrary to Wishes of Alberta Liberals.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Stirring protests have been made to the government regarding the appointment of W. C. Simmonson of Lethbridge to the supreme court bench of Alberta. It is understood that the Conservative and Liberal of Alberta had agreed, owing to the death of capable Liberal lawyers in the province, to recommend the appointment of a certain Conservative. However, it is understood that Hon. Frank Oliver has determined to make a party appointment, in spite of the recommendation of the Liberal lawyers of the province. His action is being much criticized.

ENGINEER RUST IS TIRED OF BEING THE FOOTBALL

Will Be the First and Only Witness at To-Day's Enquiry Into the Works Department

"I have always been made a football of in municipal politics, and I think it's about time it was ended." This was the statement made last night by City Engineer Charles H. Rust, in the administration of whose department enviously by the county Judge is to begin this morning. Mr. Rust made it quite clear that he has grown weary of being subjected to anything, from charges of petty mistakes to accusations of absolute incompetency, with which aldermen or aspirants for seats regulate heavers at council sessions and nomination meetings. "I don't know of anything to investigate," added the engineer, "I am rather proud of the department and the way it is run."

Asked whether he had further considered the offer to become city engineer, the answer was "No, Mr. Rust said he was waiting for the investigation to be finished before he took any action."

Mr. Rust has held the office of city engineer since 1893, having been promoted after many years' service in the department, succeeding E. H. Keating, Corporation Counsel Drayton says that when proceedings open at 10 a.m. he will put Mr. Rust in the box and have him describe in detail the system of the department. He will be the only witness to-day, and there will afterwards be an examination for a short time. The invitation to the public to come forward with any complaints they have to make against the department has not been taken advantage of to any great extent. The complaints thus far are few and of a minor character.

Prof. Coleman described him as the most distinguished mountaineer in the world, and one of the world's heroes who had done great work in his own department. Dr. Longstaff did not look as tough as most mountaineers, but he had tremendous strain and tests of endurance involved in conquering Alps and Caucasus and Carpathians and Himalayas.

Before the civil war she and her husband worked for emancipation. After seeing her efforts crowned with success she became interested in woman's suffrage, prison reform and the cause of the child. GATHERING MONEY FOR BLIND POOL THAT WOULD

How Sheldon Explained Away Suspicions of His Ontario Manager.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Special)—H. G. Dudge, Ontario manager for Sheldon, tells the story of how he was induced to give up a good position to take up the work of gathering in money for the blind pool which ran dry at a single instant. Sheldon is an expert at a cleft stick. Sheldon is a man of great energy and initiative, and he is a man of great energy and initiative, and he is a man of great energy and initiative.

"Every suspicion I had Sheldon explained away so frankly and so clearly that I felt like getting down on my knees to apologize for having doubted him."

"Sheldon showed us that he was playing a game of checkers with himself, and whether black or white went out the pool would be the winner. "When a cleft stick, Sheldon if he was going to run off with our money, he said, 'Is it reasonable to suppose that a man of my ability and tastes would pick himself outside the pale of the law, as I feel that I must be, when by handling other people's money I can receive a magnificent income and be absolutely free from punishment, even if the miracle happens to me.'"

"He told us that his business carried no greater risks than any mercantile proposition. "I saw Sheldon angry only twice. One of these occasions was when a Montreal man said he did not wish to be seen around Sheldon's office. "Why," said Sheldon, "I could crush him utterly. But I never did a dirty deed yet, and it's too late to start now. "You will have to show me before I will believe that Mrs. Sheldon, the quiet-voiced, ladylike and gentle little woman, who entertained me at her husband's home, was a partner in any game to defraud."

OSTEOPATHS NOT QUALIFIED

To Sign a Medical Certificate for School Purposes. A communication was read before the finance committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon from Frank E. Hodgins, K.C., solicitor to the board in connection with the question as to whether an osteopathist is legally qualified to sign a medical certificate. Mr. Hodgins writes: "The Interpretation Act says that the words 'duly qualified medical practitioner or member of the medical profession' shall mean a person registered under the Ontario Medical Act."

Mr. Hodgins also states that in conversation with the secretary of the Ontario Medical Council, the latter stated that there are no osteopaths registered under the act. BURGLARS GOT $1500

Chesterville Drover Woke Up Too Late and Money Was Gone.

MORRISBURG, Oct. 17.—Vance Robinson, a successful drover of Chesterville, was robbed of $1500 on Sunday night. Robinson was in the habit of buying hogs at Morrisburg, and in order to get an early start Monday morning, drove a pluck from the bank on Saturday night, and placed the money between the mattresses and his bed. During Sunday night he was disturbed by a noise, but woke up too late, his money was missing and the robbers had escaped. The drawers were well prepared to defend themselves, as a large piece of tubing was left behind, evidently to be used should Robinson wake up during the search for the money.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17.—(Special)—The royal commission on technical education held sessions here to-day, in addition to visiting local factories, and heard evidence from employers, superintendents and employees.

Athletics Take First Game From Cubs by 4 to 1

Note and Comment

The rally in the ninth shows the mettle of the Cubs and their determination to cheer up the followers of the National League champions. The story from Philadelphia has Big Chief Bender too hot to handle. The Athletics and his men were getting acquainted towards the close.

On the other side the American champions had no difficulty in solving the offerings of Overall. The Chicago pitcher who figured late in leading this year's pennant, the he was reported back to form at the end of the season. Overall has given the distinction of starting the first game on account of his former success against Detroit, but failed signally.

Those who know it all will tell you how close it might have been with McIntyre officiating from the start, but his wife says he would have had nine innings when it was all over.

While our distinguished correspondent Mr. T. Cobb of the Detroit Tigers is enthusiastic over the prospects of the Athletics, it must be noted that the club does not belong to the Ban Johnson circuit.

Coombs pitches for the Athletics today and it remains to be seen whether or not he will have the same success as did his Indian brother, tho' it is hardly likely that three-placed Brown will suffer as did Overall.

GIANTS AND HIGHLANDERS

Fourth Game of New York Series a Tie in Ten Innings.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Giants and Highlanders battled ten innings to-day, and when darkness stopped the conflict the score stood 5 to 5. Five plays time and again saved the game for both teams.

A one-hand catch by Devore spoiled a home run for Cree with two men on bases. Then, the Highlanders' star slab man, came to grief in the seventh innings, when the Giants touched up his delivery for extra-base drives, scoring two runs.

The post-season games stand: Giants 2, Highlanders 1; in the series, Giants 5, Highlanders 4. In the first three games of the eighth inning on smart hitting, and the Giants tied the score in the ninth on singles by Devine, Myers and the Americans used three pitchers, and the Giants had to call a second pitcher, Ames, to relieve the first Grand Slammer, Myers. Highlanders stole six hits on the Indians, Myers. The score:

Boyle	5	0	0	1	0	0	0
Murray	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Hurd	4	1	1	1	1	1	1
Hrdwell	4	1	3	2	1	1	1
Merkle	4	2	2	3	2	0	0

FRANK BAKER BEAT THE CUBS 4 TO 1

Athletics Hammer Overall Out of the Box in the Third Innings, While Chicago Fails to Get Past First-Base Until the Ninth Innings.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—In a clean and sharply played game the Philadelphia American League baseball champions defeated the Chicago Cubs, the premier team of the National League, at Shibe Park to-day by the score of 4 to 1. In the first contest of the series to decide the world's championship, nearly 30,000 persons saw the game.

To Charles Albert Bender, the Chi-peps Indian pitcher, and to Frank Baker, the Athletics' slugger, the Philadelphia team largely owes its victory. The chief never showed better form than he did when he swung his bat on Monday. Baker's valuable contribution was his hard and timely hitting. On the other hand, the Chicago champions found Overall rather easily, and after the third innings Manager Chance was compelled to rest him. Bender, the latter promptly stopped the Athletics and held them without a hit until the eighth inning, when Baker drove one of his curves to the right field fence for two bases.

Bender, who won the only game the Athletics took from the New York Nationals in this world's series, hit three hits, one in the first inning by Schulte and two in the ninth. The only other Cub men, besides Overall, who contributed to his defeat were George G. Coleman, who made three hits, two being doubles.

For a Chicago runner reached second until the ninth. Bender struck out eight men, and allowed only three hits.

Two hits, an error and a base on balls made Chicago look dangerous in the ninth.

CHIEF BENDER
Indian finger, the best in the American League, barring possibly Johnson of Washington, wins first for Athletics, holding Cubs down to three hits.

The World's Series

HANDS OFF!
The stand taken by Bishop Fallon in favor of a sound English education for the children of his diocese, in place of the absolute breakdown of the so-called bilingual schools therein, is one of the best exhibitions of patriotism, if we may use the term, that we have seen in many a day. It is a fine rebuke to that irresponsible junta in Montreal, that has undertaken not only to run the Province of Quebec and the Dominion, but proposes now to dictate to the people of Ontario what their system of education shall be, and that the teaching of French shall be the test of our performance of the high responsibilities that devolve upon this province to educate all her children.
Once, for all, we wish to say that Ontario proposes to run her own educational affairs, and at the same time respect the rights of our fellow-citizens, who are entitled by law to separate schools. But no matter what the school, there must be a thorough education in English for all our children. The Province of Quebec has all it can look after when it looks after its own people and its own children and sees that they get a sound education to fit them for their struggle in life.

THE COMING PEACE-MAKER.
Every day does it seem more and more likely that the airship will make good. It has already made good in many respects. It can almost be put down as a certainty now that under fair weather conditions a trip can be made from England to the continent, or from the continent to England, any day, or three or four times a week at least, and we believe before long, in three or four hours, at any time. The trip of a dirigible, with seven men aboard, from France to London, on Saturday, was a marvelous performance. So was the performance in Washington the other day, of an aeroplane where the operator circled the dome of the capitol and dropped down at the door of the president's residence in the White House.
What the outcome of Wellman's trip across the Atlantic will be no one at this moment can say. It may or may not be a failure, but it will, to our mind, be long before the Atlantic will be successfully crossed.
And looms up alongside of all this progress in aeronautics, is the almost certainty that airships carrying bombs will be more effective than the most powerful Dreadnoughts at sea; and if this is the case, then the world will be bound to come to an understanding to get along without war; and more and more will things tend in the direction of a peace league being made by two or three powerful states to force those who would go to war to abandon their purpose. The frightful cost of maintaining the armies and navies of Europe is the greatest blot on humanity to-day. Perhaps the simple little airship and its development that is now in sight, will be the means of doing more for peace than anything else.

PROMOTION IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.
There has been a revival of the talk about a civil service commission under the Whitney Government, and the improvement of the service is frequently under discussion. The one principle that is universally recognized is the desirability of permanence with efficiency. There can be no question that the improvement of the civil service depends largely on the degree to which it is made attractive to young men and to which it encourages them to remain in the service with the hope of promotion and distinction through the full development and use of their talents. In view of this principle of promotion is one that should be basic in the consideration of all appointments.
There has been no word of a successor to the late Mr. Hunter of the insurance department, and we trust the delay does not mean any hesitation in the application of the principle of promotion. There is no man in Ontario better fitted for the position rendered vacant by Mr. Hunter's death than W. J. Vale, the present deputy inspector of insurance. He has the respect and the confidence of everyone connected with the subject, and he has been a prime agent in the work of the department for many years. If the civil service is to be cherished there should be no hesitation in promoting Mr. Vale, and Hon. J. J. Foy will secure the approval of the public in making the appointment.

DANCING AS A FINE ART.
Among the more notable of recent features in the dramatic world has been the revival of interest in dancing as an independent art. The ballet d'action with its combination of music, dance and pantomime never took the hold in English-speaking countries which it achieved in France, Austria and at a later date in Russia. But as an adjunct of Italian opera, it had considerable vogue, also after 1870 even to that extent it lost much of its importance and became identified with certain of the London music halls. In Paris, Vienna and in Russia, however, part of the state subsidies have always been expressly devoted to the encouragement of dancing. In the government schools the training is long and severe and developed on highly aesthetic principles.

Some months ago the London public came under the spell of the Russian exponents of the art of dancing. Capable critics at once recognized that their distinguishing characteristic was a keen sense of what may be expressed in terms of the dance and that their interpretation of the spirit of particular musical themes was in the highest degree effective and refined. Of these Russian artists the most eminent are Anna Pavlova and Mikhail Mordkin, who will appear at Massey Hall on Thursday afternoon and evening of this week, under the patronage of Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Grey. For this unusual opportunity the Toronto public are indebted to the enterprise of Mr. Lawrence Solomon, and it will be interesting to find whether the remarkable appreciation extended to the Russian dancers in Britain and the United States is supported by the Toronto public.
Now that Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King has so successfully inaugurated the hydro-electric power policy, perhaps he will give us provincial trunk telephone lines, or even better, a Dominion one.

Y.M.C.A. Convention
And What it Should Accomplish.
John R. Moit, in speaking of the coming thirty-seventh international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America, to be held in Toronto, Oct. 23-31, says:
"The International Convention will widen the horizon, enrich the sympathies and stimulate the zeal of every conscientious delegate, and will likewise send him away with a new sense of appreciation of the uniqueness and urgency of the present opportunity before the association movement near and far."
"Coming as it will at the present plastic time in the life of Canada, when the spirit of nationalism is manifesting itself with a new and splendid energy; the convention bids fair to exert a profound influence in shaping the ideals and practices of the young men of the Dominion, and of influencing the efforts of the church of our belief."
"The Toronto convention will impress upon all delegates of the United States, as no previous event has ever done, the marked advantages of the present happy alliance between the associations of these two countries, which have so much in common in their deepest interests and destiny."
"In view of the representative delegation which is coming from the British Isles to attend the convention, it would be difficult to overstate the possibilities of the meeting in Toronto in the direction of strengthening the position of the association movement throughout the British Empire."

GOVERNMENT ARMED
Sir Wilfrid Goes Down to the Dust of By-Election Himself.
OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The government views with considerable alarm the forthcoming by-election in Drummond-Arthabaska, rendered necessary by the elevation of Louis Lacombe to the senate. Disturbing reports regarding the progress the Nationalists have made in the constituency have been reaching the premier, and accordingly he went himself to-day to the scene of the coming contest.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the very rarest occasions has taken any part in by-election contests. It is understood here that unless the government makes a good showing in this constituency, which has hitherto been won by huge majorities, and in which at last election no Conservative could be found to run, its downfall in Quebec at the next general election will be taken for granted.
Four Years for Bestial Crime.
GALT, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Convicted before Magistrate Blake of a bestial crime, John McLellan, aged seventeen, was this afternoon sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. When the evidence was being taken, McLellan's father stated that Chief Gorman had not given his son warning not to say anything that could be used against him. But it was proved that the warning required by law had been duly given, and McLellan, sr., is now held on a charge of perjury.
Johann Benninger, who last Monday pleaded guilty to burglarizing the premises of the Galt Brewery Co. and 8th Club, was sentenced to four years in Kingston.

Cow's Run Dry.
For theft of Wm. Kingdon's morning milk, which has disappeared 19 times from before his residence at 40 Gladstone-avenue, Mary D. Zadigsky was remanded for sentence in police court yesterday morning, with a warning that another offence would mean jail. She said she had taken it in mistake, but her own bottle, containing milk, was on her doorstep when the constable saw her take her neighbor's.

Trebilcock v. Trebilcock.—K. F. Mackenzie for plaintiff. W. F. Davidson for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for interim alimony and disbursements. Judgment: The plaintiff will be generally dealt with by an allowance of $5 a week to run from Sept. 8, the date of the writ, and $30 for interim disbursements. If plaintiff not satisfied with this amount, the disbursements may be set aside by the court on the production of affidavits made then it would seem proper to allow a counsel fee of $40. Costs of motion will be in the cause. The other questions on the motion are not relevant to the present motion. If the house on Sunnyside-avenue was rented, as it ought to be, and the rent paid to the plaintiff, that would be properly taken into account. As it is the best thing for both parties it is to have a trial before Nov. 25, when the payment on mortgage matures.

which at their very face are false? For instance, when the bishop says 'six of the 18 French-Canadian priests in my diocese have expressed to me their unfettered confidence in the manner the children are being educated in the bilingual schools, he is uttering a half truth only.'

Cause of Dissatisfaction.

"No doubt some of the French priests in the diocese of London are dissatisfied with the present condition of affairs, but I challenge his lordship to get those priests to say that the cause of their dissatisfaction with the present normal school formation, and a proper system of inspection.

"With one or two exceptions, the French-Canadian press of all parties is solid in its denunciation of Bishop Fallon.

Mr. Langlois Le Pays and Mr. Bourassa's Le Devoir, the one anti-clerical and the other a clerical paper, are making the same point. Mr. Bourassa, he has never said one word against the Irish, and was in fact the only French-Canadian journalist who approved of Mayor Guerin's flag policy.

"The bishop's firing 'At Le Devoir' of the same school is a cheap device to enlist against the French-Canadian children the church's influence, the anti-Catholic sentiment of a portion of Ontario, and one that a man in Bishop Fallon's position should never resort to."

NOT ILLITERATE

French Children in Essex More Intelligent Than English, Says Inspector.

DETROIT, Oct. 17.—Asked for a statement regarding Bishop Fallon's declaration that the French-Canadian children of Essex are illiterate, David Cheney, bilingual school inspector for the north riding of the county, said:

"I do not think the French-Canadian children of Essex are as illiterate as Bishop Fallon believes they are. If anything, my long experience among them has led me to believe they are even more intelligent than English-speaking children, inasmuch as they have more than a fair knowledge of their own language before they start school. Their percentage of success in these examinations is much higher than in other branches of the province. The knowledge of their own language of the individual ability of the children by any means."

"If there are any illiterates among the pupils, it is not the fault of the schools wherein they are taught. It is more the fault of parents who take their children from school for the most part at an early age. They do not get the opportunity for higher education which the English children receive. They start to work in the fields at the age of 14 or 15. Teachers place English above everything else in the school."

"There is one other thing I wish to emphasize, and that is that the French-Canadian child can obtain a better education for life in this district up here than he can by going to Lower Canada. At Sandwich we have a school which is excellent in every way, but numbers of our young people go to Quebec, because they have got the impression that French is not taught at Assumption College. It is taught for one hour every day for the six years of the course, and during the two additional years of the philosophy course."

The indifference of a great majority of French-Canadian farmers and village people in this county to having their children educated in the real cause of the whole trouble, it is said, is many families the children go to school when the parents cannot find anything for them to do at home. The truant law is not enforced.

Comment of French Press.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Mr. Bourassa's paper contains a very candid translation of Bishop Fallon's statement, but the reply is deferred till to-morrow.

La Patrie says that before this there might have been some doubt as to the bishop's position on French teaching, but now there is no possible doubt as to his lordship's hostility, as he takes his place amongst the most inveterate enemies of the French tongue and the rights of our compatriots in the sister province."

La Presse says that Bishop Fallon is proud of the hostility of certain newspapers in the Province of Quebec, but is just as proud to have The Orange Sentinel on his side."

WOMAN LOSES HER MEMORY

Found Wandering at Station—Likely Mrs. George Gibson.

A young woman, believed to be Mrs. George Gibson, formerly Florence Easton, whose father had a bakery in West Queen-street, but who now lives somewhere on McCaul-street, is in the Court-street police station suffering from an almost total loss of memory. She was found wandering aimlessly about the Union Station about 10 o'clock last night by Policeman Hunt.

At an early hour this morning the police were trying to locate her relatives, a slow process, owing to the fact that they have moved from the address given in the directory for the present year. Mrs. Gibson is known to have been subject to fits for a number of years.

In her chateau she was found a bank book bearing a number and two cards, one of which was the name of Gibson and upon the other Easton. Asked if her name was Gibson, she said that she thought it might be, and after long consideration said that her Christian name was Florence. She said that she lived with her mother and husband.

The woman is blonde, dressed in a brown shirtwaist and a black belt, and a brown cloth turban. She is slight and has delicately modeled features. She is about 30 years of age.

FRENCH STRIKE IS OFF

Railroad Employees Decide to Go Back to Their Work.

Mothers Should Watch Closely

Diseased Kidneys the Cause of Bed-Wetting.

Wellesley young man permanently cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, gives the public the benefit of his experience.

WELLESLEY, Ont., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—That all diseases of the bladder from bed-wetting to gravel are the direct results of Kidney Disease, has been proved again and again by Dodd's Kidney Pills. They cure the Kidneys and the Bladder diseases speedily disappear.

One of the latest proofs comes in the experience of Mr. George Strebel, the well-known hardware-maker of this place.

"I was troubled with bed-wetting for many years," Mr. Strebel says. "The doctor could not give me relief and he once told me I suffered. I tried many medicines, till in January, 1905, reading the experience of others led me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Nine boxes cured me so completely that I have never been troubled since."

Mothers should learn that when their children are addicted to bed-wetting it is time to look to the cause. The Kidneys are the cause. Cure the kidneys by using Dodd's Kidney Pills, and not only stop the bed-wetting, but ward-off serious and dangerous disease in after life.

THE NIOBE OFF CAPE RACE.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—The Niobe, the flagship of the new Canadian navy, will arrive at Halifax on Friday. A cable from the Niobe to-night says she is off Cape Race, encountering heavy weather from the west.

British Steamer Ashore. RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 17.—The British freight steamer Port Marneok is reported ashore off Cape Frio. Twelve of the crew were drowned. The Port Marneok sailed from San Lorenzo, Argentina, on Oct. 5, for Leith, Scotland.

RATES ON EXPORT GRAIN TOO LOW FOR BUSINESS

Only One Cent a Bushel and Mariners Refuse to Accept—Marine Season Closes Early.

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—If the demand for export grain does not strengthen during the next few days, dozens of Canadian and American vessels will be tied up for the winter or until the demand for tonnage improves.

Where during many former years at this time two cents a bushel to Buffalo was freely offered, and the rate late in the season was three cents a bushel, only one cent is offered this week to Buffalo and Montreal, and several contracts were made at seven-eighths of a cent a bushel, the lowest on record.

Canadian vesselmen in port to-day say their lines do not care for cargoes at that price, especially in the fall. Already there is a number of boats being held in the east, pending an improved export movement. An unusually early closing is anticipated, in view of the fact that the prospective grain rates will hardly warrant the extremely high insurance demanded in December by underwriters.

American captains predict a pronounced slump in the one movement early next month, and that part of the Canadian west, dependent on Cleveland and Buffalo coal, should be well supplied by the middle of next month.

18 Guilty of Manslaughter.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—After more than 26 hours' deliberation a jury yesterday returned a verdict finding eighteen deputy sheriffs guilty of voluntary manslaughter. They are accused of killing Paul Reno, a miner, in a strike riot last May.

Doctors Watching Itching Skins Heal

(From Chicago Inter-Ocean.)

Eczema on the scalp and body, and dandruff, will soon cease to afflict mankind, according to Dr. Aloysius M. Churchill, who is in Chicago attending the convention.

"Any person can apply my treatment anywhere just as well as I do in the Franco-American institute for Skin and Scalp Diseases," said he Tuesday.

"Get from your druggist 2 ounces of quinine, dissolve it in 1-2 pint of hot water; let cool. Rub well upon the affected part. That is all there is to it. Two or three applications usually accomplish the desired result.

"Of 98 cases treated 95 were completely cured and the treatment was beneficial for the other 3.

"The formation of dandruff causes an itching scalp. Scratching with the fingers spreads infection, therefore, untimely lotion can be used with good results by anybody whose scalp is itching or forming dandruff. It is the best thing I know to promote the growth of hair."

AT THE THEATRES

At the Princess.

"Sherlock Holmes." William Gillette presented an exceptionally fine company last night at the Princess in a revival of "Sherlock Holmes," and managed incidentally to convey the intelligence that good melodrama may be quite as artistic and thoroughly interesting as any other form of good dramatic art.

It is to be supposed that everyone knows the story of the Doyle-Gillette play. It turns on the devices by which the great detective obtained the restoration of the documents in the Faulkner case, in competition with the emperor of criminals, Prof. Moriarty. Such a master of stagecraft lets no point escape in the setting of the piece, and the presentation from this point of view is of intense interest.

At the Royal Alexandra

"Mr. Freedy and the Countess." "Mr. Freedy and the Countess," presented at the Royal Alexandra last night, is a clever comedy, more than clever dramatist, R. C. Carton, with all its farcical improbabilities it holds a true vein of satirical comment on the social weaknesses of a certain section of British society, all the more pronounced because it brings the world of fashion into immediate contact with the staid morality and respectable conventionalities of middle class opinion.

Upon the quiet Mr. Freedy, astute to follow the even tenor of his accustomed way, are thrust the throes of an elopement begun without any excuse even of temporary infatuation. He has just become engaged, without any demonstration of affection, to a girl who has enlisted such emotion as she has at disposal. Thrown into a sudden and unlooked-for emergency, and driven between his own inclination and the influence of the man who has given him his partnership, he tries to be loyal to both with consequences which are thoroughly humorous and provocative of constantly recurring mirth.

At the Grand.

The Virginian. If you wish to spend a few hours in the heart of the cowboy country, full of thrilling adventure, intermingled with comedy and pathos, go and see "The Virginian" at the Grand this week. There is not a dull moment in the play; it holds the attention of the audience from the start to the finish. The opportunities afforded for stage settings are fine.

The first act opens at Uncle Hewey's with a dance and christening. The Virginian, an invited guest, tries to become better acquainted with Molly Wood, a school teacher from New England, whom he had previously saved from drowning. In this act he meets the bad man, Trampas. The act ends with the exceedingly funny scene where the Virginian and Honey Wiggins mist the babies left sleeping in an adjoining room.

The third act, the Horse Thief Toss, where the cowboys and the cattlemen have a most exciting scene, ends in a lynching. The final act, Medicine Bow, where the bad man, Trampas, meets his just reward, and the Virginian and Molly Wood have no more difficulty in their love affair, is very realistic.

William L. Gibson, as the Virginian, gives a clever portrayal of the character, and seems to have been created for the role. Leadville, as the cattlemen, has a most cordova, as Trampas, shows himself a capable actor, and the character was never given a better interpretation. The company is an exceptionally able one, and the scenic embellishments of the production are all new. The Grand should play to capacity houses all week, especially at the two matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

At the Gayety.

Another high-class burlesque show is provided by Rugh's "Bon Tom" at the Gayety, presented in two acts and a number of scenes. "Mrs. Back's Bon Tom College." McGurk's "Suite Hall" and the sudden change to the "Cafe de L'Hotel" are scenic features worth seeing. The vaudeville and specialties are away above the average, the Dunedin troupe of triple cyclists, who have been seen in the higher priced theatres, being the headliners. Others are Peely and Kelly, good comedy scrubs; Cooper and Brown, in songs and dances; Mrs. Roper, songstress of the Peregian Sisters; in a roller skating turn; eccentric dances by Misses Douglas and Dare, and a laughable burlesque in melodrama. There is music in plenty, and the chorus, in addition to being quite presentable to the eye, know how to use their voices to advantage.

Fifty-Six Bodies Recovered. STARKVILLE, Colo., Oct. 17.—All of the fifty-six bodies of miners entombed in the mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company by an explosion Oct. 8, have been recovered.

ENSOR PRESS REPORTS METHODISTS WILL TRY

Result of Discussion on Mission Board Meeting—Appointments and Appropriations.

"Proper preparations for the report of the proceedings to the denominational and secular press" will be made by the board of Missions of the Methodist Church before their next conference. It was decided last night, and the executive will be so instructed. The motion was made by Rev. A. E. Birks of London.

The reason for the ordered "preparation" is that Rev. Dr. Carman made some remarks which were printed. He made the remarks, which he thought had been misrepresented when he saw them in cold print, when the report regarding the appointment of a board of governors to the new Union University, West China, was read. Yesterday morning he characterized the report as "a perversion of the truth." A committee was appointed to compare the shorthand notes of the board's stenographer with those printed. As a result the committee reported that the printed version of the address was substantially correct. In future the board will issue a newspaper copy of the proceedings if they can get members to do it. Rev. Thos. Marshall, chairman, Rev. D. Parkdale, pointed yesterday, but they refused to act.

It was decided last night to discontinue the Victoria Indian Mission; but $250 will be granted to Rev. Walter Rigby to be expended on industrial work for an Indian mission. There were nine appointments to the missionary executive for the ensuing year: Clergy—Dr. J. A. Rankin, Dr. R. Young of Montreal, Dr. S. J. Shorey of Cobourg, Dr. E. B. Ryckman of Kingston, Rev. G. L. R. Russell, Justice McLaren, Thomas Hilliard, J. W. Flavell and W. E. Lawrence of Sarvia.

The report of the committee on appropriations recommended the following: British Columbia Chinese, $2991 China, $110,959 for Indian work, $7221 for the Federated States, $254,999. The report was approved. "Other churches had shown no anxiety to help them in the Indian work," said Rev. Mr. Shorey. Opinions were advanced to the effect that they were spending too much on Indian work. The committee expects to look into the matter will be appointed.

The recommendation of the home committee, that the board approve of the principle of appointing a superintendent of missions for Newfoundland and Labrador, the executive to enter into arrangements was adopted. A committee was appointed to prevent further delay in the appointment of churches in mission fields. The committee of nine will confer with the Presbyterian committee.

SAYS HE WAS VICTIMIZED

Alberta Doctor Claims Solicitor Didn't Give Him Fair Deal.

Dr. John Parker of Edmonton claimed in the non-jury assizes yesterday, that he had been defrauded in a deal involving a real estate transfer, when defending himself in the suit brought by John Crozier, solicitor of Georgina, Ont., to force him to abide by the agreement.

Dr. Parker, in his statement of defence, said that he had allowed Archibald Crozier, a solicitor of St. Catharines, Ont., to handle the deal, but that Crozier had not acted in good faith. Plainiff, Latimer, is a brother-in-law of Crozier. The lands are located near Edmonton, and the defendant lives in Alberta. He did not well know the value of the lands. Crozier offered the property for sale by tender, as the defendant desired, but he claims the plaintiff colluded with the solicitor to withhold such information (regarding the tenders made) from the defendant and to obtain the said land at less than the best price obtainable therefor. The amount involved is $400.

To Bridge the Ottawa. PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 17.—Stewart & Hewitt, city engineers, have secured the contract for the construction for a steel and concrete bridge over the Ottawa River at Mattawa. The bridge will be 2700 feet long, and some 60 feet high. The total cost will probably run over $200,000.

A Memorial Fountain. ST. THOMAS, Oct. 17.—A drinking fountain, in honor of the memory of the late Jabel Robinson M.P., has been taken over from the contractor by his heirs. The fountain, which is an ornate and useful one, bears in a large bronze tablet, the inscription: "In memory of Jabel Robinson 1831-1907."

Drives Out Foreign Papers. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Brooklyn today among importers of all but printed papers, revealed a condition where in the new Payne-Almrich tariff on such papers has placed the consumer at the mercy of the domestic manufacturer. Foreign papers, with few exceptions, are practically driven out of the market.

Off For India Again. After a furlough of over a year, Miss Annie Little, the missionary of the Christian Workers Church, Canton, N.Y., is again under marching orders. It has been arranged to bid her farewell meeting this evening.

Election in Doubt. MULTIFARION, Oct. 17.—The result of the New South Wales elections is doubtful. Up to the present the Laborites have a majority of two and they may gain a seat on second ballot. The resignation of the premier is certain.

New Paper for Galt. GAITHER, Oct. 17.—J. P. Jeffery, for fifty years editor of the Galt Free Press, has announced his intention of starting another daily paper in Galt. It will be known as the Evening Post, and will be run in the interests of the Conservative party.

Rockefeller's Gift. CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 17.—Announcement was made yesterday of a conditional gift of $250,000 by John D. Rockefeller to the medical department of Western Reserve University. The gift is made conditional on the raising of $750,000 more by the university. H. L. Hanna, well-known as a trotting horse owner, and enthusiast, has pledged $250,000 of the remainder of the proposed million dollar fund.

A Roast for Montreal. LONDON, Oct. 17.—Henry Vivian, who has been addressing town-planning meetings in Canada, writing on the need of action in Montreal, says that the population of the town grows at the rate of 20,000 to 40,000 per year, who dump themselves down practically as they like. The result is a hideous jumble. Mr. Vivian does not think anything quite so bad exists in England as the worst districts in Montreal.

Men Who Know the Value of Good Clothes

IN most walks of life, good clothes are now acknowledged to be a good business asset; for although clothes do not make the man, at least they classify him, and if a man's clothes are always right, it minimizes the danger of his being turned down on appearances—a thing that is more likely to happen nowadays than ever before, on account of the rush and busy-ness of modern offices.

Some men have learned to appreciate the value of good clothes, and when they hear of them selling at dollars less than the usual price, they want to know the name and reputation of the store. In this case it is Simpson's; enough said.

It is not an unusual thing to find a few odd sizes in good suits reduced to our Wednesday price; but we want to call your attention to the fact that many of these suits were late in arriving, and that we're putting these late-comers, all sizes and good patterns, right out on the floor Wednesday morning for quick disposal, and simply swamping all profit.

All this season's goods, the newest designs, and the most called for patterns. They consist of fine English and Scotch tweeds and fancy worsteds; complete lines, which were late in being delivered; all high-grade materials; made on the newest models; carefully tailored, with best trimmings: no better ready-to-wear suits made in Canada. Sizes 35 to 44. Regular values up to $22.00. On sale Wednesday at $12.95

The prices range from $1.25 to $2.50 per yard.
