

JUDICIAL DELAYS AND OBSTRUCTIONS TO BE SET ASIDE

Government Will Make Changes in Conscription Act of Wide Character.

DEBATE IS POSTPONED

Militia Department May Be Entrusted With Administration of Act.

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, April 4.—Long before the house opened this afternoon a great throng of visitors had assembled, anxious to gain admittance to the gallery. It was probably the largest crowd that has assembled since Sir Sam Hughes made his much heralded, but rather disappointing attack on the Borden Government. The crowd today came to hear the debate on the Quebec riots and the Military Service Act. Every seat was taken, and every foot of standing room in the gallery pre-empted. The crowd waited patiently through the routine proceedings, but craned eagerly forward when Col. John A. Currie (N. Simcoe) moved the adjournment of the house to discuss a question of urgent public importance. They leaned back with a sigh of disappointment when, at the request of the prime minister, Col. Currie consented that his motion should stand over until tomorrow. They were then trumped out of the gallery, followed by a general exodus of members from the chamber, and the house settled down to business on committee of supply.

Before Mr. Speaker could put Col. Currie's motion the premier announced that the government would lay before the house tomorrow certain additional information and also certain proposals. The proposals are in the nature of amendments to the Military Service Act. The information is probably additional official reports on the recent happenings at Quebec. In view of the fact that the house would not be in possession of this information until tomorrow afternoon, it was advisable to postpone the debate for at least a day, and he requested the members for North Simcoe to withdraw his motion. To this Col. Currie agreed, but intimated that he would insist upon going ahead tomorrow.

There is strong effort on foot to prevent or at least postpone the debate. The government, it is understood, has already amended the M.S.A. by order-in-council, and these amendments will be disclosed to the house tomorrow. Those in position to know say that the change is of a radical and drastic character, and are along the line foreshadowed in yesterday's despatch to The World. The complicated labyrinth of military delays and local appeals would be ruthlessly brushed aside and unmarried men and widowers without children of military age, will find themselves practically exempt from conscription. Those engaged in essential industries will be given leave of absence, but exemptions in Quebec hereafter will not be the rule, but the exception. Those already exempted by the local tribunals may find themselves in no better position than they were when the law passed.

So sweeping and drastic are the changes said to be that it should require but a short time to have many thousands of men in khaki, who up to this time have escaped military service, especially in the Province of Quebec. The changes, however, will appear to the bulk of the Ontario Government supporters from Ontario and the west unless the administration is committed to the minister of militia.

Many Hostile to Doherty. A number of the Union government members are openly hostile to Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice. They argue that he is in the wrong place, from the Province of Quebec, and that by his judicial training he is unfitted for so executive a task as the enforcement of compulsory military service. On the other hand, it is said that Judge Doherty will consider the taking of the administration of the Military Service Act out of his hands as a personal reflection upon his administration of the department of justice, and will immediately withdraw from the government.

Gossip tonight is busy with cabinet changes and the talk is that Hon. Arthur Simton will go to the justice department and be succeeded as minister of customs by Fred Pardee, former chief Liberal whip, but now the Unionist member for West Lambton. There will be a strong effort by many government supporters to head off the government's amendments to the Military Service Act will suitably meet all the objections that could be urged to the administration of that act up to date. If Col. Currie proceeds he will find himself hemmed in by rulings from Mr. Speaker Rhodes, who is said to have intimated that any discussion upon the Military Service Act would not be in order of a motion to adjourn the house.

Would Keep Lid On. How the Quebec riots can be discussed without also discussing the act remains to be seen, but there is no doubt that the Simcoe M.P. will hold down to the precise decision before the house. This would have the effect of keeping the lid on to a certain extent, but even then there may be an explosion. Friends of the speaker say that he will not hesitate to appeal from the ruling of the chair, and will divide the house if necessary. Should the "Ginger" group support the speaker in this rather extreme procedure, the government might be embarrassed on a vote. Mr. Speaker's ruling would undoubtedly be upheld, but the peculiar spectacle would be presented of the government achieving a victory by the support of a solid Quebec.

RUSSIANS TO DEFEND REGION OF DON RIVER

Inadequacy of Defensive Forces Makes German Success Inevitable.

Moscow, April 4.—In order to ensure possession of the Kiev-Voronezh railway, the Germans have occupied Putyil, ten miles north of the railroad, in the Kursk government. An energetic defense is being organized at Kharkov and Ekaterinoslav, owing to the insufficiency of the forces, it is virtually inevitable that the two towns will fall into the hands of the Germans.

It is believed the Germans will continue hostilities until they have occupied Cholim, Volynia, Podolia and practically all provinces claimed as belonging to Ukraine.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The Germans resuming their offensive in France yesterday, strongly attacked the British and French lines between the Avre and the Somme, a front of 15 to 20 miles, but despite their heavy assaults their gains were small, comprising a dent in the British line near Hamel on the Somme, and a few hundred yards of French terrain, including three villages, in the area between the Avre and the Laue Rivers. Before Albert, north of the Somme, the Germans also attacked the British, and suffered a complete repulse. The French report that the villages which they lost are Mally, Raineval and Morise, but they defeated the most of the German attacks against Grivesnes and, making a counter-attack in this region, made considerable progress. They thus drove a salient into the enemy front so as to divert his attacks. They still hold the heights nearby the three villages captured by the Germans.

According to the French, the enemy tried desperately to break thru their front, using large forces. They identified eleven German divisions, or well over 100,000 men, as engaged yesterday on a nine-mile stretch of front. As the enemy concentrated 38 divisions for his opening assault against the 50-mile British front from Croisilles to La Fere, his concentration per mile of front for the renewal of his offensive is at least 50 per cent greater than his first concentration against the British. His losses will therefore be all the more exhausting. Since his attacks made only slight and not important gains yesterday, it is reasonable to assume, that the battle is still proceeding, that the allies, having a good start, will be able to hold their own till the end of the present period of fighting.

The enemy, by renewing his attacks between the Avre and the Somme, still shows that he is endeavoring to reach Amiens. He believes that he must proceed with his advance at all costs, and the alarm in Germany over the pause has served as an additional spur to military leaders to pursue desperate measures. The peace offensive begun by Count Czernin of Austria also has the endorsement of the German general staff. It is aimed to weaken the morale of the French by fostering the belief that if they abandon Alsace-Lorraine, they can secure a settlement on the same basis as before the war. When this new phase of the German drive fails, the enemy will probably settle down to a process of fighting similar to that adopted before Verdun and taken up by the allies on the Somme and all last summer. He will calculate much on wearing down the British and French manpower, and

ONTARIO DAIRYMEN WILL CHECK COURTS BY MARTIAL LAW

If Habeas Corpus Writs for Detained Men Are Issued in Quebec.

Will Enforce the Act Only a Few Platoons Are Patrolling the Scene of Recent Fighting.

Quebec, P.Q., April 4.—While no official announcement has been made concerning a change in the personnel of the force applying the Military Service Act in Quebec, it was understood tonight that the federal police men who were attacked last week at the commencement of the rioting here will be given amnesty elsewhere. This decision would remove the principal grievance against the enforcement of the act.

The complete reorganization of the Military Service Act registration office was well under way tonight. H. E. Wismer, deputy registrar of the Province of Ontario, who has charge of the work, has taken new offices in the Reiger building, which happened to be in the heart of the area where fighting took place last Monday and was used as an emergency dressing hospital. It is the intention of Mr. Wismer to rigorously apply the Military Service Act. He will have the assistance of Major Gregor Barclay, judge advocate-general, the local police and the military.

In the meantime the military, under General Leasard, are still in charge of the situation. The military authorities have 45 men here who were taken in the neighborhood of the rioting Messageries and they were acquitted in the police court, are holding their views to a view of the rioting, and are being instructed counsel to apply for writs of habeas corpus for them. The military authorities at present have no intention of releasing them, even if the writs are issued, as it was intimated in official circles today that if attempts are made in the courts to dislocate the machinery of handling the rioters, martial law will be introduced.

Quebec Almost Normal. Quebec is almost normal tonight. Only a few platoons of soldiers were patrolling the district where fighting has taken place. The seven men arrested by the local police as participants in the rioting were this afternoon admitted to bail in $1000 each. Lawyers retained by the alleged rioters include Armand Lavergne and J. N. Francoeur, the latter being the mover of conditional sentences in the rioting in the Quebec Provincial Legislature last January.

A doctor who examined the bodies of victims of the rioting, Monday, having told Coroner Jolibeur that apparently the men had been killed with explosive bullets, the military authorities ordered hospital doctors who have had experience at the front with every kind of wound made an autopsy on the bodies. It had been alleged that some of the bodies had wounds over two inches long. The military doctors were unable to find any wound more than an inch long. They had apparently all been caused by rifle shots.

Enquiries by the military among doctors in the locality, where the fighting took place, give the impression that the list of wounded is much greater than at first announced, and it is not unlikely that some were slightly injured by revolver, rifle and machine gun fire.

The funeral of George Demelle, a boy victim of the rioting, took place quietly this morning.

"LEST WE FORGET" IS A BIG DRAMA

produced as evidence against the German Empire. This production was handled in a big way. It required some 3,600 people for the scenes, an immense number for the boat scenes, and many other elaborate fixtures, and its complete cost could not be covered in less than several hundred settings.

It is natural then that the music which, in a sense, helps to make the story interesting and realistic is of the finest. It measures up, just as the music in "The Birth of a Nation" measured up and made that production a thing to be remembered. With an augmented orchestra at his command, Mr. John Arthur, conductor of the Regent Symphony Orchestra, has been enabled to present a charming musical program which will indeed be one of the features in the showing of the drama.

PEPPERY JOHN EVERS THRU AS A PLAYER

Nervous Trouble Again, and Believes His Playing Days Are Over. Waco, Texas, April 4.—Johnny Evers, the famous little Trojan, who has been one of the leading lights of baseball for many years, has probably closed his career as an active player. This is not only the belief among the Boston Red Sox, with whom Evers has been training this spring in an effort to re-obtain himself, but it is the belief also of the little second baseman himself.

AN AGREEABLE SURPRISE

"Frank Baker is a much different ball player than I had figured him to be when I saw him in action at Macon," remarked Miller Huggins during a recent meeting here, and the difference is entirely in Baker's favor. He is a better player than I had believed, I had pictured him as one of those hitters who take long lines and who are quite frequently in no position to contribute to the team. On the contrary, I find that he is always ready with his bat close enough to do damage to all kinds of pitching, and he has been called a ball and making his swing count there is no room for criticism. He is what I would call a wicked hitter and should fit in on the sort of team play at which I had been told he was weak. I must say, too, that I like his words in the field. It is strange what ideas the son has of a player he never has seen in action. I surely got an agreeable surprise in this case."

RESERVING PLAYERS FOR NEXT YEAR'S HOCKEY

Ottawa Has a Large List—Who Toronto Have Chose From. Ottawa, April 4.—This is a long call from Ottawa for the opening of the hockey campaign, with prospects for the absence of many of the present luminaries when the nature of the league is known that each of the three clubs will reserve all its present players for next year.

FRANK BAKER IS A MUCH DIFFERENT BALL PLAYER

"Frank Baker is a much different ball player than I had figured him to be when I saw him in action at Macon," remarked Miller Huggins during a recent meeting here, and the difference is entirely in Baker's favor. He is a better player than I had believed, I had pictured him as one of those hitters who take long lines and who are quite frequently in no position to contribute to the team.

Albert Cotter, Famous Australian Cricketer, Has Fallen in Action

London, April 4.—Every branch of British sport is represented in the latest casualty list issued, resulting from the severe fighting on the Western Front. The famous Australian cricketer, Albert Cotter, has fallen in action. He was a member of the Australian team in 1906 and 1909, and is the first test match cricketer from the Antipodes to make the big sacrifice.

FRANK AND SAMMY ARE HATCHING PLOTS

Montreal, April 4.—According to The Star, there is something new brewing in the Montreal Hockey Club for next season. Exactly what it is cannot be stated, but it is understood that Frank Patrick, when he went to New York, went there with the avowed intention of having a conference with S. K. Lichtenstein, the owner of the Wanderer Hockey Club in Montreal, which had not exercised its franchise after the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association.

NEW ART MUSEUM FINALLY OPENED AT THE GRANGE

Sir Edmund Walker Orders Admittance of Public to Exhibition.

NEW ERA IS BEGUN Royal Canadian Academy of Arts and Ontario Society of Artists Are Interested.

A new era in the art world of Toronto opened yesterday afternoon when, at 14 minutes to four o'clock, Sir Edmund Walker declared the new Art Museum open to the public.

Royal Museum, but when Dr. Goldwin Smith and Mrs. Smith signified their intention of presenting the City of Toronto with the Grange homestead property, a charter was obtained from the government for the Art Museum giving the trustees authority to appropriate property, and the 16 houses north of the Grange were taken over with the intention of affording room for expansion in the future.

Citizens Must Support It. Sir Edmund outlined these facts in an interesting address in which he paid tribute to the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. Goldwin Smith.

EDDY'S "SILENT 500'S"

SAFEST because they are impregnated with a chemical solution which renders the stick "dead" immediately the match is extinguished.

CHEAPEST because there are more perfect matches to the single box than in any other box on the market.

War time economy and your own good sense will urge the necessity of buying none but EDDY'S MATCHES.

How to Grow Asparagus The Crop Deserves More Attention by Farmers and Gardeners--By C. E. Myers

There is no other truck crop that is of such value or so little appreciated by the farmer in general... Asparagus is the earliest crop to appear in the spring, that it serves a long-kept want in the menu after the death of fresh vegetables during the preceding winter months, it is not surprising that persons who grow it in the right manner become enthusiastic about it.

TRACTORS AT WORK IN SOME COUNTIES

Operating in Essex, Kent and Lambton Has Commenced. Because of the splendid weather which is prevailing generally over the province, the opening of the spring season is getting well under way... Ninety of the new tractors ordered thru the Canada Food Board have been sold, 75 of which are on their way now, but in addition to this the department has sent circular letters to some 300 tractor owners throughout the province urging them to use their machines to the limit.
