GAS KILLS MAN AND 2 WHO TRY TO RESCUE HIM

Workmen in Bayside Pit Meet Untimely Deaths— Firemen Overcome

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Three men were killed by gas yesterday in a cistern at 61 Bell avenue, Bayside, Queens, one of them in trying to rescue the first who was overcome and the third in an attempt to save the two others. Two firemen were overcome in the rescue work and were revived by pulmonologists. Those killed were:

Charles Nagle, of 8001 101st street, Corona, Queens, a fireman of Engine 805, Bayside.

John Ferderowitch, of 27 Prince street, Bayside, a stone mason.

Siva Lepicic, of 68 Prince street, Bayside, a laborer, employed by Ferderowitch.

The firemen overcome were:

John Whalen, Hook and Ladder 123, Bayside, taken to Flushing Hospital.

Daniel Flanagan, Engine 306; treated and sent home.

Federowitch was repairing the cistern at the home of Morris Steinbauer. He completed the job and Lepicic went forty feet down over hand down a rope to the bottom of the pit to clear up the debris. A few minutes later Federowitch glanced down and saw his workman stretched out unconscious.

He lowered himself and collapsed as he reached the bottom. Carpenters who had been working the house called Engine Company 805 and Hook and Ladder 123.

When Fireman Nagle arrived a companion started to put a safety belt attached to a rope on him, but Nagle remarked, "Don't clutter me up with ropes" and lowered himself down the rope hanging in the opening. Ten feet from the bottom he fell, striking the bodies of the others.

Whalen and Flanagan went down with belts and Fire Department gas masks, but the masks leaked and both collapsed. They were hauled up by the ropes attached to the safety belts. Eugene Butler, of the New York and Queens Gas Company, who arrived while the firemen were working, went down wearing a gas mask and was hauled up with Nagle's body. Firemen James Summings and William Barry, of Rescue Squad 2, were on the scene when Butler came up, and they used masks and safety belts to bring up the bodies of Federowitch and Lepicic.

It is not known what kind of gas killed the men, but firemen believe it may have come from a nearby sewer.

"TRAMP POET" GETS DEGREE AT SWANSEA

W. H. Davis Arrives at Height of Career After Many Disappointments

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—At a recent congregation of the University of Wales, at Swansea, according to "The Cardiff Times," the degree of D. Litt. was conferred on W. H. Davis, the "tramp poet." Commenting on the bestowal, "The Cardiff Times" says: "Tramp, philosopher and poet, W. H. Davis has started the dregs of disappointment, but never of despair. Although he gathered no money from the sale of needles, threads, pins and thimbles than he did from his poetry in his earlier days, he never lost faith in himself, and today he is one of the most sought-after of English poets. In his heart, he is still a tramp, but his longings to be one the open road have been curbed through the loss of a foot, caused by trying to 'jump' a train in the United States. This accident sent him home to Newport, and after many vicissitudes, his work was noticed by A. St. John Adcock, and from living in common lodging houses he found his simple tastes, gratified by the grant of a civil pension of £100 per year.

Mr. Davis was born in Newport in 1870, and his life has been spent in walking, observing and writing poetry and prose. In 1917 Mr. Jacob Epstein, the sculptor, exhibited a portrait head of Mr. Davis, and this was subsequently purchased by Lord Tredegar and is on exhibition at the Welsh National Museum.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Wilson's Experience a Guide to Women Passing through the Change of Life

Hamilton, Ontario.—"I have taken several bottles of Dr. E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot speak too highly of it as I was the change of life and was all run-down and had no appetite. I was very weak and sick, and the pains in my back were so bad I could hardly move. I got very sad at times and thought I had not a friend on earth. I did not care if I lived or died. I was very nervous, too, and did not go out very much. A friend advised me to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I am a farmer's wife, and always worked hard until lately, and was in bed for two months. I began to feel like a new woman after the first bottle and I recommend it with great success, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about your medicines, as I cannot speak too highly of them."—Mrs. Emma Wilson, 471 Wilson Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 14, 1926.

Correspondence and conference in connection with the building of a new train shed in Saint John tend strongly to recall the Circumlocution Office. When is that train shed to be built? The question would be difficult to answer today—just about as difficult to answer as it has been for some years past—although we are almost upon the eve of one more general election, and the citizens know that winter will come and go again before the C. N. R. corrects its long-standing default in connection with the station accommodations here. The discomfort and irritation due to the lack of decent provision for the traveling public in Mill street will scarcely be allayed, indeed will be considerably sharpened, by another winter during which the existing ramshackle sort of accommodation will continue.

Mr. Appleton, General Manager of the Atlantic Division of the C. N. R., has asked Mayor White for a conference with the city in regard to the proposed new train shed, and, of course, that conference will be held, notwithstanding the fact that previous conferences merely led to further meetings of the same sort, and that the talking stage should have been passed years ago and construction long since completed.

Although the prolonged delay has been inexcusable, the proposals and suggestions made by Mr. Appleton are at least practical and demand early and decisive consideration for the city is not only interested in having the train shed erected as soon as possible, but it must give careful thought to the situation to be created by the necessity of providing more trackage room for the C. N. R. in the Mill street area, the desirability of eliminating all the grade crossings and complications, and at the same time providing relief for a traffic situation which must be made steadily more dangerous and more onerous with the laying of additional tracks across Mill street.

Apparently the Common Council is prepared to enlist expert engineering advice as to the best method of dealing with the changed conditions now contemplated. It should be known definitely what would be the cost of an overhead viaduct from a point in Mill street over the C. N. R. tracks either to Main street, or connecting with a tunnel under Rockland Road and through to the area beyond Adelaide street, a project which would obviate the perils and delays involved in the grade crossings and also very greatly improve haulage conditions in the Mill street and Central North End area.

Certainly this is the time to consider every aspect of the problem, and while the citizens may be tempted to dwell upon the delays and evasions and broken promises of past years, they will agree with His Worship the Mayor that decisive action should be no longer deferred.

If the C. N. R. is ever to have adequate terminal facilities in the Courtyard Bay region, then the matter of the grades between the Fairville plateau and the new piers at Courtyard Bay will necessarily have to be considered, and it would appear that this angle of the case should be given close examination at a time when the station and train shed situation is under review. Had the C. N. R. been serious in its desire to give Saint John prompt service and fair play in connection with this whole matter, we should have seen satisfactory progress long ago. Many people in Saint John are compelled to think that had the same situation existed in Ontario or in some far Western community, the history of the matter would have been entirely different. The city, no doubt, will be ready to meet Mr. Appleton half way with respect to the proposals contained in his communication to the Mayor, and we may be sure, also, that the Common Council will let it be known very plainly that any further exercise along the line of circumlocution will be very sharply resented.

So much for the station situation. If the cost to the city in connection with a Mill street viaduct and a tunnel should be found to be very heavy, it might be necessary to consider at this time, together with the C. N. R., the C. P. R., the local government and the federal government the additional question of a harbor bridge, keeping always in mind that the present deficit on the ferry, which seems unlikely to be reduced, is annually sufficient to pay interest and sinking fund charges upon more than the city's fair share of the cost of a bridge across the harbor.

Should the bridge project be found to be within the sphere of things practical or advisable—and if this harbor is to get the traffic it people may reasonably expect then the bridge will have to be very seriously considered—a Mill street viaduct crossing the C. N. R. tracks and connecting with the northwestern end of the harbor bridge would be indicated. This is a time when Saint John must look well ahead in order that projects involving heavy expenditure

Queer Quirks of Nature

DAY IS NIGHT TO THE OWL

By ARTHUR N. PACK

THIS night worker, with his bright staring eyes and his remarkably keen hearing, is not awake all night and asleep all day merely to fill with suspicion about his mysterious hours and actions.

He is the watchman whom nature has provided to keep down the gophers, rats, squirrels and mice who would otherwise completely overrun us. And, too, he will never fall asleep on the job, for each night prowler he catches is a delicious snuff for him.

He is unusually well equipped for his mission. His wide eyes, placed directly in the front of his head, are extremely sensitive, and his hearing is so sharp that he can detect the slightest sound. And, too, his neck is so flexible that if his keen ears catch the faintest suspicion of a mouse, he can turn his head directly to the back without another movement of his body.

His clothing is light and soft, enabling him to move without a sound, and catch the little ground animals in his strong, pointed claws before they have any warning of his nearness.

And the appetite of the owl is tremendous. It is not particular what he eats, but sweats fur, bones, and all, in unlimited quantities, later disgorging what his stomach cannot digest.

The calls of the different owls—the whimper of the screech owl, the hoot of the great horned owl, and the scream of the barn owl, doubtless sound uncanny to some. But that, perhaps, is because we live so much in the daylight which we are not accustomed to strange notes whose origin we cannot locate.

The Political Fray

Conservative Liberal

THE CREED QUESTION.

(Ottawa Journal.) Mr. Bourassa's tactics are clear. He wants to help win the election in Quebec for Mr. King by representing that Mr. Meighen is a puppet of Orangemen, that is, a puppet of the Orange party, and that, consequently, it must be hostile to Quebec. It is a deadly, a veritable game.

How distasteful, how despicable it is, may be seen from the fact that, as a matter of truth, Mr. Meighen has not, registered, through any Cabinet minister, a disqualification for a Cabinet minister. An Orangeman might make an excellent Cabinet minister. He might, conceivably, make a poor Cabinet minister. And so with a Catholic. And yet, while a man's creed should not in any way qualify him or disqualify him, so far as Cabinet rank is concerned, it is worth noting that Mr. Meighen's Cabinet contains a larger proportion of Catholics than any Cabinet that has been formed by any Prime Minister in years.

Already, although only partially completed, it contains a Catholic, a Catholic representation that Mr. King provided for; it is a larger Catholic representation than Sir Wilfrid Laurier ever had.

DUNNING AND MARITIMES. (Winnipeg Tribune.) "I believe it is correct to say that in the Maritimes there are a number of matters of importance. The first is being born, the second is a free ride on the Intercolonial, the third is marriage and the last is death."

IMMIGRATION POLICIES. (Amherst News.) A fair basis of immigration for a country of the great resources and attractiveness of Canada would be from 300,000 to 500,000 a year. Mr. Meighen bases his hopes not on special efforts in foreign lands, but on a policy that will improve conditions in Canada, that will create more employment and furnish a better market for our agricultural industry.

"A Soldier's Grave," by John Albee. ELEGIAC verse like this has a wide appeal. Albee was born in Massachusetts in 1883, and early in life studied divinity at Harvard, but finally decided to devote his life to philosophy and to literary pursuits.

Break not his sweet repose— Thou whom chance brings to this sequestered ground, The sacred yard his ashes close, But go thy way in silence; here no sound is ever heard but from the murmuring pines.

As yeering the sea's near murmur; Nor ever here comes rumour' the Of anxious world or war's fore-gathering signs.

Mark the dead soldier's dust beneath, And show the death he chose; Forgotten save by her who weeps alone, And wrote his fames name on this low stone: Break not his sweet repose.

LEAGUE SESSION NEXT MONTH MOST CRITICAL IN ITS HISTORY

AGENDA FOR SEPT. ASSEMBLY IS HEAVY ONE

Admission of Germany and Brazil's Stand Important

(United Press Correspondent.) GENEVA, Aug. 14.—With the meeting of the seventh annual assembly of the League of Nations on September 6, the League will begin the most important and the most critical period of its existence.

In addition to an unusually full agenda of international questions and problems, embracing everything from disarmament to white slave traffic, the League will have to solve two of its most vital internal problems to settle that it has yet faced. These are the admission of Germany, and the reorganization of the council, which carries with it Brazil's resignation from the League and Spain's threat to do likewise.

It is only when the September assembly will have been able to overcome successfully this internal crisis that it will be able to take up the agenda of outside, international questions.

As a matter of fact the League's September period of activities will begin even before the convening of the assembly.

On September first there will be held at Geneva the international conference of signatories of The Hague Court protocol for the purpose of seeing if some protocol or annex can be adopted that will admit of the acceptance of the United States' Senate reservations.

LEAGUE COUNCIL MEETS Then on September 6, the League Council will convene for its forty-first session, and will remain in continuous session throughout the entire month of September.

The assembly itself will then convene on September sixth for what will be at least a four weeks' session.

Finally, at some time during the course of the assembly, an international conference will be held for launching the League's new worldwide abolition of all forms of slavery. All of the nations of the world have been asked to send delegates to the assembly with plenipotentiary powers for signing this convention.

FULL AGENDA The full agenda of the seventh League assembly is as follows: Election of the Credentials Committee.

Election of President (probably Foreign Minister Ninichich of Serbia). Examination and adoption of the agenda.

Nomination of six general committee and election of chairman.

Election of six vice-presidents of the assembly.

Report of the Council to the Assembly on the past year's work.

Pacific settlement of international disputes.

Arbitration, Security and Disarmament with report on all treaties thereon to date.

Protection of women and children in the Near East.

Admission of Germany to the League.

Reorganization of the Council.

Report of the League's Economic and Financial Committee, especially on the reconstruction of Austria and Hungary.

Preparation of International Economic Conference.

Report of the League's Commission on Communication and Transit, including fixing a permanent date for Easter and the reform of the calendar.

Report of the League's International Health Commission.

Report of the League's Commission on White Slave Traffic, including expert report on present worldwide status of the traffic.

Report of the League's Commission on International Intellectual Co-operation.

Adoption of Budget for 1927.

Election of non-permanent members of Council.

MANY TO ATTEND GENEVA LECTURES

Addresses on International Relation to Open at Swiss Capital Tomorrow

GENEVA, Aug. 14.—The third annual session of the Geneva Institute of International Relations opens here tomorrow and will continue in session until after the League Assembly closes towards the end of September.

Not less than 10,000 American tourists and an equal number of English are expected to attend various lectures and courses of the Institute during the present session.

Since its inauguration three years ago, the Institute has now become a European summer Chautauque for students of international affairs and League of Nations activities.

The Institute was founded and is maintained jointly by the League of Nations Nonpartisan Association of the United States and the League of Nations Union of Great Britain. These are the two largest organizations in the world now that are working for the interests of the League of Nations.

Regular daily lectures will be given to all American and English tourists, students or others who happen to be passing through Geneva or who come especially for the purpose on all of the leading international questions in which the League is interested. Many of the best international authorities in Europe as well as leading officials of the League of Nations and the International Labor Bureau give their services as lecturers before the Institute.

What Can A Man Do With A Wife Who Quits On Her Job, Who Takes All and Gives Nothing? Advice to a Young Girl on That Most Difficult of Problems: How To Be A Good Stepmother

DEAR MISS DIX—I am just an ordinary American business man, ambitious, a hard worker, successful enough to provide amply for my family, wanting a peaceful and happy home, a loving wife and children. I married a girl who was unusually pretty and intelligent and with whom I was much in love. I have a very high ideal of the relationship that should exist between a husband and wife, and before we were married I talked over many times with my fiancée the various obligations of matrimony. She agreed with all my views. But no sooner were we married than I found that she was lazy, self-indulgent and selfish. She would lie about a morning while I got my own breakfast or went to work. When I returned in the evening, there would be no dinner prepared for me. She was willing to make no sacrifices for my business, and what success I have achieved has been in spite of her, not by her help. Worse still, she evaded motherhood, and regarded herself as a martyr when our one child came to the world. Our life together is a series of quarrels, which I feel to be bad for my little girl, now 8, whom I adore. I wonder if it would not be best for me to go away, and leave the mother and child, for the child's sake, even though it would break my heart to leave her, and I cannot bear that she should think her daddy a quitter. What do you think? ONE OF MANY UNHAPPY HUSBANDS.

ANSWER. I think that the wife who takes all that her husband can give her and who gives back nothing is the most contemptible cheat in the world. She is lower in the scale than the "Moll" who picks a man's pockets on the streets, because she works inside of the law, and robs the one who trusts her and who is defenseless against her. The woman who lures a man into marriage merely to get a meal ticket has no right to draw her skirts away from confidence women. She is every bit as much of a grafter and just as dishonest as they are. Indeed, she is worse, because the poor man she tricks cannot say the price of his folly once and be done with it. He has to keep on paying for being a dupe as long as he lives. And he pays with a broken heart, with wrecked illusions, with a disappointment that embitters his very soul. There are, unhappily, too many women who regard marriage as a soft snap. You often hear business girls say that they are tired of work and want to get married, and what apparently holds them back is the wedding ceremony gives them license to sit down on the do-nothing stool the remainder of their lives. They are keen enough about their husbands providing them with a good home, with pretty clothes and pleasures, but they do not feel that they are called upon to give any returns for these favors. They take their husbands' money, but they do not make them comfortable homes. They do not even take the trouble to see that they are properly fed and their clothes kept in order. They prefer Pomeranian pups to babies, and spend their time gadding the streets, haunting the movies and fighting over bargain counters. Personally, I think that a man is foolish when he lets an overwrought sense of chivalry make him the perpetual victim of a grating wife. Fair play is fair play, and you have a right to demand it even in matrimony. So when a bridegroom finds that his bride is lying down on her job, and that she has no intention whatever of doing her part of the work and shouldering her share of the burden of the matrimonial partnership, I believe that he does wisely to dissolve the firm, then and there. There are mighty few women so trifling and lazy that they wouldn't get up and get their husbands' breakfasts and see that they had a good dinner and a clean and orderly house to live in if they knew that they had either to make good or be kicked out of the door. It is because so many wives find that it is so easy to impose on a good man that they do it. And it is never too late to mend, poor unhappy husbands. I will bet dollars to doughnuts that if you will just speak up and have enough backbone to read the riot act to your wife, even at this late date, you can cure her. She doesn't want to lose a good home and a liberal bill payee and to have to go to work and support herself. And if you will just make her thoroughly understand that it is the divorce court for her unless she does her part, you won't have to get yourself another breakfast. And your wife will love and respect you ten times more for pulling the cave man stuff on her than she does for your making a doormat of yourself for her to trample on. But, in any case, don't think of leaving your little girl. A child who is unfortunate enough to have that kind of a mother has a double need of a father. Her mother cannot teach her anything except to be a quitter and a shirker, because she is that herself. Her mother can never teach her to be anything but selfish, greedy, and grasping, because that is the sort of woman she is. And so she needs a father who can hold higher ideals before her, and teach her honesty and honesty and how to live up to her contract and how to be a good sport. No matter what your wife does, or how unhappy you are with her, it doesn't alter a child.

DOROTHY DIX. DEAR MISS DIX—I am 23 years old, and about to marry a widower with small children. I want to be a good stepmother. Will you tell me how to begin so that my stepchildren will love me and take my advice? YVONNE.

ANSWER. I hope that you have thought long and well, Yvonne, before you marry a widower with little children, because there is no other than that of the stepmother. Now is there any other career in which than that of the stepmother, when there is any other career in which a woman can do so much good or so much harm. When God sends a woman children of her own, He sends with them that miraculous mother love that gives her inexhaustible patience with them, that makes her blind to their faults and deaf to their noise and that causes her to see in their pranks high spirits instead of devilry. But, the stepmother has all to endure in children that are only being corrected for their own good. And, in addition, stepchildren are always suspicious of the stepmother's motives. So realize that you are going into no bed of roses when you take upon yourself vicarious motherhood. You will be pierced by many a thorn. As to winning the love of your little stepchildren, you can best do that by kindness and tenderness and justice. Be fair with them. I think that children resent injustice more than anything else. And don't try to reform them all at once. Don't attempt to make them model children who are always clean, with their hair nicely combed and with manners that are the pink of perfection. Most young mothers are full of theories that they work out on their first baby, but they learn how to slacken by the time the next two or three come along. But the danger of stepmothers is that they accuse a ready-made family all at once, and when they attempt to cut the children all over according to their own little pattern, trouble ensues. Take your stepchildren easy. Make playthings out of them instead of problems, and they will love you and rise up and call you blessed when they are grown. DOROTHY DIX. Copyright by Place Ledger.

America's "Best Dressed Woman" Exploits the Mode

By MME. LISBETH. TROLLING in Paris, the capital of fashion with a capital F. Irene Castle, generally conceded to be "America's best dressed woman," wears the very latest and smartest of French clothes. Miss Castle is now Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin. The costume pictured on the left above is one of the summer modes most popular on this side of the water. It consists of a printed chiffon frock in a lightning design of red, blue and brown. The back is fitted and there is a large revers in front. A urban hat is worn with this frock in beige shade made of tulle and grid cloth. Her shoes are of civet leather and she carries a doebag skin bag. In the center Mrs. McLaughlin, who by the way, is the originator in this country of the bobbed hair fashion, is dressed in an afternoon frock of the French style. It has small hand tufts in level design for trimming. With this she wears a basket hat with dog collar band also dark blue; her shoes are also dark blue with gray tops, and a large dark blue traveling bag adds to the ensemble effect of the costume. The third costume (right) is also dark blue—a street dress that is charming for late summer and early fall. This is a coat dress with white bands on the neck and sleeves by way of contrast. The frock has a decidedly flared skirt. Crocodile shoes and a rose sports hat of two shades of brown complete her costume. Notice how perfectly matched are Mrs. McLaughlin's costumes. From her head down to her feet they are thought out and carry the ensemble idea perfectly. Always her hats are chosen with care to match her frock and her shoes, and even her bags carry out the general theme.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

ONE of the newest screen "stars" of tomorrow is Natalie Kingston, who recently signed with First National. She marries into bigger and more dignified roles from the same school that graduated Gloria Swanson, Marie Prevost and so many other stars of today—film comedies, in which she worked for a year and a half. That experience, and a few supporting roles with such stars as Harry Langdon, Babe Darrin, Betty Bronson and Raymond Griffin constitute the sum total of her screen career to date. She is a native Californian and a descendant of General Mariano Vallejo, the first governor of California. Count Ilya Tolstoy, son of the late Russian novelist, Leo Tolstoy, and other classicists, has entered the movie picture business. He has signed a contract with Edwin Carewe, producer and director, who is making a film version of "Resurrection." He will assist in writing the film scenario and assist in production details. He made a film in Russia in 1915, directing without a script, and reading from a page of his father's book. Cecil B. DeMille announces that he will produce a film spectacle built around the subject of fashion. "Vanity" is the title of this forthcoming screen production, and it will be an original story by Lenore J. Coffey, author of the screen version of "The Volga Boatman" and Raymond Griffin. Leatrice Joy, who has completed "For Allmoney Only," another original story by Lenore Coffey, will star in "Vanity," although it is not expected to be her next production. No director has yet been chosen for this style picture. Raymond Hitchcock has been signed by Marshall Neilan to play an important role in the latter's production, "Everybody's Acting." This marks Hitchcock's re-entrance into pictures after an absence of five years. Eight years ago the well-known funster of the speaking stage made a series of three pictures. Three years later he played the leading role in the picturization of "The Beauty Shop." Since then he has been devoting his time exclusively to the stage.

Flapper Fanny Says

By MARIE BELMONT. Here is a practical frock to bridge the gap between summer and fall. It is of sheer silk and a very light cloth, the cloth forming the skirt, back of the blouse, and part of the sleeves. The silk forms the lower parts of the sleeves and the front of the blouse. The skirt is box-pleated, and two pleated silk ties fall from the collar. There is a slight bloused effect above the snug belt. CHAMOIS CLOTH. The high polish of the piano will benefit most from dry rubbing with a piece of chamouis cloth.

SEE-SAWING UP BROADWAY

NOTICE that half of Broadway and most of the rest of the town now wears those strapped Helen Willis eyeshades. The 5 and 10-cent stores report the sale running into the hundreds of thousands. The other day a motorist, arrested for speeding, wore one into court. "Take off your hat," thundered the judge. "That ain't it, is it?" purred the judge, frowning for contempt. Which would seem to make it official. It is a hat! Those new African headresses in the smart Fifth Avenue shop windows. Modeled after the most primitive adornments of the primitives. Saw two of them at a Broadway first night. They'll be "all the thing" this fall and winter. Shorter hair, longer jewelry, heavy bracelets, ankle adornments, dangling earrings. Wonder when the nose-ring will come back? FREE buses now bring dwellers in the Manhattan countryside to the doorway of certain big theaters. Such is competition in these "dog days" that one Brooklyn playhouse gives 25-mile free bus service to win Long Islanders to the theater. SAW Rudolph Valentino, enquire of all eyes in the lobby of a Broadway playhouse. Which reminds me that Rudolph wears red suspenders. This important fact was established at a night club recently. Rahman Bey, the Hindu fair, is demonstrating how to jab halpins in the flesh with out drawing blood. The heroic Rudolph was called upon to try it. Stripping off coat and vest the red galluses were revealed. Incidentally Rudolph howled as loudly as any human mortal when the pin was jabbed into his arm. GILBERT SWAN.

A Thought

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.—John 15:13. THE most I can do for my friend is to study to be his friend. I have no wealth to bestow on him. If he knows that I am happy in loving him, he will want no other reward.—Theodore.

If all the present plans mature, will be by far the biggest and best effort ever put forth by the fair committee. 11,430 Circulars were mailed last week to people living outside of the city. While it is too early yet to judge the outcome, taken as a whole, the cash donations, sale of tickets, volunteers to assist, reports of community efforts, etc., the general result for the first week is encouraging. The committee look for better things during the next week or two.

Some local ladies are inquiring to know how they can best assist without actually working at the Fair. There are many ways, such as making fancy work, children's clothes, aprons, mats, quilts, preserves, etc. The L. O. B. A. will need over 1,000 persons to make home cooking, confectionery, etc. to sell at their booth. Please send in your name and address if you are willing to assist them. PLAN INCREASE
IN SHIPMENT OF
POTATOES HERE

Dealers and Cuban Buyers
Conclude Sessions in Saint John

The potato shippers of New Brunswick expect to export approximately 1,800,000 bushels of potatoes to Cuba during the coming season, according to a statement made last night by Hon. B. F. Smith, of East Florenceville, Carleton county, president of the Associated Potato Shippers of New Brunswick, which concluded a two-days' business convention with Cuban dealers, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia representatives here yesterday afternoon.

N. S. SHIPMENTS

Senator J. A. Palacio, president of the Canadian American Trading Company, stated last night that the Cuban dealers present at the convention had made arrangements with Nova Scotia potato men to import about 120,000 barrels into Cuba this coming season. The matter of exporting hay and oats from the Maritime Provinces to Cuba was discussed at some length by the conference but no definite decision was arrived at.

The Nova Scotia dealers present at the meeting were Messrs. Chase, Blight, McManis and R. N. Clark, of Berwick, N.S., representative in Saint John of the Havana dealers. Dr. James E. White and R. C. Tait, both of Shediac, were also present. The Cuban dealers who attended the meetings were J. A. Palacio, Jose M. Coto and M. F. Perez. R. G. Betancourt, island to meet potato men there. They will then proceed to New York, via Montreal and Quebec, and sail from there for Cuba.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen
Eyesight 50 Per Cent. in One
Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home
PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it, "I was almost blind, could not read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully, now they feel all the time. It was like a miracle cure." A lady who used it says, "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for a few days everything cleared up. I can now see everything without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can be discarded in a reasonable time and multitude more will be able to spare the trouble and expense of getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow it to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

PLANNING TO MEASURE
DISTANCE OF EARTH
FROM SOLAR CENTRE

International Astronomic Congress Opens in Copenhagen
Tomorrow to Discuss Heavenly Phenomena—
Agree With Einstein

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 14.—Another attempt will be made by the world's foremost astronomers in 1931 to measure more accurately the earth's distance from the sun, according to plans to be submitted to the International Astronomic Congress which opens here tomorrow.
Although the present estimate of the earth's mean distance from the sun is placed at 92,957,400 miles, which is considered sufficiently accurate for all practical uses, it is believed that the position of the planet Eros in 1931, in its relative relation to the sun and the earth will afford an opportunity to make the estimate more exact than it is at present.

MADE IN 1900.
The present estimate was made from similar observations in 1900 through an international co-operative effort. Astronomers in all parts of the world at that time made individual estimates and these were combined by the eminent English astronomer, Hicks, and the figure reached by him has been used to the present. It is believed that this estimate is correct to the part in 2,000, but it is probable that the 1931 observations will bring the correction to one part in 4,000.
The Congress has been arranged by the Astronomische Gesellschaft, an organization of private astronomers with members in all countries. During the week the delegates to the Congress will make a trip to the Island of Hveen on the 350th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Tycho Brahe Observatory at Uraniborg. The Congress will discuss various phenomena of the heavens which have been observed in recent years. It is expected that the subject of variable stars, and principally the star Omicron in the constellation Cetus, which has puzzled astronomers for the last 300 years, will be the principal feature of discussion.

GIRLS' CAMP CLOSSES
AT MOORE'S MILLS

Seventy Happy Young Ladies
Disperse to Their Homes Following
Breakup

MILLTOWN, Aug. 13.—Seventy happy people, including girls and their leaders, closed Camp Solomons at Moore's Mills on Wednesday night, following the impressive treasure burying ceremony which took place at 9 o'clock. A chart was drawn up on a blackboard with directions for finding the treasure next year by the campers of 1927.
The girls were drafted into tribes, having chiefs at their heads and each tribe was given an Indian name which was the only one used during the camp period. The camp officers were: Mrs. Heaney, camp mother; Mrs. Wright, Miss Roberts Smith, dramatics; Miss MacDermott, sports officer. Other officers were Miss Brown, Miss Baker, Grace Robinson, Louise Beach, Raymond, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Woods.
A paper was published at camp three times and was called Campers' Gales. Volume two was printed and sold for 10 cents a copy. These sold rapidly and contained some very clever hits and showed great originality on the part of the girls. Three public meetings were held when the speakers were Miss Elma Inman, P. E. Island, and J. C. Robertson.

TRY IT YOURSELF
THOUSANDS OWE THEIR HEALTH
TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. ALPHONSE COOL

"Every person suffering from Constipation or Indigestion should take 'Fruit-a-tives' and I am positive that they will soon feel in the best of health. As for myself, I have tried nearly every other kind of remedy and have come to the conclusion that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the best. Mr. Alphonsé Cool, 2322 Lafontaine Street, Montreal."
Because "Fruit-a-tives" is a genuine fruit medicine made from fruit juices, intensified and combined with tonics — it corrects constipation, stomach, kidney and bladder troubles, in a natural way, and purifies the blood. No other remedy can be the same as "Fruit-a-tives".

BIGGER THAN SUN.

This sun has a diameter of 270,000,000 miles, or 800 times the diameter of our own sun. During recent observations it became for more than four months 600 times its original brightness of our sun and then slowly faded to its original state, repeating the cycle every 11 months.

Further efforts will be made to devise more accurate means of determining the internal temperature and structures of stars, which at the present time are mathematical computations.
Most of the members of the Congress are said to agree for the most part with the Einstein theory and except for a few points the theory will be discussed at length.
Nearly 100 delegates representing practically every nation have gathered for the Congress.

MONCTON DROPS TAX
ON NON-RESIDENTS
City to Apply For Head
Tax to Replace Income
Levy
MONCTON, Aug. 13.—Moncton city council, at a lengthy session held here tonight, decided to drop the imposition of income tax on residents of outside points who work in the city. The legislation to impose such a tax was passed in 1921 but was never enforced until this year and as a result created a strong feeling of protest among those affected, so much so that several town councils and also the Westmorland county council had passed measures to employ counsel to fight the case in the courts.
As an alternative the city council has decided to apply to the next session of the legislature for legislation to enable the city to impose a head tax upon all non-residents employed within the city.

HOSPITAL COAL MATTER IS UP AT MEETING AGAIN

Independent Audit of Coal Receipts Since November to be Made

QUERY PRESENTED BY MRS. McLELLAN

Library Matter Deferred—Report on Finances and July Work

The matter of coal supplies was again subject for heated discussion at the meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the General Public Hospital yesterday afternoon and it was decided that on the return of the engineer from his holidays next week, if sufficient data was available, an independent audit should be made of coal received and used since November, 1925. It would not be known until the return of the engineer whether one of the power house monthly charts was available or had been mislaid. In the discussion on coal, Mrs. Mc-

Lellan asked what the Board intended the public to understand from its published statement on that subject which appeared in the papers of Aug. 4. Mr. Agar replied that until the coal committee reported the commissioners were "up in the air" in discussing the matter. The Board had stated that the coal company had lived up to its contract in the matter of weight and cost, but it was a shortage, that the contract called for coal delivered to the railway. Mrs. McLellan was informed in reply to her question as to whether a statistical report prepared by the superintendent and presented to the Board on May 28 had been adopted, that the report had not yet been adopted by the coal committee. She asked why not, and was not answered.

The matter of the request of the Saint John Medical Society for accommodation for a library in the hospital, it was decided should stand in abeyance until such time as the enlargement of the nurses' dining room in the hospital should be undertaken.

CERTIFICATE RECEIVED.

The framed copy of the hospital's certificate of standardization was received from Dr. M. C. McEachern, representing the American College of Surgeons, and will be hung prominently in the hall of the hospital. In his covering letter, Dr. McEachern said the certificate indicated that the hospital was judged by the American College of Surgeons to be giving conscientious and efficient service. M. E. Agar, the president, expressed the wish to see also posted in the hall a board with the names of the hospital benefactors written in gold letters. While the members of the Board favored such a board being posted, they

Laborer's Thirst For Beer Costs Him Sum of $15,000

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—A day-laborer's thirst for a stein of good, cold beer netted the widow of the local innkeeper at Bad Ischl, Austria, a fortune of $15,000. The buxom widow is the winner of the big prize in the latest Austrian state lottery. A few years ago, her husband worked near Ischl as a miner. Today his widow is one of the richest inhabitants of the district. The winning ticket was first bought by a worker, Johann Bart, at a little tobacco shop at the summer resort of Bad Ischl. But Johann couldn't con-jure up enough patience to await the fateful drawing of lots. And so, when he visited the local inn one evening, he decided that a glass of beer in the hand was worth an uncertain lottery-prize in the bush. Accordingly, he ordered a stein of Pilsener and paid his bill with his lottery ticket. When the lots were drawn, the innkeeper's widow was officially advised that she had won $15,000. In order to console Johann for his loss, the widow invited him to drown his sorrow in beer for a whole evening at her expense.

department, reported 546 visits by 189 patients. 2342 MEALS SERVED. Miss H. M. Wetmore, dietitian, reported 23,342 meals served at a cost slightly exceeding the cost in June, 1926, but appreciably less than the cost in July, 1925. The statement that a case of canned strawberries was used in July was criticized and was to be looked into. Miss E. J. Mitchell, matron, reported on cleaning and said in the absence of the elevator man McCarthy, the floor polisher was doing the work and floor polishing was not being done. Shortage of help in the hospital was spoken of and it was suggested there should be a permanent appointment as elevator attendant. The matter was left to the commissioner of the month with power to act. There were 172 articles of new linen supplied the linen room. The linen matron, Miss J. Sandall, reported 8,798 articles in use in the hospital and 1,181 in the nurses' home.

REDECORATING HOME

When the matter of the painting of the interior of the nurses' home was under discussion in committee it was decided to have a special committee obtain information as to what work would be required to be done. It was said after the meeting that the work of painting in the nurses' home which was most necessary, would be done but no

353 PATIENTS IN JULY

The superintendent's report showed 353 patients were treated in July, an average of 122.7 daily, and 116 remained at the end of the month. There were 11 deaths. Operations numbered 72 in the operating room and 155 in the out-patient department, where 846 treatments were given. Dr. Gerald Strapp, Newfoundland, reported for annual audit was made by P. L. Blanchet and his assistant. The carpenter is closing up the top of the elevator shaft opening to the under part of the roof of the central dome. An inventory ordered was reported to have been completed.

HOSPITAL FINANCES

The financial statement showed receipts in July totaled, $16,874.98 and included the following amounts, city chamberlain, $6,800; pay patients, $8,877.70; X-ray, $1,288.50; sailors, May account, $963; annual grant from the province, $9,800. The total deficit on July 31, was $19,400.80. Miss M. Murdoch, superintendent of nurses, reported eight graduates and 88 pupil nurses enrolled. Of these four were in Montreal, three in the County Hospital, three in the annex, four on vacation, one ill and one home because of death. Miss Olive Estabrook, junior nurse, resigned on July 31. The medical staff submitted a routine report through Dr. C. L. Emerson, secretary. Dr. O. B. Evans, for the out-patient

MOTHER FINDS SON LOST SINCE WAR

Los Angeles Woman Learns He is in Ohio State Prison

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 13.—For eight years Mrs. Elizabeth McFarlin of Los Angeles believed her son, Ralph, was killed in the World War as she had not heard from him since 1917 when he enlisted in the army. Now she learns the son is alive and is serving a sentence in the Ohio Penitentiary. Ralph McFarlin was convicted of robbery in Cleveland under the name of Ralph Miller in 1921. The mother learned of her son's whereabouts from a convict who had met him in the State prison here. A letter was received from the mother today, asking that her son's identity be verified. The son explains that he did not write to his mother because she had moved and he did not know her new address.

Robb is slated to address the electors here and at Newcastle on the same evening. Other speakers will include Hon. Dr. Veniot and Charles J. Morrissey, the Liberal candidate in this county. There is as yet no outward sign of activity in either party in Northumberland, but both are quietly proceeding with organization. It is the intention of the candidates to speak at every polling station in the county and they will begin their meetings in the course of a week. Minard's Lintment for Corns and Warts.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Always the Eiffel Tower, springing up, as it does, from the banks of the Seine, 984 feet into the sky of Paris, has a tremendous fascination for people interested in "stunts." A large crowd gathered lately to watch a youth of 18 scale the ironwork of the first stage of the tower. Of course, the cinema was

WORLD SHIPPING IMPROVES

Although world shipping still is not in a satisfactory condition, according to maritime men, the idle tonnage is steadily being decreased. On January 1, 1923, the idle tonnage of all the ten chief maritime nations of Europe was 8,400,000 whereas on January 1, 1926, it was 1,860,000 or a reduction of 60 per cent. Still better results are expected to be shown by the first of the coming year, and possibly before then.

F. O. B. Windsor Taxes Extra

Standard Equipment Includes: Automatic Windshield Wiper, Rear View Mirror, Transmission Lock (built-in), Radiator Shutters, Mico-Meter, Combination Stop and Tail Light.

Many of these advantages you will recognize at a glance. But you will have higher appreciation of their meaning when you know that a plant of 18 acres which with equipment approximated a cost of $10,000,000, was first built and that special machinery had to be designed, to make possible the New Coach your dealer is now showing.

It is all steel, bolted and riveted, and so rigid that squeaks, rattles and distortions, are as unlikely as in a steel building. Doors are so hung that a man may hang on an open door while the car is being driven over rough roads, without springing it out of true.

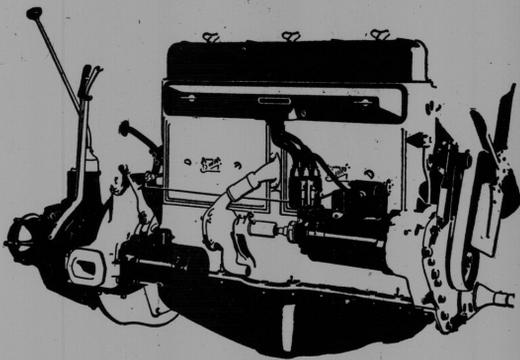

And it is so designed and constructed as to permit the use in a totally new manner of a high baked enamel, most lustrous and lasting finish.

There has been constant improvement in the chassis from the first Essex shipped. And only by the accumulation of the resources, the information, experience, and the skill that have resulted from the building of 350,000 Essex "Sixes" was it possible to create this car which we ask you to inspect and to drive as the best looking, best value, best Essex ever built.

CAPT. TREHAN ACQUITTED ON FIRST CHARGE

Not Guilty of Smuggling Is Decision of St. George
Magistrates

ST. GEORGE, Aug. 13.—We find that there is absolutely no evidence before this court to convict Captain Trehan of smuggling and therefore dismiss the case. In these words, Justice McGowan delivered the judgment of himself and Associate Justice Dewar in the customs case against Captain Trehan of the schooner Granite. Although acquitted on the smuggling charge, Capt. Trehan must answer to another charge, that of hovering with intent to land goods in Canada. The schooner Granite was seized by Captain Kenney of patrol boat G, preventive service, on July 29. She was then lying at anchor beyond the three-mile limit at the Wolves on rum row. Captain Trehan towed the schooner into Beaver Harbor, where she was placed in charge of Sub-Collector McKay. She was afterwards taken to Saint John, where she was tied up at Berth 7, West Saint John, with a full cargo of rum.

SAINT JOHN WITNESSES. Witnesses for the prosecution, today, included Collector Lockhart of Saint John, who testified to examining the papers of the Granite when she arrived in Saint John Customs Executive Officer Wright, of Saint John, who engineer was an expert in repairing engines. On the appearance of the cutter members of the crew had cast him off and he was captured by the cutter. Crown Counsel Teed was very severe in his examination of Baasch's evidence, the prosecution trying in every way to introduce into the records evidence that the defense claimed would be damaging to the witness in his own case in which he is the defendant. Many questions were not allowed and Baasch on the whole gave very favorable evidence for the defense. Police Sergeant McLeese told of the arrest of Captain Trehan and his crew at Saint John.

Justices McGowan and Dewar assisted by Clerk of the Peace P. Elmer McLaughlin presided at the trial. Messrs. Ross, Frauley and Henneberry for the defense, and Messrs. Teed, of Saint John, and Cockburn, of St. Stephen, for the prosecution. Miss Jean Matthews, stenographer at the Customs House, Saint John, took the evidence, and the court, which was held in the Town Hall, was crowded with spectators.

The Baasch case comes up on Tuesday next but as the lawyers have agreed on a further postponement, his bail will probably be continued and the case put over until the following week.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 13.—"Mary," biggest of three circus elephants which stampeded near Cranbrook last week, has been captured, according to George Myers, circus official, who arrived in Vancouver today. Two smaller elephants, "Charley Ego" and "Myrtle," are still at large. The hunt for these animals probably will be abandoned, said Myers.

No Change In Regulations

MANY enquiries are being made at the Tourist Bureau, Market Square, by local merchants and tourists, regarding the U. S. Customs regulation on goods purchased in Canada by U. S. tourists. Some confusion seems to have been caused by a statement published in a Boston paper that the one hundred dollar exemption had been rescinded. This is not the case, the Bureau states. Any United States citizen remaining in Canada for three days or more is entitled to exemption from U. S. Customs duties on goods purchased in Canada up to a value of one hundred dollars.

Mr. McCully has been connected with the Saint John Y. M. C. A. work for the last four years, and has many warm friends here. His work has won for him highest commendation and has greatly furthered the association endeavors in Saint John. Mr. McCully was office secretary at the local Y. M. C. A. for one year and during the last three years has been the Boys' Work Secretary. He is being succeeded as boys' work secretary by Harold Williams, son of John G. $5,000 LIBEL IS PUT ON SHIP AT BANGOR

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 13.—The Boston schooner Cora F. Cressey, upon her arrival here yesterday, with coal from Newport News, was libelled for

$5,000 on action by the Boston Maritime Association, owners of the schooner Jennie Flood Kruger, to recover damages from a collision three miles off Cape Henry on July 24. It is charged that the Cressey drifted down upon the Kruger, which was at anchor, although repeatedly warned and struck the Kruger forward with so much damage that she had to go in for repairs. In the Amazon and its tributaries lives the pirai, a comparatively small fish which goes in shoals and attacks bathers. Its teeth are razor-like.

"Here's How I'm Fixed"—

"If I live to old age I'll be able to enjoy a well-earned rest."
"If I should die earlier my good wife will have an income for life."
"If accident or disease lays me aside permanently before I'm sixty or even for a period of three months or more, I get a monthly cheque until I get better."
"If, later on, I urgently need cash, The London Life will lend me money."
"If my circumstances change I can adjust my policy to suit, without even medical examination."
"How's that for real life insurance protection?"
"The cost? Why, it actually works out at less than 2%, because the premium is only $202.00 a year for $10,000 protection and the annual dividends reduce this considerably."
"It certainly is different and I'm glad I've got it!"

MUTT AND JEFF—Last Words of Men, Some Famous and Some Foolish

HERE'S AN ARTICLE ON THE LAST WORDS OF FAMOUS MEN! NATHAN HALE SAID "MY ONLY REGRET IS THAT I HAD BUT ONE LIFE TO GIVE FOR MY COUNTRY!"

RIGHT! IF HE'D HAD ANOTHER LIFE HE'D THINK HE'D HAVE GIVEN IT TOO!

JULIUS CAESAR'S LAST WORDS WERE "ET TU, BRUTE? THAT MEANS 'YOU TOO, BRUTE?'"

THERE ARE MORE RECENT "LAST WORDS" THAN THAT!

UTTERED BY WHOM?

WELL, GUS GEVEM'S BROTHER, "BUGS," HE UTTERED THEM YESTERDAY!

I WAS MILKING THE COW IN THE PASTURE WHEN "BUGS" DROVE BY IN HIS CAR! JUST THEN THE BROADWAY LIGHTS WHISTLED!

TURNING TO ME "BUGS" SAID "WATCH ME BEAT THAT TRAIN TO THE CROSSING!" THOSE WERE HIS LAST WORDS!

ONTARIO MAN PROUD TO BE "BLUENOSE"

Phinney Says Cure for Ills Can be Found Within Confederation

HALIFAX, Aug. 13.—The next formal session of the Royal Commission investigating the claims of the Maritime Provinces growing out of their partnership in Confederation will be held in Montreal, at a date yet to be determined, when representatives of the Canadian National Railways will present their views as regards the problems of transportation.

That tariff tinkering on the part of politicians, at the behest of influential Upper Canadian manufacturers, was largely responsible for the present situation in Nova Scotia was the view advanced today by F. P. Jones, president of the Canada Cement Company, at the concluding formal session in the east of the Royal Commission.

Hon. F. B. McCurdy, formerly Minister of Public Works in the Dominion Government, another witness, elaborated the contention that the control of trade, taxation and the fisheries, previously enjoyed, should be restored to Nova Scotia.

1925 PULPWOOD SEASON IN N. B. ONE OF BEST

FREDERICTON, Aug. 13.—With the full moon of August, Monday, the 23rd inst., pulpwood peeling operations will have ceased after the biggest season New Brunswick has experienced in some time, possibly the biggest ever. After the August full moon the pulpwood will not peel.

J. M. Scott, M.L.A., and J. Stantley Scott, of this city are among the chief pulpwood operators in this section. During the summer they have had several hundred men employed in various camps throughout the province. York, Sunbury and Queens counties are the chief areas of operations, but operations also were carried on in Kent, Kings and Northumberland counties. At the present time peeling is pretty well through and the crews are at work cutting the wood into lengths.

MARKET GOOD.

The American market is taking pulpwood freely at the present time, and States to be manufactured by them into product protected with a high tariff. For every one of such exemptions, he declared, he could advance a political reason for the same.

The chairman suggested that these special exemptions might have been allowed on the principle that they encouraged manufacturing in Canada and thereby increased employment, but Mr. Jones would not admit any such principle was behind the exemptions.

Tariffs should be formulated, declared Mr. Jones, with only two ideas in view, producing revenue and providing employment. He believed Nova Scotians had been "stuck at the switch," and blamed the federal representatives of the Maritimes for not taking care of the interests of their constituents.

SQUARE DEAL FAVORED

Continuing, he insisted that the people of Ontario and Quebec wanted to deal fairly by the Maritime Provinces and if it was demonstrated to them, as he believed it could be demonstrated, that the Maritimes were being unfairly treated, they would be eager to set the matter right. The witness expressed the opinion that back of every exemption in the Canadian tariff lay a political cause, and when asked by the chairman if he was criticizing the politicians, replied that he was rather criticizing the people who sent them to Parliament.

Elaborating the point, he contended that while at the time of Confederation the tariff was fairly uniform, the frequent excursions of vote controlling deputations to Ottawa had resulted in a fiscal hodge-podge of great advantage to favored manufacturers in Ontario and Quebec but to the great detriment of the producers of raw materials in the Maritime Provinces.

The witness advocated the wiping out of every exemption in the Canadian tariff and the imposition of an ad valorem duty of 25 per cent on everything imported into the country. Concluding his argument, he contended that a policy such as this would increase the revenues of the Dominion, while affording the opportunity for the elimination of the sales tax, which he characterized as unsound and effecting a reduction in the cost of living.

F. P. Jones, director of the Canada Cement Company, criticized the system of tariff administration in Canada and while pointing out that he was an Ontario man, and did business chiefly in that province, explained in what respect he thought Nova Scotia suffered as a result of tariff administration. He dwelt chiefly upon what he called "clear" tariff and declared that vote controlling deputations had benefited the law makers at Ottawa innumerable times, seeking and securing exemptions in hundreds of cases. He referred chiefly to the coal, iron and steel industry and brought forward concrete examples of manufacturers of steel products obtaining the raw material free of duty from the United States in the province. The races will be held on the highways and permission has been secured from the highways board, who have consented to have a traffic policeman on the job.

There will be a match race between Ruben Alcorn, Bear River; Roy Merritt, Clementsvale, and Irving Cann, of Yarmouth. In the free-for-all the starters will be horses owned by Charles Frude, Round Hill; Clarence Thomas, of Barton; William Bonafant, of Belliveau's Cove, and Mr. Munro, of Annapolis. A matinee race will also be held between Walter Marshall and Cyril Raymond. The racing arrangements are in charge of F. W. Robinson, of Digby.

COMMITTEE

The last regatta was held in Digby in 1912. This year a committee consisting of Councillor Fritz Dakin and J. W. Merkel, who were assisted by Frank K. Hayden, Dr. V. Turnbull and others, were appointed to look after sport and it was decided to hold a regatta with a view of making it an annual affair. Merchants and others kindly assisted with cash donations and prizes, and a half holiday has been declared by His Worship Mayor Anderson.

Amherst is the third town or city in Nova Scotia to bench dog shows and while the latest addition to the Maritime dog circuit, it will be the first of the fall dog shows. The Amherst show will be a three-day event.

This show is being held under Canadian Kennel Club rules and winners awards count points for championship honors. The classifications made are sufficient to meet all the requirements of the popular, recognized breeds of dogs. The attractive prize list shows silver cups for most breeds, also variety classes and many specials.

Harold F. Tennant, of Amherst, is chairman of the committee in charge of the show. He has been assisted by Robert B. Laskey, of this city, whose efforts were helpful in conducting the first dog show in Halifax, in 1923, and also two in Fredericton, will officiate as superintendent of the Amherst show. William W. Laskey, the judge, is chairman of the Canadian Kennel Club directors. The Saint John and Halifax shows will follow the one at Amherst.

DATE OF AMATEUR MEETING HERE CHANGED TO DECEMBER

ELECTION IS REASON FOR CHANGING DATE

Result of Telegraphic Vote Announced—Women's Meet Also Later

AS THE result of a telegraphic vote, the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which was scheduled to have been held in Saint John early in September, has been postponed until December 9, 10 and 11. This information was contained in a telegram received yesterday by A. W. Covey, a vice-president of the Union, from Dr. A. S. Lamb, of Montreal, honorary secretary. The change in plans was necessitated by the fact that the federal election would be held in September and many delegates would find it an inopportune time to leave home.

As a result in the change it is probable that the first annual meeting of the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation will not be held until after the meeting here. The women's meeting was to have been held in September, immediately following the meeting here, but owing to the change in plans it is probable that it will not be held now until December.

STARS OF PIRATES ARE DISCIPLINED

Adams and Bigbee Unconditionally Released and Carey Suspended

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Three faces, long familiar to Pirate fans, will be missing when the Pittsburgh National League Club takes the field for a double header with Cincinnati today. Captain Max Carey, Charles (Babe) Adams, and Carson Bigbee, three oldest members of the club in point of service, yesterday morning were suspended from the team as a result of a dispute among the players and the manager over the question of whether Fred Clarke, former manager and now vice-president of the club, should continue to occupy his place on the bench as assistant to manager Bill McKenchie. The three veterans, two of whom—Carey and Adams—Clarke developed, were said to have led a movement to oust Clarke from the bench. Carey, acting as spokesman, said some of the players felt that "two bosses do not get the results that one can."

EXCITING RACE IN INTERNATIONAL

Baltimore, Newark, Toronto and Buffalo Closely Bunched For Lead

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—International League teams are turning into the stretch with the prospect of the greatest finish the circuit has seen in years. In the last seven years Jack Dunn's Baltimore Orioles have taken wing long before this stage, and have arrived at the wire far in the van, but today only three games separate Buffalo, in fourth place, and Baltimore, in first. Four percentage points span the positions occupied by Baltimore, Newark, and Toronto.

WILLS TALKS BIG ABOUT DEMPSEY

Would Fight For Nothing For Satisfaction of Knocking Out Champ.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Harry Wills told the New York Sun today that he is ready to fight Jack Dempsey for nothing, just for the satisfaction of knocking out the champion. "I've been reading in the papers that Dempsey says he tried to get me in the ring for the last five years," Wills is quoted as saying to the Sun. "He's a liar."

"If he keeps on flourishing on that sort of stuff he won't have to wait until he gets me in the ring; he can fight me in the street."

"I'll fight Dempsey any time he wants to meet me at Broadway and Forty-second street, and I don't want a penny to fight him either. I'll knock him out so quick he'll be sorry he was ever born."

TO PLAY TODAY.

The Glenwolds and Imperials will meet on the East End diamond this afternoon at 8 o'clock in a postponed game.

Fifield Outpoints McKenna In Exciting Fight at Sydney

Canadian Welter Champion Given 6 of 10 Rounds—Said to be Best Fight in Cape Breton Since Days of Mick McIntyre

During the whole ten frames there was not a dull moment, and both tried hard for a knockout, both gave and took all they could. Neither boxer at any time would back up under the terrific onslaught of the other, and although Fifield landed oftener and inflicted more damage on the local boxer, McKenna refused to cover up, and kept piling in and swapping punches with his rival.

DOES LITTLE DAMAGE. McKenna's most effective blow, a right cross, did little or no damage after the first couple of rounds, and Fifield early found an effective guard for it.

PIRATES FIRE PLAYERS. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13.—The unconditional release of "Babe" Adams Bigbee, and the suspension of Captain Max Carey, without pay indefinitely, was announced tonight at Pittsburgh baseball headquarters after a meeting of the players with officials to discuss distinction in the ranks.

How To Swim

MAKE THE HANDS WORK IN FLOATING. REGARDING floating, it is well to remember that floating is merely a resting device and it is not important to be able to float absolutely motionless.

Few men, unless very fat, will be able to float in fresh water, although women find it easier, and even in salt water it is not easy unless one has the gift.

ALL-STARS WIN FROM ST. PETERS

Visitors Again Defeat Locals by Score of 7 to 2 in Fast Game

Driving six runs across the plate in the fourth inning, the Boston Braves All-Stars defeated the St. Peter's team, 7 to 2, at St. Peter's Park last night. The game was called in the fifth inning on account of rain. The diamond was slightly wet and pitchers and players had some difficulty in handling the ball.

The Hub aggregation drove the first run of the game home in the opening stanza. O'Brien was hit by a pitched ball and scored on singles by Tinker and Hammond. The Saints tied the count in their half when O'Brien singled and "Bud" Doherty came through with a smashing three base hit to centre field.

Both outfits went scoreless until the fourth inning. In this verse the All-Stars collected six runs and put the game on ice. With the route clogged by the Bostonians, Burgess left loose a wild pitch and Philan came home for the first marker of this frame. Carpenter's wide peg to the initial sack brought in two more runs. O'Brien, Tinker and Hammond romped home with three more tallies. "Barney" Money brought the local's second and final counter home in this inning.

Score by innings: 1 0 0 6 0-7. St. Peter's 1 0 0 1 0-2.

French Davis Cup Players Are More Hopeful Than Ever Before

PARIS, Aug. 12.—Three members of France's Davis Cup team left for the United States, more hopeful than ever before of bringing back the trophy which stands for world's supremacy in lawn tennis team play.

Rene Lacoste, Henri and Jacques Brugnot, on the Olympic from Cherbourg. The other member of the team, Jean Borotra, is detained here until next week by business. The team will have a non-playing captain and coach in Pierre Gillou, an official of the Lawn Tennis Federation.

The players expect to remain in the United States until the end of September, entering the national championships, in which Lacoste and Borotra will form one doubles combination and Cochet and Brugnot another. The line-up for the Davis Cup matches has not been decided. All the players are in the best of health and are practicing regularly, favored by good tennis weather.

Lacoste said before he sailed he had completely recovered from the series of illnesses which followed his winter trip to the United States.

"I think our chances are better this year than ever before," he said, "but in opposing four Americans one can only be hopeful, not confident. We have only a week in which to practice before meeting the Japanese, but that ought to be enough, for all of us are in fine fettle."

Japan plays Cuba in the final round of the American zone at Montreal, Aug. 15, 20, 21. The winner comes against France, representing the European zone. The result of this meeting decides the challenger, who will come against the United States, holder of the cup, in the challenge at Philadelphia.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River usually flows. It flows through the gorge of the Falls, creating a "Falls" of water.

At low tide the water in the Bay bounces so far down river into the Bay.

At mid-tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the water at the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake.

To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all three stages.

As Hiram Sees It

THE SETTLEMENT—I'm glad I went up to Grand Falls. Ever since me an' Sir Henry Thornton had a talk in Montreal I been watchin' the fingers to see how he was comin' on with cuttin' down the deficits on the National Railroads—'an' wonderin' if they any way could give him a hint about some plan to make another dollar. We got to give Sir Henry credit for good intentions, but he can't be everywhere. Well, sir, when I was point' up to Grand Falls I seen where they was a chance—an' I'm goin' to write to Sir Henry an' p'int out that he kin increase the revenues quite a lot by sellin' the grass that's growin' on the upper end of the Valley Railroad. Hay's a good crop this year—an' the price mayn't be awful high—but every little bit helps. An' it 'ud be a pity—now we got that railroad—not to turn it to some use—yea, sir.

DISREGARD FOR OTHER FELLOW COMMENTED ON

Police Magistrate Speaks of Carelessness of Some Owners of Autos

That nine-tenths of the automobile accidents that one reads about were due to carelessness and a disregard for the "other fellow" was the comment of Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning in hearing a complaint lodged by James S. Frost against Isaac Lyman for making too sharp a turn in Robbsey avenue without giving the proper signal before turning. The complainant said that he had crossed the Marsh Bridge and was proceeding in his car towards Robbsey avenue when Mr. Lyman, who had come up along side of him in another car, suddenly shot out in front of him and made the turn into Robbsey avenue without giving a signal as to which direction he was going. Mr. Frost said that he was compelled to bring his car to an abrupt stop in order to avoid an accident. He added that he had no desire to prosecute but was hoping for a warning or a better respect for traffic regulations.

The magistrate commented strongly on the matter of the apparent carelessness with which some cars were being operated. The court styled it as "unsafe, unfair and unlawful."

In view of the representations made by Mr. Frost, the magistrate said that he would allow the matter to be dropped but hoped it would act as a warning not only to Mr. Lyman but to others who might regard traffic regulations rather lightly.

Quicker, Lighter Portable Motor

Lift on your little finger the new tight and light Evinrude Motor. Propels average boat 9-10 miles an hour. Take it in your car and slip on or off any craft, in mere minutes. Why slog along in labor-driven boats? Have auxiliary power for your becalmed sail boats.

Power, speed and lightness in the Big Twin, or the Sport Twin. Latest car motor conveniences—night light, sheltered from shore view, automatic instant reverse, no clog pump, tilts high to clear weed water or shallows. Motor locked on by key, anti-flood carburetor, dual ignition, tiller, rope or self steering. Both hands free for rod or gun. You'll be amazed at the new Evinrude Sport Twin. Send for illustrated description.

Growing Incomes "System" Magazine

The latest number of the widest read business journal in the world lays down simple rules for buying an income to safe and best advantage. It is proven that what is right for one man is seldom perfect for another. Everything depends on how old you are; how much money you have; how much insurance; how your living costs stand; how your home is owned; how your responsibilities lie both now and in the future; and how often you require the Money that your Invested Money makes.

These are the points considered by an Investment House as conducted for 37 years by J. M. Robinson & Sons, Ltd. A plan of grouping your Bond holdings is next reached—to meet every contingency. "System" says that just what Investments are finally selected depends on the more intimate information from which this Investment House is able to compare Bond values and advise accordingly. Such consultations are laid down as imperative. Here they are gladly given without charging you any fee whatever. Call or write.
