

CLARK FOUND GUILTY; JURY OUT 5 HOURS

Sentence Will be Pronounced at Andover When Court Re-opens Today.

RECOMMEND MERCY FOR THE MURDERER

Insanity Plea is Rejected by the Jury After Arguments by All Counsel.

Special to The Standard. Andover, N. B., Dec. 3.—Gully, with a recommendation for mercy, was the verdict returned by the jury who have for four days listened to the evidence in the case of Crown against Newman Clark, charged with the murder of Phoebe Bell on the afternoon of March 25th at Grand Falls.

This ends one of the most sensational murder cases recorded in New Brunswick. From the day when Newman Clark pumped four pistol bullets into the body of Phoebe Bell, killing her, then discharged two bullets into his own body in an attempt at suicide, sensation after sensation, all fresh in the public mind, have followed in rapid succession.

Brother a Witness. One witness was heard this morning, Clarence Clark, brother of Newman, was recalled by the defence in rebuttal. He was put on the stand, under objection by the Crown for the purpose of discrediting the testimony of Jerry Sullivan, the provincial constable, who gave such damaging evidence for the cause of defence. Sullivan had testified that the accused had said to him, "What's the use in getting better, they will only hang me?" "She wanted to go to Augusta with me, and I told her I would take her if she would straighten up. I have spent a lot of money on her, etc."

Arguments Were Heard. Following the evidence given by Clarence Clark, the case was closed and the arguments made. Mr. Jones made a strong plea for the prisoner, devoting his whole time to the evidence, tending to show insanity.

The Attorney-General ridiculed the insanity plea, relying to a large extent on the testimony of Dr. Anglin, and stressing the intent and premeditation on the part of the accused to commit the crime as revealed in the letter of March 23rd, in which he directed the disposition of his property; the hunt for a revolver and the episode at the Taylor store in Grand Falls.

Out Five Hours. Judge Chandler directed the evidence and clearly set forth the law applicable in the case. The jury was out five hours on the case. Their verdict as given was not unexpected, and appear to meet with popular approval here. Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow.

JAPANESE OBJECT TO THE CANADIAN MISSIONARY STORY

Good Grounds for Everything They Did in Captured Villages is Claim.

Tokio, Dec. 3.—The military commission at Chino, Yoo, Manchuria, has addressed a letter to the Canadian missionaries there, in answer to charges made recently by the missionaries that massacres alleged to have been taken place and that villages were burned. The letter emphasized the Japanese military expedition to the district was due to the fact that the Chinese authorities co-operated with the outlaws, and declares that churches and schools were burned only where there was incontestable evidence that they had been used as "breeding places of iniquity."

Short Shift Sometimes. In such cases, the letter points out, it was impossible to hold even court-martials, therefore the troops executed insurgents on the spot, after a simple inquiry, which included village evidence, but took the utmost care to avoid an indiscriminate massacre. Warning is given in the letter that any spiritual or material assistance the British missionaries give the Korean malcontents will lead to a breach in the good understanding between the two countries.

OVER 400 APPLICANTS FOR 35 POSITIONS

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—More than 400 men have applied for 35 positions in the fire department, which will be open on January 1. Fire Chief Graham said this morning. ### Over 1,400 Arrests For Drunkenness For Drinking in Hull

Over Ninety-Five Per Cent. Were Visitors to Place in Search of Wet Goods.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Hull, Quebec, a city of 20,000 people and long regarded as an "oasis" by thirsty souls from United States and parts of Canada, established an unique record in police annals, according to statistics published today. In the eleven months ending November 30, over 1,400 prisoners had been received in the municipal jail. Of this number only five per cent were residents of Hull.

Ninety per cent of the remainder were arrested for looking too long on the wine when it was red and for infractions of the Quebec Provincial Liquor License Act.

VETERANS ASK GOVERNMENT TO GET THEM WORK

Premier Meighen Says Public Works of Country Will Give Him Work.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Representing that unemployment among veterans all over Canada was extremely serious and requesting that the government take action to relieve the hardships caused by the lack of work, J. Fred Marsh, organizing secretary of the Grand Army of United Veterans, and Herbert Capewell, member of the advisory board of the same organization, interviewed the prime minister and members of the cabinet this evening. The delegates were received by Prime Minister Meighen, and Hon. J. A. Calder and Hon. J. D. Reid.

Start New Works. Seen after the interview, Mr. Marsh stated that the prime minister had promised the fullest consideration of their representations. Public works would be gone on with as speedily as possible in order to employ veterans who were at present unemployed, and the government would consider other means for meeting the situation. Premier Meighen also stated after the conference that the government was giving the gravest consideration to the representations.

QUEBEC LIBERAL MEETS MEIGHEN

Rumors Revive That L. J. Gauthier is to Enter the Federal Cabinet.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Dec. 3.—The Government to secure Quebec cabinet representation appears to have chosen L. J. Gauthier, M. P. St. Hyacinthe, as the intermediary. It has been reported Mr. Gauthier was to be selected as one of the Quebec cabinet representatives, and his activities and close association appears to confirm the report. His selection would be a surprise, as while a man of ability and energy he has never been a leader of a Quebec wing, either in the Commons or his province. It is possible that Mr. Gauthier has no personal political expectations but represents the protectionist element in Quebec and the cabinet representatives, who are chosen from among more prominent Quebec leaders after an agreement is reached.

MILLIONAIRE ON TRIAL HAD ONLY $17.30 AT START

New York, Dec. 3.—George Backer, millionaire builder, on trial on a charge of perjury in testimony before the joint legislative building trust, today told the court his life story. He landed in the United States as an immigrant boy, with only $17.30 of the world's wealth.

As a youth he peddled chandeliers, went to sea on an English merchantman, and later sold newspapers at the World's Fair in Chicago. After working at several odd jobs, he went into the restaurant business for himself, afterwards transferring his activities to the real estate business, in which he amassed wealth.

NO DATE PICKED FOR COMMONS' OPENING

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—The government has not yet decided on the date for the opening of parliament, Premier Meighen told the Canadian Press this evening. He added that the date of the opening would depend to a great extent on the progress made by the Tariff Commission now sitting.

LONE PILOT STEERS FLAME SWEPT SHIP

Crew Had Left in Life Boat But He Refused to Quit the Wheel.

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 3.—Emulating the heroic pilot of John Hay's well known poem, Jim Bludso, who, though in imminent peril of his life at the wheel of his burning vessel, declared that he would hold her nose against the bank till the last galoot was ashore. Captain Thomas Sutherland, pilot of the steamer Schooncraft, which was destroyed by fire this morning, remained at the wheel of his burning vessel until he had beached her on Wolfe Island.

BEACHED VESSEL ENTIRELY DESTROYED

Determined to Hold "Her Nose Against Bank Until Last Galoot Ashore."

However, unlike Jim Bludso crew, the crew of the Schooncraft has taken to the lifeboats before the steamer was run on the beach, and the captain alone stayed with the ship. All but one escaped serious injury, but the fire had made such rapid headway that they were unable to secure any of their belongings. The Schooncraft was on her way to Kingston from Montreal, where she had delivered a cargo of coal, and was going to tie up for the winter, when suddenly and mysteriously flames burst out. The boat was at the lower end of Wolfe Island at the time.

Burned on Beach. Although the fire was quickly dousing the vessel, Captain Sutherland courageously stuck to his post until he was able to land "high and dry." His bravery, however, failed to save the ship, which was completely destroyed. The crew who landed safely, escaped without injury with the exception of Matt Isaac Woomer, of Montreal, Ont., who was slightly burned about the face.

MRS. MacSWINEY ARRIVES WAVING IRISH "TRICOLOR"

Two Hundred Women Go Down New York Port to Greet Visitor.

Toronto, Dec. 3.—John Doughty, who is in the Toronto jail awaiting a preliminary hearing at the police court next Monday on charges of conspiring to kidnap Ambrose J. Small, missing theatre owner, and stealing $100,000 of Victory bonds, the property of Mr. Small, is no longer in the corridor of the jail, where prisoners on remand are kept, and is not subsisting on prison fare, as was the case the first three or four days of his incarceration, after being brought back from Oregon City, Oregon, last Monday morning. Doughty is now occupying a separate room and has all his meals sent up. However, he is not allowed to have any visitors.

No Friends Allowed. A number of friends of Doughty have asked to be permitted to see him, but Major Basher, the jailer, has refused them all. So far as is known, there have been no developments in the mystery of Ambrose Small's disappearance, a year ago yesterday, and no clue as to what has become of him. Whether any night will be let into the case of Mr. Small when Doughty faces justice is a question on which the authorities are mum. If they have learned anything that may ultimately lead to a solution of the mystifying case, they are keeping it to themselves, pending the trial of John Doughty.

DREAMING ABOUT ONE MILLION; POSTIE COMES WITH $250,000 LEGACY

Janitor Telling His Friends What He Would Do if Rich When Wealth Comes.

Malden, Mass., Dec. 3.—William R. Hanson, a janitor, was telling fellow employees at a drug store here today that he would with the million dollars that Charles Garland, of Buzzard's Bay has refused when a postman gave him a letter stating that he was heir to about a quarter of a million. Anxious to Deliver His Message There Next Week in Person.

Washington, Dec. 3.—President Wilson was represented today as being "strongly desirous" of appearing in person before Congress next week to deliver what will be his last annual message to that body. He has not yet, however, made known his plans. Both Secretary Tumulty and Rear Admiral Grayson, the president's physician, profess complete ignorance of Mr. Wilson's decision, and it is not expected that he will make a known announcement just before Congress is ready to receive the executive's message next Tuesday.

BANKERS SUPPORT FARMERS.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 3.—A committee representing the South Dakota Bankers' Association today sent a telegram to United States Senators and Congressmen from this State urging legislation for the fixing of a minimum price on certain farm products for surplus grain or feed at the end of the crop year. The bankers declared that the proposed extension of credit would not meet the present crisis.

DOUGHTY NOT IN CELL OR LIVING ON PRISON FARE

Jailor Refuses to Allow Any Visitors to Meet Ambrose Small's Secretary.

HEARING IN CASE MONDAY MORNING

Police Apparently Have No Clue Yet as to Fate of Missing Millionaire.

Toronto, Dec. 3.—John Doughty, who is in the Toronto jail awaiting a preliminary hearing at the police court next Monday on charges of conspiring to kidnap Ambrose J. Small, missing theatre owner, and stealing $100,000 of Victory bonds, the property of Mr. Small, is no longer in the corridor of the jail, where prisoners on remand are kept, and is not subsisting on prison fare, as was the case the first three or four days of his incarceration, after being brought back from Oregon City, Oregon, last Monday morning. ### ALL AGAINST EMPIRE

That revolutionary activities are Sinn Fein is perfectly logical; but in addition to being pro-German, the Sinn Fein movement is an ally of Bolshevism. Sinn Fein and Bolshevism were pro-German and anti-British before the war. The present Russian revolutionary government is the only one which has accorded an official recognition to the Sinn Fein republic. Soviet money has been traced to England, where it was sent in one form or another. The real object is not primarily concerned with the Irish Republic, or with Ireland. It is a movement of disintegration between Allied Nations, and particularly the English-speaking peoples.

REDS SMASH ENEMY LINE

Army of General Balokovitch is Caught North of the Pinsk Marshes.

Warsaw, Dec. 3.—The Bolsheviks have smashed all the detachments of General Bulak Balokovitch and the remnants are fleeing towards Poland, some crossing the frontier near David-grodnek, north of the Pinsk marshes, where they were dispersed, according to latest reports received here.

This ends the adventurous plan of General Balokovitch to rush to Moscow with a handful of men after arousing millions of peasants against the Soviets while enroute. General Balokovitch is reported to have disappeared but is believed to have reached Poland where he will be interned if found, in accordance with the terms of the Riga agreement between the Poles and Soviets.

SHIP FIRE SWEEP

Quebec, Dec. 3.—The American steamer Chipewagon, owned by the Independent S. S. Co., of Cleveland, O., was badly damaged by fire in the Louis docks last night. The cost of the vessel when built was $1,000,000.

WINNIPEG IS NOT TO HAVE LABOR MAYOR

Late Returns Indicate Election of Citizens' Candidate, Defeating Independent Labor.

Winnipeg, Dec. 3.—With a majority to his credit of 1,101, Edward Parnell has been elected Mayor of Winnipeg for 1921. Parnell had 15,115 votes, and S. J. Farmer, the Independent Labor candidate, 14,014. The aldermanic votes were cast on the proportional representation system, and only first choices were counted tonight. Study of these figures indicated that Labor had failed to secure a majority in the 1921 City Council.

FORMER MAYOR NOT IN CONTEST

Battle Was One of the Most Strenuous Ever Waged in Any Canadian City.

The candidates ran neck and neck while the early returns were received, and Farmer hopes were high. Later figures gave Parnell a substantial majority, and the Labor candidate's lead was overturned. The total vote of under 30,000 was about one-third of the electorate enrolled and entitled to vote today.

Farmer, who was the unsuccessful candidate for the Mayoralty a year ago, was nominated for the contest just ended as the candidate of the Dominion Labor Party. Following a disagreement in the ranks of that party over the civic candidates, he continued in the field as an Independent Labor man. The campaign was waged through the medium of a great number of public meetings.

BLOCK IRISH FACTOR IN U.S. POLITICS NOW

Russia Only Land to Give Any Official Recognition to the Movement.

Propaganda Designed to Separate Allies

Soviet Money Traced to England for Use Among Irish Revolutionaries.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 3.—Demarest Lloyd, president of the Loyal Coalition, speaking on "The Problem of Ireland" before the Economic Club here tonight, said:

"The Irish movement has been definitely balked in the realm of United States politics. It is not finally disposed of. It will continue to operate in one form or another. The real object is not primarily concerned with the Irish Republic, or with Ireland. It is a movement of disintegration between Allied Nations, and particularly the English-speaking peoples.

All Against Empire. That revolutionary activities are Sinn Fein is perfectly logical; but in addition to being pro-German, the Sinn Fein movement is an ally of Bolshevism. Sinn Fein and Bolshevism were pro-German and anti-British before the war. The present Russian revolutionary government is the only one which has accorded an official recognition to the Sinn Fein republic. While the premiers are in accord that the sternest measures should be taken if Constantine is returned, they have not agreed on what stand to take if the Greeks choose Prince George for their king. In any event they consider another conference soon will be necessary to decide definitely what shall be done if Constantine wins, or what steps shall be taken if the Greeks vote otherwise.

Greeks Are Surprised. Athens, Dec. 3.—The note sent by the British, French and Italian Governments to Greece Thursday concerning the return of former King Constantine to power and the relations between them and Greece in such an event caused consternation here. It came as a complete surprise to the Greek cabinet.

BY-ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD DEC. 29TH IN THIS PROVINCE

Nominations Will be Held in Queens and Sunbury Dec. 20 Next.

Fredericton, Dec. 3.—The by-elections in Queens and Sunbury counties made necessary by the elevation of Hon. Dr. J. E. Hetherington and Hon. D. W. Messerreau to positions in the provincial government will be brought on as rapidly as the law allows.

When the meeting of the provincial government closed here shortly before noon today, Premier Foster said that the writ had been signed and would be sent out today, polling taking place on Monday, December 27th, with December 30th as nomination day. The new ministers were sworn in before Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley last evening and immediately afterwards attended their first meeting of the executive council.

No Money For Greece If Constantine Comes Back To The Throne

Territorial Reprisals May Also be Exacted But Question Will be Decided.

London, Dec. 3.—The Allied Supreme Council today publicly announced it would withdraw financial support from Greece should ex-King Constantine be returned in the plebiscite of Sunday.

The council considered territorial reprisals should he be enthroned. The council also decided the Allied Premiers should meet a fortnight hence to discuss conditions as they exist after the Greeks register their choice in the plebiscite.

GREEKS AMAZED AT THE ACTION OF ALL ALLIES

Arrival of Note Refusing All Financial Assistance Creates Consternation at Athens.

FINAL COURSE TO BE DECIDED AFTER VOTE

What Will Allies Do if Prince George is Offered Throne Instead of Constantine?

London, Dec. 3.—The course to be pursued by the Allies in the Near East will have to await the Greek decision on a dynasty question, it was decided today by the Allied conferees here.

The conferees also resolved to make a formal protest against the issuance by the Greek Government of 200 million drachmas in currency despite the opposition of the Allies.

Briefly summarised, the position of the Allies is that they want to war the Greeks vigorously that their government must conform to a great extent, to the wishes of the Allies and that if the amendments in yesterday's note and today's statement relative to the withdrawal of financial support are ineffective, the Allies are prepared to take even sterner measures, which were discussed today.

May Modify Pact. As the Sevres Treaty has not been ratified, it is within powers of the Allies to modify it, and they are keeping this fact to the fore, at least as regards Symra. It is known that some of those at the conference today expressed the belief that Symra would be safer, in the Allied stand-point, in Turkish hands than in the hands of the Greek under Constantine.

The wish was expressed, however, not to go so far as to threaten the Greeks before the plebiscite with retaking part of the territory allotted them under the Sevres Treaty.

What About Prince George? While the premiers are in accord that the sternest measures should be taken if Constantine is returned, they have not agreed on what stand to take if the Greeks choose Prince George for their king. In any event they consider another conference soon will be necessary to decide definitely what shall be done if Constantine wins, or what steps shall be taken if the Greeks vote otherwise.

The meeting opened with "O Canada" played by the pianist, during which all stood. "Be very careful what you say" shouted some one when Mr. Veniot commenced to make the opening speech of the meeting.

The minister came back with a statement that his sons had served and he had volunteered to go himself and then went on with his speech in which he commended Crawford and the aims of the league of which he said he was a member. He said he would not be associated with anybody who uttered words of sedition or disloyalty.

Minister Member of League. "As a member of the league I am asking for the same treatment for Ireland as my forefathers got in Canada under the British flag," said Mr. Veniot. He claimed that Mr. Crawford and the league were only criticizing the government of Lloyd George and argued that criticism of a government of the British Empire did not constitute disloyalty. "Do you think that after our boys made their sacrifices that we could say anything seditious or disloyal to the British Empire?" asked Mr. Veniot in conclusion.

Mr. Veniot then introduced Mr. Donovan and he stated that Mr. Crawford and he had not come to Fredericton to speak sedition or treason but to attempt to remove some of the prejudices which existed against the league and to give "the other side" of the story of Ireland.

The Trouble Starts. Mr. Veniot then got up again and as he did so Mr. Hawkins rose and said that if it was proposed to introduce Mr. Crawford, but got no further when Mr. Veniot said there was yet another matter on the programme before Mr. Crawford was called upon.

FINS RATIFY PEACE

London, Dec. 3.—The Finnish Parliament today ratified the peace treaty with Soviet Russia by a large majority, says a despatch to the Outlook News from Helsingfors.

CROWD STOPS CRAWFORD AT FREDERICTON

Much Singing But Little Speaking Before Self-Determination Meeting Ended.

HON. PETER VENIOT WAS THE CHAIRMAN

Mr. Crawford Refused to Answer Three Questions Put to Him by Veterans.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 3.—Lindsay Crawford, president of the Self-Determination League for Ireland of Canada, was prevented from speaking at a public meeting called here tonight at St. Dunstan's Hall.

Two hundred men, mostly returned soldiers, marched to the hall, which is part of the St. Dunstan's Roman Catholic church property, in a body with three questions, which had been propounded for Mr. Crawford to answer.

The Three Questions. The questions were as follows. (1)—Is the secession of Ireland from the British Empire and the formation of an Irish Republic one of the objects of the Self-Determination League of Ireland? (2)—Are you or is the Self-Determination League of Ireland in sympathy with or in any way associated with De Valera, the President of the so-called Irish republic? (3)—Will you under any circumstances support an attempt by the Irish people or any part of the Irish people to obtain by force their complete independence from the British Empire, or would you give any assistance or comfort to those making such an attempt?

Speaksman a Veteran. Robert Hawkins, who served overseas with the artillery, was the spokesman for the returned soldiers and others who had protested against Crawford coming here and they occupied the entire centre of the hall which will not seat more than 400 people.

On the platform with Crawford were Thomas Donovan of Ottawa, Dominion Secretary of the League, ex-Ald. Hugh O'Neill, president of the Fredericton branch of the League, and Hon. Peter J. Veniot, minister of public works in the Provincial Legislature, who had been secured as chair man evidently with the expectation that he would be able to prevent interruptions and pilot the ship through what looked to be a stormy passage.

When he attempted in a domineering manner to prevent the returned soldiers and others from carrying out their announced programme to have Mr. Crawford answer their questions either yes or no, before he entered upon his address and insisted upon handling the situation himself instead of allowing Crawford to express his views, he only added fuel to the fire and appeared to observers to be very largely responsible for precipitating the trouble which followed.

The meeting opened with "O Canada" played by the pianist, during which all stood. "Be very careful what you say" shouted some one when Mr. Veniot commenced to make the opening speech of the meeting.

The minister came back with a statement that his sons had served and he had volunteered to go himself and then went on with his speech in which he commended Crawford and the aims of the league of which he said he was a member. ### DRURY ADMITS CANNOT AGREE WITH IND. LABOR

Peoples Progressive Party Will be the New Name of the Agrarians.

Chatham, Ont., Dec. 3.—In a speech delivered here tonight, Hon. E. C. Drury, Premier of Ontario, made the plain admission that the Farmers' and the members of the Independent Labor Party cannot continue as U. P. C. Labor government in this province. The perpetuation of the union, he said, is not in line with public opinion. The Farmers of Ontario, he declared, did not want class legislation or administration, but they did want a fair and honest administration of the affairs of the country in the interests of all of the people of the province.

A New Name Needed

The old name of the party, if it continues in office, will disappear of necessity and if I were choosing the new name to be adopted I would christen it, not the Farmers' Party, but the Peoples Progressive Party, and take in everyone. Before long we will have to develop into a real people's party. The Farmers will still have representation in that party and they will still stand for the ideals which they started out with when they went out to get power but others will be represented as well, and the platform of that party will have to be one which the party desires to see carried out and not one to be used merely for the purpose of obtaining office.

Threatened To Blow Up Bridge

Reginald E. Ault Under Arrest—Was in Provincial Hospital Here.

Reginald E. Ault, who about two years ago was a military patient in the Provincial Hospital, Fairville, and is alleged to have also been an inmate of Hamilton Asylum, Ontario, prior to proceeding overseas, was arrested on Wednesday by C. P. R. Detectives Leggett and Bailey at McAdam Junction, charged with insanity and with intentions to damage the international bridge at Vancouver, which was being attempted to blow up. On Thursday he appeared in the police court at Fredericton before Police Magistrate Limerick and was remanded until December 6th, until an investigation can be made into his condition.

Police Receive Telegram

On Wednesday, it is reported, the C. P. R. police at McAdam received the following telegram: "Keep close watch on man arriving on train at McAdam from St. John with intention of doing bridge damage. Motive unknown. Staying at leading hotel there, travelling alone." The telegram was signed by H. E. Dawson, and when it was received the train from St. John to McAdam was watched, and the man was recognized as the man Dawson under which name he had travelled before, was arrested by Detectives Bailey and Leggett.

Ault is a returned soldier, and is understood to have frequently gone under the name of Dawson. It is reported also that Detective Leggett has stated that there was no doubt in his mind but that the prisoner was in the act of having threatened damage to the international bridge at Vancouver.

At Provincial Hospital

Enquiries at the Provincial Hospital at Fairville have elicited the information that it was not considered at the time of his confinement there that Ault was a dangerous character. He

HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, something often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, rancid brass, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strome, Glamorgan, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

Price 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Trades and Labor Council Meeting

Charter Arrives for Local of St. George Pulp Workers—Opposed to Juvenile Court.

President F. A. Campbell who presided at the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last evening announced that the charter had arrived for a Local of St. George Pulp Workers. The council went on record as being opposed to the formation of a Juvenile Court in St. John. They intend to take the same stand on the question as they did last year and a committee were re-appointed to oppose any movement in favor of the Juvenile Court. Should a committee be sent before the Municipal Council at their meeting in January to argue in favor of the court, the Trades and Labor Council's committee will be prepared to protest against its establishment.

Gave Lecture On Denmark

Mrs. Adam is Guest of the Y. W. P. A. at the Natural History Rooms.

Under the auspices of the Y. W. P. A. last evening Mrs. Adam delivered a delightful lecture on Denmark, her native land, at the Natural History Society rooms. There was a large audience present who were charmed with the personality of the speaker, and the interesting manner in which she described the little country of Europe which is yet so important and such a factor in the life of the continent. A number of excellent pictures were shown by William McIntosh and briefly described by Mrs. Adam.

Miss Alice Fairweather, president of the Y. W. P. A. presided. The lecture opened with the playing of the National Anthem of Denmark by Mrs. Adam and closed with the singing of God Save the King, Miss Weldon acting as accompanist.

A vote of thanks was gracefully moved by Miss Charlotte Dodge, and seconded by Miss Frances Alward and spoken to by W. Frank Hatheway and Michael Kelly. A silver collection was taken for Y. W. P. A. funds.

ECONOMIC BLOCKADE AGAINST NATIONS THAT BREAK LEAGUE RULES

Commission Agrees Upon Plan to Enforce Orders of the Nations.

Geneva, Dec. 3.—A definite plan for use of the economic blockade against members of League of Nations that break league rules was unanimously adopted by the sub-commission on blockade at the assembly of the League of Nations today. The members of the commission expressed the belief that the plan would give the League a very effective weapon against offending members and do much to prevent serious international disputes from developing into actual wars.

The members declared themselves confident that the scheme will be ratified by the full commission and later by the Assembly of the League. Details of the plan will be published in a few days, it was announced. A public session of the armaments commission will consider the plan.

CHRONIC CATARRH Follows Repeated Colds When Blood is Impure.

Your body suffering from a cold does not properly attend to digestion and elimination. As a result your blood becomes impure, it inflames the mucous membrane and brings about that condition in which chronic catarrh occurs and on which it depends.

Purify your blood, make it clean, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and if your bowels are not healthfully active, take Hood's Pills. These medicines have relieved and prevented thousands of cases of chronic catarrh. Economy is one of the strong points of Hood's Sarsaparilla—up doses in a bottle. Why not get it today?

Calgary Objections.

Charley Leonard, brother of the world's lightweight champion, was the first to draw a suspension under the rule since the Walker law became operative. He was punished for persistently coaching from a corner of the ring after being warned by Referee Houck during the Leonard-Walling bout in Madison Square Garden last Friday night.

Frank A. Bagley, manager of Willie Jackson, and William "Scotty" Mounth, who is again taking care of Johnny Dundee's ring interests, were suspended for similar violations during the fifteen-round bout between these two lightweights for Leonard's title at the Manhattan Casino here last Monday night.

The Pay of M. P.'s.

(London Daily News.)

What the proper reward of a member of Parliament? It depends on the member, of course; but, that being apart, the answer would seem to be such a sum as will enable him, if a good man, to perform his duties without being harassed unduly by financial anxieties. It ought not to be so high as to convert a parliamentary care into an attractive form of money getting; and it ought not to be so low that the poor men are kept out of parliament altogether. It is surprising to hear from a correspondent of the New Statesman that in Australia the members' payment is now £2,000 a year. For a man so excessive, but no satisfactory judgment can be formed without more knowledge that we confess we possess on the cost of living in Australia. It is certainly high, but surely not high enough to justify a scale like this. The laborer is worthy of his hire; but when he determines the rate himself he will manifestly do well to see, on the side of economy,

Hurling Their Own Cause.

That the mob had blundered in its attack upon the United Civic League at a glance. Three priests from the Cathedral, still in the vestments in which they had conducted the MacFinnian mass, came out and did their utmost to quell the riot. "Go home!" cried Mr. Lavelle; "for love of this country, for love of Ireland, go home!"

During the recent visit here Sir Horace Plunkett declared that the fate of the Irish Republic depended upon America. On the very day of the Fifth Avenue demonstration, the acting leader in Ireland, Arthur Griffith, cried out, "How long is America going to stand for that which is being done here!"

Unitarily, thanks partly to an intelligent and humane sense of the historic wrongs of the Irish people, thanks partly to the supposed exigencies of our own political life, it was made to appear to European eyes that this country had already taken sides. That illusion is now dispelled, and dispelled by the Irish themselves.

The nation that is a nation down by many natural race sympathies, but in the ultimate test is unbiased by any foreign origin, unswayed by the passions of contemporary European politics. As such it maintains its right to show fitting courtesy and respect for all friendly nations. That a portion of our citizens have virtually challenged that right can only cause a profound reaction, damaging to the intolerant.

Sand Baths for the Immature Jerboa

The jerboa, a strange little animal that lives in Africa, looks like a tiny kangaroo and belongs to a tiny family as the rat, is called the cleanest animal there is. The jerboa digs a trench in the clean sand and rolls over and over in the sand, which is the little animal's method of keeping clean.

(New York Times.)

Memorable among cities is the Oregonian Yoncalla, which swept the inferior sex from office on Election Day and filled with women the places that the men folk were "rattling round in."

The Mayor-elect, Mrs. Mary Burt, says that the women officials are studying conditions and are going to do their best to give the city an efficient administration. "At the worst," she remarks, a little unfeeling, if truly, "we can't do much worse than the men have done." She is a college graduate. Among the City Councilors are the owner of large property interests, a pioneer school teacher, the wife of a retired capitalist.

The man politicians of Yoncalla are still dazed.

Their sage noses never smelted the conspiracy of intelligence against them. The women formed their plans and their ticket in absolute secrecy. When the City Fathers learned that the ticket was in the field they were appalled with surprise. Mayor Lasswell says that "his cohorts were caught off their guard." Since his wife was elected a City Councilman, the Mayor's stupefaction and that of his cohorts can be imagined. "Local women declare the election has permanently disposed of the time-honored adage to the effect that a woman cannot keep a secret"—a man's adage, resting on prejudice and not on observation. The world is jammed, with masculine gossip, praters, babblers, who can't hold a secret. Bursting with self-importance, they beckon you to a more removed ground and breathe into your ears and hundreds of others: "If you won't tell anybody, in strict confidence," and so on. To this unending whispering gallery the women secret-keepers of Yoncalla are a reproach and a warning.

CANADIAN GOODS FIRST.

"What we have hold" may mean one of two things, either we are determined to keep what we have for our own selfish reasons, or we must preserve what we have for the use and benefit of others who, by right of inheritance, should come into possession of things that have been amassed by Canadian effort.

The latter interpretation is the one that every right-thinking citizen entertains regarding the natural products of our country; regarding the industrial and commercial advantages derived from the transmutation of the natural product into the finished article of manufacture.

There are several ways, as pointed out by the London Free Press, of protecting our raw materials. The chief of which is by well-directed insistence that such treasure shall not be exploited carelessly, shall not be wasted, shall not pass into the hands of other peoples to the disadvantage of Canada of today, to the disadvantage of Canada of tomorrow.

The second system of unselfish providing is adequate protection of the articles manufactured from our raw materials, by means of tariff laws.

The third method is to ward against attempts, on the part of the manufacturers of other countries, to flood our markets with articles similar to those which we produce ourselves, by unselfish

Canada, in the large sense, but recently has been able to build up her manufactures. They stand in greater need of consolidation through adequate guardianship of public measures more than they will in 1930 or 1940. Let us guard them.

The need of being on the alert, more than ever, is plain when we hear that Canada is one of the objectives of a German "commercial campaign." Germany sees in Canada, with her rapidly increasing population, a splendid field in which to place manufactured goods. The idea is not a new one to her. She had begun this warfare before she took up the other campaigning which ended as disaster for her in the autumn of 1918.

Germany sees in Canada, with her rapidly increasing population, a splendid field in which to place manufactured goods. The idea is not a new one to her. She had begun this warfare before she took up the other campaigning which ended as disaster for her in the autumn of 1918.

The temptation of getting in stock at low rates is one that will press heavily on the middleman. The manufacturer and the general public must come to his aid. The former by production of a high standard article, and the latter by insisting on "Canadian goods first."

If we would build up our share of world manufactures we must give just protection to those already established and keep a sufficient home market for "home goods."

A GAME SANCTUARY.

The Ontario Government has apparently a somewhat keener appreciation of the value of wild life than has the Government of our own province, for it has just established another wild bird and animal sanctuary within its borders. There were already six other such sanctuaries located in various parts of the province, but they were not judged to be sufficient. Apparently Premier Drury and his colleagues are of opinion that the proper and adequate preservation of the game of the province is a matter of considerable importance, and not like Premier Foster and his colleagues, who treated it as of much less importance than the personal interests of one or two guides, whose business might be interfered with by the establishment of these game preserves.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION

(Journal of Comment.)
 While it would be desirable to expect that the system of Proportional Representation will prove as fully satisfactory as its chief advocates claim, there can be no doubt that it has merits which make a fair trial of it very desirable in the minds of reformers. The inequalities produced by the present system of voting occasionally become so marked as to call loudly for some better method. Probably it will be impossible to devise any system that will at all times give minorities the representation that they desire. We are so accustomed to the system of majority representation—or, to be more exact, plurality representation—for it frequently happens that the elected representative has received less than a majority of the votes polled—that there is in many quarters a disposition to accept it as unavoidable. But when glaring cases occur, such as the representatives of large districts in the Province, being elected by a small majority, or one of the electors are of the other shade of politics, the weakness of the existing system and the need of reform become apparent. The selection of Proportional Representation, alike in principle but varying in detail, have of late received increasing attention, and there is every probability that they will have an early day widespread application. The method known as the single transferable vote was given a trial in the city of Winnipeg at the Provincial general elections, and the results seem to have been satisfactory. It is now proposed to give the system a wider trial in the Province of Ontario. A committee of the Ontario Legislature, representing all parties, and authorized to sit during the recess, have agreed to a report recommending the adoption of the system in a sufficiently wide area to test it fairly. It is proposed to form a group of six constituencies in Western Ontario and a similar group in Eastern Ontario, in each of which the elector will have the right to vote for six members. The system will apply also to the cities of Ottawa and Hamilton, each of which returns two members. It is recommended also that the system be applied to the single member constituencies. There are more than two candidates in the committee making these recommendations is composed of representatives of the parties in the Legislature, and the Premier, Mr. Drury, is known to favor Proportional Representation, it is quite probable that the recommendations will be adopted, to have effect at the next Provincial election in Ontario.

THE RESTIGOUCHE ELECTION

As the result of a whole lot of irregularities in the election proceedings in the County of Restigouche, a petition has been filed in the Supreme Court asking to have it set aside. If the allegations set out in the petition are true, a lamentable condition of affairs is disclosed, which shows how very careless the Foster Government is in making appointments to responsible positions. There are few offices involving greater care and responsibility in carrying out the duties than that of sheriff, and only men of recognized ability and intelligence should be appointed to that office. Apparently the Sheriff of Restigouche is not blessed with sufficient knowledge of his duties and intelligence enough to see them carried out, or else he is too careless to take the trouble to perform them properly, for he seems to have done everything he should not have done, and left undone all that he should have done. He was appointed to the office on the nomination of Mr. A. F. LeBlanc, late M. L. A. for that county, who would appear to have been actuated more by desire to have appointed a party heeler rather than a man who had the necessary qualifications to enable him to perform the duties properly. And yet it is Mr. LeBlanc himself who is said to be at the bottom of the efforts now being made to upset the election (at which his political opponents received the majority of votes), and thus take advantage of the stupidity of his own nominee. Never in the history of this province have the public services been so inefficiently performed as the result of the gross abuse of the patronage system, as has been the case since the Foster Government took office. When ever a public appointment fell vacant, some subservient supporter has been pushed into it, irrespective of whether he had the necessary qualifications or not. Efficiency has usually appeared to be a very secondary consideration whenever the Foster Government was filling positions.

WE BELIEVE IT.

"It is reported that an early session of the legislature is desired and the work of the various departments is being rushed to 'make it.'"—The Times.

The Times is good enough to intimate that The Standard's approval of the appointment of Sheriff Hawthorn is a bad sign. Perhaps it is from The Times' point of view. The Times would have rather seen some man appointed as Chief Inspector who lacks all ideas of honesty and principle, who would have stooped to any low-down trick to trap some unwary lawbreaker, and who would just as readily have assisted to convict an innocent man as a guilty one. That is not John B. Hawthorn's style at all. He will go after the bootleggers and the blind-pigs and other illicit vendors as they should be gone after, but he will not interfere with the decent citizen who happens to be abroad with a small flask of brandy in his grip which he needs for medicinal purposes.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard:
 I regret to have seen in your editorial columns of this morning a statement to the effect that Hon. Mr. Foster would dictate the appointment of either Mr. Dymart or Mr. Michael as Speaker because these gentlemen are Roman Catholics. Permit me, sir, as leader of the Opposition Party, to state publicly through your paper that The Standard in this instance, in my judgment, is introducing a religious issue, in a way bound to reflect my opinion, but in justice to myself and party of which I am the leader it is necessary to prevent an impression being created that the spirit of your article is the spirit of the Opposition Party. If I were I would no longer deign to occupy the leadership. I may add that should either of the gentlemen named be chosen as Speaker of which I may recall that one of their predecessors in the chair was Mr. O. M. Melanson, who was not considered by the government of his day to be disqualified for his high office because either of his race or his creed.

It's not the towadgon that catches the folks this year, but the coal wagon—Sheddy's Regie.

The movement will be viewed with satisfaction by most of the people who desire progressive legislation. Yet the changes proposed must be regarded as experimental. Sound as the principle of Proportional Representation seems to be, especially in the presence of the inequalities in the present system, it does not pass unchallenged. In England, where the subject has been discussed for a long time, the advocates of the new system have not been able to obtain Parliamentary approval for it. Strange to say, it was the House of Lords, a body usually regarded as very conservative, that became convinced of the need of some such change. When the last measure dealing with elections was before the House, the proposal was introduced for the purpose of applying the system of Proportional Representation to several groups of constituencies. But when the Bill went back to the House of Commons, the body that might be expected to respond quickly to a proposal of that kind, the amendments made by the House of Lords were rejected. In this case, at all events, we cannot claim to be following the example of the "Mother of Parliaments," to which we so often look for guidance in matters concerning Parliamentary government.

The new system has been put on trial too in the Australian State of New South Wales, and according to statements made by Premier Massey in a debate in the New Zealand Parliament, the system has not proved satisfactory. He had no hesitation," remarked Mr. Massey, "in remarking that the system of Proportional Representation tried there was an absolute and ghastly failure. The Australians themselves said so and the committee of the Labor Conference held in Sydney (N. S. W.) a few weeks ago turned it down. An Opposition member in the New South Wales Legislature had not repeated the system, whereupon Mr. Massey said, "No, they have not been back to it, but it is coming."

These conflicting opinions as to the advantages of the system warn us not to be too confident of its success. But it will be well to see it tried out in Canada under fair conditions, so that its character may be better understood than at present. Therefore the action proposed to be taken in Ontario should be welcomed.

Benny's Note Book

Mrs. Hews came to see me yesterday afternoon, being a big round lady, and they started to talk about different subjects, Mrs. Hews saying, O by the way Mrs. Potts, I'm taking New Thawt and its the grandest thing. You're herd of New Thawt of course.

Well then misery loves company and heers something for you to get excited about, sed ma. And she gave me a terse crack, proving the experiment was a success.

Two Bank Systems.

(Hamilton Herald.)
 Because farmers failed to meet their notes, several North Dakota banks have been closed. That is the other end of the argument as to which is the better—the Canadian or United States banking system. Under the Canadian system these failures would not have been possible. At the same time, the Canadian system, if conducted to the extreme possible under it, might result in wholesale assignment of individual farmers, which would be worse than the failure of three or more small independent banks.

"Have You Tested My Blood, Doctor?"

"YES, I have." "And what is the result?" "Not very satisfactory." "What seems to be the trouble?" "Well, your blood is thin. It is lacking in what we call the red corpuscles. It does not contain enough of the nutritive qualities to properly supply nourishment to the nervous system." "But I am not nervous." "No, you are not, in one sense. Your hands do not tremble. You are not easily startled or excited. But nevertheless your nerves are not in good condition. There is not enough nervous energy in your system to work the machinery of the body." "Perhaps you never thought of the vital organs of your body as requiring any motive power—any propelling energy—but they do, and this force comes through the nervous system." "Because you are not conscious of every heart beat and of every breath you breathe is no indication that this action is not the result of nervous energy." "You really have two brains—one with which you think and act voluntarily, another one which, without any conscious effort on your part, controls the action of the various organs and members of the body. It is the failure of this sympathetic nervous system, as it is called, which most frequently causes trouble." "Because nervous energy is lacking there is weak functioning of the vital organs. The digestive fluid does not flow properly in the stomach, and you have nervous indigestion—the action of the liver and bowels is slow and weak, and you suffer from constipation. And so it may be with other organs. While they are not really diseased, their action is weak for lack of nervous energy. What you need is a good restorative." "What do you think of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?" "There's nothing better. You know we doctors prefer to prescribe our own favorite treatments, but I have seen such splendid results from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food by my patients that I no longer hesitate to recommend it." "The active and concentrated ingredients of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are approved by the best medical authorities as a means of building up the exhausted nervous system. The experiences of many thousands of people go to back up the professional opinion, and hence the enormous success of this great restorative. 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

Perth, N. B., Dec. 3rd, 1920. To the Editor of the St. John Standard, St. John, N. B. Dear Sir,—I beg to submit to you the following article. Although in many parts of Canada, at the present time, there is a great shortage of employment, and abundance of labor, we find at least one locality in which these conditions are exactly reversed. In the county of Victoria, and especially at Andover and Perth, the need for workmen is keenly felt. There are wonderful openings here, especially for carpenters, masons and plumbers. The only available carpenters and masons are booked up for work months in advance and the shortage of men doing this sort of work is daily becoming more acutely felt by those living in this vicinity. The urgent need of some plumbers is equally felt as there is only one plumbing establishment in Victoria County, south of the town of Grand Falls. Common laborers for ordinary rough work are even more scarce than skilled workmen and it is practically impossible to find men for such work as digging, sawing or splitting wood. Good painters and paper hangers could also find plenty of work to be done here. With the damming of the Tobique River at its mouth, which is touching both Andover and Perth, and the erection of pulp mills there which are expected to employ about three thousand men, the opportunity for good men to locate in these towns are exceptionally good. We are expecting to see wonderful development in Andover and Perth within the next few years and would consider this an excellent territory to get established immediately in any line of business. We would especially mention that there is a wonderful opening for a good jeweler and watch repairer here. Yours truly, GEO. B. WOOTEN.

Penobsquis, N. B., Dec. 3.—A meeting of the trustees of the Penobsquis school district was held in the school house on Tuesday evening to discuss the advisability of dispensing with the services of one teacher and running both departments in one room. The number of scholars in this school has dwindled from an average of a few years ago of 18 scholars to an average this term of 25. Opinions were heard both in favor of the proposed arrangement and against it. It was argued that although the number of scholars were fewer there were still the same number of grades, and it would necessitate nearly as much work on the part of the teachers as in former years. Besides the district would lose the superior government grant. A vote was taken and it was decided to continue as before, with two teachers.

BEWARE OF BRONCHITIS.

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold, or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes of a greenish or yellowish color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby prevent it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Erice Culham, Sheffield, Ont. writes:—"In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a 60c. size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise Dr. Wood's enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark, price 35c and 60c, manufactured only by The T. Millbrae Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Opening Up Russia's "Treasure-House"

Within walls built high by years of war and revolution, behind doors close-guarded by Trotzky's soldiers, the Russian treasure-house awaits the adventurer with the key of gold.

While it is all very well, agree some American editors, for the Soviet Government to open the doors of the Muscovite treasure-house, what if the treasure-house is empty?

FOUR PROVINCES TO GO BONE-DRY ABOUT FEBRUARY

Legal Questions Involved Prevent Enforcement of Provincial Vote Before That Date.

OFFICIAL RETURNS READY SOON NOW

Then Thirty Days' Notice of the New Law is Required in Each Province.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—There is now every likelihood that Nova Scotia, Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba will be some dry towards the end of January. Since the prohibitions on importation were taken much study has been a curious legal situation, which had arisen. The point was whether government vendors could be properly licensed as holding licenses. If so, action to prohibit importation would be taken under one clause of the Temperance Act; if not, under another clause, and between the two there is a difference of at least thirty days in the period within which liquor may be still imported for personal use.

No Government View
Although the opinion of the government's legal advisers has not been made public, it is said to favor the view that the reference to licenses in the Canada Temperance Act does not mean licensed vendors for medicinal and sacramental purposes. If this view is accepted, importation into the four provinces can be prohibited by the Dominion Government at any time after the official returns have been received, and the prohibition will take effect "after the expiration of thirty days from the day of the date of an order in council to that effect."
The official returns are expected to be complete by the middle of the present month. Thirty days later, allowing time for consideration, would carry the date for prohibition importation up to about the end of January.

BUSINESS QUIET IN CANADA

Winnipeg, Dec. 3.—Business is generally quiet throughout Canada, although holiday trade is commencing to show large volume. The attitude of the buying public continues to be one of waiting and carefully watching the fluctuation of prices, which is now strikingly apparent in almost all lines of trade, states the weekly report of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association.

Should Be Ladylike.
(Toronto Star.)
They are to have women police in Hamilton—maybe. We hope, in addition to being women, the new cops will be perfect ladies. It would be a joy to any right-thinking man to be patrolled by a perfect lady.

A Grouchy Male.
(Vancouver Province.)
One of the campaign speakers the other night hoped that what he had in any sense "rough" the ears of every woman in the hall. It might smother them but if they were hatpuffs that would be about all.

More Coffee—Perhaps.
Abundant is the original home of the coffee tree, and in the highlands of that country there are immense forests of it that have never been touched.

MEN AND BUSINESS

(By Richard Spillane)

It has been decided officially by the municipal authorities of Tokio that funerals and weddings are not luxuries. This important question came up for discussion when the entertainment tax of 4 per cent was put into operation in that city. The tax is levied to provide funds for the recently created Social Service Bureau.

Restaurants, rooming houses and such are subject to the tax. Private families also must pay when they give dinners or festivities in which singing girls or others are engaged to entertain the company. Nearly everything is taxed in the chrysanthemum empire. But you're safe when you're getting married and when you're dead. That is consoling, anyhow, to the son of Japan.
If the consumption of cotton piece goods is a criterion, the people of the United States are the best clothed in the world. We use 19 pounds per capita annually. The Swiss rank second, with 12 pounds; Belgians third, with 10.3 pounds; the British are ninth, with 6.8 pounds; the French, thirteenth, with 6.6; the Italians next, with 6.5; and the Japanese seventeenth, with 4.1 pounds. As might be expected, the Africans are at the bottom of the list. Of the natives of that continent the Moroccans head the list, with 3 pounds, while the natives of British West Africa and Portuguese East Africa consume 1.8 and 1.9 pounds per annum, respectively. The blacks of the Belgian Congo appear to be clothed principally in their innocence, for they average only nine-tenths of a pound of cotton a year.

Why is it government officials lack business sense? Here is an example, small in itself but illustrative of many others that bring criticism on Washington:
The Department of Commerce issues a publication known as "Commerce Reports." It is made up of reports from consuls, commercial attaches and trade commissioners. There is a lot of informative matter in it. There are not a few manufacturers, exporters and importers who find it of service. For four or five years it has been sold to subscribers for $2.50 per annum.
Notice has gone out of an advance of 40 per cent in the subscription price. This has been made necessary, it is declared, by the large increase in the price of paper and other items entering into the publication cost. Quicker enough, the announcement comes with the first report in some years of a decrease in the price of paper.

What the other items of increased cost in "Commerce Reports" are is not quite clear. There is nothing in the publication except extracts from regular official reports of government agents in foreign lands. No publication worthy of mention is produced or should be produced, or should be known, it goes through the mails free, if it is to be of value it should have the widest distribution possible, it can have that only if the subscription price is low.

WEDDINGS.

Crocker-Copp
Special to The Standard
Newcastle, N. B., Dec. 3.—Sh. Andrew's Rectory was the scene of a very interesting event at eleven o'clock on Thursday morning, when Rev. W. J. Bate, united in marriage, Mr. Robert Crocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crocker, and Miss Mary Copp, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Copp. The bride who was attired in a dress of Copenhagen blue with hat to match was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Copp, as bridesmaid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crocker left on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia points and on their return will reside in Newcastle. The popular young couple received many costly and beautiful presents.

Major-Palmer
The marriage of Miss Julia Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, of Chelmsford, and Mr. Francis Major of Newcastle was solemnized at St. Bridget's Church, Renou, on Tuesday, November 24th. Rev. Father Cyr, officiating. The bride, who wore a travelling suit of navy blue with pearls hat, was attended by Miss Cella Grenna. Mr. Charles McEwen, of Newcastle was best man. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Major will reside in Newcastle.

Encourages Infection.
Dr. Eric Pritchard suggests in This Practitioner (London) that eating too much carbohydrate material makes persons susceptible to infectious diseases. This is important to mothers of young children, as it means that they should restrict the quantity of starchy and sugary foods that their offspring eat.

SOMETHING TO MAKE FOR CHILDREN

For a children's party in the holidays, cookie "people" will be much appreciated. Anyone who can draw a little can make the paper patterns of gentlemen and ladies, boys and girls, and animals, too. The cookie dough is to be rolled rather thin, the paper pattern is laid on and held in place by a thumb tack, then a stiff hand with a sharp pastry wheel does the rest. Raisins, dates, dried cherries, currants and sweet seeds make acceptable eyes and other features, while the different colored frostings are used to trim and decorate garments according to fancy. The making of animals, birds and fish, as well as people, sings out baking day as a real adventure in creation. Mother Goose characters, Kate Greenaway figures, brownies, leopards and all the rest of them figure in the creative process.

The patterns are best cut from heavy writing paper, and the glass thumb tacks are the best to fasten the patterns to the dough while using the cutting wheel.
Here is a recipe for a good plain cookie dough. Beat one scant cup of butter to a cream and add two cups of sugar, beating until perfectly blended with the butter. Add two eggs that have been beaten light without separating, then mix with a half cup of vanilla or orange water flavoring to the mixture. Sift in one cup of flour with three level teaspoons of baking powder and beat very smooth. Add slowly just enough flour to fit the dough for rolling. Roll out thin on a floured board, lay on the patterns, pluck and cut with a pastry wheel. Bake a delicate brown in a buttered dripping.

As soon as Tom Mix finishes supervising the cutting and editing of his latest "special Western," "Prairie Trails," he will begin production work under Lynn Reynolds on "Happy-Go-Lucky," in the William Fox West Coast studios.

ALBERTA MAKES FINAL APPEALS TO GOVERNMENT

Claims Federal Powers Are Taking Over $3,000,000 This Year from Province.

ONLY $650,000 IS BEING RETURNED

Appeal Will be Entered Before Highest Courts to Get More for Province.

Calgary, Dec. 3.—Revenue from the natural resources of Alberta collected by the Dominion Government in the year 1919 will approximate and may exceed $3,000,000, according to estimates given here today by Attorney General J. R. Boyle. In return the province is getting this year the sum of approximately $650,000 from the federal subsidy, he said. "We would certainly be willing to go into the matter of the return of the natural resources to the province, on a basis of an accounting," said Mr. Boyle. "The government of the province has decided to make one more appeal to the dominion to right the wrong of 1905, and if it is not done, we will take whatever steps are most effective to force the issue," said Mr. Boyle. "We can appeal to Downing street for justice, as Canada is a dependency of Great Britain, or we can appeal to the Privy Council through the courts, but we naturally hope that it will not be necessary."

HANTS COUNTY BOY FOUND DEAD IN SNOW

Special to The Standard
Windsor, Dec. 3.—Percy Anthony, son of Alexander Anthony, accompanied by Hazel Garby and a young man named Dill, went to the woods for the purpose of shooting.

They spent the afternoon in the woods and when five o'clock came the two last named separated to start for home. Percy decided to follow some tracks he had seen on the snow. About ten at night his parents and others became anxious and a party started to hunt for him, searching all day and at night quite a number of men and boys hunted and found him sitting down in the snow, dead.

Insist on Windmill Barbados Super-Fancy Molasses

WHY insist? Because that is the only SURE way to get the best Barbados in all its goodness! The market is flooded with stuff in cans and other worthless substitutes for Barbados. You must have wondered what had become of the old-time Barbados. The trouble was simply this. The refineries took the high-priced sugar out of the cane syrup and the refuse was sold you as Molasses,—or blended with glucose and chemicals. No wonder it was little use as a "sweetener", and lacked flavor! But in "Windmill" Brand you can get

The Real Genuine Barbados

And it Costs no More than Common Molasses, Blends and compounds.

The old reliable planters of Barbados have united for the purpose of delivering for sale in Canada the PUREST whole-sugar Barbados. We call it "Windmill" Brand, because in the Islands, the ripest cane was originally crushed by the old windmill process, securing just the finest of the juice for concentrating in the old-fashioned open copper kettles.

All that is good in 100 pounds of cane goes into the making of one gallon of "Windmill" Barbados. Nothing is added—nothing is taken away but water!

Insist on "Windmill" Barbados at your dealers. It tastes as different from the substitutes as cream does from skim milk! Use it liberally. Give the children plenty. Its 9 pounds of sugar to the gallon, and the natural fruit salts it contains produce health, heat, and energy.

"Windmill" Brand is best for baking and all the old-time uses of Molasses. Try it once and you will never be without it in the house.

We guarantee Windmill to be absolutely pure and highest grade Barbados Molasses.

Never sold in sealed containers. It is too full of life for that. Buy any quantity you wish, but be sure it is Windmill Brand, drawn from the barrel shown below.

Victorian Nurses Are In Demand

Dominion Superintendent of Order Tells Board at Ottawa of Many Calls.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—A greater demand than ever for Victorian Order nurses was reported yesterday at the meeting of the board of governors for Canada, over which Dr. Thomas Gibson presided. Others who took part in the discussion were the Dominion Superintendent of Order, Mrs. J. C. Hanington, the Dominion Superintendent of the V. O. N., and Mrs. J. C. Hanington, the Dominion Superintendent of the V. O. N., and Mrs. J. C. Hanington, the Dominion Superintendent of the V. O. N.

Mrs. J. C. Hanington, the Dominion Superintendent of the V. O. N., said there is a great number of calls for nurses to supply the requests of the board and some from the Magdalen Islands and some from the order can arrange for establishing a service there, this will be done. Grants of money have been made to help the hospital work at North Bay, New Brunswick, and Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan.

The board finally passed on the resolution asking the British government to make a change in the royal charter whereby provision would be made for provincial organizations.

AS A WOMAN THINKETH

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) What's the Matter With New York

Once upon a time, I lived in a little American city, where everybody got up before eight o'clock in the morning. And when we were all up and about at night, where we fell in love before we were twenty, and married in June, and stayed married until we died!

And it was all so dull and staid. And the lights of the Magic City were calling, and so, I came to New York—where EVERYTHING is ahead of time! Where we hold our Halloween bonfires in the morning—and take all the edge of the evening—where the "Christmas spirit" is bubbling madly before Thanksgiving, and has all ceased out before Christmas—where the steam heat is turned on before the leaves begin to fall, and summer furs, velvet hats, and canned goods in August—where the evening papers appear in the morning, and you can buy the Sunday morning papers on Saturday night—where deaths are announced before the breath is out of the body, and election returns are shouted on the streets before the ballots are counted.

Where a debutante borrows her grandmother's hat and earrings. Where a grand-mother lints with her granddaughter's fiance—where the steam heat is turned on before the leaves begin to fall, and you can buy the Sunday morning papers on Saturday night—where deaths are announced before the breath is out of the body, and election returns are shouted on the streets before the ballots are counted.

Where chrysanthemums and celery are for sale in September, and Easter lilies and hyacinths appear in the florist's windows in February—where Daisy Ashford is more popular than Shakespeare or William Dean Howells, and Lillian Russell is considered "the youngest woman in the world." Where battles were fought before we were declared, and Peace was wildly celebrated before the Armistice was signed—where, somehow, "Nothing is 'in season,'" and nothing "tastes right," and you never get the REAL "flavor" of anything—Of buckwheat cakes, or cranberry sauce, or ice-cream, or baked beans, or mince pie, or holiday joy, or LOVE, or a kiss! And maybe that's "living," but it's not LIFE! And yet—No matter how tired you get of it, nor how disgusted or bored, nor how far away you may go, nor how long you stay, you always come back to NEW YORK! It's a virus, a habit, a monomania, an obsession—It's like—well, like being married! Or, in fact, you can never be lonely again Outside of it!

Glass of Salts If Your Kidneys Hurt

Eat less meat if you feel Back-ache or have Bladder trouble. Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eating of meat must keep the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon-juice, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent table-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Biddy's Logic. Mistress (after absence)—It's no use, Bridget, you've worn one of my new skirts and you can't get out of it! Bridget—Begorry, mum, if that's so G'd be wairn' it this mornin', wouldn't it?—Boston Transcript.

THE THING THAT WE BRING. Each day we go down to the office, wondering what we will find; Over and over and over the thoughts go round in our mind. But it isn't the things we will find there so much as the spirit we bring. That will help us to tackle the problems and whittle at work and sing. The paths of the world are many and we take them to suit our best. Wondering amid our seeking what we'll find for our heart's content. We will only find that we take there, when we bring in our hearts to make.

The tanks and the life and the loving a blessing for love's dear sake. It isn't the office what whistles, nor the office that tries to sing. But the music is all in the spirit of the help you try to bring. All in the joy and the gladness, the purpose, ambition and zeal. You carry along to the battle—all in the way you feel.

Hope A. Thompson Delights Audience

Lecture in German St. Institute on 'New Hebrides, Land of Mountain and Mist.'

An excellent lecture on "The New Hebrides, The Land of Mountain and Mist" was delivered by Hope A. Thompson in the German Street Baptist Institute last evening. The lecture was well attended, and in addition to the interesting address several musical numbers were rendered, including a piano solo by Miss Minnie Poole, two vocal solos by David Allen, and solos by Dr. P. L. Poole and Paul Cross.

Mr. Thompson's address met with great favor, combining as it did a well-versed description of the beauties of the lakes and glens of the Hebrides, with humorous anecdotes, and interesting accounts of the folklore of the islanders. The address was delivered in the interests of the church organ fund.

Barrel of Apples As Xmas Treat

Mayor Schofield Donates Fruit to Aid the Playgrounds Association.

A meeting of the Playgrounds Association was held last evening with R. E. Armstrong presiding. Mayor Schofield, who was present, explained to the association the order in relation to money grants, telling that a full report of the society audited, must be handed in before a grant can be made to any organization. He spoke appreciatively of the work of the Association and donated a barrel of apples for the Christmas treat.

LITTLE GIRL IS YOUTHFUL GENIUS

Speaks Fanciful Poems Which Her Mother Writes Down—Daisy Ashford's Rival.

(Copyright, 1920, by Daily Mail and Grosvenor News Service.) Linton, Dec. 3.—Following Daisy Ashford and her delightfully amusing stories, and Opal Whiteley, with her astoundingly clever diary of her sixth and seventh years, a little girl poetess has just had a volume published here. Called "Poems by a Little Girl," the book contains 112 bits of verse spoken by Hilda Conkling between the ages of four and nine, and written down by her mother. The publishers vouch for the authenticity of the poems.

"Roxy please, think of me When Spring comes down the world." sang Hilda Conkling when she was four and the same color of expression creeps between the ages of four and nine. But the real joy in it lies in the fact that she is always a child selling of things as she sees them; she never has to look back to try to recapture, elusive ideas and misty scenes of long ago.

Cleaver Verses. Here is a picture that a man or woman, shoving the mind back, could not have taught: The garden is full of flowers. All dancing round and round. John-flowers, Mary-flowers, Polly-flowers, Cauli-flowers. They dance round and round, Hilda Conkling knows little or nothing of metre and rhyme, and thus unrestricted she has sung her way through babyhood. Many of her songs are to her mother, whom she beautifully calls "sweets-of-my-heart." I will sing you a song, Sweets-of-my-heart. With love in it (How I love you!) And a rose to a wing in the wind. The wind that swings roses! All the things that children love she has put into her verses—fads, brooks, birds, the moon which is peeped at from bed, the Sandman, who comes and makes children sleep. Here is a delightful scrap of fancy: I cannot see fairies, I dream them; There is no fairy can hide from me; I keep on dreaming till I find him; There you are, Professor! I see you, Black Wing!

(Street Song of Eastern Mongolia.) I have saddled your raven horse with my nervous limbs, I have polished your sword, your rifle, and your lance. Go, soldier, since you must; go, my eyes; But in your digits do not forget I love you. As in the tiny mirror Which you brought me from Kiascha—Fair, Promise that my face Will be mirrored in your thought. Before you go, make this promise—To watch every evening at the third hour The moon flashing in the sky Like a great mirror of silver. Before you go, I make this promise, to watch every evening at the third hour The moon flashing in the sky Like a great mirror of silver.

Who knows but that perhaps the moon, Moved to see our eyes hurting each other every night, Haven't every night you'll seem to see my eyes, As in a silver mirror In the moon, flashing in the sky.

Then I could watch you every night Fighting on your raven horse; And you could tell yourself every night That I was keeping my promise.

Uric Acid Poisoning

(By Dr. N. C. Cook.) A poison as dangerous as strychnine is manufactured within our own bodies, called uric acid. When it accumulates in the body and the kidneys fail to carry it off, we suffer from dull headache, sleeplessness, muscular pains, lambo, or it may cause rheumatism or gout. The uric acid can be seen in the cloudy sediment in the water—what is called the "brick-dust," noted on the sides of the vessel containing it—after a few hours standing. The water is scant, high-colored, strongly acid, and this should be a danger sign, and if not taken in time by cutting out the meat, tea and alcohol, may end in rheumatism or gout.

Take "Asaric," first discovered by Dr. Pierce, of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y. Asaric (anti-uric acid) Tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store.

THE COUNTY COURT

After further hearing in the County Court yesterday morning the case of Rose vs. Miller was adjourned until Monday morning. The case is arousing considerable interest as the point has been raised as to whether the word "motor" should apply to a whole car or merely the engine thereof. Evidence was given by John Gale, the defendant, Roland Miller, Fred Ellis, H. A. Cody, Chas. Purdon and Harvey Ellis, the latter three being called by the defence as experts in connection with motors. Dr. J. B. M. Tait, K. C. and G. Harle Logan appeared for the plaintiff, and H. A. Powell, K. C. and M. B. Inches for the defence.

Of Course, the Women Liked It

On special occasions, such as an afternoon tea, the new Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea had its first introduction to many of the women of Canada.

And at such times its extra qualities could be discussed and enjoyed at leisure.

The women found that its aroma delicate and delightful, that it has a bright sparkling amber color in the cup, that the flavor is of rare charm and distinction, while its strength is rich and satisfying.

The more cultivated your taste, the more you will appreciate Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea.

Ask for it by the full name—Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea. Sold only in pure unadorned straight cuttings.

Weekly Chat

Dearest Chums—Here we are to the close of another contest and about one hundred of you are very anxious to know the results. Many more are interested, of course, but about that number are directly concerned, judging from the number of drawings in. Indeed, the mass of awaiting the prizes was most difficult, especially in the older group, for there were so many good entries received that it was a special allowance given to this group. It was very hard to let many go without a prize, so the next best thing to do was to add two special prizes and then have a honor list for both groups. Do not feel disappointed, little friends, but reasonable; you would not wish your drawing to be awarded a prize if it was much inferior to others, would you? Neither would you want to be omitted from the list if yours was much superior to the others. So just keep in mind that the judges who chose the winners did so from merit alone. They were given the two packages each containing the drawings of the two groups and were asked to pick out the two best, then the next ten or more which came nearest to winning a prize. This is the method always adopted, so that requesting a prize in your letters has no connection with the decision at all.

Very few rules were given for you to follow and yet many disobeyed the few. For instance, many coupons were not attached to the drawings and several were not even enclosed with them, so perhaps many of you will remember just what you did in regard to following the rules, and then understand why you were in the 25th places.

Just a suggestion for future use: A drawing following the rules and in the good condition it was before it became folded, and counts very much against the drawing. The following causes creases and blurs by being handled through the mails and probably some of you would scarcely recognize your work if you saw it when opened and unfolded. The ones which were rolled and put in a cardboard roll or laid flat between two pieces of cardboard were the ones which arrived in the same condition as when they left the artist, so that may be another explanation for some of you who sent in an envelope which you considered excellent copies.

Some drawings were exactly the same size as the picture printed and, of course, they were excluded from competition. Nevertheless, kiddies, with all these explanations, I am more convinced that we have many artists with good talent in our C. C. It is such a joy to hear of some of you planning to take drawing lessons and I trust the opportunity will come to many. One regret I always feel over these drawing contests and that is that you cannot really see the work of the worthy ones. If you could just see the best and compare with your own and others it would be such a help and satisfaction to you and give you ideas for improving your work.

Our minds and our time are fully occupied with other important plans for the next few weeks so that our contest in the festive season is over we will have other suggestions for contests and in the meantime you may express your own desires and ideas. As ever, your friend,

UNCLE DICK.

Answers To Letters

LEAH G.—Enjoyed hearing from you and to know all the news about your surroundings. Baby brother must be very cunning now and of course would love all the sweets. Hope you continue to enjoy all the good things on our C. C. page.

MARION H.—Sorry indeed to hear of your accident, all your hard luck seems to be coming at once and you will get it all over in a heap so that it is something to be thankful for. You have always been so appreciative of our page and its contents that your letters always cheer me up quite a lot consequently they are needed. Hope you will be fully well to enjoy the coming holidays, then you will easily catch up in your school work when the next term begins.

LAURA S.—You have some ideas of poetry alright, but need to keep the right number of syllables to each line. Perhaps you have not come to that in your studies, but you will understand what I mean when you do, and until you learn that your verses will not read correctly.

GLADYS G.—Have I already told you that you are an excellent writer your letters are always a joy to read, they have such a good appearance. Hope you are able to take drawing lessons, for you have talent and it is a pity not to develop it. Rest assured that the judges will do the fair thing for all in our contest. Write often.

MURRY R. K.—Your writing was very light and hard to see, hope you use a softer pencil next time. Sorry to hear of your loss and of course I would like to see dear brother's picture. Hope to have another letter soon.

MILDRED B.—All the friends who sent drawings have the same wish as you and you might just read the last part of the answer. I just wrote to another member. You must have winter well advanced in your district to be enjoying so many of the sports. Hope you have lots of fun. Write again.

MARGARET L. P.—It was a treat to hear from you after the long silence and your letter was most enjoyable. Of course your time is fully occupied with so many interests, but am glad you manage to read the "dear old C. C."

EVELYN S.—None of our C. C. members are forgotten because they are all enrolled in our big book, still we like to hear from them quite frequently just to prove that they think of the C. C. What a lot of snow you have had in your district and like all the other young folk you rejoiced when it arrived. Too bad you did not attach your coupon to your drawing as the rule requires. Coming separately one cannot tell which is yours, especially if others make the same error. When so many dozen are received you can understand how necessary it is to attach your coupon to your own drawing, can't you?

ALEXIS G. W.—You do not yet seem to understand our contest which is just finished, but in case you wish to try others similar to that I want you to know that the drawing on our C. C. page was to be copied and it was the best copy either larger or smaller than the one shown, that the prize was to be given for. Your drawing was not a copy of the picture at all. Sorry you did not read the directions.

MARION H. W.—You are a very welcome member indeed, and I shall begin to look for letters from you. But the skylight was built in the roof and Ferrers had taken care to bolt the brick walls and the hay deadened his voice. At first he thought it a fine joke, but gradually the feeling of adventure wore off. He wanted to get out.

MILDRED L.—Yes, indeed, there has been snow everywhere, but as I write the rain drops are falling and soon it will be gone. Too bad about the sickness in your home, but hope all will be well in time for the festive season. You got the new doll too soon.

THE LOST KITTEN. One day as I was playing in the front yard I saw a sunnyside lying by the tree. I went to see what was in it. When I looked into it I was surprised to see two little kittens. They were as white as snow. We gave one of them to a lady friend of ours, and the other we kept. I named it Fluff. It was too small to eat out of a dish, so I fed it on the bottle. One day Fluff disappeared, and we never saw her again. I feel so badly about it, as I had grown so attached to her. LLOYD SCHMIDT. Age 13.

A little girl of four years, on seeing her first aeroplane, ran in to her grandma and said, "Oh, grandma, I just saw a man up in the skies sewing a sewing machine."

Circumstances have now made it imperative for me to get a testimonial from Keith, and this is the only way. JESUS THE CARPENTER

Mark 6:3; Luke 4:21-41. Who made the tables and chairs? A carpenter. Think of how many things the carpenter does for us. In our last story we talked about a very wonderful person who was a carpenter. Who was he? The children in the village where he lived often saw him going home in the evening with his carpenter's tools. You know what those are. There have been many good carpenters in the world, but I am sure Jesus was a better workman than any of them. I like to think that if anything in the village needed fixing or mending it was brought to him. Sometimes a shepherd would ask him to come to the sheepfold to mend a gate which perhaps had been broken by a wolf trying to get in. Or a farmer would send for him to mend a mill in his stable, or to make a manger. The work was always well done, the nails were struck right on the head, the wood was good and strong and was sawed and planed straight and smooth. After the day's work when Jesus was tired, he would walk up the mountain behind the village where he used to climb when a boy, and there under the stars, kneeling on the grass, he prayed to God. Then down the steep little path he would go back, bright and strong, ready to work again when morning came. The people of the village of Nazareth did not know what a wonderful person he was. They called him "the Carpenter," and they knew that he was a good one. They supposed that he would always stay in their little village, mending their plows and yokes and making new ones. But Jesus knew that some day he would leave the carpenter's bench and go out into the cities, where there were greater things for him to mend than the little managers and sheepfolds, and plows. He knew that the world was full of broken things, men and women with broken bodies and with broken hearts. You have seen people with broken bodies, have you not? People who are lame, and deaf, and blind. There were many of them in the country where Jesus lived, and there were many more who were so wicked or so unhappy that it seemed as if their hearts were broken. So Jesus left his home at Nazareth when he was thirty years old, and went to a city not far from there to mend the hearts and bodies of those poor, broken men and women.

TRICKERY IN WORDS.

"Which is the most dangerous word in the English language?" asked a man of his friend. "Stumbled," was the reply; "because you are sure to get a tumble between the first and the last letters. Now I will ask you one: Which is the longest English word?" "Lattitudinarian," was the prompt reply. "You're wrong," said the other. "It is smiles, because there is a mile between the first and last letters." "Oh, I know a longer word than that," said a smart boy standing by. "It has three miles between its beginning and its ending." "Well, what is it?" asked the others. "Beleaguered," answered the boy. "There is a league between the 'b' and the 'd'." Then he ran away very quickly. A teacher in a Sunday school was trying to make clear to her class the lesson of "Moses and the burning bush." She was amused, though disappointed, when on asking the question, "What did the Lord say to Moses at the burning bush?" she received the prompt answer, "Please teacher, take off your shoes and stockings and warm your feet." "There's something the matter with this bar," said the young man who had been struggling to learn to ride the bicycle. "The dealer who had lately sold him the wheel. 'It looks to me as if it might snap in two at any time.'" "Oh, I think not," said the manufacturer's agent. "I think not, sir. At any rate, if it should break, we will, of course, provide you with a new one." "And who do you think will come and get it?" demanded the beginner, with considerable heat—"my heirs!"

CALL MONEY IS STILL UNCHANGED

Railroad and Utility Bonds Were Heavy With Liberty Group Unsettled.

New York, Dec. 3.—Save for a pronounced contraction of business, both as to volume and variety of issues traded in the stock market today differed in no important particular from those of recent irregular sessions. Interest continues to centre in Southern Pacific, the erratic course of that issue suggesting an increasing divergence of opinion in speculative circles at least, regarding the pecuniary benefits to be derived from the company's plan of segregation. General developments of the day were conflicting in their relation to market values. Passing of the dividend on two of the low priced copper shares occasioned only mild disturbance in that group, having evidently been discounted.

Further curtailment of immediate suspension of operations in many branches of industry, especially steel, rubber and textiles, merely confirmed recognized conditions of the past few months, as set forth by commercial and financial authorities.

Oils Were Stronger

Mexican oils and the better grade of retail, especially Southern Pacific, which continued heavy, were the chief elements of strength and activity. Mexican Petroleum making a net gain of five points and Reading almost two points. Shipings, motors and several of the equipments and food and leather specialties were under renewed pressure. Sales amounted to 735,000 shares.

Money on call and time was quietly exchanged. Trading in foreign exchange was nominal and moderate. Railroad and utility bonds were heavy, especially light traction and the Liberty group showed light gains and losses, with no feature to international. Total sales, par value aggregated $14,850,000.

TEN POINT JUMP IN TORONTO RAILS ON MONTREAL LIST

Seventeen Point Rise in Two Days on Strength of Negotiations Pending.

Montreal, Dec. 3.—The outstanding feature of the trading today on the local stock exchange was Toronto Railway, with a turnover of 1,553 shares, the largest turnover in the stock for several years. The price, following an advance of 6 1/2 points yesterday, today gained a further 10 1/2 points, reaching 62 and closing at the top of the highest since 1918, when the stock sold up to 62 1/2. This rise is attributed to the expected completion of the deal now in progress between the Ontario Hydro and the Mackenzie interests in the electrical development and Toronto Power, which should result in a valuable equity holding for the railway shareholders.

Abitibi was the day's leader in activity, selling up to 56 and closing at 55, a fractional improvement. Brompton and National Breweries both showed a better trend and the former showed good absorption of further liquidation. Prominently strong stocks in the list were Steamships Common, up a point at 47; Asbestos, up 2 1/2 to 32; and Spanish Preferred, up a point at 91. Weak issues included Textile, which lost 2 points, at 109; Pennants, down 3 points, at 101; a new low for the year; Price Brothers, which sold down 30 points from a previous high sale last month; and Ames Preferred, which lost 18 points from a sale reported in October.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

The Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited, reports one of the best years in its history for year ended September 30th last. Net profits for the period total $2,386,150, an increase of $365,432, as compared with 1919.

The first annual statement of Famous Players Corporation, Limited, of Montreal, indicates that net profits will be in excess of $250,000, while current assets are expected to exceed $2,500,000. The report covers about six months of the period of the corporation's operations since the public issue of 8 per cent. first preferred shares.

Col. Grant Morden, who is at present interested in establishing an Empire Bank, at London, England, says that a large amount of capital intended for use in Canada is being held up through present financial conditions.

Asked for His Reasons

for carrying Life Insurance with The Manufacturers Life, one of our large Policyholders cogently replied:

1st.—In case I do not accumulate a competence, or meet with reverses in business, I know my wife and family will not become objects of charity, as my Life Insurance will supply sufficient funds for their needs.

2nd.—Life Insurance is always the first asset realized on—so, if by my demise, the time is not opportune to dispose of my other assets, my Executors will not need to sacrifice same to obtain ready money.

3rd.—It is the only way I can make absolutely sure of providing for my dependents.

4th.—It is the very essence of good business.

CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Reluctance of export interests to follow any advance in prices tended today to check bullish ardor concerning wheat. The market closed unsettled 1 1/4 cent net lower to 1 1/2 cent higher, with December $1.70 1/4 to $1.70 1/2, and March $1.64 3/4 to $1.65. Corn finished 1 1/2 off to 7 1/2 up, and oats gained 1 1/4 to 3 1/2. In provisions there was a setback of 50 to 87 cents. Bears in the wheat market put special stress on early indications that yesterday's sharp upturn in value had brought European demand to a standstill.

EARLY SESSION OF LEGISLATURE IS VERY LIKELY

New Chief Inspector Has Plans Ready to Enforce the "Dry" Laws. POWER CONTRACTS ARE AWARDED

Government Has Not Decided on Application of University for Help.

Protestants, Dec. 3.—The provincial government concluded its meeting here this morning, and its members left for St. John.

Mr. D. W. Sturgeson, minister of Agriculture and Hon. J. B. Hetherington, provincial secretary, who were sworn in office last night by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor Thursday night, attended the session of the government.

The ceremony of swearing in took place at about 10.30 in the executive council chamber in the presence of the members of the cabinet.

Premier Foster announced immediately before his departure that the contracts for installation of the hydro-electric installation at the Musquash River had been awarded on the recommendation of the committee on power contracts.

Chief Inspector J. B. Hawthorne was before the cabinet this morning. He made certain recommendations with regard to the issue of licenses at various places in the province.

The situation with regard to the protest against the election of H. D. D. and D. A. Stewart, in Regiougouche County is clouded. It was said today that the committee on elections and privileges of the House of Assembly probably would have to consider the matter apart from the petition of protest which will go before the court.

The point of utmost interest at the present time is whether Messrs. Stewart and D. A. Stewart can take their seats in the House before a decision in the case is reached. This is the point which probably will have to go to the committee on elections and privileges.

It is reported that an early session of the legislature is desired and the work of the various departments is being rushed to make it a fact. The issuing of the auditor-general's report will be the chief deciding factor.

The meeting of the provincial government closed without a decision being reached in the application of the Senate of the University of New Brunswick for an appropriation of $50,000 from the government towards a fund of $250,000 required to provide the proposed new memorial book.

The project to erect a power plant at Victoria Falls, on the Zambesi River in South Africa, has been revived and it is especially likely that a 250,000 horsepower plant will soon be under way at that place.

"DRUID CIRCLES" THREATENED WITH TOTAL DESTRUCTION

Breaking up Old Monuments and Using Stones for Building Purposes.

Cable reports stating that Harborough, N. B., one of the best known of the so-called "Druid Circles" of England, are to be broken up and used by a company for building homes.

During the Dark Ages priceless marble statues by Phidias and other Greek masters of sculpture were burned to make lime.

Relatively small stone circles and parallel rows of monoliths known as "avenues" are numerous in England, Wales, Scotland, and Ireland.

PORTLAND LODGE
ELECTED OFFICERS
Excellent Staff of Officers
Chosen at Meeting by Sons of England Benefit Society.

Wholesale prices of pork and beef have slumped very appreciably. One wholesale dealer declared yesterday that hogs on the hoof have returned to what is practically their 1913 price. Pork and pork products at wholesale are from all reports on their way down toward that level.

Drop in Live Hogs
The biggest drop recorded, it is said, is in live hogs. The packing house figures show pork on the hoof in Chicago brought eight cents a pound in November. During the year the American farmer was virtually guaranteed a minimum average of seventeen and a half cents. In July, 1919, the price reached twenty-three cents a pound, but Chicago reports that hogs are now back to ten and a half cents.

Local Situation
The situation in St. John, according to a local wholesaler, is similar to that in the United States. He also stated that sheepskins which sold wholesale at $3.15 last year, are now being bought at fifty cents. Yesterday afternoon beef sold as low as five cents per pound, versus ten, while the average price one year ago was twelve cents. Hogs have dropped to sixteen cents per pound, whereas twenty-six and twenty-seven cents were the prices last December. Cow hides have declined to five cents per pound. Most sold yesterday, wholesale, at from eight to ten cents per pound, and one year ago twenty-two cents was the average wholesale price. Pork yesterday sold to retailers at fourteen cents per pound although twenty-six cents was the approximate price last year.

ENJOYABLE DANCE
AT THE STUDIO
A most enjoyable dance was held at the Studio, Germain street, yesterday evening, by Miss Edith Swetka, Miss Marion McCleary, Miss Violet Taylor, Miss Marion Ross and Miss Williamson. Over one hundred and fifty young people were present and the chaperones for the occasion were Mrs. Geo. Stubbs, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Dickson.

The programme was a very extensive one, including the Lucky dance, Cornet dances, Moon dances and New Ticker dance. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening, and splendid music was furnished by Davidson's orchestra.

Christmas Treats Will Be Cheaper

Wholesalers State Raisins and Other Goodies Cheaper Than Last Year.

Christmas nuts, raisins and other holiday goodies will be cheaper in St. John this year than last, according to several wholesalers who were spoken to yesterday. Hog prices are practically down to 1913 level again, and beef has dropped seventeen cents since September last. Sugar has come down rapidly and, of course, everything of which sugar is a constituent will be cheaper, but the reduction in some other cases will not be so great. Candy prices have receded fully twenty per cent, in certain kinds.

The Decline
The decline in the price of walnuts, almonds and filberts has been occurring since early in month of September. Wholesale at eighty cents per pound, filberts at thirty-five cents, almonds from thirty to thirty-five cents. Owing to the recession which has been in progress, walnuts may now be purchased by retailers at fifty-five cents per pound, filberts at twenty cents, and almonds at twenty-five cents. The only nut which has held its price is the Brazil, which varies from thirty to forty cents per pound, which is the same as that of last year. Practically all the present supplies of nuts in the hands of the local wholesalers are very small, however, and due to the shortness of the period intervening between now and Christmas, it is very problematical if any may be obtained here for the Yuletide season.

Requisites here, it is understood, have been sent to New York, in the hope that some stores of walnuts, filberts, almonds and Brazil, from France, Italy, Sicily and Brazil, might be forwarded immediately, but present indications are that this cannot be accomplished. In view of the present limited supply of nuts available, there is little possibility of a further decline, while, on the other hand, a slight increase may perhaps take place if the demand is great.

Fruit is Cheaper
At the present time fruit is cheaper than it has been for some time; but a limited supply of oranges is on hand. The two kinds which are now in demand are the naval and Florida. About a year ago naval oranges were selling at a wholesale price ranging from $7 to $8 per case; while the present price is from $8.50 to $9. Florida oranges were purchased by the retailers over twelve months ago at approximately $8 per case; but the price now is from $7 to $8. This is accountable to the fact that the season previous to last year was a big one, while a short crop last year has tended to slightly increase prices. However, the present crop, of which shipments are only about starting, is very large and should result in much cheaper oranges next year, but not at present prices.

Apply to Drop
Apples may possibly be slightly lower, but if this occurs soon, it will likely take place after Christmas. Very little demand exists, it is said, for Northern Spies from Ontario, at the present prices, which are fairly high. Nova Scotia apples by the barrel and Washington box apples are being sold to retailers, the former at $3 to $3.50 per barrel, and the latter at $4.25 to $5 per box.

Steeded and seedless raisins are being sold wholesale at twenty-nine and thirty cents per pound, which is a considerable decrease as compared with last year's price. It is difficult to state if there will be any decline in the price of this commodity during the present month. One dominant reason for the high quotations at which the raisin market first opened about one and one-half months ago, is the number of home growers which have blossomed forth since the advent of prohibition.

Milk Prices Will Not Be Lowered

Dealers and Producers Now Blame Price of Hay for Keeping Milk at 17c. Quart

Whatever hope the mothers of St. John might have had for a lowering in the price of milk in the near future seem doomed to failure. Dealers and producers both state that while the price of feed has gone down, the price of hay has gone up, and they therefore are no better off than when they paid 15 cents a quart. Several of the dealers claim that if the price of milk was to be lowered there would not be enough profit in the business to warrant continuing it. They state that hay at present is very high and that while feed is lower the quality is poor.

Prices of Hay
The market quotations do not bear the milkmen out when they say that the price of hay has balanced the drop in feed. In September pressed hay was quoted at $35 a ton, and the present price asked is $40, a rise of five dollars.

It was stated by the producers when they last raised the price of milk that when there came a sufficient drop in the price of feed they would set milk back at the old prices. Some of the small grocery shops around the city who handle milk are selling it at the present time at lower prices than asked by the dealers, but milkmen claim that the grocers make up in the sale of other articles whatever money they drop in the milk transactions. They stoutly maintain that the present price is the very lowest at which they can sell milk and still make a reasonable profit.

Lemon Extract Case In Court

Harry Kent Allowed to Go—Advised Not to Deal in Lemon Only for Cooking.

Harry Kent, grocer, of 77 Brussels street was allowed to leave the police court yesterday, after promising the magistrate to have nothing further to do with lemon extract except for cooking purposes. Kent was charged with refusing to let a police officer look at lemon extract register in which he is required by the Prohibition Authorities to register all extract sales. The magistrate pointed out to the defendant that it was the duty of a police officer to see that all provincial, federal and imperial laws were properly carried out. He said it was a serious offence to disobey a policeman, and resistance to a police officer was a much more serious offense than resistance to an ordinary citizen.

He advised the defendant to follow the example of one of the leading grocers of the town and go out of the lemon extract business entirely. "It is no consolation to mothers and wives that their loved ones get grazed by lemon extract instead of liquor," said His Honor.

A postponed case against Fred Gayward, charged with having liquor on his premises illegally, was taken up to the morning. Matteo Betty, who conducts a grocery store in the lower flat of 231 Brussels street, over which the accused lives, was put on the stand. It is the duty of a police officer to see that all provincial, federal and imperial laws were properly carried out. He said it was a serious offence to disobey a policeman, and resistance to a police officer was a much more serious offense than resistance to an ordinary citizen.

Sunday Selling Will Be Stopped

The Corner Grocery Selling Milk, Bread and Other Articles Will Be Deal With.

The lid will be shut down hard in St. John from sharp 12 o'clock Saturday evening to exactly 12 o'clock Sunday evening, in the future. The Sabbath's calm will be kept with a capital "S." The druggist who traffics in sodas, ice cream or grape juice, or the corner grocer who accommodates a customer with the odd quart of milk, a loaf of bread, or other articles will be held in court and duly prosecuted. One shopkeeper was recently called upon to produce ten dollars in court for selling on Sunday, and a further violation of the law will be promptly brought to task in the police court.
