WELL RECEIVED AT THE CAPITAL

Members of Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association
Have Good Time.

Ottawa, June 20.—There are gathered here for the convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, more than five hundred editors and their wives, representing every province in the Dominion. There were many old friends between those who had the pleasure of participating in the trip of Vancouver, B. C. last year.

On our way up from Edmonton to Ottawa in our special car, we crossed the Quebec bridge into Quebec City, where we had two hours to view this historic spot. Upon arriving in Montreal we had also two hours. On our way from Montreal in the car of the evening the observation car was placed at our disposal and we all enjoyed this run very much.

At Ottawa the Ottawa-Laurier was our headquarters. The meetings were held in the ball room and opened at 10 o'clock with the Mayor of Ottawa, Premier King, Ex-Premier Meighan and Mr. Greer, addressed the gathering. We can do no better than clip the report from the Ottawa papers which was as follows:

Three national leaders, Mr. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Premier of Canada; Mr. Hon. Arthur Meighan, Ex-Premier and leader of the Conservative party; and Hon. T. A. Corcoran, chief of the Progressive group in the House of Commons, for once saw eye to eye, when they joined this faraway press assembly, a whole-hearted welcome to the delegates to the third annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, held here by meeting at the Chateau Laurier.

In welcoming the delegates to the Capital of the Dominion, each speaker, in turn, spoke of the great power and influence of the press in politics, social evolution, community life and in all spheres of human activity.

Responsibility of Press.

That the press held in its hands much of the destiny of the state and that the press was responsible for the peace of Canada must be more and more the great responsibility that was placed on the shoulders of the press, was the opinion of the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie King.

In the opinion of Mr. Premier King, the press was a power to be feared, not only by the Government, but also by the people, particularly the weekly press, Mr. Corcoran referred to the connection with the press early in life and spoke of the great opportunity that was given to the weekly newspapers in the moulding of a steady, sound public opinion.

The Mayor's Welcome.

Mayor Frank Plant welcomed the delegates to the City of Ottawa in an engaging speech. In extending the freedom of the City to the distinguished gathering, the Mayor stated that he felt at home in their midst. He had started out in life working for a couple of years in the composing room of a western Ontario newspaper, and had also spent two years in the business office of an Ottawa newspaper.

Mr. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King said it was a pleasure to greet such a splendid representation of Canadian journalists, which was doing so much for the good of the country. They represented the weekly press of the more distant parts of Canada as well as the local and urban centers.

The Premier remarked that he understood that the present organization was part of the larger association existing in former days, and that it was a larger group than the old association.

"Of course," the Premier commented, "it is not any portion of the press which exercises such an influence on the lives of the people as the weekly press." People looked over the daily news more or less hurriedly. The influence and character of the weekly press were deeper and more enduring in the moulding of public opinion.

"The more we have in the way of sound opinion," the Premier Minister declared, "the less we need of government. The Government should seek to be only the expression of the people."

Moulding Public Opinion.

"If opinion is properly moulded the Government given expression to the opinion properly. It is only in communities where the people have not learned to think for themselves that the Government has to adopt a paternal attitude. In this Dominion public opinion is far more advanced than in other countries of the world."

to the government is to see that the will of the people is properly and quickly interpreted. There was no single agency to which the Government and the people were so much indebted as the press of the country, particularly the weekly press.

NEW BRANCHES OF CATHOLIC W. L.

Bathurst and Chatham Women Inaugurate Women's League in Restigouche.

Bathurst, June 15.—On Sunday last the diocese organizers of the Catholic Women's League, Mrs. J. P. Byrne, Mrs. Donald Fraser and Mrs. H. A. Maloney, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Molloy, Mrs. W. Cassidy, of Chatham, and the Misses Agatha Melanson and L. Theriault, motored to Dalhousie where at a well attended meeting of the Catholic women, the aims and objects of the Catholic Women's League were explained fully both in English and in French.

The women of Dalhousie by unanimous vote decided to join their Catholic sisters and a very promising subscription was accordingly organized. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. A. J. Lallier; second vice, Mrs. Andrew Allain; third vice, Mrs. George Winchester; secretary, Miss Nettie Blanchard; treasurer, Mrs. James Argenson.

After the organization the visitors were entertained at dinner by the pastor, Rev. Father Hart. A delightful hour was spent, after which the party proceeded to Campbellton where, despite the unfavorable weather, a large and enthusiastic gathering of women awaited the visiting organizers. Addresses were given by the residents, Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Melanson and Miss Theriault, and another large sub-division was formed which promises to become a very active and energetic branch.

The women of Campbellton entered at ten and the party returned to Bathurst in the evening delighted with their reception in both towns and feeling assured that the Catholic welfare paper, on which arrangements were made in a manner creditable alike to the women themselves and to the Catholic Women's League at large.

The following are the officers of the Campbellton sub-division: President, Mrs. Martin; first vice, Mrs. John Harquail; second vice, Mrs. Madelon; third vice, Mrs. Isaac Boudreau; secretary, Mrs. D. A. Harquail, and treasurer, Mrs. John Bernier.

CHIEF GAME WARDEN BUSY

Prosecutes Six Game Law Violation Cases and Two Offenders Under Forest Fire Act.

Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon recently prosecuted in six game law violation cases in Restigouche and Gloucester Counties and has secured convictions in all cases.

Judge Matheson here gave judgment in five of these cases and fines aggregating to $135.00 were imposed. The charges in these cases were: deer killing, beaver killing, the slaying of calf moose, acting as guide without license and guiding unlicensed non-resident sportsmen.

At Tracadie, Gloucester County, Warden Gagnon also obtained a conviction in a game law violation case, and a fine of $150.00 was imposed. In addition to these cases two violations of the Forest Fire Act were proven at Kedgwick and the offenders punished accordingly.

RAILWAY OFFERS TO UNDERTAKE SUBWAY

Representative of C. N. R. Here And Makes Proposition—But Terms Not Attractive.

As a fruition from the combined efforts of the Board of Trade and Town Council in the matter of inducing the railway to undertake the proposed Central Street subway, word was received here a short time ago that a representative of the Canadian National Railway would visit Campbellton in the near future and interview the members of the town council on the matter of the subway project.

Tuesday the town council was notified that Mr. S. J. Hungerford, 2nd Vice-President of the railway would arrive on Monday night's local and meet the members of the council. On his arrival here he was met at the depot by His Worship Mayor McKay and the members of the town council, also by a delegation from the Board of Trade. He was driven down to Andrew, Central and Cedar streets and looked over the situation. On returning to his private car the matter of the Central street subway was discussed.

Mr. Hungerford promised to put in a subway at Central street, providing the town closed up Andrew and Cedar streets, paying all damages that would arise therefrom, the town also to furnish the land for the approaches to the subway. In discussing the matter Mr. Hungerford said the subway could not be put in this year. He felt however the work could be taken on next year.

The matter of railway gates on the various crossings was also taken up with him. Railway gates he contended were not very satisfactory, and he held out little hope for having them placed upon the crossings.

Mr. Hungerford left on Tuesday night's Limited for Montreal.

ESCAPES FROM DORCHESTER

Convict Escaped Through Pigery Early Sunday Morning And is Still at Large.

Sackville, June 20.—Sunday morning shortly after 10 o'clock Town Marshal Etanbrook, received word from the Dorchester Penitentiary that a convict had escaped and to be on the lookout for him. The man got through the pigery it is said. The guards were turned out promptly and in a short time all the roads were being watched and autos were being held up at railway crossings. Yesterday morning a mounted guard was in Sackville for a short time. The missing man's name is said to be McLean; he came from the neighborhood of Pictou.

The Latest.

A telephone message from Dorchester this morning says the convict is still at large. There is a report that he got away in an automobile, but this has not been confirmed.

MISSIONARIES FROM INDIA

The Misses Martha and Dr. Zella Clarke, Baptist Missionaries on furlough from India addressed a large audience in the Baptist Church on Monday evening. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Baptist Missionary Society. Mrs. M. P. Moore, president, The Girls' Mission Band, presided. A competent choir, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Currie rendered a pleasing duet, Miss Ina Currie playing the accompaniment on the violin. ASS OR APE?

Of late there has been a revival of interest in the question whether, were we able to trace our human ancestry back far enough, we should find it merging into that of the higher animals, writes James Harvey Robinson in the June Harper's Magazine. A dash of cold water is thrown on this by William Jennings Bryan, orator and writer. He declares that we now give far too much attention to the age of rocks and too little to the Rock of Ages. In addition to this it is constantly asserted that men of science have abandoned "Darwinism."

After all, does this question of man's origin really matter? Have we ever received anything from the theory of Darwin that contrived to make the world a better place to live in? Science has contributed a great deal towards industrial and educational advancement; it has done much to ameliorate the human race; it has solved many seemingly insoluble problems and surmounted many apparently invulnerable obstacles in the past and present ages, but as far as its research in connection with the origin of man is concerned, it has produced little or no real value.

What we want of science to-day is physiological, geological and psychological discoveries which will advance the intellectual, spiritual and physical status of the world. Many other theories in addition to those above might serve as worthy studies for Mother Science, and yield a useful fruit but biology (as regards man's origin) is not one of them. If evolution, under the guidance of the Almighty is the governing and developing power of the universe, why, all well and good, but it is needless to search back through the dark ages into occult secrets of the past merely to discover whether man evolved from a lower animal or a plant upon the hillside. Such research will be productive of about as much good as if one were to trace his ancestry back for several decades in order to ascertain whether or not his great-grandmother was bald-headed at the age of 50.

What the world needs to-day is the revelation of a comprehensive study in science to elucidate the great process of evolution as it affects the present age and the knowledge which may be derived from this study adopted and made practical to the immediate needs of mankind.

Moreover, surely there is enough of beauty about us to occupy our minds without our brooding over the sordid ape theory. Besides, there are too many useful and interesting things to learn and too many worth-while things to be done to justify any waste of time wondering whether our remote antecedents had two legs or four and whether or not they were equipped with a tail. The man who squanders valuable time in debating this immaterial question has not discovered the real joy of living on this wonderful orb and does not even justify his existence. He may, with voluble eloquence trace his lineage back to the ape family but the mere fact that he wastes several hours of each week to argue about something that does not even remotely concern either himself or anyone else, proves irrefragably that he is more an Ape than an Ape.

TO DESTROY CUT WORMS.

Most gardeners in this vicinity are having a lamentable time this season with cut worms which seem to be unusually abundant this year. It is alleged that "poisoned bait" is the most potent weapon with which to combat these desecrating creatures.

For use in small garden take one peck of dry bran, add four ounces of white arsenic or Paris Green, and mix thoroughly with two gallons of water in which has been stirred half a gallon of sorghum or other cheap molasses. After the mash has stood for several hours, scatter it in lump the size of a marble over the garden where the injury is beginning to appear and about the bases of the plants before night, which is the time the cutworms are active. Apply a second or third time if necessary.

It is advisable to keep young children, live stock, and children away from this bait.

THREE MORE VESSELS.

Three more vessels in the Port during the past week, the S.S. "Mozart," the S.S. "Rover" and the S.S. "Tota." These vessels will be loaded by the Shivers Lumber Co. and the Bay Chaleur Mills Co. for Europe.

ATTACK SIR JAMES

CRAIG'S HOME.

Belfast, June 20.—Shots were fired early to-day in the vicinity of Stormont Castle, which was purchased by the Ulster Government as the official residence of Sir James Craig the Premier, who with his wife took up residence there for the first time last evening. Officials were reticent regarding the firing, but the belief was expressed in other quarters that an attack on the castle was contemplated but was frustrated by the police guards.

WELL RECEIVED AT CAPITAL.

In his address extended an invitation to the delegates to visit the Parliament Buildings. He referred to the budget address now drawing to a conclusion, and remarked that while most of the members had spoken, those who did not speak felt they had discharged their duties to their constituents in listening to others. The Government had thought it was doing an excellent thing in bringing down the budget. The balance of the day until 4.30 was spent in interesting discussion on business matters.

At about 4.15 our party were marshalled and taken to cars and conveyed to Rideau Hall gates. From thence we walked to Rideau Hall. The Ottawa papers reported the function as follows:

Garden Party for Delegates. The delegates to the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association and their wives were entertained yesterday afternoon to a most charmingly arranged garden party, reception and tea held at Rideau Hall by Their Excellencies the Governor General and Lady Byng of Vimy.

The Excellencies received in the Blue Room, the guests arriving at half past four o'clock. Her Excellency was much admired in a cream lace gown trimmed with touches of black and she wore a white straw hat trimmed with daisies.

All the members of the staff were present and assisted in attending to the comfort and entertainment of the guests who enjoyed the lovely surroundings. Chairs had been placed throughout the lawns, and before the tea hour the guests remained out-of-doors. The band of the G.P.F.G. was present and dispensed a pleasing program of music greatly enjoyed by all. Miss Walpole, who was present, wore a lovely cream silk knitted dress and a straw hat with flower trimming.

A buffet tea was served in the ball room, here from the long tables, the guests partook of refreshments.

Both Lord and Lady Byng went among the visiting delegates and chatted with as many as the limited time of ten hours would permit. It was a most enjoyable gathering and quite the most outstanding social gathering arranged for the visitors.

Upon returning to the Chateau Laurier we were at once conducted to altogether different appearance from daytime. An orchestra was rendering music and the floor was crowded buffet luncheon in the Chateau dining room. This entertainment was provided by the C. N. R. railway.

Our next article will tell of Friday's program.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stevens of Matapedia are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl on Friday at the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital.

CAUGHT FOUR SALMON.

Messrs. J. E. McKenna and A. H. Ingram returned on Friday from a fishing trip up the Restigouche. They were successful in landing four fine salmon in Mr. McKenna's waters. One landed by Mr. McKenna weighed 30 pounds, the largest yet reported here to have been caught with a fly.

SCHOOL CLOSING.

The town schools will close for the summer holidays on Friday, June 30. The classes whose teachers are going to the Institute to be held in St. John on June 28th, 29th and 30th, will close on Monday, June 29th. The public closing exercises will be held in the Grammar School on Thursday, June 29th at 10.30 a.m., and at the Rosebery Street School on Friday, June 30th at 9 a.m.

HEAVY RAINFALL.

Crowning a week of rainy weather a veritable downpour of rain visited this district last night, beginning about nine o'clock and continuing steadily throughout the greater part of the night. Owing to the rapidity of the rainfall the sewerage system here proved inadequate for drainage in various parts of the town and although little damage is so far reported, many householders were caused considerable inconvenience when their basements became flooded by the downpour.

First class job printing done at the Graphic. Orders promptly attended to.

POLICE COURT.

For the past two weeks there has been considerable activity in police circles. The liquor inspectors sit on the qui-vive, having prosecuted several cases and obtained a few convictions. Circumstances, however, prevent our report from being definitive. You see, some of the members of our best families occasionally get under the weather and conviction prevents the offenders from being subject to publicity.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

Returning from Jacques River last Thursday evening in an automobile driven by Inspector H. P. Doyle, left the road at the east end of Benjamin River bridge and narrowly escaped crashing over the rocky embankment into the river.

The party, which consisted of Inspectors Doyle and Wm. Smith, Allan LeBlanc, Colin McKenna and Allan Revenue Officer Perley.

Doyle was hurrying westward after having prosecuted some liquor cases at Jacques River, when on the sharp decline leading to the bridge Benjamin, the tire on the left forward wheel of the car blew out and became disengaged from the rim. This naturally caused the car to surge stubbornly towards the left and before anything could be done to check the momentum, the party found themselves dashing towards the river below.

Fortunately the car came into contact with a stray telephone wire which brought it to a halt and averted disaster.

Mr. LeBlanc was thrown out by the impact and sustained a broken collar bone. Mr. Doyle was thrown violently against the windshield and suffered a deep gash in his throat, medical attention being imperative and three stitches being necessary to close the painful wound.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF JUDD REES AND HIS
COPLEY PLAZA 4

This famous dance orchestra will again appear at the Rose Room on Thursday, June 22nd, and judging by their instantaneous success on their last visit to Moncton will undoubtedly draw the complete dance enthusiasts of the city. It would be doubtful interest the dance fans to know the line-up of this syncopation team. Judd Rees, under whose direction the orchestra performs was formerly of the U. S. Marine Band, and the U. S. Jass Band the largest dance orchestra in the States and last year solo saxophonist in the National Gardens Orchestra, Boston. Harry Massey, Canada's finest xylophone artist was formerly of Earl Pullars Jass Band, New York, and last season was engaged by the Victor & Columbia Record Co. for his remarkable which every back demands when it is under the stress of work which necessitates the continual bending of one's anatomy. There was no evidence of loafing or "time filling."

Then there strutted forth from somewhere a man who has become notorious in local politics under the ambiguous appellation of "Peel Heel", and immediately we had a presentation of the significance of the occasion. As we say, he strutted forth. His chest was forcefully projected with an unmistakable suggestion of importance; his head, which he carried with a distinctly arrogant tilt, was topped by a fawnish colored hat which rested on the afore-mentioned dome with the complacency befitting Bliss Carners laurel of Maple leaves. His countenance, beneath the shade of his crown of brown felt, registered an expression of deep concern mingled with a suggestion of grave and colossal responsibilities. One might think that he had been commissioned to re-organize the Russian Empire and then assume government as a permanent successor to Lenin. But despite this suggestion of manhood are, his mien was one of indisputable authority. He approached the workmen with all the confidence and surety of a poultryman who goes forth, cudgel in hand, to evict a negro from his hen-coup.

Even before he reached the pair of workmen above mentioned he began his oration which can be best described by calling it "a piece of his mind." And, being acquainted with previous products of his great intellect, citizens can easily imagine the nature of his short address. Among other things he informed the two men that they were losing half of the time.

Now, all we want to know is this: Has Peel Heel Esquire any legal right to exercise authority over men at work on the streets or not? We understand there is a superintendent in charge. Would it not be better or him to discontinue his favorite pastime of meddling and make known his complaints through the proper channels.

"PEEL HEEL" TO THE FORE
Delivers Vituperative Address to Men Engaged in Roseberry Street Work.

Yesterday morning about 10:30 we were talking to some friends in the vicinity of the Fire Station and while we talked we casually noticed two men at work nearby on the new Roseberry Street sidewalk which is as yet in the preliminary stages of construction. Moreover we also noted that the workmen, despite the absence of the superintendent, worked away steadily, halting only to give their backs to the occasional stretch which every back demands when it is under the stress of work which necessitates the continual bending of one's anatomy. There was no evidence of loafing or "time filling."

Then there strutted forth from somewhere a man who has become notorious in local politics under the ambiguous appellation of "Peel Heel", and immediately we had a presentation of the significance of the occasion. "I was laid up all winter with eczema. I tried every doctor in the city, but nothing helped me. I read of the D. D. D. and got a bottle. I used it as directed and in a few days the itching and burning stopped. In a week the skin was clear. I am now well and happy. I owe my recovery to the D. D.
