

TWO DIRECTORS OF UNION LIFE COMPANY ARRESTED

Harry Symons, K.C., and F. G. Hughes, Taken in Toronto and Edmonton Respectively—Dr. Millichamp III and H. P. Evans in Europe.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, Jan. 26.—Following the investigation into the affairs of the Union Life Assurance Company and the true bills returned by the grand jury against the president and three directors for conspiracy, Harry Symons, K.C., was arrested at his office this afternoon. He was allowed bail in $15,000, six months later.

F. G. HUGHES, T.O.
Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 27.—F. G. Hughes, against whom a bench warrant was issued in Toronto yesterday, charging conspiracy to defraud in connection with the Union Life Assurance Company, was arrested here last night in response to a wire from the Toronto police.

RYRON RESIDENTS WANT SUNDAY CARS RUN TO SPRINGBANK

Claim That Their Claims For Seven-Day Service Should Be Recognized.

While it is understood that the Sunday car service which is to have its inception at some near future date, will not be operated on the line to Springbank Park, there is another phase to be considered than that of the citizens' or company's will in the matter.

The residents of that section—and there are many of them who take advantage of the line to the city—have been watching the culmination of affairs with more than usual interest. The feeling is prevalent with many of the suburban patrons of the park cars that they should be provided with some means of access to the city by car on Sunday as well as during the week.

"If Sunday cars are to be operated in London, they should be run to and from the park," a resident of Byron said to The Advertiser today. "There are many people in our locality who would take advantage of a Sunday service into London. From the company's standpoint, I am sure that it would be profitable, while on our part, it would be very convenient. Speaking for myself, I have many friends in the city, whom I would often visit, were there some means of transportation. The feeling is strongly in their favor."

GOVERNMENT REFUSED TO PAY PUBLICATION

So Bill For "Protection of Children" Will Have To Be Paid by Superintendent.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, Jan. 27.—The Ontario Government has declined to pay a bill amounting to close on $300 for publication of a book entitled "Protection of Children" by J. J. Kelso, Ontario Government superintendent of children's aid societies, which the author says was not intended for general circulation, but for the information of fellow-workers.

According to officials, the order for the book went down with the Government printing in the usual way from the children's aid branch of the provincial auditor-general's office, with the result that, after dragging along for several months, Mr. Kelso was ordered to pay the account himself.

DUTY-FREE FOOD URGED AS FIRST RELIEF MEASURE

Liberal Caucus Discusses High Cost of Living Frankly.

CONDITIONS ARE IRKSOME

All Classes Should Get Together To Agree Upon Measures For Adjustment.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Jan. 27.—The high cost of living problem was on the carpet this morning before a caucus of the Liberal members of Parliament. There was a full attendance and a frank expression of opinion. Members from every part of Canada were heard, and all had one thing to say. Every speaker reported that in his constituency there existed business depression; that in most of them there were men out of work, and that everywhere there was complaint that the cost of living had reached a point where it could no longer be endured, and a remedy was demanded.

GROWING DISSATISFACTION.
It was also pointed out that there is growing dissatisfaction with the interests behind the Government, which insist that there shall be no change in the tariff, or any of the fiscal conditions of the country, looking to the improvement of the conditions which people now find irksome and distressing.

FREE FOOD FIRST.
It was the opinion of the caucus that the Opposition should continue to apply as much pressure as possible upon the Government to force it if possible to grant free food as the first measure of relief, to be followed by such other measures as conditions require.

CONFERENCE SUGGESTED.
The general opinion of the caucus was that the time has arrived for a thorough overhauling of the machinery of government and the economic conditions. It was declared that the relations of all classes in Canada should be thoroughly studied, and that the farmers, the manufacturers, the workmen, the transportation interests and the banking interests should get together and agree upon measures for the improvement of the unsatisfactory conditions which have resulted from the rapid development of Canada during recent years. For immediate relief, it was decided that free food was the proper remedy.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED.
It was also felt that the co-operation of the interests mentioned was essential to improvement, because the present Government is so much under the authority of special interests that it could not be depended upon to devise and enforce measures essential for the common good. The discussions of the caucus will be voiced by speakers in the budget debate, which is still in progress.

SAYS ALLOWANCE IS INSUFFICIENT FOR PARK WORK

General Manager Glaubitz Declares Present Rate Is Far Too Small.

The park commissioners are waiting for the auditors' statement before making any extensive plans for London's park system this year. When the estimates are being struck, the commissioners will be in a position to know how much money may be expended on the parks this season.

General Manager H. J. Glaubitz states that it is practically impossible for the parks commission to make any permanent improvements to the system with the small sum allotted for that purpose. Only one-half mill is allowed for park purposes, and the amount, according to the general manager, is quite too small.

Before Springbank Park was included in the park system, all improvements there were made out of the waterworks finances, but as it is now all the parks have to be looked after with the one-half mill allowed, and it takes some careful financing to make both ends meet and avoid deficits.

WATCH DOG FAWNS ON THIEF; TEARS HOLES IN COP'S UNIFORM

Big Bullterrier Reverses Usual Order of Things When Night Prowler and Officer Pay Visits to Richmond Street Store on Monday Night.

"Br-r-r-r, how wow wow, Bow, WOW, WOW," said Towser, the big bull terrier, who nightly guards the grocery store of Blinn and Legg, 354 Richmond street, when P. C. George Dickinson, tried to enter on discovering that the rear door was open. "SNAP, r-r-r-RIP, rip-rip-rip" went the officer's nicely pressed uniform. Dickinson had to sue his club to beat off the dog.

"Nice Towser, poor old Towser," said a diminutive-looking fourteen-year-old newsboy, three hours previous, and Towser wagged his tail affectionately when the boy broke a window and reaching in with a

SIR GEORGE ROSS NOT SERIOUSLY ILL

Says Reports Are Exaggerated—Premier and Finance Minister Recovering.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Jan. 27.—"Reports of my illness are greatly exaggerated," said Sir George Ross, at the Chateau Laurier, today. "I am suffering from a cold and fatigue, but there is no cause for alarm."

Premier Borden and Hon. W. T. White, who have been indisposed, are also recovering. Mr. Borden expects to take his seat in the House this afternoon.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH.

Montreal, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Napoleon Rodin, her little daughter and two children of Joseph and Mrs. Labrie, all of Notre Dame Du Rosaire, Que., were burned to death in spite of Rodin's efforts to save them, when their clothing and the house caught fire from kerosene with which Mrs. Rodin was lighting a fire.

ANOTHER THEATRE FOR LONDON IS BEING PLANNED

Grand Rapids Man May Erect One on Dundas Street Property.

The possibility of another new theatre in London is included in plans now under consideration by Peter Smiries, of Grand Rapids, in connection with extensive alterations shortly to be made to the National Bowling Alley on Dundas street. In conversation with The Advertiser this morning, Mr. Smiries stated that he had under consideration the building of a vaudeville theatre in the rear of the present building. The plans had not yet taken definite shape, however, he said. He intends making several alterations to the interior of the building. The most important of these will be the installation of an up-to-date New York barber shop in the basement.

Back to the Farm Given as Solution of "Unemployed"

Immigration Authorities, Salvation Army and Expert Are United On the Question.

"Back to the farm" would appear to be the solution for the scarcity of employment in the cities.

"Yes," said Immigration Agent John Riggs this morning, "good, capable men are needed in large numbers on the Western Ontario farms. Men who have experience in farm work are, of course, preferred, but others who are willing to learn can also find ready employment."

I. B. Whale, B.S.A., county agriculturalist for Middlesex, expressed practically the same sentiments. According to Mr. Whale, agriculture in Middlesex and neighboring counties would make far greater progress were it not for the difficulty of securing farm help. The Salvation Army immigration department also declares that they have good openings for farm laborers. It appears that only female workers are required in the cities. The demand for domestic servants is never satisfied, and girls can almost always secure work in factories, offices and stores.

Agriculture is booming in Western Ontario, and is only hampered by the scarcity of help. Land values are increasing rapidly despite this drawback.

DUKE PAID A VISIT TO QUEBEC BRIDGE

Will Leave For Ottawa After Attending Civic Reception.

[Canadian Press.]
Quebec, Jan. 27.—H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, accompanied by Capt. Buller and Capt. Graham, A. D. C., drove from the Chateau Frontenac this morning to Cape Rouge, to visit the Quebec Bridge in course of construction.

Today, after attending the civic reception in his honor at the city hall, he will leave for Ottawa.

Board of Education Committee To Consider Proposed Location of New Princess Avenue School—Opportunity to Straighten Avenue and Beautify City.

In all probability the old Macbeth property on Princess avenue will be purchased by the board of education as a new site for Princess avenue school, which is doomed for replacement. No. 2 committee of the board of education were meeting on Tuesday to consider the securing of an option on the property, and there is a likelihood that all parties will be agreeable to this action. The board inspected the property recently, and came to the conclusion that the site was the best procurable. The price has advanced somewhat since the board last considered it, but it is thought that a considerable sum can be realized by the sale of the present school property.

Trustee A. E. Silverwood thinks that lots on the Princess avenue and Hope street frontage and the old material in the building would bring the board between $10,000 and $15,000. The Macbeth property can be secured for about $35,000, it is understood.

Trustee W. T. Strong has a plan in connection with the proposed purchase which will appeal to residents of the district. He believes that an arrangement could be made with the city whereby the "dog" that now occurs at Princess avenue at the Macbeth property could be removed at slight cost to the city, and the avenue enhanced in appearance and value. He will bring this plan forward at the meeting today. The streets juts out for about twenty feet at this point, and breaks the view and the regularity of the street for a block. Princess avenue would be greatly improved by having it removed and the board of education would in all probability meet the city half-way in the matter.

"The city had a chance to straighten out Dufferin avenue at one time, and has regretted that it did not," said Mr. Strong. "The Macbeth property is the best available for a school. It would afford a fine site and would afford playgrounds second to none in the city. The price may be higher than it was, but with the sale of the present property and a grant from the city for the portion that would be used for a street, the board could make a most reasonable bargain. Princess avenue school must be replaced at once. I think the board is agreed on that. At the same time we have a chance to go in for a little beautification."

The report on the instruction of foreigners and several other matters are being considered.

SELECT THAMES VALLEY AS PHOTO PLAY "STAGE-SETTING"

Moving Picture Companies Again Said To Be Contemplating Establishment of Branch Production Studios in Western Ontario.

Is London to be made a centre for the production of "movie" films?

There is a rumor current at present that two directors of either the Edison or the Kalem film company visited the city Monday while en route from Buffalo to Detroit.

It is understood, that because of the ever increasing popularity of the "movie" dramas, the larger companies are contemplating branching out, and Western Ontario has been approved as a promising "field" for operations.

Several years ago, while looking for a site for a studio, the then newly-founded Essanay company sent representatives to London to look over the ground in anticipation of purchasing a tract of land south of the city for their purpose.

At that time the Caves and the surrounding territory was considered an ideal locality, and arrangements were pending the purchase or lease of the property. The deal was never consummated, however, and London missed the chances of securing a novel industry. Lately there have been persistent rumors to the effect that the same site was being considered by a "movie" company, although the names of the men behind the project could not be ascertained.

There is also a story to the effect that local capital is connected with the contemplated founding of an independent company, that would confine itself to Canadian productions.

The usual run of films shown on local screens are those produced in the United States, and which, consequently, are of a decidedly American atmosphere. It is a well-known fact that the valley of the Thames River would be an ideal location to "set" the photo plays. The big companies are always on the look-out for new scenes, and it is not improbable that the beauties of this section of the country have at least attracted the attention of the keen "stage setters."

CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF SEMPLE'S DEATH

Two Men Held in Detroit May Throw Light on Demise of Former Londoner.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 27.—The detective of one coroner's office, in the arrest of two men, who reside on Abbott street, may clear up the mystery that has surrounded the death of Robert Semple, formerly of London, Ont.

It is believed that the assailants of "Roddy" Semple are well known to the police and the men at present locked up have intimated to the authorities that if they were let go, they would give the necessary information that would lead to the arrest of the party who beat Semple up so badly that he died in St. Mary's hospital.

Daniel Semple, a brother of Roddy's, has received a communication from the Detroit coroner and as a result may visit the city in a short time.

"Roddy" Semple met his death as the result of being beaten up by a gang of thugs on Abbott street in December.

LONDON TOWNSHIP DECIDES ON INSPECTION OF ALL MEATS

Board of Health to Take Steps for Protection of People of the Township—Will Inspect All Slaughter Houses and Beef Offered For Sale.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Arva, Jan. 27.—At the organization meeting of the London Township Board of Health on Monday afternoon, there was a very lively discussion on the question of meat inspection.

It was pointed out that as a result of the action taken by the London Board of Health, requiring that all meat offered for sale be inspected, that the local board should take some steps to protect the people of the township from diseased meat.

It was suggested that the sanitary inspector, Dr. E. W. Heighway, V.S., who is a qualified meat inspector, with some assistance, could look after all animals slaughtered by the township butchers and reject any found diseased and put the Government stamp on all fit for eating.

Before taking any decisive action it was thought better to write to the veterinary director-general at Ottawa and find out exactly what can be done in this respect and the Government requirements.

Reeve Hodgins was elected chairman of the board, Dr. McNeill, of Arva, medical health officer, and E. W. Heighway, sanitary inspector.

PRIME MINISTER IS ILL

End of Debate Not Yet in Sight
—Premier and Finance Minister Absent.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Jan. 27.—The Prime Minister is home nursing a boil, the finance minister is in bed taming an attack of grippe, Hon. George E. Foster is back sprightly and chipper in London-cut costume, and Hon. Robert Rogers has been dethroned from the leadership by the seniority of the minister of trade and commerce.

The Government is still defending the tariff to its last and least item. The Liberals continue to call for a remedy to the joint distresses which trouble Canada, scarce money and high prices. Eloquence and argument continue to flow from both sides of the Speaker to the hurrying Hansardians in the centre of the chamber. The end of the address debate is nowhere in sight, but two caucuses are coming. The Liberals meet in convulsive tomorrow morning and Wednesday the Government will commune with its followers from both Houses behind closed doors.

Hon. Mr. Foster On Hand.
Hon. Mr. Foster, obedient to cabled advice that he would better serve the empire by returning to Canada to talk tariff than going to South Africa in search of trade with a royal imperial commission, turned up in the House of Commons today, smiling as much as Mr. Foster ever smiles. His appearance drew applause from the Government side and not unfriendly smiles and nods from the loyal Opposition which has pounded Mr. Foster so much it is danger of ending by liking him for both his faults and virtues. No sooner were prayers over than the

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Swoety Feet Spread Out in a Bath of "TIZ."

Just take your shoes off, and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which put up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a 25-cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

Every Woman's, Misses' and Children's Coat HALF-PRICE TOMORROW--Final Reduction for Immediate Disposal

THIS IS STOCK-LISTING WEEK, and as it is our rule to take all winter coats into stock at half price, we have decided this season to have a four-days' Disposal Sale—Wednesday till Saturday. Every coat to go at half price, our object being to clear every coat before the stock sheets for the six months past are closed. Few words are required to present the remarkable facts regarding this great final clearance of Winter Coats, which are, in material, in colors, in trimmings and designs, typical of present styles—and there is no reserve or saving out the best—no grouping or pricing. Every coat simply priced at half. Your size will be here if you come early, and you will have the gratification of making the best coat purchase perhaps you have ever made.

Let the Prices Speak

Velvet Coats, Velour Coats, Matelasse and Novelty Brocade Coats, Black Velvet Coats, Plush Coats and Tweed Coats, all the beautiful Coats you have admired on the forms in the department and windows. This season's styles, many of which are exclusive novelties, distinguished in the highest degree.

And the prices! Can you imagine, with half the winter, perhaps more yet to come for the present season's wearing, buying such models at half: A $50.00 Velvet Coat for $25.00, a $30.00 Coat for $15.00, a $20.00 Coat for $10.00, a $10.00 Coat for $5.00, or a $5.00 Coat for $2.50. These are the reductions for this sale tomorrow.

Come and See the Coats

The fact that no Coat is held out of this sale makes it different from any other we have ever held, for never before have all Evening Coats been included in our first half-price clearing.

EVERY COAT, WOMEN'S, MISSES' and CHILDREN'S, in our ready-to-wear section, black or colored, is involved, and women who have been waiting for this event know what that means. It means that not only can the simpler, less expensive models be bought at half the original price, but that the most beautiful models of the season, many of them imported, have had their prices readjusted to the same proportions. EVERY COAT HALF-PRICE.

Postmaster Pelletier will have the centre of the stage at the opening of the house tomorrow.

Mr. Pelletier's Execution.
A pile of typewritten sheets eight feet high tell the story of the way Postmaster-General Pelletier, the great headman of the administration has swung the axe on the Grits since he took office two years ago. A return weighing a ton was brought down in Parliament today. It gives the story of 1,300 dismissals from the postoffice department in two years. The return was asked for last session, but it took all season to complete it. Since Mr. Pelletier took office, he has averaged more than an execution a day including Sundays.

H. H. Stevens interrupted to say that only 2,500 miners were out of work. Mr. Lemieux replied that his information was different, and added that in Regina the mounted police had been called out to put down bread riots. Hon. Arthur Meighan interrupted to say that this report was only a joke. In Winnipeg 3,000 people were out of work, and according to the Mayor of Toronto, places were wanted for fifteen thousand men there. While

LIQUOR INTERESTS BUYING THE VOTES?

Temperance People in Huron
So Allege, and an Investigation Is Likely.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Clinton, Jan. 27.—That the liquor interests are spending money freely in an effort to try and defeat the temperance people on Thursday, is the serious allegation being made by the workers here, and it is likely that an investigation into specific cases which have come to the notice of friends of "Banish the Bar" in Huron will be demanded.

It is alleged that the liquor interests are well supplied with funds, and that they are leaving absolutely no stone unturned in order to prevent the cutting off of 34 licenses.

The liquor sold through these bars means hundreds of thousands of dollars to certain breweries, and it is alleged that many of those interested have contributed handsomely in an effort to keep the business.

Penalty for Buying Votes.
Clause 90 of the Canada temperance act, states that there is a penalty of $200 for the buying of votes, and the money is given to the person making the charge if it is proven, thus practically constituting a reward of this amount for the apprehension of law-breakers.

In the same way Clause 91 states that any voter who takes money is also guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine of $200. There is a penalty of $100 for anyone who is convicted of supplying liquor on election day.

The fight is on in earnest in Huron County, and it looks like a walk-away for the friends of temperance, despite the efforts that are being put forth by the hotelmen who, like Othello, see their occupation vanishing with the introduction of the act.

Big List of "Drys."
As an evidence of the temperance feeling in the county one has only to consider the number of municipalities now in the "dry" class. There are 26 municipalities, 16 of them townships.

Thirteen of these townships are now under local option, and Clinton, one of four towns in the county, is also in the "dry" column.

Every municipality in the county, with the exception of Seaford, has voted in favor of local option, but the fifth clause has prevented the measure going into effect in a number of them. The proposal has never been voted on in Seaford, but the desire for the abolition of the bars is very strong there.

Only Majority Needed.
Only a straight majority is needed for the passing of the Canada temperance act, and there seems to be absolutely no shadow of doubt but that it will be secured. If it passes the entire county will be "dry" from stem to gudgeon.

There are four towns, Seaford, Clinton, Goderich and Wingham, and six villages, Blythe, Brussels, Exeter, Hensall, Wroxeter and Central in the county.

The Canada temperance act, which is a piece of Dominion legislation, is in many respects considered superior to local option. The authorities have promised its strict enforcement, and the penalties for violation are more severe than under the local option law, of which Mr. Hanna and his colleagues are so proud.

The first offence calls for a minimum fine of $50, with no stated maximum, thus allowing a magistrate to levy any sum he might choose. A violator of the act may also be sent to jail for the first offence.

American Spielers On Ground.
The liquor interests have imported a number of American spell-binders in the hope of winning the people over to their side, but so far these men have done nothing but evade the real issues from the platform and handed out a lot of platitudes.

Two "wet" meetings held last night, one at Goderich and the other at Brussels, were poorly attended. Two will be held at Clinton and Bayfield, and one Wednesday night at Wingham.

The temperance interests will have their representatives at all these sessions and some interesting questions will be put to the defenders of the bar.

The liquor men have been carrying on their campaign under the caption: "Huron County Businessmen's Association," but this high-sounding title has failed to make good when temperance people asked John Ranford and others who composed the association.

THE HOLLOW OF HER HAND

By GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON
Author of "Graustark," "Truxton King," Etc.

And so it was and ever shall be, world without end. Newboys, hoarse-voiced and pipe-voiced, mingled with the crowd, and shrieked their voices under the very noses of the always-aloof Wrاندalls, who up to this day had turned them up at the sight of a vulgar extra, but who now looked down them with a trembling of the nostrils that left no room for doubt as to their present state of mind.

Up to the very portals these assiduous peddlers yelped and gave in exchange the latest headlines. "All about Mr. Challis Wrاندall's funeral!" "Horrible extra!" "Ding-donging the thing in the very ears of the dead man himself!"

Motor after motor, carriage after carriage, rolled up to the curb and emptied its sober-faced, self-conscious occupants in front of the door with the great black bow, with each arrival the crowd surged forward, and names were muttered in undertones, passing from lip to lip until every one in the street knew that Mr. So-and-So, Mrs. This-or-That, the What-do-you-call-ems and others of the city's most exclusive but most garishly advertised society leaders had entered the house of mourning. It was a great show for the plebeian spectators. Much better than Miss So-and-So's wedding, said one woman who had attended the aforesaid ceremony as a unit in the well-dressed mob that almost wrecked the carriages in a desire to see the terrified bride. Better than a circus, said a man who held his little daughter above the heads of the crowd so that she might see the fine lady in a wild-beast furs. Swiftest funeral New York ever had, remarked another, excepting one 'way back when he was a kid.

At the corner below stood two patrol wagons, also waiting. Inside the house sat the carefully selected guests, hushed and stiff and gratified. (Not because they were attending a funeral, but because the occasion served to separate them from the chaff they were the elect.) It would be going too far to intimate that they were proud of themselves, but it is not stretching it very much to say that they counted noses with considerable satisfaction and were glad that had not been left out. The real, high-water mark in New York society was established at this memorable function.

It was quite plain to everyone that Mrs. Wrاندall—the Mrs. Wrاندall—had made out the list of guests to be invited to the funeral of her son. It was blue-stocking affair. You couldn't imagine anything more so. Afterwards, the two hundred who were there looked with utmost pity and not a little scorn on the other two hundred who failed to get in, notwithstanding there was ample room in the spacious house for all of them. There wasn't a questionable guest in the house, unless one were to question the right of the dead man's widow to be there—and, after all, she was upstairs with the family. Even so, she was a Wrاندall—remotely, of course, but recognizable.

Yes, they counted noses, so to say. As one after the other arrived and was ushered into the huge drawing-room, he or she was accorded a congratulatory look from those already assembled, a tribute returned with equal amiability. Each one noted who else was there, and each one said to himself that at last they really had something all to themselves. It was truly a pleasure, a relief, to be able to do something without being pushed about by people who didn't belong but thought they did. They sat back—stiffly, of course—and in utter stillness confessed that there could be such a thing as the survival of the fittest. Yes, there wasn't a nose there that couldn't be counted with perfect serenity. It was a notable occasion.

Mrs. Wrاندall, the elder, had made out the list. She did not consult her daughter-in-law in the matter. It is true that Sara forestalled her in a way by sending word, through Leslie, that she would be pleased if Mrs. Wrاندall would issue invitations to as many of Challis' friends as she deemed advisable. As for herself, she had no wish in the matter; she would be satisfied with whatever arrangements the family cared to make. It is not to be supposed, from the foregoing, that Mrs. Wrاندall, the elder, was not stricken to the heart by the lamentable death of her son. He was her idol. He was her first-born, he was her lover. He came to her in the days when she loved her husband without much thought of respecting him. She was beginning to regard him as something more than a lover when Leslie came, so it was different. When their daughter Vivian was born, she was plainly annoyed but wholly respectful. Mr. Wrاندall was no longer the lover; he was her lord and master. The head of the house of Wrاندall was a person to be looked up to, to be respected and admired by her, for he was a very great man, but he was dear to her only because he was the father of Challis, the first-born.

In the order of her nature, Challis therefore was her most deeply beloved. Vivian the least desired and last in her affections as well as in sequence. Strangely enough, the three of them perfected a curiously significant record of conjugal endowments. Challis had always been wild, wayward, unrestrained one, and by far the most lovable; Leslie, almost as good looking but with scarcely a noticeable trace of the charm that made his brother attractive; Vivian, handsome, selfish and as cheerless as the wind that blows across the icebergs in the north. Challis had been born with a widely enveloping heart and an elastic conscience; Leslie with a brain and a soul and not much of a heart, as things go; Vivian with a soul love, which belonged to God, after all, and not to her. Of course, she had a heart, but it was only for the purpose of pumping blood to remote extremities, and had nothing whatever to do with anything so unutterably extraneous as love, clarity or self-sacrifice.

As for Mr. Redmond Wrاندall, he was a very proper and dignified gentleman, and old for his years.

Secretly, Vivian was his favorite. Moreover, possessing the usual contrariness of man, and having been at one time or other, a hot-blooded lover, he professed—also in secret—a certain admiration for the beautiful, warm-hearted and lively eldest son. He looked upon her from a man's point of view. He couldn't help that. Not once, but many times, had he said to himself that perhaps Challis was lucky to have got her instead of one of the girls his mother had chosen for him out of the minute elect.

It may be seen, or rather surmised, that if the house of Wrاندall had not been so admirably centred under its vine and fig tree, it might have become divided against itself without much of an effort.

Mrs. Redmond Wrاندall was the vine and fig tree.

And now they had brought her dearly beloved son home to her, murdered and disgraced. If it had been either of the others, she could have said: "God's will be done." Instead, she said out that God had turned against her.

Leslie had had the bad taste—or perhaps it was misfortune—burst out an agonized "I told you so" at a time when the family was sitting numb and hushed under the blight of the first horrid blow. He did not mean to be unfeeling. It was the truth bursting from his unhappy lips.

"I knew Chal would come to this—I knew it," he had said. His arm was about the quivering shoulders of his mother as he said it.

She looked up, a sob breaking in her throat. For a long time she looked into the face of her second son.

"How can you how dare you say such a thing as that?" she cried, aghast. He colored, and drew her closer to him. "I didn't mean it," he faltered.

"You have always taken sides against him," began his mother.

"Please, mother," he cried miserably. "You say this to me now," she went on. "You are left to take his place in my affection—Why, Leslie, I—"

Vivian interposed. "Les is upset, mamma darling. You know he loved Chal as deeply as any of us loved him."

Afterwards the girl said to Leslie when they were quite alone: "She will never forgive you for that, Les. It was a beastly thing to say."

He bit his lip, which trembled. "She never cared for me as she cared for Chal. I'm sorry if I've made it worse."

"See here, Leslie, was Chal so—so—"

"Yes, I meant what I said a while ago. It was sure to happen to him one time or another. Sara's had a lot to put up with."

"Sara! If she had been the right sort of a wife, this never would have happened."

RADIUM TREATMENT SOMETIMES FATAL

Director of Radium Clinic Says Two Out of Five Cases End in This Way

[Canadian Press.] Boston, Jan. 26.—Radium as a cure for cancer is still in an experimental stage, and its use in the treatment of internal cancer results fatally in a large percentage of cases, according to the testimony before the House Mines Committee today of Dr. Wm. H. Campbell, director of the radium clinic of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Campbell told the committee that so far as the deeper cancers are concerned, "we cannot tell today what the outcome of the radium treatment will be."

"We can tell," he said, "that there is a difference of the tumor, that the radium causes the disintegration of the tissue of the cancer, but something is created in that disappearance which is absorbed by the blood, and which kills many patients. I cannot tell, nobody can tell, for four or five years just what the result will be."

"How many of your patients have died as a result of your treatment?" asked Representative Byrnes, of North Carolina.

Dr. Campbell demurred at this, but finally said that two out of five of the cases treated ended fatally. He added that all were in cases where the disease would have resulted in death in a few months without treatment.

LLOYD GEORGE NOT TO VISIT AMERICA
No Chance of It While He Remains in Cabinet.

[Canadian Press.] London, Jan. 26.—An authoritative denial was given today of the report published in America that David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, was shortly going there on a visit. It was explained that the chancellor had long desired to go to the United States and Canada, but that there was no chance of his making the trip as long as he remained a member of the British cabinet.

CONSTANT READER.—A sold a dog to B. for $10.00 with the understanding that B. could return the dog in a week's time if not satisfactory. The day B. came after the dog, A. told him to take him or leave him at the $10.00 as A. could sell the dog for the same money to another party. B. took the dog at the $10.00 and kept him nearly three months and brought the dog back. Will A. have to keep the dog and pay B. his money, or can B. collect the $10.00?

Ans.—A. will not have to take the dog, nor pay B. back his money.

In Bread There is Strength

Bread is the one food which perfectly combines in itself all the elements which give strength to the body. It is, and always has been, the chief food of the earth's hardiest peoples.

None of the "breakfast foods," "health foods," or other "fad foods" can equal bread in nourishment. Nor can meat or other heavy foods.

Good bread is, also, the most digestible food—and, withal, the cheapest. Those are good reasons why you should

"We are only little ones, but we know Zam-Buk eased our pain and cured our sores. Perhaps it would cure you, too, if you tried it?"

Isn't this sound advice from "babes and sucklings"? Take it! The speakers are the children of Mrs. E. Webster, of Seignours St., Montreal, and the mother adds weight to their appeal. She says: "My little girl contracted scalp disease at school. Bad gatherings formed all over her head, and not only caused the child acute pain but made her very ill. The sores discharged, and occurring on the scalp we feared she would lose all her hair. She was in a pitiable plight when we tried Zam-Buk, but a few days' treatment with this balm gave her ease. Then the sores began to heal, and we continued the Zam-Buk treatment. In a short time she was quite healed. My little boy sustained a serious scald on the neck. It set up a bad sore, and quite a few things we tried, failed to heal it or give him ease. Once more we turned to Zam-Buk, and we were not disappointed. It acted like a charm in drawing away the pain, and soon healed the wound."

Zam-Buk is "something different" in the way of balms. It contains powerful healing herbs, which, as soon as applied to skin diseases, kill off the germs and end the painful smarting. Other sores contained in Zam-Buk so stimulate the cells that new healthy tissue is speedily formed. Eczema, itch, ulcers, cold sores, abscesses, festering sores, blood poisoning, chronic wounds, cold cracks, etc., are healed and cured in this way. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases. It is also of great service for piles. All druggists and stores at 50 cents box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, this paper.

CALIFORNIA ORANGE CROP

[Canadian Press.] Chicago, Ill., 26.—After three years of disappointments, Pacific coast citrus fruit growers this year have produced a bumper crop, according to a statement made today by E. O. McCormick, vice-president of the Southern Pacific Railroad. This year's crop of oranges alone, according to Mr. McCormick, will be sufficient to provide at least 15 oranges for every person in the United States. Estimates at present placed the California shipment at 40,000 cars, more than double that of a year ago, and more than has been sent east any year in the life of the industry. The season developed several weeks earlier than usual this year. "For three years there has been a shortage of rain and snow in California," said Mr. McCormick. "This year, the rains came early and regularly. The mountains movement.

Sunday was the 55th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, and time does not appear to have lessened his popularity. Like Shakespeare, his only rival in the constant affections of men,

he touched the heartstrings and because of it his lustre will never be dimmed.

The Canadian Government has decided to postpone its naval policy until

"the ravages of time" give it a majority in the Upper house. To a majority seems to be more heartless than anything on this side.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Looks like trying to kill off the Senate with malicious animal magnetism, does it?

"APPARENTLY."

A LAWYER at Listowel has taken advantage of a technicality in the liquor license act whereby a bartender who sold liquor to a minor has been acquitted. Whether or not the

"joker" in the clause had been discovered before is not known, but it certainly has not caused the comment it should occasion. The clause referred to is as follows:

"Any person who gives, sells or otherwise supplies to any person

APPARENTLY or to the knowledge of the person giving, selling or otherwise supplying the same, under the age of 21 years, shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 and not exceeding of the act, and subsequently acquitted the defendant.

"Apparently" did the trick. The magistrate confessed himself perplexed and everyone will agree there was a dilemma. Other magistrates have closed their eyes to the "apparent" age of the minor and registered a conviction when the age was proven. And the act undoubtedly leaves a breach

as wide as a farm gate, and places a magistrate in an awkward position, if the literal reading were to be applied in each instance. No doubt there are honest bartenders, but there will not be one who will admit that the "apparent" age of the minor was under

21 years when the time for facing a charge arrives. Neither the bartender nor the magistrate are so much to blame as the act itself. "Apparently"

is a pretty weak word to appear in a liquor law concerning the sale of liquor to boys, anyway. Some men are boys in appearance at 25, while others are matured sufficiently at 18 or 19 to pass

as men. While it may have been intended that the magistrate should decide the "apparent" age of minors, the Listowel magistrate did not take this view of his duty, and no one can say that he lacked justification. The selling of liquor to minors is one of the most serious offences, and such a loose law should be strengthened. Otherwise any bartender who can hire a shrewd lawyer will be able to sell to minors and go free in most instances.

The offence is committed by the bartender, and he is undoubtedly the individual for whose benefit the "apparent" is admitted, for if it applies to anyone it must be to the man accused.

"Apparently" should be struck out of the act. No man of even 21 years will be seriously injured in more than his dignity, if through the too keen discrimination of some "wine clerk" he is refused liquor on the ground of minority. And hundreds of minors who would get liquor "apparently" because of an easy conscience behind the bar would be halted at the gate of the road to ruin.

THE NEED OF A UNIVERSITY.

C HANCELLOR Meredith emphasizes the need of a university in London and Western Ontario. There is another point also to consider, and that is that a university is wanted to create the need of it.

Why is it that upwards of a hundred students residing in Kingston attend

Queen's University, though that city is only one-third the size of London? Why is it that nearly half the arts students in Toronto University are from the city of Toronto? The presence of a well-equipped university, well administered, energetically brought home to the people, and treated in a friendly spirit by the Government, creates the need and desire for higher studies in the region adjacent. The university not only responds to an expressed need, but makes for refinement and justifies itself more and more as time goes on.

What proves as much as anything

London's need of a university is that the city shows itself less aware of its needs in higher education than proportionately do Kingston and Toronto.

ELECTORAL REFORMS.

A FEW days ago The Advertiser referred to the conviction of the treasurer of the New York Democratic committee for receiving a contribution from a corporation, contrary to the law of that state, and suggested that something of that kind would not be amiss

in Canada. That the Government would do anything there, was no expectation. When in Opposition Mr.

Borden was very indignant over elec-torial corruption. If he should be given opportunity he was going to introduce drastic remedies. Of course, the corruption was chiefly on the Liberal side; there was nothing doing among the Conservatives, except, perhaps,

when some weak brother undertook to fight those wicked Grits with their own weapons. But that should be all stopped. There should be no hiding of corrupt practices by a sawing-off process. All protests should be promptly brought to trial. There should be a special officer to prosecute all charges;

there should be full publicity of all contributions for campaign service, and so on.

But Mr. Borden as Premier and Mr.

Borden in Opposition were in different conditions. If he had the inclination to carry out his pledges as Leader of the Opposition, he did not find it convenient. This is his third session, and nothing has been done. The Macdonald election protest hung on for two years, and then came to a termination without trial by the defendant confessing guilt. The electoral reform laws that were to be enacted were not even introduced. And there has been no intimation that they would ever see daylight.

However, the opportunity that he could not make for action will now be offered him. Col. McLean, the Liberal member for Halifax, will submit to Parliament some resolutions proposing that Mr. Borden suggested and ports find it convenient at times to operate by ways that are dark and tricks that are not up to the highest moral standard. They will have something to say about it.

It will be interesting to watch the course of the Government when a Liberal offers them what their leader had advocated. Mr. McLean brings forward his proposition in a way that leaves it open for the Government to adopt it without any sense of humiliation. What will it do?

THE MEXICAN CHANTY.

TEN Mexican statesmen were having a good time, Diaz cleared out and then there were nine.

Nine little Mexicans monkeying with fate, Madero got murdered and then there were eight.

Eight little Mexicans scowling under heaven, Huerta killed another and then there were seven.

Seven under Huerta doing dirty tricks, he put a knife in one of them,

then there were six.

Six little devils murder, rape and rive, one other got his and then there were five.

Five little Mexicans, Villa, and four more, Uncle Sam scared one and then there were four.

And so on to the happy ending. The Kilkenny cats wouldn't be in it with the last duel when it comes, and the two Mexicans left make one by elimination of the less fit.

shine? If you do you don't know the Baptists. And if the farmers demand a wet summer can't you see the baseball fans arising in mighty wrath and demanding the resignation of the Government. And if some Ontario weather overflowed into New York State and

About Hanging Curtains

In the small apartment, where windows opening on the street must frequently be thrown wide to admit ventilation, lace or madras curtains, however carefully hung at the season's beginning, are apt to become stringy and askew by midwinter. No curtain or filmy stuff will retain a fresh, presentable appearance if allowed to blow in and out, with the breeze, collecting smoke and dust from the street, yet one never does happen to have a pin conveniently at hand when the window is thrown up. Sew a small loop of tape on one corner of the curtain, under the hem at the buttons, and drive a tack or small brass hook into the window casing on the same side of the window and as high as you can conveniently reach.

Moonbeam's Spring Dress.
Ans. 1. Regarding your embroidery dress, a number of the prettier models for girls are being gathered slightly at the waist; you could do yours this way. Yes, have a two-piece skirt with French seams. A band of lace and insertion or just a finish of lace would be all right for the sleeves. A broad, soft girdle with long, tasseled ends, in a pretty shade of rose or pale blue would be nice.
2. Rattine, both white and colored; summer searces in plaids, lightweight tweeds, cotton repps and volles, linen crash. All will be popular.
3. Oh, not so terribly awfully my dear. Have your skirts made long enough to reach your shoe-tops.
4. White cotton voile, cotton crepe, or rattine. If you like a little color, some of the bordered voiles with white ground, would combine the dress and trimming all in one. If you chose rattine, a linen lace might be used for trimming, or if the flatter materials, valenciennes lace and insertion. Do not make the skirt with a tunic, as you are inclined to stoutness. A pretty waist would be to tack belt, waist and skirt in quarter-inch tucks, leaving a broad box pleat in the centre, a band of wide insertion should cover the pleat, another form the finish at the square-cut neck, and still another be set in around the skirt above the hem. Clusters of small pearl buttons would ornament the central strip; make sleeves elbow length and finish with insertion and lace; a wide band of white or pink would complete a pretty and not too elaborate dress.
5. Look around you and note how other girls do theirs. Then follow one you like.
6. I should not recommend the use of it on the face.

Boiled Icing Recipe.
Dear Miss Grey—1. Will you give me a recipe for boiled icing, either brown or white? I would rather have it without eggs.
2. I am 13 years old, 5 feet 2 inches in height, weigh about 85 pounds. Am I too small for my age?

3. Yes.
4. It is fair.

Yes, Sweet Miss Grey!
Dear Miss Grey—Here comes another bunch of troublesome questions, but we all know how good-natured you are.
1. What date did Jan. 3, 1898, fall on?
2. Will Etan coats be fashionable this spring?
3. How long should a 16-year-old girl, who is five feet five inches in height, wear her dresses?
4. Now for the same old question, what do you think of my writing, and what improvements can I make?
Thanking you in advance, I am, sincerely, MARY ANNE.

3. They should almost be ankle length.
4. Your writing is excellent. It is perhaps a little large, but is otherwise extremely good.

New Hats Small.
Dear Miss Grey: I hope these questions will not be too much bother to you, and hope to see them in print soon.
1.—What style of hats will be worn this spring?
2.—My hair has always been naturally curly until lately. The short ends in front now hang straight. What do you think is the cause? Do you think curling it in paper will spoil it?
3.—I have a silk muffer, and a girl told me if I wash it with soap and water it will take the shine off. How can I clean it?
4.—What colored suits will be worn this spring? What will be the most popular style?

ANS. 1.—The millinery forecasts state that the small, high hat will be decidedly "it." A popular shape is the "fez" of red straw, adorned with a black ostrich pom-pom.
2.—Perhaps it is the frosty weather that takes the curl out of your hair. Surely the damp days of last week would restore the curl. Best leave it alone, I think.
3.—The water may take some of the shine off, but not all, and it is really

The Woos of Mrs. Newlywed

"I have a dress all stained with mildeew. What shall I do?" said Mrs. Newlywed.
"Make a thick paste of table salt and buttermilk and cover the mildeew with it," advised Mrs. Neighbor. "Lay in the hot sun for a day, removing the paste at the end of four hours. If the stains are obstinate several applications may be necessary before they entirely disappear."

About Women

Cynthia Stockley, author of "Poppy," etc., is a South African by birth, but of Irish parentage. She lived all her early life in the Free State, spoke the Boer Taal and several native languages. During the Boer war she had a husband and brother fighting for the English and two-half brothers on the side in the Latin Quarter with a studio attached. It is in the studio that she works—a big, bright room with books and pictures and old oak furniture against the walls. Running down the centre of the room is an enormous oak table, black with age and beautifully carved, that was once used in the refectory of a Breton monastery. Round it are some quaint oak seats, called "coffin stools," because in the sixteenth century every old-fashioned house had a pair of them to rest the coffin of the dead upon.

Rue Boissonade, where she lives, is, indeed, a famous street for artists and writers, both English and American. Richard Miller, the American, whose pictures in the Luxembourg Gallery are so well known, has a studio there. Constant Lounsbury, the poetess and playwright, lives on the same side of the street, Leslie Rosenthal, the artist, and Beatrice Irwin, the authoress of "The Pagan Trinity," likewise live in the street. Round the corner in the next street is Marie van Saanen, and the authoress of "Marie Claire." The street is an impasse, with an old Jesuit monastery and gardens at the end of it. Right in the middle of the road is a tree that was planted by Victor Hugo.

Coats For Spring.
Dear Miss Grey—I am going to trouble you to answer a few questions for me.
1. Will the suit coats for spring be the long, cutaway kind worn this winter?
2. Will navy blue be a popular color?
3. Has the town of Ingersoll got a daily paper, and if not, what is the name of the weekly one, and on what day is it issued? A READER.
A.—1. They may not be quite so long as those of 1913, but certainly promise to be cutaway. The new "raglan" sleeve will be much in demand.
2. Yes.
3. There is a daily Liberal paper published there called the "Chronicle." W. J. Elliott is the publisher.

National Council to Convene in the City of Toronto

Annual Gathering Will Be Held There in November Next.

At a meeting of the Toronto Local Council of Women held on Thursday last, it was unanimously decided to extend an invitation to the National Council of Women of Canada to hold the 21st annual meeting in this city. The invitation will, without doubt, be accepted by the executive of the National Council. The National gathering will not take place until November in order that the full reports of the quinquennial convention of the International Council of Women, to be held in Rome the second week in May, may be presented. It is probable that quite a contingent of Canadian representatives of the National Council will attend the meeting in Rome.

OUR ASTROLOGER

HOROSCOPE
TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1914.
Happy is this day Under the sun's way.

The sun is in place today, interpreted as powerful for good in the affairs of mankind. Astrologers find the aspect favorable for large undertakings of every sort. The influences should invigorate, encourage and sustain all who would take the initiative in any affair of business or social life.

Those who, as persons who hold the fate of others in their keeping should be especially conscientious in discharging their large responsibilities. Rulers of every sort are said to be exceedingly susceptible to the beneficent aura of the chief luminary.

Government officials of every rank are likely to be helpful to those who seek their aid. It is an auspicious time to ask for favors. Appointments made while this configuration prevails should be very lucky.

There is a prognostication of widespread fame for the new mayor of New York, who will meet severe tests and arouse criticism. Benefits to women are foretold during this term of office.

This is a day favorable for church dignitaries and other personages who aspire to the higher impulses of humanity. The sway of the stars today tends to produce optimism and faith in one's possibilities. Popularity, honors and success are more easily won when the Sun is friendly than at any other time, the astrologers believe.

It is prophesied that a southern city will be the scene of a nation-wide sensation. This will touch Washington and New York. It is said.

Chicago will feel the effects of the political power of women in a sensational way early in the spring, according to a London astrologer. Litigation is foretold.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a peaceful, happy year.

Children born on this day may be quick-tempered, but they are likely to be unusually alert in mind. A subjects of Aquarius they may rule readily and positions of responsibility may come to them. Girls have the possibility of difficulties and misunderstandings in association with men.

BANANA PIES AS CAROLINE COE MAKES THEM.

The woman whose family are continually calling for pie will surely appreciate these new recipes:
Beat the yolks of two eggs with one-half cup of sugar until light and foamy. Peel and mash two bananas, beat into sugar and egg mixture. Add tiny pinch of salt. Add two cups of milk and turn into pie pan lined with rich pie crust. Bake in hot oven until custard is set. When ready to serve cover with meringue, made of whites of two eggs beaten stiff. Add three tablespoons of powdered sugar. Spread on top and brown.

Banana Pie No. 2.
Line a pie pan with a rich pie crust. Bake and set aside to slightly cool. Just when ready to serve fill with sliced bananas. Sift lightly with pulverized sugar. Cover top with sweetened whipped cream and serve at once.

OURSELVES AND OUR NEIGHBORS
Did it ever occur to you that the welfare of the world depends upon the relations between you and your neighbor? It is a simple proposition. If you carry it out to the logical conclusion you get all the problems of society, diplomacy and statesmanship. If you're at loggerheads with your neighbor, and there are enough of you to be at loggerheads with enough neighbors to make a real showing, the situation assumes the form of statesmanship. If you wish to carry the comparison across, you have the trouble and irritations of international entanglements. So the relation of neighbor to neighbor becomes the chief thing in the world. You know very well if your neighbor is fault-finding and surly, your family suffers in many ways. There are slights. There is no happiness in the neighborhood. Hard feelings are created. False competitions are started. You try to outdo one another, and the further this is pursued, the worse it is for everybody. More than one town or small city goes bankrupt on its absurd prejudices, when all that need be avoided is proper neighborliness. — Editorial in Woman's World.

It is said that seven-eighths length sleeves are to be popular in the spring. These will probably be welcomed by the woman who has been spoiled for long sleeves by the long reign of the short sleeve—certainly the most comfortable sort to wear. The seven-eighths sleeves may seem a bit awkward in appearance until we get used to them. A full-length sleeve or else one not much below the elbow is usually more becoming.

9523—A Pleasing House-Gown—Ladies' Dress with or without Chemise and with Long or Shorter Sleeve.

Brown checked gingham with trimming of tan chambray is here shown. The design is appropriate for all wash materials, and will develop equally well in silk or cloth. Green linen, with white embroidery for trimming would make a cool dainty frock. Blue and white wash silk finished with stitching and worn with a chemise of fine lawn would also be pleasing. The fronts of the waist are cut low and finished on one side with a smart rever. The neck opening reveals the chemise, which may be omitted. The skirt shows a new back, with dart tucks, the fullness of these tucks may be arranged in gathers. The pattern is cut in six sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, and 42 inches bust measure. It requires six yards of 36 inch material for a 36 inch size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Songs of Ye Olden-Tyme

"Suffragette" sends words of "Aunt Tabitha," and asks for a copy of "The Land of Pretty Soon." Can any reader supply the latter? "Aunt Tabitha" has already been published.
Here are the words of "A Letter Edged in Black," asked for by a reader.
"The Letter Edged in Black."
I was standing by my window yester morning
Without a thought of worry or of care,
When I saw the postman coming down the pathway
With such a happy smile and jaunty gait,
Oh, he rang the bell and whistled while he waited,
And then, he said "Good morning to you, Jack!"
But he little knew the sorrow that he brought me
When he handed me a letter edged in black.

REFRAIN.

As I heard the postman whistling yester morning,
Coming down the pathway with his pack,
Oh! he little knew the sorrow that he brought me
When he handed me a letter edged in black.

Then with trembling hands, I took the letter from him,
I broke the seal, and this is what it said:

"Come home, my boy, your poor old father wants you!"
Come home, my boy, your mother dear, is dead.

O, your mother's words—the last she ever uttered—
"My little boy I want him to come back."

My eyes are blurred; my poor old heart is breaking,
While I'm writing you this letter edged in black."

O I bow my head in sadness and in sorrow;
The sunlight of my life it now has fled.

Since the postman brought that letter yester morning,
Saying come home, my boy, your mother dear is dead.

O it said forgive the angry words I've spoken;
You know I never meant them, don't you, Jack?

O the angels bear me witness, I am asking
Your forgiveness in this letter edged in black.

Says a recent exchange:
Bessie and Bertie were at a loss for a game to play.

"Oh, let's play being 'at home' and have 'a day,'" suggested Bessie.

"A day?" queried Bertie. "What does that mean?"

"Why, don't you know?" said Bessie, wisely. "All the fashionable people have 'days.' God's day is Sunday, and mother's is Tuesday."

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16-ounce bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pinex is one of the oldest and best-known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrate compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualic acid and all the other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

LONDON'S INTERMEDIATES

Local Group Leaders Hand St. Thomas a 6 to 2 Defeat in That City Last Evening—Game Was Played on Slushy Ice Half Time Score 2 to 0.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
St. Thomas, Jan. 26.—London's Intermediate team defeated St. Thomas tonight at the Granite rink in a hard-fought game by a score of 6 to 2, the score at the resting period being 2 to 0 in favor of the visitors. The ice was soft and sticky, making the game almost impossible. The fast combination of the London team, which was led by the St. Thomas net, but Jackson relieved, played to center ice, and the London team drew the first penalty for tripping. McDonald, of the home team, following him a minute after for the same offense. At the ten minutes play Edwards scored the first goal for the London team on a lone rush. St. Thomas rushed London's defense for no score and St. Thomas was chased for tripping Hall. Gilles followed shortly for dumping Walker. On a two-shot combination by R. Reid and Edwards, the visitors hit the local defense. Jackson broke it up, but Edwards secured, scoring the second goal for London. End-to-end rushes by Hall and Edwards for London, Shephard and St. Thomas, with players badly bunched, following, Shephard drew a penalty for tripping, and Hall followed for holding. McAvoy's back-checking bothered the Saints, frequently at this stage. Hamilton stopped a wicked shot from Edwards that looked like a score. McDonald off for holding. Half time score, 2 to 0.

Saints Take a Spurt.
St. Thomas commenced the second period strong, and for five minutes bombarded the London goal, Wardrop making some wonderful stops. The London side broke away, however, but Jackson drew a penalty for tripping, Edwards and McDonald followed for a mix-up, and Shephard was benched for bumping Hall. R. Reid scored on an individual rush for London after five minutes play. Soon after McAvoy went off for tripping. While he was off, Davy Reid shot, scoring London's fourth.
St. Thomas broke away now, and St. Thomas and McDonald worked a two-man combination, latter scoring St. Thomas' first and only goal. Play slowed up at this point, both sides feeling the strenuous going. McAvoy was benched, and Jackson and Edwards drew penalties for similar offenses. Shephard followed one minute later. McAvoy came back, and broke away, passing to Reid, who pushed the puck into the St. Thomas net for the fifth goal. From the St. Thomas defense and scored for London from close in on a pretty rush.

Saints Worked Hard.
St. Thomas worked desperately to score in the final stages, but Wardrop, in goal, was invincible. Time and again McDonald, Walker and McDonald shot dead on from outside the defence, but could not beat him. Gilles jammed McDonald against the boards and drew a penalty, and Shephard a moment later bounced Hall and went to the penalty box. The Saints were badly tired at this stage and London played safe, the game ending with the rubber in mid-ice. For London, Hall, R. Reid, Edwards, and McDonald. For St. Thomas, Shephard, McDonald, and St. Thomas. Referee: Wally Hearn, of Stratford. Officials: Avoys, of Stratford. A large delegation from the Forest City was present and uproariously cheered their team to victory.

Goderich Won Exciting Game From St. Marys.
Score Was 1 to 0 at Half-Time and 4 to 1 at Full Time in Favor of Home Team.
Goderich, Ont., Jan. 26.—Goderich Intermediates defeated St. Marys here tonight by a score of 4 to 1. Half time score, 1 to 0, in favor of the home team. Lineup:
St. Marys. Positions. Goderich.
Doecher. Goal. Wardrop.
L. Wilson. Left defence. D. McAvoy.
Tuer. Right defence. D. McAvoy.
Leville. Centre. Chisholm.
Roberts. Left wing. W. Wiggins.
Wilson. Right wing. R. McDonald.
Referee—Kinder, of Preston.

WORK ON FEDERAL STAND STARTS AT INDIANAPOLIS
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—Work on the construction of the grand stands at the Federal League baseball park was started here today. Mayor Bell turned the first spadeful of dirt. According to J. Edward Krause, president of the local club, the work on the field and stands will be pushed until everything will be ready by the time the season opens.

NO GAME AT INGERSOLL.
Ingersoll, Jan. 26.—The scheduled A. H. A. game here tonight between Brantford and Ingersoll was postponed owing to poor ice. It will likely be played next Monday night.

WOULD COUGH SO HARD Would Turn Black
In The Face.
A cough cold is one of the most dangerous kind. It leaves the throat or lungs, and sometimes both, affected if not taken care of immediately.

Obstinate coughs and colds yield to the grateful soothing action of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, containing as it does all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree.

Mrs. C. J. Seig, Dartmouth, N.S., writes: "My little boy, six years old, had a dreadful hard cough. At night time he would cough so hard he would turn black in the face, and at times he would cough nearly an hour before he would stop. I tried different cough syrups, but they did him no good. The little fellow was wasting away, as he could not eat or sleep, the cough troubled him so. I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and it did him so much good I got another. Now I am only too glad to be able to write this to tell how thankful I am, and to tell every mother to use nothing else."

Price, 25 and 50 cents.
Be sure you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. See the trade mark; the three pine trees.

Jack Smith Sends In His Signed Contract
The signed contract of Jack Smith, who held down third base for the London Club the latter part of last season, was received by the London Club today. Smith showed enough last year to warrant the London Club holding on to him, and if he improves as much as he has promise of doing, he should become a real handy third sacker. Smith is taking good care of himself, and is eager for the opening of the season in order to demonstrate just what he can do. He will give all of them a battle for the position. His hitting was a trifle weak last year, but under proper coaching he should soon remedy this.

Mild Weather Puts Crimp In Many Curling Events
Ontario Tankard Game Between Ingersoll and London Club Still Further Postponed.
The mild weather has put a crimp in the curling at present, and the Ontario Tankard primary game between Ingersoll and the London Club, which was supposed to have been held today at the Thistle rink, has been further postponed. It will likely be played off next week. Unless a real cold spell sets in soon, the curlers will have a time playing off all the postponed events. The Western Ontario Tankard games have still to be played, while the district cup finals are also on the postponed list.

London Y. M. C. A. Boys Lost At Woodstock
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Woodstock, Jan. 26.—Three teams of business boys from the London Y. M. C. A. visited the Woodstock Y. M. C. A. this evening and played two games of basketball and one game of hockey, with the local business boys in the hockey. The Woodstock team won by the score of 7 to 4. In the junior basketball game the locals came out ahead by the score of 8 to 6, while in the senior game Woodstock won by the score of 43 to 6. Following the games a supper was held and the visiting boys entertained. It was an enjoyable evening.

Kingston Frontenacs Beat Varsity Badly
Final Score Was 12 to 5 and at Half-Time 6 to 3—Nicholson Strengthens Winners.
Kingston, Jan. 26.—Frontenacs won a decisive victory over Varsity tonight, the score being 12 to 5. At half time the Frontenacs led by 6 to 3, strengthened by the local team. The Frontenacs were considerably stronger in the senior game than they were in the junior game. The game was fast throughout. Lineup:
Frontenacs. Position. Varsity.
Cook. Goal. Armstrong.
Nicholson. Defence. McDowell.
Stanton. Defence. Brett.
Brouse. Rover. Mody.
Crawford. Centre. Wilson.
Reid. Left wing. Cotton.

Port Elgin Ran Up Big Score on Warton Team
Final Count Was 20 to 2 in One-Sided Exhibition—Result a Surprise.
Port Elgin, Ont., Jan. 26.—Warton hockey team was defeated by Port Elgin tonight by a score of 20 to 2 in a Northern League game. A large crowd turned out to see the game, which was not very exciting as the score was too easy. The lineup:
Port Elgin. Position. Warton.
McLellan. Goal. Scott.
Kuhl. Point. O'Hara.
Morton. Coverpoint. Ferguson.
Black. Defence. Krutwieser.
Geddes. Centre. McDonald.
Thompson. Left wing. Brown.
Referee—"Doc" Powers.

Woodstock and Paris Played a Tie Game
Paris, Jan. 26.—Paris and Woodstock Intermediate O. H. A. teams played a tie game here this evening, the final score being 4 to 4. The game was an exhibition one. Woodstock defaulting their regular scheduled match and sending down a patched-up line-up. The Paris management had the game extensively advertised, or it might have been called off altogether. The exhibition was a listless one, although fairly exciting. Neither team exerted itself very much, the locals least of all. At half-time the score was 2 to 2 in Woodstock's favor.

Belleville Won.
Belleville, Jan. 26.—By a score of 11 to 5 the Belleville Intermediate O. H. A. team tonight defeated Bowmanville. The game at half-time was 5 to 2 in favor of Belleville. Dr. Gilbert, of this city, refereed the game.

Sarnia Beat Alvinston In An Exciting Game
Sarnia, Jan. 26.—Sarnia defeated Alvinston by the score of 7 to 4 in a fast Intermediate O. H. A. game here tonight. The half-time score was 3 to 2 in Alvinston's favor, but the locals came back strong in the last period. The ice was in good condition, and a big crowd witnessed the game. McCart, Le Seuer and Dadds starred for the locals, while Wall and Hamilton featured for Alvinston. The teams:
Sarnia—Cameron, goal; McCart, right defence; Dadds, left defence; Le Seuer, centre; Storey, rover; Arthur, right wing; McLellan, left wing; Hamilton, goal; Williams, right defence; Wall, left defence; E. Hamilton, centre; Davenport, rover; Shaw, right wing; A. Temple, left wing. Referee—Sid Rankin, London.

HYMANS WILL NOT BE REPRESENTED
IN THE W. O. B. LEAGUE THIS SEASONDOHERTY AND FARQUHAR HAVE SIGNED UP TO PLAY WITH STRATFORD AS A RESULT.

The local ball players, "Toots" Doherty and Johnny Farquhar, last year with the Hyman W. O. B. L. team, have been grabbed up by the Stratford team of the same league for this coming season and they will leave next week for the Classic City, where they have secured positions.

John Farquhar, tried out with the London Canadian League club two years ago as a pitcher, but failed to make good. Since then he has been playing the outfield and infield, and has developed to such an extent that he looks good enough right now for a trial with any of the Canadian Leagues. He is a splendid hitter and a fast runner.

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE BENEFIT THURSDAY NIGHT
Had To Be Postponed Owing To Soft Ice—Will Fast Games Be Provided.
The Manufacturers' League benefit night, which was to have been held in the Westminster rink this evening, with three fast games of hockey, has been postponed until Thursday night, owing to the soft weather. This is the third postponement in this league this season.

CHURCH LEAGUE GAMES ARE AGAIN POSTPONED
For the fourth time this winter, it was necessary to postpone the games in the Interdenominational League scheduled for this evening on account of soft ice. The mild weather has rendered the Simcoe street sheet unfit for hockey, so Secretary Lyons had to send out postponement notices.

Barter and Exchange

Many people have articles which they wish to trade at some time or other.
Realizing that a "Barter

LITTLE TALKS

[Copyright, 1914, The International Syndicate, Baltimore.]

No. 60

LET'S see now: What is a want ad? I'm not much on definitions, but how will this do: "An announcement of something desired or something for sale, printed in the Classified columns of a newspaper."

Not a very lengthy or involved definition, that. But doesn't it really define? Doesn't it about cover the object of all want ad. advertising?

That is all there is to want ad. advertising—an announcement of something desired or something for sale. I imagine I can hear you say "How about an ad. for a cook? How about it when I advertise the loss of an article, or when I advertise for typewriting to do at home?"

Well, when you insert an ad. for a cook, you want the services of a competent culinary attendant. Something desired. When you advertise the loss of an article, it is in the hope that the finder will see your ad. and restore the article. Something desired. When you advertise for typewriting work, you are offering your services. Something for sale.

There is no mystery about it. Advertising isn't hypnotism, or undue influence or black art. You write out what you want or what you have for sale—you put it in a good newspaper—the newspaper carries your message broadcast, into the homes and hearts of thousands of readers—some of those readers respond to your printed word—you sell or you acquire—and ADVERTISING has done its work.

Next time you want something or have something for sale, try a little want ad. The cost is trivial—the results more than worth while.

COMPLAINT AGAINST GRAND VALLEY RLY.

Are Accused of Maintaining a Nuisance—Foreigners Indignant Against Government.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Branch Jan. 27.—Another action, this time with Chief of Police Sleiman as the complainant, is to be lodged against the Grand Valley Railway Company, which controls the streetcar lines in the city. For some time the company has been allowing its rolling stock to become run down. On the cars there are flat wheels, which create so much noise that they have become a source of annoyance to the residents of streets along which they pass. Complaint has been made to Mayor Spence, and he in turn has passed the matter on to the chief of police, with instructions to prosecute the company for maintaining a nuisance. The case will probably come up in the police court tomorrow morning.

Local foreigners are up in arms against what they claim is the inactivity or absolute refusal of the Dominion officials to cause the arrest and extractions of the Shafron, who left this city with a large amount of savings entrusted to him by local foreigners. He is supposed to be in California, but no effort has been made to locate him.

The many petitions submitted against the placing of the new small hospital in Grand View, a residential suburb, resulted in the city council last evening nullifying the bargain already entered into for the property, and the buildings and grounds committee will choose another site.

PACIFIC STORM HAS COST EIGHT LIVES

Property Damaged and Traffic Tied Up in California and Nevada.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—The Pacific coast was emerging early today from the grip of a storm that has drenched the entire region from the Canadian to the Mexican line. Latest reports place the storm's death toll at eight. High water has caused much damage to property, particularly in Southern California, and railroad service in this state and Nevada has been badly crippled. Traffic conditions were expected to improve today, however.

FIVE INCHES OF RAIN
The rainfall yesterday in the southern part of the state was tremendous. At Pasadena the total for 24 hours amounted to nearly five inches. The Ventura river is on a rampage and many bridges have been washed away, causing a loss for that one item of more than $100,000.

MANY HAD TO MOVE
Several towns have been partially submerged and hundreds of persons living in the lowlands have been forced to move.

BACKBONE BROKEN
The backbone of the storm has been broken north of the Tehachapi mountains. Through service between San Francisco and Los Angeles has been impossible for 48 hours and heavy snowfalls and washouts have tied up traffic in various parts of Nevada. A Southern Pacific train is stalled between Wabuska and Hazen.

COMPERS TO ANSWER CHARGES OF MOYER

Says Records Show Them To Be "Seriously Mistaken In Fact."

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 27.—President Compers, of the United Mine Workers of America, today answered charges of Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, made yesterday before the convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

When informed of Moyer's allegations, Compers declared that the records showed them to be "seriously mistaken in fact."

He will go before the miners with documents, which, he says, will disprove Moyer's statements.

Friends of Mr. Compers were offering their congratulations yesterday on this the sixtieth anniversary of his birthday.

MORE WRECKS AT SEA

[Canadian Press.]
Curling, Nfld., Jan. 26.—The crew of the Gloucester fishing schooner, George, a Canadian, arrived yesterday reporting the wreck of their vessel on Wood Island, yesterday. The crew reached the shore with difficulty.

SCHOONER ABANDONED

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Jan. 26.—Captain George A. Cardie and eleven of the crew of the American five-masted schooner Prescott Palmer, recently abandoned at sea, were aboard the steamer Bermudian, which reached this port tonight. Second mate Hans Hansen was swept overboard and drowned.

Aboard the Bermudian also were two sailors of the British schooner Ladysmith, abandoned on January 17.

SANK IN TWO MINUTES.

[Canadian Press.]
Boston, Jan. 27.—The Boston fishing schooner Olive F. Hutchins sank in the harbor early today two minutes after she had been run down by the steamer George A. Hibbard, owned by the city of Boston. Captain Morton E. Hutchins and five of the crew jumped to the steamer's deck. The other eleven men aboard, who were in the cabin when the collision occurred, hurriedly launched the dory, from which they were later rescued by the Hibbard.

WINCHAM.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Wingham, Jan. 27.—Miss Marjann Wood, nurse at the hospital here, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is doing nicely.

Dr. Calder, who has been confined to her home with an attack of la grippe is now able to be out again.

Mr. Wm. Bone, who recently underwent an operation for ulcer of the stomach, has been removed to his home.

Ice cutting has started here, the ice being about a foot thick and clear.

LABOR TROUBLES THREATENING TO BECOME GENERAL

London Building Industries Federation To Call Out Its Members.

CONTROLS 100,000 MEN

Sympathetic Action Probable in Provinces—Other Trades Considering Strikes.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Jan. 27.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: A large extension of the labor struggle in London occurred last night. The following trades and industries are now undergoing or are threatened with a strike: coal, building, electric light, shipping and transport.

DECIDED TO STRIKE.
The executive committee of the London Building Industries Federation decided yesterday to call out all its members working on the jobs from which some 37,000 carpenters, joiners, plasterers, bricklayers, masons and laborers were discharged on Saturday. This recommendation is addressed particularly to plumbers, smiths, fitters, crane men and electricians and painters, who have not been required to sign the penalty agreement.

HAS 100,000 MEMBERS.
It is impossible to say at present how many men will be affected by the decision of the executive committee, but the Building Trades Federation controls eight unions, with 100,000 members. If the men obey the order, London's building trade will be in danger of paralysis.

A CONFERENCE.
At a meeting of 1,200 electrical workers last night, strong speeches were made in favor of a sympathetic strike in support of the builders. It was agreed to meet the employers in conference tonight before taking any extreme action. The electrical workers include the engineers of the London strike of electrical workers would have a grave effect on the electric light and power of London.

IN PROVINCES, TOO.
Sympathetic action by the same trades is also threatened in the provinces, and a shipping strike for better wages is threatened by the marine engineers of all large vessels.

SOME TO RESUME WORK.
[Canadian Press.]
London, Jan. 27.—A speedy termination of the coal strike which has affected London since January 21, when 10,000 coal carriers quit work, was foreshadowed in a resolution adopted by the men at a meeting held this morning, when they decided to resume work in the coal yards, where the employers had consented to grant the increase of two cents a ton for loading coal, demanded by the men and by the heavy snows up to 20 cents a ton.

As several of the largest London firms have agreed to this it is generally thought that the others will be unable to long resist.

NEW EXPRESS RATES TO BEGIN ON FEBRUARY 1

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Jan. 27.—On February 1 the express companies will put into operation the new rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission. Under the present tariff it costs 65 cents to send a five-pound package from New York to St. Louis. Under the new rates the cost will be 32 cents.

Now it costs 3 cents to ship a ten-pound package to St. Louis. The new charge will be 44 cents. Other reductions are in proportion.

Express business will be divided into two general classes, the ordinary and the special. The ordinary rates of food and drink. Second-class rates are but 75 per cent. of the rate on merchandise.

BEFORE TRIAL
Young Bride Broke Down—Alleged Bigamist Was in Very Serious Condition.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Windsor, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Evelyn Proctor, alleged bigamist, held in the St. John's jail pending trial, is recovering from a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. Wigle, who married Archie Wigle last year, was arrested in Winnipeg and brought to Windsor. Her condition was so serious that Dr. H. R. Casselman, jail surgeon, ordered a special nurse, and her husband had Rev. Arthur Carlisle, rector of All Saints' church, visit her. She was much improved tonight.

Disheartening Effect of Piles
It is not only the itching and stinging of piles that is to be dreaded, but also the depressing and debilitating effect on the whole system. Her condition of piles cannot do efficient work. There is an uneasiness and discomfort by day, and at night the distress from the itching prevents sleep and rest, and undermines the general health.

From almost the first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment you get relief from the annoying itching and burning, and gradually the ulcers are healed up and the disease thoroughly cured. Do not make the mistake of discontinuing treatment as soon as relief is obtained. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a proven cure, but depends on you to apply it persistently until a cure is effected.

Even the most severe cases of long standing yield to the soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Surgical operations are no longer necessary, for, as a matter of fact, Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured cases that were not cured by operations. No sufferer from piles can afford to neglect the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

We unhesitatingly recommend Magic Baking Powder as being the best, purest and most healthful baking powder that it is possible to produce. CONTAINS NO ALUM. All ingredients are plainly printed on the label.

WINGHAM FUNERALS

FUNERAL OF MRS. QUIRK.

Wingham, Jan. 27.—The funeral of the late Mrs. John Quirk was held from her residence this afternoon, and largely attended. An impressive sermon was preached by Rev. E. H. Croly, touching on the life of Mrs. Quirk. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, including wreaths from the family, sprays from friends in London and other places. There was clapped in the hands of the deceased a small bunch of flowers of a kind that she always admired. After the service the funeral cortege slowly wended its way to the plot in Wingham Cemetery. The pallbearers were her three sons, John, Charles, Frank, and Mr. H. Davis. Mr. Moore and Mr. H. B. Elliott.

FUNERAL OF RICHARD RANKIN.
The funeral of the late Richard Rankin was held here today, and was largely attended. The service was conducted at the Anglican Church by Rev. E. H. Croly. The members of L. O. L. No. 794, were marshaled by Bro. J. F. Groves from the lodge room to the grave. Many friends from the funeral cortege slowly wended its way to the plot in Wingham Cemetery. The pallbearers were her three sons, John, Charles, Frank, and Mr. H. Davis. Mr. Moore and Mr. H. B. Elliott.

REVOLUTION SPREADING.
[Canadian Press.]
Cape Haytien, Hayti, Jan. 27.—The revolution in Hayti is spreading all over the north. At Port de Paix and Gonave the entire population has risen. Two prominent exiles, Gen. Carlos Zamora and Gen. Beaufosse Laroche, both of them former ministers of war, returned today to Cape Haytien, which is in the hands of the rebels.

CAPS IN WATER TELL OF DOUBLE DROWNING
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Port Lambert, Jan. 26.—All efforts to locate the body of Mike Callahan, 22, who was drowned last evening at 7:30 when he fell into an air-hole while trying to walk across the ice to Roberts' Point, have proven unavailing. The search, however, will be continued on Tuesday.

Callahan was a sailor and left the home of his widowed mother at 7 o'clock. He was seen starting out and when he did not return a search was made. His cap was found floating in the water about the air-hole.

The searchers while out on the ice found a hat and basket in another air-hole. These were identified as belonging to Henry Johnston, a Walpole Island Indian.

Inquiry brought forth the information that he had started last Tuesday to walk across the ice and had not been seen since. There is little doubt that he was drowned.

Misfortune has followed the Callahan family for over a year, this being the third death in that time. Callahan spent last summer sailing on the lakes. The river at this point is over a mile across and in places the current is very swift.

ADDRESS AT BELGRAVE.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Belgrave, Jan. 27.—Last night the Foresters' Hall was crowded to the limit when Rev. J. H. Fish addressed an audience on "Home in relation to the Church throughout Ontario." He touched on many points of interest.

The chair was occupied by Bro. Thos. Stewart, who is master of Orange county and Grand Lodge. During his address of two hours and fifteen minutes, the speaker was frequently applauded.

Rev. A. M. Boyle moved and Rev. J. W. Kilpatrick seconded a vote of thanks to the speaker which was heartily accorded.

BALL AT BLUEVALE.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Bluevale, Jan. 26.—One of the best balls of the season was held here in the Foresters' Hall. The dresses of the ladies and the decorations of the hall made a brilliant scene.

The ball was arranged by Messrs. Atcheson, Speers and Little, the floor being managed by Mr. R. Atcheson, who deserves great credit for his work.

At midnight dainty refreshments were served by the ladies, the waiting being Miss McMether, Miss Scott, Miss Burchess, Miss Atcheson.

Miss King, and Miss McEwen. Dancing was later resumed and kept up until the small hours of the morning. The musicians were R. Mowbray and W. Speers, of Zeland.

Guests from a distance included: Mr. Roy Adair, Hugh Gilmore, A. Hastings, of Turnbury; M.M. Haskirk, Seaford; Jas. Cleghorn, Listowel; Alex. Davidson, Geo. Greenway, Wm. Lamb, W. Vanwyck, Wingham; Miss Wilker, Miss Scott, Miss McMether, Miss Burchess, Miss Atcheson, Miss King and Miss McEwen, of Turnbury.

INGERSOLL.—The members of Mr. Handford's class held a most enjoyable oyster supper in the Methodist Church last evening and also heard a fine address by Mr. Russell Treleaven, of Hamilton.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weak and Dizzy Spells.
Heart Would Beat Something Awful.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells which come over people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady.

Mrs. Len. Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart had those spells every day. I got so I would try one medicine, and then another, but nothing did me any good until I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took, for I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking, and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Stomach Troubles Due to Acidity

SO SAYS AN EMINENT SPECIALIST.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, stomach-ache and inability to retain food, are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach, and causes that full, oppressive feeling, sometimes known as heartburn while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, but may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and render it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisulphate of magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water, immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Fermentation, wind and acidity are dangerous and unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper antacid, such as bisulphate of magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poisonous gas and dangerous acids.—M. F. P.—ADV.

FUGITIVE BANKER IS FOUND IN MONTREAL

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, Jan. 26.—Samuel L. Blair, for whom the police of Pittsburgh, Pa., have been searching since Sept. 20 last, was arrested here today by secret service men in the employ of a detective agency.

Blair is wanted in McKees Rock, Pa., to answer to a charge of stealing $15,000 from the Victor Banking Company. The bank, a private institution, of which Lewis Anselmi was president and owner, was obliged to close its doors following Blair's disappearance.

Blair was taken before Judge Choquet, sitting as extradition commissioner, when he entered a plea of not guilty and waived extradition proceedings, stating that he was prepared to return to Pittsburgh immediately for trial.

EXPLOSION ON OCEAN LINER.

Liverpool, Jan. 26.—An explosion occurred today on the Cunard liner Mauretania, which is in dock undergoing repairs. Four men were killed and many injured. A bottle of condensed gas which was being used in a brazing process in the engine room blew up from some unknown reason, causing tremendous havoc among the engine fitters. Several of the injured are in a serious condition.

Promises Suffragettes To Investigate Stories of Torture in Holloway Jail

RIGHT REV. BISHOP INGRAM.

GET $5; CANNOT SPEND IT

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 26.—Although they are to be sheltered and fed indefinitely by the United States Government, the Mexican soldiers from Ojinaga who are interned at Fort Bliss, received from their own Government today some of the pay due them for fighting before they crossed the Rio Grande.

Each Mexican soldier received $5, his first pay for months, and according to General Salvador Mercada, the commander, the last.

None of the foreign soldiers was permitted to leave the reservation to spend the money.

KEPHALDOL COMES TO CANADA

Originated by Dr. Stohr, a famous physician of Vienna, Austria, Kephaladol is known and used throughout Europe and Great Britain.

Now, backed by the endorsements of hundreds of physicians and hospitals, it comes to Canada to relieve pain and cure Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuritis, Headache, La Grippe, Fevers and similar troubles.

Kephaladol has received the highest commendation from the medical profession because of its direct strengthening action on the nerves, without injury to the heart, and its lasting regulative and curative effect upon the whole system.

Unlike other pain-killing remedies, Kephaladol is absolutely harmless. It causes no intestinal irritation, and has no depressing effects.

Kephaladol will now bring to pain-wrecked Canadians the untold blessings which it has already conferred in the Old Country—joy of perfect life again to those who, perhaps for many years, have dragged through a tormenting existence.

Get a 50c tube of Kephaladol tablets at your Druggist's. Kephaladol, Limited, 81 Latour Street, Montreal.

TO INVESTIGATE ALLEGED TORTURE OF SUFFRAGETTES

If Bishops Can Obtain Permission They Will Visit Holloway Jail.

PROMISE MADE TO WOMEN

Militants Expect to See King and Will Not Prostrate Themselves Before Him.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Jan. 26.—The Bishop of London, the Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, tonight promised a deputation from the Women's Social and Political Union that if he can obtain the home secretary's consent he will in the course of a few days visit Holloway Jail, accompanied by the Bishop of Kensington, in order to investigate the allegations that three suffragettes imprisoned there suffer excruciating torture while being subjected to forcible feeding. If official permission is obtained the two bishops will witness the operation.

This projected action on the part of the bishops is the outcome of statements made at a meeting of the militants' union, by Miss Florence Ansell, recently released from Holloway, that while there she heard shrieks and moans twice daily proceeding from the opposite cell occupied by Rachel Peace, who is serving an 18 months' sentence.

To Call on King.
At the same meeting Miss Barbara Wylie, referring to the purpose of the militants to call on the King, as announced by Mrs. Dacre-Fox a week ago, said that the deputation would not prostrate themselves before the throne as Sir Edward Carson, the Unionist leader, said the Ulsterites would, but would stand before his majesty erect. She did not think that the deputations would find any difficulty in obtaining an audience with the King. If nothing came of it the women still had the same right to fight as Ulster.

BLAZE AT BURLINGTON

Loss in Early Morning Fire Will Reach $30,000.

[Canadian Press.]

Burlington, Jan. 27.—Fire broke out here at 1 o'clock this morning in the planing mills and lumber yard of A. Coates & Sons, and the entire property was destroyed, with a loss of between $25,000 and $30,000. The premises are surrounded by residences which were in grave danger, but were saved by the strenuous efforts of the volunteer fire brigade. The town has a good waterworks system, and was well served in this instance by eight lines of hose playing on the fire.

Nerves Are Sore and Painful

Neuritis, or inflammation of the nerves, is the most painful of nervous ailments. You may feel the soreness or tenderness throughout the body, or it may be confined to certain nerves. In the head it is called neuralgia; in the hips and legs, sciatica; in the face, tic douloureux, and in the chest, intercostal neuralgia.

The application of dry heat affords relief from the lance-like pains, but the essential thing is to build up the exhausted nervous system by the persistent use of such a restorative as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You will have other symptoms to warn you of the depleted condition of the nervous system, and this is your opportunity to restore to the body the energy and vigor of health.

While this great food cure is instilling new vitality into the starved nerve cells it is also forming new, firm flesh and tissue, and, by noting your increase in weight, you can prove beyond doubt the benefit being obtained by its use. This is Nature's way of curing diseases of the nerves, and it is the only way to obtain lasting benefit.

Railroad Man Had to Lay Off

Until He Took GIN PILLS

Buffalo, N. Y.
"I have been a Pullman conductor on the C. P. and Michigan Central for the last three years.
"About four years ago I was laid up with intense pain in the groin, a very sore back, and suffered most severely when I tried to urinate.
"I treated with my family physician for two months for Gravel in the Bladder, but did not receive any benefit. About that time I met another railroad man who had been similarly affected and who had been cured by GIN PILLS, after having been given up by a prominent physician who treated him for Diabetes. He is now running on the road and is perfectly cured. He strongly advised me to try GIN PILLS, which I did, with the results that the pains left me entirely."

"EMERGENCY" CRY TO BE HEARD AGAIN SAYS HON. MR. KING

Another Flag-Waving Campaign To Be Inaugurated in Canada.

STRONG SPEECH AT BERLIN

Over Three Hundred North Waterloo Liberals Attend a Banquet.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Premier Borden and his government at Ottawa were roundly scored by H. H. W. L. Mackenzie King this evening at a large and enthusiastic banquet of the Laurier Club in Concordia Hall, for neglecting to announce a policy that would hasten the prosperous times that existed during the Liberal administration from 1896 to 1911.

He asked his hearers if they ever heard factory whistles blowing at 4 and 5 o'clock in the day when the Liberals were in power, or if there were as many unemployed in the cities as there are under the Conservative administration. He maintained that while reciprocity was defeated in 1911, the conditions which the Liberals predicted would result unless a wider market was provided for the farmers of the West have come about.

The superiority of the western farmer to ship his wheat to a larger market near at hand has created a congestion, with the result that the trade between the West and the East has been greatly reduced and there has been an overproduction of manufactured goods in the East.

Another Emergency

Mr. King also spoke on the navy issue at some length, and pointed out that instead of there being an emergency as was maintained at the last session of the house it was merely a measure of expediency. He, however, warned his hearers that the last of the "emergency" cry has not been heard. He deduced from the speech delivered by Mr. Borden on the address from the throne the other day that some Government representative would go to England and find out from the admiralty whether the three largest dreadnoughts in the world were still required, and on receiving an affirmative answer will return to Canada to inaugurate another flag-waving campaign, and every Liberal or independent man who will oppose the contribution will be classed as a traitor to the Empire. Mr. King strongly denounced the extravagant expenditures of the Government during the two years they have been in power, and predicted that when the next appeal is made to the people of Canada the Liberal party throughout Canada will be swept into power, under the starry leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Over 300 Present.

President J. R. Haley presided, and addresses were delivered by Mayor Euler, H. J. Simes, Dr. Simes, Dr. J. F. Honsberger, Mr. Johnston representing the Federated Liberal Club in Ontario, Geo. Gibbons (of London) and Rev. J. E. Lynn. Music was provided by the Starmann orchestra and the Excelsior quartette. Over 300 Liberals young and old from all parts of North Waterloo were in attendance.

"A Man of Peace But Not of Peace at Any Price"—Carson

SIR EDWARD CARSON.
London, Jan. 26.—Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulsterites, in a speech at Lincoln tonight, said that he was ready to join John Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, in an attempt to extend real local government to Ireland, or to remove any abuses or injustices, social or religious. Referring to Mr. Redmond's speech at Waterford on Sunday, he declared: "If this is the last word from his side we are in a lamentable and critical state of affairs. I am a man of peace, but not of peace at any price."

WOMAN'S MOST SUCCESSFUL MEDICINE

Known All Over The World—Known Only For The Good It Has Done.

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or received so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In nearly every community you will find women who have been restored to health by this famous medicine. Almost every woman you meet knows of the great good it has been doing among suffering women for the past 30 years.

Fox Creek, N. B.—"I have always had pains in the abdomen and a weakness there and often after meals a soreness in my stomach. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me much good. I am stronger, digestion is better and I can work with ambition. I have encouraged many mothers of families to take it as it is the best remedy in the world. You can publish this in the papers."—Mrs. WILLIAM S. BOURQUE, Fox Creek, N. B.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, many of whom state that it has saved them from surgical operations.

SENTENCED TO HERMIT'S LIFE IN MOUNTAINS
San Jose, Cal., Jan. 26.—Frank E. Murray, convicted forger, was sentenced today by Superior Judge William Beasley to serve two years as a hermit in the mountains forty miles from here.

Because Murray is 53 years old, the judge was not inclined to give him a jail sentence.

One of the conditions of the sentence is that Murray may accept employment, but he must not visit a city or town in two years. The court will keep in touch with him during that time.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

Home Rule Discussion.—The Young Men's Club of the Ridout Street Methodist Church will discuss "Home Rule" on Thursday.

Many Tickets Sold.—An exceptional sale of tickets is reported for the Agnes Knox Black recital to be given on Thursday, the 28th inst. The evening promises to be a treat from both a literary and musical standpoint.

Heavy Seat Sale.—That the comedy, "The House Next Door," to be presented Thursday evening at the Grand Opera House by the Western University literary society, will be well received, is indicated by the heavy sale of seats for this play. The society has gone to considerable expense to make this year's play
the best ever.

Big Gathering Expected.—It is anticipated that several hundred carpenters will attend the open meeting to be held in St. George's Hall, Richmond street, on Wednesday night, to discuss the question of strengthening the forces of the Carpenters' Union. Alfred Cheesman, organizer, will address the meeting.

Difficulties Straightened Up.—The temporary difficulties between the Tom Terris players have been adjusted.
Mr. Terris, who is the owner of a large number of valuable acts, drew on his account and paid the players who were in arrears. The management of the theatre where Mr. Terris appeared states that Mr. Terris was not indebted to the house in any way.

Goes to Owen Sound.—Samuel Green, in charge of the Owen Sound, left London Monday night for Owen Sound, where he is wanted on a charge of fraud. Detective Robert Egelton arrested Green, who applied at the Carling street station for a night's lodging.

After Auto Thieves.—Detectives
Harry Down and Robert Egelton are investigating the complaints of several autobile garages having been broken into and a number of accessories stolen. Monday the officers visited a number of places and secured information that may lead to an arrest being made in a short time.

Fined $50.—E. D. Burke, an Elginfield hotelkeeper, was yesterday fined $50 and costs by Squire Chittick for selling liquor on Sunday recently. Blake pleaded guilty to the charge. The case was adjourned for a week ago Satururday, at which time one of the witnesses was arrested at the order of Squire Chittick for appearing in court intoxicated.

No Labor Strike.—Local labor unions will not observe the 2nd's strike holiday on Jan. 30 and 31, as they have been asked to do by the Miners' Liberation League of British Columbia. According to local trades and labor men, the British Columbia miners' strike further appealed to the Government before calling upon their fellow labor men to make so emphatic a protest against the imprisonment of the miners.

Art Exhibit Sell On.—The art loan exhibit of the London Art Association will be continued today and Wednesday, closing at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Since the opening of the exhibit a number of interesting articles have been added to the collection of curios, including a mummy 4,000 years old, and a pendant which was once in the possession of the Czarina of Russia.

Had Packed House.—An entertainment given by the Young Women's Epworth League of Ridout Street Methodist Church last evening drew a packed house. The sketch, "A Trip Around the Ridout Belt," was particularly well acted. Miss Braithwaite also pleased with her humorous readings. The organization considered the entertainment so successful that it will repeat the program next Tuesday. The proceeds will go toward the strolling collected to build a new church in the district.

Presbyterian Opens Today.—The Presbyterian convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of London opens this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Delegates will be present from every congregation in the presbytery with which a foreign missionary society is connected. Mrs. (Dr.) D. L. McCrae is president. This evening the delegates will meet at a tea to be held in St.
Andrew's schoolroom from 5:30 to 6:30.

Walk Through Old London.—"A walk through Old London" was the subject of an interesting talk given by the Rev.
Archdeacon Davidson, of Guelph, in the parish hall of the Memorial Church last night. The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides, and as the speaker took his audience for an informal stroll through the great metropolis, he pointed out the well-known places of interest, and described their unusual features in an interesting way. As a prelude to the lecture, Miss A. Tordy played a piano solo, and Miss Smith and Jack Pope sang a duet.
Miss Smith was encored several times.

Pioneers of Methodism.—The Pioneers of Methodism was the subject of an interesting address by Rev. Geo. N.
Hazen at the regular meeting of the Epworth League in the Wellington Street Methodist Church last night. Mr.
Hazen dealt with the beginnings of Methodism in Ontario and Quebec. The founders of Canadian Methodism were among the United Empire Loyalists, who came to Canada after the American Revolution. The speaker told of the first meetings in the settlements scattered through the wilderness, and the hardships and trials of the first Methodist preachers who made their way to this province by canoe from New York State. Interesting relics in the shape of family books belonging to George Neal, one of the first Canadian Methodist preachers were shown by Mr. Hazen.

MUST KEEP CARS AWAY FROM STREET

Dominion Railway Commission Orders Protection of William Street
Crossing of G. T. R.

The Dominion railway commission at a sitting in Toronto on Monday decided that ample protection would be provided for the Grand Trunk crossing on William street, London, if the company would keep all cars off the two south tracks for a distance of 50 feet on each side of the roadway. An order to this effect was accordingly made. It is also probable that the billboard and sign privileges be as it down so that the view may be unobstructed. It was at this crossing some months ago that the city's new $7,000 fire truck was smashed to kindling by a Grand Trunk engine, and several firemen were or less injured.

The mayor and City Solicitor T. G.
Meredith were present at the sitting.
It having been decided that the commission's order might call for the installation of gates or the placing of a watchman on the crossing, with a consequent expense to the city. Such a proposal would have met with very serious opposition from the London residents. It was, however, duly set aside.

MAKES LITTLE PROGRESS

Library Board Still in Same Position as to Carnegie Grant.

Negotiations in regard to the proposed Carnegie library for London appear to have made little progress since the death of the late Rev. Dr. James Ross while he was in New York in connection with the proposal. The inaugural meeting of the new library board will be held Thursday, Feb. 5, but The Advertiser was informed that it was doubtful whether the Carnegie library would be ready for definite consideration at the first meeting.

"WRONG VIEWS OF GOD"

Evangelist Crossley Opens Hyatt Avenue
Revival With That Text.

"Wrong Views of God" was the subject taken by Evangelist H. T. Crossley last night in a first of a three weeks' series of meetings to be held in Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church. A large choir and congregation were present last night.

In the first place, people think of God as an abstraction, whereas he is a divine person. He is wrongly believed to be a hard master instead of a loving father. That all the heaven will be lost because God is unable to look upon sin with the least degree of allowance, and that God, being loving and merciful will forego judgment were two more erroneous views spoken of.

In conclusion, Mr. Crossley dealt with the Christian view which we learn from the written revelation in the Bible and from the personal revelation of himself in Jesus Christ as Christ himself has said:
"He who hath seen Me hath seen the Father."

ORGANIZATION MEETING

Board of Health Holds Inaugural 1914
Session Today.

The organization meeting of the board of health will be held this afternoon when plans will be outlined for the year's work and a chairman selected. Dr. F. L. Burdon, who was head of the organization in 1913, is expected to be re-elected.

The board of health this year has a number of matters under consideration, including that of meat and milk inspection. The board of control will be asked to provide a municipal abattoir, and a request will probably be made for the purchase of an automobile for the use of the board's inspectors getting around to the various dairies from which the citizens of London are supplied with the lactical fluid.

EUCHRE TOURNEY OPENS

Liberal Club Will Start Tournament
Tomorrow—Nomination of Officers.

The commencement of a second euchre tournament of the London Liberal Club will be held in Hyman Hall tomorrow night at eight o'clock. The presentation of prizes for the last three games will be made to Mr. John Galbraith, P. McCusik and George Plumridge. There will also be a nomination of new club officers.

The evening will conclude with a smoker, at which refreshments will be served.

TO REVISE REGULATIONS

Transient Merchants Will Now Have to Pay Full Year's Fee.

A bylaw will be presented to the city council at that body's regular meeting next Monday night, for a revision of transient traders' licenses. Under the present bylaw a fee of $250 is charged, but the regulations are so worded that a six-months' license may be secured for half that amount.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES TO HEAR DR. F. W. MERCHANT

Will Be Informed of London's Industrial Educational Needs
By Provincial Inspector.

Members of the board of education will hear an address this afternoon from Dr. F. W. Merchant, inspector of industrial schools, on the subject of industrial education. The subject is one over which no small degree of enthusiasm has been displayed in London, evidence of which is amply demonstrated in the large attendance and excellent work being accomplished in the London Art and Industrial School under the direction of Principal H. B.
Beal, and the trustees are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to Dr. Merchant's address.

It is anticipated that the inspector will point out the needs of greatly increased facilities for the dispensation of industrial education in London. A new industrial school is one of the projects under consideration by the local board at the present time.

Prior to listening to Dr. Merchant's address, the trustees will deal with several matters, including Chairman A.
M. Hunt's plan to hold night classes for the instruction of foreigners, the appointment of a successor to Mr. F.
Irwin on the advisory industrial committee, and the appointment of a new science master at the Collegiate Institute.
Dr. F. A. Shaw, resigned, the board, acting on the suggestion of Principal
G. P. Rogers, has been in touch with J.
W. Pirith, of Peterboro, to endeavor, if possible to secure him for the position.

MANY SIGN PETITION

Controllers Informed That 100 Grocers
Have Decided Against Early Closing.

The board of control's session yesterday lasted more than two hours, the time being taken up, for the most part, with a discussion of small matters and the passing of a number of accounts.

One of the grocers interested in the repeal of early closing bylaw was present to secure some information, and told the board that nearly one hundred of the total number of grocers in the city are required on the petition to have the measure rescinded.

It was decided not to press the city's claim against W. R. Boughner for $3, the amount alleged to be remaining due on an account for cleaning out a sewer on Wolfe street. Mr. Boughner confessed that he had paid a private party for doing the work and could not see why he should be twice charged for the one job, although the city engineer advised that the account was correct.

The controllers were advised that J.
E. Boomer was vacating his old residence on King street, which was purchased by the city for Federal Square purposes, and for which Mr. Boomer had been paying $45 per month rent.
The next move will be to secure another tenant until the Federal Square scheme is gotten under way.

Vice-Chairman J. P. Moore presided.

WILL CONTEST SUIT

Controllers Say City Is Not Liable For Accidents Caused by Open Gratings.

City Engineer W. N. Ashplant advised the board of control yesterday that the city was not liable for $40 damages claimed by Louis Rottam, through his solicitors, Graydon & Graydon, as the result of an accident on Carling street on the 5th of January, and recommended that the claim be sent to the Dominion Express Company.

Mr. Rottam was alleged to have sustained injuries as the result of a fall on the sidewalk alongside the express company's building, a couple of bars being missing from the area coal chute, leaving an opening. The sidewalk is 12 feet wide at this point, however, and the engineer considered that the city was not in any way responsible for the accident.

The idea was expressed that many of the dangerous gratings existed, and such dangerous gratings existed, and the city engineer will be instructed to look into the complaints and order such conditions remedied.

In the event of suit being entered against the city in the Rottam case, the city solicitor will be given instructions to offer a defence.
