

FURTHER STREET FIGHTING IS EXPECTED IN BERLIN

WITH SIGHT OF RED CROSS OBJECTIVE

$66,990.73 Already Collected and Full Amount Is Assured.

That London purse strings are always open for a worthy cause is demonstrated beyond a doubt by the figures given at today's luncheon in the Red Cross House, when it was announced that $66,990.73 had already been collected in the Red Cross campaign for $75,000. In addition there is already more than $2,000 of the remainder in sight. The totals are going on, and they will not stop, they say, until the objective has been passed.

Women Good Givers.

One outstanding feature mentioned by several of the women captains was the fact that the women of the city are apparently more willing to give if that were possible than the men are. It was not hinted that any person is hanging back, but that the women are a little in the lead.

Mayor C. R. Somerville, the speaker of the day, assured his hearers that the citizens of London would not show themselves any less able to face difficult situations in connection with war than were the men in the trenches and willing to meet the hardships there. Telling some of the persons things which he had run across in the diary of his son, Lieut. Kenneth Somerville, which he had lately received, he pictured the needs of the Red Cross in the field.

Tribute to Women.

Paying tribute to the women, he said, that no class in Canada had done more for the boys in the front-line trenches than did the women.

"It is the highest ambition of Londoners to carry through this title matter for the Red Cross. We are going to show that we are worthy of the boys who reached their objective every time they went over the top or died in the attempt," he said.

Hon. Chairman M. Smart, in a few remarks, thanked the teams for their splendid work, and expressed the opinion that the objective would be reached and passed before the end of the campaign.

OVER THE TOP TODAY.

Over the top went the Red Cross campaign forces of 3,000 volunteers yesterday morning, the zero hour, banners flying, the Canadian Garrison Band and gaily playing. The top went the forces full of enthusiasm and determination.

MESSAGES FROM ALL PORTIONS OF WORLD TO MRS. ROOSEVELT

David Lloyd George and Italian King Cable Condolences.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Messages of condolence from all parts of the world continued to come to Mrs. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay today. Among those made public was one from David Lloyd George, the British premier, who cabled the following from London: "I am deeply shocked to have the news of your husband's death. I feel sure I speak for the British people when I tell you how much we all are grieved by the loss of a man whose life was a great and inspiring force far beyond his own country's shores, and the world is poorer for his loss."

A cablegram from King Emmanuel of Italy said:

"I wish to express to you my sympathy for your great grief over the death of your illustrious husband."

A movement to erect a monument here to commemorate the life and work of Theodore Roosevelt has been inaugurated by neighbors and friends of the former president, while at present is planned to include only those who have been citizens of the town and county in which Roosevelt made his home. It was said that the monument might be extended to become a national one, if it seemed to meet with public approval.

HUNDREDS KILLED IN STREET FIGHTING IN BERLIN BETWEEN SPARTACANS AND GOVT. TROOPS

Liebknecht's Followers Are Well Armed, But Government Appears To Be Master of Situation — Moving Picture Operators Film the Scenes of Sanguinary Fighting.

BOTH FACTIONS READY FOR FIGHT

Berlin, Tuesday, Jan. 7, 8 a.m.—(By the Associated Press).—The hosts of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, leader of the Spartacan group, engaged in an attempt to overthrow the Ebert Government, were beginning to move at this hour toward the Siegessäule, where notices in Die Freiheit, and the red flag had called upon them to assemble at 9 o'clock this morning.

The leading article in Die Freiheit called on the Spartacans to occupy strategic points in the city. On Monday evening they occupied the building of the general railway authority and are also holding the main telephone office. Twenty of their men were permitted by Government troops to enter the building of the minister of war, "in order to make sure that there might be no further shooting from it."

The night passed quietly, but it was feared this morning that the day would see much bloodshed. The Government troops are remaining loyal, but the Spartacans and the Independent Socialists appear resolutely determined to continue their attempt to overthrow the Government.

One of the Bolsheviki organs today published a rumor that Field Marshal von Hindenburg had reached Berlin.

London, Jan. 8.—Several hundred persons have been killed in the fighting in Berlin, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, but up until 11 o'clock this morning no details of conditions there had been received. The Government troops are reported to be in the city, at least provisionally, to be master of the situation.

Early Tuesday morning the Berlin Government massed troops outside the city. The troops are ready to enter, it is said, in the dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg is reported to have arrived in Berlin. Street fighting has been particularly sanguinary, it is said, owing to the fact that the Spartacan element has plenty of weapons taken from the munition factories at Spandau. While the machine guns were firing and bombs were dropping, moving picture operators were busily recording the scenes enacted in the streets. It was announced recently that the American army had sent moving picture operators to Berlin.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO NEGOTIATE WITH SPARTACAN ARMY

Copenhagen, Jan. 8.—Decision to use all military forces and to suppress the Spartacan movement was reached at a council of war held in Berlin by the central council of soldiers and workmen last night, side of the Government, the anti-official city by way of Frankfurt.

Gustav Noske, has been appointed commander of the front-line trenches, troops, which have been brought to the city.

GERMAN NEWSPAPERS SEND OUT CONFLICTING REPORTS OF REVOLUTION

Basle, Switzerland, Jan. 7, Tuesday.—The German semi-official Wolff Bureau, which was removed to Frankfurt when its Berlin office was seized by the Spartacans, sent out a message today declaring that the Berlin Soldiers' and Workmen's Council and the garrison of the city had placed themselves on the side of the Government.

The Frankfurt General Anzeiger, on the other hand, declares that the Spartacans continued today to occupy some of the public buildings. They easily gained control of the railways, the newspaper adds, and the employees ceased to run trains.

The dislocation of the telegraph service has prevented any further reports of what is now happening in Berlin getting through, but all the dispatches that have been received indicate that severe street fighting occurred on Tuesday.

The first encounters between the Government and the Spartacans occurred on Sunday in front of the Kaiserhof Hotel, where one person was killed and eight others were wounded. According to eyewitnesses, some of the troops turned against the Government and others refused to obey the Government's orders to recapture the quarter.

The Spartacans refused to offer the Government to negotiate, and the attacking the foreign office, the chancellor's office and other ministries on Monday, when eighteen persons are reported to have been killed.

The Spartacans, it was stated, were holding the royal stables and the police headquarters, where Police Chief Eichhorn, who was taken prisoner, was the latest trouble arose, when the large quantities of arms, while other troops in the Government building were captured when they seized the armaments and munitions at the headquarters. Gen. Groener, who was recently dismissed by the Government for alleged cowardice in the field, was said to have offered to occupy the capital with forty reliable divisions.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS ARE EQUIPPED WITH FLAME THROWERS

Berlin, Tuesday, Jan. 7.—(By the Associated Press).—(NooN).—At this hour the Spartacan forces are being massed at several places where weapons and armaments were being concentrated. The Wilhelmstrasse, the Government forces are awaiting an attack.

The Government troops have been posted on top of the Brandenburger gate adjoining buildings with machine guns. The troops in the Government buildings have been equipped with flame throwers.

BERLIN GOVT. CLAIMS TO HAVE SITUATION WELL UNDER CONTROL

Berlin, Monday, Jan. 6.—(By the Associated Press).—The Government feels tonight that it has the situation firmly in hand," was the statement made by the correspondent at the chancellery's palace, where the members of the Government had been in session throughout the day. Most tense excitement marked the day, which ended in short but sharp fighting in front of the palace shortly after 5 o'clock.

The Spartacans approached the Government troops guarding the palace, carrying a white flag, announcing that the palace was surrounded and demanding its surrender. The demand was refused. The Spartacans then opened fire, killing several. The fire was returned and killed and a large number wounded.

TROTZKY HAS LENINE PLACED UNDER ARREST

Bolshevik Minister of War Makes Himself Dictator.

Copenhagen, Jan. 8.—Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, has been arrested at the command of Leon Trotsky, minister of war and marine, who has made himself dictator, according to a Moscow dispatch to the Gothenburg (Sweden) Gazette.

Trotsky was prompted to make the arrest because of a difference of opinion with Lenin concerning Bolsheviki reforms, the dispatch states. Lenin desired to establish a dictatorship, while Trotsky wished to continue the reign of red terror.

SIMPLE SERVICES MARK FUNERAL OF ROOSEVELT

Less Than 500 Persons Present at Ceremony at Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Except for two or three absent soldiers in their uniforms, the end of the funeral of Theodore Roosevelt gathered in the living-room at Sagamore Hill shortly before noon today for the first of a series of simple services—at home, church and graveside—with which the body of the noted American was laid to rest as a private citizen of this Long Island village.

Mrs. Roosevelt, sharing in her husband's antipathy to funeral ceremonies, declined not to attend the church service, nor to join the procession to the cemetery.

The home service, one of prayer alone, was of hardly more than ten minutes, while the ritual before the altar was also brief. The element of simplicity followed even the funeral procession, which was a private affair.

The church service included the collection of the "How Firm a Foundation," recited by Rev. George E. Talbot, rector of Christ Church, the Episcopal church of the village.

After the church service, attended by less than 500 relatives, personal friends, political and literary associates of the former president, and representatives of the American and allied governments, the cortege moved to the cemetery, where the body was laid to rest in the crypt of the Roosevelt family.

9 PERSONS KILLED WHEN TRAPPED IN PITTSBURG FIRE

Spectacular Blaze Follows Explosion in Film Exchange Building.

Pittsburg, an. 8.—Nine persons are dead today and a score of others suffering from injuries as the result of a spectacular fire and explosion, which wrecked a film exchange building on Penn avenue late yesterday. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

Trapped by walls of flame, which turned the interior of the building, an eight-story brick structure, into a raging furnace, some of the victims, mostly women, were hurled from the building by the explosion, while others jumped from windows or were saved in thrilling rescues by firemen.

Investigations were begun by the coroner and police today to ascertain the cause of the fire.

SUPPORTERS OF MINISTER ADMONISHED ON CHARGE OF HERESY SPRING TO HIS DEFENCE, CONFRONTING ACCUSERS WITH CLAIMS OF REFUSING TO STAND BY PEDGES TO ACCEPT "NOT GUILTY" VERDICT

Petrolia Officials of Church Produce Documents Which Trace History of Case Through Trials and Seek To Prove His Innocence—Denial Made That He Subscribed to Confession—Witnesses Refused Hearing at One Church Court.

"The members of the official board and the congregation generally know full well that Dr. Knowles is not guilty of the heresy charges as charged by his Petrolia accusers."

The above statement was made to the members of the Petrolia Methodist Church, G. W. Thompson and J. R. Steadman, with regard to the report which appeared a few days ago of the verdict of "guilty of heresy" pronounced by the Petrolia church court.

Dr. Knowles has refused to make statements on his own behalf and thereby reopen the case. He has received the penalty exacted by the last court before which the case came up, and has taken the admonition administered.

The Official Desire.

According to Messrs. Thompson and Steadman, in refusing to make further statements, he is complying with the wishes of Methodist officials. He has been asked to make a statement, but he has refused to do so.

Like many of the ministerial brethren of the church, his congregation in Petrolia, almost to a unit, is of the opinion that a great and grave injustice has been done to their pastor. They believe that in the face of the evidence which has been given, the verdict of "guilty of heresy" is a gross injustice.

The statement has been given by the church court, but it is to be deeply regretted that the Methodist Church, by handling the case in this manner, has permitted itself to be used as a channel through which the complaints of the congregation have been made known to the public.

Moral Aspect of Case.

The signed document which we are submitting for publication gives the history of the various trials. Apart from the legal standpoint, we feel that there was a moral aspect in the last trial.

PUBLISHERS SAY PATRIOTIC GRANTS OF PAPER MAKERS WERE CHARGED AS PART OF "COSTS" OF PRODUCTION

Interesting Allegations As To the Methods Used To Boost Prices Are Contained in Printed Briefs Submitted at the Newspaper Inquiry Before the Paper Controller's Board.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—W. N. Tilley, counsel for the publishers, made his address before the paper controller tribunal today in the appeal against the price of 50¢ per ton fixed by Paper Controller Pringle for roll news. He charged that the paper mills, early in the Pringle inquiry, bolstered up their alleged costs of production by charging a profit on each process—a profit on the original timber, as though they were timber dealers; a profit on groundwood, as though they were selling groundwood; a profit on sulphite, as though they were vendors of sulphite to themselves; and then over all, a profit such as they considered proper for a concern in the newspaper. This system of arbitrary values," said Mr. Tilley, "was a result of the concerted action of the paper mills, but had gone so far as to exclude evidence pertinent to the inquiry because it threatened to indicate such a combine."

Mr. Tilley showed that Commissioner Pringle had not only declared that he would not probe into the possibility of a combine existing among Canadian paper mills, but had gone so far as to exclude evidence pertinent to the inquiry because it threatened to indicate such a combine.

Speaker of British House Will Decide Question When Parliament Meets.

London, Jan. 7.—The claim of the Labor party to be regarded as the opposition party in the House of Commons, and the success of William Adamson, the party's leader, in the elections, carries an important implication that the Labor party considers itself as being the official opposition to the Government. It is a tradition of parliament that the event of a defeat to the Government in Commons is the responsibility of the leader of the Opposition to form a new cabinet.

PLAIN TALKS ON INVESTMENTS

By Mark Harris

No man ever became wealthy by hard labor alone—a few by laboring hard two-thirds of a lifetime put aside enough to keep them from want, but the vast majority die poor.

Before any man can hope to attain ease and comfort in this world he must not only work, he must also learn to save and then to invest his savings.

Everybody with or without brains can work and save—that is providing they enjoy good health—but when it comes to investing that is a different matter and the ultimate result depends to a large extent on the amount of grey matter you have in your head.

In spite of all the arguments on the subject the truth is that there are mighty few investments in this world that can be truthfully described as "absolutely safe."

Aside from our Victory Bonds, which are backed by the entire resources of the country, I don't know of another security that I would care to recommend as an absolutely safe investment in the true sense of the word.

There are of course hundreds of stocks and bonds that are about as safe as anything can be, but still we must remember that even in the best there is a small element of chance.

This, however, should not discourage anyone from investing money, because the same thing applies to life itself and we all know that we take some chance every time we cross a street.

No one would think of staying indoors simply to avoid being hit by a street car, but if we did we would be taking a chance of having the roof cave in or of falling down stairs; so while we must take some chance when we invest money we can, by using good judgment, reduce it so that it is practically nil.

With the war practically over and with capital energetically seeking to develop the vast natural resources of Canada it is indeed an opportune moment for the man who has worked and saved to invest his funds.

What could be better or safer than an investment in a Canadian company that is actively engaged in developing some of nature's vast resources?

I don't know of anything better, and I don't think that the reader does either.

The one great industry that is still in its infancy in Canada is the oil industry and the man or woman who invests today in legitimate Canadian oil companies should reap a rich reward in the next decade.

The present is a particularly good time to invest your money in Canadian oil companies because under wartime restrictions which are still in force, it is impossible for any concern to offer its shares for public subscription without first submitting the proposition to the finance minister at Ottawa and thereby securing an official permit.

While this permit does not in any way constitute an approval of the stock, it is quite obvious that no fake company or wildcat scheme could secure such a license, and as this measure was enacted primarily to protect the small investor who is not familiar with finance it is the duty of all loyal Canadians to insist on a company having such a license before making a purchase.

During the past two years I have made a careful study of the Canadian oil industry and in my opinion it will rank second to none in the near future.

How rapidly a new industry is developed in Canada is fully illustrated by the official record of our gold production.

In 1910 there was produced in the entire Province of Ontario only $68,498.

In 1916 the total production of gold was exactly $10,339,259.

At the present time we depend to a great extent on the United States for our supplies of oil, but this condition may be reversed in the next few decades.

What has been done in gold can be repeated in oil, but this time I hope that Canadians instead of our neighbors will reap the reward.

I know of one Canadian oil company organized less than six months ago that has already made a wonderful record and the best part is yet to come as only a few hundred acres out of more than 19,000 have been developed.

You can share in the future prosperity of the Canadian oil industry in only one way and that is by securing a small interest in some of the legitimate companies that are going ahead and doing big things.

Drop me a card and let me send you full data regarding one such company that in my opinion represents opportunity in its rarest form.

This company is earning enough money from work already to pay shareholders regular dividends of 4½ per cent quarterly, and as the next dividend is due next month it is worth while acting quickly so you can share in this payment.

HAIG REVEALS TACTICS THAT WON THE WAR

Great Leader Describes How Tide Was Turned.

TENACITY WINS VICTORY

Historic Document Traces Events From April Last.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(British Wireless.)—An historic document, written by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, commander-in-chief of the British army, and published today, reveals the tactics that won the war. It deals with the operations of the British army from the end of April 1918, when the offensive was first launched, to the conclusion of the armistice.

The document opens with a recital of the situation when the British army had been forced to retreat from the tremendous German onslaught in the spring of 1918 and when the German forces on the western front outnumbered those of the Allies. It describes how the British army, under the leadership of Haig, managed to preserve its front and to launch a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

Tenacity Wins Victory. By an exhibition of wonderful tenacity, says the document, the British army preserved its front and launched a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

"The German army," Field Marshal Haig continues, "had made its effort and had failed. It was now the turn of the British army to make its effort. The British army, under the leadership of Haig, managed to preserve its front and to launch a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

"Fresh troops made available during the late spring and the early summer had been incorporated and trained. The British army was ready to take the offensive, while the American army was growing rapidly, and had already given convincing proof of the high fighting qualities of its soldiers."

From that time, Marshal Haig says, until the victorious conclusion of the armistice, the Allies never looked back. First came the onslaught which drove the Germans from their positions, then the planned positions, each in itself a tactical event fitting into the superb strategy conceived by the Allied command. Regarding the preparations for the attack at Amiens, the field marshal says:

"Instructions of a detailed character were issued to the formations concerned to make it appear that the British attack in Flanders was imminent. Canadian battalions were sent to the Kemmel front, where they were to be held in readiness for the attack. The British army, under the leadership of Haig, managed to preserve its front and to launch a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

Decisive Victory. The document then describes the decisive victory of the British army, which resulted in the final victory. It states that the British army, under the leadership of Haig, managed to preserve its front and to launch a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

Completely Filled. "The British army was completely filled with the spirit of the offensive," the document states. It describes how the British army, under the leadership of Haig, managed to preserve its front and to launch a counter-attack on the German forces, which resulted in the final victory.

While this permit does not in any way constitute an approval of the stock, it is quite obvious that no fake company or wildcat scheme could secure such a license, and as this measure was enacted primarily to protect the small investor who is not familiar with finance it is the duty of all loyal Canadians to insist on a company having such a license before making a purchase.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT MAJESTIC TODAY FOR THE LAST TIME

Capacity Audiences Witness
Excellent New Photoplay,
"Arizona."

ROBINSON DUO PLEASES

First-Class Program Will Be Repeated at Popular
Playhouse.

The splendid production of "Arizona," made by Douglas Fairbanks for Arcturion, which is attracting large audiences to the Majestic Theatre this week, is in every respect a most notable picture production. It is a somewhat different Fairbanks story, but as a dashing cavalry lieutenant, Mr. Fairbanks does some startling riding feats and other athletic stunts which render his portrayal most enjoyable.

Efficient support is given by Marjorie Daw, Kathleen Kirkham, Theodore Roberts, Frank Campeau, Kate Price, Raymond Hatton and others.

Marjorie Daw plays "Bonita" and Miss Kirkham is seen as "Estrella." Both these parts have been played by famous actresses on the stage, and Misses Daw and Kirkham feel highly complimented at being selected to play these roles respectively in the screen production.

"Lieut. Denton," a part admirably suited to his dashing personality, Theodore Roberts plays "Candy"; Frederick Burton, "Col. Bonham"; Frank Campeau, "Kellar"; and Raymond Hatton, "Tony."

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, in "His Hotel Mik-Uh," comes again to the Majestic tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

HEROES IN CONVALESCENT HOSPITAL TELL OF RED CROSS KINDNESS; KEPT FIGHTERS FROM BECOMING DESPONDENT

Society Seems To Anticipate the Needs of the Suffering, Declares Two Pals Who Enlisted Together, Fought Together, and Are Now Suffering Together in Hospital.

Just what the Canadian Red Cross has meant to thousands of wounded Canadians during the four and a half years of war will probably never be fully appreciated, except by those men who have come under its ministrations. Several sick war-torn veterans are now passing through the convalescent stage at the military convalescent hospital at the Advertiser's office, and a representative of The Advertiser thought a visit to the hospital offered a good opportunity to learn how they looked upon the organization which is now appealing for the necessary funds to carry on its work, which cannot cease until every Canadian has returned to Canada.

Most of these men are not talkative on any subject, and their experiences overseas are among the things that they wish to forget, but once they can be started on the subject of the Red Cross they are never equivocal in the terms in which they express their admiration for the society.

Helped This Veteran.
Corp. Albert Gedde, a veteran of the 71st Battalion, who was severely wounded in the shoulder during the fighting on the Somme front, and who has undergone operation after operation, performed with the object of relieving the suffering of the men in the hospital, which was shattered by shrapnel.

Two boys, Ptes. E. Steels and J. Boyle, who enlisted together in the 12th Battalion, and who went together to the 1st Battalion in France after "London's Own" was broken up in England, were found sharing the same room at the hospital. The latter, with a smashed hip joint, the result of a wound received at Hill 70, can get around only with the aid of crutches, while the former, although one leg is an artificial one, looks almost normal in his gait. Both of these boys have known what it was to lie and suffer in hospitals in France and England, and both of them gave generous tribute to the Red Cross in the way of grateful praise for what that society did for them.

"The Red Cross looked after us in every possible way," said Boyle. "The official visitors of the society came to see us several times a week; our relatives were kept informed regularly every month of the progress we were making, and if there was anything we wanted in the way of extra comforts or little luxuries we had only to ask for them."

"It wasn't even necessary to ask usually," put in Steels. "Fruit in dainty baskets, cigars, cigarettes, chocolates and dainties of all kinds were sent to us or brought to us by the Red Cross regularly, and we never wanted for anything that the Red Cross could procure for us. On the hospital ship coming back to Canada it was the same thing. Every day there was an issue of cigarettes, and I tell you that alone is a mighty big thing to a wounded soldier who is still an invalid. I can't say too much about what I owe to the Red Cross."
