Our Glorious Regiment.

W. Beach Thomas' Glowing Tribute—"Straight Through to Their Objective and Beyond"

Hon. J. R. Bennett, Minister of Militia, received the following message this morning:—
The following passage from Beach Thomas' dispatch to "Daily Mail," October 11th:
"Gallant body of Newfoundland Troops, to whom Empire owes great debt, went straight through to their final objective, some 3,000 yards from where they had started, and, not content with that, pushed out beyond in the direction of the forest."
This refers to recent engagement. Other similar references in London Press.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR THE BOYS.

London Daily Express: When Christmas comes again every British soldier will surely have a little symbol of our goodwill, of our gratitude, of our love for his quiet courage and matter-of-fact heroism. On every front the war is full of horrors which the soldier will not talk about, and the civilian cannot know. Our fighting men are living through veritable nightmares and preserving their souls and their sanity. Every parcel for remembrance that goes to France, to Flanders, to Egypt, to Salonika, to wherever the great war is waged, is a bit of England which restores the memory of homes and gardens, of kith and kin. There is nothing perhaps intrinsically romantic about a British Christmas dinner as regards its ingredients; but there is something infinitely human in the memory that it brings of former years with dear ones round the feast.

The Law of Supply and Demand.

Los Angeles Times: War does not destroy the laws of supply and demand, or suspend their operation. There is no law that will compel the farmer to cultivate his acres if the prices he can obtain for their product is not sufficiently remunerative. Those laws are as eternal and inexorable as the everlasting reason of which they are the expression. Disaster follows upon disobedience and in the great post-mortem laboratory of history we find that there is a pathology of States as well as of men, a science with laws which may be interpreted and understood and the non-observance of which will be sure to bring disaster.

Salt for Bay St. George

Halifax, Oct. 6.—The schooner Mattawa is ready to sail from Parquhar's wharf with a full load of salt for Bay St. George, Newfoundland.
The schooner M. M. Gardner, completed loading flour at Deepwater yesterday for St. John's, Newfoundland, taking 1,195 barrels and will likely sail today. Although the cars with the flour for the schooner Araminta's cargo for St. John's are on the pier beside the vessel none of the shipment had been delivered to the vessel up to yesterday due, it is said, to the bill of lading not showing up. Other schooners at Deepwater to load flour for Newfoundland are the Hawanee, for Grand Bank; Nellie Moulton, for Burgeo; Laetitia Francis, Minnie M. Cook and Francis W. Smith for St. John's.
Schooner Douglas Adams, Captain J. N. Pettipas, has reached her destination on the Labrador coast from Halifax. She took a load of salt from here and put into Curling, Newfoundland, en route.
Schooner Earl Grey, Captain John McLeod, arrived at Curling, Newfoundland, the first of the week from a United States port with a cargo of gasoline and kerosene, of which she discharged at Channell. She is not coming to Halifax this trip, but will load salt cod for Gloucester.
Yesterday's outgoing express left Millertown Junction at 8.30 a.m. today.

Great Loss by Fire At Benoit's Cove.

On Friday last, the large stores of T. Basha & Sons, at Benoit's Cove were completely destroyed by fire, shortly after one o'clock; fire started in the western store. Elias and Simon Basha, together with all the men who were working on the premises at the time, did everything possible to save the store and contents, but their efforts were of no avail as the fire spread rapidly, and in a very short time the eastern store caught. A strong westerly wind was blowing at the time causing the fire to spread rapidly.

It was impossible to enter any of the buildings to attempt to remove the large stock of herring barrels and stock for the coming fishery. The fire spread to the wharf and was only checked after considerable damage had been done.

It was found necessary to cut the schr. Ida O. Campbell adrift as she would have been destroyed if she had been left at the wharf.

At three o'clock nothing remained of the fine stores, the pride of their owners, and the finest throughout the Bay.

The fire was caused by sparks from the chimney in the western store falling on the roof and was not discovered until the larger part of the roof was in flames.

The loss to Messrs. Basha is a most severe one and occurred at the worst possible time. Full preparations had been made for the herring fishery on a larger scale than before and their entire stocks of barrels, lumber, iron and birch hoops, staves and heading were in the buildings as well as the stock for their premises at Middle Arm.

The loss will be felt keenly by the fishermen of the Bay in the coming herring fishery, as they always found the Basha firm ready purchasers of their catch, and the loss to the people of Benoit's Cove, who secured constant employment from Elias Basha will be most severe.

The loss is estimated at $25,000.00, about $3,000.00 of which is covered by insurance with the Guardian Assurance Co. through the local agent B. D. Lilly.

We understand it is the intention of Messrs. Basha to rebuild immediately and we trust it will not be long before this enterprising firm will be as well situated to carry on their rapidly increasing business as formerly. —Western Star, Oct. 10.

TO THE PEOPLE OF Newfoundland!

In your own interest and the interest of the Empire and of our Allies it is necessary to advise you that it is now officially known that the amount of wheat available for export from the United States and Canada will be FOUR HUNDRED MILLION bushels SHORT of the requirements of the Allied Nations and of the supply that must be set aside for Neutral peoples.

That this shortage is a vital menace to the well-being of even the United States is apparent by the appeal to all Americans, recently issued by the Food Administration Board of that Country, asking that a pound of meal or flour, of other grains, or of potato flour, be substituted for a pound of wheat flour weekly per head, so as to reduce the consumption of wheat flour weekly per head from five pounds—which is the average consumption—to four pounds.

If the necessity for this reduction is forced upon the people of the United States, it is evident that a grave need for even a greater economy exists here.

It is quite within our power the present year to reduce the consumption of flour very materially by substituting other cereals, and especially by utilising to a greater extent than previously the bountiful potato crop of this season. This may be done in many acceptable ways that will be specially referred to through the Press.

We have cheerfully made sacrifices since the outbreak of the War in the interests of the Empire and of the weaker Nations, and now we must not hesitate to take this precaution to protect ourselves from a serious shortage in the future.

By doing so we will not alone assure this protection but we will help to ensure the requisite supply for Our Boys, whose valor at the Front is winning Glory and a Reputation for this Country and its people that will live for all time.

Let us, therefore, pledge ourselves to economise in flour and thus aid those fighting for and with us to win the War.

W. E. DAVIDSON,
Governor.
W. F. LLOYD,
Acting Prime Minister.

To-Morrow Morning's Ceremony.

On to-morrow morning, the Feast of St. Edward, there will take place at the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square, a triple ceremony. At nine o'clock His Grace, the Archbishop will set in place the corner stone of the new building attached to the Convent; immediately afterwards he will celebrate the first Mass in the Oratory of the Immaculate Conception. During the Holy Sacrifice six young ladies will be received to the Holy Profession, consecrating themselves henceforth through the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience, to the service of God as Presentation Nuns. His Lordship Bishop Power will be the preacher on the occasion.

AT THE CRESCENT.

To-day the Crescent Picture Palace presents Webster Campbell and Anna Mae Walthall, the great Essanay Stars, in "The Five Dollar Bill," a special Black Cat feature; Helen Gibson in a thrilling episode of the "Hazards of Helen" railroad series, entitled "A Mile a Minute"; the popular G. M. Anderson in a strong drama of western life, "Broncho Billy and the Posse"; and the fantastic comedy team, Kate Price and Babe Hardy, in "The Love Bags," a lively Vm Comedy. Professor McCarthy plays a special musical program for this big week end variety show; don't miss seeing it.

Pithy Pars.

In a long and fatiguing march the tall men in the Army usually fall out first or succumb to campaigning, unless, as is very rarely the case, they have well-kept and symmetrical frames. A soldier between 5 ft. 5 ins. and 5 ft. 8 in. or 9 ins. is usually the man most capable of bearing the strain of life.

The National Museum of Copenhagen possesses a rare collection of musical instruments belonging to the prehistoric age of bronze. These instruments are a species of bronze trumpets called "lurs." They were discovered in the middle of the eighteenth century in several parts of Denmark, and they are so well preserved that they can be utilised musically. They have an extension of twenty-two tones, and contain four and a half octaves.

Short sight is more common in towns than amongst country folk, for the simple reason that townspeople have less need for long sight; they have fewer opportunities for exercising their sight on distant objects, and their occupations do not favour its development by training or selection; but it is not, in the majority of cases, a proof of physical degeneracy.

A Faithful Servant.

Uncle Sam Interns Ninety Dangerous Hunns for the Duration of the War.

Were Employees of the Factory Where One of the Most Destructive Engines of War Yet Evolved by American Genius Was Being Perfected — Theft of Plans and Finished Parts.

New York, October 4.—To-day safely interned on Ellis Island for the duration of the war are ninety-odd Germans who are believed to possess a mechanical secret of vital importance to this country and, therefore, one of extreme interest to Germany.

That is the net result of the joint activities of the Navy department and police headquarters in greater New York during the last twenty-four hours. Enemy aliens are going to fro again, albeit uneasily, with and without permits, in the "barred zones."

What moved the government to act was the theft by German spies of the plans and finished parts of one of the most destructive engines of war that has been evolved by American genius. All the Germans arrested were either employees of the factory where the invention is being perfected or Germans who were the associates of these same employees.

In the homes of many of the men taken were found blue print plans of the invention, which was supposed to be jealously guarded. Its inventor and the government believed it would play a big part in deciding the war. In some of the homes raided were found the finished parts of the important invention. Manuscripts in German and English, some of them in code, were also found.

On these code experts from the United States navy were working all day yesterday. One room in police headquarters where the Germans were detained until they were interned yesterday on Ellis Island was set aside for documents seized by the raiders.

Several weeks ago, The Tribune learned yesterday, the Government received information that German spies were occupying confidential positions in the factory where the invention on the part of secret service agents developed the fact that the place was honey-combed with Germans—natives of Germany and still loyal subjects of the Kaiser.

Three of the biggest executive positions in the plant were held by Germans. One of the chiefs of the drafting department was a German subject. Another German subject was foreman of one of the machine shops. Still another German subject was one of the aids of the general superintendent of the plant.

According to The Tribune's informant, when government agents called the attention of one of the directors of the plant to the fact that many German subjects were employed under him and suggested that there might be German spies among them, the director in question was incensed that any one would assume to suggest that any of his employees could be disloyal.

He said he knew he had Germans working in the plant, that they had worked faithfully, and he did not for a moment doubt their loyalty, not only to their employers, but to the country in which they were living.

After this conference the government through the intelligence department of the navy department and the department of justice, working in conjunction with the New York city police department, began to construct their trap.

The trap was a simple one. It merely entailed the employment in this plant of loyal Americans, some of German birth. These loyal employees got themselves into the confidence of German spies working in the plant, some of whom confessed that they had purchased the blue-prints showing the invention in detail. Others confessed they had at their homes parts of the invention.

LOOK!

If you were told of a new discovery for the treatment of coughs, colds and bronchitis, as certain in its action on all chest troubles as anti-toxin is on diphtheria, or vaccination on small-pox, wouldn't you like giving it a trial?

Peps is the discovery!

Peps are little tablets, containing certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapour, and are at once breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence their work of healing.

FREE TRIAL Cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 10c stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps, 50c. box.

been ordered by Washington Wednesday night, at least two detectives were assigned, in some instances three were told to get their quarry.

The instructions given each detective were substantially: "Hans Schmidt lives at 9 Black Street. If he isn't home, he will be found at Braun's saloon or Myers' beer garden. He is an enemy alien. Arrest him. Use whatever force is necessary. Look especially for blue prints, maps and all sorts of documents. Seize all you find. Search all furniture that may be used as places of concealment. Rip up carpets. Examine mattresses, ticks, pillows and anything else that might be used as a hiding-place for papers. Seize all pieces of machinery and tools. If there is a safe in the house, one of you men stand guard over it until it is removed by you or some other officer known to you."

orary assignment of pay, equivalent to the difference between the Separation Allowance and such payment, but not exceeding 15 days pay of rank (Working pay and field allowance excluded), of the officer or soldier, may be put into effect against the officer or soldier.

(a) Where the wife is separated from her husband as above and is living apart from the children and is not charged with their care, Separation Allowance, or Assigned Pay or a portion thereof, subject to any valid claim of the wife by virtue of Separation Agreement or Judicial Decree, may be issued to the Guardian of the children.

(b) If the wife has been separated from her husband by Separation Agreement or Judicial Decree, and it does not appear that the husband is absolved from supporting her, and if the wife furnish a satisfactory explanation for not having obtained a judgment for alimony, Separation Allowance may be issued to the wife.

30. Where the wife is separated from her husband not by virtue of a written Separation Agreement or Judicial Decree, and the wife for a reasonable time prior to the enlistment of the officer or soldier, was separated from him and was not in receipt of any payment from him, no issue of Separation Allowance will be made.

31. A mother whose husband is, through physical or mental disability, entirely incapacitated, from earning a living, will be treated as a widowed mother, and granted the allowance provided the officer or soldier prior to enlistment was or subsequent to enlistment has become her sole support, and the officer or soldier is unmarried within the meaning of Para. 10.

(a) Any material improvement in the financial condition of a mother receiving the Allowance as a widowed mother, must be at once communicated to the officer issuing Separation Allowance and Assigned Pay, and the withholding of such information whereby payments have been obtained, shall be deemed to constitute fraudulent action.

32. If otherwise eligible, a widowed mother dependent on two unmarried sons, one of whom has enlisted in the Force, will be entitled to the Allowance when the remaining son enlists; and a widow with three or more unmarried sons, on whom she is dependent, will be entitled to the Allowance when a third son has enlisted.

33. The Allowance of a widowed mother will cease on her re-marriage, or upon the marriage of her son, in respect of whom the Allowance has been granted.

34. The Allowance may be granted for such adopted children of an officer or soldier as are, in the case of boys, under the age of sixteen, and in the case of girls, under the age of seventeen, provided such children have been regularly supported by the officer or soldier.

Section 7.—Procedure for Making Claims — On Enlistment.

35. On appointment, every officer, and on enlistment, every soldier, claiming separation allowance for a dependent shall report to the Paymaster of his unit and fill out a Separation Allowance and Assigned Pay Card. All applications for the Allowance on the grounds of "Sole support" and as "Guardian" must be accompanied by a Statutory declaration and such other documentary evidence as may be required to substantiate the claim.

36. A soldier who has a dependent but considers such dependent not eligible for Separation Allowance under these Regulations will be required to deliver to the Paymaster of his Unit, a statement under oath of the reason why he considers such dependent not eligible for the Allowance. Otherwise if such dependent will make a claim for Separation Allowance it will be taken for granted that the officer or soldier knows no valid reason why the allowance should not be granted and a compulsory assignment put into force against him.

37. Where the claim for Separation Allowance under Para. 35 is refused as inadmissible, the amount of pay assigned by the soldier will be paid to the person named, unless it appears that the soldier has a dependent eligible for Separation Allowance, in which case the Separation Allowance may be granted to such dependent and an assignment may be put into force against the soldier in favor of such dependent. In such cases the soldier will be informed of what action has been taken by the department and a similar notification will be sent to the dependents concerned.

Claims After Enlistment.

38. An officer or soldier intending to marry must inform his paymaster of his intention to marry a sufficient time in advance of the marriage, to allow steps to be taken to discontinue the issue of any Separation Allowance or Assigned Pay previously authorized for another dependent on his account. He will at the same time, state whether any such issue of Separation Allowance or Assigned Pay has been authorized; and if so, to whom.

In such cases, if Separation Allowance or Assigned Pay has previously been authorized for another dependent, the paymaster will at once take steps to have it discontinued. The issue to the wife shall not commence until the issue to the other dependent has ceased, which should be at the end of the month in which the marriage has taken place.

39. As soon as the marriage has taken place, upon the production to the paymaster of the marriage certificate, a notification showing the date and the place of the marriage, and the wife's full name and address, will appear in Part II, Orders, and a Separation Allowance and Assigned Pay Card will be completed by the officer or soldier and delivered to the paymaster. The latter will satisfy himself that the wife of the soldier is of a good character before any action in respect of payment is taken. If there is any doubt in the matter, the fullest enquiry is to be made by the paymaster, and a report sent to the officer issuing the Separation Allowance and Assigned Pay.

40. An officer or soldier who has not, on enlistment, claimed Separation Allowance for a dependent may afterwards submit a claim through his paymaster.

41. In cases of dependents other than wives and legitimate children, unless the application for Separation Allowance is made within thirty (30) days of appointment or enlistment, no arrears of the Allowance will be issued for the period prior to application.

Valuable Animal in Our Midst.

The public despatch last night brought a very interesting item from Kentucky, that "Real Lady," 3 years old had taken a new world's trotting record, covering the mile in 2.08 (2 minutes and 8 seconds). "Real Lady" is half-sister to Howard Mann, 2:17, imported this Spring for breeding purposes. Farmers and horse owners should feel charmed at having access to so royally bred an animal as Howard Mann. The actual photographs of "Real Lady," her owner, driver, and owner's wife are in the hands of one of the city horsemen.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Pike, Tuesday afternoon, at 3.30 o'clock when their daughter, Jessie May, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Arthur Pretty, engineer with the Reid Nfd. Co. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Royle. The bride looked charming in a gown of cream satin and wore a veil of embroidered net and a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Fred. McKay, who wore a gown of pale blue silk with black picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Hayward Pike. Both were recipients of many valuable and handsome presents. After the ceremony refreshments were partaken of. The happy couple drove to Waterford Bridge where they entrained for Keligrews where the honeymoon will be spent. The many friends of the bride and groom wish them bon voyage over the matrimonial sea of life.

Council Meeting.

At that night's meeting of the City Council the Colonial Secretary wrote in reply to the Council's protest against granting rights to any parties for control of the waters of Mobile River. The Council's protest will be submitted to the Executive Government.

The Reid Co. wrote accepting the Council's water rates at 7 cents per 1,000 gallons, for use in the cold storage plant. The company also request the service be anti-freezing. The Engineer will consult with the company's representative.

W. J. Ellis forwarded plans for proposed additions to the Court House building. The Council while approving of the plans should have been furnished with them before the work was commenced.

Soper and Halley's plans to erect buildings on Franklin Avenue were not approved of as there is no water or sewerage in the street.

In relation to the Small Homes Act the Council will only give permission to persons whose financial circumstances do not permit them to go on with the work.

Mayor Gosling referred to the Social Service Congress which visited the city during the week, and spoke of the visitors as men who knew much and were willing to spread broadcast what they knew. If the people accept their practical teaching they could not have other than beneficial results. The visitors were men who had devoted the best years of their life to uplifting suffering humanity and with the gain of everyday experience had a perfect knowledge of the subject on which they spoke. The Mayor asked to be put on record as appreciating their work.

The full Board approved of the Mayor's appreciation of the work of the Congress.

Obituary.

Among the gallant lads of our Regiment who have fallen recently is No. 2417, Pte. Charlie Sharpe. Severely wounded on Aug. 18th, he died in hospital the next day. Pte. Sharpe was born on Bally Haly Farm, St. John's, twenty-two years ago; but his boyhood was spent mainly at Terra Nova, where his father was for many years section foreman. Living a life close to nature as he did, Charlie grew a fine, manly lad. He joined the colours on April 3rd, 1916, and was sent to France in the following October, there making the supreme sacrifice after nearly a year of active service. Pte. Sharpe was one of our best type of soldier. Quick, intelligent and obedient he could at all times be depended on to do that which was required of him. He was equally popular with his comrades. To Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe and family, now of Heart's Delight, we tender our deep sympathy in their great sorrow. While grieving for the loss of a dear son and brother they have this consolation that he died that we might live. Another son, Bert, is also in France since July 1916. He is a gunner with the Canadian forces. Previous to August last these brothers had hard to meet whilst in France, but unfortunately they did not succeed.

Wedding Bells.

In the presence of their immediate friends at the Methodist parsonage, New Glasgow, on October 5th, 1917, a very pretty wedding ceremony was performed, when Mr. Henry Clarence Rowse and Miss Mary Jane Wiseman, both of St. John's, Newfoundland, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. B. J. Porter, the happy couple motored to Trenton, where in their own comfortably furnished home they will reside.

Infectious Disease.

Two cases of diphtheria and two of Scarlet fever were reported to the Health Authorities within the past week. There are now at the Fever Hospital 11 diphtheria, 4 scarlet and 5 typhoid patients. There are no cases of infantile paralysis in the city at present and comparatively few in the outports.

DIES AT INSANE ASYLUM.—A male patient of the Insane Asylum, who formerly belonged to Griquet, French Shore, died at the Asylum yesterday. The remains were given in charge of Undertaker S. G. Collier, who enclosed the body in a handsome casket at the request of the relatives of the deceased. The body will be placed on board the s.s. Fogota and sent to his late home.

SOLDIERS AT THEATRE.—A large number of returned soldiers and boys who are now in training were treated to a free show at the Nickel theatre yesterday, through the kindness of Manager Kieley. The pictures included the Nfd. soldiers at Barry and were much enjoyed.

A COLLISION.—A collision occurred on Water Street near Ayro & Sons premises last night between a motor car and a horse and carriage. As a result the animal was severely cut and had to be attended by a veterinary surgeon. The owner of the team is taking action against the motor man for damages.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR SKIN

An eminent specialist tells us that if only one-seventh of our skin were destroyed death would follow. It is obvious, therefore, that a diseased condition of even a small portion of the body's covering has injurious effects upon the health. Hence the necessity for keeping the skin free from disease, and for this purpose there is nothing so suitable as Zam-Buk.

Immediately a Sore, a Rash or any skin trouble makes its appearance it should receive prompt treatment with Zam-Buk. This rare herbal balm destroys all germs as soon as applied and prevents the disease spreading. Then Zam-Buk grows new tissue, which replaces the diseased, and the skin is quickly restored to health.

Zam-Buk contains absolutely none of the coarse animal fat or mineral drugs found in ordinary ointments, which invariably irritate and inflame and sometimes even poison the part they are intended to soothe and heal.

Speaking of Zam-Buk, the famous English Chemist, W. L. Roscoe, says: "I have analysed Zam-Buk and find it exclusively of vegetable origin. I have no hesitation in certifying its purity and value for skin diseases and injuries."

Zam-Buk is found in the homes of the best people of the Dominion today, because of its unique composition, and once tried its reliability establishes it as their household balm for a lifetime.

Zam-Buk is unequalled for eczema, ringworm, running sores, abscesses, ulcers, boils, bad legs, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. All dealers for Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send this advertisement and 1c. stamp (for postage) and free trial box will be sent you.

Social Service Congress

Closing Session Yesterday Morning. Rev. J. R. Saint, President of the Methodist Conference, occupied the chair at the final meeting of the Social Service Congress yesterday morning. He stated that the purpose of the meeting was to adopt in practical form some of the principles expounded during the Congress. The following resolutions were thereupon unanimously adopted.

Be it resolved,—That in the opinion of this Congress it is advisable, in order that the health of the city may be benefited, that full powers should be given to the Municipal Council (1) To deal with congested areas and unsanitary and dilapidated houses; (2) to employ and appoint a medical officer whose duty shall be to oversee and safeguard the health of the city;

Further Resolved,—It being understood that powers as indicated above have been drafted in a Bill which is now before the Legislature;

Be it Resolved,—That the Legislature be requested to deal with the matter at its next session.

Be it Resolved,—(1) We believe the laws of Newfoundland should be so amended as to make adultery a crime; (2) we believe much immorality would be prevented if parents and others, in charge of children, would teach them sex hygiene before their minds have been poisoned with untrue and impure ideas on this subject, and furthermore, we urge upon parents and others in charge of children, careful supervision of their play, their companions, and where they spend their evenings; (3) we request the Government of Newfoundland to enact legislation which will provide institutional oversight for delinquent girls;

Be it Resolved,—That we recommend the passing of a law in favour of compulsory education in Newfoundland;

Be it Resolved,—That we recommend a social survey be made of the city of St. John's;

Be it Resolved,—That this Congress places on record its unequalled approval of the principles of the "single standard" in morals, and pledges itself to make every possible endeavour, such as the circulation of literature on the subject, to create a sound public opinion in regard to the principle;

Be it Resolved,—(a) Recognizing the value of the service which is being rendered the Colony by our various orphanages we recommend that the community give them adequate support in view of the increased cost of maintenance;

respectfully requests the Government to have a Children's Protective Law enacted providing for the proper care of neglected, dependent and delinquent children.

That the Congress earnestly calls upon the Government and Legislature to make adequate provision for the care of the defectives and especially the defective females of child-bearing age.

(c) We recommend the development of the plan of placing out children in family homes, provided that adequate provision be established;

(d) We recommend such provision for delinquent boys as shall make it unnecessary to commit them to the penitentiary.

7.—Be it Resolved,—That the Congress highly appreciates the generous and hearty manner in which the press has reported the proceedings of the sessions. The press has ably cooperated with the Social Council in its work, for which the Council is thankful.

8.—Be it Resolved,—That the Congress place on record its high appreciation of the services of the visiting team of speakers—Canon Tucker, Dr. Shearer, Dr. Moore, Dr. Hart, Alex. Johnson, Esq. Their visit has been attended with great success and blessing is bound to follow to our Island Home.

9.—For the generous use of the Presbyterian Hall, the Canon Wood Hall, and the Methodist College Hall, the Congress is deeply grateful.

10.—Be it Resolved,—That we do now initiate a Social Service Council for Newfoundland. That we adopt the same constitution as that used by the Canadian Council. The following Officers and Council were appointed:—
Hon. Presidents—The Archbishop of St. John's; the Bishop of Newfoundland; the President of the Methodist Conference.
President—Rev. Canon Smart.
Vice-Presidents—One to be elected by each body represented in the Council.
Secretary—Rev. Gordon Dickie, M.A.
Treasurer—Hon. Dr. Robinson.
Committee—Representatives from each body represented on the Council.

An Anniversary.

Who can read the message cabled to-day to the Minister of Militia, containing Beach Thomas' tribute to the Regiment, without feeling his pulse quicken and his breath come faster? Even the pardonable pride we all have in our Regiment seems inadequate: it has ever to be increased to some new and glorious standard which these brave men set. A year ago to-day Gueudecourt was fought, Beaumont Hamel was re-taken, fresh laurels were won and, alas! many gallant men gave their lives to win them. The Regiment has kept its own anniversary. And yet it is necessary to keep calling for recruits to fill its ranks! The Regiment is our glory—shall it be our shame to show ourselves unworthy of it?

Fat Without Fear of Indigestion or Sour, Acid Stomach

Instant relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" ends your stomach trouble forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated— just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

American Vessel Total Wreck.

A large American schooner called the Amos Rockwell ran ashore at Cape English, St. Mary's Bay, yesterday during thick fog. She was a new vessel of about 450 tons register and was bound to a European port from a United States port with a cargo of machine oil when she met with mishap. The captain and crew landed safely and the vessel is a total wreck. The people of the shore are now engaged salvaging the cargo, as the schooner is well in the Bay on the rocks.

Everyday Etiquette.

"Would it be proper to have place cards for a dinner to only six guests?" asked Mrs. Newlywed.

"By all means. They not only avoid confusion but, if bright and unique, help to start conversation," answered her mother-in-law.

POLICE COURT.—Not a solitary prisoner appeared in court to-day. Judge Morris was occupied hearing civil cases.

Shadows Before.

What is transpiring, what is brewing over there in Europe? Not in the regular course of things that we know, the ebb and flow of battles, retreats, sinkings of ships, political shifts and changes, ministerial speeches, and all the other usual ingredients of the farrago we call "war news"—what is there, underneath all these things and different from them, of more than ordinary moment, breaking out here and there in surface indications and filling the air with a sort of electric surcharge and men's minds with a sense of the imminence of tremendous events? For that sense is there; it is known that tremendous events are certain sooner or later—are they at hand? Let us recount a few of the latest of these surface indications that we speak of and see if they justify any expectations out of the ordinary.

The purely military situation presents its most striking feature in Haig's drive in Flanders. The combined forces there are driving ahead with a courage and determination that allow no interruption to the operations except by obstacles that are absolutely insurmountable. They are driving ahead in the face of most unfavourable conditions at a not very favourable time of year, which grows less propitious every day. They would not do this if they did not feel certain of one thing—that it is possible for them to achieve, before winter, a success which will be of transcendent importance, a success similar to that which crowned the battle of the Somme but many times more valuable. There is no need to discuss here all the possibilities that Haig has in view; the general aspects of the situation are easily comprehended. The point to notice is the almost feverish earnestness of the attack he is steadily pushing home.

The other military event that contributes to the importance of the whole present position is the course of the Italian campaign. The essence of it may be expressed in one sentence—General Cadorna seems unmistakably to be aiming past Mount San Gabriele rather than at it. This may appear a trivial way to epitomize what is really a great war in itself, but in reality it has a world of meaning. If Cadorna aimed at Trieste and Italy alone he would rapidly concentrate his great striking power on this formidable defence, the outwork of the defences to the peninsula. Instead, he appears to be leaving it alone, and to be striking down the Chiapovano valley. That valley leads to Laibach; at Laibach, experts say, the war can be won. If it is reached it will be by the splitting asunder of the Austrian army, and that would leave the way open to Vienna. Here again the purpose and the time are to be considered together: Cadorna seems to think he can gain his object, or bring it within his grasp, before winter.

These are the two outstanding features of the military situation. A number of other things supply eloquent commentary. The past three or four weeks have witnessed a very great curtailing of the submarine successes to Germany's credit. There is strong likelihood that Arthur Pollen's surmise is correct, that the mutiny in the German navy, only now made known to the outside world in hints that give only suggestions of its real magnitude, was connected with the submarine war. Germany is short of underwater crews. She is impressing men who have no desire to be impressed. The incident is encouraging as showing the growing failure of the sub. war itself, still more as reflecting the spread of discontent in Germany. It is no small matter that actual mutiny should occur, in either service, and that it should spread its influences far enough to involve party discord and cleavage in the Reichstag. There is something also in the greater emphasis given everywhere to naval matters, generally. The Germans' hold on the Belgian coast is slipping from their grasp. It is being loosened on land; there has been more than idle talk of destroying it from sea. The New York Herald's startling message may be more than a newspaper story; it may be an exaggerated description of imminent events or a premature announcement of the actual truth. There is at any rate reason to believe that there will be "something doing" in the North Sea before long, more considerable than mine trawling and patrol skirmishes.

Finally, there is something peculiarly agitated in the behaviour of the Central Powers. They are talking peace, offering peace, reviling their enemies and quarrelling among themselves over peace. The one thing common to all their talk is the evident desire for peace and unmistakable alarm over the future. Austria cries out before she is struck; we will have peace, she says, but not at any price. It is a new thing that she should entertain the possibility of her enemies demanding terms which would represent peace "at any price" to her. Germany is willing to give up northern France and Belgium; that much is certain in spite of the pan-Germans. Here again it is not what these people say but the fact and the manner of their saying it that matters. The Allies have not suggested peace; they have not initiated peace discussions. They are busy with something more important. Lloyd George the other day was occupied with "urgent matters affecting the Entente." The commanders-in-chief in the field and in State council have been holding conference. Even Kerensky is now able to visit military headquarters. General Maude won a great victory last week. Bulgaria yesterday reported an attack by the Entente forces on the Dorian front after an all-day bombardment. All this and much more is the Allies' peace talk. Germany hears it in spite of the noise she is making herself. The impression conveyed by it all is that something—we do not know what, but something big—is going to happen and that it is going to happen soon.

The members of the Presentation Convent Association are invited to be present at the ceremony of opening the new building on Saturday, the 13th inst., at 9 a.m. The regular meeting of the Association will be held on Sunday, at 3.30 p.m., in the Convent. MARGARET FURLONG, Secretary.—Oct 12, 11

Auto Drops Down Elevator Shaft.

One of the strangest mishaps that could befall a motorist was reported to the Gray-Dort factory, at Chatham, the other day, Mr. P. G. Sills, who related this experience is Manager of the Premier Lumber Co. of Vancouver, wholesale dealers in Pacific Coast products.

"I had driven my Gray-Dort car," his letter says, "for over a hundred miles that day, and strange to say, had only three or four feet still to go when the accident happened. I was driving aboard the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer "Prince Rupert" at Victoria. On the steamer there is an elevator on a level with the main deck used for shipping to the lower hold;
I had driven on the elevator, and had the two front wheels on the deck on the further side, suddenly without any warning whatever, the elevator gave way, and I went down backwards right to the bottom of the ship, past two decks—a drop I should think of about 25 or 26 feet. The car did not turn over backward as might have been expected with the weight of the engine uppermost, but just dropped straight down and remained standing perpendicular, that is, resting only on the spare tire at the rear, with all four wheels in the air. It was quite novel, I assure you, to sit in the seat, hanging on to the wheel and gazing right straight up through to where all the anxious faces were peering down into the darkness of the hold of the ship, where the car was resting.

The car sustained no more serious injury, as I have discovered yet, than to have the mud guard bent down and the top rod broken.

They raised the car with a block and tackle during the trip, and I drove it off the ship."

A Blow at Austria's Heart.

General Cadorna's latest move contemplates isolating Monte San Gabriele and passing on, it is no wonder that the Austrians are frantically rushing troops from France, Galicia, and Bukovina to stop him at all costs to the other front. For such a move on his part would mean nothing less than an intention to smash the Austrian army before the Winter weather begins. Heretofore, alarmed as the Austrians were by his successes, they have doubtless been confident that he could do no more than master the Bainsizza before cold weather. That would be bad enough, but the Austrian Army would be in no positive danger before next Spring, and many things might happen in the Winter. The peace negotiations that are now being so skillfully organized by Austria and Germany, not for the purpose of bringing about peace so much as for the purpose of confusing the Allies and building a pacifist backfire on them, might be calculated on by Teuton optimists to be working havoc with Cadorna's plans by April.

But if Cadorna means to isolate Monte San Gabriele, it means that he intends to be in the Chiapovano Valley while there is still good fighting weather. The Bainsizza Plateau is the last obstacle to that valley.
Once he gets into it, he can turn and crush the Austrians to the south or to the north, he can drive a wedge between the two wings that will place them at his mercy. That done, he could drive them toward Vienna. His entrance into the Chiapovano Valley would mean that his arm was raised for a blow at the heart of Austria-Hungary.

The Austrians, though they have seen his object well enough for the last two months, counted on the Bainsizza Plateau to keep him busy until cold weather. He has got most of it in his possession, but he has still to make his way over the remainder and down over the side of the plateau into the valley. The whole Austrian effort has been concentrated on holding what is left of the plateau, so as to keep him out of the fatal valley until Spring. Monte San Gabriele has been the greatest obstacle.

But now Cadorna is manifesting a disposition to leave the mountain behind him instead of taking it. Since he could doubtless take it if he were willing to spend enough time in the enterprise, this apparent intention can mean only that time is important to him; in other words, that he means to get into the valley at once, regardless of Monte San Gabriele. That means that his contemplated effort to destroy the Austrian Army is scheduled not for next Spring, but for this Fall. Germany and Austria are "alarmed," the despatches say. They would be excusable if they were panic-stricken.—N. Y. Times.

Egotism or Embarrassment?

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

Did you ever in your life hear anyone so egotistic?" said the Author's Wife. "Do not you mean so self-conscious and embarrassed?" suggested the Lady, whose I was a s-knows-some in e-how. A woman whom we know but casually had, been talking to us and in answer to some simple question she had poured forth an astonishing stream of information about herself. It did sound egotistical for her to think we should be interested in the personal affairs of one we knew so casually, and yet when I stopped to think of it in the light of my own experience, I could heartily endorse the Lady's kind correction.

When One is Intoxicated. There are two classes of occasions when one is apt to make a fool of oneself by talking too much about oneself. One is when one is embarrassed by being with people one does not feel at ease with. The other is when one is intoxicated (do not shudder at that implication, friend reader. I do not mean only the kind of intoxication that comes from drinking things but the many, many kinds to which we are all subject; the intoxication of praise, of success, of excitement, of stimulating society, etc.).

There are some people (luckily constituted I call them) who just naturally shut up when they are shy and embarrassed. On other people, embarrassment has exactly the opposite effect. They can think of nothing to say and so they say things without thinking. Instead of becoming silent they become noisy and ad-gery. The nervous laugh is one of the sure symptoms of embarrassment. I sat There Like A Goop. Just the other day I had an interview with a woman with whom I never met at ease. I had something important to tell her and, sitting alone, with her attentively listening, I was telling it, but when, that was over, my self-consciousness came back to me, and instead of rising and leaving promptly I sat there like a goop and talked about myself; not because she wanted to hear me. But simply because I was too nervous to make a quick and graceful get-away.

Pleasant To Remember. Do not be too quick to condemn anyone who talks about himself, unless that person is you. And then do not condemn the person—merely the habit. Make up your mind that when you are nervous and embarrassed you will keep still, hold yourself in leash, until you can say something appropriate and intelligent. It's harder to do at the time but much easier to look back on afterwards.

are capable of when the elastic has not been lost out of them. The neck of the puglist is also well supplied with muscles, but these do not run very far up into the head. We should all aim to be muscular without becoming growly, for we may encounter a second wife who refuses to do all the work. The man with bulging muscles like a champion wrestler in evening dress is respected and feared, both at home and abroad. There would be more male bosses of the family hearthstone if every husband would swing Indian clubs and toss iron dumbbells two hours a day.

The jaw muscles of the average man are somewhat under-developed, as a rule, as he is usually kept in a cowed state and not allowed to mingle in the conversation in the gay, jubilant and unrestrained manner peculiar to the denigrating gender. Specialists in diseases of the jaw bone tell us that if man were permitted to use these muscles more his general health would be improved and his teeth would last longer.

A striking instance of the fierce and fatal competition which goes on amongst plants is found in the case of the Brazil nut. Strange Freaks in Nature. Starting and almost incredible as the assertion may appear to some, it is none the less a fact, established beyond all question by the aid of the microscope, that some of the most gigantic mountain ranges, such as the mighty Andes, towering into space 25,250 feet above the level of the sea, as also the massive limestone rocks, the sand that covers the boundless deserts and the soil of many wide-extended plains, are principally composed of portions of invisible animals.

CANADA'S UNION GOVERNMENT.

HALIFAX, Oct. 11. A Union Government has been formed. F. B. Carvel, who is an eastern Liberal, is to enter the Cabinet of Sir Robert Borden. The breakdown of the telegraphic service on account of the storm prevents full details, but western Liberals will probably be Sirton, Crerar, Ballantyne, Mowburn, Clark and Guthrie.

REUTERS' CORRESPONDENT TELEGRAPHS.

LONDON, Oct. 11. Telegraphing yesterday evening, Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters says: Although the achievements of Tuesday are not as complete as might be hoped, they amount to a great victory and the tactical result is of major importance. The Home divisions and Australians again covered themselves with glory, with the gallant Newfoundlanders whose achievements were superb. A Lancashire territorial division received its baptism of fire. Its task was to advance over the most exposed and sodden ground without any tangible guide to their objectives. After passing through Reutal with slight opposition, they encountered the enemy in force in a cemetery flanking the right hand of Zwaanhook Road. The enemy was hiding in cannon flayed trenches covered with brushwood, and with concealed rifle and machine platforms they offered a stubborn fight.

ON THE BRITISH FRONT.

LONDON, Oct. 10. South of Poperclappe the British early pushed through to a depth of a hundred yards or more, but owing mainly to the awful condition of the ground were forced to withdraw somewhat from the most advanced positions they had taken in this region. The infantry had to cross the Kerboterbok and Stroombek Rivers, and the ground in the neighborhood of these streams was of the worst possible description. The British advanced their line toward the German position which was thickly held here. As they struggled forward in the deep mire, their barrage somewhat outdistanced them, and the Germans rushed from those pill-boxes which had escaped the shells and poured a heavy machine gun fire into the advanced line. The Germans counter attacked almost immediately, and the British withdrew slightly. Numbers of Germans holding the forward positions in this zone were shot down by their own machine guns which had been barraging the whole area from the rear. The British troops here were also continually harassed from sniping from shell holes and from platforms built in the few remaining trees. West of Passchandaele the British troops had crossed Revebeke River, and here as in other places the men often were up to their necks in mud and water. The main advantage secured in this section was the establishment of a line on the German side of the river. It is reported that in the early rush some few of the British even entered Passchandaele, but if they did they were adventurers who went beyond their objective and did not remain. Hard fighting was encountered in a few places. The assured gain in this sector appears to be from about four hundred to seven hundred yards in depth. In small portions in the Reutal and Polderhook region the fighting was still continuing to-day, and about Polderhook Chateau which the Germans appeared to hold. Reutel was taken over yesterday by English troops. The ruins of the hamlet apparently were not occupied by the Germans, but the latter made a stiff fight with machine guns in the Juniper Wood to the south. A large number of Germans hidden in trenches covered with screens were attacked with rifle and bayonet and either killed or captured. The ground here was indescribably bad, but the British were never short of food or ammunition because of poor communications. Rifles played a prominent part in this attack.

NOT ALLOWED TO LAND.

A PACIFIC PORT, Oct. 11. The Dutch steamer Cranje arrived to-day from the Orient with a large number of German and Austrian diplomats aboard. It was reported that Government officials headed by secret service officers boarded the vessel. No mail was allowed to land and all information was withheld. None of the passengers were permitted to land.

NO CHANGE ON FRONT.

British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Oct. 11.—The situation along the battlefield underwent no change during the night. There was heavy artillery fighting at various points, but no infantry actions of importance. It rained hard for a time again last night. At the time the despatch was filed the sky was clear but the air was cold, adding to the discomfort of the troops. The recent operations in Flanders have brought many congratulatory messages to the British. Field Marshal Haig has issued an order of the day, containing a number of despatches received on Oct. 5 and the replies sent to them. General J. J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, telegraphed: "Permit me to extend sincere congratulations to you and your magnificent army in the recent gains at Ypres. They give striking answer to weak-kneed peace propaganda." Haig sent this answer: "I wish to thank you very heartily on behalf of the British army under my command for your most kind telegram. We look forward to the day when the American armies will join us on the western front, and we are confident the Allies so re-inforced will fight the war to an early and decisive issue."

BERLIN OFFICIAL.

BERLIN, Oct. 11. To-day's official statement reads: Lively and disturbing fire at many points on the front increased at times on the Roumanian plain, and near Brailza which was bombarded by the Russians. In reprisal our batteries fired on Gallatz, causing conflagrations.

There has been activity in the narrow strip between Lakes Ochrida and Presha in the bend of the Cerna, and between Vardar and Lake Dorian. Enemy reconnoitering detachments which advanced many times were driven back.

CONVICTED AND SENTENCED.

AIKEN, S.C., Oct. 11. Paul Wiersa, editorial writer of the Charleston, S.C. American, and Capt. K. Lattenhoff of the German steamer Libenfels were convicted in the Federal Court to-day of conspiring to sink a ship in Charleston Harbor. They were sentenced to two years in the Federal prison at Atlanta and pay a fine of $1,000 and costs each.

QUIET ON ITALIAN FRONT.

ROME, Oct. 11. To-day's war office statement on military operations reads: On the whole front there were no important events.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 11. The official issued to-day by the war office reads: In the Riga section the enemy artillery bombarded our advanced posts north of Pakloff high road. In Timeraugi sector, south of this road, the Germans under cover of a strong artillery fire consisting of chemical shells attacked and pressed back some of our companies. Measures have been taken to restore the position. In Liuwonoff, east of Jacostadt, enemy attacks were renewed. Fraternization and meetings with our soldiers have been observed on the western, southwestern and Roumanian fronts. There have been fusillades and scouting.

NEW YORK AGAIN VICTORS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11. The New York Nationals battered their way to victory over the Chicago Americans here to-day by a score of 5 to 1. As a result of the second defeat of the White Sox in two days the Giants are now even.

THE MUTINY IN THE GERMAN FLEET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11. Arthur Pollen, a famous writer of naval affairs, says: Two significant facts about the mutiny in Germany are, first, that the mutiny is in the fleet and not in the army, and next it took place six weeks ago. It was something less than six weeks that there occurred a turn in the tide of the submarine war. One is immediately faced with the question what is the connection if any between the mutiny and the decline in the submarine successes? To answer this question we have to go back to the spring of 1915 when the submarine war against trading ships was proclaimed. The underwater service in the German navy was made extremely popular first by the promise of success and the prospect of honors and decorations to those who distinguished themselves, secondly, by the very high rate of pay offered to those volunteering for the service. Thirdly by the promise of prize money for each ship sunk. From February, 1915, till September the same year there was no lack of volunteers, but in August and September measures taken by the British Admiralty began to be effective and the losses to German subs. were formidable. Just how many boats were sunk has never been published; but it was a very high proportion, probably exceeding 50 per cent. of those at the disposal of the German navy in this period, and the fact of these losses could not be concealed from the German personnel. The result was that volunteering fell off and it became necessary to draft men from the fleet at Kiel into the submarine service.

SAILOR ORGANIZATIONS.

BERNE, Oct. 11. A naturalized American citizen of Berne, who escaped to Switzerland from a German seaport in order to escape military service, as the Germans refused to recognize the legality of his naturalization, declared to the Associated Press yesterday that the events to which Admiral Von Capelle referred in his Reichstag speech, included the sailor organizations on many ships which dismounted and threw guns overboard, assaulted off-cers and refused to obey orders. The mutineers, he said, were quickly checked and the majority of them shot.

NEW SCOTTISH PEERS.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 11. Baron Fairfax of Cameron, who formerly resided in New York, the Earl of Lindsay and Lord Forbes were yesterday elected by the Scottish peers to sit and vote in the House of Lords.

CONSPIRATORS ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11. Three men charged with conspiring to blow up ships in New York Harbor in 1916, were arrested here last night by members of the bomb squad. The prisoners are Eugene Riester, restaurant proprietor, Joseph Zeffer, printer, and Walter Uda, lithographer. Uda never has been naturalized; the others are American citizens.

SOCIALISTS TURNED DOWN.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11. A despatch from Berlin says the motion made by the Independent Socialists in the Reichstag censuring the government and expressing the view that the treatment of their party's interpellation concerning the propaganda in the army, did not meet with the views of the Reichstag, met with defeat, the Social Democrat parties alone voting for it.

THE JUNKER VIEW.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11. Those guilty of complicity in the plot to paralyze the German navy through mutinies should be handled with iron severity, says the Rheinische Westphalische Zeitung, of Essen; they are liable to the death penalty. Thank God, Liebknecht, the German Socialist leader, now in prison, was properly dealt with, and in the present case there can only be similar action.

Separate Peace With France was Bernstorff Idea.

Tried to Work It While in the United States Through Bolo Pasha.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Count von Bernstorff, while German Ambassador to the United States, was the arch conspirator in the plot to buy a separate peace between France and Germany through Bolo Pasha, the renegade Frenchman now jailed in Paris as a traitor and German spy.

Von Bernstorff caused the German Government to transmit to the United States a credit of $2,250,000 with which to finance the reasonable activities of Bolo Pasha. The plot was to undermine the French Government's opposition to peace, beginning with the corruption of certain French newspapers.

These revelations were made yesterday by the Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, who reached into the Bernstorff pigeon-hole of his desk and drew forth a series of cablegrams that passed between the German ambassador and Herr von Jagow, German Foreign Minister, in regard to the Bolo Pasha plot.

Mr. Lansing declined to say how he came into possession of the telegrams, but the assumption is that they were deciphered with the aid of a German code book. Mr. Lansing is positive that the messages were not transmitted by wireless, for all messages sent and received by Bernstorff by wireless were censored by the State Department.

The messages, therefore, must have been transmitted by the British cable lines, and they could not have passed the British censors unless they were sent in the guise of the official business of a neutral nation, as in the instance of the German secret messages transmitted from Mexico City and Buenos Ayres by Swedish envoys.

Bolo Pasha was in New York when the French peace plot was broached to von Bernstorff by a trusty go-between after Bernstorff had procured the huge slush fund from Berlin. Bolo transferred the money to France by a clever series of financial manipulations and then returned to Paris to begin the corruption of French newspapers as a foundation for spreading the German propaganda.

Whether any of the slush fund was expended in this country is not disclosed. It is known, however, that the German Government transferred a total of $8,000,000 to Bolo Pasha to do the underhand work of the Kaiser abroad.

That Count von Bernstorff had an early hand in the Bolo Pasha plot is

The Position of Holland Railway Passenger Car

There will be no half-way measures in the dealings of the United States Government with Holland relating to the shipment of American foodstuffs to that European neutral.

Holland, from the beginning of the war in 1914 until the embargo proclamation went into effect in July of this year, had been feeding German soldiers with American food. The enormous growth of our export trade with Holland early indicated that she was importing much larger quantities of grain than her own people needed. The agreement between the Landbouw Export Bureau and the Deutsche Handelsstelle in Haag, concluded in 1916, provided for the transfer of a huge proportion of Holland's own produce and her exports to Germany. The Germans demanded 75 per cent. of all the Dutch exports of butter, vegetables, eggs and fruit, half the exports of flax, and as much of all kinds of meats as the total of such exports to all other countries. Holland agreed to supply the amounts demanded. Dutch cattle were fattened on American fodder to supply Germany with fat.

In fact, the northern neutrals had been feeding the whole German Army on the western front. Last Sunday The Times printed in full a translation of the agreement between Holland and Germany. No loyal American who reads that document will fail to approve the detention under the embargo of eighty-four Dutch ships, aggregating 250,000 tons, laden with foodstuffs, of which the greater part, if the vessels were released, would go to Germany, directly or indirectly. While the Dutch-German agreement remains in force, American foods, fodder and dairy products will be withheld from Holland and the other European neutrals who have been feeding Germany. The Dutch Mission now in this country will be unable to justify the agreement.

Foodstuffs to supply Holland's own needs may be released if an understanding can be established. It is possible that many of the ships of Holland and other northern European countries now tied up in our waters might be used to relieve vessels of the United States and its allies employed on trade routes not within the zone of war. This might be agreed to as a concession for the release of certain quantities of foodstuffs, but the further provisioning of Germany is out of the question.—N. Y. Times.

disclosed by the telegram of earliest date made public by Mr. Lansing. The Ambassador had satisfied himself that Pasha could be trusted to handle the peace manoeuvring in France, and lost no time in asking von Jagow to finance the undertaking. His message to the German Minister of Foreign Affairs follows:

Message to Von Jagow.
"Number 679, February twenty-sixth. I have received direct information from an entirely trustworthy source concerning a political action in one of the enemy countries which would bring about a peace. One of the leading political personalities of the country in question is seeking a loan of one million seven hundred thousand dollars in New York, for which security will be given. It was forbidden to give this name in writing.

"The affair seems to me to be of the greatest possible importance. Can the money be provided at once in New York? That the intermediary will keep the matter secret is entirely certain." Request (answer by telegram, a verbal reply will follow as soon as a trustworthy person can be found to bring it to Germany.)

(Signed) BERNSTORFF.
Von Jagow thought that it would be worth while investing $1,700,000 in peace propaganda in England and France. He did not know that von Bernstorff was referring to France, so he warned him against expending the money in Russia where $1,700,000 would not be enough, or in Italy where the sun would be extravagant.

Pithy Pars.

The "life plant" is a species of creeping moss found in the West Indies. It is absolutely indestructible by any means except immersion in boiling water or the application of a red-hot iron. It may be cut and divided in any manner, and the smallest shreds will throw out roots, stony and form buds.

A medical journal says that in the continued use of the eyes in such work as sewing, typewriting, book-keeping, reading, and studying, the saving-point is looking up from the work at short intervals and looking around the room. This practised every ten or fifteen minutes relieves the muscular tension, rests the eyes, and makes the blood supply much better.

The ancient Mexicans used wooden swords in war that they might not kill their enemies.
Tobacco seeds are so minute that a thimbleful will furnish enough plants for an acre of ground.
Grey horses are the longest lived, and cream-coloured ones are the most delicate, being unable to stand very warm weather.

Imagine a prominent member of the Opposition in the House of Commons addressing the Speaker of that Chamber in like fashion! Suspension, the sergeant-at-arms, and the clock-tower would be the resources of Mr. Speaker. But the Lord Chancellor had to submit meekly to the rebuke, for the Peer was constitutionally right. The Chancellor sits apart, indeed, on that solemn institution the Woolsack—a species of ottoman with a cushioned back-rest sticking up in the middle—but he is little more than a superior kind of Clerk to the House.

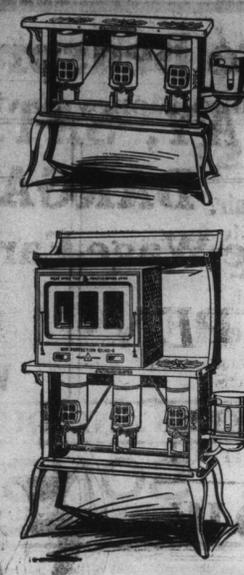

A speaker ignores the Chancellor in addressing the House. He simply prefaces his speech with "My Lords." The Chancellor has, however, some compensations. It would generally surprise the House of Commons were the Speaker to descend from his chair and proceed to denounce the Opposition in a strong party speech. But it is not unusual for the Speaker in the Upper House to rise from the woolsack and deliver a strong partisan harangue. He is, in fact, invariably a member of the Cabinet, and is under no obligation to put aside his political views.

SNOW SQUALLS ON LABRADOR.—A marconigram received at the Marine and Fisheries Department states that a N. E. wind with snow squalls raged along several points of the Labrador coast yesterday.

OUR VOLUNTEERS.—Recruiting continues to be slack. Those in training, now are becoming very proficient in drill. Yesterday a section was engaged at indoor exercises. Another section were at the South Side rifle range where they are making good as marksmen.

HARDY'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

Householders! Patrons!

Lend us your ears. We come to bury the old-fashion Coal Burner Cooking Stove and not to praise it. The evil it has done will live after it has gone.

But the story of the noble Oil Cooker has not yet half been told.

Yesterday the word "Oil Cooker" might not have moved the world, but to-day it stands a foremost factor in the homes of the earth and an economic household necessity.

Ask the host of Oil Cooker users about it, and they will with one united voice proclaim "It is a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Let the whole community hear this testimony and buy now.

It saves time and fuel. It is clean and easily operated. It requires no kindling wood and there is no ash, cinder or broken stones to be removed. It's a Perfection.

See them in our window. Come in and we will show you how they are worked.

"Chucked" Into Generalship

(From the Providence Journal.)
Gen. Bailoud, commanding part of the French expeditionary forces in the Balkans, is so popular with his men that nearly every good story originating in his corps is either about him or attributed to him. The latest anecdote going the rounds tells how a soldier of the rough-and-ready style was returning to quarters near Monastir with a water jug in each hand. Coming across another mud-stained "pollu" sitting beside the road, he halted him:

"Hello, old man."
"Hello," replied the other.
"Say, can't you carry one of these jugs for me?"
"Sure," and they went on together.
"Would you believe it," said the first soldier, "they chucked me into the grade of corporal."
"What of that," replied the other,

"didn't they chuck me into the grade of General?"
After nearly dropping his jug, the soldier drew closer and made out three faint stars on a mud-stained sleeve. He drew himself up at attention and saluted.
"Walk on, Corporal," said General Bailoud, who wouldn't consent to give up his jug.

Happy 'Cause We're Doing Good.

We are making BIG profits for our 328 clients and for ourselves, and the MORE we make for them, the more we make ourselves, while the GREATER our profits are, necessarily, the GREATER must be our clients' profits. Ponder that statement. This Company cannot make money unless our clients make BIG MONEY.

328 active clients are not enough for an organization able to cater to 1,000. Consequently we want 500 by Christmas and 1,000 by Spring. You will be our client if you have the human desire to MAKE BIG PROFITS. We can "deliver the goods", and while doing so are well able to GUARANTEE THE SAFETY OF YOUR MONEY.

William Frew,

Prisoners of War in Germany.

The following regulations, governing the regulating and despatch of parcels and money to Prisoners of War in Germany are published for the information of the public. The Newfoundland War Contingent Association is appointed by the Central Prisoners of War Committee to handle all matters pertaining to the forwarding of parcels and money to Newfoundland P. of W. in Germany.

The N. W. C. A. forward a regular supply from London to Germany as follows:—

(a) Food. Three parcels per man per fortnight containing such things as tinned beef, tinned salmon, biscuits, milk, sugar, margarine, dripping, baked beans, carbolic soap, chocolate, cigarettes, tobacco, and a few toilet necessities.

(b) Clothing. The following outfit is sent periodically to N. C. O's and men in Germany by the Pay and Record Office: 1 great coat, 1 jacket, 1 pair trousers, 1 cap (the foregoing is a special uniform for P. of W.), 1 pair of drawers (woollen), 1 undervest (woollen), 2 towels, 3 handkerchiefs, 1 pr. boots.

(c) Money. It is inadvisable to send money, unless P. of W. ask for it. The amount which may be sent is Two Shillings per week for any one man. The Army Council have instructed the Central P. of W. Committee to the effect that they may not accept gifts of foodstuffs or clothing from members of the public, whether for despatch to a particular P. of W. or as a contribution to the general stock of the Association. This instruction has arisen through an arrangement with the German Authorities that all parcels forwarded should be packed and forwarded by the association.

Relatives may rest assured that everything possible is being done in London for the comfort and welfare of Prisoners of War in Germany.

Minister of Militia.
