DRESS and MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End.
To the Ladies:
We have during the past two years contemplated the establishment of a Dress Making Department, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge, has, up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so.
We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured in person of Miss Morrison, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect. Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and fitter in one of the leading Fashionable Dress making Establishments in the City of Toronto.
Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities.
Orders for these departments will be received on and after Monday next, the 4th of May.

Town and County News.

IT IS FUNNY, these beautiful summer evenings, to see a couple of lovers shake hands with their mouths across the gate.

MUSIC TO-NIGHT—Lawrence's Silver Cornet Band will play at 8 o'clock. Market Square. To begin at 8 o'clock.

"BOW BELLS."—Bow Bells, with the latest English fashions, and other magazines at Anderson's.

ACCIDENT AT A RAISING—Mr. Daniel Martin, on Thursday, got his leg broken in two places as he was assisting in the raising of a barn on Mr. C. C. Green's farm in Arthur.

NORTH WELLINGTON FAIR SHOW—The Directors of this Society have decided to hold their Fall Show at Arthur on Wednesday and Thursday, 1st and 2nd of October. About $700 will be offered in prizes.

DUST, DUST—Plenty of it flying around to-day—thicker than the crowd of Saturday night pedestrians and more abominable than the grocers' boxes and barrels on the side walk—There is only one alternative—either your eyes or your mouth full.

THE TIMES—We have received the prospectus of The Times, a new semi-weekly paper to be published in the town of St. Thomas by Mr. J. Wilkinson, formerly of the Guelph Daily Advertiser and Hamilton Morning Standard. The first number is to be issued on the 25th inst. It is to be a 28 column newspaper.

MALICIOUS ACT—Some heartless wretches entered the premises of Peter Morgan, of Guelph Township, during the early part of last month, and partially castrated a fine bull, which was grazing in the field. Mr. Morgan is on the look-out for the perpetrators, and if he should find them we hope he will punish them as severely as the law allows.

BANK FOR HARRISTON—The Tribune says that as the Hon. Mr. Patton, of Toronto, was on his way home from Wingham he stopped at Harriston and proposed to establish an agency of the St. Lawrence Bank at that place provided the village took $25,000 worth of the bank stock. After a short discussion the stock-book was opened and $14,000 taken, and there is a good prospect of the remainder being subscribed.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—On Wednesday evening last, a little child, son of Mr. W. D. Mitchell, met with a painful accident. He had been left in his father's shop by his mother while she stepped into another store for a few minutes. The little fellow opened the door and went out into the street, where a team of horses were standing, and while going past them, one of the horses kicked him in the face, breaking his upper jaw.

THE WEATHER—Another storm passed over last night. The continued drought is becoming serious. Crops and vegetables of all kinds are withering, especially as the weather is so exceedingly warm. Yesterday our thermometer went up to 100° in the sun; we knew, however, without that evidence that it was warm, and every man we met reminded us of the heat, but also raises clouds of dust—bringing happiness in one hand and misery in the other. O dear, oh me! what have we to suffer!

RENEWAL—On Thursday at Leslie's Corner, Eramosa Road, Mr. Walter got out of his buggy to quell a dog-fight, when his horses took fright and started off at rapid pace. In coming through the Beaver Mead the buggy—a covered one—was upset, throwing out a young girl, resulting in a sprained wrist and a cut on her head, though nothing serious. The horses being loose went on at a fearful rate and were suddenly stopped in their mad career by running against a fence near to the "House of the Moor." The buggy was badly damaged.

DIDN'T CARE WHO HE GOT—Some reckless thief who did not care a cent what he got hold of as long as he stole it, went into a boarding-house in town late last night and seeing nothing to gratify his preference for "filthy lucre," conceived an immoderate appetite, and forthwith laid in a stock of ham and gingerbread sufficient to last a week, and left without paying for the same. The relief committee is after him for they feel assured if he ate half he took he must be very much in need of relief.

FIRST ARREST—Jeremiah Conners had the honor (?) of being the first one arrested by the new policemen since they got their "swell" clothes on. Jerry mistook them for some of the "upper ten" aristocrats and did not object in the least to being seen in their company, but when they put him into the lock-up didn't he forget his good manners and say they were an awful kind of a sell.

SUDDEN DEATH IN HESPELER—Peter Quirnbach, an old man, died very suddenly on Thursday, the 19th inst. He had not been well for a day or two, and on Thursday morning he started for Dr. McIntyre's office, and got as far as Mr. Brewster's residence; but could go no further, becoming so weak that he was forced to support himself by holding on to the pickets. Mr. Brewster, who was out in the yard at the time, noticed him, but thought he was looking at the garden, and did not pay much attention until he saw him fall, he then went to him, and with the assistance of Constable Fields, carried him to a neighbouring parson. Drs. McIntyre and Swan were immediately called. It was of no avail, the man was dying, and in twenty minutes was a corpse. Cause of his death apoplexy.—M. H. W. Hespeler.

LECTURE ON MANITOBA—The Rev. Prof. Bryce will deliver a lecture in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening next the 24th inst. on Manitoba as a field for emigration. We are sure the lecture will be well worth hearing, and trust Prof. Bryce will have a good audience. A collection will be taken up at the close to defray expenses, and in aid of higher education in Manitoba.

ECCLESIASTICAL—The following are the stations of the Wesleyan ministers in the Guelph District:—Guelph, I. B. Howard; Georgetown, M. Swan; Acton, J. Dochstader; Garafaxa, G. McNameara, D. Batehen; Rockwood, P. W. Jones; Elora, J. Briggs; G. Sobram; Elmira, William Mills; Ferris, R. Fowler, M. D.; Peel, William Hayhurst, W. Henderson; Drayton, R. J. Forman, H. Berry, A. Healy; Galt, J. Clarkson; Washington, S. Tucker; Berlin, C. Cookman; Listowel, J. Scott, J. Armstrong; Harrison, F. Reynolds; J. Edmunds; Millbank, K. Smith; Arthur, R. Phillips; Mount Forest, J. E. Cobb; Wellesley, J. Deacon, I. B. Howard, Chairman; J. Briggs, Financial Secretary.

Local and Other Items.

DOMINION DAY IN DENNAS—Dominion Day is to be celebrated in the Valley City with great spirit. The list of prizes offered for the day amounts to nearly $300, and they anticipate a large turn-out of visitors.

EREMIC—The trustees of the Ancestral Public School closed that institution on Monday last, until further notice, in consequence of the prevalence of two contagious diseases—the measles and the whooping cough in the neighborhood.

CONTRACT LET—The contract for the erection of an extensive addition to the "Boys' Home" at Galt was let on Thursday last. The new building will be some sixty feet in length by thirty in width, two stories in height, and will cost fully $3,000.

BROKE HIS LEG—Mr. Fulton Smith of Galt met with an accident on Saturday 14th inst., whereby his leg was broken just above the ankle. He was driving along the road in company with two other gentlemen when the horses ran away and Mr. Smith was thrown out and received the injury above mentioned.

THERE was lately a fashionable wedding in a western city, and the reporter, speaking of the fair creature, remarked that "the profusion and color of her hair would lead one to look upon it as though it was spun by the nimble fingers of the bright June days, whose many sunny rays of light had been caught in the meshes, and were contented to go no further." This is better than saying the girl's hair was red.

OSCAR II. crowned "King of Sweden and also of the Goths and Vandals," will embark at Trondjem in the St. Olaf frigate, the largest ship of the Norwegian navy, to visit North Cape, the most northerly point in Europe. No king has been there since Christian IV of Denmark and Norway, who was interested in building up trade and fisheries in that quarter 250 years ago. On the 18th of July King Oscar will receive the Norwegian crown at Trondjem.

HAMILTON & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY—An influential deputation from the villages of Watendown, Kilbride and Cumminsville had an interview with the Directors of the H. & Northwestern Railway on Wednesday afternoon. Thos. Stock, Esq., Warden of the County of Wentworth, Messrs. Green & Robson, of Watendown, Mr. Thompson, of Cumminsville, Mr. McNab, of Kilbride, and others, urged the importance of running the line via Watendown. It was intimated that East and West Flamboro' would grant liberal aid to the road if it was run by this route. After an interchange of views, it was decided to have a preliminary survey made.

HAD RECEIVED at the Golden Lion—Chance & Williamson's noted cheap store—one case of Jovins' two-buttoned best gloves in all shades and sizes. The best glove made at $1.25.

ANOTHER—A man named Thomas Conners drank a pint of whiskey at Cobourg, on Thursday, and fell asleep. A coroner subsequently visited the body.

The Wheat Crop.
Death of Horace F. Clark.
Weather.

London, June 20th, 6 a.m.—A party of farmers from the south of England sailed yesterday for America. They intend to settle in Minnesota.

The Shah of Persia will visit the Queen at Windsor to-day.

A special despatch from Madrid to the Daily News says the Conservatives in the Cortes are seeking to revive the project for the establishment of a unitarian republic, with Marañon Serrano as President.

San Francisco, June 18.—Last compiled returns of the wheat crop show the estimated yield to be over thirteen millions of a surplus for export, fully as large as last year.

New York, June 20.—The city was startled by the announcement that Horace F. Clark, President of the Lake Shore & U. P. R. R. Company, and son-in-law of Commodore Vanderbilt, died in this city yesterday of rheumatism of the heart.

Weather oppressively warm this morning.

POLICE COURT.
Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. J. Friday, June 20.
Jeremiah Conners was charged with vagrancy. Committed to jail for two months.

Execution of Mrs. Workman for the Murder of her Husband.
The unfortunate woman Mrs. Workman, who it may be remembered, was tried in connection with the negro, Samuel Butler, for causing the death of her husband in Mooretown last winter, and convicted, while the negro escaped from want of sufficient evidence, suffered the last dread penalty of the law in Sarum, on Thursday.

A large portion of the community looked upon the death of Workman as the result of a drunken quarrel rather than as a premeditated murder. A good deal of sympathy was manifested for the culprit, and strenuous efforts were made to have the death penalty commuted. The Executive, however, failed to perceive such mitigating circumstances in her case as might give reason for the exercise of clemency, and on Tuesday a despatch was received from Ottawa to that effect. Preparations had in the meantime, been made for the execution, and the arrangements were completed on Wednesday by the arrival of the executioner. The unfortunate woman had been attended by the Rev. Mr. Thompson and other clergymen, and appeared resigned to her doom. The scaffold was erected within the jail yard, in such a position so as to be screened from the view of outsiders. At eight o'clock on Thursday morning Sheriff Siroff, jr., accompanied by the Governor of the jail, Mr. Samuel Allen, and the executioner, entered the unhappy woman's cell, where clergymen had been in converse with her for some time previous. The executioner then bound her arms, and the procession proceeded to the scaffold. Mrs. Workman reading passages of scripture on the way. The executioner adjusted the black cap over her face, and the fatal noose about her neck; a short prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Thompson; and at 8:10 the bolt was drawn, and the wretched woman was launched into eternity. She died without a struggle or even a groan. She was allowed to hang an hour, and was then sent down and examined by the gaol surgeon, who pronounced her to be extinct.

The Halifax Chronicle says that Mr. Richard Power, an employee of the Dominion Government, as keeper of the new Provincial Building, Halifax, having earned the right to free in the Dominion team at Wimbledon, is debarred from so doing by the refusal of the Government to give him the necessary leave of absence. The Chronicle very sensibly remarks: "It is a little singular that the Dominion Government should expect private individuals to allow their employees to go to Wimbledon, while public officials are refused leave."

POSTAL CARDS WITH THE STATES—The Postmaster General on Thursday signed additional articles to the present postal treaty with Canada, providing for an interchange of postal cards at prepaid rate of two cents in fall to their destination in either country; prepayment to be effected by affixing to the card a one cent postage stamp. The postage must be prepaid.

THE GREAT EASTERN—A despatch from on board the Great Eastern, dated noon on Thursday, reports that up to that hour 443 miles of cable had been paid out. She was then in lat. 53:20, and lon. 20:36.

JUST RECEIVED at the Golden Lion—Chance & Williamson's—one case of hosiery in all sizes and colors. The best make of hosiery kept at the Lion.

Toronto Correspondence.

The "Assembly" of the Canada Presbyterian Church has just terminated its sittings in the Queen City, and although the proceedings were pretty fully reported in the newspapers, still there some unreported points of interest to those at a distance, that have struck me, as an on-looker, as worthy of notice. The Moderator for this year is the Rev. Wm. Reid, of Toronto, well known throughout the church as its able and energetic Secretary for many years, and who brought to bear in the discharge of the duties of the Moderator's chair, that clear-sighted business acumen for which he is distinguished, and thereby enabling the Assembly on more than one occasion to come more clearly to the determination of questions submitted to them, albeit that in the advice tendered, there now and again lacked that strict-laid impartiality or neutrality usually considered indispensable in the conduct of the president of a meeting. We were particularly struck with the aptitude and felicity of the Moderator's remarks in addressing the various foreign deputies, of whom there were a large number present at the recent assembly. And even in so venerable a body, and from so grave and reverend a source, a strain of pleasantry was sometimes observable, as for instance when addressing the American deputies, and referring to the number of eminent ministers of the Canada Presbyterian Church that had been carried across the lines, he said that in future it would be necessary to import an export duty of such a high ad valorem character upon all future clerical exportations as to practically amount to a prohibition. Reciprocity in this particular class had been peculiarly one-sided. And yet the worthy Moderator was guilty of a strange inconsistency in calling the Rev. Mr. Cuthbertson to order for congratulating the Montrealers present, that in respect to their College "the Campbells were coming!" Reciprocity here was one-sided also! Talking about this Montreal College question reminds me that there never was a better example of wise men coming from the east than in this very matter. For Principal, M. Vicar, (whom, by the way, we most heartily congratulate on his honorary elevation and increased salary, both richly deserved) and his friends fairly outgeneraled the King and his followers from the West, and who had to surrender Mr. Campbell to the Eastern College after a perfect apology for a fight. In addition to the Montreal overture having priority of consideration, Mr. King so overdid the thing, he protested so strongly and obstinately that Mr. Campbell was the only man in the eyes of the Torontoians fit for the vacant Professorship in Knox College, that a stranger might fairly consider the church had arrived at a crisis of no ordinary magnitude. Nor in the few remarks that he made did the Hon. Mr. McMurich improve the cause of him. The want of organization of the Toronto men did not end here: for, could you believe it, so secure apparently did they feel of obtaining Mr. Campbell, that they were unprepared with another name in case of failure, and pleaded for delay to enable them to look about for one suitable to fill the vacant Professorship. But the Assembly did not agree with them, and forthwith proceeded to elect the Rev. Mr. McLaren, the successor of the Rev. Mr. Wardrop, of Guelph, at Ottawa, admittedly a very suitable and likely to be efficient man for the post. Curious to relate, the ministers long ago "spotted" him for their College, but he would not give them an inch of encouragement to expect that he would accept any Professorship. Had the Montrealers failed in obtaining Professor Campbell, they had determined, it is said, to submit the name of the Rev. Mr. Bruce, of Brantford, Perry, Scotland, whose testimonials I have seen, and which certainly indicate that Mr. Bruce is a man of no ordinary attainments and ability; indeed, I heard it stated on good authority, that he principally owed his non-election in 1872 to the vacant Professorship in Glasgow College, to the fact of his most formidable opponent being a son of Principal Candlish.

In the matter of Home Mission contributions, the Guelph Presbytery got some hard knocks on account of the alleged liberality of most of its congregations. The Rev. Mr. Smellie made a few strongly indignant remarks in opposition, to the Home Mission Report, contending that the people had a perfect right to say to which of the schemes they preferred giving the greater portion of their contributions. Mr. J. M. King was particularly hard on the Guelph Presbytery, said to be one of the largest in the church, showing by statistics that whilst Guelph Presbytery had 5,418 members, Toronto had 4,618, that the Guelph contributions to the Home Mission were only $937, placing it 7th on the list of Presbyteries, or taking members 15th, or per member 15 cents. Principal McVicar stated that a good deal of church building had been done recently in the Guelph Presbytery, and that fact might militate against the Home Mission scheme. One congregation in the West was specially alluded to by Mr. Cochrane, the convener, as having a membership of upwards of $800, and yet had contributed only $20 to $30 to Home Missions. I may state that it was freely whispered in the Assembly to be Knox Church, Guelph, that the Convener had in his eye.

A most unfortunate and unpleasant episode occurred in connection with this same Home Mission question from the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Millbrook, charging the Rev. Mr. Lewis, of Brantford, with not accounting for monies received by him as a Home Mission Deputy when visiting Millbrook. The matter was investigated by a Special Committee of the Assembly, and it was ascertained that there was not the slightest foundation for Mr. Mitchell's remarks, public acknowledgment of his error.

Church Unions.

The papers for the last two or three weeks have been largely taken up with the reports of the proceedings of the different ecclesiastical bodies, who hold their annual meetings in this month.

In regard to the proposed union between the Canada Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in Canada when thus consolidated and united, will be numerically strong, and will exert a powerful interest for good in the Dominion.

Another noteworthy feature in the history of church unions is the scheme which has engaged the attention of the Wesleyan and New Connexion Conferences, for the confederation of the Wesleyan body in the Dominion into one great Conference, and for the union of the two bodies above mentioned.

With regard to the union question at home between the Free and United Presbyterian Churches, the proposal for immediate union has been for the present dropped, but the mutual eligibility clause has been adopted.

THE NEW EMIGRATION AGENT TO LIVERPOOL. — The Hamilton Times speaking of the recent appointment says:—The Dominion Government has appointed Mr. G. T. Haigh, late of this city, and for a short time editor of a small sheet, now defunct, called the Evening Journal an intense Tory paper, to the office of Emigrant Agent for the Dominion at Liverpool.

RETURN OF THE DEPUTATION.—The Warden, the Mayor and the President of the Agricultural Society, who went to Quebec to invite the Governor General to open the Guelph Central Exhibition this year, returned on Thursday night. They had a most cordial reception from His Excellency, but we regret to say that it will be impossible for him to visit Guelph this year as he has made arrangements for visiting the Maritime Provinces, and this visit will occupy all the spare time at his disposal.

THE FICHERONE CLAIMANT.—Late correspondence of the New York Graphic says the present prosecution of the Fieberone claimant has cost already $19,000 and before it will be ended the expense to the Government will be $20,000.

Pago has challenged Sparks to walk the same distance as yesterday, six weeks hence for $500.

THE Genuine Thing!

As Mr. STEWART is leaving for the British and Continental Markets in July, he has determined to reduce his large stock of Dry Goods and Clothing by $20,000 this month.

To effect this he has resolved to allow a discount of 10 per cent. on all purchases of $1 and upwards. So rare a chance of securing cheap goods seldom occurring, the public should avail themselves of making and saving money. Quotations of prices being no real criterion of cheapness, an inspection of goods is solicited.

ANNABEL OR THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXIV. PHILIP WESTON AND JIM POTTS IN THE FAR WEST.

"What is it?" asked Philip in a startled tone.

"Hush!" cautioned Steve again; and on being obeyed he laid himself flat out and placed his left ear close to the ground.

They were at a loss to know what he meant for at the moment an utter silence reigned, and not the faintest sound or rustle could be heard by them.

For more than a minute Steve lay thus, then he slowly rose, and turning towards his two silent and breathless companions, said laconically—"They're coming."

"Who—the Indians?" said Philip.

"Yes."

"I can hear nothing."

"No more and I observed Jim.

"Lay your ear on the ground as you saw me do," rejoined Steve.

They did so, and no sooner had they got settled in this position than distinct and regular vibrations came to them along the earth, accompanied by the rustle of grass or leaves, and occasionally the faint cracking of a twig.

"You hear it now?" said Steve, with a nod.

"Yes, we do," answered Philip. "Are these sounds the footsteps of Indians?"

"No doubt about it. They air a good long chalk from us yet, I guess, but they making for this here location as sure as winkin'."

"Then we had better be off," suggested Philip.

"Whar to?"

"Somewhere forward, to get out of their way."

"Wall, now, I calculate that would just about be makin' a present of our scalps to the darned critters, and Steve Red-shanks ain't the coon to do it."

"But if we remain where we are, is there no danger that they will discover us?"

"Sartin'."

"Well, then, what shall we do? Are we able to fight them?"

"Some, I calculate; but we'd catch it in the end. We must treat the painted devils to a spice of their own cunning."

As he spoke, Steve deliberately divested himself of the wide canvas tunic which he wore, and uncoiled from his waist a length of stout cord which had been carefully twined around him. Seeking about for a stone of the proper shape, he fastened one end of the rope to it and dexterously cast it over one of the thick branches which swung above them, twisting it there till it was firmly fixed, the other end dangling towards the ground.

The others looked silently on, being at a loss to understand his purpose. This, however, he presently explained to them.

"I guess we'll roost up there for the rest of the night. Yew kin both climb to the branch by that air rope, I s'pose?"

As the branch in question was not more than twelve feet from the ground, they readily answered in the affirmative.

"All right," responded Steve. "I'll go first, and yew'll swing me up theresies. But if yew put any value on your lives don't make a noise, and don't jerk the branch more nor I do."

"With the stealthy agility of a wild cat, the trapper drew himself up the rope hand over hand, and that so quietly that the leaves of the branch hardly quivered by his weight, and had they not seen his dark form rising into the darker foliage overhead they could not have known where he had gone to.

"Now for the rifles, one at a time," he called softly down to them.

Jim, who now fully understood the movement and its object, had one of the rifles fastened to the cord by a slip-knot in a moment, and Steve drew it up, depositing it safely in the branch immediately above him. The other two were drawn up in like manner, and Philip and Jim followed.

As was to be expected, they did not make the ascent with either the agility or noiselessness which the more practiced hunter had manifested, but both being active and strong-limbed, they accomplished the feat in a manner which elicited the guide's admiration, and were presently beside him on the sturdy branch, which was so thick as hardly to bend under their combined weight. The tree into which they had thus climbed was a gigantic beech, the massive trunk of which was bare of branches for fully twelve feet from the ground, but above that point they shot out on all sides, the lower ones thick enough to have served as stems to goodly trees, and rising tier above tier to a great height, each being shrouded in a mass of foliage, which, at a little distance upward, afforded ample concealment for a score of men.

By Steve's direction each man selected a branch on which to recline in a position as easy as possible, and so thickly were the smaller branches spread that in a few minutes they were all three snugly ensconced, and nearly as comfortable as they had been on the ground below.

Here they lay in perfect stillness, listening intently to the sound of the approaching Indians, which was now plainly discernible as their moccasined feet trod the green sward of the forest, the dark edge of which could be descried through an opening of the branches.

"There's a mighty considerable lot of 'em," whispered Steve. "I only hope they'll strike the prairie a good way off from this air roost of ours. Jest keep a good watch all round, and let the first that sees a movin' object give a low hiss, but don't speak a word even as loud as a whisper, for them Indians have the sharpest ears in all creation."

Never had teacher more obedient scholars than had Steve in Philip and Jim, who followed his directions with most faithful exactness as each sat on their perch grasping their rifle, with eyes and ears painfully on the alert. It would be untrue to say that they were entirely cool and free from excitement, for the novelty of the situation and their inexperience of such adventures were such that they had been more than human had they felt no tremour or perturbation. But if the blood danced more quickly through their veins, and their breathing was more rapid than usual, they managed to suppress all appearance of this inward disturbance, and sat as motionless and seemingly as composed as Steve himself, much to the satisfaction of the latter, who, to tell the truth, had been somewhat apprehensive of their ability to show the necessary silence and caution.

Fully a quarter of an hour was thus spent, the tread of the Indians plainly drawing nearer, and occasionally a low guttural sound or a grunt reaching them.

knowledge of the sums having been made in the usual authorized channel of the church. What seems to have led Mr. Mitchell astray was that the agent of the church had not in this instance used some usual formality of acknowledgment. Still it was universally felt in the Assembly that before making public any such grave statement, Mr. Mitchell should have sought an explanation from Mr. Lowry, who would doubtless have speedily cleared up all doubt regarding it. As it is, an unfortunate scandal has been raised, and the accused naturally enough stung to the quick, retorted on the accuser that the charges were "deliberate falsehood." This again reacted on the accuser, so that when the Assembly came to adjudge on the case, neither party were in the most amiable of moods to pleasantly withdraw their respective statements and counter-statements. Indeed, Mr. Lowry seemed to hint that ulterior proceedings in the shape of a law-suit might be the result, to originate which seemingly he had been urged by some over zealous friend. But the Assembly appeared so ashamed of the whole matter that they unanimously resolved to expunge all reference to it from their minutes, and although Mr. Lowry craved extracts, it is somewhat difficult in the face of the resolution of the Assembly to know what there can be extracted.

OUT-SIDE SPORTS.
BASE BALL.
On Wednesday, on the Union Grounds the third game of the championship series between the Brooklyn Atlantics and the Philadelphia Athletics took place. Greatly to the surprise of everybody the Brooklyn boys went in and batted both McBride and Fisher's pitching all over the field. Indeed, so heavily did they hit that the Athletics were completely demoralized, and meeting on their part became the order of the day. The score: Athletics - 1 2 0 1 0 0 0 4 - 4
Atlantics - 7 0 2 2 2 1 1 0 - 13
An exciting contest took place on the same day in Washington between Washington's and Resolutes, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 7 to 5. The match yesterday afternoon in Rockwood between the Guelph Independents and the Rockwood Dufferin's ended in favor of the former by a score of 52 to 24. The Guelph boys return thanks for the kindness received at the hands of the Rockwood club - they having acted like gentlemen all through the game, and treated them to a supper at Cumming's hotel in the evening. A return match is to be played in Guelph shortly, when the same feeling will be reciprocated. Mr. McMillan, of Rockwood, acted as umpire in a very satisfactory manner.
A very close and exciting game was played between the Georgetown Academy nine and Scotch Block club yesterday, which resulted in favor of the latter by a score of 46 to 42.
The Lightfoots of Palmerston and the Beavers of Clifford had a game on Saturday when the Lightfoots got badly beat. Score 108 to 37. That's an awful score! We have clubs down here that could play six games and not make that many runs.
Here is something better: The Second nine of the Elora Athletics and the High School nine of that village had a game on Friday last, resulting in the defeat of the latter by a score of 16 to 23.
A match game was played on Saturday between the Harrison and Worcester junior clubs. Worcester beat Harrison by a score of 58, with one innings to spare, to 13.
A friendly game will be played this evening between the Atlantics and Blue Stockings. Five innings each.
The Mutuals and Athletics play to-day on the Brooklyn grounds.
CRICKET.
The Brantford cricketers were defeated by Princeton on Wednesday by 6 runs.
LACROSSE.
The Excelsors of Brantford, and the Elora club are to meet on the base ball grounds this afternoon to virtually decide the championship of the west.

PHOSPHOROUS, Lime, Iron, Calcium or Peruvian Bark. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calcium combines these valuable remedies in the form of a delicious cordial. Phosphorous, a brain food; Lime, an excitant of nutrition; Iron, a blood maker; and Calcium or Peruvian Bark, the only specific for chills and fevers, and all conditions of nervous prostration and general debility. Phosphates are the only agents known that act immediately on the stomach, perfecting the digestion and assimilation of food, and determining the formation of pure blood. No combination ever discovered is so remarkable in building up constitutions run down with old complaints that have hitherto resisted all ordinary methods of treatment. Sold by all druggists.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.
The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected and Sold in the Provinces of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the vitality of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out and ridding secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.
This is the secret of its wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reactions, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
