VOL. XXXV.—No. 12,697

15,000 CANADIANS FOR THE DARDANELLES

Vancouver, August 16.—Hon. T. Chase Casgrain announced at the Canadian Club banquet here today that he had been officially advised by the Minister of Militia that fifteen thousand of the Canadian soldiers in Britain will be sent to the Dardanelles.

TURN THE WHEAT INTO MONEY

Canada will have a wheat crop this year of 300,000,000 bushels. After setting aside six and a half bushels per head of population for seed and consumption, she will have 250,000,000 bushels for export. We cannot ship any part of the crop to any neutral nation, but must find a purchaser in Great Britain, France or Italy. Russia certainly does not require any wheat, having an enormous exportable surplus impatiently knocking at the gate of the Dardanelles.

Neither the French nor Italian Government is likely to buy wheat in Canada; at least, they have not been doing so. The big American banking houses, aided by the Federal reserve system, have been able to finance their orders, as our banks and our government have been unable to do. The allies, however, can buy Canadian wheat from the British Government.

Our market, then, is Britain, and we have a right to expect a demand that Britain buy her wheat supply from Canada, to the exclusion of the United States. Business should combine with sentiment to persuade her to this action, since the pound sterling at par in Montreal is at a discount in New York. The wheat she takes from Canada will be paid for by credits, while the wheat bought from the United States must be settled for in gold.

If the British buyer be free to purchase where he pleases, we may expect sharp competition from our neighbors of the United States. Their grain is already harvested, and their ports attract greater tonnage than ours. Indeed, no preference can overcome the absence of ocean tonnage. We must have ships to receive our grain when it gets to tidewater. We want that grain to go to and thru Canadian ports. We want our railroads to carry that bumper crop to the head of the lakes and help our great inland fleets transport it to the sea. We want our ports on the Georgian Bay and all along the St. Lawrence route to shrug under the pressure of the greatest business they have ever known.

We hear that the admiralty is to divert a number of vessels from other work to the pressing duty of carrying Canadian grain to British ports. They should be able to get a great quantity overseas with the assistance of such tramp steamers as may come to Montreal and the liners still plying between Canadian and British ports.

The British market does not require anything like 250,000,000 bushels of wheat for immediate delivery. No doubt, also, the British buyer anticipates obtaining wheat from India, the Argentine and Russia. But in one way or another the British Government should be able to absorb our entire exportable surplus of wheat.

and flour, even the part of it is resold to the allies.

In view of the fact that the Canadian farmer and miller cannot export to any country except the motherland her allies is it quite fair for British, French or Italians to buy elsewhere on this continent? Certainly the imperial government, which is seriously considering buying the American cotton crop, may well consider buying the entire Canadian wheat crop. If Canadians are not free to sell except to certain countries should the buyers of those countries be allowed to pull down the price by availing themselves of world-wide competition? Should there not be a minimum price at which the British Government will buy, especially as that government may sooner or later fix a maximum price at which wheat and flour can be sold in the United Kingdom? Our suggestion is that the British Government guarantee to take all the Canadian wheat at a fair price. Let such wheat as does not get out before the close of navigation be purchased and stored for the account of the British Government. That would guarantee the farmer a decent price and ready money.

Possibly it might be necessary for some such valorization scheme to be worked out by the Dominion Government under some agreement or understanding with the home authorities. Our banks should be strong to finance such an undertaking. We would favor permitting them to issue more excess circulation on such terms as would make that circulation profitable. If need be let the nation issue national currency. Canada as a nation will take pay for her wheat in credit, but the producer must have currency, and the sooner he gets it the better. He should be protected from the speculator.

Finally we think our millers should be encouraged to buy large quantities of wheat as quickly as possible from the producers by the government re-depositing their paper, and if need be, counting their paper, and if need be, guaranteeing them a minimum price for flour. To protect the farmer we should immediately prohibit the import of wheat. Let the farmer get the money for his wheat. Surely British and her allies should be able to absorb the wheat of the world. As the imperial government or by the Dominion Government. The Canadian farmer and miller, abandoning many markets for the sake of the empire should have a real and compensating preference within the empire. The farmer should not only be guaranteed a fair price, but he should be able to get his money as soon as his wheat arrives at the elevator. To store it in the elevators on the farmer's account will not help him much. Britain should buy his wheat and find the ships to take it across; failing that, buy his wheat and store it here on Britain's account.

LIEUT.-COL. ODLUM HIT THREE TIMES

German Sniper Did It, He Explains in London Hospital.

NOT BADLY WOUNDED

Enemy's Trenches Only Fifty Yards From Those Canadians Held.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, Aug. 16.—Lieut.-Col. Odium, whose name appeared several days ago in the list of wounded, has arrived at a London hospital suffering from the effects of a couple of bullets in his right arm and another in the right side and when seen today he seemed in the best of spirits, chatting freely with a number of callers who has just discovered his whereabouts.

Lieut.-Col. Odium, it will be remembered, succeeded McHarg, late colonel in command of the 7th Battalion, British Columbia Regiment, and with that battalion, went thru the thick of the fighting at Ypres, Festubert and Givenchy. Out of each of those engagements, he came out without a scratch. "But we were not in any particular engagement," he said, "when I was wounded on the 8th of this month. For the past six weeks, the regiment has been confined to the trenches which are less than 50 yards distance from those of our antagonists. Trench warfare, even in this fine weather, is anything but rosy. During the day our exchanges were comparatively few, but regularly with the approaching night-fall things would begin to hum and would continue lively until the following morning.

MURDER CAR IS NOT YET LOCATED

Police Are Following Clues, But Nothing Definite is Ascertained.

DESCRIPTION IS POOR

Darkness Prevented Those in Crowd From Seeing Flying Motor.

The identification of the motor car that ran amuck Sunday evening on the Kingston road and caused the death of Joseph Verania and seriously injured Miss Margaret Frizzell, is still surrounded in mystery, and the local police have made strenuous efforts to apprehend the driver, so far they have not met with the slightest success.

At the time of the accident, witnesses stated that they thought it was a large green car, but owing to the darkness and the fact that it was travelling at a high rate of speed, it was absolutely impossible to say anything definite in regard to the model or color. Provincial Inspector Miller, when interviewed, said: "There is nothing doing yet," but as a search of the vicinity yesterday resulted in the discovery of a stray part of an automobile, the police believe that they have a clue that will put them on the trail. Word was also received by the police that a large car of French manufacture, the radiator covered with blood, was seen to enter a garage early yesterday morning, but as yet nothing has materialized thru that source.

SAILORS GIVEN REWARDS FOR FINE EXPLOITS

Many Gallant Deeds Marked British Operations Off Dardanelles Forts.

MIDDIES ARE INCLUDED

Stranding of Transport Gave Opportunity for Devoted Service.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(Delayed by censor)—A record of the deeds of gallantry performed by officers and crews of British ships in the Dardanelles during the bombardment of the forts subsequent to the landing of troops is given in a report by Vice-Admiral John M. De Robeck, commander of the allied fleet in the Dardanelles, which is published in the Official Gazette tonight.

Admiral De Robeck tells of the work of the Mediterranean fleet, devoting the greater part of his report to the officers and men, whose work was particularly noteworthy. As a result of the report five Victoria crosses and numerous other decorations have been awarded.

With the exception of one, which is given Commander Eric Gascoigne Robinson for twice going ashore into a Turkish gun position, and each time destroying a 4-inch gun, the Victoria crosses go to officers and men who displayed conspicuous acts of bravery in connection with the running ashore of the steamer River Clyde from which troops were landed.

Middies Got Decorations. Five men who won the decoration for their work are: Commander Edward Unwin, who, leading a party of lighters on which the men were to reach the shore from the River Clyde were not properly placed, waded into water waist deep under a heavy fire and worked until he got the lighters into proper position. Midshipmen G. L. Drewry and W. St. Malleson and Seaman W. C. Williams and Geo. Mackenzie, who assisted Commander Unwin.

Awards have also been made to officers and men who rescued the whole of the crew of the battleship Inflexible when she struck a mine and sank, to the officers and crew of the cruiser Inflexible, who, under the greatest difficulty, kept the vessel afloat after she was damaged by a mine, to the commanders and men of mine sweepers who undertook a most dangerous duty and to the many other men who performed deeds of gallantry, which, under ordinary circumstances, would have been considered worthy of the Victoria Cross.

VAN IN CAUCASUS RETAKEN BY TURKS. Constantinople Also Claims New Attack in Dardanelles Was Repulsed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 16, via wireless to London, Aug. 17.—An official communication issued today says: "The Caucasian front town of Van, which was evacuated Aug. 11, has been recaptured by us. The Russians, in retreat, are destroying the neighborhood.

"In the Dardanelles region a new attack of the enemy north of Avri Burn has been repulsed."

STERLING EXCHANGE SITUATION IS SERIOUS. Government Has Given No Intimation of Plan for Relief.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Except in their financial columns, the newspapers pay little attention to the decline in sterling exchange. The government has given no hint of any plan it may be considering to relieve the situation, which the leading financial authorities here regard as decidedly serious.

ZINC BOUNTIES WILL PRODUCE OUTPUT NEEDED

Dominion Government Takes Measures to Meet Britain's Demand.

LARGE CONTRACTS LET

Several Thousand Tons to Be Obtained at Reasonable Rates.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—A committee of the government under the chairmanship of Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, after full discussion with members of the shell committee, has satisfactorily solved the problem of ensuring at reasonable prices a Canadian supply of zinc suitable for use in the production of brass. The latter is needed for the making of quick-firing cartridges cases for shells. Before the outbreak of war this quality of zinc sold at about 80 per pound. Since that time the price has steadily risen as high as 40c and grave fears were entertained that the supply might be entirely cut off. At present the sources of supply are outside of Canada.

The shell committee representing the British Government in the purchase of shells in Canada, regarded it as absolutely necessary that there should be supplies of this zinc within Canada. Canadian producers were unwilling to go to the large expense of installing refineries unless insured against the fall in zinc prices which is inevitable after the close of the war. After considerable negotiation the government decided to offer a limited bounty for the production in Canada of zinc, the offer being as follows:

Bounties on Zinc. "Bounties on a slitting scale not exceeding two cents per pound, will be granted upon production in Canada, from Canadian ores, of zinc containing not more than two per cent. impurities, when the standard price of zinc in London, Eng., falls below 233 per ton of 2000 pounds, provided that bounties shall not be payable on zinc produced before the expiration of the war, or after July 31, 1917, or on zinc contracted for by the shell committee at a price of eight cents or over per pound, for future deliveries.

As a result of this action on the part of the government, the shell committee, on behalf of the imperial war office, has been able to contract for several thousand tons of zinc at very reasonable rates, with a further reduced rate for future deliveries.

The object of the bounty is to ensure the producers against too great a fall in price in the period between the end of the war and July 31, 1917. The bounty will give an impetus to the refinement of zinc in Canada, and serve the purpose of ensuring a certain supply of brass to the shell committee.

STEAMER PATHFINDER WAS BADLY DAMAGED. Ran Into Lightship and Had to Be Beached to Prevent Sinking.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Aug. 15.—Downbound today with a cargo of iron ore and towing the barge Constitution, the steamer Pathfinder of the Pickens-Mather fleet, ran into Lightship No. 28, in the west Neeshub cut.

The Pathfinder tore a big hole in her starboard side. Water poured in rapidly, but she was beached safely. Her tow was unimpaired. A tug with a diver aboard left the Soo for the steamer.

OFFERING "BABY" BONDS TO FRENCH INVESTORS. Some Will Be of Denomination of Only Five Francs.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—The government, upon the suggestion of Minister of Finance Ribot will soon issue a decree placing on sale at postoffice national defence bonds of denominations of 20 francs and five francs ($1), bearing interest at 5 per cent. These bonds may be exchanged, when the holders desire, for those of larger amounts.

Russia and Japan Soon To Enter Into Alliance?

Russia Stipulates That No Aggressive Stand Be Taken Against China or United States.

MILAN, Italy, Aug. 16.—(Via Paris)—A long despatch from Petrograd, outlining the situation in Russia, which gives the impression of being inspired by Sergius Sazonoff, Russian foreign minister, is published by The Corriere Della Sera. The article says, in conclusion: "The proposal for a Russo-Japanese alliance finds no opposition on condition that it be not aggressive against China, and even less so against America, whose friendship is necessary to Russia."

CANADIAN TROOPS MARCHED BEFORE PRINCESS ALEXANDRA

Impressive Parade Was Held on Sir John Moore's Plain at Shorncliffe—Gen. Steele Was in Command.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, Aug. 16.—Princess Alexandra of Teck, accompanied by Lady Northcott and Gen. Sam Hughes, reviewed the Canadians on Sir John Moore's Plain at Shorncliffe today. Gen. Steele was in command, and with him were Brigadier Carson and Col. Grant Morden. On the arrival of the princess, the troops fixed bayonets, and the National Anthem was played by massed bands as the infantry marched past the saluting base. The princess was delightedly impressed with the physique and splendid bearing and appearance of the men. Gen. Steele afterwards gave a reception at Beechboro House for the officers to meet the princess.

BALKAN PUZZLE STILL UNSOLVED

Victory of War Party in Greece Regarded as Significant.

NO DECIDED MOVES

Turkey Apparently Disposed to Refuse Demands of Bulgaria.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The crisis in the diplomatic negotiations in the Balkans has not yet been reached. The most significant phase of today's news concerning the eastern situation was contained in a brief despatch from Athens, stating that former Premier Venizelos had won a decisive victory over the government in the organization of the Greek Chamber of Deputies. The ascendancy of Venizelos was shown when M. Zevitzanos, a strong adherent, was elected president. The vote of 192 to 98 indicated the majority of Venizelos, or war party, is the recent election.

The withdrawal of the Bulgarian delegates from Constantinople caused much speculation here, the consensus of opinion being that Turkey is so confident of her present position that she does not feel under any compulsion to make concessions to Bulgaria's desires.

Berlin View of Venizelos. BERLIN, Aug. 16.—The Athens correspondent of The Telegraph, who frequently has shown himself to be well informed, has telegraphed the following statement of the attitude of former Premier Venizelos, as expressed by M. Venizelos Saturday, in conversation with a political friend: "M. Venizelos believes now, as before, that Greek interests lie on the side of the entente allies, but that the time is not ripe for Greece to join the quadruple alliance actively. Greece should therefore preserve her neutrality for the present."

CARRANZA AND VILLA FORCES NOW FIGHTING. Severe Engagement is in Progress Four Miles Outside of Nogales.

NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 16.—Severe fighting between Carranza and Villa forces four miles outside Nogales, Sonora, is reported in progress. The international boundary line has been closed to passage by both Mexicans and United States authorities.

NO POISONOUS GASES EMPLOYED BY FRENCH. Trenches Captured by Them Filled With Water in Which Bodies Are Floating.

BRESCIA, Italy (via Paris), Aug. 16.—The Italian advance east of Condo (30 miles southwest of Trent in the Trentino) towards Riva, at the head of Lake Garda is being continued notwithstanding stormy weather and terrific hailstorms. Reports say that the trenches captured by the Italians are full of water, in which bodies are floating.

ENGLISH TOWNS ARE BOMBARDED BY GERMAN SUB

Several Shells Were Fired at Parton, Harrington and Whitehaven.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

Some Fires Caused, But No Casualties Have Been Reported.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Parton, Harrington and Whitehaven, in Cumberland, Eng., on the Irish Sea, were bombarded today by a German submarine, a British official statement tonight announced. Some fires were caused, but the damage was slight, and there were no casualties, the statement adds.

The text of the statement follows: "A German submarine fired several shells at Parton, Harrington and Whitehaven between 4.30 and 6.30 a.m. today, but no material damage was caused. A few shells hit the railway embankment north of Parton, but train service was only slightly delayed. "Fires were caused at Whitehaven and at Harrington, which were soon extinguished. "No casualties were reported."

Whitehaven, which lies near the entrance of Solway Firth, has a population of about 20,000. The town has numerous factories for the manufacture of cordage, sail cloth and other commodities, together with iron and brass foundries and shipyards. Harrington is a small town five miles north of Whitehaven, its population being about 4000. Parton is another small seaport town a mile and a half from Whitehaven.

BERLIN CLAIMS GAINS TOWARD BREST-LITOVSK

Prince Leopold's Army Drives Slight Wedge Into Russian Front.

ATTACK KOVNO AGAIN

Von Hindenburg Credited With Successful Move Against Outer Defences.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The left wing of the Bavarian army, under Prince Leopold, has fought its way across the Bug River near Drohiczyn, which lies to the east of Sokolow and is some 50 miles northwest of Brest-Litovsk, according to the official Berlin report. This move forms a slight wedge in the Russian front, which had been virtually straight since the Warsaw salient was abandoned.

Field Marshal von Mackensen also is reported to be pushing back the Russians along the Bug, where the Germans are advancing along the eastern bank of that river. Further west, Field Marshal von Hindenburg is credited with a successful attack on the advanced defences of Kovno, as well as a successful attempt to break the Russian lines between the Narew and the Bug, after the Norzow River had been crossed by the Germans.

Berlin's Claims. The report from Berlin claims that the Russian Village of Slavayozze, scarcely more than a score of miles south of Brest-Litovsk, has fallen into the hands of Gen. Mackensen's forces. The occupation of Slavayozze is credited with a successful attack on the advanced defences of Kovno, as well as a successful attempt to break the Russian lines between the Narew and the Bug, after the Norzow River had been crossed by the Germans.

HAMILTON NEWS

ALLEGES MEMBERS OF COUNCIL SELFISH

Have Brief for Barton Township of Property Holdings, Says Alderman.

ST. THOMAS VICTORS Hamilton Will Have Only Machine Gun Battalion in Empire.

By a Staff Reporter. HAMILTON, Tuesday, Aug. 17.—That many of the council members are so eager that Hamilton Township of Barton with water are speaking six words for the township and half a dozen for themselves is the belief of Ald. Dr. Hopkins, a stout opponent of the general water scheme.

There are men in the council who have holdings in Barton, and I am one of them, but I certainly intend living up to my obligation as an alderman and the doctor said he added, "those who are holding such a brief for Barton are looking after their own interests, intent upon increasing the value of their own holdings."

Show me the city where by selling water at 15 cents per thousand gallons can make a healthy profit, and I'll line up on the other side, but there isn't a man in the council can show me," said Ald. Hopkins.

Still Draw for Bodies. All efforts of the police and others to locate the bodies of Arnold Church and John Robinson, the two young men who were drowned in the bay on Sunday morning, have so far been in vain. Deputy Chief of Police O'Connell and several constables dragged the bay all day yesterday, but were unable to find any trace of the bodies. They will continue to drag today. The launch has not been lost yet.

Fruit for Soldiers. The officials of the Canadian Club soldier's fruit campaign expect a large shipment of fruit from the surrounding districts this week, and feel confident that sufficient fruit will be available for the soldiers to use this winter.

Preparations are being made to have peaches and apples dried so that they can be sent to the soldiers in the trenches. The world's distribution of Tumbler hats decorated in such a manner has created a furore amongst those desirous of obtaining a set. The demand exceeded all expectations, with the result that the supply was exhausted before half of those desiring them had been supplied.

With the belated presence of gates would have prevented the accident which occurred at the intersection of King street and Ferguson street on Sunday night, the board of control yesterday moved, as a matter of protection, that such gates be placed at the intersection to prevent similar accidents. The engineer and his staff will look into the situation at once, and if they can make an application to the Dominion Railway Board to have protection provided.

Machine Guns Accumulate. Only about a dozen more guns are required by the Hamilton Machine Gun Association to make up Hamilton's gift of two hundred machine guns to the Canadian Government to be used by the Canadians at the front. As several promises of guns have been received, it is anticipated that the required number will have been subscribed for within the next couple of days. The officials of the association have hopes that even more than that number can be raised, and, as long as subscriptions continue to come in, the fund will not be close to overflowing.

New Battalion Sanctioned. Official announcement of the sanction by the militia council of the organization here of a machine gun battalion, the first of its kind in the British Empire, did not come as a surprise, the deputations which visited Ottawa, practically receiving an assurance at the time that permission would be granted.

The machine gun battalion will be known as the 5th, according to present indications. It is quite likely that the plan of organization, which will be largely left to Lieut.-Col. Labatt, remunerate employees. Control of Cooper, who some weeks ago prepared a resolution giving all civic employees enlisting for active service the same difference between their military allowances and their former civil remuneration, announced yesterday that he would ask his conferees to pass upon it at once.

Want Report on School. The board of education at a special meeting yesterday, after receiving a report from A. W. Beebe, the architect for the Stinson street school addition, in reply to the criticism of the building by the board of health to make a report on the sanitary conditions relating to safety, stability and sanitary features of the school for the benefit of the board and the ratepayers.

Stratton Remanded. An adjournment of one week was granted by Magistrate Jaffe and bail was fixed at $1000 in the case of J. H. Stratton, the former local waterworks man, who is charged with the theft of $700 from Adam Cook. It is likely that other charges will be placed against him.

St. Thomas Trim Colls. Loose pitching by Jones in the first inning and errors in the fifth cost Hamilton the first game of the series with St. Thomas yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. Hamilton outbatted the visitors, unable to connect safely at the right time. The locals outplayed the visitors, lead attained early in the contest. St. Thomas scored first as a result of two walks and a hit, and two errors in the fifth on hits and two errors in the fifth on a double and an error. The score: R.H.E. St. Thomas... 1 0 0 0 0 3 4 4 Hamilton... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 Batteries—Fulton and Lago; Jones and Lamond.

GENERAL MANAGER PORT ARTHUR EAST

Louis C. Fritch Given Important Post on Canadian Northern Line.

LONG RAILWAY CAREER Studied Civil Engineering and Law and Has Filled Responsible Positions.

Louis Charlton Fritch has recently been appointed general manager of the C.N.R. lines east of Port Arthur. His headquarters are at Toronto. Mr. Fritch, who has been assistant to the president of the railway, was born in 1868 at Springfield, Ill., and after taking a course in civil engineering at the University of Cincinnati, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Ohio.

His railway career commenced when he became supervisor's assistant on the Ohio and Mississippi. He advanced rapidly, and in 1895 was engineer of maintenance of way, and subsequently becoming chief engineer and master maintenance of way. He was also chief engineer in charge of the construction of the Cincinnati and Bedford.

Mr. Fritch was appointed division engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern in 1893. This company absorbed the Ohio and Mississippi. He was superintendent of the Mississippi division of the same road from September 1, 1899, until November, 1902. In February, 1904, he did special work on the Illinois Central at Chicago and became assistant general manager in 1905. A year later he became chief assistant to the president, and from March until November, 1909, was consulting engineer.

Mr. Fritch was appointed chief engineer of the Chicago, Great Western, and in March, 1914, was appointed assistant to the president of the Canadian Northern.

A SURPRISE HAT. The autocratic and somewhat distinguished representative of a well advertised high-priced car had the surprise of his promising young life in a little competitive selling, and incidentally in hill-climbing qualities of the new Studebaker Six a few days ago. The prospective buyer, who was by the way, is now an owner of one of these new Studebaker Cars, was solemnly informed that this high-priced Six, which is gathered from the four corners of the earth, as known to automobile men and various manufacturers, and assembled, would take the Millionaire's Hill on high gear at 20 miles an hour. The moderate priced Studebaker could not from his viewpoint do any of these things, and a somewhat heated argument followed.

In which substantial money wagers were to be at issue. The modest representative, having regard to war mergers as well as proposed bank would be the limit that he could take on a sure thing. So the scene shifted to the gentleman who was anxious to be made his judgment of the deeds of six-cylinder cars, more particularly his own, changed to "second" finishing as he had started on high gear without any acceleration of the high gear, and he was wearing a brand new summer hat which he had bought but never mind the name. The serious fact that this Studebaker question threatens to wear his newly-acquired summer gear all winter.

SERIOUSLY HURT BY A MOTOR CAR

Albert Bickerton, Nine, Run Down Near Humber, Lies in Hospital.

Joseph Carroll and Gordon Ellis Alleged to Have Entered Store.

Nine-year-old Albert Bickerton, 845 Dundas street, was run down by a motor car on West Bloor street, near the Humber, yesterday afternoon, and had both legs broken at the thigh. He was removed to his home by the motorist, and from there to the Western Hospital.

Joseph Carroll, Grimsey, and Gordon Ellis, 622 West Richmond street, were arrested last evening by Detective Carter charged with having broken into a sporting goods store at the corner of Ascot and Boon avenues and stealing some baseballs and catching mitts.

Thief Charged. James McMenemy, 152 Simpson avenue, a former conductor on the Toronto Street Railway, was arrested last evening by Detective Nussey charged with the theft of $25, a badge and transfer punch from his former employer.

Five-year-old Doris Lindsay fell out of a Dundas street car near Balmhorst street her head, and fell to the roadway. The car was removed from the police ambulance.

Launch Caught Fire. A launch belonging to the harbor commission caught fire yesterday afternoon before the blaze could be got under control. The launch, which is a thirty-foot motor launch, was valued at $2500, and was in the harbor commission to run their employees around the bay. Back-firing of the motor is believed to have been the cause.

Richard Newman, address unknown, was arrested last evening by Detective Young, charged with the theft of $107 from Mrs. Harshaw, Yorkville avenue.

CRISIS IN BALKANS SEEMS IMMINENT

Break May Come in Twenty-Four Hours, is London's View.

ROUMANIA IS PIVOT Sudden Move May End Deadlock—Situation is Most Acute.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The importance of the Balkan situation is emphasized by the papers, which point out particularly that events there may reach a crisis within 24 hours. King Charles of Roumania called a special meeting of the cabinet at Bucharest yesterday to which the leaders of all political parties, as well as influential members of the chamber, were summoned.

The Serbian Skupstina (national assembly) reassembled at Nish today to receive a statement from Premier Pachitch on the Bulgarian negotiations. Simultaneously the Greek Parliament met at Athens tooust the present cabinet with the supporters of former Premier Venizelos as powerful as ever.

The analysts of the morning papers point out that Austria, meanwhile, is gathering troops on the Danube, and that German writers are advocating openly an advance to the Aegean Sea. The Daily News says, editorially, that Roumania may make a sudden move which will solve the Balkan deadlock.

"The force of events," the paper says, "may cut the knots at which diplomatic fingers have been picking in vain. Decisive action by Roumania would mean that she had obtained assurances of Bulgaria's attitude, which is the great danger point—thus we are driven back as always to a rift between the Bulgars and the Serbs."

The article closes with an impassioned appeal to Serbia to yield the concessions sought by Bulgaria. A Turkish Regency. An Athens despatch to The Daily Telegraph says: "At a recent meeting of the Young Turks at Constantinople a telegram was discussed on the ground that Sultan Mohammed V. is far from well and incapable of attending to affairs of state."

"The situation is complicated, however, by the knowledge that Crown Prince Yussuf Izzedin is lukewarm in his attitude towards the war. In the hope of convincing the crown prince that all is going well, party leaders recently persuaded him to pay a personal visit to the Dardanelles front."

As Berlin Sees It. BERLIN, Aug. 16.—London.—Regarding the note of the entente powers to Bulgaria, the correspondent at Sofia of The Vossische Zeitung telegraphs: "The entente nations promise as a consideration for Bulgarian assistance to secure from Serbia the cessation of the non-contested zone in Macedonia with the exception of a small strip of the Serbo-Albanian frontier which is to be retained to permit of a common Graeco-Serbian frontier."

"By the non-contested zone is understood to mean that part of Macedonia which under the provisions of the Balkan alliance should have fallen to Bulgaria after the Balkan war. To the extent of the concessions from Greece in the Hittin and Kavala is left undetermined. The entente allies point out that this depends upon the extent of Greek compensation in Asia Minor."

"The entente allies in addition, proposed verbally that Anglo-French troops should be sent to the territory under the end of the war when it would be handed over to Bulgaria, thereby solving the difficulty of transferring the territory before the results of the war were known."

MANY RUSSIANS ENLIST. Special to The Toronto World. CORNWALL, Ont., Aug. 16.—About 40 members of the Cornwall Canal Guard at Lock 17, have left for Kingston under charge of Major Hugh A. Cameron to go into training for overseas service with the new 59th Battalion, of which Major Cameron is to be senior major. Among the party are 14 Russians, who have been employed in local industries for some time past.

YORK COUNTY SWIMMING POOL UNDER DISCUSSION

Executive of Earlscourt Business Men's Association Suggest Inexpensive Plan.

STONES ARE NUISANCE Criticism Heard in Connection With Condition of St. Clair Avenue.

The executive committee of the Earlscourt Business Men's Association held a meeting at the office of the secretary-treasurer, C. B. Ralph, last evening. B. H. Baker occupied the chair.

The following were elected to act on the executive: C. W. Bowman and B. W. Smith. In addition to the members previously appointed, and a committee consisting of C. R. Ralph, B. H. Baker and C. W. Bowman were appointed to draft bylaws and regulations to govern the organization.

A motion of Harry Bell that a public bath and swimming pool should be established in the district by the civic authorities was discussed. Geo. Key pointed out that the great distance from the Bay made it next to impossible for the large population of the northwest section to avail themselves of swimming and bathing facilities.

"Regarding the expense of erection," said Harry Bell, "this would be a comparatively small matter, as a 50-foot lot scooped out and concreted, with walls around would practically constitute the swimming pool."

It was decided to bring the matter to the attention of the board of control at the public meeting next week. The unsightly state of the St. Clair avenue road bed and the crop of stones on either side of the tracks was discussed. C. W. Bowman said "all along the St. Clair avenue the car tracks are a miserable disgrace to the road."

C. R. Ralph suggested that the strip on either side of the rails from Oakwood to Lansdowne avenue should be sodded and two pathways for pedestrians laid across the tracks between Dufferin street and Becon avenue. "I have seen several women fall on the stones," said Mr. Baker, "and I have assisted women and children in crossing."

The secretary was instructed to write Works Commissioner R. C. Ask Controllers. A communication from Henry Parfrey, president of the Earlscourt Business Men's Association to cooperate in decorating their business premises at Saturday on the recruitment parade thru the district, was discussed, and it was resolved to carry out the desire of the B.I.A. All business men will be asked to decorate their premises with flags and bunting.

MANY DIFFICULTIES IMPEDE HARVESTING

Heavy Storms Thruout the County Have Spoiled Much of the Grain.

WORK AT A STANDSTILL Thousands of Acres of Oats Cannot Be Handled Yet.

Some slight progress was made in harvesting operations by the farmers in the northern part of the county yesterday, but in the southern districts a heavy electrical storm of short duration swept over the county, again flooding the low lands, which had not recovered from Sunday's deluge, and setting back all farming operations for two or three days more. The rain was especially heavy around Markham. At Locust Hill a few farmers were cutting yesterday, but generally cutting has been abandoned for the present, the big wheel of the binder burning itself in the ears.

It will not be a matter of surprise if thousands of acres of oats are never cut, the grain being so broken into the ground that it cannot be handled except with a mower. Every day adds to the difficulty, and it is hard to find a farmer in the southern portion of the county who has saved 25 per cent. of his wheat, or any of his oat or spring wheat crop.

Work is practically at a standstill, but where cutting is possible not more than six acres a day can be cut. In ordinary conditions, and working all around the field, 15 acres is an ordinary day's work. Not in years has the outlook for the potato crop been so unfavorable.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT AT MARKHAM VILLAGE Trophy Offered by A. J. H. Eckardt Keenly Contested for by Several Rinks.

The third annual lawn bowling tournament for the possession of the coveted A. J. H. Eckardt trophy, conducted by the Townships of Markham and Scarborough, was played off at Markham Village yesterday afternoon, eleven clubs participating. These were made up of five from the Village and six from Markham, and two from Stouffville. The Unionville skips were G. A. M. Davison, James Bennis, Frank Frisby, R. A. Silver and C. H. Stiver. From Markham there were Dr. Macdonald, R. J. Morrison, James A. Wales and James Colson. The Stouffville skips were Fred Button and Dr. Freal.

The preliminary rounds, which were played off yesterday afternoon, left four rinks, Rennie, Wales, Dr. Macdonald and R. A. Stiver, eligible for the trophy, which is a handsome ebony and silver pedestal standing nearly five feet high, the gift of Mr. Eckardt of Toronto, a former resident of Unionville. Mr. Eckardt was present during the afternoon, and will this afternoon, on the close of the tournament, present the trophy to the winning team. A number of valuable prizes in the consolation class will likewise be played off this afternoon.

RATEPAYERS DISAPPROVE ON ARBITRATORS' AWARD Residents of South Fairbank Not Fairly Treated, Says Trustee Hocking.

The decision of the arbitrators who considered the dispute regarding school Section 15, Fairbank, to divide the Irish coast, has been received by a considerable portion of the ratepayers with disapproval particularly in the southern part of the district. School Trustee Hocking, discussing the question yesterday said, "The farming community in the northern part of the section are shirking their responsibilities. They are the wealthy members of the community and are unloading the burden on the people to the south, who came into the section to build their homes and who enhanced the value of the land and made them rich."

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

INTERESTING NOTES OF FALL FASHIONS

Advance Models Display Charming Colors and Superior Materials.

BLACK IS IN VOGUE

Velvet and Silk Are Combined in Most Exclusive Street Costumes.

Fall fashions must of necessity be ushered into favor with a certain degree of dignity and very little "fuss." Times demand it, and the styles themselves seem to require very little introduction. A very marked note of exclusiveness characterizes the models which have been launched to date, and a medium which will undoubtedly please seems to have been found.

Quiet colors, elegant materials—elegant in simple weave and exquisite texture—and lines void of all eccentricities are noticeable features of early fall models.

Silk and Cloth Combine. Smartly tailored suits approve of silk and cloth combinations, and advance models from most reliable firms display charming novelty combinations of silk and velvet. Black is again pronounced the acme of good style, with navy blue, several tones of brown and soft hues of green receiving a fair share of popularity.

Princess lines are prominent in an extensive "running," and in street costumes, at any rate, the extreme voluminous skirt must go. Moderate flare effects will prevail and a preference is given to the slightly fitted skirt where it best becomes the individual wearer.

Trains Coming In. For evening wear it is anticipated that trains will be worn, even with the shortskirted dance and dinner creations, when the waltz and court modes will be employed.

Separate coats are particularly stunning, high fur-trimmed military collars, full skirt sections and redingote features making these models particularly practical as well as chic to a degree.

CATHOLIC PRELATE HONORED IN DEATH

Requiem Mass for Late Mgr. McCann Celebrated at St. Michael's.

MANY FOLLOW BIER

Vast Concourse of People Paid Last Tribute of Respect to Dead.

Honors unlimited, and mourning universal, featured the funeral obsequies of the late Right Rev. Monsignor J. J. McCann, V.G., which took place yesterday morning, witnessed by one of the largest congregations that ever filled the great arched spaces of St. Michael's Cathedral.

Altho the mass of requiem was scheduled to begin at 11 o'clock it was held at 10 o'clock, the ceremonies commencing on the afternoon previously, when the body of the dead prelate was borne from the parochial house on McDonnell square into St. Mary's Church, where for more than a score of years Monsignor McCann had ministered as pastor. A guard of honor of the Knights of St. John, the members of St. Mary's Literary and Athletic Societies and the young men of St. Francis Club escorted the remains, which were then laid in state at the site of the sanctuary rails. From this time on until late at night people from all parts of the city visited the church to take a last look at the figure now still in the majesty of death, and it is estimated that 20,000 passed the catafalque on which the purple casket, surrounded by lighted tapers, rested.

Cathedral Services. At 10.30 yesterday morning the removal from St. Mary's to the Cathedral took place. Mounted police led the procession, in which were representatives from the Knights of Columbus, Holy Name Society, St. Vincent de Paul, Separate School Board, St. Mary's and St. Francis' Literary and Athletic Societies and other parish organizations. At the cathedral, which was surrounded by a large waiting concourse, the remains were received by Right Rev. Mgr. Whelan. The casket was placed before the altar, where it remained, surrounded by a guard of the uniformed Knights of St. John, during the mass and closing ceremonies.

The scene at the cathedral was most impressive. The floor of the great stained glass window behind the high altar was all subdued by the mourning which hung before it, and the outstretched arms of the white cross at the summit told of the had lived, and died. Tall tapers burned before the shadowed gold of the altar and about the bier, and the pulpit and organ walls. At either side of the chancel the pews of the diocese and from other parts arranged in tiers in the tiered seats, and during the mass the sanctuary was rich with the black and gold vestments of the officiating ecclesiastics and the crimson and purple of the assisting monsignori.

The city was represented by His Worship Mayor Church and Ald. Gibbons, and the religious community and laity filled the body of the church. The solemn rendered music of the mass of requiem and the music of the organ added solemnity to the occasion.

His Grace Archbishop McNeil was the celebrant, assisted by Right Rev. Mgr. Whelan as assistant priest; Rev. James Walsh, deacon; Rev. H. Gibbons, sub-deacon; Very Rev. Dean Harris and Father Coyle, deacons of honor; Rev. Father Pennington, master of ceremonies. Others in the sanctuary were: Right Rev. Mgr. Kidd, Right Rev. Mgr. Casey, Peterboro; Right Rev. Mgr. Aylesworth, London; Right Rev. Mgr. Mahoney, Hamilton; Rev. Father Trayling, rector of the cathedral; Rev. Father Curtin, and about 100 priests of the archdiocese.

The sermon was preached by Rev. G. R. Williams, pastor of St. Joseph's, and an intimate friend of the deceased. The speaker told of the 48 years of the ministry of Mgr. McCann, that he had served in many parishes, was three times rector of St. Michael's, and for 25 years vicar-general of the diocese. Mgr. McCann was a man of good taste, prepared intellect, strong judgment, a good administrator, and the gentlest of men. "The great love that he had for children was, perhaps, the strongest force of his life. 'It does not fall to every man to walk with the saints,' said Father Williams, 'but I can say that Mgr. McCann was one of them. I know thy faith, thy charity, thy patience, thy resignation and love.' His name will be a benediction as long as there is a page of the history of Toronto in existence. We will lay him away with prayers and benedictions, and may his life be an inspiration to priests and people alike, so that when our times come we may go as he, happy, prepared and resigned to have a share in the crown which I am sure is already his. May he rest in peace."

The Interment. The pallbearers were Rev. Fathers Melville Staley, Rev. Father Hayes, Rev. Father O'Leary, Rev. Father Trayling and Rev. Father Murray. Dr. O'Leary's casket the last prayer was said by Rev. W. A. McCann, pastor of St. Francis, and nephew of the late monsignor. The lay pallbearers were Messrs. M. Carlon, T. Barr, J. Doyle, J. Carlon, W. O'Hagan, J. Smith and C. Harley. The funeral arrangements were in charge of W. K. Murphy. Relatives present were nephews, John McCann of Ottawa and Louis McCann of New York.

Rev. H. J. Harold of New York, an old friend of Mgr. McCann, was taken ill when on his way to attend the funeral. Rev. W. A. McCann left yesterday afternoon to visit him in the hospital at Buffalo.

HAVE A WINTER CAMP AT EXHIBITION AGAIN

Number Will Be Twice That of Last Year, College and Hospital in Use.

Toronto will have a winter camp again at the "Ex" grounds, but there will be 10,000 troops as compared with 5000 last winter. In addition 2000 overseas men will also be quartered in the old Knox College building and in the old General Hospital on East Gerrard street. It is expected that the troops will come from Niagara camp about the end of October.

The battalions of active service men which will have headquarters in Toronto this fall will be the 85th, 87th, 88th, 74th, 75th, 76th, 83rd, 84th, 82nd, and the 30th and 31st Batteries of artillery.

Major Campbell and several hundred men of the 85th Battalion have been selected to take part in a military display during the fair.

Many of the men at the Niagara camp are now taking advanced training, such as bayonet charging, hand grenade throwing (and making) and trench work.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

Guests at the Highland Inn and the log cabin camps operated by the Grand Trunk Railway System in Algonquin Park, are enthusiastic this year over the splendid fishing that has been experienced and the excellent service that is being given at this popular resort.

Those desiring accommodation should write Miss Jean Lindsay, manager of the Highland Inn, and handsome descriptive literature can be had from any Grand Trunk agent. August and September are two of the most delightful months of the year in this charming region.

CANADIANS FILL TOWNS AROUND SHORNCLIFFE

Sir Robert Borden and General Hughes Reviewed Twenty Thousand Men.

Sidelights on the life of the Canadian troops training in England, and regarding the national war register in Great Britain and Ireland, are contained in a letter just received by Rev. Dr. W. J. McKay from Rev. W. F. Price of London, England. The letter says: "I have been spending some weeks on the coast near Shorncliffe, where the Canadian troops are now located. In the evenings the seaside towns of Folkestone, Hythe and Sandgate are crowded with men wearing the maple leaf badge."

"I was present at a great field day at Sandgate camp. The various events, particularly the tug-of-war between battalions, were strenuously contested. Then I witnessed the review of the Canadian troops by Sir Robert Borden and Major-General Sam Hughes. The evolutions of the twenty thousand or more men made a magnificent spectacle not easily to be forgotten."

Speaking of conditions in Britain the letter says: "For some time the formation of a national register was widely advocated, the object being to enroll the manhood and womanhood of the land for the service of the nation. The roll calls for the names of all there between the ages of 16 and 65."

CITY WILL FIGHT THE YORK RADIAL

Ontario Railway Board Grants Right to Build Farnham Ave. Terminal.

UNFAIR, SAYS MAYOR

Board Declares Privilege Embodied in Original Franchise.

The York Radial Railway yesterday received power from the Ontario Railway Board to build its new terminal station on Farnham avenue, and gained approval of the plans filed for switching and deviation from the Yonge street line. This decision is given subject to any modifications that may appear proper to be made after hearing the city's objections on engineering grounds.

In the judgment of the railway board decree, "the right claimed by the company is so trifling an amplification of rights long enjoyed without question and so obviously necessary to the proper discharge of its functions that it might well be held to be implied in the grant of the power lawfully exercised by the company for years."

Mayor Church was very much displeased over the judgment and declared that the case will be appealed to the privy council. "Our franchise is too valuable to be handed by body that is simply the doorman of the Toronto Railway Co.," said the mayor, and declared the present board should be reorganized by the government and the board of control.

The length of the railway board reads in part as follows: "Of the need of such a terminal station for the city of Toronto, the returns of the company show that it carries upwards of 5,000,000 passengers per annum besides transporting considerable freight. At the present time by reason of its tracks terminating in the highway that large volume of business is necessarily transacted upon the highway and that highway the busiest in Toronto, Yonge street. The position, then, is that the company is lawfully operating its railway on the portion of Yonge street in question; the company owns a parcel of land abutting on that portion of Yonge street upon which admittedly it has the right to erect terminal buildings and tracks; it seeks authority to connect its tracks with its terminal proposed to be erected so that the purposes of its undertaking may be conveniently and efficiently carried out, but the city objects on the ground that the company has no right in law, by statute or agreement, to make this connection. Surely, after all these enabling acts and solemn agreements designed to bring into effect the business of the company, the company might well complain that the denial of a right so vital under such circumstances to the company is to keep the word of promise to our ear and break it to our hope."

How to Clear Your Complexion of All Sorts of Blemishes at Home

By LUCREZIA BORI
Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

FACIAL eruptions are not uncommon at this time of the year, and I have received innumerable requests for an effective treatment for pimples. These unsightly blemishes may be the result of so many different causes that what will be a cure for one person will be useless for another, and I advise you to consult a physician if you find that external remedies do not effect a permanent cure. The application of a lotion made of the following ingredients will prevent pimples:

Camphor water..... 1 pint
Glycerin..... 1/2 ounce
Powdered borax..... 1/4 ounce

Apply Lotion with Wet Cloth. Scrub Face with Complexion Brush. Use Hot Cloth on Face.

This may be used for a substitute for water when bathing the face, and should be allowed to dry into the skin. Another lotion which has been successfully tried in many cases is a mixture containing a teaspoonful of powdered alum dissolved in a half-pint of water. Apply the lotion several times a day, but watch the effect carefully, as it is astringent in action and may prove too drying to the skin.

A two weeks' trial is sufficient to give any of these remedies. If at the end of this period your skin has not improved a more drastic remedy must be applied. The liquid green soap treatment is excellent, and if these directions are followed you can, with but a few exceptions, cure the most stubborn case of blackheads and pimples.

Before retiring cleanse the skin thoroughly with liquid green soap and a complexion brush. Then make a paste by mixing flowers of sulphur with spirits of camphor, and cover the skin with it. In the morning remove the sulphur with soap water and a bland soap and apply to the face a lotion made of equal parts of rosewater and glycerin.

If you find that the pimples do not respond to this treatment and remain hard it will be necessary to open them and eject the secretion which causes the irritation.

This requires a great deal of care, for if done hastily and improperly large sores will be the result. First soften the skin by holding cloths wet with warm water against it for at least five minutes. Next take a fine needle and sterilize it by dipping it into alcohol or boiling water. Lance each pimple with the needle and press it gently, placing a piece of antiseptic gauze over the finger to extract the secretion.

Immediately apply a drop of camphor to contract the hole and then apply a paste made of:

Lanoline..... 1/2 ounce
Almond oil..... 1/2 ounce
Rhubarb root..... 1/2 ounce
Oxide of zinc..... 1/2 ounce
Violet extract..... 1/2 dram

To mix properly, combine the sulphur and zinc with the oil in a smooth paste, lance a pimple without applying an astringent to contract the hole. Pure alcohol, spirits of camphor or cologne water are equally good for this purpose.

The moment pimples make their appearance begin a treatment to restore the complexion to its normal condition, for there is nothing more disfiguring, and after effects upon the skin are enlarged pores and frequently scars which resemble smallpox pits.

To treat the so-called "white pimples" use a soap containing wax to cleanse the skin, and then apply cloths dipped in warm water until the flesh is soft and pliable. Lance each pimple with a sterilized needle and apply an astringent to the hole.

A BRIDE'S OWN STORY of Her Household Adventures

By ISOBEL BRANDS

To Whom Do the Household Savings Belong?

Of course all you men will stick together on that point," pouted Bob's sister Claire, when we discussed the decision of a Brooklyn, New York, judge who some time ago decreed that the money a wife saved from her household allowance belonged to her husband. Claire grew quite bitter about it.

"Just think of scripping and scripping for years—thinking up meat substitutes; mending and patching everybody in the family; denying yourself new hats, in order that you could have some thing laid by! Then after accumulating a little bit, have some man rise up, with the majesty of the law in back of him, and politely command you to turn over your savings to your husband! Here's where I come out strong for our frugal! No woman judge would have given such a decision!

An Interesting Example.

Claire's big, good-natured husband laughed gently. "Let's be perfectly fair. Supposing a woman sat in judgment—what would happen?"

"Why of course she would have decided that the wife was entitled to keep the money she saved herself!" flashed Claire swiftly.

"Guess I'd better refer to this argument," suggested Bob, as we rose from the table. "No use, you know you'll take Leonard's side," said Claire resignedly, "and he keeps on insisting that the money was earned by the husband, and therefore belonged to him until it was spent for the family."

"Let's come down to cases," interrupted Leonard. "Here's Brother Bob with a responsible job. His chief trusts him to buy the tools he needs. This year he spends less money on tools than last year because he knows more about buying them and using them. Does his employer invite him to pocket the difference? Not much."

"The 'Firm's' Profit.

"His employer maybe thanks him, and in his heart is glad he's hired a reliable young man who is on to his job. The money stays in the treasury for the benefit of the firm. Then why should the woman who manages the business of the house be allowed to pocket the difference between what she really needs for her household, and what she can get from her husband?"

"Hit the nail on the head, old man," exclaimed Bob. "Household savings belong to the firm. They don't belong individually to the husband to do as he pleases with, nor to the wife to do as she pleases with, regardless. Because, in my opinion, the family helps save money by being satisfied with cheaper food and mended clothing, just as much as the wife helps by supplying her family in this economical fashion. I'm strong for the joint bank account, where all earnings and savings are for both husband and wife to draw upon."

"That's fine if neither is extravagant," qualified Leonard.

A Joint Account.

"Well, it seems to me that if there's a common goal, both husband and wife are more likely to be self-denying than if they have their own money. I've been saving for my own home and you both planned to save every cent you could in order to get it. Why had I been willing to forget about your new fishing outfit, and Claire would be quite satisfied to cut down military bills," wound up Bob very earnestly.

"Come into the fricas, Bubbles, the water's fine!" laughed Leonard, coming in over to my chair. "What's the opinion of the Experienced Bride?"

"I'll have to be just an echo in this order to get it. You had decided on a joint account and I know it works. Wait until I save some money out of household expenses and then I'll let you know what happens to it!"

"You'll have a long wait," Bob told Leonard, as he explained that our scheme was not to set aside a definite sum for household expenses. We have a budget and know what limit we must not exceed, but I draw whatever money I need, and the rest remains in the bank on deposit. So at the end of the month I never have any "left-over" household funds in my purse.

How Often Have You Swallowed Your Pearls?

By WINIFRED BLACK
Copyright, 1915, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

A NEW YORK doctor took his pretty wife to dine at a smart restaurant the other day.

The pretty wife has a fad for pearls, and every time she gets a chance she orders oysters in the hope that she will find a pearl—a real pearl—a pure, a flawless pearl—between bites.

So the doctor bought a beautiful pearl from a perfectly good jeweler—look it to the restaurant and arranged with the waiter to serve the oyster with the pearl in one of the shells.

The doctor's wife ate her oysters, and for the first time in years she swallowed them whole without chewing them.

She swallowed the pearl—too.

And now the doctor doesn't know whether to tell her about it or not.

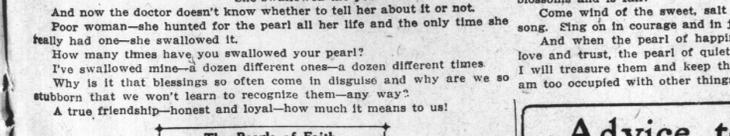

Poor woman—she hunted for the pearl all her life and the only time she really had one—she swallowed it.

How many times have you swallowed your pearl?

I've swallowed mine—a dozen different ones—a dozen different times.

Why is it that blessings so often come in disguise and why are we so stubborn that we won't learn to recognize them—any way?

A true friendship—honest and loyal—how much it means to us!

The Pearls of Faith.

I'd cross the continent to be of some use to the true friend who really cares for me—and yet, the other day, because a woman I have loved for many years, did not agree with me about a matter of purely vague philosophy, I came within an ace of quarrelling with her.

My ballot in the honor and the faith of man—I wouldn't lose it for anything in the world, I'd rather die than live to believe that all men are liars and all women deceivers.

Yet, the other day, because one poor weakling broke a sacred vow—I almost let my faith in humanity die.

The love and trust of a little child—what can you give me in exchange for it?

It will comfort when everything else is a misery. It is a joy when all the world is sad. It is the sun shining in the shadiest place—and yesterday I almost broke a promise to a little trusting child, just because it was convenient for me to forget my appointment with him.

The pearls—the beautiful pearls—how easily we let them slip away from us!

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By LEONA DALRYMPLE

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and the McClure Co. as judge.

One Cause of Quarrels.

MARY and I have had ironic proof of the contagion of ill-temper. All unwittingly we started on something that linked Mary, mother, dad, the cook and myself in a correlated middle of friction. It all started in a difference of mood, more often than not the cause of misunderstanding. We had plenty of time to spare, and after I had bathed and shaved myself into coolness we decided to motor until 6 o'clock. Which sounded innocent and pleasant enough and certainly quite devoid of any such possibilities as it eventually developed. If it hadn't been for the tennis and a knock in the engine—mother wouldn't have quarrelled with the cook about the tomatoes—all of which seem utterly unrelated—and wasn't.

Tennis or Dancing?

The cloud no bigger than a man's hand of which we read in every sea story lay over the fact that Mary was in a glow of vivacity and good humor and I was rather tired and absent-minded.

"Mrs. Kayes," she began radiantly, "has invited us to join the tennis club. I'm simply tickled to death. It's a very exclusive, Peter, and really very few people have the chance to join."

Now I must confess that I received this only with my sub-conscious mind. A horrified sense of having missed something else Mary had said.

"What do you think?" she was saying.

"I don't know," I said rather cautiously. "What do you?"

"I told you a minute ago, what I think," she said. "It's merely for you to say now."

She waited quite some time and I felt that she was trapped. Mary's cheeks grew very red and she relapsed into silence. "Did you hear what I said?" inquired Mary coldly.

"I wish you'd listen," said Mary. "I don't think you listen in the least what I said. I said: 'Were you willing to go to the dance?'"

Peter Inattentive Again.

"What dance?" I asked stupidly.

"I spoke of it a minute ago—the tennis dance?"

"Oh!" said I, and caught that confounded tennis racket in the engine again. I was fairly sure it was a valve tap and listened intently.

I came out of my abstraction with a horrified sense of having missed something else Mary had said.

"What do you think?" she was saying.

"I don't know," I said rather cautiously. "What do you?"

"I told you a minute ago, what I think," she said. "It's merely for you to say now."

She waited quite some time and I felt that she was trapped. Mary's cheeks grew very red and she relapsed into silence. "Did you hear what I said?" inquired Mary coldly.

FASHION REVERTS TO QUANT 1840

Ample Skirts, Widening Sleeves and Tassels Are Latest Novelties

Very Newest Frock of Blue and White Plaid Silk and Blue Chiffon.

AME FASHION went straight back to crinolene days when she designed this old-fashioned frock of blue and white checked taffeta. Then, because it was so fascinating and lovely she called it "Eugenie," after the beautiful empress who ruled the world of fashion as well as France during the second empire.

It does not require a great stretch of the imagination to picture how the belles of 1840 appeared in their wide skirts and poke bonnets with the present styles to aid us.

Modern designers have, if anything, improved upon the fashions of other days, for they have added little original touches which lift the frock above the commonplace. For instance, in this attractive frock plain blue chiffon has been combined with the checked taffeta to produce a charming effect. The bodice is decidedly Quakerish in line, and has a broad collar of white organdie about the pointed neck line.

The long sleeves of the chiffon and are finished with pleated frills. The ample skirt of chiffon is gathered about the waist and has a deep band of the plaid taffeta extending nearly to the knees. Above this is a narrow band of the plaid, leaving about eight inches of the transparent material to show between.

To carry out the old-fashioned idea still further the trimming used on this frock consists of dark blue silk tassels. After they are attached, intervals, to the front of the frock in a straight line extending from the base of the collar to the hem.

The Victorian bonnet worn with this frock is quite charming in a shade of blue a trifle lighter than the frock. Flowers are banded across the front and side in a manner which suggests a garden path bordered with hollyhocks and lavender.

The parasol is of plain blue silk bordered with large white polka dots.

Taken as a whole, the wearer of this costume looks as if she might have stepped from an old painting.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Live in the Sunlight If You Wish to Be Well

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

ET there be light!" said God; and forthwith Light, ethereal, first of things, quiescence pure, sprung from the deep.

Won from the void and formless infinite; rising from the chaos of darkness nothingness; born before the sun and before the heavens, at the voice of God, came Light.

Then came the creation of Life! The significance of this sequence seems to have been better understood by ancient man, of a thousand years ago, than by the men of today—that is, until the discoveries lately of ultraviolet rays, X-rays, radium rays, and the other magnetic and life-giving properties of light.

The absence of light is no more dramatically appreciated by any one than by animal keepers. Guinea pigs, monkeys, rabbits, and other fresh-air, out-door animals, when confined to gloomy, lightless cages, soon become pale and wan and die of tuberculosis and other muggy and leaden dull diseases.

Light Invigorates Muscles.

You may well weep when the light is dead! Sunshine, day-out-of-doors are the hours for gods to stoop and men to soar.

The magnetic and chemical powers of light stir you to the marrow literally and not in a poetic sense. One bright day gives heart and life enough to your invigorated muscles to conquer mild disease, repair injuries and overcome all human enemies.

Light is composed of a legion of violently active rays. The popular scientific explanation of colors which act upon a photographic film or plate and cause chemical changes are only to be found in the violet part of the spectrum—the rainbow—is now known to be but a small part of the truth.

All light rays, the violet, blue, green, yellow, orange, pink and red are also richly active upon all living and insensible nature. The yellow and the red, as well as the blue, contain and produce "actinic," "photo-electric," "chemically active" effects upon health and disease, minerals and water, man and vegetation.

Power of May's Sun.

Health comes and remains in the broad sunlight. Not only do the wheels of Phoebus dapple the sky with gold, but he peels away the dead, diseased tissues beyond the reach of soap and utmost, and he destroys the malarial-making microbes.

The seashore, the mountain resorts, the open country, and the springs are the as logical as places for winter and spring sojourn as for summer. The brilliant glow of the cheery sun is as bold in May as July.

The Brush-like Chopstick Piles.

WHERE FORKMAKERS MAINTAIN HUGE LUMBER YARDS.

CROSS the river from the city of Yangtze in China, I strolled one day into the strangest lumber yard I ever may find to my fortune to see. Little piles that looked more like small brush heaps than anything else were scattered about the yard. My guide smilingly asked me to guess what they were. I had to give it up.

"Chopsticks," he grinned. "Those that are made on the premises are freighted down the river from the towns above. This is the central market for chopsticks for all the country around."

Chopsticks, as you know, take the place of forks and spoons in China. Little smooth, round sticks of wood, perhaps eight inches long, they are made from every kind of wood—but the cheapest are turned out of bamboo. These little piles were all bamboo chopsticks.

As every Chinese man, woman and child needs at least one pair of chopsticks, and as they have to be thrown away when they have been used a few times, the demand is enormous. Literally they are made by the million. Brought into the yard to bleach in the rain and sun, the innumerable little brush-like heaps of chopsticks gave one a true impression of the countless inhabitants of teeming China.

Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are keeping company with two nice boys that we dearly love. Do you think that if they go to a party that we do not care to go to that we should get angry with them? Do you think it is their place for us to stay away when it is impossible for us to go?

Do you think that a boy can care very much for a girl when he goes to a party without his own friend, as he will have to take another girl home? And do you think that when he has an engagement on that day he should stay away because it is raining and he has a quite a distance to come?

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a young girl, 15 years old, and rather attractive looking, and I have a number of boy friends, but I am dissatisfied all the time. It is not that I am in love, because I know I am not old enough yet, but I am not happy when I go out. I don't take any pleasure in people or things. Could you tell me how to become interested in things and people?

SWEET SIXTEEN.

SOME thinking so much about yourself, Sweet Sixteen, and make up your mind to think more about other people, their pleasures and their sorrows.

Go out and take long walks in the country, exercise every morning and evening in your own room, and during the day keep as busy as you can. It is only by being busy all the time that one continues to be mentally keen and interested in the things that go on about her and the people that she meets.

The Yonge Street Switching Decision.

There is nothing in the act to prevent the chairman of the Ontario Railway Board, like Mr. Wegg, dropping into poetry in a friendly way.

Great things were hoped from the Ontario Board, but it has been almost invariably the hopes of the corporations which have been justified.

And break it to our hope. The poetry does not offend the blow in the least which the board has given the city.

Where the Southern Cross kept vigil. Was the slogan heard; And his robes and trackless desert.

Where the eastern splendor dazzled. With its lazy ease, Still the never-ending echo Trembled on the breeze.

Where the outposts of the empire Sounded their call; There the call came winging to them, On its distant quest.

And the men who heard it answered, "Britain must not call in vain; All the paths that they were treading, Led back home again."

The question arises in the minds of many citizens, friends of public ownership, men who are anxious to see the city freed from the shackles of transportation franchises, whether it would not have been wiser to consider the offer of the company to divert their tracks along the bank of the Don?

All this affects, and affects vitally, not only the city, but the whole hydro-electric radial policy. It would be of interest to know what Sir Adam Beck thinks about the situation.

We cannot compliment the present city administration with having acted with courage at a time when the question of the possession of Yonge street had reached a crucial stage.

Inclinations of the Ontario Railway Board.

There has been any amount of denunciation of the methods of secret diplomacy in connection with the present war, and we believe that the principle of secret diplomacy is all wrong.

Perhaps it does not exist and the city has not yet formulated a plan. If this be the case, it is high time it did.

Instead of bending all their energies to aid in the successful prosecution of the war some estimable people in the United Kingdom are worrying over what is going to happen after it is over.

It is particularly true of the advocates of the peace movement. Had their views prevailed the nations of Europe that are now resisting German ambition after world dominions would have been even less prepared than they were to stem the first tide of attack.

As might have been anticipated, the arch-braggart bragged. Just that! God be thanked, the sons of Britain Heard her battle cry, Like an echo from the shadows, Where our fathers lie.

Every wind that swept the prairie Carried it along, Every berg that broke and drifted Thundered forth the song.

Where the Southern Cross kept vigil, Was the slogan heard; And his robes and trackless desert, Listened and was stirred.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE

It would be in every way fitting that Sir Robert Borden should receive a magnificent welcome upon his return to Canada.

The Winnipeg Telegram thinks, however, that after his return to the capital Sir Robert Borden should make a tour across the continent.

There was some wonder expressed in the west as to just why Mr. Newton Wesley Rowell, Liberal leader in Ontario, chose to tour western Canada.

"The mystery has just been explained by a report, which bears some evidence of being official, that Mr. Rowell is to step into the shoes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the Liberal party in the Dominion.

While The Toronto Globe and other Liberal newspapers have been busy with their "grooming" of Mr. Rowell, the Ottawa press has been busy with their "grooming" of Mr. Rowell as a candidate for his leadership.

Possibly Mr. Rowell is not in this part of the country or he would have attended the big water picnic at Musselman Lake on Saturday last.

The Regina Leader says it is up to the people to replace the state-owned liquor shops by straight prohibition.

The government liquor stores in Saskatchewan will be abolished, not by act of the government, but by a vote of the people.

Prohibition is certainly making great headway in the west. The Norris government will pass a prohibition bill at the first session of the legislature to become effective if ratified by the people.

Council Will Make Final Effort to Settle Fire Commissionship.

YORK RADIAL DECISION Mayor Condemns Railway Board for Granting Terminal Privilege.

Unless conditions change before 11 o'clock this morning Col. J. P. Langton will once more come under the guillotine when the city council meets at that hour to discuss for the fourth time his nomination by the board of control for the position of fire commissioner.

The board of control is preparing a recommendation with a view to giving a temporary service on that portion of Yonge street south of Farnham street.

It was rumored at the city hall yesterday that the history of other years would be repeated and that there would be an overdraft again this year.

When asked if there would be an overdraft this year the mayor said "I am not sure, but I am not sure."

Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., says that the report of infant mortality during the month of July will be quite favorable.

Commissioner Chisholm informed the property committee yesterday that it would cost $20,000 to put a new roof on the city hall.

The city treasurer yesterday received four more $1,000 insurance cheques from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

LUQUE AGAIN WINS ONE FOR CLYMER

Cuban Held the Hustlers Safe While Leafs Scored Three Runs.

Special to The Toronto World. ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 16.—Toronto won the first game of the series with Rochester, 3 to 2. All of the Toronto runs were made in the third inning and followed a questionable decision at the plate which would have been third out. Luque was invincible except in the first and third rounds, in each of which the Hustlers scored a lone tally. Rath was the batting star for the Canadian nine, getting two hits, one of which was a double. Luque fanned six Hustlers, and each pitcher was credited with three batters on balls.

NO HIT CONTEST IN FEDERAL LEAGUE

Miles Main of Kansas City Put It Over on the Buffeds.

At Buffalo (Federal)—Miles Main of Kansas City was given credit for a no-hit no-run game over Buffalo today. The visitors scored five runs off Foley, who was hit freely in the first and last innings. The only semblance of a contest was in the third inning, when Blair sent a grounder to short. Rawlings knocked down with his glove so hand, but made no effort to throw out Blair at first base. The official scorer recorded the play as a hit, but after talking to the umpires and players tonight changed his decision, giving Rawlings an error on the play.

At Buffalo—Chicago defeated Baltimore 6 to 4. McConnell was in good form throughout while Suggs was hit opportunistly. Errors helped Baltimore to four runs in the ninth. McConnell and Mann had home runs over the left field fence. Score: R.H.E. Chicago, 6; Baltimore, 4. Umpires: Fischer and Suggs, Leclair and Owens.

At Pittsburgh—Hearne was easy for the Brooklyns and they defeated Pittsburgh by a score of 4 to 1. Finerman passed seven men, but was unhit when he pitched. Score: R.H.E. Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyns, 4. Umpires: Finerman and Land; Hearne and O'Connell.

President of N. A. A. O For the Fourteenth Time

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 16.—The annual meeting of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen was held at the Cooper House in this city. James Filkington of New York was elected president for the fourteenth consecutive year.

The other officers elected were: J. Denegre of St. Paul, vice-president; Claude P. Sponson of Washington, treasurer; R. H. Felton of Brooklyn, secretary; Fred Fortmeyer of New York, honorary secretary. All these officers were re-elected, except Mr. Fortmeyer, who resigned. He was given the position of secretary which he held so long.

Five members were elected to the executive board, four of them, J. O. Regan of New York, C. W. Prelesandz of Philadelphia, J. J. Schaaf of St. Louis and C. E. Sumner of San Francisco, having no opposition.

The only contest was between Robert Pelton of Brooklyn and R. E. Williamson of Baltimore for secretary. Treasurer Carl Sponson in his report showed a balance of $1862.83, the largest in many years.

The Estonia R.B. team will practise on Tuesday and Thursday on the Don Flats, west side, at six o'clock. All players are requested to turn out.

SENSATIONAL WORK SAVED THE RED SOX

Gallia Let Them Down With Two Hits, But Lost—Boland's Good Twirling.

At Boston (American)—In scoring the only run of yesterday's game the last of the local series with Washington, the Red Sox accomplished the unusual feat of defeating the Senators in each of the eleven games played between the teams on Friday and Saturday. The pitchers' battle between Wood and Gallia was notable for the latter's fine pitching and his even more brilliant support by Milan. Wood was hit at times and was inclined to wildness, but lightened in the pinches and had sensational support from Barry and Lewis. Score: Washington, 1; Boston, 0. Umpires: Gallia and Henry; Wood and Cady.

At Cleveland—Detroit took both games from Cleveland yesterday, 8 to 3 and 3 to 1. Not a hit was made off Boland in the second game until there were two outs in the ninth. Then Ben Paschal, batting for Pitcher Hagerman, singled cleanly over second, robbing Boland of a no-hit game. Wambagans's two errors, both muffs of throws, gave Detroit all of its three runs. Cleveland's one run was scored by Chapman, who was hit with a pitched ball, stole second, took third on a passed ball and home on a hit thrown by Bush. Score: Detroit, 8; Cleveland, 3. Umpires: Paschal and Starnes; Hagerman and Starnes.

At New York—Philadelphia, playing its last game of the season in New York, shut out the Yankees by a score of 2 to 0. It being only the fourth no-hit game in New York this season. Bresler almost pitched a no-hit game, as Boone scored New York's only run in the fourth, which Walsh could not hold after making a fine attempt. Score: Philadelphia, 2; New York, 0. Umpires: Bresler and McAvoy; Caldwell and Nunamaker.

At St. Louis—Chicago opened the season at St. Louis by taking a double-header from the locals, the first 6 to 1 and the second 3 to 1. Robbie's Seven Straight Hits.

Wilbert Robinson, pilot of the Dashing Dodgers, is out with a claim of being the possessor of the world's record for consecutive hitting in one game. Last Monday, George Cutshaw, second baseman of the Dodgers, made six straight safeties in a game with the Cubs, during which the Brooklyn club won twenty-three hits. This mark was said to be Clarence Beaman's world's record made in 1899. However, the "dope" shell was dusted off the other day and it was found that Wilbert Robinson holds the world's record of seven straight hits in as many times at bat in a single contest. This occurred on June 11, 1892, in a game between the Baltimore and St. Louis teams. Robinson, then catcher for the Orioles, secured seven hits in the twenty-five hits credited to his team, yet he scored only one of the twenty-five runs made by his side.

INCREASE IN HORSES

Number of Cattle, Apart From Milch Cows, Also Larger.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—The numbers of farm live stock in Canada at June 30, 1915, were as follows:
Horses, 2,996,093; milch cows, 2,666,846; other cattle, 3,898,155; all cattle, 6,565,001; sheep, 2,038,662; swine, 3,111,900. As compared with 1914, these figures represent increases of 48,361 horses; 35,674 other cattle, and 29,154, all cattle, but decreases of 6440 milch cows; 19,383 sheep, and 322,361 swine. Notwithstanding the large and sudden exportation of farm animals, the numbers in Canada are being fairly well maintained. The large decrease in the numbers of swine, with a correspondingly large exportation to the United States, applies principally to Alberta, where, owing to the increased cost of grain stuffs caused by the war, swine feeding became unprofitable, large numbers of swine being thrown upon the market last fall.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The champion Kew Beach team of the Senior Beaches League have again captured the honors this year. Much credit must be given Ramsey, the Kew's star pitcher. It also speaks well of Manager Norris' ability, it falling to his lot to build up practically an entirely new team, and on their present showing they are fair to make a creditable record in the coming trophy game.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S PRAISE OF CANADIANS

Premier Pays Glowing Tribute in Letter to General Alderson.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 16.—A portion of a letter received by General Alderson, commanding the first Canadian division, from Sir Robert Borden on July 30 last has been incorporated in a divisional order for all to see and read. It says:
"The fine spirit of the Canadian division," says Sir Robert, "and their evident efficiency for the great task in which they are engaged very deeply impressed me. It was a great privilege to have the opportunity of seeing them and of conveying to them from the people of Canada a message of pride and appreciation. As I said on more than one occasion in addressing the officers and men, they can hardly realize how intensely all Canada has been thrilled by the tidings of their achievements."
"The president of the French republic, as well as General Joffre and Sir John French, spoke of the troops under your command in terms of the highest praise."
"I bid you godspeed in the great task in which you are engaged."
(Signed) Sir Robert Borden.

WAR STOCKS AGAIN ROSE AT NEW YORK

Many Specialties Made Record Prices as Result of Manipulation.

U. S. STEEL FEATURE TOP QUOTATION WITHIN RECENT YEARS WAS ALMOST REACHED.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Further furious manipulation of the war shares at higher prices, and utter demoralization in the market for foreign exchange, were the conflicting features of today's session on the stock exchange.

Trading in the issues completely overwhelmed the dealings in other parts of the list, U. S. Steel being the only former favorite to manifest activity and strength.

On a very large overturn, ranging in individual lots from 100 to 4000 shares, Steel advanced 1 1/2% to 44 1/2.

High records were scored by American Steel at 64, Pressed Steel at 67, Westinghouse at 113, and Studebaker common and preferred at 100 and 94 1/2, respectively.

The extreme gain of Studebaker common for the day was 20 1/2% from 80 to 97 1/2.

Other stocks in the same class added two to six points to last week's high quotations, with irregular reactions towards the close.

Coppers Made Advances. Coppers recovered from their recent lethargy, their advance of three points being stimulated by reports of large sales of the refined metal.

Large sales of the refined metal, however, were under persistent pressure until the first hour, when a recovery in the exchange market caused an enquiry for the Pacific and other dividend-payers.

Total sales aggregated 970,000 shares, with the decline in remittances to London, Paris and Italian cities.

Five points from the low of last week, Paris featured a recovery in the market, adding two to six points to last week's high quotations, with irregular reactions towards the close.

Other news bearing upon the financial situation dealt with another report of a recovery in the exchange market, and crop advices from the west and southwest.

WHEAT RECEIPTS DEPRESSED PRICES

Display of Samples Proved Too Much for Hardest Bull Traders.

THRESHING ADVANCES WEATHER IS IDEAL, BUT FURTHER HEAVY RAINS ARE APPREHENDED.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Huge receipts here today, aggregating 1,388 carloads, weighed down the price of wheat.

The market, also steady at the close with Sept. at $1.04 1/2 and Dec. at $1.04, was 1 1/2% under Saturday's finish.

Other leading staples, too, all showed a net decline—corn 1/4 to 1/2, oats 1/4 to 1/2 and provisions 1/4 to 1/2.

The spectacle of sample tables, clear across the exchange floor piled high with little bags that each represented a new car of wheat just arrived in Chicago, proved too much today for the nerves of the market.

Weather conditions favored threshing and shipping, and there were despatches at hand, predicting tremendous yields in the spring crop states to the northwest and in Canada as well.

A new low record for sterling exchange was also a boisterous influence. The wheat market, however, was steadied later by the fact that a good export demand appeared to have developed, a circumstance that seemed at least in part a result of the decline in prices.

About 1,000,000 bushels, as estimated, have been sold to Europe including business not announced on Saturday.

Some additional support for wheat developed in the late transactions, owing to a report that a gull storm reported at Galveston would bring heavy unwelcome rains in the winter crop states to the southwest.

Corn weakened with wheat. Subsequently, however, pessimistic crop advices from Iowa tended to bring about a rally that left the market steady at the close, with Sept. 73 1/2 and Dec. 83 1/2.

Paris featured a recovery in the market, adding two to six points to last week's high quotations, with irregular reactions towards the close.
