BIG CROWD SAW SEMI-FINALS BALDWIN WON HEAVYWEIGHT

Final Bouts Decided To-Night in Mutual Street Rink—The Program.

Acting under the best advice, and knowing the unfortunate ending of the first bout on Thursday to be purely accidental, the management of the city amateur tournament continued the show last night, there being another large crowd present. The chief constable, who issued the permit, advised that each contestant be examined before entering the ring. This was done, and, the none was refused permission to box by Dr. Graham, some were advised that their condition was not the best, and, with over-weights and derails, the number of bouts was lessened considerably. But the seven seemed to satisfy the jury of those present, and the prospects are for another big attendance to-night in the Mutual-street rink.

The bouts were all well contested and pulled off in the usual prompt manner, all being splendidly sparring exhibitions. C. Christie (Good Luck) and R. Foster (West End) furnished one of the best contests of the evening. Both boys are very clever. First two rounds were a little in Christie's favor. Foster came back strong in the third and put up a strong argument, but owing to Christie's work in the first two rounds he was given the decision.

The first bout of the evening started with E. W. Cross (R.C.B.C.) and E. Sullivan (West End). The set-to was spoiled by Cross hitting his hand in the second round. The crowd was rather disappointed by this, as the set-to was very clever, as far as it went. Sullivan was given the decision.

R. S. Baker (Dons) and E. Smith (Maple Leaf) met in the third set-to of the evening. Baker, who was given the decision, showed more experience than his opponent. Smith, who is a clever boy, lacked the experience and condition of his opponent. An extra round was needed to decide.

J. Hall (Barrie) and J. Christie (West End) met in the middleweight class. Hall, who was much the smaller man, was giving weight. Christie had all the better of the bout, flooring his man in the third round. The bout was stopped by the referee, who gave a well-earned decision to Christie. Hall is a game boxer, and was applauded for his clever work. The crowd cheered him on his leaving the ring. He is a young Englishman, and has the advantage of the instruction of an experienced trainer, Christie, an all-round athlete, and well-known second of boxers.

T. Holt (West End) and W. Curtis (Good Luck). This set-to started with both boxers sparring very cautiously. Curtis, who was inclined to hit clinches, was warned by the referee. Holt had his man well in hand from the start of the second round. Both boys were applauded several times for their very clever boxing. Holt was given a well-earned decision.

In the 125-lb. class, W. Sinclair (Strathcona) and S. Simmons (Good Luck) furnished a very interesting contest. Simmons, who is a tall boy, had the appearance of a coming boxer, and with a little more experience will make the best of them. He always took his punishment good-naturedly and with a broad smile. Sinclair, who has the experience, was given the decision. Both were well applauded.

The last bout of the evening was a surprise for everyone, when J. Baldwin (T. R. C.) met E. Laura (Good Luck) in the heavy-weight class. The set-to had not gone one round when Baldwin floored Laura with a swing to the head. The referee stopped the bout and gave Baldwin the decision. Laura was very much disappointed at not being allowed to continue.

Announcer Bennett again was successful in securing good order. Art Edmunds was warmly welcomed on being introduced as a Toronto boy who has made a name for himself in New York.

Summary.
Extra, 118 lbs., Christie (Good Luck) beat R. Foster (West End); decision.
Special, 125 lbs., R. S. Baker (Dons) defeated E. Smith (Maple Leaf B.B.C.); four rounds.
W. Sinclair (Strathcona) beat S. Simmons (Good Luck); decision.
Lightweight, 135 lbs., T. Holt (West End) beat W. Curtis (Good Luck); decision.
E. Sullivan (West End) beat E. W. Cross (R.C.B.C.); injury to hand, second round.
Middleweight, 168 lbs., J. Christie (West End) beat J. Hall (Barrie); third round.
Heavyweight, J. Baldwin (Toronto Rowing Club) beat E. Laura (Good Luck); bout stopped, first round.

Draw for To-Night.
Owing to circumstances several of the boxers dropped out on Friday night, but still there were seven bouts. These decided leave only two semi-finals and nine finals to be decided on closing night. The events will be put on according to the following program:

C. AND M. OFFICERS MEET.

New Clubs Are Admitted and League Rules Revised—Umpires Appointed.

The executive committee and secretaries of the Church and Mercantile Cricket League met Thursday at Messrs. Eastman & Lightbourne's offices, 35 East Adelaide street, to finish the business left over from the annual meeting.

St. James' Cathedral C.C. and St. Bar- nard's C.C. were admitted to membership. St. Mark's and St. Stephen's C.C.'s having merged into the Parkdale C.C., the latter was allowed to enter a team in the C. and M. C. L. after stringent rules had been drawn up, prohibiting C. and M. C. L. players from playing in other leagues. The Rose- dale Junior C.C. will also have a team in the C. and M. C. L. under these conditions.

The revision of the league rules caused a considerable discussion. They were eventually amended and added to in a manner that will prevent any future misconstruction of their meaning.

A staff of umpires was secured, consisting of Messrs. H. Chapman, T. Stens, W. Briggs, Dr. Gresser, J. Jones, J. O'Brien and T. Wilkes. These gentlemen all thoroughly understand the rules of cricket, and their appointment ensures efficient and satisfactory umpiring of C. and M. C. L. games for the future. The executive will appoint the umpires for each game. The league will again be divided into eastern and western sections, and the clubs were grouped as follows:

Eastern section—Rose-dale Juniors, St. Clement's, Deer Park, Ontario Accident and St. James' C.C.'s.

Western section—St. Cyril's, Dovercourt Parkdale and St. James' C.C.'s.

The league fixtures were arranged and will be published shortly. The meeting was an enthusiastic and interesting one, as every playing club was well represented, and everything points to the coming season being the most successful in the history of the C. and M. C. L.

Three new clubs were admitted to membership in the association, Grace Church, Rosedale Juniors and Parkdale being the lucky ones.

In regard to a communication from the Montreal C.C. suggesting that an association be formed in Ontario to correspond with that of the Eastern Canada Cricket Association, and that representatives from the two associations form a committee to select international eleven and transact matters of national cricket interest, a resolution was passed delaying action in the matter until the next meeting of the association.

The secretary's report was read and accepted, and officers for 1906 elected, as follows:

Hon. president, His Excellency Earl Grey.
President—Dyce W. Saunders.
Vice-presidents—G. E. Moberly, Montreal; F. M. Caldecott, Vancouver; Dr. Beemer, Winnipeg; J. W. Woods, Toronto; and J. L. Connell, Hamilton.
Hon. Secretary—J. E. Hall.
Assistant Secretary—E. H. Leighton.
Selection Committee—J. H. Forester, W. H. Garrett, L. Connell, Dr. Beemer, D. W. Saunders, H. B. McGovern and D. C. Baber.
District Match Committee—J. McElroy, E. H. Leighton, F. Grey, L. Rawlinson, Dr. Beemer, H. S. Reid, W. W. Vickers.

Cricket Meeting Adjourned.
Last night's meeting of Toronto Cricket League was adjourned till next Friday night at the King Edward, when the schedule will be adopted.

AMENDMENTS COMING IN.

Secretary Hall Received Three More Yesterday—Other Nominees.

Secretary W. H. Hall received three amendments yesterday to be considered by the C. L. A. convention on Good Friday.

President George L. Allen of Mount Forest moves that a regulation be adopted for the Junior and intermediate series, providing for a residence stipulation. May 1 is named as the date. Players in the rural districts will be eligible for C. L. A. teams in the nearest town.

Mr. Allen also proposes an amendment compelling the clubs to pay their $25 bonds to the secretary instead of to the president. J. K. Munro's amendment is to give the referee power to fine players in the senior series for using abusive language on the field to the referee or to each other.

Harry Gillespie, former yof Orangefield, is nominated for first vice and the captain. Benny Law, Toronto Junction, and W. J. Young, Chatham, are other nominees for the C. L. A. council.

Young Torontonians Will Meet.

The annual reorganization meeting of the Young Toronto Lacrosse Club will be held at Campbell's Chop House, West King street, on Wednesday April 4, at 8:30 p.m. All lovers of the game, old or young, are cordially invited.

Cornwall, the Nursery of Lacrosse.

Cornwall, March 30.—(Special).—A representative of one of the Nationals was in Cornwall this week interviewing some of the local players with a view to securing their services for the coming summer. It is said that three or four players were approached and offered inducements to leave their happy homes, but declined.

This sort of thing has been going on for years, and each season Cornwall has furnished enough new players to outside clubs to form a first-class team. But the old town produces more expert lacrosse players than all the other centres combined, and with half a dozen teams relying for their chief strength on Cornwall's trained stick-handlers, there is still enough material left to land the championship for 1906. If the program laid out by those who are now taking an interest in the club is carried out, Cornwall is certainly entitled to be called the nursery of lacrosse.

Basketball.

The Boys' Club basketball team defeated the Clippers of the Central Y.M.C.A. last night by the score of 30-32. The half-time score was 14-12 in favor of Clippers. The game was fast and inclined to be rough. Boys' Club (32)—Walker, Smith, Dave, Russell, Armour and Kohnen (32).
Clippers (30)—Armour, Dale, Tompkins, Hogg, Fullerton and West (spare).
The second game was between Stratford and the crack Tongolias of Central. In the first half the Tongolias played 36-30. In this half the Tongolias played poorly, their passing and shooting being bad. In the second half they came to life and played their usual speedy game, outclassing the visitors by 66 to 37 at full-time. Ward for Stratford scored 7 baskets and played a good passing game on the floor, as did Preston and Rankin. Referee Mal- colm had the players well in hand. Teams: Tongolias (60)—Sivert, McIlvrey, Miller, Walker, Henderson and Mayo. Stratford (37)—Preston, Wilson, Ward, Rankin and Chastler.

SODA FOUNTAINS AND HOTELS

Ninepin Tournament.

Quite a few more played their games yesterday. The feature of the day's rolling was Jim Ryan's score of 27, which is a record for him. He won the booby prize last week. The scores:

H. Phelan 20, W. Armstrong 17, F. Dissette 21, H. Dissette 21, A. Dissette 23, George Duffie 26, Niblock 27, H. Todd 21, J. Ryan 27, C. Passmore 16.

Manufacturers' B.B. League Meet.

The Toronto Manufacturers' Baseball League held their annual meeting in Scholes' Hotel Friday night. The following officers were elected:

Hon. patron, Controller J. J. Ward, T. C. Robinette, Robert Watson, J. Booth, Mr. Selinger, Mr. Hartman, W. Ackland; president, Mr. Macnamara; vice-president, Mr. Smith; secretary-treasurer, B. Brydon; executive committee, Messrs. Murray, Bennett, Currie, Dowling.

Rowe Appeal Heard Yesterday.

The appeal of the Rowe case was brought up yesterday afternoon at Osrode Hall. Mr. Hewson of Barrie represented Rowe, while Mr. Middleton acted for the O.H.A. It was shown that the O.H.A. had not deprived Rowe of any property, and that the court had no jurisdiction in their private affairs.

Rowe Appeal Heard Yesterday.

After hearing both sides argue their case, the Judge, Chancellor Boyd and Justices McGee and Mabee, reserved their decision.

Cornwall Tennis Club Elect Officers.

Cornwall, March 30.—(Special).—At the annual meeting of the Cornwall Tennis Club last evening there was a very good attendance of tennis enthusiasts and the prospects for the coming season are very bright.

The following officers were elected: Pre-

The Month of Dangerous Colds.

Cold one day, mild the next. This is just the kind of weather in which coughs and colds start their beginning. And who can tell the result of a neglected cold?

Colds prove dangerous, not so much because people do not know of some reliable cure, such as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, but rather because of neglect to make use of it.

You are not experimenting when you use this well-known family medicine, because people do in thousands of homes, where time and again it has proven its exceptional worth.

When you make up your mind to safeguard yourself or family by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine do not allow your druggist to persuade you into taking something on which he may have a larger profit.

You will find that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine will not fail you in the hour of emergency; 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

WHAT THE TELEPHONE QUESTION INVOLVES

Public ownership wins converts everywhere except in the Dominion cabinet. This is not surprising since it is entirely a democratic principle. In Britain where its practical operation has been most thoroughly tried it is a cardinal plank in the platform of the Liberal party. The imperial government conducts the telegraph service certified by Mr. Aylesworth to be of exceptional excellence—it will in 1911 take over the telephone service, and already Mr. Henniker Heaton, the postoffice reformer, has visions of a rate somewhere about 25 cents a week. In other European countries where government ownership and operation prevails, the result has been to give the people better and cheaper facilities. That result would equally follow in Canada, were the Dominion government what it professes to be and what its apologists are never tired of assuring the people it really is.

Proof is already forthcoming that in the matter of nationalizing the telephone service the same force is to be repeated which served its purpose passing well in the northwest educational controversy. The citizens of Canada will again be told that loyalty to the principles of the Reform party is of no account when it may possibly involve the defeat of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government. According to the sacrifice of public rights must be condoned, and the pledging of Canada's future for the benefit of capitalist interests must be homologated, rather than incur the risk of the transfer of the reins of government to other hands. These specious appeals to the worst elements of party spirit have hitherto served their turn. Will they continue to do it, now that a question so close to the convenience and welfare of the community as that of the telephone service is, has come up for disposal by parliament?

It is now as clear as noon-day that the real reason of Sir William Mulock's retirement was the rejection by his colleagues of his policy for nationalization of the telephone and telegraph services. There is no reason to doubt that the late postmaster-general was a convinced supporter of this policy—indeed the only upholder of it in the cabinet. So long as his friendship for government ownership was purely platonic it was tolerated by the ministry as a politic method of conciliating public ownership men who also happened to be Liberals. But when Sir William Mulock proceeded to carry his convictions to the point of enquiry by a parliamentary committee as a preliminary to legislative action he became objectionable and was quietly retired on a convenient fiction. His committee died when he departed, and the government proceeded to prepare a bill confirming private ownership and management of the telephone service—sweetening the dose with government control of rates and the concession of a right to independent lines of connection with other systems and of access to railway stations.

This trivial product of the ministerial mind will no doubt be followed by the blessing of the application by the Bell Telephone Company for power to add largely to its capital. When that is done the difficulty of getting rid of the practical monopoly it enjoys will be correspondingly increased, more especially if the additional capital is not represented by a substantial equivalent. The simple fact is that the Dominion cabinet, true to its capitalist proclivities, is determined to set back the cause of public ownership or at least harder to accomplish. Yet it is certain that no question more seriously concerns the future of Canada or is receiving so wide and general support. It is right here that the government's party organs take up the strain. Most of them profess to believe in public ownership and operation of monopolies—some of them with superabundance of finesse proffer mild deprecatory criticism of the government policy, but to rouse and sustain such a volume of public opinion as would compel reconsideration—perhaps the thought! Party right or wrong is the motto no matter how much principles are violated or public interests suffer.

Municipalities everywhere are joining to support the demand made by Manitoba for the right to take over the provincial telephone systems. If, as is now probable, the request is turned down, what will the provinces do? Clearly issues will be raised of grave importance, and it may be necessary for the provinces, which favor public ownership of telephones, to vindicate their autonomy in regard to the control of their own services. Provincial rights have already been repeatedly infringed by the action of the federal government, and in the higher politics of the country nothing is more deserving of attention than the necessity for resisting to the uttermost any invasion of what has been guaranteed by the constitution. The only effectual mode of protest is the creation of a strong, independent body of public opinion, which will disregard the claims of party when these conflict with principles essential for the progress and stability of the nation.

CONSTITUTIONAL STORM IN NATAL

An event has happened in imperial administration such as would have been considered impossible a few years ago. The danger point has been passed, but the situation that was created was full of peril.

The government of Natal has resigned because Downing-street interfered with the execution of a gordon Kaffir. South Africa was agitated; Downing-street was in trouble, and the Conservatives of London talked as angrily against their opponents as they were wont to do during the Boer War.

It is one of the ironies of politics that Conservative parties should be compelled by the logic of events to do things which are chiefly in keeping with Liberal tradition, and that Liberals are forced into taking attitudes which are fundamental principles.

The Liberal party in England has always upheld the doctrine that you can not interfere with a self-governing colony without endangering the prestige and stability of the imperial authority. South Africa is a land of contradictions and paradoxes. Above all is the grave of great reputations. Above all is the grave of the King's dominions beyond the seas it is that in which the opinions of men newly arrived from "home" undergo the greatest change. In nothing is this more true than in the relations of white men to colored.

The facts are not pleasing to any citizen of the empire who glories in the magnificent reputation for fair play to inferior races on which the empire's claim to pre-eminence among the civilizing forces of the world is based.

There was a time when a considerable part of the justification of the Boer War was rested upon the contention that the fight was for better treatment of the blacks, which would have its fruit in a policy of greater freedom, greater education, more rapid appreciation of the privileges of citizenship on the part of the Kaffir than would ever be possible under the old republics. But you cannot visit South Africa without being seized of the fact that in their attitude to the black population there is nothing to choose between the Dutchman and the Britisher.

People are apt to think that the negro problem in South Africa is somewhat similar to what it is in the Southern States. Nothing is further from the fact. To the American negro English is his mother tongue. He is accustomed to clothes, even as the white man is, and the appurtenances of civilization have always been as familiar to his eyes as the sky above him or the earth beneath his feet.

It is not so on the Karoo and the desolate veldt. There you see the black man almost in his pristine barbarism—often nearly naked and never ashamed. His white superiors make a point of preventing him learning to speak the English or Dutch languages. It is a sign of his servitude that he must speak his own language. It is considered a duty to civilization that white men should learn the Kaffir language, as a means of keeping up the understanding that there is a great gulf fixed between the two races.

HOW TROUBLE AROSE

In 1903, when Lord Milner was high commissioner, he, at Johannesburg, opened the first municipal congress which was held in the conquered territories. Dealing with the right to vote in municipal elections, he declared his belief that civilization and not color should be the test of citizenship—that is to say, where a black man or a Hindoo could read and write, and possessed the necessary property qualification, his name should appear on the register of voters.

Lord Milner's views were not endorsed by a single leading newspaper in Africa; and it was a proof of his courage and independence that he expressed the opinion he did, knowing that he would be in a woful minority concerning it.

The difficulty of the color problem is therefore as big as the country itself, and may any day lead to even worse complications than that which arose by the resignation of the Natal government. Whatever may be the condition of the African negro, he, as a subject of the King, has the same right before the law as a white citizen. In Natal, where he is eight times as numerous as the white man, justice is meted out to him in separate courts, which are constituted with the same dignity and authority as the courts which deal with Europeans' affairs. Unless the reputation of the empire is to be permanently lowered, the respect for the regular administration of the law must be maintained in Natal. In Cape Colony, in the Transvaal, in Rhodesia, and, indeed, in every place where the Union Jack flies, irrespective of the skin color of those who owe allegiance to, and are entitled to protection from, the imperial sovereignty.

The facts are not denied, on which the Liberal government took the extreme course which looks very like coercion of a self-governing colony. On Feb. 8 a police party was collecting the native poll-tax near Byrne, in the Richmond district of Natal. A collision occurred, during which a sub-inspector and a trooper were killed. Twenty natives were arrested and court-martialed. Twelve were sentenced to be shot by the court, which was composed of militia officers. The sentence was confirmed by the lieutenant-governor-in-council, the hanging apparently was to be substituted for shooting.

Opposition to what was done was raised in Natal on the ground that martial law had not been proclaimed when the court-martial was held, and that, therefore, military officers had no right to take the civil law into their own hands.

Finally the Secretary for the Colonies cabled that the execution was to be suspended, whereupon the government resigned.

Yesterday Lord Elgin announced that exchange of cables with the Natal authorities had cleared away misconception; and that the colony would take its own course, which being interpreted means that the condemned Kaffirs will be tried in the regular way.

All is well that ends well; even though it had better not have begun.

PROVINCIAL POLITICS

Oppositions that criticize without regard to principles, facts or their own previous conduct never count for much. An opposition, however weak in numbers, that stands for a good cause and cultivates consistency, can accomplish a great deal, not only in the field of legislation and administration, but in the political education of the community. But an opposition living from hand to mouth, preaching to-day what it repudiated yesterday and confronted constantly with the spectres of its own past, raises no reputation, creates no sympathy and becomes a public laughing-stock. Into this unhappy plight Mr. Ross has led his once flourishing party and made its later condition worse than its first.

The Liberal party press, and the Liberal party organs—an authority which is one of that press and also an organ says there is, a difference—are doing their best to hold Mr. Ross up to public view as a great opposition leader. The task is a hopeless one and will remain so unless a marked change occurs in his tactical methods. He has measured himself repeatedly against the premier and has never failed to come off second best. Nothing else could be expected when of the contestants one has convictions—and back bone and the other nothing but a profusion of words and a convenient memory.

Whether Mr. Whitney is right or wrong in his political measures they are at least clear and definite. Since he has accepted to office he has advanced in public estimation by his pronounced sympathy with public rights, and he would advance still more were he to adopt even bolder ground. He is ripe for the full recognition of the right of the citizens to own and control the public franchises and services and to derive the full benefit of the natural power and other resources of the province. A thorough and progressive policy along this line would undoubtedly be warmly welcomed and command general support. The premier should apply to local bodies in the province within their own limits the same freedom to manage their own affairs which the province requires from the federal government, and should secure for the people their right to a free expression of their will at the poll and to have it carried into full effect.

LIBERAL-LABOR SPLIT

Should a trade union be financially liable for the deeds of its responsible executive? On that question there is a split between the Campbell-Banner man government, the Labor party and some of the advanced Liberals in the house of commons.

Housekeepers, who have tried them all, say WINDSOR TABLE SALT is the perfect table salt.

Some years ago there was a strike on the Taff Vale Railway—a small line in South Wales. The directors held that loss was illegally inflicted upon the company thru the action of the railwaymen's union. They successfully sued for damages, and the verdict was upheld by the house of lords. It had always been assumed that trade unions were immune from attack for supporting strikes. The Taff Vale decision destroyed the idea, and trade unionists have ever since been demanding that the law should indubitably be put on the basis where it was supposed to be when the Taff Vale Railway was poking along in peaceful obscurity.

The Liberal party was pledged to redress the union grievance, and on Wednesday night the attorney-general brought in a trades disputes bill, which so far, has only engendered disputes between those who were expected to be its whole-hearted supporters. The third clause makes it possible for labor unions to be sued for damages for acts of the direct authority of their governing bodies. The labor members will not have it at any price. The government declares against special privileges for the proletariat and there is the dickens to pay.

In The Daily News just to hand is an entertaining article by one of the young M.P.'s new to the house on his parliamentary experience. He complains that the first month had been dull, and that things were always going to be done to-morrow. To-morrow has come to the government, and the signs portend a pretty long day.

THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW

The automobile show, which opens in Toronto to-day, marks an epoch in mechanical progress in Canada.

Automobiles—including therein motor vehicles of all kinds—have undoubtedly come to stay. Curiously enough in regard to these, America has lagged behind Europe, and is only now beginning to make up the lost way. Probably this is due to the enterprise shown in the establishment of electric railroads whose presence everywhere has retarded the adaptation of motor vehicles for the purposes of street and road transportation. On the other hand in old world centres such as London, England, where street railroads are not always possible, the motor car has been welcomed as a superior in speed and cheaper in cost of working to the horse omnibus. With this in view the latter type of vehicle will have largely disappeared from the streets of London—the bus companies being now actively engaged in the work of transformation.

The display of automobiles, motor boats and kindred exhibits, in the Granite Rink, will surely be visited by thousands who have no immediate prospect of themselves owning or operating machines which, to those who are fortunate enough to possess them, have given a new zest to life.

The development of the motor industry is bound to go on apace, and the greater multiplicity of facilities offered for producing self-propelled vehicles and vessels will of itself create an ever increasing demand.

The Toronto show is not primarily or even largely, intended to accelerate the day when the farmer will count his horsepower, not by the number of occupied stalls in his stable, but by machines which do not eat at night or on Sundays. The show will accelerate that day nevertheless, for it will familiarize the general public with the prospects of motor development, and Dodd's Kidney Pills Doing Good Work Around Port Arthur.

Mr. Dick Souver and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles, and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Cured Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., March 30.—(Special.)—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house. This happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souver, a farmer and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr. Souver said: "My wife and I have used Dodd's Kidney Pills and have found them a big benefit to our health. We had a Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold. Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health."

will benefit in many, who are at present indifferent to the progress of mechanical propulsion along country roads, an ambition to share in the sport and business which is in combination a special product of the twentieth century.

The World congratulates the promoters upon having got together so fine an exhibition, and wishes the utmost success to it, as well as to the British and European show which is to follow.

WHAT POLICYHOLDERS ARE SAYING

The A.O.U.W.
Editor World: When I sent you my letter of thanks I thought my interest in the life insurance struggle now going on was over, and so it was, so far as a personal interest in the A.O.U.W. is concerned.

The other day, however, I noticed in a letter in The World, commenting on the A.O.U.W., a statement that all such societies were doomed to failure sooner or later as a mathematical certainty.

This statement of course has been made before, but for one I have always doubted it, and now, as we have positive proof in the A.O.U.W., that there is nothing at all in the statement I am induced to offer you another letter, believing the general interest in this question will warrant its publication.

As is well known, the A.O.U.W. originated on the idea that $1 from every member for every $1000 at every death was sufficient to meet all demands for a long time to come, if not for all time to come. After an existence of 23 years this idea has held good, as per my letter in The World of Saturday, March 17, from figures taken from tables in Canadian Workman. To-day I am prepared to go further and state that up to the time the Hunter rates came in the cost per $1000 had not exceeded 75 cents to each member, and in that is included a waste of nearly half a million dollars on a "reserve"! Twenty-seven years of actual protection and at a cost of only 75 cents per $1000.

This no doubt will be a little surprising to others than readers of The Canadian Workman, but there is nothing of straight business and proves beyond a doubt that the assessment plan is the only way in which insurance can be done for what it is worth, and at once does away with any "mathematical certainty" that sooner or later it must fail!

And what a record for future fraternal societies to offer to the public, with no possibility of its being disputed, and, indeed, for those now going on "reserve"! The Woodmen of the World, I see, refuse to adopt the Hunter rates. That is no wisdom, and shows that its members are thinking and would profit by the mistake of the A.O.U.W.

COMMISSION MISSES ISSUE

Editor World: I am getting tired of the insurance commission already. There seems to be a grievous misunderstanding of the matters which affect shareholders and policyholders, respectively.

Who cares for the shareholders? They can and do protect themselves in the same way as stockholders in other companies. The policyholders find all the money with which the business has been done for themselves and seeking boards of directors, and general managers.

Are not the policyholders of the Canada Life at this moment paying Mr. W. H. Nesbitt to hold a watch-brief in the interest of the shareholders? Every cent paid to him comes from profits due to policyholders. But we did not put him there, and don't want him there.

Till the fact that interests of the policyholders and of the shareholders are not only different, but antagonistic is more thoroughly recognized, the commission is not earning running expenses.

The state should buy out the shareholders and get rid of them. How is an existing policyholder benefited by the insane expenditure incurred in increasing the numbers of the insured over and above the number which would be required in simple mutualization?

Mr. Fitzgerald is reported to have said of a certain investment that it would have been all right if first approved of by the shareholders. That, to my mind, is a key to the fallacy of the whole inquiry. The shareholders, except as regards booming their own company as competitors for patronage, don't care a straw for the real beneficiaries.

The law should limit the interest that any share in a life insurance company can draw and seven per cent. would be a very generous limit.

CONDITION OF A. O. U. W.

Editor World: Mr. W. S. B. Lawrie uses rather strong language in reply to mine of a few days ago. He also makes some misstatements which I beg to be allowed to correct. Mr. Lawrie states that "as is well known, all line companies charge precisely the same rates for the same kinds of protection." This is simply not the case, as may be ascertained by reference to rate books of the different companies.

Another misstatement is, that a non-participating policy has no surrender value. A policy of this kind has the same surrender value as a corresponding profit policy.

Mr. Lawrie says that the average annual payment of those who died during February was about $42, for about $2000. But, allowing that the whole membership of the A. O. U. W. is paying an average of $42 per annum for $2000 certificates, the society will still have a big shortage when it comes to settle up, for $42 a year for 16 years (which Mr. Lawrie says is the average length of membership), at five per cent. compound interest, is less than $1050. Where is the other $950, to say nothing of the death claims coming from? Will Mr. Lawrie kindly answer this?

The Monetary Times, in an article printed last September, shows that the cost to the members of the A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge, Toronto, has increased from $10.30 in 1880, to $15.50 in 1904 (over 50 per cent), for each $1000 certificate and that, in spite of the fact that the membership has doubled in that time. I notice, however, that the membership declined by almost 2000 in 1904 and I understand that there was a further loss of 800 members for the first six months of 1905. The same state of af-

Your Thirty Feet of Bowels

THE ALIMENTARY CANAL. 1. Lower end of esophagus (neck-pipe) which carries the food from the throat to the stomach; 2. Cardiac end of stomach; 3. Pyloric end of stomach; 4. Duodenum; 5. Gall bladder; 6. & 7. Small intestine; 8. Cecum; 9. Vermiform appendix; 10. Ascending colon; 11. Transverse colon; 12. Descending colon; 13. Sigmoid flexure; 14. Rectum; 15. Anus. The diagram is a continuous line showing the direction which the contents of the bowels must take in passing through the alimentary canal.

YOU have thirty feet of Intestines! What makes food travel through them?

A set of Muscles that line the walls of these Intestines or Bowels. When a piece of Food rubs the walls of the Intestines these Muscles tighten behind it, and thus it starts a Muscle-wave which drives it through the whole length of the Bowels.

It should take about 12 hours to do this properly, so that nutritious parts of the food may have time to be digested and absorbed.

But, if it takes twice or three times that period the food spoils in passing, and becomes as poisonous as if it had decayed before being eaten.

Now, the cause of delay (Constipation) is simply Weakness, or Laziness of the Bowel-Muscles.

Want of Exercise, Indoor Employment, weakens these Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg Muscles.

Castor Oil, or Glycerine, will grease the passages for one load of Food at a time, but these lubricants can't help the Cause of Delay.

"Physio" like Salts, Calomel, Jalap, Phosphate of Soda, Mineral Waters, simply flush-out the Bowels for the one occasion only.

They do not remove the Cause of Constipation. Moreover, they waste so much of the precious Digestive Fluids, in the flushing process, that it takes a bigger dose every succeeding time to move the Bowel load.

But it is different with Cascarets. Cascarets act on the Muscles of the Bowels and Intestines. They act just as Cold Water, or Exercise act on a Lazy man.

They act like exercise. A Cascaret produces the same sort of Natural result that a Six Mile walk in the country would produce.

The Vest Pocket Box is sold by all Druggists, at Ten Cents.

It should be carried constantly, because a Cascaret should be eaten when you first suspect you need one.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Co., and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

A sample and the famous booklet "Curse of Constipation" Free for the asking. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

LABOR PARTY'S TRIUMPH PREMIER ACCEPTS ITS BILL

Finds It Preferable to Government Measure—Wants to Prevent Trade Conflicts.

London, March 30.—The government has surrendered to the Labor party on the trades disputes bill, and Premier Campbell-Bannerman himself announced in the house of commons this afternoon that he would support the bill introduced by the Labor party in opposition to the government measure. He advised the house to accept the bill of the Labor party, which then came up for its second reading. It provides complete immunity for trades union funds, but otherwise is practically a duplicate of the government's measure.

The premier explained that the object of the government was to "place the rival powers of capital and labor on an equality, so that in the event of a fight it should be a fair one."

He thought that the great mass of opinion recognized the beneficial effect of trade unions, especially on the prevention of conflicts. After some opposition and twitting of the government for its "cowardly surrender to the clamor of the Labor party," the bill passed its second reading by 456 to 96 votes.

PHOTOGRAPHING PRIZE BULL IT FATALLY GORE FARMER

Rochester, N.Y., March 30.—John M. Phillips of Wolcott, one of the most prominent farmers of Eastern Wayne County, was killed by a bull, Holstein, which had been sold. It had been kept by the family, and he engaged a photographer to take its picture before it was taken away. When the photographer arrived he led the bull out of the barn and was standing by its head when it made a lunge at him and pinioned him against the barn.

His side was crushed, three ribs penetrating his lungs, and he died within an hour.

HEROINE OF REVOLUTION.

Sigora Jessie White Mario, who died in Florence, took an active part in the Italian revolutionary movement, partly as a journalist and partly as a combatant. She was also the author of a life of Garibaldi, and edited the letters of Maria to her husband.

Very few women of the last century were privileged to serve in as many campaigns as Sigora Mario. In the two Sicilies and in Calabria, in the days when Garibaldi's red shirts were fighting for United Italy, and around Dijon in the Franco-German war of 1870, she both saw and took part in the fighting.

At the time of this last campaign she was described as: "A very bright, intelligent, intellectual, energetic little lady, lithe, with a red, with pale blue eyes, freckled face and light auburn hair. She spoke Italian and French with great fluency, and wielded a remarkably fluent pen."

"She had a good seat in the saddle, which she sat in the orthodox feminine fashion. She smoked big cigars and took a long drink like a man when she felt the way."

In 1858 she married Alberto Mario, one of Garibaldi's officers, and began to take a leading part in the struggle for liberty. She was imprisoned with her husband, and when released she left the country for a time, going to America.

Ottawa, March 30.—Military orders note the appointment of Major Bruce Carruthers of Kingston, now inspector of signalling, to be assistant adjutant-general for signalling. Captain F. L. R. Carruthers, assistant inspector of signalling, is made D.A.A.G. for signalling.

Lieut.-Col. E. B. Dobbson, R.O., is appointed to command the 18th of Montreal, infantry brigades. Major J. T. Ostell, 65th Regiment, becomes brigade major; Lieut. and Captain C. T. Van Straubenz, R.C.D., is promoted captain; Lieut.-Col. N. P. MacNorton, 14th Field Battery, Cobourg, is to command the 10th Brigade Field Artillery; Lieut. C. O. Beardmore, R.G. is promoted captain; Captain H. C. Brooke retires, and Lieut. H. B. Scandrett, 7th Fusiliers, is transferred to the Grenadiers.

WITTE'S SUCCESSOR.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The Associated Press is positively informed that Premier Witte's resignation, based on the grounds of ill-health, is before the emperor. This, however, is not admitted at the premier's residence. The general belief in high quarters is that if Count Witte retires it will not be Mr. Kowalevsky, but Mr. Gorenzyan, former minister of the interior, or General Count Ignatieff, leader of the reactionary party, who will succeed him.

Saved Over 300 Lives. Frank Shooter, who has just resigned his post as superintendent of the Exeter, England, bathing ground, has in the past quarter of a century saved over 300 lives.

He holds all the premier awards of the Royal Humane Society, including the gold medal, which was presented to him with a hundred sovereigns by the Exeter citizens.

Mr. Shooter once swam 100 yards along a mill stream under a road in complete darkness and snatched a boy from death just as he had reached a large water-wheel.

Only one drowning case has occurred at the Exeter bathing ground during twenty-five years.

MOTOR SHOW OPENS TO-DAY MANY STYLES EXHIBITED

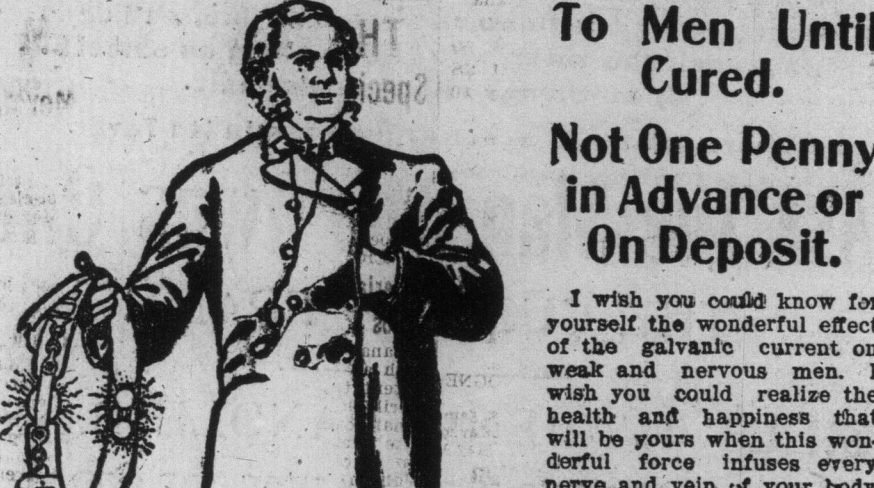

Granite Rink is Transformed—Should Be Centre of Attraction This Afternoon.

The Automobile and Motor Boat Show in the Granite Rink will be opened by the Lieutenant-governor this afternoon at 2:30 and will continue all next week.

During the past few days the two rinks have presented a rather chaotic appearance, but everything was in fairly good shape last night for the opening while the finishing touches are being placed this morning. The ordinary appearance of the buildings has been completely transformed by the decorations which cover the entire interiors. The scheme of decorations has been worked out largely in red, white and blue. In the skating rink there is a profuse display of Royal Canadian Yacht Club and other yachting flags.

The automobiles are contained in the large curling rink. There are 60 different models, all new and representing twenty-one different makes. Canadian, American and foreign. Altogether this building contains more floor space than Massey Hall, some of the exhibits had to be left out for lack of room. The skating rink is occupied by the exhibits of 33 motor boats, marine engine and accessory manufacturers and dealers. Several of these exhibitors

MINI SHARES AT DISCOUNT NOT PERMITTED BY LAW

During a busy session of the legislature yesterday a score or more bills passed the second reading and committee stage. Several government bills were read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Foy had a bill re mining corporations. Under the old mining law there were two exceptions, mining companies were permitted to issue shares at as low as 50 and 10c. It was also provided under the old act that the party buying mining shares assumed no liability beyond the first payment. Mining companies will now be on the same basis as other joint stock companies. During the last ten days the government has refused to grant charters to mining companies. The new law will not be retroactive.

Agricultural Bills.

Hon. Nelson Monteth introduced two bills, one respecting horticultural societies and one respecting agricultural associations. The main feature of the act respecting horticultural societies is that it takes all such associations out of relationship to the agricultural societies and puts them in their own class. It provides for their independent organization in towns, cities and incorporated villages, and instead of sharing with the township in the participation of the grant, $3000 is set aside subject to division among the horticultural societies of the province. The objects of horticultural societies are fully set forth in section 3 of the act, and do not materially differ from those of the previous act. It comes into force Feb. 1, 1907.

The bill respecting agricultural associations provides for the continuation of all the organizations in the former act with the addition of the new association formed last year, the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association. A decided change, however, is being made in connection with the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association. The name of this association is changed to that of the Canadian Horsemen's Association. This is the association that is interested in the spring horse show at the armories, and, as at present constituted, takes in a number of local societies as well as the pure breeders of horses. It will have control of the spring stallion shows. Under the old act the number of directors and their representation was somewhat indefinitely described, and it was found that this did not always work satisfactorily. The new act provides that the association shall make its own constitution, subject to the approval of the minister, and that it shall have bylaws providing for the number of directors, their representation, and their mode of selection.

The bill provides for the incorporation of the Provincial Winter Fair (Guelph), the Eastern Ontario Live Stock and Poultry Association (Ottawa), and also for the organization of certain societies for the purpose of advancing some branch of agriculture; these societies are to be bodies to be incorporated, but to be regulated in other particulars by the act. This act also provides for the organization of an advisory board on live stock, to advise the minister regarding matters of interest to the live stock industry. The organization of the board is provided for by order-in-council. This is the advisory board promised by the minister some weeks ago.

Farmers' institutes and women's institutes are also provided for under this act. They are brought into a little closer relationship with the department than was hitherto the case, and provision is made for the change of methods of works by easy process by consulting the minister. This act, unlike the other two, will come into operation at once.

Not So.

Just before the house adjourned, Mr. Graham rose to make enquiry about a dispatch published in the Ottawa Free Press, stating that the Ontario mining rights had been turned over to the railway commission to deal with as they think proper.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane's reply was that the mining rights had been turned over to the railway commission to deal with as they think proper.

Mr. Whitney supplemented this answer by saying: "No such proposition has been received, and in any event, no such proposition would be accepted."

Colonial Stocks Act.

In reply to Mr. Harcourt the treasurer outlined the steps taken by the government to have the provincial securities in which a trustee may invest under the provisions of the Imperial Colonial Stocks Act. Owing to the change of government in Britain, nothing definite has resulted. The matter would again be pressed on the Dominion authorities, and communication was had with the Dominion in December last. Several years elapsed before the privilege of the trustee list was secured for the Dominion securities. The chief difficulties were that the Imperial government cannot veto provincial legislation which might be considered to interfere with the security given, and also that any privilege given to Ontario might be asked for other provinces not in as favorable a financial position as Ontario.

In reply to Mr. May, the provincial secretary said Gaspard Pacaud was license inspector for Windsor and Essex in 1904-5 at a salary of $975; that the two districts were divided Dec. 23, 1906, and two inspectors appointed, Pacaud for Windsor district at $975 per annum, and Paul Morand for North Essex at $800. There are forty-seven licenses in North Essex and forty in Windsor district.

Auto Legislation.

Mr. Lennox, in moving the second reading of his bill respecting the operation of motor vehicles on public highways, said that the intent was to check reckless and negligent driving, but that it also took into account the large sums of money that had been spent in manufacturing enterprises. He defended the provision given by the bill to municipal councils to say on what roads autoing should be allowed, claiming that in Britain such provision was made.

Mr. Lennox pointed out the need for making it obligatory upon an autoist

COMMITTEEMAN NOT IN ACCORD

May Oppose Some of the Insurance Amendments as Unfair.

Albany, N.Y., March 30.—The bills of the special insurance investigating committee, as finally amended by the committee in the protracted conference, which ended at 1:30 o'clock this morning, were reported to both houses today.

Mr. Cox of Erie, himself a member of the investigating committee, served notice that he did not regard himself as bound to support all the amendments made by the committee, or to refrain from offering others. His principal reason for this action, as explained afterward, is that in the restrictions upon the companies of other States he believes the committee has not sufficiently recognized the fact that public opinion will accept this legislation as authoritative upon other States, and may induce retaliatory legislation; on the other hand, by prohibiting deferred dividends to the companies of this state, but permitting them to those of other States, the committee, he believes, has discriminated against New York State companies.

What Sulphur Does

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," and cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years, research and experiment have proven that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide), and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, Calcium form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver, and excretory organs and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary doses of sulphur were often worse than the disease, and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparations of sulphur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood in a way that often surprises patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins, while experimenting with sulphur remedies, soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidneys and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Wafers. In patients suffering from boils and pimples and even deep-seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Wafers is a proprietary article, and sold by druggists, and for that reason tabooed by many physicians, yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin disease as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics and so-called blood "purifiers" will find in Stuart's Calcium Wafers a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

WEARY DAYS AND SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Many men and women toss night after night upon sleepless beds until near dawn. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quieted. Or, again, you have heart palpitation and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die; or perhaps you wake up from your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and rest leaves you for the night. Allow these conditions to continue and you will feel your health declining.

It is the nerves and heart that are not acting properly.

They can be set right by the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They soon induce healthful, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action and removing all symptoms of heart trouble, which is often the cause of nervousness and sleeplessness.

Mrs. Ennis Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I was so bad at times I could not lie down in bed at nights but would have to sit up. I doctored for a whole year and got no relief. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and was completely cured. I have not been troubled since. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or sent direct on receipt of price.

It is the nerves and heart that are not acting properly.

They can be set right by the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They soon induce healthful, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action and removing all symptoms of heart trouble, which is often the cause of nervousness and sleeplessness.

Mrs. Ennis Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I was so bad at times I could not lie down in bed at nights but would have to sit up. I doctored for a whole year and got no relief. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and was completely cured. I have not been troubled since. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or sent direct on receipt of price.

SAME OLD SALARIES.

Federal Government Employees Think Increase is Due.

Kingston, March 30.—(Special).—There is dissatisfaction among the penitentiary officials owing to their treatment by the federal government in the matter of salary. They allege that with two exceptions there have been no increases since the present government came into power in 1896. The dissatisfaction has grown since the raise in the salaries of the employees at the asylum near by. The penitentiary men contrast the forwardness of the provincial government to be just with its employees, and the tardiness of the Dominion government in dealing fairly with theirs.

It is likely that the men at the penitentiary will make a representation to the government at Ottawa, in which their grievances will be stated.

Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of medicines of known composition. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest reputation can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and prepared and broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery," the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning this valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. Do not "beat the pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for a active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

ENTOMBED FOR TWENTY DAYS EAT HORSE, HAY AND BARK

Fourteen Miners Caught in Big Explosion Are Rescued, Weak,
But Unhurt—Thrilling Story.

Lens, France, March 30.—Fourteen of the 1200 miners who were entombed in the coal mines at Courrières twenty days ago, were taken from the mine alive and well to-day. They had lived on hay found in one of the underground stables, and the morsels of food which they took into the mine with them nearly three weeks ago. All attempts to rescue the entombed men had been abandoned more than two weeks ago.

The sudden appearance of the imprisoned men caused stupefaction. A gang of salvagers had just completed their night's work when they were startled to see a group of miners, terribly haggard and exhausted, appear from a remote part of pit No. 2. The strongest of the party stated that he had broken out of a distant gallery, where they had been entombed since the disaster of March 10. When the rescued men were taken to the surface they were unable to see owing to the dazzling day light.

The men were able to talk sensibly, though feeble. They all asked for news of relatives or friends, and wished to go to their homes immediately, but were taken to a hospital instead.

Others May Be Saved.
Large crowds besieged the mines later in the hope of hearing of further escapes. It is said that others of the entombed miners are alive and about to be brought out, their signals having been heard.

One of the men rescued to-day, a man named Nemy, said that for the first eight days the party ate the bark off the timbering of the mine.

Later they found the decomposed body of a horse, which they cut up and ate with hay.

The survivors brought up portions of the decomposed horse meat. Nemy, who was the most lucid of the miners who escaped, graphically described their imprisonment as follows:

"After the explosion I groped my way about, stumbling over bodies and seeking refuge from the gases. I found some comrades sheltered in a remote niche. We ate earth and bark for eight days, and then these provisions gave out.

"We continued to grope among the bodies seeking for an outlet from our prison, but were forced back time and time again. We found some hay, which we ate, and two days after we found a dead horse, which we cut up and ate with the hay and bark. We suffered most from want of water. Finally we became desperate and separated into three parties, and communicated with each other by shouts.

"Last night we felt a draught of fresh air, which finally guided us to an opening.

The doctors have forbidden the survivors to do any further talking. Vast crowds of people surround the hospital.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A HAPPY MAN?

If So Find One Who Has Used Dodd's
Dyspepsia Tablets and Can Now
Eat and Enjoy Three Square Meals a Day.

Thrice happy is the man who can take three square meals a day and enjoy every one of them. But in these days of bad teeth and quick lunches, how many people can do this? Can you? If you can't it's your own fault. Modern science has overcome the handicaps of bad teeth, quick eating and scanty saliva. It has provided Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, the greatest help to the stomach ever discovered. They contain the necessary ingredients for digestion; to put it in brief they digest the food while the stomach rests and recuperates. That they are an easy and natural cure for all stomach ailments, anybody who has used them will tell you. Louis M. Boudreau, of St. Louis, N. B., says:

"I recommend anyone who suffers from Dyspepsia to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I had it badly, and the doctors I consulted did me no good. Three boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me completely."

tal, where the escaped men are being treated.

Leon Bousier, another member of the rescue party, said:

"Nemy's story is correct, except that he forgot the carrots. We found some in a stable and they formed our best meal."

The rescued men are being kept in semi-darkness. Dr. Loutiers, who is in charge of the patients, says that eating decomposed horse produces pyrexia poisoning, from which the men are suffering.

ELECTRIC POWER AT $20.
Peterboro Light Company Makes Offer to the City.

Peterboro, March 30.—(Special.)—The city, which has in its private bill in the Ontario legislature, applied for permission to acquire water-power and supply electricity to manufacturing concerns, has just received an offer from the Peterboro Light & Power Co. to furnish any factories with power up to 2000 horse-power, for a period of ten years at the rate of $20 per horse-power per year. The offer is under consideration.

A National Reputation.
In the United States senate one day some years ago a member asked Senator Hoar who a very pompous person was.

"That is Gen. B.," was Mr. Hoar's reply.

Well, does he cut as wide a swath at home as he does at Washington?"

"No," said the senator, with a smile, "the fact is, Gen. B.'s reputation is purely national."

LONG DISTANCE SERVICE INDEPENDENT OF THE BELL

Bill Introduced in Legislature to Serve Numerous Farmers'
Phone Lines.

The application to incorporate the Independent Long Distance Telephone Company, made in a bill introduced into the legislature by Mr. Ferguson of Grenville yesterday, would indicate the possibility of opposition to the Bell monopoly of long distance lines looming up.

Mr. Ferguson, in explanation, says there are a large number of farmers and other local telephone companies throughout the province who cannot get a trunk service owing to the refusal of the Bell to give a connection.

"This company," he declares, "will really be a competitor to the Bell and will give all the smaller companies a long distance service."

He points out that in his own county the Bell has often refused to extend its lines to the smaller business centres, sometimes less than three or four miles away, unless the people of the locality "pay out of their pockets practically the whole cost of constructing the branch."

The company, he asserts, "is prepared not only to build the trunk lines, but to build and operate a factory for the manufacture of all telephone supplies."

The company is stated to be the United Telephone Association of Ontario, representing some fifty farmers' companies from Windsor to Ottawa, especially in the Western Peninsula.

Among those prominently identified with it are: Vice-President Reesor of the Pickering and Vice-President Milne of the Markham companies, and A. E. Wilson and Dr. Young of Markham, the former being secretary and the latter a large shareholder.

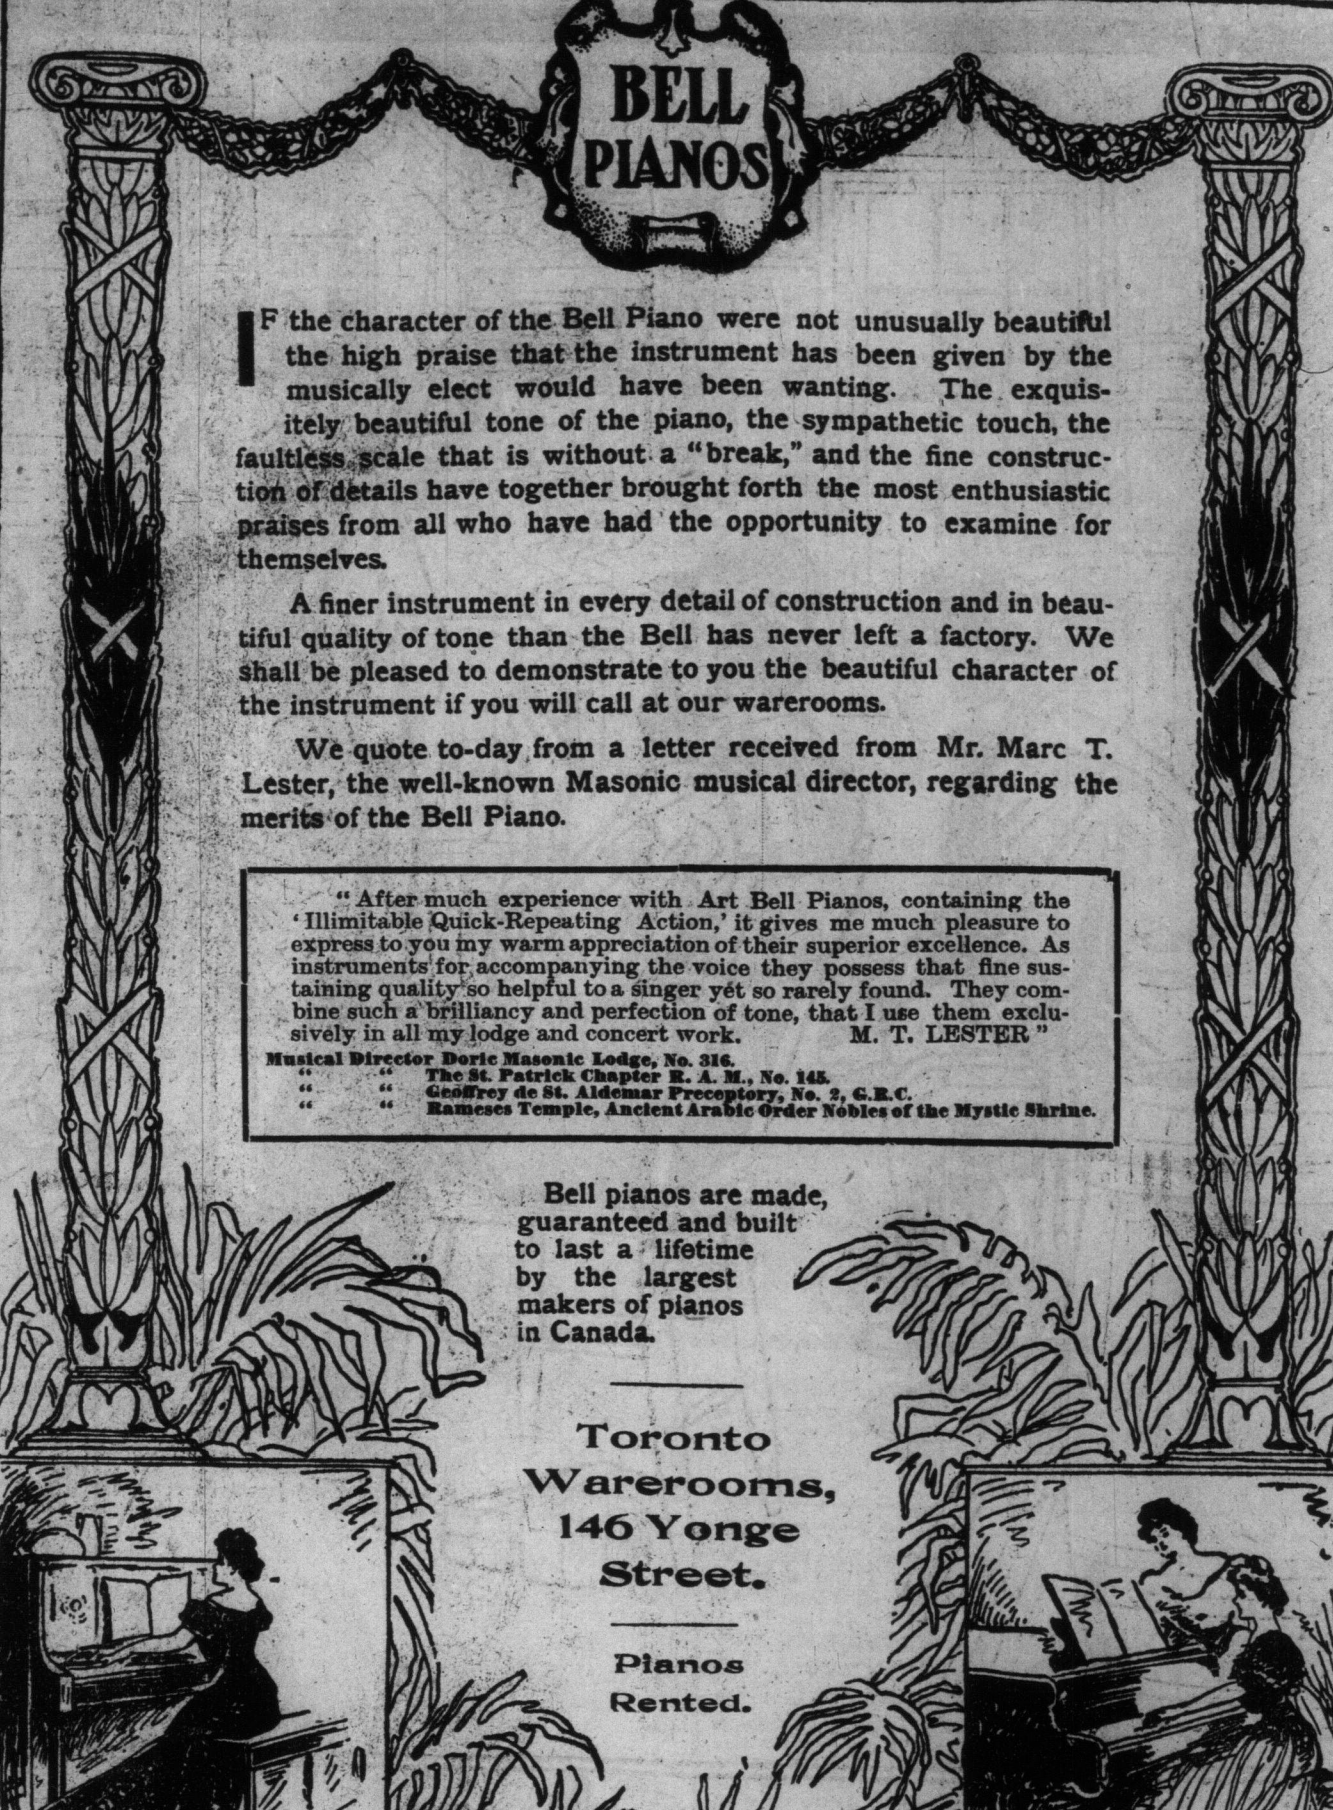

Solicitor C. D. Scott says a plant is already under option, and that within sixty days a factory could be in operation turning out trunk-line supplies. The factory would probably be located in Toronto.

Wife Deserter Arrested.
St. Catharines, March 30.—(Special.)—Chief of Police Farrell this morning arrested John Ecker at the home of his brother in Merrittton, acting upon a request contained in a telegram received from Chief of Police Holt of Middletown, N. Y. The Middletown official arrived in this city this afternoon, when it was learned that the prisoner had deserted his wife and children. Ecker willingly returned to Middletown for trial. It was said by the official that a Middletown woman was to have followed Ecker to Canada within a few days.

BELL PIANOS

If the character of the Bell Piano were not unusually beautiful the high praise that the instrument has been given by the musically elect would have been wanting. The exquisitely beautiful tone of the piano, the sympathetic touch, the faultless scale that is without a "break," and the fine construction of details have together brought forth the most enthusiastic praises from all who have had the opportunity to examine for themselves.

A finer instrument in every detail of construction and in beautiful quality of tone than the Bell has never left a factory. We shall be pleased to demonstrate to you the beautiful character of the instrument if you will call at our warerooms.

We quote to-day from a letter received from Mr. Marc T. Lester, the well-known Masonic musical director, regarding the merits of the Bell Piano.

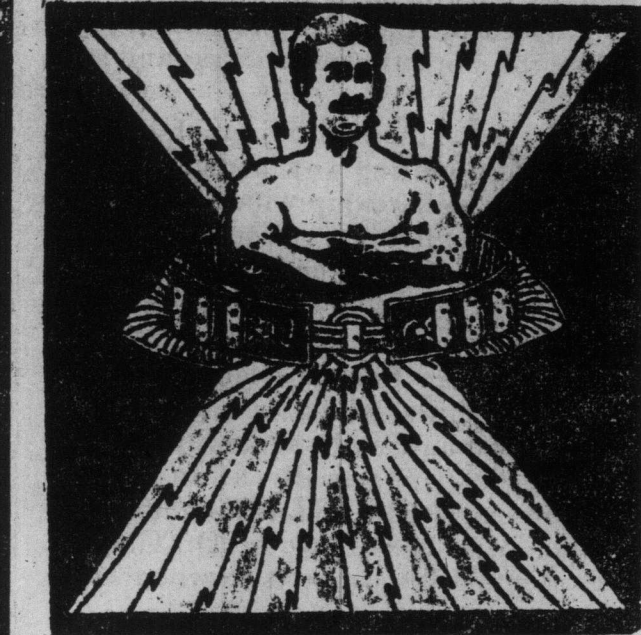

"After much experience with Art Bell Pianos, containing the 'Inimitable Quick-Repeating Action,' it gives me much pleasure to express to you my warm appreciation of their superior excellence. As instruments for accompanying the voice they possess that fine sustaining quality so helpful to a singer yet so rarely found. They combine such a brilliancy and perfection of tone, that I use them exclusively in all my lodge and concert work."

WHEN, I HAVE THE CURE

For Nervous Debility, Varicocele, Rheumatism, Lame Back, Lumbago, Sciatica, any case of Kidney Disease that has not gone so far as Bright's Disease, Indigestion, Constipation, or any Weakness, and

I WILL ASK NO PAY
For a case which I cannot cure with my new improved Electric Belt, the marvel of Electricians, the most wonderful curative device that has ever been introduced. The belt is complete with Free Electrical Attachment.

This Electric Attachment carries the current direct and cures all weaknesses, Varicocele, etc. It develops and expands all weak nerves and checks a loss of vitality. No case of Pains, Vigor, Varicocele or Debility can resist this powerful Electrical attachment. It never fails to cure. It is free with Belts.

No man should be weak, no man should suffer the loss of that vitality which renders life worth living. No man should allow himself to become less a man than Nature intended him; no man should suffer when there is at hand a certain cure for his weakness.

I HAVE CONFIDENCE ENOUGH IN MY TREATMENT TO GIVE YOU MY ELECTRIC BELT ON TRIAL UNTIL YOU ARE CURED.

Most of the pains, most of the weaknesses of the stomach, heart, brain and nerves, from which men suffer, are due to an early loss of nature's reserve power. You need not suffer for this. You can be restored. The very element which you have lost you can get back, and you may be as happy as any man that lives.

No man should be weak, no man should suffer the loss of that vitality which renders life worth living. No man should allow himself to become less a man than Nature intended him; no man should suffer when there is at hand a certain cure for his weakness.

FREE UNTIL CURED.
So pronounced are my cures, so strong is my belt to cure the human ills, that I do not hesitate to make you this offer. All I ask is that you give me security for the Belt while you wear it.

Fred J. Gutterback of Brockville, Ont., says: "I have worn your Belt for thirty days. I am feeling fine, the best I have for years. My stomach is very much better, and my appetite has improved wonderfully. I can now eat a good meal and be satisfied, which I could not do before. I feel like a new man entirely."

James Hill, Brooks Station, Alta., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I now write you. I would have written before, but I wanted to give your Belt a good trial first. I have found it just as you recommended it to be. I will do all I can for you and your Belt in this part of the country. Wishing you and your company all the success in the world."

I have cured thousands who have squandered the savings of years in useless doctoring. My Belt is easy to use; put it on when you go to bed; feel the glow of heat from it (no stinging or burn as in the old-style belts), and you feel the nerves tingle with the new life flowing into them. You get up in the morning feeling like a 2-year-old.

What ails you? Write and tell me, and no matter where you are I think I can give you the address of some one in your town that I have cured. I've cured thousands, and every one of them is a walking advertisement for my Belt. Those who have used it recommend it, because it is honest. It does great work, and those whom I have cured are the more grateful because the cure costs so little.

MORE LAND FOR SCHOOL.

Lot to Be Added to Ebeche Street
—Jameson Ave. Enlargement.

It was recommended in the finance committee of the board of education yesterday that a lot 20 x 80 feet, owned by J. Kelly, be added to the Phoenix street school site. The superintendent of buildings reported that it cost $426 to light the technical high school during 1905, so the committee will recommend that an individual lighting plant be installed in the proposed new technical school building, deeming that the interest on the investment would be less than last year's expenditure. Contracts for the enlarging of Jameson-avenue Collegiate were awarded as follows: Carpenter work, Frank Armstrong, $10.43; mason work, Page & Co., $12.65; painting, E. J. Wray, $227; plastering, E. Warren, $1476; plumbing, Lewis Legrone, $647; heating and ventilating, J. F. Tremblay, $2475; steel and iron, Dominion Bridge Company, $2095; roofing and insulating, Robt. Rennie & Son, $328; thermostats, W. A. Penn, $383; electric wiring, Fred Armstrong, $180. Total, $32,724.

The contract for furnishing plants, bulbs and shrubs was given to Miller & Sons at $200. R. F. Wilks was awarded the contract of tuning pianos at $2 each.

The following transfers in caretakers were made: Mrs. Hymas, from Kew Beach to Papez Avenue; Jos. Hackler, from McCaul to Kew Beach; Fred Stephens, from Rosedale to McCaul, and E. C. Lennox, appointed to the vacancy in Rosedale school.

COFFEE STALL PROFITS.
Takings Amount to Fifty Dollars a Day.

The proposal of the city council of London, England, to remove the coffee stall which stands at the corner of the house in Lower Thames-street, has led to some interesting statements being made as to the profits accruing from the business.

The stallkeeper pays 10s per week in rent and it was said that his takings amounted to £10 a day, while the profit on the sale of the tea and coffee came to 7s per cent.

W. Cambden, a city councillor, who is part proprietor of a public house in Finsbury-pavement, is reported to have stated that he would give £50 a week for the stall.

A reporter who made enquiries on the subject was informed by Mr. Cambden's partner that what Mr. Cambden really said was that "he would like to give all the takings at the stall."

That remark was made, not in the sense of any offer on Mr. Cambden's part, but as a corollary to his statement that the takings at the stall must be £10 per day.

His partner ridiculed the idea that Mr. Cambden would make any such offer, and said that the latter had no thing of the kind in his mind when he spoke at the council meeting.

THE HOSTS OF PEACE.
Put off, put off your mail. O kings,
And best your brands to dust!
Your hearts a better trust.

Upon the grassy mountain paths
The glittering hosts increase—
They come! They come! how far their feet!

They come who publish peace.

MRS. DIAMOND ACQUITTED.

Jury Says She Did Not Poison Her Daughter-in-Law.

Belleville, Mar. 30.—(Special.)—The Diamond murder trial came to an end this afternoon and the case was given to the jury at 4:10 o'clock. "It was attempted to be proven by the prosecution that William Henry, father of the poisoned woman, Mrs. Harry Diamond, had purchased 25 cents' worth of strychnine from a Madoc druggist. An entry in the poison book showed that a sale of that kind had been made to William Henry. William Henry, in rebuttal, swore that he had never purchased poison from anybody in his life and that the signature in the poison book was not his nor that of his son. The defence, and Mr. Meredith, for the crown, were very powerful efforts. The judge's charge was very impartial. The jury retired at 4:10 and came out again at 5:55. They found the prisoner not guilty. The judge then discharged the prisoner.

VARSITY MAN'S MONKEY TRICKS.
He Climbs on the Warden's Roof for the Sake of Amusement.

The vice-chancellor's court at Oxford, England, was crowded with undergraduates when Maurice Henry Woods, B.A., of Trinity College, was charged with being on the roof of New College in the small hours of a supposed unlawful purpose.

A telephone message came to the police from the porter's lodge at New College, that three men were on the roof. The building was at once surrounded, and after a time Woods was discovered and secured. He had made his way to the roof by means of a telephone wire.

Woods was detained in the lodge while a search was made for the other two men, but they escaped.

Dr. Sewell, the warden of New College, said that his daughters were alarmed greatly by hearing the men on the roof. This was not the first time men had climbed about his roof at night, and the inmates of his house were terrified.

Woods at first pleaded guilty to the charge, but when the vice-chancellor explained the serious position in which such a plea placed him he withdrew it, and admitting that he was on the roof, said it was for no unlawful purpose.

The vice-chancellor was anxious to know why Woods was on the roof at all, but the only explanation he received was that it was to indulge in the amusement of climbing.

Woods apologized to Dr. Sewell for any inconvenience caused by his foolish act.

The vice-chancellor decided that there was no proof of any unlawful purpose, and Woods would be discharged. But the discredit and degradation he had brought upon himself by what could only be called "monkey tricks" would be a severe punishment.

The proctors, moreover, would be able to deal with him in an effective manner.

"I've called," said the lady, "to thank you for the notice you gave my 'History of Penobscot Bay,' but, by the way, you had one odd typographical error. You spoke of me as a new 'h-l-s' instead of 'h-l-s'." "That's so," replied the literary editor, "hysterical" should be spelled with a 'y.'—Philadelphia Ledger.

STILL IN ABEYANCE.

Dispute Between Railway and Tenants of Depot Site Continues.

The matter of settling the dispute between the railway companies and the tenants of the land upon which it is proposed to erect the new union station, is still in abeyance, and until a satisfactory settlement is made nothing can be proceeded with. However, the preliminary meeting held about two weeks ago, the facts of some of the cases were presented. Since then, however, no date has been fixed by the counsel of each party for the next meeting, at least no notice has been received by any of the arbitrators.

The arbitrators in the cases of dispute are Judge Snider, Hamilton; W. T. White, manager of the National Trust, Co., and C. H. Ritchie, K.C. At the preliminary meeting held about two weeks ago, the facts of some of the cases were presented. Since then, however, no date has been fixed by the counsel of each party for the next meeting, at least no notice has been received by any of the arbitrators.

IMPERVIOUS TO LEGISLATION.
The North Star: We trust the new minister of marine and fisheries will make himself as soon as possible familiar with the details of his office and not fall into the ruts of some of his predecessors. One thing he needs to learn is that salmon-trout cannot be made to spawn by act of parliament, and that the pretence of a close season of these food fish is a mere farce, as these fish ever spawn in the close season.

REBUILD YOUR TIRED, ACHING BODY
Winter has left you in a state of fatigue and weariness. The vitality of your blood is gone. Your nerves are wretchedly weak and you find it hard to sleep. The temptation to "brace up" with an alcoholic mixture is great—but its uselessness is plain to everyone. Better follow Nature's plan; it's always a sure one.

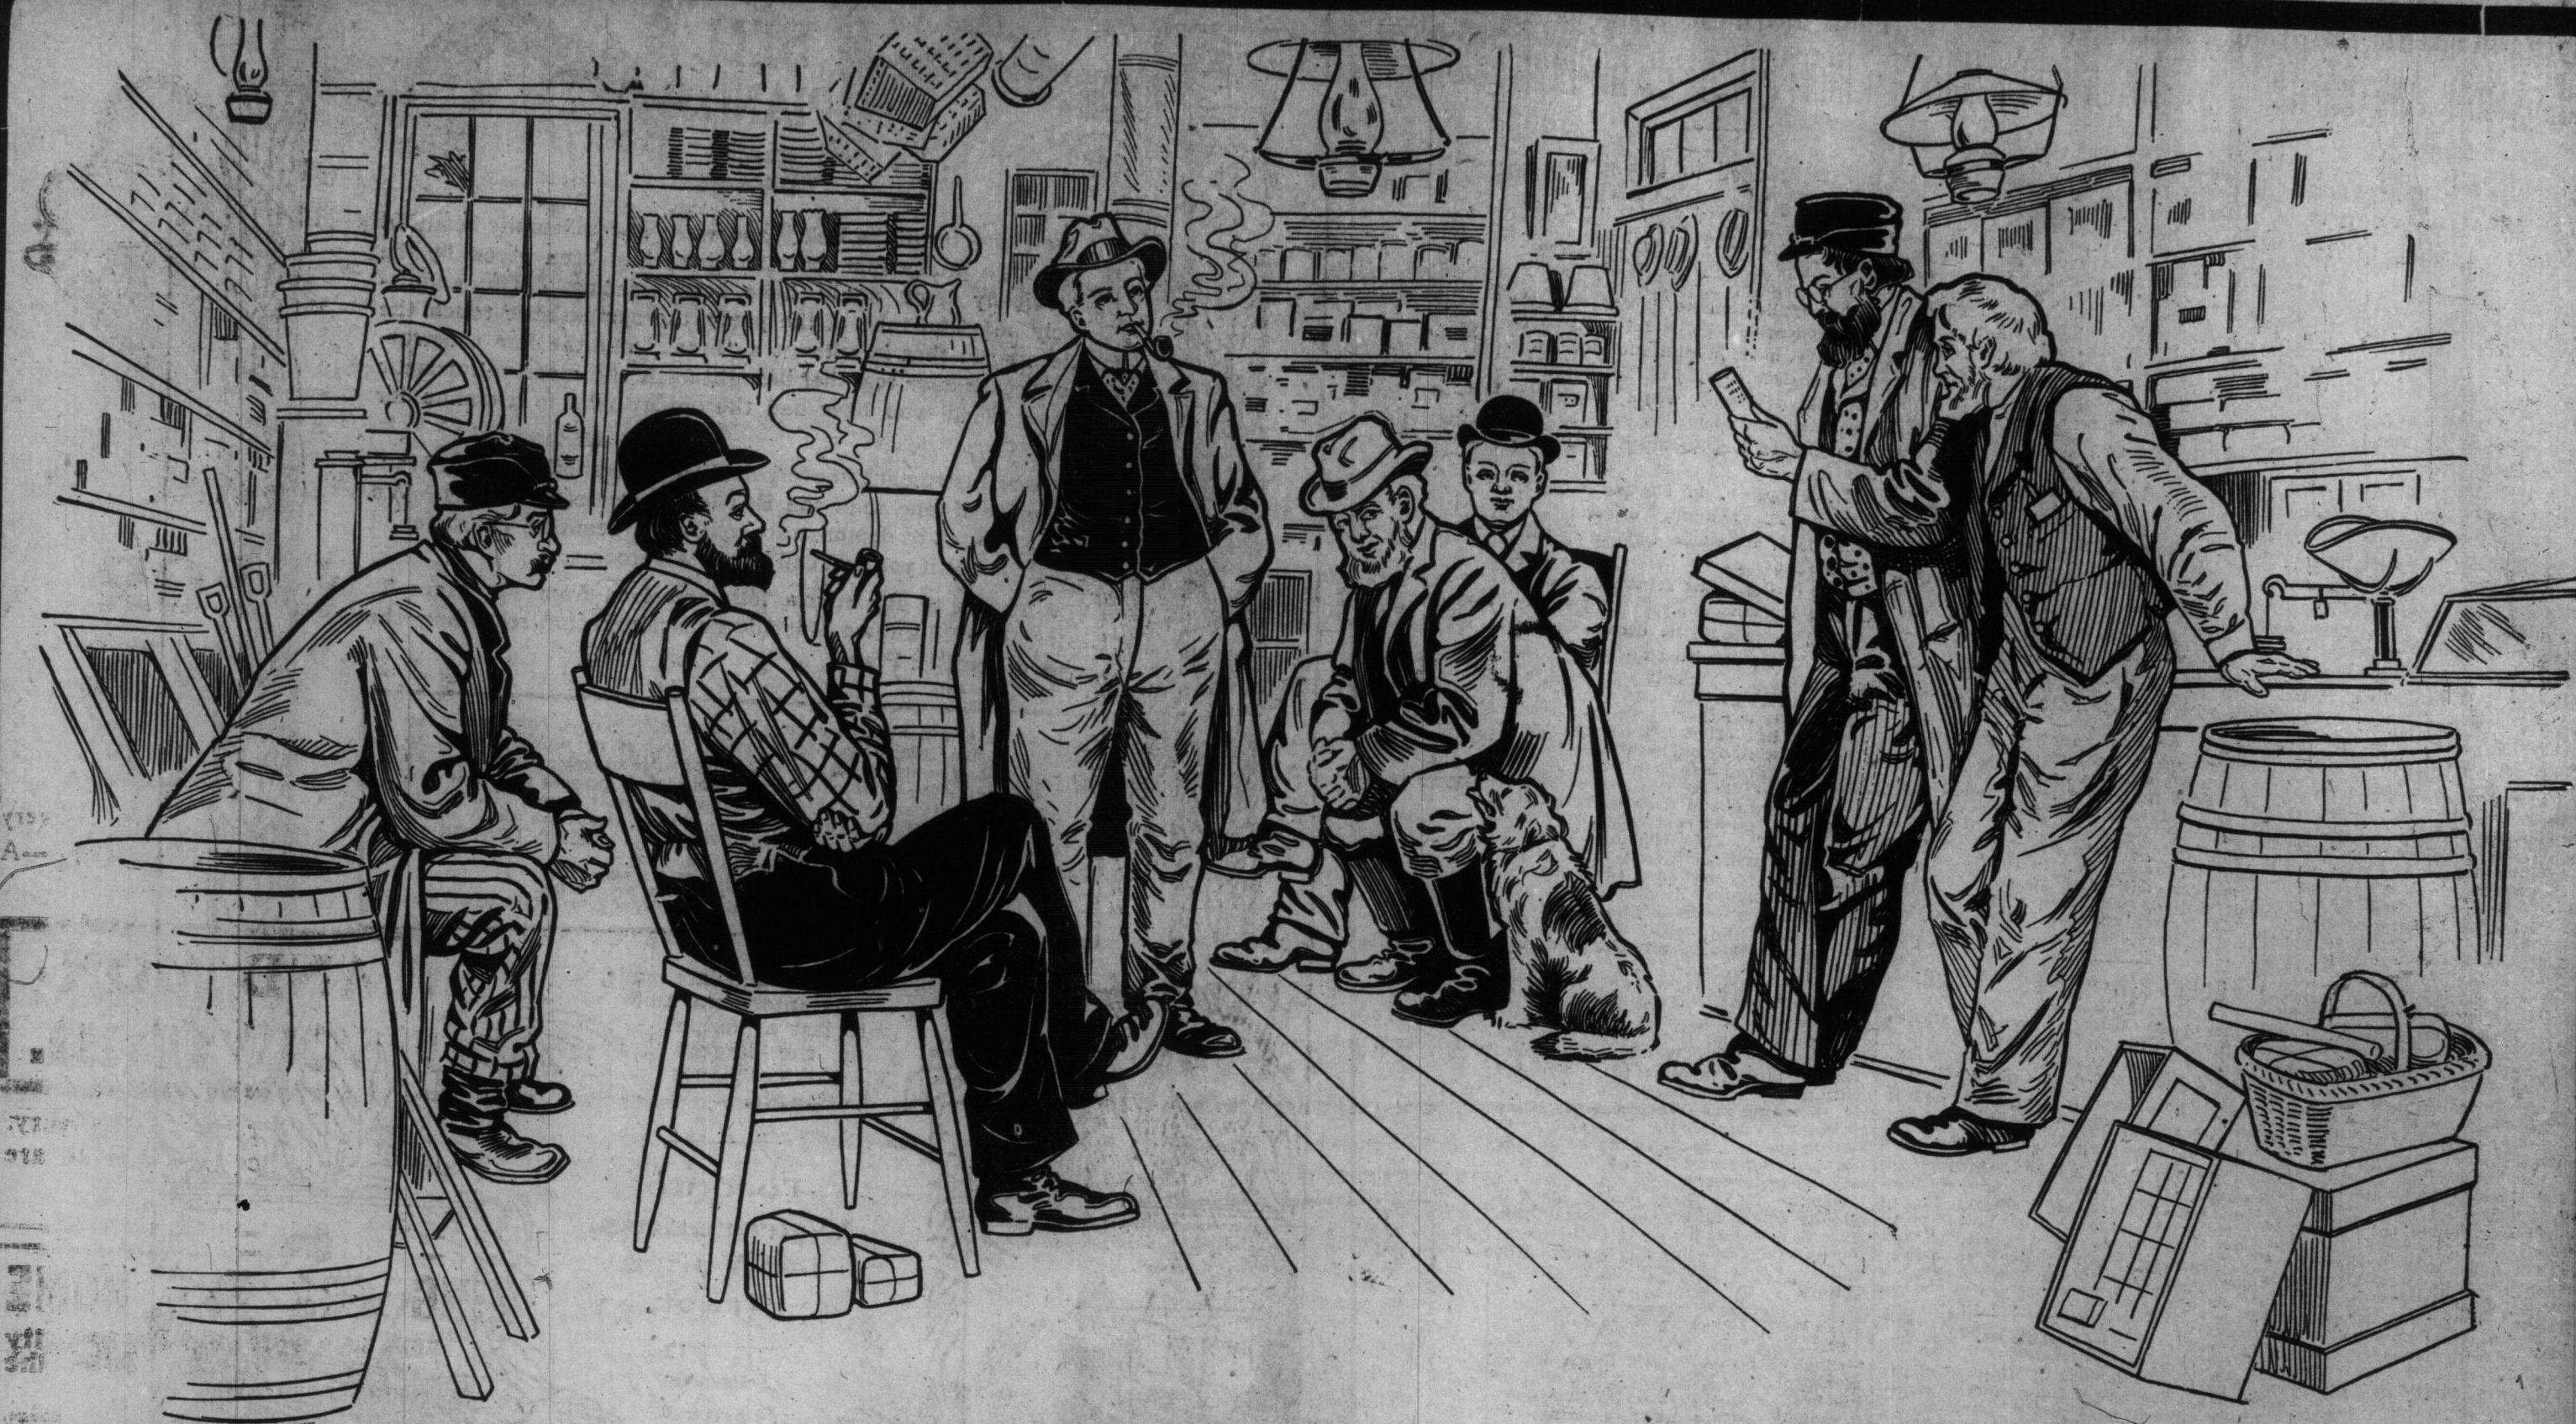

First create new appetite. Perfect the process of assimilation. This will ensure a supply of rich nourishing blood.

Healthy blood soon makes a healthy body, and a system fed by pure, rich blood is bound to gain in vigour and strength.

To get well and stay well, use the food tonic "Ferrozone," which is composed of concentrated vegetable extracts that supply nutrition that every sickly person needs.

No matter how long you've been in poor health, Ferrozone will cure you. Back like it did Mrs. Sadie E. Hild of Whitby, Ont., who writes: "Ferrozone not only brings health to the sick, but has power to cure quickly. After being confined to bed with sickness, I seemed unable to make any headway on the road to complete health. My vitality was low and I was in great need of strength. My nerve force was gone, and from head aches and poor sleep I was in bad straits. Ferrozone was just what I needed. It increased my strength, gave me a new feeling entirely. I use about eight boxes and was made perfectly well. My doctor thinks Ferrozone a wonderful cure."

Your druggist sells it in 50c boxes or six boxes for $2.50. By mail from N. C. Folsom & Co., Hartford, Conn. U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

HOW SICKNESS BECOMES A HABIT

And Neglect of the Simpler Ills and Derangements Lead on to Serious and Chronic Disease.

Sickness is to some extent a habit. You get accustomed to having attacks of headache and bilious spells, indigestion and constipation, and, after a few futile attempts at a cure, your ailment becomes chronic, and day after day and month after month you go on suffering and succeed in making yourself and friends unhappy and miserable.

Why not go at it in earnest and follow up treatment that is bound to win out and to replace disease and suffering with health and happiness?

On this page are published a few letters which show the certainty with which Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills overcome torpid action of the liver and derangements of the kidneys, and by so doing remove the cause of biliousness, indigestion, constipation and the whole list of dreadfully painful and fatal diseases of the kidneys, such as Bright's disease and dropsy.

It may be scarcely necessary to remind you that these much dreaded ailments are almost always preceded by months or years of suffering from sluggish liver action, biliousness, headache, stomach troubles and constipation.

Almost before you know it you find yourself an habitual sufferer from these derangements, and slowly and insidiously the more serious diseases creep upon you.

What you are offered in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is a means of entirely overcoming these derangements and diseases of the liver and kidneys.

Relief is prompt, because this treatment effects a movement of the bowels and a thorough cleansing of the whole filtering and excretory systems.

The benefits are lasting, because these pills ensure a good flow of bile from the liver, the only means by which constipation and intestinal indigestion are really cured.

The results are thoroughly effective, because of the direct and combined action of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on both the liver and kidneys, a feature in which this treatment is different from any you ever tried.

Your doctor may give you treatment which, according to his theory of medicine, should benefit you, but we recommend to you Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on the strength of the hundreds of thousands of similar cases which they have actually and positively cured during their many years before the public and publish here a sample of the letters which are being received almost daily at these offices.

This letter gives you a good idea of what you can expect from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and their success has been especially remarkable in the treatment of such diseases and symptoms of disease as the following:

TORPID LIVER,
BILIOUSNESS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
INDIGESTION,
HEADACHE,
STOMACH TROUBLES AND CONSTIPATION,
IMPURE BLOOD,

The Country Store

Who cannot recall scenes like the one so well pictured in the above illustration? In the evening, when the day's work is done, men like to stroll over to the village store to discuss the news of the day, the crop prospects and any matters of local interest.

The country store is the club house where many a man gets whatever of social life his small amount of leisure time affords. Here he keeps in touch with what his neighbors are doing, learns of improved methods of agriculture and of such things as are conducive to comfort and success.

It is under such circumstances that the health of the family is referred to and experiences are interchanged in regard to medicines that have proven particularly effective.

Good Health Restored Too Good to Be Kept a Secret

It is not difficult to suppose that the man who is attracting the attention of the little company has purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, but instead of imagining what he is saying we shall take an actual case and give you the written statement of Mr. W. Smith of Port Dalhousie, Ont.

Mr. Smith writes: "For some years I was afflicted with kidney disease and gravel in its most severe form, having often a stoppage of water accompanied by the most dreadful agony. As the disease wore on me I became reduced in flesh and passed sleepless nights. No doctor was able to do much for me and I used many medicines without obtaining more than temporary relief. My attention was directed to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and by using this treatment the disease was eradicated from my system in less than six months. I have gained in weight, sleep well, and feel better than I have for twenty years. These pills have fully restored me to good and perfect health."

LEGITIMATE MEDICINES INJURED BY LEGISLATION

Lack of Discrimination Believed to be Instigated by Doctors Who Have Self-Interest at Heart.

In the crusades which are now being carried on in the legislatures against proprietary medicines there has been no effort made to discriminate between the good and the bad. Of course the legislators, and the doctors who are urging them on, claim that they are after medicines of an injurious nature or of doubtful value, but the facts do not back them up, for all medicines are affected by the laws proposed, some of which go so far as to prohibit both the advertising and sale of proprietary medicines.

It seems clear, therefore, that the real object of legislation is to prevent the public from getting any medicines at all except by order of their doctors, a hardship which would be most keenly felt by persons who live at a distance from a doctor and are compelled in cases of emergency and common ills to procure medical treatment from the druggist or general store.

It is not that the doctors can find any fault with the formulas of the legitimate medicines, which are mostly prepared from the prescriptions of unusually successful physicians, but because their sales very materially affect the incomes of the doctors and save an almost equal amount to the public. For example, what does a box or two of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills at 25 cents a box amount to when compared with a doctor's bill?

While we do not believe there would be any advantage (except to imitators) in printing the formula of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on the labels, we have several times published a standing invitation for your doctor to fully investigate the formula of this well-known medicine, believing that he must certainly be convinced of its merits.

If there is one feature above another for which Dr. Chase's Receipt Book and Medicines are noted, it is reliability, and as an illustration of this fact we need only refer you to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which have attained to such general use by reason of this well-proven merit.

As to the ingredients contained in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, their purity and medicinal value, we know of no better authority to vouch for them than the well-known analytical chemists, Thomas Heys & Son, of Toronto, who have thoroughly analyzed them and compared their analysis with our formula.

ANALYST'S CERTIFICATE.

"We have made a careful examination of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and find them to contain ingredients in quantities large enough to make them of reliable medicinal value, also to be free from any injurious drug, such as morphia, etc." (Signed) THOMAS HEYS & SON, Analytical Chemists.

Toronto, July 20, 1904.

Now, why should such medicines as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills be subjected to legislation which, it is claimed, is aimed at unworthy or valueless medicines? As suggested above, we know of no reason, except the desire of the doctors to take away from the people the old and tried family medicines which so frequently make it unnecessary to send for a doctor.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS
DAVISVILLE SCHOOL GOES

Landmark is Torn Down, Which 49 Years Ago Was Opened
by Dr. Egerton Ryerson.

Reminiscences of the old school-house is now the absorbing topic among the older heads of Davisville. Even the insurance investigation has been sidetracked in the discussion of the days of Ona Fraser, the first schoolmaster of this to those who owe adherence to it, the first educational institution in Ontario. The days of the old schoolhouse are numbered. The ruthless hand of progress is laying low what in 1857 was considered and was the finest public school in York County. The building, a solid structure of brick and stone, built only as the men of former years did their work is being demolished to make room for a wing to the present fine schoolhouse.

"Look at that plaster," was a remark made by one of the workmen yesterday as he picked up a piece of this material. He was astoundedly engaged in tearing down the wall. "You don't see plaster of that kind these days," The World scribe became inquisitive. He handled the substance, which had more the appearance of cement than the present day lime and sand. It was fully one inch thick and required the blow from a sledge hammer to disintegrate it.

The building which is being pulled down was erected in 1857 to do duty for the district bounded by the Don on the east, Davenport-road on the south and Bracondale on the west. The building was only 40 feet by 30 feet, but it did duty for over a hundred scholars most of whom, however, attended in the winter when, as ever, the school was in session. Tom Lynn, one of the old pupils, had varied recollections of taking lessons when the school was nearly 20 years of age. "We used to go there," said Tom, "to brighten up. We had to leave school as soon as we were able to work in those days, and then after we found we were deficient in knowledge we drifted back to the old school in winter when there was nothing else to do. Mr. Fraser, the schoolmaster, was an army officer from the old country. He handled the overgrown boys in great style and stood no nonsense. I can tell you. Two or three of those budding into manhood were delegated by Mr. Fraser to teach the smaller children, and I think the education of those days was just as solid as it is to-day with all the frills. Ask Jack or Joe Davis if we did not enjoy ourselves then," was Tom's parting remark as he left to engage in the work of the pottery now run by his former schoolmates.

The fight for the building of the school was put up by John Davis, who was elected one of the first trustees. He was the father of a family of five. He was of North Toronto and for over half a century well known in and around the locality. He had experienced difficulty in getting through with a limited education and his great ambition was to see that the workingman's child was well provided for in this matter. The late Mr. Davis had a difficult task to get a school located at Davisville, but he succeeded in getting the York Township Council to issue debentures for the purchase of a lot and building after several years of hard work.

The school was designed by the father of the present city health officer, Louis X.V. design, in pink and greens, on a background of two shades of fawn. The opening service was conducted by Dr. Ryerson on a Sunday, the occasion being a red letter day in the history of the village. For some years the church denominations were allowed the use of the building on successive Sundays for services, and a union Sunday school was held there for several years. A large tablet placed in the west wall contained the names of the three first trustees, John Davis, D. Mathieson and B. Hammond. Each of these has gone over to the great majority. John Davis was the founder of the Davisville Pottery. D. Mathieson was a mercantile tailor in Toronto, who lived in a fine house in Denison Park, and B. Hammond kept a general store on the Davenport-road. The tablet will be preserved and placed in a wall of the new addition.

Kay's Opening Display

Carpets, Rugs @ Linoleums

THE close business connection we have enjoyed for the past thirty-five years with three of the principal carpet makers in Great Britain accounts in part for the unique and enviable position we hold in the carpet trade. It enables us to place before our customers each season an assortment of Carpets and Rugs, exclusive with us, that embody the latest edicts of fashion and artistic good taste. Our display this season is particularly fine. The designs and color effects, when not supplied to the weavers by ourselves, were selected by our representative from the newest creations of clever textile artists. Some distinctly novel effects have been introduced in Wilton and Axminster weaves, which are more particularly described in the paragraphs below. If a personal visit of inspection is at all possible we cordially urge you to call. If distance from Toronto renders this inconvenient we shall be glad to forward samples and to answer any enquiries you may favor us with.

Kay's English Axminsters

While we frequently advise Brussels Carpet for the bedrooms and what may be called the living-rooms of the house, Axminsters are almost universally preferred for drawing-rooms, boudoirs and other apartments where rich decorative effects are sought. The possibilities of color combination are practically unlimited in this make.

Victorian Axminster

27 in. wide. $3.25 per yard

This is our premier quality. A superb carpet, made of pure worsteds. We import it in large quantities to meet a rapidly growing demand. There is a wealth of charming design and fascinating color effect to select from, but we have space for brief mention of only two or three examples:—

No. 1—A beautiful Rocco design on a background in two tones of Nile green; rich, clear shades that illuminate beautifully by artificial light.

No. 2—For hall, library or dining-room. A splendid Eastern design, with all the appearance of a pure Beloochistan carpet.

No. 3—For drawing-room or boudoir. Shows a pattern of small flowers and leaves in purple and soft greens on a groundwork of delicate champagne color.

Victorian Axminsters, per yard, $3.25.

Albert Axminster

27 in. wide. $2.25 per yard

A splendid wearing Axminster, second only to our Victorian. Conspicuous among our assortment in this weave are some marvellous copies of Antique Bokhara, Gueravan and Persian Rugs. These, of course, are chiefly adapted for use in libraries, halls, dining-rooms, etc.

For drawing-rooms we show many exquisite designs, as, for instance, an Adam pattern in dainty blues and pinks on a rich, green background, and a simple Gothic grille design in two tones of illuminative green, with touches of blue in the border.

Albert Axminsters, per yard, $2.25.

Imperial Axminsters

$1.25, $1.45 and $1.75 Per Yard.

At these most reasonable prices we offer a range of design and color effect that will prove a revelation to visitors unacquainted with our stocks. There is choice enough, it would seem, to meet the requirements of any decorative plan for any and every room.

Eastern patterns in soft shades of blue, camel or green.

Tapestry effects in deep blues and reds.

Dutch Chintz patterns in shades of apple green, and very many others.

Imperial Axminsters, per yard, $1.75, $1.45 and $1.25.

Rugs

A whole page of this newspaper would hardly suffice to do justice to our exhibit of one-piece Rugs. About every desirable kind and size are represented, from a bright Wood Fibre Mat at 75c up to beautiful Carpet-sized Rugs of expensive weave at, say, $400. A most popular variety is that classed as Parquet Rugs. We have them in great variety of size, design and color combination. Brief mention of three or four examples follows:—

No. 2-845—A beautiful Marie Antoinette design, in delicate pinks and blues, on a two-tone background of green.

Kay's English Brussels

27 in. wide, $1.00, $1.35 and $1.50 per yard.

Indications all point to this being a record season with us for Brussels, and we are prepared for it with the largest and best assortment that ever entered our warehouses. Brussels is the carpet "par excellence" for dining-rooms, libraries, halls, bedrooms, etc. It has enormous durability, and no amount of sweeping will cause it to fluff up—it sweeps clean. We are speaking, of course, of Kay Quality Brussels, makes that we have been selling for the past thirty-five years and which can be obtained in Toronto only at this store.

Notable among our spring importations in this line are some beautiful carpets for dining-rooms, halls, living-rooms, etc., in which the rich designs, of costly Bokhara, Persian and other noted Eastern weaves have been reproduced with wonderful fidelity. For bedrooms we show a wide choice in two-tone designs, blue, green and wood, and a variety of light chintz effects to match our new wall papers.

In spite of the greatly increased prices at the mills we quote the same figures as last year for all lines of Brussels, with the exception of our "Super" quality. On this grade we have been compelled to raise the price by 5c per yard to $1.50. Its real value is $1.65, a claim we shall be glad to substantiate by giving samples for comparison as to quality and price with any Brussels on the market.

Oriental Rugs

So much has been written of late concerning these wonderful hand-made Rugs—of the primitive looms on which they are woven, of the intricate designs handed down from generation to generation, of their marvellous wearing qualities and fadeless colors, that it would be waste of space to amplify further in this direction. We want to say, however, that our long experience in buying, coupled with our ability to pay spot cash for the largest orders, enable us to secure many undoubted bargains in genuine and perfect Rugs, and that our customers reap full benefit of these advantages.

Our collection is a large one, embracing many fine examples of such noted weaves as Royal Herekel, Gueravan, Mirzapore, Sultanah, Royal Tabriz, Kassaba, Beloochistan.

Oriental Rugs at Half Price

As an illustration of our ability to give unapproachable values in Oriental Rugs, we have placed on sale a few bales of Genuine Antique Rugs, in two lots: Lot No. 1 consists of beautiful Rugs, many of them worth all of $90 each. Your choice for, each..... 13.50

Lot No. 2 includes a good variety, worth up to $15 each. Your choice for, each..... 7.50

Kay's English Wiltons

54 inches wide, $4.75 per yard

In addition to a wide choice of artistic patterns in standard qualities, we have imported some striking novelties in this make of carpet. One of these is a Wilton, 54 inches wide, of a specially close pile, in plain colors, with 27-inch border to match. For an ordinary sized room only one seam will be necessary in the carpet centre. We show this make in Vert Green, Old Crimson and Dark Robin's Egg Blue.

Price per yard..... $4.75

Borders per yard..... $2.50

Axbury Wiltons

27 inches wide, $2.00 per yard

In heavy Axbury Wiltons we show some handsome fabrics in which rich Oriental designs have been well reproduced. Among them a fine copy of a Turkey carpet in reds and blues, and a conventional Persian in dark blues, reds and fawns, are noteworthy. The pile of these Axbury weaves is very close and heavy. Owing to this feature they make up in close resemblance to the costly one-piece originals, from which they are adapted, the seams being almost invisible.

Axbury Wiltons, per yard..... $2.00

Kaltonah Wiltons

27 inches wide, $2.75 per yard

Another departure from the ordinary is our Kaltonah Wilton, which we import to make into three widths, viz., 9 ft., 11 ft. 3 in. and 13 ft. 6 in. to any length required. A notable feature of this carpet is that the border is interwoven with the body, so that border seams are dispensed with. This weave comes in an extra heavy quality, suitable for clubs, hotels, etc., or for private use where there is hard wear.

Our price for Kaltonah Wilton, per yard of standard width (27 inches) is..... $2.75

A Rug 9 ft. x 12 ft. costing..... $45.00

Our assortment of Wiltons at lower prices is very large. As in the more expensive grades, many of the designs are private to us and they are elaborated with the same careful regard to the season's fashion in design and color effect.

Prices per yard..... 1.50 and 1.75

Remnant Rugs

The immense Carpet business we do results in a large number of lines being reduced each season to mere remnants, too small to entirely cover ordinary sized floors. These lengths we sew into squares, with suitable borders, and clear at a fraction of the regular price.

A splendid lot of these made-up Rugs are now on sale, in designs and color combinations suited for every room in the house. We itemize a few examples:

One only Remnant Rug, in a rich two-toned red effect; size 10 ft. x 5 ft. 3 in. Price only..... 15.00

One only Remnant Rug, in a handsome Oriental design; size 10 ft. 2 in. x 7 ft. 6 in. Price only..... 15.00

One only Remnant Rug, a choice two-toned green design in Brussels carpet; size 8 ft. 4 in. x 6 ft. 9 in. Price only..... 10.00

One only Remnant Rug in a well covered design, greens and wood colors; size 6 ft. x 6 ft. (Axminster). Price only..... 9.00

There are about 150 others to select from.

Small Carpet Squares.

In addition to the larger rugs above described, we have a good assortment of Small Carpet Squares made of border ends. They make admirable hearth rugs, or for use at bedside or in front of dressers or tables. Some of them have all the appearance of expensive one-piece rugs. Prices range from, each, $1.25 to..... 3.50

Mail Orders.

We want again to emphasize the fact that out-of-town residents can be efficiently served through our Mail Order Department. On receipt of particulars of the rooms it is desired to carpet, we will promptly forward samples or colored plates of newest designs in Carpets, Rugs or Linoleums, as may be indicated. It will greatly assist us in replying to correspondents if they will give us some idea of the colors they prefer and the prices they wish to pay.

Linoleums and Cork Carpets.

The place to buy good Linoleums is here. We import direct from the best makers in enormous quantities. That we sell at rock bottom prices is evidenced by the numerous large orders we secure in open competition.

Inlaid Linoleums, two yards wide, per square yard..... 75c, 90c, $1.10 and $1.35

Cork Carpets, two yards wide, per square yard..... 75c, 80c, 90c and $1.00

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Henry W. Savage will bring his pretty aviary of birds to the Princess Theatre, where for one week, commencing next Monday, they will till and coo and twitter when the superb production of the Pixley and Luders' quaint bird opera will be presented for the first time here. In "Woodland" there are some three score or more young women costumed to represent blackbirds, dainty canaries, pert wrens, statuesque peacocks, demure doves, mischievous sparrows, not forgetting the comical blue jay and the foolishly bold rooster, who are the cause of all the troubles revealed by this quaint and somewhat novel plot. Both Pixley and Luders, who are also the authors of "The Prince of Elven" and "King Dodo," deserve credit for the creation of this innocent diversion in the way of musical comedy. The very novelty of the story told in "Woodland" will be found refreshing, with genuine humor and music that has the true ring of merit.

Thomas E. Shea has become so well known as the real Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde that, no matter where he may Scenes From the New Western Melodrama at the Majestic Next Week.

Monday, "Big-hearted Jim" is a Montana sheriff, bluff, brave, simple and strong in his affections, as such men usually are. He has won the heart of the pretty school teacher of his town and the entire community, including the Indians, regard him with admiration. He defends the teacher from an attack upon her character, and on this hinges the plot of the story. The play has abundant humor and romance and the cast is a competent one, being headed by George Kilmit, an American actor of considerable ability, who will be seen in the role of the sheriff, Jim Saxon. During the week a matinee will be given every day.

Next week Manager Shea has a great bill for the patrons of Shea's Yonge-street Theatre. The headline act will be the "Broomstick Witch" from the Isle of Spice. This specialty is well remembered as the most pleasing feature of that musical comedy. The act is splendidly costumed and 12 pretty girls appear, with Miss Barsch in the Japanese and witch regalia. An act that is sure to prove a sensation next week is Salerno, who has been in this country but a few weeks. Salerno is the greatest juggler the world has ever seen. His work begins where the greatest achievements of all other jugglers end. This week Salerno appeared in Shea's Theatre, Buffalo, and at the end of his first performance had the entire audience on their feet, crying bravo. Eddie Mack will be seen in his novel character dancing. O'Brien and Buckley, the international comedians, are always welcome with their cyclone of fun and Bob and George Quigley have some new and original conversational comedy. The three original madcaps have returned to the theatre and will be seen in their novel acrobatic dancing act. The great bill will close with a full line of new pictures in the kinetograph.

The "Ideal" Burlesquers, that come to the Star next week, are just out of their way back to the east from the Pacific Coast, where they have been pronounced by press and public as the best burlesque organization that had ever visited that section. The company will be seen in a three-act comedy, "Every Day Life," that is full of fun and laughter. The comedians do not resort to slapstick comedy to raise a laugh, but to original comedy, and in this they have abundance. Frank O'Brien is one of the cleverest comedians that have been seen on the burlesque stage in many years.

What will no doubt be the fashionable event of the theatrical season in this city will be the engagement at the Princess Theatre, after the "Woodland" engagement, of Miss Ellis Jeffreys, the distinguished English actress, in Alfred Sutro's latest comedy, "The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt." Miss Jeffreys is famous in London as the best-dressed woman on the stage.

Mme. Charlotte Maconda will very fittingly conclude a most successful course of concerts at Massey Hall on Thursday, April 19. It will be the last event in the Massey Hall Popular Course. The sale of seats will begin on Easter Monday, April 18.

Most welcome to everyone in Toronto is the announcement that Nordica is to sing here in a recital on Monday, May 8. She will be assisted by Signor Pariccolo, an Italian pianist, who has been singing in Europe, and has come to America for the first time this season.

Gounod considered the "Redemption" as his masterpiece, and was engaged for a period of 12 years in its composition. On Monday, April 23, at Massey Hall, Mme. Albani, who has been singing in Europe, and has come to America for the first time this season, will sing the work exactly as it was given in the initial production and as Gounod desired the soprano parts to be taken. It is interesting to note that the "Voice from Heaven," which is sometimes represented by another soprano in the gallery, or the flies, will be taken by Mme. Albani herself. Albert Archdeacon will take the baritone part, Mlle. Eva Gauthier the contralto solo, David Ross will be narrator, and a well-known American violinist will sing the tenor part. The subscribers' list will remain open at Massey Hall until April 14.

The Toronto Pure Food Show in Massey Hall has settled down to the business of showing the pure productions of Ontario to thousands of visitors. The show is a well-attended affair, leading entertainers, such as the United States make the show enjoyable in the afternoon and evening. The talent, including the world-famous Jarvis, tenor; H. Ruthven McDonald, basso; Miss Marie Le Claire, soprano; Detroit; Miss Mary Florence Stevenson, soprano; Chicago; Harry M. Bennett, entertainer; Toronto; Bert Harvey, character vocalist; Toronto; E. H. Morris, novelty expert; Indianapolis; C. L. Abbott, impersonator; E. R. Bowles, accompanist; the Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra and the Lyra Ladies' Orchestra. A special feature will be this afternoon and evening will be John Philip Sousa and his band.

HOW HE BEAT THE STREET CARS.

A Torontonian Keeps a record of Fares He Never Paid.

A small account book was picked up in the street recently showing a systematic record of the number of times its owner got ahead of the street railway company. The blank pages of this book are ruled off in ledger form and each account headed with the name of a street car route in Toronto. For instance there was "Church Street" with a debit on the left hand side and a credit on the right. "Bloor and McCaul" the same and so on over the entire system. Evidently when the owner of this book paid a fare he charged it up against the car line he patronized, and whenever he saved a fare he credited himself with five cents.

At first glance it might appear that the owner of this account book was in the habit of dodging the conductor's box, but this was not the case. The fact is the fares were saved by riding a bicycle instead of paying the street car company for coming and going, and the fares were contributed on rainy days when the riding was unpleasant. On August 8th, 1905, he made an entry against "Bloor and McCaul" as follows: "One fare—last of quarter's worth of tickets bought June 2nd." The total of fares unpaid amounted to nearly thirty dollars in seven months.

Chicago, March 30.—Labor unions among municipal employees were endorsing enthusiastically by Mayor Dunne last night at a street car men's meeting. That they should not strike was his only proviso. MURDER AND CANNIBALISM RATHER THAN STARVATION

Startling Stories of Heroic Measures in Arctic Asia—Two Tribes Disappear.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Horrible accounts are reaching St. Petersburg of cannibalism and starvation among tribes inhabiting the frozen Arctic plain of the Chukotka Peninsula at the extremity of Asia. Most of the reindeer died of starvation during the winter of 1904-5, leaving the inhabitants without means of communication or food. During the past winter whole tribes have died and members of the Omoions and Oloya tribes, when facing starvation, assembled in council and decided that nothing but a family decision should kill his wife and children, and then commit suicide. The tribesmen snowed and ice in the darkness of the Arctic winter the Spartan decision was executed, not a single member of the two tribes surviving.

More revolting still is the story of what occurred in a family of the Yukon tribe. A mother and nine of her children having died of hunger, the father, a sickly daughter and a nephew lived upon the remains, and when they were consumed the father murdered the nephew.

A Russian named Dolganoff, who went to the region to buy furs, reported the situation to the authorities at Yakutsk, Siberia. He entered a snow hut of a Yukon family while the latter were eating the head of a murdered relative.

Slain With Billiard Cue.

New York, March 30.—Ferdinand Spreckles, a saloon-keeper and a man of unusual strength, was found dead in his saloon on Trinity-avenue to-day. He had been beaten to death with a billiard cue. The place presented a scene of much disorder, tables and chairs being overturned and glasses smashed as if they had been used as missiles.

YOU CAN'T DOUBT THIS.

Go where you will, but it's impossible to find a family liniment equal to "Nervine." Age adds to its popularity, pain-subduing power. "Nervine" is the only liniment that will cure aches and pains in the muscles, or in fact any need of an honest liniment. Nervine fills the bill. I can recommend it highly because I have proved that in one application of Nervine there is more virtue than in a whole bottle of ordinary liniment."

Bylaws Defeated.

Guelph, March 30.—(Special.)—Voting on the bylaws to adopt a public parks act and to place the waterworks under the management of a commission were voted on to-day. Both bylaws were defeated, the former by 88, and the latter by 8. The vote was very small, showing an apparent lack of interest amongst the ratepayers.

SAVED BY A WAVE.

Graphic Incident in a North Sea Wreck.

The solitary survivor of the crew of the German galliot Trenje landed at Bo'ness Dock from the British steamer Mabel, told a thrilling story of the wreck of his ship and his rescue.

While steaming near the Dogger Bank the Trenje sighted the British flying signals of distress. At heavy gale was blowing and a high sea running, but Captain Phillips called for volunteers, and five men offered to put off to the distressed ship.

After a long fight with the sea the rescuers reached the Trenje, when they found that there was only one man aboard her. He was taken off, and the return to the Mabel was made in safety, but before the rescue party were got on board the steamer a heavy sea struck their boat, and the boat swain, Andrew Tollerens, was thrown into the sea. For three-quarters of an hour he kept himself afloat, while efforts were made to rescue him. But they were of no avail and he sank.

Meanwhile the survivor from the Trenje had been taken on board, and he told an extraordinary story.

His ship had experienced the full force of Monday's gale. During the height of the storm the captain and crew, four in all, were in the deck house drinking coffee, when a heavy sea struck the ship, carrying away the mainmast and washing the crew overboard.

A return sea washed the survivor back again, and alone in the Trenje he was tossed about for eighteen hours before the ship was sighted by the Mabel and he was rescued.

ETON BOYS' SUPERIOR PHYSIQUE.

At a meeting to consider the question of national physical deterioration, held recently at the London (Eng.) Chamber of Commerce, J. G. Legg, H. M. Inspector of elementary schools, has made some interesting comparisons between Eton and working-class boys. He said that in 1883 the Eton boy of 14 years measured 55 ins. in height, and the industrial school boy of the same age only measured 50 ins. In 1900, all the industrial school boys had gained more than an inch, he was still 4 ins. shorter than the Eton boy.

In the hope of elucidating what seems to be a mystery, The World invites information from any or all of the parties named hereunder, who are directors and shareholders in the National Agency, which is recorded at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, as having a capital of $750,000.

Ottawa, March 30.—(Special).—The insurance commission adjourned this afternoon, to reassemble at Ottawa on April 17.

No new matter was taken up to-day, although one or two points heretofore made were thrown into sharp relief.

Among these was the $43,000 paid by the Manufacturers' Life to George Gooderham. It is claimed by the company that the money was really due Mr. Gooderham for taking over at their cost price some undesirable real estate and accounts from the company. This payment recouped his loss. Mr. Gooderham at the time was president of the company.

Another point developed this morning was that the Home Life has been at an expense of $190 for $100 worth of new business. Its impairment of capital was $22,000 in 1900, $37,000 in 1901, $63,000 in 1902, $77,000 in 1903 and $108,000 in 1904.

"I don't like so many of these weak companies. Some of them will fail one of these days, and I would rather the failure took place were not under our jurisdiction."

This statement was culled from a letter sent to Mr. Blackadar when that gentleman was in charge of the Dominion Insurance Department by Mr. Fitzgerald. In reply to Mr. Blackadar, who wrote telling him that the Central Life Insurance Company was applying for a license. Shortly after Mr. Fitzgerald's return to Ottawa the license was granted.

Ex-Mayor W. D. Morris has invited the royal insurance commission to hold an inquiry into the affairs of the Ottawa Fire Insurance Company, in the event of such an inquiry being within the jurisdiction of the commission. This afternoon Mr. Morris handed a letter to Judge MacTavish, chairman of the commission, making the request. Mr. Morris questions the advisability of the company dabbling in Ottawa real estate.

Got Union Life Stock.

When the commission resumed Mr. Shepley read correspondence between the department and the management of the National Agency Company, which had organized and financed the Union Life Assurance Company. It was shown that the National Agency Company had subscribed for a very large proportion of the Union Life stock. Counsel questioned the right of the agency company to do this, and obtained from Mr. Fitzgerald the admission that under its letters patent the National Agency had no authority for such subscription. The superintendent spoke vaguely of some resolution which authorized this. Mr. Shepley requested him "to repeat the mental operation you went thru when you went into this matter."

"Premium on Capital Stock."
Regarding the large amounts appearing in the income account of the Union Life as "premium on capital stock," in 1905 $115,000 and $140,000 in 1906, Mr. Shepley obtained the superintendent's assent to the proposition that these moneys were collected from shareholders of the National Agency, and credited on that company's uncalled stock. These sums were, however, turned into the Union Life treasury as premium on capital stock, and as such did not go to pay anything on the Union Life stock held by the National Agency Company. By paying calls, however, on National Agency stock the recourse against the shareholders of that company was gradually eliminated.

The question of silent assets and the companies' rights in that regard was resurrected. The superintendent wrote to the department of justice regarding securities held by the companies, but not included in their statutory report.

84-86 YONGE STREET.

Mr. Newcombe, deputy minister of justice, replied to the effect that section 19 of the Insurance Act covered the matter and that to conceal assets, even to a nominal value, was an infraction of the act. The section provides that the companies shall prepare an annual statement, "which statement shall exhibit the assets and the liabilities."

The superintendent sent a copy of this opinion to the two companies who disputed the matter, the Sun Life and the North American Life. R. Macaulay had claimed the right to withhold assets from the statutory report, his interpretation of the act differing absolutely from that subsequently given by the deputy minister of justice. Mr. Goodman, managing director of the North American Life, took the same ground as R. Macaulay, adding the suggestion that his company was secluding such assets to provide the additional reserve required in 1910 (by the amendment of 1890).

Holding Silent Assets.

Counsel questioned the superintendent as to his opinion regarding the policy of holding silent assets, as enunciated by the president of the Sun Life. At that Mr. Fitzgerald said he rather approved of the practice, as it was perhaps desirable to have a margin of safety over the published assets. If the company was going to err at all, it should err on the side of safety.

He said that the policyholder might desire to insist upon full publicity of assets, as it might affect the size of dividends distributed. The holding of silent assets also made it possible for directors to deal with such assets in an improper manner.

"You can't doubt, imagine several improper manners of dealing with such assets," said Mr. Shepley. Counsel also elicited the admission that silent assets made unauthorized investments possible.

Mr. Smith's Statement.
At this time R. C. Smith, counsel for the Sun Life, held a whispered consultation with Mr. Shepley. The crown counsel then made a statement on behalf of the Sun Life. Last year the company added a footnote to its statutory statement to the effect that the company held silent assets, giving no amount. The Sun had not made an effort to conceal these assets from the department, but had not published them in detail.

"It seems unavoidable," said Mr. Shepley, "in conducting this inquiry, that we shall tread on certain people's corns before the time has come for treading on corns."

"The Sun Life is now on a 312 per cent. basis," said Mr. Fitzgerald. "That is a matter of fact," said Mr. Shepley. "As a matter of policy, we shall not deal with the wisdom of making that change at one move, before the time required."

Impairment of Capital.

Referring to the impairment of capital of the Home Life it was shown that as its paid capital was only $187,000, as shown by the blue book for 1904, there was left only about $60,000 of the paid-up capital. The Home Life appears to have been steadily impairing its capital since it began doing business thirteen years ago.

Part of this impairment had been apparently made up by advancing the ledger value of its head office building in Toronto. This was touched upon in Mr. Blackadar's evidence some days ago, but even with this written up value the company's capital was impaired.

The Home Life had bought $44,000 bonds of Grand Valley Railway, which carried $60,000 bonus stock. An unsecured loan had been made to a director of the company. An overdraft was allowed to the managing director. A loan of $20,000 had been made to the Canadian Homestead loan on the security of the bare receipt.

Noxious Practices.

These were "noxious and improper practices," according to Mr. Shepley. "Do you think your powers are wide enough to enable you to deal with these matters satisfactorily?" he asked.

"I do not think they are," answered the superintendent.

"What would be the most efficient method to enable you to deal with these matters?" asked counsel.

"The most efficient way would be to enable me to withhold licenses," was Mr. Fitzgerald's answer.

The Manufacturers' Life.

Counsel now took up two or three transactions of the Manufacturers' Life. That company in 1903 had purchased two blocks of Electrical Development bonds, $50,000 in all, carrying $45,000 bonus stock, at a cost of $47,500. These securities were obtained thru S. G. Beatty, a director of the Manufacturers' Life. Mr. Beatty was not a broker, but was able to secure a good proposition.

POLYHOLDERS' PROTEST.

The following telegram was sent yesterday:

Helmut, K.C., Insurance commission.

Imperial Buildings, Ottawa.

Policyholders' Association protest strongly against counsel representing their interest in the Langmuir's Mutual Reserve trusteeship has no bearing on investigation. Mutual Reserve for life, no being tried New York in trusteeship can alter fact they are your attention that Langmuir's company holds twenty thousand dollars Canada Life stock. How can Langmuir properly serve insurance shareholders and be commissioner simultaneously? No lawyer would act clients of opposing interest. Association ventures to invite you read this proposition to commission.
