Despite Desire to Remain Neutral, German Acts Forcing People of Holland to Side With Allies

London, May 31.—Holland's attitude is watched here with the keenest interest. Reluctant as the Dutch people and government are against being plunged into the great conflict, they have ample evidence that they may be drawn in.

Several Dutch subjects were lost on the Lusitania. This was the ultimatum point of a series of outrages on Dutch citizens and ships which Holland has been powerless to avenge. Vigorous protests concerning the Lusitania and other events brought little satisfaction from Berlin.

Now there is danger of Germany proclaiming the long-threatened annexation of Belgium. If this happens, Holland will very likely take action, knowing that with the disappearance of Belgium sovereignty German victory would mean speedy aggression against Holland.

SPEEDIEST YACHT ON THIS SIDE OF ATLANTIC AGAIN IN LIMELIGHT

J. K. L. Ross of Montreal Leaves New York on Board—Bound For Canada?

New York, May 31.—Another interesting episode in the eventful career of the steam yacht Winchester, said to be the fastest yacht on this side of the Atlantic, began on Friday afternoon, when she left the pier of the New York Yacht Club with her owner, J. K. L. Ross of Montreal, on board. Her destination was shrouded in mystery. It was assumed she was bound for a Canadian port.

The Winchester is the yacht that had her wireless outfit dismantled last November, by order of the United States officers, it is said, they had been informed that she had been purchased by the British government for use as a naval tender.

The Winchester was built two years ago for Peter Winchester Rose. She is capable of thirty knots an hour. It is believed she will be used as a war boat.

POLICE COURT

Archie Quinn was brought into the police court this morning and further remanded until tomorrow morning to procure witnesses. He is charged with drunkenness and assaulting pedestrians.

Joseph Nesbitt, charged with luring about the C. P. R. premises in Mill street on last Friday, was allowed to go with a fine of $20 standing against him.

Thomas Kelly was allowed out on suspended sentence on a charge of stealing a pair of carriage wheels. He maintained that he had purchased them for $150.

Robert McAdam, arrested for drunkenness and charged with resisting the police, was fined $88 and ten months.

John Yensen and Joseph Johnson, two Norwegian sailors who left the bark Delta, were allowed to go this morning as they were willing to return to the ship.

Frederick Bennett and Charles Myers, two Norwegian sailors from the bark Beevinger, were allowed to return to the ship with their captain. One was charged with desertion and the other with refusing to work when ordered.

Carl Gray was remanded on a charge of wandering about the streets.

EARLY CLOSING

Some of the more important wholesale grocery houses in the city are intending to establish early closing in their premises beginning tomorrow, and continuing through the summer. The scheme is in the nature of a daylight saving system, co-operative in its nature between employer and employe, the latter coming to work earlier in the morning to make up the shortening by an hour from 6 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Among those who will observe the early closing will be Hall & Fairweather, G. E. Harboun, Co., Ltd., and Jones & Schofield.

ST. JOHN NURSE

W. L. Walsh, of Haymarket square, will leave this evening for Boston, where he will meet his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Walsh, a recent graduate from St. John's Hospital, Lowell, Mass. She has just completed her finishing course after graduation.

GERMANS EVADE ISSUE

No Guarantee of Safeguarding of American Lives—Second Note to go Forward Promptly—Meanwhile Mexico Troubles Administration

Washington, May 31.—Two international problems—one a crisis in the relations between the United States and Germany, and the other the determination of the administration to bring about an early cessation of internal warfare in Mexico, developed for President Wilson today, a combination of circumstances hardly paralleled in American history.

The president had prepared a statement to be issued tomorrow as a warning to the Mexican factions, that their incessant strife had forced the innocent populace to the verge of starvation and that unless the chief elements came to an agreement to restore order, some other means would be found by the United States to re-establish peace.

There was a confidence in executive quarters that the warning would suffice to set in motion definite plans for peace in Mexico, but in respect of the relations with Germany, made increasingly grave by the reply from Berlin to the American note sent as a consequence of the Lusitania disaster, pessimism and high tension were apparent.

The official text of the note from Germany was before the president early today. Officials generally read it with profound disappointment for they pointed out it endeavored to obscure and evade the main issues, the question of humanity involved, and sought to interpose a technical argument on matters of law, hitherto unadmitted under the universally accepted laws of nations. Most important of all, it was noted that no attention was given to the request of the United States for assurance that American lives would be safeguarded in the future.

The course of the United States is expected to be shaped by the president's speech today, and will be discussed at tomorrow's cabinet meeting.

From a prevailing feeling over the Lusitania disaster in which more than 100 Americans met their deaths, the president believed in many quarters that he will order the despatch of a second note to Berlin within the next few days, replying to the facts of the Lusitania's cargo and equipment and to the circumstances under which she was sunk in the first American note and an intimation that a prompt reply is expected.

FRENCH PRESIDENT TO DRINK NO LIQUOR DURING OR AFTER THE WAR

Paris, May 31.—Raymond Poincaré, president of France on Saturday announced that he would abstain from liquors during or after the war. This announcement is in reply to a request made by the national anti-alcoholic league.

COL. ROOSEVELT BREAKS RIB

New York, May 31.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt met with an accident at his home at Sagamore Hill as he was trying to mount a horse. He fell and broke a rib. The discovery of the broken bone was made by the colonel's physician, summoned when the former president became convinced that the pain which he suffered after the fall was caused by something more than a wrench.

SECOND FIRE ON STEAMER

London, May 31.—The British steamer Aononia was badly damaged last night by fire while lying in the London docks. The cause of the fire is not known. It required 120 firemen, eighteen engines and a fireboat to get the flames under control.

CORPORAL J. P. RYAN

Among the St. John boys giving gallant service at the front is Corporal J. P. Ryan. Like many other sons of the Loyalist city, Mr. Ryan, who is a son of J. P. Ryan, a King Square, responded to the first call to arms, joining the first Canadian contingent at Vancouver. He has been in the thick of the fighting ever since the first Canadian troops set foot on French soil. He was in the fierce battle at Langemarck and was wounded, but he was fortunate to come through unscathed.

Proceedings Against THE LONDON TIMES

Published Letter Which is Regarded as Against Interests of Nation in War

Word Comes From Corporal J. P. Ryan, Veteran of South African War, and Who Won Distinction in Mounted Rifle Corps

London, May 31.—The first important newspaper prosecution under the defence of the realm act, on the charge of publishing information useful to enemies of Great Britain was begun today against the Times and against the printer of the paper and Major E. H. Richardson a retired officer. The prosecution is based on a letter written by Major Richardson published in the Times of May 21 which said:

"The last of the French reserves are out. At the present moment young recruits have been called up."

The letter was a plea for conscription. Public feeling in London said the French government had complained of true or false, said the prosecutor, "was calculated to give confidence to the Germans and depress the allies. The likelihood of information received was of a prohibitive character. The letter admitted to the press bureau by newspapers and other means to submit it to the press bureau."

The case was adjourned until Saturday.

COMLY ROBERTSON DEAD

Comly Robertson—A lifelong resident of Indianville, held in general respect by a large number of friends, passed away this morning about 7:30 o'clock in the General Public Hospital. He had been ill for some time since a heart ailment. He was seventy-five years of age. Loyalist descent, and was born in the town of Indianville. He resided all his life in North End, being engaged as a lumber surveyor and a surveyor inspector for several concerns. At one time he was superintendent of the old Barnhill mill, while he was last employed with W. Malcom Mackey. He had thorough knowledge of the lumbering business, and was a valuable official.

Mr. Robertson retired from active work three or four years ago. He was well known about the city, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all with whom he was acquainted. Mr. Robertson is survived by two sisters, Miss Cecelia A. Robertson and Mrs. Margaret E. Eagles of St. John and Arthur H. of Winnipeg, and a niece, Miss Blanche of this city. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from his late home, 128 Bridge street.

SIX PIECES OF SHRAPNEL

Five in Bert Gaster's Right Arm and Another in Left

A letter received by Mrs. W. Ganter, of 74 Chapel street, from her son, Bert, who has been fighting in France, but who is now in the Royal Hospital, Richmond, Surrey, Eng., tells of his condition, and speaks of the kind treatment he has been given. His wounds are only slight, he says. An X-ray examination had disclosed five small pieces of shrapnel in his right forearm and another in his left arm. He was also brought on one of his legs.

He speaks of having come through some exciting experiences at Ypres and St. Eloi. The patients recovering from their wounds in the hospital, young Ganter writes, are given a good time, and a little rest is shown them.

Suspend Voluntary Enlistment; So Many Anxious To Fight

Great Rush of Volunteers in Italy—Another Capture by Italians—Are There Spies in the Catacombs?

Rome, May 31.—So enormous has been the rush of volunteers to join the colors that the authorities have temporarily suspended voluntary enlistment. Despite this order recruiting bureaus are still crowded daily with applicants in the prime of manhood, pleading for enlistment.

THE TROOPS OPPOSING ITALIANS

Genoa via Paris, May 31.—Italian troops have occupied Valdagna, according to a despatch to the Tribune. The troops now opposed to the Italian number, it is estimated, 650,000 with seventy batteries, Austro-German losses on the Italian front to date are said to have been about 1,000 killed, 3,000 wounded and 1,000 prisoners.

Spies in Catacombs

Rome, May 31.—A cry of alarm has been raised over the possibility of German or Austrian spies being hidden in the catacombs. The major part of the excavations of the catacombs hitherto have been directed by Germans.

Serbian to Aid Italians

Genoa, May 31.—The Serbian army has re-organized and intends taking the offensive to aid the Italians. The Swiss government decided today to mobilize the first and third divisions of reserves, numbering about 70,000.

Albanians Repulsed

Florence, May 31.—A Havas despatch from Nish says strong Albanian bands attacked Serbian blockhouses near Macom on May 28, and frontier posts between Kastellia and Rakivica. In both cases the Albanians were repulsed, Germans to Italian Front.

Berna, May 31.—News from Austria report a large number of trains loaded with German troops, chiefly infantry and artillery, moving to the southern Tyrol.

GETTING DOWN TO THE LAST CALL IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, May 31.—The Reichsmessenger of Berlin has published an order calling to the colors all first class members of the landwehr, or the final reserve forces, not previously summoned. This order does not apply to Bavaria. Germans in Germany must report between June 8 and June 10, Germans outside of Germany as soon as possible.

REPORT BEST YEAR YET

Annual Meeting of Ludlow Baptist Sunday School

The seventy-fourth annual meeting of the Ludlow street Baptist Sunday school, West End, was held yesterday at the conclusion of the session of the school. The superintendent presided. The reports showed that all previous records in the work of the school had been eclipsed. After a review of the work had been given by the superintendent, E. H. Parsons, the secretary's report was submitted, showing the membership to be 346, not including forty-two in the cradle roll and fifty in the home department. New members during the year were fifty-nine, united with the church ten; total attendance, 218; average attendance, 212; highest attendance, 331. The school is graded in the total number raised by the school was $1,046.22. Of this amount, $202.83 was for missions and $123.39 was for the Belgian Relief Fund. This is the largest amount ever raised by the school, either for missions or general purposes.

The officers elected to lead in the work for the coming year, are: Superintendent, R. H. Hunter; assistant superintendent, H. M. Parsons; assistant superintendent, J. Anderson; J. H. Ronald; secretary, Miss Kathleen Fitzpatrick; treasurer, Miss M. M. Campbell; assistant treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Belyea; assistant treasurer, Clarence E. Rupert; librarian, LeRoy Belyea; and Edgar Carvell, guardian, Walter Allan; pianist, Mrs. A. Horton; assistant pianist, Miss Harford; Fitzpatrick; superintendent primary and cradle roll, Miss Ermine G. Cochran; superintendent home department, Mrs. E. E. Lowell; secretary home department, Miss Mabel Sharpe; superintendent temperance department, Clarence E. Rupert; secretary temperance department, Arlene R. Mabey; honorary superintendent of school, Deacon John E. King.

Words of appreciation of the excellent work done during the year were spoken by the pastor, Rev. W. R. Ross, and the honorary superintendent. One of the noteworthy things in connection with the school was the fact that a large number of the young men enlisted for foreign service in the empire's battles.

Ottawa, May 31.—The Canadian casualties so far called total 426. It is essential to date their total more than 10,000.

LETTER FROM CORPORAL BONNEDIE

Mrs. Margaret Bonnedie of 482 Main street, received a letter this morning from her husband Corporal Bonnedie, who is with the Canadian forces in France. He said he was well and had escaped injury up to that time. He had been appointed special interpreter for the battalion signaller. In the letter was enclosed a small prayer book which he found on the battle field after the fierce engagement at Ypres. He said it was a Flemish prayer book and must have been dropped by one of the soldiers during the battle.

EXPECT MANY AMERICANS

That many Americans would come to the Maritime provinces during this summer was the opinion of A. H. Lindsay of the advertising staff of the I. C. R. Moncton, who passed through the city at noon today on his return from Boston. He has been in charge of a government railways exhibit, oil paintings of the Bras d'Or Lakes and the Bay of Chaleur, in Federal street, Boston, and said that as a result of the showing, there was much interest. The inquiries made at the I. C. R. ticket offices and agencies indicated that many were intending to visit the Maritime provinces during the tourist season.

FOUND GUILTY

Hired Assassin Convicted Of New York Murder

POLITICAL CONSPIRACY

Lieutenant of Tammany Leader Was Slain—Two Men Alleged to Have Investigated the Crime Are in the Tombs

New York, May 31—Gastano Montagna, who has been in trial in the supreme court for more than a week for the murder of Gaimari, June 7, 1914, a political lieutenant of Thomas F. Foley, Tammany leader of the second assembly district, was convicted of the crime by a jury that deliberated only forty-seven minutes.

The theory on which the state prosecuted Montagna was that he had been hired to commit the murder by Rocks Cornell and Frank Fenimore, two adherents of Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner Michael A. Rofrano, Foley's political foe.

Evidence was introduced at the trial to show that Cornell had told Montagna that Rofrano wanted Gaimari dead and would pay $200 for his murder.

Justice Davis was sitting awaiting the verdict and the main floor of the criminal court building became crowded with adherents of Foley or Rofrano.

Just before the jury came in a rumor reached the court that several of those in the crowd were armed and threats had been made against the principals in the prosecution and defense.

On the strength of this rumor the police and court attendants were ordered to clear the court room and main floor. One of those allowed to remain outside the court room was Mrs. Mabel Fenimore, wife of Frank Fenimore.

The district attorney told Justice Davis that, in his opinion, the Gaimari murder case more nearly concerns the administration of public justice than even the events that led up to the murder of Herman Rosenthal by a lieutenant of police in 1912.

"It is a striking coincidence," said the district attorney, "that the first of the conspirators guilty of the murder of Michael Gaimari should be found guilty of murder in the first degree on the day of the affirmation by the court of appeals of the conviction of Charles Becker.

The theory of the prosecution which was accepted by the trial jury in the Montagna case, is that behind the killing of Gaimari lies a political conspiracy which finally made use of murder as a means of terrorizing the opponents of a political leader.

In the case of Becker he was fighting for his position and to escape prison; in the case of Montagna the killing was the result of an effort at political supremacy dictated by no motive arising from necessity, but purely an ordered assassination unparalleled in the history of the city.

"The conviction of Montagna again demonstrates that it is possible to hire an assassin in this city for a paltry sum and that there are persons who are prepared to resort even to the crime of murder for attainment of personal ends."

Montagna was sentenced to the Tombs for sentence on June 7.

"The number of gang operations conducted to public attention recently is evidence that the conviction of the principals in the Becker case has not driven home completely the lesson that the law will exact the highest penalty for murder in the first degree. It is necessary that a further example should be made and that it be demonstrated to the criminal element of this community that justice in this city is swift and sure and that the man who murders himself the instrument of murder does so at the peril of his life."

Montagna was remanded to the Tombs for sentence on June 7.

PLANS FOR RESERVE

Ottawa, May 31—The announcement by the minister of militia that the militia reserves in Canada are to be organized, excites interest.

When a Times reporter met them they were just leaving city hall, where they had gone to see Mayor Frank for the purpose of discussing the matter with him. His warning is out of the city today, so the matter remains as it is for the present.

Messrs. Taylor and Hopper said that they had seen the city solicitor this morning and had made him the offer that, if they would be allowed to replace the old rails for the present, they would be glad to have the whole matter settled by the council as soon as possible.

"The number of gang operations conducted to public attention recently is evidence that the conviction of the principals in the Becker case has not driven home completely the lesson that the law will exact the highest penalty for murder in the first degree. It is necessary that a further example should be made and that it be demonstrated to the criminal element of this community that justice in this city is swift and sure and that the man who murders himself the instrument of murder does so at the peril of his life."

THE BOARD OF TRADE AND THE POLICE

It was announced in the press last week that at a meeting of the council of the Board of Trade a request had been received asking its approval of an increase in salaries in one of the city departments, but that the council was unable to see its way clear to do so.

The department referred to was the police department, and Commissioner McLellan learned that the communication mentioned was in the form of an anonymous postal card. It was as follows:—

The support of the president and members of the Board of Trade is desired on behalf of the motion to be made at the next meeting of the council by Commissioner McLellan for an increase in wages for the police force. An increase of 25 cents per day per man will amount to $6,000 per annum and consequently an addition of $500 per month to the civic assessment will all that is required, trifling matter indeed in view of the gratitude that will be manifested in better service by the men, who in wet and in fine weather and at the risk of their lives, patrol our streets. A sympathetic attitude from the board will aid the Commissioner McLellan not send this card, and had nothing whatever to do with it. He expresses surprise that the council of the board would consider an unassigned communication. The council sent him the following letter, which he was also surprised to receive, since he had not communicated with the board concerning the matter in question:—

28th May 1915. H. R. McLellan, Esq., Commissioner Dept. of Public Safety, St. John, N. B. Dear Sir:—

I have the honor to inform you that the accompanying unassigned communication was laid before the council of the Board of Trade today and received consideration.

In view of the fact that almost every municipality in Canada is curtailing its expenditure this year, and that many business houses in the city have been compelled to adopt a like policy, the council regrets very much that it cannot at this time take a sympathetic attitude toward the proposed increase in the police department salaries.

Respectfully yours, R. E. ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE Bifocals Add to Summer Pleasure You use your eyes for far vision much more when you are out of doors than when you are inside. That's why so many people complain about "hot weather being hard on their eyes." The real reason for this distress is that without realizing it the eyes are being constantly strained.

The sensible thing to do is to wear Oxy-f Bifocal glasses. The upper part of the lens is for far vision, and the lower part for reading and close work, while the dividing line is practically invisible. They are really two pairs of glasses in one mounting, giving perfect service for all vision.

Oxy-f Bifocals will add much to your comfort and pleasure this summer. Come in and let us demonstrate them.

FROM SPRINGHILL Seven volunteers left Springhill, N. S., last Thursday to join the 40th Regiment at Aldershot. Since the 40th has left the Cumberland, Major Fillmore has enlisted twenty-seven additional volunteers. A boom began this morning. It is estimated that about 50,000 feet of lumber will be rafted there this season.

FREDERICTON NOTES. Fredericton, N. B., May 31—The board of trustees of the Victoria Public Hospital are to meet this afternoon to consider the resignation of Mrs. Daniel Richards as matron. The resignation is to take effect July 1.

"The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. on Saturday from the residence of her son and proceed to the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in the Rostown cemetery."

Death of Mrs. Jennie Stephenson in the West—Brother and Sister in St. John. The Eagle, of Rostown, Sask., in its issue of May 18, has the following in reference to Mrs. M. D. Stephenson, whose death was announced some days ago:—

"Mrs. Jennie Stephenson, beloved wife of the late David M. Stephenson, one of the most respected and highly esteemed ladies in our community. Though she had been suffering for some months from an illness from which it was known she could not recover, her death came quite unexpectedly and has brought sadness and gloom to the town and district. Her death is a severe loss to the Presbyterian Church, in whose work she had always taken a very active part."

"She was among the first settlers in the district, arriving here in 1869. Previous to coming to the west she resided in Woodstock, N. B., and in 1868 went to Saskatoon and remained there a year before coming to Rostown. At the time of her arrival here there were few settlers in the district and during the sparsely settled days and until her death she was an angel of mercy and did much to brighten and cheer the lives of young and old. She was a favorite among all and well earned the high esteem in which she was held."

"Mrs. Stephenson was fifty-three years and eight months of age and leaves one son, Fred Stephenson, with whom she lived; a brother, Geo. A. East, of St. John, N. B., and a sister, Mrs. E. W. Hamilton of St. John."

"The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. on Saturday from the residence of her son and proceed to the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in the Rostown cemetery."

Believe in Yourself.

If you consider yourself a worm of the dust you must expect people to distrust you. If you make a doormat of yourself people are sure to wipe their feet on you. More men fall through ignorance of their strength than through knowledge of their weakness. You may succeed when others do not believe in you; but never when you do not believe in yourself. The curiosity of him who wishes to see fully for himself how the dark side of life looks is like that of the man who took a torch into a powder-mill to see whether it would blow up or not.—Dr. O. S. Marden.

During the 90 years of the Royal National Lifeboats' operations 52,000 lives have been saved from shipwrecks on the British coasts. In 1914, 1,112 were saved and 268 since the outbreak of war from His Majesty's ships or seaplanes. The lifeboat fleet numbers 267.

MARINE NOTES.

The schooner "Uncle Sam," owned by Captain Harpell, of Jeddore, N. S., from Halifax to Summerside, which went ashore at Tryon, is a total loss.

Damage to the extent of about $1,000 was done by a fire in Princess street early yesterday morning. The alarm was given by a Chinese laundryman in the adjoining building, owned by F. E. Williams, whose premises also suffered. The fire broke out in a building in the rear of 94 Princess street, occupied by W. C. Montfort, as a furniture repair shop, and which was totally destroyed. From the rear the fire spread to the brick building in front, owned by Mrs. James Hunter and occupied by Mrs. S. B. Morrell as a boarding house.

About half a million pairs of soldiers' boots are now being made every week in England.

WHAT OF THURSDAY NEXT?

It is difficult for the people of St. John, who get three meals each day and have money to spend for entertainment, and who see life going on from day to day just as it did before the war began, to realize the awful state of the hapless people of Belgium. Imagine more than twice as many people as there are in the three maritime provinces dependent entirely upon charity for their food and clothing, and millions more getting ever closer to absolute destitution, their homes ravaged, their families scattered, their country under the harsh rule of an enemy without mercy and without pity for their woes. And yet Belgium did no wrong. She had given no cause for the violation of her territory and the wholesale pillage, outrage and murder wrought by the German soldiers. That crime will damn the name of Germany through all coming time. But the Belgian people must be fed and clothed. The appeal comes this week to the citizens of St. John. Each one, old and young, is asked on Thursday next to perform some little act of self-denial, and give something to the Belgians. One cent from each person, old and young, in St. John would mean about five hundred dollars, and ten cents from each would mean five thousand dollars. But how far would even the latter sum go toward feeding and clothing nearly or quite three millions of destitute people? It would be about one dollar to divide among six hundred people. Out of their quiet, well-guarded and prosperous lives, how much will the people of St. John give next Thursday for the starving Belgians, whose army helped and is still helping to keep the homes of Canada quiet, well-guarded and prosperous?

SAVING HUMAN LIVES.

Why is the Jordan Sanitarium not filled to its capacity with patients, with so many more seeking admission as to make necessary a steady increase in the number of cottages? It is because the cost per week per patient, even with the government paying two-thirds of it, is so great that many people cannot afford to pay it, and there are no societies or wealthy individuals willing to help those who cannot pay their own way? As a matter of fact, some persons of wealth are paying for the treatment of patients. One St. John lady interested herself in a boy, and is caring for him, and a St. John man of generous nature is paying for the treatment of a young girl. Doubtless there are other such instances, but the fact remains that there is ample room for more patients. Why is it that so large a proportion of those treated are beyond the incipient stage when they arrive at the institution? Out of sixty-three patients treated last year twenty-two were moderately advanced cases. Of these eight showed no improvement after treatment. The disease had gone too far. Why was not each case diagnosed and the treatment begun sooner? How many cases are there in the province today that will very soon be advanced cases if not given sanitarium treatment? Of course the sanitarium authorities are not responsible. They can only treat a case when it comes to them; but Dr. Townsend spends one day in each month in St. John, Fredericton and Moncton, to examine all who desire to be examined for traces of the disease, and the management is always ready to co-operate to the fullest extent with the physicians who bring cases to their attention. Such co-operation on the part of all the physicians would no doubt result in having a much larger proportion of cases treated in the incipient stage when there is a good prospect of complete cure or an arrest of the disease. It would also stimulate local interest in the different localities, lead to the opening of more local dispensaries, and arouse a more general desire to contribute to the support of needy patients.

The two greatest needs are fuller co-operation by physicians all over the province, so that cases may be sent early to the sanitarium, and some provision for needy cases, so that they may not be deprived of a chance to have their health restored. It is really surprising that the example of St. John, which has a strong branch of the Anti-tuberculosis Society, an excellent dispensary, and will soon have a fine hospital for advanced cases, is not followed at least to some extent in many other centres in the province. To be successful the fight against the white plague should be province-wide, and something more must be done to overcome the indifference which familiarity with the disease appears to have caused in the minds of the people at large.

The sanitarium at River Glade can be enlarged to any necessary extent, and without heavy capital expenditure, since it is only necessary to build new cottages as they are needed. The administration building, the heating and lighting plant, the water supply and sewerage system, and the executive staff do not need to be enlarged, and the larger number of patients, as already pointed out, the less will be the per capita cost. In view, therefore of the immense good the sanitarium is capable of doing, the people in every locality should become more and more deeply interested, and more willing to contribute toward the cost of caring for needy patients from their localities. It seems incredible, for example, that any town or village or country settlement would not be willing to raise enough money to give an unfortunate youth or maiden a chance for life. That is what it really amounts to, and if only the people can be led to see in that light they will not only encourage their physicians to make a careful diagnosis in all cases, and call Dr. Townsend in consultation, but they will cheerfully contribute to the cost of caring for those who cannot pay their own way, and who if allowed to go on without treatment become a menace to the health of the community at large.

No patient or his or her friends need hesitate about securing sanitarium treatment. Every provision is made for comfort, and for the most substantial food cooked under the eye of a most capable and experienced house-keeper, who is one of the most valued members of the staff. The nursing staff is always efficient and the physician always at hand.

The work of the sanitarium would be greatly helped if there were local associations throughout the province to tell patients what to do before they go there for treatment, and make them and their friends familiar with proper methods of dealing with the disease at home. The sanitarium is one of three factors in the fight. The first is the dispensary for diagnosis, home treatment, and the spread of information about the disease and how it should be treated. The second factor is the sanitarium, and the third is the hospital for advanced cases. What is most needed in this province at present is education, to arouse local interest everywhere, so that the disease may be grouped with in its earliest stages, either for home treatment or treatment in the sanitarium. St. John leads, and every other locality should profit by its example, making the movement province-wide.

It has already been said that of sixty-three cases treated at River Glade last year, twenty-two were moderately advanced. In spite of this, six cases were apparently cured, in thirteen the disease was apparently arrested, and in thirty-six improvement was shown. Only eight showed no improvement. Of those treated twenty-one were married persons. When all the people of the province realize more fully the importance of the fight against tuberculosis the number of cottages at River Glade will grow, the proportion of moderately advanced cases will decrease, and the number of cures will gladden all hearts. That is the thing to remember. The disease can be cured, but it must be treated in time, and in the right way. Who is there who does not desire to aid in the prosecution of this great life-saving work?

It is openly asserted that young men of the poorer classes are enlisting more eagerly than young members of well-to-do families. Is it true? If so, why?

More Canadian soldiers have arrived in England and France. More will soon be sent. The recruiting campaign must be kept up. It goes too slowly at present.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has said that if Sir Robert Borden will say the word all partisan political activity in Canada will cease until the war is over. That is a direct challenge, but Sir Robert remains silent. Why?

As was anticipated the German reply to the United States is not satisfactory. It is only a question of time when the formal exchange of notes will give place to something more vigorous, and more satisfactory to those who long since passed the stage of polite conversation with the German murderers of women and children.

Neither Commissioner Potts nor the street railway company has anything to gain by a quarrel which puts the public to great inconvenience. If the railway service on Princess street is not promptly restored the people will pay the score later. There is no need of interrupting the service while disputes are being settled. The people who pay have a right to be considered first, and there is no occasion whatever for bluster and heroics. These run no cars.

The terrific struggle between the Russian and Aetro-German armies in Galicia has not yet reached a decisive stage. So long as the Russians are able to keep large armies of the enemy fully engaged the more progress the Italians will make, and the French and British as well. Meanwhile the heavy losses sustained by Germany and Austria are steadily reducing their effective forces. The process of wearing them down goes steadily on, despite their frenzied efforts to destroy one or another of their foes, and at every point they fail to accomplish their purpose. It is only necessary for the Allies to keep up their supply of men and munitions, but this they must not fail to do.

LESS DRUGS USED

A prominent druggist recently placed his four sons in other lines of business business, he said, by the time they were his age there'd be no drugs used. While this may not happen, it's true less drugs are used. People are intelligent. The doctor no longer must give patients "something" or lose them to one who will. We look more to the great healer nature and are willing to have the doctor direct what nature would have used. Ask any doctor whether he prefers to treat indigestion or constipation artificially by drugs or naturally by diet, using in the latter Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal and he'll laugh at your stupidity. Roman Meal made into porridge, without stirring, using a double boiler or single boiler in basin boiling water to prevent burning, is the most delicious breakfast known. Don't stir. It won't get lumpy and stirring spoils it. All grocers, 10c and 25c.

TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Rev. J. MacKegan, Rev. James Ross and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, and several lay delegates including S. R. Jack, W. C. Whitaker and W. C. Clawson, are to represent St. John at the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Toronto, beginning Wednesday. The delegates will leave this city on Tuesday evening and will arrive just in time to attend the opening session. The assembly will continue for more than a week, and many matters of importance, some of which have been heard by the war will occupy the attention of the delegates. Other delegates going from this direction are J. W. Wolburn, New Glasgow; Rev. T. A. Mitchell, Sussex; and Rev. T. Harrison, St. George.

Jury, in Second Trial, Reached Decision in One and a Half Hours—Mrs. Johnston's Trial This Afternoon

Hopewell Cape, N. B., May 29.—After being out one hour and a half the jury in the second trial of Jephro J. Downing, charged with having been a party to conspiracy to administer poison to Carl Johnson with attempt to commit murder, brought in a verdict of conviction on five of the eight counts. One count the jury stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal. The counts are all closely related to each other.

After the verdict, his honor thanked the jury for their attention during the long trial, and discharged them. The prisoner was then remanded for sentence which will be passed next week at the close of court.

The trial of Mrs. Johnson will open at 2 o'clock on Monday. Mr. Mullin has agreed to have counsel assigned for Mrs. Johnson, who is without a lawyer. Mr. Mullin will prosecute.

BACKACHE WAS SO BAD COULD NOT SWEEP THE FLOOR.

For backache, lame or weak back, one of the commonest and most distressing symptoms of kidney inaction, there is no remedy so equal to Doan's Kidney Pills for taking out the stiches, stiches and twinges, limbering up the stiff back and giving perfect relief and comfort to all poor, suffering women who suffer so much from a weak lame back.

Mrs. Blackburn, R.R. No. 1, Fishburn, Alta., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not even sweep my floor. I was advised to try your kidney pills. Before I had used one box there was a great improvement as my back was much better. However, I kept on taking them until my back was completely cured. I highly recommend these pills for lame back."

MONCTON MEN ARE WOUNDED

Letter of Interest From Lieut. Frank Tingley

HE WAS HIT IN LEG

Tells of Stirring Scenes in Great Battle and Relates Something of Life on the Fighting Line

Lieutenant Frank Tingley writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tingley of Moncton:—

"Weymouth House, London, Eng., May 18. "Dear mother and father:— "In London again, and am getting along nicely. I am to sit up for a while this afternoon, to see if I will be able to take a taxi for another X-ray examination to-morrow. My leg is on a straight splint now and at times is a little painful, but it is getting used to it, and I lose very little sleep. "I will try to explain our movements in France to you, but it will be difficult as my maps were all left in my saddle wallets in France."

"The writer then continues:— "At last we got word that the British were to relieve the French in the salient round Ypres, the artillery to relieve by half batteries at a time, so Major Anderson found himself for one day in command of two British 18-pounders and two French 75's. When this relief was half completed the Germans started a furious attack on the Algerians on the left of the salient, using their famous gas to open the ball. The Algerians immediately gave ground, allowing the German infantry to come in within 800 yards of our artillery. I was at the forward observation post, and got a telephone message to rejoin the battery at once. The battery was ordered to move to the left of the salient, to take up a position to cover the retreat. In order to do this we had to go over the top of the ridge of the salient under heavy rifle fire. "It was here that George McDougall was killed, just as we left our position and turned into the road. We stayed in the position at Welziet until 8 a. m. and then were ordered back to our original position. The enemy's infantry had been driven back, but the artillery kept up a furious bombardment of the road evidently trying to block it with dead horses and in some places they must have almost succeeded. "Up to this time the Canadian infantry had not come up, but now they were thrown in to stop the rest of the German infantry and they did fine work, but they must have paid dearly for it, as they came back through our position in all sorts of conditions and most of them nearly dead with gas, but they had done what they had to do and the sides dug themselves in, the Germans having gained considerable ground and the town of St. Julien."

"The battery was again ordered to drop back to a position one mile in front of Ypres. In this position we were subject to artillery fire from all quarters excepting in a direct line with Ypres. The shells were falling more to be dreaded than those from the front, as the range from this quarter seemed shorter and we were in a quarter that we got most of our casualties. In dropping back to this latter position we used the same road as the opposite side of the salient from that used on our first retirement. I think the German artillery must have been firing on us with open sights when we were going back this road as they seemed to hit them just where we were going. They got a direct hit on one of the guns belonging to the 2nd Battery, which was attached to us for a short time, killing both wheel horses and their driver. All our own guns got clear. "My horse was hit twice with shrapnel, but I didn't know it till later. We lost only one man in this retreat and another just as we were coming into our next position. "Our target from this position was infantry trenches to the west of the village of St. Julien. I was sent out again by Major Anderson as observing officer, and stayed for three days in a dug-out in front of St. Julien, a short distance behind our infantry trenches. The second day in a dug-out a German aeroplane was brought down just back of our trenches, and both the pilot and observer were taken prisoners. That night the infantry ran the aeroplane back and left it alongside our dug-out in full view. Of course the German artillery took us at daylight and made rather a mess of it. We had to stay at the bottom of the dug-out, and hardly dare look out all the morning. "That morning I got a telephone message from Major Anderson to rejoin the battery at night, and the 8th were going into reserve to get patched up. I had planned to leave the dug-out at 5 p. m., and was just getting my things together, and thought I would take another peek at the trenches, and saw the clouds of their gas coming towards our trenches. Just at that moment our telephone line to the battery was cut. We stayed in the dug-out till 6.30 p. m. hoping they would send somebody from the battery to fix it. Failing to get connection at 6.30 we started back, the telephoneists taking up the wire as we went."

AVOID SPRING ILLS

Purify and Build Up the Blood With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

In the spring your blood needs cleansing and enriching. You feel poorly, and there is more or less eruption on your face and body. Your appetite is not good, your sleep is broken, and you are tired all the time.

You need Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the one safe and effective tonic that has stood the test of forty years. It makes the pure red blood that will make you feel better. It is the old standard tried and true all-the-year-round medicine for the blood and the whole system.

Ask any druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having it. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else has the same formula or ingredients, and so there is no real substitute. Get it today.

went. The gas fumes were pretty bad, but up until the time we left, the Germans had not left their trenches. "On arrival at the battery I found that the orders to move into reserve had been cancelled, presumably on account of the narrowness of the front. We were a case of going to the observation station again. This time I chose another position in line with the battery and target, as the old one was too much to a flank to see our fire well. So at 9 little past 11, we went to the battery. The Germans started to shell the road in front of our station at noon and as the battery had stopped firing on account of broken wire I sent Wellington back over the wire to fix it up while Comman and I got in a shot of barn behind the house, but it wasn't good enough. They put one through the roof, getting me in the left knee, left hand and right arm. Comman was hit somewhere about the head, but I don't know exactly where. We started out the back of the house, across the fields, and had gone about 200 yards when they dropped another one over the house, and about forty yards behind us, but fortunately it burst on a grass.

Comman fainting but a party of stretchers and stretcher-bearers got us to a wood in which there was a dressing station and got patched up. My knee had healed up by this time that they insisted on putting me on a stretcher, and taking me to the main dressing station, where I stayed until sent back during which time the Germans shelled the road and the dressing station. Then began what I think was one of the fiercest rides in my life, through the neck of the German bottle (Ypres) to Poppering. This was the most painful of all, as the roads were full of shell holes and mud was the main factor. At Poppering I stayed in a hospital till 2 p. m. the following day when they put me on a hospital train for Boulogne. On the train the doctors had to file my ring off to prevent gangrene. One of the doctors was Mr. Hughes, a friend of Ned McCarthy's.

"On arrival at Boulogne, I was put in No. 7 stationary hospital and wrote you from there. Summer's Thoughtfulness

May 14th.—"Was interrupted in my letter yesterday to have my wounds dressed and afterwards had a letter from Turnbull, who is representing Mr. F. W. Sumner in London at present. He begged me that Mr. Sumner, the agent general for New Brunswick in London, was very kindly placed his car on the train to get Fred Corbet to run in and see me in a few days. I don't expect to be able to take advantage of the offer for a few weeks. "I don't think I'll ever forget the trip in the hospital ship from Boulogne to Dover. We stayed aboard all night in Boulogne, leaving the next morning at 6 a. m. and got to Dover at 10 a. m. We were placed together on the main deck forward. It being just a few days after the war was attached to a sharp lookout was kept for submarines, and everyone was relieved when we ran between the white cliffs at Dover, then on to a hospital train leaving Dover at six p. m. We arrived at Charing Cross at eight to be met by a string of ambulances with stretcher-bearers and nurses. "Too much cannot be said in favor of the Red Cross and the system they have worked out to convey wounded with speed, safety and comfort from the fighting line to London, then to be distributed according to the injury, to hospitals and convalescent homes throughout England."

ROTHESAY BOY WAS DROWNED YESTERDAY

Wilfred Enslow, Aged Twelve, Loses Life When he and Two Companions Plunge into River From Over Turned Canoe

Thrown into the Kennebecasis river at Rothesay yesterday morning, when a canoe in which he and two other boys had been paddling, was upset, Wilfred Enslow, aged twelve years, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enslow, of Rothesay, was drowned. His two companions, Harvey Thompson and Horst Borach, 17 years, were rescued. The body of Enslow was recovered by Capt. J. R. Miller, reached shore in safety, Borach by swimming, and Thompson being rescued by J. M. Robinson, Mr. Steele and Victor Thompson. Young Borach made a gallant attempt to save the Enslow boy's life, but when about fifty yards from shore the drowned lad decided he would try to swim the rest of the way up to the point Borach had carried him through the water by his holding to his shoulders. "The word of the drowning soon spread and grappling was done by John and Henry O'Leary, St. John's, Joseph Fotherby, W. E. Thompson, Joseph Henderson, Ralph Cotter and Arthur Kenney. The body was recovered by Messrs. Thompson, Henderson, Cotter and Kenney, and will be buried at Rothesay. Young Enslow was a popular boy. Besides his parents he leaves two brothers and six sisters."

ARMY OF ITALIANS IN STATES EAGER TO FIGHT

Four Hundred Thousand Reservists Expected to Respond to Call

New York, May 29.—Four hundred thousand trained Italian reservists from the United States are expected to respond to their nation's call to the colors. Seventy-five thousand of these reservists, it is estimated, live in Greater New York, and will be the first to embark. The Italian consulate here was confident that this city would furnish not fewer than 25,000 more able and enthusiastic volunteers. "It can be stated authoritatively that Italian officials in this country feel confident that the number of Italians here subject to military duty will be swelled by not less than one-fourth through volunteers on whom Italy has no claim for military service. Eager Italians have flocked to the consulate to enroll and to urge that they be sent among the first. While Vice Consul Siletti said that no official order had been received calling the reservists living in the United States to the colors, Ercolo Gentilmo, editor of the Il Giornale Italiano, said that the issuance of the call is now a matter of hours only. "The enthusiasm which my countrymen are showing is pleasing and astonishing," said the vice consul. "We know that not only the reservists are eager to go to the fighting line, but men upon whom our country has no claim for military duties at all are volunteering in great numbers. "It is calculated that there must be well nigh 200,000 English trade unionists serving with the colors."

COMFORT AND CURE FOR BABY'S SKIN TROUBLES

Dr. Chase's Ointment Cured When Baby's Body Was Covered With Distressing Eczema

If every mother could try Dr. Chase's Ointment for the chafing, skin irritation and resulting eczema which tortures so many babies, what a blessing it would be for the little ones. This letter will give you an idea of how wonderful a work this Ointment is doing in the way of bringing comfort to children who are so unfortunate as to contract eczema. It is so easy for this trouble to develop from chafing or irritation caused by the clothing and so difficult to get it cured, that Dr. Chase's Ointment is appreciated when once its healing qualities are known. Mr. M. L. Duval, Postmaster, Dagnaville, N. B., writes "I believe it is my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema. My baby was seized with eczema and his face and arms were covered with the terrible disease. After trying all sorts of ointments the disease continued to spread until Ison, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto, covered the entire body. When the itching became bad he would scratch himself and was sometimes found in his cradle covered with blood. Hearing about Dr. Chase's Ointment I bought two boxes and before this was all used the child was cured. That was a year ago and there has been no trace of eczema since. I recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all who suffer from eczema as being the best treatment in the world for itching skin diseases. "Dr. Chase's Ointment is for sale by all dealers at 60 cents a box. It is a good idea to keep it at hand along with the bath soap, to be used for roughness of the skin, chafing or irritation. Prevention is so much better than cure. Powders clog the pores, but Dr. Chase's Ointment cleanses the pores and thereby keeps the skin soft and smooth. Sample box free if you mention this paper. Edman's disease continued to spread until Ison, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto."

TO ORGANIZE MILITIA RESERVES OF CANADA

Ottawa, May 30.—The Canadian militia reserves, aggregating something over 300,000 men, most of them between the ages of 35 and 40 years, are to be organized under the direction of a special commission of militia officers appointed by the militia council. These reserves will be organized into units of former members of the active militia, but who have retired, after having had more or less training. The first step will probably be the registration of all militia reservists, along with the lines suggested in the report made on the Canadian militia by General Hughes some years ago. General Hughes wants to be in a position to know the potential strength of Canada's trained militia force of all ages and to call on it to the fullest extent as need arises. Ottawa, May 30.—Already 600,000 shrapnel, howitzer, and high explosive shells manufactured in Canada, and costing upwards of $10,000,000, have gone forward to Great Britain for use at the front. Consignments of these have already been sent to the batteries and reports here are to the effect that they are giving excellent satisfaction.

UNDER FIRE FOURTEEN DAYS

Mrs. Perry Kinsey of Dover, Me., has received a letter from her brother, who is with the Canadian forces near Ypres, telling of the big battle in which the Canadian forces distinguished themselves. He was unharmed, though under heavy shell fire for fourteen days and nights, although only four days on the first line.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO AMERICAN NOTE IS NOT SATISFACTORY

Berlin, May 30.—Germany withholds its final decision on the demands advanced by the United States government in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania until the receipt of an answer from the United States to the note which Her von Jagow, the foreign minister, has delivered to Ambassador Gerard, in reply to the American note received by the German government on May 15.

In its reply the German government declares that it is not its intention to submit neutral ships in the war zone, which are guilty of no hostile acts, to attack by submarine or aeroplane; that it is investigating the circumstances in connection with the attacks on the Lusitania, and that in all cases where neutral vessels, through no fault of their own, have been damaged, Germany will pay indemnification.

The reply urges that in the case of the Lusitania, which Germany alleges was armed and carried large stores of war munitions, it was "action is justified in seeking, with all the means of warfare at its disposal, to protect the lives of its soldiers by destroying ammunition intended for the enemy."

"The government of the United States proceeds on the assumption that the Lusitania allowed itself, in this connection, to point out that the Lusitania was one of the largest and fastest British merchant ships, built with the government funds as an auxiliary cruiser, and carried expressly as such the 'navy list' furnished by the British admiralty.

"It is further known to the imperial government, from trustworthy reports, from its agents and neutral passengers, that for a considerable time practically all the more valuable merchantmen have been equipped with cannon and ammunition and other weapons, and manned with persons who have been specially trained in serving guns. The Lusitania, too, according to information received here, had cannon aboard which were mounted and concealed below decks.

"The imperial government, further, has the honor to direct the particular attention of the American government to the fact that the British admiralty, in a confidential instruction issued in February, 1915, recommended its merchant shipping not only to seek protection under neutral flags and distinguishing marks, but also, while thus disguised, to attack German submarines by ramming. As a special indication to merchantment to destruction submarines, the British government also offered high prizes, and has already paid such rewards.

"The imperial government, in view of these facts, inadvisably known to it, is unable to regard British merchantmen in the zone of naval operations specified by the admiralty staff of the German navy as 'undefended.' German commanders consequently are no longer able to observe the customary regulations of the prize law, which they before always followed.

"Finally, the imperial government must point out particularly that the Lusitania, on its last trip, as on earlier occasions, carried Canadian troops and war material, including no less than 5,400 cases of ammunition intended for the destruction of the brave German soldiers who are fulfilling their duty with self-sacrifice and devotion in the Fatherland's service.

"The German government believes that it was acting in justified self-defense in seeking, with all the means of warfare at its disposal, to protect the lives of its soldiers by destroying ammunition intended for the enemy.

"The British shipping company must have been aware of the danger to which the passengers aboard the Lusitania were exposed under these conditions. The company in embarking them, notwithstanding this, attempted deliberately to use the lives of American citizens as protection for the ammunition aboard, and acted against the clear provisions of the American law, which expressly prohibits the forwarding of passengers on ships carrying ammunition, and provides for a penalty therefor. The company, therefore, is wantonly guilty of the death of so many passengers.

"There can be no doubt, according to the definite report of the submarine's commander, which is further confirmed by all other information, that the quick sinking of the Lusitania is primarily attributable to the explosion of the ammunition shipment caused by a torpedo. The Lusitania's passengers were otherwise, in all human probability, have been saved.

"The imperial government considers the above mentioned facts important enough to recommend them to the attentive examination of the American government.

"The imperial government, while withholding its final decision on the demands advanced in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania until receipt of an answer from the American government, feels impelled, in conclusion, to set here and now, that it took cognizance, with satisfaction, of the mediatory proposals submitted by the United States government to Berlin and London as a basis for a modus vivendi for conducting the maritime warfare between Germany and Great Britain. The imperial government, by its readiness to enter upon a discussion of these proposals, then demonstrated its good intentions in ample fashion. The realization of these proposals was defeated, as is well known, by the declinatory attitude of the British government."

Washington, May 30.—Germany's reply to the American note concerning the sinking of the Lusitania, with a loss of more than 100 American lives, produced a feeling of profound disappointment here. Dissatisfaction at the failure of Germany to answer the demands of the United States is reflected in government circles generally.

From a previous knowledge of President Wilson's position, it was generally predicted tonight that a prompt answer would be sent to Berlin, perhaps within 24 or 48 hours. This is expected to give the American government's understanding of the facts—that the Lusitania was unarmed and carried no concealed guns, that she sailed from the United States as a merchantman, and that under all rules of international law and humanity the vessel should have been visited and searched and her passengers transferred to a place of safety, whether she carried ammunition or not.

Germany's failure even to discuss the reparation demanded by the American note, and evasion of the request that guarantees be given that American vessels and lives be not endangered in the future, are the main points, however, which the United States government, it was generally believed tonight, would advert in the second note. The expressions of regret and offers of reparation for unintentional attacks on neutral ships are expected to have little weight in determining the nature of the response of the United States.

The death of Thomas J. McGloin occurred at the General Public Hospital on Saturday after a few days' illness. He was in the fifty-fifth year of his age and leaves three sons—John W. and T. J. McGloin, one daughter, Mrs. E. J. O'Neill, of St. George, and one sister, Mary, of East Boston.

BISHOP URGES NATIONAL SERVICE

Strong Letter From Front By His Lordship of Pretoria

NOT ENOUGH TROOPS?

Reads Minds of Men as Holding Belief That, Somehow or Other, Nation is Not Back of Them as Should Be

London, May 28.—The Bishop of Pretoria, who spent a month at the front in Northern France and Flanders, writes a letter to the Times on the urgent need of national service. After extolling the spirit of the troops, which he describes as "amazing," the Bishop proceeds—

"It is all the more so when you realize that this spirit is there in spite of the fact that the men who show it feel in their bones that somehow the nation is not backing them as they should. That, I am convinced, is the feeling right through the army in France and Flanders, and the reason for it is not far to seek.

"After fighting desperately day and night for days and weeks with frightful losses, the men who are left are dog-tired and need a rest. Then they are called out to get this rest, and after three days are sent back into the firing line again. The only conclusion they can draw is that there are not enough troops available to take their places.

"Then battalion after battalion of infantry had to sit in the trenches, day after day and night after night, being pounded by high explosives from the enemy's guns, with no guns behind them capable of keeping down the enemy's fire, then the conclusion they draw is obvious, namely, that the nation has failed to provide sufficient guns or ammunition to meet those of the enemy.

"When, night after night, and day after day, the men in the trenches know that for every hand grenade or rifle grenade or trench mortar bomb which they throw at the enemy, they will get back in answer anywhere from five to ten, then the conclusion they draw is also obvious, namely, that the nation somehow does not realize the situation, or, if it does, has not made it its business to supply what is necessary. Man for man, they know they have nothing to fear, either from the German infantry or cavalry. They have proved it again and again. But they know also that it is little short of murder for a nation to ask men, however full of the right spirit, to face an enemy amply equipped with equally effective munitions of war. There can only be one impression left in the minds of men in such a case, and that is that somehow or other the nation does not know the truth and does not understand, and is not backing them, for knowing the Old Country as they do, they have no doubt that if Germany can produce these things, we can if we will.

"And yet in spite of it all, they keep cheering, they do their best, they die gladly. The fact is that as a nation we are just gambling on this spirit. We know it to be there. We recognise it as the finest thing in the world. We know it is unconquerable whatever happens. So it is, but it will not win the war alone.

"In this national government, backed by guns and high explosives and the legitimate munitions of war, which is going to smash the enemy of ours, and nothing else. Let no one think we are going to do it by descending to the level of the German practices on the same ridiculous principle of voluntary service as heretofore, or in the only way in which it can be tackled, with all the means of warfare at its disposal, to protect the lives of its soldiers by destroying ammunition intended for the enemy.

"The imperial government must have been aware of the danger to which the passengers aboard the Lusitania were exposed under these conditions. The company in embarking them, notwithstanding this, attempted deliberately to use the lives of American citizens as protection for the ammunition aboard, and acted against the clear provisions of the American law, which expressly prohibits the forwarding of passengers on ships carrying ammunition, and provides for a penalty therefor. The company, therefore, is wantonly guilty of the death of so many passengers.

WOULD PROVIDE FREE MEDICAL AID FOR ALL CITIZENS

Maisonneuve's Health Officer Submits Plan to Reorganize Department and Establish Clinics

Montreal, May 28.—Ald. Pelletier, in an address to the Maisonneuve Council, said that Maisonneuve was rich and generous enough to look after the interests of the children of today, to whom the city looked forward to take up the duties of the men of to-morrow, by reorganizing the health department. The future greatness of the race was at stake in this matter.

Ald. Pelletier's plan for building up a model, progressive health department will mean the addition of the services of four doctors, one dentist and one nurse. Their duties will include a systematic diagnosis of the schools and factories. Pupils of the city schools and factory apprentices requiring medical aid will be treated free of charge. There will also be added several free milk depots where poor mothers will be given milk free. An office will be provided for the chief medical officer and his assistants, where free medical consultations will be given to all desiring advice.

SHIPBUILDING BOOM IN THE UNITED STATES

Washington, May 29.—Reports received at the Department of Commerce indicate that since the outbreak of the European war the output of merchant vessels in the United States has increased more than 200 percent.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1914, but forty-one ships, with a gross tonnage of 148,000 capacity were being constructed in American shipyards. The next annual report of the commission-er of navigation will show that the number of ships under construction has been increased to at least 100, with a capacity of nearly 400,000 tons.

No official data, showing the exact activities of the shipbuilding firms of the United States for the last ten months is available as yet at the Department of Commerce, but unofficial advices received there indicate that the current fiscal year will show a greater activity in the shipbuilding industry than at any other period in the history of the country.

The unofficial reports indicate that the number of ships under construction at the end of last July.

FREDERICTON MEN TO FRONT

Cable From Soldiers of the 23rd Battery

LETTERS FROM OTHERS

Walter Burden, Wounded Three Times and Now Prisoner, Tells of Treatment—Private Jack Markey Wounded

The following Fredericton boys signed a cable from Shorncliffe on Friday saying that they were leaving for France with the 23rd Battery, under Major McKay, Karl Walker, C. H. Colwell, C. A. Clarke, B. H. Smith, D. F. Smith, L. H. Smith, C. B. Burden, Murray McAdam, W. J. Lawson, C. Archie Williams, G. H. Cummings, C. R. Townsend, S. E. Kitchin, C. J. H. Conway, J. W. McCandless and Frank MacGibbon.

Pte. Randolph Currie, formerly of Macnaquis and who had been in the Canadian and American West for some years and was thought dead by his relatives until he was found to be in the trenches in Flanders, under the 23rd Battery, known as the Canadian Scotch.

The first letter received since January 17 from Pte. Percy Gough, who went from Fredericton with the second draft from the 71st York Regiment for the First Canadian Contingent, and who has been a member of the 12th Battalion since last week, was received by his mother last week. He is now in the 15th Battalion, known as the Toronto Highlanders, and is now in the trenches in Flanders.

The first letters received from Pte. Jones since he crossed from England to France were received in Fredericton on Friday. He enlisted in Toronto with the 7th Mounted Rifles, but later was transferred to the 22nd and is now fighting with them. He wrote to his mother, Mrs. M. Jones, that he went over to another barracks that day expecting to find his brother, Pte. John Jones, but learned that he had left for the front a week previous.

Private Walter Burden of Fredericton, three times wounded and now a prisoner of war in Germany. I was captured on April 24 after being in the trenches for sixteen days. I was wounded three times once in the head, knee and hip, but they are only flesh wounds and don't stop me from moving about. The Germans are using us very well indeed for prisoners so you can run over to mother and tell her not to worry.

"In any letter you write to me don't say anything about war or Germany or else I won't receive it. We can receive parcels up to the weight of ten pounds, and I want you to send me some tobacco, a pipe, chocolate bars, two cakes of soap, gum and anything a fellow can eat. I want about $5. We can receive these parcels free of postage, so you won't have to pay for any stamps. We get a free shave and a hair cut every week and a wash and bath once a month and our own clothes. We have to be inoculated five times—once every week for five weeks. I have been inoculated once, and it isn't nearly so bad as what we got in Canada. We are all allowed to write two letters each month and four post cards, one each every Sunday.

Private Burden's parents have sent forward a large package containing delicacies and necessities of all kinds. His address is: "Private W. Burden, 2239, 12th Canadian Battalion, Prisoner of War, No. 610, V. Komp-Barayus, No. D. Giesen-in-Hessen, Germany."

Private Jack Markey of Fredericton, wounded and in Port Pitt Hospital, Chatham, England, writes— "I am not feeling too bad. I have a bad wound in the right leg below the knee and will be in bed for a month or two, but will come around all right. I may be sent home for a while before I go back to the front again. "You people out in Canada don't know what this is like over here, where you see the wounded being brought in. I am one of the lucky ones, as there are only about fifty out of 1,000 left now who went over when I did, and I thank God for it."

There are a number of Canadian wounded in the Port Pitt Hospital with Pte. Markey and when they become convalescent they would be able to mingle together.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Patrick Milan occurred yesterday afternoon at his residence, Allison street, after a short illness. Seven children survive: John, Joseph, Frederick, Edmund, Loretta and Margaret. The deceased was a well known member of the Longshoremen's Association.

The death of Mrs. Annie, widow of John Bayley, occurred at her home, Church Hill, Albert county, on May 28. She is survived by one son, four daughters, one brother and one sister, the latter Mrs. Margaret Bayley, St. John.

Mrs. Martin Watson died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Heberington, Andover. She was a native of St. John, but removed about thirty years ago. She is survived by three daughters.

William Edward McLean died on Sunday at his home in St. Stephen. He was seventy-four years of age and is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

Lendore Jones of Norton, who died last week, was fifty-eight years of age, and is survived by his wife and two daughters; four brothers, Dr. C. C. of Fredericton, Wilfrid T. and Calvin of Moncton, and Ephraim of Malden, Mass.; and two sisters, Mrs. Robert McKay of Malden, and Mrs. Atherton, wife of Rev. Wilton Atherton, Pettitodic.

In Fredericton on Saturday, Miss Catherine McManiman passed away. She was eighty-two years old, was a native of Derry, Ireland, but had resided in Fredericton for many years with her brother, John. Two brothers, Edward of Fredericton and Michael of St. John, also survive.

Allen Delong, of Wilmet, Carleton county, died on the homestead, where he was born, on May 21, aged forty-one years. His wife and four children survive.

William O'Donnell, of Manhattan, N. B., is dead. He was a native of Woodstock and is survived by a sister, Mrs. William Thompson, and one brother.

Mrs. Robert Simpson, aged fifty-one years, died at her home in Watson Settlement on May 18. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons and one daughter, all at home. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson came from Sunderland, Eng., about four years ago.

At Bath on May 26, Mary Hackett, wife of George Milbury, died in her ninetieth year. She leaves her husband, two daughters, a son and one brother. Mrs. Milbury was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Gideon Estabrook.

Mrs. Isabel Smith died recently in Montague, Me. She was born in Campbellton, N. B., in the year 1827, going to the states some twenty-five years ago. She left one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Madison, and the two sons, George of Madison and Isaac of Montague; also a brother in Madison.

DEATH OF JOHN IRVINE

An old resident of Milford passed away on Sunday morning in the person of John Irvine, who had been ill for quite a long time. He was born on Christmas Day seventy years ago at Fair Isle, one of the smallest islands to the north of Scotland. Early in his life he came to this country with his parents, who lived for a short time in the north of the province, then settling in Milford.

Mr. Irvine, though a loyal Canadian, never forgot the land of his birth, and he loved so well, and never tired of telling anecdotes and experiences of his trip and those whom he met in the old land with many of whom he maintained correspondence until his sickness prevented.

Few people in his section have served his generation better, in a quiet unobtrusive way, having been for several terms on the council board, where he earned the respect of all by his fair dealings and was known as "Honest John." For years through many vicissitudes of office he retained the secretaryship of the school trustees, and always took an active part in the educational matters of Milford and vicinity.

As postmaster he came into close contact with the public, his going well liked by many old friends who found in him one who would discuss affairs of the day in a vigorous intelligent fashion.

Besides his wife he is survived by six daughters, Miss Grace Irvine of Philadelphia, Mrs. Robert Campbell of Philadelphia, Fred Stuart of Vancouver, and Miss Margaret, Carrie and Christina at home; three sons, Chas. of Chicago, Bruce of Boston and Charles at home; two sisters, Mrs. B. E. Haviland of Chatham and Mrs. J. Stout of Fairville; and three brothers, Alexander Irvine of Chicago, William of British Columbia, and James of Milford.

To all the bereaved ones the sympathy of the community is extended. Another old citizen has done his part and passed to the great beyond and he has left a vacancy difficult to fill.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

Editor Times and Star.— Sir—I noticed in your paper some time ago, that a barber was fined $40 for shaving a man on Sunday. Why it is that the law will allow tug-boats to the harbor to tow schooners up through the falls on Sunday and allow tug-boats to paint and grain their boats on Sunday? Is there not as much law for that kind of thing as for the barber for shaving a man, or a druggist selling a postage stamp?

Yours, A TAXPAYER.

INDUCTION AT NORTON Rev. R. H. Stavert is to be inducted tonight at Norton in his new pastorate. Rev. F. W. Thompson of Calvin church, will conduct the service. Rev. J. J. McCaskill will address the clergyman, and Rev. T. P. Drummond, the people.

It was little Teddy's first term at school and his mother had been telling the rich old uncle how well the little boy was getting along with his studies and how dearly he loved his school.

"Well, my little man," said the uncle as the child returned home, "what do you do in school all day?"

"I wait till it's time to go home," was Teddy's matter-of-fact reply.—Harpers' Magazine

Several Battalions Land in England — 23rd Artillery Now in France—Retribution For Crucifixion of Canadian Soldier

The steamer Saxonia has reached England in safety with the 22nd French-Canadian battalion, and the 20th Nova Scotia battalion, as well as the Artillery Park, from Fredericton. The Cunard liner Carpathian reached Plymouth yesterday with Upper Canadian units. The 23rd Field Artillery mobilised in Fredericton under Major McKay, are now in France.

The Misanable reached Plymouth yesterday with 1,700 soldiers from Canada.

Sir John French says that the Canadians helped to shorten the war by their gallantry and success at Ypres, saying they withstood the fiercest artillery fire ever directed.

A sensational story of Canadian retribution is told in a letter by Private Harry G. Cronshaw, of the first Canadian contingent, to a friend in Montreal, in which he tells of 400 German prisoners being shot by his associates to avenge the crucifixion of one of their number by the enemy.

Major Paul Hanson, of Montreal, formerly of St. John, wounded in France, will be invalided home on sick leave.

The following names are in today's casualty list: John W. Bunting, Apohaqui, N. B.; R. Higgins, 14 Water street, St. John; Rufus Hunter, St. Stephen; R. S. Sears, Sydney, N. S.; N. McKenzie, Nine Mile Creek, P. E. I.; E. Reading, New Glasgow, N. S.; Geo. W. Burns, Richmond, N. S.; all reported wounded; J. W. MacDonald, Bessalbane, P. E. I., and J. A. Comeau, Moncton, N. B., died of wounds.

For the Belgians.

In the Cathedral yesterday morning Bishop LeBlanc made a stirring appeal in behalf of Belgium, asking the congregation to observe "Self-Denial Day" on June 3rd in her honor, and for the aid of her suffering people. A similar appeal was made in other city churches, particularly in Carleton Presbyterian by Rev. Dr. Morrison, pastor, who spoke of the tremendous sacrifice Belgium herself had made, and asked all to deny themselves of some little pleasure on June 3rd, giving the amount it would have cost, or more, to the "Self Denial Fund."

Recruiting Meeting.

Addresses were given by Postmaster Sears, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Councillor Howard, Lieut. A. J. Brooks, and A. F. Bentley, at a successful recruiting meeting at St. Martin's on Saturday night. Five names were taken at the close.

Lieut. E. A. Thomas, of the 6th C. M. Rifles, Amherst, will be here until tomorrow seeking recruits for service abroad with that unit.

DR. GRAHAM'S SUCCESS IN WESTERN COLLEGE

Former St. John Minister Now Head of Flourishing Boys' College in Moose Jaw — Now in City on a Visit

The success of a western educational institution under the leadership of a former St. John man was described to The Times by Rev. Dr. A. A. Graham, former minister of St. David's Presbyterian church in this city and now principal of the Moose Jaw Boys' College. Rev. Dr. Graham arrived in St. John on Saturday, preached in St. David's church last evening, and will leave again this evening to attend the general assembly of the church in Toronto. Before returning to the west, he will assist at a jubilee celebration of his former church in Ontario.

Four years ago Rev. Dr. Graham left St. John to undertake the organization of the college in western Canada, the promotion of which was encouraged by the Presbyterian church for the purpose of strengthening the work of the church in the newer provinces.

Since then handsome and commodious buildings have been erected, the teaching staff organized and a large number of students received. The college is now closing its second year and, in spite of adverse financial conditions in the west, has been most successful, the enrollment this year being more than 100, most of the students living in the college residence.

The value of such an institution to the country, in a newly settled region, is indicated by the number of nationalities represented among the students who are thus brought together and enabled to learn Canadian ideals and methods of thought in a way which would not be possible otherwise.

A girls' college will be added to the institution when conditions warrant.

CATCHY PROGRAMME AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Revue Has Novelties to Offer—New Parodies by New Comedian

Another big show will be offered by the Musical Revue Company at the Opera House this week, commencing tonight, with many new novelties in the programme, including "The Yachting Party," staged on the deck of a yacht with all special scenery; a novelty song number, "The Chimney Corner," and a musical comedy in one act, "The Isle of Nowhere," packed full of good musical numbers and dancing.

At Washington, the new comedian of the company, has some new parodies to offer and will do a little more eccentric dancing. There will also be some great moving pictures this week, with our old friend, "Fatty," in a two part Keystone comedy that is one long, continuous laugh from start to finish. The Revue Company gives a big show but the prices are little—only 10c, 15c, 25c. There will be a matinee on Wednesday and Saturday.

BOYS FOR FARMS

Among the passengers on the Allan liner Carthaginian, due at Halifax from Liverpool, are seventy-seven boys for the Middlemore Home, Fairview, Halifax county. These are to be sent to farms in the maritime provinces. Places have been already secured for all.

THE MANOR HOUSE

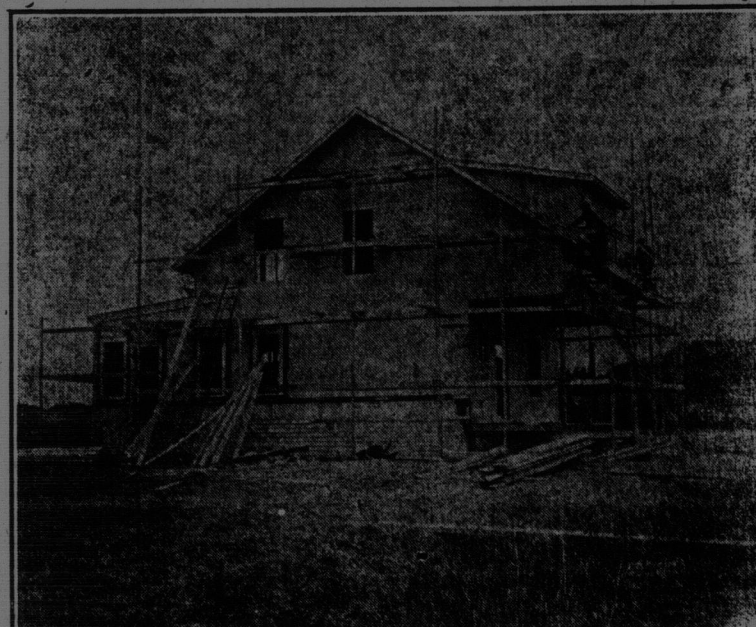

THE Old Manor House at Glen Falls, once the home of St. John's most prominent families, has been rebuilt, and will be run as a Tea Room and Restaurant. It is intended to open same to the public on or about June 15. What could be more delightful than a car ride to Glen Falls with tea or supper at the Manor House.

You Can Own a House Like This in Glen Falls For What You Pay Out in City Rents in a Few Years

MAKE YOUR DREAM COME TRUE

How many times, in fancy, have you pictured your ideal of a house? Among our many fine plans, you will doubtless find the very house which you have dreamed of possessing or one even more desirable. The years pass quickly. Why not stop dreaming and actually build the house. Money cannot be put to better use than when it goes into a home that you and your loved ones can enjoy through all the years to come. If you live in the city in a flat or in a house that lacks convenience, that is out-of-date or out of repair, or not large enough for your needs, let our beautiful plans set you to thinking and stir you to action. Call upon us and we will gladly help you to make your "house of dreams" a splendid reality in the coming residential suburb of St. John.

We honestly and sincerely believe that the houses which we are building for customers at Glen Falls are more practical, economical, artistic and satisfactory than any which we have seen built around St. John so far.

House being constructed at Glen Falls for Charles K. Cowan of M. R. A., Ltd., and which will be completed about May 1st

THE happiest man alive is the man who works for a living and owns his own home. Nothing else gives a man half the courage that comes from owning a bit of the earth and building a house on it for wife and family.

OTHER investments may turn out bad. Gold mines have developed into gold bricks, oil wells into bubbles, railroads into grand larceny. Investing in a house and home is betting on a sure thing.

—From the Boston American.

This paper is of particular interest to the man who, tired of paying excessive rents, would like to own a comfortable self-contained home of his own, outside the city, yet within a few minutes car ride of it. If he builds a home in Glen Falls he can enjoy all modern conveniences, with low taxes.

Brunswick Stars Win
On the East St John diamond on Saturday morning the Brunswick Stars defeated the Young Brunels street nine 6 to 5. The batteries were Corey and Randome for the winners and Redney and Stockley for the losers.

Fairville League
The baseball schedule of the Fairville League was considerably shaken up last week because of weather conditions, but it is hoped that nothing will prevent tonight's game between the Courtney's of Carleton and the Portlands, of the North End, as a battle royal is promised. On Tuesday evening the Roses, who have made such a good showing are again to test their mettle against the tried and proven Royals, who put it over O'Toole's men last week. The Roses have been getting in some extra practice, however, and count on making a better showing on Tuesday.
This far the players in the league appear willing to work and anxious to win, with the result that good sport has been provided. Baseball, however, like most other sports, has to be encouraged, not only by attendance but also in contributions of finances to meet cost of balls, expense of umpire and other incidental expenses. The response to the appeal of the "hat" thus far has not been to say the least, generous, and it is for those who want to see the games to help pay the bills. It is believed that the mere drawing of attention to this matter will result in the only handicap now on the horizon to enjoyment of good, snappy ball, during the entire summer.

Players We Know
Fans in this city will be interested to hear that Bob Ganley, formerly captain of the Fredericton team is conducting a season in Lowell. He is said to be as clever as a mixologist as he was a ball player. They will be surprised to hear that "Bobby" Keeler is umpiring in the New England Circuit, having been recommended for that position by Ganley. Pat Duggan, also a former Fredericton player is doing well with the Fitchburg club.
King Edward Boys Win.
A game of interest was played on the Orange street dump on Saturday morning. The King Edward School team defeated the Albert School boys, 23 to 4. Much credit for the success of the winners was due to the efforts of the following: R. Kerr and G. Gregory, who rounded out some excellent plays. Some clever plays were recorded in the winning of the game which are not likely to be seen again. The battery for the losers was composed of Clark and Lamb. The umpire was Mr. Britton.
Millionaire Wagers $10,000.
Philadelphia, May 27.—Charles H. Gest, a millionaire gas magnate of this city, who paid $250,000 for the construction of the Seaview Golf Club's links at Seaview, N. J., yesterday wagered $100,000 to $1,000 that he can defeat Dr. Edgewood's team in the member of the surgical staff of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, at a game of golf. The game is to be played in the fall, after each has had time to practice.
Mr. Gest agrees that if he is defeated to donate $100,000 to endow a chair of surgical research in the University Medical School. The money is to be paid into the treasury of the university before January 1, 1916.

Lieut. Muir was several times captain of the Winnipeg Rowing Club when it won the Manitoba championship, and he played in Calgary and Regina in the finals for the western honors. He played on the Canadian championship team for Toronto Varsity some five years ago. He was also a good carman, having been a member of the Winnipeg junior eight when the championship was won at Duluth. He was twenty-six years of age.

McIntyre vs. Fleming.
Woodstock, N. B., May 29.—Ernie McIntyre, a colored welterweight champion of Maine, formerly of Woodstock, a son of Rev. Nathaniel McIntyre, and Wild Bill Fleming of Old Town, Me., have been matched for two six-rounds at Houlton, on Tuesday, June 1, under the auspices of a group of Houlton promoters. There is a side bet of $500.
These men have met twice before, once in Houlton and once in Bangor; as the law allows no decision, nothing could be officially given out, but the Woodstock men who attended think that McIntyre had the better of it on both occasions. McIntyre is training here.

Secrets of London
Complexion Doctors
Famous London specialists who cater to the ladies and others of social prominence, employ a remarkable method of complexion treatment. One undergoing this treatment visits the beauty doctor twice a week. The treatment is something dabbed over her face, then heavily veiled. In her motor car, she is reported daily for a week or so. The complexion of every party and exquisite delicate in its evidence. This method is a revolutionary method. Anyone can appreciate. An ounce of it is worth a pound of any other. It is safe, new as well as in England, it is made here in Canada. It is used on the face of mortals. Its success is due to the fact that it is a wash lotion, which gradually removes various particles of dirt, which are the cause of skin blemish.
General wrinkle-chaser, also in vogue among Englishwomen, is prepared with a special formula. It is used on the face, neck and throat, and quickly restores the deepest lines.

The war within your mouth

All day long the battle is waged. The hottest fighting is after meal times.

Tiny particles of food remain in your mouth—even after you thoroughly brush your teeth. These particles ferment to become acid. The acid tries its best to hasten decay of the teeth. Too often it succeeds.

To fight acid comes your own saliva. Saliva is alkaline. When it reaches the acids it neutralizes them, rendering them harmless.

But—many folks haven't enough saliva. Modern diet has too much starch—a depressant to the salivary flow. Naturally you want to know what will keep the mouth normally moist and healthy.

Sterling Gum is a genuine corrective in mouth hygiene—a delicious, clean product with a sweet, natural after-taste. Chew Sterling Gum a few minutes after each meal for one week and notice the benefits.

Was Covered With Boils.
Could Not Get Rid of Them Until She Used BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you is to try it and be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am one woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and could not get rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good."
Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GERMANS SHOW DISREGARD FOR WASTE OF LIFE

Ranks Reformed and Advanced After Being Shattered by Hail of Lead—Mowed Down Like Grass

North of France, May 29.—Such incredibly tenacity and disregard of waste of life are being displayed by the Germans in their furious attacks northeast of Ypres that the execution done by the British artillery fire upon La Bassée and the Germans' second line near that place, and the progress made by the French north of Arras toward Visay, become of merely subordinate interest.

Though clouds of gas were projected again and again toward the British trenches, the Germans never succeeded in their attack on Monday in putting the lines in serious danger, though they did gain a footing in some of the trenches; but the front as a whole was successfully held.

A terrific bombardment was opened in the course of the night. It proved a continuous hail of shells, that showed clearly that the Germans intended to advance at all costs by sheer weight of metal and men. Under this appalling avalanche of steel and high explosive, the British bore themselves wonderfully, though suffering heavy losses. They steadily awaited the onrushes that were to follow. Then their opportunity came.

Suddenly in the moonlight the Germans swarmed up one of their trenches and began to form for the advance. The British artillery and machine guns, assisted by the French artillery, let loose a tornado of lead among them, mowing them down like grass; but with absolute disregard of the slaughter, the German troops continued to reform themselves into massed columns and then started to advance in their old style formation. Six times in succession their columns swung forward to utter annihilation. All this colossal sacrifice of life yielded them no gain except a few ruined farms.

Meanwhile to prevent the French and Belgians on the British left from advancing and causing a diversion, the Germans turned upon their lines about Stenestrate the same artillery fire of which the British had been the first recipients. It is reported that the French and Belgians did not suffer greatly in either losses of ground or men.

Relatively slight as these German successes are the British could have prevented them, not only at the price of a sacrifice of life equal to that to which the Germans deliberately exposed themselves. That, however, is not the Allies' policy, which is rather to allow the enemy to bleed himself in such carnage and reserve their own human material for the hour of the forthcoming advance.

RED CROSS LADIES OF LANCASTER MAKING 500 RESPIRATORS TODAY

Today the Lancaster Circle of the Red Cross Society are attempting to make 500 respirators for the construction corps for use at the front and as it is necessary to get the work out quickly there is an all day session.

The appeal to the ladies of Lancaster whether members of the society or not to assist at this great task, was announced from some of the pulpits yesterday and from this morning until tonight the loyal women are giving all the time they can spare to this worthy object.

Before leaving for St. John the corps received a generous outfit of supplies of various kinds from the Montreal Red Cross Society, but at that time the need for respirators was not known and they were not included. On the suggestion of one of the officers, the Lancaster society undertook this work and today the members are busily engaged in their manufacture. The materials for the respirators have been purchased by the use of the balance on hand from the entertainment given in the Knights of Columbus hall by the society.

THE 6TH MOUNTED RIFLES ARE TO GO AS DISMOUNTED UNIT

Their Offer Accepted — Chance For 20 Good Men to Join Now at the Armory

The members of the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles, under Lieut. Colonel Ryan, who have for the last few months been quartered at Amherst, N. S., are delighted with a change of plans announced as regards their service to the empire. Word from Ottawa informs them that they are to hold themselves in readiness for embarkation to England, whence they will go to France as a dismounted unit.

Major C. H. McLean, O. C. Squadron "B," accompanied by Lieut. J. J. Thomas, are in the city today. Major McLean said that the 6th would retain their organization, and though going forward as a dismounted regiment, would be ready when the required time came to serve in mounted action, according to the operations of the campaign would require. They will take their horses along. He needed men, however, in the ranks, twenty good men being required as soon as possible to complete the strength of "B" Squadron.

In order to take names of volunteers, Lieut. Thomas will be at the armory today and each day until the requisition total is reached, with Lieut. Col. B. R. Armstrong, recruiting officer for the district.

There are two other mounted regiments which will go forward with the 6th, the 4th in training at Toronto and the 8th at Sherbrooke, Que. The brigade being commanded by Colonel Smart of Montreal, who has received orders to complete the brigade to be held in readiness for overseas embarkation. It is not yet definitely announced whether or not the brigade will have general mobilization in Canada.

Another inspection.

While in the city on other business, passing through to Montreal after an inspection trip over the D. C. R. Camp Bury, general manager of the C. P. R., will visit the quarters of the Canadian Railway Construction Corps this afternoon. He was greatly interested in the formation of that body, and helped in its organization. The corps carried out company drill this morning, while the 29th had a route march out the Sand Cove road.

L. C. R. POLICE AND CITY

It is expected that a court case will result from the trouble between the city police and the L. C. R. Police. The city police, who were notified by Detective Worrell yesterday to appear this morning on a charge of obstructing him in the course of his duties, but the official did not do so, holding that he had not been properly notified, and not having been shown Worrell's credentials, knowing of him, as he said today, "only from hearsay."

The city police say that the L. C. R. police try to interfere with them in the making of arrests, and that the railway authorities say that they have sufficient police about the depot to attend to the work. They also contend that the city police go to extremes in interfering with the rights of passengers, both men and women, in the waiting rooms between trains.

WHIST WATCH SAVED HIM

One of the narrowest escapes so far chronicled in the letters from the boys with the 8th Anderson's Moncton Battery was that of Gunner William Walter Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gunn, who would have lost an arm but for the presence of a small watch on his wrist. The watch was shattered but turned aside the bullet. After telling the story he adds:

"I have had dozens of very narrow escapes from death and have seen some awful sights—the worst slaughter of men and horses that I never want to see again. I have been in places, that I never expected to get out of, but I did, and I guess I can thank the Lord for it."

SOLDIERS' COMFORT

The meeting of the Soldiers' Comfort Association to have been held on next Wednesday has been postponed. Any desirous of becoming members can do so by applying to the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. Church, 81 Elliott row, and donations for the comfort of the men at the front will be received during the day at the rooms in the Patriotic Fund building, 122 Prince William street.

BIG WATER MAINS TO BE CLEANED

Commissioner Wigmore to Recommend Scheme to Council — A Fine Example of Good Pressure at Recent Fire

Another improvement to the water supply service, which is expected to prove of great value in emergencies when it is most needed, will be recommended soon to the common council by Commissioner Wigmore.

This is the cleaning of the two twenty-four inch mains leading from Little Falls, on connecting the entire pipe mains at the One Mile House and the other entering the thirty-six inch pipe bridge, the Main bridge. When the bridge occurred last year in Fernhill an opportunity was given to investigate the condition of these pipes and it was found that their capacity had been reduced to about one half by erosion and encrustation. As one main is thirty-seven and the other fifty-eight years old, it is not surprising that they are not in the best of condition.

As these mains supply the entire city when any thing happens to the Loch Lomond supply it is of great importance that they should be able to furnish water up to their full capacity. In view of this the commissioner opened negotiations last year with the National Pipe Cleaning Company of New York. At that time their prices seemed prohibitive, but a new arrangement agreed upon last week makes the project feasible and the commissioner probably will recommend its adoption.

The cleaning is done by introducing into the mains machines which work their way along cleaning the entire pipe as they go. The company gives a guarantee that the condition of the pipes will be restored to within five per cent of original efficiency. The work will be carried on by experts from the head office, with the assistance of local labor.

The main service is now in good condition and when the thirty-six inch connecting pipe at Marsh road is completed, the pressure throughout the city should be more than enough for any ordinary need. Since Commissioner Wigmore took over the department and started on a comprehensive scheme of improvement the pressure has been improved to an almost remarkable extent. One of the best illustrations of this was given last week when the fire occurred in the Hebrew synagogue in Carleton street. A line of hose was attached to a hydrant on Pond street and carried up the steep embankment to the top of the hill. When the water was turned on the stream rose forty feet above the roof of the building and the firemen could hardly believe their eyes. This was without the aid of a fire engine.

A ST. JOHN PAPER OF 1875

A whiff of old times accompanied a copy of a now defunct newspaper—the Star-Wig—published in St. John in 1875, and which was shown to the Times the other day. It is a little four page affair, the pages about nine by twelve inches. It was first published in 1875 and ceased to appear on July 23rd of that year. On July 23rd it had reached its fourteenth issue; older citizens may remember the many more issues published. The leading editorial is a lament on the subject, "Why Young Men Don't Marry." It is a little story, evidently a bit of sarcasm, is the announcement that "The ferry boat arrived at Carleton on Thursday night and will sail on Friday morning for St. John, if it don't rain," and the correspondence consists of a letter from Camp Corderburn where, apparently, the militia were in camp at the time. Among the advertisers are some firms which are still in existence, but of whom many have passed away. They include McCullough & Walsh, Robert Marshall, Henry Stewart, Jr., Vincent & McFate, T. E. Avity & Sons, A. J. Armstrong, D. E. Leach, W. Tremaine, Gard, and John Ross.

PRESENTATION OF WATCH

Waterbury & Rising Employees Give Charles Labbe a Send-Off

On Saturday night there was a gathering of the employees of Waterbury & Rising Ltd., at the King street store to bid farewell to Charles Labbe one of their number who was severing his connection with this firm for the purpose of becoming a member of the 49th at Sussex. R. J. Walsh on behalf of the staff presented to Mr. Labbe a wrist watch suitably inscribed and a parcel of silk handkerchiefs. In a few well chosen words Mr. Walsh said all regretted the necessity which demanded such sacrifices—abandonment of position, farewell to wife and family—to shield the honor of our beloved country. "During the years we have been together," he said, "we have learned to admire your many sterling qualities—kindness, uniform courtesy, punctuality and application—and feel convinced that these characteristics will obtain rapid and merited recognition from those in command. Your determination to make the sacrifice is all the more laudable from the fact that you are not a native born and this should act as an incentive to so many others who are slow in coming forward to protect their country's honor."

On handing Mr. Labbe the watch, Mr. Walsh said it was their fondest hope that when the war was over Charlie would be able to return unharmed and they would assure him of a reception that would in some small manner compensate for whatever hardships he would be forced to endure. The party then accompanied Mr. Labbe to his home in Queen street.

AT FERNHILL

The opening of the car line to Glen Falls this index many lot buyers to visit Fernhill, and Saturday saw a great number on the grounds. A committee of the directors visited the cemetery to report on some matters, and inspected the new lots and other improvements. The general condition is much better of late year and all lots are looking well. The directors have arranged that while the cemetery is always open to visitors, Wednesday and Saturdays shall be special days when all lot holders may consult the superintendent who will be found at his office from 2 till 5 p. m.
