Irving and Terry Coming.

LONDON, June 16.—Henry E. Abbey today signed a contract with Henry Irving and Helen Terry, their entire company to make a tour in the United States in 1893.

Belgian Liberals Happy.

BRUSSELS, June 16.—The Liberals, who favor manhood suffrage, have carried Brussels by a crushing majority, their gains balancing the Clerical victories in the Province of Haniault, and giving, it is believed, the control of the Chamber of Representatives to the Liberal party. There is great jubiliation in Brussels over the result and the Liberal leaders everywhere are being congratulated upon their triumph, which initiates a complete potitical revolution in Belgium.

Oxford's Oarsmen.

LONDON, June 16.—The Oxford University Boat Club has decided to accept a challenge from the winner of the Harvard-Yale race, the contest to occur on the Putney course in September.

Devoted to the Home Rule Cause.

LONDON, June 16.—A deputation from the London Trades Council to-day waited upon Mr. Gladstone in regard to establishing a legal eight-hour day. Mr. Gladstone said the home rule question blocked the way of any consideration of the matter under discussion. The eight-hour question, he declared, was not one for him to deal with, but for the men who would come after him. He had dedicated the remainder of his public life to one especial question—that of home rule.

So She Slapped Him.

MAYENCE, June 16.—While Fraulein Eliz Walker and her sweetheart, Herr Heril, were strolling in the public square the other evening Lieut. Hevdriker, who chanced to pass, became involved in a quarrel with the lady's companion, and grossly insulted him. The young civilian was apparently intimidated by the lieutenant's uniform, and failed to resent the insult in a sufficiently spirited manner to meet the views of Fraulein Walker, who thereupon took the affair into her own hands and soundly boxed the officer's ears. The lieutenant ungallantly called a policeman and had the lady arrested for assault. Her trial has just resulted in her acquittal, a verdict which was greeted with loud applause in a crowded court-room.

Fatal Gunning Accident.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., June 17.—Earl Ancram, aide-de-camp to Earl Jersey, Governor of New South Wales, was accidentally shot dead while out shooting yesterday.

The French Crop Outlook.

PARIS, June 17.—The Journal des Debats says the yield of wheat in France will be vastly superior to the crop of 1891, but barley and oats have suffered severly.

That Much-Talked-Of Wedding.

VIENNA, June 17.—To avoid a demonstration Prince Bismarck will arrive at 11 p.m. Sunday. It is not certain whether Emperor Francis Joseph will arrive here during the presence of Prince Bismarck. It is stated the Emperor will give Count Herbert Bismarck a handsome present, and will probably send an adjutant to the "happy event."

The Scheme Didn't Work.

BERLIN, June 17.—The National Zeitung says the Russian Government tried to make Grand Duke Constantine's visit to Nancy a lever to obtain from Paris banks a loan of $200,000,000, and that Baron Mohrenheim, the Russian ambassador at Paris, offered the whole amount at 79, but that the Paris bankers refused to give more than 73, which the Russian treasury declined to accept.

Lord Rosebery on Home Rule.

LONDON, June 17.—Lord Rosebery, speaking at Kelso, Scotland, said last night when the terms of the home rule measure were divulged it would be found as firmly settled as the Magna Charta. It would retain to the Imperial Parliament those powers which the union was accomplished to retain, and would also afford an opportunity to establish a tribunal to which any difference between the Imperial Government and the Irish Parliament might be referred. Home rule with such a tribunal would be the means of cementing firmly the union of the different sections of the British Empire. It was a crime, he said, to hint at civil war to accomplish political ends. The Ulster convention was intended not to save Ireland or Protestantism but to save the Government.

Balfour on the Tory Campaign.

LONDON, June 17.—At the annual dinner of the National Union of Conservative Associations Mr. Balfour was the guest of the evening. He said the Gladstonians were applying for situations, but they showed the people no testimonials as to character. Home rule was the first item of Mr. Gladstone's programme, yet the members of the party stood ready to bury the whole question, while the leaders would willingly shunt it.

Concerning the policy which would separate Ireland from England, the recent utterances of Mr. Gladstone were excellent illustrations of his method of precedure. The suggestion as to the reform of corporations was true, in the abstract, but no person would be a penny better off for it.

Mr. Balfour said he rejoiced that the present Government was pledged to deal with the labor they employed upon equitable principles. He protested against the narrow view which would make London take a vestry view of public affairs. The Conservatives had been pioneers of every branch of social reform. The quantity and quality of the statutes passed by Conservative Governments in this branch of legislation far exceeded the efforts of their opponents. While Mr. Gladstone had spent session after session in barren statesmanship, the Government had been scoring largely and had benefited the working classes.

As regards Ireland, Mr. Balfour said, the Government had far exceeded all hopes. The Local Government Bill had been supported in principle, but it was well understood that there was no chance of passing it, except after a protracted struggle. The bill had to be abandoned on account of this opposition. Relief works would do more to ameliorate the condition of Ireland than would twenty statutes. There were arguments in favor of "one man, one vote," but Ireland would suffer in consequence of it. Landlords and tenants in some districts of England were nearly ruined, but the laborers had not suffered, and this was saying much for the existing land system.

Of course in a few days the country would give a decision on all these questions. Would the people accept a party prepared to wreck the interests of the empire in foreign affairs or a party prepared to recognize the empire's mighty interests in Africa and elsewhere? There was no doubt that, if the country understands the issues, they would give the Unionists for an indefinite future the confidence bestowed in the past.

Beresford to Re-Enter Political Life.

LONDON, June 17.—It is stated that Lord Charles Beresford, commodore of the British cruiser Undaunted, of the Mediterranean squadron, intends to again enter political life upon the expiration of his detail to the Undaunted. He has submitted to the leading admirals and generals a comprehensive plan for the national defense, in which the army and navy are treated as one body. The scheme, it is said, amply meets the report of the Hartington Commission that no combined effectual plan for the defense of the empire in a certain contingency had ever been formulated. Lord Charles Beresford's scheme has met with general approval, and his friends say it will prove a gigantic success.

The Cyclone's Path!

A Far-Reaching Trail of Death and Destruction.

The Funnel-Shaped Tornado Desolates Scores of Homes.

From Forty to Fifty Persons Killed in Southern Minnesota.

Further Details of the Ruin Caused by Tuesday's Tornado in Quebec.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 16.—A special from Mankato, says: One of the worst disasters that ever visited Southern Minnesota occurred between 5 and 6 o'clock last evening. The terrible funnel-shaped tornado again swept over the land and laid waste scores of happy homes and sent 40 or 50 souls into eternity. The extent of country devastated was greater than ever before known of the history of the State. It started near Jackson in Southern Minnesota.

SIXTEEN KILLED.

It struck the district school house near Shelburne, in which were the teacher and eighteen children. The building was demolished and the teacher and fifteen scholars were killed.

THREE VICTIMS.

At Linden many houses were torn from their foundations. One family of three families was killed and others were injured.

FOUR DEATHS.

Four miles south of Minnesota Lake five farm houses and the outbuildings were utterly demolished. Four persons were killed and three injured. Much damage was done south of Wells, and it is reported that south and west of the village. Most of the damage was done in the country and the full extent of the disaster is not half known. It is impossible at present to get a list of those killed or injured. Probably not less than 100 persons were injured.

FROM 40 TO 50 PERSONS WERE KILLED

SEVERAL FATALITIES IN QUEBEC.

ST. ROSE, Que., June 16.—Further intelligence of Tuesday's great cyclone shows the destruction and loss of life was not confined to its place, but spread to many places in the vicinity. Ste. Ephriam suffered severely. In that part of the parish annexed to St. Nazaire a poor man named A. Houle lost everything. His babe, 3 months old, was killed in its mother's arms, while the poor woman herself and three other children were badly injured. The two children of Alphonse Miquiette, who were in the house at the time, suffered the fate of the others. The oldest, aged 11, was found dead, and the youngest one was considerably hurt.

At Ste. Helene 52 buildings were wrecked and fifteen persons wounded, some seriously. Many persons have been badly injured and scores have been rendered destitute and homeless.

CLOUDBURST IN WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, June 16.—A cloudburst occurred in the western part of the State, doing great damage. At Boscobel five bridges were carried away. The water rose eleven feet in Turtle River in a few minutes.

NINE-INCH HAIL.

KINGSTON, N. Y., June 16.—Word from Gilboa, Schoharie county, says a terrific hail storm occurred there, hail falling nine inches in circumference. Several persons were injured.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 16.—At Rochester, Minn., last evening a terrific hail, rain and electric storm continued for six hours. At Austin, Minn., many cattle and horses were drowned and a number of bridges were washed away. The people escaped in boats.

TEN PERSONS KILLED.

MAPLETON, Minn., June 16.—Ten people are reported killed near here and twenty injured.

THREE VICTIMS OF LIGHTNING IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Three persons were killed, two seriously injured, and the Grant monument slightly damaged in a short but fierce thunder storm to-night. The killed are Lewis Myer, Mrs. Shelby, of Chicago, and an unknown man. The injured are Harry Phillips and Mrs. Mattie Olsen, also of Chicago. The catastrophe was the result of a bolt of lightning which struck the monument, in the corridors of which nearly 50 persons had sought shelter. The bolt did not strike the bronze figure of Grant, and the damage to the monument will be covered by a few dollars.

MORE FATALITIES.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 16.—Andrew Hanson, aged 22, took shelter in a barn near Hartland, but the barn was blown down and he was killed. In Freeborn township Mrs. Mike Iverson and three children and a child of J. Steen are reported killed. A pouring, drenching rain accompanied the wind storm.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 16.—A terrific thunder storm visited this city to-night, causing much damage. Several fatalities have been reported, but no particulars can be gained at present.

Speedy Retribution.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 17.—Four Italians have been lynched at the camp of Smith Brothers on the Monte Christo Railroad. On Monday a gang of eight Italians who were working under a Swede boss became angered with him and at noon when they quit work they caught him alone and three held him while the others hurled a crowbar completely through his body. Four escaped to the woods and four went back to camp. The other workmen heard of the murder and immediately caught the four Italians and strung them up to a tree without ceremony.

How to Use Flowers.

Women of taste maintain that large flowers, such as roses, show better to advantage when single than when arranged in masses and large bouquets. For this reason the style of decorating one's rooms, and also the dining table, with tall, thin glass vases containing a single perfect specimen of one's favorite variety has become popular. No set arrangement of the vases must be attempted; three or four in odd places on the table, and also on the buffet, look well, while in the drawing room they may be scattered indiscriminately on tables, piano, window seat, or wherever they will catch the eye and delight the beholder.

THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE.

Grover Cleveland Still the Favorite.

Boies and Hill Have Heavy Backing—Whitelaw Reid's Dicker with the Printers Makes Trouble.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 16.—"It will be Cleveland or Boies," said Senator Shields, chairman of the Iowa delegation, before leaving for Chicago. "Unless New York supports Cleveland Boies will win. We honestly believe him the strongest man the Democrats can name for President."

NEW YORK, June 16.—The World prints replies received from delegates from the Syracuse convention as to whether they would support the Chicago nominee, whoever he may be. Most of them say they will work for the nominee. Cleveland is their choice, but only a few would cut Hill if he were nominated.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 16.—The Democratic National Convention, it is expected, will be able to get down to actual work in shorter time than was the case at Minneapolis. There are very few contests reported and organization ought to be quickly perfected. Intelligence this afternoon was to the effect that the threatened Louisiana contest has been arranged. Senator Calvin S. Brice, chairman of the National committee, arrived in the city this afternoon and immediately went into consultation with Secretary Sherin, Sergeant-at-Arms Bright and other members of the National committee who are on the ground. The damaged Wigwam will be in shape again by Saturday.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The main body of the Tammany delegates left this city on the 2:15 train this afternoon for Chicago. Two private cars had been chartered by the delegates and their friends.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The statement that the differences between Whitelaw Reid and Typographical Union No. 6 had been adjusted, and that the union had requested his candidacy is generally doubtful. At a meeting of the International Typographical Union in Philadelphia a resolution was offered condemning the New York Typographical Union No. 6 for its alleged action in recommending the nomination of Whitelaw Reid for the Vice-Presidency, whom the resolution characterizes as "the worst enemy that organized labor has had to contend with." Action on the resolution was deferred until the union cited could be heard from, after an attempt to table it was defeated.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 17.—The opinion seems to be centering on Adelaide Stevenson, formerly first assistant Postmaster-General, as the man who will be selected for the temporary chairman of the Democratic convention.

There is increased talk of Gorman, and the fact that the New Yorkers are very much torn up between Cleveland and Hill, many persons look towards Gorman and Boies as a good dark horse ticket.

Patrons of Industry at Guelph.

GUELPH, Ont., June 16.—About 1,000 Patrons of Industry from the counties of Elgin and Middlesex visited the Ontario Agricultural College to-day. Lunch was provided for them, after which addresses were made by leading members of the association.

A Girl Wins a Harvard Prize.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 17.—For the second time in the history of Harvard College the Sargent prize of $100 has been awarded to a girl, this time to Miss Margaret Foster Herrick of the Harvard Annex. She won it in competition with 40 college men. Two years ago this prize was won by Helen Leah Reed.

Lutheran Synod of Canada.

HESPELER, June 17.—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Canada opened here yesterday. Rev. A. R. Schultz was elected president; Rev. Struemper, vice-president; Rev. E. Hofiman, secretary; and Rev. M. Goos, treasurer. Some 33 ministers and 20 lay delegates are present.

A Hen of Great Sagacity.

KEOKUK, Ia., June 17.—Judge J. B. Rissie went to Nauvoo, the old Mormon capital, recently and brought home with him twelve Black Hamburg eggs. He had no hens, so he told Thomas F. Payne that if Payne would loan him a hen to hatch his eggs he would give Payne two of the chickens. Payne agreed to the proposition. Some time last night ten chickens were hatched, but Judge Rissie could find only eight of them. The old hen had evidently overheard the contract between Rissie and Payne and she went home early this morning, taking a male and a female chick with her. The eight other chicks remained contentedly at Judge Rissie's. This story is absolutely true.

Drowned.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 17.—George Murray, aged 8, and Frank Weston, a boy of 6 years, were playing on a boom in the river yesterday afternoon, and Weston pushed his companion a little, just to frighten him. Murray lost his balance and grabbed Weston and they both fell in and were drowned. One of the bodies was not recovered. Both the mothers are widows, and they are nearly frantic with grief.

BIG RAPIDS, Mich., June 17.—While bathing in Ryan Creek pond, a little west of this village, last evening, Frank Neff, a student of the Ferris Industrial School, was drowned in sight of his companions, who in vain tried to save him. His body was recovered an hour later by a search party. The deceased was about 22 years old, lived at Shelby, and was to graduate today.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Closing Session of the Grand Lodge—Officers Elected—Petrolea the Next Meeting Place.

ST. THOMAS, June 16.—The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias closed its sessions yesterday. The committee on the state of the order recommended the granting of charters to Damon Lodge, No. 6, Toronto, and to Petrolea Lodge, No. 17, Petrolea.

A proposal to admit ladies to membership in the order was almost unanimously voted down.

Petrolea was chosen as the next place of meeting of the Grand Lodge. The following grand officers were elected for the ensuing year. Grand prelate, J. B. Davidson, St. Thomas, was selected by acclamation to be grand chancellor; J. H. Rispin, of Chatham, grand vice-chancellor; Dr. English, of London, grand prelate; W. J. Karkeek, Toronto, grand master-at-arms; D. J. Peace, Hamilton, re-elected as grand master of exchequer; G. H. Mitchell, Toronto, grand keeper of records and seals (re-elected); W. C. Mapiodorain, Fort William, inner guard; E. W. Pyke, Toronto, outer guard. As the lodge completed its labors so late, and many of the delegates had to leave on early trains, they determined not to retire, and consequently proceeded to the residence of Mr. J. Stacey, C. C., of Rathbone Lodge, and after serenading him for a time, prevailed on him to take a ride on the shoulders of some of the stoutest delegates to the lodge room, where he and a set of officers of Rathbone Lodge exemplified the Oriental degree work for the visitors until train time.

THE C. O. F. HIGH COURT

Will Meet in Ottawa Next Year—A $500 Grant to H. C. R. Towe.

STRATFORD, June 16.—The High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters this morning selected Ottawa as their place of meeting for next year. The finance committee submitted a report disapproving of charitable or similar grants being made by the executive without instructions from the High Court, and recommending that a calculation be made of assets and liabilities of the order. The report was adopted.

A grant of $500 was made to H. C. R. Towe, of London, in consideration of his service during the past year. The committee also recommend that amount of the bonds given by the secretary and treasurer of the District High Court of Manitoba be reduced from $5,000 to $3,000 each which recommendation was concurred in.

No session of the court was held in the evening, which was given up to the enjoyment of the programme provided by the citizens of Stratford.

Two Toronto Boys Drowned.

TORONTO, June 16.—Christopher Madden, aged 14, while bathing in Ashbridge's Bay this evening, was drowned.

A second drowning accident occurred a little later in the Don River, when Albert Beales, aged 15, eldest son of George T. Beales, of the Trades and Labor Council, was drowned also while bathing.

Riotous Strikers Sentenced.

BARCELONA, June 17.—Six strikers who were arrested here for rioting have been sentenced to three years' imprisonment each. Many Socialists and labor leaders have been arrested, manisled and taken aboard men-of-war, without trial, on mere suspicion of inciting strikes. The strikers are becoming disheartened and are returning to work.

On the Temperance Side.

DRAYTON, Ont. June 17.—At yesterday's session of the Christian Church in Ontario an interesting paper on temperance was read by Mrs. W. W. Farewell, Drayton, and a motion adopted to the affect that the conference petition the Dominion Government and Provincial Legislature to make provisions for electors while making their ballots at any general election to mark for prohibition, or a restricted license system.

A New Zealand farmer, in plowing through a slight depression in a field recently, found buried in a deposit of peat, at depths of three or four feet, the skeletons of 800 or 900 moas, packed and interwined together in a remarkable manner. It was evident that these great birds, which were much larger than the modern ostrich, varying in height from 10 to 14 feet, had perished there by wholesale. An enormous quantity of smooth quartz pebbles, which they had carried in their crops, was found with the skeletons. There were also found the remains of extinct species of other large birds. One theory is that they were overwhelmed by a great storm, and that their remains were heaped together by the combined action of wind and water. What renders the question still more puzzling is the fact that collections of moa skeletons, mingled with those of other birds, have been found in similar situations elsewhere in New Zealand. Students of geology are aware that evidence is sometimes found in the rocks of the sudden destruction of great numbers of animals that formerly existed on the earth, and the resemblance of such cases to this of the New Zealand moas is interesting.

A Business Secret.

A large manufacturer took into his office a nephew who, to put it mildly, was rather feeble minded. One day the nephew came to his uncle and complained of the head clerk, Jones.

"Uncle, what do you suppose the head clerk, Jones, has been telling people about me?"

"I have no idea."

"He has been telling everybody that I am a fool."

"I will see him about it and tell him to keep quiet. He has no right to expose the secrets of the office."

CRICKET.

LONDON VS. ST. MARYS.

ST. MARYS, Ont., June 16.—London and St. Marys cricketers played on the Athletic Park grounds here yesterday. The visitors won by 17 runs. Score:

DOCTORS VS. LAWYERS.

To-day teams selected from the members of the above professions will play a friendly game of cricket on the asylum grounds. Since their defeat last year the lawyers have strengthened themselves materially by refusing to take their physicians' prescriptions. On the other hand, the doctors say that by placing their accounts in their own hands for collection they have saved so much money that they are able to enter the lists better equipped than ever for the contest. They will wear cricketing clothes of a gorgeous character, one physician alone having spent as much as $8 for a pair of overalls. These will positively appear. To add interest to the game the overs will be called in Latin like prescriptions, and should victory perch on the medical banners eminent barristers will make it perfectly plain to the spectators that defeat is not defeat, but victory of the most signal character. The game will be well worth seeing. Last year the inmates of the asylum were particularly pleased with it. Lunch will be served shortly after the game begins, and no interruption of it will be suffered. Injuries received during the day need occasion no alarm to the public. The doctors, it is true, never take their own prescriptions, but patent medicines are now fortunately very cheap. As the lawyers will all be engaged on the field, the public may attend without fear of extortion. Advice on matters relating to cricket by gentlemen who have no knowledge of the game will be given gratuitously during the day. The teams are as follows:

Lawyers—Messrs. Sayers, Parke, Proudfoot, Love, Hellmuth, Gibbons, Graydon, Cox, Bayly and Blackburn.

Doctors—Drs Weld, Williams, Ross, Moore, Hobbs, Drake, Cleghorn, Beemer, Bayly, Balfour and Butler.

FLYS.

Webber, the catcher of the Alerts, has been playing ball since the most of them played marbles, but he does not appear to be a back number yet. The Alerts are a team of well-built, muscular, athletic-looking fellows, and in their red and black striped shirts and caps looked well in the field. Unfortunately, they did more than look well, for they played well enough, or our boys played badly enough, for them to get a few runs too many.—[St. Thomas Journal.

The roan stallion Delmonarch, owned by Arza Johnson, of North Branch, Mich., died on Wednesday morning. He was to have trotted in the 2:40 class that day. The horse was valued at $2,000. He was seven years old. Delmonarch trotted in the 2:45 class at Port Huron last week and made a mile in 2:35. He trotted in two races at Imlay City, winning both, being the 2:45 and 2:35 classes. The Lapeer Society extended their sympathy publicly, and the horsemen on the grounds chipped in and made up a shake purse for Mr. Johnson, who is a man of moderate means, and could ill afford to lose his valued horse.

LACROSSE.

The second scheduled senior championship match of the C. L. A. was played at Niagara Falls on Wednesday between the Stratfords, of Stratford, and the Niagaras, the present champions. The match was won by Stratford, 3 to 2.

HOW TO SWELL THE POPULATION.

(Buffalo Express.)

Charles H. Welch, of Detroit was recently employed to take the yearly census of births and deaths in the first ward in his city and he returned 1,816 of the former and 1,270 of the latter. It has been discovered that he copied old death-lists and gave a baby to about every family in the ward, including numerous bachelors and dozens of old maids.

BRANT.

Brantford Courier: The savings bank branches of the Brantford banks on June 1 dropped their rate of interest from 4 per cent., at which figure it has been for nearly two years past, to 2½ per cent., and now the Royal Loan announces that it is about to follow suit. Money is unusually plentiful just now.

A very fine lot of cattle were shipped from Paris station during the past week for the old country. They were in very prime condition, and about the best that have been shipped from there for some time. A quantity of hogs were also shipped during the month.

The Brantford Y. M. C. A. has decided to celebrate Dominion day by a demonstration on the fair grounds. The associations of Woodstock, Hamilton and London will send teams to compete, and in all probability Toronto.

Alex. Symons, Riversdale, has met with a very serious accident. He went into the blacksmith shop of that place, slipped and fell on a harrow, cutting his cheek open.

ESSEX.

The magistrates of Essex county held a meeting in the court house at Sandwich on Tuesday and discussed matters affecting their position. They decided that the list of county constables needed thorough revising, and dismissed every one. Then they appointed a new list, to take effect on July 1. Many of those dismissed were very old, having held the position for many years.

Francis Riley is a well known character in Windsor and in Sandwich, where he resides. He is about 86 years old and was married a second time two years ago. At one time he was possessed of $40,000, but frittered it all away, except the boat, of which he had given a bill of sale to his daughter, Mrs. Sullivan, of Detroit. The daughter allows her father $30 a month. Judge Riley, in the suit of Francis Riley to regain possession of the boat, decided in favor of Mrs. Sullivan.

A deputation representing the Township Council of East Tilbury waited upon the Attorney-General at Toronto to request a rebate on the payments on the township drainage debentures. The deputation included Mr. W. Hickey, reeve of Tilbury; Mr. John Richardson, ex-reeve; Dr. Fleming, Chatham; J. B. Rankin, Chatham, and D. Farquharson. The Attorney-General promised to consider the application.

John B. Clark, for assaulting Mary Annette, was fined $34 in the Windsor police court Wednesday.

Some time ago a young man named George Gray called on Mrs. John Plemmer, Windsor, with a note purporting to be signed by her husband, and asking for $5. The money was given, but as soon as Plemmer heard of it he said he never sent Gray on such an errand. Gray was then arrested, and Magistrate Bartlett sent him down for three months.

Burglaries are becoming of frequent occurrence in Windsor. Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock, while the inmates of the Beasley household were busy about the house attending to a sick child two men were noticed to get into Mr. Stokes' house next door on London street. The Beasleys set up such a yelling for the Stokes' that in a minute the whole neighborhood was aroused. The burglars then fled. Conductor John Thorpe's household, on Goyeau street, was disturbed, and two men were seen prowling around the house of Baggage Master Hart. The description of the men given by Mrs. Beasley tallies with a description of those who committed the Saturday night robberies, and it is supposed that two men are doing all of this burglar business. Already ten houses have been entered or molested.

ELGIN.

The annual meeting of the West Elgin Provincial Reform Association will be held in Dutton on Tuesday next at 1 o'clock.

A farmer, after unloading produce at the Dake House, St. Thomas, Tuesday backed his rig across the G. T. R. track and was struck by the pony engine. He was thrown out, but fortunately not seriously injured. The rig was badly smashed.

John Baker, engineer on the M. C. R., fell while going into the roundhouse at St. Thomas Tuesday, dislocating both shoulders.

The Shedden correspondent of the St. Thomas Journal says: The young son of W. Mann, of Woodward avenue, St. Thomas, had a narrow escape from being killed here on Tuesday. He, in company with his sister, Mrs. Eastman, were driving home from Wallacetown, when a gun which the boy had in the rig accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the lad's finger and in through the front of the shoulder, and out through the top of the shoulder and through the top of the buggy. It was a very narrow escape, for had the bullet entered either higher or lower it would have meant instant death. Dr. Guest attended to his injuries.

At Iona Tuesday evening about 200 friends of Rev. E. Medd and wife called at the parsonage to say farewell. Mr. Medd was presented with an address and a well-filled purse. Mrs. Medd also received an address, accompanied by the gift of a delicately-worked autograph quilt, presented by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. Harrow is to be their new home.

William Stacey, an old and respected resident of Dunwich, has died near Dutton after an illness extending over a year. Deceased was in his 69th year, and was borne in Surrey, England. He came to Canada when 15 years of age and for a short period was employed at Port Stanley. About 40 years ago he moved to the farm on which he died. He leaves a wife and family of two sons and six daughters. Three of the daughters are married, namely, Mrs. J. W. Grysdale, Sparta; Mrs. T. Griffin, Cowal; and Mrs. D. March, Michigan. The rest of the family reside on the homestead. The funeral took place on Tuesday to the Cowal Cemetery and was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Randall.

A team belonging to Mr. Campbell, of Southwold, ran from the east end to Reynolds' drug store, St. Thomas, Tuesday afternoon. There the wagon was upset and one of the horses thrown, one of them being considerably cut and the harness broken.

In connection with the closing exercises at Alma College the graduates' elocution recital of Tuesday evening was a decided success. McLachlin Hall was filled to overflowing with visiting friends and the students. The stage was tastefully decorated. The entertainment was begun by the playing of Berg's "Concert March" by Misses Clement, Horton, Cullen and Kelly. The young ladies who gave their graduating recital were Misses Ainye Virginia Coleman and Catharine Sarah Moule.

KENT.

John Green, who attempted to wound the colored man, Peter Smith, with a knife at Courtney's hotel, Chatham, has been remanded for a week on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, at the expiration of which time he will be charged with a more grievous offense.

Fred Maynard, a shoemaker, was relieved of $40 in Chatham a day or two since. He had been during the day in the company of a man known to the police. The chum took the fast express for Michigan in the evening. The police were informed, but were unable to do anything for Maynard.

Robert Griffith, a little son of Mr. Griffith, Murray street, Chatham, while playing with some companions near Smith & Garvin's mill, was struck on the temple with an iron crank, the blow inflicting a gash about three inches deep. A physician was immediately summoned and dressed the wound. The little sufferer is doing as well as could be expected.

LAMBTON.

The Mr. Brown, of Lambton, who is reported to have a colony of bees which made 500 pounds of honey in one season, is not Thos K. Brown, of Brigden.

All our informants from the surrounding districts, agree that this is going to be a great year for fruit. The first week of June is the critical period in this climate, and that has passed over without frost. Neither do the insect pests appear to be this season so numerous as in former years. If nothing unexpected happens, this year's fruit crop is likely to be the best that this district has seen for a very long time.—[Sarnia Canadian.

PERTH.

The annual picnic and special services in connection with the Methodist Sunday school at Fullarton will be held there on July 1 and Sunday following.

Capt. Francis, an old and respected resident of Fullarton, met with a serious, and what might have been fatal, accident a day or two ago. He was taking a load of swine to Mitchell, when one of them jumped out of the wagon, frightened the horses, which ran away and threw him under the wagon. He received several cuts and bruises and was picked up in an unconscious condition, but at last accounts he was getting along as well as could be expected.

The Union Sunday school of Carmunnock will hold its annual picnic in Alex. Campbell's grove on the 24th inst. An excellent programme is promised, and a baseball match will be played between Monkton and Ethel teams.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrup and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

The Apple Blight.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

There is never a better show for a crop of apples than at blossom time, but from some cause or other the bottom is knocked out of a large crop this season if the set in other orchards is like mine. I should have had 100 barrels of A. G. Russets had the set been good. As it is I shall not have five barrels of that variety. Other varieties have set better, but the Russets are a total failure. The entire cluster of blossom is dead so that the trees have a brown appearance, as if they had the fire blight. Whether it is caused by a blight or whether it is the apple blossom midge I cannot tell. I would like to hear from other sections whether the trouble is general. Yours truly,

A Musical "Looking Backward"

By Frances J. Moore.

A friend said to me lately: "Don't you think that eventually the musical taste will return to the old, simple melodies, such as "The Last Rose of Summer" and the Italian operatic airs, which were once thought so beautiful, and that the music now in fashion will pass away?" I could only reply: "No, for those who have tasted the rich flavor of the music one now hears would never be content to go back to such tame food." What a wide range of thought this opens out! The old airs, national and operatic, are, many of them, so beautiful that they can never lose their place, but the giant strides made in music of late years have instituted another school, and although one may still love the old school, it can only now take a place in musical art and not the place. It is difficult to argue a point like this with those who are not musicians. There are thousands of music lovers who thoroughly enjoy a simple song and a pretty little piano piece—air and variations style—but who cannot enter into the real depths of music, to whom music, in fact, is a sealed book. Formerly a tune was almost all that was needed. Look at many of the ballads of a former day—some with quite pretty airs—but oh! what bald, miserable accompaniments—generally the common chords played in arpeggios! Some melodies require but little accompaniment. Take, for instance, the beautiful old sea song, "Tom Bowling," which the eminent tenor, Mr. Edward Lloyd, has been singing all over Canada, and the States. A note or two here and there is all this song requires. Take, now, "The Message," another of Mr. Lloyd's exquisite songs. What would that be like with one of those accompaniments? Is there any pianist who could possibly be content to sit down and tinkle away at an operatic air with variations, or a melange of "Home, Sweet Home," "The Campbells Are Coming," "The Minstrel Boy," ending up with "Rule Britannia" in march form, when that same pianist has revelled in the rich pastures which are constantly now being added to? Melody must always have its place. It is, indeed, the foundation of all true music. But the advancing age has now brought with it a flood of grand and sensuous harmony, which must be felt, must be acknowledged as absolutely essential to musical art, and I can only repeat that no performer who has played or sung from the works one now hears could ever "look backward" to the extent of ignoring such works any more than a cultivated musical public could listen to the bald inanities once provided. Why should music go back? Why not all art? Why not everything? Look at the improvements in other branches. Take languages as now taught. Can there be any doubt as to the superiority of the present teaching as compared with the dry-as-dust grammar, grammar, rule, rule, of a former day?

There is one art which I really think has improved by "looking backward"—dancing. A glance at the ball programmes of a few years ago show about five or six different dances, viz.: Quadrille, lancers, polka, gallop, waltz, with sometimes a redowa. Now, the programmes are considerably varied; the quadrilles are much prettier and the waltz is slow and graceful. The waltz of a far-off day, which our mothers and grandmothers danced, but which once became a sort of tee-totem rapid spin—bereft of all poetry. People now do a great many "steps" in dancing which I well remember thinking looked so funny and silly when I was a little girl, and saw some old-fashioned persons attempt them! The "gavotte" and "minuet" are now being taught, and I daresay it will not be long before we see them in our ballrooms. There are also some entirely new dances, but these are generally formed on old styles.

I seem to have drifted into frivolity, and as it has, at last, become warm weather, I fear I can't get back into a more serious strain, so I will divulge, for the benefit of some daughters of the enchanting dance, that Messrs. Whaley, Royce & Co., of Toronto, have just sent me some novelties in dance music which I here subjoin:

"The Tar and Tartar" waltzes, by E. Franz, and "Anita" valse Espagnole, by B. Renho, are easy to play and have good rhythm, the latter having a Spanish flavor which is very taking. "Danse Romantique" jersey (Galbraith), "Lacrosse Jersey" (N. Smith), "Marjorie," new skirt dance (L. Gray)—all these ought to be popular, because any ordinary player can perform them, and they are very danceable. The "Oxford" and "Victoria" (C. Bohner) are both new dances with an old-time beginning, and have full explanations on the front page. There is also a very taking song (with chorus), "There's Not Another Like It" (by James Fax and C. Bohner), which should be popular; and a new setting (by N. Smith) of the evening hymn, "Sun of My Soul."

There are some charming songs done by the Anglo-Canadian Company, King street, Toronto, which should have a place in the portfolio of any young lady who sings. They are nearly all published in several keys to suit all voices. Here are a few: "A Nursery Story" (Hope Temple), "Children Asleep" (F. Moir), "Remember" (G. Forbes), "Your Heart and Mine" (M. Wellings), "Venezia" (P. Rodney), "Across the Blue Sea" (Somerset). Really, the feast of beautiful music is so all-bountiful (in spite of the "Looking Backward" prognostications) that I must desist, or an angry editor will be for consigning me to the W. P. B., and you all know what that means!

Once more in the ripe heart of golden summer,
To drift upon the lake's pearled wimpling breast;
To watch God's dawn bud, bloom, a flushed incomer,
To see it die with flames in the hushed west;
To even know the entranced silence dumber,
Because of heart awe-hushed and lips love-pressed.

A CHILD'S PRAYER.

WITH WOMEN'S CLUBS

The women of the country have been slower than those in towns in availing themselves of the club means of education, and yet there are women of as good mental ability on farms as in the cities. On this point a writer in the Homemaker says:

The women of the country have been slower than those in towns in availing themselves of this means of education. Why? Many women of good mental ability live on farms.

Much has been written about the farmer's condition and needs; comparatively few have looked toward improving the wife's condition.

The life of a woman of the country is necessarily cut off from participation in much that she would enjoy; often it is so hard and monotonous that she becomes sullen and morose. Their business of housekeeping, with dairy and poultry annexes, keep them closely at home. There is little exchanging of visits or opportunity of getting the human element from people and events.

Not that a life in the country need be one of narrow limits and harsh outlines; but it is certainly true that there is not as much enjoyment or appreciation of living as there should be.

The strain of hard work, careful serving of home interests and pinching economy has unfortunately made the term "farmer's wife" too often a synonym for much that is harsh and unlovely.

She may have emerged from this fight with adversity a nobler woman, every sublime element in her brought out to meet adverse circumstances and even overcome them, or she may have sunk under the load she had not sufficient strength to carry, and lost interest in all things, awaiting aimlessly and drearily the only change, seemingly, that can effect her—death!

Country women need to get out of their own lives, and nothing within their reach will lift them on as high a plane as a club formed of their neighboring country women for the purpose of study and companionship. Much social visiting is not possible for women on farms, and does not satisfy the hunger of their souls. What they need is to turn their minds to broader channels, and that the club does.

The spectacle of a town's woman, with the symmetry of her womanhood destroyed by an undue adherence to fashion, leaving neither space in her brain nor time in her days for mind culture, calls for as much pity as the dullness and isolation of the country woman; both neglect their opportunities, but country women must make their own and create their own resources. The sooner they realize that the cream of life is theirs if they but gather it in, the better for the children, the better for the race at large.

"That it is not so much what comes to you as what you come to, that determines whether you are a winner in the battle of life," is truer to-day than yesterday. To the women of action come the reward.

That country women can organize and carry on a successful women's club is not now an untried experiment. In Indiana there is a club of this kind, composed solely and organized by farmers' wives, which has proved an inspiration and blessing.

The question is: Can such clubs be formed all over the country, when the idea of them is brought clearly before the women who need them? Will they take to them kindly or not? These women of the country with their sturdy minds and strong characters will add luster and strength to the Woman's Club inspiration of 25 years ago.

IT WOULD BE WELL if all girls took Clara Belle's common-sense advice to a girl reader who wrote to inquire how she may go to looking for a "noble husband:" "My good child, you don't want to look for a noble man, but for the man whose faults you can stand. Then marry him and stand them."

London, Friday, June 17.

THE Canadian Postmaster-General has decided that British and foreign magazines will in future be subject to a remailing rate of 1 cent per pound.

SAYS the Dundas Banner: "Mr. Mowat took pains in his redistribution of the constituencies not to disturb county lines, whereas the Ottawa bill is pitching people about in every direction without the least regard to county lines."

DR. JOHN FERGUSON, who was defeated in Welland county at the Dominion general election, has been summoned to the Senate. To be defeated in a contest for a seat in the popular chamber is a sure passport to a seat in the irresponsible House—if you support the Government.

IT IS alleged that the Provincial elections in Manitoba will take place on July 22. The Greenway Government has been strengthened by the fact that on the school question the Opposition has been forced to take exactly the same position as that assumed by the Administration.

THE British House of Commons has authorized the Government to buy the telegraph trunk lines throughout the country. This action was to be expected. The British Government has for many years owned and operated the telegraphs, and it is believed that the Government can combine the two services in a way that would give increased and cheaper service in both departments.

MISS FLORENCE BALGARNIE, who lately returned to England from a tour on this continent, is making her influence felt along reform lines. At the recent meeting of the Women's Liberal Federation she moved, in a telling address, a resolution that all artificial barriers to the employment of women should be removed and the wages of men and women equalized. The question of why a woman should be discriminated against on account of her sex has never yet been fairly met. Equal remuneration for equal work is the only honest standard to set up.

IF, AS is reported, the Mowat Government intends to turn the labor of the Central Prison inmates to account in producing binder twine for the farmers, no one can object. There is but one binder twine factory in Canada, and it is in Halifax. Though a Conservative M. P. is nominally at its head, its output is controlled by a foreign corporation, therefore few can have any sympathy with its operations. Binder twine manufactured in the Central Prison, and sold at a small sum over the cost of production, would be a boon to the farmers, and would in no degree interfere with any other industry in the Province.

LORD ROSEBERY'S DECLARATION.

Lord Rosebery, Mr. Gladstone's right hand man, and to our mind the best qualified successor to the Grand Old Man when he comes to give up his charge, has made a most important announcement with regard to the coming measure of self-government for Ireland. It is not customary for Parliamentary leaders to give details of the legislation they intend to promote in advance of being intrusted with the power to enforce it, but Lord Rosebery assures the British public that when the particulars are divulged the measure will be found as firmly settled as Magna Charta itself. An independent tribunal will be set up to which any difference between the Imperial Government and the Irish Parliament will be referred. Such a tribunal can be provided just as easily as the Privy Council has been provided for the final adjudication upon all points of dispute arising out of the relations between the self-governing colonies and the legislatures existing within them. What is needed is not talk of civil war but a policy of conciliation and of determination to do right by every section of the community.

SHOULD BE TAKEN FOR GRANTED.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, despite its strong protest of loyalty to the Queen sent across the Atlantic last year, has deemed it advisable once more to assert that it is loyal. Surely our friends protest too much. No one has called their loyalty in question, and no one is likely to do so, seeing that they are devoting their best energies to the welfare of the Dominion.

This constant protestation of loyalty, if indulged in by old world public bodies, would be laughed at. No one over there deems it necessary to cry aloud, "I am loyal," and all are held to be loyal till they engage in some overt act of treason to the commonwealth.

The course pursued by some Canadians smacks of Bunkeyism.

WHAT THE REVELATIONS PROVE.

That section of the public which believes that the affairs of Canada should be managed honestly must be shocked to discover that, so far as he can help it, Sir John Thompson means to prevent a full and impartial inquiry into the charges brought against Sir Adolphe Caron and his associates. When Sir John Thompson made his anti-election declaration that all charges of corruption would be investigated, and that friend or foe proved to have dishonestly expended public funds would be prosecuted, there was a disposition to believe him. Once more entrenched in power, he defied public opinion by engineering the emasculation of the charges against Sir Adolphe Caron, so as to prevent inquiry into the disposal of the money alleged to have been pilfered from subsidies granted for the construction of railways. Two lines of defense have been adopted by Sir John Thompson and his newspaper defenders.

1. They tell us that the matter has been referred to a commission, and should not be now brought up in Parliament. The fact is, the commission is expressly debarred from inquiring into the charges of wholesale corruption, because the accused knight has managed to have the sections referring to this vital part of the case struck out.

2. Sir John Thompson and his newspaper apologists take the ground that it is a common thing for political parties to spend large sums of money, and therefore this conspiracy should not be inquired into. Why, they virtuously exclaim, look how much Mercier paid out!

It is a sufficient answer to this allegation that a great crime against the commonwealth can never be successfully defended by the retort, "They all do it." Even though it were true that Sir Adolphe and his fellow distributors of bribery funds operated solely with the view of combatting Mr. Mercier, it must be remembered that the Quebec Provincial leader has been exposed, and sent to private life disgraced by the votes of former friends as well as former foes. If we are to have one law for all, we should have a full and impartial investigation into the charges laid against Sir Adolphe Caron, which directly implicate other leading supporters of Sir John Thompson. If Mercier is exposed and punished, if McGreevy is to be put on trial for following in the footsteps of Sir Hector and Sir Adolphe, why keep his pals out of the pillory? Is it because once investigation were begun it would not be confined to Quebec, but would eventually show that the recent electoral successes of Sir John Thompson and his friends were only scored after an enormous expenditure of money, cribbed, as it now appears, from the public funds or "blackmailed from public contractors?" An answer in the affirmative is the only reasonable explanation.

We are fortified in these views through noting the tremendous efforts that have been made to keep the public from a knowledge of the full facts connected with the conspiracy, as well as by the outspoken deductions of that section of the Conservative press which does not come under the head of "Kept newspapers." The Ottawa Journal, for example, referring to the revelations made by the Globe since it was announced that Parliament would not be allowed to investigate Mr. Edgar's charges, says:

"In all, it published proofs of 230 drafts orders or receipts, showing payments by Thomas McGreevy amounting to $112,600. These payments to Conservative candidates in the lower part of Quebec Province, or their agents, were made mostly on the orders of Sir Hector Langevin or Sir Adolphe Caron. The total Conservative vote cast in the constituencies implicated was about 22,000, so that McGreevy's expenditures were at the rate of about $5 a vote. In some constituencies the expenditures were larger, in some less. To elect Sir Hector in Three Rivers cost over $23 a vote.

"That this money or most of it was cribbed from public funds or blackmailed from public contractors the Liberals allege. That was the substance of Mr. Edgar's charges against Sir Adolphe Caron. Sir Adolphe Caron, with the assistance of Sir John Abbott, Sir John Thompson and the other Ministers, has altered the charges so as to make them more comfortable, and has selected two judges to look into the amended presentation. Under the circumstances the public is not likely to learn more than the Globe has given, which is lacking in proof or disproof of direct corruption. That it must remain so is not the Liberal fault.

"But the revelations prove this, that all the Conservative members of Parliament from the district in question were mere paid tools of the Ministry. Sometimes people wonder that members of Parliament are not more independent. The Globe's pictures show us that in one great electoral division all the Conservative candidates were paid puppets set up by the Cabinet. Could such men be independent? They go into Parliament through money supplied by Sir Hector or Sir Adolphe; they could not have got in without it; they sat in Parliament behind Ministers who held their receipts for thousands, and they knew they could not get back to Parliament again without more thousands from the same source. Such men to-day cast deciding votes for a redistribution bill which fetters the honest opinion of the country, and when a McCarthy for a moment leaves such partisans to utter an independent sentiment, he meets taunts and sneers."

It is said that a person standing on the ruins of the old castle of Hawarden, near Gladstone's home, can see with the naked eye enough unused park land to furnish livelihood for perhaps 1,000 000 people. Most of this land is owned by the Duke of Westminster and only the rabbits that overrun it seem to get any advantage out of it. Mr. Gladstone's own estate comprises several thousand acres of forest land untouched by any axe except that of the G. O. M. himself. It has been at times a favorite hunting preserve for Herbert Gladstone, who occasionally slaughters rabbits here.

THE COMING TRADE CONGRESS.

Erastus Wiman, of New York, the distinguished native Canadian who has in the past taken so great an interest in the trade relations with Canada and the United States, will be a delegate to and will participate in the proceedings of the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in London, Eng. As only by representing a board of trade in a British possession could Mr. Wiman attend the great gatherings he recently applied to the Council of the Board of Trade of Toronto, where he spent his early life, and where he still has business interests, for a certificate. The council declined to grant the certificate unless he pledged himself to advocate what is known as preferential trade with Great Britain "to the entire exclusion of all foreign countries." Mr. Wiman's reply was:

"If it can be made to appear more advantageous to Great Britain and her colonies to have preferential trade between them to the exclusion of all foreign countries I would advocate it, but if it can be made to appear that it would be detrimental to their interests I should not hesitate to oppose it."

And in a later dispatch he said:

"Such a policy might be of the most ruinous character to Canada, restricting her future development and greatly lessening her opportunities by isolating her for ever from the great nation to the south. Certainly such questions should bear discussion, and your conclusion to prohibit representation by men who can intelligently discuss them, is hardly consistent with the purposes for which the Board of Trade exists."

But Mr. Wiman will go to the London gathering, and will be enabled to discuss the great trade question in his own inimitable manner. Brantford Board of Trade has selected him as its delegate, leaving him free to advocate whatsoever he thinks will best serve the interests of his native land. The Board of Trade of Niagara Falls, Ont., has also selected him as its delegate, and he will further bear the fraternal greetings of the New York Chamber of Commerce, "chartered by a British king over 100 years ago." The president of that influential body, in a letter introducing Mr. Wiman to the London gathering, has written:

"This gentleman, notwithstanding a most active participation in the commercial affairs of this country for the past 30 years, has retained his British nationality, and this fact, coupled with his ability in enabling the public to realize the vast resources of the greater half of this continent to the north, and eloquently advocating the advantages of a close commercial alliance between the English-speaking people on this side of the sea, has come to be regarded as a representative of British North America to a greater degree than perhaps any other man in the United States, though 1,000,000 of his fellow-countrymen find an unstinted welcome here. It seems fitting, therefore, to commend Mr. Wiman to the assembled commercial wisdom of Great Britain and her colonies when discussing the relations likely to exist hereafter between the great mother country and her dependencies, especially when in that discussion the future relations with the United States are likely to be considered."

Mr. Wiman will be heard from. What he says will be instructive as well as entertaining.

Instructions That Bore Fruit.

[Philadelphia Record.]

President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is, as everybody knows, a great stickler for discipline, and a story is told of him which is too good to keep. Some time ago, while on his way to Harrisburg, the conductor of the train bowed as he passed without asking to see his ticket. On coming through the train again, Mr. Roberts touched his arm and said, "Why did you not ask for my ticket?"

Rather abashed, the conductor replied that he presumed he had his pass.

"Do you know who I am?" next asked Mr. Roberts.

"Yes, sir," replied the conductor, "you are the president of the road."

"Granted that I am. It is your duty to allow nobody to ride over this road without showing a ticket. Always bear that in mind."

The conductor promised to do so in the future and passed on. After the next station had been passed he again came through the train for tickets, and, coming to Mr. Roberts, stopped and demanded to see his ticket.

"That's right, my man," said the president, putting his hand in his breast pocket. Then he grew red in the face, and as he felt in pocket after pocket his face became redder. He had left his pass at home The conductor never moved a muscle of his face, but stood with outstretched hand waiting for the ticket. Mr. Roberts was too proud to back out, and finally asked in a meek voice, "How much is the fare to Harrisburg?" On being informed he paid over the money, which the conductor took without a smile, giving him a rebate check good for 10 cents. President Roberts continued his ride in silence.

In the last quarter 14,204 deaths in England and Wales were attributed to the chief zymotic diseases.

The first printing press used in America was run in Mexico, about 1550, and the second in Lima, Peru, about 1586.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a peculiar medicine. It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative power not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures where other preparations fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates every impurity, and cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, all Humors, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has met peculiar and unparalleled success at home. Such has become its popularity in Lowell, Mass., where it is made, that whole neighborhoods are taking it at the same time. Lowell druggists sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

THE CITY FINANCIERS.

The London Trust Grant Reaffirmed by No. 1—A Plea for the Rescue Home—An Assistant for the City Clerk.

Ald. Gartshore (chairman), Jeffery, Judd, Yates, and Mayor Spencer and Treasurer Pope attended a meeting of the finance committee yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Hutchinson asked for help for the Salvation Army Rescue Home. He told of the things the home had accomplished, and related individual cases of girls rescued from ruin. Mrs. Cassells, wife of one of the officers, added a few words and strongly pleaded for aid. Capt. Fitzpatrick said the home's expenses were from $8 to $10 per week; but sometimes the receipts for a week were only $3. People helped them with vegetables, etc.

The committee will recommend a grant of $50.

The question of paying Messrs. Pritchard and Powell, of the London Trust, for their services came up again, the committee's resolution having been sent back by the council. A statement was read showing that since the organization of the trust in 1885 there had been held 48 meetings, of which Mr. Powell had attended 34, Mr. Pritchard 35, Mr. Scarrow 10, H. Becher 7, Charles S. Hyman 9, ex-Mayor Taylor 10, T. D. Hodgens 8 and James Cowan 13.

The aldermen appeared to be perplexed over the matter. Ald. Jeffery moved that the previous resolution granting $250 each to Messrs. Pritchard and Powell be reaffirmed. This was carried.

City Clerk Kingston asked for an office assistant. A typewriter will be engaged—a young man or woman—and will be under the clerk's control.

Engineer Chipman put in a bill of $450 for services in preparing his report on the sewerage system. It will be recommended for payment.

Ald. Gartshore stated that the electric street railway matter was not in shape for an intelligent handling as yet. It was laid over until the city solicitor could be present.

The city clerk's report as to his recent investigations re the installment system of tax collection was referred to the council.

MASONIC.

Bro. Thos. Massa, formerly architect to the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, of London, died a few weeks ago in England.

The value of the property of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is $2,500,000, while the debt of the Grand Lodge is a little under $800,000 and continually being diminished.

The amount paid in and subscribed to the Masonic Home of Ohio exceeds $60,000, and $40,000 yet are wanted.

The recent Templar ball in Chicago netted $7,000 for the Masonic Home.

Pennsylvania has reduced its debt during the past year over $60,000.

The largest Grand Lodge is New York, with about 80,000 members, and the smallest is Arizona, with a membership of 500.

The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of Denver will erect a cathedral, and hope to have it completed before next August.

It is claimed that the first Masonic lodge in the United States came into existence in 1730.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of New York has been in existence 94 years.

The Knights Templar are very strong in Ireland, where they number 1,300.

Barton Lodge, Hamilton, has now a membership of 302.

Sir Walter Scott was a Freemason, and was initiated in St. David's Lodge, No. 36, at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1801. This lodge is still in existence, and its records show the fact.

At the meeting of the Grand Lodge of New York State last week, the generous offer of Past Grand Master Frank R. Lawrence, of New York city, to build and equip an industrial school in connection with the home was accepted, and resolutions of thanks adopted.

At the last regular meeting of Belmont Lodge, No. 190, A. F. and A. M., the following brethren were elected officers for the ensuing year: A. C. McIntyre, W. M., re-elected; A. R. Lusty, S. W.; J. Potts, J. W.; J. G. Fawcett, chaplain; W. Mohr, treasurer, re-elected; J. Boyd, secretary, re-elected; C. McColl, S. D.; F. Locke, J. D.; Geo. McKellar, I. G.; R. G. Fonger, tyler. The officers elect will be installed on the evening of June 24, St. John's night.

The Detroit Sun says: A correspondent, Mr. Oscar Gunkle, corrects the assertion made yesterday that Mrs. Salome Anderson, of Oakland, Cal., is the only woman Freemason by sending an interesting account of a lodge in the City of Mexico that is worked by regularly initiated women. "They have, he says, "all the signs and passwords that would admit them into any symbolic lodge in the world. I can vouch for this, as I have been present in a lodge worked by women. It is due to the guerridas humanas of Mexico to say that they are devoting themselves zealously to the education of the children of poor brother Masons." This woman's lodge, says Mr. Gunkle, was not primarily established to get at the secrets of the order, but as a tentative effort toward the emancipation and elevation of the women of Mexico.

J. W. H. Wilson has been elected grand master of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba.

The annual general meeting of the subscribers to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution was held on Friday at Freemasons' Tavern, London, Mr. J. A. Farnfield, past assistant grand director of ceremonies, treasurer of the institution, in the chair. The report of the committee of management, which was read by the secretary, stated, among other matters, that at the jubilee festival on Feb. 24, when the Earl of Mount-Edgcumbe, deputy grand master, presided in Covent Garden Theater, there were 1,505 stewards—ladies and brethren—and the total subscriptions and donations amounted to £59,593. This sum had since been increased to £67,364, or £16,000 more than was obtained at the centenary festival of the Masonic Girls' School in 1888. After the election of annuitants in May, 1891, there were 409 brethren and widows on the funds, but the committee last February, foreseeing that the returns at the jubilee festival would be of an exceptional order, determined to create twenty fresh vacancies, and to invest the greater part of the funds. Consequently there would be now to be elected 36 men and 28 widows, making 190 men receiving £40 a year each, and 239 widows receiving £32 a year each. This, with £460 to widows of annuities receiving half their late husbands' annuitants, or £20 a year each, made a total of £15,708 a year paid by the institution in annuities. The committee made a vigorous appeal for further assistance from the craft that the permanent resources of the institution might never be trenched upon. The report was adopted.

A feature in connection with the visit of M. W. M. J. Ross Robertson, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Canada, to his mother lodge, King Solomon, No. 22 (Toronto), on Thursday evening, was the presentation by him to the lodge of a gavel similar in form to that used by the early German lodges, and now in use by Quatuor Coronati Lodge, London, Eng. The gravel bears no resemblance whatever to those generally used in Masonic Lodges, and could readily be mistaken for a pavior's hammer; but regardless of its unique form it will be treasured by the members of King Solomon Lodge, not because it is of the genuine pattern, but on account of the manner in which they became its possessor. The presentation was not a formal affair, but an incident in the delivery of a lecture, nevertheless the large assemblage did not allow it to pass without expressing hearty approval. At the conclusion of the lecture the W. M. of the lodge, W. Bro. W. H. Scott, thanked the grand master for the presentation made the lodge, and in the course of his remarks reminded M. W. Bro. Robertson that almost a quarter of a century had passed away since his (Bro. R.'s) initiation in King Solomon Lodge, years that had not been barren in Masonic work, as was demonstrated by his advancement to the Grand East.

It has been decided to enlarge the temple at Cleveland. The addition will be built in the rear of the present temple, and will extend to Rockwell street. It will be of stone, 78x93 feet, and six stories in height. There will be stores on the ground floor and the second floor will be fitted up for offices. The remainder of the building will be devoted for Masonic purposes. The estimated cost of the improvement, including the interior decorations, is about $75,000. Work will be commenced as soon as possible, and the building will be completed during the summer.

Pennsylvania reduced its debt during the past year $63,000.

The Grand Lodge of Tennessee provides that no lodge created under its jurisdiction, either by dispensation or charter, shall bear the name of any living person.

Bro. D. Murray Lion, grand secretary of Scotland, says that the register of the Grand Lodge of Scotland shows that in 92 years there were 219,931 initiations into Freemasonry in that jurisdiction.

Indiana has nearly 600 lodges.

The United States Minister to Chili, Patrick Egan, is a member of Lincoln Lodge, No. 9, A. O. U. W., of Lincoln, Neb., a fact not heretofore generally known.

The late Michigan Grand Lodge session indorsed the Select Knights as a uniform rank and valued auxiliary. A deputy is to be appointed at a salary of $1,200 a year and expenses.

The St. Louis Labor Bureau reports that the first six months' work has fully demonstrated that it is one of the most useful auxiliaries of the order in securing work for unemployed members. It has also aided brethren from outside the city who were in search of work. All but three of the St. Louis lodges are enrolled; country lodges generally are seeking affiliation, and the Grand Lodge gives the bureau its hearty indorsement.

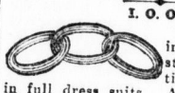

Grand Master Workman Milne retired from the office of executive of Ontario with a degree of honor rarely attained by one called to occupy that position in the order.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

June 5 was a big day with the Woodmen in Frome, it being commemoration day with them. Redwood Camp, No. 11, of Frome, arrayed in their uniforms and assisted by the members of Iona and Fingal lodges, marched to the Congregational Church where a society sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Staples, B.A., of Shedden, who preached an excellent sermon. W. Ramplin, head consul commander of Ontario, marshaled the forces, and was ably assisted by the officer of the camp. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the young ladies.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

A past grand chancellor of Indiana, in referring to the success of the order, assigns the cause thereof: 1. The innate virtue of our natural fraternities. 2. The perfection of our precious trinity, F., C. and B. 3. The enthusiastic effort of our individual membership. 4. The uniform rank. 5. The proportion of young men is greater in our order than in any other. 6. We have kept our pledges and beneficially demonstrated without ostentation our Pythian motto. 7. The better element of our people have become familiar with our tenets and the fact that we practice what we preach. 8. At no time has it been necessary to ask, "Why stand ye here idle?" of a single member of the staff of the Grand Council.

During the quarter ending Dec. 31, 1891, the endowment rank increased the amount of insurance in force from $57,197,000 to $58,745,000. The balance in bank to the account of the several funds on Oct. 1 was $169,532 96; Jan. 1, 1892, $172,516 75. The total benefits paid to date amount to $6,424,558. During the quarter 43 new sections were organized. The year 1891 showed the largest increase since the formation of the rank, 228 new sections being organized and 5,186 new members admitted.

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA.

Proceedings of the Seventeenth Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders,

Held at the Banking House of the Institution, in Toronto, on Wednesday, June 15, 1892.

The seventeenth annual general meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada was held, in pursuance of the terms of the charter, at the banking house of the institution, June 15, 1892. There were present:

Messrs. H. S. Howland, T. R. Merritt (St. Catharines), T. R. Wadsworth (Weston), Robert Jaffray, Hugh Ryan, Rev. E. B. Lawler, George Robinson, R. S. Cassels; Wm. Ramsay, of Bowand, Scotland; T. Sutherland Stayner; Joseph Whitehead, Quebec; W. B. Hamilton, John Stewart, David Kidd, Hamilton; Robert Beaty, R. L. Benson, Peterboro; H. S. Northrop, J. H. Patterson, R. Thompson, John Bain, Q.C., J. J. Gould, Uxbridge; R. H. Ramsay, S. Nordheimer, Dr. Thorburn, J. K. Fisken, D. R. Wilkie, etc., etc.

The chair was taken by the president, Mr. H. S. Howland, and Mr. D. R. Wilkie was requested to act as secretary.

The secretary, at the request of the chairman, read the report of the directors and the statement of affairs.

THE REPORT.

The directors have much pleasure in meeting the shareholders, and beg to submit the seventeenth annual balance sheet and statement of profit and loss account of the bank for the year ended May 31, 1892.

Out of the profits for the year and balance of profit and loss account carried forward from last year:

(a) Dividends have been paid at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum, and in addition thereto a bonus of 1 per cent., amounting in all to $171,622 80.

(b) Rest account has been increased by $50,000.

(c) Bank premises account has been credited with $6,276 63.

(d) The fund to cover rebate on bills discounted current has been supplemented by an appropriation of $3,643 74.

The allotment to shareholders of $500,000 new stock has been taken up to the extent of $463,600. The disposition to be made of the unsubscribed shares, within the provisions of the Bank Act, is a matter for future consideration on the part of your directors.

The deposits and note circulation of the bank have increased during the year in the sum of $1,326,723.

Keeping pace, in a measure, with railway development in the Northwest Territories, a branch of the bank has been opened during the year at Edmonton, Alberta.

The new premises at Brandon, Manitoba, the property of the bank, have been in occupation since the 13th of March, and meet in every respect the requirements of the bank.

The necessity of providing suitable accommodation at Calgary for the business of the bank has induced your directors to purchase premises, at a reasonable cost, on the corner of Stephen avenue and McTavish street, which, it is expected, will be at an early date ready for occupation.

The scarcity of idle capital in the Northwest seeking investment necessitates the ownership by the bank of banking premises at several points; care has, however, been taken from time to time to reduce below cost, by appropriations from profit and loss account, the value at which these and other banking premises are held as assets.

You will be asked to approve of and to aid in the establishment of an officers' and employes' mutual guarantee fund; which fund your directors believe will not only be an economical and otherwise excellent substitute for the system of officers' guarantees now in force, but will tend to community of interests on the part of the officials themselves.

The policy of maintaining ample cash reserves and of investing a considerable portion of the funds of the bank in first-class, readily convertible securities, although curtailing immediate profits, enables the bank to avail itself from time to time of any good business that offers, and insures the full and continued confidence of the public and of the shareholders.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. S. HOWLAND,
President.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors Mr. Henry S. Howland was elected president and Mr. Thomas R. Merritt vice-president for the ensuing year.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, is ear ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are specially subject.

"German Syrup"

A Cough and Croup Medicine.

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to put her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as childrens' troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

Market Fluctuations.

The following is Cunningham's New York special to J. W. HYMAN, broker, Market Lane, by private wire:

NEW YORK, June 17.—The disappointing ½c dividend on whisky gave the bears the first advantage and they followed in by attacks on the grangers. The short interest had been well driven out of St. Paul and Burlington, and London selling helped. The chief bear argument was good expert and firmness in sterling exchange. The manipulations is mainly by bears. It was not known till last evening that application had been made in a friendly court for a receiver for the Richmond and Danville to prevent it from falling into the hands of parties hostile to the R. T. reorganization.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, June 16.—There were about 200 head of butchers' cattle, 100 calves and 350 sheep and lambs offered at the east end abattoir to-day. Trade was very dull during the forenoon on account of the holiday, but the prices of cattle were decidedly higher all round, the best beeves being nearly ½c per lb higher in price than they were last Thursday, while common stockers more than ½c higher than on that day. The butchers bought very sparingly to-day, paying up to 5c per lb for the best beeves, with large, fat cows and rough steers at from 4½c to 4½c per lb. There were a few milkmen's strippers offered to-day at prices ranging from 3c to 4c per lb. Good calves are still very scarce and in active demand at pretty high figures, and the common veals sell better than usual. Prices range from $2 to $10 each. Mutton critters are plentiful and rather lower in price. The shippers are paying about 4c per lb for good, large sheep. Lambs sell at from $2 to $4 each.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., June 16.—Cattle—Receipts to-day were all consigned through, only a few head peddled out to city butchers. Feeling steady. New York market reported low and closed firm yesterday at full Monday's prices.

Sheep and Lambs—Thirteen cars on sale. Market steady at yesterday's values. Good stock is in demand. Good 100 lb sheep brought $5 25, while fair lots, partly corn-fed, weighing around 80 lbs, $4 75; a load of fat Kentucky lambs brought $7 50, and a fair lot of lights, $7; a few fair to good 63 lb yearlings sold at $5 50.

Hogs—Market weaker to-day; fair inquiry, and the bulk of the 15 loads on sale changed hands at prices 10c to 15c lower than yesterday. The Chicago market closed easier yesterday, and opened lower to-day, and buyers would not bid within 10c off yesterday's price; about 800 head sold, mostly at $5 25; good weight Yorkers, $5 15 to $5 20, and $5 to $5 10 for light weight Yorkers; pigs slow at $4 65 to $4 89 for light to fair weight; roughs, $4 25 to $4 60; stags, $3 25 to $3 60.

"We respectively agree to pay the sums set opposite our respective names on or before Dec. 31, 1892, to the Hon. S. H. LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—O, for that "lodge," of which we sometimes read,
'Mid fragrant flowers and sweet "contiguous shade"—
Where you and I no work would ever need,
And where a waiter brings cool lemonade.

—One drunk was discharged by the police magistrate this morning.

—Five hundred children of the public schools of Westminster are picnicking at Port Stanley to-day.

—Judge Mackenzie, of Sarnia, presided at the First Division Court to-day. There were no cases of any importance on the docket.

—Special free lectures on Christian science mind healing are given every Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., in Pythian Hall, Duffield Block.

—James Walker, of Nissouri, was committed for trial by Squire Jarvis this afternoon on a charge of having made a criminal attack upon Selina Hicks, a girl between the age of 12 and 16 years.

James McCormick, a carpenter at Stevens & Burns' foundry, Richmond street, dropped dead while at work about 9:30 this morning. Deceased was an elderly man and was in his customary health when the attack came. Death was almost instantaneous. Dr. Ferguson, coroner, was immediately summoned, and attributed death to heart disease. He decided that an inquest was not necessary. Deceased was removed at once to his home, 20 prospect avenue. He had been in the employ of Messrs. Stevens & Burns for a number of years and was a valued workman. He came to this city from St. Marys. Mrs. McCormick and two daughters—Mrs. McMurchy, of Harriston, and Mrs. Tolmy, of Harrisburg—survive him.

Mr. Towe Again Honored.

Mr. Edward Towe, of this city, was today re-elected high chief ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters at the High Court meeting in Stratford. This is the third time the honor has been successively conferred upon Mr. Towe, and it is a signal proof of the confidence and esteem with which he is regarded by the order.

THE ULSTER CONVENTION.

Strong Prostestations Against an Irish Parliament.

A Large Number of Delegates Present—Scenes of Great Excitement.

LONDON, June 17.—A dispatch from Belfast says the utmost excitement prevailed there yesterday. Among the delegates who have arrived for the Ulster convention are the Duke of Abercorn, the Earl of Erin, Lord Claude Hamilton, Lord Ernest Hamilton, Lord Frederick Hamilton, Lord Arthur Hill, Lord Rosmore, and a large number of the House of Commons members. Edward McConnell, of New York, is also present. Those are thousands of delegates and visitors, and hardly a bed can be obtained. The wealthy residents are holding open houses to accommodate visitors. Forty thousand tickets have been issued for the overflowing meeting in the Botanic Garden. Fifteen thousand invitations were issued for the brilliant reception held in the convention hall last night, at which the Duke of Abercorn was present. Sir William Quarters Ewart proposed the following resolutions, which were adopted: 1. That we avow our fixed resolve to retain unchanged our present position as an integral portion of the United Kingdom and to protest in the most unequivocal manner against the passage of any measure that would rob us of our inheritance in the Imperial Parliament, under the protection of which our capital has been invested and our homes and rights safeguarded. 2. That we regard our determination to have nothing to do with a Parliament certain to be controlled by men responsible for the crime and outrage of the Land League, the dishonesty of the plan of campaign, and the cruelties of boycotting, many of whom have shown themselves the ready instruments of clerical domination. 3. That we declare to the people of Great Britain our conviction that the attempt to set up such a Parliament in Ireland will invariably result in disorder, violence and bloodshed such as have not been experienced in this century and announce our resolve to take no part in the election or proceedings of such a Parliament, the authority of which, should it ever be constituted, we shall be forced to repudiate. That we protest against this great question which involves our lives, property and civil rights being treated as a mere side issue in the impending electorate struggle. 5. That we appeal to those of our fellow countrymen who hitherto have been in favor of a separate Parliament to abandon a demand which hopelessly divides Irishmen and to unite with us under the Imperial Legislature in developing the resources and furthering the best interests of our common country.

The O'Connor Girls

By Mrs. Hungerford ("The Duchess"), Author of "Molly Bawn," "Her Last Throw," "Mrs. Geoffrey," etc.

"Pouf, yourself! 'Handsome is as handsome does.' I suppose you are not so far advanced as to deny the truth of that old proverb? And Sir Willoughby does handsomely whatever he does. He has a heart of gold I can tell you. But about this dance! When tea is over I wish you three would manage to stay with me, under pretense of helping me to pack up, and we'll have a real talk about it."

"It will be 'All cry and little wool,'" whisper I back disconsolately. "There is another proverb in exchange for yours. You say you believe in them."

"Little wool!" cries she. "There will be a golden fleece, I tell you."

I never met a woman with such good spirits, such a turn for finesse, and yet with such a good heart. Perhaps high spirits make a good heart. "A merry heart goes all the way," says the dearest of all men, who must himself have had a "merry heart," I think, in spite of everything. The light-hearted person seldom broods, and it is brooding that leads to most bad actions. Fanny shows her diplomatic powers by getting rid of everybody five minutes after tea is done, with the exception of we three, Paddy Burke, who, as her brother, has naturally stayed to help her (though afterwards I could not remember where the help came in), Mr. Dickerson, who begged to be allowed to stay, and Sir Willoughby, who wouldn't go away. Perhaps Fanny had not exercised her taste for finesse with them.

"Now, what about this dance?" begins Fanny. "I know what you are all afraid of—of dear Aunt Jane!"

"Yes; she will never give us permission," says Kitty.

"You call on her, Fanny!" says Paddy, anxiously. "Say you'll chaperone them, say you'll chaperone the old girl herself; that might flatter her!"

"It is easy to see you don't know her," says Kitty, dolefully. "Nothing would move her! not even flattery!"

"She must be far gone, indeed, at that rate!" says Paddy Burke.

"Am I to understand, once for all," says Fanny, getting up a business-like air, "that no representations, no entreaties, could move her to give her consent to your coming to this dance?"

"You may indeed understand that," say I.

"Then, now listen to me!" says Fanny. "Don't for a moment think that I would urge you to disobey any one in real authority over you—not if they were the most unreasonable people in the world. I mean that if your father was here I should not say a second word if he forbid you to come to our dance, though that is outside the matter altogether, as I knew Uncle Terence would come himself, and bring you girls with him. But with regard to Aunt Jane's forbidding you to enjoy yourselves in a rational manner, I call that nothing less than tyranny!" She looks round, "What do you all call it?" says she, appealing to the men.

"Tyranny indeed!" says Mr. Dickerson.

"It is inconceivable!" says Sir Willoughby.

"She must be a regular old cat!" says Paddy Burke.

Mr. Burke brings down the house!

"I do love you Paddy," says his sister. "Yes she is! She is all that, and a great deal more!"

"And now listen to me, children," speaking to us. "You have the steward's wife, Mrs Moriarty, living near you. She, I know, is devoted to you all. Hire that invaluable, if slightly erratic, person who drove you to see me the other day——"

"We need not do that," says Geraldine. It is the first time she has spoken. She had been silent during the protestings of Kitty and me against our chances of ever going to this dance. "We have the old mare, and once we get to Clonbree—to your house"——looking at our cousin.

"You have caught on," says Fanny, who really is a little, a very little slangy. "You will start with Mrs. Moriarty alone—supposing our beloved aunt refuses to accompany you—and you will come to our house; and, after that, Jack and I will take you to the rooms."

"Oh, no! It is impossible, Gerry," say I, addressing myself to Geraldine.

"I wonder you can't see that, Gerry," says Kitty.

"See what?" asks Fanny. "Mrs. Moriarity, as I say, can bring you to my house. Can wait for you there till the dance is over, and bring you safely back to Ballinahinch. It is quite proper."

"And Aunt Jane——"

"Well, what of her? What could she say? If she refuses to take you, she still cannot find fault at my chaperonage—her own niece."

"She will refuse to let us go under any chaperonage. She objects to—dancing—to amusement of any kind—to everything. She hates us, I think," says Kitty miserably.

"Oh! why did Dad go away just now."

"Why don't you write to him and get his permission to go to this dance?" asks Paddy Burke eagerly.

"Because—because we know he would refuse us nothing, and because we know, too, that he would be wretched in that—that he had offended Aunt Jane."

"But why wretched!" asks Sir Willoughby of me.

"Because Aunt Jane has money to leave, and we—" stonily, "we have no money at all. Like most Irish landlords we are ruined because of the lowering of the rents, and Dad—it is for our sake, you will understand"—looking at him piteously—"Dad is afraid of offending Aunt Jane!"

"Oh! I see! Oh! by Jove! What's to be done?" says he.

What indeed!

"Nothing!" return I with the calmness that is popularly supposed to accompany despair.

CHAPTER X.

"Come and trip it as you go
On the light fantastic toe"
"Now slowly soft let Lydian measures move,
And breat the pleasing pangs of gentle love."

We have got home—we have been interviewed by Aunt Jane; she has learned from us that we have been for a long walk in the woods, and she has been satisfied. If she had not been satisfied. If she had regularly found us out and given us a thorough good scolding, I do not think we should have felt altogether miserable and downhearted, and deceitful, as we do, when we go upstairs to take off our things. However, there is no time to unburden ourselves, each to each, as Aunt Jane is expecting us to the late dinner she has insisted on since her arrival. Poor darling Dad had discovered (though Geraldine, it must be confessed; he seldom discovered economies of his own accord) that early dinner made luncheon impossible, and though he hated dining before eight o'clock, he gave in, like the hero he is.

We get through this dinner respectably enough, and now, now at long last, we find ourselves alone in the dim recesses of Geraldine's chamber.

I say "dim" right seriously The melancholy composition candle that adorns the center of the rickety gipsy table that stands behind Gerry's bed is all the light we have. We are accustomed to it, however, and therefore it makes our already two low spirits—at all events, no lower! We are all three seated on the orthodox bedroom chair—not all on one chair, of course, there are three of them—the thing with four long legs two rails to the back, and unlimited rungs—the most uncomfortable chair in the world! But discomfort seems to be our portion!

"It is hard lines," says Kitty, who, as I have already said, has been cultivating Paddy Burke of late.

"Yes, isn't it?" say I eagerly. "How I should like to go! And all the others will be going. Only we three girls will have to stay at home. It's wicked."

"That's just how I feel," says Kitty. "Oh, it is worse than wicked," it is cruel. But how can we go?"

"We might go in spite of her, of course," say I. "She could not, I suppose, prevent our going if it came to manual force. She could not tie us to the bedposts, for example."

"No. But she would be furious all the same, and we have promised Dad to be good to her, and you know how happy it would make him if we defied her."

"True, true," say I. "Yet mark my words she won't leave us one penny. All will go to hospitals and things, to save her soul."

"Don't grow bitter over her, Molly," says Geraldine. It is the first time she has spoken. "She isn't worth it."

I wish Dad hadn't put us on our honor," says Kitty, restlessly. "He did didn't he?"

"Yes, yes, of course. Only"—sighing—"I wish, like you, he hadn't."

"I suppose there is no way out of it," says Kitty. "Oh! when all those girls were talking to-day about going to it," and discussing their frocks and their partners, I felt—well," a tear stealing out of her pretty eyes, "I don't know how I felt, but it was d, very bad."

THE WEEK'S MARKETS.

A Better Outlook in the Cattle Trade.

Other Changes in Canadian Business.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Montreal, June 15.

It is pleasant this week to be able to report a decided upward turn in the British markets. The improvement which is due to lighter supplies appears to be general, and farmers will echo the hope of the exporters that it will continue. The Lake Nepigon sold in Liverpool to-day, and all her cattle made money, one lot making as high as $7 per head. A cable from Liverpool quotes steers and maiden heifers at 6¼d. Another private cable from Liverpool reads: "The market is higher on account of short supply. Anticipate reaction with increased supplies. Canadian steers, 6¾d." There will be heavy sales of Canadian cattle in the English and Scotch markets this week, and exporters now hope, if the market keeps up, to get back some of their earlier losses. Cattle are coming forward very freely and it appears to be the impression that they will have to go lower get. From Montreal this week large shipments are expected. Messrs. Bickerdike & Crowe, who appear to have things pretty much in their own hands, will export this week over 2,500 head. The way things are working in Montreal now, shows pretty conclusively that the day of the small shippers is past, and even with the present satisfactory state of the British markets, it is doubtful if small shipments would make much money, certainly not enough to compensate for the risk that will have to be taken. The small shippers cannot now get space anyway cheap, for the steamship companies show every intention of putting up rates. The Texas went out of here last week to Bristol at 70s. Messrs. Bickerdike & Crowe, for instance, have their space contracted for during the entire season at 40s to 60s. Before the next ten days exporters who work on the current rate plan will be paying from 70s to 80s out of this port. The best advice small dealers can take is to sell and not ship. A big cattle deal was consummated here last Saturday by the purchase by Messrs. Bickerdike & Crowe of the 600 distillery cattle at Waterloo. These cattle were the property of James Scott, and were sold at around 5c per lb. This is a $50,000 deal and is the first sale of distillers made this season. It is understood that offers have been made for the Belleville cattle, also Black's and Coffee's. The Waterloo cattle will be exported as soon as possible. The exports of live stock from Montreal last week were very light, being but 2,237 cattle and 187 sheep.

FLOUR, GRAIN, ETC.

There has been no notable improvement in the flour market. While there have been some inquiries from England and Newfoundland the limits have not been high enough to induce much business. Newfoundland buyers have bid $4 for straight roller, but $4 15 was apparently the lowest millers would accept. The late hot weather has caused some fear lest the flour should get heated, and it is stated that one lot of Manitoba bakers has already soured. There is said to be considerable old stuff on the market. We quote patent, spring, $4 75 to $4 85; pateat, winter, $4 45 to $4 65; straight roller, $4 20 to $4 40; extra, $3 50 to $3 65; city strong, bakers, $4 60 to $4 70; Manitoba bakers, $4 25 to $4 50.

The wheat market is inactive here although some business is reported in the west. No. 2 hard is quoted here at 92c and No. 3 hard 82c. In frosted wheat No. 1 regular is quoted at 73c to 74c, No. 2 at 63c to 64c, and No. 3 at 53c to 54c. In Ontario millers are paying 81c to 82c for straight red and white winter, while cargoes at lake ports are quoted at 84c to 85c.

There is a firmer feeling in oatmeal, Ontario millers asking 10c to 15c per bbl. more money, car lots being now quoted on the track at $3 90 for rolled and granulated.

The market for bran is easier, sales of car lots being reported at $13 50 to $14. Shorts $15 to $16, middlings $16 50 to $17 50, moullie $19 to 21.

The corn market has ruled very steady in sympathy with the west, but prices here are nominal at 57c to 58c.

Peas are steady, with sales reported at 76c to 77c per 66 lbs.

In oats, No. 2 white have sold at 35c to 35½c, and No. 3 at 34c per 34 lbs.

A fair business has been done in barley on export account at prices ranging from 40c to 45c for feed as to quality. Malting grades are quoted at 48c to 55c. Rye nominal at 80c to 82c. Buckwheat, 53c to 55c on a limited demand.

DAIRY PRODUCE.

Dealers appear to expect that supplies of butter may increase at any moment, and although there is no accumulation of stock as yet, and they are anxious to realize as quickly as possible, there is some inquiry for sample lots of creamery, and a few lots have changed hands at 18c. Small jobbing lots have sold at 18½c to 19c. In eastern townships dairy buyers are paying 14c to 15c in the country. Morrisburg and Brockville are quoted at about the same prices.

The cheese market is dull and lower. Prices are fully ½c lower than a week ago, sales of white having transpired at 9½c, while it is reported that one holder accepted 9c. Receipts are increasing and offerings are large. Belleville sold last week the balance of the May make at 8⅞c for white and 8⅝c for colored, and Ingersoll at 8¾c to 9c.

PRODUCE.

The egg market is still weak, sales of round lots having been made at 10c for choice fresh stock and 10½c for single cases. Shipments to the old country were made last week by Ontario men of between 300 and 400 cases.

Hops are in slow demand. We quote 22c to 25c for 1891 growth, and 17c to 18c for yearlings, old stock being quoted at 6c to 12c as to quality. Advices from England report the vines as making good progress.

The market for pressed hay is scarcely as firm as it was two weeks ago. Choice timothy is quoted at $13 50 to $14 in car lots; No. 2, $12 50 to $13. The prospects for the growing crop are magnificent both n Ontario and Quebec.

A bottle of Angostura Bitters to flavor your lemonade or any other cold drink will keep you free from Dyspepsia, Colic Diarrhea and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Be sure to get the genuine Angostura, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

from Mr. W. T. Clay, who was several years in the Grand Lodge of Ontario Masons, and was two years District Deputy Grand Master Toronto District, G. R. O., of the same order, and is well known in business and socially.
Dear Dr. Rear—Have had failing health, loss of appetite (one meal a day of late); took severe cold, settled on lungs and bronchial tubes, developed into asthma, pain in chest, faint spells, bad cough. The worst spell of tight breathing was in the Citizens' Mill, where I am millwright. The engineer thought I was dying. Reliable information said that "Histogenetic Medicine would save life after all else failed," and twenty years' knowledge of your family and your scientific research satisfied me that you would tell me the truth. I consulted you ONE MONTH ago. You prescribed Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's date of Germany) Remedies. The "tight breathing" is already almost gone! No pain left! Cough about well! No faint spells! Appetite splendid—could "eat a man on horseback!" I have today climbed ten or twelve times to the top of Knox Church tower and only had to rest once. It is a wonderful system.

—A recently-published work on Botanical Science is entitled the "Pyrenomyietes of North America," by Ellis & Everhart, with colored plates by F. W. Anderson. It is a handsome volume of about 900 pages, with 41 full-page plates, published in Philadelphia. It deals with the fungi of North America. Nearly half of the material for the plates was furnished by Mr. J. Dearness, of London, credit for which is given in the explanations to each plate. This work is undoubtedly one of the most valued contributions to mycologic science that has ever been published, and it is pleasant to notice that a Canadian has contributed so largely to its pages.

Death of James Reid, Scotland.

The Paisley and Renfrewshire (Scotland) Gazette contains the obituary notice of Mr. James Reid, manager of a department in the Ferguslie thread works, who died suddenly on June 3, aged 61. Old residents will remember him, as some 40 years ago he served his apprenticeship in the Free Press office in this city. He was of a studious nature, and in his spare hours devoted himself to the study of the languages, his instructor being a Rev. Mr. Luke. The Gazette says that while a young man he went to Canada, and for some years remained there, where his uncle, Mr. Robert Reid, was a flourishing citizen, and who subsequently—twenty years or more ago—paid a visit to this, his native city." The Mr. Robert Reid referred to is the well-known collector of customs here.

Rev. Dr. Evans' Funeral.

The funeral of the late Dr. Evans yesterday afternoon was made the occasion of an impressive service in Queen's Avenue Methodist Church. A large congregation assembled to pay their respects to the memory of the deceased, whose coffin, covered with floral tributes, lay on the communion rails in front. The pall-bearers were Rev. J. H. Orme, Rev. G. W. Henderson, Rev. Edwin Holmes, Rev. W. Godwin, Rev. Stephen Bond and Rev. G. F. Kerr (Thorndale). The Bishop of Huron (a nephew of the deceased), the Dean of Huron, Rev. Canon Richardson, Rev. Canon Davis, Rev. Jas. Philp, Rev. Dr. Sanderson, Rev. George Boyd, Rev. Wm. Laird, Rev. J. G. Scott (president of the London Conference) and other clergymen were present. The congregation united in singing that beautiful hymn.

Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won;
And thou art crowned at last.

Rev. J. G. Scott delivered an address in which he traced the life and work of Dr. Evans and eulogized his character. He was born in June, 1803, at Kingston-upon-Hull, England, and came to Canada in 1820. He followed the occupation of a school teacher until his conversion in 1826. In 1827 he began to preach the Word, and was ordained by Bishop Heddy in 1830. In 1848 he was appointed superintendent of missions in the Eastern Provinces, where his memory was still fragrant. After nine years of service he returned. From 1859 to 1865 Dr. Evans was chairman of Victoria district on Vancouver Island, and from 1866 to 1869 chairman of another district in British Columbia. In 1870 and 1871 he was stationed at Yorkville, and was chairman of the Toronto district. In 1872, 1873 and 1874 he had charge of a department of Indian work, making in all 65 years in the active service of the Master. Dr. Sanderson, a life-long friend of deceased, added his testimony of Dr. Evans' worth.

SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION.

The Board of Education Discuss the Matter.

A Number of Lots To Be Bought and Additions Built, Provided the Council Will Furnish the Funds.

At a "special general meeting" of the Board of Education last evening, Messrs. Dewar (chairman), Tanton, Cook, Dr. Campbell, Turner, Dr. Wilson, Love, D. W. Blackwell, McElheran, Allaster, Craig, Brady, Stephenson, Alexander, Jeffery, R. J. Blackwell, Principal Merchant, Inspector Carson and Secretary Abbott were present. The board went into committee of the whole, R. J. Blackwell in the chair. Mr. Cook, chairman of No. 2 Committee, submitted a long report which recommended repairs costing about $5,000 to Colborne street school. Ventilating and heating were the principal items of expense. Mr. McElheran said he would rather build a new school than make repairs at such a cost.

Mr. Love moved that this clause be laid over until the board should make its annual inspection.

Mr. Brady moved in amendment that a new building be erected at a cost of not more than $16,000, but Mr. Love's motion carried.

Messrs. Dewar and Love moved that the matter of heating Rectory street school be referred to No. 2 Committee and if at their annual inspection they think that the school can be satisfactorily heated at a cost of $1,000 it be put in the estimates. Tenders will be called for heating the school by furnace or hot air and also for ventilating.

Mr. Love moved that tenders be called for a four-room addition to Princess avenue school and also for heating and ventilating the old and new portions. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Allaster tenders will be called for a two-room school on Quebec street, the work not to be proceeded with until debentures are issued to pay for it.

A motion by Mr. Cook that the council be requested to furnish money to buy a lot on Oxford street near William but that the school be not built, was lost. A lot will be bought near the Protestant Orphans' Home, but the school will not be put up as yet.

Mr. Dewar moved that a two-room brick addition be built to Talbot street school for kindergarten purposes, and that the council be requested to furnish funds. Carried.

Mr. Alexander was not in favor of kindergartens. To carry them to a legitimate end would incur an unlimited expenditure, as each ward would require a school.

Mr. Jeffery moved that a cottage be erected at the east side of the present school, at a cost of $2,000, the council to be requested to furnish funds.

Mr. Love moved that the lot to the south be purchased. More yard accommodation was required. Lost.

The clause recommending a two-roomed brick school on the Wortley road was struck out, as was also the one for South street.

Mr. Dewar moved that tenders be called for heating Maple avenue school, not to exceed $800; withdrawn. Tenders will be called for a drain for this school and storm doors will be provided.

A lot will be purchased on Quebec street, to cost not more than $1,000. The clause for the purchase of a lot on King street was struck out.

The committee rose and reported. The report was amended to the extent that a new school will be built on Colborne street.

Mr. Brady moved that the council be requested to convey to the board the lot on York street adjoining the Central school property. Carried.

The consideration of the estimates was postponed. The report of the special committee to meet the county council regarding model school was laid over. Principals will be notified of the Boyle Memorial Prize.

Mr. McElheran moved that No. 1 Committee furnish principals of schools with blanks on which to report regarding Roman Catholic pupils attending the schools.

Mr. Jeffery gave notice that he would move that a two-room addition be built to Talbot street school at the east end.

Mr. Alexander gave notice that he would move that the Boyle Memorial Prize be distributed among the ten pupils obtaining the highest number of marks at the entrance examination.

THE DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Dr. John Murray's Reply to the London St. Andrew's Society.

Dr. John Murray, F.R.S.E., Edinburgh, who has been on a visit to his relatives in this city, has left for Toronto, on his way to his Scottish home. Prior to his leaving, he was waited upon by President Robert Reid, of the St. Andrew's Society of this city, who presented him with a document couched in the following terms:

LONDON, June 13, 1892.

At a meeting of St. Andrew's Society, held at Somerset Hall, R. Reid, president, in the chair, the following resolution was passed unanimously: Moved by Mr. J. W. Jones, seconded by Mr. J. D. Clarke, resolved, that this society, having heard that Dr. John Murray, of Edinburgh, Scotland, F. R. S. E., is now on a visit to London to see his relatives and old friends, take the opportunity of doing themselves the honor of recording his name as an honorary member of this society, as an evidence of their appreciation of the eminence to which he has attained in the scientific world. As as an old London boy and native Canadian of direct Scottish descent, we recognize that the way of success is open to our own sons who will pursue the same path of honor, integrity and perseverance which has so eminently marked his career. JAMES MCSWEEN, secretary; R. REID, president.

Dr. Murray addressed the annexed reply to President Reid:

LONDON, Ont., June 16, 1892.

Dear Mr. Reid,—I am in receipt of your kind letter sending me a copy of the resolution appointing me an honorary member of the St. Andrew's Society. This unexpected honor gives me much pleasure. That my scientific work should be thus appreciated by those who knew me when a boy and that my career should be considered worthy of imitation is probably as great a reward as I could expect for my exertions. The value of the resolution to me is enhanced by the fact that it has been communicated to me by one who took much interest in my early education. I hope always to take an interest, and possibly a part, in the good work of the St. Andrew's Society. Yours very sincerely,

JOHN MURRAY.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Direct West India Trade.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Our friends in Port Stanley feel offended because the vessels are being built for the West India trade at Pensacola instead of at Port Stanley. The reason is that Port Stanley friends said that the crew would have to be changed for salt water, and would not pay, and why contributions were not received for the flag to be presented, is that it is the workingmen of London that are going to present it. About the deputation going to Pensacola, it will not go before September or after the Western Fair. Yours truly,

JOHN LAW.

London, June 17.

THOSE DRINKING FOUNTAINS

Will Be Up in a Few Days—Band Concerts on the Park—Improving the Fair Grounds.

There is a prospect that citizens will have those drinking fountains after all. Mayor Spencer moved last night at the Board of Works that the tender of Malloch & Co. be accepted for six drinking fountains at a total cost of $200. Carried. It is expected that the fountains will be in place in ten days. The localities chosen are: Corners Hamilton road and Adelaide streets, St. James and Richmond, Dundas and Rectory, Wortley road and Bruce street, Adelaide and Pall Mall, and at Clark's bridge.

The words "Victoria Park" in the band concert resolution were struck out, and the bands will play where the committee orders. A lengthy discussion on band concerts resulted in permission to the Seventh to play to-night on their own terms, and orders that the Cavalry Band play Tuesday evening next in Victoria Park and Friday evening in Queen's Park. The Seventh Band want $1 per member and $5 for the leader per night, and don't want to be limited to 25 men. A committee will interview Bandmaster Hiscott.

Residents of Lorne avenue, north side, between Adelaide and English streets, asked for a five-foot sidewalk. Granted. The engineer and ward members will deal with the St. James street sewer. The questions of sidewalks on Queen's avenue between Adelaide and Elizabeth streets, and of Mr. Holden's drain on Horton and Talbot streets were left with the engineer. Plans of the closet on Victoria Park will be handed to the council. A three-foot sidewalk will be laid on Marshall street. No new band stand will be erected this year on Victoria Park, the old one having been repaired. Two hundred feet of hose will be purchased for the Queen's Park caretaker. Tenders will be called for painting the City Hall woodwork and fixing the belfry. The Western Fair Board offered to furnish 25 loads of gravel if the city would spread it and improve the driveways. Offer accepted.

Maurice Baldwin claimed that the city engineer was tyrannizing over him in his street sweeping contract. The engineer denied this, and said Maurice did not obey orders. Hereafter Baldwin will sweep the main streets twice a week, and outlying streets once, to be done at night.

Accounts were passed, including $773 08 pay sheet. The city solicitor's letter re the refusal of the street railway company to pay for paving on Dundas street showed that the city were liable for the expenditure. There were present: Ald. Garratt (chairman pro tem). Bartlett, Shaw, Jones, O'Meara, Mayor Spencer, the city engineer and Secretary Bell.

CONFIDENCE AND CASH.

[From the Canada Farmers' Sun.]

Senator Sherman is credited with saying that one-third of the world's business is done with cash and two-thirds with confidence.

There is no need to look further than Wall street to find abundant proof of the wisdom of this statement. Strange as it may seem the daily business of the greatest of all money marts is done without the use of money. Checks only are used, and the scratch of the pen is a far more potent sound than the chink of gold.

The acceptance of this form of transfer in values and the relegation of currency from the counting-rooms of to-day are but the logical outgrowth of the development of modern finance. Money in large amounts is bulky, and its handling is attended with care and risk; checks and drafts or "paper" is safe, easily handled and insures unquestionable accuracy in accounts.

A check for $1,000,000 can be written in a moment, and many such are written every week in Wall street. The transfer of $1,000,000 in currency from one bank or office to another would entail more or less risk and a vast amount of labor, for that amount of money could not be counted in less than a business day by one man, as the bills of the national currency run.

The greatest wealth-producers in the world are farmers; and if they do not possess that share of cash to which they are justly entitled for their labor, it is mainly because they do not possess confidence in each other and band together and refuse to be made the dupes of others.

Bark-well's

Bark-well at the Bottom in Prices.

CAUTION!

Beware of fraudulent misrepresentations.

Beware of fraudulent imitations.

Beware of firms with whom manufacturers of repute positively will not deal.

Beware of firms who try to ruin legitimate business.

Beware of firms who sell trashy goods in any line. If they do it in one line they will do it in another. BEWARE of them, we say.

Beware of all men who misrepresent plain facts and publicly state that they lead in the bottom prices, when the very day's press in which they write proves a falsehood. Again, BEWARE.

Bark-well's stock is nothing if not pure, for it is purchased direct from the manufacturers.

No old shop-worn goods purchased from irresponsible parties in job lots will ever be found at Bark-well's.
