Weakest and Strongest.

Which is the weakest thing of all? Mine heart can ponder!
The sun, a little cloud can fall
With darkness yonder?
The cloud, a little wind can move
The sun, a little cloud can fall
With darkness yonder?
Though sure, resistible?
What time that yellow leaf was green,
My days were gladder;
Not now, whatever spring may mean,
I must grow sadder;
Ah, how a leaf with sighs can wring
My life asunder!
Yet, in mine heart the weakest thing
I find has power;
Yes, heart, when sun and cloud are glad
And at a blast which is not wind,
The forests wither,
The flowers wither,
To glory break—
The strength of the weakest!

The Boy and the Dream.

The boy's father died when he was ten years old. His mother had no one then but him. She read and studied and played games with him. They walked up and down the hills together and picked flowers and mosses. Often they had long talks.
"Little by little a terrible truth dawned upon the mother. She had never been strong, and since her husband's death she had grown weaker. She might die before the boy should grow up. Then he would come under evil influences. He might forget her teachings. He might become a very different man from what she wished him to be."
"Oh," she thought often, "if I could only speak some strong words which might sink so deep into his heart that he would never forget them!" She prayed much that these right words, at just the right time, might come to her, like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

One day they had been off on a delightful excursion and had come home in the early evening very tired. It was while they were resting in the little parlor, the mother in a great easy chair, and the boy on a hassock at her feet, with his head in her lap, that the words came to her which she had been hoping; and it was as she had wished—the boy never forgot them.

There had been a pause. Then the boy began: "Harold says he don't like it in the city. He says when it comes night he can't get to sleep any more—and she won't play chess or anything with him, and there isn't anything for him to do."
"That is rather hard," smiled his mother, "but there is always the dream."

"The dream?" repeated the boy, mystified.
"Yes, Haven't you a dream?"
"Why, yes," he answered, hesitatingly. "I dream a good many nights. Don't you know I told you yesterday about a dream I had about riding with my father?"

"Yes, that was a night dream. Night dreams are often beautiful, but they are generally rather wild and disjointed. I like day dreams better."
"Day dreams?"
"Yes. When I was a little girl I used to have beautiful day dreams—especially when there was nothing else to do and time hung heavily. Sometimes I dreamed that I stood at the head of my class. Sometimes that I became a great nurse and comforted many sick people. And always, that I had a home of my own, which I would arrange sometimes in one way and sometimes in another; and a husband who would love me as my father loved my mother—and always a dear little boy of my own. You see, some of my dream came true."

"The boy laughed. "I should travel through strange countries. That came true, too. But I often dreamed afterward that I should go again and take my little boy with me. In the dream it was very nice to see how pleased he was with the sunny birds and animals and the queerly-dressed children over there."
"The boy laughed again, this time half sadly. "But that part never came true," he said.

"No," she rejoined with a sigh, "and it probably never will come true now, for since your dear father died we have been too poor."
"But I can have that for part of my dream," he said eagerly.
"Yes, and if you have a dream like that to turn into a reality, you will work all the harder and better. Let us imagine a beautiful dream for you."

There was silence. The boy seemed intensely interested.
"I will dream that I shall be a great engineer—like Harold's father," he broke out at last. "I will lay out great railroads, and survey for cities and reservoirs—and be the best in the town—maybe in the state, maybe any where."
"You might as well try," laughed his mother. "But don't be discouraged if you have to work hard and if in the end are not as successful as you meant to be. Just do the best you can."

BUSINESS GIRLS LOSE STRENGTH.

They Risk Health Rather Than Lose Employment and Eventually Break Down.

Thousands of earnest, intelligent young women who earn their livelihood away from home in public offices, and large business establishments are silent suffering victims of overtaxed nerves and deficiency of strength. Weak, breathless and nervous they work against time, with never a rest when headaches and backaches make every hour like a day. Little wonder their cheeks lose the tint of health and grow pale and thin, and their eyes grow dim, and their hands tremble and their feet weary and heavy, and their sleep is broken and their appetite is lost, and their health is ruined, and they are forced to leave their positions and go home, and their families are left to suffer for their loss.

Business girls and women, because of their work and worry, look older than their years. What they seriously need is the frequent help of a true strengthening remedy to carry them through the day. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is the best of all. It is a true blood purifier and strengthener, and it is the best of all. It is a true blood purifier and strengthener, and it is the best of all. It is a true blood purifier and strengthener, and it is the best of all.

Miss Alexandrine Bedard, a stenographer residing at 36 Richelieu St., Quebec, says:—"For the past couple of years I felt my constitution being gradually undermined through constant indoor work, and the great tax on my nerves through the long tedious hours over a typewriter. But it was only some six months ago that I lost consciousness through extreme weakness. The real seriousness of my condition was then patently apparent, as I was confined to my room, lacking even the strength to walk about. I was attended by a doctor, but after being a month under his care showed no signs of improvement. It was at this stage that one of my relatives read of the cure of a young girl whose case bore a striking resemblance to my own, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began the use of these pills the next day, and I attribute my complete recovery entirely to them. I had not taken more than three boxes when I began to get better, and after taking the pills for about a month I felt as strong and was enjoying as good health as ever in my life."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Advertising Pays.

Publicity brings golden returns to advertisers. Every successful business man declares that it is impossible to build a large and prosperous business without publicity. Nothing will make business better than advertising, for it is the advance agent of prosperity. It is an agency that has no influence than all else on the prosperity of the commerce of the world. It is a business-builder and those who ignore its potency and do not utilize its tremendous influence must not expect to keep at or near the top of their special line of industry.—Boston Globe.

An Outrage.

The Nova Scotia Press Association will meet in Sydney on Sept. 16th. Many important matters will be discussed. We know of none more important than the outrage of postage on weekly newspapers going to the United States, while the daily papers go comparatively free. This Association has been playing with this thing long enough; now let them get off their coats and tell the post office authorities of Canada this outrage must cease. Do not play football with the question any more. Do not mince matters any longer.—Truro News.

THE "ACADIAN"

WOLFVILLE.

Annapolitan by Birth Descendant of Montcalm.

Dr. Payzant, of Wolfville, has many recollections in connection with the period of early French settlers in Nova Scotia that are especially interesting during this period of pageantry in Quebec. He himself can claim relationship with the Marquis de Montcalm, as he is a great grandson of Louis Payzant, whose mother, at least tradition affirms, was a sister of the French commander. Her husband a French Huguenot, was slain among other members of his household by Penall Indians, on their island home in Mahone Bay, and Mrs. Payzant, with her three boys and one little girl, were taken captives to Quebec. The unfortunate widow was treated with every kindness by her French custodians, and her sons were educated for the Jesuit priesthood. When Quebec became an English fortress, the Payzant family was released from custody and was granted a tract of land in Falmouth, N. S., to which they removed, Philip the oldest son left his home, as the Indians, who had slain his father, threatened the young man's life. All trace of him has been lost until the present year, when a member of the Payzant family found his namesake's marriage date, 1775, in a Record of Marriages in Boston. Louis the second son, remained and died in Falmouth. During his old age he lost all remembrance of the English tongue and reverted to the French, and in his mother-tongue he talked continually of early Canadian scenes and wars. The third son, Rev. John Payzant, was a noted "Old Light" pastor and was the founder of Congregationalism in Nova Scotia. His church was at Milton. Mrs. Don Juan, the elder daughter, was the wife of a French army officer, who removed with his family to North Carolina, and the youngest daughter, Lisette, born after the widow arrived in Quebec, became Mrs. Jesse, and settled at Scott's Bay, where here descendants now live. Dr. Payzant was born in Annapolis but became a resident of Wolfville in his early boyhood. He possesses many interesting chronicles of his own family and other early Nova Scotia settlers.—Monitor.

Womanly Troubles

Should Not Be Allowed to Undermine Health.
It is impossible to go into details on this subject but the experience of many a poor woman who is crippled for life, just because she didn't use a good remedy in time, should be a warning to others.
When the first stages of womanhood appear in a young girl, a great deal depends in getting her over this critical stage, so that in the years to come she will not develop green sickness or consumption.
When she complains of flushed face, headache, bearing down feelings, give her a course of Ferronize which will carry her past the crisis.
In the adult woman if any irregularities occur, Ferronize will be found a remedy of remarkable potency and power.
Ferronize is an ideal regulator and causes all organs of the body to perform their work properly.
It purifies the blood, tones up the nerves and vital energies. The stomach is strengthened, and digestive and assimilative processes are improved by the good work of Ferronize. It regulates the bowels, cures constipation and piles, and replaces disease and decay by health and strength.
There is nothing better for the complexion than Ferronize. It removes the dark circles from under the eyes, whitens the teeth and replaces eruptions, gives brightness and brilliancy to the eyes, a rosy tint to the cheeks, whitens the teeth and develops a well rounded, plump and handsome form.
Ferronize is the ladies' favorite, and should find a place in every household. It is prepared in the form of a chocolate coated tablet, convenient and pleasant to take. Price per box, 50c or three boxes for $1.25. Sold by all druggists.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 21, 1908.

Scottish Agriculturists.

Our province was visited this week by a party of gentlemen, numbering twenty-five, thoroughly representative of every district in Scotland. The Scottish Agricultural Commission to Canada, as the party is known, is composed of practical farmers and others interested in agricultural education and development, and their purpose is to follow throughout Canada the course of observation and enquiry which the similarly constituted commission followed in Denmark in 1902 and in Ireland in 1906, and who intend to publish a report, as was done in both these cases.

The main subjects of study are Land Settlement, the Constitution and Operations of the Ministry of Agriculture, Agricultural Education and Research, Experimental Farms, Live Stock, Mixed Farming, Wheat Farming, Dairying, Raising, Fruit and Vegetable Farming, Agricultural Co-operation, Trains, Cold Storage and Markets, etc.

The members of the Commission are drawn from all regions of Scotland, and the gentleman who was selected by the members to be their chairman is Dr. G. C. Martin, an able and experienced Editor-in-Chief of the Dundee Advertiser, the principal Scottish newspaper in Liberal politics, and an important organ of agricultural affairs. Dr. Martin, who is perhaps the most outstanding figure of the party, visited Canada five years ago, but this was his first visit to the maritime provinces. The party arrived at Rimouski on Thursday of last week from Liverpool, and left at once in two special pullman hotel cars for the maritime provinces, thereby starting a tour of Canada from ocean to ocean. After visiting P. E. I. and Eastern Nova Scotia, and spending Sunday at Halifax, they arrived on Monday morning at Grand Pre, where the whole of the party disembarked, while the rest of them went on to Kentville and Canning. Those who left the train at Grand Pre were met by Mayor Black and Mr. D. R. Munro with their automobiles and Mr. J. B. Oakes and others with teams, who drove them through Grand Pre and Gasperau to Wolfville. Several of the fine orchards were visited and the visitors expressed themselves as delighted with the general appearance of the country and with the thrift and property everywhere apparent. After luncheon at the Acadia Seminary Hotel the party left for Cornwallis accompanied by citizens, and visited points of interest, joining their fellow excursionists at Kentville, in further exploration of our province and Dominion.

Death's Doings.

The death occurred on Sunday evening last of Mrs. Eliza Haycock, the mother of Prof. Haycock, with whom she had been visiting at his home on Summer street. Mrs. Haycock was before her marriage Miss Peters, daughter of Capt. John Peters, of Westport, Digby county. Her husband, Capt. Maurice Haycock, died about five years ago. There are three children, Prof. Haycock, of Wolfville; Mrs. Milton Halbes, of Freeport; and Mrs. P. Olson, of Westport. Mrs. W. T. Ford, of this town, is a niece. Mrs. Haycock was through the whole of her useful life of 76 years a lady of estimable character and intelligence far beyond the average—an intelligence that in her declining years seemed to grow brighter and brighter. She was a woman of large information that made her company desirable in any circle. A consistent member of the Westport Baptist church and a useful factor in all its labors and undertakings, her place will not be easily filled. The remains were taken to Westport for interment on Tuesday.

The death of Miss Theresa Farrell, one of the most esteemed young ladies of Kentville, took place on Saturday last. For some years she was a valuable teacher of Kings County Academy and was considered one of the most efficient instructors in the province. She was obliged to resign the vice-principality about two years ago on account of ill-health. Miss Farrell was a native of Wolfville, a daughter of the late Henry D. Farrell. She possessed all the qualities of a true Christian lady, and her bright sunny disposition endeared her to young and old alike. A zealous and active member of St. Joseph's Parish, her death is a decided loss to that congregation.

Since the last fire in Wolfville it is rumored that there is not one extension ladder belonging to the Fire Department that will reach from the ground to the eaves of the school house or from the ground to the eaves of any of the larger buildings. Will the captain kindly look into this matter and if true bring it to the attention of the proper authorities. Some one has said that the captain and members of the Fire Company would make a public demonstration of the force and volume of water and of the condition of the hydrants very soon. I am sure as act of this kind would be highly appreciated by the citizens. Shall we hear or see anything more about those public fire alarms that can be found at any time, that you kindly mentioned in your last paper. G. T. GIBSON.

Misses Nellie and Leola McFar and Alfred McFar, of Lower Wolfville, returning from their excursion last week. Their destination was Wilmot.

The Saskatchewan Contest.

Incomplete returns from Saskatchewan indicated the return of the Scott Government by a very small majority. Mr. Haultain's achievement, under all the circumstances, is nothing short of remarkable. By a gross abuse of constitutional practice the Legislature was prematurely dissolved. Only three weeks was afforded to the Opposition in which to fight its battle. The Provincial Rights party had neither organization nor resources. It went to the polls empty-handed, and against a Provincial Government supported by the whole machinery of the Federal Liberal party, almost achieved a victory. It is at least clear that with the strong hand of the Federal power removed Mr. Scott would have been decisively beaten, and that the free voice of Saskatchewan would declare unequivocally against the Provincial Administration at Regina as well as against the Federal Administration at Ottawa. As a means of inspiring Liberals throughout the country with a conviction of the overwhelming strength of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Western Provinces, the Saskatchewan contest is a conspicuous failure. The result there, taken in connection with the Provincial contests in New Brunswick, in Ontario and in Quebec, seems to show that the Laurier Government will not survive an appeal to the country.—The News, 6 Aug. 1911.

What Becomes of the Money.

THE SUB-TARGET DEAL.
The sub-Target Company, (composed of H. H. Wickwire, M. P. F., Charles A. Panet, private secretary to the Minister of Militia, E. H. Dewar, lately Government candidate in South Toronto, and several other politicians and officials,) made a contract with the Government to supply 450 sub-target machines, with an intimation from the Minister that 550 more would be required. The price paid by the Government for these machines was $250 each. The contracting Company had no plant and farmed out the contract to a firm at Sherbrooke at $64 each. It was claimed by the Company that the patent right for Canada cost $50,000. This contract works out as follows:
Company got ..... $112,500
Company paid ..... 28,500
Profit ..... 84,000
Less price of patent right ..... 50,000
Balance ..... $34,000
That is to say, on the first 450 the Company got back the whole cost of the patent and $33,700 to the good. Since the transaction was exposed no further orders have been given, but on the other 550 of the 1,000 mentioned the Company stood to make as follows:
Company would get ..... $137,500
Company would pay ..... 35,200
Take-off ..... $102,300
Plus take-off on the first 450 ..... 33,700
Total take-off ..... $136,000
Plus the patents rights and the profits from sales to provincial governments. The Company is capitalized at $545,000 paid up, but all that the fortunate stock holders put in was $4,500 in cash and notes. Wickwire swore that he gave for his $25,000 stock a note for $5,000, but he was never asked to pay the note. H. H. Dewar, one of the party leaders in Toronto, was solicitor of the Company, transacted much of the business with the Government, and at the time of the Parliamentary enquiry held $50,000 stock, half of which he got for $500. (Public Accounts Committee Report, 1907, page 391.)

Cricket.

A very interesting game of cricket was played on the campus last Saturday afternoon between two teams captained by Messrs. Robinson and Herbin. The bowling by Messrs. Arnold and Robinson was especially strong, while Mr. Herbin distinguished himself at the bat. Nearly all the young players—B. Eagles, H. Robinson, C. Webster, W. Hamilton, P. Bill, W. Chase, H. B. Young, and E. B. Young—came to the fore in this game. The fielding, bowling and batting of Eagles was admirable. Webster proved himself a clever bowler. The rest displayed a natural aptitude for the game that was really surprising considering their limited opportunities for practice. Another game will be played next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited. Following is the score of last Saturday's game:

MR. ROBINSON'S TEAM—1ST INNINGS

RATHER THAN RUN RIDE A BICYCLE

The United States Government recognizes the Bicycle as the medium of quick delivery service for it is pictured on the regular special delivery stamps issued by the Post Office Department.

Other Business Men Should Take the Hint and use a Bicycle.

Taken all in all what other possession costing so little money is able to give such returns in health and economy as the Bicycle. It is not a matter of argument at all. Every rider of a decade ago knows he felt better, slept better and actually was better physically when he used the wheel daily.

Those who have taken up the wheel again, and those who have never stopped riding, or those who wish to get right with nature, ride a Bicycle and ride a good one. The place to get them is at Local Happenings.

Rev. Dr. G. E. Day is expected to preach in the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

It is expected that the Sabbath-school of St. Andrew's church will hold its picnic at Starr's Point this afternoon.

College girls can obtain board and lodging for the coming school year at Miss Gourley's, Linden avenue. Early applications desired.

The property of Mr. H. A. Pitt, Main street, has been greatly improved. The grounds have been neatly laid out, and the front terraced and beautified. The result is most pleasing.

The annual meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Temperance Hall, on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 27th, at 3.30. Officers and stewards of the department will please bring their reports of the year's work. A full meeting is requested.

At a meeting of the School Board on Wednesday evening Miss Rosemond Archibald, B. A., was appointed teacher of the preparatory department of the Wolfville school. Miss Archibald is an exceedingly clever young lady, and will be a valuable addition to the teaching staff of the school.

It is only duty and justice to encourage your home papers. Extend to them the encouragement to which they are entitled. Pay your subscription promptly, and send a few extra copies to your relations and friends at a distance. They will appreciate the favor, and so will we.—Picton Advocate.

Mr. H. G. Collins of Wolfville, was in town on Monday with a handsome gelding, Willis Mack, which he had just purchased from Millidge Armstrong of Bear River, who bred him. This animal is a pacer, five years old, handsome, a lively stepper and is sired by Sir William.—Middleton Outlook.

A very sad accident occurred at Berwick on Wednesday afternoon, when Lawrence, the twelve-year-old son of the late Harry W. Davison, received such injury while watching the machinery in the Berwick saw-mill, as to result in his death a few hours later. His mother has the sympathy of many friends in Wolfville, their old home.

The entries for the Bread and Biscuit exhibit at the Kentville Fair close on September 26th. If you have not done so, write F. C. Rand, Kentville, for an entry form. No one knows who will get the prize and it may be you. Perhaps you will get both first prizes, a total of $30.00. It is easy to make prize bread and biscuit with ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR.

Miss Burmeister is closing her rooms in McKenna Block, having accepted a position on the teaching staff of the Randolph-Macon Institute at Danville, Virginia, at which institution she formerly taught for some years. She leaves next week. The many friends whom she has made since her residence in Wolfville will regret her departure from our town.

The spire and tower of the Baptist church are being painted and repaired. This spire is said to be 120 feet in height and naturally there was considerable difficulty in getting some person to ascend it to make necessary repairs in the weather-vane. Mr. Ernest Porter, however, was found equal to the emergency, and successfully carried out an undertaking in which few would like to engage.

"Black Prince" hose at all the leading Dry Goods Stores. The numerous friends of Rev. Dr. Trotter, the late president of Acadia, will be grieved to learn that he is again laid aside from active service by a general nervous exhaustion, of which sciatica, his old trouble, is the symptom. His physicians attribute the break down to overwork, but think that a season of rest, sufficiently long, will bring him all right again. At latest accounts he had gone to an island in Georgian Bay, where the air is cool and bracing.

The meeting of St. George's Lodge, A. F. & M., on Tuesday of this week was of more than ordinary interest. It was the occasion of the official visitation of Charles Reynolds Smith, K. C., the M. W. the Grand Master Mason of Nova Scotia. After his formal reception addresses on the universality of masonry and kindred themes were the order of the evening.

Following the M. W. the Grand Master was R. W. Ingram, H. Oakes, D. G. M. of District No. 2; C. M. McCallan, of Bermuda; Milton L. Reeves, of Brooklyu, N. Y.; James A. Mours, of Montevideo, Alabama; George S. Wright of Halifax, N. S.; also Dr. G. E. Dewitt, Rev. David Wright and Mayor Marshall Black, of Wolfville. Rev. Earl Burgess' gramophone added much to the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served at the close.

A number of Scotch Agriculturalists, who came to Kentville on Monday, were driven to Canning by Messrs. A. M. Beckwith, Dr. Covert, and A. S. Burgess in teams and given a drive around the country.

L. W. SLEEP HARDWARE AND PAINTS.

Odds and Ends.

We would beg to call attention in this column to the fact that there is right in the centre of the populous centre of this town a sick Christian woman ill unto death with an incurable disease. A woman with a large, young family. The husband is a poor man, so called, a man who labors and earns all his wages by diligent, faithful service. It is true that he is paid a beggarly wage, but it is all he can get, but he deserves more. Now, this Christian, faithful, patient wife, who has been gradually sinking for months, has not been visited by a single clergyman. Not one of these singularly self-contained, well fed and well groomed official Christians, of any denomination, has crossed the threshold of that home, nor has volunteered one word of comfort or sympathy. It is a disgrace to the church and modern Christianity.

A company of fine looking gentlemen from Europe have been visiting here for a day. "Scotch Farmers", so we are pleasantly told by the daily press. It has not been very intelligently explained what the objects of their visit are, but it is a duty and delicate subject but was well handled.

A gentleman, who was a silent listener, has given quite a comprehensive resume of the proceedings in and about Acadia University and Seminary during the hour these "Scotch Farmers" were being entertained and talked to by the intelligence of this classic locality. Mayor Black expatiated upon the Science of Electricity and how automobile laws could be promoted by the government of Nova Scotia. It is a dainty and delicate subject but was well handled.

Our good friend Mr. Robert Starr has explained the science of keeping the canker worm at bay, and the double tracking of the I. C. R., all of which was very interesting to these growers of turnips and Scotch whisky.

Mr. Fred Porter was in hand and very energetically explained how grapes may be grown under glass and of various other subjects upon which he is said to be well qualified to speak.

We were particularly pleased to learn that various members of our city council were present, and were able to greatly enlighten these farmers (?) from old Scotland.

They were able to give expert information on road building, and the kinds of rock to be found in this country. How to shrewdly and economically secure an electric lighting plant, and establish beyond question, the virtues of government ownership, as illustrated by the exploits of Wolfville.

Mr. David Poor was there, and lucidly and interestingly explained "The Western Union Telegraph System." He informed these alleged farmers that the "Western Union" was incorporated, that it had 23,000 offices in America, and had cable service to all parts of the world, and that Robert C. Clowry is president and general manager.

Our informant could not gather just what the chairman of the School Board remarked upon, but understood it was concerning play grounds, principal's salary increase, and graft. At this stage, two or three Scotchmen, who had never been shaved, appeared greatly interested. If the St. John daily newspapers are to be credited, it would appear that these farmers reached St. John within a couple of hours after departing from Wolfville. The mode of locomotion is not apparent, neither do we care a brass cent.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Dr. R. C. Archibald arrived in town on Wednesday afternoon, to arrange for the removal of his books, etc., having accepted an appointment at Brown University. He expects to remain in Wolfville for a week or so.

Mrs. Marston, lately in town at Acadia Seminary, left on Thursday to visit in Truro, Amherst and Halifax. She has accepted the position of matron at the Halifax School for the Blind. She will be missed by many Wolfville friends.

Mr. William Aikens, of Omaha, Neb., has been in town this week, on a visit to his uncle, Mr. R. C. Johnson and other friends. Mr. Aikens left Wolfville twenty-two years ago, and naturally finds many changes in our town and its people. He now has an excellent position with the Cudabay Packing Co., one of the largest packing houses in the United States.

Beaver Flour

is both a Manitoba and an Ontario wheat flour.

Just as much Ontario and Manitoba wheat are used in blending Beaver Flour, so that each will supply what the other lacks.

That is why Beaver Flour makes whiter, lighter, more wholesome bread than Manitoba flour—and makes lighter, tastier cakes, pies and pastry than any "pastry" flour.

No matter what other flour you are using now, try Beaver Flour. The first sack will prove its superiority. At your grocer's.

Is It True?

Is the report true that Wolfville boys are making a business of killing birds for sale? We hope not. Laws that forbid the carrying of firearms for the sake of human lives should forbid also the use of catapults or any other instruments for the destruction of birds, that not only delight us by their presence and their songs but also contribute to the protection of our gardens, orchards and forests. Every case of the violation of the law that provides for the protection of birds should be severely punished. If parents and school-teachers properly instruct our youth in regard to this matter, there will be few cases of wrong doing.

It is notable that Rev. Dr. Prigle, the Presbyterian minister whose reputation was so bitterly and falsely assailed by the agents of the Ottawa government in the Yukon, receives no sympathy from even the higher grade of Liberal papers. If Emerson, Sir Fred Borden, Hyman, Preston or any of the leaders of the party are assailed the organs spring at once to their assistance. But it is different with a minister who fights against the prevailing evils. The reputation of such a man does not count.

TAYLOR-SMITH.—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Aug. 19th, by Rev. R. W. Weddall, Harry Taylor, of Brookton, Mass., formerly of England, and Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of Lockhartville, N. S.

Gluten is really the nutriment in wheat. It is a heavy, tough substance much resembling raw dough. The trouble with Manitoba flour is, that it contains too much gluten. Bread made with it is apt to be gray and heavy, and pastry is sure to be.

is both a Manitoba and an Ontario wheat flour.

Just as much Ontario and Manitoba wheat are used in blending Beaver Flour, so that each will supply what the other lacks.
