Rather Than Sit on Board With Medical Officer Estey, Alderman J. G. Hester Resigns From Health Board; Violators of City Health Laws Are To Be Punished

RESULT BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING.

Alderman J. G. Hester resigns from the Health Board today. Medical Officer Estey and Sanitary Inspector Fox still hold positions, though recommended for dismissal. Board urges council to ask Alberta government to establish bacteriological laboratory in Calgary at earliest opportunity.

Dr. Estey, and his assistant, Sanitary Inspector Fox, for the prevalence of typhoid fever in the city. DR. ESTEY ATTACKS PRESS. The major portion of Dr. Estey's remarks consisted of a vicious attack on the press of Calgary for exposure of the fact that hospitals in the city are crowded with typhoid cases when the medical officer's records showed only eight cases for the month of July.

ALDERMAN J. G. HESTER YESTERDAY RESIGNED AS A MEMBER OF THE CALGARY BOARD OF HEALTH, DECLINING TO PARTICIPATE IN A DISCUSSION OF LAXITY OF THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT IN FIGHTING TYPHOID FEVER ON THE GROUND THAT HE ALREADY HAD VOTED TO APPROVE THE REPORT OF THE INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE RECOMMENDING THE DISMISSAL OF MEDICAL OFFICER A. S. ESTEY AND SANITARY INSPECTOR R. W. FOX.

It is "ridiculous," said Alderman Hester, "that after I voted for the discharge of these officials, that I am asked to sit on another board responsible for what they do." Following the acceptance of Alderman Hester's resignation, the board proceeded to hear the "explanation" of

WILLIAM ARCHER—Toronto suburban lad who has vanished from his home, and is said to have expressed his intention of visiting every city in the Dominion before coming back to Toronto. His parents are much alarmed at his absence. He is fourteen years of age, has fair curly hair and blue eyes. He wore a grey striped suit and light trousers.

WHAT THE GREAT WEST DID YESTERDAY

In Calgary: The Elizabeth Farms company, Tilley, Alta., east of here, are now cutting barley and wheat. They will start oats and flax next week. Everything will be in stock by August 20, three weeks earlier than usual. Oats will yield 115 bushels to the acre, winter wheat, fifty bushels, spring wheat, forty-five bushels, flax, twenty-five bushels. Calgary bank clearings for the fiscal week were $8,100,000, a gain of $1,200,000 over the corresponding week last year.

EXECUTIVE MEETING OF THE PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE

Will Launch Program and Formulate Constitution and Lay Out Year's Work. Preparation for the launching of a platform for the year, the executive of the Citizens Progressive League will meet at 8 o'clock in the offices of Mr. George Connolly, 211 Bruner

ESTEY LETS COUNCIL ALONE

"Why don't you say something about the council," asked the press representative blandly. You have said a whole lot about the press, now you'd better get after the councilmen." "This is a meeting of the board of health," replied Dr. Estey haughtily, "and not to consider the report of the investigating committee. That report was made through spite, and there was politics mixed in it."

WILL BUILD FIFTY-FOUR SETS OF READY MADE

Calgary Firm Has Contract to Put Half Century C. P. R. Farms in Order. Calls for the Expenditure of $115,000; 150 Men Will be Employed. Another proof of the enterprise of Calgary firms was furnished yesterday when the contracting concern of Hayden & Skene, Calgary, were awarded the job of constructing fifty-four sets of "ready made" farm houses for the Canadian Pacific railway. The contract is for $115,000, and will require the services of 150 men to complete.

MRS. W. C. FISHER FALLS FROM CAR; IS INJURED

Rendered Unconscious and Taken to Her Home in an Ambulance. Mrs. W. C. Fisher, living at 304 Twelfth avenue west, was injured yesterday evening by falling from a street car at First street west and Twelfth avenue. She was rendered unconscious by the impact with the street, and was taken to the Calgary Drug company store, from whence she was removed to her home in an ambulance. Dr. A. J. Danks was called and rendered medical attention. Reports from the residence last night said that the nature of the injuries were not serious, and that the patient was rapidly recovering.

HEAVY FIRE TRUCK SKIDS, INJURING ONE MAN

Vancouver, Aug. 8.—Fireman Angus McLeod was injured at noon today when Vancouver's new fifteen thousand dollar aerial truck skidded on a wet up town pavement and struck the curb. An electric light standard was smashed into a thousand pieces. A number of bystanders escaped injury by a miracle.

PERFORMING MIRACLES

Quebec, Aug. 8.—According to information from St. Anne de Beaupre, another miracle is said to have taken place yesterday. A crippled boy named Paul Savard, eight years of age, who came from Cumming's Bridge, is alleged to have been healed and to have left his crutches at the shrine.

PANAMA CANAL BILL IS CONSIDERED BY THE UNITED STATES SENATORS

Extent to Which Canadian Pacific May Control Panama Traffic Occasions Debate

Wide Difference of Opinion in Regard to Restriction of Foreign-Owned Ships. Bill is Practically Finished Except Railroad Ship Section. Vote Will be Taken Friday; Reduction of Suez Rates Will Hurt Panama.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The extent to which the Canadian Pacific railway might control traffic through the Panama canal gave the senate occasion for much debate when the anti-railroad section of the canal bill was reached late today. Little objection developed to the proposed plan to prohibit any railroad-owned ships from engaging in American coastwise trade through the canal. The plan adopted by the senate committee, however, to attempt to restrict the operation of foreign-owned railroads ships, proved the subject of wide difference of opinion.

HUNDREDS OF MINERS HURLED TO DEATH BY EXPLOSION

Scenes of Carnage Follow the Terrific Force of Black Damp. Believed the Blast Penetrated Chamber or Pocket Containing Accumulation of Gas. Rochum, Germany, Aug. 8.—An explosion of black damp and coal dust this morning in the Lorraine shaft, the coal field in the village of Gerthe, four miles from Rochum, cost the lives of 103 miners, according to the official report. Two others were severely, and 23 slightly injured. Death was practically instantaneous in all cases. The cause of the explosion has not yet been definitely ascertained, but it is thought that a blast reached a big pocket of gas.

THIRTY-FIVE NEW CASES OF FEVER AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—Since yesterday thirty-five new cases of typhoid fever have been reported at the city hall, but this is still a decrease in the rate at which the outbreak was previously advancing. There are now 878 cases on the official list. Dr. Hollingsworth said today that the tests of the water still showed it free from contamination. The city hall is making arrangements today to place serum for inoculation against typhoid fever on sale at cost price at a number of drug stores. Three more nurses have been secured from Hamilton. There have been fifteen deaths from typhoid fever up to today.

TWELVE HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR AUTO SPEEDING

Vancouver, Aug. 8.—Point Grey municipality, which adjains Vancouver to the south, is setting a record for fines against automobile speeders. Three owners of cars were today assessed two hundred dollars each for traveling fifty miles an hour over a smooth country road. Several hundred dollars fines were imposed at a court session, which cost the auto people more than twelve hundred dollars in all.

Crop Conditions for the Past Two Weeks 100 Per Cent; Splendid Crop is Practically Assured in the South, Where Harvest is Fairly Under Way

Lethbridge, Aug. 8.—Martin Adams, residing near this city, is the first farmer of this district to thresh. His winter wheat went through the machine yesterday and the day before, and the yield was about 30 bushels to the acre. The last few hot days have done wonders in ripening crops all over the south and wheat cutting is general. Ten more days will see most of it in shock and some threshed. Crop conditions have been 100 per cent, during the last two weeks, and farmers who had despaired of getting more than half a crop will probably harvest the best yield of their lives. A week ago crops in southern Alberta were reported 70 per cent. Absence of frost and plenty of sunshine for the next month will make it 80 per cent, or over. The harvest help problem is becoming serious although the greatest demand will come when threshing crews are made up.

TWO ENGINEMEN AND PASSENGER KILLED; SPECTATOR DROPS DEAD; 40 INJURED

Train Travelling at Rate of 45 Miles an Hour is Derailed. Wm. J. Terrell, Frank Campbell, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, M. Daly Are Dead. Locomotive is Half Buried in the Marsh Land; Two Cars Stay On Rails. Engineer and Fireman Buried in Debris of Engine; Woman Scalded to Death.

BETTER REPRESENTATION OF OVERSEAS DOMINIONS

Premier Borden Will Look Into the Matter Before Sailing for Home From England. In View of Increase of Colonial Cases Judicial Committee May be Reconstituted. Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 8.—Apropos of the proposal that has been made for a reconstitution of the judicial committee of the privy council to permit of the better representation of the overseas dominions, it is considered here as quite probable that that is one of the matters that will be looked into by the prime minister before he leaves London. This was among the subjects discussed at the last imperial conference. Australia and New Zealand suggest a new imperial court of appeal, while Canada and South Africa expressed themselves as satisfied with the present system.

SEALD DOORS OF SYSTEM WILL BE OPENED WIDE

Becker's Only Chance to Escape Execution is to Tell All He Knows. Counsel for Becker is Said to be Negotiating With the District Attorney. New York, Aug. 8.—The latest phase in the Rosenthal murder case is the possibility that the sealed doors of the so-called "system" might be opened wide. Tonight it became known that counsel for Lieutenant Becker, who is charged with instigating the murder of Rosenthal, had visited the district attorney to lay and discuss with him the question of leniency for his client. Not long after Becker was arrested the district attorney made it known that the police lieutenant's only chance to escape efforts to convict him of murder in the first degree depended upon his willingness to tell all he knew about gambling. It was reported that after visiting his client and weighing all the evidence thus far pointing against him, the lawyer in his discussion with the district attorney made some tentative suggestions of great interest.

GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL MAKES VALID TWO CALGARY DEBENTURE ISSUES FOR $750,000

THE council last night put the finishing touch on the consolidation of two issues of debentures amounting to approximately $750,000, which were sold to a New York buyer through the Bank of Montreal, and the firm of Stimson & Company. Following the validating of the issues in Edmonton by the act of the lieutenant-governor in council, the wording of the bylaws was changed so that the debenture coupons will be made payable either in Toronto or New York to suit the purchaser. The city is held up for the money but it probably will require several weeks of further communications before the funds are available. The local improvement bylaw providing for a large number of water extensions, mostly short ends, in various sections of the city, entailing a cost of $378,000, was read the first and second times. It was expected that the bylaws providing for the new water rates, and the re-organization of the water department into two divisions—construction and operation—which were up for third reading would be passed but the action was postponed to the next regular meeting. A local improvement bylaw providing for grading streets in Cee Pee Ar was given its third reading. W. G. Carpenter handed in his resignation as a member of the public library board. Dr. A. M. Scott, superintendent of schools was appointed in his place. Alderman Minchin gave notice last night that he would introduce a resolution at the next meeting of the council to repeal bylaw 480, substituting therefor the former bylaw, placing supervision of boxing under the chief of police.

THE HAYTIAN PALACE IS BLOWN UP; LECONTE, PRESIDENT BLACK REPUBLIC, DIES

President's Family Awakened By the Shock Manage to Escape. Many Palace Attendants Killed; Casualty List Will Reach Four Hundred. Fire Reaches Basement, Where Ammunition is Stored; Second Explosion Follows. General Auguste, Senator and Ex-Minister of Public Works, is New Executive. PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug. 8.—The Haytian palace was blown up by the explosion of a shell which was fired from the ground today and the president of the republic, General G. Leconte, perished. The members of the family, who were awakened by the terrific shock, found themselves almost surrounded by flames, but managed to make their way to safety. The first explosion was followed by others when the fire reached the cellars of the palace, where a great quantity of ammunition was stored. So great was the force of the explosion that a number of small cannon, fragments of iron and shells were thrown for great distances in all directions. Many of the palace attendants were killed, and it is estimated that the casualty list will reach four hundred persons killed or injured. For a time a great panic prevailed, and the military authorities immediately took charge of the situation. The explosion occurred shortly after three o'clock in the morning, and within an hour, when the fire, which was confined to the palace, was extinguished, the structure was a mass of ruins from which it will be impossible to recover the body of the president. At a joint meeting of the chamber and senate this afternoon, General Tancredi Auguste, senator and ex-minister of public works, was named as president.

AGRICULTURE NEGLECTED IN THE REPUBLIC

Experts Say That Within Twenty Years Food Stuffs Will be Imported. And By That Time Western Canada Will be the Bread Basket of the World. Chicago, Aug. 8.—That America is facing a famine unless agricultural conditions are vastly improved, was the general opinion of the speakers at the annual meeting of the national soil fertility league today. "Statistics show that the agriculture in the United States has been so neglected that within twenty years we will be forced to import our products from foreign lands. We are facing an inevitable famine unless the soil is greatly improved," said H. M. Cross, president of the organization. Other speakers urged the adoption of agricultural extension departments to the political colleges of agriculture maintained by the government and various states.

NEWSPAPERS CANNOT BE RUN AS SUBSIDIZED ORGANS

Success Cannot Be Attained Except When Paper is Independent

Editorial Policy of Most Newspapers is Independent and Free From Political Influence

Madison, Wis., August 8.—"How is news service affected by the constantly increasing cost of the news paper plant; the increasing proportion of total newspaper revenue derived from the advertisers, and the non-journalistic interests of the capitalist owner?" was answered in a paper prepared by Don. C. Seitz, of the New York World before the national newspaper conference.

"The first question I am asked is: How is news service affected by the constantly increasing cost of the newspaper plant? To begin with," said Mr. Seitz, "this is a false premise. The cost of the newspaper plant is not constantly increasing except as the news value of a publication makes it necessary to expand. Newspaper machinery, while expensive primarily, is enduringly only relatively. When measured by efficiency, while costly in the initiative, they are extremely economical from a standpoint of production. Otherwise, how would it be possible to produce the grams, and the various bureaus. The such as dominate the field in New York and Chicago? The cheap newspaper is only cheap because its mechanical coordination is economical.

Birth of Newspaper Costly "There is no cheap and easy way left, of course, to start a great daily, but this is only because the field is so thoroughly well guarded by its present possessors.

"It is the cost of the news service and not the cost of the plant that makes starting a newspaper difficult. Three-fifths of the cost of operating a modern daily are what might be called overhead charges. I mean by that news service, editorial writers, pictures, cables, and other various bureaus. The mechanical side only represents two-fifths of the remainder.

"The second query: How is the service affected by the increasing proportion of total newspaper revenue derived from the advertisers? Only the same as is only affected by the extent to which the various revenue enable it to spend more money for news and better editorial service. Only the same as is only affected by the extent to which the various revenue enable it to spend more money for news and better editorial service.

Margin of Profit Small "The margin of profit on a 1 cent newspaper is, of course, slightly over cost of white paper. The does not also, however, to the Sunday paper, which is an important adjunct of all large dailies, and where the circulation profit remains an extremely important factor. But the advertising it must be remembered, comes only with the news paper's success as a newspaper.

"The theory that timber lars in the guise of advertising solicitors and circulation fakers go out and impose upon the business public and thus secure the advertising which appears daily is another delusion.

"Advertising is about the closest kind of a business proposition. The large department stores spend their money in exact percentages laid against the value of their wares, usually about 7-12 per cent. of their gross business.

Editorial Policy Independent "Perhaps the framer of the question had in mind the thought that the increasing advertising in some way moids the opinions, news service or editorial energy of the paper.

"This is another foolish thought. If there is merit in proportion, and I think there is, the more business a newspaper gets, the stronger it becomes; more powerful and more independent. It is giving value received to the advertiser, and does not trundle to him or dispose itself to secure his business. In short, it commands and does not obey.

"If the theorists would think logically for a few minutes they would see the correctness of this proposition. The strong newspaper acquires its power on a basis of public confidence. The advertiser finds a constituency which has faith in its newspaper much more productive of business results than a subsidized sheet could possibly find.

"Not only do advertisers not run the policy of newspapers, but they seldom or never try.

Personal Requests Ignored "It is some five years since I have had an advertiser ask me to do anything even in his personal interest, unless perhaps to print a wedding notice, or the mention of some social affair, and in this I rather think the editors treated him more shabbily than if it had been some one else.

"Good editors are not interfered with on great newspapers. If they were there would be neither good editors nor great newspapers.

"The third question asked: 'How is news service affected by the non-journalistic interests of the capitalist owner?'

"This is one of the shibboleths that come piping regularly out of Wisconsin. In my wide range of newspaper acquaintance I do not know any capitalist owners, nor do I know any successful newspapers that are not owned by themselves.

"It is not possible for a newspaper to be successful run in a private interest. The newspaper is a public concern, and when it ceases to serve the public, it ceases to be a successful newspaper. A good many men have tried to start newspapers or have bought newspapers with the idea that they could in some way manipulate them to a private interest. The result has always been disastrous.

Must Be Independent to Succeed "This fry about capitalist ownership interests me mildly, because I would like to know what it is based upon. Who are the capitalists? Where are their interests? Who are their interests? Who are the editors whose minds are perverted? What reporters are compelled to write against their will? It would be interesting to have a list made for further analysis.

HEADS IN THE SAND

The homely maxim, illustrated by reference to the habit of the timid ostrich, that an object which has no offense does not cease to exist because we bury our heads so deep in the sand that we cannot see it, is apparently beyond the comprehension of the Tory intellect.

Obstinately blind to the unmistakable significance of the result of the recent election in the province of Saskatchewan, The Toronto Mail and Empire, once more summons its readers to a wake for the "corpse" of the reciprocity issue, whose decayed remains in the neighboring province so recently disturbed the peace of those who gathered to celebrate its obsequies.

In common with all who profess the political faith of the trade restrictionist, The Mail and Empire may be excused for desiring the death of the policy of larger markets which received in the last federal election the support of almost half the total number of voters in the Dominion. The unquestioning submission of the Western farmer to the demand that he shall sacrifice his best interests to serve the ends of the Eastern manufacturer might well give cause for rejoicing to the Toronto organ of the manufacturers. No one will quarrel with that journal for anxiously watching the trade issue in the hope that the blow which it received in September might prove fatal.

The vigorous kick inflicted upon the Saskatchewan Tories and their friends from the East, by the "lead horse" on which Premier Scott rode to victory cannot surely have failed to make an impression on The Mail. A majority of the protectionist journals were at the time quite frank in their admission that the verdict of the people of Saskatchewan afforded incontrovertible evidence that the supposedly dead issue was enjoying remarkably good health in this Western climate.

It will, however, be a disgrace if Western Canada is left without the representation to which it is entitled by increase of population for any very long time after the redistribution bill is passed, or that the bill should be long delayed.

In commenting on this phase of the question, the Regina Leader says: Admittedly, redistribution is work which cannot be accomplished in a day. Reasonable time must be allowed the government in carrying it out. But there can be nothing more than reasonable lapse of time for the completion of redistribution and for the election which must follow.

There can be little doubt that, in pursuing such a course, the individual members of the court, intelligent men, are frequently impressed with the folly which leads municipalities to make agreements without a proper regard for their own interests.

As a court, however, this is a matter with which the privy council is not concerned. It is not within its power to rescind municipalities from the inevitable results of past follies, and Toronto Saturday Night does well to point out that those who desire to place the blame for those results would do better to apply their whips to the Canadian legislatures which have carelessly sanctioned the agreements from which trouble has arisen.

ALDERMAN IS CONSISTENT

At the meeting of the board of health yesterday, Alderman Hester resigned from the board for the reason that he could not remain on the board and act with officials for whose dismissal from service he had voted.

Alderman Hester took the ground that the investigating committee having recommended the dismissal of the medical health officer and one of his assistants, and he having voted in the council to put that recommendation into effect, he could not act with those officials without stultifying himself.

The position of Alderman Hester is a perfectly correct one. If believing the recommendation of the investigating committee was justified, as he evidently did when he voted to put it into effect, he were to remain on the board and act with the officials he had gone on record as holding unfit for their positions, he would not only be very inconsistent but by thus stultifying himself, he would be put in the position of condoning and upholding the action of the administration in refusing to comply with a mandate of the council, which in point of fact, the adoption of the report embodying the recommendation, was.

We do not think there is any doubt but Alderman Hester's constituents will warmly endorse his action.

QUESTION OF REDISTRIBUTION

The Halifax Herald, the Conservative organ in Premier Borden's home city, is protesting against the idea that a federal election should be held within a short time after the passage of the proposed redistribution bill, which always follows the taking of a census. The reason for the Herald's protest is very apparent. That paper, as well as most Canadian papers, knows that the present government, after almost a year in office, has failed to make good, or to do anything that would entitle it to a renewal of the snap verdict which it received last September. That verdict was secured through a misconception of the true meaning of the reciprocity issue. That question is by no means dead, as was very forcibly demonstrated by the result of the recent Saskatchewan elections. As a matter of fact, it is gaining ground the better it is understood, especially among the agricultural classes.

The proposed redistribution bill will add greatly to the representation from Western Canada, while the representation of nearly every one of the eastern provinces will be decreased. At next election the balance of power in parliament will be from west of Lake Superior, and the Herald fears the result of another general election. It will, however, be a disgrace if Western Canada is left without the representation to which it is entitled by increase of population for any very long time after the redistribution bill is passed, or that the bill should be long delayed.

In commenting on this phase of the question, the Regina Leader says: Admittedly, redistribution is work which cannot be accomplished in a day. Reasonable time must be allowed the government in carrying it out. But there can be nothing more than reasonable lapse of time for the completion of redistribution and for the election which must follow.

If the government and its newspapers like the Herald attempt to play the game of politics in this matter, then so much the worse for the government. The doctrine of the far deal still has its many followers in the west and other parts of Canada. Unfortunately, however, the course of the government so far does not give much reason for being especially sanguine that it will keep fancied considerations of political expediency in the background in this matter any more than it has done in others.

APATHY OF RATEPAYERS

Despite the fact that the ratepayers of the city were urged to turn out and vote on the by-law to raise $82,000 for sewer connections, and that it was well advertised both in the newspapers of the city and on the street cars, only a very light vote was polled. Only 208 voters took the trouble to go to the polls, of which 105 voted for, and 43 against the by-law. This apathy is also the more noticeable in view of the present criticism of the health department, on account of the number of typhoid fever cases in the city, due, it is charged, to unsanitary conditions.

On August 23, a by-law for $405,000 for filtration plant and water works extension will be submitted to the ratepayers. If more interest is not taken in the by-law than in the one of yesterday the city may be saddled with an additional debt of almost half a million dollars by the votes of a few people. On the other hand, the by-law may be defeated through the apathy of property owners who are fully aware of the necessity for a filtration plant to ensure a constantly pure supply, and for water extension to the outlying portions of the city. The result of the report of the investigation committee has apparently been to only arouse a passing interest in municipal affairs, so far as the taxpayers give more attention to by-laws, that are submitted for their approval, they cannot expect a very efficient municipal government.

SEWER EXTENSION MONEY BYLAW IS PASSED

Despite Publicity Given Election Vote is Very Light, as Usual

Vote on Water Extension By-law, Providing for $405,000, Occurs August 23

Despite the publicity given it preceding the election on money by-law 1323 yesterday, the measure which provides for $82,000 worth of sewer extensions was passed by the comparatively small majority of 26-23 votes. The total vote cast on the bylaw was only 208, of which 105 were for and 43 against.

The vote on this bylaw yesterday, which affected many residents of the city directly in the way of benefits, regardless of the interest that all ratepayers naturally have in money by-laws, illustrates the fact that most citizens will not take the trouble to vote so frequently. Ratepayers are claiming that some system should be devised to avoid such frequent elections. On the other hand, it is pointed out that there is serious objection to lumping together a lot of important by-laws and asking the public to vote on them in a bundle.

A much more serious question will come before the ratepayers on August 23 next, when the $405,000 issue of debentures for the purpose of putting in a costly extension to the water system and constructing a filtration system. This is a matter of great importance among a great many citizens on the advisability of incorporating both these measures in the same bylaw. In spite of this fact, and the fact that the measures affect vitally the finances of the city, not to speak of the public health, the city officials fear that there will be a light vote on the measure.

GREAT LAKES COLLISION; SOME NARROW ESCAPES

Five Women Clad in Night Dresses Rescued; Had No Time to Dress

Heroic Work by Captains and Their Crews Prevented Loss of Life

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 8.—Five women who, clad in only their night dresses, were rescued from the steamer James Gayley when that vessel sank yesterday in the Minto area, after a collision with the steamer Rensselaer, arrived here today. They are Mrs. E. G. Russell, Miss Edith Russell, Miss Stetson and Miss White, all of Buffalo, New York, and Mrs. E. H. Meyers, of Watertown, N. Y. They were scantily clad and had to replenish their wardrobe here.

When the collision occurred these just named and fifteen members of the crew of the Gayley were taken on the Rensselaer, but that boat, having been damaged in the collision, was forced to return to port. The rescued passengers and crew of the Gayley were again transferred, this time to the steamer St. Johns.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY

BOY SCOUT, MANLY LAD, LOSES LIFE AT FRANK

Frank Alta, Aug. 8.—Richard Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilcox, lost his life this afternoon by drowning while swimming in a pond.

Wilcox went swimming in what is known as the "swimming hole," a pond caused by the Old Man river backing up into an old channel. In one place the water is very deep, and the lad, who had just learned to swim, tried to swim across the deep hole.

Whether he was taken with cramps, or from being but a poor swimmer was unable to make the distance across the deep water, the boys with him were unable to say, but they saw him sink and went to his assistance, but were unable to save him.

Assistance came quickly, and though the lad was taken from the water in a very few minutes, and a physician was at hand who did everything possible, the boy's life could not be saved.

The incident is particularly distressing, as the lad was one of the most promising and likable boys of this district. For his age the boy had an especially good business head, and was in charge of the local business of the "41" Market company. He was a leader of the boy scouts in the Pass district, and was deservedly popular and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was 17 years of age.

THE HEART DEPARTMENT

WHEN KISSES FAIL
(By Laura Jean Libbey)
Since the time began womanfolk always known the power of a kiss. It is the sweet touch of the lips which arouses the heart of a babe. The little child is sent to school with kisses and greeted with one when she returns.

A kiss is a solemn, tender, holy thing. But, if misplaced, it can well be labeled a dancer. Every tribe on the face has its own manner of kissing. But in each and every instance it is meant to express the rich, full treasure of the heart—love.

It can easily be seen how cruel it is for a man to ask this token of regard unless he has first won the girl and wishes to make her his wife.

There have been treacherous kisses since the time of Judas. The girl who accepts a bedridden man's kiss with any lingering thought in her heart that she is not quite satisfied with him, is a girl who has been deceived. Her love is fully returned. The ancient Polynesians are said to have punished a treacherous kiss with a death sentence. And throughout the ages of the first man who gave her a kiss. This salute to the woman whom he had singled out was made the occasion of much mourning. And throughout the tribes of men, the kiss is recognized as signifying the wish for mating among the maritalkable.

The Caucasian race has brought the kiss up to the highest standard of reverence and intellectual interpretation of perfect love. The lover who no longer dares to give a kiss, but who may be considered as like warm, which is the starting in of dry rot of affection. Her kiss of greeting or of parting has led to the ruin of his life.

Husbands and wives should be perpetual lovers. It is the kisses of the eye which keep the heart of the other steadfast and true. It is the kisses that are responsive to the one or the other that clouds begin to scurry across the matrimonial sky. A man has this to do upon the subject: "When kisses fail between husbands and wives I may look out for scuttles upon the matrimonial sea. First five years my husband was affectionate. My kisses have now failed to keep the love which bound us together. He grows angry if I try to be affectionate with him. What ought I do to awaken his love again?"

"Do not give up, but keep on trying to reclaim him with your kisses. One loving, judicious kiss is worth a hundred forced upon the one beloved."

ISN'T THIS UNIQUE

"Dear Miss Libbey: As I was walking down 'A Long Lane' that has no turning, dreaming of 'My hero,' I met Casey Jones, who smiled and said, 'My beautiful lady, has anybody here seen Kelly?' I replied 'Kelly's gone to kingdom come.'"

This started conversation, and he said "Come on and hear Alexander's rags." I accepted, and as we started he laughingly said, "Turn out your light, Mr. Moon Man," and to me, "Put your arms around me, honey." I laughed, but did not encourage his attention. He became very love-sick and said, "All that I ask of you is love" and "Kiss me, my honey, kiss me." I answered "The moon has his eyes on you, so be careful what you do." This seemed to make him very blue, and he took that "Mysterious rag" from his pocket and wiped away his tears. I would not bear to see him feeling this way, so I cried "Let me kiss your tears away." When we parted I said, "Call me up some rainy afternoon." He answered, "Oh, you beautiful girl, I will," but "If you talk in your sleep, please don't mention my name."

Do you think I gave him too much encouragement? I remain,

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To keep a cabbage fresh and crisp when only half a head is used, wrap loose leaves over cut part and wrap in wet paper and in a cool place. It will keep fresh for weeks.

Never spread bread and cake in the same box. The cake loses its flavor and tastes like bread.

Many a dirty water-carrier comes from the laundry all out of shape and folded crooked. To iron handkerchiefs, napkins or any small squares so they will fold perfectly even, iron all around the outside first. Hold each side toward you on a straight line stretching it firmly as you iron; iron the centre last and you will find the edges fold together exactly even.

A convenient cleaner for use on clothes, may be made of cheesecloth fastened into a bag three inches square. Fill the bag with five cents worth of soft soap and set up the end. When wanted for use place the bag in a basin of warm water, and use as a sponge on the article to be cleaned, wiping with a dry cloth. After use, wash the bag thoroughly and use for another time.

To open fruit cans that are obstinate hold them for a few moments under the hot water faucet, letting the hot water run over the top.

Never use your little kitchen utensils by rubbing them while hot with a soft cloth dipped in flour. If any flour remains around the handle, it can easily be removed with small brush.

FRENCH-CANADIAN BISHOP OPPOSED BY IRISH

Appointment of Father LeBlanc Arouses Ancient Order of Hibernians

Appeal Will be Made Through the Authorities to the Holy See at Rome

St. John, N.B., Aug. 8.—The Irish Catholics of St. John's as represented by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, are up in arms over the selection of a French-Canadian priest, Father LeBlanc, of Church Point, N.S., as successor to Bishop Casey of St. John, who has been appointed to the archdiocese of British Columbia.

At a meeting tonight of division number one, A. O. H., a strong resolution was passed joining the opposition of the members of that order, and the resolution contained a provision that an appeal should be made through the proper church authorities to the Holy See at Rome.

The resolution points out that as the diocese of St. John is an English speaking diocese and the members of the Catholic church here are English or Irish Catholics, the introduction of a French bishop would be entirely at variance with the wishes of the people.

Rules for Canning

So many enquiries have come into this office relative to canning that the following explicit directions from "The Boston Cooking School Magazine" are given in the hope of assisting many of our readers:

1. See that the jars are in good condition, that they contain no cracks, or splinters of glass in the bottom.
2. Fit with covers and rubbers and test to see that the jars are air-tight.
3. Wash the jars and covers very thoroughly.
4. Put the jars and covers into a pan of cold water to cover them and bring the water to the boiling point. Do not boil the rubber rings.
5. Prepare the fruit, according to its kind.
6. Empty the jars when they have boiled several minutes, replace the rubber rings (leaving in the boiling water) and dip the jars standing in boiling water during the filling. (Give two reasons for this.)
7. Fill the jars to overflowing with the boiling fruit. Press out with a silver fork any air bubbles which may be caught between the pieces of fruit or against the sides of the jar.
8. Why must the fruit be still boiling? (Why must the jars overflow?) (Why must the bubbles of air be driven away?)
9. Wipe the jars, label and put away in a cool place.
10. To illustrate canning without sugar, by boiling and sealing alone, canned tomatoes may be prepared.

HIS HEART IS BROKEN

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am suffering from a broken heart like a lot of others. Seeing you have helped others you may be able to help me. I am a young man of 25, have been going with a young lady I dearly love for about three years. She seemed to think everything of me. I am sure she dearly loved me. I always showed her a good time when we were together and respected her. About a year ago we were engaged. Since that time she has seemed to be cold hearted to me at times. Did not answer my letters like before. About a month ago I wrote her a letter which she did not like very well, seemed to hurt her feelings. She wrote me a letter. O she gave it to me right. I wrote back and told her if I was to blame all right, I would stand for it all. Since this I wrote this young lady two nice letters and she never answered. Would you write and tell her to send the ring back? I dearly love this little girl and can't give her up. Please let me know what to do.

Poor Joe! I am sorry for you.

Better write another letter to the girl before you request that she return your ring.

HER PARENTS OBJECTED

"Dear Miss Libbey: I have a dear friend who has no bad habits but who whom my parents object. He has given me a ring with my birth stone in it and my people know nothing of it. What do you advise me to do. Keep this ring secretly, return it to the young man, or wear it and let my people think it belongs to some one else? They do not allow him to call on me or even to correspond with me. Why are girls so imposed upon when their happiness is at stake?"

"Brown Eyes."

I would advise you to keep the ring if you do not care for the fellow. I would also suggest that you tell your parents that he gave you this ring. That's the only way to do.

Must Have Been in Hurry.

"Dear Miss Libbey: A young man took me to dance some time ago and on our way he asked me to wait for him while he got his shoes shined. I waited for the corner. A black fellow on he asked me to wait while he went in a store and purchased a clean collar, and again I waited. Should I have done so? Do you think it was nice of him to want to look clean, or would you consider it an affront to me? I like to have him right well and has been nice to me, but I would like to know what you would have done had you been in my place.

Muriel."

He certainly must have dressed hurriedly. It would have been much more courteous for the man to have attended to the duties of his toilet before calling for you instead of putting you to the inconvenience of waiting on the street corner for him.

STRANGERS' DIRECTORY

Every stranger who comes to this city buys a copy of this paper for two reasons: It tells the news; IT CARRIES A WANT AD PAGE, and this meets the need of the man and woman who want to know.

EVERYBODY HATES FAT

The human form is plastic and can be molded at will. Fresh vitality may be imparted to the languid frame. Strength may be given for the weak limbs, grace may substitute awkwardness, ill formed bodies and homely features may be remodeled into symmetry and beauty, postponing indefinitely the coming of old age.

The desire for beauty, or at least completeness and comeliness of form is a feeling which a human heart palpitates for. It is a feeling which is universal, a rounded complexion and admirable physique, free from excess or deficiency of proportion.

It compels a little patience and endurance to lose the superfluous flesh that destroys the symmetry of a person. He who has a little diet and quiet round out the emaciated form. It is all a matter of right thinking.

The fat woman whose flesh will not be laced and whose walk is impaired by weight, may, if she puts her mind to the matter, care more for her appearance than she does to gratify her abnormal appetite, for the appetite demands more than the necessary amount of food to nourish the body is abnormal.

The woman who can eat just enough to satisfy her hunger and deny herself the mind cravings for liquids until an infirmity be carefully watched. When puffs first become evident under the lines, over the abdomen and hips, and about the neck, it is a warning that their presence the work of self-indulgence and exercise should begin. Procrastination is the mother of deformities.

God did not give us life and intelligence for nothing. Our casing is our introduction to the world. A great many persons are far more interesting than they appear. Every one has the privilege of appearing as interesting as they really are.

Just a careful study, a great deal of desire, and the fortitude to carry out your own will can make wonderful changes in the too fat or the too thin body.

Remember: Beauty of face and form is an expression of intelligence.

H. M. Never scratch an insect bite with the fingernails, as there is great danger of infection. Bathe the parts with hot water, dry and apply the following ointment which relieves the smarting caused by the bite of any insect. Apply alcohol or peroxide to the spot if the insect has formed a hole in the skin food, with directions for facial massage.

ELSIE: Do not bite the lips when they are rough and chapped. There is nothing better for chapped lips than a good cold cream applied at night before retiring. If the lips are sore, apply some good skin food to them just before retiring.

BELLE: Fresh buttermilk is excellent for removing freckles that are not too deeply burned. Bathe the face in the buttermilk, using the hands instead of a wash cloth, and allowing it to dry on. The juice of half a lemon added to half a glass of buttermilk is also good.

MRS. W. M.: The following lotion is good to whiten the skin, reduce enlarged pores, and for the insect bites. Take eight ounce bottle and place in it the juice of one cucumber and four ounces elderflower water and one ounce of soft soap and set up the end. When wanted for use place the bottle in a basin of warm water, and use as a sponge on the article to be cleaned, wiping with a dry cloth. After use, wash the bag thoroughly and use for another time.

To open fruit cans that are obstinate hold them for a few moments under the hot water faucet, letting the hot water run over the top.

Never use your little kitchen utensils by rubbing them while hot with a soft cloth dipped in flour. If any flour remains around the handle, it can easily be removed with small brush.

New Perisian Evening Gowns

Evening dresses are not easy to design so Paris makes them always welcome. Because of their beauty of line, and combination of material. In the course of this year there are especially lovely dresses and they are made in so many and fanciful ways that each one seems more attractive than the other and designed especially to suit the wearer by the correct placement of the folds. Certain types of evening dresses—those for the more formal social occasions, can stand a lot of trimming and several materials. But these, of course, are always kept in the same carefully graded tints or tones, out of the daring creations of one of the master designers, who wish to find out how striking a color combination women will wear. And for the last few seasons the vivid colors and curious material combinations have been worn by people who have never dared to indulge in a riot of colors before. But these effects will always be in vogue rather than the rule for a simple reason that they are not becoming as the more delicate tints by evening light, and if one ever wishes to look beautiful an evening dress presents the best opportunity for so doing. Wearing the hair so flat and close to the head seems to go nicely with the new lines of draperies and long, straight effects, though often a large arrangement of beaded bands with drooping ornaments or crepe plumes are added when the effect is too simple. Even ostrich feathers are used to trim an arrangement of gauze that looks like a turban or cap. A tendency toward the old-fashioned square, low necked gown is noticeable in many models; indeed, this is seen as an outline of a yoke even on afternoon dresses, to which it adds a quaint touch. Most of the evening dresses are made over a foundation generally of marquisette or satin, in the more diaphanous robes, in chiffon, silk, mullin and even net. This does not mean that the waist portion is boned necessarily, but a sort of girdle belt is often added that has a few supports so that the dress will stay on the figure without getting twisted about.

Notes from the Alpine Camp

At the annual meeting of the A. C. C. yesterday, the following officers were elected: Hon. President—Sid Sanford, Fleming, Ottawa. Vice-President—Prof. A. P. Coleman, Toronto. President—Prof. A. P. Coleman, Toronto. Vice-President, east—Dr. F. C. Hill, Winnipeg. Vice-President, west—J. P. Forde, Revelstoke. Honorary secretary—Mrs. P. Burns, Calgary. Honorary treasurer—E. M. Saunders, Calgary. Director—O. G. Wheeler, Sidney. Secretary and Librarian—S. H. Mitchell, Sidney. Advisors—Gen. A. D. Patterson, Woodstock; Central, C. W. Rowley, west, W. W. Foster, Victoria.

The director read a communication from Sir Sanford Fleming congratulating the club on the splendid work it is doing, and enclosing $10 for the library in the clubhouse at Banff. A third frontier, Ontario, a noted mountaineer, and author of a standard work on the Rocky Mountains. Grants of Money. The director reported that the club had, through the influence of the Hon. J. Rogers, obtained $1,000 grant from the Dominion government in recognition of the work done. That the British Columbia government gave a grant of the same amount as an acknowledgement of the value of the organization in where she had information about, and arousing interest in the great mountains traversing their province. Also a grant of $500 from the province of Alberta. Hon. W. Foster, deputy minister of public works for British Columbia, addressed the meeting, telling of the progress made by him and the immense developed wealth of his province. Professor Freeborn from New York, an elder statesman, gave a brief sketch of the organization he had formed, and the only member in camp this year who has been present at every summer camp since it was held in 1906.

The president extended a hearty welcome to the American associates present, and expressed his appreciation of the value they were to the organization. Votes of Thanks. Votes of thanks were given to the president for his able address. To Mrs. Henshaw, who had just returned from England, where she had done much to extend interest in the club. To the devoted and hard-working secretary. To the Swiss guides. To the expert and efficient members for their unselfish aid given the uninitiated. To the good-tempered and efficient cook. To the Calgary boys in attendance for their courtesy and readiness to oblige. Loyalty to the clubbers, loyalty to the mountains, loyalty to humanity, the president said, should be the motto of those in charge of the camp. The meeting then adjourned until the summer camp of 1913.

How Rockies Are Formed. Prof. Coleman, F.R.S., at the annual meeting of the Alpine Club of Canada, tells how the Rocky Mountains were built up. The president said his address would follow along the line of his own hobby. The practical matters he would leave to the able director, the father and founder of, and great force behind the club. Most people love the mountains. They are full of variety, of interest, of grandeur. To us they look as though they had always been there; but they, too, were built up. The poet speaks of the everlasting hills, but the scientists tell us they were ephemeral things, lasting a thousand years or more, always building upward as they begin to decline. This is the story of the mountains. Even the mighty mountains pass away. Since he had come to camp, the president, with others, had gone out on several short trips. For one of these, Bush had picked up bits of rock containing sea shells, 10,000 feet above sea level. These had been below the level of the sea. This lofty mountain range started its building process, a stretch of 15,000 miles of sea coast. Layer after layer was laid down; shells, mud, and clay etc., twenty-five or thirty thousand feet deep. The world shrank. This weak strip of new building yields. The Selkirk pushed upon the sea and then the Rockies rose.

Carving of Mountains. But the building upward was not all, also the mountains would be but a lofty tableland, a flat and uninteresting as the prairie. The carving must be done. Nature's workmen and artists set to. They attack at how the mountains into form. Frost, rain and snow carve wondrous forms into the great rock masses. A gigantic struggle of forces and the huge mountain structure, glaciers and rivers eating up the mountains bodily; tearing up the valleys, and making new ones. Around every mountain a battle is going on. The glaciers, frost, snow and rain breaking it up, and the rivers grinding it fine and carrying it down to the sea.

In this dominion we have the oldest mountains of the world. Canada has four great sections of mountains. The Rockies grow up, and then grow down. Humans are in the same position. They grow up for a brief span, to a height of six, at the most, seven feet. Little by little, the mighty mountains, too, pass into oblivion and new ones take their place. Sunday at the Camp. Although it is Sunday, the woodman's axe is heard near camp. The workers are making ready the logs for the camp fire. That pleasing feature had to be dispensed with on account of the heat of the rain. Friday night being fair, the campers assembled for entertainment and good fellows about the centre of light when the sun had gone down. The principal treat that evening was an address on the subject of the theme, "Glaciers of Canada," by Miss Mary Vaux of Philadelphia. Miss Vaux has spent much time among the mountains of Canada with her brother, Geo. Vaux, making and illustrating on a scale of study the glacial formation and action. She is the first woman who has been an active member of the Canadian peaks called by her name. Superior Canadian Alpine Reaction. Miss Vaux tells us that the Alpine region of Canada is much superior to that of the old world, almost every high peak having its descending glacier, but perhaps the most interesting of the sweet gracefulness, the quiet dignity and the majestic grandeur of which the personality of this rare woman speaks, as much as the thoughts and the words which she has uttered adds to her power of verbal description the art of photography in which she excels, and a total of her field of giving pleasure and instruction is much enlarged. For the evening's entertainment the campers were indebted to Mr. Chapman, who under cover of canvas flung upon the scene the photographs and reproductions of some of British Columbia's magnificent scenery. Sunday morning, clouds and sunshine alternated. A sprinkling now and again moistened the heads of the campers, enlivening the camp fire. About ten a.m. the director, in his forceful way, announced his address, "non-attendantes—no dinner."

Dean Robinson Speaks. The Very Rev. Dean Robinson conducted a service for the religious service. He referred to the gladness that one experiences in looking at the mountains, where the presence of the feeling sensation and peculiar inclination to leap over, as nature's warning to the individual to shut out the world and to be content with the things that are within his reach. At two o'clock in the afternoon is held the annual meeting of the Alpine Club of Canada. Mount Ball Club. Early in the evening, four companies making a party of sixteen in all, of experienced mountaineers, met at the Mount Ball. To them is entrusted the important mission of pitching the tent and the camp, and the way for the less experienced, who would ascend the lofty heights of Mt. Ball. As one looks at these tried mountaineers, their bronzed faces, their sturdy forms, each carrying a pack on his back, one recalls the Canadian voyageur of the 18th century, and the thrill of admiration at the daring and adventurous spirit that animates their slight frames passes through the onlooker. The Alpine club does much to keep alive that spirit of pluck, energy, enterprise, and hardiness, which is the glory of the mountains. Among the members of this detachment of climbers of which I have been speaking, are Miss de Beek of Vancouver, and Mrs. W. W. Foster, with her husband, followed the biased trail eighty miles through the mountains to get to the camp. Many times they swam the river on their journey through. The beauty of the mountains, the grandeur of the wild mountain scenery which all the way surrounded them, and the spirit of the mountains, which led and inspired them, they felt was rich return for the energy expended and the obstacles encountered. R. J.

Good Housekeeping

By Jane Eddington.

There is a difference between taking care of a by-product or leftover when you have it and planning both to have and care for it. Thrifty housewives are ever planning to get the most out of their by-products, which may be a primary service. In buying beef or mutton for boiling, veal for stew or another service, give a good meal for potting and meat loaves, with every variation of these; in buying steaks and chickens, she plans to have and utilize a secondary product, usually a liquid one.

A soup stock from such sources may be just as good and sometimes as rich as if it were made from the best prepared with nothing but the soup in mind. Such meat, however, is put to cook in boiling water instead of cold, and if the stock is strong it is because it is made from considerable meat, rather than because all the juice and flavor have been cooked out of a regulation amount.

The economical housewife makes inexpensive additions, almost costless things, to these purgative stocks, and the expense or but little expense, as she sees fit. It is astonishingly easy to add expense, but once accustomed herself to limitations she may come to value small things as she values a postage stamp, far beyond its money value, because it will do so much. The most universal addition on the lowest cost basis, is rice. A little rice goes a long way. Sometimes a soup is the product of more than one leftover, some cold rice and some liquid from a boiled meat, or such as one prepared from lamb bones left from a pot of lamb and the tomato juice from the vegetable dish with some slight vegetable additions or vegetable leftovers.

Left-overs must be used as early as possible. Third day relics are rarely suitable, unless kept in a most perfectly sanitary way. If any one of a number of things in a leftover soup is too old it will give a soup a bitter taste and the food value may in consequence be less than nothing. If we can use what would naturally be a leftover at the meal as we use the dish from which it is a by-product, the better planners we are and the more thrifty we are likely to become in our planning.

From a collection of actual ways of means of this sort as carried out in different homes and not from some theoretical plans for a family, I choose the following:

Purses of Carrots and Veal Muffins.—A 10 cent veal shank. Cook until tender, using sufficient water so that there will be about a quart of stock when finished. Take one and a half pints of this stock for the soup. To make add one large carrot and half an

THE WILLIAM DAVIES COMPANY LIMITED TORONTO

There is a difference between taking care of a by-product or leftover when you have it and planning both to have and care for it. Thrifty housewives are ever planning to get the most out of their by-products, which may be a primary service. In buying beef or mutton for boiling, veal for stew or another service, give a good meal for potting and meat loaves, with every variation of these; in buying steaks and chickens, she plans to have and utilize a secondary product, usually a liquid one.

A soup stock from such sources may be just as good and sometimes as rich as if it were made from the best prepared with nothing but the soup in mind. Such meat, however, is put to cook in boiling water instead of cold, and if the stock is strong it is because it is made from considerable meat, rather than because all the juice and flavor have been cooked out of a regulation amount.

The economical housewife makes inexpensive additions, almost costless things, to these purgative stocks, and the expense or but little expense, as she sees fit. It is astonishingly easy to add expense, but once accustomed herself to limitations she may come to value small things as she values a postage stamp, far beyond its money value, because it will do so much. The most universal addition on the lowest cost basis, is rice. A little rice goes a long way. Sometimes a soup is the product of more than one leftover, some cold rice and some liquid from a boiled meat, or such as one prepared from lamb bones left from a pot of lamb and the tomato juice from the vegetable dish with some slight vegetable additions or vegetable leftovers.

Left-overs must be used as early as possible. Third day relics are rarely suitable, unless kept in a most perfectly sanitary way. If any one of a number of things in a leftover soup is too old it will give a soup a bitter taste and the food value may in consequence be less than nothing. If we can use what would naturally be a leftover at the meal as we use the dish from which it is a by-product, the better planners we are and the more thrifty we are likely to become in our planning.

From a collection of actual ways of means of this sort as carried out in different homes and not from some theoretical plans for a family, I choose the following:

Purses of Carrots and Veal Muffins.—A 10 cent veal shank. Cook until tender, using sufficient water so that there will be about a quart of stock when finished. Take one and a half pints of this stock for the soup. To make add one large carrot and half an

Edmonton, Aug. 8.—With last winter's catch of fur from the Chipewyan country, Colin Fraser has arrived in the city accompanied by fifteen residents of the Northland who see civilization only once each year. The fur catch of 1912 is an improvement over last year's, and amounts to between $30,000 and $35,000. ## TOMMY BURNS HAS AN EASY TIME DEFENDING TITLE OF HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA

Battle Last Night With Bill Rickards of Vancouver Stopped By Police in Sixth Round After Rickards Had Been Flogged Twice

ONE OF THE EASIEST BATTLES OF PUGILISTIC CAREER

Burns Took It Easy Until the Sixth, When He Went in to Finish the Bout, Which He Did; Burns Forced the Fighting All the Way; Rickards Was Out When Police Interfered

SASKATOON, Aug. 8.—Stopped in the sixth round by the sheriff, the fifteen round boxing bout between Burns and Rickard tonight was one of the easiest in the former heavyweight champion's career. Tommy got five thousand dollars for outboxing a man who failed to show even second rate form.

From the sounding of the first gong the fight was all Burns but even that the champion failed to land a real good blow, the left jab that Rickard out for the count of three, the left and right to jaw that put him out for mine, two seconds afterward, and the right that finished off the bout prior to its being stopped, being far from the category of knockout punches.

Burns played with his man, leading all the time, Rickard never forcing any leading. With him it was a game of cover, stall and cover, his head being down for practically the five and a half rounds of the fight.

Tommy was in excellent condition but far from championship form, his judge of distance being poor, missing his man on several occasions by feet. His was the only science shown in the bout, Rickard showing none, not even heart.

The fighting was all to the head, the only kidney punch worthy of the name being landed by Burns at the beginning of the fifth. Burns' footwork was excellent, although his bad knee was handicapped.

The bout was nearly brought to a conclusion in the second round, when, after a wild swing by Rickard, Burns mis-stepped, slipping through the ropes. Rickard helped the champion back, and the bout was on again.

In the middle of the fourth, Rickard showed his only aggressiveness, landing several to the face, but they proved ineffective, he returning almost immediately to his game of stalling after this one he was willing to fight.

Rickard had his chance in the middle of the fifth, when Burns left himself open in a manner that would have allowed any real fighter to end the fight by a little decisive jab. He failed.

Burns was apparently fresh after each round, while his opponent was groggy and needed all the efforts of his seconds to bring him into the ring again. His eyes would wander to the corner during the starting, and the sounding of the gong at the round end seemed to be a relief.

Whether or not Burns, with a real man who would have made him extend himself would have given a better exhibition is a conjecture, opinion being held among the fight fans. After the fight he said it was an easy win for him and that he had not exerted himself.

This latter statement was verified by the action of Rickard when knocked by his knees prior to the closing of the bout, the his fellow, though not hit, being willing to fight.

The whole fight was the case of a faint-hearted pug fighting a boxer.

PEOPLE'S SHIELD COMPETITION IS ONE MAN SHOW

Secretary Burton Refuses to Recognize Claims of Fort William Club

Montreal, Que., Aug. 8.—President Francis Barber of the Dominion Football Association, is today in receipt of a protest from the C. P. R. football club of Fort William, champions of the new Ontario league, against the proposed playing of the Connaught cup series in Winnipeg this fall. The Fort William club having won the People's shield, claims the right to defend the Connaught cup as well.

Mr. Barber has replied to the Fort William officials pointing out that the People's shield never represented the championship of Canada, but only of the Canadian Football Association, a one-man show now being run by the People's shield, claiming the right to defend the Connaught cup as well.

Mr. Barber also informs the Fort William secretary that the Connaught cup will be played for in Winnipeg during the month of September, champion teams from each province competing. Next season the cup will be played for on the cup tie principle.

CALLIES HAD TO WORK FOR VICTORY OVER THISTLES

The Thistles gave the Callies a harder run for their points than was imagined at Hillhurst Park last evening. There was no return what-so-ever to which was the better team, but such was the defence of the Thistles that they found it no easy matter getting through. Their first goal was pretty lucky, Williams firing in a shot which a good custodian might have stopped, but Smith simply kicked at the ball as it came to him, and missed. It was not long before the Thistles had put matters equal again. A corner was kicked and Land played nicely in front of goal, getting his head to the ball and directing it between the posts. The teams crossed over with the score still 1-1, and it was drawing near the close before the Callies got their second goal. This came from a fine shot by Matheson, and before the close the same player put them two goals ahead. The Callies thus won by three goals to one.

CATHEDRALS WON EASILY

The Cathedrals had out but a weak team against St. Andrews at Mount Park last evening and were beaten by four goals to nil. For St. Andrews Liddle scored two and Hornby and Finlay one each.

WINNING STREAK GOT ON THE NERVES OF THE BRONCHOS

So Yesterday They Went Out and Lost in Spite of Deers' Willingness to Contribute

Jule's Men Outhit and Out-fielded Visitors, But Lost Game by Ten to Nine

Game of Missed Opportunities; Bases Full in Ninth, But Score Wasn't Forthcoming

INSPIRED by the hunch that if they did not lose pretty soon the race would become a walk-away, the Bronks last night just went out and lost the game in spite of the attempts of the Deers to let them have another. In the fifth inning they had the game tucked away in six to two fashion only to have the Deers come back in the next round and bring up the score to a seven-six proportion in their favor. Then again in the last inning the Bronks had the bases full and one run was needed to tie up the score and two to win, but Obe O'Brien hit at the fourth ball, sending it down to the Red Deer second sacker for an easy put-out which retired the side. If Obe had let that wide one go by he would have received free transportation to first which would have forced in a run which would have tied the score. However, the game goes to Red Deer 10 to 9.

If Obe and base hits could win a game then there would be another victim of the Bronks next time. For Jule Streib's men outbit the visitors, 17 to 14, and as for errors, the Deers had the majority. The box score also demonstrates that the Bronks had nine men left on bases, compared with seven for Red Deer. Taken all in all the game was one of opportunities.

Baseball luck, too, was with the visitors. On two occasions Bobbie Wells was robbed on a fly, and the second playing of Godfrey at second and when Pete Standridge as a pinch hitter came across to a double in the ninth, if there had been almost any man but Jule Streib on first at the time, the tying run would have come across.

However, here is the figurative story of the event:

ALBERTA CRICKET TEAM PRACTICALLY WINS TOURNAMENT BY FOURTH SUCCESSIVE VICTORY; CALGARY TEAM ALSO WON

Alberta Gained Fine Victory Over Last Year's Champion Saskatchewan Team; Calgary Defeated the Manitoba Team Yesterday

The two teams out of this province—Alberta and Calgary—again came out on top in their games yesterday in the Western Canada Cricket tourney, Alberta by a fine victory over Saskatchewan, practically clinching for themselves the championship for 1912. The two teams will have to go under in their next two games, and nothing is impossible still that is very unlikely.

Alberta has sprung a surprise on all. There are men in the team who by some were not considered good enough to represent the city, but with the provincial championship on their minds they are turning out trumps. Burroughs and Winter have both done very well in all the games they have played, and yesterday Burroughs was the third highest scorer on his side with 28.

The feature of yesterday's play was not the batting as has been in the previous matches, but the bowling. No remarkable scores were made, but with the ball there were two noteworthy feats, and the most creditable was that of Sharp for Alberta.

Throughout the afternoon he had the Saskatchewan bowlers in difficulties, sending down some beautiful balls, and his total for the day was 23 wickets for 23 runs. Hall and he bowled unchanged, but Hall only managed to get one wicket. The other performance of note with the ball was credited to Nettleton of Calgary, who did the hat trick.

Small Courts Attend. Alberta and Saskatchewan met on the Western Canada grounds, and the Western Canada grounds, where Calgary and Manitoba were in action, there were a large number of spectators, and quite a number of ladies were seen.

Alberta going in first managed to knock up 176 before they were dismissed, and added 30 before they were separated, and then Sharp was bowled by Chalmers when he had made 47. It was Sharp's day for not only did he play the greatest part in the dismissal of Saskatchewan, but he also put up the highest score of the match.

Saskatchewan's Innings. The first pair of batsmen for Saskatchewan were the only men to make a show. They played cautiously and had made quite a long stand, although they were rather slow in scoring, and it seemed as though they were about to make a big score. But then came Capt. Pailis, not out for 47 runs. He was a difficult catch, which Sharp accepted. In the next over, he got Edwards in. He was a difficult catch, which Sharp accepted.

PRESIDENT TAFT MEXICAN SITUATION

Texas Paper Says Break All Political Parties

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Resentment of the people of the United States regarding the attitude of the Mexican government toward the possible fate of citizens in that country collected in telegrams received in Washington yesterday.

Those who have been insisting upon a vigorous policy and the protection of Americans.

So imminent is the danger facing hundreds of Americans in Mexico that by certain of Texas that the El Paso Herald yesterday urged Governor Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, William J. Bryan, and other prominent men to take the matter to the United States Congress, and to consider what it terms "impending crisis."

This telegram, which received also by a number of members of the Senate, boldly charges the Mexican government with the "impending crisis."

The conditions in Mexico are such that the citizens of the United States are being endangered.

No senator was able to get the message to the Senate, but it is expected that the message will be drawn to an end.

Senator Smith, chairman of the committee, yesterday.

Reached the Breakers. The conditions in Mexico are such that the citizens of the United States are being endangered.

DO YOU WANT CHEAP LUMBER

Fifty-two Yards in Alberta—Two Yards in Calgary

Few people appreciate that there is quality in lumber the same as there is in tea, or in paint, or in most other articles. Cheap lumber or green lumber in better grades will build a house that, when well painted, will look fairly well for a few months. Such a building in our extreme climate soon takes on a dilapidated cheap look, making it difficult to sell, difficult to rent, and uncomfortable to live in.

We have always made a specialty of the highest quality, and owing to the tremendous size of our business we are able to buy on a basis that permits us to sell our lumber for as low a price as would be generally asked for a poorer quality. This has built up our large business—the largest in Western Canada.

Before building inspect our stocks and permit us to give you evidence that quality considered, our prices cannot be beaten. Particular people use our lumber. If your contractor obtains his lumber from us it is a sign that he is a particular man and demands the best of everything.

DR. A. S. ESTEY, M.D.
OFFICER, RESIGNED

Dr. A. S. Estey, medical officer for Calgary, is expected to resign his position to Dr. W. Mitchell today. Dr. Estey is convinced that he has given fair treatment to his patients, his friends say, and that he is not resigning his position of Dr. Mitchell's deputy. The position of Dr. Estey's friends, who have been on the subject, is that the majority of the council is not in favor of his resignation. It is almost certain that the resignation of Sanitary Officer Dr. Estey will accompany Dr. Estey's resignation. The council investigating the case along with his superior and is held to be equally responsible for the resignation of Dr. Estey. Alderman R. S. Whaley, in conference with the council, refused to be the subject of the conference.

St. Petersburg, Fla.
and much disquieted by the news of the resignation of Dr. Estey. Dr. Estey's resignation is expected to be announced today. DR. A. S. ESTEY, M.D.
OFFICER, RESIGNED

Dr. A. S. Estey, medical officer for Calgary, is expected to resign his position to Dr. W. Mitchell today. Dr. Estey is convinced that he has given fair treatment to his patients, his friends say, and that he is not resigning his position of Dr. Mitchell's deputy. The position of Dr. Estey's friends, who have been on the subject, is that the majority of the council is not in favor of his resignation. It is almost certain that the resignation of Sanitary Officer Dr. Estey will accompany Dr. Estey's resignation. The council investigating the case along with his superior and is held to be equally responsible for the resignation of Dr. Estey. Alderman R. S. Whaley, in conference with the council, refused to be the subject of the conference.
