WATFORD HIGH IS TRAINING TEAM

Watford High School track team has been training for several weeks in preparation for the Western Ontario Secondary Schools Association track meet, which it to be held tomorrow, (Saturday) on the new Western University track, London.

The high school sent a team to London last spring, which acquitted itself remarkably well for the small amount of training it had.

The track team this year is made up of the following: Seniors, Orville Shugz, Allan Heaton, and Roy Cooke; intermediate, A. Gilroy; juniors, Geo. Tait, DeCourcy Rayner, Leslie McIntosh and T. Powell. These last four also run in the junior relay.

The boys are training most assiduously and are rapidly rounding into condition, but are somewhat handicapped in not having an expert coach to instruct them in the fine points of the game; in spite of this the team can be counted on to bring back some of the honors to Watford, and Shugz is expected to make a strong bid for the senior championship of Western Ontario as far as WOSSA athletics are concerned.

The boys were favored on Tuesday with a visit from Mr. Elwood Hughes, a Toronto coach, who talked athletics to the whole school and gave out many fine tips and bits of information on do-and-don'ts that will prove of real value. Mr. Hughes is a former Olympic runner, and is now in charge of the Canadian National Exhibition athletic meet, and also coach for the Toronto Ladies' Athletic Club.

She was a member of the Zion Methodist church, Warwick. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence and interment took place in Arkona cemetery.

The ladies of the congregation of St. Mary's church are called to a meeting, Friday of this week, at two p.m., at the Rectory to make definite arrangements for the anniversary dinner to be held early in June.

Warwick is ready for business this summer. The village possesses seven gas tanks, loaded to the hilt. Watch this being Synod week Mr. B. Dann, delegate, will attend in London.

Warwick has begun to blossom as the rose. The few who have started to paint their places are to be congratulated on the fine appearance of their premises. One or two others have signified their intention of painting theirs also. Everyone has more flowers than usual in their gardens. The situation of the village is excellent and the beautifying of the home grounds is one of the best advertisements for the people of Warwick. The travelling public notices these things and carry the memory of pretty places in their minds. All who contribute to the beauty of Warwick deserve credit. We might as well be lovely, so looking forsaken.

Mr. Charles Innes, of Brantford, spent a couple of days last week at the home of Robert Gault.

E. J. Thompson, Warwick, had the misfortune on Monday to fall and fracture his leg, which will lay him up for some time.

Roulston was chosen to represent the District on the Stationing Committee, with Rev. J. L. Foster as alternate. Messrs. T. B. Taylor and T. H. Fuller will represent Watford circuit as lay delegates to the Conference.

A., this resolution urged upon the members of the church the duty of supporting, only candidates known to be in favor of prohibition in forthcoming elections.

A resolution of sympathy with the movement for Church Union was also passed by a standing vote. The ministers and laymen were alike in expressing faith in the ultimate success of the United Church of Canada and were deeply impressed with valedictory address and prayer offered at the close by the chairman.

Even if they were all dressed up the Doukhobors have no place to go.

The oft-mentioned Balkan war cloud has resumed its old habit of hovering.

A group of Detroit men whose wives are attending a club convention in New York are wearing tan openers attached to their watch chains.

At this time of the year nearly every small town in the country is busy organizing a baseball team. The job of manager is no place for a divinity student.

A process is reported to have been discovered for extracting motor fuel from molasses. There is no demand for solvents that do not run faster than molasses.

The development of a coreless apple is reported in California. A squirtless zone may yet be established for grapefruit.

Junior pupils in a Seattle school are given a "drill" on the use of the toothbrush. Instructions on how to wash the backs of their necks is regarded as home work.

Experiments are being made with a moveable boulevard in Paris. There is a possibility of congestion of traffic when women shoppers pass a department store on bargain day.

A radio fan in Winnipeg "picked up" Medicine Hat the other night but could not distinguish who was talking through it.

Quebec disputes the claim that Alberta has the most efficient liquor control system in the Dominion. It may depend on whether the system is judged by its fruits or its "toots."

Airplanes are employed in the Oregon fruit belt to drop poison dust on infested orchards. So many methods for its destruction have been devised that a poor worm hardly knows which way to turn.

The composition of chop suey was involved in a Toronto court case the other day. Chief Justice Mulock asked for a definition of the mysterious dish but the answers only added to the complication.

Poultry owners are exposed to a new menace. Thieves in a California town are using gas to prevent the birds from causing a disturbance. Gas masks for chickens may be added to the list of poultry supplies.

The Ontario Government is giving financial assistance to farmers in the northern part of the province to enable them to purchase dairy cows. This is a variation of the popular custom of "milking" the provincial treasury.

A new campaign wrinkle is reported in Oregon where a candidate for a state office is making himself popular with the farmers by helping them shear their sheep. If elected he might use his shears to clip the tax rate.

Experts employed by the United States department of agriculture are engaged in experiments to learn how far a honey bee will fly from the hive in search of nectar. The average person who encounters an irritable bee is more concerned about where it lights than the distance it travels.

Never Met Its Equal For Healing!

Writing from Saultnierville, Digby Co., N.S., Mr. John M. Theriault says—"We find Zam-Buk a splendid household healer for cuts, burns and other accidents and skin ailments of common occurrence. "One of my sons tried Zam-Buk for his boils and it did him such a lot of good, that I decided to give the balm a trial for piles, from which I had been troubled for over two years. "Before one box of Zam-Buk was finished, I had derived such ease and comfort that I continued with the treatment. In a comparatively short time I had gained permanent relief from the piles. Zam-Buk proved equally good for chapped hands, cracked lips, etc. "I've never met its equal for healing."

Mothers Praise Baby's Own Tablets

Mrs. L. M. Brown, Walton, N.S., says—"I cannot recommend Baby's Own Tablets too highly. I have found them invaluable for the ailments of little ones." Mrs. Brown's testimony is the same as that of thousands of other mothers who have used the Tablets. To use them once is a sure guarantee that they will always be kept in the home as long as there are babies or young children to be cared for. The Tablets are a laxative—mild but thorough in action—which never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels; relieve constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the dreaded teething period easy. In fact they banish all the minor ills from which little ones suffer. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

See the Gas Range that Makes Its Own Gas

We cordially invite every housewife in this locality (and the men folks, too) to come to our store any time during this week and see big demonstration of Coleman Cookers. We want to show you a stove that is different—a stove years ahead of them all. In the Coleman you have a modern gas cooking stove and a dependable gas-making plant all in one! It brings all the conveniences of city gas to farm and suburban homes.

See a half-gallon kettle of water boil in 4 minutes.
 See light fluffy biscuits baked in 6 minutes.
 See what a clean, convenient stove the Coleman is—no wicks, no chimneys, no glass fuel jars.
 See how easy to operate and how safe this wonderful stove is. Fuel is gas from common motor gasoline under pressure. Tank can't spill fuel; can't be filled while lighted. No "crawling" flame.
 See all the different sizes and models—from the small bungalow cooker to the big, white-enamelled range.
 See how reasonably these stoves are priced.

Wise cutting, not miserly hoarding ~ is sound conservation.

"Miserly hoarding is not conservation. In the case of the forests it is merely wasting something that might as well have been used.

"A forest is not destroyed by sound cutting: it is improved and made more productive.

"The proposed Embargo is not a reasonable regulation applied to resources in which you have a common interest. It is an arbitrary interference with Private property in which you have absolutely no right."

These striking statements, made by Ralph P. Bell, the chief public champion of the anti-embargo forces, are a forceful challenge to some popular misconceptions that have grown up around the Embargo controversy.

"Conservation," he says, "lies in sound cutting and utilization, not in miserly hoarding; and just as thinning and pruning and cultivating a garden, gives that garden a chance to thrive, so properly regulated cutting helps a forest; giving the young trees a chance to grow. If you properly manage your forests and cut the mature growth, the young seedlings will have a chance and in thirty to fifty years your land will produce its second crop. That is true conservation."

"The advocates of this Embargo," Bell continues, "tell us that ninety per cent of our annual forest consumption is a total loss from fire, winds, bugs and fungi."

By proper cutting we not only profit by the utilization of what we cut, but, while we are thus profiting, we are simultaneously saving a considerable proportion that might otherwise, through sheer waste, have been added to that ninety per cent loss.

Whose Resources are they?

THERE has been much talk of the necessity of saving our forest heritage. "Why do so many of you people keep harping on that word 'our' all the time," Bell demands, "Our forests, those that we as a body of citizens actually own (and they form 85% of the total forest area of Canada) are already under Embargo so far as export is concerned. The forests that we are talking about now, in relation to the present proposed Embargo are those owned by individual fellow citizens of ours, just as you own your house and lot or your farm. And yet you join in the cry, 'Our forest—our land—Our national heritage.' Have you paid good money for these lots that you're all of a sudden so generously patriotic about? Have you slaved for them—suffered unbelievable hardships for them as some settler owners have? Every time the big paper companies mention their wood resources, they speak of 'the interests of our shareholders,' but when they talk about the wood of the man who owns a little plot of freehold forest land they talk of 'our' national resources. They aren't 'our' resources at all. They are his and only his; and neither you nor I have anything to do with them."

Private Enterprises

"But," the ready objector interposes, "If the forests are cut down indiscriminately, all Canadians suffer."

"Yes," Bell retorts, "and if your big business gets itself into a jam, you are going to suffer, too. But you don't tell the owners that their business is a national resource, and that as such you have a right to interfere in its management. 'No, they are private enterprises,' you say. I tell you, these businesses are no more private enterprises, than the woodlot owner's trees are his private enterprise."

"As for that indiscriminate cutting that you talk about—Do you think the woodlot owner is a fool? Do you think he is going to throw away his capital? Not much! He was born and bred among trees. He has spent a lifetime in making them his. They are his business, and by and large he's taking better care of them than any other class of timber owner. You have no more right to tell him what he must do with his trees or where he may sell them than he has to tell you how to run your private business. Its sheer presumption! An assumption that isn't supported by a shadow of right or justice."

WISE CUTTING

It is asserted on the excellent authority of Dr. Clifton D. Howe, Dean of Forestry at the University of Toronto, that Canada owns young forests of over 50,000,000 acres. Dr. Howe maintains that under rigid fire protection and wise administration this 50,000,000 acres will supply Canada with adequate timber to cover future needs.

WASTE ENERGY

Why waste time on the harmless little fellow when a big danger threatens Canada's forest wealth?

Saved from Pulp but not from Lumber

BUT will the imposition of an Embargo prevent the woodlot owner from selling his wood?

"As pulpwood, yes, as lumber, no. And will a tree cut for pulpwood decimate our forest heritage more than the same tree cut for lumber?"

"The cases are not quite similar," someone says, "One is a manufactured product, and provides work for Canadian workmen, the other is an unmanufactured product."

Pulpwood vs. Lumber

"A popular and perhaps natural misconception," Bell replies, "But erroneous nevertheless? An egg that is boiled is just as much 'cooked' as one that is poached. A given piece of material may be just as much manufactured by hand labor in the woods as by machinery in a mill, and the benefit to the community depends, after all, upon how much money is expended in the process. Suppose we just examine this idea a little bit:

Two neighboring woodlot owners, can each cut from their woodlot logs scaling thirty-four cords. One sells to a pulpwood dealer by whom he has been offered $8.00 rough or $10.50 peeled. He has agreed to deliver the latter, and he and his sons cut, peel and junk their cord and earn the additional $2.50 per cord over the price they would have received for their wood in the rough state. His neighbor takes his logs to the mill where they are sawed into rough lumber for which work he has to pay the mill, $5.00 per thousand feet. When his 34 cords are sawed out, he only has 17,000 ft., for it takes two cords of logs to make a thousand feet of lumber. The cost of making those logs into rough lumber is, therefore, $2.50 a cord, which the mill earns. The cost of turning the other fellow's logs into sap peeled pulpwood is also $2.50 a cord, but in that case the owner earns it. The one is processed at home on the wood lot by hand; the other is processed in the mill by machinery. The expenditure is the same. The one is as much a manufactured product as the other.

An Unreasonable Idea

"But this isn't all.—It takes two railroad cars to carry the 34 cords of pulpwood, while the 17,000 feet of rough lumber which required the same original quantity of raw material, fills only one car. The railroads receive twice as much freight for the pulpwood as they do for the lumber."

"So remember, that when you advocate imposing an Embargo, you are simply saying: 'You may not, from this on, sell your logs as pulpwood; you may not so secure for yourself and your sons, employment for an idle season. But you may cut your logs into rough lumber. You may throw away fifty per cent of the cubic content of those logs. You may load only one car, where you might have loaded two. You may not sell your wood to an American Paper Mill in short round sticks to manufacture into paper but you may sell it to the same mill in long flat sticks to manufacture into boxes in which to pack its paper.' Is such a proposition either reasonable or sensible?"

"If the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association is sincere in its commendable desire for forest conservation, let them purchase in the open market the wood now going to the United States. Let them conserve their own standing wood instead of asking the Government to apply a regulation which would place Canadian wood-owners and producers at the mercy of a powerful industrial group such as the 'Newsprint Ring.' "If their industry needs wood—why don't they buy it?"

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 7

The Advent of Tea to England

Tea was not used to any extent in England until about the middle of the seventeenth century, although knowledge of the wonderful qualities of the beverage had reached Europe as early as 1517. During the seventeenth century, all tea was imported from China and cost from $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. Not until 1836 did any tea reach England from India. In that year the first shipment was made from the now famous tea growing district of Assam. India today supplies fully half the world's tea requirements and provides some of the finest teas grown. The rich body of "SALADA" is due to the select India teas used in the blend.

BEST MEDICINE SHE EVER USED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Highly Praised by a Nova Scotia Lady

Among the well known and esteemed residents of Hemford, N.S., is Mrs. Amanda Woodworth. Some four years ago Mrs. Woodworth had the misfortune to lose her husband, and as a result of caring for him during his illness, and attending to farm duties, she became terribly run-down. Mrs. Woodworth says she felt as though her blood had turned to water. The least exertion would leave her tired and breathless. She was often attacked by spells of weakness that left her almost speechless, and frequently suffered from severe headaches. The medicines she took did not help her, and she almost despaired of gaining her health. In this condition she one day read in a newspaper of a case very similar to her own, in which health was restored through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This made her decide to give these pills a trial. After using a few boxes she found the pills were helping her, and she continued their use until her old-time health and vitality were restored. Now Mrs. Woodworth looks after a small farm of fifteen acres, besides doing all her household work, and says she never felt better or more energetic in her life. She gives credit for her present splendid health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which she says are the best medicine she ever used, and strongly recommends the pills to all run-down people.

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HER NERVES BETTER NOW

Received Much Benefit by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chatham, Ontario.—"I started to get weak after my second child was born, and kept on getting worse until I could not do my own housework and was so bad with my nerves that I was afraid to stay alone at any time. I had a girl working for me a whole year before I was able to do my washing again. Through a friend I learned of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took four bottles of it. I gave birth to a baby boy the 4th day of September, 1922. I am still doing my own work and washing. Of course, I don't feel well every day because I don't get my rest as the baby is so cross. But when I get my rest, I feel fine. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and am going to keep on with it until cured. My nerves are a lot better since taking it. I can stay alone day or night and not be the least frightened. You can use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

ST. JAMES' CEMETERY TO GET PERPETUAL CARE THROUGH ENDOWMENT FUND

For some years after St. James' Cemetery, Brooke, had been set apart as a Clergy Reserve for church purposes, it was allowed to go uncared-for, except for a few plot-owners who kept their plots in good condition. No provision was made for the unused parts of the cemetery, and this part along with many plots, for which no provision for care had been made, grew up with shrubbery and weeds, until the general appearance of the cemetery was unsightly.

About twelve or thirteen years ago, an attempt was made under the leadership of the late Dr. R. G. Kelly and the Rector and wardens at that time, to improve the condition of the cemetery. Much was done but during the war the committee in charge found it difficult to retain a satisfactory caretaker, but as soon as a permanent one could be procured the work was renewed. Much has been done by means of "bees." The improvements have been marked indeed. The whole cemetery has been levelled and it is practically all in a condition to be lawn-mowed. Many visitors at the Old Boys' Reunion last year expressed delight at the appearance of the Cemetery which now compares favourably with the best-kept rural or urban cemeteries.

Up to the present time the cost of upkeep has been met by an annual fee from a few plot-owners, but the time has arrived when this work should be put on a permanent basis. Prompted by the advice of many plot-owners, the committee decided this could best be done by raising an endowment, the interest from which will provide for all expenses of upkeep for all time to come. This will be an assurance that this cemetery at least, will never become a "commons", such as has been the fate of too many old Ontario Cemeteries. New plots are now sold on a permanent upkeep basis, so that new parts of the cemetery which may be opened as time goes on will always be cared for. The money is invested in the Synod of the Church of England and the interest each year is applied to the care of the plot designated by the donor.

No canvass has yet been made but many have already contributed generously and a considerable portion of the four thousand dollar endowment has been raised. In a short time, a personal canvass will be made on every one who has relatives buried in the cemetery and the whole endowment plan will be explained. The committee are confident that no difficulty will be experienced in raising the whole amount.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH HOLD INTERESTING DEBATE

A unique "Happy Home" service was held in the Congregational Church on Thursday evening, being a joint meeting of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor and the Church midweek service. The pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, presided over the meeting and Miss Estelle Craig led the responsive scripture reading. A number of both young and old took part in the chain of prayer.

The feature of the service was a debate on the question: "Resolved, that the present day Canadian home is inferior to that of the past." Mrs. (Rev.) Rayner and Mrs. J. D. Brown presented the case for the affirmative and Miss Maude Marwick and Miss Mildred Dunnean supported the negative. Russell Dunnean acted as time-keeper, and the judges: Mrs. John Thomas, Miss Estelle Craig and Mrs. J. E. Tait, awarded the decision to the affirmative by three points.

An interesting and helpful paper on the topic, "How can we help to make home happy?" was given by the president of the Y.P.S.C.E., Miss Elsie Brown, and the pastor also gave a brief address on the topic.

Special emphasis was given, throughout the evening, to the fact that the family altar, with the family gathered for daily Bible reading and prayer, is an important factor in generating home happiness.

There was a large attendance at the meeting.

Mother's Day Services
Mother's Day was observed by appropriate services in the Congregational church, and many wore flowers in honor of Mother. There were special features at all the services. "Go-to-Sunday School Day" being observed in the school, a feature of that being a presentation of medals to two of the Trail Rangers, Avery Dodds and Gordon Rayner, each receiving the Bronze Service Medals won by them in connection with the recent bond selling campaign of the Boys' Parliament of Ontario. The presentation was made by the pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, in his official capacity as Superintendent of Boys' Work for the Religious Education Council of North Lambton Co., and also of the Tp. of Warwick. An orchestra consisting of Miss Estelle Craig, piano; Gordon Rayner, Violin; Principal Allan Doolittle, saxophone; and Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, flute; led the singing.

At each of the church services special Mother's Day features were introduced. A choir of mothers, with Mrs. J. D. Brown at the organ, was in charge of the music both morning and evening. In the morning the mothers sang, as a special number, "Anywhere With Jesus," and in the evening the duet, "My Mother's Bible," was sung by Mrs. (Rev.) T. Rayner and Mrs. Craig. Mrs. Hattie Brown led the responsive scripture reading at the morning service, and two mothers, Mrs. Ray Morningstar and Mrs. G. Hollingsworth, took up the offering at both services. The pastor preached very appropriate sermons, his topics being morning, "Jesus and His Mother," and in the evening, "Mother's Apron Strings."
