The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. PRAYERS,

TO BE USED AT ALL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY AND OF ITS SEVERAL ASSOCIATIONS.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name; and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Merciful God, Who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word, and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd. Prosper, O Lord, the labours of those societies of the Church in the land of our Fathers, which Thou hast deigned to use in the promotion of this object, and which have nourished the Church in the colonies; and bless in like manner with Thy Holy Spirit and Providential succour the Society in whose cause we are now met, and the undertakings which we have now in hand. "Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us; O prosper Thou our handy work," for the sake and through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name, Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1872.

In submitting the thirty-first Annual Report of the Society for the information of the members of the Church; it is perhaps sufficient to refer to the chief objects which have occupied the attention of the Society during the year.

From the following comparative statement of voluntary contributions for 1871 and 1872, it will be seen that, though there is a decrease in some of the Funds of the Society, yet the total receipts shew an increase. This is so far satisfactory, but it must be borne in mind that, as last year, the increase is mainly due to several munificent anonymous contributions for mission work. It is much to be regretted that there is a deficiency in the receipts of the General Fund, in comparison with last year, while the claims upon that Fund have considerably increased, in consequence of the Block-grant of the Venerable Society for Promoting Christian knowledge, for special purposes, having been exhausted.

Unless a deeper interest is taken in raising subscriptions for the General Fund, during the ensuing year, many very excellent objects, especially that of education in the poorer Missions, must remain in abeyance.

The attention of the Clergy in the Districts of Gaspé and Megantic is drawn to the absolute necessity of transmitting their annual contributions from their missions to the Treasurer, before the 31st of December.

MISSION FUND.

In referring the Society to the Reports of the Diocesan Board and Clergy for an account of Mission work, it is very gratifying to learn that there has been an increase of $980.23 in the receipts over last year, which is, however, to be attributed to the before-mentioned large anonymous contributions received during the summer. Still the amount is very far from adequate to enable the Society to extend its Missionary operations into the newly opening settlements. Earnest appeals for aid are constantly being made to the Diocesan Board of Missions; in some instances the Board has been enabled to extend a helping hand, in too many cases it has been found impossible to occupy new ground. The church in this Diocese is in the truest sense of the term "a missionary church." In the Eastern Townships, opportunity after opportunity offers itself for advancing the interests of the church. Our Missionaries there are doing their utmost, though labouring under the difficulties arising from inadequate stipends. It is to be hoped, therefore, that better provision will be made for those who go forth to do their Master's work. The Society is justified in calling upon the members of our fold throughout the Diocese at large to strengthen the hands of the Diocesan Board in this respect. There seems to be, however, a worse evil falling upon us than the mere want of money. Earnest heroic men will labour for next to nothing through good report and evil report for Christ Jesus sake, but we have now to deplore the absolute want of men for the Mission Field. Yes, the Church at large and the Church of this Diocese want men. It is perhaps a good sign, in one respect, as it shows that the Church is very rapidly taking up new ground and fulfilling the injunction of Her Divine Head of carrying the Gospel into all lands; but it should also stir up the members of the Church amongst us to dedicate to the Sacred Ministry the best gifted and wisest of their sons. The harvest truly is plenteous, let us humbly trust that the Lord of the harvest will give heed to the earnest supplications of His Church throughout the world on the Day of Intercession for an increase of the Ministry, and that "He will send forth more Labourers into His Harvest."

It is gratifying to notice that the call for direct assistance to Heathen Missions has been responded to during the year by several of our congregations, a pledge that the Diocese will do its part in support of the work in the new Indian See of Algoma. A column will be re-opened in the next report for subscriptions of this character, in order that all moneys may pass through the hands of the Treasurer.

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

It is much to be regretted that there is a decrease in the voluntary contributions to this fund for the year, but fortunately the claims have not equalled the amount of voluntary contributions, while the annual interest arising from the capital reaches, according to the present statement, $1,680.70.

In consequence of the opinion of the eminent Actuary, A. G. Ramsay, Esq., the pensions have been increased fifty per cent.

The Treasurer reports that the following Clergymen have qualified, during the past year, as participants in the benefits of the fund, viz.: Reverend Messrs. Merrick, Smith, Plees, Kemp, Fothergill, Vial, Ross, King, W., VonIffland, Burrage, Thompson, Kerr, Lyster, Short, Washer, Richardson, Debbage, Woolryche, Mathers, Riopel, Foster, Roe, Jenkins, and Boydell.

PENSION FUND.

The order for a special sermon (not having been obeyed in several congregations) has not very materially increased the amount of this fund. Churchmen must again be reminded that this is the only source from which help can be drawn for those who have worn themselves out in the Ministry. A Missionary Church needs active men, but we cannot release our aged clergy from their missions unless we can offer them some means of support.

ENDOWMENT FUND.

A list of the Rural Endowment Funds, to which, we regret to state, no addition has been made during the year, will be found in the Clergy Trust Account, with the exception of that for Nicolet, which appears in the accounts of the Treasurer of the Society.

EDUCATION.

During the year aid has been extended to an additional school at East Frampton.

From the annexed tabular statement it will be seen that four schools have been vacant, and four others in operation only part of the year, in consequence of the difficulty in securing suitable Teachers. The schools of the Society are under the Inspectorship of the Rev. M. M. Fothergill.

GRANT OF LAND.

It is with much pleasure the Central Board begs to announce that E. H. Taylor, Esq., has very generously presented a valuable lot of land to the Church at Cumberland Mills, in the County of Beauce.

SECRETARY.

The Reverend A. J. Woolryche resigned the office of Secretary of the Church Society in the month of March, in consequence of his leaving the Mission of Levis for that of Stanstead in the Eastern Townships.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted :

“ That the Central Board, in accepting the resignation of the Reverend A. J. Woolryche as Secretary of the Church Society, desire to assure him of their regret at his departure from the neighborhood of Quebec, and their high sense of his talents and of the character which he has maintained during the seventeen years of his service in the diocese.”

The Reverend M. M. Fothergill was unanimously elected Secretary of the Society, in the room of the Rev. A. J. Woolryche, resigned.

LOSSES.

The Board regret to place on record the loss which the Society has sustained, during the year, in the removal by death of the Rev. R. G. Plees, Incumbent of St. Paul's, who was ever a zealous supporter of the Society, having for twelve years discharged the duties of Honorary Secretary of the Clergy Trust Committee, and was also, for many years, Inspector of the Schools aided by the Society ; also, of William Petry, Esquire, a Vice-President, and who formerly filled the important office of Treasurer, and to the day of his death was a liberal supporter of the Church in the Diocese.

R E P O R T
OF THE
ST. FRANCIS DISTRICT ASSOCIATION
OF THE
INCORPORATED CHURCH SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF QUEBEC,

For the year ending December, 1872.

The Reports of the Clergy furnish the most trustworthy evidence of the growth or decline of the Church within the District. It is to them we must look for information upon the various subjects of Church interest, and if, in some instances, we find drawbacks and hindrances and discouragements, and in others brightness and success, let us still be thankful, remembering that the Great Disposer of all events is watching over the most adverse circumstances, and in His own good time will bless the work of His own appointment.

On reference to the Clerical Reports, for the closing year, we find a record of two Church consecrations.

BROMPTON AND ULVERTON.

Christ Church, Brompton, is the first and only Protestant place of worship in the Township. It is a plain, but well proportioned, and very attractive wooden building, 50 ft. x 25 ft. inside, with porch and bell turret, and having sittings provided for 120 persons.

ULVERTON.

It cannot but be a matter for congratulation to the District of St. Francis that among a people, hitherto strangers to the Church of England, more than ordinary interest has been taken in the erection of this Church, and it is with feelings of satisfaction your Committee are informed that the people of Sherbrooke and Lennoxville are classed among the generous contributors to this object. It was set apart to God's, services, in consecration, by the Lord Bishop on All Saints Day.

The next subject of interest to which our attention is drawn by the Reports is the opening and dedication of a new Church at Upper Durham, and a like dedication of a new Church at South Durham, on Thanksgiving Day; and the enlargement of a Church, by the addition of a chancel and stained windows, in the village of Robinson.

Gratifying as it must be to every member of this Association to hear that these zealous efforts to afford additional Church accommodation have been crowned with success, we should receive the intelligence with some degree of humiliation when we learn that two Missions have been deprived of resident Pastors, while there still remains open ground for occupation where congregations of zealous worshippers could be built up, and this not only from want of means but want of men. It is a melancholy fact that the Clergy of the Diocese are not equal to its wants, nor the means at the Church's command equal to the requirements of the Diocese; and on this account the District of St. Francis has to deplore the vacancies of Hereford and Coaticook, and the sparse ministrations afforded to new settlements. May these sad realities awaken in us faith and prayer, and increased zeal for the prosperity of our Zion.

If we may be permitted to regard our Sunday-schools as the nurseries of our future Church members, it will be pleasing to learn that reference is made to their utility and prosperity in several of the Reports.

The Rev. H. Roe speaks of 29 teachers in our five Sunday-schools who deserve every commendation for their unwearied labours.

The Rev. H. J. Petry mentions a flourishing Sunday-school with a capital library.

The Rev. E. A. King, five Sunday-schools.

Rev. A. J. Balfour, Hatley, two Sunday-schools.

Rev. G. H. Parker, Kingsey, three Sunday-schools, and a very good library.

Rev. F. A. Smith, Georgeville, one Sunday-school.

Rev. J. Hopburn, Drummondville, two Sunday-schools.

These are the only Sunday-schools mentioned in the Reports, and your Committee has made allusion to them only because they have been referred to as doing a good work; but we are not to suppose any Church in the District is wanting in Sunday-schools.

One more subject appears to claim our attention,—it is the comparatively new feature of adding to the Church's funds by Missionary Boxes. In Sherbrooke the sum of $18 was collected for the Society by Missionary Boxes, entrusted to Sunday-school children.

In Durham, the sum of $46.06 was collected, in amounts varying from $1 to $15, by Missionary Boxes, kindly made and presented by Mr. Armine Nicolls.

EDWARD CULLEN PARKIN.

Secretary St. Francis District Association.

ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
DIOCESAN BOARD
TO THE CHURCH SOCIETY,
FOR 1872.

In presenting its Report for the year 1872, the Diocesan Board has much pleasure in stating that, whereas at the close of 1871 the Revenue Account exhibited a debtor balance of $341.94, the close of the past year leaves it in possession of a surplus of $900.

This agreeable fact may, at first sight, seem to conflict very strongly with the estimate of its Revenue Account for 1872, submitted by your Board in the last Report, by which a deficit of $869.98 was shown. But this discrepancy is seen at once to be merely apparent, when it is known that the Diocesan Board has received from the Mission Fund of your Society no less a sum than $4,258.13, being $1,446 in excess of the amount received in 1871, and $2,276, or more than double the amount subscribed in 1870; whilst it is also to be borne in mind that funds have also accumulated from vacancies in a number of Missions. Indeed, had it not been for these two causes the estimate referred to would have lain open to the charge of bearing too favourable an aspect, and in reality a much greater deficiency than was anticipated would have been announced. This will be made clear from the following abstract of the Revenue Account for the past year:

That it is mainly due to so large an increase in the subscriptions to the Mission Fund that your Board is able to report a surplus, instead of a deficit, is a most gratifying reflection, since it exhibits a growing interest in the Missionary operations of the Church, and proves the strong desire felt by many that no Mission in the Diocese shall be compelled, for the want of means, to forego the ministrations hitherto extended to it.

And the gratification felt by your Board does not end here, inasmuch as they have found themselves in a position, for the first time since their creation, to appropriate the large sum of $800 towards increasing the incomes of the Clergy. This amount will be at once paid to the Clergy in accordance with a scheme of distribution similar to that adopted in past years.

But while your Board would venture to express the hope that none of those who have recently come to its assistance, and so liberally given of their substance, for the cause of Christ and His Church, will make any reduction in their subscriptions for the future; and while, on the contrary, it is earnestly to be wished that the example may bear fruit far and wide; yet, from a practical point of view, the conviction cannot be avoided that it would be extremely hazardous to count upon a continuance of aid from this source to the same degree. It must be borne in mind that the greater part of the subscriptions to the Mission Fund during the past year have been of a special nature—given to meet a special want—and in many cases from special and personal circumstances.

In 1871 there were 32 Missions receiving aid from the Diocesan Board. There are now 30, Melbourne, having become self-sustaining since January 1st, 1872, and Georgeville not requiring aid so long as the Mission retains its present Clergyman.

During the past year Stanstead has been again placed on the list of Missions aided by the Board, and the old Mission of Levis and New Liverpool has been divided into two separate charges; the congregation of Trinity Church, Levis, undertaking the maintenance of their Clergyman without assistance; the congregation at New Liverpool receiving $100, which before long they will, no doubt, cease to require.

The Mission of the Peninsula and Grande Grève, (Gaspé,) has been united to Malbaie, and the whole placed under the care of the Rev. R. Mathers, a temporary arrangement, which entails much additional labour upon the Missionary, but the only feasible one under the present scarcity of Clergy.

This want of men for the work of the Ministry in the Missionary fields of the Diocese has been alluded to in former Reports to the Church Society, and seems to press with greater force every year. There are now three Missions in the Diocese without Clergymen, because there are none to be had, and a fourth whose Incumbent, from advanced age, asks for an assistant and offers to pay his stipend, cannot be supplied.

But, as is well known, this is not the only Diocese which suffers from this cause. The Bishops in other parts of the Dominion are calling for labourers, and calling in vain. The want, in fact, is so widespread as to be felt in the Missionary field throughout the whole world.

That this great evil—operating so long as it exists as a check to the progress of Christ's kingdom on earth—is due to more than one cause, is, no doubt, the simple truth; but among them, not to rank as one of the greatest, perhaps the very chief, the scanty stipends provided for the Clergy would be to exhibit a want of reflection on the subject.

When we consider that the Clergy are very properly required to be men of education, and consequently of a corresponding degree of refinement, and that they have to meet some expenses peculiar to their calling, when we look at the universal spread of science throughout the world, and its application to the varied wants and capacities of man, which infects all classes with a taste for luxury, the effects of these refined tastes upon the price of labour of all kinds and the high remuneration paid for even unskilled labour, when men further reflect upon the discomforts and hardships in which a Clergyman involves his family, under the present average income, not to speak of the time wasted and the toil endured in the manual labours he is obliged to perform, can we wonder if there are few who possess that burning zeal and spirit of self-denial necessary to overlook such considerations as those, and offer themselves for the work of Missionaries ?

That the cost of living has very much increased of late years is universally acknowledged. The pressure this occasions upon limited incomes is leading to a movement for increasing the salaries of officers under the Civil Government, and steps are also being taken in other Dioceses to raise the stipends of the Clergy.

The annual bonus, which the Church Society has enabled the Diocesan Board to pay for the last three years to the Clergy of this Diocese, has hitherto been the only mode by which effect could be given to your desire for an amelioration of their condition, and so far as it went it has doubtless been appreciated as a wise and salutary measure of relief. But your Board feel that the time has arrived when a more permanent and certain system of increase, of a more complete and liberal character, should take the place of these temporary gratuities. Your Board, therefore, recently adopted the report of a Committee recommending that the scale of payments, embodied in the IXth Canon of Synod and XIIIth Art. of Church Society, be repealed, and another substituted of a nature more adequate to existing wants and more just to the Clergy of our own Diocese.

The recommendations of the Report in question will be submitted to the Church Society at the present meeting, in order that action may be taken to give effect to the proposed scheme.

Notwithstanding that the Diocesan Board has been in operation over eleven years, some misapprehension is still found to exist as to the details by which its work is carried on. An abstract of its Rules and Regulations on certain important points, containing much necessary information for the Clergy and congregations connected with it, has therefore been recently circulated, with the recommendation of the Lord Bishop that a copy be affixed to every Church door.

During the past year the following appointments have been made by the Lord Bishop, and concurred in by the Board :

In the month of January, the Rev. A. J. Balfour to the Mission of Hatley and Waterville.

In the month of March, the Rev. A. J. Woolryche to the Mission of Stanstead.

In the month of May, the Rev. T. Richardson to the Mission of New Liverpool.

In the month of July, the Rev. T. I. Ball to the Mission of New Ireland; and the Rev. J. B. Debbage to the Mission of Bourg Louis and Portneuf.

In the month of September, the Rev. C. Thorp to the Mission of Hopetown. (This gentleman has since declined the appointment.)

In the month of October, the Rev. R. Mathers to the Mission of Peninsula and Grande Grève, in conjunction with Malbaie.

In the month of December, the Rev. C. B. Washier to the Mission of Stoneham and Lake Beauport.

The Reports of the Clergy serving under the Board are herewith annexed, from which much full and interesting information as to the special work in their respective Missions may be gathered, and to which your Society is respectfully referred for more particular details

EXTRACTS FROM REPORTS OF MISSIONARIES.

SHIPTON AND TINGWICK.

This is the seventh year of my work in this interesting Mission. I thankfully record it, that I have been permitted to see some fruits of my ministry. In Shipton, the Congregation attending St. Augustine's Church has trebled in numbers; there is also a flourishing Sunday-school, possessing a capital Library of interesting books. It must be remembered that the growth of the Church in a district like this cannot be very rapid, though it be sure. It is, at present, the little leaven which, in time, I hope may leaven the whole lump. The wonder is that the Church ever found a foothold in this place at all, and a still greater wonder that she kept it. In this little village, whose corporation limits are a mile square, we have seven denominations. The majority of our members do not live in Danville; in fact, within the corporation limits, we have not half a dozen bond fide church families; the congregation is principally made up of farmer's families who live miles away. Most of our men of substance and property are members of other christian bodies; our people, on the whole, are not well off. In the Tingwick settlement there is but one place of worship, namely, our own; the congregation, of course, is twice that of Danville; in fact, Tingwick, with the borders of Warwick and Arthabaska, should form a distinct Mission; there are more Church families in this section than are comprised in two or three other missions which I could name, put together. The work here is growing too much for one man,—every year I feel the deepening necessity either for a regular sub-division of this overgrown mission, or for the aid of a coadjutor. Shipton alone is quite enough to give plenty of employment to any one man, and I hope the day is not far distant when Tingwick will have its own resident Clergyman.

Since my last report the services have been uninterruptedly rendered in each mission. During the spring, for five consecutive Sundays the roads were so bad, that rather than run the risk of breaking the legs of my venerable and faithful mare, I hired a carter to drive me out to Tingwick Church, eight miles distant.

During the summer months, and until the roads broke up, I held a School-house mission service every fortnight, on a Friday evening, seven miles away, on the Felkirk road. Always after service a confirmation lecture was given to candidates for that apostolic rite; we expect the Bishop this winter, and are consequently busy with our young people. In most cases I have to visit the candidates at their own houses; they live at such distances from Danville, and so isolated from each other, that it becomes necessary to see them separately, or not see them at all.

With regard to domiciliary visiting, one of the most important features in a Pastor's work,—of course, the aged, the sick, and the infirm have the first claims upon my time,—but I aim, in addition, to make the grand rounds of the mission, (in area 400 square miles) four times a year; once a quarter. With regard to cases of sickness, I am anxious to impress upon my people the necessity as well as the justice of personally letting me know, instead of, as is generally the case, taking it for granted that some how or other I will hear of it. I have repeatedly informed my flock that I am ready and willing, by night or by day, to attend to cases of emergency if only they will take the trouble, as they are passing my door for the Doctor, to stop a moment and let me know. I presume that in most parishes matters in this particular respect are the same.

I am glad to say that my people are going to bestir themselves earnestly in the matter of a Parsonage, which is sadly needed. The cottage in which we have resided for the past seven years, and which has received no repairs for the last twenty years, is beginning to show signs of general demoralization, and as its numerous proprietors decline to spend anything on the "old thing," as they call it, it becomes imperatively necessary to take steps for the erection of a Parsonage. The two Missions will be thoroughly canvassed first, and then our friends outside will be modestly solicited to aid us. Many are surprised we continue to live in a house which, in addition to its increasing delapidation, is daily becoming more unpleasant, if not unwholesome, from defective drainage and bad smells; during the spring the cellar is simply a swamp; but we cannot help ourselves; there are no houses to let, and we must do our best in the hope of being bettered before long.

I have to thank Messrs. Wm. Robertson and David Thurber, of Tingwick, as also Messrs. Charles Thurber and Simeon Glidden, of Shipton, for their truly valuable services as Wardens.

My Registers for the year ending November 30th, 1872, exhibit the following statistics:—

HENRY JAMES PETRY, B. A.,

Missionary in charge.

KINGSEY.

In sending the report for this Mission for the year which is drawing to a close, there are two things of special interest and satisfaction to ourselves. One, the possessing a tolerably fair Sunday-school and Parish Library, or Libraries, as they are quite distinct from each other--and another, the having obtained a Harmonium for the Church, especially as both the Library and Instrument were much needed. Early in the present year we had a very successful Parish gathering, when the idea of having a Library was suggested, certainly with some doubts as to whether it were not too visionary, which doubts were soon removed, as the idea was at once taken up and quickly carried out. Two of the people took the matter in hand and in a few days got together between fifty and sixty dollars amongst themselves. A Sunday-school Library was at once purchased, and a number of books were ordered from England for the Adult Library, and in the month of August were placed in the Church for the use of the people. There are in all, in the Adult Library, some sixty volumes, and judging from the eager way in which they are sought after and read, are not a little appreciated.

The Harmonium, so much needed, we owe to the exertions of the Misses Cox, who took it in hand from the first and have succeeded in securing one. It was purchased in Quebec at a cost of $140, of which between twenty and thirty dollars remain yet to be made up. It is to be placed in the Church for Christmas Day.

Outwardly and materially there is cause for satisfaction and thankfulness. Of the inward life, the spiritual state, one can only hope. The Congregations have been much as in former years, usually firm and attentive, and one can only hope that the teaching, weak though it be, will not be altogether without fruit.

By the kind assistance of some ladies in the Mission, I have been enabled to carry on three small Sunday-schools in different parts of the Mission through the summer, and hope to continue them partially through the winter.

DURHAM.

This has been an eventful year for Durham. In last report the debt on the Mission, with sum required for completing one of the Churches, was stated as at least $2700, and the belief was expressed that the end of the present Christian year would testify to much having been done. In redemption, therefore, of that pledge, made in behalf of the Mission, it must be stated that the Church at L'Avenir has been restored and consecrated. The new brick Church at Upper Durham has been finished and dedicated. The debt upon it (assumed by the people) has been much reduced by additional subscriptions—$300 coming in equal sums from but six families. By what are termed "socials" and other entertainments were realized $260 for cabinet-organ and Building Fund.

At South Durham a third Church, similar to the one at Upper Durham, and, like it, costing about $2500, was formally opened on Thanksgiving Day. The funds for completing it had been obtained by most generous contributions from abroad, as follows: Quebec, $215; Sherbrooke, $50; Richmond and Melbourne, $40; Drummondville, $25; Bishop's College, $10; Messrs. Gardner Stevens, $20; Wm. Mountain, $5; Thos. McFadden, $2; with additional subscriptions and work from the people themselves. Promises have also been made in reference to the still remaining debt of about $800. The seats in all three Churches are free and unappropriated.

On Dominion Day preparations were made to give a parochial welcome to the Rev. Mr. Carr (on a visit to his former parish), and also to give holiday-pleasure to the English lads from Industrial Schools; but, unfortunately, were rendered almost fruitless by unpropitious weather.

For concerts, thanks are due chiefly to amateurs of Acton, Upton, Richmond, Melbourne and Lennoxville.

That the Church is growing in the affections of the people, and taking deeper root in the land, is evinced by the erection of handsome edifices for divine worship, and by the willing and hearty co-operation of the laity with the clergyman in all good works. Here allusion is in particular made to those who act as organists for the various congregations, and also to all those who are unwearied in hospitality and kindness towards the Incumbent.

ERNEST AUG. W. KING.

DRUMMONDVILLE.

As I have only been labouring in this parish for four months a full report cannot be expected. Upon the departure of Mr. Allnatt to Labrador, I was appointed to fill his place for the time, and on August 2nd I began my duties. It is with great pleasure that I testify to the great affection of every member of the church for my predecessor. His unwearied labours amongst them are highly appreciated by all, and his godly life and conversation have left an impression upon many which time will not efface. His plan of working the parish commended itself to me, and I am endeavouring to carry on what he began so successfully, feeling assured that I cannot improve upon it. Services are held at the Parish Church Sunday morning and evening, chief holidays, and during Advent and Lent on week days.

There are two Sunday-schools, respectively six and four miles distant from the Parish Church, which I take charge of on alternate Sundays, one of which, in my absence, is presided over by Mr. Donald Sutherland; but the other, from want of teachers, is vacant. At these stations catechetical instruction is given, in addition to the usual afternoon services, and old as well as young attend them.

Three other schools are kindly provided for each week by Mrs. Gill, Miss Watts and Miss Millar. All the scholars from the different schools are brought together to the Parish Church on the last Sunday in the month, to be publicly catechized at a special service held at 2.15 p.m.

Holy Communion is administered on the first Sunday in each month, Christmas, Easter and Whit-Sunday.

Considering the resources of the people of Drummondville, the above figures speak well in their favor.

It is with great regret that I record the death of one of the oldest and staunchest supporters of the Church in this parish, Miss Jane Marler. When I came to enter upon my work I found her confined to her room, and after a short but very severe illness of twelve days she breathed her last.

The season has been unusually unhealthy, and much the greater part of my time thus far has been taken up in attending to the sick.

Freedom from dissent is one bright feature of this Mission, which makes the work of the Clergyman much easier for him and more profitable for the people.

JAMES HEPBURN.

ACTON.

In presenting the report for this year, I have nothing extraordinary to relate, except it be the movement among the French Canadians. To me it appears wonderful to see how the word of God is opening their minds to the perception of the truth as it is in Jesus. Where the soil to all appearance was but an arid plain, without any productive power, we find plants of Heavenly growth. But the child of faith need not find it strange, for is not "the word of God quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit and of the joints and marrow, and a discoverer of the thoughts and intents of the heart?"

This autumn I resumed the weekly meetings at the different French Protestant houses in the concessions, and great interest was shown. It was said of the Jews in Berea that they were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily whether those things spoken of by the Apostles were so, and really it is a noble sight to see at our meetings the scriptures searched diligently. In this way the hearts of our French brethren are warmed and their faith confirmed--and they are ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh them a reason of the hope that is in them with meekness and fear. And as they are zealous, in what to them is the new way, opportunities are not wanting for them to infuse some of the good leaven into the minds of their neighbours. In any case, duties are ours and the consequences belong to God; and to try and quell this movement towards the light would be fighting against God. If it is necessary to show more tangible proofs of the progress of the work of the Gospel, I rejoice in being able to state that I have now ten regular communicants of French extraction.

Last summer, as our melodeon in the Church had been injured in various ways, it was decided to make an exchange, and we have now one of Estey's make, worth over $400.

I am thankful to say that the attendance at the Church services is gradually becoming greater, and the prospects are that it will continue to improve, as the Glasgow company that purchased the mines in the vicinity of the village have commenced working them, though it be on a very small scale. The winter was coming on when the purchase was effected, and it could not be expected that much could be done before next spring.

It is a subject of satisfaction that the moneys raised for Church purposes have kept up the usual average. At the last assessment our amount was increased $40. We have been enabled to forward regularly our quota to the Treasurer of the Board. With respect to the offertory collections, I am happy to be enabled to show a marked improvement, this year they average $2.70.

LOUIS G. WURTELE.

DUDSWELL.

The attendance during the past year at St. Paul's, Marbleton and all out stations, of which I have four in my Mission, has been fair, except South Ham. This station I will cease to visit regularly by-and-by when one or two more Church families leave, the congregations are so small. South Ham has now a French Church and new Court House, and is the chief-lieu of the County, and will shortly be a purely French settlement. The little settlement in Stoke I have visited but a few times during the year, in consequence of poor health and the very bad condition of the road. This part of my mission I once had some hope of, but it is not destined to come to much, in consequence of French colonization. Instead of Stoke, I opened in August last, through the very kind assistance of Mr. G. N. Roche, Divinity Student of Bishop's College, a new service at the River School-house, which has, so far, been very well attended. This place is the centre of population, is only six miles off, and will have one of the two railway stations in this Township.

With the exception of the time when I was suffering from a very severe attack of congestion of the lungs, last winter, and a minor attack of the same at the setting in of the present one, I have maintained Church services in the Mission with regularity. These two illnesses laid me aside from all labour for ten weeks.

We had three Missionary meetings last February, attended by the Rev. Mr. Roe and Mr. Sykes. The speeches were full of interest, but the attendance, except at Marbloton, was small, in consequence of the very bad weather and roads. These meetings might be made much more successful if they were generally held about the New Year, before the roads became too much blocked by snow.

Our new Church Model School has been doing good service since its opening in November, 1871. The scholastic year is forty-four weeks. The programme of studies is fair for a country village. In addition to the branches taught in Elementary Schools we have added English and Canadian History, Algebra, English Composition and French. We expect to open classes shortly in Agriculture, Chemistry, Book-keeping and Geometry. Besides a pair of Globes, we have a complete set of maps, illustrating all periods of Scripture History, also sets for Ancient and Modern History, and another for Physical Geography; also a large number of Educational diagrams illustrating the laws of forces, the mechanical powers, human anatomy, &c.

I have endeavoured to do something in the way of Sunday-schools by purchasing and partly distributing 100 copies of the Calvary Catechism and 75 copies of "The Child's Scripture Question Book." I must not omit to thank the Society in aiding my efforts by a grant of books for use in Sunday-schools. We have in prospect a Christmas Tree and a repast for the children. If we were not so isolated in this Mission, and could obtain the assistance of friends from outside occasionally, to address the children, to amuse them with the magic lantern, &c., it would assist not a little in keeping up an interest in Sunday-school instruction.

THOS. L. CHAPMAN.

HATLEY AND WATERVILLE.

Little more than nine months have elapsed since my appointment to this Mission: this report will therefore extend over but that period.

The congregation of St. James', Hatley, had unhappily been without the ministrations of the Church for the ten months immediately preceding my arrival. And during that interim an event occurred which well nigh disheartened some of the already much grieved parishioners. A tornado in its narrow but extended pathway of destruction blew to the ground the lofty spire and entire Western end of the parish Church, leaving the interior wholly exposed, to the very chancel. In this sad condition it remained for some length of time. We have now, however, without seeking extraneous aid, succeeded in repairing the building, so far as intended, at a cost of little more than $300, of which about $90 yet remains to be paid. To paint and otherwise render it more worthy of being what it is called will necessitate the expenditure of at least $300 more. This we hope in time to accomplish. Our congregations here have been called large, having averaged during the summer 71, during the autumn 60.

The introduction of Hymns A & M., our weekly Church practices, the circulation of many Prayer and Hymn-Books, with the constant endeavour to make the singing as congregational and the responding as general as possible, have, I think, tended to add life and heartiness to our service.

Would indeed very much that I could give a like favourable report as to the number of communicants. Nor can I attribute the fewness of the number to the greater frequency with which the Blessed Sacrament is now administered than heretofore. May God so bless my endeavours that I may be enabled to report differently next year.

In Waterville, though really smaller, the congregations are larger in proportion to the Church population than in Hatley. The appreciation here shown for the services of the Sanctuary and the devotion and heartiness manifested during them are gratifying to witness.

Within the past six months each congregation has lost one of its most valuable and esteemed members; each has left a blank which will long be felt.

With the kind assistance of four teachers, two Sunday-schools have been maintained, one in connection with either Church, and each has been superintended by myself. In the autumn a Sunday-school fête was held, which was a source of much pleasure, not to children only, but to their parents and others as well.

Two confirmation classes are held. But owing to the distance at which they reside from the Church, most of the candidates for confirmation have to be visited and instructed at their own homes.

During the past nine months Divine Service has been held regularly on Sundays and chief Holidays, at Hatley and Waterville, and occasionally elsewhere, 92 times in all.

Soon after my arrival, I proposed to hold a third service consecutively at the village of West Hatley and two other outposts, but my offer met with no encouragement whatever. Wrong perhaps it was to wait for it, but a mistaken prejudice against the Church being the chief obstacle, I thought a little time might be well improved in trying to overcome it; during the summer it was so made use of, chiefly through the sick room. In the autumn, a Sunday evening service was appointed in the village of West Hatley (as yet held but fortnightly) and thus far the attendance thereupon has been large and regular, there having been at no time less than forty of a congregation. To be sure four-fifths of them do not even profess to belong to the Church, nor follow the service. But with God's blessing upon our labours, better things may be expected. A School-house was at first selected in which to worship, but a Union Church having been offered, it was accepted in preference.

The Holy Communion has been administered once a month in St. James', Hatley, and St. John's, Waterville, and five times privately.

Marriages, 3; Baptisms, 9; Burials, 13; Parochial Visits, 482.

STANSTEAD.

The Mission of Stanstead was re-opened in May last. The members of the Church of England constitute a very small community. I notice, however, an increase, as well in number as regularity, of attendance at our Sunday services. The members of our choir are meritoriously unremitting in the discharge of their voluntary duties. I desire to record that I have received nothing but uniform kindness and thoughtful consideration since my appointment to this charge. In addition to acts of substantial kindness to myself, the congregation have recently raised $100 towards furnishing the chancel, besides making alterations within the Church, which it is hoped will conduce to the due and orderly performance of Divine Worship.

I deem it a duty to state that it is impossible for a clergyman with a family to secure here the necessaries of life on the allowance made by the Diocesan Board, viz., $600 per annum.

GEORGEVILLE.

In endeavouring to comply with the Society's rule, and at the close of the year to send you a report of the state and prospects of the Church in this Mission, I cannot speak of any extraordinary progress which has been made, or very striking events which have occurred, to vary the sameness of Clerical duty in a quiet and secluded country place. I may mention, however, as something worthy of being recorded, that during the month of June we were favoured with a visit from the Bishop. The presence of his Lordship was quite a remarkable occurrence in the quaint and rather sleepy little village of Georgeville, and in the evening a number were attracted to the Church to witness the solemn rite of Confirmation and to hear the Bishop's address upon the work of the Church in her foreign Missions. At the close of the meeting a tolerable collection was taken up and afterwards remitted to the Treasurer of the S. P. G. to aid the work in the South Sea Islands, with which the honoured name of Bishop Patteson will be ever associated. One of those upon whom his Lordship laid hands was an elderly and respectable member of our community who, like so many in these townships, had lived for years unbaptized. He was, however, admitted to the Church by Holy Baptism during the incumbency of my predecessor, and together with his wife, who had previously been a Congregationalist, came forward for confirmation. On the first opportunity they joined, I am glad to say, the number of our communicants.

A little later in the season, much to our gratification, the Bishop of New Hampshire preached for us on the Lord's Day a sermon not soon to be forgotten.

Our Church edifice is still, I grieve to say, in debt and unfinished, although owing chiefly to the kindness and liberality of friends of the good cause in Quebec, Montreal and Toronto, I have reduced the debt from $1000 to $800. Our ladies are now busily at work with a view to a bazaar at Christmas time still further to lessen that formidable debt.

The number of summer visitors attracted by the beauty of our scenery has been larger this year than previously, and whilst they were amongst us our congregation was visibly increased.

Our Sunday-school is better attended than formerly, and a pic-nic at the base of the romantic Owl's Head Mountain, was a great gratification to the children attending it.

Of difficulties and discouragements we have, I believe, our full share. The abounding irreligion, indeed, I may say heathenism, is truly disheartening. Yet there are a few at least to whom Christ is precious and who love His Church and her ministrations; thus we venture to hope for better and brighter days.

MAGOG.

In sending my report to the Society, of Church work in this Mission I feel very thankful to Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts, that I am able to speak of progress made (material and spiritual) since last year. The people of Magog as a class are unable to boast of wealth, nearly all here have as much as they can do to make a decent living and so make both ends meet. Nor does our village at present, although possessing a first class water power, resound with the clang of busy industry, which goes to make other towns and Missions prosperous, and which further helps men not a little to point to well built and well filled Churches, the results of a short period of labour. But what we as a Church have in Magog we owe partly to the generosity of able and noble minded Churchmen living in our larger towns and cities, and partly to the gifts of the villagers, who have given to the best of their ability out of their poverty; our's is the fruit of faith, prayer, patience and perseverance.

Three years ago I came to Magog, it was then, comparatively speaking, a new Mission. There was then no Church building here, and but few representatives of our cause, the great majority of the people were then, and are still, dissenters. For eighteen months, through two cold winters, we carried on our work in the delapidated and very uncomfortable school-house of the village, where I had actually to stuff the holes in the floor with rags in order to keep out the cold winds. In this way we conducted our services and so kept our own Church people together and steadily added recruits to our numbers from the people of the place, and by degrees we felt our way to begin the erection of a suitable house of God, in which to worship him more decently and in better order.

In my last report I spoke of our little Church being in an unfinished condition, unplastered and unpainted. This year the people set to work to complete the building, some gave money, others materials and their labour, with which we built a neat porch to our front door, and a snug little vestry on to one side of the chancel; this work cost us $130. We have painted the Church outside a light stone colour. Inside the walls are nicely plastered; our open roof, which is ceiled and paneled with well seasoned spruce boards, and all the other wood work of the Church has been nicely stained and varnished. The plastering and painting cost us a sum of $220. So that we have had to raise $350. To make this sum up we were compelled to borrow $100 for 6 months at 8 per cent per annum, which leaves us with a finished Church and a hundred dollar debt.

We hope to be able to clear off this debt sometime during this winter, for we have nearly one half of the sum promised. I am very eager to present the Church to the Bishop as soon as possible for consecration. Next year we hope to be able to build a tower and spire; a member of the Church who has lately made a little money by the invention of a crushing mill has promised to give us a good bell whenever we are ready with a place to hang it in.

In the month of June last the Bishop, with Mrs. Williams, paid a visit to our Mission, and a most interesting time it was for the people. Mrs. Williams in visiting the people at their homes has left behind her many good impressions, and the people now speak of "the kindly manner of the Bishop's lady."

On the Sunday of the Bishop's visit we held services in our Church. In the morning the Bishop received into the Ark of Christ's Church through the waters of Baptism, three infants and three Sunday-school scholars, the latter some of the fruits of a three years Mission. There were nine candidates for Confirmation, eight of them remained to the Holy Communion. The whole service was very impressive, our crowded Church, the Bishop's earnest manner, his soul-stirring and simple sermon and address to the Candidates, will not soon be forgotten by the people of this part of the great harvest field of Our Lord.

Since our Church has been finished there is a marked increase in the size of our Congregations, and a greater interest displayed in our work by all parties. The people have now a comfortable Church to worship in, a Church whose seats are free to all comers, for my own idea is that the house of God should be free. We have a collection made after each service on Sundays and week days. I am pleased to say that the people are beginning to value the opportunity thus afforded them for helping on the work of God.

Our Sunday-school, still the only one in the village, is well attended, and the children are great helpers in all Church work. I have the promise of three stained glass windows for the Chancel whenever our Church is thoroughly completed and out of debt.

It is needless, perhaps, to say that the future success of this Mission will depend entirely upon the ability of the society to give these people regular and frequent services. At present we hold morning and evening service in the village, with Sunday-school in the afternoon, and a service on Saints-days in the evening, and a service every Wednesday evening, with a choir practice afterwards.

The following amounts have been collected in the Mission since advent Sunday, 1871. It will be seen that as yet we have been unable to do anything towards objects outside the Mission, this arises not from unwillingness, but from sheer inability; however, perhaps next year will see us in a more flourishing condition.

BURY AND LINGWICK.

I am thankful to be able to communicate to your Society that the year of 1872 has been marked by many outward tokens of a growing interest in the work of the Church.

The Church attendance at the various stations in this Mission has been regular, and in respect of numbers good.

On the 30th of June last the Lord Bishop of the Diocese held a confirmation in the village Church of St. Paul's, when thirty-one candidates were confirmed, three adult persons having been previously baptized.

The preparation of these candidates for this Apostolic rite afforded me great pleasure, manifesting as they did an eager desire to understand, and readiness to converse about the things which concern their peace. I have endeavoured to supplement these meetings by the Bible Class, which still continues (to some extent I trust) to be a source of profit and pleasure to both Pastor and people.

With regard to the temporal interests of the Church in this Mission, I am happy to be able to state that there is an increasing desire and corresponding effort upon the part of the various congregations "gladly to give of that little" which, as a rule, they possess. The accompanying statement is perhaps the best evidence that I can adduce in support of this, the sum of $755.50 having been raised in the whole Mission since January 1st, 1872.

A chancel has been erected, and is now nearly complete, to satisfy the increasing demands for church room.

The "lovers of the beautiful" among the congregation of St. Paul have subscribed the sum of $50 to buy stained windows for the chancel. These windows have just arrived, and we hope shortly to see them adding to the beauty of the House of God. But while there are not wanting many pleasing evidences of progress and interest, there is still much to engage the heart and mind of every lover of the Church. Nor must we lose sight of the fact that we fall very far short of attaining to the measure which the pious Israelite of old considered the least which he could offer as a fitting tribute of love and thanksgiving to his God.

Adjoined is a tabular statement of all moneys raised in the Mission, by the respective congregations, from January 1st, 1872, to December 1st, 1872.

COOKSHIRE, EATON.

In reporting, for the information of the Church Society, the state of the Church in this Mission, I should perhaps state all that I can do by saying that with one or two unavoidable exceptions the services of the Church have been regularly held and well attended; but as I believe some account of outside Missionary work may be interesting, I beg to make a short reference to it. In the early part of the present year I addressed a letter to the Church Society and to the Diocesan Board representing the necessity which existed of supplying the Townships of Newport and Ditton with a settled pastor, but unfortunately for the people, two obstacles presented themselves, viz.: The want of means and of men.

With this reply from the Church Society and Diocesan Board, I was requested to continue my ministrations to those people as my health would permit, and I have endeavoured to do so. There is a good deal of hardship attending these duties for a man of my age, e. g. the last time I went out I drove 20 miles, and arriving at my lodgings had to light my own fire before disrobing myself. All my bedding in the house was frozen together, and as I had a journey of eight miles further to go, I hung it around the stove, to air for my return; in the evening. I proceeded on my journey, had a service; returned, and passed my lodgings a mile, had an evening service and then returned to my abode, replenished my fire, made my bed, partook of my home-prepared meal, and retired to rest, in the morning I had to repeat the operation of making my fire, and getting my own breakfast. It is always a source of comfort to me to know that my ministrations are received with thankfulness and very greatly appreciated, and I have reason to hope they are received with profit. Upon more than one occasion it has been my happy lot to administer comfort to the distressed, and I believe the visits of a clergyman tend more than any other circumstance to make these people reconciled to their isolated homes. They invariably bring their Bibles and Prayer Books to the services, and respond heartily in the prayers.

EDWARD CULLEN PARKIN.

VALCARTIER.

I have nothing of particular interest to report from this Mission for the year 1872. The attendance at Church has been, on the average, not so steady as it was last year. A good attendance is satisfactory and encouraging, but no proof of prosperity in religion if it be not accompanied by a visible devotional zeal and hearty readiness to answer every call of religious duty, not grudgingly or of necessity, as if counting the cost, but with a cheerful and ready mind. Religion prospers where our people take an interest in the house of God, not as visitors, but co-workers spending and being spent; where the Holy Table is habitually frequented, the temple service heartily rendered, not fitfully listened to, and the temple itself with access to it kept decently and in order; where the parsonage house with its surroundings is kept comfortable and provided with all necessary requirements; where brotherly love and good fellowship prevail throughout the congregation; where these things are visible and abound there is religious life and growth, the condition and prospects of such parish or mission is hopeful.

Measuring my Report by this standard I cannot be boastful. We have regularly paid our quarterly assessment when due; and separated the sanctuary from the chancel by railing. In this latter work I was assisted chiefly by personal friends at Lachine; in other pecuniary efforts it has been with us a day of small things. His Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese held a confirmation in the Mission during the month of July, when twenty-two Candidates were presented.

A. BALFOUR.

EAST FRAMPTON.

As there are two distinct congregations in this Mission, Standon and Hemison, I will treat of them separately. Standon being the more distant (some forty-four miles) from Quebec, will be noticed first. Here were I to consult merely my own feelings, silence would be my motto, for where there is not much of an encouraging nature to write about, I would rather be mute; but this mode would not have the effect of meeting what is required of me, so I will go on.

First, then, the Church of the Epiphany, Standon, is steadily being depopulated of church members. Since I came here, now a little over three years, no fewer than six families of our better-to-do farmers and pew-holders have left the country altogether. At this present moment there are five more farms, owned by pew-holders, offered for sale, which as soon as effected they leave the country also. Moreover, since I was placed in charge of this Mission, I have married some three or four couple at this station, but they have all, with the exception of one couple, as soon as married left the place to seek their fortunes in other climes. Enough has been stated to show that the prospects of this congregation are anything but flattering. In fact, if that moving propensity in the inhabitants of Standon is not soon checked, and I see no reason why it should be checked, the future of this part of my charge is too dark for me to prognosticate. If, under existing circumstances, there is not some mitigation on the part of the Diocesan Board (and it is not for me to say whether there should be or not) with regard to its requirements from this congregation—either that or they will have to be amalgamated with some other congregation. One of these two alternatives, in my humble opinion, must be effected, or their fate is sealed.

Standon Sunday collections amount to $20.30.

We now leave Standon, with all its gloomy prospects, and turn our thoughts to St. Paul's Church, Hemison, which may be considered the head-quarters of this Mission. Here I rejoice to say that though the present and future prospects of the last place described were dark and unpromising, the very reverse may be said of the Hemison congregation. Here, taking a retrospect of the year which is now leaving us, there is much to be thankful for; and if we are to judge of the future, from our experience of the past and present, the prospects of this congregation accordingly may be looked upon, both spiritually and financially, as in a flourishing and cheering condition, as evidence of which the few following facts (leaving many unnoticed) may be stated. The number of our communicants is gradually increasing, the Sunday services well attended, the average number during the summer months about seventy-five, but not so large in winter. Our pew rents, which are pretty regularly paid, amount to something over our annual liabilities to the Diocesan Board, one hundred and ten dollars. Our Sunday collections last year more than doubled those of any former years. And here I may acknowledge much increased attention and kindness from my people. This may be applied to both congregations as a general thing, but one or two individuals in particular deserve richly to be mentioned; Mr. George Bagnall, whose lot was not certainly cast among the rich of this world; though he gives much proof of being rich towards God. This person gave all the timber (free of cost to the Mission) for my stable, and came himself and gave a willing hand, with several others, to put it up. Again, as the Parsonage house is erected on a new and uncultivated piece of land, in consequence of which I had no suitable pasturage, and therefore was unable to keep a cow during the summer months, but owing to the unbounded and increasing kindness of Mrs. Wm. Henderson, both I and my family have been well supplied with all the necessaries of life; I may further state that my congregation, unsolicited, generally furnish me with about half the firewood required to heat the Parsonage free of cost. These things form, at least, an evidence of the amiability of the people, and I trust that they do not spring wholly out of that, but come of the good-will which has its seat in higher and more spiritual sources than man's amiability.

We have two day schools established in this Mission, with an average attendance of twenty children at each. We were fortunate in procuring two Teachers, Miss Hill and Mr. Stickley, in whose fidelity and industry any country Mission, or Missionary, may be proud of. The result is, our schools are doing well. In short our school accommodations are quite adequate to the requirements of the congregation, for which boon we are largely indebted to the liberal assistance which we have received from both the Colonial and Continental, as well as the Church Society.

As this is the first report which I have sent in since I was placed in charge of this mission, it may not be considered out of place for me here to state that since I was put in charge, during the summer of 1870, we have enhanced the value of church property here about eleven hundred dollars, free of all incumbrances. This includes something over $200 collected from friends of the Church in Quebec, and $100 kindly granted by the Church Society. But it does not include $105 which I now have in my possession, to be expended on the ceiling of the Church. This latter amount I collected last autumn when in Quebec, where I was ably assisted by our energetic Lay Delegate, George Hall, Esqr., who headed the list with ten dollars, and then kindly went round with me, he doing the disagreeable, i. e., the begging, I acting as Treasurer to the honorable expedition.

It is nothing but just to state that the members of the Standon congregation contributed, if not their share, certainly, considering their abilities, what reasonably could be expected of them, toward the furtherance of the Parsonage house.

Before closing I may here state that the regular services have been duly maintained, with the exception of a few interruptions caused by stress of weather and impassable roads.

It was stated before that the congregations in this Mission were good and attentive. I may here add in both cases that they are much and strongly attached to their Church, for which, under God, we are much indebted to the faithful and untiring labors of my immediate predecessor, the Rev. J. H. Jenkins, who in the execution of his arduous duty, which extended, before the division of the Mission, over an area of something like three hundred square miles. This field he occupied for fourteen years single-handed, and had to face many a pelting storm, biting frost, breasted and forded many a flooded river, late and early in the season, at times when, and places where, many of the sturdy inhabitants would have shrunk back with horror.

FELIX BOYLE.

NEW LIVERPOOL.

Having only been a short time at New Liverpool, my report must be necessarily brief. On arriving at a new sphere of labour every thing at first seems strange, and it takes some little time to fairly settle down and know the people, and be known by them so as to have their confidence and esteem. But two circumstances, I am thankful to say, took away all impressions of strangeness when I first came here, last June. One, the very kind and hearty reception I met with from every one here; and the other the well-ordered condition of Church matters which, thanks to my predecessor, Mr. Woolryche, and the Church-Wardens, I found in the Mission.

New Liverpool, as the Society well knows, was formerly connected with Levis, but since May, has become a separate Mission. The congregation generously contributes $500 per annum towards the Clergyman's support.

Our Sunday-school is small, but I suppose it is as large as we can expect for some time to come. We have 30 on the list, with an average attendance of about 20. We sadly want a lending library for the children, and I hope, by next year we may be able to report one.

We have two services every Sunday in church, and very good congregations in the summer, not so many of course in the winter, for then several of our parishioners go to town.

We have a good harmonium and a zealous choir, and our services in Church are, as they should be, bright and hearty, joined in with spirit and understanding by nearly all present.

We want a font very badly, at present we have what I suppose we may call an ornamented basin on a pedestal of chalk, painted so as to resemble black marble, and this pedestal, by the way, is in a dreadfully dilapidated condition. Should any wealthy, generous Churchman be disposed to make us a present of a Font, I know it would be most thankfully received, and he will be doing the Church a great service.

Another want in the Parish, which I am in hopes will soon be remedied, is that of a Parsonage. Of course, having been united hitherto with Levis, the Parsonage has been there, towards which the New Liverpool people, I think, contributed very nearly $800, that being the head-quarters of the united Missions. Now that the Missions are separated, we have to commence afresh; but I have no doubt, with our own exertions, supplemented, as we hope they will be, with those of the bulk of our neighbors at Levis, and our friends in Quebec, when I present my next report I shall be able to announce the fact that the Parsonage at Now Liverpool is fairly in hand, if not fully completed.

As to the spiritual condition of those committed to my charge; this is, of course, a subject which every Clergyman mentions with diffidence, being more or less open to the charge of egotism and presumption on the one hand, and despondency and censoriousness on the other; all I can say is, my people, one and all, expressed their delight at having a resident Clergyman among them, and have very generally availed themselves of every opportunity of public worship, and though I could wish that the attendance at the Holy Communion was greater than it is, yet I suppose that even in this respect we must hope for the best, and pray, that with patience and faithful teaching, "line upon line, and precept upon precept," our Heavenly Father will be pleased to bless our endeavors, cause the seed sown in His name to prosper, and increase the number of the faithful amongst us.

A meeting of the Rural Deanery of Quebec was held in our Church last August, preceded by a celebration of the Holy Communion; and a Missionary Meeting was held in the evening, when addresses were given by the Rural Dean, (the Rev. A. Balfour), the Rev. J. H. Jenkins, T. Ball, J. Kemp and myself, on the work of our Church at home and abroad.

For financial matters I beg to refer you to the subjoined report of the Church-wardens, which, considering the paucity of our numbers, is, I think, very creditable.

THOMAS RICHARDSON,
Incumbent.

BOURG-LOUIS.

I have been in this Mission only a little over two months. I left my former Mission in the Gulf last September, and came here at the commencement of October. Several months before I was removed I expressed a wish to that effect to the Bishop; yet no Clergyman could be found ready to take up the work I was leaving. I believe the Mission is still vacant. No doubt this is one case amongst many. It is, nevertheless, sad that a Mission, like that of Hopetown and Port Daniel, should be left vacant, and the people without those ministrations of religion which they so much value.

The present Mission is a double one. It comprises both Bourg-Louis and Portneuf, which were formerly two distinct Missions. Each has a Church, which are nineteen or twenty miles apart. In addition to the services in the Churches I have services in a school-house at Portneuf, also in a private house at the Red Bridge. In summer there has been service in both Churches every Sunday. But it is impossible to have services in both Churches on one day in winter with only one Clergyman. So I am obliged to have service in the Church and in the school-house at Portneuf one Sunday, and on the other Sunday morning service in the Church at Bourg-Louis and evening service at the Red Bridge.

As regards financial affairs, Portneuf pays its assessment, &c., regularly, but Bourg-Louis is heavily in arrears. I do not yet know what is to be done. The people do not seem inclined to make up what is deficient. They appear to think that the amount might be, as they expressed it, "wiped off." But I have endeavored to make them understand that this system could not be followed, so I hope they will try to make up what is due from them.

My knowledge of the character and habits of the people, as well as of the resources of the country around here, is too limited and uncertain, as yet, to enable me to form any very definite ideas as to the future of this Mission. But there are many grounds to hope that, if money matters can be put right, other things will work well. The people appear to value instruction and the ministrations of religion.

JAMES B. DEBBAGE.

ST. SYLVESTER.

Your Missionary must make some remarks on the labours of the past year, though nothing worthy of note has taken place.

Your Missionary has striven to hold three services during each Lord's day, and occasionally four, when time and distance enabled him to do so.

The service for Thanksgiving Day was held at each place in the Mission, but not on the same day. The same may be said of the great day of intercession, but the weather was very bad. Few, indeed, were the people at any one place. The greatest number were at St. George, a distance of 60 miles from the Parsonage. Your Missionary had hoped and prayed for suitable weather, and passable roads, and the full attendance of his little flocks throughout the Mission. But, alas, it was quite the reverse!

Our day-schools both at St. Margaret and St. Catharine are given up, the few parents not being able to pay a teacher, though your Society aided them by $16 yearly. The children are numerous enough. I fear also that this will be the lot of St. Giles' school. Here for some four or five years a most efficient teacher has had charge of the school. The numbers could be kept up only by some of the children coming five or six miles to the school. This is a very long distance in some of our storms, and roads filled with snow. I visited this school the day previous to the appointed day of Fast, and was well pleased with the improvement of the scholars; prayers are said morning and evening, the Scriptures regularly read, and the catechism duly taught, are all very satisfactory to the Clergyman. Nor is there any lack of attention or encouragement in the school at New Armagh; this school I visited the week previous.

Sunday-schools have been held in Cumberland by two young ladies from Quebec, the Misses Taylor; in St. Sylvester, by a kind matron, Mrs. Waters, assisted by a Miss Wilson, teacher of the District school. The other at St. Catharine by a very worthy member of our little flock, very little indeed now, as his family is the only one belonging to the Church. At St. Giles the school was attended to by myself. Here a little attention was paid to singing, and the result was most pleasing.

A pic-nic was got up for the children of this Sunday-school. Some of the parents attended, and it was truly pleasing to see what interest was created by it.

As often as Divine Service is held in this part of the Mission the offertory is taken up; but at the other part of it only when a public collection is appointed.

The attendance on public service has not been as good as I could have wished, nor as regular as it ought to have been at this place and St. Patrick's. We have to regret the very unsettled state of mind throughout the length and breadth of the Mission. This applies as much to the parents as to the children. A large family, from the Township of Jaser, left this fall, one from Cumberland Mills, one from St. Giles, one from St. Catharine, one from this place and one from St. Mary. These, all told, would number above 50 souls. Others are talking of going in the spring.

Baptisms for the year past, 18. Marriages none. Deaths 4; two of these were truly attached to the Church, and never lacking in their duty to their Clergyman; but their end was peace. Mrs. Harbottle was the much esteemed wife of Mr. Ed. Harbottle, who began the Church in Cumberland, and gave a large glebe also. She was a mother in Israel. The other was a true lover of her Church, and able to value the servants of the Lord, ever ready to show them all kindness and to encourage divine service amongst her neighbours and in her own house.

Something has been done in the way of fencing, though not half enough; and an outer door to the Church here is much required, and one of the parishioners has most willingly allowed me to call on her for the amount so soon as finished. A truly kind friend in Quebec obtained well nigh enough to tar the roof of the Church, which required it much.

Another friend in Quebec, who is well-known as a most beneficent person towards the Church generally, has promised to double the amount that I may obtain to paint the Church at Cumberland. Nor will this be the first great kindness he has shown both to this people and your Missionary.

In consequence of the families leaving the Mission, there is, of necessity, a falling off in our annual subscriptions.

LEEDS.

This is a Mission in which the Church is not likely to increase rapidly, either in numbers or in strength of material resources. I could not, with a clear conscience, encourage immigration, for it is a hard country to get a living from ; and I have been informed that there has been no influx of settlers from the old country for more than twenty years, and from what I have seen I am sure that a number who are located here would leave if they could only sell. We have, by removal, lost four families, comprising twenty souls, all belonging to the congregation of Leeds village, within the past year, and more Church people are going in the spring. The result is that the Church, instead of increasing, becomes more feeble in numbers and in resources, for all who have left, and who are to leave in the spring, were among the paying portion. The prospects of this Mission, therefore, are not very encouraging. Still, as a Mission of the Church in which her own children are found asking for bread and gladly receiving it from the Church's hands, it is a very important field. The congregations throughout the Mission have been good, the people very attentive and reverent; and the offerings on the whole, have been as good as could be expected from people with resources as limited as theirs.

There are seven places in this Mission in which services are held, with attendance of from 120 to 10, a good deal depending on the weather and roads, especially in winter.

SERVICES.

St. James' Church.—Every Sunday ; largest congregation, 100 ; smallest, 12.

St. Mark's Church.—Every Sunday, except Broughton Sunday ; largest congregation, 120 ; smallest, 20.

Broughton.—Once in six weeks ; congregations, about 60 ; sometimes over 70.

Mines.—The afternoon of the Broughton Sunday ; largest congregation, 40 ; generally 20.

Beattie's.—In summer, occasionally on a Sunday ; winter on week days ; congregation from 20 to 80.

Frizzell School-house.—Once a month, week days ; congregation 15 to 40.

Cumming School-house.—Occasionally on a week day ; congregation 15 to 30.

From this it will be seen that though there is little of a startling or even of an interesting nature to report, there is plenty of work, which will not be lessened when the roads are taken into the account, for to attend to the places that I have named involves no small amount of travel, not always the most agreeable. Snow in winter, mud in summer, or rather in spring and fall. Thus the year passes by with little to say about it except the simple round of ordinary work, unnoticed by the world, but yet not unimportant in itself, nor I trust without fruit to God.

JOHN KEMP,
Missionary.

NEW IRELAND.

I have been only six months in this Parish, and cannot speak definitely as regards its present standing or future prospects. There is a large number of nominal Church members, but the congregations at either church are small.

For three years Mr. Wood, of Woodside, has been engaged procuring the funds for a bell and bell-tower for Trinity Church, in which he has been successful. Apart from the time and labour, he has also expended a large sum, which I fear the congregation will find it difficult to refund, as the current expenses are quite as much as they can meet at present. With the assistance of other members of his family, he has also had the interior of the Church painted. Other repairs, both to the Church and Parsonage, are much needed.

The Sunday-school is kept by F. H. Wood, Lay Reader, and has been quite a success. A festival with Christmas tree was held at the Parsonage on the 23rd December. Both teachers and scholars, with many of the parents, seemed to enjoy the evening, and expressed the wish that this their first Christmas tree would not be the last.

The congregation of Christ's Church have sadly neglected necessary repairs to their Church, but the Wardens have promised to attend to it as soon as spring opens.

Annexed is the amount raised in the Parish for six months.

CAPE COVE.

At the close of another year I send you, according to custom, a short account of the condition of this Mission.

I regret to say that the congregation has been weakened lately by the departure of about twenty of its members for Upper Canada, where remunerative employment can be found in winter, which, at present, is not easily obtained here. This of course leaves a heavier burden on the shoulders of those who remain, but for the most part they bear it cheerfully.

Last winter we made an attempt to resuscitate our failing library at Cape Cove, and to form a small library at Percé, and we succeeded very well, as £11 were contributed here, and £5 at Percé, for the purposes named. The collectors as well as the contributors at both places deserve all credit.

I must not forget to mention the kindness of our frequent benefactor, Mr. T. Savage, who, last summer, presented to our library books to the value of £5.

We had the happiness of welcoming our Bishop here in July, when his Lordship confirmed thirty-eight young persons within the Mission. The people were much cheered and edified by his Lordship's stirring addresses, and derived no small encouragement from the direct reference which his Lordship made in the kindest manner to their good report as united and liberal congregations.

Our building committee, appointed last Easter, held their first meeting to-day, when it was resolved that boards should be collected this winter for a new church at Cape Cove; and that with a view to meeting the expenses in a satisfactory manner, when the time for erecting the building shall have arrived, a building fund should at once be created. Mr. Savage headed the list with $60 a year for three years; Mr. James Baker followed with a promise of $25 a year for the same period; and the liberal example was not lost upon others, so that, though only a few members of the vestry were present, the sum of $144 per annum for three years was at once subscribed. Thus it will be seen we have made a good beginning at all events, and we have every reason to hope that with God's blessing we shall succeed in our undertaking.

I gladly and gratefully notice the continued generosity of my people. Their offerings both here and at Percé last Easter were very liberal, and since then I have been over and over again the recipient of tokens of kindness and good-will.

WILLIAM GORE LYSTER.

GASPÉ BASIN

I have no change of importance to note during the past year. It is very seldom that new settlers arrive to increase our numbers, but hardly a year passes without some persons leaving the Mission for other parts of Canada. This year we have to record the departure of one family, and to look forward to the probable loss to us of others.

The Churches in my Mission have been regularly served and the congregations have maintained their usual numbers with respect to residents, but many of our young men are away from home at work on the Intercolonial Railway, and I must also note a large increase in the congregation at St. Paul's, owing to the great number of summer visitors during the past season. St. Paul's Church numbers very few families, and the Church is past repairing and rapidly going to decay. Steps will be taken during the winter to collect material for a new building. A small amount of Church accommodation is required during the winter months, but during the summer-time provision must be made for the vessels in the harbour, and for those who frequent Gaspé as a place of summer resort.

The Sunday-schools at both Churches are progressing.

The day schools have not increased in number since my last report. The great difficulty is to obtain teachers. The Commissioners, aided by me, did all they could to obtain a teacher, before the close of navigation, for the South-West school, without avail. If the Church Society could keep a register of Church of England teachers who have passed the Normal school examinations, it would be a great boon to us and others in our position who cannot find teachers and yet feel that there are many who might be found who would gladly accept our offer and strengthen our hands.

JOHN P. RICHMOND.

SANDY BEACH.

In giving our usual statement of the progress of the Mission, I would remind the Board that in a long settled district like this it cannot reasonably be expected that incidents will arise to make an ordinary periodical report striking or interesting. I have but to say that the year has passed scarcely noted, save by the unfailling blessings of our Lord. The most memorable event was the presence amongst us of our Bishop, on his periodical tour for confirmation in this portion of the Diocese. I am thankful to be able to say that there was a most promising class of young disciples to receive the holy rite, nearly all of whom have since become constant communicants.

The usual collections and subscriptions for the Church Society, for the working of the Mission, and for charitable purposes, have been taken up, and the amount obtained has been about an average compared with other years, allowing for our diminished numbers, arising from the separation of Peninsula from Sandy Beach.

The ladies of the congregation made strenuous efforts to raise and collect funds for repairing and perfecting our Church, and when we were visited by our Bishop every thing relating to it was "decent and in order."

We have been unable to increase our Endowment Fund with new capital. Slowly it is advancing from the accumulation of interest, and will in time, perhaps, answer the purpose of sustaining the Mission; but it is long to look forward to, and in the meantime the aid from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, on which the Mission has heretofore principally existed, is being gradually withdrawn. Soon we shall have no source of support, save our own efforts and what you can do for us. The place is poor, and we are a small flock in the wilderness, girt in on every side by the thousands that adhere to the Church of Rome.

All the usual services have been held and well attended, and a blessing has not failed to accompany them. We now have a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion, and it is blessed to our souls.

On the whole our progress has been satisfactory, (all things considered,) and our prospects if not brilliant, are not discouraging. So that on looking back over the year now traversed, we may say with thanksgiving and praise, "Hitherto the Lord hath helped us."

There has been raised in the Mission for all purposes, $429.69.

Baptisms, 21 ; Marriages, 3 ; Burials, 6.

MALBAIE.

In presenting the usual annual report I would record, with much gratitude to Our Heavenly Father, continued personal health, freedom from epidemics, peace amongst ourselves, and the hopeful aspect of the future.

During the year the Mission of Malbaie has been temporarily united with the new one of Peninsula, such arrangement to cease when a Clergyman can be found for the latter. It will be necessary to speak of each separately.

At Malbaie the increased assessment has been cheerfully met, and a movement set on foot towards an Endowment Fund, the necessity for which seems at last to be recognized. I trust my next report will see it well advanced.

A steeple, which is a great improvement, has been added to the Church at a cost of $168, exclusive of material given by the congregation. In this has been placed a steel bell, weighing 200 lbs., purchased in England, at a cost of $53, the freight of which was kindly given by one of our merchants, John Faurel, Esq. It remains now but to re-pow the Church, add a chancel and font, and lay out the church-yard, which has always been in a disgraceful state.

At the corner of the beach the new building has been floored and rendered available for service, although not yet finished.

The subscriptions to outside objects are not as large this year, owing chiefly to the failure of the fall fishery.

I must here tender my best thanks to Messrs. Dawson Bros., Montreal, the Canada Sunday-school Union, and other friends, for presents of books, tracts, and illuminated cards, through the kindness of Miss Davies.

We hope to hold a bazaar during the ensuing summer in aid of our Endowment Fund, towards which our old and valued Quebec friends have kindly volunteered assistance.

PENINSULA.

This new Mission, which I supply alternately with Malbaic, consists of two congregations on the North side of Gaspé Bay, distant from each other 10 miles, and distinguished as Peninsula and Little Gaspé. The majority of Church families reside at the Peninsula, or upper end, and formed originally part of Sandy Beach Mission. Here, some years ago, a site was given for a Church, on which a stout frame, 45 feet by 28, has just been erected by the congregation, and which, it is hoped, will be boarded in next fall.

The ladies (here as elsewhere an indispensable auxiliary) are working indefatigably for a bazaar to be held next fall.

Altogether things look promising, notwithstanding a poor summer's fishing, yet if the "Lord build" with us, success is guaranteed.

LITTLE GASPÉ.

Here a fine new Church waits completion to replace an older and humbler one at its side. The Church people, though few in number, have amongst them some indomitable spirits who, working in faith, are in a fair way of finishing their beautiful edifice. They have met with many discouragements, some having failed to give them the subscribed assistance, and one good friend has left, yet they labour on.

RICHARD MATHERS.

MAGDALEN ISLANDS.

This Mission during the past year has been (at least in appearance) improving. Our numbers have increased, our secular concerns grown, and the morals of the people seem to become more and more christianized.

Out of the shipwrecks of last fall, four Protestants of the survivors settled on the Islands. Two Roman Catholics have joined our Church. The Registers give 2 deaths, 7 marriages, and 12 baptisms. Unless an emigration or some fatal plague happens, not many years hence will find our numbers doubled. True, these numbers do not proportionately increase our material wealth; but the souls of the poor are souls still and add as much to the glory of the Church.

Last year the Grindstone Church people began to contribute to the Church Society, this year the Grosse Isle inhabitants are offering their share. The sum is small, but it is a beginning.

The Mission Boat that was in prospect last winter was in the spring completed. It was made as comfortable as work and money could make it on the Islands. This desideratum supplied now enables the Clergyman to visit the several parts of his Mission in his own convenient time and leisure. It is also an agreeable means of enjoying the warm summer days, whether in fishing or sailing under a pleasant breeze, quaffing the refreshing sea air.

Two school-houses have been built—one on Grindstone Island and one at Grosse Isle. At Grindstone the school has been for a year in operation. Though the attendance has been necessarily somewhat irregular, yet the children have made very good progress. The teacher has done what assiduity and perseverance could accomplish. The school at Grosse Isle is just organized. The teacher is to enter upon his work about the 20th November. This is another desideratum supplied. For this benefit we are indebted to the Church Society for an annual grant of $50. There are now, therefore, two such grants made to these Islands. They were procured by the kind interest taken in the Mission by the Bishop and H. S. Scott, Esq.

The Church at Grosse Isle is still in its unfinished condition, but there is a brighter prospect for it in the coming year. His Lordship is securing for us a grant that will meet the expenses for the completion of this Church. Then this Mission will be fully supplied (at least for some years) with the requisite churches and schools. The struggles for the body will no longer interfere with the struggles for the soul. For this outward prosperity we look with gratitude to the dispenser of every temporal blessing. Would that the spiritual prosperity corresponded to the temporal!

Owing to the convenience of the Mission Boat I have, this last year, visited with greater regularity than previously the various Islands and Churches of the Mission. We have had, besides, the pleasure and the benefit of the ministrations of His Lordship and the Rev. Mr. Tamis. All the Islands were visited by them. Seventeen persons were confirmed. This rite was new to many inhabiting those Islands, which His Lordship had never yet visited. The solemnity of the rite, together with the Bishop's simple, earnest, and pathetic address, made a deep and (unless I am greatly deceived) lasting impression on many of our most inveterately neglectful members.

A Presbyterian Minister from Picton had come to undo the work of the Church in this Mission, but his darts harmlessly rebounded from our bulwarks. He very early retired crestfallen and in disgrace, with the wise resolution of hereafter staying at home.

It is evident that the spiritual condition of this Mission is progressing. The prevalent fornication, drunkenness, swearing, lying, disrespect of God, and apathy to religion are gradually giving way to a more regular attendance to religious duties, and consequently to a better tone of morality. Such vices were incident to the condition of people brought up without a standing ministry to check the current of the interested passions. But religion is beginning to exhibit its advantages. It is becoming estimable and necessary. Instead of the last it is growing into the first importance. The result is more respect for the Church and her rites. Her Ministers are not now, as was thought at first, giving their services as fish is sold, merely for the sake of the money or profit derived. It is in the rising generation that we can expect to see a purer Christianity established. It is the regular steady work of the Church alone that can raise those people from the present half-barbarous condition to that state of civilization that will enhance their temporal and eternal happiness. Let this work be pursued in for some years longer, and we need not fear the battering-rams of schism, nor the multitudinous shafts of error and superstition that are so prodigally hurled against us by the overwhelming numbers of our neighbours. A faithful few often increases to faithful thousands.

S. RIOPHEL.

LABRADOR.

My summer's work began June 7th, when I proceeded eastward, purposing chiefly to prepare Candidates for Confirmation. At first drifting ice impeded my progress, but after ten days the bays were clear everywhere, and I was able to go to any part along the shore. Boating is the only means of travelling in the summer, as the inhabitants live chiefly on the scattered islands; and those who are on the main land are obliged generally to take to the water, as the rocky hills and thick copses of brushwood are impassable.

Having now become familiar with the appearance of the shore, and acquainted with the manner and customs of the people, I was able to work to much greater advantage than at first; and my first season's experience taught me a lesson of caution, so that this year I never failed to reach a house of shelter for the night. His Lordship the Bishop of Quebec, in company with the Rev. H. Roe, came to the Mission July 28th, and remained till August 28th, holding Confirmation services at various posts; and thirty-four candidates received the Apostolic rite of laying on of hands. This month was an exceedingly pleasant one to me.

After being among strangers for more than nine months, and hearing little news from abroad, the sight of two familiar faces did me much good, and the impression made upon me lasted through the rest of the year.

During the summer months I travelled a distance of more than eleven hundred miles, and never, I may say, suffered any hardships. Of course there was a good deal of hard work in the way of rowing, and occasionally some inconveniences and disagreeables had to be encountered, e. g., when trying to get a sleep after working hard, to be kept awake and annoyed by the humming and stinging of mosquitoes; but my experience of the severities of Labrador weather was confined to the season of my initiation last autumn.

From the middle of November till Christmas I remained stationary at Old Fort Bay, for during that time one cannot be expected to go about.

Dec. 26th.—Began my winter's work, which continued four months, accomplishing a distance of seven hundred and fifty miles.

For the first month dogs were of little service, owing to the great depth of light snow, and I went from house to house on snow-shoes, having learned that mode of journeying pretty well.

Again this season I was fortunate in escaping all exposures, and during the whole winter I enjoyed uninterrupted good health. The bracing air of this coast has a remarkably good effect upon me, and continued good health keeps away the feeling of ennui which would otherwise often creep over me.

I can say truly that so far from finding it a hardship to live on the Labrador shore, I enjoyed my short sojourn there very much, and especially the second year of it.

There was plenty of work to be done, and I was able to do it, at least as far as regards health and strength, and so time glided past without weariness.

The fisheries of this year were unusually good, and consequently my experience of Labrador fare, &c., was better than that of some of my predecessors who lived in difficult times.

I received tokens of favour from numbers of the people, and among them I may mention with special prominence the names of Mr. and Mrs. Goddard.

I solicited subscriptions from each family towards purchasing books to encourage learning among them, and the success met with was as follows:

THE FOLLOWING REPORTS FROM CLERGY NOT CONNECTED WITH THE DIOCESAN BOARD HAVE BEEN RECEIVED.

SHERBROOKE.

In reviewing the state of the Church in this parish during the past year, I feel thankful at being able to say that upon the whole it is satisfactory. My relations and intercourse with my flock have been of a pleasant nature, and my ministry, I trust, has not been without good results. The population of the Town, however, has lately so much increased that we are now suffering greatly from the want of sufficient Church accommodation. And the way in which this difficulty is to be overcome involves questions that are by no means easy to solve. I trust that the solution will yet be found in the substitution of a free church, in which all will have equal privileges, instead of the present system of renting pews. A move in this direction seems to me essential to the continued progress and prosperity of the parish.

Last summer a stone-built Parsonage house was purchased. It is adjacent to the Church, and is now undergoing extensive repairs.

I would call attention to the circumstance that $18 have been collected for the Church Society by Sunday-school children in Mission Boxes that were at intervals entrusted to such of the children as volunteered to act as collectors. This is a new and somewhat important feature in our present subscription list.

The Ladies' Church Fund Society, a parochial organization that was formed four years ago, has, I regret to say, for the present ceased its operations. I hope, however, to see this most useful Society, to which the parish is much indebted for important services, again revived. Since its organization more than $1200 have been collected in the parish through its agency, and expended in painting and decorating the Church after its enlargement, in the purchase of a solid silver communion service, and in contributing largely to the fund raised for the purchase of the fine organ that is now placed in the Church, and leaving an unexpended balance of upwards of $100 to be hereafter applied to the building of a new fence to enclose the cemetery. The quiet, unostentatious way in which this large sum of money was raised by the ladies, in small monthly contributions, for such useful church purposes, and the faithful, zealous devotion of the collectors merits a public expression of my warm approval.

I do not know that I have anything further to report than what belongs to the ordinary routine of every day parochial life. But, as I have lately resigned the pastoral charge of this parish, in which a large portion of my life has been past, I trust that I may be permitted to express the hope that my successor will enjoy the same comfort in his work that it has been my great happiness to see fall to my lot. He will have a large field of usefulness open to him, and a people to receive him whose intercourse with his predecessor was of the most friendly and pleasant nature. And what is hardly less necessary to a Pastor's contentment, he will find a Church that is second to none in the Diocese for the orderly and strictly rubrical manner in which the services are conducted, and the care expended on it to make it worthy of being called the House of God.

C. P. REID.

RICHMOND AND MELBOURNE.

The most noteworthy event in the history of this Parish during the past year is the completion of a new Church for the Mission of Brompton, which still continues affiliated to us. The corner stone was laid on Dominion Day, and the consecration took place on All Saints' Day. That day was one to us of unusual interest. Every consecration of a new Church is an important event, representing, as it does, much work done and decided progress made, much effort and self-denial and love for Christ and His Kingdom. But where new ground is broken by the Church and her banner set up among a people hitherto strangers to her system, the building of a Church with the hearty goodwill and by the earnest self-denying efforts of the people themselves, is an event of no ordinary importance. It is but the simple truth to say that the interest manifested by the good people of Brompton in the building of their Church has been warm and hearty, and their contributions to it in most cases liberal, in many instances generous and self-denying.

I may be permitted here to make special mention of the efficient aid I have received from the two zealous Church-Wardens, Mr. Edward Webb and Mr. W. Riches, and of the ready advice and more than generous help of my dear and kind friend, Mr. W. G. Mack.

Christ Church, Brompton, (the first and only Protestant place of worship in the township), is a plain but well-proportioned and very attractive wooden building, fifty feet by twenty-five inside measure, with porch and bell turret, and having sittings provided for 120 persons. Quebec, Sherbrooke and Lennoxville contributed most generously to the work. Among many special gifts were a service of plate for the Holy Communion from the Revd. C. Hamilton, a very beautiful Altar-cloth from Mrs. Williams, and exquisitely fine Communion Linen from Mrs. Hill. A font is still wanting. On the day of Consecration the Bishop baptized an aged woman, one of the first settlers, and afterwards confirmed her and admitted her to the Holy Communion. Seven others were confirmed on the same occasion, all of them, I believe, sincerely in earnest in their dedication of themselves to Christ. The Brompton Sunday-school still continues under the charge of Mr. Mack, and makes fair progress. The Church-Wardens never suffer their assessment to be in arrear. On the whole the Mission of Brompton is in a healthy condition. The services in Brompton and Windsor, once in each every Sunday, are kept up with unflinching regularity by my colleague, the Revd. Isaac Thompson, I relieving him once every four weeks.

Of Windsor we cannot speak so cheerfully. The return for much labour is disappointing. Nevertheless, we labour on in hope, remembering that "they who sow in tears shall reap in joy." In each of the three congregations of the Parish of Richmond and Melbourne quiet and solid progress may be reported. The strain of the first year of self-support has been well borne. Our excellent Warden, Mr. Wray, keeps the finances of St. Ann's in a healthy condition. Through his efforts, aided by Mr. Foster, the inside of the Church has been painted. St. Ann's now only wants a new bell-turret and spire to be quite a respectable building.

On the 28th June the Bishop made his annual visitation of the Parish and confirmed 26 persons in St. Ann's Church (of whom 12 were from the Silver School-House congregation) and 12 in St. John's, 38 in all. Of those so confirmed, his Lordship previously baptized two in St. Ann's and one in St. John's. On the same occasion 25 of them partook of the Holy Communion. On the whole I never presented a class for confirmation with greater comfort. Our system of annual confirmations made it easy for me to keep back for another year 12 whom I considered insufficiently prepared.

A new feature in the working of this Parish is the institution in connexion with St. Ann's and St. John's of fortnightly meetings of such devout persons as may choose to come together for prayer, religious conference, and study of the scriptures. The meeting for St. Ann's is held in a fixed place, a public room ; that for St. John's from house to house among the congregation. This venture is only in its infancy ; so far it promises well.

Our Sunday-school Christmas festivals were this year as successful as ever, and three admirably conducted Sunday-school pic-nics, for St. Ann's, St. John's and Brompton, not only gave us three days of real and pure enjoyment, but did a great deal of good in bringing our people into kind brotherly intercourse with one another. Our band of twenty-nine teachers in our five Sunday-schools deserve every commendation, and have my heartfelt thanks for their unwearyed labours. I append the usual statistics.

THREE RIVERS.

In November, 1871, I entered on the regular duties of this Parish. On my arrival I found that part of the Rectory occupied by the late Rector altogether too large for my family. I therefore requested the congregation to renovate that part of it adjoining the Church, and fit it up as a residence for me. They at once acted on my suggestion, and came forward with subscriptions to the amount of $800 towards that object. The unoccupied part of the Rectory was completely gutted and fitted up as a most comfortable and substantial residence, at a cost of about $1000. The part of the Rectory occupied by the late Rector has been rented for $200 per annum.

Divine Service has been regularly kept up on Sundays and holidays. The attendance at those services is fair; but there are still many in the Parish who ought to attend, who, I regret to say, do not.

The Sunday-school is in a flourishing condition, and is very well attended by all the Church children of the Parish. In August last I received a grant of $50 worth of books and maps from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, for the use of the Sunday-school.

A new and handsome fence has been placed round the burying-ground at a cost of $120, which was collected by zealous members of the congregation.

The old windows in the Church have been replaced by six handsome memorial windows of stained glass. Preparations are being made for the complete renovation of the Church in the spring, and for adding a chancel and memorial windows to the first three Rectors of the Parish. These improvements have taxed the liberality of the congregation to the very utmost, especially as we have been refused aid in renovating the Church, both by the Church Society and the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

I deeply regret that the congregation is unable, this year, to contribute to the funds of the Church Society.

The ladies of the congregation have organized a sewing society, in order to increase the small fund which is already on hand towards renovating the Church.

The following are the sums raised in the Parish for Church purposes since January 1st, 1872 :

ST. FRANCIS.

The Abenakis Indian Mission, on the banks of the beautiful St. Francis River, is the only one in the Province of Quebec which may be called a Church Indian Mission. Some years ago it was, at different periods, under the care of various dissenting bodies. The Indians getting tired of constant changes, and of the very unsatisfactory state of their religious training, called a council of braves, and after having prayed God to guide them, petitioned the head of the Church in Canada to care for them in their unsettled condition. Such a pressing request coming from the Indians, unsolicited by any one, nor biassed by any other motives but that of a strong desire to better their religious standing, could not be disregarded. At once a colporteur was sent, who established a school, and as soon as a missionary was found he was sent to build up a congregation. In a few weeks the room where the service was held became too small and many had to turn away unable to obtain admission. Another Council was held and the building of a Church was suggested by the Missionary. A subscription list was produced and many names were put down, some giving as high as $10, and as a proof of their earnestness they all paid what they subscribed. The balance required was collected in various parts of Canada, and the Church was built. The next year a Parsonage was erected, and soon a font, harmonium, and communion service were all obtained; and now the Indian Church compares most favourably with any in the Diocese.

Many of the Abenakis youths have been educated at Sabrevois College; one taught there is now teaching in an academy at Berthier, and at the same time preparing himself for the sacred ministry. Another was making great progress in his studies when his health gave way, and for a time he has had to lie by, but we earnestly hope for his recovery.

Services are held twice every Sunday, as well as on Thursday evenings. There is also a Sunday-school in good working order. The congregations are larger in winter than in summer. In the hot weather the Indians leave the village for places of resort, such as Saratoga, Long Branch, the White Mountains, to sell their baskets and various other articles which the women manufacture during the winter season.

The Indians still visit the hunting grounds, they have to go as far as 400 and 500 miles from their homes to get less fur than they would get formerly at their very doors. They are generally poor, and in some cases destitute, as they receive very little help from Government.

The religious state of the Indians is certainly not such as I would wish to have, but still there is hope for encouragement and perseverance. There is, I think, a general feeling of satisfaction prevailing among them with regard to religious teaching in their midst, and a deep interest is taken by some in the services of our Church. The greatest obstacle in their joining intellectually and heartily in the services is that the greater part of them are unable to read. In order to overcome this difficulty, to some extent at any rate, I have some time ago opened a night-school to instruct those who do not attend the day-school. The work is difficult and not very pleasant, still in the hope of good results, I willingly offered my services gratuitously. The school has been attended by both Protestants and Roman Catholics. I hope that this effort will be productive of much good. We are very much in need of a school-house, and I purpose this year to solicit the help of Christian friends in Quebec and Montreal for that object.

I have also to minister to two congregations in the Diocese of Montreal. I visit these out-stations every fortnight, when the roads are not too bad. The distance to be travelled is 27 miles. As I have already stated the Indians are poor, still I make an effort among them to get up subscriptions for the Mission Fund of the Diocese. The sum collected is very small, but I hope that another year we shall be able to do more.

The following is a statement of collections made during the past year :—

The only addition to any of the Local Endowments, apart from the accrued interest during the year, is the sum of $18 from the Mission of New Liverpool.

Your Committee would remind the members of the Church generally of the inducements which are still held out to encourage Missions to create endowments. A grant of $150 is paid by the Church Society, and a sum of $200 is added by a member of the Church in Quebec to any Mission which raises $200 towards the creation of an Endowment. A comparatively slight effort by some of the Missions would raise their Endowments to $3600, when the revenue of $200 would be available as an addition to the present stipend of their respective Clergy.

The management of these Endowments is committed to the Church Society under a Trust Deed, executed by the Congregation, or Mission, and the Bishop as President of the Society.

Your Committee beg to express their deep sense of the loss sustained by the death of the Reverend R. G. Ples, Incumbent of St. Paul's, one of the Clergy who commuted his claim upon the Clergy Reserves, and who for twelve years acted as Honorary Secretary of the Committee. The Lord Bishop nominated, according to Art. 12 of the By-Laws, the Reverend M. M. Fothergill to fill the vacancy in the Committee, who has subsequently been appointed Honorary Secretary.

The ANNUAL SERMONS in aid of the various funds of the Church Society are appointed to be preached—

The attention of applicants for grants is particularly directed to the following rules.

1. That no grant be made for any church, parsonage glebe, or other property, which shall not have been duly vested in the authorities of the Church.

2. That grants be payable when the amount shall be sufficient to free the property from debt; or that the debt be a mortgage for an amount not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the value of the property or building, when finished.

3. That the Treasurer, when transmitting the amount of any grant of money, made by this Society, to any parish or mission in the diocese, shall require a receipt, signed jointly by the Incumbent of such parish or mission, and one or both of the church-wardens.

4. That in all cases where grants of money (other than personal) are made by the Church Society, it shall be the duty of the person to whom such grant shall be paid to furnish, within three months afterwards, regular vouchers of the expenditure of such sums, to be submitted to the Board.

5. That when the conditions on which any sum is voted are not complied with, and the money applied for within one year from the time it is voted, such grant shall be struck off the list.
