The Mispickel Gold Ores of Hastings County

HAVE BEEN TREATED WITH ALL SUCCESS!

New Bromo-Cyanogen Process Does the Work So Long Sought After.

How the Good News Leaked Out Yesterday—It Was Intended Only for the Ears of the Members of Mr. Hardy's Cabinet—The British Company Will Increase Their Outlay at Deloro to Two Millions of Dollars—Madoc Will Have a Furnace for Smelting Ores—What North Hastings Wants the Provincial Government to Do—Furnace Will Cost $10,000—Ninety-two Per Cent. of the Gold in Mispickel Ores Can Be Saved, While the Cost of Treatment is Only Two Dollars a Ton—Now for a Rush of Prospectors and Capitalists to the Wealthy Districts of Mid-East Ontario.

When last fall the World despatched a special commissioner to write up the mineral resources of Hastings and adjoining counties, the public was almost wholly ignorant of the existence of the possibility of extracting the precious metal from the arsenic-impregnated pyrites. At the time of The World man's visit the Canadian Gold Fields Co., Ltd., composed of London, Ont., capitalists, was beginning operations at Deloro calculated to determine once and for all the question of extracting the precious metal as a profit. As the company is a close corporation its officials were exceedingly reticent concerning their enterprise, and despite all questioning confined their replies to statements to the effect that their work was yet in an experimental stage, and that nothing could be given to the public until the plant was completed and the first mill test made.

From what The World man then saw and ascertained, however, he came away pretty well satisfied that the company did not stand in such uncertainty as its officials would have had him believe. The very fact that the syndicate were spending something like half a million dollars in acquiring huge tracts of mineral lands, erecting an immense plant, constructing roads and otherwise improving their property, constituted a pretty good indication that the promoters feared little the results to crown their efforts.

And now this diagnosis of the situation turns out to be correct. The close-mouthedness of the company is accounted for by the circumstances. It was seeking to add to its holdings of mineral lands in the neighborhood, and did not wish to indicate the values of these properties by seeming to be at all sure of the successful culmination of its work.

To-day, however, there seems to be no further reason for withholding from the public the fact that mid-East Ontario is about to give up her hidden treasures.

In a visit to Toronto yesterday Mr. A. J. G. Swinney, the general manager of the Deloro mines, let the cat out of the bag. The occasion was the reception by the Ontario Cabinet of a deputation from Madoc asking for the erection of a reduction plant at that point, and Mr. Swinney was prevailed upon for friendship's sake to assist his fellow-citizens of Hastings, by making a statement regarding the operations at Deloro. The information was in-

The Judge thereupon dismissed the case with costs on plaintiff.

ORE ARE NOW BLOCKADED Foreign Warships Are on the Lookout TO STOP TROOPS LANDING.

British Torpedo Boats Are Especially Active.

Many Vessels Stopped and Made to Prove That They Were on Legitimate Business—The Italian Admiral Gave the Signal for the Bombardment of Canoea—The Difficulty Said to Have Been Settled on a Basis of Cretan Autonomy—Turkish Troops Cut Up—Latest News From the East.

Athens, Feb. 22.—A despatch to the Asly from Canoea says that the foreign warships are now rigorously blockading the coast of Crete. The British torpedo boats are especially active, rapidly steaming along the coast and keeping a sharp look-out to prevent the landing of troops, provisions or munitions of war. Many vessels have been stopped by the blockading fleets and not allowed to proceed until they satisfactorily proved that they were engaged in legitimate business. So strict is the blockade that the carrying of the Piræus from the port of Ccl. Vassos, the commander of the Greek army of occupation, is prohibited.

INTENSE ANXIETY. The entire country is in a state of intense anxiety and unrest over the situation, and there is the widest speculation as to what the final outcome will be. The people are deeply incensed against the powers for their intervention in Crete and their attitude is causing some apprehension in court and the report spread that the emperor had issued a proclamation that is intended to cool the popular passions and thus avert what might prove a national crisis. He enjoins the country to be calm and dignified and to confine to the Government, which, he says, is doing everything possible to uphold this honor as well as the rights of the Hellenic people.

More Hired at Canoea. Canoea, Feb. 22.—Great excitement was caused here last night by smart firing to the westward of the town. It was soon learned that the firing was taking place between the Turkish outposts and Christian insurgents. The report spread that the outposts had been driven back and the insurgents were retreating.

Turkish Troops Cut Up. Berlin, Feb. 22.—A despatch received here to-day from Constantinople says that the Turkish Government has informed the Ambassadors that two companies of London representatives cut the telegraph lines at Voukoulis, and that only one officer and sixty men escaped.

Withdrawal of Troops Demanded. Vienna, Feb. 22.—According to despatches received here from Athens this morning the representatives of the powers have demanded the withdrawal of the Greek troops from the island of Crete. It was the intention of emperor Francis Joseph to have started for Cap Martin for a season of recreation yesterday, but in view of the still unsettled state of affairs in Crete the Emperor has deferred his departure until next Sunday.

THE CHICK-A-DEES.

But in the woods one bitter day, When drifts blew high and skies were grey, Three chick-a-dees with plaintive cry, Said, "Give us food or we will die."

And now, whenever my ax they hear, The birds come thronging far and near: And every tree that crashing falls, The chick-a-dees to broken limbs call, We strip, stuff, split and eat that ducky bird's nest with great delight And feel with hearty appetite, And then in tones, harmonious, sweet, To feed His hungry chick-a-dees.

There is trouble brewing over the North Ontario by-election. At the Walker House on Tuesday evening the defeated candidate, Angus McLeod, was in conference with his partner, George McCormick, M.P., and Robert Birmingham, the Conservative organizer. The existing situation is without precedent for the Liberals, it is claimed, disobeyed the injunction forbidding a recount before Judge Durnell, and then hurried the ballot boxes off to Ottawa. Mr. McLeod stated last night that, though the matter does not rest entirely in his hands, he has no doubt that the law will be taken advantage of to enforce a penalty against his opponents.

His Worship the Mayor took The World's pollster yesterday, and started out to try to secure the establishment in Toronto of a great mailing machine factory. In these days of competition for business, the Mayor's presence here of Mr. W. J. Young, the general manager at Salt Lake City, for Fraser & Chalmers, the greatest mail-order business in the world, was a most timely and opportune one. The Mayor's mission is to look over the ground with a view to locating a branch factory in Canada in order to be in a position to supply Ontario and British Columbia with machinery free of duty. It was further noted that Toronto is the right point for such an establishment, and The World advised the civic authorities to be up and doing.

As soon as Mayor Fleming read The World yesterday he saw that his duty was plain, and he led him to the Queen's, where Mr. Young set up. It is not known how far His Worship succeeded in his mission, but this The World does know that he kept the machinery man in tow all the evening.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS. Agricultural implement manufacturers came next, being introduced by Mr. Frost, Mr. Fyfe of Montreal, and Mr. Pross, Mr. Hamilton of Peterboro, Mr. Sylvester of Lindsay, Mr. Coombs of Brockville, and Mr. Folkes of the Wilkinson Farm Works, Toronto. Mr. Pross claimed that gross industries had been done the agricultural implement man first, three years ago, by reducing the duty from 35 to 20 per cent, without a corresponding reduction in the duties of the raw material. Farm implements were being supplied as cheaply to farmers of Canada as to the United States. After the reduction of the duty however, the Americans were able to bring in their manufactured products, and as the Canadian manufacturers had to pay a duty of from 30 to 40 per cent on the raw materials, it made it almost impossible to continue the manufacture of farm implements in Canada at a profit. Briefly stated, that was the gist of Mr. Pross' remarks.

grievance. This industry, in point of size, was fourth in importance in the Dominion. The capital invested amounted to $8,000,000, and wages paid to 11,000 employees in 1900. The number of men employed between 1900 and 1905, the annual output was valued at $8,000,000. There was no combination, there being 21 manufacturing establishments in Canada. The trade was national to the country and there had never been any demand for protection. The duty derived from imported farm implements amounted to $60,000 a year, and this, divided amongst the 700,000 farmers, only means the payment of one cent.

MR. NOXON'S ARGUMENTS.

Mr. Noxon then took up the parallel, pointing out the different classes of articles entering into the construction of farm implements. The parallel was drawn between the machinery imported from the United States and the machinery made in Canada. He pointed out that the machinery made in Canada was of the same quality as that imported from the United States, but that the machinery made in Canada was of a higher quality than that imported from the United States. He pointed out that the machinery made in Canada was of a higher quality than that imported from the United States, but that the machinery made in Canada was of a higher quality than that imported from the United States.

THE BICYCLE MAKERS.

The bicycle manufacturers had their interests represented by Mr. Ellice of Toronto, who, in an elaborate and carefully prepared statement, set forth the grievances under which the laborers. He pointed out, for instance, that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

ASSEMBLING OF PARTS.

Another injustice to the Canadian manufacturer was the duty on raw materials. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

THE IRON INTERESTS.

Mr. J. W. Near, representing the Pillow Hardware Company, spoke on behalf of the iron manufacturers. He urged a specific duty on certain materials, with the object of preventing fraud and protecting the revenue. He, too, favors more equitable duties as between raw materials and the finished product.

DUTY ON GLUCOSE.

Messrs. J. B. Reid, M.P., G. F. Benson, and J. C. Magle appeared as representatives of the Edwardsburgh Research Company. The speaker discussed with the duty on glucose. The duty of 1-1/2 cents a bushel on corn, it was pointed out, represented a duty of 2-1/2 cents per hundred pounds of glucose. The speaker said that the duty was paying a tax of 4-1/2 cents per bushel on the corn, which was being transported to the advantage of the protective duty on glucose.

manufacturer of first-class wheels was the facility which the customs afforded to the assembling of machines in this country from parts imported into Canada. He calculated that 37,000 bicycles sold in Canada last year 20,000 were imported. He made out about 17,000 imported in parts and put together in this country. This latter proportion involved but trifling outlay for labor, so that on the whole not less than 4,000,000 was sent out of the country for work that should be performed here.

HIGH-GRADE WHEELS.

Against the country, touching the present protection was all right, Canadians could compete with the world in that class. He therefore argued that the duty remain as at present on wheels costing $50 and upwards, but that the duty on parts be the same proportionately as upon a finished wheel, and the present duty be in no way reduced.

MR. FIELDING SUGGESTED that according to the proposed low-grade schedule duty upon an American bicycle, namely, $10 at present, would be a further reduction of the duty on raw materials is left as it is.

FARM IMPLEMENTS AGAIN.

The agricultural implement manufacturers then took another turn with the duty on raw materials. The president of the Massey-Harris Company, complained that a great influence had been done by importers by the late Government. There was an excessive duty on the raw materials used in the manufacture of farm implements, which could certainly not be made less than 45 per cent.

MR. FIELDING

commented that the consensus of opinion among the Manitoba farmers is in favor of a further reduction of the duty on raw materials. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

MR. HAMILTON'S VIEW.

Mr. Hamilton of Peterboro, who, as the committee member, pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

MANITOBA FARMERS' PREJUDICE.

Mr. Richard Sylvester of Lindsay argued in favor of a protection for the farmers of the province. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

MR. LYMAN JONES SPEAKS UP.

Mr. Lyman Jones of the Massey-Harris Company had a list of duties paid on raw material, such as cotton, wool, and iron. He pointed out that the duty on raw materials reduced the 30 per cent protection upon the finished article in Canada to a mere 10 per cent.

CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.
During 1896 Canada exported sixty-six million dollars worth of goods to Great Britain and forty-four million worth to the United States. These two countries took over 90 per cent of our total exports. Our imports from Great Britain were worth thirty-three millions, and from the United States fifty-eight millions. The same two countries contributed over 75 per cent of our total imports in 1896. The total trade between Great Britain and Canada was ninety-nine million dollars, and between the United States and Canada one hundred and two million dollars. Eighty-four per cent of our total import and export trade is done with the United States and Great Britain. These statistics are of great importance in considering the policy that Canada will be called upon to adopt as soon as the McKinley tariff becomes law on the other side of the line. There is no mistaking the feeling that the Canadian people entertain towards the American people regarding the proposals to put in operation against this country. The Canadian firms along the border who will be especially affected by the proposed American alien labor law have already anticipated the retaliatory policy that our government will be called upon to adopt as soon as that law becomes operative. Canada has no option but to meet the Corliss bill with a measure equally hostile and offensive. The tariff that the new President will introduce must be met with a Canadian tariff just as high and just as prohibitive. The United States has declared commercial war against Canada. We have no recourse but to accept the challenge. Our neighbors have determined to test Canada's ability to exist independently of the United States. They entertain the idea that we will finally succumb. They deny our ability to keep aloof without their assistance. They are opposed to the idea of having a rival and prosperous country alongside of them. If North America is to be regarded as an interloper. The opinion entertained by the people of the United States toward Great Britain and Canada was very candidly and truthfully outlined by a leading Chicago paper the other day. From this journal, in an article on Hawaii, we extract the following:

"Say what we may about the former (Great Britain), she is, always has been and always will be, one of the most commercially, politically and territorially, not from any moral or political antagonism her Government or her institutions, nor from any distinct anti-American policy, but simply because the two nations, by the same blood, have the same commercial aspiration to get all they can of the world's production. Encroachment, control, interference from ocean to ocean, with almost impregnable statistics and armies confronting us across the Pacific, and the continent we are exposed on every quarter to her assault. She is our natural rival and inevitable foe, simply because she is exposed on every quarter to our assault. For the same reason we are our great competitor and economic enemy."

It is folly for Canadians to expect reciprocity from such an uncompromising commercial rival. The sooner Mr. Laurier shakes off the delusion which has beclouded his vision for so many years the better for himself and for Canada. Canada must henceforth rely on her own resources. We must either sink or swim.

For our own part we are little disturbed by the proposed hostile policy of our neighbors. We rather think Canada will eventually benefit therefrom. The American policy will have this effect: It will make Canada more self-reliant. It will develop and extend the resources of Canada and Great Britain. This is exactly what we want. We will be forced to develop our own resources. This is exactly the kind of policy that Canada should adopt. We have not much reason to complain of the American policy in this respect. Nor have we any reason to complain because the American policy will strengthen the commercial relations between Canada and the Mother Country. As soon as the Americans deliver their blow against Canada the latter will retaliate in more ways than one. We will not only be obliged to meet their tariff with one equally hostile, but we will find it in our interests to discriminate in favor of Great Britain. Although Canada is part of the British Empire she has never shown any preference towards Great Britain in the framing of her tariff. Now, however, Canada will soon realize that it is in her interest to adopt a distinctly preferential tariff for Great Britain, even if the bulk of the preference is in favor of the Mother Country. Last year we imported fifty-eight million dollars worth of goods from the United States. Our tariff ought to be readjusted so that as much as possible of this trade will be diverted to Great Britain. Our export trade with the Mother Country has been increasing right along without preference of any kind. In 1873 it was thirty-eight million. Last year it amounted to sixty-six millions. If Great Britain can only see its way clear to impose a discriminating duty in favor of the colonies the increase will be much more rapid. We will soon find a ready market for a big part of the forty-four million dollars worth of goods that we now send to the United States. On the other hand, there is no reason why our tariff cannot be so framed as to encourage im-

MANAGER HARRISS GETS A WRIT

The Albany Concert Company Break an Engagement With Manager Carroll of London?—A Nice Kettle of Fish.

When Mr. Charles A. E. Harriss finished his organ solo at Albany's concert yesterday afternoon there was a lot of applause, which was very gratifying to the musician for whose benefit the concert was being conducted. In addition to the applause, Mr. Harriss was surrounded by a number of admirers, some of whom were ladies of the high society. Mr. Harriss is a well-known organist, and has given many recitals in this city. He is now on tour, and is expected to return to Albany on Monday next. His concert at Albany was one of the most successful of his career. He received a warm reception from the audience, and his playing was much appreciated. The concert was well attended, and the proceeds were for a good cause.

THE GREK WAR SONG

Lord Byron's Translation.
The glorious hour's gone forth,
And worthy of such ties,
Display who gave us birth.

Sons of Greece! let us go
In arms against the foe,
Till their hated blood shall flow
In a river past our feet.

Then manfully despising
The Turk's tyrannic yoke,
Let your country every nook
And all her plains be broke,
Brave shades of chiefs and sages,
Behold the coming strife!

Hellens of past ages,
Oh, start again to life!
At the sound of my trumpet, breaking
Your sleep, oh, join with me,
And the seven-hill'd city seeking,
Fight, conquer, till we're free.

Sons of Greece, etc.

HOTELS HAVE BIG BUSINESS

Trade is Better This Winter Than Usual

OWING TO THE MINING BOOM

Queen's Hotel Has Become a Veritable Bureau of Mines.

Capitalists, Brokers and Prospectors All Come to Toronto—Wabgon's New Newspaper—The Olive Vein Widens—Falls of Fort Arthur Will Soon Be Full of Prospectors—Algonia is Awake to Her Interests—Ontario's General Mining Topics.

It is generally admitted that the registers of our leading hotels may be taken as a test of the prosperity or the reverse of the public. If under normal conditions the signatures appearing on these registers are few the people are either hard up in a lethargic state of mind, while the appearance of large numbers of names is accepted as proof that the community is either in the actual enjoyment of prosperity or so awake and enterprising as to be on the way thereto.

Now, in view of the above line of argument, it is significant that the registers of our leading hotels are doing a greater business this winter than they have for three years past. From day to day the lists of names which appear on the registers are phenomenally lengthy, and the hospitable hosts of course, rejoice greatly thereat.

And the Depth of Veins in the Schist is Proven.

Mr. A. C. Thompson of James & Thompson, Toronto, who left a couple of weeks ago for Mine Centre, arrived there a week ago last Sunday, and he writes back that his experience is again showing up well. It will be remembered that the Olive is a property which was reported to contain remarkably rich showings. After some development however, the vein, which was six inches wide at the surface, narrowed down to 2 inches. With further sinking, though, the value of the property is again assured. The vein is again pinching has again widened out to three feet, and the ore is said to be richer than ever.

Woods Around Fort Arthur Thought to be Rich in Gold.

If talk is any criterion, says the Fort Arthur Herald, then the woods north and west of the town will be pretty thickly populated with prospectors, amateurs and others, when the snows have melted from the face of another earth. The hills are particularly west and north of the town suggest as promising in the way of indications, and the fact that they are open.
