The Bugle

The Empire needs, in this dark day of slaughter, Great-hearted men unswayed by doom or dread. What valor have you shown, what service brought her To match the tribute of her glorious dead?

You who the loyal standard boldly flaunted While peace around you guarded like a wall. What do you now when Freedom is blood-haunted, Do bravest words but make your deeds seem small.

When in the future days they tell the story Of how the brave, the hero-hearted died, When liberty is crowned with fearless glory, Will you be standing honored at her side?

Because you ventured all nor sought a reason, Why other men should die and you go free, Because you held not back in coward treason, While common sense your fight on land and sea?

Amid the gallant ranks that did not waver, Before that blight that shook old Britain's shore Will you be one whose prowess helped to save her, Who went to war that war should be no more?

The troop-ship in the harbor rideth ready, The tumult thickens. Hear the scornful word, The foe is mocking! Lift the anchor, steady, High tide. The ship's away! Are you aboard?

GERMAIN STREET AND CENTENARY

Eluquent Addresses Mark Notable Gathering in Germain Street Baptist Church—Sister of Dead Soldier Unveils Tablet in Centenary

Honor rolls bearing the names of those from the congregations who have enlisted were unveiled yesterday in Germain street and Centenary churches last evening.

The service in Germain street church last evening was marked by an eloquent address by Hon. H. A. McKewen on the attitude of the churches and the sanction of the religious leaders in the war.

The Honor Roll.

The names on the roll were:

ROY D. WIGMORE.

The name of R. Ingletton is to be added immediately.

The occasion was the combined unveiling of a tablet of honor of the young men connected with the church who had gone to the front or were preparing to go and a reception to the officers and men of the 52nd Battalion after the service by the church and the Philathea Society and the Brotherhood. Judge McKewen, with H. A. Powell, were the speakers, and on the lines of them were the pastor, Rev. F. S. Porter, who has himself volunteered as private and chaplain, Captain L. E. D. Tilley, recruiting officer for the province; Lieut. C. F. Sanford, and C. B. Lockhart, of the citizens' recruiting committee. R. E. Armstrong and A. M. Belding, with these gentlemen, formed a special delegation from the recruiting committee for the service.

Early in the service Capt. Tilley was called on and gave the recent recruiting figures, told of the order to recruit a new battalion to be known as the 119th, and made an earnest appeal to young men to enlist.

Hon. H. A. Powell followed with a powerful address on the meaning of the war and the victory or defeat of the allies.

The service was bright and telling from the first note, the ascription of praise by the choir. Then followed the hymn, to the tune of "Selma," "For Britain's Cause on Land and Sea," and a male quartette by Messrs. Baker, Bonnell, Kingmill and Leonard. Mrs. Helen Wetmore Neuman gave two solos, "By the Waters of Babylon" and "O Divine Redeemer," while in the National Anthem that followed the unveiling of the tablet and closed the meeting the new hymn, "God Save Our Valiant Men" was sung. In the congregation there were many members of the 52nd battalion.

At the close of the service all men in uniform as well as other young men were entertained with coffee and cake in the Institute adjoining the church, by the young ladies of the Philathea Class. Fully 200 men of the 52nd Battalion were there and joined with great heartiness in the singing of favorite hymns. H. G. Marx presided, members of the Brotherhood assisted, and there was a bright musical programme. A. M. Belding made a five minute appeal for recruits. Several names were given to the recruiting officers who were present, and good results are expected to follow the honor roll unveiling and the strong addresses delivered.

Centenary's Honor Roll.

A ceremony of much interest took place with the unveiling of the honor roll in the Sunday school room at the Centenary church yesterday afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Barradough gave a very stirring address. Miss Sybilie T. Knowles unveiled the tablet. Her brother, Robert E. Knowles, was killed in action with the 52nd Battalion.

The honor roll contains the names of members of the Centenary church now in active service. Those who have been killed have their names inscribed in red while the wounded are recorded in red and black. Following are the names inscribed:

ROBERT E. KNOWLES (in red.)
GEORGE SOUTH (in red.)

THE REAL AMERICAN VIEW.

In view of the comment brought forth by the last American note to England, and the disappointment expressed in English papers at the tone and tenor of that note, it is refreshing to turn to the utterances of representative men of the United States, not members of its government, but who give expression to the views of the great majority of the people of that country far more accurately than has been done by the government.

The German warships could keep the sea, we would have no commerce of any sort. Mr. Zane quotes an incident of recent South American history to prove that Germany flouted the United States but abandoned her aims when England said "Hands off." His denunciation of the course of the United States in this war is even more vigorous than that of the New York Tribune, quoted in the Times on Saturday.

In the Guardroom. When the officer of the day entered the guardroom he found it empty, save for a private who sat in his shirt-sleeves, was lounging on a chair, puffing a short clay pipe.

"Where's the sergeant of the guard?" demanded the officer, angrily. "Gone across to the mess to have a drink, sir," replied the private saluting smartly.

"And the sentries?" "In the cantons, sir."

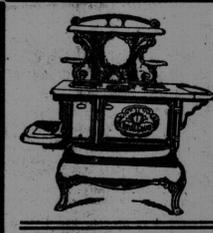

"They, confound it, what are you doing here?" "Sir, sir" was the calm reply. "I'm the prisoner."

"What are you so furious about?" "Mrs. Smith just called me an old cat."

"Why, you're not so old."

Mr. Choate referred to the second peace conference at The Hague, in 1907, in these words: "We sat four months cheek by jowl with the Germans, the Austrians, the Turks, and all other outlying nations. It is no use crying 'Peace, peace' when there is no peace and no possibility of peace—no possibility of peace until the authors of this awful war are brought to a condition where their adversaries and the whole world can see that hereafter they will obey the rule of good faith, the rule of keeping contracts, the rule that when they make a treaty they must stand by it, whether it is to their interest or not, and put an end forever to this awful business which they have propounded and which they have acted upon during the last twelve months, that whenever their interests required they could throw all treaties and contracts to the winds."

Mr. Choate repeats in other words the declaration of Premier Asquith, that it would be useless to sheathe the sword until Prussian militarism has been utterly crushed. He sees as clearly as we do that a premature peace would simply mean another outbreak of war as soon as Germany was ready once more to throw treaties to the winds and endeavor to enforce the doctrine that might is right. Of American sympathy with Canada, Mr. Choate said: "When we heard how your strong young men were marching to the fight, when we heard of their great and gallant achievements, when we heard how freely they laid down their lives in this cause of justice and liberty and civilization, our hearts bled with yours, and the people of the United States were actually in full sympathy with you."

Mr. Choate referred also to the many millions of men of foreign descent in the United States, of whom one half were on one side and one half on the other, and said: "But if we should go to war with you against an unspeakable enemy—I do not want to mention its name—I think nineteen-twentieths of all those people would stand by our flag, the Stars and Stripes."

Let us add to these words of Mr. Choate a paragraph from a letter written by Mr. John M. Zane, a Chicago lawyer, quoted in last week's Canadian Courier. Mr. Zane protests against American neutrality first on the ground that free government wherever it exists is in peril, and that the brutal violation of neutral rights by Germany in Belgium should be avenged. Then he goes on: "But if we had looked at the war merely from the low standpoint of our selfish interests, leaving out of view the fundamental issues, we ought to have seen instantly that if Germany wins and England loses command of the ocean, Germany would at once give us a choice between a devastating war and the bitterest of humiliations. From now, if the United States had possessed a large army and a more powerful navy, Germany would not have committed some of the crimes that will forever be a blot on the pages of her history, and the United States also would probably have pursued a different course. Nor can it be forgotten that but for the British navy and its destruction of German submarines the Americans would by this time have a much larger score to settle with the Kaiser.

Hon. Dr. Montagu is dead. A dark cloud rested over the closing days of his life, in connection with the recent disclosures in Manitoba politics, but he had previously pursued a notable career in public life. He represented Falkland, Ontario, in parliament for many years, and also held for a time the office of minister of agriculture, and later that of secretary of state. During his term of office ocean raid storage was established between Canada and Britain. He was in the nineties an advocate of imperial and colonial preferential trade, and spoke on that subject with the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain at the Canadian Club banquet in London. After retiring from Dominion politics he lived for some years in Australia, then returned to Canada, and settling in Manitoba, went into provincial politics and in 1913 was made minister of public works in the Roblin government.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT FINDS ANCONA TORPEDOING UNWARRANTED

Rome, via London, Nov. 15, 1.23 a. m.—The Italian government has sent an official communication to the neutral governments dealing with the sinking, by a submarine, of the Italian liner Ancona.

The note denies that the Ancona carried any arms or any contraband, or persons in belligerent military service, or that there were any circumstances justifying such an attack as a necessity of war.

The note declares that the submarine began to cannonade the Ancona without any previous warning, or a blank shot, and fired without respite at the wireless apparatus, the decks, and even at the boats, in which passengers were attempting to escape.

"Many of these," adds the note, "were killed or wounded, while many who approached the submarine were driven off with jeers. Thus, nearly 200 people were drowned."

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad at night, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, plump, healthy child again.

When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "side cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

COL. WEDDERBURN FOR THE 15TH

Official Announcement of Next N. B. Battalion TO RECRUIT IMMEDIATELY

Forty Four in Travelers' Platoon—Recruiting Meeting on Saturday—Soldiers Entertained in Churches Last Evening

The battalion next to be recruited is New Brunswick under command of Lieutenant-Colonel F. V. Wedderburn, it will be started on August 26, 1916. Like Lieutenant-Colonel H. Montgomery Campbell, of the 64th, Lieutenant-Colonel Wedderburn is first of all a cavalry officer. Indeed he succeeded Colonel Campbell in the command of the 8th Hussars on August 26, 1904. But he had a brief period of experience as an infantry officer. This was when at the time of the rebellion in the North West a regiment was raised locally and sent into training at Camp Sussex. As the rebellion was so soon crushed the regiment was only there sixteen days before being disbanded. Colonel Wedderburn was an officer of the 8th Hussars volunteered for active service in the two Egyptian campaigns of 1884 and 1898 and again in the African war of 1899-98 but these offers were not accepted. He has also held several staff appointments for varying periods, the chief of which were at Sussex.

It was Colonel Wedderburn who commanded the escort from the 8th Hussars during the visit of the Duke of York to St. John and he was also on duty at Halifax when his royal highness was there. He also held a staff appointment during the temporary celebration in Quebec.

The 52nd at St. John paraded for service at different churches yesterday morning. The Roman Catholics went to the Cathedral, the Presbyterians to St. David's, the Methodists to Queen square church, and the Church of Eng-

SWEDEN AGAINST US; MOSTLY IS PRO-GERMAN

The Socialists, Who Are Not Very Powerful, Are in Favor of Entente

London, Nov. 15.—A Stockholm despatch to The Times says:—"While it undoubtedly is true that the preponderance of sentiment here is pro-German and anti-entente, this sentiment has been exaggerated. What is true is that the court and military party certainly are pro-German, and that the Germans, through their intelligent and persistent propaganda, have dominated most of the channels of publicity to such an extent that even if a majority of the population favored the allies it would be difficult for their views to find expression."

"If any intelligent and sustained effort has been made to win public opinion in Sweden for the allies by means of publicity its effects certainly are not observable. The Socialist party, however, is avowedly and openly for the allies, and though the Socialists are not strong enough to dominate the country's policy, they are strong enough to exercise a great restraining influence to prevent other parties from forcing through any programme which would jeopardize Swedish neutrality."

"It is unable to discover any talk of peace here or any feeling that Germany's success has brought the end of the war in sight."

INFLAMMATION

Mackin's Greatest Danger.

The danger of most diseases is inflammation. If you can stop the inflammation you can get well quick.

A Liniment has just one use—to stop inflammation. Some of these troubles are: Muscular rheumatism and pains in any of the muscles or sinews, cramps, colds, coughs, sore throat, bruises, chaps, chilblains, lameness, lumbago, sore muscles, neuralgia, sprains, strains, lance back, stiff neck and so on.

Old Doctor Abner Johnson, a Maine doctor, had a recipe for a Liniment that was a wonder. It seemed to get right at the seat of the trouble and stop pain quick. It was such a mighty good Liniment that people recommended it to one another, until now they sell it most everywhere that medicines are sold. It is called Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Probably you've heard of it before, but maybe you didn't know it was a doctor's prescription. Next time you need a Liniment just remember Doctor Abner Johnson's favorite recipe, known as "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment."

GIRL, CARRIED AWAY WHEN BABE, FOUND IN MONCTON

Edna May Crossman Proves To Be Edna McGrath

SOON WILL BE A RE-UNION

Taken From Home by Annie Parker, Nurse, When Infant-Sister Lives in Lynn and Has Been Searching For Her

The Moncton Transcript publishes the following:

"I hardly know whether to be glad or sorry," said pretty fifteen-year old Edna May Crossman, of 406 Robinson street, yesterday morning, when she learned for the first time that her name is McGrath and not Crossman, that she was taken away from home when a baby by the woman whom she always supposed to be her mother, and with whom she has been living quietly in this vicinity for more than eleven years.

Miss McGrath has been separated from her family for fourteen years, during which time her relatives have sought in vain to find her. Recently, however, some unexpected developments in the United States led to her location yesterday morning by the Moncton police acting on behalf of a sister in Lynn, Mass.

"Yes," she said, in reply to a question, "I have always supposed myself to be the daughter of Mrs. Crossman, although she often said that she had something important to tell me before she died. I thought about this secret at all, I supposed it referred to money matters, and so in the woods that I have a sister and relatives in the United States comes as a great surprise.

Edna May McGrath was born in Charlestown, Mass., on January 2, 1900. Her father employed as a nurse a woman named Annie Parker. The child's mother died in giving birth to this daughter, and the nurse, Annie Parker, was engaged to remain a will-nurse to care for the children. When little Edna was three months old, the nurse disappeared, taking the child along with her.

From that time until the present efforts have been made to locate the missing girl, until recently, a sister, Miss Caroline M. McGrath, now residing in Lynn, stumbled across the trail of the Parker woman, and was encouraged to re-open the search for her missing sister.

At the time the Parker woman was hired the McGraths did not know where she belonged, but the recent investigations of the Lynn police established the fact that she had originally come from Moncton, and still more recent enquiry has established the fact that she was a woman who attained local prominence in a sensational trial which took place thirty-five years ago.

The police investigations revealed the fact that after running away with the child, she had married a man named Wallace, later she obtained a divorce from Wallace and married Ernest Crossman, who resided about two years ago a short distance beyond the Subway in Main street west.

While the young girl had always been anxious to learn this momentous secret, yet she had always been led to suppose her self a daughter of Mrs. Crossman, and although the failure to obtain the information worried her, yet she had not an inkling of its probable nature and was entirely unprepared for the news when by the merest chance her whereabouts was discovered.

The family has been living in the vicinity for several years, and the baby who was taken away from home in 1900 city. Deceased is survived by her parents and two sisters. The funeral will be held from the Mission church, Paradise row, on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Charles Nelson. The death of Mrs. Emily Catherine Nelson occurred at the Old Ladies' Home last night. She was in her 89th year and passed away after a lengthy illness. She is survived by her husband, Charles Nelson, who is in the Home for Incurables. The funeral will be held on Tuesday from the home of Mrs. J. E. Waring, 298 King street, West End, to St. George's church.

George S. Bliss. Frederickton, Nov. 14—(Special)—Geo. S. T. Bliss died at noon Saturday at his residence in Moncton, the blushingly admitted a sweetheart in Fowler's 104th New Brunswick Battalion, now mobilizing at Sussex Camp.

A photograph of the young girl was enclosed in the letter to her sister, and it is understood that arrangements for a meeting will be made as soon as possible.

From the tone of the letter of the Deputy Chief of Lynn, it is understood that Miss McGrath's relatives in the United States are people in very comfortable circumstances.

FATHER McMURRAY IN FIRST ADDRESS TO NEW CONGREGATION

In his first address to the congregation of St. John the Baptist church as their pastor, Rev. Francis J. McMurray yesterday read to the His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc's letter of appointment. In it was reference to Father McMurray's success in Woodstock and an assurance that in his new charge he would find a good and loyal people. The new pastor said it was an important parish to which he had come and his predecessors had been men of great merit. Two had been vicars-general—Mr. Connolly and Mr. Chapman—and to each of these he paid a tribute for the work they had done, not only here, but in the pioneer days in Carleton county. Their memory should be honored in the living of good virtuous lives by the people, the frequenting of the sacraments, the keeping of the commandments. Father Donahoe also had become endeared to them by his zeal and devotion to duty and his kindly, genial manner. He deserved great credit for the manner in which he had administered the parish.

Father McMurray spoke in terms of praise of the people of Woodstock and said he had no fear of the results of his labors in his new charge, with the harmonious and kindly and active operation of his congregation. He asked their prayers that he would have health and strength for his work and that God would bless his labors.

SAYS PROSPERITY OF CANADA SHOULD BE UNLIMITED AFTER WAR

W. A. Smithers of Grand Trunk I Optimistic in Montreal Interview

"I find that Canada is bearing up under the strain of war times much better than I had anticipated," said W. A. Smithers, chairman of the London board of directors of the Grand Trunk Railway, when interviewed on his return to Montreal last week. Mr. Smithers has been in Canada for the last two weeks conferring with Mr. Chamberlain, president and managing director of the railway, and studying railway problems at first hand. "I am very much encouraged," he said, "by the signs of renewed activity. I have spoken with many prominent business men and statesmen since coming to Canada. They are all optimistic and look forward to a good fall and winter. Conditions should be particularly good in Canada when this year's harvest is marketed. The way Canada is progressing is a revelation to me. Even with the empire in the throes of a world's war, conditions are good and after the war is ended and we come to normal times again, Canada's prosperity should be unlimited. I cannot help thinking that the extraordinary prosperity of the United States will have a beneficial effect on Canada. Both countries are so intimately connected commercially that one country's prosperity will inevitably promote the other's."

WAR SITUATION AS SHOWN IN SUNDAY NIGHT CABLES

Saloniki, via Paris, Nov. 14.—The Italian cruiser Piedmonte, bombarded and destroyed the railroad station at Dedegatch, Bulgaria, on Friday. The warship also destroyed two trains made up of eighty cars loaded with war munitions.

London, Nov. 15.—The Italian cruiser Piedmonte has arrived at Saloniki, according to a despatch from that place to the Daily Telegraph.

London, Nov. 14.—The Serbians are falling back from mountain range before the advance of the Austro-German forces, losing 1,000 or more prisoners daily, a few guns and quantities of stores. They are fighting continuously, however, and are inflicting considerable losses on their pursuers.

Along the eastern front the Serbians appear to be holding their own against the Bulgarians and are making a stand on the western bank of the Morava river. So stubborn has been their resistance, the Bulgarians have had to call for assistance from the Austro-German artillery in their effort to drive the defenders out of Katchanik Pass. Thus far they have been unsuccessful.

ALLIES ON OFFENSIVE IN BALKANS

The British and French troops, which are receiving reinforcements, are also meeting with some success, and besides repelling the Bulgarian attacks, have undertaken small offensive movements with good results. The Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, however, made such progress from the beginning of the campaign that it will take serious work now to check them.

For the moment the political situation is graver than the military. The Central Powers have again protested to Greece against the landing of Allied troops at Saloniki. King Constantine is reported to have replied that as Saloniki is an open port there has been no infringement of Greek rights in the landing, and that Greece will remain neutral until one of the belligerents has transgressed against these rights. France and Italy, the latter having now joined her Allies by sending a warship to Saloniki, are particularly anxious as to the attitude of the Russians, being, definitely, reported Field Marshal von Hindenburg's drive toward Riga and Dvinsk, and along the Dvina river, and have themselves taken the offensive, but apparently, owing to the state of the ground, have been able to make only slow progress in the marsh region west of Riga.

Along the Styr river, in the south, the Austro-Germans, by a counter-stroke, have pierced the Russian lines and captured 1,500 prisoners, according to the Berlin official statement. These strokes are about all that can be expected on the eastern front, while the soft weather continues.

On the western front there have been no events of importance. Petrograd, Nov. 13.—The following official communication from general headquarters was issued today:

"On the western (Russian) front our troops in the Shok region, pursuing the enemy, inflicted severe losses on him, and advanced west of Kemmeren. "Almost everywhere on the rest of the front there were merely exchanges of shots and encounters between outposts.

"There is no change in the Caucasus.

Petrograd, via London, Nov. 14.—The following official communication was issued from general headquarters today:

"On the western (Russian) front the Germans attempted to take the offensive against the Bessarabian front, in the Hvala district. They were repulsed by our artillery fire. In the Dvinsk district, farther to the south, as far as Pripiet, there is nothing to report.

"Desperate fighting continues near the village of Medvich, northwest of Caortorysk. The enemy's attempts to advance in the direction of the river Styr were stopped by our fire. Near the village of Pédgac, west of Caortorysk, there was desperate fighting.

"On the Caucasus front, on the west shore of Lake Ourmis, our troops repulsed Kurdish forces."

Heavy German Losses in Labyrinth. Paris, Nov. 14.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight:

"In Artois, in the Labyrinth, the Germans, by a sudden attack this morning succeeded in penetrating, near the road from Lille, one of our first line trenches. Our counter-attacks immediately drove them out. The enemy left all his wounded on the ground.

"Around Loos, and Souchez there has been merely cannonading.

"To the north of the Aisne, we continued what appeared to be a very effective fire on the German organizations on the plateau of Nouvron.

"A somewhat intense artillery action has continued in Champagne, in the region of the Butte Du Mesnil, and on the heights of the Meuse, in the Chevaliers woods."

200,000 RUSSIANS WOULD BRING IN ROMANIANS. Russian Army Would Turn Scale in Favor of Allies—Greece Would Come in Also.

London, Friday, Nov. 15.—The Times Balkan correspondent, telegraphing from Bucharest, expresses the opinion that if Russia could send into the Serbian campaign a force of 200,000 men while the French and British troops are landing on the Aegean coast, the hesitation which prevails in certain quarters in Roumania would be dispelled and both Roumania and Greece would throw in their lots with the Entente allies.

"In this event," says the correspondent, "Roumania could fall on Bulgaria in the rear with 200,000 men and simultaneously attack the German front with 400,000 men. Roumania feels safe in the Carpathian passes, which she regards as impregnable. The scene of action in such a case would probably be Eastern Bulgaria or Thrace, where Field Marshal von Der Goltz's army is assembled, but lacks munitions.

The distance of the Entente Allied naval base from the scene of the hostilities in Serbia and the necessity for guarding the long line of communications in a difficult country and in the face of a hostile population are regarded by the correspondent as rendering a northward march from Saloniki inadvisable. The concentration of forces farther east is held by the correspondent to be imposed by military conditions.

SOLDIERS AT SUSSEX

Camp Sussex, (N. B., Nov. 12. To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—A few days ago someone from Sussex wrote to your paper saying that Sussex was equal to Saint John in amusements. Now, will you please tell us where they can find such? There is one moving picture show in this town, and that is the only thing there is here to go to in the evening. "Sussex" (as the letter was signed) says it was the bar-room that the soldiers liked to get to St. John for, and that the only thing Sussex lacked and St. John had was the bar-room. Well, we thought this was a hard thing to say, for among the thousands of soldiers who have been at Sussex this summer there has been very little drunkenness. In fact the misconduct of any of our men, or of the 64th either, has been so small that it could hardly be noticed, for those who want liquor can buy it here just as well as in St. John. Yours very truly, A ST. JOHN MARRIED MAN IN THE 107th.

men here now, together with those who enlisted at St. John. Mrs. Helen N. Veasey, 28, formerly a moving picture actress, was seized by four men in front of 516 West 129th street, dragged into a hallway, attacked and robbed. The robbers took her hat, coat and pocketbook. A policeman who was in the vicinity arrested two young men but Mrs. Veasey was unable to identify them as among her assailants. The woman was attended at the Knickerbocker Hospital and held at the West 129th street station for further investigation of the holdup.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU! You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs. Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil-food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat. Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without injurious drugs.

Talking Dog Dead. Dresden, Germany, Oct. 24.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—"Don," a "speaking dog," which years ago made the rounds of American variety theatres, and is said to have made more money for his owner than any dog ever had made, is dead. He passed away at a very respectable old age at his birthplace near here, whether he had come when he ceased to be a theatrical drawing card.

"Don" was the property of a forester named Ebers, who marvelled at the animal's uncanny trick of imitating human voice. Dr. Bessler, director of the Hamburg Zoological Garden, became interested in "Don," and finally was instrumental in getting a theatrical engagement for him. Eventually Ebers' daughter toured Austria-Hungary, Russia and finally the United States with the dog.

Princeton Player Won. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.—Princeton won from Yale in the annual chess match played during Friday night, the scoring being 8 to 2.

Herzog After Tyler. Cincinnati, Nov. 12.—Manager Herzog of Cincinnati is planning to deal with one of the Red Sox, the Tyler first-string catcher, who was suspended toward the end of the season for an alleged violation of the club rules, will go to the Braves in exchange for Tyler. Herzog needs a southpaw and figures that Tyler will fill the hole. Herzog believes that Stallings is entirely satisfied with Tyler for Clarke, especially since Stallings has been let out.

Will Seat 55,000 Fans. The Federal league will invade New York next season. This official announcement was made recently in Indianapolis at the close of the annual meeting. The franchise forfeited by the Kansas City club will be transferred to New York, and, according to President Gilmore, a site in Manhattan has been selected and a park with a seating capacity of 55,000 will be ready early in April.

New Raid By Fed's. New York, Nov. 12.—Baseball men admitted themselves puzzled today at the action of the Federal in signing two Pacific Coast League stars, Joe Gedeon of Salt Lake and Jimmy Johnston of Oakland—by the Newark Club. They professed to see in the action a cessation of peace negotiations for at least several months.

The signing of the two men is believed to be the forerunner of another "raid" on O. B. forces by the third leaguers.

John Gunzel, manager of the Brooklyn Feds, has admitted that he has eight stars of the International League signed up for next season.

Veteran Trainer Dead. Stratford, Ct., Nov. 12.—Capt. John C. Bond, a veteran sportsman and trainer of some of the most famous boxers of recent years, dropped dead yesterday afternoon at his training quarters on the banks of the Housatonic River in this town. His death was due to heart failure and a general breakdown brought on by advancing years.

Captain Bond, who was seventy-six years of age, was known to every lover of the boxing game. He was renowned for his knowledge of sports, and his training camp has sheltered some of the greatest fighters of modern times: Terry McGovern, Stanley Ketchel, Tommy Murphy, Young Corbett, and other athletic celebrities are among those who have made Bond's their training quarters. The fighters of the Dan Morgan stable are now training at Captain Bond's club-house.

For the last few days Captain Bond had been complaining of feeling ill. On Wednesday he declared to Joe Smith, trainer for Battling Levinsky, "I don't think I'll be with you long, Joe." He called for Smith again yesterday, but the latter was doing road work with Levin and Al McCoy. When the fighter returned they found Captain Bond dead.

Kilbane Suspended. Milwaukee, Nov. 12.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, was suspended today by the Wisconsin Athletic Commission for failing to appear in answer to a charge that he did not do his best in his bout with Ritchie Mitchell here recently. Kilbane's suspension will stand until he appears and satisfactorily explains the alleged dilatory tactics in the match.

Moran Charged With Assault. Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—Frank Moran, heavyweight pugilist, was arrested and held under $600 bail by Magistrate Call today on charges of assault and battery made by a chorus girl named Marlin. Moran and the girl are appearing in a local theatre and while behind the scenes yesterday afternoon engaged in an argument. Moran denies the charges.

Football President Will Attend Games. Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson has virtually decided to attend the Army-Navy football game in New York on Nov. 27. He attended the game two years ago, but was unable to be present last year because of Mrs. Wilson's death.

Saturday's Results. In Montreal the Ottawas were defeated by the Tigers, 7 to 2. In Toronto the Argos vanquished the Montreal team 29 to 10. In New Haven, Yale defeated Princeton 13 to 7.

WANT NAME CHANGED. Hake, Fish Dealers Say Suffer Because Burdened With that Appellation.

Boston, Nov. 15.—It has been decided that hake, which have been hake for centuries, must have their name changed. But up to date no fitting appellation has been found and the dealers of the Boston Fish Pier are still trying to locate a proper name.

Hake are members of the gadidae family the same as cod, haddock and pollock, but, say the dealers, owing to their name, have always been looked upon as poor relations. Their name has proved a detriment socially and financially. Their flesh is whiter than any other groundfish, and they possess more excellent food qualities, the dealers say, but all to no avail while burdened with the name of hake.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN Tells How to Retard the Infirmities of Old Age

"I am seventy-seven years old, and for thirty-five years have worked on the P. C. & St. L. R. R. Also a Civil War Veteran. I suffered from a general nervous breakdown and would have had to bed for a day at a time. When visiting friends in Bradford, Ohio, an old doctor recommended that I try Vinol. That very day I bought a bottle and have done me a world of good, built me up so I feel stronger in every way, and have gone back to work again, and I want to recommend Vinol to any old comrade or aged person who needs strength for it is a grand medicine."

The reason Vinol is so beneficial to very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz: the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron, beef peptonate and a mild tonic wine.

We ask every aged person in St. John to try Vinol our offer to return their money if it fails to create strength. Ross Drug Company, Limited, Wasson's Drug Store, St. John, N. B.

A telegram received this morning from Quebec by Frank P. Curran, Paradise Row, brought the good news that his son, Pte. George V. Curran would soon be home. It said that he was now in Quebec, having been awarded home, and expected to return to St. John very soon. Pte. Curran left here as a member of the Signaling section, first contingent, was wounded in action in France and has been in hospital for some time in England. He will be warmly welcomed by old friends.

THERE IS NO SIGN OF DOWNHEARTEDNESS IN DUPLISEA'S LETTER

Staff Sergeant George Sends a Cheering One Home

NOT YET AT THE FRONT

Only Shells So Far From Him Are Egg Shells—A War Chant With Home References Which the Boys Like to Sing

A letter received today from Staff Sergeant Geo. Duplisea, Canadian Divisional Train, now in France, contains many interesting lines written in humorous vein with some touches of serious thought as well, emanating in a way the smiles of "Best Harts" Some of "Dip" letters which have been published have been particularly well received, and no doubt the following will be of interest also.

"Well, here we are in France in a place marked 'Somewhere.' It may not be on the map, but believe me, child, it's here. And we're here, too, because we're here, so what the—? Yes, we have heard about shells bursting and breathless escapes, some fellows saved by having a cannon ball strike a lead pencil in their pocket, and such things, but we haven't got so close to the firing line as that, at least not as yet. In fact the only shells I've seen bursting over this way have been egg-shells, few and seldom, and it costs a nickel to crack their coats.

"I'm at present 'on duty' at a military police office in a 'boose factory' or brewery—that is, I have a gun on my arm which heads 'M. P.' and the boys give it several meanings. Because of the great circumstances they have called it 'Manager of Pubs.' My duty is just to hang around and if any of the fellows call to see that the load they take back is not more than they can carry.

"No doubt you've heard the walls of the first contingent about the mud; well, let me hand you this, right now—they are in a rubber-lined Gladstone compared with what we've had to shake off our boots. We've been getting much of the mud they left, with some more that's come since, and then some. And every patch is a different color. In fact when I sleep about ten feet up, I get to become color-blind. His feet look like the latest design in crazy quilts. But just the same, we're having the time of our lives, and we're in it to the finish. Our crowd is a particularly fine bunch of fellows, and there is no wrangling. We get along fine.

"In our section, that is the address, we have four fellows who have a notion they can sing. We wouldn't mind their having the notion, but they only kept it to themselves. But that's classed as one of the hardships out here—they won't. They call themselves the 'Soldiers' Quartette,' and they feel they have nice voices—O they have, (for throwing up a good song) but let's test their voices. We think the world of every one of them, even if some of us do get out of range when they try to open fire. They have one song, however, written by Corp. C. W. Sweet, from which we never run away, brings back happy memories, and they sing it well.

"I want to go back, I want to go back, I want to go back to St. John, And put a clean white collar on 'Till of battles we have won—I miss the ferry, and Silas Perry And the top-horn on the shore; I think the parties vous Francaise Is all right in its way, Nevertheless, I want to go back Away from hard-luck, To the town that I came from, That's why I want to go, Back to the land of snow, Back to St. John.

"Well, we'll all be back some time. It's hard to say how soon, but if more of the boys around home would realize the seriousness of this war and come over to lend a hand in putting some of those German baby killers over the ropes to the count of ten, listen to me the fight would soon end. The fellows at home ought to get into the uniforms at once and get free transport across for the sake of helping to wipe those Sauerkrauts off the map if they know how badly men were needed, they'd come. I know they would, I know they're not afraid but they simply do not realize the urgency. If they are true Canadians they'll come without any coaxing. Well, an revoir, 'DIP'."

THEY MADE $186.
A pantry sale was held in the Dufferin Hotel sample rooms on Saturday afternoon. Long before 1:30 o'clock, the hour set for the opening of the sale, there were eager buyers. The rooms were very prettily decorated with bunting and flags. As a result of the sale the ladies cleared $186, which will go toward buying gum to knit socks and other much needed necessities for the coming winter campaign. The committee in charge included Miss Katherine McArthur, Misses Evans, Misses Howe, Miss Irene McQuade, Miss Grace Magee, Miss Fowles, Mrs. H. Magee, and Mrs. Bert Evans. The young ladies wish to thank all those who so generously contributed and otherwise helped to make the affair a financial success.
