FURIOUS STORM DOES DAMAGE TO SHIPPING

14 MEN CLING TO REEF WHILE AID IS SPEEDED

Crew of Stranded Freighter in Precarious Situation

HUGE WAVES

Barge Sunk and Plymouth Town Reduced to Candle Light

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—An unheralded northeasterly storm which struck the New England coast with unusual severity yesterday had subsided today, leaving in its wake a stranded freight steamer, a sunken barge, the town of Plymouth reduced to candle light and cut off from electric and street car service, and numerous other communities in varying conditions of discomfort.

Roads were blocked, street cars stalled, and waves ranging to 20 feet in height broke over highways skirting the sea front.

STEAMER ON REEF.

Out on the bleak reefs that fringe Rose Island, in Narragansett Bay, 14 members of the crew of the little freight steamer Pompano clung to their vessel as heavy seas broke over it. The ship grounded in the blinding snow yesterday and, despite the combined efforts of a naval lighter and three coast boats, it could not be budged. The rescue craft put back into Newport, R. I., after one of the guard boats had been severely damaged, but they were preparing to resume the work as weather conditions improved. The Pompano was engaged in running winter freight from Newport to Providence, R. I.

HEAVY SWELL

Up in Portland, Maine, the storm kicked up a heavy swell which kept two British steamers at sea after they had attempted to negotiate the harbor passage. The local fishing fleet hugged port and other craft followed suit. From all along the shore line came word of giant combers which scoured the coast and paralyzed shipping generally. The force of the gale rose to 80 miles an hour in places, while the snowfall was reported heaviest in this city where more than nine inches were recorded. Many minor traffic delays were reported. Clear cold weather was expected to be felt today.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 12.—Mayor Clark has been authorized by the City Council to appoint a committee of the council to confer with government authorities in connection with the forthcoming Confederation jubilee celebration.

Mayor Clark said today that the object of bringing the matter to the attention of the city council was that Fredericton, as the capital, was the proper place for any observation of the event taking place in New Brunswick to be held, and he wanted to have local preparations complete, although he felt it would be the duty of the provincial government to take the lead in preparing for any observation there might be of the occasion.

BALL PLAYERS EXONERATED BY JUDGE LANDIS

Baseball Head Rules on Risberg and Gandil Charges

NO "SLOUGHING"

Money Paid to Detroit Was in Appreciation of Beating Boston, He Says

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—All the baseball players involved in the alleged scandal between the White Sox and the Tigers in 1917 were exonerated by Commissioner Landis in a decision today. Commissioner Landis ruled that the fund raised by the White Sox was not collected or paid to the Detroit players for sloughing the series in Chicago, but was paid because of Detroit's achievement of beating Boston.

NO FIXING.

The commissioner further ruled there was no "sloughing" of games in 1917 or 1918 except possibly by "Svede" Risberg and "Chick" Gandil, who accused the White Sox and Tigers of having played a fixed game.

Commissioner Landis in his decision said that beyond the statements of the fund raised by the White Sox was nothing to do with the Detroit players sloughing the series in Chicago, but was paid because of Detroit's achievement of beating Boston.

NO FIXING.

AGREES WITH BRUCE

New Zealand Premier Reaches Montreal, En Route Home

MONTREAL, Jan. 12.—The Antipodean belief that the British dominions should bear their full share of Imperial defence, previously expounded in this country by Premier Bruce of Australia, was made unanimous by the expression of the same opinion here this morning by Premier J. G. Coates of New Zealand. Premier Coates made his first entry into Canada today, having left New York last night and arrived in Montreal this morning. Like Premier Bruce, he will cross the continent during his return from the Imperial Conference in London, to his home, and will stop off in various Canadian cities.

PAPERS CHARY OVER CHAPLIN SUIT DETAILS

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The effect of the recent law restricting the reporting of divorce cases is notably shown in the manner in which the London papers treat the action brought by Lila Grey Chaplin against the film comedian. It is the first case of great interest since the law was passed in December. In former times many papers would have spread the details, as Chaplin was born in England, and is as well known here through his films as he is in the United States, but fearing the penalties they severely limit their stories.

An factory is to be erected near London, where it is hoped to produce the film in marketable quantities within six months.

The scheduled seamen's strike commenced Monday at Changhai, 222 miles from Hankow, and a general anti-foreigner boycott has been declared, effective Jan. 14.

SHIPS NEEDED TO HOLD INDIES TRADE. Hon. L. P. D. Tilley Speaks of Necessity of Regular Four-Steams Service

Conditions in the West Indies are expected to improve generally as the result of excellent crops this season. Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, K. C., said yesterday on his return after spending more than a month touring the islands.

Mr. Tilley spent considerable time with government officials, members of the government and prominent merchants and said that there was a strong feeling there that trade between Canada and the West Indies would be affected if a regular four steamship service was not established.

During his trip he visited all the islands on the route of his ship, spending some time in Trinidad. The sugar crops will be harvested during this month, he said, and it is expected that they will be exceptionally heavy.

A triumph in the new Turkey's industrial progress is the opening at Al-pollon in Thrace of the first sugar refinery.

TO STAND TRIAL IN DRUG SMUGGLING

Windsor Police Officer Sent up to Higher Court With Accomplices. Canadian Press. WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 12.—The grand jury last night at Sandwich brought in true bills against Sergeant Bert Hawkesworth, of the Windsor police department, who is accused of conspiring to violate the narcotic drug act and his alleged conspirators, Fred Begg, ex-sergeant in the Windsor police department; Mrs. Florence Begg, his wife; Ernest Hall, ex-constable, and Michael Martin.

SERIOUS CASE

In his address to the grand jury, Mr. Justice Grant particularly drew attention to the seriousness of the charges in the so-called "dope cases" which aroused widespread attention recently. Referring to the evils of the illicit drug traffic, and the determined effort which is being made by Dominion authorities to quash it, the court said: "Some of these offences are charged as particularly serious, since they strike at the very root of the administration of justice. It is charged that men entrusted with the enforcement of the law were guilty of breach of that law."

EMPIRE PARTNERSHIP

The Empire is held together not by logic or by force, or by arbitrary compacts; indeed, the Imperial relations committee has expressly declined to lay down a constitution on the ground that such a rigid document would create endless new problems.

THEATRE MAN IS QUERIED AT PANIC PROBE

Admits Convictions for Violations of Law in Montreal

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—When Sunday's performances in the Laurier Palace moving picture theatre here were in progress a performance that ended with the sacrifice of 77 lives when a stampede resulting from a panic cry of fire caused a rush to the exits with the consequent smothering of that number of children—spectators were standing in the rear aisles in the balcony. This was the testimony of two lads and one man given today before Fire Commissioner Quinn who was investigating the disaster.

Three hours were consumed in the Fire Commissioner's Court and this was the salient fact brought out during the probe. Little light was cast upon the cause of the blaze, beyond that it had started in the balcony.

PROPRIETOR QUESTIONED

Overshadowing this was the examination of Ameen Lawand, proprietor of the theatre, who was keenly interrogated by crown counsel, insurance company counsel and lawyers representing families of children who had lost their lives in the catastrophe. The questions directed to him ranged from a bombardment demanding particulars of his school days in Syria, of which country he is a native, to his management of various enterprises in Montreal.

No wide was the interrogation that the representative of one insurance company felt impelled to remind the court that the coroner's inquest was not in progress, and that ascertaining the origin of the blaze was the "raison d'être" of the Fire Court enquiry. Questions were poured out in torrents. A number of admissions followed; some of the lawyers became impatient with Mr. Lawand, but he replied that he was doing his best to answer.

ADMITS CONVICTIONS

Under the protection of the court, he said he was the proprietor of the Laurier Palace theatre and the Maisonneuve Theatre, on Ontario street east, and was interested in the Mount Royal avenue bowling alley and billiard room. There had been fires at both theatres, at the bowling alley and at a factory adjoining his home, the latter blaze affecting his home premises. As to condemnation for infringement of the city by-laws, he said there had been convictions at both theatres for admitting children under sixteen years of age, and at the Laurier Palace Theatre for showing unapproved posters, for having people standing in the aisles and for neglecting to charge the amusement tax. Mr. Lawand is still under cross-examination. The inquiry was adjourned until Thursday afternoon, when he will be the first witness.

Parents Helpless As 3 Children Burn

QUEBEC, Jan. 11.—Three children were burned to death today at Ste. Anne Des Monts in Gaspé, according to a message which reached Quebec. The children were those of Alexandre Dugas and their ages were three months, fifteen months, and three years. The children were left in the Dugas home for a short time while their father and mother went to the stable to attend to chores. When Dugas and his wife left the stable they found their house a mass of flames. Nothing could be done to check the blaze and the father and mother were forced to watch helplessly while their three children were cremated.

OVERCOME WITH GAS

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—After having attended the funeral service for the 77 theatre fire victims at the Church of the Nativity, Nazaire Cournoyer, 15, decided to stop at the home of his grandparents and found them both overcome by gas. The grandfather, Mrs. Cournoyer, 50, was dead, and the grandfather is in a critical condition at the Notre Dame Hospital. The gas had escaped from an open jet in a stove.

SALVAGE CORPS OF CITY HOLD THEIR ANNUALS

One for West Saint John Suggested—Officers Are Elected

The 46th annual meeting of No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Station was held in their rooms at No. 3 Fire Station last night when Kenneth J. MacTae was re-elected captain. The members, with a few invited guests, along with the permanent members of the station, numbering 50, sat down to a bountiful banquet at 6:30 o'clock. Captain MacTae presided at the head of one table, while Lieut. George C. M. Farran presided at the second table.

It was one of the best banquets given by the corps and seated alongside of Captain MacTae were Commissioner W. L. Harding, W. Vaughan, chief of the fire department; H. H. McLellan, fire marshal; William H. Swift, general manager of the N. B. Power Company, and Hon. R. J. Ritchie. The menu served was of the very best and was well handled by Maury Robinson and Dr. L. A. Langstroth, assisted by an able committee of members.

At the conclusion of good things Captain MacTae delivered a brief address mentioning the fact that this was the 46th annual. The corps membership which is only one less than the strength of the membership. He complimented the members for their excellent work during the past year, thanked Commissioner Harding for the manner in which he assisted the company and pledged Chief Vaughan real co-operation during this year.

COMMISSIONER HARDING

Commissioner Harding was greeted with applause and in a brief address commended the company for their work.

Ex-Captain Charles A. Clarke, a charter member, who joined the company in June, 1882, and who is still an active member, was called on and told of the early organization of the company. Chief Vaughan thanked the members of the corps for the able assistance given him and the fire department during the past year and said he hoped the same co-operation would continue. The chief said that the Saint John department had responded to 123 bell alarms last year and almost many still alarms and thought that if citizens, discovering small fires, would send in a "still", the fires could be handled with less expense and danger than sending in an alarm from a box.

H. H. McLellan, provincial fire marshal, congratulated the corps on its excellent work and said that the property loss by fires in Saint John last year was very low, being about 50 per cent. Short addresses were also delivered by Hon. R. J. Ritchie and Mr. Swift. At the conclusion of the banquet the annual meeting of the corps was held. Secretary E. F. Howard reported that the company responded to 77 alarms during the year, spread 88 covers to save goods and worked 62 hours.

OFFICERS NAMED

The election of officers were as follows: Captain, K. J. MacTae; lieutenant, G. C. M. Farran; secretary, E. P. Howard; treasurer, E. A. Ellis; surgeon, Dr. L. A. Langstroth; foreman No. 1, C. A. Christie; foreman No. 2, E. E. Dykeman; foreman No. 3, J. B. Robinson; foreman No. 4, R. E. Geldert.

NO. 2 CORPS

The 29th annual meeting of No. 2 Salvage Corps and Fire Police was held last night in their rooms, No. 4 Fire Station, Main street, with Captain C. A. Cunningham in the chair. The secretary reported that the company responded to 54 alarms during the past year, spread 65 covers, the number of hours worked 37, average attendance at fires 15, and average attendance at meetings 16. Total membership to date, 27.

After the meeting an enjoyable few hours were spent by the members and guests in a musical and literary entertainment. Addresses were delivered by Captain Cunningham and other officers. Commissioner Harding congratulated the corps on its excellent work and brought out the point that for some time past he had been trying to organize a salvage corps on the West Side and hoped that one would be formed in the near future.

Chief of the fire department, W. S. Vaughan, also congratulated the company on its excellent work at fires and thanked the members for their hearty co-operation with him and his men at fires. Brief addresses were also given by R. Parker Hamm, a charter member, ex-Captain Robert Cunningham, and others, while vocal solos were rendered by William Grannan, violin selections by M. O'Neill, piano selections by William Davis and school sketches by J. Jones.

Officers elected were: C. A. Cunningham, captain; P. A. Armond, lieutenant; G. G. Wetmore, secretary; Charles Sullivan, treasurer; Dr. J. R. Huxford, surgeon; P. W. Hamm, No. 1 foreman; E. H. Belyea, No. 2 foreman; G. F. Coupe, No. 3 foreman; Charles McConnell, No. 4 foreman. The party, which was attended by 40 members, broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

U. S. Women Start Fine Arts in China

PEKING, Jan. 12.—Transplanted art is flourishing here in what was formerly barren ground. The Peking Institute of Fine Arts, organized in 1919 by a group of American women, expects shortly to be housed in its own building with studios for the teaching of piano, voice, violin, cello, cornet, harmony, and composition and a school of modern Chinese painting.

It has occupied buildings in the former American legation compound which were vacant since the war, but an old Chinese palace on the Nan-chai, one of the theatre blocks, so much so that road companies are finding it difficult to make ends meet and many are going out of business.

French Road Shows Also Feel Expenses

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The high cost of traveling has put a crimp in the provincial theatre business in France. Railway fares have risen more rapidly than the price of theatre tickets, so much so that road companies are finding it difficult to make ends meet and many are going out of business. Others have taken unusual economy measures. Plays making hits in Paris were often rewritten before being sent out on the road in order to reduce the number of characters. The provincial theatre has other ailments, which are painful though not necessarily fatal. One is the competition of the movies, and another is the high taxes which most municipalities assess against visiting troupes.

BIGAMY CHARGED

AMHERST, Jan. 11.—Charged with bigamy, the preliminary examination of Douglas Lloyd Dunphy was commenced here this morning before Stipendiary Magistrate MacKenzie, K. C. The hearing was adjourned until Friday to await the arrival of witnesses from Truro. Dunphy was recently arrested in Saint John at the request of the Amherst police.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

To Neutralize Acidity and Fermentation. Prevents Indigestion, Sour Gassy Stomach. People who suffer from indigestion usually have tried peppermint, charcoal, drugs—these things will not cure their trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up to chronic dyspepsia, try the effect of a little Bisulphate of Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate or milk, but pure Bisulphate Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any drug-store in either powder or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or four compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will neutralize the dangerous, irritating, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the black, heavy, lumpy stool that seems to follow most everything you eat. You can enjoy your meals without a fear of indigestion.

His instrument is the cello, and he has frequently assisted at charity affairs and court functions in the role of cello soloist.

"My cello," he told The Associated Press, "was built in Berlin by the brother of my teacher. But all experts whom I have consulted agree that it is the equal of the best of the old Italian instruments."

The Children Will Catch Cold

Mothers should never neglect the first sign of a cold or cough where their children are concerned, for if they do some serious lung trouble is liable to follow.

Mrs. R. T. Hubby, 1022 Barrington St., Halifax, N.S., writes:—"The children are continually getting colds, but I have no trouble with them, for just as soon as they begin to cough I give them a dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup which breaks up the cold within a day or so. I get great results out of it and would not be without it for anything. I can highly recommend it to any one."

Price 35c a bottle; large family size 60c; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Since the war, the prince has conducted concerts in Baden-Baden, Vienna, Budapest, Zurich, Breslau, Lina, and Bad Gastein.

Settling Fairly Between a Family of Grown Children the Question, "Who Shall Care for Mother?"—Sharp Re- tort to a Husband Who Begrudges His Wife Treats and Gifts—Is the World Growing Better?

DEAR MISS DIX—I am the youngest of a large family, and since my father's death my mother has made her home with me. She is an invalid and the greater part of my time is taken up with caring for her. I love her and am glad to do everything possible for her, but my husband is not able to make a cent for me. I am a graduate of a large uni- versity, and could add much to my income if I did not have to take care of my mother. Now my brothers are rich men, but they consider that they have done their duty by paying me $30 a month for my mother's board and the care I give her. Do you not think that they should give more? ANXIOUS.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER: Why, you can hardly board a canary bird for $30 a month in these days of the high cost of living, and it is ridiculous to expect anybody to feed and house and nurse a sick person for a measly little dollar a day. Your brothers must be headliners in the Tightwad Fraternity not to volun- tarily give you fair price for taking care of your mother, but since they are of that kind the only thing for you to do is to brace up and tell them that you are tired of being the family goat, and have decided to let some one else take a turn at being offered up on the sacrificial altar. Make them thoroughly understand that you have decided that you will be unable to take care of your mother any longer because you are going back to earning money again as a teacher. When they shop around a little, and find out how much it will cost to put mother in a sanitarium, and hire a trained nurse for her, they will be glad enough to increase the allowance that they are making you for taking care of mother to a figure that will enable you to live decently and comfortably in some place for the sacrifices you are making in being a slave to an invalid.

Personally, I think there is no meaner trait in human nature than the callous selfishness which makes so many men and women duck their responsibility to their parents, and wish them off on some sister or brother who is kinder-hearted than they are, or who has a higher sense of duty. If all the children in a family took their turn in caring for father and mother when they get old, if all clipped in to help support them, the burden would rest lightly upon every one.

But this rarely happens. Some particular John or Martha finds that he or she is unanimously elected by the other children to stay at home and support the old people, while Tom and Mary and Julia and Sam fare forth to enjoy themselves and spend their money upon themselves.

And the only remedy is to hold up these quitters and shirkers and force them to pay the debt that they do not have the sense of honor voluntarily to pay. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—When a wife receives her stipulated allowance upon which to run the house, and for her personal spending money, is she still entitled to expect treats and gifts from her husband, just as if she did not receive an allowance? DISILLUSIONED.

ANSWER: Certainly. A man who cares anything at all for his wife and who has one spark of sentiment and romance left in his heart will want to give his wife little treats and gifts. It isn't a question of her rights at all. It is a matter of feeling on his part, for the greatest happiness we ever get we find in giving pleasure to those who are dear to us.

If you begrudge your wife every cent you spend upon her; if you count every penny you spend upon her; if you get no kick out of seeing her eyes light up with joy over some little longed-for present; if your own heart does not warm with pleasure at giving her some unexpected treat, then, my dear sir, you may be very sure that your affection for her is as dead as a door nail.

Everything that is beautiful and sacred and worth while has gone out of your relationship, and she is, in reality, not your wife, but a hired woman with whom you are driving as hard a bargain as you can make. Perhaps under the conditions she is not entitled to expect gifts and treats, but she has a moral right in the circumstances to strike for higher wages that will enable her to buy herself whatever she wants.

You do not seem to understand just what giving a wife an allowance means. The money you allow her for running the house is merely a convenient and economical way of paying for the house you live in and its upkeep and the food you eat. It is no matter of individual profit to your wife. Her personal allowance is the smallest possible return you can make for her services in running your home for you. Wife labor is scab labor. You couldn't begin to hire any other woman to do the work that your wife does for you for the same amount of money.

Evidently you should have married a cash register instead of a woman if you are "disillusioned" because she has to have food and clothes, and would like to go to the movies occasionally and have her birthday remem- bered. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Do you think the world is growing better? ONE WHO WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

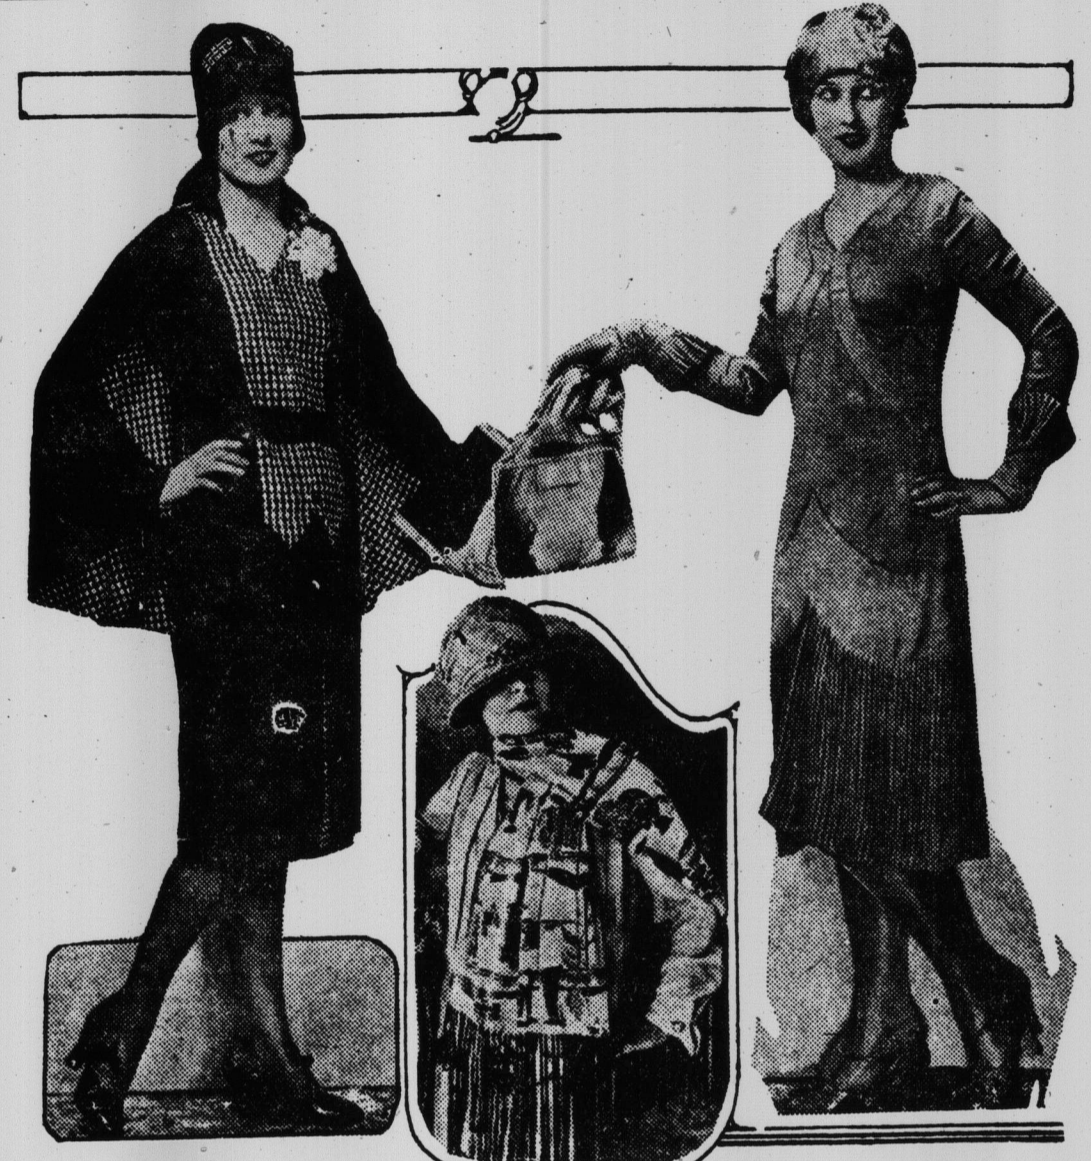

ANSWER: Oh, undoubtedly. I am an incurable optimist, and in spite of all the crime waves of which we hear so much, and the fast pace at which so many of our young people seem hurrying down the road to destruction, I believe that the world is slowly and surely moving on to better things.

I think that we grow kinder. A few months ago I was in the torture chamber in a medieval castle in Europe. There was the "iron maiden," figure in the shape of a woman, but studded with steel spikes on the inside that pierced the eyes and impaled the poor victim who was placed in it in a thousand places. There was a chair in which human beings were slowly roasted to death. There was a wheel on which bodies were broken, and for pulling out the nails from hands and feet and snatching out the tongues, and every device that ingenuity could invent for the infliction of agony. It makes us shudder to even look at such things now. Yet men used to torture each other with these fiendish devices because they differed in their theological beliefs, or because in a war they fell, as political prisoners, into each other's hands.

Contrast that with the Kaiser, living in luxury in Holland, and the French sending the defeated Abd-el-Krim to a lovely tropical island with his forty wives and half a shipload of personal belongings. We are more merciful to each other now than people used to be. We are less harsh in our judgments. We do not shut our doors in the faces of our weak and erring children. We pick them up and give them another chance.

We have a greater sense of the brotherhood of man. Look how when any disaster comes to any part of the world all the balance of the world rushes to help it. Yes, in every way the world grows better every day. DOROTHY DIX

Advanced Fashions Are Hearinging Gladsome Spring

By MME. LISBETH. SPRING may not seem very near to those who inhabit the northern part of our vast country, but the ever alert fashionists are heralding it in their advanced showings. A spring suit in ensemble effect is pictured (left). It is a navy blue char- meuse with vest of blue and white check charmeuse. The coat is made with a cape which is lined with the check in the front of the skirt where an inverted box pleat makes a bit of fullness. With this suit Barbara Worth, the model, wears a matching navy hat of hatter's plush trimmed with a band of grosgrain and a touch of check to match the suit. The fad for scarfs promises to continue into the spring, for which we should rejoice, for many are concealing lovely silk sashes under heavy coats. The one pictured (centre) is a noveltyprinted satin with long black silk fringe. Crepe in bols de rose makes the pretty dress (right). Its lines are simple, the severity of the gown being relieved by accordion plaits which are used as trimming for cuffs and skirt. Tan shoes and hose are worn by Barbara Worth and she carries a tan kid bag trimmed with baby calf and tan gloves, while her hat is a bols de rose velour.

See-Sawing On Broadway

THERE is an number of famous "stage families" wherein those who made fame and fortune rear children to the tradition of the theatre. Thus Eddie Foy and his youngsters, the famous Coburns, Fred Stone and his daughter, and many others. On the other hand there are scores who make every effort to protect their offspring from foot-lights. ONE of Broadway's most amusing tales concerns a celebrated "room shouter," whose acquaintance with hard-boiled and sentimental balladry has more than mere national recog- nition. She is one of the old-fashioned show-women, and has been in every night club propriety. She was exceedingly eager that her son turn his mind to things other than the theatre. She sent him away to school and was careful that he hold of none of her popular songs when he was home. As though her penetrating would fail to penetrate the walls of the school! The years went on and the last grew up and it seemed that she had achieved her wish. Last summer she went to Europe. While she was away the son came home from school, set himself down at the family piano, ran through a few of her numbers and, in idle moments, created a number of his own. When she returned she found him a fat salaried hit at one of the leading night clubs. "Well, folks," she had to admit, with just a suggestion of mist in eyes that have seen a great deal of the world, "I guess you might as well meet my baby. But you seem to know him in spite of me."

THERE is an number of instances of success achieved by the off- spring of stage notables. One of Henry Miller's sons already figures as a producer of real promise. William A. Brady, Jr., will put on at least three or four plays this season and is just getting his stride. Lew Fields, veteran comedian, has a little boy, Herbie, who has written the books for two or three outstand- ing musical hits. The little Foy does everything from vaudeville sketches to movies and the daughters of Channing Pollock, play- wright, are popular and charming ac- tresses. Otis Skinner's daughter, Cor- nelia, has been variously a playwright and actress. GILBERT SWAN.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

By GILBERT PICKARD. GEORGE BERNARD SHAW really contemplating appearing in a movie of his "Saint Joan," or is the playwright having a little fun at the expense of the public? For years he has scored the offers of motion picture producers and laughed at their efforts to purchase film rights to his plays. Shaw explains that he isn't interested in making more money—wouldn't know what to do with more if he had it. So there's no incentive to sell. Now comes word that he is consid- ering appearing in a "talking movie" of his play, "St. Joan," with Sybil Thorndike in the role of Joan. She scored a success on the London stage in this role. Should G. B. S. decide to take part in the film he probably will give a short introductory address to the film after the manner of the famous pre- faces to his plays which are as de- lightful as the plays themselves. But it won't be as long.

Today the publicity man tells us that Victor McLaglen, the Captain Flagg of "What Price Glory," forfeits $25,000 if he gets his face beautified while under contract to Fox Films.

Natalie Barrache, Russian stage and screen star, has adopted a new name for use in this country—Natti Barr.

John Gilbert's next picture will be "The Prodigal Son." Metro-Goldwyn- Mayer has purchased the screen rights from Sir Hall Caine.

A change of plans places George O'Brien in the leading role of "Is Zat?" in place of Victor McLaglen. It concerns a prize fighter.

Mack Sennett has reopened his studios on the west coast which have been closed since the first of September.

"Hey! Hey! Hey! Cowboy" is the title of Hoot Gibson's next picture.

Norms Talmadge recently had a luncheon at her studio for pioneer Vitaphone players. Among those present were Flora Finch, Mabel Normand, Conna Talmadge, Leah Baird, Florence Turner, Anna Brody, Anna Schaffer, Maurice Costello, George Cooper and Antonio Moreno.

Twenty racing drivers with their speed cars appear in Reginald Denry's "Slow Down."

HEALTH SERVICE Imperfect Gas Heaters Cause Many Deaths

By DR. MORRIS FISHBAIN. A MONG gas heaters sold on the open market, many are inadequate for the purpose for which they are sold. In other words, they are completely burned and proper means are not provided for taking care of the incomplete combustion.

As a result every winter hundreds of persons in the United States die from suffocation in rooms that are heated by imperfect gas heaters. The imperfect combustion results either from a lack of air to the flame or by cooling the flame through letting it play on a cold surface.

Artificial coal gas requires about five times as much air as ordinary il- luminating gas for perfect combus- tion. Even natural gas requires twice as much air.

For this reason a burner sold for artificial gas will not do for use with natural gas. The only means of safety with such heaters is a flue which will carry off the fumes of incomplete combustion.

The suffocating gas in these cases is the same as occurs in the exhaust pipes of gasoline motors—deadly car- bon monoxide. Death may be almost instantaneous if the dose is large.

SYMPTOMS. Usually before the person becomes unconscious, he begins to yawn, feel- ing a sense of tiredness, a feeling of tightness in the forehead. He may develop head- ache, dizziness or nausea under such circumstances. It is best to get fresh air into the room as soon as possible.

Many physicians believe that per- sons may suffer from slight degrees of carbon monoxide poisoning, in which case there is a loss of energy, headache, sleepiness and shortness of breath on exertion. The safe rule to follow is to have no gas heater unless there is a flue.

TRIBUTES PAID TO J. S. FLAGLOR, DEAD IN SOUTH

Former Saint John Postmaster Passes Away in Jacksonville

Tributes to the late J. S. Flaglor, former postmaster here, who passed away at Jacksonville, Florida, yesterday afternoon, were paid this morning by H. W. Woods, district superintendent of postal service and Alexander Thompson, postmaster. Mr. Flaglor's death followed a stroke of paralysis on Thursday.

Mr. Woods said: "I knew the late Mr. Flaglor long before I came to the service, and always found him to be a man of sterling character. This was proven to me in later years by my associations with him. I always found him pleasant and agreeable, a courteous gentleman and official. I received a kindly remembrance from him at Christmas, and it was with a great shock that I learned of his sudden death.

Mr. Thompson said that he had worked with the late Mr. Flaglor and had always found him very courteous. "We had always been very good friends and I held nothing but the highest esteem for him. He was very satisfactory as postmaster and was prominent in the church work of the city."

News of Mr. Flaglor's death was received here last night. Mrs. Byron D. Lingley, of Windsor, N. S., a daughter, left on Sunday for Florida, but only reached the post office in Jacksonville on Monday. She was accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Hill, in Boston, when the sad news was received.

Mr. Flaglor was first stricken with paralysis on Nov. 14, but recent letters to this city inferred that he was quite himself again. He was 73 years of age and retired from the postal service in 1924 after 44 years of service with the government. He had been very prominent in the work of the Christian church.

MEETING VISIT PLANNED When Mr. and Mrs. Flaglor left Saint John in October it was planned, after visiting their daughter in Boston, to attend the big Christian church convention in Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Flaglor was familiar with these important circles of his denomination and usually carried credentials as a leading Canadian delegate. In the American union, particularly in the south, the Christian church—of which Coburg street and Douglas avenue are the only local branches—is a very large community with extensive universities, theological schools, mission establishments and so forth. Mr. Flaglor kept in close touch with these and was a prominent link with the parent organization in the States.

Proud of his Loyalist descent, happy of the opportunity to chat about the hopes and aspirations of Saint John and this young nation, Canada, the former postmaster was a figure in local circles that will be missed. He radiated a genuine spirit of optimism and in his latest letters to friends he never failed to compare the opportunities and beauties of this land with qualities of places he was visiting. Merely matters of personal health urged upon him the necessity of escaping the rigors of winter.

THOSE WHO SURVIVE Mr. Flaglor leaves Mrs. Flaglor and a family of four daughters—Helen (Mrs. Byron D. Lingley), of Wolfville, N. S.; Winifred (Mrs. R. E. Hill), of Boston; Grace (Dr. Levesque), of the General Public Hospital staff here, and Marion (Mrs. J. H. MacGowan), Renforth, N. B.; two sisters, Mrs. M. Dawes and Mrs. A. Barbour, both of the Boston vicinity, also survive. There are four grandchildren—Mrs. Lingley's son, Reginald, a student in Harvard Medical School; Mrs. Hill's daughter, Mrs. Lewis's boy, Mrs. MacGowan's little boy and girl.

The widow, Mrs. Flaglor, was formerly Miss Wells, of Bayfield, West. Mr. Flaglor, retired, now of Ottawa. On April 5 last Mr. and Mrs. Flaglor celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in their Princess street home and were called upon by hundreds of friends who did them signal honor.

Mr. Flaglor had been in the postal service at Saint John for 44 years and had fulfilled his varying duties to the complete satisfaction of the public and with the utmost of competence. He had had an active part in the inauguration of every new branch of the service since he joined the local staff at a time when it numbered just 14.

APPOINTED IN 1923 Mr. Flaglor was appointed postmaster in August, 1923, succeeding Edward Sears, and had the longest record of service of any member on the staff at that time. He was superannuated in 1924. When Mr. Flaglor entered the service in 1870 the post office was located in the Walker Building in Canterbury street, between Church and Princess streets.

The staff of the local post office in 1870, when Mr. Flaglor entered the service, consisted of an office keeper, a box collector and 12 supervisory and clerical members. In 1922 the staff consisted of eight porters, 44 letter carriers, 67 clerical and nine supervisory members of the staff. The revenue in those 52 years increased from $22,993.73 to $220,290.19.

SAVED MAILS IN GREAT FIRE During the great fire of 1877 Mr. Flaglor's promptness in safeguarding the mails at that time in the post office was largely responsible for the fact that not one article was entirely consumed. While the building appeared to be in a zone of safety, Mr. Flaglor set about gathering the mails together as a measure of precaution. That precaution proved to have been a necessary one.

In the South African war-time, when postal authorities were driven nearly to distraction in their endeavors to meet the requirements of army postal regulations the service from Saint John received a special measure of praise and the army authorities wrote that they could not mention any particular in which it could be improved. Mr. Flaglor was at that time assistant postmaster and had arranged the special methods of sorting that were followed in Saint John.

FRENCH DEPUTIES ELECT SOCILIST

Former Minister of War Defeated; Precedent is Established

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 12.—Frank Anstey, Federal labor leader, has returned from the Papuan gold fields with the report that the Papuan natives are hurrying the destruction of their race by virtually making slaves of their women. Native men, he says, are loading their wives with packs weighing up to 130 pounds, and are compelling them to carry these loads through mountainous country and generally treating the women as slaves. Many women, unable to bear their burden, are left lying by the roadside. Mr. Anstey charges that there is more than a suspicion that the Papuan administration was conniving in this slavery of women because it released more boys for work on the plantations, and as carriers.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—The French Chamber of Deputies began its regular session of 1927 yesterday by electing a Socialist, Fernand Bouisson, as its president. He won on the third ballot, by a vote of 284 to 186 over M. Maginot, a former minister of war. Little political significance is attached to the action of the Chamber in establishing a new precedent by electing a Socialist, for M. Bouisson is looked upon as one of the most moderate leaders of his party. He is considered an expert presiding officer, having established a record in the Chamber as vice-president for several years.

Plot to Ruin Soviet Mines Is Frustrated

MOSCOW, Russia, Jan. 12.—The Workers Gazette says that the authorities have frustrated a daring plan devised by "evil elements among the workers" to blow up the Soviet mines, power houses and equipment in the Donetsk coal basin. MAYOR SEEKS CO-OPERATION OF EMPLOYERS

Asks That Assessors Be Assisted by Prompt Return of Schedules

The importance of the employers of labor in the city, co-operating with the Board of Assessors by returning the schedules showing the number of employees and the amount of wages received, was referred to by Mayor White at the council meeting yesterday afternoon.

RETURN OF SCHEDULES

In regard to the return of schedules by the employers, His Worship said he had taken the matter up with the chairman of the Board of Assessors, who had informed him that of the 1,122 forms sent out with a request that they be filled in and returned on or before January 10, only 450 had been returned up to this time.

TAX MATTER.

An application from the Imperial Tobacco Co. for permission to erect an electric sign over the premises of Mrs. Quigg, Main street, was referred to the commissioner of public works, city engineer and city electrician, with power to act.

POWER ACCOUNT.

An account from the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission of $3,907.10, with accrued interest amounting to $871.85, with a request that a settlement be made at once, was received and referred to the general committee.

This bill is for preparing plans and an estimate of cost of the civic distribution system. Commissioners Wigmore and Bullock said it was understood at the time this work was done that no charge was to be made for it. Commissioner Frink said the city solicitor should be consulted as there was a question of legal liability involved and this was agreed to.

An application from the South End Improvement League for a grant of $600 was laid on the table to be taken up with the grants.

MONTREAL TRAGEDY.

Mayor White referred to the shocking tragedy at Montreal, and said this brought home the importance of seeing that the exits in all public buildings were ample and in good working order.

COATES TALKS EMPIRE PARLEY

New Zealand Premier Is Interviewed at New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Premier G. J. Coates of New Zealand finished the first stage of his journey home from the Imperial Conference in London when the Aquitania docked here this evening.

Accompanied by Mrs. Coates and his party, the premier will proceed tonight to Montreal en route to Ottawa where he will confer with Premier Mackenzie King and members of the Canadian Government before starting the trek to the Antipodes.

Mr. Coates expressed to newspapermen entire satisfaction with the decision reached at the Imperial Conference. "A number of misunderstandings have probably been cleared up," he said. "While some portions of the Empire understood the relationship of each member to the whole, some did not."

MORE CONTRIBUTIONS. Increased contributions by New Zealand toward Imperial defense was foreshadowed by the Premier. He said that the amount per capita contributed by New Zealanders to defense had been something less than one-third that contributed by residents of the British Isles.

"New Zealand will gradually increase the amount until it compares favorably with that of the mother country," he said. The Premier described the New Zealand navy as "a unit of the Imperial Navy" rather than a complete organization in itself. He expressed his entire agreement with the statement of Prime Minister Stanley Bruce of Australia, that the Dominions must have a full share of Imperial defense or "accept a position of national inferiority."

RAIL FREIGHT FIGURES SHOW TRADE TREND

Increase Noted in Tonnage of Mine Products Carried

MONTREAL, Jan. 12.—Detailed records covering the source of freight on the Canadian railroads, for the ten months of 1926 to the end of October, provide a fairly illuminating survey of the condition of prosperity in various basic lines, such as agricultural products, mine and forest products, and also in manufacturing activity.

INCREASE OF OVER 20% The general impression of a much greater activity in the mining industry in Canada during the past year is amply borne out by freight tonnage records. For the total for 1926, 2,424,880 tons was increased by 5,474,679 tons, making the total of 4,900,000 tons.
