Ribbons Bringing Thirty-Two Shillings at Covent Garden—Judge Grantham is Criticized for Speech

Times' Special Cable London, Oct. 12.—The first pickings of the new season's apples are selling in Covent Garden. Despite a good supply of English eating apples, Canadian Ribbons are bringing thirty-two shillings a barrel. Strong complaint is being made in the Liberal press about the political nature of Judge Grantham's speech a summary of which was cabled yesterday. It is declared a breach of the ancient tradition of the British bench.

West Indies Trade Barbados, Oct. 12.—The local press suggests that the imperial government has practically committed a breach of faith by not maintaining a trans-Atlantic service to connect with intercolonial packets. The chamber of commerce is moving in the direction of a trans-Atlantic service.

The West India committee in London states that merchants and bankers connected with the West India business are unanimous in the view that a mail service via Canada is not suitable. The government is being urged to give an adequate subsidy for a trans-Atlantic service.

IMPORTANT CASES WAIT FOR JUDGES

Failure to Have Full Bench in United States Causes Re-Adjustment—Standard Oil Matter Among Number

Washington, Oct. 12.—Because of the failure to have a full bench in the supreme court of the United States a general readjustment of important cases set for spring consideration this autumn, has been made by the court. The Standard Oil and the tobacco corporation suits under the Sherman anti-trust law were postponed for re-hearing from November 14 to January 3. The corporation tax cases, involving the constitutionality of the corporation tax provisions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff, which had been restored to the docket for re-hearing before a full bench at an indefinite date, also was assigned for argument on January 3. So was the interpretation of the National pure food and drug act.

The Kiesel case, involving the question as to whether or not the American sugar refining company and others conspired to prevent the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company from doing business, was postponed until November 10.

PLAN BAIT VOYAGE

New Enterprise to Be Undertaken by Gloucester Fishermen for the Winter Fishing Fleet.

Gloucester, Oct. 12.—A new enterprise in the fishery will soon be embarked upon. The schooner Fannie A. Smith, Capt. Joseph Bonny, the Essex, Capt. Michael Wise, and the Corsair, Capt. Oscar Lyons, all owned by the Grosvenor Fisheries company, are being fitted for a bait voyage to Burgeo, N.B. The equipment of the vessels comprises sail, ice and pans. As Burgeo is a supply of fresh squid will be purchased and frozen by the pan process, so-called, the salt and ice being used for the freezing process, and the frozen squid will be packed aboard one of the vessels and brought to this port. This venture is necessary from the fact of the great scarcity of bait all along the coast. Last year, and for many years at this time, the cold storage plants all along the coast from Boothbay to Cape Cod were filled with bait. This year, however, the supply has run short for the winter fishing fleet.

Despatches from Newfoundland state that an abundance of squid is being taken at Burgeo. Burgeo is on the west of the treaty coast of Newfoundland near the Ramea islands. It is the intention to purchase the fish from the native fishermen. It is not thought that the Newfoundland government will enter any protest against the purchase of the fish this season at least.

St. Martins Hotel Man Speaks of Moncton Story—Perfect Right, He Says to Contract Second Marriage—Has Fought in Soudan and South Africa

Asserting that he had obtained a divorce from the woman in England who seeks him as her husband Captain G. E. Thomas of St. Martins, denied emphatically to the Times-Star today any suggestion in the story coming from Moncton that he was a bigamist. Captain Thomas said that he did not at the present time care to make a detailed explanation but said that he had three years ago been granted a divorce which was sufficient answer to any hint or suggestion that his second marriage was not legal. He says that he has the necessary proofs of this statement and that when he was married again in November last before a registrar in Montreal he had a perfectly legal right to be married. Asked what he had to say about the cablegrams which it was said he had received, announcing the death of his wife and daughter in England, Captain Thomas said that he had received a cable telling that the woman

REVOLUTION IN ROAD WORK

Some excitement has been caused in the neighborhood of Loch Lomond by the appearance of some men on teams at work on a portion of the highway. The phenomenon was so unusual that the neighbors turned out in great numbers to watch the work, and it was the chief topic of conversation whenever people met in that part of the county. As the Loch Lomond fair was held about the same time, a very large number of people saw these men at work, and so the news spread all the way from St. John to St. Martins.

The Thriving Days of Shipbuilding When This Was World's Fourth Port—Extension of I. C. R. To Toronto and in Straight Line to St. John

His Worship Mayor Brink received in this morning's mail the following letter, which appeared in the Toronto Globe of recent date, and which is from the pen of Rev. Geo. Bruce, formerly of St. David's Church here:—

The report that St. John is likely to be chosen for one of the dry docks for the extension of the I. C. R. to Toronto and in straight line to St. John, is a very welcome one. It is a fact that St. John was fourth in rank in the British Empire for the ownership of ocean tonnage.

Old Ship-Building Days Here The great fleet that placed St. John so far up among the commercial cities of the world was not only owned in the city but was built by the citizens. It was the wealthy shipbuilder himself to the man and the woman of limited means, the ordinary workman, or servant, even to the boys and the girls, of the city. In fact, the ocean was the field from which the great and personal harvest was gathered and the ships the favorite place of investment for the savings of the people.

The building of these ships along the winding shores of the harbor gave employment to an army of skilled men and support to their families while the receiving and loading of the cargoes required hundreds of laborers all the year round.

The discovery of America by Christopher Columbus is being observed in Charlottetown, P. E. I., Oct. 12.—(Special)—Local Knights of Columbus, assisted by members from St. John, Moncton, Picton, Sydney, Antigonish, and other maritime points, with several prominent leaders of the order from Montreal and Toronto 200 in all, are celebrating Columbus Day here today with a parade and conferring of degrees. Tonight a special sermon will be preached in St. Dunstan's Cathedral by Rev. Dr. McLellan.

GUARDING BRITISH MUSEUM'S BOOKS The Officials Will Endeavor to Prevent The Filing of Its Volumes

London, Oct. 12.—The authorities of the British Museum have under consideration a set of new rules regarding the reading room.

It has been found that occasionally frequenters of the room take home with them books which they have perused up to the closing hour, returning them on the following morning. This is contrary to the regulations which forbid the removal of books from the reading room.

Now and then, according to one of the officials, the borrowers omit to take back the volumes. Therefore, one of the new proposals is that all hands, "dear cases," and similar articles into which books might be slipped, shall be left with the attendants outside the doors of the room.

So far as regards handbags this precaution has been enforced for some time, but the most professional-looking dispatch boxes and cases are allowed to be taken in by readers.

The reading room attendants keep a sharp but unobtrusive watch upon the students and literary workers. If at the closing hour or subsequently a book should be missing, immediate steps are taken to trace it.

An average of 720 readers use the room daily, and in the course of a year they are supplied with close upon 1,500,000 volumes.

DEPORT FOUR CHINESE

Boston, Oct. 12.—Four Chinese captured in a freight car at Holyoke, on September 13, and brought here, charged with violating the immigration laws, have been deported back to China, the United States being put to an expense of $1,500 for their transportation. The car in which they were found was partly filled with hay and was billed from Harwick, Quebec.

The trials will probably open on Tuesday instead of Monday as at first expected.

RAILROAD STRIKE IN FRANCE HAS BECOME ALMOST REVOLUTION

Employees in Other Lines Join Strikers of Yesterday and Snap Fingers at Throat of Military Discipline—Germany is Affected

Paris, Oct. 12.—Encouraged by the effectiveness of the strike of employees on the northern and western railroads and the extension of the movement today to the east and the Paris- Lyons and Mediterranean lines the leaders of the French strikers generally threaten a gigantic movement to paralyze the activities of the whole country.

The extension of the strike to the east and south has practically isolated that part which is threatened with famine. The government is seriously concerned over the matter of food supply.

The stock of flour on the Paris market today did not exceed 75,000 quintals. A quintal is equivalent to 220.48 pounds avoirdupois. Paris consumes 10,000 quintals daily.

Almost a Revolution The president of the grain syndicates said that the stock of flour on the Paris market today did not exceed 75,000 quintals. A quintal is equivalent to 220.48 pounds avoirdupois. Paris consumes 10,000 quintals daily.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The French government is today confronted with a strike of railway employees that is rapidly spreading throughout the republic and threatens to become general by tomorrow morning.

Traffic is discontinued. The railway managers cannot possibly cope with the situation. It is upon the government, however, that the burden of the strike rests.

WILL OPEN MAYES CASE TOMORROW

Will Occupy Exchequer Court for Three or Four Days—Reid & Co. Case off Till Next Settings

The trial of the cause of Reid & Co. vs. The King, was today postponed until the next sitting of the Exchequer Court, owing to the illness of Mr. G. Reed, K. C., counsel with R. W. Hewson, for the plaintiff. When the court opened this morning His Lordship Mr. Justice Caselle presiding, Mr. Hewson applied for the postponement, and Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., and A. E. G. McKenna for the crown consented. One of the crown's witnesses will be examined this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The case of Mayes vs. The King will be taken up tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. J. D. Hanson, K. C., and J. E. Baxter, K. C., appear for Mayes, and Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., E. H. McAlpine, K. C., and A. B. Copp for the Crown. The trial will likely occupy three or four days.

In the case of Reid & Co. vs. The King, the plaintiffs are John W. Smith and J. Frederick Edgett, doing business under the firm name of F. F. Reid & Co., at Moncton and Campbellton. The plaintiffs' petition of right discloses that on October 30 and 31 a car of tobacco, cheese and the like, consigned to the plaintiffs, was unloaded by the servants of the I. C. R. at Campbellton and the goods placed in the warehouse then owing to the negligence of the crown's servants, the warehouse and contents were destroyed by fire on Thanksgiving day of 1907. The plaintiffs claim the sum of $2,500. The crown, in defence, deny that there was negligence on the part of the servants of the railway, and contend that the plaintiffs were negligent in not removing the goods from the warehouse within the time allowed.

PORTUGAL POWERS NOW WANT ARMY

Plan to Have Force of Quarter Million—Talk of "Small Dreadnoughts" For Navy

Lisbon, Oct. 12.—Colonel Barrette, minister of war, says that the government intend to reorganize the army thoroughly, bringing together a force of 250,000 men. Minister of Marine Couesens considers that the remodeling of the navy will prove an arduous task on account of the utter neglect the monarchy has shown towards the sea forces. He favors the building of "small Dreadnoughts."

The administration of the king's property has proposed to the minister of the interior to liquidate the king's indebtedness to the state by yearly payments and at the same time guarantee the king an annuity. Senator Almeida replied that the government would consider the proposal.

The lord-in-waiting and court noble, who accompanied the king to Gibraltar have returned, the king having expressed a desire to be alone in exile. The officers and crew of the royal yacht Amélia have been discharged and a new crew, all staunch Republicans, put on board.

The government has published notices that severe punishment will follow any raid upon private properties and declares that the report that prisoners are hiding in nobles' houses is untrue.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Laureano Mattos, who is a leading militant Catholic.

The government has announced that the Irish Dominican fathers and nuns, who have conducted a school here for many years, will be exempted from the order of expulsion. This step, doubtless, is due to the desire of the Republicans to keep on good terms with Great Britain.

London, Oct. 12.—The special correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at Lisbon cables: "The republic is gaining in favor with the people and the provisional government is doing its best to redeem the pledges that the Republican party made to the people in the days when the republic was only a dream. The ministers are showing themselves wisely tolerant in refraining from persecuting their political opponents. This tolerance, however, is not altogether the liking of certain extremists, who form a powerful but misguided body."

BOY WALKED OFF TRAIN WHILE ASLEEP

London, Oct. 11.—A fifteen year-old French lad, who was being brought by his mother to an English school, was sleeping in the Paris-Calais express one night recently when he suddenly got up and walked into the corridor.

A few minutes later he was seen to open the door at the end of the corridor and disappear. The alarm was given and the train which was travelling at sixty miles an hour, was pulled up as quickly as possible.

A search was made along the line and to the surprise of everyone the boy was found hurrying along in the direction of the train with no injuries except a few bruises on his knees and a cut on his forehead. The accident was due to the lad walking in his sleep.

The journey was resumed and the boy with his mother, crossed to Dover, very little the worse for the exciting experience.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

There is much speculation on the question whether the men and teams will be kept busy until the road freezes. It has long been recognized that sections of the road are in such a state that the men in progress, or an election pending, or the fall rains coming on, and great praise is given to Premier Hazen for his courage in boldly setting these men and teams at work, when the custom has been to have road repairs made in the winter early in the season. When Mr. Bentley saw what was being done he shed tears. He wanted the work done when the season was favorable, but the government with great courage refused to do anything of the sort. If the work is continued the neighbors will be kept busy until the road so that the men can warm their feet.

TEDDY'S NEXT FEAT. Col Roosevelt has taken a trip in an aeroplane. Having done this, and also latched with the octopus in the United States and the lions in Africa, it only remains for this courageous man to come to New Brunswick and risk his life in a twenty-mile ride on the Hazen highways.

UNREST IS REPORTED IN INDIA

Trouble for Great Britain in Eastern Dominion is Feared

A LONDON LETTER

Cleavage in Political Parties at Home is Shown—Labor Party's Power is Said to be Developing—Mr. Balfour Goes on Golfing

(Toronto Telegram's London Letter.) London, Sept. 21.—Unrest in India, in Egypt, in South Africa, at home, in the Unionist party—though in this case the term "divine discontent" is sometimes used as a synonym—in the Liberal party, in the Labor party, and in the labor world. What is the meaning of it all? It is causing some embarrassment, but the issues will be good.

In all these several spheres "unrest" merely means but a pang. Take India! No one likes the unrest there, but who can doubt that though it be through much tribulation there will be developed a happier state of things? It is not possible to govern India on the old lines. Existing governments clearly recognize this, and though Lord Morley, of all men, finds himself compelled to deport people without trial of any sort, the same Lord Morley sanctions reforms which aim at conceding to the people of India a fuller share in the administration of the country. Egypt, again, is suffering through a similar trouble. The refusal of the French government to sanction the holding of an Egyptian national congress in Paris has excited comment and added to the bitterness of feeling in Egypt, but in Egypt, as in India, the British government, seeing a greater difficulty in withdrawing from the country than in remaining, is seeking, by improvements in administration, to develop the capacity of the Egyptian people for self-government. And as to both India and Egypt, no one doubts that the present is better than the future. Great Britain should exercise control rather than any other European power.

South Africa More Hopeful. When we turn to South Africa the outlook is still more hopeful. There we begin with self-government. The unrest is therefore of a different sort altogether. It is sufficient to support a new order, and it is being regarded with real sympathy by the best minds. It is with a sense of relief that we learn that General Botha has determined to remain in office. It is felt that in all the circumstances it is well that he should do so. That his majority in the lower house is not large is regarded as a not unmixed evil, especially seeing that his majority in the upper house, though small, is still a majority.

The subjects with which General Botha's government will have to deal will be handled with the greater care and the greater consideration for the interests represented by the opposition than the government's strength lies in the upper rather than in the lower house. So that on the whole the feeling in political circles here inclines to optimism. The first government of the Union of South Africa, it is believed, will hold its own and need not be regarded as purely provisional. It is united; its leader is able and sagacious, it is sufficiently supported in the country. Moreover, amongst the opposition there are men of mark who will not be parties to mere factionism. The present government, it is thought, may enter upon its first session with confidence that it will be able to carry its programme in the main.

Unrest at Home. Turning to the unrest here at home, it may be remarked that, as it is manifested in the several political parties, it is largely due to the young men in a hurry, but more than them very well meaning young men, ready to do and die for the cause. In the Unionist party, we are assured, there are many young men of talent and energy, and so on, who are simply panting to be let loose upon the Socialist Liberal government. It must be actively at headquarters. There must be a policy, and so on, and so on. All this chattering is not particularly good, indeed in some respects it does much harm, for it gives the enemy occasion to jibe, occasion of which it takes full advantage. More activity the streets of the town and the lanes of the country? A policy wanted, when the very people who have been declaring for years that there is only one policy, viz., tariff reform, for purifying and clearing the blood, as they think it, to set up So-and-So! Indeed, I think it not improbable that Mr. Balfour rather than the young men, is the "unrest." He regards it as indicative of vitality, and what is much more, the young man can be played off against the old man. That the Unionist party suffers from it is too much old party. Liberal "old party" or "stick in the mud" can migrate to the Unionist party; Labor "old party" can enter the Liberal camp; but Unionist "old parties" have nowhere to go. They are already the last word in stampeding. Mr. Balfour regards the divine discontent of his young men as a set-off against the deadly dullness of his old men. He knows he has only to bestow upon them one of his benign smiles and they will find themselves under his car.

Liberals Steadier. It is much the same with the Liberals, though ever it is the case that party ties are less strong amongst Liberals than Unionists. But the unrest in the Liberal party is indeed not as great as it was. The recent utterances of prominent cabinet ministers on the constitutional issue, to which I have previously referred, have steadied the party considerably. Then the demonstrations in Canada, the United States, Germany and elsewhere against the high prices of food and in favor of revised tariffs have made for solidarity and inspired hope.

I fancy the unrest in the Labor party is the most marked. Here again it is significant of vitality, but it gives serious trouble to the leaders. The leaders of the Labor party do not hold a commanding position at all comparable to that held by the leaders of the Unionist and Liberal parties in their respective parties. All the same, I think it would be a grave error to anticipate that the Labor party will discredit its leaders or divide its forces in such a way as to enable the Unionists to throw out the government. The party will not divide. Mr. Asquith will make Mr. Balfour prime minister. At least it will not do so if it can possibly help it. Certainly there will be trouble about the Osborne judgment. But the chances are that Mr. Asquith will be able to effect a compromise on this question. Payment of members and official election expenses, including registration of voters, would go a long way. The absorption of union funds in parliamentary contests would probably give continued trouble in the Labor ranks, but the reduction of the cost of the party to the candidates by payment of such election expenses, and payment of the costs of registration would leave candidates with a reach of men of very moderate means, and certainly within reach of any man who had any real support in his constituency. His supporters, if reasonably numerous, could easily raise the real campaign expenses. The compromise may proceed upon some such lines.

Temporary Peace. In the Labor world the outlook is on the whole more reassuring. A temporary peace has been effected in the Welsh coal trade and negotiations are tending toward peace in the shipbuilding industry, as also on the railways. In the cotton trade a great lockout is threatened, but I am assured that in certain important quarters the trouble is not taken too seriously. The cause of the unrest in the Labor world is the sectional dispute, and employers generally feel that there must be an end to these, and in that the leaders of the men themselves are at one with the employers. So that the hope is strongly held that some means will be found of checking this particular evil. Collective bargaining will, I think, come well out of the present turmoil, but by what means this devoutly to be wished consummation will be attained, it is at present not easy to say.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

END OF THE BOSTON LIBERATOR By William Lloyd Garrison

From the Liberator, Dec. 29, 1865.

I BEGAN the publication of the Liberator without a subscriber, and I end it— it gives me unalloyed satisfaction to say— without a farthing as the pecuniary result of the patronage extended to it during 35 years of unremitting labors.

Most happy am I to be no longer in conflict with the mass of my fellow-countrymen on the subject of slavery. For no man of any refinement or sensibility can be indifferent to the approbation of his fellow men, if it be rightly earned. But to obtain it by going with the multitude to do evil—by pandering to despotic power or a corrupt public sentiment—is self-degradation and personal dishonor.

Better to be in a minority of one with God—branded as a madman, incendiary, fanatic, heretic, infidel, frowned upon by "the powers that be," and rebuffed by the populace—or consigned ignominiously to the gallows, like him whose "soul is marching on," though his "body lies mouldering in the grave," or burnt to ashes at the stake like Wickliffe, or nailed to the cross like Him who "gave himself for the world"—in defence of the right, than like Herod, having the shouts of a multitude crying, "It is the voice of a god, and not of a man!" Farewell, tried and faithful patrons! Farewell, generous benefactors, without whose voluntary but essential pecuniary contributions the Liberator must have long since been discontinued! Farewell, noble men and women who have wrought so long and so successfully, under God, to break every yoke! Hail, ye ransomed millions! Hail, year of jubilee! With a grateful heart and a fresh baptism of the soul my last invocation shall be:—

Spirit of freedom on— Till every clime is bright To worship in thy light: Speed on thy glorious way, And wake the sleeping lands! Millions are watching for the ray, And hit to thee their hands. Still "Onward!" be thy cry, Thy banner on the blast; And like a tempest, as thou rushest by, Depots shall shrink aghast. On till thy name is known Throughout the peopled earth; On! till from every vale, and where the mountains rise, Mans heritage by birth; On! till from every vale, and where the o the skies! The beacon lights of liberty shall kindle mountains rise.

It must be actively at headquarters. There must be a policy, and so on, and so on. All this chattering is not particularly good, indeed in some respects it does much harm, for it gives the enemy occasion to jibe, occasion of which it takes full advantage. More activity the streets of the town and the lanes of the country? A policy wanted, when the very people who have been declaring for years that there is only one policy, viz., tariff reform, for purifying and clearing the blood, as they think it, to set up So-and-So! Indeed, I think it not improbable that Mr. Balfour rather than the young men, is the "unrest." He regards it as indicative of vitality, and what is much more, the young man can be played off against the old man. That the Unionist party suffers from it is too much old party. Liberal "old party" or "stick in the mud" can migrate to the Unionist party; Labor "old party" can enter the Liberal camp; but Unionist "old parties" have nowhere to go. They are already the last word in stampeding. Mr. Balfour regards the divine discontent of his young men as a set-off against the deadly dullness of his old men. He knows he has only to bestow upon them one of his benign smiles and they will find themselves under his car.

Liberals Steadier. It is much the same with the Liberals, though ever it is the case that party ties are less strong amongst Liberals than Unionists. But the unrest in the Liberal party is indeed not as great as it was. The recent utterances of prominent cabinet ministers on the constitutional issue, to which I have previously referred, have steadied the party considerably. Then the demonstrations in Canada, the United States, Germany and elsewhere against the high prices of food and in favor of revised tariffs have made for solidarity and inspired hope.

I fancy the unrest in the Labor party is the most marked. Here again it is significant of vitality, but it gives serious trouble to the leaders. The leaders of the Labor party do not hold a commanding position at all comparable to that held by the leaders of the Unionist and Liberal parties in their respective parties. All the same, I think it would be a grave error to anticipate that the Labor party will discredit its leaders or divide its forces in such a way as to enable the Unionists to throw out the government. The party will not divide. Mr. Asquith will make Mr. Balfour prime minister. At least it will not do so if it can possibly help it. Certainly there will be trouble about the Osborne judgment. But the chances are that Mr. Asquith will be able to effect a compromise on this question. Payment of members and official election expenses, including registration of voters, would go a long way. The absorption of union funds in parliamentary contests would probably give continued trouble in the Labor ranks, but the reduction of the cost of the party to the candidates by payment of such election expenses, and payment of the costs of registration would leave candidates with a reach of men of very moderate means, and certainly within reach of any man who had any real support in his constituency. His supporters, if reasonably numerous, could easily raise the real campaign expenses. The compromise may proceed upon some such lines.

Temporary Peace. In the Labor world the outlook is on the whole more reassuring. A temporary peace has been effected in the Welsh coal trade and negotiations are tending toward peace in the shipbuilding industry, as also on the railways. In the cotton trade a great lockout is threatened, but I am assured that in certain important quarters the trouble is not taken too seriously. The cause of the unrest in the Labor world is the sectional dispute, and employers generally feel that there must be an end to these, and in that the leaders of the men themselves are at one with the employers. So that the hope is strongly held that some means will be found of checking this particular evil. Collective bargaining will, I think, come well out of the present turmoil, but by what means this devoutly to be wished consummation will be attained, it is at present not easy to say.

CITY GOVERNMENT

The city of Lynn, Mass., has been added to the list of those which have adopted the commission form of government. A commission of five men will be elected to govern the city. The plan, it is stated, is practically the same as that adopted in Haverhill, in the same state.

Gradually the old city council system of government is being abandoned. Under that system the best results are no longer attainable. It is recognized more and more that a city is just a big business proposition, and that its affairs should be conducted on business principles, by men of ability and experience, who can devote their time and energy to the task.

THE INTERNATIONAL

After going over the line, Hon. Dr. Pugsley confirms what has already been published relative to the excellent character of the International Railway, and the rich resources of the territory traversed. The railway has been well-built, and makes a very important link in the chain of railways throughout New Brunswick. It brings the north shore communities within easy reach of the upper St. John valley and the Maine railway system. It affords a new and easy route to a fine section of the big game country. It enables lumbermen to get supplies to their camps with greater ease, and encourages the development of new lines of wood-working industry in that part of the province. Within a few years flourishing settlements will be scattered along the line, in places that now are practically a wilderness. Traffic will grow, and merchants will find new markets in the new communities. The province will be the gainer from the opening up of this new avenue of communication. The feeling grows that we should emphasize more strongly the advantages of our own province, and talk more about what can be accomplished here by men of intelligence and energy, in the development of our natural resources. The west has absorbed too much of popular attention and heaped too large a popular imagination. The new railways that are opening up New Brunswick are unfolding opportunities that should not be overlooked by men of enterprise among us.

TRIBUTE TO SIR WILFRID

The Montreal Witness will not be accused of any lack of loyalty to the empire, and it is sufficiently independent to say what it thinks on imperial matters. Hence the following tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier from the editorial columns of the Witness is of notable interest at the present time: "We have often said, and are glad to repeat it, that one great monument which has grown up and which shall for ever keep Laurier's memory green in the hearts of Canadians, is the spirit of true Canadian nationalism which he has fostered, which he in fact did much to create. Again and again he has taken his political life in his hand for the sake of welding in one the racial ideals which were about to take destructive and divergent courses. So he has been denounced as a traitor to his race and his faith in Quebec, and a traitor to his sovereign and the Empire in Ontario, when as a matter of fact no one in Canada had a higher or more inspiring ideal of what duty and loyalty to all these separate interests involved. In the sad days of the South African war, when instruments of detraction were especially virulent, a Montrealer wrote congratulating the premier upon his courageous work for Canadian unity. In reply, Sir Wilfrid said: 'I offer you my sincere thanks. Your appreciation of the work in which I am engaged is very valuable to me, and, with God's help, I shall not desert from it. Everyone knows that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not deserted from it, but has held a firm hand on the helm of State during many a season of doubt and storm.'

THE BOY SCOUTS

For the encouragement of those who are organizing the Boy Scout movement in St. John we quote the following paragraph from a Montreal paper: "Not the least interesting feature of the Canadian Exhibition at the Arena on Saturday evening was the work of the Westmount Boy Scouts, under the direction of Lieutenant E. J. Thom. Quite an elaborate bridge was constructed in less than fifteen minutes, even the smallest scout seeming to know his place and his duty during every step in the process of erection. Of even greater interest was the ambulance work. The portion of the stage available was of too limited extent to give due prominence to every feature of this demonstration, but the picture of a score or so of small boys deftly bandaging wounded comrades, arranging splints and slings, carrying disabled patients, all after true St. John's Ambulance methods, was inspiring indeed. If for no other purpose than to develop a body of boys, who will soon be men, and who will always be prepared to render necessary aid until the doctor comes, the Boy Scouts movement should have the warmest support of the people of the city and neighborhood of Montreal."

EDUCATION IN QUEBEC

Nothing has been more marked in the recent history of Quebec province than the development of the educational policy of the provincial government. Sir Lomer Gouin has approached this question with a determination to reform the provincial system, the reproach that its educational system was inefficient and unsuited to the needs of the time. His government has pursued a progressive policy, and in a speech at Three Rivers, a few days ago Sir Lomer stated that in next year's budget the aid to education would be increased to a million dollars. Commenting on this statement the Montreal Witness says that the increase over last year will be nearly $200,000. The Witness adds: "This is a substantial sum to be added to the increases of the last three years, and the stimulating effect should be felt all over the province. So far, the government has been endeavoring to apply its additional aid to those school municipalities which endeavor to improve conditions for themselves, and we presume that the same sound principle will continue to be applied. The premier is steadily and ably carrying forward his educational programme."

SWISS EXAMPLE

How shall we make education more practical, so that a larger proportion of the young people of the country will be fitted for wage-earning under favorable conditions? This is the problem the Royal Commission has attacked, and from its labors much benefit may fairly be expected. The Swiss Republic affords an interesting illustration of what even a small country can do in providing means to equip its young people for the struggle of life in a highly organized society, where knowledge and skill are essential to success. We quote from the Shareholder: "In almost every trade centre throughout the Republic the Swiss Commercial Union, the chief aim of which is the education of young tradesmen, has established commercial schools, where at slight cost may be acquired a knowledge of commercial geography, a familiarity with modern business methods, and a speaking acquaintance with foreign languages. Courses of lectures by public men, literateurs, lawyers, travellers, and leading manufacturers inform the members on public questions and events and all that pertains to the intellectual and practical life. The Union has won its most pronounced success in the optional apprenticeship examinations, which are public, and which have been generally introduced throughout Switzerland. These examinations are part of a carefully prepared programme, having in view the thorough and uniform training of the future tradesmen. The Union has secured for its members many privileges, among which are reduced rates of admission to theatres, concerts, etc., visits of inspection to the large manufacturing plants, new railway constructions, lake and river steamboats, workshops, printing houses, and the like. At many of the industrial establishments the members have the opportunity of hearing explanatory addresses looking to the increase of special knowledge and the completion of the student's practical equipment."

A despatch states that in a few weeks most of the towns in western Ontario will be lighted by the energy generated at Niagara, the power being transmitted over 200 miles. We are encouraged to look forward to a time when the Albert gas wells and the development of the power of Grand Falls will cause an industrial revolution in New Brunswick.

ABSOLUTELY CURES STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION

Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and Headache Relieved in Five Minutes With a Little Diapason

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapason. If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapason occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour rising, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headache, Dizziness or indigestion, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapason.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapason now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are no more going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

THE DESERTED NEST

The singing has gone out of me. My heart is a deserted nest whence one by one The winged songs went forth to greet the Sun. In the Spring dawn, of which themselves I may not know why they return, no more.

I only know my heart is emptiest Of empty things, wherein no more may rest. The least of all the melodies it bore, No more forever shall I feel their wings Of exaltation, never more to thrill Of their singing. Nay, how still, how still, My heart must be through all the vibrant Springs.

An empty nest deserted by its own— So is my heart from whence all song hath flown. —Theodosia Garrison, in the Metropolitan Magazine.

IN THE SUBURBS. "Are you going to have a garden next summer?" "I think not." "Aren't you going to try and raise anything?" "Oh, yes, I'm trying to raise the mortgage." —Baltimore American.

NO CHANCE FOR SUNDAY. Minister—"Were you sick last Sunday?" I did not go to church. Deacon Holdfast—"Naw, I wa'n't sick. I had'n't no change to put in the contribution box an' I just said to myself, says I, 'The Lord don't want no empty worship,' says I. 'He wants good deeds; and as I forgot to prepare myself for 'em,' these good deeds when the contribution box comes around, I might better stay to hum," says I. For a pillar of the church like me to be seen lettin' the plate pass would do more harm than good. Guess I was right, too."

NOT SO BAD. I've had my share of awful luck, Some plans have gone astray, And there were times I ran amuck, And debts have claimed to pay. I've had to scrape and scrimp and squeeze To keep out of disgrace, But still in spite of woe like these, The world's a jolly place.

I've turned the grindstone day by day, I've shouldered, too, the plow, There oft were times I've lost my way, And times I'd not know how I'd ever keep myself afloat. To smish out the race, But after all I've lived to note The world's a fine old place.

I've suffered on a bed of pain, And sleepless nights I've spent, To make a plan, but all in vain, To raise the next month's rent. My share of disappointments, too, I'm sure I've had to face, But still I've found, and so will you— The world's a fine old place. —Detroit Free Press.

INDIANS HAD GAIN IN YEAR

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—The annual report of the department of Indian affairs issued today shows that the general condition of the government's wards during the last fiscal year has seldom been more uniformly satisfactory. Improvement in vital statistics, morality, education, industrial conditions, agriculture, sanitation and in a higher scale of civilization generally is noted.

The excess of deaths over births which until the past few years was steadily tending towards the gradual extermination of the red men, is now replaced by an excess of births over deaths. Last year the births totalled 2,460 and the deaths 2,102, a net gain of 357.

The 86,789 Indians in Canada last year cultivated 54,336 acres of land, and the value of their crops totalled $1,374,815. In fishing the Indians earned $802,499; in hunting and trapping, $828,221; in wages in various industries they received $1,374,815.

Frank Pedley, superintendent of Indian affairs, notes in the report that Indian agents in all parts of the country report marked improvement among the various bands with regard to refraining from the use of strong drink.

Henry Vivian, M. P. of London (Eng.), will deliver an address on City Garden Plaza before the Canadian Club here Oct. 20. He is an expert on this subject and a large attendance of the club members is expected. He will arrive in the city on the morning of the 6th and leave on the late train the same night for Halifax.

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

A MARQUISSE BLOUSE OF SATIN WITH LACE TRIMMINGS

The wide belt usually gives a slender effect, and very wide, indeed, are some of the new girdles, some of them extending clear up under the armpits. The patent leather belt shown here is moderately wide, and is used to join a worsted walking skirt and a very smart little satin marquisse blouse in the same color. The match, the dead white of the lace showing tucked plastron across the front of this blouse is a clever device for giving sufficient fullness to the somewhat too snug fitting peasant blouse model. A row of tiny buttons over this tucking and similar rows of buttons on the outer edge of the sleeve add a pretty trimming touch; but, of course, the feature of the blouse is the pleated lace collar, with wide cutaway match, the dead white of the lace showing in rich relief on the dark satin.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

WHAT a superficial world, at least this part of it—it may be different on the other side of the globe—has of half cooked people.

People whose judgment is always a few minutes and usually some hours behind their actions, I mean.

It seems to me that to one person who would be improved by thinking and moving and acting more quickly, there are nine who would be made more desirable citizens by thinking and moving and acting more deliberately.

Most of us go off half, or at the most, three-quarters cooked, the majority of the time.

A man told me recently of a stenographer whom he was about to dismiss for just that fault.

"I tell her of something I want done," he said, "and she seems to understand me perfectly. She assents to all my directions, I say, 'Are you sure you understand just what I want?' She is almost insulted by my doubts and rushes off to start the work."

"In five minutes she is back to interrupt me at whatever I have focused my mind on, with half a dozen questions that she has thought of."

"She's a nice girl in lots of ways, but I want someone who doesn't go off half cooked most of the time."

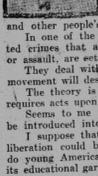

Emerson, in one of his essays, speaks of "afternoon men" who upset the scheme of things by being always tardy, at always lagging behind the times, always a bit too late in their decision and actions.

Seems to me the scheme of things is upset a good deal more by "sunrise men" who are always wasting their own and other people's energy by hasty and unconsidered action.

In one of the western states, a man who has committed a crime that is a result of a quick temper, such as murder or manslaughter or assault, are set to work doing some of the very finest work of watchmaking.

They deal with such microscopic and fragile parts that a hasty or ill-considered movement will destroy the complete and slowness of motion that this work requires acts upon them mentally and teaches them self-control and deliberation. The theory is that the complete control and slowness of motion that this work requires acts upon them mentally and teaches them self-control and deliberation. The theory is that the complete control and slowness of motion that this work requires acts upon them mentally and teaches them self-control and deliberation.

I suppose that is a very wild idea, but surely if the habit of control and delay in young America more good than some of the frills and furbelows with which its educational garments are trimmed nowadays.

Daily Hints for the Cook

MASHED SQUASH

To serve squash mashed, pare and cut in two-inch cubes. Cook in a little water as possible until tender. Drain and place on back of range tightly covered, allowing it to steam a quarter of an hour, then mash, season with lump of butter and serve.

A DOUBLE CURE FOR DOUBLE TROUBLE

The sudden weather variations in our climate result in a great many cases of catarrh—a troublesome disease usually considered hard to cure, and one which often leads to serious pulmonary and intestinal troubles.

A neglected cold in the head weakens the nasal membranes, so that it evens future exposure the trouble returns. As long as these conditions are fastened onto the system, and the sufferer undergoes the annoyance and danger of chronic catarrh.

Some doctors confine themselves to prescribing external applications, and thus do not reach the seat of the trouble. Others give internal treatment exclusively, and they do not promptly relieve the affected parts.

CRAB APPLE AND WILD GRAPE JELLY

Wash and stem wild grapes, adding to them one-third the quantity of crab apples cut in pieces. Simmer together with just water enough added to prevent burning, and crush and stir with a wooden spoon. Cook about two hours, then turn into a jelly bag to drain over night with just squeezing. The next morning measure the juice; heat and skim carefully. Allow a pint of heated sugar to each pint of juice and proceed as with other jellies. This combination has an especially fine "tang" that makes it suitable for an accompaniment to game or turkey.

TOMATO BISQUE

Melt a quarter cupful butter, add two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped onion cook five minutes; then add three tablespoonfuls of flour, two pints of milk, one and a half teaspoonfuls of salt, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, four cloves, and a very little red pepper and celery salt; then cook in a double boiler for 20 minutes. Cook one can of tomatoes, rub them through a sieve and add a quarter of a teaspoonful of baking soda. Combine the mixture and strain. Serve immediately.

PICKLED PEACHES

Make a syrup of four pounds of sugar to one quart of vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of whole cloves, six cinnamon broken in pieces tied in a muslin bag and boiled in the vinegar and sugar. Rub the peaches in a stone jar or crock, and after boiling the syrup down a little, pour it over the peaches and cover. These are delicious with oysters (fried or escalloped), and will keep a year.

LOCH LOMOND FAIR

Speakers Pay Tribute to the Work Hon. Mr. Pugsley Has Done for St. John

The Simonds and Loch Lomond Agricultural Society's annual fair, which was held yesterday at Loch Lomond, was very successful. The show of live stock and produce was particularly pleasing, and in the ladies' department some very fine work was shown. Many were present from the city, including His Worship Mayor Frink, Ald. McCordick and John O'Neill. All these referred to the excellent work done for St. John. Mr. O'Neill declared that he had been for fifteen years a Conservative, but announced that in future he would support Dr. Pugsley.

Following the dinner there were several excellent impromptu speeches. W. A. Quinton was in the chair and spoke briefly. He was followed by Mayor Frink, Ald. McCordick and John O'Neill. All these referred to the excellent work done for St. John. Mr. O'Neill declared that he had been for fifteen years a Conservative, but announced that in future he would support Dr. Pugsley.

PROVINCIAL MATTERS

IN SUPREME COURT

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—In the supreme court today Wallace Nesbitt, K. C., on behalf of the provinces of Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Manitoba and Alberta, moved to quash the references made by the dominion government, and now pending, in relation to legislation respecting fisheries, insurance, and the incorporation of companies, on the ground that the British North America Act did not authorize parliament to constitute a dominion court for the purpose of answering abstract questions on matters of the kind, the answers to which in any event would be academic and perhaps dangerous and prejudicial to civil rights.

Ladleur, K. C., appeared on behalf of the provinces of Quebec and British Columbia and intimated that they had consented to the reference in regard to fisheries and were anxious for a resolution respecting them and he also applied on behalf of the All-Canada Insurance Federation for leave to appear, file a factum and be heard on the merits of the reference.

Mr. O'Neill declared that he had been for fifteen years a Conservative, but announced that in future he would support Dr. Pugsley.

The following were the judges for the show: Samuel Creighton, horses; Wm. Mallin and Wm. J. McLean, cattle; M. Ryan, A. J. McGarrity, Hedley Dickson, produce; Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, and Mrs. Charles H. Jackson, mats, quilts, etc.

On Tuesday next a strong delegation from the board of trade of Halifax will go to Ottawa to ask the railway commission to have Halifax granted the same exorbitant rates as St. John. The board of trade claims that the railway's differential is unjust to the neighboring city, although there is a haul of 190 miles more than to St. John.

At the autumn meeting of the Valley Medical Society, held in Digby yesterday, interesting papers were read by Doctors W. W. White, J. R. McIntosh and T. D. Walker, of St. John and Dr. Victor F. Connor, of Hantsport.

Three cases of smallpox have been discovered in an Indian settlement near Dorchester, N. B. Those affected are two Indian women and a white man.

Much sickness is due to nervous troubles. Headache, dizziness, epilepsy and insanity are nervous troubles. Then there is a large class of disorders which arise from a weakness of the nerves of an organ or part, as lungs, heart, stomach, kidney, bladder, eyes, etc. Dyspepsia and indigestion are usually the result of nervous disorders.

The dispensary at the board of health rooms, Princess street, will be open to children tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Parents whose families have been exposed to the infection of tuberculosis are urged to bring their children in for medical examination. This simple precaution taken even with apparently healthy children may prevent tuberculosis from developing and in any case will save much sickness among the little ones. The dispensary will be open for the future as follows: First and third Thursdays each month for adults; second and fourth Thursdays for children. The hours each of these days will be from 4 to 6 in the afternoon.

At the quarterly meeting of the St. John Boat Club, last night, it was decided to change the name of the organization to the St. John Power Boat Club. It was also decided to hold monthly smokers during the winter, the first one taking place on the 18th.

For Trifolium Day, Oct. 21, the members of St. George's Society will hold a smoker in their rooms. The following Sunday Rev. E. B. Hooper, their chaplain, will deliver a sermon on the day and its meaning, in St. Paul's church. The members will attend the service.

Dangerous Relief

Many people believe that when a drug gives relief it is doing good. That's a big mistake. Drugs can only give temporary relief, and it is always at the expense of the nerves and vital organs.

If you have a pain or an ailment of any kind, you don't want to fool with it with the belief that you are getting well when you are not. That's all you do when you dose yourself with drugs.

It is easy enough to stop a pain by stupefying the nerves with poisonous dope, but the pain will return as soon as the stupor passes off. You can force a weak organ to act by giving it a powerful stimulant, but you can't restore its natural strength that way, and it will be weaker than ever when the drug stops working.

That is why temporary relief is dangerous. Drugs do not remove the cause of disease, and every minute that they give relief the disease is getting a firmer hold upon the system. As long as the cause remains the trouble stays there, and the only way to get rid of it is to assist nature. Nature wants strength, vital power to fight disease and drive it out, no poisons, which only make it worse.

Electricity is Nature's medicine, and the proper use of it will restore you to perfect health.

My electric Belt is a scientific appliance for submerging the body with electricity while you sleep. The current is powerful in its action, but is soothing and pleasant to the nerves. For hours at a time my Belt sends the glowing electric fire through the nerves and vital, renewing the energy and vigor to every weak organ the power so its work as nature intended.

It cures all such troubles as lumbago, sciatica, nervousness, rheumatism, insomnia, vertigo, weakness of any kind, and stomach, kidney, liver and bowel disorders.

HON. MR. PUGSLEY ARRIVES IN ST. JOHN

Hon. William Pugsley, minister of public works and Mrs. Pugsley, arrived in the city last evening. Dr. Pugsley made a trip over the International railway from Campbellton to St. Leonard's on his way here. He also inspected the bridge being built between St. Leonard's and Van Buren under the direction of the department of public works. The work is progressing very satisfactorily and will be ready for the superstructure about the first of the year.

The minister said the question of assistance for Campbellton would be taken up by the government probably next week. The delay has been caused by the absence of many of the members of the cabinet from Ottawa. Although there is still much hardship in Campbellton, Dr. Pugsley said he was struck by the remarkable enterprise being shown by the citizens.

The minister said that Charles M. Hays, president of the C. P. R., would be in St. John on the 20th to look over the terminal site at Courtney Bay and to look over the ground generally. Although Dr. Pugsley will probably have to return to Ottawa the latter part of the week, he expects to be here with Mr. Hays and will attend the banquet to be given by the board of trade.

He expressed his satisfaction that the city had decided to transfer the west side lots to the C. P. R. in exchange for the strip along the harbor and said in his opinion the city was getting decidedly the better of the bargain. As soon as the deeds were signed, the C. P. R. would commence to carry out its plans for constructing a yard to accommodate 5,000 cars.

The minister said that although the date of the opening of parliament had not been decided upon, it was thought it would be either November 10 or 17.

The picture stage, with its numerous touching incidents and replete with strong dramatic action. The Vitagraph Co. announces this picture as one of their best in years. "Advertising for a Wife," and "The Hustler Gets a Job," are two very funny productions, which are certain to cause hearty laughter. "Fate" is a splendid historical drama with scenes and incidents relating to early days in English history, telling a powerful story in a clever and attractive manner.

THE STAR
With its scenes laid in the far-famed Yosemite Valley—the garden of the United States for grandeur—the leading film feature of the Star tonight ought to attract many sightseers. VIOLATE FRUIT ACT

St. John River Shippers Declared to Be Careless as to Marking Apple Barrels

G. E. C. Gandy, fruit inspector of this city, reports considerable difficulty in impressing on the farmers along the St. John river the necessity of correct markings on their apple shipments.

Yesterday a large number of apples were condemned by the inspector as they were wanting in the required signatures.

Mr. Gandy spoke to a Times reporter about the careless manner in which the river farmers attend to their apples and fruit shipments and said that did they comply with the rules laid down in the fruit act, their business would prosper and New Brunswick would receive the recognition due her, as a fruit growing province.

THE LATH MARKET

With the exception of laths, advice from the New York lumber market show little change in the situation. The apprehension of dealers as the result of a threatened strike of the brick layers of Boston and surrounding cities, has been removed by an amicable settlement, and it is expected that business will now go on smoothly.

Lath receipts are reported to have been light, and the market cleaned out at $3.40 a thousand for the greater part and $3.45 and $3.50 for a few. As the shipping season is rapidly drawing to a close it was expected that some decided improvement in prices would follow soon.

He said he was highly pleased with the result of his inspection, especially with the branch lines and station houses, which he found to be in excellent condition.

In reference to grain shipments over the I. C. R. Mr. Brady expressed the idea that the people's railway would likely have a large share of the business. He said that grain shipments from Fort William for this port would commence in about one week.

BOOTH IS COMING TO CITY TODAY

Son of General Will Spend Night Here—Ten Days' Work in St. John Beginning Saturday

Herbert Booth, youngest son of General William Booth of the Salvation Army, will arrive here on the Pacific express this evening on his way from Yarmouth. He will spend the night in St. John and leave on the boat tomorrow morning for Fredericton where he will deliver a lecture on Thursday evening.

Rev. David Hutchinson, D. D., pastor of the Main street Baptist church, today received a letter from Mr. Booth in which he wrote that his campaign in Yarmouth had been successful. He planned to visit Fredericton before opening of his campaign in the Main street Baptist church here on Saturday night next. The meetings here will continue till October 25. There will be three meetings next Sunday and two services a day on most week days. The Main street church choir are practicing the special hymns used by Mr. Booth and there will be practices tonight and Friday night.

After leaving here, Mr. Booth, who is making a tour of the world, will go to Winnipeg and from there to provincial towns on his way to Vancouver where he will sail for Australia.

A reception will be tendered him in the Main street church on Saturday evening next. Speaking of this and the services Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, pastor of the Main street church, said there would be a welcome at the reception for all who would like to meet Mr. Booth. While the services would be held in the Main street church there would be the freest opportunity for all to attend and no attempt whatever would be made to build up Main street church at the expense of the other churches. All signifying religious interest would be free to unite with any church they might choose.

KNOTTY QUESTION IN CONNECTION WITH RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

Dr. Parkin, in St. John Today—How Long Must Student Reside in Canada in Order to Qualify

Dr. George R. Parkin, of London, (Eng.), representative of the Rhodes scholarship fund arrived in the city this morning and is at the Royal. Dr. Parkin returned recently after a tour of some months in South Africa, where he was engaged in important educational work connected with the Rhodes fund. It is proposed to establish on the Rhodes estate there, a teaching university in connection with the great educational scheme inaugurated through the generosity of the late Cecil Rhodes. No definite plans have yet been worked out, but it is hoped to evolve something tangible along this line.

A question which is now confronting the trustees of the Rhodes fund is: "How long must a student reside in Canada before he is entitled to enter into competition for a Rhodes scholarship here?" This is a question on which Dr. Parkin would like to have an expression of public opinion. While in London recently he consulted Hon. W. S. Fielding on this point and the minister of finance gave it as his opinion that as soon as a young man became naturalized he should be allowed to compete. It was not fair, he thought, to disenfranchise a man in this particular. Other people, however, have expressed opposite views and think that a young man should be required to be a resident for a certain number of years before being allowed to compete with native born candidates.

"For instance," said Dr. Parkin, "we now have from British Columbia, as a Rhodes Scholar from that province, a Swede, and from the province of Manitoba, we have two Icelanders."

"Then again there is the question of the standing that young men from Newfoundland, Australia, New Zealand or some other British possession would have. They would be British subjects and the question arises would they come within the meaning of the scholarship idea which the founder of the fund had in mind. It is the desire of the trustees to conduct the competition in the fairest possible way, and I intend to ask the opinion of all the universities in the dominion on this subject."

"Last year I visited most of the middle and western states in the union and now I propose to visit the balance, and complete organization. I will go from here to Boston, New York and Rhode Island, and thence to Washington, where the examinations for all the states will be conducted on the 25th and 26th of this month. From there I will visit the western and northern states."

Speaking of New Brunswick, Dr. Parkin said he thought the plan adopted for this province, that of having the scholarships awarded in alternate years by the University of New Brunswick and Mount Allison, and every seventh year by Memorial, was a good one. In the states it was necessary to adopt different plans for the different states.

Dr. Parkin will leave this evening for Boston.

ST. JOHN RIVER SHIPPERS DECLARED TO BE CARELESS AS TO MARKING APPLE BARRELS
