Says Huns Are Getting Ready For New War

Report Brought Home By Boston University President

STYLES IT WAR OF REVENGE

D. L. H. Murlin, Back After European Mission For Methodist Episcopal Church—Fears Germany Will Control Russia and Herself Soon Be All Bolshevik

(Special to Times.)

Boston, Oct. 28.—That Germany, despite her recent crushing defeat, is preparing for another war which will be the war of revenge—is the belief expressed by Dr. Lemuel Herbert Murlin, president of Boston University, who returned yesterday after a trip through Germany, France, England, Sweden, Finland and Estonia. He went abroad as the representative of the commission for the Methodist Episcopal church for reconstruction work in Europe.

The Germans have not changed, he says, in spite of the pitiful spectacle they present today, and he believes that they already are preparing for the next war. It seemed to him likely that they would obtain control of Russia, because of the settled policy toward Russia on the part of the Allies and if Germany did get such control she would be stronger than ever before within fifty years.

Berlin is in great disorder and distress, according to Dr. Murlin. He tells of the lack of employment in Germany and adds that a great many men prefer to remain idle and draw sixty marks a week—the new system of paying men who are out of employment—to accepting jobs at seventy-five marks a week. He said it is estimated that nearly 1,000,000 persons have died of starvation. He added that he expects to see Germany go out and out Bolshevik before the winter ends.

NEARLY 50 MILES AN HOUR LAST NIGHT

Wind and Cold Follow a Heavy Rain of Yesterday

According to a report from D. L. Hutchinson, director of the meteorological observatory in Douglas, the wind, four-tenths of an inch of rain fell yesterday during the storm. The weather cleared a little after 6 o'clock, but a few hours later a west by northwest gale sprang up and the wind reached a velocity ranging from forty to forty-nine miles an hour. It continued in force until this morning about 9 o'clock when it died down to thirty miles an hour. The change of weather brought with it a cold snap and at 8 o'clock this morning the mercury showed two points below freezing.

As a result of the wind storm considerable damage was done to telegraph wires. A tree which was uprooted by the wind, fell across one of their wires eight miles below Anderson. A crew of men were rushed to the scene in an automobile early this morning and at 9 o'clock the service was resumed.

C. P. R. telegraph wires in Maine were broken down, presumably by falling poles or trees. Crews of men were put to work this morning and a full service was resumed at noon. One of the breaks occurred near Brownville Junction, but was repaired early this morning.

MARRIED IN CAPITAL; WILL LIVE IN ST. JOHN

(Special to Times.)

Frederickton, N. B., Oct. 29.—It is announced that the subscription of the Ashwaik Pulp and Paper Company to the Victory Loan of 1919 will be credited to York county this year.

Frank Fisher, one of the owners of the "Soldier Girl" Company playing an engagement here, took a block of $4,000 in the loan at the York county office. At three o'clock this afternoon Miss Mildred Josephine Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sewell of South Devon, was united in marriage with Gerald Bradman Turner, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Turner of Meductic. The bride, who wore a brown serge suit and a fox fur with a black picture hat and bouquet of cream roses, was attended by little Miss Mary McMurray, flower girl. After the ceremony a wedding lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Turner left for New York on a honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in St. John. Out-of-town guests included Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Turner, Meductic, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Turner of St. Stephen, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Well of Sydney, N. S., Cecil Turner of Anderson, and Miss Grace Roberts of John.

Considerable damage was done locally by a severe gale last night. Wind reached a velocity of forty miles per hour.

EATH LIST IN STEAMER DISASTER NOW BELIEVED TO REACH 21

Muskogee, Mich., Oct. 29.—Twenty-one persons were officially unaccounted for early today and fourteen were known to have lost their lives in the sinking of the Crosby liner City of Muskogee, which was driven into a pier yesterday by a gale. She had battled across Lake Michigan from Milwaukee, and was pounded by pieces by the heavy seas. The coroner and the Crosby line officials said they believed that all the missing perished. The hull sank from sight in fifty feet of water last night. Some of the missing, it was believed, had been trapped between decks.

Werner Horn Guilty is Verdict of Jury in Fredericton After 13 Minutes

German Makes Statement That He Was on Military Duty For His Government; He is Remanded by Judge Barry For Sentence

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter, "I hope you have something interesting to say to me today. I am rather despondent. I went around the city some yesterday. I didn't enjoy the appearance of the streets. I met a man who wanted to know what we would do with a three dollar tax rate next year. Another man stopped me to say that there was not a football field in St. John. Six boys asked me when the Boys' Club would get a place in which to meet. I finally sought shelter, and have been very much depressed ever since."

Fredericton, Oct. 29.—After being out thirteen minutes, the jury trying Werner Horn, German army officer, for dynamiting the C. P. R. bridge between St. Croix, N. B., and Vancouver, N. S., early in the morning of February 2nd, 1919, brought in a verdict of guilty through its foreman, Joseph A. Gln of Fredericton. Judge Barry then remanded the prisoner to jail for sentence. F. R. Taylor, K. C., appeared for the C. P. R. this morning when the case was resumed.

Victor Harshaw of Fredericton, manager of the Fredericton Grand Lakes Railway, who at the time of the explosion was C. P. R. superintendent at Woodstock, was the only witness. He told of the delay to trains at the bridge and the extent of the damage.

Judge Barry then asked Horn if he had any statement to make, telling him that if sworn he would be liable to cross-examination. Horn made the following statement without being sworn:

"The neutrality of the United States was violated by transporting foodstuffs, ammunition and soldiers across American territory and across this bridge. I make it on behalf of my government, as ordered by my own government, as I say in the first statement given to the American government to hinder the transportation of ammunition, etc., as an officer of the German army, under the protection of my German flag and as ordered as foreseen in German instructions. I have not any right to make any other statement without the consent of my own government."

could have settled the whole question in a diplomatic manner in the United States and I was personally responsible. I have said that I was transporting the dynamite. The government of the United States asked my word of honor if I had transported dynamite on the American side. I have violated the neutrality of the United States and I was in behalf of my fatherland was carried on Canadian soil.

Judge Barry then asked the jury that the accused had admitted committing the act of which he was accused. He requested that the jury find that the accused had committed the act, as a full presentation of his line of defence would be made by counsel, as a full presentation of his line of defence would be made by counsel, as a full presentation of his line of defence would be made by counsel.

ATTACKED MATRON OF DORCHESTER JAIL IS EVIDENCE GIVEN

Trial of Stanley Crossman is begun—Fifteen Cases on Criminal Docket

(Special to Times.)

Dorchester, N. B., Oct. 29.—Yesterday afternoon at the Assizes Court Circuit the jury trial was empaneled and the case of the King vs. Stanley Crossman was taken up. He is charged with making an assault on Agnes Sewee, matron of the Dorchester jail with intent to commit an indictable offence, namely to escape from the jail where he was confined. The following petty juries were sworn to try the case: J. R. Murray, T. W. H. LeBlanc, Alex. M. Brown, G. J. Perry, J. J. Barry, W. J. Murray, T. J. Miner, Fred Oulton, Irving Kenney, Harry Wheaton, A. Finley, A. P. Snowdon, T. L. Goodwin and James Friel, K. C., for the prisoner.

The matron said she took breakfast to the accused on the morning of the alleged assault. She was taking a pan of dishes out of the corridor where he and one Melanson and two other prisoners were confined when Melanson first took hold of her then the accused took hold of her and pushed her up against the wall and attempted to choke her, broke her glasses and injured her arms and wrists. The accused and Melanson both escaped. The accused was captured and brought back on the same night from Skeville. Willard T. Lawrence, constable who captured the prisoner at Skeville, and J. J. Sweeney, jailor at Dorchester, also testified.

A man is charged with three offences which will be taken up at the close of the present case. There are fifteen cases on the criminal docket. Chief Justice McKewen is presiding. Detective Hiddiscomb, of St. John, is in attendance.

County Housing Commission. The members of the St. John County Housing Commission, Alexander Wilson, Louis Simms, Denis Murphy, Harold Mayes and J. A. Barry, accompanied by F. Neil Brodie, today returned from Moncton where they looked over the work being done by the Moncton housing board. One of the members of the commission said this morning that there were twelve houses now in the course of completion and a total of forty planned.

The St. John county commission is to meet soon when plans will be submitted by the architect and the work will be proceeded with as soon as possible. No definite decision has yet been arrived at with regard to the location of houses, but this is expected to be arranged soon.

FIRST PLACE FOR IRISH QUESTION, SAYS THUNDERER

Declares it The Most Important Thing in Imperial Policy

ON EVE OF DEVELOPMENTS

Cor deems Ulster For Attitude in Regard to Irish Convention—Express Declares Greatest Shock of all May Come Any Day

(Special Cable to the Times-Star by F. A. McKenzie)

London, Oct. 29.—Sunday's escape of six Sinn Fein prisoners from Manchester jail again illustrates the singular capacity which seems to haunt the British government's relations with Irish extremists. The possibility of success for the convention is possibly on the eve of more dangerous Irish developments than ever before.

The Times, concluding an historic article on the question of the future of the Irish convention, severely condemns Ulster for its attitude, which destroyed the possibility of success for the convention. It declares: "The solution offered by the convention committee to the issue of imperial policy or domestic reconstruction."

The Express, beginning a special description of Ulster, declares today: "Outside of a portion of the province of Ulster the king's writ does not run. There is not a single private citizen who will lift or dare lift so much as a finger to aid justice, or back the law. The law have been otherwise." It urges again that the claim of Ireland upon public attention is stronger than any other as the shedding of blood and possible violation of a shock may come any day, a shock infinitely more startling than anything we have experienced before, because the organization behind Irish political crime today is infinitely more powerful than any former organizations."

$500 FOR A GALLON

New York, Oct. 29.—John Kravick, who conducts a saloon at No. 34 Sixth avenue, felt he had made a highly profitable bargain when he bought for $800 a barrel of whiskey from Franz Carroll, when Carroll opened the barrel, however, he found it contained exactly one gallon of whiskey. The remainder was water. The whiskey had been placed in a gallon retainer and nailed to the top of the barrel. Carroll was arrested, charged with grand larceny.

THE CITY STREETS. The city engineer said this morning that the city paving work in City road, which has been going on recently, will be completed in about ten days. The cuttings for the joining of the two water mains at the head of Brussels street is now ready and will be placed immediately, finishing the work at that point about the end of the week.

Stave Off Elections Till 1923, Unionists' Hope

Recruiting For The New Police Force is About at an End—Charges of Laxity in Enforcing Laws Against Anarchy

(Special to Times.)

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—If the ship of state can weather the gales to come under Unionist pilots, there will be no election before the summer of 1923. "Take my advice, stick close where you are," is the advice constantly tendered the administration by their following. The latter regard the Ontario election and the federal by-elections as cyclones which come uncomfortably close. In addition, every Unionist member gets an increasing number of letters from home, mainly from soldiers, voicing discontent with the way things are going. Most of the members have been invited to meet the soldiers of their constituencies when the session is over to give an accounting of their stewardship.

"Wait until the clouds roll by," is the favorite song of the administration when asked as to the best date for an election. Liberals are not in much better fettle for an immediate election, but they look with more hope to hearing a greater and more influential part in the conduct of affairs than do the Unionists and the Conservatives.

The only happy ones in the present parliament, who do not care when the election comes, are those members on the cross benches who broke from the government in the budget debate last session on the tariff question. Most of them regard the recent elections as a direct endorsement of their attitude last session. All of them, farmers or not, report that efforts to work up opposition to them in their own constituencies have had poor success because of the general approval of their action. They are regarded as the federal government's most ardent members to come. Most of them are Liberals now.

AGAINST GRANT TO SOLDIERS

Parliamentary Committee's Report Says Country Cannot Pay

Makes Recommendations For Extension of Present Work and Addition of Other Lines With Probable Expenditures of $35,000,000

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—The parliamentary committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment rejects the proposal for general distribution of grants or gratuities on the grounds that the country is financially unable to pay, in findings which likely will be submitted to parliament. The general scheme for re-establishment submitted by the G. W. V. A., also the $2,000 gratuity scheme, is being rejected. The parliamentary committee concludes the necessity for re-establishment in certain particulars and recommends improvements and extensions of work now being carried on by various departments of government, together with some new lines of work to be undertaken, involving estimated expenditure of $35,000,000.

Following are the details of the probable expenditure as recommended: Gratuities to Canadians who enlisted in the royal air force and other imperial units, $9,000,000. Rebate of transportation expenses paid by dependents who returned to Canada prior to Nov. 11, 1918, $1,600,000. Provision for extra items of expenditure, such as clothing allowance to S. C. R. patients; pay and allowances to trainees taken on strength of S. C. R. and subsequently not approved; care of subnormal cases; necessitous cases; pensions under arrangement with patriotic funds; loans to disabled men for tools, equipment, training and education; cashing of checks at par for Canadians who joined imperial units; unemployed relief during winter, estimated at about $25,000,000.

PLAN TO DEAL WITH THE MINERS

U. S. Government Agrees on What to do if Soft Coal Men Quit on Friday Night

Washington, Oct. 29.—How to deal with the soft coal strike, in event the miners ignore President Wilson's command to stay on the job and walk out on Friday night, was definitely agreed upon today at a two-hour meeting of the cabinet.

The plan of action was not disclosed, but it is known that the cabinet stood as one man for protection of the rights of the public, which would suffer with the closing of the mines, in which ordinarily more than half a million members of the United Mine Workers of America are employed.

KINDERSLEY ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4. Regina, Sask., Oct. 29.—Writs have been issued returnable on November 4, in by-election for the electoral district of Kindersley in the Saskatchewan legislature. The vacancy was caused by the resignation of Hon. W. R. Motherwell, who was nominated for the federal seat of Assiniboia, and was later defeated today.

Liberals Reported Not in Much Better Fettle For Immediate Contest But Have More Hopes Than Conservatives and Unionists

WINTER'LL BE DARN MILD, ACCORDING TO HERMI JOE

Kane, Pa., Oct. 28.—"Nuts are thick in the woods in the big woods, but the squirrels are storn" 'way les sof 'em than you town folks is putting 'em outers at $1.50 an bushel, and you can just bet all the bearskins you fellers ain't going to get the winter's fur as a darn mild one," said Hermi Joe of the Big Kizina to hunters in that neighborhood today.

The old man, who predicts the winters every year, explained further his reasons for risking his reputation on a mild winter. The bears this year are mostly scrawny and light furred, according to Joe, and they are not in a hurry to get into their winter homes, while the fur on small animals indicates to the hermit that winter will be light. Old neighbors say his predictions never fail.

HAVE WE GONE PLEASURE MAD?

Rev. A. J. Vincent Thinks so—Says May Have to Close Church's Altar

(Sackville Post) Rev. A. J. Vincent, pastor of Main street Baptist church delivered the first of a series of sermons on modern pleasures Sunday evening to a large congregation. At the outset the reverend gentleman emphasized the fact that we are living in perilous times and that even the churches were losing their influence because the church members were thinking more of worldly things than ever before. Gradually the devil is forcing the church to the wall and unless the people roused themselves, the churches might have to close their doors entirely. The speaker declared the people have gone pleasure mad, and he thought it high time that someone spoke out. He realized, he said, that such sermons might not be popular, but he believed it his duty to speak. Our young people were being led harder than ever to lead clean, wholesome lives. They were being crowded, while recovery meetings were very slimly attended or closed up altogether. Even church members were to be found in the theatres and the speaker claimed that religion and the things one heard and saw in the modern theatres would not mix.

DO NOT WALK FOR 17 YEARS

(Amherst News) A marvellous cure has been effected in the case of Miss Bertie Scott of Springfield. About seventeen years ago Miss Scott had a serious attack of scarlet fever, but after her recovery found that she was unable to walk. Since then Miss Scott has been helpless. Major Kenneth McKennie, who went overseas with the Dalhousie unit from Halifax, returned some months ago to his home in Springfield, and became interested in Miss Scott's case. He was of the opinion that the electrical and massage treatment, as applied to crippled and paralyzed cases, might prove beneficial. He had Miss Scott taken to Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, and this morning a telephone message from Springfield stated Miss Scott was once again able to walk.

DIED IN VANCOUVER

(Fredericton Gleaner) A telegram received by J. H. Williamson Monday evening conveyed the intelligence of the death in Vancouver of his daughter, Mrs. John D. Waterhouse. Mrs. Waterhouse, who was Miss Nellie Williamson, went west just after the school closed for the summer holidays to visit her sister, Miss Bessie. Just before school opened for the fall term an extension of time was granted, and the following month word was received that the popular teacher had been married on September 2nd to John Douglas Waterhouse, of New Delhi, Yorkshire, England. For over twenty years Mrs. Waterhouse had been a valued member of the Fredericton school staff. Besides her husband she is survived by her father, J. H. Williamson, and one sister, Miss Bessie, in Vancouver.

THE STANDARD'S BAD GUESS

Fredericton Mail—The Standard has been telling its readers all along that Premier Foster and Hon. Mr. Tweedie were in bad with the electors of Victoria county, and that the people of that county were going to take a slam at their local members by rallying to the support of Colonel Melville. The returns show that the electors of Victoria did not do a thing to the gallant colonel. In one large polling district he failed to get a single vote, the score standing 185 to 0.

THE CASE OF MR. CARSON

Moncton Transcript—Mr. Carson, M.P.P. for St. John County, and who was a candidate for councillor in the recent municipal election was turned down by his neighbors in the Parish of St. John, and generally regarded as a level-headed councillor. The fact that he has made no effort to rid his party of the leaders who brought it into disgrace.

Coming Event

Fredericton Mail—The marriage of Miss Ella Stoddard of this city, a niece of Mrs. H. G. C. Kitchin, to Dr. John of Halifax, will take place in the near future.

Memory and mince meat

Somehow the thought of Mince Meat brings back old memories. We see again the old-fashioned cook-stove in the kitchen, in a nice of Mrs. H. G. C. Kitchin, to Dr. John of Halifax, will take place in the near future. And what great mince meat mother could make! We used to think there was nothing like it—or ever could be. Child-like, we overcooked the time and labor mother used to expend in making it. Had Boves Mince Meat been on the market then, mother would have been saved many a perspiring hour. In quality, flavor and in nourishing value she would have realized that Boves Mince Meat was every bit as good as her home-made product. And the time, labor and money saved would most assuredly have appealed to her.

Common Troubles Caused by Eye Strain

Many ailments which are a menace to health begin with eye strain. Sight requires that the muscles which control the eyeball and its parts should work constantly. If the shape of the eye is not perfect, the work becomes too heavy and the muscles are strained. This strain causes headache, nervousness, exhaustion, tired, weak, painful eyes. Medicine does not cure. The only remedy is properly fitted glasses.

HAVE YOU SCROFULA?

Now Said to be as Often Acquired as Inherited. It is generally and chiefly indicated by eruptions and sores, but in many cases enlarges the glands of the neck, affects the internal organs, especially the lungs, and if neglected may develop into consumption.

It causes many troubles, and is aggravated by impure air, unwholesome food, bad water, too much heat or cold, and want of proper exercise. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine that has been used with so much satisfaction by three generations, is wonderfully successful in the treatment of scrofula. Give it a trial.

SYNOD PLEDGES HELP FOR JEWISH WELL-BEING
 The following resolutions were passed at the Inter-Diocesan Jewish Missionary Conference assembled at the Synod Hall in Montreal—
 "Moved by His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto, seconded by the Rev. F. H. Freewin, and carried unanimously—That this Inter-Diocesan Jewish Missionary Conference assembled desires to express its sincere sympathy with the Jewish race wherever the world over they have been or are the objects of hatred and persecution. This conference strongly deprecates both deliberate and unpremeditated violence and outbreaks of anti-Semitic character, and wishes to assure our fellow subjects, the Jews of the Dominion, of their hearty abhorrence of all such, wherever found. The members of this conference further pledge themselves to pray for the wellbeing and peace of the Jewish people, and to do all in their power to bring about a change in the hostile attitude wherever it is possible for us to do so."

Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act. Telephone—Private exchange connecting all departments, Main 2417. TOO BUSY?

The minister of public works is too busy to see a delegation from St. John. This is the substance of a telegram received from Mr. Wigmore, M. P. by Mayor Hayes on the eve of his departure with Com. Bullock to Ottawa. There is, however, a promise, that after pacification of the situation, Mr. Sifton will come to St. John and look over the situation. Hon. Robert Rogers, when minister of public works, came to St. John and after looking over the situation declared that the extension of the breakwater to Partridge Island was the work that should first be completed. Nothing has since been done.

Hon. Mr. Sifton, in the interest of the country, which built the new wharves on the West Side, should lose no time in preserving those wharves by extending the breakwater. Does he know this? Has his attention been directed to the urgency of the case by our representatives?

Hon. Mr. Sifton should also come down and see how inadequate are the port facilities to handle traffic over the new continental, which because of the shorter haul should come to this port in winter. If he has not had the urgency of this matter impressed upon him, since it is a matter not of local but of national importance, he should get the information at the earliest possible moment, and the more so if the government is to take over the Grand "frank."

The citizens of St. John must wake up. They must educate more of our statesmen and of the people of the west concerning the transportation of goods to Canada. The advantages of this port were recognized when war supplies were to be moved, but they seem since to have been forgotten.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

Women's Institutes are now an international organization, and the women who are now met in convention in St. John can feel that they are in sympathetic touch with their sisters in the United States and in the Mother Country. No movement among women is fraught with more splendid possibilities than that which unites and directs the genius of which unites and directs the genius of the sex to the promotion of home-making, child-welfare, education, public health, and social regeneration. There is inspiration in the thought of combining effort on so great a scale for the realization of high ideals. It is a guarantee of social order and of healthy progress in a community when the women, regardless of race and class and creed, come together to discuss with high motives and clear minds the questions which concern the well-being of the homes and their inmates. This movement, which is still young, has already proved of immense benefit to our own province. In cases of emergency, such as the outbreak of an epidemic, the Women's Institutes furnish a centre for localised effort and broad co-operation. If it is desirable to awaken public sentiment in relation to any matter in the realm of health, morals or education, these Institutes provide a forum and a centre from which influence may radiate to produce the desired result. The Institutes in this province have done very valuable work in making country life more attractive, in awakening the ambition of girls, in showing how waste may be prevented and good taste cultivated; in encouraging food conservation; in preventing the spread of epidemics; in promoting child-welfare, and in developing among women that spirit of comradeship which means so much to a community. The field of effort is so wide and the opportunities for helpful service so many that the Women's Institutes must become a growing power throughout the country. Without good thought in politics they can instruct the canvassers in the duties of citizenship as represented by the ballot, and thus influence legislation along lines related to the social and moral welfare of the community as a whole. The votes of women will play a most important part in the legislation of the future; and while the Institutes will not be influenced in their deliberations by partisanship, they may, by judicious discussion, stimulate in all men a desire to know more about public affairs, and to have a larger share in moulding public sentiment in favor of needed reforms. The people of St. John, when an active Institute is doing valued work, welcome the delegates from all parts of the province, who will go back to their own organizations with a new inspiration and a broader outlook on community problems and woman's part in solving them.

The appeal of Mr. George A. Henderson in behalf of the Historical Society for the preservation of the old market building in West St. John, over a hundred years old, should meet with universal favor. Men whose names were and are held in high honor frequented this structure, and its preservation as a community building is very desirable. St. John has too few landmarks of the old days. Attention to the monuments and inscriptions in the Old Barral Ground should also be a matter of civic pride.

The London correspondent of The Times-Star intimates that the Irish question is looming large again.

OUR VOCATIONAL BOARD.

Dr. Emery, as chairman of the vocational board, as well as of the general board of school trustees, has the opportunity as presiding officer to associate his name with a great forward movement in educational affairs in St. John. We have reached the point where a great advance is not only possible but absolutely necessary. Too long the city has lagged behind. The new vocational board held its first meeting last evening. It is composed of citizens who have the vision of better things, and the city council has made it financially possible to make a vigorous beginning this winter. The first need is a qualified director, under whom the formation of evening classes could be arranged for. Provincial Director Pascook last evening laid before the board a tentative programme covering a period of several years. He very properly regards it as essential to fix a goal and advance toward it with definite and determined purpose, rather than go along at haphazard and perhaps in the end get nowhere.

St. John must begin with evening classes this winter. Next year there should be day classes in vocational work and as soon thereafter as possible a fully equipped vocational or technical school building, the plan to be in operation day and evening for the benefit of young and older persons. It will undoubtedly be found that the people will endorse a decided and advanced programme. It is to the interest of all parents to have provision made for the training of boys and girls in a practical way for gainful occupations. The practical part has too long been neglected.

Dr. Emery while in New York last summer took occasion to visit schools there which give practical courses. Dr. Bridges while in England pursued the same course. Mr. Pascook has a very wide knowledge of the work, and gained more at Columbia University last summer. It will not be difficult for the new board to make a favorable beginning, and there should be no hesitation in pursuing a courageous course, relying upon a hearty public support.

THE SCHOOL DEBT.

The over-expenditure of the school board now amounts to $101,218.46. This covers a period of years. The amount added last year was $19,987.50. This over-expenditure should be wiped out, and the board should be given a sufficient amount each year to enable it to live within its income. If there is any feeling that the board does not wisely expend, let it be looked into; but the city must have schools and more schools, and cannot afford to starve its educational department. It is very easy to complain about taxes, but does anybody say we have too many schools, or that they are too good for the city? On the contrary there is not at this moment enough school accommodation in St. John. If any citizen or group of citizens believe our school affairs to be administered as well or better than at less expense, their views will undoubtedly receive consideration. In the meantime school accommodation must be provided as it is needed, and the city must give more—not less—attention to its educational needs.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

The fact that up to last night 163 applications for Victory bonds in this city had totalled $222,750 is a good augury for the success of the drive. The total for the city and province at the end of the second day of the drive was $233,260. The objective is $6,000,000. As yet only the larger subscribers have been canvassed, and only a portion of them. The canvassers have a very large field to cover, and their initial success is of the most gratifying character. There are many thousands of people in New Brunswick who can subscribe for these bonds and are doubtless only waiting to be called on by the canvassers. It will take some time to cover the field, and in the end the record should show a larger number of individual subscribers than that of any previous loan. It must be clear to every person that upon the success of the Victory Loan depends the state of industry and commerce in Canada. Therefore it is to the interest of all to subscribe and contribute, however little, to that success.

The British Commons yesterday voted confidence in the government. Its recent experience will, however, cause the cabinet to free itself of any suspicion of autocratic tendencies.

The movies are doing some very effective advertising for the Victory Loan.

WEATHER.

All moods are due to weather. I often sadly think, when rain clouds get together they put me on the blink. They take my sunny spring, so you'll see me nodding; they freeze, or pretty near it, the current of my soul. Outdoors it's raining, raining, with steady beat and slow; the night wind is complaining of some unchartered way. It tells of ghastly sorrows that long dead people knew, and hints that our tomorrows will all be lemons, too. And I have grim foreboding that evil is in store; breaking the night has journeyed by; and I, from sleep awaking, behold a cloudless sky. And I am I like the red chipper, and happy as can be, as I pour down a dipper of fragrant journeyed tea. How could I be of wind and rain? But when once more the torrent pours down from heaven skies, and when the winds abhorrent fill all the night with sighs, the fancies will come to me, as always they have come; and I'll be sad and gloomy, and sick and out of a lumb.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

THE MICMAC INDIANS

In the pioneer days of the dominion, Indian tribes were found in large numbers where great industry flourishes now. All Canada was their hunting ground. Down by the sea one of the great peoples were the Micmacs. When first visited by the whites they had already become slightly advanced in habits beyond the majority of the aborigines of the new land. In 1609 the French living at Port Royal, Nova Scotia, estimated their number at about 4000 souls with a fighting force of about 600 warriors. They were clothed in the skins of the bears, otters, beaver and fox; they had learned the art of softening skins and also of removing the hair. In summer their clothing was a girdle with a skin passing around the loins. Sometimes they wore a fur cloak that hung loosely from the shoulders but always the right arm was exposed and free for defence or offence. In winter they made shoes and stockings and their feet were covered with buckskin, tied at the front—the first type of moccasin. The squaws wore the same clothing with the addition of a girdle around the loose cloak. The hair was worn long, closely cut in the front and often tied in a bunch on top of the head with a feather thrust through the knob. Unlike many tribes they neither painted nor tattooed themselves but they wore necklaces of bright shells, in the making of which they became quite expert. They lived in movable wigwags, a conical tent made of birch bark fastened around poles tied at the top and enclosing a space about ten or twelve feet in diameter. During the summer they pitched them around the shores of the lakes and streams, and lived upon fish; when winter came they removed into the interior of the land and became hunters for the season. When at work they lived in spaces enclosed by thick hedges with only one way of entrance.

THE GATHERING OF THE SHIPS.

(By George Street, in The Sydney Bulletin.)
"Every vessel of the Australian fleet is now in Sydney, and the fleet will be These have come back from the grey seas.
And these have come home from the green;
They have tasted the tang of the battle breeze,
And their eyes in the dark have seen
The high death stalking, the low death creeping,
And the flap-death's banners unfurled,
While at watch and ward, they steamed to guard
The faith of a shaken world.
These are our own, these are our own,
Sleed of our heart and dream!
Never for us were the trumpets blown;
We knew not the death-fire's gleam;
But a thought came stealing, a voice came calling,
"Fill rivet and hammer wrought
The furnace steel and the deep-laid keel
To forge that the ages taunt."
Under the cliffs, and the sea walls
Those from their wanderings cease;
The skies are blue and the sunlight falls,
And their eyes in the dark have seen
The high death stalking, the low death creeping,
For Australia speaks where the Spring wind seeks
To whisper about their towers.
Castles that rode on the grey seas,
That a nation's youth stood bold for
Let it be peace, but we hold by these,
For our eyes and our hearts have seen
The high death stalking, the low death creeping,
And this shall our children prize
That a nation's youth stood bold for
And her ships were her hands and eyes.

CHAIRMAN GARY ON THE STEEL STRIKE

(Extract from Speech.)

"It will be observed that the strike is not the result of any claim by any workers for higher wages or better treatment or for any reason except the desire and effort on the part of union labor leaders to organize the iron and steel industry. The action first taken by them in June was for the purpose of uniting all these organizations into one mighty drive to organize the steel plants of America."

"Without discussing for the present the merit or demerit of labor unions, it may be observed that union labor leaders openly state that they seek to organize, as they say, 'organize' the whole industry of the country. Those who do not contract or deal with unions, although they do not combat, insist upon absolute freedom for both employer and employee in regard to employment and the management of the shops. The non-union employers and employees both stand for the open shop. The unions argue for the closed shop, or, as the leaders now declare, they seek to organize through labor union leaders."

"Every proposition contended for by the labor unions at the National Industrial Conference at Washington led to domination of the shops and of the men by the labor union. The union leaders taken by the other side centered on the open shop. This is the great question confronting the American people and, in fact, the world public, for from 80 to 90 per cent, or more of labor in this country is non-union. It is for them and the employers generally and the large class of men and women who are not strictly speaking employees or wage earners to determine whether or not it is best for the whole community to have industry totally organized."

Wants Open Shop.
"Judging by experience, we believe it is for the best interest of employer and employee and the general public to what we term the 'open shop'—that is, permitting employers to engage in any business of their employment, or any employer to secure the services of any workman on terms agreed upon between the two, whether the workman is or is not connected with a labor union. The verdict of the people at large will finally decide this question, and the decision will be right."

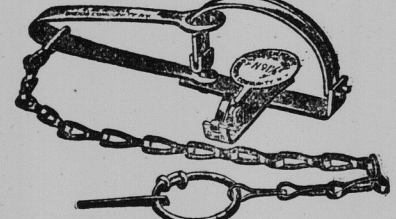

CROSS-PURPOSES.

(New York Evening Post.)
Both in the Industrial Conference at Washington and in the senate we are getting exhibitions of political humbug. Men assert that they want the same thing, yet they find what they call irreconcilable differences. To the employer, however, these differences appear to be almost wholly verbal. Between the resolution in the conference which the employers group was ready to accept and the one that they rejected, there seems to be only the shading of a hair, and that hair is twisted 'twixt the north and south side. Indeed, after the rupture caused by the withdrawal of the labor delegates, after the failure of their resolution favoring collective bargaining, the spokesmen of the employers declared that if there was any one thing which they heartily desired to endorse it was that of collective bargaining. It was only the particular form in which it was proposed that they could not accept.

In the presence of such displays, impatient observers sometimes wish that they could break in and show how the matter should be done. You agree in essence, they wrangle about mere details. Leave of your logic-chopping. Sink a little your pride of opinion. Get together like sensible human beings and consider the demands of a waiting and anxious public! Alas, we fear that spectators turned into spectators would not do much better. They would find that they, too, were tied up with rules of procedure. While each was endeavoring to make his own eminent sense, he would discover that others were stupid and pie-headed. And what he thought a very noble bill of futile objection, the man with whom he was discussing would protest to be a mountain of fundamental principle. Such difficulties in making men see eye to eye, and in inducing them to compromise their differing views, are met with wherever men meet—in a committee, in a club, in a church, in a university faculty, a congressional caucus, a board of directors, in a parental household with which the world is governed less deep in human nature. Men will be in danger of working at cross-purposes so long as they try to work together at all.

WHY IT FAILED.

(New York Times.)
The Industrial Conference broke up because the labor group and the employers' group had not mastered the elementary principles of "negotiation." A conference can never lead to an agreement when any of the parties begins by brandishing an ultimatum. The subject-matter of the controversy as to which agreement is sought, Mr. Gumpers, provoked a controversial spirit and destroyed the conciliatory atmosphere of the conference when he forced the issue of the steel strike, with which the conference had nothing to do; and his attitude throughout was that of refusing to budge in any particular the demands of labor. The men of the employers' group, who doubtless pride themselves upon being guided in a greater degree than the representatives of labor by the spirit of reason and concession, must feel that they mis-

THE BABY FINGER PRINTS TOUGH JUDGE WITH HEART

New York, Oct. 29—Baby fingerprints on the wall paper are the finest of nautical art. This was the decision handed down in the Bronx Municipal Court by Justice Robtack, in dismissing a suit to recover alleged damages because a baby had embellished the interior decorations of an apartment by a fringe all its own.

"This would be a happier world to live in," the justice said, "if baby fingers could only make their imprint on the hearts of men and women. I would never see the print of baby fingers on a wall of my home than have them adorned with the world's masterpiece."

NEW YORK LADY MISSING

New York, Oct. 28—A confidential police alarm has gone out for Mrs. Elizabeth Thurston, widow of Colonel Nathaniel Blunt Thurston, of the New York National Guard, who left her home at 827 Manhattan avenue, Saturday afternoon, saying she would return in half an hour, and who has not been seen since. Mrs. Thurston, not given to trusting banks and safe deposit vaults, wore a number of diamonds and carried with her in a chamois bag other jewelry, valuable papers and Colonel Thurston's medals.

According to Mrs. Margaret Walsh who lives with her, Mrs. Thurston left home in apparent good spirits, although she previously had not been well. She had been so regular in her habits and so little inclined to remain away that Mrs. Walsh became frightened when she did not return promptly. It had been Mrs. Thurston's custom to visit her husband's grave each Sunday, but when she did not do this today, and inquiry among her relatives failed to elicit information, Mrs. Walsh decided to notify the police.

Mrs. Thurston is a woman of sixty years, about five feet three inches tall, and has grey eyes and grey hair. She was dressed entirely in black. The bureau of missing persons at police headquarters has no record of an unidentified person corresponding to her description, being in any hospital.

START IS MADE BY THE VOCATIONAL COMMITTEE HERE
Take Over Mechanical Drawing Class and Extend Work—Suggestions for Future
The first meeting of the St. John vocational educational committee, which was appointed by the local school board, was held last night at the residence of Dr. A. F. Emery, 40 Colburn street, the chairman, Dr. Emery, presiding with A. Gordon Leavitt acting as secretary. The following members were present: Dr. A. F. Emery, J. D. P. Lewin and Thomas Nagle, representing the school board; Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, in the interests of home-making; Alexander Wilson, representing capital, and George P. Hennessey, labor. Fletcher Peacock, secretary of the provincial vocational committee, was also present.
Dr. Emery said the committee was a big subject and the committee wanted to go at it in the right manner. He mentioned visiting several schools in the United States, among them the Murray Hill school in New York city, where more than 500 pupils were taking courses. They also have a large school in Brooklyn and one in Manhattan, the latter being for girls only. He said they could take over one building of twenty rooms for the present and thought automobile repairing would be a good subject but that would necessitate having a garage.
Mr. Wilson was very much interested in the subject and said it would prove very popular with the public. He knew young men in his own organization, who with a little more technical knowledge, would be of much greater value to their employers, and would benefit greatly by it themselves.
Mrs. Raymond outlined the work of the various women's organizations and what they had accomplished.
Mr. Peacock suggested looking ahead and mapping out a program for three or four years, so as to show the people they were working for a definite object, and get public support. The first thing to do was to appoint a competent director. There was some discussion about

NEW BUSINESS CODE SEEN IN CO-OPERATION

So-operative advertising, such as that introduced for the first time in New England by the Olneyville, R. L. Business Men's Association, must be taken up in every community sooner or later. Horace G. Becher, chief clerk of the Town Officers of Rhode Island, told the retail merchants' division of that organization at a recent meeting.

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for week ended Oct. 23, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comments:

"The 'A' industries are still doing the bulk of the buying as far as machine tools and supplies generally are concerned. In this case the 'A' industries take in the automobile and agricultural shops. There is a very large market for these in this country now, and prospects of tremendous sales in the spring, as the matter of selling takes very secondary consideration to the problem of production now. Plants that have been in existence only a short time are already planning to what extent they will build their extensions, and all this means that there will be a big market for tools and supplies.

"The steel strike in United States has had the effect of slowing down the deliveries of material to speculators, and at present it can be estimated as about thirty-five per cent of normal, and slow in many ways. In some cases, though, material comes through well as one of the shipbuilding concerns got a nice tonnage of plate across that only went to the mills in the middle of September. But the recovery of production at the mills is not being held up by the steel strike, and business is piling up at the mills, although it must be said that the trade in general is giving every leniency to the mills in the matter of deliveries.

PROMINENT PEOPLE AT BAPTIST CONVENTION

Interesting References to Men Outstanding in Denomination in Maritime Provinces (Maritime Baptist.)

Time and space are lacking for reference to all the leaders whose presence added so much to the interest and value of the convention. So we must perforce content ourselves with doing less than justice to many who by faithful attendance and close attention to the business which had called us together made the gathering a real success.

All were glad indeed to see Dr. A. Colquhoun again in his place. The gathering of the real point of issue remains complete in many ways and not least because his wise counsel and guidance were felt in the growing older there is very little evidence of it. Physically he looks just as he did when we began attending the convention some twenty years ago. And his ability to unravel the tangled skein of debate and set forth plainly the real point of issue remains unimpaired. It is always a pleasure to follow his lucid explanation of the financial standing of our educational churches. Few realize what Acadia owes to his wise and painstaking management of her finances. May he long be spared to the denomination.

Another who may be classed among the unaging veterans is Dr. J. W. Mansfield. He is known to all our churches through his long connection with our foreign mission work. No convention is complete without his presence. Wolfville claims him now as a resident but his interest extends to all the work of the denomination. He is a member of the board of governors of Acadia University and takes an active part in the work of the Wolfville Baptist church. He also continues to render a valuable service to the Kingdom by supplying churches in the west.

In speaking of the veterans of the convention we cannot pass over Dr. E. D. King. With him has ever been a clear-headed and warm-hearted servant of the Kingdom and continues to be a valuable member of the convention.

Perhaps Deacon Sanford of Berwick would object to be classed among the veterans. He is one of our best men, being ninety-one years young. No one in attendance took a keener interest in the work of the convention than he. He is a man of deep convictions and debates with clear attention. We would be afraid to say how long he has been attending the convention, but he is growing younger instead of growing older.

Record Price

"During thirty years in the business I have never seen this record equalled, and I doubt if 400 acres of tobacco ever sold for so large a sum before," declared F. R. Gregory, in charge of the Imperial Tobacco Company interests here.

"Growers are jubilant, and industry is being extended into the adjoining township of Colchester South, where farms have already been bought for this purpose. The Burley market will soon open, and prospects for prices are very good. The Virginia crop aggregated around a million pounds, and Burley will run around 15,000,000 pounds at 25 cents. It will be seen that the country will be enriched by something like five million dollars."

Save Against the "rainy day"

The thought of being dependent some day, when illness or old age takes away one's ability to earn, is rightly distasteful to the Canadian mind.

The simplest, surest way to offset this is to open a Savings Account and add something to it every week. Come in and we will gladly explain.

THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

R. H. AUSTIN
Mr. St. John Branch, Branches: Charlottetown, St. John's, Halifax, Miramichi, Moncton, St. John's, New Brunswick, N. S.

It is to be hoped that the united board will find it possible to relieve him of some of the burden which he now bears, and still make use of his knowledge of the conditions among the churches in New Brunswick.

The majority of the men of whom we have spoken are, of course, business men. Fortunately we had a strong corps of laymen who may well be ranked with the other leaders. There was W. G. Clark, of Fredericton, who for years has contributed to the service of the convention. He is a member of the board of governors of Acadia. D. C. Clarke, of Charlotte street church, St. John West, is always abounding in the work of the Lord and always in demand as a member of important committees and boards. R. B. Wallace, of Fredericton, was appointed to the responsible position of chairman of the Foreign Missions Board. M. Garfield White, of Sussex, has been the leader in framing and securing the adoption of the new annuity plan.

We had not so many visitors as usual, but there were among the best. Rev. W. B. Roberts, of Grand Ligne, has been with us so often that he seems one of our own. And also we claim a share of Rev. H. E. Sullivan, the general secretary of the foreign mission board. He has been with us before, and the often-er he comes the more we welcome him. Dr. F. W. Patterson came to represent the west, but when he reached Woodstock with its associations of his boyhood and young manhood he became quite one of us again. Out in West, he is Dr. Patterson, the honored leader of the Baptist hosts of the west, but around Woodstock he is just plain Fred, and we respect rather enjoy the change. And then we had with us Dr. R. C. Ebb, of Philadelphia, editor of the young people's publications of the denomination. He also belongs to us, for he was born and reared in St. John, educated there and at Fredericton, and "broken in" to pastoral work at Glace Bay.

We are not expected to mention the leaders who didn't come to convention. There is one exception and so many inquiries were made for him that he cannot be passed over in silence. All were disappointed that the task of reporting settled at Wolfville made it impossible for Dr. J. H. MacDonald to be present. His splendid services overseas have given to his name a new lustre, but convention goes do not forget either the many years in which he served the convention so efficiently as secretary. Moreover he was at one time pastor of the Woodstock church. So it is not to be wondered at that many inquiries were made for him and general disappointment was expressed at his absence.

SHORTAGE OF DAIRY AND MILK PRODUCTS

Future of Canada's Trade in these Abroad Practically Assured

It is the consensus of opinion of Canadian officials who have visited Europe that the future of the export trade in dairy products is assured. In England butter is everywhere at a premium, and Canadian cheese continues to hold its good reputation. H. S. Arkell, live stock commissioner, who has recently returned from overseas, states that the shortage of milk and dairy products in Great Britain is unprecedented. The same is true of other European countries. The scarcity and high price of concentrated feed is to some extent responsible for this. The condition is so general as not quickly to be remedied. It is further responsible for retarding the increase of swine production and the rearing of the normal requirements of fat. This statement from the live stock commissioner should give confidence not only to dairy farmers, but to those who are able to raise hogs.

CUSTOMS PROHIBIT EXPORT OF SUGAR

Exporters Must Have License From Trade and Commerce Department

In response to an enquiry sent yesterday, C. B. Lockhart, collector of customs, this morning received a telegram from the commissioner of customs at Ottawa, stating that the regulations allowing the export of sugar from Canada had been cancelled and the export of this commodity in any quantity is now prohibited without a license.

As the license required must be obtained from the Canadian Commerce Commission, it is supposed that this is the order which was referred to by a Fredericton paper yesterday, saying that the department of trade and commerce had cancelled the licenses allowing the export of sugar from the refineries at St. John and Halifax.

The new regulation will affect the refiners, which has been common recently, of people in Canada sending sugar to their friends in the United States where the shortage is said to be acutely felt at present.

POLICE COURT

Variety of Matters Before The Magistrate Today

In the police court this morning a case against the five colored people, James Bourne, Charles Bourne, Rosalie Watts, Grace Jordan and Mary Jordan, was resumed. Mrs. Joseph Williams, who lives across the street from the defendants and the complainant, Clements Watts, told of hearing Grace Jordan use certain language, but did not hear defendant, James Bourne, say anything at that time. She told of seeing Charles Bourne push Watts and use the same language to him. Mrs. Williams said that living conditions in that vicinity were terrible on account of disturbances caused by both the defendants and the complainant in their family quarrels. Joseph Williams said he did not hear anything, but saw what his wife had seen. When asked if he knew Charles Bourne he said that he did not. All coons look alike to me."

Alice S. Williams described the disturbances in that section as being disgraceful and said it is almost impossible to live there. The case was postponed until Monday morning at eleven o'clock. M. B. Innes represented the complainant, while J. Starr Tait appeared for the defendants.

A case against Clifford Carr, charged with stealing $14 from the Oddfellows' Hall, West Side, was resumed. John Beattie said he was at a dance in the Oddfellows' Hall, and as he was standing in the door a lad came down the stairs, leading from the ladies' waiting room and went past him into the street. He said he could not see the lad's face as he had his cap pulled down over his eyes. The defendant was not identified by the witness. The lad whom the witness saw had a brown suit and cap. Mrs. Mary A. Smith said she saw a lad, Miss Doris Friars said she lost her money, which amounted to $30, from the ladies' waiting room on that night. Frank Sheehan said that the accused was in his home from about 8.30 until nearly twelve on the night in question. Gordon Warner said he saw the accused at 12.15, and he had a dark green suit on. The case was postponed until this afternoon.

In a case against Joseph Jeffrey, charged with breaking windows and also with being drunk, Policemen Gibbs and Lindsay corroborated Policeman Garnett's evidence. The accused was again remanded.

Mabel Price was charged with assaulting Gertrude Swim and using abusive language to her. Gertrude Swim told of the accused hitting her and calling her names at the head of Garden street last night. Elizabeth Price, a sister of the accused, in her evidence denied this. Joseph Gallbraith, William Compton and Frank Kelly were charged with lying and lurking in a barn off St. Patrick street. Two of them were fined $8 or two months in jail, while Gallbraith was fined $200 or two months for having liquor in the barn as well.

Three men charged with drunkenness were fined $8 each or two months in jail.

Comparison is the Only True Test of Furniture Values

Every store is privileged to advertise that its prices are lower than others; but after all it's the furniture on the sales floors with the prices attached that tell the true story.

How else can you feel absolutely certain of buying your furniture at the lowest prices unless you actually investigate by comparison?

If we had the slightest doubt that our store would suffer by such a comparison, when it came to offering true values, we would not urge you to compare our prices with others.

We do not claim that every article on our floors can be purchased for less at our store than any other—that would be an absurd statement; but we do know that if you will make a comparison you will find the majority of furniture on our floors selling for less, and there is a reason for that fact.

This is a store that specializes. We do not show the most expensive type of furniture, nor do we show the very cheapest. The furniture we specialize in is the substantial type of furniture of attractive design that appeals to the great middle class of people. Consequently we do not have a lot of slow moving furniture on our floors adding to our overhead expense and cost of doing business.

The purchase of furniture represents quite an expenditure, and it pays to make comparisons and see that you are not being charged too much for what you place in your home. All our furniture is marked with plain figure price tickets.

FOREMAN SAYS IT SAVED HIS LIFE

Mahoney Never Expected to Get Out of Bed Again—Now Back at Work.

Many wonderful endorsements have been given Tanlac, but the statement made October 9th by James Mahoney, of 22 East 13th St., Los Angeles, Cal., is so remarkable as to be almost incredible. Mr. Mahoney, however, is a man of unquestioned integrity and has been foreman at the Richards-Naustadt Construction Co. ten years. His neighbors have corroborated his remarkable statement in every detail and will do so again if called upon.

One day a friend, who had been coming to see me often, told me how Tanlac had helped his daughter and urged me to try it. At first I refused, as my wife was opposed to anything except prescribed medicines. But one day this friend offered to get me a bottle of Tanlac with the understanding that no one else knew about it. Well, I started taking it and by the time he brought me the third bottle I was feeling better. I stopped everything else, kept on with Tanlac and slowly improving. I soon noticed the pain in my stomach easing up and that lumpy feeling began to leave. I got to eating something and then commenced getting back my lost weight and strength. I kept taking it until I used twenty bottles and as a result I am in better shape than I was for years—ten before I was taken sick. I now weigh one hundred and thirty pounds, so you see my weight has exactly doubled. I am well, I eat day and can do the heavy lifting just the same as I ever could. I am not bothered any more with my kidneys or with my stomach and I sleep like a top every night. My food tastes good and my appetite is simply fine. I now weigh more than I did when I was taken sick. I do, that Tanlac is the greatest medicine in the world. I will praise it as long as I live, and I never expect to be without it.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and in W. Main street, the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

SPINSTER AT 103. London, Eng., Oct. 29.—"The secret of long life is the possession of a contented mind, regular habits and living on good plain food," declares Miss Beattie Walton, who has just celebrated her 103 birthday. "I never married," she continued, "because I always wanted to have my own way, and that is difficult in wedlock, and marriage means submission. However, I do not advocate all girls remaining single; most girls are happier when they are managed by a man."

CAT TURNS ON GAS

KILLING MAN ASLEEP. New York, Oct. 29.—Louis Levy, a wholesale stationer, fifty years old, was found dead by his wife, Jennie, in the basement of their home at No. 189 Pulaski street, Brooklyn. He was found with a newspaper in his lap, near a gas range, one cock of which was open, flooding the basement with gas. An ambulance surgeon from St. John's Hospital found him beyond possibility of revival. When his wife retired, Mr. Levy said he would sit up a while to read. The police came to the conclusion that his death was accidental. It is believed that he fell asleep as the gas was later turned on by the family cat jumping on the range and tripping against one of the cocks.

STOMACH O. K.

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapesin"

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or any of the ailments which are relieved by Pape's Diapesin. When you feel hungry, indigestion, pain, heartburn or headache, from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapesin and the stomach distress is gone.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-Known Local Druggist Says: "Everybody is Using Old-Time Recipe of Sage, Tea and Sulphur."

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or even if it fades to gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage, Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that eye color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they eat on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness and premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antidote than Bismarated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthily, without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisulphated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

Don't Neglect Your Breakfast

The Fear of Indigestion Often Prompts One to Start the Day Wrong. What You Like, Take a Satisfying Dyspepsia Tablet and You're Safe.

Breakfast offers many of the most savory dishes of all the things we eat. And yet more people than otherwise go without breakfast save a roll and coffee or coffee for fear of indigestion. If you like a fried egg, or some buckwheat or sausage for breakfast go to it and follow with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. You'll have no trouble. The average person who neglects breakfast will feel hungry before noon. Most men smoke to kill the appetite, or munch on something to carry on till lunch time. An empty stomach in these conditions is not storing up energy, but on the contrary, is susceptible to many influences that may work hardship for the next meal.

It is advisable to eat three good meals a day and digest them. If the stomach seems to be weak, to help it or give it assistance is the rational thing to do. Try a good breakfast and follow it with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you'll soon learn that regularity of meals follows a natural tendency, and an empty stomach will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale in almost all drug stores throughout the United States and Canada.

Why Do French Women Always Look Young?

In France mothers and daughters look like sisters. How are the women there able to retain their youthfulness until long past middle age? It is because they are much given to the use of mercurized indigestion, which possesses a remarkable absorbent property which quickly removes the fine particles of cuticle which constantly fall away and which are the immediate cause of an old looking complexion. Thus the healthier, younger skin beneath is given a chance to breathe and to show itself. Try this treatment yourself. Most likely it will require two weeks to make your complexion as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. Just one American druggist have it, usually does the work. The wax is put on a stick of cold cream and washed off mornings.

After a Hard Day's Work

Rub the tired muscles with a few drops of the soothing, refreshing, antispasmodic, and pain reliever, which is pleasant and convenient to use and remarkably efficacious. This liniment is made of mercurized indigestion, which soothes and prevents strong soreness and lameness after a strenuous, tiresome day's work.

PRESERVE OLD BUILDING REQUEST TO COUNCIL

Historical Society Delegation Heard Relative to West End Structures—Bonded Expenditures

At the weekly meeting of the common council yesterday afternoon, John Willet, K. C. and George A. Henderson appeared on behalf of the Historical Society and petitioned the members to set aside an appropriation to expend on repairs to the old market building in West St. John.

Mr. Willet explained the condition of the building, which is situated in Market Place, West St. John, and has been occupied for a great many years, as a result of which it is in a dilapidated condition and badly in need of repairs if it is to be preserved. He pointed out that it was for many years, used as a market downstairs and upstairs as a court room where Robert Sizer and Mr. Olive presided. He said that many famous lawyers took part in cases which came before that court. In addition, he said, it was used as a public hall, headquarters for political meetings and an assembly room. He said it was about 120 years old and was of interest to tourists.

The members of the Historical Society felt that it should be repaired, as it is going to ruin. He felt that the matter ought to be of concern to the common council and asked that an appropriation be made next year to repair the building.

In answer to Mayor Hayes, he said that it could be used as a community centre and suggested that Old pictures, etc., be hung on the walls. He said that the shell used by the famous Paris crew might be procured and also placed in the building.

Commissioner Fisher said he felt that the council should give the matter attention and said that the commissioner of public safety should bring in a recommendation regarding it.

Mr. Henderson also spoke about the old burying ground and said it would be desirable to have the old tombstones straightened up. He added that many of the graves are neglected because none of the relatives of the dead are living here.

The delegation were assured that the council would consider their recommendations.

CATARRAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have had noises go to your ears, get Dr. E. J. Sawyer's Catarrhal Deafness Remedy (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 table-spoonful four times a day.

Proceedings at the Meetings Yesterday Afternoon and Last Evening

Reports were read from the various branches at yesterday afternoon's session of the Women's Institute. They told of the work accomplished by the institute in various parts of New Brunswick. A fine address on the "Flax Industry" with a demonstration of work done was given by Mrs. J. W. Lewler. Her address excited close attention and she received a hearty vote of thanks.

The Nujol Treatment as Sickness Prevention

Science, with anti-toxins, serums, and modern sanitation, has done much to prevent dangerous diseases, but diseases checked are comparatively few. On the other hand, 90% of all diseases have one common origin—constipation.

The dangers of constipation are so far-reaching, because the blood receives poisons from an infected mass within, and carries them directly to every organ of the body; and because constipation itself keeps the system in a run-down condition so that any infectious germ from without readily gain foothold.

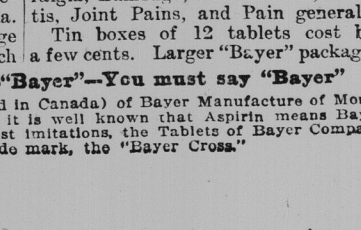

Keep clear of constipation and you guard against serious disease. Nujol will remove constipation and prevent its return.

The action of Nujol is entirely different from that of any other constipation remedy. It is not a drug. Nujol softens the food waste and encourages the intestinal muscles to act naturally.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation—regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

NIGHT LIFE IMPROVES IN LONDON STREETS
London, Eng., Oct. 29.—Night life in London has improved greatly, especially in certain streets that were once notorious, according to Mrs. L. Stanley, who is chief of the Woman's Police Force.

"The confidence that is now felt in the force is shown by the large number of girls who voluntarily come to the policemen for help," Mrs. Stanley adds.

"The policewomen never arrest, only advise and help. Their work is to prevent people from breaking the law. Their advice is generally well received."

Elgin— "The Spirit of Achievement"

The Teacher

WHAT more important lesson can be taught your child than the value of Time? Efficiency in later years—achievement in world affairs—in home-making and the well rounded life—all have their foundations laid in the knowledge of the value of the minute—planned to the tick of an Elgin.

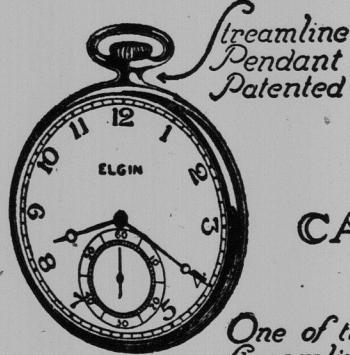

The Elgin is indeed the very spirit of achievement. The child who learns these lessons which the Elgin so clearly teaches has laid the corner stone of future success.

The Teacher, appreciating the value of Time, sets the day's schedule of lessons by the Elgin. This impresses on the class the necessity of ordering all work, all activity, with regularity.

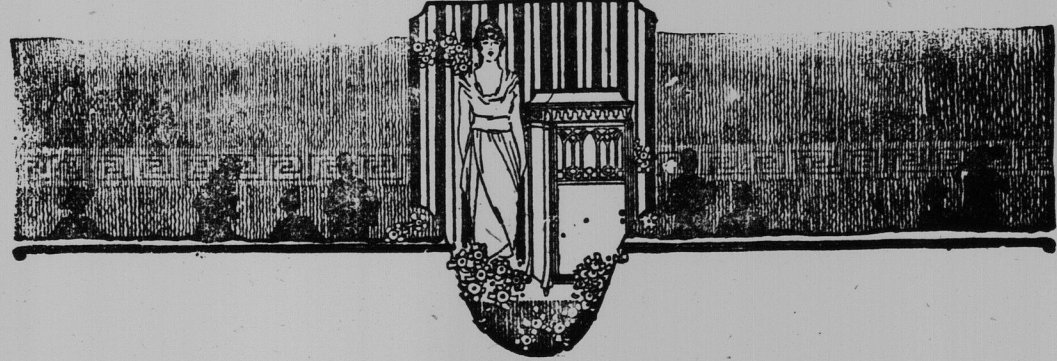

Make the Elgin the register of the minutes and hours of your daily schedule and you will complete each day's work with a consciousness of Achievement.

So human —it amazed all St. John

Some of your friends must have been in the huge audience which heard Alice Verlet in her Tone-Test recital at the Imperial Theatre. Ask these people about it. This is the astonishing discovery they made:

The keenest musical ear can not distinguish any difference between the voice of the living artist and the Re-Creation of that voice by the New Edison.

And does it not amaze you, too, that Mr. Edison has succeeded in producing an instrument that captures every subtle sweetness of the human voice—that gives you all the ear can give you of the art of the world's great artists. No other phonograph dares to make this direct comparison.

TERROR IN PETROGRAD

Copenhagen, Oct. 28.—A young lieutenant named von Knorring, who has just escaped from Petrograd, said here that life in Petrograd with General Yudenitch's forces advancing against the city, is like a hell and that the greatest tragedy in history is now being played there. For a long time the most necessary victims have been lacking and if one does not have an income of at least eighteen thousand rubles a month, it is impossible to get anything to eat except mouldy bread and rotten herrings.

Many thousands are dying from famine and cold. The lack of coal and wood is now terrible, and wooden buildings are being torn down for fuel; even the famous wooden pavements of Petrograd are used and the streets are thus made impossible for traffic. The marines and workmen have taken possession of all good apartments and no established business now exists, all the trading being done by waggons.

The nights are more than terrible, for at any moment houses are searched by marines or bands of factory girls, who steal everything eatable, dragging the inhabitants into the courts and accusing them of every conceivable crime.

All the men are forced into the Red Army, which is now 200,000 strong in Petrograd alone, but of course, this army is always near revolt against the Red marines, who are the masters of the city. The lieutenant says that Lenin's influence has not diminished. His representative is Angeliowitch, Backbiters, who is the terror of Petrograd. Sickness of all kinds, especially cholera and typhoid fever, claims a big number of victims, and it is now estimated that only a quarter of a million civilians are still in Petrograd. On account of the lack of wood, there are no coffins and corpses are heaped on waggons and thrown into open graves.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

Here's the way he explained it before the display men's convention at Chicago: "The average clothing house has a button designer—a man who designs buttons to harmonize with each suit designed. Now the store doesn't have any buttonhole designer, so why should you show up the left side, where the buttons are, when there's beauty on the right side in properly designed buttons? Buttons, if chosen, are a good selling point, and it is essential that they be shown to good advantage."

TEN SOURCES OF LIVE MAILING LISTS

The compilation of a live mailing list becomes comparatively simple when the merchant sells principally to a special trade or profession, but the merchant who sells the general run of regular people has a little harder job.

Here are ten suggestions by Julian M. Solomon, manager of the exhibitors' service department of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation. It's the way the movie houses get up their lists, and most of the ten suggestions will convey valuable hints to the average merchant.

First.—From local dealers. It's a case of spring lists between two or more sellers of different types of goods to the same class of customers.

Second.—From Blue Book and Social Register. These publications give the names, addresses and lines of business of prominent people. They are valuable when it is desired to reach a social or money class of customers.

Third.—From society columns of the newspapers. Here again it is a case of a list of social or money prominence as a rule. The announcements of weddings, dances and other functions at least convey a pretty good hint as to who is spending money for jewelry, food, clothes and a host of other articles of merchandise.

Fourth.—From canvass by boys. The

MILITARY SCHEME TO CONCLUDE PACT

Arrangements Made by Foch to be Carried Out in November

Paris, Oct. 28.—The military measures decided upon between the Supreme Council and Marshal Foch to carry out provisions of the peace treaty coincident with the coming into force of that instrument, will be carried out between Nov. 5 and Nov. 10, according to the Liberte.

The same paper states that the retirement of Gen. Mangin as head of the Inter-Allied Mission to the Baltic, if it becomes effective, is due to Gen. Mangin's own desire, the general having manifested certain preferences which the government took into consideration.

Gen. Franchet D'Esperey, formerly commander of the Allied forces in the Near East, may succeed Gen. Mangin, according to reports in several papers.

CRITICIZES SOME DOCTORS IN CONNECTION WITH PROHIBITION IN MANITOBA

Winnipeg, Oct. 28.—That the principal trouble in connection with the enforcement of the Manitoba Temperance Act is due to what might be called medical and veterinary boot-leggers and that it is the intention to make an energetic drive in the effort to punish all such offenders is announced in a statement by Attorney-General Thomas Johnson. He intimated that the "shop" prescriptions of liquor would be fought as contrary to the act. This announcement also states that the attorney-general has been unable to find any justification for rumors involving the integrity of officials in the Temperance Act Department, and that these reports have been traced to boot-leggers and other anti-prohibition interests.

The announcement is also made that in future inspectors under this act will prosecute all doctors who issue prescriptions to other than their regular patients.

Below Health Minimum.

Boston, Oct. 28.—A recent investigation of living conditions in New York showed 72 per cent of the people there were living on a food supply below the minimum requirements for health. Dr. Dorothy B. Mendenhall, of the National Labor Board, said today. She was speaking at a milk conference held at the State House. The family allowance for milk, eggs, meat and other essentials was found to have been cut off entirely in some cases, and reduced materially in many others, the speaker said.

children of a neighborhood may be put to work this way by the offer of prizes. Often the local Boy Scout organization is glad to undertake it in return for a donation of some sort to the organization. In this case printed slips for name, address, and telephone number should be distributed to the canvassers.

Fifth.—From the telephone book. This is a fairly accurate guide to substantial people and within periods of publication (three or four times a year) is up to date. If a neighborhood list is desired the compiler may run down the telephone number column, skipping all but the local exchange. It's a process that's somewhat tedious, but it yields a big list with the phone numbers as well as addresses. Of course, the classified sections of the directories speak for themselves. They are ready-made.

Sixth.—Through newspaper advertisements. If the merchant is able to offer any inducements to prospects contacting them why they should be on his mailing list there is no better way to announce it than in a newspaper advertisement. This will bring in a list of genuinely interested ones.

Seventh.—From membership lists of clubs, lodges and societies.

Eighth.—From canvassers who also

"sell" the store. If the right sales-women can be found it is often profitable to put one or two of them at work steadily over an extended period, in a house to house canvass. They make no attempt to take any orders unless the prospects themselves suggest it. They simply ask for names, and make some brief suggestions to the prospect as to reasons the merchant might find it profitable to deal with the merchant in question.

Ninth.—From the State Highway Department. A list of automobile owners may often be secured from this source.

Tenth.—From the local libraries.

however, should be treated with respect. People say it is good even in these days, and must still be treated with respect. Panton street derives its name from Col. PORT WORKERS THREATEN TO JOIN MINERS

New York, Oct. 27.—Threatening an amalgamation with discontented miners and railroad men, representatives of twenty-four locals of the International Longshoremen's Association, at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the headquarters of Local 866, at Twenty-fourth street and Thirteenth avenue, voted to urge a general strike in the port of New York.

The port has been tied up twenty days by the walkout of the longshoremen. Until yesterday the men and their leaders said that they were merely on "vacation." The ranks of the association have been split wide open. T. V. O'Connor, president of the I. L. A., repudiated by many of the workers, has been leading one faction, while Richard G. Butler has become identified prominently with the opposition.

While the meeting of the twenty-four locals was going on Mayor Hylan issued a statement in which he reviewed the strike situation. He spoke of the fact that a great body of the men are not contented with the leaders chosen at the City Council Doings.

To put through the license reduction will require some tall hustling. Mean-time lots of corn will be tramped on. The cure is "Putnam's," the old reliable corn extractor that has been curing corns and warts for years. "Putnam's" never fails, 25c. at all dealers.

New York, Oct. 29.—A casual kick at a package wrapped in newspapers lying beside a wood path near Fort Lee resulted in a police sergeant discovering $35,000 worth of drugs.

NOTED RESTAURANT OFFERED FOR SALE

"Stone's," Famous in London For Century, Brings Bid of $135,750—Dickens a Customer

London, Oct. 1.—(Correspondence)—The famous restaurant, familiarly known as "Stone's," in Finton street, Haymarket, London, was recently offered for sale by auction. A bid of $135,750 was offered, at which price the property was withdrawn.

"Stone's" has been a favorite trysting place of literary and artistic men for nearly a century. It has always been celebrated for good food and good ale and the foaming tankard and smoking steaks and chops have ever been irresistible to men famed in art or in letters or the professions.

Oliver Goldsmith and Edmund Burke frequented Stone's. It was known and used by Dickens, who wrote: "The West End chop or steak, it is true, was for a long time difficult to come at, and as a rule exceedingly bad when you got it, although the grill loving Londoner was even then able to go to Stone's in Pan-street with a tolerable certainty of finding what he wanted."

The dining room is one of the oldest fashioned eating places in London. The room is small and is divided into compartments, which hold tables for four, and an observant person would note that the seats are usually occupied by the same people—men of mature years.

For thirty years no woman has been known to dine at Stone's, though "old inhabitants" refer to an occasion when one was seen in the dining room in the almost dim ages of the past.

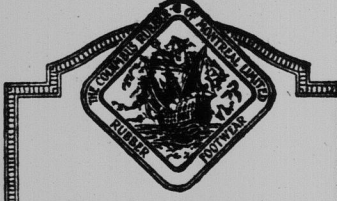

In the spacious coffee room, still existing, most of the London celebrities have foregathered from time to time, and in 1858 it was recognized as the only place in the West End where a clay pipe could be smoked after lunch, the tobacco provided being exclusively of that kind known as "Chamber," for which six cents a packet, then called a cartridge, was charged.

Bracebridge Hemming, whom all old boys will remember as the author of "Jack Harkaway" and other adventurous romances which they read when young, was a regular patron of the coffee room. What he thought of Stone's may be gathered from his lines on the coffee room, of which the following is an extract:

Time honored name,
Free from suspicion, as it is from blame,
A passage leads you to the coffee room,
Whose charms will promptly dissipate your gloom.

Stone's special drink was, until the war upset the brewers, old double-brewed ale from Burton, a royal drink, which

When They Went Away Singing "Tipperary"

In those brave days of '14 and '15, they were indeed the idols of the Nation. To their support Canada brought all that the weight of money could bring.

And when they came to the furnace of their testing, we acclaimed them proudly as of no common clay.

"Tipperary" is forgotten, swept like a butterfly caught in a tornado or a catch of song in the throat of death. But Ypres, St. Eloi, Vimy, Hill 70, Passchaendale, Cambrai and Mons have placed its singers among the Immortals.

In these brave days—that to some of us are still but of yesterday—Canada proclaimed herself in the fight to the last man and to the last dollar.

Well has man played his fighting part. It is our Dollar that must now redeem the pledge.

To make the Victory Loan a success is a National obligation.

If the fighting were still raging you wouldn't hesitate to invest.

Be thankful then that it is ended, and be glad that your part now is but to lend money to pay the Debts of Honour.

The spirit that moved you to buy Victory Bonds one year ago and two years ago should impel you to buy them again.

But even if you suppress that spirit—grant that you may not—the material advantage of the investment cannot fail to appeal to your good common sense.

Think of it. The peerless security of a mighty nation—a nation at peace—the great uncertainty of war past—and 5% interest. Where can you find its equal?

Whichever way you look at it, if you are true to yourself you must

How Friction Surfacing Lowers Manufacturing Cost

To the average mechanic, when belting a machine to a shaft pulley, a belt is just a belt, if it is the right size.

Efficiency and economy of operation, or that it was made for a particular purpose, is not considered.

For more than fifty years we have solved transmission belting and equipment problems, and have developed a special friction rubber compound for our transmission belting, and unless you and your employees avail yourselves of our knowledge and experience, our efforts to lower your manufacturing cost will, in a measure, be lost.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting is not coated with a dressing—a friction surfacing—it is special frictionized rubber with which the entire belt is saturated. Therefore, it retains a pulley grip that prevents practically all power waste, even when worn water thin.

Our engineers will, without charge, gladly show you how friction surfacing will help to lower your manufacturing cost.

Tell your transmission troubles to our nearest Service Branch.

*You People Of St. John Who Have Donated Generously to Sufferers of Every Country
During the War*

Listen to the Appeal of the Jewish Relief!

Over three-quarters of a Million of our Sons have been spread on the battlefields of Europe. The Wives, Mothers and Children left behind in the various Countries are suffering untold tortures, while the world in rejoicing in Peace the helpless Souls are crying out for death to end their miseries, they are unprotected, unarmed and open to attacks from murderers and plunderers of the vilest type. In Galicia old men and rabbis are strung on trees because they were helpless to resist these demons in human form. In Buckharira while at prayer in the Synagogue 1300 women, children and old men were dragged out and burned alive.

In Poland and Ukrania these persecutors go into the homes where the men are absent and butcher and beat to death women that resist their assaults. Children are starving on the streets amidst the streams of blood flowing from their murdered families. Must we stand by idly and raise no hand to stop these atrocities? These people must be helped. It is not a question of Charity, it is a question of saving lives.

Won't you give your bit to this noble cause?

Remember the Tag Day Thursday and give what you can to help those defenceless beings from entire extermination.
