Strong Opposition to it Has Developed in the U. S. Senate.

Senate Decides to Publish Treaty so Press and People May Get Complete Idea of it Before it is Put Into Actual Effect -- Summary of Its Provisions.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The Senate today adopted the rather unusual but not unprecedented course of making public the text of four treaties which have not yet received action at its hands. These are the Anglo-American and the Franco-American general arbitration treaties and the treaties providing for the adjustment of the finances and customs of Honduras and Nicaragua.

ASEPTO PREMIUM PLAN ADVANTAGES

Talk No. 4.

Why a cash discount is not equal to our premium. We do not make any money on premiums. We give a $5.00 premium when you have purchased $25.00 worth of goods from us. It would be an impossibility for us to give $5.00 in cash off of $25.00. Yet the premium you select from our store cannot be bought for less than $5.00 at any store. We buy that premium direct from the manufacturers and save all the profits of the jobber and retailer, a profit that they are justly entitled to, and by that method give you the greatest discount ever known and in addition acquaint you with our Asepto Soap and Soap Powder and over 100 other articles of our manufacture.

The plan is worth investigating.

THE SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIP ON SATURDAY

Special to The Standard.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 6.—The championships of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association came off on Saturday afternoon at the Waegwoide Club, Northwest Arm. The weather conditions were superb, the water up to 78 degrees, the management perfect, the crowd numbered thousands, the contests good, and four of the six championships went to New York.

R. M. Ritter of the City Athletic Club, New York, was the 200 yards speed in 21:15 seconds, and the same swimmer took the 220 yards speed and the 100 yards back stroke, in 3:35 min. 43.5 seconds, and 1 min. 39.5 seconds respectively. The 220 yards breast stroke was won by Sin S. Silver of the Montreal Swimming Club, with a time of 3 min. 53.15 seconds. The diving contests went one each to American and Canadian champions, Arthur McAleena, a boy of sixteen, from the New York A. C., winning the variety spring board diving at the lower heights, and J. Lyons, of the Montreal Swimming Club, winning the variety high diving at five and ten meters. The new diving tower of the Waegwoide was used for the first time and proved a splendid structure for the purpose. The American and Canadian divers spoke of it in the warmest terms, stating that it was the best tower in so far as rigidity and other good qualities were concerned, that they had ever used.

STELLARTON TEAM BEATEN IN HALIFAX.

Special to The Standard.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 6.—The crack Stellarton baseball team, champions of Pictou County, met their first defeat on Saturday afternoon when the Socials, trimmed them to the tune of four to one. Stellarton went off the field confident of victory, but the Socials, with two new men on their team, went at them like tigers from the start, and almost succeeded in blanketing them. It was the best exhibition of baseball seen here this year, in fact some say that Halifax fans never before witnessed such a game. The result was always in doubt and both teams played as if their lives depended on it. Insnor, who twirled for the winners, gave a wonderful exhibition. On several occasions with the bases full when a score or so seemed sure he retired the side. Insnor never pitched better and he was given excellent support. Stellarton has the fastest nine that has appeared here this summer.

A regrettable accident occurred in the eighth inning, when Fraser, the champions' catcher, had his nose badly fractured and cut. Stellarton had previously won eleven consecutive games and their defeat was a big surprise. Westville has decided to fly under professional colors and will play two games with the Socials here on Wednesday. The Standards will meet Stellarton in two contests in Pictou County on Wednesday and Thursday.

TO MAKE BOSTON THE PORT OF CANADA.

Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, in address to Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange: Reciprocity would give better transportation facilities both on land and water. Boston harbor would be improved with new docks and piers adequate to the increased business, the present railroads would increase their facilities, and the GREAT TRANSCONTINENTAL AL LINES OF CANADA WOULD COME TO THE PORT OF BOSTON, which is the natural port for Canada. Reciprocity would command a greater Boston, real estate values would increase, and new factories be built. To every man, woman and child in Massachusetts reciprocity will mean a greater opportunity for a livelihood, and it will mean that these dissident Liberals make their charges openly in defiance of Laurier. They consider his power in Quebec is broken, and are using this knowledge as a club.

The mad rush of the crowd was nothing short of a riot, and the police had more than enough to deal with.

ONE INSTANCE FROM LAURIER'S "SOLID QUEBEC"

Mayor of Three Rivers Will Oppose Solicitor General Bureau—Sorel Crowds Hoot at Liberal M. P.

Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 5.—A huge crowd attended the National rally here yesterday afternoon. Mayor Normandin, who will oppose the Solicitor General, Mr. Jacques Bureau, was the first speaker, and dealt with local issues, declaring that the city was being neglected by the administration. This paved the way for other speeches. Mr. Monk was received with loud applause as he rose to outline the aims and ambitions of his party. He claimed that the great question in Canadian politics had been the question of Imperial co-operation, and that his party took the position that the question was not within the competency of a few party leaders elected upon general issues, but one which should be handled by those holding a direct mandate from the people. This attitude he said had been followed by a campaign of slander and abuse in which a subcommittee represented his party's attitude as that of a body of rebellious subjects who desired to break Imperial ties. The Liberal leader scolded at demands for a referendum.

His Majesty's Government reserve the right to refuse to conclude a special agreement in any matter affecting the interests of a self-governing dominion of the British Empire, to obtain the concurrence therein of the government of that dominion.

The United States and British sections of the commission may each appoint a secretary and of the secretaries shall be joint secretaries of the commission at its joint sessions, and the commission may employ experts and clerical assistants from time to time as it may deem advisable.

The salaries and personal expenses of the commission and of the agents and counsel and of the secretaries shall be paid by their respective governments and what reasonable and necessary joint expenses of the commission incurred by the high contracting parties shall be paid by the high contracting parties.

Article (VI.) This treaty shall supersede the arbitration treaty concluded between the high contracting parties on April 4, 1908, but all agreements, awards and proceedings under that treaty shall continue in force and effect and this treaty shall not affect in any way the provisions of the treaty of January 11, 1909, relating to questions arising between the United States and the Dominion of Canada.

Article (VII.) The present treaty shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Britannic Majesty's Government, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as possible, and the treaty shall take effect on the date of the exchange of its ratifications. It shall thereupon remain in force continuously unless and until terminated by twenty-four months written notice given by either high contracting party to the other.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this treaty in duplicate and have hereunto affixed their seals.

OIL KEEPS DOWN DUST BUT RAISES TROUBLE

Lady Falls on Oily Street, and Spoils Her Skirts and Temper—Cars Have Trouble, too.

The Street Department had a number of things said about them Saturday afternoon and evening after their employees deluged the streets with oil. The oil was placed on Market square, King, Charlotte and Union streets. The purpose is to keep down the dust, but it was poured from a water wagon in such large quantities that it ran down the gutter on King street and considerable damage was done. Shortly after it was poured on the street a trolley car with a large crowd of people on it got partly up King street, but owing to the slippery rails it started to slip down the hill again. A number of people jumped from the car and ran for the sidewalk. One of the number to wade through the oil was a lady who held her skirts high to prevent them being spoiled by the street dressing. When she had nearly reached the sidewalk her feet slipped and with a very ungraceful movement she fell into the dirty street. Her clothing was badly damaged. A man with a light suit had the back of his coat damaged by coming in contact with the oil that had been sprinkled on one of the posts along side of the street.

The white shoes worn by the ladies are not suitable for oiled streets and many a white shoe, to say nothing of white skirts, were spoiled. Horses that were driven along the streets had their legs and under body covered with the oil, while the wheels of the coaches, carriages and automobiles were all stuck up. Water will not remove the oil from the wheels, and benzine has to be used. The oil was tracked from the street crossings into stores and houses, and there was a great deal of comment about the manner in which the streets had been blackened.

Chicago Leads in Pennants

Honors in the Windy City Shared by Copts. Anson and Chance--Boston has Captured Eight Since Organization was Founded in 1876--Teams' Makeups

Since the inauguration of the national league in 1876, 35 championship pennants have been won. Of that number the Chicago club has captured 10; Boston, 3; New York, 2; Baltimore, 2; Providence, 2; and Detroit, 1, with no such honors for Philadelphia, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

Two famous managers have contributed to the success of the Windy City in the national league, A. C. Anson and Frank Chance. A. G. Spalding was also manager of the pennant winning Chicago in 1876, when he was the star pitcher of the team.

Another pennant was captured by the Chicago in 1890 with 67 victories, 17 defeats and 798 per cent. Spalding retired, was the secretary of the club, while Anson was the manager, captain and first baseman.

The Chicago team with one additional player also won the pennant in 1891 and 1892. The team's record in 1891 was 66 victories, 28 defeats and 667 per cent.

Chicago's fifth pennant materialized in 1895. Anson had allowed his star pitcher, Corcoran and Goldsmith, to get away and substituted the noted stars John Clarkson and Jim McCormick.

SAINT JOHN, MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1911.

A MISSIONARY FROM THE WEST.

Another apostle of Reciprocity has arrived in St. John in the person of Senator King, who has just returned from the West. The tale the Senator has to tell is picturesquely described by the Telegraph as presenting "some nuts which the Conservatives will find it difficult to crack." The following paragraph may be taken as a fair sample of the nutty problems Senator King presents: "I travelled miles and miles through immense fields of wheat, and I think the crop this year is going to exceed that of any previous year, it being predicted in many places that the entire crop will amount to 2,000,000 bushels. The owners of most of these farms are well posted men, and they know that Great Britain's requirements do not exceed in any one year 1,600,000 bushels of wheat. They also know that Canada has never in the past been able to find a market for its wheat. The Canadian trade through the 'crop of the present year, and they are asking them selves 'Where is the balance over and above Canada's requirements, to find a market, if we do not have Reciprocity?' One of the things that the farmers want 'today is a larger market, and Reciprocity will give them the freedom of entry into the markets of the 'greatest consuming nation in the world.'

The absence of the Senator in the West has doubtless kept him in ignorance of the trap into which Mr. Pugsley walked when in support of the Agreement he also argued that Western grain must in future go South because the English market could not accommodate it. The Times has ever since been making frantic efforts to rescue Mr. Pugsley by contradicting him and assuring the people of St. John, who have a vital interest in the Winter Port trade, that Great Britain can take the produce of the West for "many years to come." In other words, although the Times would not put it that way, but for the Reciprocity pact, "Canadian trade through Canadian channels to Canadian ports" will go on increasing in volume from year to year for the benefit of every Canadian interest that handles it, including St. John, one of the chief ports of export. Now comes Senator King and once more repeats Mr. Pugsley's foolish argument with the question, "Where is the balance over and above Canada's requirements to find a market if we do not have Reciprocity?" What is Mr. Pugsley's organ going to do about it?

As it happens Senator King's question has been answered by no less a person than President Taft. In his zeal to secure Canada's raw material for the markets of the United States, Mr. Taft in his speech at Indianapolis on July 4, fully explained the situation. He said: "The diversion from British and European markets to United States markets of 20 to 40 million bushels of Canadian wheat annually, but would furnish 'strengthen the wheat market abroad, but would furnish 'the American mills with a needed complement of wheat 'WHICH THE WORLD WOULD REQUIRE, JUST AS IT HAS IN THE PAST, BUT IT WOULD THEN BE 'IN THE SHAPE OF AMERICAN-MADE FLOUR.' "The effect of increased wheat supplies would be to reduce the cost of manufacturing flour in just the ratio that the mills were able to thereby increase their output. Reduced cost of production would enable 'THE MILLS TO REGAIN IN THE FOREIGN MARKET 'THE 18 OR 20 MILLION BARRELS OF FLOUR SOLD 'IN FOREIGN TRADE ANNUALLY ten years ago, but 'which in recent years has fallen to less than ten 'million barrels."

President Taft is under no delusions about the advantage of foreign trade, and he sees no sign of its falling off. He knows that Great Britain acts as the world's clearing house for wheat and welcomes the diversion of millions of bushels of Canadian wheat as a means "to regain in the foreign market the 18 or 20 million barrels of flour sold in foreign trade annually" but which the United States has since lost. Mr. Pugsley, Senator King and other advocates of Reciprocity who come to St. John and present as an argument for Reciprocity that the Western grain must go South, would have it believed that this Canadian grain is, as Senator King puts it, for the use of "the greatest consuming nation in the world." They ignore the fact that every bushel of Canadian wheat sent to the United States will be exported again from United States ports, either as grain or flour.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press, one of the keenest advocates for Reciprocity in the Western States, makes a statement on this which has a significant meaning for St. John. It says: "If Canada should decide as 'soon as the Reciprocity Agreement was adopted to 'not send another dollar's worth of farm products to 'England, but to send all her surplus to the United States, THE EFFECT WOULD SIMPLY BE THAT 'THE UNITED STATES WOULD SEND AN EXTRA '$140,000,000 OF OUR PRODUCTS TO SUPPLY ENGLAND'S DEMAND AND WE WOULD ABSORB CANADA'S $140,000,000 SURPLUS, without in any degree 'affecting prices here. WE WOULD GAIN THE CUSTOMER CANADA ABANDONED."

With free access to the Canadian West the United States will serve the purpose of a big funnel, the larger end gathering in the Western produce, which has hitherto come through Canadian channels to Canadian ports, and the smaller end feeding the ports of New York, Boston and Portland on the Atlantic seaboard. The United States is not a "consuming nation," as Senator King would have us believe, but an exporting nation, a competitor. Under Reciprocity they are looking to gain the customer Canada would abandon—the British custom-trans-Atlantic trade of the port of St. John.

The principle "nut" which thus looms up in Senator King's interview is this statement that Canadian produce under Reciprocity will be diverted South to the United States, which means that the policy of East and West trade must be abandoned. The people of St. John, who have seen their port built up by Empire trade and realize the value of British Connection, will have no difficulty in discovering that the kernel of this nut is Continentalism. With the interests of St. John at heart they may be safely trusted not only to condemn an agreement which would bring this about, but to repudiate Mr. Pugsley who has betrayed his constituency by endorsing it.

THE PROHIBITION FIGHT IN MAINE.

Resolved, That any person who votes or in any way influences others to vote, directly or indirectly, to amend our constitution as to admit of a license of the liquor traffic, high or low, local or Statewide, is equally guilty of giving his neighbor drink and putting the bottle to him as the rum-seller, and the woe of the prophet of God is upon him.

The above resolution is the embodiment of the cry with which all Maine is now ringing, "Run against Righteousness." The cohorts of Prohibition are led by Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, president of the National W. C. T. U., whose home is in Portland. Her methods were begun long before the campaign, and as may be judged from the resolution quoted, are decidedly intense.

Mrs. Stevens' idea has been to organize the children of the State and the plan is so successful that her organization now contains 20,000 boys and girls. As a correspondent of the Waterbury American says, "They have buttons, and song books, and leaders; and they march and sing for Prohibition from Fort Kent to Kittery. On the last hot fourth of July with their thermometer at 103, 200 of these young 'campaigners for Prohibition,' as they are called, marched through the streets of Portland, waving their banners and singing their songs."

The other side, the side that favors the repeal of the Prohibition amendment, is represented by the Maine Non-Partisan Local Self-government League, a name too long for popular use, and shortened by general consent into the License League. Its leading officer is Rev. Luther McKinney, a Universalist, and its principal speaker is Dr. Seth C. Gordon of Portland, a surgeon of New England reputation. It has conducted a quiet campaign, mostly in the way of literature, although there will be speaking later. So denunciatory are the attacks of the Prohibitionists that few persons, whatever their sentiments, care to come out and expose themselves to this kind of warfare by championing the repeal.

What will be the result? Will the quiet, under-the-breath way of passing the word along and stirring up people, who do not wish to pose in public, be effective, as against the open, aggressive and brilliant campaign of the Prohibitionists and their friends? The Prohibitionists claim that the amendment will be retained by a 50,000 majority. But as the last Democrat victory in Maine was largely due to popular antipathy to Prohibition, these figures would appear to be decidedly open to challenge. As matters stand, Maine may go either way, with a whoop for Prohibition or against Prohibition, without creating any great surprise among those who are not intense partisans.

SHOWING THE STRONG ARM.

(Montreal Gazette.)

The passage by the United States Congress of the bill to give effect to the Canadian Reciprocity treaty has already drawn some interesting comment from the United States press. It is being intimated that Canada must come to time or take the consequences. The Syracuse Herald, for instance, is quoted as declaring: "If Canada should turn down that Reciprocity treaty now, after Congress has boiled and perished through an extra hot summer to pass it, we have an idea that there would be some pretty stirring speeches made in the next Congress FAVORING THE FORCIBLE ANNEXATION OF OUR NORTHERN NEIGHBORS."

This is strong arm logic, and while the immediate source is not one to create terror, the fact that such arguments are put forth shows the ideas that are working among some in the United States. They think Sir Wilfrid Laurier by his running and sending to Washington has given the Government in that city the power to dictate to Canada politically as well as commercially. Equally great assumption is shown by the Spokane Spokesman-Review, which favors the Taft-Fielding Agreement as a step towards the commercial and customs union of the two countries. It declares: "If, within a year or two, the United States finds it impossible to persuade Canada to extend the free trade provisions to cover all products of both countries, the Spokesman-Review believes the people of the United States will insist upon the re-enactment of the tariff on Canadian farm products imported into this country."

There is more attention to be paid to this than to the declarations of the Syracuse paper. There are conditions on both sides of the border which suggest that if the present limited Reciprocity Agreement is made effective it will not be long before steps are taken to extend it so as to realize Sir Wilfrid Laurier's ideal of unrestricted reciprocity in the products of the United States and Canada. The above extract shows the attitude some in the United States will take if Canada declines to accept the situation. What is thus referred to supports the position of those who hold that Canada's commercial interdependency can be maintained only by her Parliament's refusal to make her a party to entangling alliances.

The date selected for the general election, September 21, is within one day of being the anniversary of the great Conservative victory of 1873. That election took place on September 22, so that the day after the coming election will be the 33rd anniversary of the triumph of the National Policy. The coincidence is striking in other ways. Thirty-three years ago it was a battle of protection, of the building up of the home market, against the policy which derided the home market and looked to closer relations with the United States. It is also to be noted that, as in the present instance, the election was held just prior to the advent of a member of the Royal family to Rideau Hall.

The fact that the Western grain growers have issued an official statement, ignoring Reciprocity and advising adherence to the old parties, is one of the outstanding results of Mr. Borden's Western tour. It indicates a division of sentiment undoubtedly promoted by the recent visit of the Conservative Leader, which precludes unity of action on the part of the grain growers as an independent organization; otherwise it would have been most assuredly taken. As Premier McBride avers, the Western outlook is full of promise.

Moved by Bobbie Burns that "princes and lords are but the breath of kings." Moved in amendment by Herb Asquith that all that part of the sentence after the word "of" be stricken out, and the word "premiers" substituted. Carried.

The doctors or suffragettes or somebody should give a reason for the repeatedly demonstrated fact that when it comes to swimming women are easily men's superior.

Laurier may think he has cleverly burked the charges against Hon. Frank Oliver, but a jury of the whole people will not fail to weigh the fatal evidence.

Words of Warning By a Canadian Born

Minneapolis, July 28.—Reciprocity between Canada and the United States means not only Annexation, but the complete annihilation of Canadian national sentiment. It means death to Canada as a people and nation. By the mass of Canadians in this country—those who have been here for 10 or more years—who know the actual situation, not from a sentimental but a business aspect, Laurier is looked upon as the destroyer of his country, the seller of his birthright. He may have done this inadvertently, but Canada will suffer just the same.

Champ Clark, Senator Nelson and others who saw that a crime was planned against our neighbor, were honest enough to voice what they know is the fact; there is not a public man nor newspaper from the Ohio river to the Dakotas that can say anything else and be truthful.

Had you travelled this country as I have during the Boer war, the Alaskan dispute, and when other minor matters were being considered between these countries, you would not question the statement I have made. Less than a year ago the press of the Twin Cities, in editorials discussing American-Canadian questions, would terminate their articles with the prediction that a reduction of tariff presaged absorption. Take, for instance, the Jim Hill group of newspapers, the St. Paul Dispatch, Pioneer Press, and those he controls in this city and throughout the state. But the whip was applied, either money or threats, and these journals now deny what before they asserted to blatantly. But this change of front does not deceive anyone.

Those who have no axe to grind and say what they think, declare that the Union Jack has been torn from its staff by the Canadians themselves since the Laurierites came into power. You hear it in the churches. It is the climax of many sermons. It is taught in the schools. You hear it voiced not only in the public halls, but in the factories, the post offices, the farmers' conventions, wherever old or young congregate. Laurier has taken the Judas 30 pieces of silver and a sacrifice has been made, second only to the selling of the Nazarene.

The Canadian voter must remember he is selling himself into slavery. It is not a matter of trade; it is the extension of United States territory. The workmen of Canada, the farmers of that country, do not realize that their labor will be pitted against the 12,000,000 from all climes that are a menace to America. Take down the tariff wall and your work and wages will be on the basis of the cheap foreigner. Don't for a moment imagine this country is as it was twenty, yes, ten years ago.

The influx of settlers from the older countries, with their hatred of Britain has during recent years completely subdued any fraternal feeling that might be expressed along Anglo-Saxon lines. We are not people of a similar lineage. The politics of this country are controlled by the votes of Asiatics, by dwellers along the Mediterranean, the votes of Poles and Slavs, Bohunks, Honyocks—a very unstable element with which to form a treaty. The natural born American of Anglo-Saxon parentage is all that a man should be, but he is in a very great minority and does not cut much of a figure in an election.

"Canada is at the parting of the ways." We on this side of the line, sons of the Maple Leaf, are watching the crisis with bated breath. Don't be a traitor to your country—vote for the land that bore you—vote that the millions yet unborn will find Canada unfettered and unshackled—a star in the galaxy of nations—not a slave and hireling bearing the brand of the conqueror.

SAINT JOHN, MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1911.

A MISSIONARY FROM THE WEST.

Another apostle of Reciprocity has arrived in St. John in the person of Senator King, who has just returned from the West. The tale the Senator has to tell is picturesquely described by the Telegraph as presenting "some nuts which the Conservatives will find it difficult to crack." The following paragraph may be taken as a fair sample of the nutty problems Senator King presents: "I travelled miles and miles through immense fields of wheat, and I think the crop this year is going to exceed that of any previous year, it being predicted 'in many places that the entire crop will amount to 200,000 bushels. The owners of most of these 'farms are well posted men, and they know that Great Britain's requirements do not exceed in any one year '160,000,000 bushels of wheat.' They also know that 'Canada has never in the past been able to find a market in Great Britain for say one-third of the prospective 'crop of the present year, and they are asking them-'elves 'Where is the balance over and above Canada's requirements, to find a market, if we do not have Reciprocity?' One of the things that the farmers want 'today is a larger market, and Reciprocity will give 'them the freedom of entry into the markets of the 'greatest consuming nation in the world."

The absence of the Senator in the West has doubtless kept him in ignorance of the trap into which Mr. Pugsley walked when in support of the Agreement he also argued that Western grain must in future go South because the English market could not accommodate it. The Times has ever since been making frantic efforts to rescue Mr. Pugsley by contradicting him and assuring the people of St. John, who have a vital interest in the Winter Port trade, that Great Britain can take the produce of the West for "many years to come." In other words, although the Times would not put it that way, but for the Reciprocity pact, "Canadian trade through Canadian channels to Canadian ports," will go on increasing in volume from year to year for the benefit of every Canadian interest that handles it, including St. John, one of the chief ports of export. Now comes Senator King and once more repeats Mr. Pugsley's foolish argument with the question, "Where is the balance over and above Canada's requirements to find a market if we do not have Reciprocity?" What is Mr. Pugsley's organ going to do about it?

As it happens Senator King's question has been answered by no less a person than President Taft. In his zeal to secure Canada's raw material for the markets of the United States, Mr. Taft in his speech at Indianapolis on July 4, fully explained the situation. He said: "The diversion from Britain and European markets to United States markets of 20 to 40 million 'bushels of Canadian wheat annually would not only 'strengthen the wheat market abroad, but would furnish 'the American mills with a needed complement of wheat 'WHICH THE WORLD WOULD REQUIRE, JUST AS 'IT HAS IN THE PAST, BUT IT WOULD THEN BE 'IN THE SHAPE OF AMERICAN-MADE FLOUR. 'The effect of increased wheat supplies would be to 'reduce the cost of manufacturing flour in just the ratio 'that the mills were able to thereby increase their out-'put. Reduced cost of production WOULD ENABLE 'THE MILLS TO REGAIN IN THE FOREIGN MARKET 'THE 18 OR 20 MILLION BARRELS OF FLOUR SOLD 'IN FOREIGN TRADE ANNUALLY ten years ago, but 'which in recent years has fallen to less than ten 'million barrels."

President Taft is under no delusions about the advantage of foreign trade, and he sees no sign of its falling off. He knows that Great Britain acts as the world's clearing house for wheat and welcomes the diversion of millions of bushels of Canadian wheat as a means "to regain in the foreign market the 18 or 20 million barrels of flour sold in foreign trade annually," but which the United States has since lost. Mr. Pugsley, Senator King and other advocates of Reciprocity who come to St. John and present as an argument for Reciprocity that the Western grain must go South, would have it believed that this Canadian grain is, as Senator King puts it, for the use of "the greatest consuming nation in the world." They ignore the fact that every bushel of Canadian wheat sent to the United States will be exported again from United States ports, either as grain or flour.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press, one of the keenest advocates for Reciprocity in the Western States, makes a statement on this point which has a significant meaning for St. John. It says: "If Canada should decide as 'soon as the Reciprocity Agreement were adopted to 'not send another dollar's worth of farm products to 'England, but to send all her surplus to the United 'States, THE EFFECT WOULD SIMPLY BE THAT 'THE UNITED STATES WOULD SEND AN EXTRA '$140,000,000 OF OUR PRODUCTS TO SUPPLY ENGLAND'S DEMAND AND WE WOULD ABSORB CANADA'S $140,000,000 SURPLUS, without in any degree 'affecting prices here. WE WOULD GAIN THE CUSTOMER CANADA ABANDONED."

With free access to the Canadian West the United States will serve the purpose of a big funnel, the larger end gathering in the Western produce, which has hitherto come through Canadian channels to Canadian ports, and the smaller end feeding the ports of New York, Boston and Portland on the Atlantic sea-board. The United States is not a "consuming nation," as Senator King would have us believe, but an exporting nation, a competitor. Under Reciprocity they are looking to gain the customer Canada would abandon—the British customer who has done so much to establish and develop the trans-Atlantic trade of the port of St. John.

The principle "nut" which thus looms up in Senator King's interview is this statement that Canadian produce under Reciprocity will be diverted South to the United States, which means that the policy of East and West trade must be abandoned. The people of St. John, who have seen their port built up by Empire trade and realize the value of British connection, will have no difficulty in discovering that the kernel of this nut is Controversialism. With the interests of St. John at heart they may be safely trusted not only to condemn an agreement which would bring this about, but to repudiate Mr. Pugsley who has betrayed his constituency by endorsing it.

THE PROHIBITION FIGHT IN MAINE.

Resolved, That any person who votes or in any way influences others to vote, directly or indirectly, to so amend our constitution as to admit of a license of the liquor traffic, high or low, local or Statewide, is equally guilty of giving his neighbor drink and putting the bottle to him as the rum-seller, and the woe of the prophet of God is upon him.

The above resolution is the embodiment of the cry with which all Maine is now ringing, "Rum against Righteousness." The cohorts of Prohibition are led by Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, president of the National W. C. T. U., whose home is in Portland. Her methods were begun long before the campaign, and as may be judged from the resolution quoted, are decidedly intense.

Mrs. Stevens' idea has been to organize the children of the State and the plan is so successful that her organization now contains 20,000 boys and girls. As a correspondent of the Waterbury American says, "They have buttons, and song books, and leaders; and they march and sing for Prohibition from Fort Kent to Kittery. On the last hot fourth of July with the thermometer at 103, 200 of these young 'campaigners for Prohibition,' as they are called, marched through the streets of Portland, waving their banners and singing their songs."

The other side, the side that favors the repeal of the Prohibition amendment, is represented by the Maine Non-Partisan Local Self-government League, a name too long for popular use, and shortened by general consent into the License League. Its leading officer is Rev. Luther McKinney, a Universalist, and its principal speaker is Dr. Seth C. Gordon of Portland, a surgeon of New England reputation. It has conducted a quiet campaign, mostly in the way of literature, although there will be speaking later. So denunciatory are the attacks of the Prohibitionists that few persons, whatever their sentiments, care to come out and expose themselves to this kind of warfare by championing the repeal.

What will be the result? Will the quiet, under-the-breath way of passing the word along and stirring up people, who do not wish to pose in public, be effective, as against the open, aggressive and brilliant campaign of the Prohibitionists and their friends? The Prohibitionists claim that the amendment will be retained by a 50,000 majority. But as the last Democrat victory in Maine was largely due to popular antipathy to Prohibition, these figures would appear to be decidedly open to challenge. As matters stand, Maine may go either way, with a whoop for Prohibition or against Prohibition, without creating any great surprise among those who are not intense partisans.

SHOWING THE STRONG ARM.

(Montreal Gazette.)

The passage by the United States Congress of the bill to give effect to the Canadian Reciprocity treaty has already drawn some interesting comment from the United States press. It is being intimated that Canada must come to time or take the consequences. The Syracuse Herald, for instance, is quoted as declaring:

"If Canada should turn down that Reciprocity treaty now, after Congress has bottled and perpetuated through an extra hot summer to pass it, we have an idea that there would be some pretty stirring speeches made in the next Congress FAVORING THE FORCIBLE ANNEXATION OF OUR NORTHERN NEIGHBOR."

This is strong arm logic, and while the immediate source is not one to create terror, the fact that such arguments are put forth show the ideas that are working among some in the United States. They think Sir Wilfrid Laurier by his running and sending to Washington has given the Government in that city the power to dictate to Canada politically as well as commercially.

Equally great assumption is shown by the Spokane Spokesman-Review, which favors the Taft-Fielding Agreement as a step towards the commercial and customs union of the two countries. It declares:

"If within a year or two, the United States finds it impossible to persuade Canada to extend the free trade provisions to cover all products of both countries, the Spokesman-Review believes the people of the United States will insist upon the re-enactment of the tariff on Canadian farm products imported into this country."

There is more attention to be paid to this than to the declarations of the Syracuse paper. There are conditions on both sides of the border which suggest that if the present limited Reciprocity Agreement is made effective it will not be long before steps are taken to extend it so as to realize Sir Wilfrid Laurier's ideal of unrestricted Reciprocity in the products of the United States and Canada. The above extract shows the attitude some in the United States will take if Canada declines to accept the situation. What is thus referred to supports the position of those who hold that Canada's commercial independence can be maintained only by her Parliament's refusal to make her a party to entangling alliances.

The date selected for the general election, September 21, is within one day of being the anniversary of the great Conservative victory of 1873. That election took place on September 22, so that the day after the coming election will be the 33rd anniversary of the triumph of the National Party. The coincidence is striking in other ways. Thirty-three years ago it was a battle of protection, of the building up of the home market, against the policy which decimated the home market and looked to closer relations with the United States. It is also to be noted that, as in the present instance, the election was held just prior to the advent of a member of the Royal family to Rideau Hall.

The fact that the Western grain growers have issued an official statement, ignoring Reciprocity and advising adherence to the old parties, is one of the outstanding results of Mr. Borden's Western tour. It indicates a division of sentiment undoubtedly promoted by the recent visit of the Conservative Leader, which precludes unity of action on the part of the grain growers as an independent organization; otherwise it would have been most assuredly taken. As Premier McBride avers, the Western outlook is full of promise.

 Laurier may think he has cleverly buried the charge against Hon. Frank Oliver, but a jury of the whole people will not fail to weigh the fatal evidence.

Words of Warning By a Canadian Born

Minneapolis, July 28.—Reciprocity between Canada and the United States means not only Annexation, but the complete annihilation of Canadian national sentiment. It means death to Canada as a people and nation. By the mass of Canadians in this country—those who have been here for 10 or more years—who know the actual situation, not from a sentimental but a business aspect, Laurier is looked upon as the destroyer of his country, the seller of his birthright. He may have done this inadvertently, but Canada will suffer just the same.

Champ Clark, Senator Nelson and others who saw that a crime was planned against our neighbor, were honest enough to voice what they know is the fact; there is not a public man nor newspaper from the Ohio river to the Dakotas that can say anything else and be truthful.

Had you travelled this country as I have during the Boer war, the Alaskan dispute, and when other minor matters were being considered between these countries, you would not question the statement I have made. Less than a year ago the press of the Twin Cities, in editorials discussing American-Canadian questions, would terminate their articles with the prediction that a reduction of tariff presaged absorption. Take, for instance, the Jim Hill group of newspapers, the St. Paul Dispatch, Pioneer Press, and those he controls in this city and throughout the state. But the whip was applied, either money or threats, and these journals now deny what before they asserted to blatantly. But this change of front does not deceive anyone.

Those who have no axe to grind and say what they think, declare that the Union Jack has been torn from its staff by the Canadians themselves since the Laurierites came into power. You hear it in the churches. It is the climax of many sermons. It is taught in the schools. You hear it voiced not only in the public halls, but in the factories, the post offices, the farmers' conventions, wherever old or young congregate. Laurier has taken the Judas 30 pieces of silver and a sacrifice has been made, second only to the selling of the Nazarene.

The Canadian voter must remember he is selling himself into slavery. It is not a matter of trade; it is the extension of United States territory. The workmen of Canada, the farmers of that country, do not realize that their labor will be pitted against the 12,000,000 from all climes that are a menace to America. Take down the tariff wall and your work and wages will be on the basis of the cheap foreigner. Don't for a moment imagine this country is as it was twenty, yes, ten years ago.

The influx of settlers from the older countries, with their hatred of Britain has during recent years completely subdued any fraternal feeling that might be expressed along Anglo-Saxon lines. We are not people of a similar lineage. The politics of this country are controlled by the votes of Asiatics, by dwellers along the Mediterranean, the votes of Poles and Slavs, Bohunks, Honyocks—a very unstable element with which to form a treaty. The natural born American of Anglo-Saxon parentage is all that a man should be, but he is in a very great minority and does not cut much of a figure in an election.

"Canada is at the parting of the ways." We on this side of the line, sons of the Maple Leaf, are watching the crisis with bated breath. Don't be a traitor to your country—vote for the land that bore you—vote that the millions yet unborn will find Canada unfettered and unshackled—a star in the galaxy of nations—not a slave and hireling bearing the brand of the conqueror.

Correspondent Points On Some Facts About the Proposed Treaty which Seem to Have Escaped the Telegraph

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir.—In coming in on the train I picked up the Telegraph and the first thing I saw was an interview with Senator King which is stated that he had just come from the West.

The interview goes on to say that the Senator travelled through the wheat fields and that the crop would exceed 500,000,000 bushels.

Now we might ask Senator King or any other man how he hopes to extend that market, by free trade with a country that has a surplus and helps supply the same market.

Not one bushel more wheat will be consumed by the world whether we have reciprocity or not.

If Canada keeps opening up her wheat fields in time the wheat market will become glutted, and reciprocity will change their policy.

BACHE'S WEEKLY REVIEW

New York, Aug. 5.—The sentiment in financial circles seems to have undergone a change during the week.

In fact, the Steel Corporation for the present week scheduled 76 per cent of its output capacity for operations.

The movement of steel and iron are made ahead, sometimes far ahead, of those in other sections of the business body.

We have before referred to the conditions prevailing in the cotton mills industry.

We have a limited quantity of this stock for sale, it pays 6 per cent. dividend on a half-yearly basis.

the cause and to place the blame where it belongs. Reorganization and Disorganization.

"Above all, it is important to consider that the decisions against the trusts will have a greater bearing on the American economic life than one would feel inclined to conclude at first sight.

Until the plans of the Standard Oil Company and the American Tobacco Company were announced, the country had given the credit of a favorable influence on other trade.

The effect upon the business of these companies by the disintegration which is to follow, must be unfavorable.

On any other pronounced decline, however, it looks as if good stocks may be bought with an unusual minimum of risk.

LIQUIDATION IN THE STOCK MARKET

New York, N. Y., Aug. 5.—On the resumption of operations in the stock market today evidence of further liquidation was speedily forthcoming.

The country is fortunately on a sound basis in most of its essential requirements. Bank deposits and bank reserves are satisfactory.

New York, Aug. 5.—The opening of today's stock market witnessed the heaviest volume of liquidation that has been seen since the beginning of the recent movement.

Marathons, 9; Woodstock, 0. On Saturday afternoon on the Marathon grounds over three thousand people witnessed one of the most interesting and exciting games played this season.

For a bunch of unreasonable kickers the Woodstock team took the bonnet for the season. Some of the players were not only out with a kick but they backed it up with insulting language.

A great deal had been heralded about the province about the new Woodstock pitcher named Moser and he has been boosted by the Woodstock fans as being a Boston American league wonder.

In fact Moser was one of the displaced persons, as there was no time in the game but that the Greeks had the best of the battle. When they started to bat the wonder and make runs Moser showed his displeasure by kicking and others in the team followed suit.

Evans is without a doubt the best umpire seen on a local diamond, and he knows the game from the start to the finish. His decisions are upheld by the fans, as he shows no favoritism to any team and will not stand for wrong doing by any of the players.

At the end of the eighth inning the score stood 6 to 2 in favor of the Marathons; and as the Woodstock players came into bat in the ninth inning, Keanev, the shortstop, took occasion to walk up to the umpire and say, "You're running this whole game, and you're a bum."

RACES WERE FAIRLY GOOD

The races at Moosepath on Saturday afternoon drew a fairly large crowd, about nine hundred being in attendance. The races proved exciting at times and there were a few bright spots, but as a whole they were not of the hair-raising variety.

Both the winners in the two events took the three heats of their events. Gallagher appeared to have it comparatively easy in the Free-for-all in the first heat he romped away from the crowd shortly after the signal and left Charley King and the others to sulk the horses.

The second heat went to Gallagher, with Thoughtful and Charley King in second and third places respectively. Gallagher took first in the final heat and Charley King and Thoughtful again landed second and third.

The following is the list of players already sent in to Harry M. Blair, the league secretary at Frederickton. The full list could not be obtained yesterday of the players who are signed on the Frederickton team.

The St. John City Rifle Club held their weekly spoon match Saturday afternoon at the rifle range. There was a large attendance.

The cause and to place the blame where it belongs. Reorganization and Disorganization. The somewhat pessimistic feeling which prevailed this week and still continues, and to which reference was made in the opening paragraph, was due to a first and second cause.

The second cause was, following this attitude of anxiety produced by the stock market apparent weakness, a serious consideration of the Standard Oil and Tobacco disorganization. We continue to give direct employment to more than 80,000 men.

PROPOSED CHANGES IN CIVIC TAX SYSTEM

To be Recommended to Common Council at Meeting Today, by Committee on Mayor's Inaugural Address.

At the meeting of the Common Council this afternoon the committee on the Mayor's inaugural address will submit a lengthy report dealing with the question of revising the taxation system of the city by removing the taxes from improvements and business and placing them on land values. One of the aldermen said yesterday that the report will recommend that after January 1st, 1913, a reduction of 25 per cent. be made in the taxes on buildings, and the difference be made up by a corresponding increase of the tax on land; that three years later a further increase of 25 per cent. of the tax on land with a corresponding reduction of 25 per cent. of the tax on buildings be made, and that this process be continued till the burden of taxation has been placed on land values.

The committee will further recommend that a committee be appointed to take up the question of inducing the county to increase its taxes on land values, with the object of obliging the parishes to contribute a larger proportion of the county taxes than they do at present. They will recommend that the city take up at once the question of selling all its lands not used for public purposes, and that the legislature be asked for authority to appoint a Royal Commission to deal with long leases as they lapse. One recommendation that is likely to cause some controversy is that the city should tax all church lands, a rather radical proposal as the churches now pay no taxes of any kind. In regard to the disposal of the city lands they will recommend that a special committee of the council be constituted for this purpose, and that all parties holding leases of city lots at the present time be given the option of purchasing such lots at a valuation to be determined by the land committee or by arbitration. Before proceeding to sell the city lands this committee shall be empowered to prepare a general plan of the city lands, and to reserve such lots as it may be deemed advisable to hold for public purposes, such as the creation of parks, playgrounds, squares, or breathing places, all other lots and vacant lots to be offered for sale and disposed of as soon as possible.

In regard to the method of effecting the proposed changes in the city's assessment system the committee will recommend that a permanent board of arbitrators be appointed, to which all disputes which might arise out of the change could be referred. In order that the change in the taxation system may be carried out the committee will recommend that the legislature be asked to repeal the act fixing the rate of assessment at $1.88 for five years.

Other Business. The market committee will recommend that a claim of Joseph Belcher for $7.92 on account of a tub of butter which disappeared from the market on the 27th day of May be paid. The ferry committee will ask that they be authorized to give an excursion on the Governor Carleton when ready for service, and that any expense connected with the same be paid from the Ferry Fund. They will also recommend that they be allowed $42,500 on account of the new ferryboat and be empowered to increase the wages of the mates and toll collectors. A petition will be presented from the residents of Newman street praying that the street may be graded and asphalt sidewalk laid on the north side between Adelaide and Durham streets.

Ald. Hayes will give notice of motion to issue debentures to cover cost of improvements already ordered. The following communications will be received: From H. S. Forbes, stating that he has been retained by Mrs. Mary King to ask for compensation for damage to her property caused by overflow of sewer. From C. H. V. Belyea, stating that he has been retained by Mrs. Myrtle Cox to present a claim for damages in consequence of her being struck by a ball thrown by persons playing on the street. From the secretary of No. 1 Salvage Corps notifying the council that Gordon S. Brown has ceased to be a member of the Corps.

He Thought He Had 'Em. A longshoreman had an exciting few moments on Reed's Point wharf yesterday morning. With some other men he was seated on a log discussing the live topics of the day when suddenly he gave a scream, grasped his trouser leg and called for help. A rat from under the wharf had run up the man's trouser leg. With both hands the man squeezed the rat and when a companion pulled it out it had been squeezed to death. The longshoreman was given quite a fright and the affair caused a laugh from his companions.

Mrs. Robert Lee. The funeral of Mrs. Robert Lee took place yesterday afternoon from her late home, Protection street, West End, and was largely attended. The remains were conveyed to St. George's church where the service was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Sampson. Interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Catherine Stackhouse. On Saturday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Catherine Stackhouse took place from her late residence, 14 High street. The funeral services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. Clifford Clarke, and interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

ENGINEERS IMPRESSED BY COURTENAY BAY

Think Specifications for Courtenay Bay Works Unreasonable, but Say Their Firm Will Tender.

In company with Mayor Frink and T. H. Estabrooks, president of the Board of Trade, C. J. Armstrong and Brooks, engineers representing the Jackson Construction Company, which built the docks at Simon's Town, South Africa, inspected the harbor, and looked over the situation at Courtenay Bay on Saturday. They expressed the view that the conversion of Courtenay Bay into a shipping port and the construction of a dry dock there, would not be a difficult undertaking, and said that their company would probably tender for the work. They added, however, that the specifications calling for tenders were unreasonable, as few construction companies were equipped for dredging on an extensive scale, and building wharves and dry docks. Such companies, moreover, were not in the habit of building and operating dry docks, and it might be difficult to find any company which could finance all the works to be done at Courtenay Bay. They said their company would not be bothered by the fact that the contractor is required to put up a deposit of half a million dollars. The engineers who are expert geologists, took a trip out past the Reformatory and examined the rock deposits in the vicinity. They also visited the Bay Shore and inspected the dredging being done by John E. Moore. Mr. Brooks expressed the opinion that the wharves at Courtenay Bay would not be built any too soon.

A BOY SCOUT MEETS DEATH IN LONG LAKE

William B. Stong, Member of Camping Party, Drowned Saturday — Companion Attempts Gallant Rescue.

There was a very sad drowning accident at Long Lake on Saturday morning. The victim was William B. Stong, eldest son of Charles D. Stong, chief clerk of the C. P. R. Passenger Department, who resides at 104 Wright street. The young fellow was a member of the Boy Scouts connected with the St. Paul's church, and with about eight others was spending the week at the Scout quarters at Long Lake, which is about a mile and a half off the Sandy Point road.

L. P. Cathels was in charge of the party, and Saturday morning, having some business to attend to, and wishing to procure some additional provisions, Mr. Cathels came into the city. In the lake there are four boats, one called the home, another first base, then a second base and the third base. These boats are about twenty feet apart and it has been a custom for the boys who were able to swim between these boats taking a rest as they reached each boat.

After Mr. Cathels left the camp on Saturday morning about 9:30 o'clock young Stong, with a few other scouts, went in for a swim. He reached the first boat and after a rest, he started out for the second. The boats are about twenty feet apart. He had not proceeded very far when he became distressed and called for help. A companion named R. McKee, who resides on Douglas Avenue, went to his assistance and caught hold of the lad, who seemed to be in an exhausted condition. Young McKee made a brave effort to save his companion and had almost reached the shore after sinking twice with him, when Stong left his hold, sank, and was drowned.

The alarm was given and about half an hour later Fred Peacock, by the use of two poles lashed together, managed to raise the body. Dr. Frank Hogan was summoned and it is stated that a weak heart was the cause of young Stong becoming exhausted. The body was brought to his father's home on Wright street. There will be no inquest. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The deceased was a very bright young fellow. Had he lived until next November he would have been 16 years of age. He was a favorite with a large circle of companions. His family have the deepest sympathy of the public in their sad bereavement. He was the oldest child in the family, and besides his parents leaves three brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Frank, Fred and Murray, and the sisters are Mary, Jean and Kathleen.

Mrs. Jos. Lankey of Peter street, has returned to the city from South Bay, where she has been visiting Mrs. Robt. Maxwell.

Mrs. B. G. Wines of Montreal, a granddaughter of the late Sir Leonard Tilley, is on a visit to Wm. H. Purdy at Purdy's Point on the St. John river.
