MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.
THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.
THE GREAT INTERNAL AND INTERNAL REMEDY.
STOPS THE MOST EXHAUSTING PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES.
EASILY CURES THE PATIENT.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
Proves its superiority to all other Remedies at once.
ITS FIRST INDICATION
Is to relieve the sufferer from any matter from whatever it may originate, or where it may be seated.
If in the Head, Face, or Throat;
If in the Back, Spine, or Shoulder;
If in the Arms, Elbows, or Wrists;
If in the Joints, Limbs, or Nerves;
If in the Nerves, Teeth, or Gums;
Or in any other part of the body, its application to the part or parts where the pain exists will afford immediate relief.

IF RELIEVED WITH PAIN
In the Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys;
In the Bladder, Spine, or Liver;
In the Teeth, Ears, or Throat;
In the Brain or Nervous System;

One teaspoonful of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to a wineglass of water will, in a few minutes, restore the patient to ease and comfort.
If Fever, Chills, or Delirium;
If Lame, Cramps, or Stiffness;
If Painful, Swollen, or Burned;
If Bruised, Wounded, or Cut;
If Headache, or Stomach Pain;
If Weak, or Exhausted.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
should be applied to the part or parts affected. It instantly relieves the patient from pain, and quickly breaks, soothes, and strengthens the broken system. In all cases of Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Stings of Poisonous Insects, the application of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to the wound will prevent inflammation, and mortification.

FEVER AND AGUE.
Persons exposed to the Malaria of a swamp, or if infected with Chills and Fever, will find a positive and safe cure in Radway's Ready Relief. It breaks up the malarial fever, and restores the patient to health, and prevents a relapse.

WHICH NEEDS WITH
CHOLERA, or Cholerae, or Fever;
Dysentery, Cholera, and Spasms;
Erysipelas, or Stomachic, or Cholera;
Scarlet, Typhoid, or other Fevers;
Ergotism, or Stomachic, or Cholera;
Indigestion of the Stomach, or Bowels.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
SHOULD BE TAKEN INTERNALLY.
One dose will stop the pain; its continued use will, in a few hours, cure the patient.

HOW IT CURES.
The secondary indication of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is to cure the patient of the disease or relapse that occasions the pain; this it accomplishes rapidly and rationally. As soon as the patient is freed from pain, the system is restored to its normal state, and the patient is enabled to enjoy the full benefit of the system.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED.
Twenty Years of Suffering.
Wm. Sydney Myers, Esq., of Havana, Cuba, the correspondent of the London Times, suffered with Acute and Chronic Rheumatism for twenty-five years, and for twenty years he had not enjoyed one night's sleep. He applied RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, and immediately gave him ease and secured him the first night's undisturbed sleep during the twenty years. The continued use of the READY RELIEF cured him.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.
THERE IS NO OCCASION FOR SCIZING.
When you first feel pain, take a teaspoonful of the READY RELIEF in water, apply it to the parts where you feel the discomfort.

ALL MAINTAINMENT DISBARS.
First give warning of their presence, and if they are not cured, they become a permanent habit of the system, will be readily expelled.

"JESUS CALLED THEM"

The following beautiful lines have poured from upon many wounded hearts mourning their little ones. They evidently form only a fragment of the original:

They are going—only going
Out of pain and into bliss,
Out of sad and sinful weakness
Into perfect holiness.
Snowy brows—no care shall shade them;
Bright eyes—tears shall never dim;
Rosy lips—no time shall fade them;
Jesus called them unto Him.

Little hearts forever stainless—
Little hands as pure as they—
Little feet by angels guided—
Never a forbidden way!
They are going—ever going!
Leaving many a lonely spot;
But 'tis Jesus who has called them—
Suffer, and forbid them not.

I COME.

"Oh! Love Divine, I come!
I lay my sin and unbelief,
My hardened heart, my story grief,
At thy dear feet with sweet relief,
And will no longer roam.

"Oh! boundless Love, I come!
Long have I thought with dread on thee;
Long have I feared thy face to see;
But now thou'rt all in all to me—
My everlasting home!

Eternal love, I come!
But I am weak, and still may stray
The night succeeds the noontide ray;
But thou wilt guide me in the way,
And lead me to my home."

SCENE IN A POLICE COURT.—The prisoner in this case, whose name was Dicky Swivel, alias "Stove-Pipe Peter," was placed at the bar, and questioned by the Judge to the following effect:—

"Bring the prisoner into court," said the Judge.

"Here I is, bound to blaze, as the spirits of turpentine said when it was all afire.
How do you live?"

"I'm particular, as the oyster said, when they axed him if he'd be fried or roasted."
"We don't want to hear what the oyster said, or the spirit of turpentine either. What do you follow?"

"Anything that comes in my way, as the locomotive said when he run over the little nigger."

"We don't care anything about the locomotive. What is your business?"
"That's various, as the cat said when she stole the chicken off the plate."
"That comes near the line, I suppose."

"Together in my line, as the rope said when it was chocking the pirate."
"If I hear any more absurd comparisons, I will give you twelve months."

"I am done, as the bee-steak said to the cook."
"Now, sir, your punishment shall depend on the shortness and correctness of your answers. I suppose you live by going round the docks?"

"No, sir, I can't go round the docks without a boat, and I ain't got none."
"Answer me; how do you get your bread?"
"Sometimes at the baker's and sometimes I eat taters."

"No more of your stupid insolence. How do you support yourself?"
"Sometimes on my legs and sometimes on my cheer (chair)."

"I order you to answer this question correctly. How do you do?"

"Pretty well thank you, judge; how do you do?"

"I shall have to commit you."
"Vel, you'd commit yourself, fast, that's one consolation."

My Labor-Saving Husband.

Some husbands are more plague than profit, and make vastly more work than they do; but mine is one to brag about. When I was married, to my shame, I had never made a loaf of bread or a pie. I had no idea of saving time or saving work. But I had a husband who had love enough for me to bear with my simplicity, and not scold when the bread was burned and the pies not fit to eat.

Going into the kitchen one morning, he saw me baking buck-wheat cakes, and greasing the griddle with a piece of pork on a fork. He said nothing, but went into the wood-house; and soon returned with a smoothly-whittled stick, about six inches long, through the split end of which he had passed a folded strip of white and flannel, and tied it with a bit of string. So I had a contrivance which could be dipped in melted grease, and put smoothly over the griddle.

One day he saw me scoring knives with a piece of cloth. "Dear me!" said he, "you will surely out your fingers." So he contrived a machine by nailing a broad piece of cork to a spool for a handle, sinking the head of the nail into the cork so far that it should not touch the knife. This lifts the hand from the knife and does not cramp the fingers.

I used to call him occasionally to thwack over the heavy mattress and straw-bed for me. "What a nuisance!" he exclaimed, and so replaced them by a spring mattress. Of all the nice things for beds, this is the best. It is always in place, requires no shaking up, and it takes only three minutes to replace the bed-ticks, and the bed is made. It always looks neat and inviting, and gently yields to the weight of the sleeper.

He saw the dish-towels hanging helter skelter around the kitchen stove, and forthwith made the most convenient hanging-frames over the wood-box, where it can take up no room and is near the stove. Here the towels hang smoothly, and are always in place.

I fretted because my refrigerator had no shelves, and I could not make room enough for all the meat, butter and milk. So he made two racks, and fitted ventilated shelves from the one to the other. The shelves are ventilated by being bored thick with auger-holes, and can be removed for scrubbing.

He is troubled to see me sew, and stitch, and makes sewing-machines the constant subject of conversation. He reads to me every advertisement and every letter from women who promise him in the papers. If he could make one I should be in possession of it immediately; but as he cannot, I must wait till "ship comes in." These are some of the ways by which he lightens the labors of the house. Would that more husbands were like him. Perhaps I shall tell you some other time how he contrives his own garden tools, and saves time and money by his ingenuity.

COMMUNICATION.
To the Editor of the Standard.
SIR,
In reply to your remarks in the Standard of the 20th inst., I beg to give an extract from the Adjutant General's letter in answer to one from me of the 8th inst.
"Fredericton, Sep 29, 1865.
"Sir,
I am directed by His Excellency the Commander in Chief to inform you that Lieut. Col. Boyd does not approve of your commanding a Volunteer Company, and that the question must remain in abeyance until the return of His Excellency the Hon. A. Gordon."
Now Sir, if men and officers form a good company equip and qualify themselves, and offer their services to the Commander in Chief, and are kept for months without being acknowledged simply because some person from caprice does not approve of their Captain, it will have a tendency to destroy any military ardor which exists in the community. The men of my company will wait patiently until His Excellency returns, and I am sure they will be at once acknowledged.
It follows from this date, there will be no drill of the men or militia officers, until further orders from the Commander in Chief.
I am,
Your Obedt. Servt.
EDWARD PHILLIPS,
Captain C. C. Militia.

ST. ANDREWS—SEP. 27, 1865.

We give below the first of our Correspondent's letters from Canada. Having only arrived at Montreal on Saturday night, its contents principally refer to the passage, &c. His second letter we trust, will appear in our next issue.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

MONTREAL, Sept. 23, 1865.

DEAR STANDARD,

At the date of my present writing, I can only give you an account of my passage hither. It is somewhat surprising that the only person coming to represent Charlotte County, besides your unworthy correspondent, was Jas. Boyd, Esq., M. P. At Eastport we met and joined the visitors from other parts of the Province and from Nova Scotia; amounting, in all to about 40. The passage to Portland was barren of incident, but very productive of sea-sickness, much to the disgust of the ladies, who occupied every couch, and most of the floor of the forward saloon.
At six o'clock on Saturday morning we reached Portland, and at once proceeded to the Grand Trunk Railway Station, where the majority of the visitors were informed by an agent despatched to meet them on behalf of the Railway authorities, that a delegation from Montreal would be in Portland at eleven o'clock in the forenoon to conduct them to Montreal, and that a special car was reserved for that purpose.
Some, however, had already taken the train before they learned these facts. The passes given by John Boyd, Esq., were, by this agent, exchanged for a pass which allows the holder to travel over any part of the Grand Trunk Line.
At seven o'clock we left Portland for Montreal. The land along the American section of the railway, particularly in Maine, presented evidences of successful cultivation and enterprise, thrifty little towns and villages meeting the eye at every three, four, or five miles. The scenery in Maine was pleasantly diversified, hill and dale, meadows, brooks, and rivers, fast succeeded each other; in New Hampshire the land appeared rather barren and the scenery tame; in Vermont, however, the "Green Mountain" state, the change was very marked, their summits, crowned with thick foliage, bold barren cliffs, and deep valleys seemed at first sight almost to preclude the possibility of building a railway in such a country.
A little after three o'clock, we reached the Boundary Line, at a point where the face of the country was not particularly pleasing. But an hour's ride brought us to Waterville, a thriving country town; the first of any considerable size which we saw; from Waterville onwards we were alike charmed by the beauty of the scenery and the abundant evidences of prosperity, thrift, and enterprise, afforded by the country on both sides of the line. We passed in rapid succession, Lennoxville, Sherbrooke, and Brompton Falls; I wish that St. Andrews may, even ten years hence, make as favorable an appearance as Sherbrooke, and shew as many signs of business activity as Brompton Falls.
The two latter places, with Windsor and Richmond, are situated on the St. Francis, a charmingly beautiful river, whose windings the railway follows for over thirty miles. After passing these places the shades of night fell and precluded all further view of the scenery. We arrived at Montreal about nine o'clock, and put up at the St. Lawrence Hall, a splendid hotel.
In great haste to catch the mail, I shall pause for the present here.
Yours,
W.

THE MISSION TO ENGLAND.—The people are waiting patiently to learn the result of the mission of Messrs. Allen and Smith, to the British Government, and whether they succeeded in convincing Mr. Cardwell, that the people of New Brunswick preferred annexation to the States to Confederation with Canada; some are inclined to believe that the delegates became converts to the views of the Cabinet as expressed through the minister, and that Messrs. Allen and Smith are most anxious to comply with the wishes of the Imperial Government and nation—and perpetuate British connection. Is it not just possible that they were aware of the change in public sentiment, and gracefully put on the robes of office. Their success may be judged of by reference to the dispatch of the Rt. Hon. Mr. Cardwell, published in our last week's edition.
The "Morning Journal" says that a new paper will shortly be published in Charlotte County, under high editorial management. We heard that our young friend Mr. Main, intended starting a journal at St. Stephen; he will, I think, with him considerable experience in journalism—and is a clever writer.
The Sessions.—Owing to the number of cases tried in the Court of Common Pleas, the General Sessions did not commence until Thursday last. Justice Fitzgerald was appointed chairman, and pushed on the business with celerity. It was adjourned from Saturday to Thursday, to-morrow; when those who require license must apply, or remain without until April next.
His Excellency the Lieut. Governor, Hon. A. H. Gordon, was to be married in England, on Thursday last, and with his usual generosity had previously ordered that the inmates of the Almshouses in St. John and Fredericton, should be provided with a bountiful dinner on that day. The order was faithfully carried out, and gave much satisfaction. It cannot be doubted that his Excellency will now strongly advocate for the Provinces what he has shewn so laudable a preference for, a "Union."

There surely can be no doubt now with reference to "Western Extensions" The Executive have agreed to grant the subsidy of $10,000 a mile to the Company which with the stock gives the Company about $1,000,000 Capital. Mr. Skinner the Secretary, and Mr. Burpee, C. E. proceeded on Monday to the States for the building of the road. The stock for building the line from Bangor to the boundary, had not been secured, but the prospect for raising the amount of $400,000 is represented favorably.
A respected correspondent at St. George, at our instance, has furnished a full report of the Militia Muster and Dinner at that romantic village, investing the proceedings with an interest quite refreshing at such displays. It occurs to us that he might have concluded his report with an apt quotation from Burns. But to the account of the Saint George General Muster and Inspection.
On the Morning of Wednesday the 20th Inst., the First Division of the Second Battalion of the Charlotte County Militia comprising two Companies of Volunteers in full uniform with Arms, under command of Captains Bolton and Bogue, and nine Battalion Companies under command of Captains Ludgate, Knight, Spoor, McVicar, McLean, Gillmor, Boyd, O'Brien and Baldwin were mustered on Broadway, St. George, to be inspected by staff officers—Col. Wetmore, Majors Mann and Johnston and Adjutant McGee. There were about five hundred rank and file upon the ground and we are happy to say that upon the rolls the number of absentees was found to be inconsiderable, after roll call the men were marched to a field in the immediate neighbourhood which Mr. McCallum had kindly granted for the occasion. Here they fell into line and underwent a minute and thorough inspection. It was gratifying to hear our energetic Colonel and other able officers expressing the highest satisfaction with the appearance of the men, and bestowing the most unqualified praise at the manner in which they had turned out. The stalwart sons of the woods presented an admirable and imposing front and almost reminded one of the famed Ironsides of Oliver Cromwell; they went through their various military evolutions with a precision and neatness, highly creditable to themselves, their officers and Sergeant-Major Quin, their indefatigable instructor; forming line, opening ranks, and saluting, advancing and retiring in line; forming quarter distance column in rear of No. 1 Company, deploying into line on No. 1 Company, opening column right in front, closing quarter distance on leading Company, opening out wheeling distance and wheeling into line. The whole Battalion at the conclusion of the review, formed fours right and were marched off the parade to be dismissed. Throughout the day the weather continued exceedingly fine, and by no means the most attractive part of the spectacle were the numbers of "fair women" whom the programme of the day had attracted to the scene. In looking round upon the gentlemen who crowded the ground, we detected the presence of several veterans who in days gone by had fought under the national flag.

and we could not but feel as we witnessed the enthusiasm with which the military spectacle lighted up many an aged eye, that "brave men" were not wanting, should any peculiar emergency demand it who would joyfully consecrate even the feeble arm and tottering limb to the service of their Country.
THE DINNER.
After the pleasant duties of the day were brought to a close, the officers entertained several gentlemen at a sumptuous dinner in the Masonic Hall; the dinner was provided by Mrs. Lyuott and did ample justice to her skill in the culinary art. Col. Wetmore occupied the chair, supported on the right by the Rev. J. McGivern, Rector of St. George and on the left by Major Johnston, the crozier's chair was filled by Major Mann, supported on the right by the Rev. J. J. Home, E. C. S. and on the left by Capt. Bolton, among the guests present we were happy to observe the highly respected Dy. Treasurer, A. J. Wetmore, Esq., and the American Consul, Mr. Sprague, grace having been said by the Rev. J. McGivern, the most ample justice was done to the material with which the tables were loaded. The Rev. J. Home returned thanks. After the usual loyal toasts from the chair which were given by the esteemed chairman, and received by the Company in true British style, the following toasts were given and cordially responded to.
The officers of the Battalion, by Rev. J. McGivern, replied to by Major Mann.
The Volunteer Force, by A. J. Wetmore, Esq., replied to by Adj. McGee.
The Vice Chairman, by Lieut. Hall, replied to by Adj. McGee.
The Clergy, by the Chairman, replied to by Rev. J. McGivern.
The Public officers of St. George, by Captain Ludgate, replied to by A. J. Wetmore, Esq.
The Memory of Shakespeare, Burns and Moore, by the Rev. J. Home.
The Ladies, by Major Johnston, replied to by Ensign McGee.
Peace and Prosperity to New Brunswick, by Capt. Bogue, &c. &c. &c.
After a few hours unalloyed enjoyment the Company separated highly delighted with the afternoon's entertainment.
In the Evening the officers entertained the Volunteers at a Ball in the Armory, which had been gaily and tastefully decorated for the occasion.
The Municipal Council of Carleton Co., has expressed itself favorable to assessing the County for the support of schools. This is a step in the right direction, and must shortly be followed by other Counties. Free schools and well qualified teachers are required.
We received this morning a copy of the "Annual Returns of Trade and Navigation for the Province of New Brunswick." It is a pamphlet of 148 pages. We have not time at this late hour to do more than acknowledge its receipt.
Our thanks are due to Mr. Alexander, of the Eastern Express, for late Boston papers.

FROM THE STATES.

The channel fleet has left Portsmouth for the Irish coast, but Fenianism had nothing to do with its movement.
The British Parliament had been again prorogued.
The Fenian movement continued to cause some apprehension.
The Canadian Session has just closed. Nothing has been done by the Legislature about Confederation, Fortifications, Canals, Northwest Territory, or any of those great questions which it was thought would come up. Previous to prorogation the Speaker of the popular branch made an address to the Governor, saying among other things:—
The important Despatches which have been presented to Parliament by Your Excellency's command concerning the Confederation of the British North American Provinces, will, doubtless, contribute to enlighten and instruct the public mind to which they relate. Although the time has not yet arrived for further legislative action upon the subject, it may, nevertheless, be confidently anticipated that the discussions which have taken place in Parliament during the present Session will help forward the accomplishment of this great project upon the success of which the future career of British North America must wholly depend.
For a while the old stereotyped cry of "hard times" is really inapplicable in our city. Business in all branches has revived, and continues very good, better than has been known for years. Besides the customary visits of Western traders, there has been a large influx of buyers from the United States; and with the unwonted demands upon their stocks, the shelves of our merchants are getting very bare; it being difficult, in many instances, to get up orders. There will be considerable importations from Britain in the next two or three weeks, to fill orders yet un supplied. It will be necessary, now that trade has really improved, to use some little caution and discrimination, lest merchants become too sanguine and plunge into the speculations that have embarrassed and almost ruined them in past years. [Montreal Witness.]

If ever a country had cause to appoint a day of special thanksgiving it is Canada this year. With an abundant crop gathered in fine condition, with commerce and manufactures eminently prosperous, and with health and peace in all our borders, how can our rulers neglect to appoint a day for special manifestations of gratitude to the Giver of every good gift? We are asked to suggest this important topic early in view of the approaching departure of His Excellency the Governor-General, in order that arrangements may be made before he leaves for holding the day at whatever time may be deemed the best.—Since writing the above we learn that Wednesday, the 18th October, has been appointed as a day of thanksgiving; for which the Government is deserving of much credit, as we are pleased to learn, the act was quite spontaneous.—[Ibid.]

[From the New York Herald.]

THE FENIAN ORGANIZATION IN THE NORTHERN STATES.—We learn from reliable sources that the Fenian organization in the Northern States numbers two hundred and twenty one thousand men. The men are openly pledged to move any day on the great question of Ireland, and to aid and assist in that noble undertaking. It is also stated that a number of subaltern officers from the Army of the Potomac are now in Ireland drilling the people and preparing them for the coming struggle. Only about fifty of these officers have left this country for Ireland within a few months. If so few liberty loving spirits can produce such a profound sensation in England as now prevails, setting the government, the press and British subjects in a state of alarm, what will be the effect when two hundred thousand similar souls, all animated by the same glorious sentiment—the freedom of Old Erin—shall land upon the soil of Ireland?

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENTS.—A "Royal Gazette Extra" contained the following Government appointments:
Hon. Mr. Justice Robert Parker to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in place of Sir James Carter, resigned. A. M., for master, and Hon. John C. Allen to be a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court.
Hon. Albert J. Smith to be Attorney General in the place Hon. J. C. Allen, appointed one of the Judges of the Supreme Court.
The Fall Trade of our City, as regards Dry Goods, has opened briskly. One of our Dry Goods merchants, whose firm has always enjoyed an enormous trade with all parts of the Lower Provinces, informs that the business of their establishment will greatly exceed last year's. The firm's orders have already been duplicated. Having cleared the St. John and Halifax markets of sugar, molasses, soda, &c., the Americans are buying largely of Dry Goods. They have been operating extensively in the same way in Canada, and the prospect at present seems to be that, far years to come, they will be important customers of Colonial merchants.—[Telegraph.]

DEATH OF MR. HOULTON.—We are pained to announce the death of James Houlton, Esq., which occurred at one o'clock this morning—the result of an attack of dysentery, from which he has been suffering for some weeks. He was about 81 years of age, was one of the first settlers of this town, and a most respected citizen.—[Houlton Times.]

—Domestic magazines—wives who are always "blowing-up" their husbands.
—The sporting season out West is just opening, and much commotion is observed among knights of the rainbow. Prairie chickens are found in unusual abundance.
—The five leading editors of New York are of Celtic origin. Raymond is of Welch descent; Greeley is of Irish stock; Bennett is a Scotch Celt; Bryant of the Post, and Charles Moran, of the Commercial Advertiser, are also of Irish origin.
—IMMIGRATION.—The New British steamer Queen, which arrived at New York last week, brought between fourteen and fifteen hundred passengers, which is said to be the greatest human cargo ever brought across the Atlantic. The Queen made the trip in eleven days, and reports not a single case of sickness on board. The price of passage averages about $40, making a total for the voyage of $58,000 or thereabouts.
—There is but little disposition manifested now to speculate in oil wells, and those who ever disposed to speculate. Never did so bold a series of speculation collapse so soon. Those who are engaged in the business have learned by this time that there is no royal road to wealth.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling through the South in secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:—
"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."
Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address
