TWO LONDON YOUTHS VICTIMS OF DOUBLE DROWNING AT PORT

Irving Penny, 642 Waterloo Street, and Jack McPhail, 9 Grafton Street, Lose Their Lives When Canoe Upsets Half a Mile East of West Breakwater In Rough Sea.

Two Londoners, Irving Penny, 642 Waterloo street, and Jack McPhail, 9 Grafton street, are believed to have lost their lives in a double drowning accident at Port Stanley yesterday, when the canoe in which they were paddling capsized a half a mile east of the new breakwater, and an equal distance south of Orchard Beach.

Identity is still doubtful, as the bodies have not yet been found, but the fact that Messrs. Penny and McPhail are still missing, and also that they answer the description of the two who rented the canoe, has led their friends and relatives to give up all hope.

HAT IS McPHAIL'S.

A panama hat, with a plaid green band, which was washed ashore at the time the drowning occurred, has been identified as Mr. McPhail's. The hat was picked up by a launch owned by J. H. Chapman, of this city, and is now in the custody of Chief of Police Fulton, of Port Stanley.

Despite the fact that the accident occurred yesterday afternoon it was late this morning before even a semblance of identification of the two victims was made possible. The hundreds of summer cottagers and week-end visitors at Port made it impossible to say just who the missing men were.

WORST FEARS REALIZED.

When, however, Mr. McPhail, an employee of the City Hydro-Electric Department, failed to report for duty, and Mr. Penny, one of the Bell Telephone employees, also failed to report, suspicions that they were the two were confirmed. Both were expected home last night, and their non-arrival, coupled with the story of the Port Stanley accident, caused the gravest fears for their safety. These fears grew to positive acknowledgment of their death this morning.

Ed. Penny, a brother of the missing Irving Penny, together with Floyd McPhail, a brother of the other supposed victim, left for Port Stanley the first thing this morning. By noon they gave up all hope of their brothers' safety, and shortly after 1 o'clock made arrangements for dragging to start.

BEACHES AND LAKE PATROLLED.

All morning the beaches were patrolled, while nearly a score of launches and tugs scoured the lake seeking a trace of the bodies. None were found. As a last recourse dragging was started.

Rumors of the discovery of one of the bodies on Orchard Beach reached London at noon, but proved false. Since the tragedy of Sunday the wildest of stories have been in circulation. Among others was a story that a young man had fallen off the dock last night in the excitement following the double drowning. This story received

The victims are described by Sam James, the boat-house man, from whom they rented a canoe at 2:30 in the afternoon, as being both young, one was tall and slight, and had light hair. The other was of medium height. Mr. James does not make a practice of taking the names of those who rent boats, and had no record of their names. The description of the tall, fair-haired man tallies perfectly with that of Jack McPhail. Coupled with the identification of the hat, it has confirmed the worst fears of his friends.

The youths, it is stated, were warned not to venture out, as the lake was very rough. However, they apparently did not heed the warning, as they went a long distance out, and were watched by hundreds of people along the beach, and from summer homes.

Trouble in Turning. According to Col. W. Green, of St. Thomas, who saw the canoe upset at Orchard Beach, and who watched the youths for some time, they got along nicely until they apparently tried to turn around to come back. They no sooner tried to turn, than their light craft went over.

Instead of clinging to the overturned canoe, and waiting for help to come, both boys were seen to start to swim ashore. The waves were running very high, and those watching lost sight of the swimmers several times. Apparently they only got about forty or fifty yards when both went down.

Col. Green, as soon as he saw the canoe upset, jumped into his automobile, and rushed to the life-saving station to call help. When he arrived he found no one there, and then went to get tugs.

Rescue Party Upsets. In the meantime, Fred A. Bell, son of County Engineer Bell, of St. Thomas, and Arnold Dillon, of London, had started out to try to reach the swimmers, having seen them upset. They had only gone a short distance when their canoe upset, and they had to swim ashore.

As a result of this second accident, wild rumors spread that one of the drowned boys was Fred Bell, of St. Thomas.

The tug Ada May Bell and the tug Hector, belonging to M. H. Hogan, who is building the new breakwater, went out as soon as possible, but could find no trace of the bodies.

Yacht Was Near. At a yacht, in which P. Beach, of St. Thomas and some other young people were riding, was close to the scene of the accident, but owing to the roughness of the water saw nothing of it, and the occupants of the yacht did not learn of the drowning until they arrived in Port. The search was continued until dark, but the waves were so high that little could be done, and it was finally given up until Monday morning.

Anxiety Widespread Here. There was a big week-end crowd down from London and St. Thomas today, and the wildest rumors spread. The names of a score of young Londoners were mentioned as victims, and reports telephoned caused many parents and relatives to go down post haste by auto, only to find that those who had been reported drowned were all right.

There was a good deal of comment over the fact that the life-saving department was not in evidence when it

Jack McPhail, One of Drowning Victims, Said He Might Go to Cleveland.

WAS UNABLE TO SWIM

Young Man Could Not Swim a Stroke—Engaged To Be Married.

All hope for the safety of her son had been abandoned when an Advertiser reporter called at the home of Mrs. L. O. McPhail, 9 Grafton street, mother of Jack McPhail, who with Irving Penny, 642 Waterloo street, was drowned at Port Stanley Sunday.

The reporter was tearfully questioned by the family whether any further particulars had been received from the lake resort, but was unable to throw any further light upon the mysterious disappearance of the young Londoners.

Said Not to Worry.

"I got left home Saturday afternoon to go to Port Stanley with my chum, Mr. Penny," said Mrs. McPhail. "As he was leaving the house he told me that he might decide to go to Cleveland, and that I was not to worry if he did not return before Sunday."

"Saturday afternoon Jack telephoned home and told me that he had decided not to go to Cleveland and that he would be home that night. When he did not come home we were naturally worried, but we thought that at the last moment they had changed their minds and were across the lake."

"I heard nothing of the drowning at the lake until Floyd, my son, called up this morning and asked if Jack had come home. I asked him what was wrong, but he only said that he was coming home."

"When he got to the house he told us of the double drowning at the lake. It's not Jack, mother," he said, "but I'm going down to see if he is alright."

No Mistake in Band. "I knew right away then that something awful had happened. Ed Penny, a brother of Irving, went down to Port Stanley early this morning. A little while ago he phoned us that he had identified Jack's hat. Jack had changed the band only a few days ago to the 'McPhail' plaid. There could be no mistake, as I don't think there are more than one or two in the city."

Could Not Swim.

"I cannot understand what possessed them to go out in a canoe," said Mrs. McPhail, with a catch in her voice. "Jack could not swim a stroke, although he was very fond of canoeing. He was not venturesome, and I do not understand why they would go out into the lake when it was so rough."

Engaged to Marry.

"A particularly sad feature in connection with the accident is that young McPhail was engaged to be married within a few months. A sister, who is employed in the office of the McClary Manufacturing Company, did not know of the drowning this morning. Mrs. McPhail did not wish to acquaint either the sister or the fiancée of the tragedy until it was definitely known that her son was one of the victims."

Mrs. McPhail left this afternoon for Port Stanley in an automobile.

MR. ASQUITH ANNOUNCES KING'S CONFERENCE CALL

Leaders of Ulster Unionists and Nationalists Accept Invitation To Confer With His Majesty Over Home Rule Issue—Discussion Amendnig Bill Postponed.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 20.—Premier Asquith, at the opening of the House of Commons today, announced that King George, in view of the grave political situation, has considered it right to summon a conference of the representatives of the political parties, both British and Irish, to discuss the outstanding points of the problem of Irish Government.

The Premier added that the Right Hon. James Lowther, speaker of the House of Commons, would, at his majesty's request, preside over the conference. In view of this development of the situation, Premier Asquith said he would not ask the House to discuss today the bill to amend the Irish home rule bill.

The invitations to the conference have been accepted by two representatives of the Opposition, of the Ulster Unionists, of the Irish Nationalists and of the Government. Premier Asquith said he hoped the meetings of the conference would begin tomorrow.

Andrew Bonar Law, the leader of the Opposition, on its behalf, remarked that it had "loyally accepted the command" of his majesty.

John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, scarcely appeared to regard the proposed conference as attractive. He said:

"My colleagues and myself take no responsibility for the policy of calling this conference, and I do not think I am called upon to express an opinion as to whether the result will prove useful or the contrary. The invitation came to Mr. Dillon and myself in the form of a command from the King, and as such we at once obeyed it."

Suggests Conspiracy

Laurence Ginnell, a nationalist member, interjected a warning note into the other wise peaceful interchange by asking if there was any precedent for the premier advising the King to "place himself at the head of a conspiracy to defeat the wishes of the house."

The question was ignored and the house then proceeded with other business.

WILL ASK FOR INCREASE IN NUMBER OF LICENSES

Hotelmen Said To Be Preparing Counter Attack to the Proposed License Reduction in London City.

According to statements made to The Advertiser, the hotel and brewery interests of London are preparing to ask for an increase of licenses in this city. It is claimed that the machinery is ready to secure this extension, and that all that is required to put it in motion is the introduction of the proposed license reduction petition of the temperance forces.

It is said that the hotelmen will base their claim for an increase on the fact that London, for a city of nearly 60,000, is insufficiently provided with hotel accommodation, and that there is not provision enough here, in the way of hotel rooms, to adequately care for any large convention or similar attraction that would bring many people to the city.

Toronto, July 20.—The Ontario Government has chosen Mr. Samuel Price, a prominent barrister of St. Thomas, for chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Commission and his appointment will be officially announced this week. MR. ROWELL SPENDS SUNDAY IN LONDON

Liberal Leader Not Discouraged at Result of Last Election.

N. W. Rowell, leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, was in London for the week-end, as the guest of his brother-in-law, B. G. H. Wright.

He declared he was feeling in splendid form, both as regards health and spirits, and that he was not feeling in the least discouraged by the result of the recent election.

While on the surface the results appeared to be bad, he felt that as a matter of fact the outlook was very hopeful. Mr. Rowell pointed out that the gerrymander and the suddenness with which the election was announced had militated against the Liberal party's chances of success, since they have had no proper opportunity to organize.

In support of that contention he referred to the result in the two Brants, where organization had been carried on ever since the new year, and where, as a consequence, Liberals were elected.

Mr. Rowell left for Toronto early this morning.

Drowning Victims Photographed on Port Stanley Beach a Few Hours Before Death

There is pathos in the above picture, taken a few hours before the death of the two London boys, Irving Penny and Jack McPhail, who were drowned at Port Stanley yesterday, taken by Miss Pearl O'Dell, of this city, only a few hours before their deaths. The two young men, as they posed before the camera of their friend, were enjoying their Sunday outing at Port Stanley. Laughingly they posed for the pictures that proved to be the last ever taken of them.

Packing America To Take to Coast

Lieutenant Porte Will Leave For Newfoundland August 1---Tests Show He Can Carry Fuel For 24 Hours.

[Canadian Press.]

Hammondsport, N. Y., July 20.—Lieut. Porte, R.N., pilot of the Rodman Wampanoag flying boat, expects to start for Newfoundland not later than August 1, and the America will go with him. A series of experiments with the flying boat planned for the next few days were dropped, and efforts are being made to have the machine ready for shipment to New York the latter part of this week. This decision evidently was arrived at late last night, when a review of the past performances of the America was made.

During the last week in June the America flew with an estimated net useful load of eighteen hundred and fifty pounds. Oil for eight hours, various instruments and some superfluous lumber aboard the machine were not included in the estimate.

Later when the Langley pontoons were used in conjunction with the original fuselage, the machine was able to carry a useful load of about two thousand pounds. As the America now stands, without installing the third motor, it is believed she can carry Lieut. Porte and George Hedges, his aide, and fuel and oil for 24 hours and another hundred weight of provisions and accessories.

Lieut. Porte, in his attempt at crossing the ocean, hopes to make the Azores Islands in from 17 to 24 hours from Newfoundland, and believes a 24-hour fuel supply is a reasonably safe amount.

Balloons DRIVEN BEFORE FIERCE GALE

Aeronauts Are Injured When Forced to Land on Coast of Wales.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 20.—Exciting landings were made on the Welsh seashore by three of the twenty-four balloons which started in Paris yesterday in the annual race for the prize of the French aeroclub. The balloons had crossed the English channel before a fierce gale and were estimated to descend in order to avoid being driven out to sea.

Spir, one of the pilots, in jumping from the balloon fractured a leg and sustained other injuries. Marcel Foucault and Jean Laurence, two French aeronauts, managed to jump clear and without injury, but lost their balloon, which blew away to sea. Ernest Demuyter and Albert Viennet, two others, landed safely with their craft.

President Wilson Says Business Needs To Be Readjusted.

SIX CHINESE ARRESTED ARE LET GO ON BAIL

Oriental Taken by Police in Sunday Night's Raid Will Appear Thursday.

Arrested in a police raid shortly before midnight last night, six Chinese were arraigned in police court today, charged with a breach of the Lord's Day act. The case was adjourned by Magistrate Judd until Thursday, when the six prisoners, who were let go on bail, will come up for trial. The Chinese stores, which were taken in the back room of the Ling Wah Chong Company, 349 Clarence street.

It is alleged that they were playing a game, a curious little game, something like dominoes. It is said, the police did not find any money changing hands, and so there were no grounds for making the charge of gambling.

The Advertiser was informed last night by a leading local Chinese businessman that there are fifty Chinamen out of a total Chinese population of 150, who are out of work at present. The Chinese stores, of which there are four, are used as employment agencies, the out-of-work daily congregating there in the hope of hearing of available positions. Applications for help from hotels, restaurants, private houses, and other establishments in London and Western Ontario, are sent in to the stores. The Chinamen, while waiting work, plays a game, Chinese poker, the police call it. It is an interesting game, but quite innocent, say the celestials. A Chinese store on King street, near Clarence street, was raided a few weeks ago.

Both Sides Will Debate Question—Premier Asquith Is Silent.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 20.—The news that King George had called a round table conference of the leaders of all the political parties in the United Kingdom to discuss the crisis in the Province of Ulster caused a pleasant surprise today in political circles here.

Means a Settlement. It was felt that the conference under the direct auspices of the King could only result in a settlement, which even the extremists of both parties in Ireland would be almost compelled to accept.

Premier Asquith and the other political leaders returned to town early this morning, but none of them would discuss the latest developments of the Irish situation.

Returns to Palace. The King also deferred his visit to Spitham and returned Monday afternoon, after reviewing the fleet. He went at once to Buckingham Palace, where the meeting is to be held.

BOBBIE HECK SHOWS HIS REAL FORM IN FINAL WITH RAMS

Holds Jack White's Club to Three Hits and One Run, While London Secures Six Hits and Three Runs Off Billy Donohoe.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

Bobbie Heck, native of Syracuse, N.Y., is around again after his recent attack of illness. One week's rest and freedom from all pitching responsibility has apparently put the leading southpaw of the Canadian League back onto his winning streak, and he exhibited a fine lot of left handed spittles and other slants before the astonished gaze of Jack White's Hamilton team on Saturday. The Rams were making their last attempt on the local premises, and judging from what Bobbie Heck did to them, they are just as well pleased that the schedule does not bring them within playing distance of this Reeling outfit again. The final score was 3 to 1 in favor of the said Reeling outfit.

A Featureless Game.

It was a game of few features. There was not even an extra base hit to brighten up the two hours and five minutes taken to play the game. In fact, it was a game of few hits. The Rams could only garner three bingles off B. Heck, and the locals were not pouncing D. Donohoe with any great extent. About the only thing that was noticeably prominent was a flock of strikeouts. Both teams had a number of these in their systems, and Donohoe managed to whiff nine of the league leaders, while Bobby Heck's curves forced eleven of the visitors to bite the dust through the strikeout method.

London took a one-run lead in the fourth inning. With one down, Cy Reidy took one of Donohoe's fast ones on his back and ambled down to first. Doc Reisinger, who is playing second base again while Ray Whitcraft is nursing his wrenched back, fell a victim to one of Donohoe's roundhouse curves and fanned. Jack Snyder, who has not been hitting in his usual form lately, took a nice punch at the pill and singled to right. It was the hit and run play, and Reidy went to third easily. Barrett let the ball get away from him in his hurry to field it quickly, and Cy came on home without any trouble.

Hams Even Up Count. The Rams tied the score up in the sixth when Dudley took four balls and stole second. Gilhooley struck out, and Coris was thrown out by Reidy. Reidy moving to third on the play. McGroarty lined one out to Reidy, and Dudley scored a moment later, but was left in London's half of the game. In the seventh, Reidy scored, putting the locals one run to the good again. After Reidy had batted out a punt, Reidy forced him at second base. Reidy delivered a nice single to centre and Reidy scored on base on balls. Jack Snyder went out to Coris in deep centre and Reidy scored on the throw in the eighth, but Coris also moving up a base. Mike Mullin was unable to connect, however, and he struck out on the side.

An Easy Run. In the seventh, another run was added to the lead. Reidy, who had Heck tried to get out of the way of a wild ball, and hit him on the pants. Eddie Linneborn laid down a sacrifice, and while Dunn was at bat, Donohoe made a wild pitch, which hit Reidy. Fisher on the throw, which hit Reidy, nursed his thumb instead of going after the ball, and Heck had no trouble whatever in scoring. Reidy was an easy run. Fisher's thumb did not seem to bother him during the rest of the game, as though nearly every day he had been in the Hamilton team camp and gave it the once over while Reidy was stamping around the plate after he had been hit. It was a painful wallop, no doubt.

No Hits Off Bobby. Reidy was really nothing to the game after that. London got two men on bases in the eighth, but nothing came of it. The Rams did not threaten after the sixth. In fact, they failed to get anything that resembled a hit after that. Reidy, in the second and fifth innings they managed to put a couple of men on the sacks, but Reidy, who the London team helped Bobby out of the hole in each case.

COULD A TEAM OF BIG MEN BEAT A NINE MADE UP OF LITTLE MEN? FULLARTON COMPARES THEM

[BY HUGH S. FULLARTON.]

Someone has revived the question whether big men or little men play the better baseball. The question is a good deal like the one discussed among players; whether nine Walter Johnsons could beat nine Ty Cobbs. But it is interesting. Let's select two teams.

LITTLE TEAM.

O'Neill, Cleveland, Schalk, White Sox, catchers; Clontze, White Sox, Flak, Chicago Feds, pitchers; McInnis, 1b, Evers, 2b, Maranville, s.s., Maisei, 3b, Leach, Milan, Ehler, outfield.

That team isn't the smallest possible to select, but it is quite a team and way below average size.

TALL TEAM.

McLean, catcher; Main, Detroit; Dav-enport, Falkenberg, pitchers; Knight, 1b, Cuthaw, or Blackburn, 2b, McBride, s.s., Moriarty, 3b, Hofman, Col-ins, Snodgrass, outfield.

BIG TEAM.

Meyers, Henry, catchers; James, Reulbach, Hagerman, Vaughn, pitchers; J. Miller, 1b; Lajole, 2b; Wagner, s.s.; Zimmerman, 3b; Oldring, Campbell, Hyatt, outfield.

That doesn't decide much does it? One can pick a "little" team that probably would win a tall team the same way, and the big team just as easily. Undoubtedly the style of ball players now runs to the strong, big fellows, especially in the pitching line. Four out of every five pitchers in the major leagues now are close to six feet and 200 pounds. Styles have changed wonderfully. The managers are after men with the weight and strength to stand the wear and tear of a season, or of a dozen seasons, but the little men are not barred.

Look back over the lists: Anson, De-lahanty, Young, Comiskey, Williamson, were giants of men. Anson wanted huge fellows with driving power behind them. On the other hand, Hugh Duffy was at his greatest at 135 pounds. Willie Keeler weighed about 125. McGraw was a little man, Griffith, Cunningham, Rad-bourne, Billy Sullivan, scores of great players, were small.

Pater (Tip) O'Neill weighed 38 pounds when he was catching 200-pound pitch-ers. He took a five-foot run and buried the ball at him from 50 feet. Rusie was the fat, short-armed type, and so was Tom (Toad) Ramsey, Michie, Tacks, Teller.

So it doesn't seem to make much difference. It is the spirit in the man, rather than the size that makes the ball player, even though Anson when he released Hugh Duffy remarked, "You lack about seven inches and 100 pounds of being a great ball player."

If one were to select a type it would be the fellow about 5 feet 10 inches, slender, broad-shouldered, lithe and fast, that would best represent the game.

TWO CANUCK HORSES START AT CLEVELAND

Eel Direct and Grand Opera Will Race Today.

IN GRAND CIRCUIT MEET

Fields Large and Fast Racing is Expected—Edward's Stake is the Feature.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 19.—Eel Direct, of London, Ont., and Grand Opera, of the Smith and Proctor stables, Toronto, are the only two Canadian owned horses who will start on the North Randall track, Monday, when the initial opening of the 1914 Grand Circuit meeting will take place, and judg-enters who are credited with worlds of speed, followers of the trotters and pacers should be given a brace of racing during this meet that they will long remember.

Interest in the opening day program centres around the 2:10 pace with the $5,000 Edwards purse of horses that will start in the Detroit Chamber of Commerce stake race, and for this reason alone should prove the classic of the day. On account of his exceedingly fast work during the training trials, Peter Stevens will most likely be in-stalled the favorite. Eel Direct and Grand Opera, the Canadian entrants, are looked upon as the horses who will prove the dangerous ones, and Cana-dians residing here—and there are thousands of them—look for either one of the Canuck owned steeds to secure top money. Other horses in this race who are expected to do something, are Camelia and Martin C.

AMERICAN LEAGUE OWNERS MAY CLOSE THEIR BALL PARKS

New York, July 20.—Ban Johnson, president of the American League, has called a meeting here tomorrow of all American League club owners. Mr. Johnson asserted this afternoon that if a strike order is obeyed by the players every American League ball park will be closed its gates, players' salaries will be stopped and the striking players will be punished for their action.

CHARLEY CUTLER BACK IN THE FIGHT GAME

Ottawa Took Awful Revenge On Saints For Double Defeat

Beat the Craven Gang by a Score of Nineteen to One on Sunday—Other Games.

OTTAWA, July 19.—After losing both ends of a double header to St. Thomas on Saturday, the Senators came back savagely today and took the odd game of the series by a score of 19 to 1. The Champions gave the most savage exhibition of hard hitting ever seen here, collecting twenty-four clean drives off pitchers Hughes and Furrer for a total of thirty-four bases. There were no less than seven doubles and one home run. In the first inning fourteen men faced Hughes, nine runs coming over on six singles, two doubles and a home run. A base on balls and sacrifice fly being sandwiched in. The Champions in the eighth duplicated the Saturday performance, against Furrer, when four singles, two doubles, two hit batsmen and an error netted seven more runs. In this inning Artie Lane hit a single, a double, scored two runs and drove in four. It was a great day for hitting averages. Shocker hurled for Ottawa and with a nine run lead, showed as much as he wanted. He should have had a shut-out had Smykal not run out to centre field in an effort to get Kopp's fly in the third.

Ottawa had the first game of Saturday's double bill safely stowed away in the ice chest to all appearances, going in the ninth with a two run lead. Two were out when Craven, hitting for Wilkinson, hit one down the third base line that tied the score. Kopp then singled, sending in two more. A muffed fly by Rogers prior to this paved the way for the rally. In their half Ottawa filled the bases with none out, but Rely, who had relieved Wilkinson, was taken out and Hughes finished the game, retiring the side without a run being scored.

The second game again looked Ottawa's after they scored three runs in the third. St. Thomas, however, tied it up, and after that the contest developed into a burlesque, with the Senators playing with their hands. The visitors eventually winning 11 to 3. Marshall, who pitched the second game for Ottawa, looked about as his team mates, and was shipped back to Nashville, Tenn. yesterday.

Ottawa's widely advertised short stop, was an added attraction and brought out an unusually large crowd. He lived up to all his press reports in the three games handled, giving chances in flashy style. He looks a marvel on ground balls, and in today's game connected for three hits. In the first game, Dusty Bullock was spiked by McNellis in the foot and had to have five stitches put in the wound. George Hill replaced him. Bullock will be out for a week.

Greens in Fine Shape, and Entry List Biggest in Years.

The W. O. B. A. bowling tournament opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with one of the biggest entries it has enjoyed for some seasons. The greens are in splendid shape, and the grounds prettily decorated for the event. With fine weather, the tourney should be the most successful in the history of the club.

The club winning the Labatt Trophy this year will carry off the big gold shield that goes with it. The shield is a handsome one, and contains six smaller shields, with the name of the club winning the trophy the past six years engraved on them. There is just room for one more smaller shield, and the club winning it this year will own it.

The prizes are numerous and costly. They have been on exhibition the past three or four days in the window of Secretary Tillman's store, and have been admired by many. The bowlers began arriving in the city last evening, but the great majority of them will come this morning.

"NEXT BOAT I BUILD WILL BE A DEFENDER."
—SIR THOMAS LIPTON

PLYMOUTH, England, July 19.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup, which sailed from Plymouth on Saturday, was met by the steam yacht Brit, put into Plymouth last evening because of stress of weather. The vessel was on her way to Plymouth, from which port she will start for the United States. The challenger, however, will remain here until the weather shows improvement.

"I am leaving for America with every confidence that the next boat I build will be a defender, and not a challenger," said Sir Thomas Lipton before his departure.

Successful Meet Ever
Held in Saginaw.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 18.—The Moose, owned by John A. Cook, of London, Ont., and driven by Kearns, a stable boy, had an easy time winning the 2:24 pace here today. Kearns won two races during the week, and was given his chance to drive the Moose by Cook after Lewis, the regular driver, had been suspended for thirty days, after the racing stake feature of last Wednesday.

The meeting was the most successful in standpoint of attendance, and track marks, and hard racing, of any held on the five weeks of the circuit so far this year. The only unfortunate accident of the four days occurred in the third heat of the 2:11 pace, when Prince Arlington, with Fred Harrison, Lanning, behind the big gelding, swerved and threw a wheel on the bike. The gig caved in and Harrison was dragged fifteen feet and his leg severely

ATKINS MAY JOIN
STRATFORD WOBBLES

STRATFORD, July 19.—Atkins, who started the Wobly season with Galt, mounted on either side of the hull mid-way between the planing. They are O. X. eight-cylinder, 100-horsepower type, and make 1,300 revolutions per minute in normal flying. This will be sufficient to give the "America" a speed of 100 miles per hour. These engines can be governed from the cabin, their speed being shown by an instrument for recording the number of revolutions per minute.

These two motors have both successfully performed a thirty-hour test on the block, their bearings showing absolutely no wear.

The fuel supply for the engines is carried in a tank in the cockpit, which has a capacity for gasoline enough to last twenty hours. All necessary instruments for guiding the craft are installed in the pithouse. To the entire mechanical equipment I can only say that I consider it, without reservation, the very best America can produce.

The practical aspect of the "America's" flight involves the consideration, mainly, of the endurance and the ability of the pilots to accommodate to wind and wave and weather—to sudden squalls, to heavy seas, to baffling fog or any other unforeseen circumstances which may enforce a sudden landing at sea.

methods of selling eyeglasses and spectacles are vastly different. Bazaar counter methods belong to the days of antiquity. People generally have come to realize that if defective vision is to be remedied, a thorough examination by a competent optometrist is necessary. LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, calomel, pills, act on bowels like pepper acts in nostrils.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to add weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

HUM OF THE BINDER

HEARD AT BRUCEFIELD; HARVEST IS ABUNDANT

(Special to The Advertiser)

BRUCEFIELD, July 19.—The hum of the binder was heard for the first time this season in this locality yesterday when several farmers began wheat-cutting. All report the crop favorable and expect a good yield.

Mrs. James of Seaford, and Mrs. Weston of Detroit, are visiting at the home of Roger Pepper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Layton spent a few days recently with friends in Constantine.

Miss Ella Townsend has returned from visiting friends in Auburn.

Miss Edna Turner, of Caledonia, is visiting at the home of Mrs. John.

Miss Carrie Simms, of Blyth, is visiting at the home of Messrs. Graham brothers.

Mrs. Mary McKay, of Hamilton, is visiting at the home of John McCowan.

Dan McDonald, of Blyth, visited relatives recently.

Mrs. James Turner is visiting her son, George, of Drayton.

Mrs. John Elliott and family are visiting Goderich friends.

Miss Mabel Turner is enjoying a holiday at Shoal Lake.

Mrs. (Rev.) Woods recently entertained the Kelly Circle, in convention with the local Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Anthony Tyndal, of Egmondville, well known here, died recently in her 76th year. Mrs. Tyndal was a native of Wexford, Ireland, and came to this country with her husband about forty years ago. They made their home first in the township of Uxama, later removing to Tucker-smith Township, where they resided until about three years ago. She is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter, Mrs. Stewart, and Harry Tyndal, both of Tucker-smith.

A great majority of farmers completed their haymaking operations last night. All told, the crop has been very satisfactory in this locality.
