The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. University of Toronto Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

University of Saskatchewan

Historical

The Emmanuel College established in Prince Albert by Bishop McLean in 1879 led to a public demand for a University. In 1883 a Dominion Charter was secured for a University for the provisional district of Saskatchewan. Six years later the Legislative Council at the suggestion of the Board of Education appealed to Ottawa for a land grant for a University similar to that given to Manitoba. The question was declared to be premature until the country had been divided into provinces. The University men residing in the Territories were summoned to meet in Regina in January 1891 to discuss the formation of a University. Later the Board of Education requested Eastern Universities to hold some of their examinations in the Territories. In 1902 satisfactory arrangements were made with Manitoba University whereby the Territorial Teachers' Certificates were accepted in lieu of their matriculation. The next year an Ordinance incorporating a University for the Territories was passed, but no provision was made for its support. The Legislature of Saskatchewan passed the University Act on the third of April 1907 and granted a sum of money for organization purposes. This Act provided for a Convocation consisting of all graduates of any University in His Majesty's Dominions who were actually residing in the Province for three months prior to the first meeting and who applied for registration. Four hundred and fourteen names were placed upon the register.

At the first meeting of Convocation, held on the sixteenth of October, 1907, the Honorable Edward Ludlow Wetmore, Chief Justice of the Province, was unanimously elected Chancellor, and the following were elected members of the Senate: Bishop Grisdale, D.D.; G. E. McCraney, LL.B., M.P.; J. W. Sifton, B.A.; A. H. Smith, B.A.; F. W. G. Haultain, B.A.; A. H. Ball, M.A., LL.B.; Mr. Justice Prendergast, LL.B.; E. B. Hutcherson, M.A.; D. Low, M.D.; Rev. E. A. Henry, B.A.; A. M. Fenwick, M.A.; and D. J. Thom, B.A.

The Senate met on the eighth of January, 1908, and elected A. F. Angus, A. Hitchcock, J. Dixon, J. Clinkskill, and Andrew MacDonald, members of the Board of Governors; and on the twenty-fifth of March of the same year the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council appointed Levi Thomson, James McKay, K.C., and Archibald P. McNab members of the same board.

The Board met in May and elected A. F. Angus, Esq. Chairman. On the twentieth of August, 1908, Walter C. Murray, Professor of Philosophy in Dalhousie University, Halifax, was appointed President.

The Senate at the meeting held on the twentieth of January, 1909, decided to establish a College of Arts and Science and a College of Agriculture in the University.

On the fifth of April 1909, the Governors selected a site for the University in the City of Saskatoon. The following September the College of Arts and Science opened classes in temporary quarters in the Drinkle Building. Seventy students were enrolled. The next spring building operations began, the corner stone of the College building being laid by Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the twenty-ninth of July, 1910. Classes in Arts were held in the old Victoria School building and in the Collegiate Institut until 1912. Classes in Agriculture were deferred until the completion of the buildings, but short courses were held at several points in 1912.

The minimum for the Assistant Professorship shall be eighteen hundred and the maximum twenty-one hundred. Upon the recommendation of the President the Board may at any time grant a larger increase than one hundred per annum, or a higher maximum than provided for above.

3. A Lecturer is an officer appointed for a term of years, or at the pleasure of the Board, who is not expected to devote all or the greater part of his time to the service of the University, but to give a limited amount of instruction upon a special subject.

4. The appointment of an Instructor or Demonstrator shall be for one or two years and at such salary as the Board may determine. The term Demonstrator shall be confined to those engaged in laboratory instruction.

5. There shall be no understanding that an Instructor or Demonstrator is to be retained indefinitely or promoted to an Assistant-Professorship, nor that an Assistant Professor shall be promoted to a Professorship. Advancement to a higher position shall depend entirely on merit.

6. No Professor or Assistant-Professor shall become a candidate for a seat in the Provincial Legislature or Dominion House of Commons.

7. No officer of instruction, with the exception of Lecturers, shall be employed in any occupation which interferes with the thorough performance of the duties of his office without the consent of the Board of Governors. No officer of instruction in any opinion or certificate which he may give as to the merits or claim of any business undertaking or of any scientific or practical invention shall use the official title of the University, or of any of its parts, or refer to his professional connection therewith, without the approval of the Board.

Deans

1. The Dean of each Faculty shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the President for a term of years not to exceed five. He shall be eligible for re-appointment.

2. The Dean shall be the Executive Officer and public representative of the Faculty. He shall summon the meetings of the faculty and shall prepare business for, and record, (unless a secretary is appointed for that purpose) the minutes of such meetings. He shall be ex officio a member of all committees of the Faculty. He shall present candidates for admission to degrees, other than honorary degrees, in the Faculty. He shall advise students of the Faculty before registration, and at other times with reference to their courses of study. When requested, he shall report with recommendations upon the qualifications of candidates for any position within his Faculty.

3. At the last meeting of the Faculty each session, the Dean shall present a report on the work of the Faculty and shall forward a copy of the report, as approved by the Faculty, to the President for communication to the Council, Board and Senate.

4. The Dean shall if requested on or before the first day of July of each year procure from each department within the Faculty an estimate of expenditures and receipts for the next fiscal year. These estimates he shall transmit to the President with such comments and recommendations as he or the Faculty may deem, advisable. These shall be submitted by the President to the Board, accompanied by his own comments and recommendations.

The Registrar

It shall be the duty of the Registrar to keep all records of students, to supervise the printing of the Calendar, reports, examination papers and to discharge such other duties as the Board may assign to him.

The Librarian

The Librarian shall be responsible for the proper care, cataloguing and circulation of the books of the library, and shall discharge such other duties as the Board may assign to him.

The Bursar

1. The Bursar shall attend all meetings of the Standing Committees and shall enter in a book the matters to be submitted to, and shall keep the records of the proceedings of such meetings.

2. The Bursar shall deposit daily, in a chartered bank approved by the Board, all moneys, cheques, drafts and orders received by him.

3. The Bursar shall see that all accounts are properly kept, and that the same and a balance sheet thereof are prepared for the Auditor.

4. The Bursar shall endorse to the order of the Bank all cheques, drafts, notes or orders for money or other securities, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him as well as those incident to his office.

5. All disbursements shall be made by cheque.

6. All cheques, drafts or orders for money shall be signed by the Bursar and countersigned by the Chairman, and in the absence of the Chairman, by some other member of the Board.

7. At the end of each month the Bursar shall prepare a statement showing the unexpended balances of the different appropriations, and shall submit this statement to the President, the Executive and also inform the heads of the different departments concerned.

The Superintendent of Buildings

The Superintendent of Buildings shall have charge of the heating, lighting and repairs of the buildings and shall discharge such other duties as the Governors may assign to him.

Tenure of Office

All officers of administration and of instruction and all employees shall hold their positions at the pleasure of the Board. At least three months' notice shall be required for the termination of appointments by the Governors or for the resignation by the appointees in the case of officers of instruction and administration, but no notice shall be required for the termination of an appointment made for a limited period.
