SIMCOE SNOW-BOUND

Town Is Only Now Recovering from the Blizzard

Write Simcoe Agency, Box 311, or phone 356-3 all matters regarding delivery or subscriptions, news items or advertisements.

Simcoe, Jan. 12.—On Thursday evening, the Salvation Army visited the Industrial Home, entertaining the residents with the usual concert and fruit, and after a very pleasant evening put on an extra in the form of a promenade through the home, in which all of the old folk took part heartily.

Simcoe Sanitary Dairy The seven year agreement of partnership under which the Straits Lynn Dairy business has heretofore been conducted, having expired, Mr. Allan Swart, manager, has taken over the operation of the service in Simcoe, and has finished the equipment of a modern dairy located at 97 Peel street, where the clarifying, cooling, bottling, and sealing of all the milk produced at the farms, is done under most sanitary conditions with the best possible facilities for cleanliness and care.

The regular delivery by sealer, is continued, but milk, cream, butter and buttermilk may be purchased over the counter. This latest service fills a want felt of late years by an increasing number of citizens, and the enterprise of Mr. Swart will no doubt be acknowledged by a liberal patronage.

Old Ends News There were 38 workers at work in St. Paul's yesterday, making Red Cross supplies.

Robt. Rawling got a nasty cut in the hand yesterday, while cutting meat. Mrs. Thos. Payne has gone to England with her little daughter, on account of the latter's ill-health. Sergt. Payne is instructing overseas shortly after the 133rd reached England.

Three returned soldiers returned to Norfolk this week, of whom Robt. of Bookton, was one, and Letter of Waterloo another. L. Harold McCall, son of Senator McCall, dropped into town yesterday clad in the King's uniform. Harold had been recruiting among western lumbermen.

Compliments have reached the police of considerable rowdiness in a certain vacant house up towards the head of Robinson St.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Simcoe, Jan. 14.—Delayed issues of the Courier will be left at E. H. Jackson's for the business district and the subscribers south of Union and east of Colborne at Mrs. Egan's store for all south of West street, and west of and including Talbot; at Miss Thompson's for the district between West and Maple streets, including the Elmhurst district, and at Sebring's store for the North end. (Kindly clip and preserve this notice.)

There was no paper service on Saturday over the trolley or over any other line. The Port Rowan train returned Saturday morning with her outgoing passengers. The Port Dover train got to Woodstock, but there was nothing doing on the Grand Trunk. The Wabash got a through passenger train over the line on Saturday and No. 2 passed through yesterday. The L. E. and N. plow reached Simcoe southbound at 5 o'clock yesterday and returned north. It is quite probable that the road will resume traffic as usual today.

Worst of a Quarter Century. The storm which struck Norfolk about midnight Friday and continued till yesterday afternoon, is the worst on record here and considerably more severe than that which ushered in February, 1910. Rev. H. C. Newcombe was storm-bound at Brantford and the Baptist Church was without a pastor.

Rev. W. J. Doherty of London, who was to preach at Trinity, was not able to get through and there was no preaching here. At St. James' and Knox there were small schoolroom congregations. The gas supply was taxed to supply the needs.

Frost Bites. Little Billie Tomlinson, who bravely attempted to walk a mile into town, got severe frost bites on the hands and feet. Several seasoned adults about town had their ears nipped. The mercury had gone down.

Herb. Lawrie took a party to the "Cross dance at Dover on Friday night. At last reports they must be dancing yet.

There were not a dozen teams from the country at all the feed marts in town on Saturday.

Relatives at the funeral of Mrs. Edward Hodge of Walsingham, who remained Friday night at Silver Hill, set out for Port Rowan and Jarvis Saturday morning. The latter party had a 23-mile drive and Mrs. Wm. Hodge of Simcoe was with them to Simcoe.

Mrs. Harold McCall is accompanying her husband on his visit home.

L. T. Atkinson, who through an accident a fortnight ago, was prevented from going south for the winter, is preparing to set out for a warmer climate.

Dr. Robt. Tisdale has announced his intention to seek a kindlier sky for a couple of months.

Town Council meets at 10 this morning for the purpose of taking the oath of office, and at 8 p.m. for general business.

County Engineer Guy R. Marston has secured a task of clearing the county good roads. We believe he has a good organization and the work will be done without delay.

Broughton of Colborne died Saturday night, aged 45. A wife, three sons and two married daughters survive.

Narrow Escape at Ryerse's Greenhouse. So violent was the storm on Friday night that the gas jet flames under the boiler at Ryerse Bros.' greenhouse were drawn off by the excessive draft. The thermostat was faithful, however, and rang in the alarm to the dwelling in time as the mercury approached the freezing point.

Take Notice. Mr. Lewis Brown has at his own request been relieved of further connection with the Courier delivery. All subscriptions paid in advance are acknowledged. All overdue payments from this date will be collected by the agency.

Simcoe, Jan. 15.—(From our own correspondent.)—The members of the town council took the oath of office yesterday morning, and adjourned till 8 o'clock, after appointing Mayor Sihler, Reeve Carter and Alderman Jaques a committee to strike the standing committees. On the following day the committee reported the following slate, which was adopted. The first named being chairman in each case: Printing—Mayor Sihler.

A grant of $50 was made and sent over against the charity account.

Night policeman Pepper, asked for payment of disbursements for batteries for his flash light and for a regulation overcoat and cap for which he had been interviewing the police committee for some months. Chairman Jackson assured him that the matter would be attended to.

The quarterly report of the utilities commission was read. A letter from the Hamilton Hospital stated that Mrs. J. Downes was out on probation.

The Utilities Commission reported the resignation of Commissioner R. E. Gunton. The Great War Veterans, through Secretary Harry W. French, thanked Council for a cash donation given at the December meeting to furnish their quarters.

An appeal from the Children's Aid Society, drew a grant of $25.00. One from the National Sanitarium was filed away, and a third from the Association for the blind was referred to the Charity committee.

Firemen on the Job. The quarterly statement of the fire brigade, showed only one fine for absence during the quarter ending Dec. 15th.

There were five applicants for the assessorship, and before advancing the by-law to appoint officials, these were considered. L. F. Aiken, the third voted upon, got a majority vote.

Officials for 1918. The following were appointed: Assessor—L. F. Aiken, $200. Collector—Chas. G. Cross. Auditors—W. M. McKay, Harold Gibson. Pound Keeper—J. Sands. Fence Viewers—D. Matthews, Frank Jackson.

MODERNIZING JERUSALEM.

To The Editor of The Courier
THE STREET RAILWAY
Dear Sir:—The Trades and Labor Council rightly voiced the feelings of the working classes of Brantford, in protesting against the herding of men and women more closely together on the street cars, than cattle or pigs would be permitted to be packed for transit, by the Humane Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

INAUGURAL OF PARIS COUNCIL
Paris, Jan. 14.—(From Our Own Correspondent) —The inaugural meeting of the Paris Council was held this morning with all the members present—Mayor C. B. Robinson, Reeve, Pitts, Deputy-Reeve Isaac Stuart, Aldermen John A. Blake, John P. McCammon, James McKay, R. E. Paine, C. E. Walker, and George Wadsworth.

Thus it will be seen that only $22,500 was available for administration expenses such as roads, fire, police, salaries, etc. It is quite clear that we must continue to exercise caution in undertaking any obligations outside of those which provide protection to life and property.

THE SITUATION.
In the British House of Commons yesterday, Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service, made the reasons very clear why it was necessary to at once recruit half a million more men for the British Army.

ON TARIFF ELECTION
All the indications point to a general election in this Province, probably next June. The present House was elected in July, 1914, so that the four year period would be up in that month of 1918.

Verian Mace

Verian Mace, one of the greatest and cleverest in the long line of heavyweight champions, died seven years ago. He was then in his eightieth year, and until within 10 years of his death had been active in the ring. During his extended career as a champion nobody ever had occasion to question Mace's greatness, yet in his early days as a boxer he appeared to have a well-developed yellow streak. As a boy he was a typical violinist, travelling about from one fair to another. Boxing was then one of the principal features of English fairs, and Mace took naturally to the game, but his artistic temperament and sensitive and imaginative nature made him shrink from punishment, with the result that the crowds often jeered him and called him a coward. Most of Mace's opponents were much larger than himself, and he was able to defeat them only by developing science, generalship and cleverness beyond anything ever seen in the ring. Continuous boxing developed his courage, and in the course of time Mace became a veritable lion, and knew not the name of fear. The man who had been called a coward became the hero of many grueling battles and he won and held the title against all comers for a long period of years. In all he was the victor in over 500 bouts, and nearly all of them were fought under the old "slaughter house" rules. He made a fortune in the ring and on the stage, but he was too kind-hearted to keep it. Anybody could work on his sympathy and he was champion easy mark as well as champion boxer.

AGAIN CHAIRMAN

At the organization meeting of the Brantford Hydro Electric System Commissioners yesterday, Mr. McFarland was nominated as Chairman for the coming year. Mr. McFarland objected, as he had already held that position for four years, and thought another member of the board should be named. The other members explained it would be impracticable for them to take over the duties of chairman, so Mr. McFarland very reluctantly consented.

L.O.D.E. MET

The January meeting of the Dufferin Rifle Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held in the Armories yesterday, the closing of a year's work for our men in the trenches and returned home. Letters were read from Major Cornelius on behalf of the Great War Veterans' Association, thanking the chapter for its help in furnishing the home for returned soldiers, and from Major Jackson, sending a bit of his appreciation of a large parcel of socks. The weekly knitting teas so much enjoyed will be resumed this week on Wednesday, at the Regent's, and next week on Thursday at the Secretary's. Forty pounds of wool was received, and Mrs. Coghill will be glad to supply knitters. An executive meeting was held at the close of the general and the names of officers for the new year, commencing at the February meeting, were listed to be presented on that occasion.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The ladies of Oak Hill Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. David Orr, Burford road. The president in the chair, the meeting was opened by singing the Maple Leaf and repeating the Lord's Prayer. Then the roll call was answered by a nickel shower, the minutes were read and approved. Two ladies are appointed monthly for visiting sick and to send flowers to same. Mrs. R. Hamilton and Miss Briden were visiting committee for December, 1917. Mrs. D. Minshill read, Mrs. T. Peart for January, 1918. It was then decided to get up a "play," the ladies to take part, proceeds to be devoted to Red Cross and patriotic work. The knitters are very busy ladies just now, knitting socks for our boys overseas, the only trouble being the scarcity of yarn. It was suggested that if two or more institutes will get together and send direct to the factory and order at least 100 pounds we would doubtless be able to get the yarn at wholesale price. Miss Vera Moody sang a solo very sweetly. Miss B. Rowleson gave a very interesting paper on food, conservations, which was good and ought to make everyone think of what we may have to do later to still further save food. Miss Kathleen Avery gave a piano solo in her usual good style. Miss May Jennings then gave a reading, which was both interesting and appropriate, viz. "The Island of the Scots." Dainty refreshments were then served by the hostess and meeting closed by singing God Save the King, and all thanking Mr. and Mrs. Orr for their kind hospitality. The next monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Avery, Pleasant Ridge, February 6, 1918.

FINAL RESULTS ABOUT FEB. 15

Counting of Soldiers' Votes Going on in London and Paris

WILL TAKE NINE DAYS

General Returning Officer Denies Candidates' Names Omitted

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The allocation of votes cast by soldiers and sailors in Canada at the general election to the constituencies to which they belong will occupy some special returning officers engaged in the work until February 1. Each ballot is enclosed in an envelope bearing the name of the riding to which it is to be applied. It is taken from the bag in which it came from the polling booth and placed in the box provided for the riding named on the envelope. The actual counting of the ballots will take about nine days. The counting of votes cast overseas is now going on in London and Paris and the result of the general election will be known about February 15.

W. P. O'Connor, K. C., the general returning officer, asserts that reports of names of Opposition candidates having been omitted from the official lists sent overseas are erroneous. Some voters, he says, may have seen incomplete newspapers, lists of candidates and have not consulted the official lists at the polling places.

CASE DISMISSED

The case of King vs. Davis was heard at the county criminal court this morning and dismissed, there being a misunderstanding between the parties implicated regarding a deal in hops.

SEEMS EVERYONE IS ANXIOUS TO TRY IT

Recent discovery of ether compound that dries up corn so they lift out.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy, but it is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet on every hard or soft corn or callus. You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

MAYOR WOULD AVOID FORCE

Can Confiscate Excess Coal, But Appeals to Citizen's Generally

"The last thing we want to resort to is drastic action" was Mayor Secord's comment to The Courier on the fuel shortage this morning. The mayor states that he now holds the authority to confiscate any coal hoarded in the city, if he sees fit, but prefers first to make effort to secure an equalization by voluntary means. He has instructed the police to furnish him with a list of all vacant houses in the city, and will search some spare coal in the cellars. In addition he desires everyone who can supply coal, stating that an ample supply can be obtained from a number of farmers throughout the county, who have first class stove wood for sale. Two men leave for the Pennsylvania fields to-morrow, to obtain Brantford whatever coal is to be had, but owing to difficulties in transportation, enhanced by the recent storm, it is likely to be two or three weeks at the earliest, before any of this fuel can reach the city, and in the meantime rigid economy must be practised.

The mayor's appeal to those having surplus coal on hand to turn a quantity over to the civic bureau is being met with a willing response from many quarters. This morning a quantity was received from Victoria School and more from the Public library, which was served out in small lots at the municipal depot.

STILL IN THE RING

Are We Downhearted? Well, Not Exactly, Wait Until the Next Time

When is hockey not hockey? Easy, Hortense. When you play it with five minutes to a side, and call twenty-five minutes practice on the ice, a game. Such was the broad sport served up at the Alfred street arena yesterday afternoon, when closed time this season. The second time it over the cupola crowd like a tent; yesterday, as has been explained, it was not hockey that was played.

That was due, our friends the enemy, the "late in everything" Never yet have they been known to be on hand to take their licking like a little man at the appointed time, and last night they were late, even considering past seasons. So the game had to be curtailed in length, its tail cut off close to the neck in fact, and it was over before 11-11, instead of 2-1, according to critics. In addition, the game was five man hockey—pardon the paradox. It is as if one said a three-legged quadruped, a square circle or a national Bolshevik. They ain't no such animal, Annabel.

However, the I. O. O. F. tenants were minus the services of Comerford, and The Courier laid off a man to balance things up. We were thinking of laying off a few more, to make the game a little more even, but didn't. As for the game itself, it was all right in its way, but didn't weigh much. The Expositors were shooting at random, and Burard and Truesdale could not agree to whom went the credit for their own goals, two in number. Wes Downey threatened to cut the game even shorter when he hit the ice, seemingly in an attempt to break through. He found the endeavor too strenuous, however.

We are still in the ring, and prepared to take the next game provided it is a real game. And even if the unexpected, the impossible should happen, and we should go down to defeat, we will still retain gameness enough to admit the fact through these news columns, and to certain aggregation failed to do last winter.

But then, we agree with Rudyard, that is another story.

IRISH CONVENTION

Present Week Must See The Final Phase of the Discussion

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Jan. 14.—In anticipation that "the present week must see the final phase of the discussions of the Irish convention," The Times discusses the prospects with evident anxiety over the result.

"Everybody" it says, "is entitled to hope that the last day of the convention will yet produce unanimity; but it would be sheer folly to ignore the risk of a different result or to minimize the disastrous issue which would follow failure." "We ourselves disbelieve that final failure is any longer possible. Sir Horace Plunkett's public utterance that at worst, 'we shall leave the Irish question better than we found it,' does represent to common knowledge the actual facts of the situation.

"If, as we fear, the convention has not yet reached that substantial measure of agreement which would merely require the blessing of the imperial parliament, it would at least be able to give the government a new lead in dealing with the problem."

The Times then appeals to the government to have their own plan ready dealing with the problem immediately, and dwells on the great importance of a settlement to the empire to the progress of the war and to relations with the United States.

Prominence to the question is also given by The Daily Chronicle, which prints a four column article from its Dublin correspondent under the heading "Critical days for the Irish convention." The writer makes a strong plea for agreement and, referring to "Sir Horace Plunkett's (chairman of the convention) statement as quoted by The Times which has been construed in some quarters as foreshadowing possible failure," says:

"This prospect of a possible breakdown at the convention makes observers a little uneasy."

TRUE BILL RETURNED

By Courier Leased Wire
Hamilton, Jan. 15.—The Grand Jury to-day returned a true bill in the case of Dr. E. Hanselmann, a chiropractor, of Brantford. Hanselmann's trial will begin to-morrow. It is alleged that he tampered with shells while working in a munition plant. A Munro Greer of Toronto, assisted by A. J. Wilkes, Crown Attorney of Brant County, will prosecute. W. S. Brewster, of Brantford, will defend the prisoner.

SENATORS BEAT BLUES

By Courier Leased Wire
Ottawa, Jan. 15.—Commenting on the Ottawa splendid win last night in the game with Toronto, The Citizen says:

"After a game that abounded in fine hockey, though not always fast and brilliant, Eddie Gerard and his Ottawa Senators flashed back to form last night and defeated the Toronto by a score of 9 to 6. It was one of the most creditable wins that the Ottawa club has ever effected as the home team was lately crippled in the opening period through the loss of Captain Eddie Gerard and Russell Crawford, both of whom sustained twisted knees and were forced to retire. It then looked all off with Ottawa, though the Senators were out in front as Toronto appeared to be coming stronger and stronger. However, the surviving members of the Ottawa squad arose in the emergency and played in grand style, outplaying Toronto for the balance of the match, though the now Blue Shirts threw the throttle wide at intervals and dazzled the crowd with terrific

ENORMOUS NEW DEMAND ON BRITISH MAN-POWER

Nearly Half a Million Men For The Army to be Recruited at Once—The Empire Has so Far Enrolled 7,500 000 Fighting and Labor Battalion Forces, of Which 900,000 Were Raised by the Dominions—No Compulsion for Ireland Yet—Age Limit May be Raised or Lowered

London, Jan. 15.—Nearly half a million men from Great Britain are to be recruited into the British army at the earliest date possible, and it is probable that many more will be added to that number in the coming months. These will comprise the younger men, who up to the present have been occupied because of their employment in industries essential to the war services.

The Empire has enrolled 7,500,000 fighting and labor battalion forces during the war, according to the statement of the Minister, and now has more than four million enrolled, but needs more men to hold its own against the enemy until the American strength is available.

Recruits From Skilled Workers This announcement was made in the House of Commons yesterday by Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service, whose statement of the Government's man-power proposals was replete with interesting details of Britain's strength in the struggle into which she means to throw her full resources.

The Minister set forth the status and needs of the British fighting and uniting forces and the measures the Government is taking after agreement with most of the Labor leaders for recruitment from the classes of skilled workers who were promised exemption when conscription was adopted.

Three Big Possibilities. Three possibilities for increasing the army, said the Minister, had been considered: "First—Lowering of the military age. The Germans were taking boys of seventeen, but lowering the age below eighteen was contrary to natural instincts and economy unsound and the fighting value of the average youth of eighteen was not commensurate with his value in civil life."

"Second—Raising the age limit. Economically this was less objectionable. Austria-Hungary had raised the age to fifty-five years, while the British limit was practically forty-three. But the fighting value and staying power of a man of forty-five was less than of a man of twenty-five. The Government felt strongly that it would be contrary to national interests to raise the age limit, while there were notoriously large numbers of younger men fit for service.

No Compulsion for Ireland. "Third—Compulsion for Ireland. The Government had considered the question carefully and was satisfied that the reason which excluded Ireland from the first conscription act had lost none of its potency. "The Government had determined, however, to take a large number of young men engaged in essential industries and also to take steps to maintain the industries after the young men were withdrawn. More than one million men were now exempted on occupational grounds. The Government had divided the exempted industries, roughly, into three classes. From the first it would take no men; from the second about half of the fit men and from the third class about one-third."

Sir Auckland Geddes prefaced his remarks on the Government's man-power proposals by the declaration that nothing could be more misleading than the suggestion that the man-power problem could be solved by a dramatic stroke. It was the central problem of the war, he said. "It means everything," he said. "It means that the food, light, heat and cold. At the moment the most anxious problem is not the supply of men for the army. But we have to take steps against the time when it will be a time which, I believe, is not far distant."

Have YOU Got COAL?

An Appeal

IN VIEW of the recent severe storm and the consequent tie-up of transportation, our city is facing a most acute fuel famine. It will be at least five or six days before freight can be moved on any road, nor can wood be brought into the city. In many homes there is very little or no fuel of any sort, and

Women and Children are Suffering

It is believed that in some homes there is plenty, and in some others fuel to spare. Will you assist in relieving the suffering. We appeal to the patriotism and loyalty of our citizens in this extreme situation. Present conditions are lamentable. Sickness and disease follow. You may assist in averting an epidemic.

If You Can—Will You Assist?

For humanity's sake—for the sake of the women and small children who are suffering—we respectfully ask every citizen who has more than sufficient fuel for the immediate present, to volunteer as much or as little as can be spared. We undertake to guarantee that this coal will be replaced, but in view of the situation as outlined above, we urge immediate and desperate necessity.

Write or telephone the quantity you can spare to Mr. N. D. Neill, or Mr. Herb McIntyre, Civic Fuel Clerks, Phone 131. A proper receipt will be given you.

to stir up strife in munition factories, and young men were threatened to hold up the output of ships and airplanes in order to force the Government to send the wounded back to the front and drag out their fathers, and stop the leave of the men at the front.

"I believe that if they do they will meet such a blast of hatred it will surprise them," he declared. "The men who have acted as directors of recruiting, continued the Minister, would in the future be regional directors of national service. The Government departments had arranged for their requirements, amounting to ninety thousand men, to be supplied through the labor exchanges. Prospective demands for labor at the munitions plants and under the Admiralty amounted to 439,000 men and 119,000 women.

The appeal for labor for shipyards had met with a gratifying response; more than 5,000 men had presented themselves in the past month, and 2,100 had started to work. Altogether, during December, 40,000 vacancies for men and 36,000 for women had been filled. Opportunities for the increased use of the services of allied and neutral aliens were being arranged. "Enemy aliens who had not been interned. It is the intention to extend schoolboy labor in the harvest fields. The number of women engaged in munition work had increased from 227,000 in 1914 to 815,000 last year.

750,000 Women Employed. "Owing to the way women have come forward," said the Minister, "there has been no great difficulty in obtaining sufficient numbers for the work for which they are required. Nearly three-quarters of a million women have been placed in the munition work in the last eleven months. But it is clear that a great further call will be made on women of all classes."

ACTIVITY ALONG CANADIAN FRONT
Infantry Commence Operations Once More—Five Raids in Four Days

Canadian headquarters in France, via London, Jan. 13.—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—The week has closed with unusual infantry activity all along the Canadian lines. Since Wednesday's raid when one of our parties captured two enemy machine guns, and other materials, there have been five raids on this front, the Canadians having entered the enemy's lines twice, while the bosch has made three attempts against our positions. Early Saturday morning, after we had broken into his lines and captured two prisoners, the Huns attacked in three parties of 20 men each. Two of these parties never succeeded in reaching our wire, the third penetrated our trenches, but was driven out again immediately, leaving a badly wounded prisoner in our hands. The outstanding feature of the raid was the splendid defence put up by one of our sentry groups of three men, who saved the alarm and fought the attackers until only one remained unwounded.

Last night after a short, sharp artillery barrage, we raided the enemy lines again, but the bosch had left his battered trenches and retired before our attack. Night after night our patrols have been all over "No man's Land" but the engagements have been few, the enemy retreating as a rule at first sight of our parties. One patrolling party of one officer and three men, creeping within five yards of a much stronger enemy group, threw all their bombs into the party and retired into an empty house and sent back for more. For ten minutes the whole line woke up to all the noise of minor engagements, the nervous enemy having opened up with artillery and trench mortars, to which our artillery and Lewis guns replied. The uproar lasted for ten minutes, during which time our patrol could hear the cries of the enemy wounded. While the line has been active there is no cessation in either entertainments or concerts for the men, or in educational work being carried on at the University of Vimy Ridge. After months of trial in which every phase of activity contemplated in the work of the university has been tested, the institution is a pronounced success. Its work has been carried on both with the division in and out of the line. Fourteen lectures have been delivered altogether when the division has been in action. Special classes in agriculture, business efficiency, applied science and physics have been held nightly, some in a public school, others in a tent in a shell-shattered village and in an abandoned brewery.

During the last ten days three reading rooms have been opened, thanks to the generosity and co-operation of the Y. M. C. A. which has lent books and tents of their equipment. Applications from university undergraduates or other students for courses in advanced reading have been referred to the Central committee in London, which represents the Canadian educational institutions and the courses outlined. An indication of the active interest which the men are taking in the University is given in the weekly report of one reading room, which shows an average daily application of 96 for books and pamphlets and the total attendance is 200.

Don't stay bilious sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two to-night and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced? You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts, pills and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious children a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.

Rippling Rhymes

THE KNITTERS.
My aunt is knitting woolen socks, her labors never cease; my sister May, she knits all day, and so does Jane, my niece. The women keep on knitting things, they never seem to tire; my grandma sits and knits and knits, just like a house on fire. I say to them, "Oh, females, do take a rest, I pray; my auto waits outside the gates, so let us scorch away. All work and little rest makes Jack a dunce they tell, so let me rush where pleasure seekers be. Get hence, and don't disturb us so, get hence, at our behest! You made us drop a stitch, kerjip, with your absurd request." I am an orphan, me; no frisky dames will join my games, and share my harmless glee. I've no companions when I skate, no comrades when I hunt; the girls all knit and do their bit, their everlasting stunts. My aunt is knitting helpful socks, just watch her needles fly! My cousin Sue is knitting too, her topknot all awry. 'Twill last till war is over with, the womenfolk agree; how shall I pass the time, alas? There's none to play with me.

TEXTILE TROUBLES

Associated Press
Stockholm, Jan. 15.—Sweden's textile factories, facing partial or complete stoppage as a result of the impossibility of securing wool, cotton and jute, are turning their attention to the manufacturing of textiles from wood pulp. Other branches of the textile industry are also hopeful of saving the situation by manufacturing paper substitutes as Germany has done. The Krupp workmen in Germany wear overalls of paper, and one of the largest machine shops in Dusseldorf uses only paper belts for its engines. Finer products, including all sorts of underwear are made from wood pulp in Germany, and a mixture of as much as 40 or even 50 per cent, can be used in making fabrics for outer clothing.

MISSSES' AND SMALL WOMAN'S BLOUSE.

Those comfortable slip-on blouses were such a convenience last summer that no one wants to part with them, so they are being made up in heavier material, such as satin, velvet and wool jersey, to wear over plain tailored skirts under long coats this winter. The style shown in No. 8554 is distinctive, because it is so simple. It slips over the head and the neck is slashed for a short distance at centre front. A good looking collar with pointed ends is attached. Either the long or short sleeves may be used. Extremely narrow sashes are in vogue at present, and this one crosses once in front.

SIDE TALKS

There is nothing in the world so fatal to making an impression on people as trying to make an impression on them.
There is no trick that a young person who wants to make a success in the social world can better afford to dispense with.
Nothing takes the interest out of any conversation, makes it seem flat and futile, so quickly as the impression that back of all your companion says is the desire to impress you with her character, or her social position, or her high connections, or her importance to the club life of her town, or whatever it is she happens to be most vain of.

I really think I would rather hear anyone talk openly about themselves than in this veiled way.
As if You Were A Perfect Fool.
They have such a smug air of thinking that they are impressing you without your being conscious of their intent to do so. And that implies you are a perfect fool.

Music and Drama

THE BRANT
Those who have seen Marguerite Clark in her previous pictures in Mary Roberts Dieheart's "sub-deb" series, will know what to expect of "Bab's Matinee Idol," which is to be seen at the Brant the first of this week. Those, in fact, who have ever seen the petite star upon the screen, will be prepared for a picture of the highest class, and will not be disappointed. It is hardly fair to such past classics of the silver-sheet as "Wildfire," "Miss George Washington," "Bab's Diary," and "Bab's Burglar," to say that "Bab's Matinee Idol" is Miss Clark's best picture, but it is a safe bet to say that it ranks with her best, and they are all good.

Ostiz and Martinez are high class vaudeville entertainers in clean, refined dancing, original and snappy. Music lovers regretted to learn yesterday that weather conditions prevented "Master Wesley Nash," the noted boy soprano, from fulfilling his engagement this week, but the management have engaged in his stead Irene Delarey, a dainty songstress. The ninth chapter of the Paramount mystery serial, "Who is Number One?" more than sustains the interest roused by previous installments.

Good Night Stories
Johnny's Second Self.

Johnny was red-headed and freckled, and it must be said, sometimes very cross. The children never asked him to join them in their games. They simply let him alone. This made Johnny unhappy, and every day he grew crosser and uglier.
"I don't care! I don't like them either!" exclaimed Johnny out loud as he trudged along the road toward home alone.
"Who're you talking about?" asked a squeaky voice, and on a stone, dabbling his funny little feet in the brook, Johnny saw the queerest little man he had ever seen.

"Who are you?" asked Johnny, gazing at the funny little fellow.
"Happy Giggles from Makebelieve Land. Whom don't you like?" laughed the funny little man.
"Everybody!" replied Johnny. "No one likes me because I'm ugly, red-headed and freckled, but I don't care."
"Oh, yes, but you should!" replied Happy Giggles. "And I'm sure if you could see yourself right now you'd never blame any one for calling you ugly. The trouble isn't your hair—for it's beautiful—nor your freckles or—" take a look at yourself in the water. Johnny leaned over the stone and looked into the brook. Like a mirror it reflected a dirty-faced, tangled-headed little boy, whose forehead was covered with frowns, and whose mouth was all pulled down at the corners.

At the side of this reflection there floated another little red-headed fellow, neat and clean, his face all smiles. Johnny turned around to see who was standing behind him.
"The reflections you see are Johnny and I," said Happy Giggles, "and as he and Johnny as he should be. All you have to do to be like that little boy is to use soap, water and a brush. Keep neat and clean, think happy thoughts, and before you know it you'll be so proud of yourself that others will be proud of you, too. Happy thoughts pull up the corners of your mouth and make you pretty, or at least pleasant looking, while being cross only has the opposite effect," said Happy Giggles, and suddenly he disappeared behind a stump.
Johnny went home and washed and scrubbed his face until it shone. And his hair for the first time in many a day lay smooth and neat, and the next morning when Johnny started to school his schoolmates hardly knew him.

He went by the brook in hope of seeing Happy Giggles, but though Happy Giggles wasn't there his second little self smiled at him from the cool waters.
"I'm not so bad looking after all!" laughed Johnny, and he hurried away to school.
"Why Johnny, how nice you look!" exclaimed the teacher when Johnny laid a bunch of wild flowers on her desk.
Johnny told her about his meeting the elf from Makebelieve Land and when the children became quiet the teacher told the story to the class.

"Happy Giggles is right. To make our friends love us we must first be neat and clean. Happy thoughts bring smiles and smiles keep the corners of our mouths up and makes us sweet. Let's all try to smile all we can." smiled the teacher, and from that day Johnny was the best pupil in the school.
He studied hard and grew into a great big, splendid man, loved and honored by all who knew him. If you should meet him some day and could ask him how he did it, he'd tell you to look into the brook and find your second self.

WOMENS HOSPITAL AID

Details of the Annual Gathering Reported by the Secretary

The Annual meeting of the W. H. A. was held on Friday, Jan. 11th at three o'clock—the president Mrs. Schell, presided. The attendance was large about forty being present. The December reports and unfinished business were first taken up. The treasurer's report showed that all accounts presented had been paid. Letters were read from Mrs. Charles Taylor full of good wishes for the W. H. A. in which she has worked vigorously until laid aside by illness, from Mrs. Cornelius acknowledging the receipt of three wheel chairs for the Returned Soldiers Home and conveying the thanks and appreciation of the men for the same—from Miss Forde thanking the ladies for gifts and more substantial remembrances at Christmas.

Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Webster presented the visitors report for December which was of more than usual interest. They had visited every week and had taken up oranges, grapes, lettuce, oysters, tea biscuits, Johnny Cake etc., also reading matter. They had distributed the Christmas gifts on the Saturday before Christmas to all the patients not forgetting those in the isolation wards, and whether visitors or patients, were most pleased it would be hard to decide.

Before the reading of Annual Minutes and reports, Mrs. Schell spoke in terms of deep appreciation of the sympathy and kindness of her fellow-officers and members towards herself during her term of office as president from which she now wished to withdraw and spoke particularly of the efficient service given by Mrs. Reville while acting treasurer during the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Watt.

The President's Annual address followed and was greeted with deserved applause. The other yearly reports, Treasurer, visiting and county membership conveners, and J. H. A. officers were listened to with interest and elicited applause.

Forde, who was present, was then called upon for a few words, when she graciously thanked all members present and absent for the many comforts contributed to the hospital, with especial mention of the linen supply of the high price and great scarcity of hospital supplies necessary for surgical and other uses and closed with expressions of appreciation for the retiring president and said that relations between herself and the W. H. A. and J. H. A. could not be better. The chair was then taken by Mrs. Waterhouse who presented the nominating committee's report as follows:

Report of Nominating Committee.
Your nominating committee met on Thursday Jan. 10th and expressed with regret that two of last year's officers were not eligible for re-election—Mrs. Schell and Mrs. Livingstone, both of whom were ineligible as their places could be filled. We have felt that in view of the gradual withdrawal of some of the "old guard" from active service, it is necessary to call on other members of the W. H. A. to fill their places, at the same time guarding against any change in the personnel of those who are faithfully serving in the various branches of the organization.

We beg to nominate the following ladies for office during the coming year:

Hon. President—Mrs. Schell.
President—Mrs. Douglas Reville.
First Vice-President—Mrs. G. L. Laing.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. Gordon Smith.
Secretary—Mrs. T. S. Wade.
Treasurer—Mrs. George Watt.
Signed, Annie V. Waterous, convener, Susie J. Henwood, Emma L. Agnew, Frances Mitchell, Julia Ames.

Other nominations will be accepted.

This report was adopted by a standing vote of thanks; the minutes were read and approved. Moved by Mrs. Nelks, seconded by Mrs. Henwood, and carried unanimously: "To Mrs. Schell, who for two years past, so efficiently and unselfishly filled the office of President, and to Mrs. Livingstone, who as Vice President, has for many years been always ready to give her help whenever needed. Their work has been such as to win the gratitude of all the members of the W. H. A."

Mrs. Schell and Mrs. Livingstone, both returned thanks expressing their regret in having to sever relations that had always been so pleasant and amicable, but assured all of their continued interest and effort.

Mrs. Reville then assumed charge of the meeting and in a splendid introductory speech thanked the ladies for their confidence in her, in appointing her to so responsible an office.

Mrs. Laing, Mrs. Smith and the other officers returned thanks, and the January business was taken up; Mrs. Waterous was re-appointed convener of the visiting committee, and Mrs. Hurley as convener of county membership.

Collectors were all re-appointed. The printing of the annual reports was left in the hands of Mesdames Schell, Watt and Wade.

The date of the annual reunion was fixed for the last Wednesday in February, with Mesdames Ames, Mitchell, Webster, Bates, Davis and Colquhoun a committee to attend to the refreshments. Appropriations for expenses were voted for Secretary-Treasurer and Visitors.

By motion, the visitors' monthly

BOLSHEVIKI BALDERDASH

Petrograd Journal Satirizes Fanaticism of Maximalist Party

Petrograd, Jan. 15.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The Bolshevik Vyedomosti indulges in sarcastic rallery at prevailing conditions by propounding a number of problems in the form of arithmetical exercises. Here is one of the problems:

"In the city of A, the public prosecutor, B, arrested the suspicious individual C. On the following day the Bolshevik D arrested a prosecutor for which reason D was in turn arrested by the temporary government commissioner E. Thereupon F, the chairman of the revolutionary committee, arrested E. How far down the alphabet will the arrests reach in 24 hours, and how long will it be before persons whose names begin with X and Z are arrested?"

Another is: "A Bolshevik delegate departs from the city of A to attend a democratic conference. When will these delegates start pulling each other's hair and how many resolutions will they propose?"

Following are others of the satirical propositions propounded:

"An internationalist writes for a newspaper and receives 1,000 roubles for each article. How many deliberately false reasons for an immediate peace must be present, if every reason is paid for at the rate of five marks equal eight rubles and forty copecks?"

"A democratic conference progresses at the rate of 123 resolutions per hour, while the Germans advance at the rate of only ten verbs a day. Which of the warlike masses will first reach its goal."

"There are 8,000 casks of brandy in the depot at A, and the city's garrison has 40,000 troops, all teetotalers. How long will it take the teetotalers to drink up all the liquor, and how long will it be after that before the municipality decides to destroy all alcoholic drinks?"

The newspaper concludes: "Persons sending in a correct solution will receive one minister-president's portfolio."

allotment was increased to $10.00 Mrs. W. Ross and Mrs. F. E. Sheppard are the visitors during the current month.

The meeting was then adjourned.

ALLIES BUY WHEAT FROM ARGENTINE

Purchase 2,500,000 Tons—To Open Credit for Entente

Buenos Aires, Jan. 15.—The Foreign Minister to-day signed an agreement with the British and French ministers to sell 2,500,000 tons of wheat (over 83,000,000 bushels) to the Entente Allies. Argentina is to open a credit at the Bank of the Nation in favor of the allies, which is to be liquidated in two years. This arrangement is virtually a huge loan to the allies and is made in order to stabilize the rate of exchange.

CHILD'S BODY TURNING TO BONE

Little Girl in Philadelphia Hospital is Attacked With Dread Disease

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—"Progressive myositis ossificans," one of the rarest pathological manifestations known to science, has put in its appearance again.

In plain, every-day English, "progressive myositis ossificans" means gradual transformation of tissue and cartilage into bone. A little 7-year-old girl, whose name is withheld, is now in the Jefferson hospital awaiting the day when she will be completely petrified. This, according to surgeons studying the case, is probably but a few years off.

The case—the second of its kind known to Dr. John Chalmers Da Costa—came to this city from a Wilmington, Del., hospital as soon as the nature of the ailment became established. Prof. W. W. Hawke has the child under special observation, and will conduct a series of experiments to analyze the patient's digestive processes.

The disease is thought to be caused by the improper functioning of the parathyroids, small masses of gland-like epithelium lying beneath the thyroid glands in the neck. It is the parathyroid glands which control the supply of lime salts or bone building elements to the body, and if these glands are removed death invariably follows.

The child appears normal to the untrained eye, but when one touches the muscles of the neck, arms and back they are rigid and hard as stone. The disease attacks progressively the body, the involuntary muscles are unaffected, death resulting from inability to eat or move any portion of the body.

Dr. Da Costa places the outside limit to the age which the child may attain at 20 years.
