Town and County News

The Toronto National says:—"One libel suit is all we can manage at present." We guess so.

WESLEYAN CHURCH.—The pulpit of this church will be occupied to-morrow morning by Rev. W. W. Middlecott, pastor of the P.M. Church. Rev. J. E. Lancelley will preach in the evening.

To-morrow.—At ten o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) morning a bush meeting will be held in Gow's bush by the British Episcopal Methodists, when several Rev. gentlemen from a distance will participate.

Mr. R. A. Macgregor, brother of the American Consul Agent here, and son of the Rev. J. G. Macgregor, of Elora, has been appointed manager of the Port Hope branch of the Montreal Bank.

Among the odd and curious specimens sent to the Elora school museum is an old churn cover, in use up to 1864, and in which is driven a worn horse-shoe nail, to prevent the butter from being affected by the evil influences of Canadian witchcraft!

BIG CUCUMBERS.—We stated yesterday that Dr. Garner, of Lucknow, had a cucumber 27 inches long. Mr. W. M. Mann, of this town, can beat that, for he has five, the largest of which measures 42 inches, and the shortest about 36 inches. They all grew on one hill.

GUN ACCIDENT.—On Monday, 24th August, two young men named Cooper and McDonald, went off shooting at a short distance from Elora, and on the former discharging his gun the barrel burst and the stock was shattered into hundreds of pieces. Cooper escaped with slight injuries on the breast and face, whilst McDonald who was standing close by was injured.

THE HERD LADDE.—The Hamilton Times says:—"This is what an individual styles himself, who is on a tour throughout the country taking the wind out of the sails of conceited checker-players. One might as well try to reform the Guelph Herald as to endeavor to escape from the mazes into which he leads each one who contests with him. He has visited a number of cities and towns in Ontario, and everywhere victory has followed him."

GNP.—This weekly visitor has been received from the bookstores. The cartoon represents the Governor General's reception by the loyal Canadians, and touches on the addresses which are everywhere presented. The paper has been changed to its original form, pending arrangements which are calculated to make it better than ever. In this connection we may mention that Mr. Bengough, Grip's cartoonist, has a new lecture in preparation, and will probably visit Guelph during the coming winter.

MEAN.—A case was tried the other day in Elora, when a hotel keeper in the place was fined $26.35 for selling liquor on Sunday. The action was brought by a person from Rothsay who, after a disagreement with the hotel keeper, went into the bar on Sunday morning with several others and participated in a treat. On Monday the action was brought, and resulted as indicated. Certainly liquor should not be sold on Sunday, but the conduct of a man who thus put a temptation in the way of a liquor seller is not commendable.

THE PROSECUTOR last evening "showed" in the Town Hall to a rather diminutive but very select audience, made up principally, however, of "dead-heads." Prof. Bemis, the lecturer, made reference to these "dead-heads," and from his remarks we judged they were something that he didn't like. However, that didn't make him curtail his exhibition in the least, and for over an hour he exhibited magic-lantern scenes by means of a Penopticon, accompanied by a descriptive lecture. At the conclusion there was no uglier gentlemen, and as the "prettiest lady"—a Miss Shaw—didn't come forward the Professor saved the price of a lady's work-box—about 75 cents, as he facetiously remarked.

IMPORTATION OF THROUGH-BRED STOCK.—James Dalziel, of Chesterfield, Oxford County, passed through Guelph about two o'clock this (Saturday) morning, on the Grand Trunk, on his way home with a splendid thorough-bred Clyde stallion, purchased in Scotland. This is his twelfth trip across the ocean, and on each visit he has purchased and brought to this country thorough-bred stock—latterly confining his attention to the introduction of Leicester sheep and Clyde stallions. Mr. Dalziel has done a great deal towards improving the stock in this country, and his name has consequently become familiar not only in this section, but also throughout the Dominion.

PAINTFUL NEWS.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Mackenzie received the sad news on Thursday evening that their son John, of the Express Office here, whose departure for Scotland on a pleasure trip we chronicled some weeks ago, had been taken suddenly and seriously ill at his uncle's house in Inverness, some three weeks ago. The first news came by letter, and immediately on its receipt they telegraphed, and received an answer by cable yesterday that he was no worse, but still in a dangerous condition. It was at once resolved that Mrs. Mackenzie should go to Scotland, and she leaves to-day, accompanied by a younger son, in the hope that she may find him alive, and be able to bring him back to Canada fully recovered. We are sure that their many friends will heartily join in this hope, and we can also assure them that their present position of painful suspense and uncertainty over the fate of a beloved and dutiful son—lying dangerously ill far from home—has evoked much sympathy for them and the other members of the family.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO IRISH EMIGRANTS.—Mr. Mulligan, of Winnipeg, has deposited the sum of £100 in the Merchants' Bank of that city. The money, together with any further sums that may be added to it, is to be applied to assist Irish emigrants to take up land under the auspices of the Society represented by Mr. O'Leary.

Improvements in the Congregational Church.

Some weeks ago we made reference to the improvements which were then in progress on the Congregational Church, Norfolk street. Since then, the internal arrangements have been completed, although the work on the spire is still in progress. The expenditure of about $2,000—the cost of the alterations—has made this Church one of the prettiest in town, and a brief reference to it will not be out of place, as the re-opening services are announced for to-morrow, when Rev. Henry Saunders, of Hamilton, will preach, morning and evening.

The principal object sought for by those who had this work in hand was to make the interior of the Church more lightsome and cheerful. With this important end in view, the old-fashioned windows have been replaced by those made of enamelled glass, with tasteful stained borders of different colors. The walls and ceiling have been frescoed in a very neat manner, the color of the walls being light green, relieved by trimmings of yellow and blue. From the base to the lower part of the windows the walls are of chocolate color, which brings out the lighter colors in strong relief. The trimmings on the ceiling are tasteful, and greatly improve the appearance of the interior. Over the archway at the end opposite the door is the inscription "Holiness becometh Thine House, O Lord, for ever," painted in Old English characters. Suspended from the ceiling are two gasoliers, each with about twenty jets, and tastefully painted in chocolate color, with purple and gold trimmings. The preacher's desk is also provided with gasoliers on either side.

The pews have been repainted, grained, cushioned with red damask, and each one provided with two small book-boards, which take the place of the ones formerly in use.

In the gallery similar improvements have been made in the seats, and in addition to these the organ has been repainted in a light color and grained, which gives it an excellent appearance from the body of the Church. The colors throughout the whole of the buildings are artistically arranged, and the improvements made enhance not only the appearance of the edifice but the comfort as well.

First Execution in Manitoba.—THE MURDERER OF BROWN HANGED.

On Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, in the city of Winnipeg, the first man condemned to be hanged in the new Province of Manitoba, met his doom on the gallows, and he was none other than Michael, the soldier of the Quebec Battalion, who, several months ago, one dark night, in a cold blooded murder, shot poor Brown, the adopted son of Sergt. Major Brown, of Hamilton. The particulars were published shortly afterwards, as well as the confession of Michael, which was that from the murderous feeling which heavy drinking that night had brought upon him, he did not know what he was about, but felt a thirst for another body's blood, as he previously attacked one of his own comrades in a murderous manner. Brown was making a short cut home and met his murderer and the two soldiers. He was attacked and literally hewed to death. Being found guilty on his own confession, he was sentenced by the Chief Justice to be hanged, and the sentence was carried out on Thursday. Michael prepared a dying confession, which he intended to read from the scaffold, but did not, as the execution was private and witnessed only by a very few persons, though hundreds of people had come from all parts of the Province to be present at the hanging. The confession related the details of the crime, and contained a warning to all young men to beware of drink and bad company, as it was these that had led him to the fate he was about to meet. The gallows had been erected for fully a week beforehand.

Egyptian Agriculture.—The surface of Egypt capable of being cultivated, according to the report of Mr. Stanley, the Indian General, is, according to official statistics, 7,264,640 acres, or 11,351 square miles, of which about 3,125,000 are actually under cultivation. The figures as to the population show that there is no want of hands for its proper cultivation, there being for the whole 11,851 square miles, 462 inhabitants per square mile, whereas in England and exclusive of Wales, Scotland and Ireland there are 422, in Belgium 434, and in France 231. Here, too, almost the whole population is available for agricultural purposes, there being scarcely any manufacturers. I quote these figures as disproving the assertion frequently made that there is a scarcity of hands for the proper cultivation of the soil. Steam, moreover, is now used for irrigation by all the large land-owners, though certainly the small cultivators have still a most primitive method of irrigation, similar to that in Bengal, using where oxen, or camels, are not employed turning the wheels, leaky buckets which keep two men constantly employed raising the water into a channel, whence it flows in rills over the land, and there is certainly a large margin for the substitution of mechanical for manual labor. Steam power may be too costly for the poorer holders, but the syphon system or windmills might be employed to advantage. The great desideratum is to keep the canals filled, whence irrigation is easy. This, and the digging of fresh canals, form the labor of the people for months, the country depending so absolutely for its agricultural prosperity, even for the existence of the people, on the maintenance of the canals at a certain level. I see no reason to think that the people should be even compelled, under proper and wise direction, to contribute their labor to this end. I regret to say, however, that I have heard many statements from persons worthy of belief, that this is not done under proper and wise direction, and that the people are taken away in gangs from their own ground to do work for powerful land-owners, which in no wise benefits their districts. It is difficult to arrive at the real truth as to the excessive taxation said to weigh on the agricultural population of Egypt. There is no doubt that the people themselves and that the people are taken away in gangs from their own ground to do work for powerful land-owners, which in no wise benefits their districts. The Herald's Slanders about the Model Farm.

The best answer to the slanderous article about the Model Farm, which appeared in the Herald of yesterday, is the following letter addressed to that paper, which we have received from the Rector, who informs us that had the charges not been so personal and explicit he would not have deigned to notice them.

To the Editor of the Mercury. Sir,—Would you oblige by inserting the following letter I have addressed to the Herald.

Yours, &c., Wm. JOHNSTON.

O. S. A., Aug. 29, '74.

To the Editor of the Herald.

Sir,—In your issue of last evening I notice an article relating to this school, in which you make two distinct charges. First, "that some of the students and others had been caught in acts of immorality with females employed about the place;" secondly, that I have striven to hush the matter up; and lastly, you insinuate that I have "witnessed" some of those things "with my own eyes."

Now, Sir, I give your first charge an express and implicit denial; and consequently your second falls to the ground. In contradiction to the insinuation that your insinuation is baseless as your charges are, I give you the following:

Wm. JOHNSTON, Rector O. S. A. O. S. A., August 29, 1874.

The Tilton-Beecher Case--The Verdict of the Committee.

After long, and we think unnecessary, delay, the Plymouth Church Committee have rendered their verdict in the Tilton-Beecher case. It will be found in another column. The decision is what we expected! It would be—acquitting Mr. Beecher of any charge of adultery, or of any unchaste or improper acts with Mrs. Tilton, or improper remarks, proffers, or solicitations to her. They very rightly admit errors of judgment on the part of Mr. Beecher, but find nothing in his relations towards her to impair the perfect confidence Plymouth Church and the world has in his character and integrity. The verdict will meet the approval of nearly all who have followed the inquiry.

Amaranth Voters' List--Right Triumphs at Last.

We stated some two weeks ago that the little band of Reformers in Amaranth had notified the Township Clerk that they intended to test the legality of over sixty votes, which had been illegally put on the roll by the assessors of that Township, and which in spite of protests, and the knowledge that they had no right to be there, were confirmed by a partisan Council. The revision of these lists took place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday before Judge Macdonald, and after three days' hard work, the result is that no less than forty-five of these bogus Conservative votes have been taken off the roll. We have no doubt that the number could have been doubled if the appeals had only been sent in time. We are, however, rejoiced at the result as it is, and heartily congratulate the few staunch and true Reformers in that Township who through good report and bad report, in the face of unmeasured abuse, and sometimes even personal peril, have stood true to their principles, and boldly fought out the battle for right, and to secure a purified and true voters' list. Amaranth in days gone by was a perfect paradise for Tory candidates, and no wonder, strongly Conservative from the first, the party had their own way in all Municipal matters. They took advantage of this in the most unscrupulous manner, and cooked the assessment rolls year after year to suit party purposes. So it was in the days when Dr. Clarke ran; so it was when Mr. Drew sought the suffrages of the electors of the North Riding, Amaranth was looked to as the great Tory stronghold, and the legitimate strength of the party was greatly increased by the bogus votes which were yearly manufactured without scruple and without stint. Why, at last election in January, it was proved beyond a shadow of doubt that many voted in Amaranth on lands which they did not own, and that not a few votes were recorded in the names of men who were dead or had left the Township.

Thanks to the new election law, we have seen the last of this wicked and pernicious system of manufacturing votes. The honest electors will now have a chance of getting justice, and if they only take the proper steps they need not have their votes neutralised by those which owe their existence to fraud and deception. The provision for carrying such contested cases to the ultimate decision of a just judge will in time help to cure these electoral abuses, and the only pity is that the law for the punishment of those who seek to make illegal votes for themselves, and of those assessors who knowingly connive at the fraud, is not more severe. As it is, however, a great reform has been effected, and we rejoice to find that a good beginning has been made in the very hot-bed of Toryism. Henceforth Amaranth will not be the exclusive pasture ground of the Conservatives, nor the terror of Reformers; and though the Conservative element largely predominates there, the members of that party will in future be compelled to depend on honest votes, and the Reformers in the Township will not be debarred from showing their full strength. We again congratulate the Reformers of Amaranth on the noble work they have accomplished. Let them take courage, and pursue the same course, and in the end they will triumph.

The Quebec Ministers show themselves more and more inclined to brave the storm without a resignation and to meet Parliament. Their plan of action depends largely on the decision of Hon. Mr. Robertson, Treasurer.

BASE BALL ITEMS.

The Tecumsehs of London beat the Athletics of Brantford, on Thursday, by a score of 17 to 13.

A Good Move.—Mr. Albert Prince, the member for Essex, has announced that he will not institute a personal canvass of his constituency at the next election and as a substitute has issued an elaborate address in which he clearly defines his position. We think the resolution is a wise one, but unless all candidates were to follow the same course, those who do not make a personal canvass will be placed at a disadvantage. If the practice were given up altogether candidates would have more self-respect, and intelligent independent voters would think more of them. It is the people who should seek the election of a candidate, not the candidate who should beg the support of the people.

British Harvest.

The London Agricultural Gazette of the 1st inst. contains 273 reports of the current wheat crop from all the English, most of the Scottish, and many Irish counties; and of these 183 declare it to be "over average," 83 declare it to be "average," and only seven put it "under average." The reports are as nearly as possible the converse of those of 1873, when the numbers were 11, 89, and 157 respectively. The spring sown corn crops are, however, very inferior to those of last year. Barley, indeed, is a heavy crop on heavy lands; and in Essex, as in other clay-land counties, almost all the corn crops are above an average. But taking them over the whole country, more than half the returns of barley, oats and beans and peas are under average; about one-third are average, and the small remainder over average. The oat crop is the worst spring sown corn crop of the year, beans and peas come next, and barley is the best of that series. Happily the wheat crop is undoubtedly an admirable crop in 1874, and it is the crop in England at any rate which most generally affects the fortunes of the farmer. Light land farmers are, however, in very poor plight. They have had a miserable hay crop, a very poor promise of turnips, and all the spring sown corn is poor. The mangel crop, which does not concern them much, is likely to be good; and the potato crop, which might affect them generally, is likely to be sound and good, but it is not much cultivated as a general farm crop in England. The harvest is proceeding rapidly in the southern and eastern counties, and we don't hear that there is any difficulty in procuring the necessary hands.

MEASURING HAY.—To measure the contents of a stack of hay, proceed as follows: If it is a round stack, tapering to a point from the ground, measure the width half way between the ground and the peak of the stack; multiply this width by itself, and divide the sum by 7,854; this will give the average area of the surface covered by the stack. Then multiply that by the height from the ground to the point where the width was measured. If these measurements are in feet, the sum found is the cubic feet in the stack. If the hay is timothy, orchard grass, millet, or Hungarian, 500 feet will make a ton, or a cubic eight feet each way. If the stack is very solid, and was cut when dead ripe, 350 feet will make a ton, or a cubic of seven each way. If the hay is mixed with clover or light meadow grass, or red-top, 800 feet will be required to weigh a ton, unless it is pressed very hard, when some allowance must be made. These estimates are made from notes of a great many stacks and mows of various kinds, and will give a fair average.

PIC-NIC.—The inhabitants of Paisley Block picnicked at that favorite summer resort, Painsich Lake, yesterday. The Yeomanry of that district, accompanied by their sweethearts, turned out en masse. After spending the day in boating and other amusements, they departed to Hespeler, where dancing was kept up for a considerable time in Baker's Hall, to first-class music which had been provided for the occasion, after which the route homeward was taken, every one highly delighted with the day's enjoyment.

A SCENE.—At a recent meeting of the Culross Township Council a motion was carried that the tavern keepers in the village of Teeswater should have $10 each refunded to them of the amount ($30) paid for their license last March. This grant would be in all $50. The Reeve refused to sign the checks on the treasurer, claiming that it was contrary to the by-laws passed by this year, and in justice to the people of Culross. The Reeve received a great deal of abuse and personal threats; the council sympathizing with the tavern-keepers.

A Large Lot now arriving, and will be sold Cheap during the Preserving Season.

J. E. McELDERRY
2 DAY'S BLOCK,

THE NOTED TEA HOUSE

Guelph, August 1st, 1874.

To the Public.

I take this opportunity to let my old friends and customers know that early this Fall I intend opening up one of the most extensive and varied stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods to be seen in Ontario. I have had erected for my own special retail business a most complete arranged store, and from my long experience in the mercantile business, I feel and know that I will present for the inspection of my old patrons and others not only the most choice selection of Fancy Goods, but goods that will in reality be of such a character as to give to the purchaser the most entire satisfaction. The value will form one of the most important features of my establishment; the fact of going direct to the fountain head for my whole stock, and buying all for the ready money, and in addition having no old stock to palm off, is of itself a positive guarantee that my establishment will present inducements to the purchaser that none other in Guelph can approach. I earnestly request my old friends and customers to pay a visit to my establishment, when the old motto that I used for so many years to their advantage will again be adopted, viz: the best goods in the trade at the smallest possible profit. Good goods and Cheap goods. One price and no abatement. No misrepresentations, and the interests of the public doing business with me strenuously watched.

Yours truly,

JOHN HOGG.

G. & A. HADDEN,

The rails of the railway which is to ascend Mount Vesuvius are now complete. The route will be 16.1 miles in length. The grades are 20 and 35 per cent, and the road terminates at a few feet of the crater. There will be one station, protected by a sort of break-lava, which will divert the flow, in case of eruption, from the building and rails. The road is so laid out as to be naturally sheltered at every point, except for a distance of about sixty feet.

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."—See article in Cassell's Household Guide. jy6-9m

PAIN-KILLER is a purely vegetable preparation, safe to keep and to use in every family. The simplicity attending its use, together with the great variety of diseases that may be entirely eradicated by it, and the great amount of pain and suffering that can be alleviated through its use, make it imperative upon every person to supply themselves with this valuable remedy, and to keep it always at hand.

OUT OF PATIENCE.—A good yarn is told of a chap who while riding, not over one hundred miles from this town, came across an old lady seated in a buggy which had been halted within a few yards of the Grand Trunk Railway track. She seemed to be uneasy about something, and as he drove up she asked:—"Say, mister, bain't that engine going to come along pretty soon?" He asked her to explain, and she pointed to the sign which reads, "Look out for the engine," and added:—"I've waited more'n two hours for the ole engine to go by, but I'm getting tired, and if it don't come pretty soon I'll drive right over the track and go home!"

The Atlantic of Brooklyn played their eighth game of the championship series with the Philadelphia, at Philadelphia, on Wednesday, and received their worst defeat of the season, the score standing 28 to 1.

Special Notices.

THE RECENT CASE OF DEATH by streptococcus poisoning from taking SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES, noticed in the Montreal Daily Witness of August 1st, renders great caution necessary not to confound Dr. Wheeler's Compound Syrup of PHOSPHATES and Calissa with COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES. Observe well the difference in orthography and bear in mind that medicine is there no similarity in action or effect.
