OTTAWA, May 9.—Last Year's deal between the local coul combine, the Rathbun Company and the Canada Atlantic Railway, was the subject of further explanation at the meeting of the Combine's Committee this moraing, when Mr. R. C. Carter, representative of the Rathbuns, was examined. This company, he gald, had last year contemplated selling coal at retail in Ottawa, but being rather late they had abradoned the idea on the understanding that the local dealers should buy a quantity from him wholesale, the coal to be delivered over the Canada Atlantic. This coal was to be purchased from the Delaware and Hudson Company, but for some reason unknown that company refused to deliver any for known that company refused to deliver any for heart at a loss.

Mr. Carter said his company had contemplated establishing a business in Ottawa this genson, but nothing had been decided yet. There would be several new dealers here, the thing in fact was wrong, and it was only when Mr. Abbott's appointment to the Board was a touched upon that the malevolence of the whole firade became apparent and its animous traceable to the old original source of Globe inspiration. With the discovery of the dictating spite arises always doubt and contempt of the matter in which it is wisopped. The feader of the Gevernment in the Senate is party man there, but is far too clearheaded and conscientious to carry politics into the bank parior. The Globe's attack on the bank, on Mr. Abbott and on the C.P.R. is traceable at once to political spite, and therefore falls dat and harmless. When will the Reform organ arrive at a Knewledge of what everbody else fully inderstands. The policy of a bank may be right or wrong when it puts up rates or calls indeas. But the action is taken always with full knowledge of the bank's requirements, of
