SOCIAL SERVICE ORGANIZED

Council Formed at Well Attended Meeting.—Bootlegging and Social Irregularities Discussed.
—List of Officers.

A very well attended meeting was held in the Board of Trade Rooms on Friday night to discuss matters connected with Social Reform. Representatives were present from the Children's Aid Society, W. C. T. U., Women's Institute, Oddfellows and Rebekahs.

Investigations carried on for some time back have shown that there are quite a number of social irregularities in various parts of the County. A number of these have come to the attention of Rev. A. J. Prosser during his work as Children's Aid Society officer. He thought that steps should be taken to secure information as complete as possible, tabulate it and place it before the Government to emphasize to them the need of action. Problems relating to feeble-minded children and families living in bigamous relationship were presented and considered.

The following resolution was drafted by a committee appointed for the purpose and consisting of Canon E. Underwood and Mr. Fred E. Bath, dealing with the matter of taking a survey of certain social conditions in the county:—"Whereas it is becoming increasingly apparent that social evils exist which if generally known would lead to remedial steps being taken, therefore resolved that suitable questionnaire is desirable to elicit the necessary information, and that if such a questionnaire can be prepared this meeting pledges itself to do its best to get statistics covering Annapolis County, and further resolved that steps be taken to induce the Kings Printer to supply the questionnaire." Mr. E. A. Hicks was appointed to bring the request before the Local Government.

In connection with the Temperance question it was moved that the Social Council now constituted request the Bridgetown Town Council to supply information regarding the amount of liquor sold each month through the Vendor.

It is not of course to be argued that irregularities and conditions such as those discussed are more common in Annapolis Co. than in other counties. The activities of Mr. Prosser have focussed attention upon defects that exist too commonly in every county of the Province, but are unknown or unnoticed by the population at large. The liquor traffic was discussed for a little time and comments were made on the extent to which bootlegging is carried on. According to reports around the infirm and sick are no longer to any extent making applications to medical men for prescriptions to secure the high priced stocks dispensed through the Nova Scotia Vendors Commission but are taking pot luck with the cheaper products distributed by the bootleggers.

The meeting considered some steps should be taken to stop this illicit traffic but just how it is going to be done does not yet appear. The same conditions reported here are reported from many parts of Nova Scotia and it appears that the revenue of the Province is losing out in the contest with bootleggers.

After a pretty complete discussion it was decided to organize a Social Service Council and officers were

SOCIAL EVENTS AT ANNAPOLIS

Marriage of Dr. Geo. P. McIntosh to Miss Dorothy Merriam.—Mr. Chas. E. McClafferty to Wed Miss Josephine Murray—Personal Notes.

Annapolis Royal—St. Luke's church was beautifully decorated on Wednesday morning for the wedding of Miss Dorothy E. Merriam and Dr. George P. MacIntosh of Springhill, Cumb. Co. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. T. C. Melter and the bride was given away by her father, Capt. W. R. Merriam, being charmingly attired in jade green crepe and silver lace, with black velvet hat, and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by her sisters the Misses Marjorie and Madelyn Merriam, who wore gowns of peach and blue taffeta, and carried bouquets of asters and sweet peas. Gordon McCormick was best man and the ushers were Gordon Banks and Simon C. Merriam, brother of the bride. Miss Muriel Wainwright presided at the organ and nuptial hymns were sung by the vested choir to which the bride previously belonged. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Granville Ferry, the young couple left by train for their future home in Springhill. ## CAUSE AND EFFECT

The Buffalo (N. Y.) Express offers its view on the unemployment question in Canada. Its diagnosis probably does not go to the root of the matter, nor would its remedy be wholly efficacious even could it be applied, but as its observations are those of an outsider—an onlooker—they may be of some value. The Express says:

"Unemployment in Canada has reached such a stage that the Dominion Government is playing host to provincial and municipal officials, employers and labor leaders from Cape Breton Island to Vancouver, B. C. The idea of most of the conferees appears to be that public works should be pursued with a full complement of men throughout the winter and that no national undertaking provides for be left in abeyance. A labor leader would stipulate that the eight-hour day prevail.

"When unemployment becomes very serious, as it now appears to be in Canada, the only possible relief, short of direct charity, may be prosecution of public works. But in this instance, as in others, that may be attempting to cure a disease with its cause. The reason that Canada is not so prosperous as this country just now is that taxation is excessive. Taxation increases the cost of goods and lowers the buying power of the public. To continue extravagant public works merely to give employment will preclude substantial reductions in taxes.

"Divergence of views as to the remedy for the present conditions in Canada would be startling if they were at all unusual. The so-called progressives from the West urge free trade as the remedy while the manufacturers of the East advocate with equal vehemence addition to the tariff.

Taxes were never popular and never will be but they are necessary and essential just the same. At the same time there is no doubt that the people of Canada are getting too much loaded on them in this line and a considerable reason for this is not only the orge of expenditure during war days but the disinclination to practice economy and thrift. This permeates governments and individuals alike to an alarming extent. The average individual will not curtail his expenditures unless a pinch coming from somewhere obliges him to do so. Governments are made by the people and reflect their characteristics and will not economize till they have to. In Canada it has been very largely the case right along for the "outs" to howl economy and retrenchment while the "ins" go on spending the money as usual. A public distrust of purely party demands for economy is very often well founded. There is not in Canada the strong public opinion found in Britain that puts governments in their place when they are not doing the right things. No government, whatever party it may represent, should perpetuate unnecessary expenditures because they have edly it represents a revolution in its been introduced by previous govern-ments. It is always easier to yield, say, to a demand for further expenditures than it is to stand firm against his Carlisle, "the whole forest resounds demand and curtail expenses. The with the crash; but a thousand country at large expects a greater economy is sown unnoticed by the measure of economy than it is get-passing breeze." The cigarette-habit-ting. Greater carelessness would undoubtedly be compared to one mean greater prosperity generally. of those acorns.

TAXING GAS

Both in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick there have recently been some expressions of opinion favorable to a reduction in motor license fees and the imposition of a tax upon gasoline such as is collected from motorists in Quebec. At its recent meeting the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities. The argument in favor of the suggestion is that the more a car is used the greater the wear and tear upon the highways from its operation and, therefore, the more its owner should fairly be expected to pay in taxation. A gasoline tax would compel the car owner to pay more or less according as he used the roads more or less. But, of course, hand in hand with the imposition of a gasoline impost, supporters of this taxing plan hold, there should go a reduction in present motor license fees. In Quebec the gasoline tax seems to have been satisfactory in its operation. It has not put any great burden upon individual motorists but in the aggregate the amount paid into the Provincial treasury has been large. And the plan has this effect, among others, that it compels visiting motorists to make some contribution to provincial funds that are necessary to the upkeep and improvement of the highways which visiting cars help to wear down. There may be some sound objections to the adoption of a similar plan in Nova Scotia but the signs are that the merits of the plan are likely to be seriously canvassed in the Maritimes before very long.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE LOG CABIN IN POLITICS
New York Herald-Tribune: It is remarkable that the Democrats and the Republicans are able to hope at all for success. La Follette has an insuperable advantage; he was born in a log cabin.

WORK AND CHARACTER.
Detroit News: The basis of character is in work. Labor, in the large sense, knows no difference between the coal-miner and the electrical engineer. It is the impulse directing the Labor that counts. Every task undertaken has a two-fold purpose for fulfillment; the task must realize its immediate duty to society through employer, customer or client but it also must increase the character and self-respect of the doer. Any work which does not contain among its essential elements the character of the worker is poor work.

THE CIGARETTE HABIT.
London Morning Post: At first glance it may seem of no particular importance that the practice of smoking cigarettes should subdue a nation. But the significance is real and deep. It marks a difference not only in social customs and standards, but in national culture. In another generation or two we shall be able to measure more accurately the effect and the tendency of it. But undoubtedly it represents a revolution in its been introduced by previous govern-ments. It is always easier to yield, say, to a demand for further expenditures than it is to stand firm against his Carlisle, "the whole forest resounds demand and curtail expenses. The with the crash; but a thousand country at large expects a greater economy is sown unnoticed by the measure of economy than it is get-passing breeze." The cigarette-habit-ting. Greater carelessness would undoubtedly be compared to one mean greater prosperity generally. of those acorns.

YOUTHFUL REBELS.

New York Post: The revolt of flaming youth against the smug tyranny of age has always been regarded as something to smile at leniently. Boys will be boys and time will make them men. This revolt has now grown to such proportions as to administer a distinct shock to the social structure. Criminologists assure us, for instance, not only that the United States leads the civilized world in crimes and violence, but that the majority of the criminal cases involve boys—and girls—under twenty-five. The youthful rebels seem to have thrown off all restraint, and their cling is clattering up our prisons and breaking the hearts of parents. Boys—and girls—will be criminals we are told, and time will only make them more hardened.

DOING BRITAIN A GOOD TURN.

Sydney Bulletin: If any power on earth or in Heaven can awaken this country to the futility of the foreign loan habit, the rigid restriction of that would also be opportune, even if it was considered necessary to stop the export of gold in order to help the good work along. There is a streak of absurdity in the borrowing of great sums at a great price, when the money only comes, if it comes at all, in the form of goods. The making of these goods may put a thin varnish of prosperity on a few British industries, but it is no business of ours to put even a trace of varnish on anybody's affairs. The act savors of impotence. In short, this appears to be the time to do the Old Man a good turn even against his will, and if it proves ultimately to be a good turn for ourselves, so much the better.

GERMANY AND THE LEAGUE.

Le Journal (Paris): The entrance of Germany into the establishment at Geneva, our friends declare would deprive us of our recourse to direct action against her. Should we then set such store by this privilege of "direct action"? It is admitted that during those years in which one feels the exhilaration of victory, direct action is justified and practical. But what about tomorrow? Look back in history and consult your own reason, and then say if you believe that a nation can be forever prevented from training its youth to arms whether in barracks or outside; if one can always forbid it to construct an air fleet, commercial or not; if one can in practice prohibit the accumulation by it of guns, machine-guns, or even cannon; if it is possible to deprive it of a powerful industry capable of spitting out each month myriads of projectiles. How shall we, a people with a falling birth-rate, dream of meeting face to face, with hands free, doubtless, but alone, a country of great natal vigor, to lecture and impose our conditions upon it?

MARRIED.

Thies—Kenney.
Liverpool.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kenney was the scene of the wedding Thursday of their daughter Edna Amelia, and Karl Thies, of Bridgetown. The wedding took place at 9 a.m. and the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Spurr, rector of Trinity parish.

The room was decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father carrying a bouquet of roses and wore a gown of brown satin with trimmings of fur and hat to match. There were no attendants, and only members of the immediate families were present. Following the ceremony, luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left by auto to tour Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, going to Boston via Maine.

The bride was the recipient of many gifts, including cut glass, silverware, linen, also many valuable and useful articles. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque.

BERLIN IN THROES OF WHISKEY WAR.

German Police Have Seized All Stocks of British Beverage.

Berlin.—This city is in the throes of a whiskey war. The police have seized all stocks of the British beverage and are threatening prosecution of the owners, because the importation of British whiskey is legally forbidden.

As French cognac and champagne are permitted to enter Germany, British officials allege that British distilleries are being discriminated against. A compromise is now being attempted in order that the British product may be admitted.

Whiskey, wine, perfume and other luxuries have been filtering into Germany through the occupied area and German officials insist that the hole in the west must be closed if Germany is to pay her reparations.

Here and There

More than one hundred and fifty traders from the Far North arrived in Edmonton, Alta., recently bringing with them fur sales to the value of approximately $500,000.

Tarzan Second, the largest wooden scow in the world, was launched recently at the Wallace shipyards, Vancouver, B.C. She is 1,000 tons burden and has 300,000 feet of British Columbia lumber in her make-up. The scow is to be used as a carrier for a great pile-driver for Sydney E. Jenkins Company.

Two dinosaurs have been located in the Red Deer Valley, Alta., near the Canadian Pacific Railway line this summer, by the University of Toronto expedition, composed of four scientists who prospected for several weeks in the gorge and are packing up the prehistoric monsters for shipment to the Royal Ontario Museum. Another skeleton has been located by the Geological Survey of Canada.

One of the outstanding features of Canadian trade with the Orient during the past year or so has been the remarkable increase in wheat flour exports. Imports of Canadian wheat flour into Hong Kong in 1923 were the largest on record, showing an increase of 100 per cent in volume over those of 1922. The figures and values were: 1922, 79,585 barrels, valued at $126,060; 1923, 151,821 barrels, valued at $249,044.

Zane Grey, the famous novelist, recently caught a 758 pound tuna fish, constituting what is believed to be a world's record. The sea monster was successfully conquered after three hours and ten minutes of grilling endeavor off the Nova Scotia coast, and towed into Liverpool harbor. Mr. Grey's prize is a species of the blue fin family. The record before this catch was held by J. K. L. Ross, the well-known Montreal sportsman and financier, who caught a 710 pound tuna.

One of the most remarkable achievements in art printing yet produced in Canada and one which finally disposes of the idea that such work cannot be satisfactorily handled by Canadian firms is found in the new booklet issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway dealing with the forthcoming 1925 Round the World cruise of the company's steamship "Empress of France." The booklet contains 40 pages of text and color illustrations, the latter exquisitely combining many brilliant hues in a number of highly imaginative designs.

Canadian Pacific gross earnings for July totalled $14,533,977 as against $15,677,835 for the same month last year, a decrease of $794,159. But in order to meet this reduction, operating expenses were reduced by $1,963,686, those for the month being $12,544,215, as compared with $13,607,902 for July, 1923. Thus the net earnings for the month showed an increase of $269,527 over those of the same month a year ago. For the 7 months of the year to July 30 gross earnings showed an increase of $8,017,265; operating expenses an increase of $1,924,018 and net earnings an increase of $1,093,251.

NO SCHOONER RACE TO BE HELD THIS YEAR.

Buenose Will be Eliminated, And Another Boat Will Defend the Trophy.
There will be no International Schooner Race this year, according to the decision of the International Fishermen's Trustee who met in Halifax Thursday. They had before them a telegram from the American Race Committee at Gloucester, asking whether the trustees proposed to put the trophy up for competition this year as usual, and the decision was not to race this year, but to plan on renewing the sport next year, with a series off Gloucester.—Chronicle.

Hon. O. T. Daniels Retires on Account of Ill Health.
At a meeting Thursday of the Nova Scotia Trust Company, one of the strong financial institutions of the Maritime Provinces, Melvin S. Clarke, the well known real estate broker and Halifax business man, was elected President, succeeding Hon. O. T. Daniels, who retires from the presidency owing to ill-health. Mr. Clarke who is one of the younger business men of Nova Scotia, has been associated with the Nova Scotia Trust Company since its organization thirteen years ago. He has had wide experience in financial and business affairs and is splendidly qualified for the important office of president of the company.—Herald.

MUSEUM POPULAR.

Number of Visitors This Year Will Probably Total 15,000.
The Provincial Museum at the Nova Scotia Technical College building is this season being visited by a far greater number of people than for years. The average number of visitors per year in the past has been about 5,000, but it is expected this year's total will run well up to 15,000. This summer a very attractive museum sign board done in gold on green was placed on the lawn in front of the College building and this of itself has attracted attention that led to many people entering the Museum to view the interesting collection of curious, souvenirs and products of the Province on exhibition there.

OBITUARY.

Rev. S. C. Ingersoll.

The death occurred very suddenly on Friday morning, Sept. 5th, of Rev. S. C. Ingersoll, whose marriage to Mrs. Mary Bligh took place only a few weeks ago. Mr. Ingersoll had been enjoying very good health for a man of his years, but on Friday morning had complained of not feeling as well as usual. A few hours later Mrs. Ingersoll was shocked to discover that he had passed away suddenly, apparently from heart failure. The deceased was in his 80th year. He was a former resident of Stamford, Conn., and for some years was pastor of the M. E. Church of that city. Funeral service was held at his late residence, Monday, at 10 a.m., conducted by Rev. F. M. Webster, Rector of Christ Church. Mr.

Webster in a brief address, spoke of the splendid Christian character of the departed. The body was forwarded on the westbound express for Stamford, Conn., for interment. Mrs. Ingersoll accompanying the remains. —Berwick Register.

WEALTH OF NATIONS.

Indianapolis News: The prosperity of the nation goes up or down as the farmer prospers or falls upon evil times. Recent despatches from all parts of the country, showing the employment of more men in factories, the re-opening of mills that had been idle and the general upward trend in business, indicate that the cities were ready for better times, but they could not go ahead until changed conditions for the farmers gave them the necessary impetus.

TROUBLOUS TIMES ARE LOOMING FOR THE LORDLY MOOSE

Open Season Begins on Wednesday —Meat Cannot be Sold.

The moose hunting season opens today and reports from several districts are to the effect that big game promises to be plentiful, though the citizen who is not a hunter and has no warm friends or admirers who can afford the luxury of hunting the monarch of the Nova Scotia forest will bemoan the fact that he will not, as he could do in previous years, see him to the market in the limited season, and buy for himself and his family a luscious moose steak or roast, or the makings of the appetizing moose soup. For word has gone forth that there is to be no moose meat selling for a few years. The amendment to the game law is due to the fact that the yearly moose kill dwindled from 1480 in 1922 to 934 last year and is in the interest of conservation of the Province's big game.

The annual moose kills reported in the Province since 1908 have been as follows, 1908 including cows, and the years since then bulls only:

Moose:—1908, 688; 1909, 405; 1910, 509; 1911, 617; 1912, 678; 1913, 704; 1914, 1095; 1915, 1208; 1916, 1331; 1917, 1363; 1918, 1241; 1919, 1277; 1920, 1361; 1921, 1480; 1922, 1136; 1923, 934.

The deer kill annually since 1916 (bucks only) has been as follows:—1916, 154; 1917, 101; 1918, 69; 1919, 198; 1920, 125; 1921, 255; 1922, 232; 1923, 147.

The open season for moose, beginning Oct 1st, ends Nov. 15th, and an amended section of the Game Laws

CELEBRATES SILVER WEDDING

On Thursday evening, September 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Morgan, at Charlton, Idaho, was seen one of a merry gathering of friends when they were celebrating 25th anniversary of their wedding.

The rooms and porch were beautifully decorated in evergreens twined with rose; and the center table in rose and white. The porch was lighted with Japanese lanterns. The bride of 25 seasons was a charming hostess and seemed as young in spirit as on her wedding day, and the groom was all smiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were married in Lawrence town, Nova Scotia, on September 4th, 1899, and have lived in Idaho about ten years.

There were present besides about forty-five guests, four daughters, the Misses Marjorie, Geraldine and Eleanor, and Mrs. F. E. Kerby, and two sons, Jack and Edward, two grandchildren, Frank Morgan Kerby and Francis Marion Kerby. During the evening Miss Marjorie gave a reading "The Mallets Masterpiece" which was greatly enjoyed by all. After delicious refreshments were served Mrs. Morgan was escorted to the table to open various packages placed there, but both Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were too timid to make a speech, Mr. Morgan declaring that to be entirely out of his line.

The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Morgan many happy returns of their anniversary, and promising to attend their golden wedding.

The guests who enjoyed this delightful occasion and the gifts were: Mr. T. E. Virts and daughter Dorothy, a sandwich tray; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Moore, gravy ladel and bread knife; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kerby, a dozen teaspoons; Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Allman, pie knife; Mr. and Mrs. Stinson, tomato server; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kerby, cake basket; Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Bishop, berry spoon; Miss Clara Bishop, marmalade jar; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Love, salt and pepper set; Mr. and Mrs. Falls, butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. Meisner, sugar spoon and butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Higgins, gravy spoon; Mr. and Mrs. E. Richmond, meat fork; then followed a shower of 40 silver dollars by Messrs and Mesdames Mansfield, Cross, Cochran, McFall, Coorough, Harden, MacGregor, Mrs. Ashley and Mr. A. Nelson.

provides that no person shall kill or hunt any calf moose under the age of two years, or any cow moose, or any moose on the Island of Cape Breton. The killing of a yearling bull or "spike horn" so called, is now prohibited. Another amendment requires that moose antlers submitted to Justices of the Peace or Magistrates when affidavit is being made, are to be marked by a hole bored through them. Other clauses of the game laws include the following:

No person who has killed any game shall allow any part thereof suitable for food to be destroyed or spoilt.

No person shall take, carry or have in his possession in or upon any forest, wood or other resort of moose, caribou or deer any rifle of a calibre greater than .22 between the sixteenth day of November and the first day of April following. No person not holding a license for the hunting of big game shall, during the open season for moose or deer, carry a rifle in or upon any forest, wood, or other resort of such game.

No person shall sell or offer for sale any part of the carcass of a moose before the 4th day of October, A. D., 1927.—Chronicle.

IRISH EARL VISITS CANADA

THE Earl of Leitrim, who has been spending a vacation on this side of the Atlantic, passed through Montreal on his return home, sailing last week by the Canadian Pacific steamer "Montclare." The Earl is greatly interested in the development of Donegal as a tourist resort, and has been interested to find that part of Ireland bears so much resemblance to Maine and New Brunswick—with wooded hills running up to about two thousand feet high and streams and lakes full of fish. Ireland, according to the Earl, is rapidly settling down to normal conditions, and Donegal has recently received a considerable influx of tourists, there being excellent hotels such as that at Rosapena, which has its own golf course, its own fishing for trout and salmon, and a beautiful bathing beach of golden sand four miles long with waters warmed by the gulf stream. Donegal is a great favorite with artists and writers, George Russell (better known as "A. E.") and John Macfield, being among the number of those who have painted or written about its beauties.

Rosapena in five hours. The roads are being improved and motor traffic in Ireland is on the increase, particularly now that so many Canadians and Americans are taking their own cars with them to the Old Country. The Earl of Leitrim who has crossed Canada before this is much interested to see the development of Canadian tourist resorts. He was particularly struck by the tremendous crowds he found at the Chateau Frontenac, in Quebec. It will be a long time, he says, before Donegal has such a hotel, but the present ones are very comfortable and surprise visitors from this side by the conveniences they offer.—Rosapena, for instance, having suites of rooms with private bath.

Owing to the greater ease in securing labor, the rates are also not so high as on this side—one can get very fair accommodation with meals included for five dollars a day, and this provides the opportunity for excellent salmon fishing in season.

Another erroneous opinion, according to the Earl, was that it rained all the time in the West of Ireland. The average rainfall in Rosapena is only from 40 to 45 inches a year. Visitors, he says, are too apt to think the climate of the whole of Ireland is the same as that of Killarney, which he admits is wet.

THE GROWING GIRL
 Requires a Mother's Constant Care And Watchfulness.
 In their early teens it is quite common for girls to outgrow their strength, and mothers should carefully watch the health of their daughters at this time, for it is when strength is sapped by too rapid growth that anaemia develops. The first signs may be noticed by peevishness, languor and headaches. The face grows pale, breathlessness and palpitation follow, with low spirits.
 At the first symptom of anaemia mothers should act at once. Neglected anaemia often leads to decline, but if you see that your daughter's blood is enriched there need be no cause for anxiety. The finest blood enricher ever discovered is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The pure, red blood created by these pills will quickly banish all signs of anaemia. They will build up your girl's health and ensure her a robust girlhood. Give your daughter a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now. Make her strong like thousands of girls and women throughout Canada who have been rescued from the clutches of anaemia by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
 You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE TOWN MANAGER SUBJECT OF ADDRESS.

Kentville.—D. G. Whidden, Stipendiary Magistrate, of Wolfville, spoke before the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon Thursday on "The Town Manager." He first pointed out that with twentieth century demand for better service and more of it, with the necessary increase and fixed charges and overhead expenses in conducting the affairs of the city or town requiring a higher rate of taxation, citizens are realizing the fact that this increased service has to be paid for out of their pockets, and that a better form of government than the old Mayor and Council is essential. He described the commission plan, telling of its adoption by over 300 cities between 1901 and 1914. Mr. Whidden then spoke of the city manager plan. Since its inception in January, 1908, it had been adopted by 337 cities and towns, of which only three have abandoned it by vote of the people, while 53 of the 303 which had adopted the commission plan have abandoned it.

After fully explaining the workings of the city manager plan he turned to the question of how it might be applied to the government of incorporated towns in Nova Scotia. He pointed out very clearly the difficulty of having good town government when both legislation and administration were by the Town Council, as is the case under the Town Incorporation Act, and showed how the system might be operated under this act, without conflicting, until legislation is passed providing for a town manager where the town decides to have such an official.

Middleton, Sept. 15.—Nearly $100,000 were raised Wednesday for the local Memorial Hospital by means of a benefit baseball game and sale of tags. In the afternoon two local teams one composed of married and the other of single men put on an exhibition of baseball, the former winning 7-6. Dodge twirled for the married and Reagh for the single players. Tags were sold in the town and surrounding districts and everybody responded generously, the receipts being about $70.00 from tags.

TIRED OUT ALL THE TIME Nerves Gave Little Rest

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Harrowsmith, Ontario.—"I took your medicine before my baby was born and it was a great help to me as I was very poorly until I started to take it. I just felt as though I was tired out all the time and would take weak, fainting spells. My nerves would bother me until I could get little rest, day or night. I was told by a friend to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I only took a few bottles and it helped me wonderfully. I would recommend it to any woman who is doing what I can to publish this good medicine. I lend that little book you sent me to any one I can help. You can with the greatest of pleasure use my name in regard to the Vegetable Compound if it will serve to help others."

MISS HARVEY BILLEGAN, R. R. No. 2, Harrowsmith, Ontario.

In a recent canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over 100,000 replies were received and 98 out of every 100 said they had been helped by its use. This medicine is for sale by all druggists.

"FARMERS ENOUGH" MEETING DECIDES

Yarmouth County Association's Answer to Numerous Questions Addressed to Immigration

YARMOUTH. At the regular monthly meeting of the Yarmouth County Farmer's Association two very important subjects occupied the attention of the session. One was the proposal to go into the production of certified seed potatoes. The variety in demand for this purpose is the Irish Cobbler. The Department of Agriculture will supply the stock to start with, and it is thought that a good price per bushel can be realized next fall if Yarmouth and vicinity can muster enough for at least one carload of 500 bushels.

The other question was proposed by the Social Service Council and was in connection with the need of increased numbers of agricultural laborers, to be had by bringing in immigrants. This suggested many problems, such as: Is there such a need? Have immigrants in the past proved satisfactory? Are they good farmers? Do we want more farmers? Is the opportunity as good now as it was in the past? What causes have induced immigrants who have come, to leave us and elsewhere? Would restrictions as to intelligence, race, capital and occupation do any good?

It was the general opinion of the meeting that the low price of staple farm products and the high price of everything the farmer has to buy would seem to indicate that there were farmers enough already.

Banks—Young.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Silas Banks, Mr. Rose, on Wednesday, Sept. 10th, when his daughter Hattie May Witham was united in marriage to Robbie Starr Young of Worcester, Mass.

At 10 o'clock a.m., as the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were rendered by Mrs. Hattie Hines, the bride and groom took their stand beneath an arch of early autumn leaves and flowers built in the parlour for the occasion; little Miss Eleanor Banks made a beautiful flower girl who preceded the bride and groom and strewed the way with roses.

The solemn and beautiful ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. W. Dixon of Port Lorne, in the presence of about thirty invited guests.

The bride appeared a charm of loveliness in a dress of crepe de chine.

The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet; and to the organist a bar pin of amethyst; and to the flower girl a gold locket and chain.

Following the ceremony a dainty lunch was served after which the bride attired in a neat travelling suit of navy blue, took her seat beside the groom in a large touring car and started on a trip, intending to visit the larger towns in the province; they will then return to Mt. Rose to spend a few weeks, after which they will proceed to Worcester, Mass., where they will in future reside.

STUDYING THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF NOVA SCOTIA WITH VIEW TO FURTHER DEVELOPMENT.

Mr. F. H. Kitto representing the Natural Resources Intelligence Services of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, was a visitor in town a few days ago and made a pleasant call at the Monitor office and consulted with the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. E. A. Hicks and visited the various industrial plants in town. Mr. Kitto has for the past few months been in Nova Scotia on departmental business. It is the purpose of his department to obtain and have available all possible information concerning the natural resources of every locality in the Dominion so that in the event of an inquiry being received from a prospective settler, business firm or manufacturer seeking information concerning any particular locality, or wishing to know in which section of the Dominion certain materials for manufacturer can be obtained, or which are best adapted to the growing of any particular crops, the needed information can be speedily given. Moreover, it is the intention of the Department to co-operate with Boards of Trade and similar bodies with a view of assisting in the development of every natural resource throughout the Dominion.

Mr. Kitto was especially interested in the cherry industry in Bear River and Digby, and in view of the world wide reputation of cherries grown in our district he expressed surprise that both the culture and marketing of this fruit received so little attention from our own residents. We understand that it is his intention to appoint to his Department the immediate appointment of an expert Entomologist to study our orchards and devise a remedy for the pests and diseases that are retarding the development of this industry.

It is probable that a campaign of education will be inaugurated with the object of inducing fruit growers and agriculturists to specialize in crops, such as cherries, raspberries, strawberries, peas and tomatoes, which can readily be marketed in our own locality either for immediate consumption or through canning factories.

This opens up a wide field which thus far it is felt can be much further exploited in Nova Scotia.

MARRIED. Easson-Parker.

The home of Mrs. G. J. Parker was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning, Sept 17th when her youngest daughter Mary Muriel Giles became the bride of Mr. Thomas C. Easson of Morristown, Kings Co. At the hour appointed to the strains of the wedding march rendered by Mrs. Dr. Nichols, sister of the bride, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, H. G. Parker, Esq., looked very charming as she took her place beside the groom beneath a beautiful arch of evergreen and asters. Her suit was navy blue. The groom wore a tuxedo with velvet hat to match and a white choker. She carried a bouquet of asters and sweet peas.

Mrs. Muriel Chapman, niece of the bride, groomed in a dainty frock of blue silk, carrying in arm, bouquet of sweet peas acted as flower girl. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Freestone, assisted by Rev. W. S. Loring. After congratulations a dainty bridal breakfast was served to about 40 invited guests.

The wedding gifts were many and costly, consisting of several substantial cheques, cut glass, linen, china and silver.

IN MEMORIAM. Doris Winnifred Marshall

Anxiety quickly spread over the community the latter part of last week when it was learned that Doris Winnifred, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Marshall, had been taken suddenly ill. Medical aid was at once summoned and little hopes were held out regarding her recovery. And although she had every attention that loving hearts, skillful physicians, and kind friends could bestow upon her, her body proved too frail to battle longer with the disease that had been preying upon her during the past two and one half years, and in the early hours of Sunday morning, Sept. 14th, just as the sun was rising over yon Eastern hills, her spirit passed to "The Great Beyond," aged 14 years, 11 months.

Doris was a young girl of fine moral character, always having a cheery smile and a hearty how do you do, for all friends. She was a member of the Clarence Baptist Church, having been baptized by her pastor, Rev. W. S. Smith only a few months ago.

Her genial disposition and bright smile won for her many friends amongst both old and young by whom she will be missed.

But the deepest sympathy of all the community goes to the parents, also the brothers and sister, whose hearts are indeed empty and whose home will be so lonely.

That which we do not understand now, we have the assurance that we shall know when the mist has rolled away.

The largely attended funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Rev. W. S. Smith who spoke very tenderly and sympathetically from Job, 23 and 6. Favorite selections were rendered by the choir and the C. G. I. T., of which our departed was a member. The following hymns were given: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," by Choir, "Jewels," by C. G. I. T., "Sun of My Soul" by Choir.

Solo, "In the Upper Garden" Mrs. Stewart Elliott.

The Central Clarence school in company with the C. G. I. T. marched to the home in a body.

Raymond and Kenneth, her brothers, with Ernest Marshall and Grant Messenger, performed the sad office of carrying the body of their loved one to its last resting place, which was at Fairview Cemetery, where the grave had been prettily lined with evergreen and goldensrod by S. S. teacher, Miss Nellie Elliott and the C. G. I. T. class.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the deep sympathy felt by the people of the community and the extent of her loss to the nearby towns toward Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, and were as follows:

Pillow—Father, Mother, Raymond, Kenneth and Marjorie; Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Wells; Wreath—Aunt Mary; Crescent—Miss Sadie Hogan, teacher; Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. COCKREIS FROM GOOD PRODUCING STRAINS (Experimental Farms Note.)

There are two ways in which selections for breeding cockrels for high production may be made. The first and most reliable method of course is from trap-nested hens which are known to be high producers and which conform to the standard for their breed. Yearling or two-year-old hens which have produced around 200 eggs in their pullet year and are still vigorous and laying reasonably well, or old hens mated to a cockrel of good size, color and conformation, and from as high a producing dam as possible make an ideal mating for producing cockrels that will raise the standard toward the high goal of production that is aimed at today.

The second method is the only other possible way of making an improvement in the flock. The hens in this case although not trap-nested, must be from a good producing strain as ascertained from a pen record which shows that they are really producing satisfactorily. This flock is then mated to a male whose dam is a known high producer. The eggs are carefully selected for incubation and all eggs discarded under two ounces and those which are abnormally large or rough shelled, cockrels from such a mating should raise the standard of the flock materially. In this method it is a good plan to secure each year such a male and preferably from the same breeder.

Some poultry keepers even without the aid of the trap-nest may know of certain hens in their flock which are above the average as producers and by selecting their eggs for incubation may make advancement along this line.

The chicks should be given free range and good care and all birds which do not conform to the standard for their breed or show constitutional weakness should be discarded and only the vigorous, well proportioned birds with fine head points and good colour kept for breeding purposes.

The cockrels offered by the Experimental Farms are from stock of known production and only the females showing good production and vigour are used for breeders, and the sexes used are from the best hens. The importance of a good sire is just as true with poultry as with any other kind of livestock, and a slight additional expenditure in securing a good male may prove the best investment one can make.

It is with deep regret that we have to chronicle the death of Mr. Samuel Milbury, an aged and respected citizen of this place whose sad tragedy occurred on Saturday night, 20th.

He had been in his usual health and about his work all day and left the house about five o'clock at night, when dark came and he had not returned his family became alarmed and a search was made.

His lifeless body was discovered about half past eight by his two sons, lying on the shore half a mile from home. A party of men conveyed the body to its home. An inquest was held on Monday morning by Coroner Dr. Braine of Annapolis and twelve jurors and a verdict of drowning was rendered. Deceased was a man of seventy-five years, was of a very quiet disposition and well provided and cared for in every way and no cause for the fatality can be ascertained.

The funeral was held at the house on Monday afternoon, conducted by Mr. Hartlin (Lic.) and was largely attended, the text being: "In my Father's house are many mansions," the hymns sung were "No Dying There," "Face to Face," "Shall we Gather at the River," and "The Golden Morning."
