OFFERED BIG BRIBE TO CIVIL SERVANT?

Winnipeg Telegram Accuses Lieutenant-Governor of Intriguing With Liberals.

SENSATIONS TO COME

Disclosures Will Be Brought Before Convention of Conservative Party.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 13.—Following bitter attacks on Lieutenant-Governor Cameron and Chief Justice Howell for the parts they played in change of government, today's Evening Telegram calls on the government to impeach Hon. Mr. Cameron.

The Telegram says: "It was only an accident, an unavoidable accident, that it was permitted to leak out that the lieutenant-governor had consulted Chief Justice Howell on official business while he was still under obligation to accept his legal advice from Mr. Howden."

"It was not permitted to leak out that, about the time that this advice was taken, Sir Douglas Cameron was in secret consultation with recognized politicians of the Liberal party, who did not hold positions on the bench. Will Sir Douglas Cameron deny that he was in consultation with such men? Will he deny that he was not advised by political hostiles to those who were his constitutional advisers? Will he deny that he participated in Liberal schemes to have the Liberal party supplied with confidential governmental information, likely to be of use to the opposition and of serious disadvantage to his own constitutional advisers?"

Was Bribe Offered? "Will Sir Douglas Cameron deny that on March 22 last, he was in secret consultation with a man intimately connected with the financial end of the Liberal party in Manitoba, in that man's office? Will he deny that, immediately after his departure from that office and from that consultation, the confidential civil servant of the then government was admitted by appointment to that office, and there offered a bribe of $25,000 if he would undertake to secure evidence of irregularities in governmental payments, and hand the information to a Liberal politician with whom Sir Douglas Cameron had just been closeted?"

These are questions that The Telegram is prepared to answer in Manitoba. Sir Douglas Cameron should not be they are questions that this newspaper desires to bring before the convention of the Conservative Party. The Conservative convention will meet tomorrow, and promises to be largely attended."

WHAT CITY COUNCIL DID

Failed to appoint a head for the fire department. Voted for the filling in of Catfish Pond. Passed a new bylaw regulating and licensing ferries. Appropriated $1273 for reducing the Yonge street hill grade. Voted $125,000 to be expended on Bloor street civic car line. Supported the board of control in its decision not to improve lighting system on University avenue. Granted land for three new libraries. Gave city architect right to determine subject matter on illumination of gas. Authorized negotiations to acquire Hanlan leasehold, Hanlan's Point.

APOLOGY MADE TO REAL ESTATE FIRM

Charges Against Ramsay Sinclair Withdrawn by James Searls.

Concerning a complaint made on March 13 last to the police authorities over property purchased in Diamond Park, Westburn, Sask., from Ramsay E. Sinclair, Limited, James Y. Searls, 479 St. Clarence avenue, Toronto, under date of July 3, 1915, addressed to Mr. Sinclair a most complete apology, withdrawing entirely his unwarranted charges.

Mr. Searls explains that he was influenced while under excitement to lay the information which he admits was improper and done impulsively without realizing the full significance of his act, and that he did not make it clear that a mutual understanding existed to defer taking the pending possible sale of the property. He states Mr. Sinclair has tendered title to Mrs. Searls and himself, and he believes could and would have done so at any time if consulted. Mr. Searls refers in his letter to the serious loss, embarrassment and inconvenience his impulsive procedure has caused Mr. Sinclair, for which he expresses genuine regret, and while admitting the inadequacy of his apology to repair the damage done by his complaint, he affirms implicit confidence in Mr. Sinclair's honesty and sincerity of purpose in the fulfillment of all his business obligations, stating that he considers he has been treated in absolute good faith in respect to his investment, and that his apology and retractions is voluntarily offered without any inducement from Mr. Sinclair or the firm. Mrs. Elizabeth U. Searls has also addressed a letter to Mr. Sinclair, expressing regret at the newspaper accounts of Mr. Searls' hasty act and assuring him of her absolute confidence in his business integrity and honesty.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Fred Rochon was arrested yesterday afternoon in Toronto, by Detective Mitchell on charge of stealing $15. Rochon, who comes from Hamilton, will be taken back there today to answer the charge.

NOT ANY NEARER TO NAMING MAN

Council Shelves Cuddy's Name and Fire Brigade Matter Continues.

FILL IN CATFISH POND

Decision Finally Reached in Regard to West End Nuisance.

No head for the fire department is in sight yet. At the meeting of the city council yesterday the name of Alf Cuddy was presented twice for voting upon, but it was defeated both times. The recommendation appeared as the first order of business on the agenda, and after the regular order of business was disposed of, Ald. Maguire sent Cuddy's name forward again, but a majority vote of 13 quashed the recommendation. "The board of control is fully in favor of the recommendation of Alf Cuddy as fire commissioner," said Controller O'Neill.

Controller Spence said: "There has been a wide and deliberate canvass made to have one of the members of council appointed, and you all know that if things like this are done it will not reflect any credit upon this council."

Takes Exception. "I take exception to Controller Spence's statement that a canvass has been made to get a member of this council appointed as the head of the fire department," said Ald. McEwen. "I want to say right here that it is absolutely false. I have nothing against Cuddy, but we want a young man on the board who we don't need to go out of Toronto to look for one."

Ald. Singer made a motion that Clement Driscoll of the New York Bureau of Municipal Research be employed to reorganize the fire department, but it was lost. The agenda showed that the board of control had been informed by the members of the Ontario Cabinet that they consent to the expenditure of $50,000 for improvements on Catfish Pond, if a resolution of the city council authorizing the ratepayers, without consent of the ratepayers, was passed. It is the same law that has been in force since 1904, and the ratepayers of the city of Toronto, "Every boat shall carry at least 50 passengers," instead of 500. For the reduction of the grade on Yonge street immediately north of the C. E. R. tracks, $1272 was appropriated.

An issue of debentures amounting to $125,000 will be asked for at the next sitting of the provincial legislature, for a loan of $125,000 to be used between Dundas street and Queen's avenue, without requiring the submission of a bylaw to the ratepayers. No Better Lighting. Ald. Maguire moved that the board of control's recommendation that the lighting on University street be improved be overruled. Controller Spence stated that it would cause an overdraft of $90,000, which could not be tolerated at this time. The clause stands.

Land for Libraries. A parcel of low level Park, a lot at the northeast corner of Bathurst street and Melgund road and a piece of ground at the southwest corner of Roncesvalles avenue and Wright avenue were granted by the council for the erection of libraries, and the property is to be turned over to the Toronto Public Library Board. The recommendation of the property committee to award the license to pay a fee of $1 for each passenger each jitney is built to convey was sent back for reconsideration. The widow of James Sheehan, 131 D'Arcy street, was awarded four month's salary. Sheehan was a former employe of the city during the summer months. Council ordered that negotiations should be entered into with the Hanlan leasehold, Hanlan's Point. The question of paving Ossington avenue was referred back to the works commissioner.

Auditor's Report. City Auditor Walter Sterling presented a report on the audit of harbor commissioners' accounts for the year ending Dec. 31, 1914. The gross assets as compared with $10,716,339.75, as compared with $10,165,648.44 last year, an increase of $550,691.31. The liabilities are given as $10,437,335.85, showing a surplus of $778,303.90. The gross receipts for the year were $112,343.17 and expenditure $43,654.76, showing a surplus of $68,688.41, but interest on debentures absorbs $72,777.36, debenture discount reserve $45,935.64, damage award in an action against the board $385.90, a total of $79,638.90, showing an actual deficit of $29,548.43.

Made Several Charges. Ald. McBride in a letter to the council made several charges against the fire department. They were answered by Acting Chief Smith in writing. The letters were filed to be dealt with later. The charges were as follows: That a fireman carried a bottle of whiskey in his pocket; that a fireman had been appointed to the fire department and the appointment had been accepted by the fire department; that a fireman had entered a hotel while on duty. Smith said he had received no complaint about it.

GAS IRON BURNING CAUSED SMALL FIRE. A very serious conflagration was narrowly averted last night when fire broke out at 432 Yonge street, occupied by William Johnson. A gas iron that was left burning is stated to be the cause, and owing to the congested nature of the premises in the immediate vicinity, special care had to be taken in quenching the blaze. The damage to the contents will be about $50 and to the building $200. The latter is insured for $1,500.

THIN FOR YEARS—"GAINS 22 POUNDS IN 23 DAYS"

Remarkable Experience of F. Gagnon. Builds Up Weight Wonderfully.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work, I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days." "Sargol has put 10 pounds in me in 14 days," states W. D. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure." "I weighed 132 pounds when I commenced taking Sargol. After taking 20 boxes I weighed 144 pounds and feel like the most wonderful preparation for flesh building I have ever seen," declares D. Martin, and J. Meier adds: "For the past twenty years I have taken medicine every day for indigestion and got thinner every year. I took Sargol for forty days and feel better than I have felt in twenty years. My weight has increased from 150 to 170 pounds."

When hundreds of men and women—and there are hundreds, with more coming every day—living in every nook and corner of this broad land, voluntarily testify to weight increases ranging all the way from 10 to 35 pounds, given them by Sargol, you must admit, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Thin Reader, that there must be something in this Sargol method of flesh building after all.

Hadn't you better look into it, just as thousands of others have done? Many thin folks say: "I'd give most anything to put on a little extra weight," but when someone suggests a way they exclaim, "Not a chance. Nothing will make me plump. I'm built to stay thin. Until you have tried Sargol, you do not and cannot know that this is true."

Sargol has put pounds of healthy "fat" there! "fish" of hundreds who doubted and in spite of their doubts, you don't have to believe in Sargol to grow plump from it. You just take it and watch weight pile up, hollows vanish and your figure round out to pleasing proportions. Pump, you weigh yourself when you begin and again when you finish and you let the scales tell the story.

Sargol is just a tiny, concentrated tablet. You take one with every meal. It mixes with the food you eat for the purpose of separating all of its flesh-producing ingredients. It breaks these down into simple elements in an easily assimilated form, which the blood can readily absorb and carry all over your body. Plump, well-developed persons don't need Sargol to produce this result. Their systems are so well equipped that their functions without aid. But thin folks' assimilative organs do not. This fatty portion of their food now goes to waste through their bodies like unburned coal through an open grate. A few days' test of Sargol in your case will surely prove whether or not this is true of you. Isn't it worth trying?"

50c BOX FREE

To enable any thin reader ten pounds or more underweight, to easily make this test we will give a 50c box of Sargol absolutely free. GUNN GOES BEFORE BOARD OF CONTROL

Chief Smith Asked to State Specific Charges Against Fireman.

WOULD CHANGE BYLAW. Deputation Asks That Hours for Sweeping Sidewalks Be Changed.

At a meeting of the board of control yesterday morning District Chief Gunn appeared with the solicitor W. G. Thurston to make the statement that he (Gunn) was not legally dismissed. W. G. Thurston said that they were willing to have any investigation that the board proposed. Controller Spence said that if the city solicitor said Gunn was not legally dismissed he should go back to work.

B. M. Trowen, representing the Retail Merchants' Association headed a deputation asking that a change of the city bylaw be made in regard to the sweeping of city sidewalks by merchants. The board decided to recommend to the council that the hours for sweeping be cut out of the bylaw.

City Solicitor Johnston sent in a communication to the effect that the Toronto General Burial Grounds Trust had asked $335,000 for their property which was used to erect Mount Pleasant road thru Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and advised that the city should not take over the land until a proper adjustment of the price was made, as he contended that it was excessive.

A deputation coming from the East. Deputation to protest about the smell from the Morley avenue sewage plant was introduced by Ald. Robbins. The members of the board assured them that the matter would get every attention.

ANTI-POVERTY CAMPAIGN. The Single Tax Association of Ontario will resume its tent meetings on the corner of Danforth and Hampton avenues tonight at 8 o'clock, with A. B. Farmer as the chief speaker. The meetings will continue all this and next week.

OATS PURCHASES UNDER SCRUTINY

Some People, Not Dealers, Asked to Tender to Government.

PRICES QUESTIONED. R. A. Pringle, Ottawa Lawyer, on List of Fodder Dealers.

OTTAWA, July 13.—The enquiry into the purchase of oats for war purposes by the militia department was continued before the war contracts commission today. Auditor-General Fraser said that his chief criticism of these transactions was that no tenders were called. A number of people were asked to tender, and in some cases they bought from others who had not been given an opportunity to do so. This meant that there were two profits. Some of the people asked to tender were not in the business.

John Thompson, government counsel, said this statement by the auditor-general was correct. The list included R. A. Pringle of Ottawa. "I did not know that our learned friend died in Ottawa," remarked Mr. Thompson, "but he may deal in legal fodder."

W. H. Dwyer of Ottawa was then examined in connection with the purchase of 6000 bushels of oats which George Sparks & Son of Vars sold to the government. Sparks bought the oats from Dwyer for $70 and sold them to the government at the same figure. Dwyer said that he merely gave the order to his brother, H. D. Dwyer, of Montreal. Western oats had not been called for. He thought Ontario oats just as good as the western variety and that he thought as Sparks had stated, that they could have been bought for ten cents less.

J. A. Rudick, Dominion dairy commissioner, was called to give an opinion as to the price of oats last autumn. He stated that shortly after the war broke out 560,000 bushels of oats had been commandeered in the Fort William district for 47 1/2-10c per bushel. On Aug. 24 oats cost 71c per bushel. 57,000 bushels having been bought at that price for the government.

C. E. Frost, a manufacturing chemist, of Montreal, appeared before the commission to make the charge

INJURED BY EXPLOSION LOSES DAMAGE ACTION

Appellate Division Dismisses Appeal of Young Man Against Ottawa.

While an onlooker at a fire in the city of Ottawa a young man named Lester was injured by the explosion of a pair of combustibles, used by a man named Brunton who was examining in connection with the manufacture of phosphorus matches, Brunton's laboratory, which the fire had broken out. He took action against Brunton and Ottawa and the jury found both of the defendants liable for negligence, but Mr. Justice Lennox in the trial judge dismissed the action against Brunton, and the action against Lester against him and Lester against Brunton.

The appellate division handed out judgment in the appeal yesterday and confirmed the action of Mr. Justice Lennox in the case against the city, and allowed the appeal of Brunton.

Mr. Justice Lennox gave leave to enforce a $288,000 mortgage represented by outstanding bonds of the Martin International Trap Dock Company, which is in process of liquidation.

Well, if the name is "VICTORY" it means irreproachable quality and value.

REVERBERATING THRU A CROWD OF SOME 2000 people, who had gathered at the city hall last night, was the oft-repeated question, "Where is Colonel Currie?" It started there and ended in the same place, and not until 9.50 o'clock did the throng give up hope and gradually disperse to their homes.

Such a disappointment! Everyone seemed to know that a reception had been planned, for want of Col. Currie to arrive from Ottawa at 8.30 at the Union Depot, be escorted to the city hall steps and say a few words in reply to a civic welcome to the waiting multitude.

BRITISH RESOURCES THROWN IN SCALE

Sir Robert Borden Speaks of Development of Empire for War.

NO FEARS FOR FUTURE Struggle May Be Long, But End Not Uncertain, Declares Premier.

LONDON, July 13.—"Four days before the war broke out I telegraphed to the imperial government that there were war, Canada would regard it as her own," Sir Robert Borden, the premier of Canada, told a cheering audience at a luncheon given at the house of commons in his honor this afternoon.

Sir Robert declared that for all purposes the resources of the British empire were abundant and that the empire could congratulate itself on the conditions of affairs today.

"I have no fear for the future though the struggle may be long," Sir Robert said. "In whatever is necessary to bring the war to an honorable conclusion, Canada is prepared to take part. This is true of the whole empire."

Premier Borden went on to say that it was impossible to believe that the democracies would not prove British efficiency in this grave peril. After peace was established he said there would be large matters for consideration for the dominions, but the difficulties and complex problems doubtless would find wide employment for the Dominion's Decisive Factor.

A Bonar Law, British minister of the colonies, in a speech to "Canada and the War," expressed the opinion that the help of the dominions was likely to be a decisive factor. He hoped that one result of the upheaval would be the welding of the empire in unbreakable ties.

Premier Borden alluding to what had been said on Canada's part in the war said there was no doubt in his own mind what the part would be.

"We are not a military nation in Canada, we are a peace-loving and peace-pursuing people. Great tasks of development within our own borders are lying before us.

"Altho for a struggle such as this we were naturally unprepared, yet our minister of militia succeeded in placing upon the plains of Valcartier in the space of six weeks 25,000 men. We sent overseas up to the present nearly 70,000 men. Including troops doing garrison duty in the West Indies we have today in Canada 70,000 under training. The response from every province has been so warm that our arms have been in secure arms and equipment.

"Resources to Win Out. Sir Robert Borden, referring to the remark of Sir Robert Borden that Canada was not a military nation, said that neither was England or any other of the dominions.

"We have proved, however, that we are a nation which can fight. This truth is only beginning to dawn on our antagonists.

Congratulations for Both. The gathering sent a telegram of congratulations to General Botha, premier of South Africa.

Sir Robert Borden went to the house of commons from Buckingham Palace, where he had an audience with the king.

Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour presided, and there were also present Earl Curzon, Earl Selborne, Lewis Harcourt, Lord Emmott, Sir George Perceval, Major-General Hughes, General Carson, Col. Carrick, R. B. Bennett, M. P., T. P. O'Connor, Will Crooks.

How To Prevent Acid Stomachs and Food Fermentation

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, which causes all the thin and really of is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes gas, which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated, almost just endure by these food elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over ninety per cent. of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bicarbonate of soda, which is doubtless the best and only corrective antacid and food corrective known. The acid is neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly and your stomach will at once proceed to treat the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bicarbonate of soda, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

was necessary, but I take comfort in this that for the purpose of war as for any other purpose the resources of this empire are not only abundant, but almost unlimited, and there is time for that preparation which perhaps ought to have been made earlier. The day of peril came before our day of preparation had been fully reached.

Help Proved Invaluable. In proposing the toast of "Canada and the War," Rt. Hon. Bonar Law, colonial secretary, said: "In the greatest struggle which will tax all our strength the help that we have received and will receive, from the dominions, has proved invaluable. It is nothing too much to say that nothing has touched the hearts and the imagination of the people of the United Kingdom more than the deeds of the Canadian troops. It is true that Canada is a nation, and by these deeds it proved itself a nation grown to manhood."

"We at home are all proud of what Canada has done, and if I may be permitted to say so, I am proud of having been born in Canada."

Nation Which Can Fight. Rt. Hon. Arthur Balfour, referring to the remark of Sir Robert Borden that Canada was not a military nation, said that neither was England or any other of the dominions.

"We have proved, however, that we are a nation which can fight. This truth is only beginning to dawn on our antagonists."

Special to The Toronto World. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 13.—The Falls Home Guards tonight made plans for several street parades and demonstrations to stimulate recruiting for the fourth Canadian contingent. DASH AND WILY TACTICS DISPLAYED BY CANADIANS IN GREAT ORCHARD FIGHT

Sir Max Aitken Gives Detailed Description of Memorable Encounter—Gallantry of Highlanders Praised by British Regiments—Clever Ruse Annoyed Teutons.

LONDON, July 13.—The intelligence branch at general headquarters of the British army in the field authorizes the publication of the following narrative by Sir Max Aitken, Canadian record officer, serving with the army in France:

"At the Canadian battlefront—Things have transpired which I have learned the size and meaning of the same."

"I don't know more than others did, I don't know where the change began; I started as an average kid, I finished as a thinking man."

"I send you here a bald record of work in the trenches by our own people. It is couched almost in official phrases, but now and then, I have interpolated some personal anecdote which may help to show you what triumph and terror and tragedy lie behind the smooth, impersonal stage directions of this war."

After St. Julien.

"The attacking detachment under Major Rae consisted of two companies of the Canadian Scottish, one commanded by Capt. Morrison, the other by Major Peck. The attack was to take place at 7.45 p.m. and at the same time the 15th Battalion Highlanders, were directed to make an assault on a position several hundred yards to the right. During that afternoon the orchard was very heavily bombarded by our artillery, increasing in severity up to the delivery of the attack. Promptly to the minute the guns ceased and two companies climbed out of their trenches to the right."

drawn and the trench occupied by these was taken over by stretching out the Coldstream Guards on one flank and the 15th Canadian Scottish on the other.

"The snarling of the 'Fruit-a-tives' are the best proofs of the value of this fruit medicine."

"The enormous salted 'Fruit-a-tives' not go into the orchard, but pushed forward and occupied an abandoned German trench running in a south-westerly direction to prevent any flank counter attack being made by the enemy. They found themselves in a very exposed position and consequently suffered heavily. The casualties in proportion to the number actually engaged, but the position was a very important one, having twice repulsed assaults by other regiments."

"Had our advance been less rapid the enemy would no doubt have got back into this position and our task might have been impossible. They argued, as I have said, that any attack might be held up by the machine guns in the redoubt and in the fortified positions on the flank for long enough to enable the enemy to reach the orchard after our bombardment had ceased and throw us back."

Plan of Attack.

"It must be understood that on the afternoon of May 13th the 3rd Brigade occupied reserve trenches. Two companies of the 14th Royal Montreal Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. Melgion, and two companies of the 16th Canadian Scottish, under Lieut. Col. Leckie, were ordered to make an immediate assault on the orchard by way of an old German communicating trench, and as this attack was to be made, of course, in conjunction with a frontal one, little time was available to make dispositions, and, as there was no opportunity to reconnoitre the ground, it was very difficult to determine the proper objective."

Lacked Covering Fire.

"The banking company of the 16th Battalion reached its allotted position, but after the advance of the remaining company of that regiment and the 14th, under very heavy shell fire, the proper direction was not maintained. The detachments reached their objective, but owing to the lack of covering fire it was undesirable at the moment to make an attack on the orchard. The companies were told to dig themselves in and connect up with the Wiltshire Battalion on their right and the Coldstream Guards on their left. They had then gained 500 yards. Lt. Col. Leckie sent up the other two companies of the 16th Canadian Scottish to assist in the digging and to relieve the original two companies at the trench. The 14th Battalion, Royal Montreal Regiment, were also withdrawn and the trench occupied by these was taken over by stretching out the Coldstream Guards on one flank and the 15th Canadian Scottish on the other.

"The snarling of the 'Fruit-a-tives' are the best proofs of the value of this fruit medicine."

They argued, as I have said, that any attack might be held up by the machine guns in the redoubt and in the fortified positions on the flank for long enough to enable the enemy to reach the orchard after our bombardment had ceased and throw us back."

Under Terrible Fire.

"At the same instant, the two machine guns situated in the advanced position opened on the enemy. As the advance was carried out in broad daylight, the movements were at once seen by the enemy and immediately a torrent of machine gun, rifle fire and shrapnel was directed upon our troops. Their steadiness and discipline were remarkable, and were greatly praised by the officers of the Coldstream Guards nearby. When they reached the edge of the orchard, an unexpected obstacle presented itself in the form of a deep ditch, and on the further side a wired hedge. Without hesitation, however, the men plunged through the ditch, in some places up to their necks in water and made for some previously reconnoitred gaps in the hedge."

Germans Beat Retreat.

"Not many Germans had stayed in the orchard during the bombardment. The bulk of the garrison, according to usual German method under artillery fire, had evidently retreated to support trenches in the rear. A few had been left behind to man a machine gun redoubt near the centre of the orchard, with the idea of holding up our advancing infantry till the enemy, withdrawn during the bombardment, could return in full strength. These machine guns retreated when the Canadians came."

"On the far side of the orchard the Germans, following their system, came up to contest the position, but the onslaught of the Canadians forced them to beat a hasty retreat. Although double our numbers they could not be induced to face a hand-to-hand fight. Three platoons cleared the orchard, while a fourth platoon advancing towards the north side were hampered by a very awkward ditch which forced them to make a wide detour, so they were another wired ditch."

"The Germans could be heard in did not arrive in the orchard until its occupation was complete.

Fee Shown Timely.

"The men dug themselves in on the far side of the orchard, where their trench about fifty yards away chattering and talking to one another; the officers, too, were heard giving commands and apparently trying to force their men to the attack."

"The German troops would persuade the German troops to expose themselves. One company did not go into the orchard, but pushed forward and occupied an abandoned German trench running in a south-westerly direction to prevent any flank counter attack being made by the enemy. They found themselves in a very exposed position and consequently suffered heavily. The casualties in proportion to the number actually engaged, but the position was a very important one, having twice repulsed assaults by other regiments."

"Had our advance been less rapid the enemy would no doubt have got back into this position and our task might have been impossible. They argued, as I have said, that any attack might be held up by the machine guns in the redoubt and in the fortified positions on the flank for long enough to enable the enemy to reach the orchard after our bombardment had ceased and throw us back."

"The drawback to drill book tactics is that if one side does not keep the rules of the other suffers, and a citizen army will not keep to the rules. For example, not long after the affair of the orchard a Canadian battalion put up a little arrangement with the ever-adaptable Canadian artillery in its rear. The artillery opened heavy fire on a section of the German trenches, while the battalion made a rather ostentatious parade of fixing bayonets, rigging trench ladders and whistling commands as a prelude to an attack. The instant the bombardment ceased, the Germans, who are experts in these matters, promptly retired to their supporting trenches and left the storm to rage in front, ready to rush forward the instant it stopped and meet the Canadian attack."

"So far all went perfectly. Our guns lifted from the front trenches and shelled the supporting trenches, as is laid down by the best authorities to prevent the Germans coming up to prevent the Canadians coming up and crowded into the front trenches. But there was no infantry attack whatever. That decisive Canadian battalion had not moved. Only the guns shortened range once more and the blast of their fire fell on the German front trench now satisfactorily filled with men. Next day German wireless announced that 'a desperate attack had been repulsed,' but the general sense of the enemy was more accurately represented by a 'hyphenated' voice that cried out peevishly next evening, 'Say, Sam Slick, no dirty tricks tonight!'"

The 15th Battalion, Canadian Scottish, includes detachments from the 72nd Seaforth's of Vancouver, the 75th Cameron's of Regina, the 50th Gordons of Victoria, and the 51st Highlanders of Hamilton, so nearly Canada was represented there that day.

A Brilliant Triumph.

"At 7 o'clock in the evening of the 20th, the 15th Battalion, Royal Highlanders, of the Third Brigade, under Lt. Col. Loomis, advanced across the British trenches under heavy shell fire with severe losses, in support of the 16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish."

"The attack on the orchard having succeeded, three companies of the 15th Battalion, Royal Highlanders, immediately marched forward."

"As four officers of one company, including the officers commanding, had been severely wounded, the company was taken over by Major Buchanan, the second in command of the regiment. A fourth company marched to a support trench immediately in the rear. The position was then consolidated, and the 15th Battalion, after its hard work and brilliant triumph, withdrew."

At Heavy Cost.

"Next afternoon the enemy in their trenches made a demonstration fifty yards north of the orchard, but our heavy fire soon drove them off the parapets. During the night the regimental headquarters were moved to a support trench between the trenches was brightly lit by the enemy's flares and salvaged to escape by continuous musketry. None the less our working parties went on with this improvement and left the position in good shape for the Third Canadian Toronto Regiment of the Second Brigade, which relieved the Royal Highlanders on Saturday."

"During these brilliant but costly operations of the Third Brigade, the Second Brigade had been very active against a fortified position a mile to the south, held by the enemy, and known to our intelligence department as Bexhill. A British brigade had recently captured some trenches in the face of heavy fire from Bexhill, and on the night of the 15th the position was taken over by the Second Canadian Brigade."

Test's Attack Failed.

"On May 20, at 7.45 p.m., the Tenth Canadian Battalion, under Major Guthrie who joined the battalion at Ypres as a lieutenant, after the regiment had lost most of its officers, made an attempt to secure Bexhill. This attack that bombarded as no previous reconnaissance had been carried out, and the preliminary bombardment had been quite ineffective."

LESSON OF WAR.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, July 13.—The Canadian record officer's story of the fighting around Festubert towards the end of May appears in the English press today. The Daily Mail remarks: "It truly is a masterpiece of courage and valor, so close is the competition of bravery between the dominions and the motherland, and between the British forces and their gallant allies. There has been no fault to find, adds the Mail, 'with the soldier at the front. If courage could have led the way the British armies would long since have been the best of the world. Politicians, unfortunately, who have followed, not the soldiers."

"The Canadian eye-witness emphasized the fact that the British soldiers carry the brunt of the day's work more and more as time goes on. The fact that the British soldier, so there should have been time to provide these requisites and high explosive shells in abundance."

MISSISSAUGA HORSE DETERMINED TO DO UTMOST IN CAMPAIGN.

Stouffville, Newmarket, Milton and Other Centres Already Visited.

The old saying that "Nothing succeeds like success" was never better exemplified than by the recruiting campaign which the 9th Mississauga Horse has been carrying on during the last ten days. Headquarters asked the regiment to supply 99 men to the battalion, which was to be commanded by Major (now Lieut.-Col.) Beckett.

The regiment, however, got in behind the campaign with a vigor which secured their quota of 99 men inside of two days, and the recruiting machinery, having been once put into operation, has been doing better work day by day, until at the present time recruits are being passed by the doctor at the rate of between 50 and 60 per diem.

Have Done Well.

The figures show that the Mississaugas up to date have enlisted nearly half the men who have been secured in Toronto since the recruiting campaign commenced. Their officers now think they can raise a whole battalion themselves, and are pushing the work vigorously with that object in view.

Headquarters apparently has not been consulted about this, but Col. Logie, who was in Toronto recently examining into the recruiting situation, evidently regards the Mississaugas' performances with a complaisant eye, and is not expected to interpose any red tape barriers.

The touring parties of recruiting officers sent out by the Mississaugas are running to schedule, and yesterday had offices open at Stouffville, Newmarket, Uxbridge, Streetsville, Woodbridge and Milton. Today they push on to other recruiting centres. The Mississaugas claim that they are ready to scour the whole province if necessary in their search for recruits, but they expect to have their battalion.

The matter of the inquest came up before the board of control yesterday morning. Mayor Church said many of the families of the victims were poor and the city should look after their interests.

ELECTION IN MANITOBA FIRST WEEK IN AUGUST.

Norris Expected to Make Announcement—August Fourth May Be Date.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 13.—There is good reason for believing that Manitoba general provincial elections will be held the first week in August, and an announcement to that effect, setting a definite date, is expected at any moment.

Nineteen or twenty days must elapse after the writs are issued, and August 2nd is the earliest possible date. Harvesting operations must be completed by August 10th, and so the date practically narrows down to the first week in August. Last year elections were held on Friday, but almost any other day but Saturday is as likely. One report definitely names Wednesday, August 4.

The Coal Miners' Union is the first to feel the potent power of the government created by the new munitions measure. The miners leaders protested before the passage of the bill that the miners should not be included in those subject to compulsory arbitration, and a development awaited with the keenest interest, as upward of 150,000 miners are involved.

Mr. Hunslett said that the effect of the proclamation was to make a strike or lockout a heavily fineable offence unless the differences were referred to the board of trade for settlement by some method provided by the Munitions Act.

Leaders' Appeal. The executive committee of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain today decided to appeal to the South Wales miners to accept the working until a satisfactory settlement was reached.

The committee also decided to recommend to all county associations that joint machinery should be set up between the owners and the workers for settlement of all disputes that might arise in the industries.

A Cardiff despatch says that the Welsh colliery engineers and stokers have pledged themselves not to cease work in case of stoppage pending further negotiations.

The coal situation was further complicated today by the application of 50,000 Scottish miners for an advance in wages of 25 per cent.

Three Months' Controversy. The crisis first threatened three months ago when the miners gave notice to terminate existing agreements on July 1, and, in lieu of these, they proposed a national program giving an all-round increase in wages. The owners objected to the consideration of the new terms during the war, and asked the miners to accept the existing agreement plus a war bonus. After a series of conferences the union officials agreed to recommend a compromise, which was arranged through the board of trade. The miners, however, voted yesterday against this, and the government was obliged to take action.

The miners assert that their demands would mean no more than six pence (12 cents) a ton, and argue that as the owners are receiving much more for their coal than previously they could well pay it. As a matter of fact, Mr. Runciman today also introduced a bill in the house to regulate the price of coal.

ASQUITH'S ELOQUENT TRIBUTE TO BOTH

British Parliament Asked to Testify to Whole Empire's Admiration.

A HEARTY RESPONSE

Vote of Thanks Passed to Include Mention of Gen. Christian Smuts.

LONDON, July 13.—The house of commons today voted its hearty thanks to Louis Botha, Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, and the forces of the Union of South Africa upon the successful conclusion of the campaign in German Southwest Africa. Premier Asquith, who moved the resolution, paid tribute to what he characterized as "the remarkable campaign which has just been brought to a remarkable and glorious conclusion. 'The German Dominion of Southwest Africa has ceased to exist' he said.

Empire's Admiration. "I ask the house," said the premier in his peroration, "to testify to the admiration of the whole empire for, and its gratitude to the illustrious general who has rendered such an estimable service to the empire which he entered by adoption and of which he has become one of the most honored and cherished sons, and to his dauntless and much enduring troops.

whether of Burgher or British birth, who fought like brethren side in side in the cause which is dear to them as to us—the broadening of the bounds of human liberty."

Root Crop Promises WELL AROUND BERLIN

Oats Helped by Recent Rain and Are Now Forging Ahead.

Special to The Toronto World.

BERLIN, Ont., July 13.—Farmers in this district are considerably exercised over the appearance of smut in their oat fields. It is not only an occasional patch that is affected, but nearly every field has been spotted. The recent rain has been a boon to the oats as they were exceedingly short in the straw. They are now forging ahead and there promise to be some good yields.

Root crops seldom looked better at this time of the year, mangels and sugar beets promising exceptionally well. The same applies to fodder corn of which there is a large acreage. Farmers, especially those who are strong on dairying, are preparing to provide for large herds and extensive feeding the coming winter. The hay crop is pretty well under roof and it will be an average yield.
