Below the Market!

We're selling lots of goods these days below the market. Others will tell you they can buy just as cheap, and that we must of necessity be losing money, but you don't have to believe them.

This is particularly true of shoes. The trade generally insists that we're "slaughtering goods," when in reality they're bought and sold at a profit.

Wash Goods Extra!

Double the chance there was to pick up bargains, and twice the inducement there has been to buy just when we say. The market is tottering with the advanced season and goods are being reduced back of us.

- 30-inch Best English Print, white with spots, stripes and floral designs, perfectly fast colors, all new patterns; also dark grounds, big range of desirable patterns; regular price 12 1/2c. Saturday, 7 1/2c.

See the goods these prices represent. Examine carefully the quality of cotton and the nature of the printing. We've had enough experience selling Wash Goods to know those values to be exceptional.

Ready for Saturday!

Very special prices on goods you're very likely to need. Saturday's trade is always tremendous, but these values will help bring you early in the day—as soon after 8 o'clock as possible.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S DEGREE.

Letters to the Trades and Labor Council as This Subject.

President London of Toronto University and Mr. Goldwin Smith have written the Toronto Trades Council, in acknowledgment of an expression of sympathy with the proposal to confer the honorary degree of LL.D. on Mr. Goldwin Smith.

Mr. Loudon says: "I am glad to observe that the Council are sympathetic with the efforts of those who desire to make the University exclusively a home of learning, where not only for scholars, but for all members of the community, long as we persist, if they will leave their party weapons at the door."

"The Professor's Letter is as follows: Mr. Goldwin Smith's letter is as follows: I am present to your council my best thanks for their kind expression of approval and sympathy."

"In coming forward on the occasion from which these attempts at social much by the desire of bringing about continental union or any political change, in which I can have no personal interest, and which at my age I can never expect to see, as by the desire of upholding liberty of opinion of all liberties the most precious and the noblest. It is the noblest, because it depends less on law, by which other liberties are guarded, than on that generous freedom of thought and speech against restriction by social bigotry, as well as against repression by arbitrary government. An Englishman may add with pride that it is a liberty characteristic of his own people, but we hope to it we are not likely to go far or long astray."

"The value of your sympathy on the present occasion is enhanced by the conscientious difference of opinion between us, as you say, on the subject of economical questions. It is as a political economist I am somewhat conservative, perhaps my years may plead my excuse. But I sincerely trust that I shall never prefer the interests of a class or section of the community to the material welfare of the whole people, or shrink as a member of a class from any economical change by which the welfare of the whole people may be promoted. When I do, I shall be to the faith of the political school in which I was bred, as well as to the dictates of my own heart."

"GOLDWIN SMITH."

A Watch That Runs Backward.

In Turkey, Japan and China, where the people dust before sweeping and do other things quite contrary to our customs, it is necessary to have a watch that goes backward. So a clever Swiss watchmaker has invented such a timekeeper, in which the hands move from right to left instead of from left to right as in ordinary watches. The inventor has patented his watch, which is said to keep perfect time, and he hopes to sell many of them in the far east.

THEIR PLANT ASSESSED.

Toronto Railway Company to Pay on Their Poles-Bearing Appeals in Ward One.

The Court of Revision continued its sitting yesterday and completed the hearing of appeals from No. 1 Ward. Of 89 appeals entered, about 30 were dismissed and about ten were not prosecuted. The Assessment Commissioner was successful in getting an assessment of $25,000 placed on the telegraph poles and wires of the Toronto Railway Co. in No. 1 Ward. This will, it is estimated, go a long way towards equalizing the amount of the reduction in assessment of real property. The assessment of $25,000 placed on the telegraph poles and wires of the Toronto Railway Co. in No. 1 Ward. This will, it is estimated, go a long way towards equalizing the amount of the reduction in assessment of real property.

Ald. Leslie, in behalf of Mahan Leslie, applied against the assessment on property near the corner of Queen and Jones-avenue, which was reduced from $18 to $14 per foot and the corner lot from $25 to $25 per foot.

The assessment of 2 1/2 acres on the east side of Paper-avenue, south of Gerrard, belonging to Mr. George L. Nicholson, was reduced from $600 to $400 per acre.

A number of assessments on Broadway-avenue property were reduced, although the assessors had already made a heavy cut.

Mr. George J. Woods had his building south of Close-street reduced from $900 to $500.

Mr. E. Coleman, through Mr. A. J. Sinclair, had the assessment of $20 and $18 per foot, reduced to $14 per foot for two lots of 6 1/2 feet each.

Noel Marshall's assessment of $18 per foot for 66 feet was reduced to $14.

Ald. Russell's lot of 186 feet 6 inches was reduced from $25 to $20 per foot.

Other reductions made by the court were as follows:

T. Ashbridge, 1444 Queen east, $2500 reduction.

R. McCreger, 51 Elliott-street, from $1200 to $1200.

Elizabeth Prescott, 11, 12 Withrow-avenue, 108 feet, from $428 to $200.

George Horeath, 230 feet, Bowden and Wilson-streets, from $10 to $8 per foot.

G. Gallow, Baitty-avenue, 241 feet, from $3 to $2 per foot.

Small Charcoal Pit.

To burn charcoal on a small scale pile up the wood and cover it thickly with dirt in such a way as to be able to regulate the amount of air which enters, either by a hole at the bottom of the earth pile through which the wood can be ignited and then close this so as to let in only a small amount of air, which will burn only a portion of the wood, leaving the charcoal unburned. When the fire has entirely died out the charcoal removed.—Director G. E. MacLean, Nebraska Experiment Station.

White Specks in Butter.

E. C. Bennett of Epitomist says: The white specks in butter are due to poor ripening of the cream. Some of the cream has "weyhed off" and decomposed, and the curd has gathered in clots and the whey has separated from the cream. Greater care in ripening the cream is called for, and the sure way to do it is to strain the cream into the churn. Then the clots do not get into the churn and are not found in the butter.

Rough on Weeds.

By stirring the soil after every rain the weeds will be more evenly destroyed than in any other way, besides securing a better growth of plants.

Taking Great Chances.

A crooked egg, like an added egg, is almost sure to be discovered by some one so great that he is a rash man who would run any risk.

A Beauty Hint.

For the lines which form the corners of the nose to those cut by the balls of the fingers a dozen strokes from the corners of the lips outward and upward to the ears.

Felling a Mahogany.

It is a white hole's task for two men to fell a mahogany tree. On account of the spurs which project from the base of the trunk, a scaffold has to be erected and the tree cut off above the spurs, leaving thus a stump of the very best wood from ten to fifteen feet high.

CARELESS CLERGYMEN

Who Neglect to Make Returns of Marriages Plan to Retain Them to Time.

Dr. Bryce is getting out a card for use by the issuers of marriage licenses throughout the province. Under an amendment to the act for the solemnization of marriages, made at the last session of the Local House, a return of every license sold must be made to the Registrar-General's Department.

The trouble heretofore has been that the clergy who are required to make returns of all marriages they solemnize are careless about their duty in this respect, and the present move is made for the purpose of keeping "tabs" on them and compelling them to make returns.

In this connection it may also be stated that Dr. Bryce is collecting all records of marriages kept at the various county buildings, from 1853 until the system of making returns to the county authorities was dispensed with.

Chicken Lice.

Put two or three coats of whitewash on every interior spot of the building, and let the fowls have a dust box. Whitewash and the dust box are the surest preventives of lice. Lice are occasionally to dry it. If this has been done before spring laying and sitting begins you will have no trouble with lice. So many farmers neglect their poultry house in the spring, and long before they have thought of lice the pests are busy on their chicks sapping their young lives away. Kerosene and lard when applied is very effective, but they are very dangerous in their use. A little castor oil on the head and under the wings of sitting hens is also very effective. When the chicks are removed from the nest, each one should be greased on the head and under its wings, even if you do not think it has lice. If possible, have some dust in the coop with the brood hen. If you want your fowls to be free from lice you must keep the nest clean, and the best way to do this is by changing the contents of the nest and whitewashing the apartments. One-half day spent in cleaning the chicken house will do wonders for the chickens. I am speaking of the average farmer's poultry house, it is the one neglected. Remove the perches and give the walls a thorough whitewashing. Place clean gravel or old earth on the floor and replace the old perches with new ones.—Ohio Farmer.

The Head of the Dairy Herd.

Daniel Munroe says: The most important of all selections is the head of the herd. The bull we breed from should combine as much concentration of the very best family records as can positively buy or breed. The head of a good bull was fully illustrated last summer, when one of the largest dairies in the province was disposed of at public sale—500 head of young cows, three generations, bred from the herd and sired by a choice thoroughbred bull, were offered.

Young women who have been wearing white sailor hats for the past month are beginning to look apprehensively at the stained and soiled brims. It is possible, however, to remove this staining as any one can learn for herself. First brush the hat very thoroughly and carefully to remove as much dry dust as possible. Then add a little ammonia to some water, and with a brush and some castile soap, scrub the brim till it is clean. Care should be taken not to break or bend the straw, but if this precaution is observed the washing will be found very beneficial. If any stains do not prove amenable to this treatment, apply a little lemon juice, which is wonderfully efficacious for cleaning straw. When the last remedy has been applied lay the hat on a flat surface so that it may dry in its original shape. Do not attempt to wear it before it is completely dry.

New Gas Heating Arrangement.

A French chef, in order to secure a more perfect combustion in gas-cooking apparatus, has devised an arrangement whereby thorough mixture of gas and air is effected before the mixed gases reach the jets or flame orifices necessary for combustion. For this purpose there is employed a fan or revolving agitator through which the gas, with an adjusted supply of air, is made to pass, both becoming thoroughly mixed on their way to the burners.

Self-Ignition of Cotton Waste.

The self-ignition of cotton waste has recently been made the subject of careful experiment. A small amount of the common waste was saturated with kerosene oil, wrung out and inclosed in a wooden box into which was fitted a thermometer. Shortly afterwards the temperature in the box, which was ten degrees centigrade at the commencement of the experiment, rose to 175 degrees centigrade, and contents commenced to smoke. On opening the box the contents burst into flame.

Queen's Medicine Chest.

The medical department of the Queen's household costs $2,700 yearly, and comprises 24 persons.

As a blood maker, blood purifier, health giver and system renovator Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is unrivalled.

"The eruptions on the face particularly have been removed, and the cracks in the back as well, and I feel like a new man. I consider Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound the best medicine for blood and liver troubles, as it has proved so in my case."—Frank Lettler, Waterford, Ont.

A Business Furniture.

As to whether business is good or bad is not determined by the territory it covers, but by its soundness. Many are unhealthy because of the bad central holes with which it is punctured.

Some Thing Over Again.

"I printed a kiss upon her lips." "It was a reprint, wasn't it?" Truth.

Saturday Selling at the Hosiery Counters.

We have always something deserving of inspection in hosiery on every interior spot of the building, and let the fowls have a dust box. Whitewash and the dust box are the surest preventives of lice. Lice are occasionally to dry it. If this has been done before spring laying and sitting begins you will have no trouble with lice. So many farmers neglect their poultry house in the spring, and long before they have thought of lice the pests are busy on their chicks sapping their young lives away. Kerosene and lard when applied is very effective, but they are very dangerous in their use. A little castor oil on the head and under the wings of sitting hens is also very effective. When the chicks are removed from the nest, each one should be greased on the head and under its wings, even if you do not think it has lice. If possible, have some dust in the coop with the brood hen. If you want your fowls to be free from lice you must keep the nest clean, and the best way to do this is by changing the contents of the nest and whitewashing the apartments. One-half day spent in cleaning the chicken house will do wonders for the chickens. I am speaking of the average farmer's poultry house, it is the one neglected. Remove the perches and give the walls a thorough whitewashing. Place clean gravel or old earth on the floor and replace the old perches with new ones.—Ohio Farmer.

GENTRE TORONTO ELECTION.

As to whether business is good or bad is not determined by the territory it covers, but by its soundness. Many are unhealthy because of the bad central holes with which it is punctured.

Some Thing Over Again. "I printed a kiss upon her lips." "It was a reprint, wasn't it?" Truth.
