W. NICHOLS.

Cargo lumber is quiet with kinds, except matched and clapboards, which are in demand. Prices for these are well up. There is an inclination, however, to lower prices on some of spruce, but it is believed this is only temporary. Laths and shingles are quiet. Pine is demanded and is not in very good demand. Dealers do not expect much movement in pine lumber before spring. The following are the prices at first hand here: Provincial cargo, extra frames, $2.15 to 2.30; standard spruce boards, $3.00; frames, ten inches wide, ordered by car, $14.50 to $15.00; random, ordered by car, $13.50; yard, $13.50; No. 1, $14.50 to 15; 12-inch frames, extra frames, car, $18; laths, by the inch, $2 to 2.10; do 1 5-8 inch, by car, $22; foot extra clapped, by car, $22; second, $20; $24 to 25; clapboards, 5 1-2 inch, $24 to 25; $24 to 25; $24 to 25. Coarse No. 2 eastern pine $15 to 17; rough, $12 to 13; $12 to 15; rough edge stock, saws, $8, $9 to 10; extra standard shingles, $2.65 to 3.25; cleats, $2.75; standard cleats, $1.75 to extra No. 1's, $1.50 to 1.75; No. 1, $1.50; plain oak, $35 to 40; 300-350 to 60; cherry, $75 to 100; ash, $35 to 40; cherry, $35 to 90; fish trade is still quite active, the mackerel situation is reported more firm this week. There has been almost a complete shortage of fish. The price is just about half what it was during the same time last year. Some are arriving from the west all the time and meet with a fair sale. Eight hundred barrels from the lower provinces in the week and smaller consignments were received yesterday. Herring are more plentiful and market is easier. The sardine situation is very interesting just now. Packers recently ordered their fish here to hold consignments at not pay for the cost of packing. The packers at Eastport and Miramichi are obliged to reduce prices of their employes, and it has resulted at Lubec. It is that manufacturers will shut rather than attempt to run if employes refuse the cut down. The price of fish is lower than ever this week, although not anywhere near what packers would like to see them. Canned lobsters are still half supply, but live and boiled are more plentiful. Codfish are scarce. Fresh fish are low and supply is steady trade continues. Sale prices are as follows: Fresh fish—White halibut, 15c per lb; chicken, 12c to 14c; eastern, 25c to 30c; Oregon cod, $2 to 2.25; market cod, $2 to 2.25; steak cod, $2.50; haddock, $2 to 2.25; large, $1.50 to 1.75; small, $1 to 1.25; $1.25 to 1.50; steak pollock, $2 to 2.50; mackerel, 20c to 25c; small, 10c; bluefish, 6c; live lob-10 to 12; boiled do, 12 to 14c. Fish—Large rimmed provincial, No. 3, $15 per bbl; P E I, No. 1, $18.50 to 19; P E I, No. 2, $17.50 to 18; uncolled P E I, No. 1, $17; large Georges cod, per qt; medium, $4; large dry cod, $4.50; medium, $3; large cod bank, $4; medium, $2.25; hake, and pollock, $1.50; medium box herring, 5c; No. 1, 5c; No. 2, 4c; N S split herring, $4.50; large Scatterer herring, $4; Labrador, $5; round shore, Cape Breton, $5.50 to 6; Newfoundland and large split herring, $4.50; Newfoundland salmon, No. 1, No. 2 do, $14. Dried fish—American sardines, quarter oil, $2.50 to 2.60; half-3.20 to 3.40; three-quarters medium, $2.45; small, $2.25; extra and best lobsters, $1.80 to 1.90; lower, $1.65 to 1.75; flats, $2 to 2.40; a salmon, $1.20; Columbia river, mackerel, 1-lb cans, $1.50.

Grand Exhibition of New Fall Goods.

All the New Coats and Capes Right Here Hear what we say! Other merchants' customers, dressmakers, citizens of every town and village in the Maritime Provinces and all classes of people are invited to call and inspect our new fall stock. AWAY BACK months ago, when you were buying your summer things, we were selecting from manufacturers' samples the new goods for your autumn gratification, and here are the beautiful things at your command. Our yonder in the landscape the forests are arraying themselves in their autumnal costumes. Before another moon every maple tree will be a blushing beauty. Our Dress Stuffs have caught the glad infection. The warm injections of bright, rich colors were never so much a beauty as they are today in our NEW FALL DRESS GOODS.

ACROSS SIBERIA.

Russia's Great Railway Across the Empire. Something About the Passengers, Restaurants and Stations—Emigration Has Been Very Fast—A Hundred Thousand Colonists Cross the Urals. The great Siberian railway, properly speaking, begins at Cheliabinsk, nearly 1,400 miles beyond Moscow. This preliminary journey can be made in three days and four nights, on the whole not uncomfortably, at the exceedingly cheap rate of about thirty-seven and a half roubles, or some twenty dollars, for a first-class ticket. The fare all the way from St. Petersburg is proportionately even cheaper, as the Russian government a few months ago introduced the system of a rapidly decreasing rate of mileage for long distances. The trip is only moderately interesting. The country passed through is flat, and seems fertile and prosperous. The crowds at the stations are the usual picturesque red-shirted muzhiks, with a sprinkling of the original native inhabitants as one goes to the eastward. The Volga is crossed on an iron bridge 1,484 metres long a few hours before the train reaches Samara. What one sees of the passage through the Urals is decidedly pretty, but to a foreigner hardly more, though the Russian is accustomed to rolling plains, is moved to high enthusiasm by mountains and valleys less striking than one can find, for instance, in New Hampshire. Cheliabinsk is beyond the mountains, and already in Asia, but not in Siberia, as it lies in the government of Orenburg. The population, which is somewhere between fifteen and twenty-five thousand, is rapidly increasing, thanks to the railway, and is likely to continue to do so as from here a branch line is being built to the Perm-Tumen road, which crosses the Urals further north. The station, in true Russian fashion, is a good mile and a quarter from the city, about a suburb which is quickly growing up. The place itself is in some ways not unlike some of our own western ones of the same size, with its unfinished buildings and general air of untidy newness, but there is less bustle, and the color is different, for, instead of our prevailing white, most of the houses are unpainted and weather-stained, giving a generally dark effect. Very different, too, is the population, with its soldiers and officials in uniform, its peasants (for the lower classes in the Russian towns still are peasants, long-bearded, red-shirted); its Tartars and Kirghiz, the latter of whom are apt to live in the surrounding countryside, which they come in to market. The streets are broad and shadeless, with the low houses, often of logs, straggling along loosely on either side; and carriages for hire abound at such distances as considerable, and the Russians are not fond of walking. Besides the churches, most of the chief buildings are public ones, such as official residences, schools, the offices of the railway etc. There are no hotels, but apparently not ill supplied. Here and there one may see the omnipresent bicycle. The Trans-Siberian itself is at present finished and open from Cheliabinsk to Omsk, a distance of 741 versts, or about 600 miles. It takes nearly 48 hours to traverse this, not so much on account of the easy slowness of the train as because at only one station does it stop for less than twenty minutes, while an hour or more is not infrequent. Our train was a fairly long one and packed, many of the upper-class passengers being on government service; among them half-a-dozen engineers who were going two or three thousand miles further to work on another section of the road. Besides several baggage-cars, etc., there were three classes for travellers. There were no first-class cars, and the two second-class were borrowed from elsewhere, and so old, bad and overcrowded were they that, like many of the old unfashionable second-class tickets, I preferred to ride third. These third were the best I have ever seen, new-built, extra-tight for less than twenty minutes, night of being turned into sleepers with three tiers of beds, thus insuring each of us a whole one, even if it was only a board. The five fourth-class cars were like freight cars plus a few windows, and were provided with benches filled with men, women and children, a sturdy, cheerful crowd, not at all miserable in appearance, bound for the broad vacant lands in the east. Emigration to Siberia has increased very fast in the last few years. For a long time it was unwisely discouraged by the government, which made futile efforts to check or limit it. This policy has now been abandoned, and in the last year a hundred thousand colonists crossed the Urals, the majority of them by the north to Tomsk. There are various causes for this Sovereign Grand Lodge Meeting at Atlantic City, N. J.

What the Reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer Show. The Relief Paid and the Revenue Received by the Lodges in North America. Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 16.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Oddfellows, assembled at 10 o'clock this morning in this city. Dr. W. H. Izard of Camden acted as master of ceremonies. In the absence of Governor Werts, who is at Chattanooga, Mayor Franklin B. Stoy delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city, and John H. Griffith on behalf of the Oddfellows of this State. The address of welcome on behalf of the grand encampment of New Jersey was delivered by Grand Patriarch James McMahon. Mrs. Sarah Dutscher, president of the Rebekah state association, a branch of the order, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of this branch. Grand Sir C. W. Stebbins replied to the address of welcome. The grand sire then delivered his annual report, which showed that every branch of the order was flourishing, exhibiting an increase in the number of its subordinate lodges, increase 297; subordinate encampments, increase 53; Rebekah lodges, increase 35. In the Canton branch they are not reported, but from information from department commanders it is learned that unusual prosperity prevails. The Rebekah lodges have had a marvelous growth in the past year, while the increase has been several thousands less than last year, and the encampments have fallen 1,572 below, the Rebekah lodges have gained in membership 22,747, exceeding the gain of the preceding year by 1,174 and the relief by $3,241.36. The grand secretary's report shows the following state of the order for the past year: Total number of grand lodges, 65; total number of subordinate lodges, 10,692; a gain of 297; subordinate encampments, 2,610; a gain of 53; Rebekah lodges, 3,627; a gain of 35; Initiations, 9,407; total lodge members, 790,795; encampment members, 124,350; Rebekah members, 226,139; relief paid by lodges in North America, $2,935,457.99; relief paid by encampments, $1,142,250.25; Rebekah lodges, $48,379.94; total relief paid, $4,126,138.18; revenue received by lodges in North America, $7,474,328.06; by encampments, $615,362.07; by Rebekah lodges, $837,000.00; total revenue, $8,926,760.23. The report then gives some interesting statistics of the order from its inauguration in North America in 1830 up to December 31, 1894, including Germany, Denmark, Sweden, 82,487, 870,583. NOTES OF A FLYING TRIP

By Some New Brunswickers in the British Islands.

Liverpool and the Commercial In- sult-The Charm of English Landscapes. Life on the Canals—The Railway System and the Indispensable Porter—No Free Trade in Tobacco. The prospective visitor to free trade England who does not expect to make the acquaintance of customs officials is not well informed. From the wharf at Liverpool our party, with nearly a hundred passengers, took a long, enclosed passage to the examining room, where our baggage was systematically inspected. It was quite pathetic to see a worthy citizen of a western town, who had taken across his favorite brand of cigars, yield them up to the officers to be weighed for duty. Another unfortunate had more than the allowable quantity of his favorite fine-cut tobacco, and he, too, was called on to produce his pocket-book. Having been advised that there would be a scramble for space on returning steamers during the next few months, our party went at once to the offices of the Doodson & Co. and secured staterooms for the homeward journey. In that we were wise, for even then desirable rooms on the steamer that was not due to depart until three weeks later were in fairly good demand, and we met persons in London afterwards who were at their wits' end to secure a passage home at the time they desired. For the British islands and the continent were swarming with tourists from this side, most of whom apparently wanted to get home in the early autumn. Our stay in Liverpool was short, only a few hours, but what we saw of the massive docks, the shipping, the crowded streets, with a narrow back street, the huge warehouses, the great volume of traffic on the streets, all combined to impress one with a realization of the fact that here was one of the world's great marts of commerce. The commercial instinct of the citizens was not without illustration. After lunch two of us entered a barber shop, to be shaved. We were planted in upright chairs, with a peculiar knock to rest the head upon. Whether the operator mistook us for specimens of the great American hog we did not learn, but we were conscientiously shaved. Then the commercial instinct cropped up. The operators were talking and talking, and we compared notes afterwards, discovered radical defects in the texture of our respective heads. It had escaped the notices of Canadian barbers, but the defects were there. Our case was, in fact, serious, unless prompt measures should be taken. Fortunately, many such cases had come under the eye of our friends at once from them a two shilling bottle. But we didn't. We assured them that we had taken our face in our hand on this tour, and would abide the consequences. So we took our departure as usual, and we had had our heads shaved. English barbers, as we found them, are a constant stimulus to a man's homicidal instinct. Their chairs are bad, their razors worse. Two or three pence pays the bill, but it does not settle the score. A Canadian barber, with a modern barber's chair, should find a bonanza in Liverpool or London. Some members of our party, at Liverpool, took a ride to the city of Chester, and did their own shaving. Early in the afternoon of the day we arrived in Liverpool we left by the London and Northwestern railway for the ancient city of Chester. Our first introduction to an English landscape. It impressed us then as it did in our later journeys through the country from east to west and from south to north, as one of the most charming features of the eye could rest upon. There were no bare stretches, denuded of trees. Everywhere were smooth fields surrounded by green hedges, with stately trees at frequent intervals. The surface of the country was gently undulating, varied, but without the abrupt hills or sudden changes of aspect which we met in the States. It was a scene revealed in New Brunswick landscapes. Mile after mile, except where towns or villages intervened, it was the same, yet a sameness with variety that never grew wearisome. The wonderful green of the fields, the richness of the ripening crops, the foliage of oak and elm and other trees, the neat trimmed hedges, with here and there a gleam of water in its river or canal, the well fed sheep and cattle in the fields, the pleasant homes nestling amid trees and shrubbery and so on, all made up an ever charming picture, on which the eye dwelt lovingly. Farm houses are not numerous in these English country districts. In fact the scarcity of them was to us very noticeable. The only explanation of course by the existence of large estates instead of small individual

THE POPE AND ITALY.

A Small Territory May be Purchased With Naval Privileges.

London, Sept. 13.—Discussing the revival of the rumor that Italy may be induced to sell a small territory to the pope, a Paris correspondent telegraphs that the project for the pope's acquisition of the small territory, which is described as "A noble American concert," is no secret from the cabinets of Europe, which have been for some time in possession of the details of the plan. It embodies, in addition to the establishment of the papacy in a principality with its own seaport, certain naval privileges and the restoration of confiscated church property. Negotiations are said to be progressing between the Vatican and the quirk. The Vatican is not known to the general public, but it is a fact known to the cabinets of Europe, which have been for some time in possession of the details of the plan. It embodies, in addition to the establishment of the papacy in a principality with its own seaport, certain naval privileges and the restoration of confiscated church property. Negotiations are said to be progressing between the Vatican and the quirk.

CROSSLEY AND HUNTER.

Evangelists Crossley and Hunter are by no means unknown in St. John and a recent experience of theirs may interest many. They are a sect known as the Hornerites have been holding meetings at Carleton Place, Ont., with the usual result—rivalry has led to strained relations. The other day Mr. Crossley gave a long address, in which he denounced all who would turn worship into pantomime and yell, gesticulate and scream. He said that if they wished to do this kind of thing they should get into the bush alone, where others would not be bothered. At a subsequent meeting a Hornerite appeared, and harangued and questioned Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, and all others present, on "sanctification," to such an extent that his forcible ejection was contemplated.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

A Man's Head Floating in the Bay.

Sussex, N. B., Sept. 18. To the Editor of The Sun: Sir—I see in yesterday's issue of your paper an account of the finding of a headless body in the bay, badly decomposed. I beg to inform you that on the tenth of this month my wife and I were passengers on board the steamer Cumberland, bound to St. John, and about 7.30 a. m. we were looking out of our stateroom window when we were horrified by seeing the head of a man floating in the water. The hair was dark, and had a dark moustache. It looked as though and been severed from the body by an axe. At first sight we thought it was a bunch of seaweed, as it was face downward, and when directly opposite our window the ripple caused it to turn completely over, giving us a full view of the face. We raised no cry of alarm, as we hoped others would see it, and we did not wish to make ourselves conspicuous among the passengers. The head was soon lost to view in the wake of the steamer. We were about two hours' sail from Lubec, as we arrived there at 9.30. Hoping that this may lead to the discovery of the head of the unfortunate, I remain respectfully, CHAS. H. ENGLISH. SUSSEX, N. B.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

Interesting Data About the World's Most Powerful Money Handler.

Celebrates Its Second Centenary This Year—The Bank's Earning Power—Its Notes.

(New York Sun.) In the current number of the Social Economist we find some interesting data relating to the most powerful of banking institutions, the Bank of England.

It is well known that the Bank of England was incorporated by William Paterson for the purpose of relieving William III. from the difficulties he experienced in raising the money needed for prosecuting the war with France.

By the terms of the charter, which was received July 27, 1694, the sum of £1,200,000 ($6,000,000) was to be raised, and the subscribers were to form a corporation styled "The Governor and Company of the Bank of England."

The bank was subsequently enlarged by various additions, until in 1816 it reached £14,638,000, one-fourth of which, however, was afterwards repaid.

The notes of the Bank of England are reputed the safest pieces of paper in the world. An act of Parliament, however, by the Social Economist against the inference that the institution has never been in difficulties.

From 1855 to 1874 the Bank of England was installed in offices at the Grocers' Hall in the Poultry. About 150 years ago it moved to Thread-needle street, where it occupies a massive one story building covering over three and a half acres of ground.

We note, finally, the fact that makes this institution the centre of England's financial system; the fact, namely, that all other banks keep their bullion reserves at the Bank of England. According to the Social Economist this reserve if bullion is seldom allowed to fall below £10,000,000; it appears that from £10,000,000 to £14,000,000 is a fair daily average.

THE REVISED BIBLE.

Its Use in the Churches Discussed by the Synod.

Montreal, Sept. 16.—The matter productive of the greatest discussion at Saturday's session of the Anglican synod was a motion of Rev. Prof. Clark to make a motion of Rev. Canon XIII. as would allow the revised version of the Scriptures to be read in the churches in cases where the clergyman preferred it.

The motion was seconded by N. W. Hoyles. Ven. Archdeacon Smith thought that if there was one thing upon which the synod should be a uniformity in the church, it was in the matter of reading the Scriptures.

Rev. Prof. Worrell moved an amendment to the effect that as the matter was one which came under the jurisdiction of the general synod, the provincial synod did not consider it advisable to take action in the matter.

Rev. Mr. Scott considered that it was inadvisable to make any changes, as did also Walter Drake, whilst Judge Ermatinger supported Rev. Prof. Worrell's amendment.

Rev. A. Brown pointed out that it had been the intention of the Church of England in Canada to keep in touch with the same church in the mother land, and for the synod to adopt the proposed motion would be to put itself in a very difficult position.

Judge Hanington argued that the adoption of the revised version would loosen the foundations of the church. He held that the effect of the revised version had been to undermine and unsettle the minds of the people of this and every other land.

"Oh, no,"—very emphatically, "nature makes roadsteads; man makes harbors." "Excuse me, sir, nature makes harbors, too, and this is one of them."

THE COAST OF AFRICA

THE DARK CONTINENT

THE FUTURE OF AFRICA

"When, twenty years ago, I sailed out to the island on Lake Victoria and contemplated the situation as it seemed to see a picture of the future, I am not a prophet, nor did I think them of exercising the prophetic office, but I described my feelings and my views in the 'Dark Continent,' I sent for missionaries, and today my vision is about being realized."

HALF A CENTURY OLD.

Interesting Story of a Church Edifice in Kings County.

The Fathers Worshipped There—And How the Old Gives Way to the New.

The church in which the Methodists of Smith's creek, Kings Co., have worshipped for fifty years is being torn down and will soon give place to a more imposing structure. The old building lacked architectural beauty of any kind; it was simply a very plain, rectangular block, inside as well as outside. It had no tower or steeple; its roof was a low pitch; there was not a single unnecessary board or nail in the whole structure.

REV. DR. HALL DEAD.

The Venerable Rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Brooklyn Expires.

New York, September 16.—The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Hall, rector of Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal church in Brooklyn, died at his home, No. 157 Montague street, on Thursday night.

He suffered a stroke of apoplexy last year and had never recovered from its effects. Dr. Hall was in his seventy-fifth year, and was among the foremost clergymen in the Episcopal church in the United States. He was born on November 7, 1820, in Augusta, Ga. He took his collegiate preparatory course at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and graduated from Yale in 1842. After studying at the General Theological Seminary in this state, he was ordained, and for several years officiated as pastor of St. John's church at Huntington.

ISLAND OF ANTICOSTI.

It is Reported it is to Become the Property of Mr. Menier of Choate's Fame.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 13.—A correspondent at English Bay, Anticosti, writing to a firm in this city, says:

"The island of Anticosti is likely to change hands. It is under offer to Mr. Depecher of Paris, who has paid an option which expires on the first of October. He is purchasing it for $1,000,000. The island is a valuable resort for seal and bear hunting and for salmon, trout, cod and herring fishing. There is much excellent soil. On the lowlands on the south coast there exists more than 100 square miles of peat bog of two and three feet thickness and of excellent quality. Marl, plumbago and other valuable minerals are reported. The population is only a couple of hundred."

WEDDINGS.

Marriage of Superintendent Stewart to Miss Minnie Connell.

Woodstock, Sept. 18.—John Stewart, superintendent of the northern division of the C. E. R., and Miss Minnie Connell, daughter of Geo. Connell, were married in Christ church this afternoon by Rev. Archdeacon Nesbit. The wedding was very quiet owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Chas. Connell, the bride's aunt. Grenville James, American consul, was groomsmen; and Miss Annie Brown, bridemaid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stewart took the afternoon train for St. John, travelling in the general superintendent's private car. From St. John they will go on a wedding tour as far as the Pacific coast. Last evening a supper was tendered to Mr. Stewart by the railway men of his division, among whom he is exceedingly popular.

FREDERICTON.

More Weddings—Dr. Labelle Has Gone to Montreal—Breach of Promise.

Fredericton, Sept. 18.—Sterling Thompson, city editor of the Daily Gleaner, and Miss Mary Owen, daughter of Samuel Owen, were united in marriage this evening at nine o'clock. The ceremony took place at the bride's residence and was witnessed only by immediate friends. Rev. William McLellan officiated.

Dr. Labelle is still missing, although some tidings have been received which leads the authorities to believe he was in New Maryland Sunday night. Detective Roberts returned last evening and has succeeded in tracing Dr. Labelle to the train station, where he boarded the Telesia last night for Montreal.

Naekwack, the seat of the celebrated striped stocking law suit, is likely to have another, but less sensational, in some days.

GREAT BRITAIN MAY INSIST.

Shanghai, Sept. 15.—Although the more humble among the missionaries at Ku' Chang have been punished, the utmost efforts of the British consul have been unavailing to induce the authorities to punish those who are responsible for the riots. It is believed that Great Britain will insist that these offenders shall be brought to justice.

England has developed a taste for bananas, drawing its supply from the Canaries and from Madeira.

GET READY.

While no authoritative announcement has yet been made, it is pretty well understood that the provincial elections will take place either in the latter part of October or early in November. The government will not announce the date until Mr. Blair has made all his deals and arrangements for the various constituencies.

DUNRAVEN'S TREATMENT.

The Defender has "won" the America's cup, yet the great Yankee nation is not happy. White, as the Boston Standard puts it, "most people from patriotic motives" uphold the committee in awarding the second race to their own yacht on a technicality.

says: "Of course, rules have to be followed, but gentlemen need not live up to the technical, when by waiving the rules a more intelligent idea of the result of the trial can be had.

(Monreal Witness)

The decision of the racing committee of the New York Yacht club allowing the Defender's protest against the Valkyrie, and giving her the race win by the Valkyrie on Wednesday, will be regretted on both sides of the Atlantic.

THE VALUE OF PROPERTY.

The fact that the residence of the late Mr. Boyd sold the other day for a fraction of what it is said to have cost has led some writers to moralize on the decay of St. John. Now while it is true enough that few St. John business men are making money as fast as those who were interested in shipping once did, it is not true that the low price paid for the Boyd property indicates a state of local decay.

IS IT A BACK-DOWN?

The conciliatory report in which the federal government last submitted its views to the Manitoba ministry is described as a back-down. This would not approach a correct definition except on the assumption that the first report, known as the remedial order, was intended to be a positive, peremptory and circumstantial command to Manitoba from Ottawa.

from the judgment of the judicial committee to the action of the parliament of Canada. It seems to be necessary to say that the present government at Ottawa is not responsible for the Manitoba school law; not more is it responsible for the act constituting the province of Manitoba under which act the Roman Catholic minority took their appeal to the courts.

The Manitoba government gave certain reasons against the restoration of separate schools under the old conditions. Mr. Greenway explained that the old schools were not efficient. He also intimated that the federal government was not fully informed as to the local conditions. It is a reply to this, or rather in reference to it, that the second message was prepared.

MR. WHITE AND MR. FOWLER.

A St. John paper has given currency to a report that Mr. Geo. W. Fowler of Sussex is spoken of as a colleague of Solicitor General White in the next provincial election. Mr. Fowler has been well known throughout the province as an uncompromising opponent of Mr. White and one of the Kings county opposition ticket at the last election and has given the public no reason to suppose that his opinions of the government have changed.

THE MONTECALM REPORT.

The Montreal Gazette makes up from the preliminary report of the foreign trade of Canada the following statement of the importation of raw materials in the past two years:

THE CUBAN REBELLION.

An American Captain and Fireman Tried and Sent to Prison.

Madrid, Sept. 19.—An official despatch from Havana says a court martial has condemned the captain of the American steamer Mascotte to eight years and the fireman to ten years imprisonment at hard labor for bringing cartridges for the insurgents.

A Spanish Cruiser Sunk and Forty-six of the Crew Drowned.

Havana, Sept. 19.—The cruiser Barcastegui was wrecked at midnight by coming in collision with the merchant steamer Mortera in the canal at the entrance of the port of Havana. Admiral Parejo and three other officers and nearly forty of the crew were drowned.

Sidelines Between the Government and Insurgent Troops—A Spy Captured.

Madrid, Sept. 19.—An official despatch from Havana says a court martial has condemned the captain of the American steamer Mascotte to eight years and the fireman to ten years imprisonment at hard labor for bringing cartridges for the insurgents.

Sudden Death

Of Sidney B. Paterson of This City in Montreal.

A despatch from Montreal received yesterday announced the sudden death in that city of Sidney B. Paterson, one of St. John's best known and most respected residents. Mr. Paterson left St. John for Montreal on Monday last in company with his son, George W. Paterson, of the department of the interior, Ottawa, and his daughter, Mrs. Thomas L. Morrissey, wife of the general manager for Canada of the Union Fire Insurance Co., and it is understood that his death resulted from an epileptic attack, as he had been afflicted more or less with that malady for fully thirty years, although the fact was not known beyond the circle of his immediate friends.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

is in the eating. The public has had over a quarter of a century's testing of our work, and no case of indigestion have been reported. Pretty good test, isn't it? Send for a copy of our new catalogue, giving REVISED TERMS, and showing what we have done, and can do.

PRERATIONAL MOORS

Seized a British Felucca and Looted It. Gibraltar, Sept. 18.—The British felucca Virginia de los Angeles, which arrived here today, reports that while beached off Albucares, a small island off the coast of Morocco, a party of Arabs occupied the boat, boarded her, and carried off part of her cargo. The Arabs also took 500 in specie which they found in the captain's quarters.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.

Washington, Sept. 19.—The state department has received through the British embassy and referred to the deputy justice, a copy of a letter from the governor of the Bahamas Islands, in which it is stated that on August 30 a quantity of arms, ammunition, etc., was discovered on an uninhabited island known as Grassy Cay, off the southern edge of Andros Island in the Bahamas group.

PROVINCIAL.

The Post Office Robberies at Fredericton Solved at Last.

Northumberland Teachers' Institute - To Investigate the Miramichi Disaster.

CHARLOTTE CO. Deer Island, Sept. 14.-A large number of people from Deer Island attended the meeting of the Free Christian Baptist church on Sunday, the 2nd inst., at Wilson's Beach, Campobello.

Rev. W. J. Buchanan of St. John occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church at Leonardville and Cummings Cove on Sunday last.

Sch. Hope, Capt. Hudson, from Parker's Cove, N. S., was at Leonardville this week unloading a cargo of wood which was sold for $4 per cord on the wharf.

Herring are very plentiful here at present, but prices are very low, only about $1 per hoghead being paid by the sardine factories.

Rev. W. J. Halse preached to a large congregation in the Free Christian Baptist church, Cummings Cove, on Monday evening.

Darius Martin has been blasting rock on the northern side of the public wharf, so that it is now possible for good sized vessels to be grounded there.

Charles Havelly leaves on the 15th to enter upon his third year at Mount Allison university.

Sch. Edith M., having undergone repairs, sailed on Thursday for fish haddock and cod off Grand Manan.

Daniel Cameron, having just completed a new residence, moved into it this week.

Grand Manan, Sept. 14.-The government should either have the cable to the island repaired, or take it up altogether. It is no use to anybody as it is.

It is reported that extensive repairs will be made to Gannet Rock light and surrounding this fall.

D. L. W. MacLachlan, customs officer, has removed his office to J. D. McDowell's building.

Mrs. J. Warren Wooster of Seal Cove is again ill.

Miss Jessie Covert is attending the Rotherham school for girls. Her brother George left for New York on the 7th. D. H. Covert, D. S., has gone to Cleveland to practice dentistry.

His brother John is a civil engineer in that city. O. A. Kent has returned from a cruise to St. John.

Deer Island, N. B., Sept. 15.-Yesterday afternoon at the residence of Edwin McNeill, Chocolate Cove, the nuptials were celebrated by Dr. W. Moore of St. Stephen and Mildred A. daughter of J. Sedgewick Maxwell of the same place. Rev. L. J. Wason was the officiating clergyman.

The bride couple will take boat at Eastport today on to the mainland.

Miss Addie Calder, daughter of Capt. Alonzo Calder of Fair Haven, who has a situation at Caterbury Station, is home on a short holiday.

The neat little two story house of Frank Wilson is receiving a coat of paint.

St. Stephen, Sept. 15.-A large delegation from the border towns will visit the St. John exhibition next week.

There is talk here of a matched race between Jerry O'Neil and Rose T. Mr. Adams, from the public works department at Ottawa, is here arranging for necessary repairs to the exhibition building.

The annual fair of the Campobello Fishery association is to be held on Oct. 16th and 17th at Welch Point. The regatta will be held on the closing day and will be followed by a banquet and dress ball at the hotel.

This is one of the most eagerly anticipated events by the many who attend.

The remains of Rev. J. B. Dunlop of Somerville, Mass., were brought to Calais for burial beside those of his wife. He was the first pastor of the Episcopal church in Calais.

Comfortable new houses have been built in Queens with this summer by Albert Vanston, John Mann and Hill Libby. Thomas MacClure has done some house in Kings and councillor T. R. Mitchell has practically built a new house out of the old one on the west side of the street.

Miss Bertie Taylor has returned home from an extended visit in Nova Scotia.

GLOUCESTER CO. Bathurst, Sept. 15.-Clarke & Lounsbury, of Newcastle, who do a large business throughout the province as dealers in machinery, will erect a two story warehouse, 30x24, on Main street near their old stand this fall on account of increase in business.

Mr. Hamilton, C. E., with assistants, is now surveying the route of the proposed extension of the Carleton place. Tracadie, which is already subdivided by the government.

The new lazaretto at Tracadie is nearly completed, and will soon be ready for occupation.

A church of England picnic with band and refreshments was held this afternoon on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. James Norton at Salmon Beach. A large number drove out from town. Quite a sum was realized.

The church and rectory in Bathurst will soon undergo repairs and improvements. The Rev. Mr. Street, who has recently taken charge of this mission, made special mention during the Sunday service of the life and influence of the late John Carter, whose death occurred during the preceding week, and who was for upwards of forty years a warden of the Episcopal church.

The election of councillors for the parish of Bathurst will take place at the court house on Tuesday, the 1st Oct.

Detectives have been searching the country for the burglars who, it is supposed, committed the safe robbery in Rimouski, and who are thought to have been seen in this vicinity. Instructions have been received by business men from government officials to be on their guard.

On the 24th inst. the Roman Catholics held a picnic and lottery in aid of their church on the grounds at Saint Therese. Father Doucet's picnic at Shippegan passed off very successfully and a large sum was realized.

CARLETON COUNTY. Hartland, Sept. 14.-There was a meeting of the village ratapayers on Tuesday evening, when plans for a hose house were submitted and it was decided to purchase from W. C. Roberts the lot of land north of his shop whereon to construct the same. The matter of packing around the reservoir with clay was again considered and it was found that a considerable majority still favored blue clay. The report was given by commissioners to issue bonds and borrow $1,000 to finish the water system. It was also decided to purchase a hose cart.

The work of laying pipes is complete and pipes are being put into private houses at a great rate.

The patrons of industry held a meeting in Burt's hall on Thursday for the purpose of organizing a county association. The hall was well filled, Earle Carroll, who lately has organized a dozen or more lodges in this county, was present, also Duncan Marshall of Bruce county, Ontario, who has been organizing in Prince Edward Island. There were besides these gentlemen a large delegation from the various parishes of N. S. and C. Connolly county secretary. In the evening one of the largest audiences ever gathered in Hartland were present and Duncan Marshall spoke for two hours chiefly on the official platform of the order. He was loudly applauded and great enthusiasm was manifested.

Herbert Bradley, 25 years of age, died last Monday from heart disease. He had suffered for a long time. He was a son of John Bradley, an old resident of this village. He was buried with Orange rites, he being a member of Hartland lodge, No. 41. The funeral was very largely attended.

Prof. W. F. Watson and family returned on Friday to their home in Greenville, S. C., after having spent the summer here. Mrs. Watson's sister, Mrs. M. H. McNeill of the same city, still remains here, but will leave for the south next week.

There was a heavy frost throughout this section last night, but no damage was done.

KINGS CO. Mechanics' Settlement, Sept. 14.-On Sept. 12 the body of Mrs. Geo. Adair, one of the pioneer residents of this part of the county, was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the burial ground at Donegal. She came to this country from Donegal, Ireland, with her husband and other friends, and for years was most respected.

Mrs. Adair died esteemed by all who knew her. She has been residing with her son, Geo. Adair, at Elgin, for the past three or four years, and her earnest Christian character will long be remembered. Rev. J. B. Young (Methodist) conducted the burial services. A memorial service will be held on Sunday, the 22nd, at the Methodist church at Donegal.

Sussex, Sept. 17.-The Chapman-Kelth inquiry caused was on before the stipendiary magistrate today, when Fred W. Stockton appeared for Chapman and H. A. McKeown for the defendant. Hon. Solicitor General White continued his evidence and produced the missing papers, and gave other evidence concerning the case. Quite unexpectedly Mr. McKeown, as a witness and occupied the time of the morning after a most respectful manner. He was followed by Chapman, the informant. With this Mr. Stockton closed his case. The evidence of witnesses was read over and signed and the hearing adjourned until Monday next, when Hon. Mr. Emmerson, of Halifax Banking company's attorney, and others will be heard on the part of the defence.

Mark Teakles, market gardener and owner of a very pretty place between Upper and Lower town, credited with having raised this season seventy-five barrels of onions of a very superior quality, of three-fourths of an acre of ground, readily realising $3 per barrel for them. He raised also a very large quantity of other kinds of vegetables, finding a ready market at paying prices.

Doctor Murray, who has for some time past practiced at Collins Corner has rented the Presbyterian manse and will move this week to Sussex to begin the practice of his profession here.

Work was begun today on a new building in the rear of the store occupied by Harley White, opposite the Sussex station, which will be used in salting and packing pork on a large scale. Another one is spoken of. These places have proved a very convenient market for our farmers, who find a market for all their pork at good prices, and expenses saved in taking it to St. John.

A little boy, son of W. H. Wallace of Wallace Bros., nearly severed the fingers of his left hand while working with a hay cutter in the field. His father, Mr. W. H. Wallace, who attended the little boy, fears one of his fingers will be lost to him.

Mr. Kent of Amherst, who has just completed an artisan well at the premises owned by Mrs. Lamb, moved one of his engines and apparatus to St. Mary's, where he will begin the boring of a well for Walter McFarlane of that town. Mr. Kent has another engine and gang of men at work boring for George Slipp, a large farmer residing at the west end of the town.

Millstream, Sept. 15.-The pie social which was held at the parsonage for Mr. Ambrose realized $30. He feelingly replied to the presentation speech from Mr. Pierce.

At a public meeting of the Women's Missionary society at the head of Millstream on Tuesday last, the chief feature of an enjoyable programme was a duet by the Misses Finnis. The collection amounted to $45.

Mrs. Edward Goggin recently received the sad news that her daughter, Mrs. M. Keith, in Boston, is dying of cancer.

Zebulon Gance of Carletonville on Thursday lost a fine horse which he imported from Prince Edward Island.

The sale of the Soofield bridge took place on Saturday. It was sold to Mr. Schofield for $109.

D. I. Law, who started for the States has returned home again.

At the last division held in Carletonville by the S. of T., an able discussion was carried on by Messrs. Zebulon Gance, Howard Snider, John A. Leiper and Allan Schofield.

There was a heavy frost throughout this section last night, but no damage was done.

KINGS CO. Mechanics' Settlement, Sept. 14.-On Sept. 12 the body of Mrs. Geo. Adair, one of the pioneer residents of this part of the county, was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the burial ground at Donegal. She came to this country from Donegal, Ireland, with her husband and other friends, and for years was most respected.

Mrs. Adair died esteemed by all who knew her. She has been residing with her son, Geo. Adair, at Elgin, for the past three or four years, and her earnest Christian character will long be remembered. Rev. J. B. Young (Methodist) conducted the burial services. A memorial service will be held on Sunday, the 22nd, at the Methodist church at Donegal.

Sussex, Sept. 17.-The Chapman-Kelth inquiry caused was on before the stipendiary magistrate today, when Fred W. Stockton appeared for Chapman and H. A. McKeown for the defendant. Hon. Solicitor General White continued his evidence and produced the missing papers, and gave other evidence concerning the case. Quite unexpectedly Mr. McKeown, as a witness and occupied the time of the morning after a most respectful manner. He was followed by Chapman, the informant. With this Mr. Stockton closed his case. The evidence of witnesses was read over and signed and the hearing adjourned until Monday next, when Hon. Mr. Emmerson, of Halifax Banking company's attorney, and others will be heard on the part of the defence.

Mark Teakles, market gardener and owner of a very pretty place between Upper and Lower town, credited with having raised this season seventy-five barrels of onions of a very superior quality, of three-fourths of an acre of ground, readily realising $3 per barrel for them. He raised also a very large quantity of other kinds of vegetables, finding a ready market at paying prices.

Doctor Murray, who has for some time past practiced at Collins Corner has rented the Presbyterian manse and will move this week to Sussex to begin the practice of his profession here.

Work was begun today on a new building in the rear of the store occupied by Harley White, opposite the Sussex station, which will be used in salting and packing pork on a large scale. Another one is spoken of. These places have proved a very convenient market for our farmers, who find a market for all their pork at good prices, and expenses saved in taking it to St. John.

A little boy, son of W. H. Wallace of Wallace Bros., nearly severed the fingers of his left hand while working with a hay cutter in the field. His father, Mr. W. H. Wallace, who attended the little boy, fears one of his fingers will be lost to him.

Mr. Kent of Amherst, who has just completed an artisan well at the premises owned by Mrs. Lamb, moved one of his engines and apparatus to St. Mary's, where he will begin the boring of a well for Walter McFarlane of that town. Mr. Kent has another engine and gang of men at work boring for George Slipp, a large farmer residing at the west end of the town.

Millstream, Sept. 15.-The pie social which was held at the parsonage for Mr. Ambrose realized $30. He feelingly replied to the presentation speech from Mr. Pierce.

At a public meeting of the Women's Missionary society at the head of Millstream on Tuesday last, the chief feature of an enjoyable programme was a duet by the Misses Finnis. The collection amounted to $45.

Mrs. Edward Goggin recently received the sad news that her daughter, Mrs. M. Keith, in Boston, is dying of cancer.

Zebulon Gance of Carletonville on Thursday lost a fine horse which he imported from Prince Edward Island.

The sale of the Soofield bridge took place on Saturday. It was sold to Mr. Schofield for $109.

D. I. Law, who started for the States has returned home again.

At the last division held in Carletonville by the S. of T., an able discussion was carried on by Messrs. Zebulon Gance, Howard Snider, John A. Leiper and Allan Schofield.

CARLETON COUNTY. Hartland, Sept. 14.-There was a meeting of the village ratapayers on Tuesday evening, when plans for a hose house were submitted and it was decided to purchase from W. C. Roberts the lot of land north of his shop whereon to construct the same. The matter of packing around the reservoir with clay was again considered and it was found that a considerable majority still favored blue clay. The report was given by commissioners to issue bonds and borrow $1,000 to finish the water system. It was also decided to purchase a hose cart.

On the Outrageous Treatment of Lord Durraven

And the manner in which the America's Cup was retained by the Yankees.

(Hamilton Spectator.) Yankee Hamilton built a boat. And she was fast and pretty.

(Montreal Gazette.) The America's cup is not a drinking vessel, and it is just as well.

(Ottawa Journal.) For the next United States cup defender we would suggest a barge with a dynamite gun on it.

(Montreal Herald.) Yankee correspondents report with great glee that Valkyrie was retiring from the course on Thursday.

(Ottawa Free Press.) It is evident that there is a prejudice against the English boat in the states.

(Quebec Chronicle.) FAVORED THE HOME YACHT. Lord Durraven behaved splendidly throughout, and was plucky enough to do precisely what he declared at the outset that he would do.

LOOK AT THE PHOTOS! (Hamilton Times.) It is to be hoped that Lord Durraven will not accept the ungenerous proposal of the Defender's owners to resale Tuesday's race.

UNCLE SAM'S SHAME.

The action of Mr. Iselin, the owner of the Defender, in grasping the decision of the racing committee, which disqualified the Valkyrie, contrasts most disgracefully for him and for Americans, which he represents, with that taken by Sir Richard Sutton, the owner of the Genesta, in 1855.

lishmen would most severely condemn in any game. The action of the Cornell team aroused some of the more public-minded of American journals.

GAMBLERS, NOT SPORTSMEN.

(Halifax Herald.) Shameful as have been the antics of the gang of New York gamblers who have had charge of the "America's" yacht races, and scandalous as have been their rulings, we cannot say that we regret the result.

(Chicago Record.) It were better to lose the cup than to retain it by questionable methods, or even by the lesser sin of discourtesy to a guest.

AMERICAN OPINION.

(Ballimore American.) The decision regarding the second race seems to have been a grave blunder.

(Boston Transcript.) In many jingo minds there seems to be a queer notion that Durraven is a nosy braggart like themselves, who has made all sorts of boasts of what his yacht would accomplish.

(New York Times.) The cup is ours. We have won it in one straight race, a fluke and a walk over. However, we've got the cup on exhibition somewhere uptown, and we're going to keep it.

A TRIUMPH OF PATRIOTISM. (Commodore Stewart in Chatham World.) The Defender has won the series of international yacht races by three straight flukes.

WHAT HOLMES LOOKS LIKE.

An Interview With the Multi-Murderer.

The Interviewer Says That Holmes' Voice and Face Create a Favorable Impression, But His Conversation Reveals Many Inconsistencies.

The New York Sun says: Holmes was visited in his cell in Moyamensing and studied by a reporter for the Sun last week. First, no man ever looked at Holmes and said: "That man is a murderer," unless he knew his record.

CHARLOTTE CO.
 St. Andrews, Sept. 18.—The all comers rifle match under the auspices of the St. Andrews Rifle club, held at the Joe's Point range yesterday, created considerable interest, and was participated in by forty-seven competitors. Some good shooting was made at the first three ranges, but at the six hundred yard range the heavy wind which had sprung up made good shooting almost impracticable.

Geo. Means won the first prize, a silver tea service, L. Hartford the second and N. Treadwell the third. There were twenty-five prizes all told. The highest winning score was 81, and at the bottom of the list of competitors with 24 points.

MALDEN CO.
 Wm. Mawhinney, who previous to Monday of this week was in his usual good health, was found dead in his bed Tuesday morning. It was a severe shock to his wife and only child. The evening before he had spent at a neighbor's house, and on returning home, and attending to his evening devotions, retired to rest. In the same position in which he lay down in his bed, he was found lifeless in the morning.

SUNBURY CO.
 Mauveville, Sept. 19.—Ten dollars were realized by the musical held in the lower hall on Tuesday evening. Those who took part were Miss Helen Miles, Miss Blanche Harper of Jacksonville, C. C. Miss F. J. Rosborough, Miss Walley, and Messrs. Duffin, Mitchell and Webb.

The Catholic Oratorio held a social at the court house the same evening, the receipts reaching $180. John Kelly of the marine department was at Ororocto on Tuesday looking over the work of the new lighthouse, which will be put in commission on the first of next month.

While Bedford Wasson was driving a load of hay to town yesterday his horse dropped dead on the road.

BLISSVILLE, Sept. 20.—The people of Fredericton Junction and vicinity enjoyed a rare treat on Monday evening in the very excellent lecture of Jacob Khadder, a converted Jew, who is studying at King's college, Windsor, and will when prepared go back to his native country as a missionary.

The Methodist of Juvenile Settlement have purchased an organ for their church.

REV. A. MURRAY (Church of England) of Stanley, preached at the Hall at Fredericton Junction on Tuesday evening.

The Blissville Corner school opened this week. I. N. Thorne, teacher.

KINGS CO.
 Havelock, Sept. 19.—The repairs on the Episcopal church and finishing of the interior of the Public hall are very much delayed because the committees cannot procure carpenters. All the available hands being at work on the store of C. I. Keith, who is rushing the workmen in order that he may move in as soon as possible.

Spurgeon Powell is very low and no hopes are entertained for his recovery.

HAMPTON, Sept. 20.—Judging from the liberal manner in which the newly-appointed vendor of intoxicants under the 53rd act is laying in his stock, the medical men, on whose shoulders Solicitor General White has endeavored to cast the odium of the appointment, must have given Mr. Scitiner a tip to the effect that they expected a great deal of sickness this fall and during the coming winter. There is now, or there was a few hours ago, in the freight house here, a large shipment of wet goods from the local government headquarters.

Prince William street, St. John, has been addressed to W. T. Scribner, to wit, a five gallon keg of Scotch whiskey, one case of Scotch whiskey, "Union brand," and one case of Martell brandy that is resembling the contents of the packages as according to label. In addition to the above were two 60 gallon casks of St. John ale, also addressed "S." Hampton. Why so much ale is a question that the poet act vendor is unable to answer, but can best answer. It may be that fashion in the use of stimulants, as well as in the use of drugs is subject to change and that our doctors now regard malt liquors as superior to spirits in certain cases, the after effects of a grippe, for example.

YORK CO.
 Fredericton, Sept. 20.—The York municipal elections were held in the different parishes on Tuesday the first day of October. The elections are for two years, and from present indications but few contests are probable. The nominations close on Monday.

The race meeting held by the Fredericton park this week has confirmed what most of the directors already knew. Horse racing is not a popular sport in this city. The races just closed were well advertised, good fields of entries were announced for each race, and the weather both days proved excellent, yet the attendance hardly paid for putting the grounds in order and ordinary contingencies. The track managers feel considerably discouraged over the result financially, and from present indications it may be some time before a like meeting is again announced.

Miss S. Kelly & Co., milliners, have dissolved partnership. Miss Kelly retires from the firm.

QUEENS CO.
 McDonald's Point, Sept. 16.—The residence of George Day at McDonald's Point was the scene of a very pleasant event on the evening of Sept. 14th, when Mr. and Mrs. George Day celebrated the anniversary of their marriage. Just 27 years ago George Day married Miss Mary Colpitts of Elgin, Albert county. They have five children, three boys and two girls. The two eldest boys are now residing in the United States and were not home to the wedding anniversary. Mr. Day has spent most of his life farming. At one time he built a mill and did quite a business in milling, but finding it did not pay he returned to his farm. His residence is about twenty rods from Day's wharf on the Washademoak creek and is delightfully surrounded with willow and fruit trees, which make the place a favorite resort for city boarders, who flock there in numbers during the summer season. The steamers Star and Olive take daily. The evening was an agreeable one to all.

Below is a list of the guests: John Sherman and Caleb Sherman, Hatfield's Point; William A. Colpitts, Elgin, Albert Co.; Miss Vaughan, Mrs. Geo. Flewelling and daughter, Mrs. Plummer and daughter, Mrs. Mahony and daughter, Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. James Gregory, Mrs. Hugh Gregory, Mrs. Mahony, W. Mahony, W. Macdonald's Corner, Sept. 19.—All that was most of Mrs. Archibald D. Macdonald was laid to rest in the Baptist burying ground at Macdonald's Corner last Sabbath. About 320 persons were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed sister. Rev. Mr. Bishop, assisted by Rev. Gilbert Springs, conducted the services. Deceased leaves a husband, three sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of a good wife and tender mother.

Mrs. Ruth Macdonald has got ahead of the rest of the farmers. She has got her grain all threshed and a good share of her potatoes in the cellar.

The apple crop is very poor in this vicinity this year, the best fruit having been destroyed by worms.

The pleasure yacht owned by Arthur Gilchrist is home now. Her centre board was badly shattered recently by contact with a sunken log when under full sail, but she will be ready for the accommodation of the public again in a few days.

NORTHUMBERLAND CO.
 Red Bank, Sept. 16.—A fire on Saturday burned T. H. Ramsay's tenement house, occupied by James Macchett and Mrs. Katie Johnstone. The house lately vacated by Mrs. Stephen Smith was also destroyed. It is supposed that a spark from the kitchen stove set the flooring and had been smoldering for some time. When the inmates were awakened the fire had made such progress that escape by the door was impossible; they had to go out through the windows. Some of them were badly burned, but were got out the doors. The contents of both houses were completely destroyed.

Miss Bessie Fraser of Boston, Mass., nurse in the Adams Nervine Hospital, is spending her vacation with friends at the manse.

The lumbermen are making preparations for the winter's work, and are sending men almost daily into the woods. Some of the foremen have been in the bush nearly a month crisscrossing and getting the camps in order for the winter's operations.

The 19th annual meeting of the Northumberland county institute will be held in the Harkins academy, Newcastle, on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 20th and 21st, 1896. Delegates are traveling on the I. C. R. who pay a full first-class fare to Newcastle from any station on this railway, and procure a certificate to this effect from agents at the starting stations, which is returned free on presentation of the same at Newcastle, provided ten or more attend; if less than ten attend one-half fare will have to be paid on return journey. Certificates are good until the 31st of October, and are granted by the Miramichi Steam Navigation Company.

Programme—Thursday, Sept. 20th—1st session, 10 a. m.—Enrollment of members; election of officers; "Patrolism," D. L. Mitchell, B. A.; "Indent Pupils—cause and remedy," J. P. McKenna, B. A. 2nd session, 2.30 p. m.—"What are the most wholesome and effective methods of holding attention?" F. P. Yoreton, M. A.; "Canadian History," J. J. Clarke.

Friday—3rd session, 9 a. m.—"National History," Philip Cox, Ph. D.; Practical lesson—proper expression in reading, Miss L. Falconer, 4th session, 2.30 p. m.—"Supplementary Reading," Geo. W. Merseureau, M. A.; Question box. Mr. R. Benn, secy-treas. Northbrook, Sept. 18.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the Presbyterian church at Whitneyville on Sunday last. Four members were added to the communion roll. The pastor expects Evangelist McKay to hold a series of revival meetings in this place, beginning on Sunday, the 22nd.

On Tuesday, October 1st, the election of curdullors in the different parishes takes place. The old curdullors, Jones and Ryan, are in the field, also every candidate in the person of David Whitney.

Eddie Curtis, only son of John Curtis, Whitneyville, is very ill. Dr. Desmond is in attendance.

Mrs. Spindley and family, who have been spending the summer with her parents in Whitneyville, has returned to her home in Maine. Mrs. Jardine of Douglastown is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Adams. Mrs. James Brander is visiting relatives in Bridgeport. Miss Addie Brander is visiting at her uncle, John Brander of Newcastle.

CARLETON CO.
 Hartland, Sept. 19.—There is a good deal of sickness, especially cholera morbus, in this vicinity. An infant child of George Johnson was taken about four o'clock in the afternoon and died before daybreak of the following morning. Amos D. Shaw of Middle Simonds is so ill of a complication of kidney and heart diseases that no hope is entertained of his recovery.

Somerston today, the eighteen-months-old son of William Spirell got at a dish of fly poison and drank the contents. Dr. Estey was promptly summoned and by his efforts the child's life was saved.

It was Rev. D. E. Brooks who was elected county president of the Patrons of Industry, not B. N. Shaw, as was stated in yesterday's Sun.

The telephone line to Woodstock is completed, and renders complete satisfaction. The Hartland office is in the hands of the telephone company. This village now has telephonic connection with Woodstock, Houlton, Presque Isle, Caribou, Ft. Fairfield and a number of other Aroostook county towns. Twenty-five cents is the charge for the use of a five minutes talk with Woodstock.

Sawyer's mill will close this season's operations today. Not nearly all the lumber that was cut is sawn, but lies in the stream yet, on account of the low water.

Moore's corporation drive is hung up near Beechwood. There is a great deal of lumber along the shores and on the bars.

WESTMORELAND CO.
 Moncton, Sept. 22.—The newly appointed Scott act inspector is not making a very good job of the enforcement of the act. After a delay of some weeks in preliminaries he made a start, but in his first case he brought the complaint against the wrong man, that is the man complained of by the inspectors, and the papers were served on the bartender instead. This of course threw the case out of court. In the next case the papers were not served until after the hour mentioned for the case to come on for trial, and the case was dropped. The complaint in the latter case was made again, but the counsel for the defense made a number of objections to the proceedings, holding that the city had no power under the act to appoint an inspector, that the appointment was illegal. The stipendiary will give his decision on Wednesday on the objections raised.

The Salvation Army harvest festival held here realized over $50.

The municipal contest is exciting considerable interest throughout the country. In Moncton parish Councillor Lutes has retired and Councillor Hennessy has formed a ticket with T. G. Hopkins. The contest was brought out at public meeting at Stillsville, Frank L. Steves and Samuel R. McFarlane are also in the field, though not as a ticket. Other candidates are talked of.

Mrs. Mary J. Russel has disposed of all her real estate in Moncton except her own residence. The property consisted of four double tenements, one single tenement, bought by L. W. McQuinn, and a large building on Main street of four stories and a boarding house, bought by J. C. E. Walker, and a single tenement bought by Sam. Walker. The sales were private, but it is understood that good prices were realized.

The Miramichi County Teachers' Institute will meet in annual session at Port Elgin on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 3rd and 4th. The programme embraces papers on mental arithmetic, civics, text books, physics, kindergarten methods, etc.

ALBERT CO.
 Hopewell Hill, Sept. 20.—Robt. Newcomb, Jr., who has been visiting his old home here, left this morning for Malden, Mass.

The exceptionally high tides of last night broke the new dyke of Russell Brothers at Hopewell.

A cave-in near the lighthouse on Grindstone Island this week carried away about a hundred tons of the cliff, the break reaching to within a few feet of the flagstaff. The cliff had been undermined by the action of the waves.

The First Time.

This store can't be useful to you until you know it. How to get customers here the first time—that dubious, uncomfortable first time; how to tempt them past the lion that isn't at the door—that's always the problem. If you doubt whether we want your clothing trade, see the Boys' Overcoats with the small prices; see the Men's Ulsters with the small prices; see the fine Boys' and Men's Clothing everywhere in the store. It is time it were known that our stock of Boys' and Men's Clothing is the finest in St. John. We have here one of the largest Clothing Stores in the Dominion.

Mere bigness isn't an advantage in everything. In clothing it is. When one buys clothing he wants to have the largest resources at his command; he wants to be sure he will not miss anything he ought to see. You can't be sure of that without coming here. There is nothing good in clothing that you can not get here; there are many things that you can get nowhere else. Besides an immense assortment of all regular goods, we have many exclusives which we alone can sell you. And added to all other advantages of resources, experience, taste and skill, we believe there is no other store which has both the ability and the motive to sell as cheaply as we will. Exclusives are suits for stout men—men who measure as much or more around the waist as around the chest. Serge, $8.50; Tweed, $12.00 and $14.00. We have Rothesay College Suits—nobody else does—ready to put on and wear. Price according to the size. Grammar School Boys' Suits, such as you can not get elsewhere. Blue Serge, short pants, $2.75; $3.00, $3.25, according to the size. With long pants, $4.00. Besides these we have a wealth of clothing, the patterns of which are exclusive to ourselves and you must come here if you want them. A Black Frize Overcoat, full back, very long, velvet collar, $14.00—here and nowhere else.

The captains of vessels arriving here from Boston report that they exper- ience great difficulty in getting a chance to discharge their cargoes. Some ves- sels have been detained there three weeks.

A barn owned by Charles Brooks, situated on the shore of Lake Utopia, was burned on the 15th inst. with all its contents. Since the fire Mr. Brooks has sold his land to a party of Am- ericans.

James Gregory, while at work on one of the steamers lying in the stream, was struck with a lift of deals being lowered into the hold. He was badly cut about the eye and had two ribs broken.

After being totally blind for many years, Mrs. F. R. Dykeman of Upper Jemseg is now in full possession of her vision. Her cataracts were removed by Dr. J. H. Morrison a week ago, and she is now enjoying the sight of her friends and acquaintances, of which she has been deprived so long.

A small party is out looking over the country through which the central railway will have to pass on its way from Chipman to Newcastle. Geo. Cushing has not yet decided who shall build his new saw mill at Union Point. James Fleming will build the boilers and engines, how- ever.

Negotiations are in progress which may lead to the immediate sale of the Eschurst lumber property and mill of the St. Lawrence Lumber Co. The Burnsville mill and timber property, and that at Bermsin, on the St. Law- rence, are not included in the deal. The negotiations are progressing fa- vorably.

The statement is some of the papers that Aid. McGooldrick had pur- chased the Cowan & McGinty mill, near Indiantown, is not correct, for the reason that the mill was destroyed by fire about a year ago. Aid. Mc- Gooldrick, however, has bought the old iron, etc., remaining about the site of the mill.

Another effort is to be made to com- pel the dominion government officials to pay taxes. Acting on the advice of Recorder Skinner the assessors this year have taxed S. J. King, post office inspector, and William Johnstone of the customs on income. The taxing of these two gentlemen will serve as a test case.

The autumn excursions of the Inter- national Steamship company com- mence on Monday and continue to Oc- tober 21st, the fare for the round trip to Boston being $5. This is the finest time in the year to visit Boston and the extremely low rate ought to be the means of attracting large crowds to the hub. See advertisement.

John McAdam of Woodstock was in the city on the 18th and purchased from Geo. H. Evans, representing E. Leonard & Sons, the heavy Tangye saw mill engine which that firm will exhibit at the fair here this week. He also purchased a rotary saw mill from the same firm and expects to soon have his mill at work again.

Says the Truro Times-Guardian: Frank and Sandy Cope, father and son, Micmac Indians, brought into Truro Tuesday the carcass of a 400 pound moose, which they had killed on the opening of the season. The head and antlers were magnificent. The carcass was taken to Halifax, where it is expected ten cents per pound will be realized.

A widow, Mrs. Pratt of Middle Stew- iackee, who has been of unsteady mind for some time past, in attempting to cross over a fence in a remote place, was caught by her foot and held there with her head downward. The accident occurred August 28th. A search was made and the body was found Monday. An inquest was held. —Berwick, N. S., Register.

At the police court on the 18th one man was fined for drunkenness. David J. Ankatelle, arrested for lying and lurking about Bridge street, was allowed to go on furnishing a satis- factory explanation. Mrs. Margaret Cook, who assaulted Mrs. Boone in Kelly's field, north end, on Tuesday, was before the court. The case was dismissed, as Mrs. Boone was largely to blame.

Miss Edwina Grey (Mrs. H. Price Webber), the well known and popu- lar actress, has had a critical surgical operation performed for the remov- al of a fibroid tumor. It was success- fully done by Dr. E. W. Cushing at his private hospital, Parker Hill av- enue, Boston, and the patient is rap- idly convalescing. Thousands of Man- ager Webber's friends and patrons in the British provinces and New Eng- land states will be glad to hear the good news, and hope that his wife and himself will soon be able to resume their theatrical circuit, where they are so well liked and esteemed.

James Campbell, brother of Hugh Campbell, and in his time a well known athlete, died at his residence in Elm street, Portland, on the 17th, af- ter a lengthy illness. Mr. Campbell was a famous pitcher and short stop in the invincible base ball team that used to play against the Shamrocks and Mutuals. He was also an oars- man and a runner—indeed an all- round athlete.—Globe.

Says the Truro Times-Guardian: The Fossil Flour company are rap- idly pushing forward their work at the Lake. The large mill is nearing com- pletion and the work of putting the machinery in place goes steadily on. About 50 men are now employed at the works at the Lake. The new telephone line from Bass River to the Lake will be finished and ready for operation in a few days.

There is trouble between the owners of the schr. Druid and Capt. David Tufts, who has sailed her on shares for several years. The schr. was towed up through the falls on Thurs- day without Capt. Tufts having been notified. Capt. Tufts says this was wrong; that his clothes and provisions were stolen from him and that he will make some one pay for it. He wants $500 to settle. If he does not get that amount he threatens to place the schooner in the admiralty court.

The many friends of Harry C. Hard- ing in this city will be pleased to hear of his wedding, which occurred at West Mitchell, Iowa, on Sept. 13th. The young lady's name was Miss Etta Strayer. Mr. Harding is the fourth son of George F. Harding, and is the second son of the family to marry a western wife. He has been for some years in the employ of J. H. Weaver & Co. of Minneapolis, one of the largest and wealthiest grain houses in the west. Mr. and Mrs. Harding will reside in Minneapolis.

On Wednesday David Cleveland passed away at the residence of his son-in-law, Capt. Edgett, 411 Harris street. Deceased was in his 83rd year, and for some time had been calmly awaiting the final summons. He was a native of Albert, New Brunswick, but for some years had been a resident here—Vancouver World, Sept. 12th.

The two oldest vessels in the United States were lying side by side at Calais on the 16th, and they looked spruce and neat enough to pass for much younger craft than they really were. One was the schooner Polly, re- cently purchased in Rockland by Capt. McFarlane of Calais. She was built in 1802 and did service as a privateer during the war of 1812. The other was the schooner Hiram, built about 1805 at Biddeford and commanded by Capt. Hutton of Calais. They are both excellent vessels today and bid fair to see many years of service.

A short but impressive service was held at the residence of the late Chas. W. Day Friday evening, previous to taking his remains to Washademoak Lake for interment, by Rev. J. W. Clarke. The choir gave the hymns, Thy Will Be Done, and Abide With Me, with good effect. A very large gathering was present. The flowers brought in by friends were a crown from his sister, bearing the words, in purple letters, Brother; a lyre from Mrs. Day, and a large number of morning prayer meeting inscribed $30 a m.; a harp from the choir, with words, In Loving Remembrance; also bou- quets from the other members of the family and friends; also a beautiful bou- quet from little Edith Nelson, only six years of age.

The remains of the late Mrs. Short of Digby were conveyed to their last resting place in the Rural cemetery on Friday afternoon, the funeral tak- ing place from the residence of Rev. Dr. Saunders at 2.30 o'clock. Although coaches were taken at the house many persons were present at the services, and many went all the way to the cemetery. The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. Messrs. J. A. Gordon and J. W. Manning, assisted by Rev. A. T. Dyke- man of Digby. There were no pall- bearers. Many beautiful floral trib- utes, several of which were from Nova Scotia, reposed on the casket. A beautiful floral anchor was from the officers and agents of the Bay of Fundy Steamship company.

Stowage Dore, Capt. Mitchell, at Sharp- ness, from Parrsboro, N. S., reports Sept. 1st, 60, 50, 40, 30, 20, 10, 5, 0, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90, 95, 100, 105, 110, 115, 120, 125, 130, 135, 140, 145, 150, 155, 160, 165, 170, 175, 180, 185, 190, 195, 200, 205, 210, 215, 220, 225, 230, 235, 240, 245, 250, 255, 260, 265, 270, 275, 280, 285, 290, 295, 300, 305, 310, 315, 320, 325, 330, 335, 340, 345, 350, 355, 360, 365, 370, 375, 380, 385, 390, 395, 400, 405, 410, 415, 420, 425, 430, 435, 440, 445, 450, 455, 460, 465, 470, 475, 480, 485, 490, 495, 500, 505, 510, 515, 520, 525, 530, 535, 540, 545, 550, 555, 560, 565, 570, 575, 580, 585, 590, 595, 600, 605, 610, 615, 620, 625, 630, 635, 640, 645, 650, 655, 660, 665, 670, 675, 680, 685, 690, 695, 700, 705, 710, 715, 720, 725, 730, 735, 740, 745, 750, 755, 760, 765, 770, 775, 780, 785, 790, 795, 800, 805, 810, 815, 820, 825, 830, 835, 840, 845, 850, 855, 860, 865, 870, 875, 880, 885, 890, 895, 900, 905, 910, 915, 920, 925, 930, 935, 940, 945, 950, 955, 960, 965, 970, 975, 980, 985, 990, 995, 1000, 1005, 1010, 1015, 1020, 1025, 1030, 1035, 1040, 1045, 1050, 1055, 1060, 1065, 1070, 1075, 1080, 1085, 1090, 1095, 1100, 1105, 1110, 1115, 1120, 1125, 1130, 1135, 1140, 1145, 1150, 1155, 1160, 1165, 1170, 1175, 1180, 1185, 1190, 1195, 1200.

The death occurred Sunday evening after a lingering illness of Thomas J. Martin of Wm. Martin & Son, at the age of 26 years. Deceased, who had been in poor health for about four years, went to both Boston and New York for medical treatment, but all to no avail.

The Digby water works are working admirably, according to what a Sun reporter was told on Saturday by a resident of the town. The water is brought from over the hill back of Digby, so that no engines are required in case of fire. The water will move higher than the highest building.

"The only thing we want now is a good summer hotel," the citizen re- marked, "then tourists will come here and will be inclined to remain for a time, I think."

Rev. R. F. Taylor of Montreal preached in Trinity church, Sunday morning, on French Missions in Canada, taking as his text 1st Corinth- ians, xiii, 3. "Though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity (love), it profiteth me nothing."

The rev. gentleman gave an interesting explanation of the na- ture and object of the Church of England mission work among the French in Quebec province, pointing out that it was not as had been erro- neously reported, a proselytizing work, but was directed towards supplying the spiritual wants of those who had expressed a desire to worship God according to the liturgy and doctrine of the Church of England. Rev. Mr. Taylor made a fervent appeal to the churchmen of St. John to support this missionary work.

Mrs. Short, widow of the late Wm. Short of this city, and mother of H. B. Short, the popular representative of the Bay of Fundy Steamship com- pany, died suddenly at Digby on the 18th. Mrs. Short was in her usual good health when her son left the house in the morning to go down to his office. When he returned, shortly after a large audience showed their sympathy for the bereaved one. The de- ceased lady left this city several years ago and opened an hotel at Digby, where she conducted a popular res- ort, and her house became known far and wide. Indeed the comfort- able, home like house no doubt at- tracted many people to Digby in the summer season. The remains were brought to this city by steamer Mon- tcalm this evening and the funeral took place from the residence of Rev. J. H. Saunders, 61 Queen street.

A Bathurst correspondent writes under date of Sept. 17th: The members of the board of health of this town, as- sisted by members of the Orange band from Campbellton and friends from other places, gave a most attractive instrumental and vocal concert in the Orange hall Tuesday evening, when a large audience showed their appreciation of the marked attention. The playing of the two bands was a sur- prise to all, considering their recent formation, and speaks well for Mr. Wil- son, who has been their instructor. Among the special features were solos by Mr. Cole and Miss Wilson and recit- ations by Miss McLean and Miss Bishop. The proceeds from the enter- tainment amounted to about $40, which goes to the aid of the Bathurst Or- ange band in paying for their new set of instruments. The lodge estab- lished here is in a flourishing con- dition, having now nearly seventy ac- tive members.

The Summerside Pioneer says: We observe by English trade newspapers that oats are about sixpence to nine- pence less (12 to 15 cents) per quarter of about 9 bushels than they were last fall at this time, notwithstanding the price was so low then. Our oats grade with Irish, and that is quoted in the last circular at 13 shillings for old oats, and at from 12s 6d to 12s 9d for new—that is, at the rate of from 34 cents to 34 1/4 cents per bushel of 34 pounds. For the last three years, at this time of the year, the quotations for Russian oats have been as fol- lows: 1894—5s to 16s; 1895—12s 6d to 14s; 1896—11s 9d to 12s 6d. The price in 1874 was 28 shillings (the average annual price) and since that year there has been a gradual reduction with one or two slight rises. Oats in Summerside on Saturday were 30 cents, and the Patriot quotes them in Charlottetown at 30 to 31, while the P. E. Islander has them at 29 to 30.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS.

Centenary of the Orange Order Observed Friday Evening.

Speeches by Grand Master Kelly, H. A. McKeown, Dr. Morrison and C. H. Skinner.

The hundredth anniversary of the foundation of the Orange order was observed by a public meeting held in Orange hall, Germain street, Friday evening.

The chairman stated briefly the purpose of the meeting, and expressed regret that Major A. J. Armstrong and Rev. J. J. Teasdale, who were on the list of speakers, could not be present.

Grand Master Kelly was introduced as the first speaker, being unexpectedly called on to take Major Armstrong's place. He said the first Orange lodge was organized in the north of Ireland on September 21, 1795.

scouted Galileo down to the present, had been opposed to intellectual enlightenment, and it would today quench the light of reason if it had the power.

C. H. Skinner was the last speaker. He was received with enthusiasm and made a very interesting address.

There was trotting, however, and some very exciting heats for second places. H. Edwards' Bonnie F. was an easy winner in the colt race, and the Amherst mare Minota had it all her own way in the 2 3/4 class.

The races at Fredericton, Sept. 18.—The races on the Fredericton park this afternoon did not draw a large attendance.

PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS.

Westmorland Provincial Government Supporters Called to Meet to Select Candidates.

Moncton, Sept. 18.—Notice is given tonight of the convention of the provincial government supporters to be held in Dorchester on Monday, 30th inst.

The chief commissioner of public works in an interview in the Transcript tonight denies the authenticity of an interview alleged to have been had with him re the Beckwith case and published in the St. John Record.

Upon the completion of his education he was engaged for a few years in the mercantile business, but was induced to give that up for the purpose of engaging in the life insurance business, and for the last two years he has given his time and attention to that pursuit.

As soon as he became of age he petitioned the Masons, and at once received the degrees in the lodge, chapter and council. He became interested in the beautiful workings of the order and soon became a member of the grand bodies of the state.

In October, 1872, Sir Knight Thomas received the Knight Templar orders in De Molay commandery, No. 12, Louisville, Ky., preparatory to organizing a commandery at his home at Danville. In February, 1873, he assisted in the forming of Ryan commandery, No. 17, and was the first captain of that commandery.

Accepted Scottish Rite, having been crowned with the 3rd degree in January, 1889.

Wm. Reynolds, international field worker, and Mrs. W. F. Crafts, president of the International Primary Teachers' union, are expected at the provincial convention to be held at Chatham on Oct. 15th, 16th and 17th.

At an early hour Saturday morning five burglars gained entrance into the G. & G. Fiewelling company store at Hampton. The store and Walter J. Fiewelling's house are connected by a burglar alarm, but on one occasion at least it gave a false alarm, so when it rang Saturday morning about 2.30 Mr. Fiewelling concluded it was another false alarm.

lantern, and on approaching the side door they were made fully aware of the presence of burglars inside. When about ten or fifteen feet from the door a man shouted, "Get out of that," and then discharged a revolver. Messrs. Fiewelling and Hall retreated toward the mill, which by the way is running night and day.

The burglars, five in number, then made their escape, leaving their tools behind them. The crew of the mill went back with Mr. Fiewelling, and an examination of the safe proved that the men were undoubtedly professional safe crackers. A hole had been nearly drilled through the heavy iron door, notwithstanding the men could only have been in the store a short time. The drill with which the drilling was done was found on S. Hayward's lawn, where the burglars had thrown it in their flight. Messrs. Fiewelling and Hall are not able to give a very good description of the men, but it is believed to be sufficient to place the police of this city on the track.

WAS A PATIENT In St. Joseph's Hospital Hamilton, Ont.

The Doctors Said a Surgical Operation Was Necessary to Effect a Cure.

Uses Paine's Celery Compound and is Cured.

Another wonderful, almost miraculous cure to report. As usual, the afflicted one is saved by the use of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs. Annie Saunders, the cured lady, lives in Brantford, a pleasant suburb of Toronto. Her sufferings from a trouble common to many women, were terrible, and the wonder is that she now lives. To her, medical and hospital treatment proved of no avail. At a critical juncture, the doctors deemed an operation imperatively necessary. Mrs. Saunders would not sanction the proposed operation; she decided to try a medicine that had cured thousands; she had faith in its wondrous powers to make her a new woman.

Instead of submitting to the operation, I used Paine's Celery Compound, and I am thankful your valuable medicine cured me. I feel like a new woman, and I would like all sufferers to know just what has been done for me.

There are ten applicants for the position of junior clerk in the assessor's office, for which the salary is $400 a year.

At its last meeting the Presbytery of St. John unanimously adopted the following resolution and resolved that it be given to the daily papers for publication:

The presbytery having learned with the greatest satisfaction that our people in Andover and vicinity, generously assisted by the other denominations of that village, have succeeded after the most praiseworthy efforts in erecting a beautiful and commodious church building, desire to record their hearty appreciation of the generous contributions received from individuals in this province and elsewhere, and especially do the presbytery record their acknowledgments of and thank for the gift of a handsome organ by a prominent citizen of Woodstock for the use of the said church, and hopefully anticipate that such a generous act will incite others to assist in promoting the work, so that the church can be dedicated at an early date.

The presbytery also desire to record their gratitude to His Honor Judge Stevens, to whom besides other favors in one act and much trouble taken in procuring the work, so that the church can be dedicated at an early date.

THE PRECIOUS CHARGE.

Mission to be Fulfilled by B. W. R. Taylor.

Two Massachusetts Brides-Retreat to Los Angeles, Cal.

Sept. 20.—A brilliant society announced to take place in St. John, N. B., about the 1st of October, when Miss Kathleen Elizabeth and Miss Minnie Gerdoge will be united in marriage.

Mr. Robertson is a native of St. John, N. B., where he held a high position.

Young men, thinking they could do better in the west, went to California, and both succeeded in obtaining positions in San Francisco and Mr. Robertson in Los Angeles.

Robertson, who has interested in a great deal in religious work since his arrival in Los Angeles, has resolved to return to the rectory, who became very interested in his behalf.

At this point Mr. Pillsbury will bid to the rest of the party and will join another party of ladies who have come to make the west the continent.

Some four years ago he was smitten with yellow jack at Rio de Janeiro, and spent his days in the hospital, and he entered a hospital in Barbados, where the doctor told him he had consumption.

London, Sept. 22.—The secretary of the Royal yacht squadron writes to the Royal yacht club, Goodfellow and Bell, that he has called their offer of £1,000 for a race between the Defender and Valkyrie III.

HER PRACTICAL SUGGESTION.

"Do you not believe," he murmured just at that instant when the moon sent a long bar of silver across the water, when the song of the breakers throbbed, when nature was all that is mystical and melodious, "do you not believe that we could walk through life together hand in hand?"

Oxford and Cambridge Against Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20.—The beautiful grounds of the Germantown cricket club presented a brilliant spectacle today when the international cricket match between Oxford and Cambridge "past and present" eleven and the Gentlemen of Philadelphia was begun.
