Civic ownership is just now very popular in Winnipeg. The cost of water to citizens has been reduced since the city established its own system of artesian wells, and the electric light plant has been equally successful.

The news of the death of Dr. J. H. Morrison this morning was heard with deep regret. The unusual circumstances of the case invested his illness with a pathetic interest, that is sadly deepened by his death.

The Montreal Witness rightly observes that Manitoba's grain crop this year will be a great advertisement for Canada. It is pointed out that, according to the latest Manitoba official returns, there will be a grain crop for the year of nearly eighty-six million bushels, of which 48,857,255 will be wheat, 30,286,775 oats, and 6,433,919 barley.

The announcement that at an early hour this morning President McKinley was at the very door of death, came as a severe shock and surprise to everybody. The reports of the physicians have been so uniformly cheering that the general public believed the danger line to be passed.

Says the Montreal Gazette:—"Dr. Talmage is reported as expressing in the pulpit a wish that the policeman who arrested Coakley had dashed his life out with the butt end of the pistol with which Mr. McKinley was shot.

The Dominion fruit inspectors are at work in Ontario and it seems very necessary for them to work with a will as it is stated that in a wholesale warehouse in Toronto they opened a package of "best peaches" at random, and found large tempting fruit on the top, but below they were almost unfit for use.

The grocers of Toronto not only favor early closing, but they want it made compulsory. The Globe says:—"At a meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association in St. George's Hall it was decided to ask the city council to pass the trading stamp and early-closing by-laws, at their meeting next Monday evening."

A Montreal despatch indicates the decline in deal freights. Last year 65 shillings for September delivery and 76 shillings for the balance of the season were paid from Montreal to Liverpool. Recently orders were accepted at 40 shillings, September and October delivery.

The fund started for the raising of a monument to the Quebec soldiers who fell in South Africa, was this week increased to $1,494; two citizens having each sent in a contribution of $500.

An Ottawa despatch says the Ottawa soldiers who fought in South Africa are not at all satisfied at the idea of not being allowed to parade in khaki uniforms when they turn out to receive their war medals from the Duke of Cornwall and York.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST.

Winnipeg Telegram.

Making all possible allowances, we believe the people of this province may justly enter an emphatic protest against the official programme, which allows only six hours for the visit to Winnipeg and then takes the royal party during the night through our wheat lands to the west.

From the point of view of national advertising it would be a grave mistake to so arrange the royal tour that in the reports sent throughout the world no mention could be made of Manitoba's wheat fields. Indeed, if there is any one thing which at the present juncture should be published as having attracted the attention of the royal party, it is the country between Winnipeg and Moose Jaw. This reason for a change in the programme will be acknowledged as valid by every Canadian.

There will be no more of it in Indianapolis. The city committees of both parties in Indianapolis have agreed not to try to influence voters with free drinks during the approaching municipal campaign. There is probably no more of this kind of thing in any of the American cities than that spent with the practice-keepers with orders to treat with as part of the election campaign. The election has grown in some communities so that it is probably true that no man can be elected to office without offering this tribute to the voters. It is equally true that there is no way of stopping the corrupting influence, except by the arrangement like that proposed in Indianapolis.

A leader of a small New York city newspaper told the writer that the purchaser in his place at one time numbered five hundred or more in other words these men had to be paid by one side or other, and sometimes by both, in order to get them to go to the polls. Some of these were purchased by the price of a few days' work, while with a few of them cash was necessary to buy their votes, however, substantially the transaction might be described by the recipient of the bounty.

"This practice," he says, "grew so burdensome and so obnoxious to the leaders of the party who furnished the campaign funds and had charge of the details, that it became intolerable to both parties. Finally an arrangement was reached and faithfully kept whereby no money was to be paid the voters on the black list. As a result, these votes were not recorded for either side at first, but gradually, when they found the game was up, they fell into line according to their natural politics or for some other reason not quite so debasing as the financial one operating previously."

There is practically no difference between the use of cash and the use of liquor. Those who have ever participated actively in politics in a city can realize the step forward that Indianapolis will take in municipal politics if this agreement is faithfully kept.

A FAMILY QUARREL. Complete domestic harmony no longer reigns at a certain residence in Millford. The fact of the matter is that harmony left a considerable time ago and has discreetly stayed. It appears that a married woman is not so fond of her husband as she should be. There is another and he lives on this side of the river. Some time ago the lady left her home and went to live with her mother. There she was visited by the third person. A couple of evenings ago the husband decided that he had put up with his whole thing as long as long, so he and a friend started up the house to annihilate the steady caller. But the best laid plans often go astray. The two women, without the assistance of the male friend, proved a good deal too able for the invaders. While the battle went on near the front of the premises the other man made a strategic move out the side door.

ST. JOHN MUSIC FESTIVAL. William R. Chapman, who is the head and front of the great music festival to be held at the Opera house on Sept. 29 and Oct. 1, stands foremost throughout America as an organizer and conductor. In New York City, where he has been recognized as a power for the last ten years, he has large demands made on his time and strength by his extensive work in music in and about that city. The concert of the Rubenstein and Apollo clubs, held in the music rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria, rank among the most brilliant social as well as musical events of the season. But he is best known in this province in connection with his magnificent work in the Maine festivals. What he has done in Maine Mr. Chapman contemplates repeating in St. John. To this end he will bring his own festival orchestra of 40 pieces and four of the greatest living grand opera stars.

WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER. Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. Mr. Wetmore had them removed from the cars and put in the cattle pens, where they will be kept until they are ready to be forwarded. He intends that the law in this matter will be strictly carried out so far as he is able to attend to it.

GERMAIN STREET BURGLARY. Sometime last night or this morning some person or persons broke into the office of the Messenger and Visitor, on Germain street, and stole in bills, postal and express orders somewhere between fifty and sixty dollars. This morning when Dr. Manning arrived at the office the outside door was open and the drawer partly open, and the money which had been left there was gone. There was no trace of the burglars.

DR. J. H. MORRISON

His Death Occurred at 10.40 O'clock This Morning.

Sadly Sensational Ending of the Trial Before the Court Yesterday.

The sensational case yesterday in progress in the circuit court has been brought to a sudden and sad conclusion by the death of the plaintiff, Dr. J. H. Morrison, which occurred at twenty minutes to eleven this morning.

Dr. Morrison has been in delicate health during the past two years and a half, and the continued strain of the case, and a large part of which he has been on the stand, subject to close examination, proved too much for his weakened condition. Early yesterday morning he awoke unwell, but partially recovered, though not sufficiently to attend court. Dr. Inches saw him about 10 o'clock, when he showed no dangerous symptoms. Shortly afterward he became unconscious, and to all appearances moribund. Artificial respiration was resorted to, and during the evening he appeared to rally slightly, only to fall steadily during the night.

He never rallied and death took place this morning.

A party written letter addressed to his brother explained Dr. Morrison's condition. It appears that he had been taking morphine with the knowledge of his family. It is thought that he took more than usual lately. The immediate cause of death is supposed to have been the bursting of a blood vessel in his brain.

Joseph H. Morrison, M. D., Ph. D., and M. C. P. S. M., was born in St. John October 26th, 1854. He was the son of Rev. Daniel Morrison and Margaret Turner. His father was for many years a Presbyterian clergyman and later superintendent of education in various parts of the country. Dr. Morrison was educated at the high and normal schools of New Brunswick; Bellevue college, New York; Guy's hospital, London; Royal Ophthalmic hospital, London; Hotel Dieu, Paris. He taught in various high schools in this province prior to beginning the study of medicine. He graduated from Bellevue college in 1878, and shortly after was appointed vice-president and professor of natural science in the Pennsylvania State Normal school. In 1881 he went to Manitoba, and for some years was identified with the social, educational and political department of Western Manitoba, after which he went abroad, pursuing his studies as a specialist. While in England he was assistant to the late Sir Morell McKenzie, the world-famed throat surgeon, and occupied several positions in connection with the eye and ear in London. After his settlement in St. John Dr. Morrison enjoyed a large and lucrative practice in his special lines.

He belonged to the Masonic and Orange orders, also to the Ancient Order of United Workmen. While in Manitoba he was inspector of schools, for five years, provincial coroner and medical health officer, and also surgeon to the Indian department.

In politics he was an active conservative, and in the interest of his party addressed meetings in various parts of the dominion. He contested a Kings county in 1890 as a liberal conservative candidate for the provincial legislature, and fought a gallant battle against overwhelming odds. He was elected speaker of the president of the Junior Liberal Conservative Association in this city.

Dr. Morrison was married in 1881 to Ida, daughter of T. W. Keirstead of Cothran, N. B. She died in 1887, leaving one daughter, now fifteen years of age. His second wife was a daughter of the late James L. Dunn. Two children survive this marriage, aged respectively four and two years.

AFTER BIG GAME. Three Hunting Parties Arrived in Fredericton—Went to Miramichi.

(Fredericton Gleaner). Dr. Heber Bishop of Boston will go to Cain's River for a moose, having Jim Paul as guide. He will come on Saturday and go into the woods by way of St. John. Three hunting parties arrived here on the morning of the 10th, and after dinner at the user 1, the Canada game warden. They are N. T. De Pauw of New Albany, Ind.; E. T. Norris and E. H. Phillips of Newcastle, Pa., who have Henry Braithwaite as guide; B. H. Houghton, N. Hovitt and F. E. Benjamin of Boston, who are to hunt with Arthur Evans; and I. Sydam, Jr., and G. B. North of New York and J. L. Wentz of Philadelphia, who have Chipman Bartlett of Philadelphia as their guide. Mr. Houghton is the only one of the nine who has hunted in New Brunswick before, although the other gentlemen have hunted moose and other game in Maine and elsewhere.

Dr. King and Mr. Greene, who arrived here yesterday, also left this afternoon for the Miramichi in quest of moose. Ed. Norrad, Braithwaite's partner, will accompany them to the haunts of the monarchs of the forest. Mrs. Greene, who accompanied her husband here, is together with her friend, Miss Stephen, a guest at Windsor hall and will remain here until Mr. Greene comes out of the woods.

DEATH OF LEMUEL A. WILMOT. The death occurred recently in the State of Washington, of Lemuel A. Wilmot, formerly of Lake George, York County. Mr. Wilmot went west many years ago and had accumulated considerable property, and the only will he left was one executed at Lake George, twenty-five years ago, and which has been secured and forwarded to the attorneys of the estate, and by the terms of which all the valuable property is left to the widow of the deceased.

TRUTH AT LAST.

Murray D. McCutcheon Arrested on a Charge of Forgery.

Admits to Chief Clerk That It Was He Who Secured the Money From the May Queen.

The saying that murder will out is as true as it is old, and it is forcefully brought to mind almost every day. Sometimes it is only a small matter, but very often some very serious wrongs are righted, and the good name of some unlucky one who has been living under a shadow is cleared.

The trial of Harry Nelson, the North End barber, who but a couple of months ago stood in the dock charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from the May Queen is fresh in the memory of all. Nelson was honorably discharged, but his friends felt they never would be thoroughly satisfied until the guilty party was brought to justice.

And today their wish has been granted, as an unfortunate lad taken in custody this morning on a charge of forgery, practically admitted to Chief Clerk and other officers that he was the party who got the money from the May Queen.

Early this week an order, supposed to be signed by a man named Kane, a resident of Queens County, was presented to Slipp & Flewelling authorizing the payment of $46.00 to bearer. The amount was due Mr. Kane for sheep purchased, and was promptly paid. Yesterday Mr. Kane called in person for his money. The order was at once pronounced a forgery, and the matter referred to Chief Clarke, Detective Ring and Sgt. Hastings were put on the case, and about 10.30 o'clock this morning arrested Murray D. McCutcheon, 20 years of age, who belongs to Lake View, Kings County. McCutcheon was arrested at Currie's Business College, where he was taking a business course. He was identified by Mr. Slipp as the man to whom he paid the money. On the way to the central station the suspect admitted his guilt, claiming he was hard up and needed the money. The officers went to the house on Mecklenburg street where the young man boarded and searched his trunk. In a sack in the bottom of the trunk $40.00 was found. In a woolen mit $20.00 was discovered, seven ten dollar bills and two fives. On the prisoner's person was found $2.50, a watch, lately purchased from Sharp, the jeweller, for $20, and a valuable ring.

McCutcheon worked for a few weeks early in the season on the steamer Springfield.

Mr. McCutcheon was this afternoon brought before the magistrate the charge against him was read and he was remanded until tomorrow morning.

At the circuit court yesterday afternoon Mr. Hazen asked that the case be postponed for a day on account of the serious illness of Dr. J. H. Morrison, plaintiff in Morrison vs. St. John Railway. Dr. Pugsley, for the defendant company, expressed his willingness to have the case postponed, and suggested that as Dr. Morrison's condition was serious, Monday be named as the day on which the court would again meet.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

We have been raising public anticipations with reference to the READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING, of which we have procured the sole selling control in St. John.

WE ARE NOW in a position to have them realize their expectations. Our formal opening will not occur until TUESDAY EVENING, when we purpose having an orchestra in attendance and giving the public an opportunity of seeing our new store and inspecting our stock, without being expected to buy, as business hours end at 7 p. m. Our delay in opening has doubtless tested the patience of many who are waiting to see our goods, but if they call now they will be amply rewarded.
