MAJOR BARKER WAS OFFERED COMMAND OF CANADIANS

To Compete With the British Artillerymen—He Has Not Been Able to Accept—Major Leigh, of Charlottetown, Appointed

A very high honor in military work has been offered to a St. John officer, but unfortunately the man thus complimented is unable to accept it. It was announced a short time ago that a British artillery team selected men would tour Canada for the purpose of competing with a selected team from this country. Two men are to be chosen from each Canadian company, and will be placed in charge of a commanding officer and two others. On Friday last, Major Louis Barker, commanding No. 3 Company, 3rd Regiment, C. A., received a rush telegram from militia headquarters offering him the command of the Canadian team and desiring an immediate reply. Major Barker was greatly surprised, but after a few minutes' deliberation, came to the conclusion that he would be unable to take the position as his business duties in St. John would prevent his absence. He wired back, declining to accept, and did not say a word to any person about the offer which he had received. The incident became public today from another source. Artillery Major Barker has found it necessary to decline, for they feel that the regiment would be highly honored throughout Canada by his acceptance, and that the Canadian team could not find a more efficient commandant. It is believed that the offer was made to Major Barker because of appreciation of the excellent work which he did at Petawawa last year. When in command of his company he had to keep in touch with the observation stations, and the guns, communicating with each by telephone, and make his calculations instantly. He went about it in such a businesslike way, although it was his first experience, that many compliments were paid to the work of his company. The British team will arrive in Canada about the middle of August, and will compete with the Canadian team at Petawawa on August 23rd. After that the visitors will be taken for a short tour through Canada, coming to St. John for a day and later going to Halifax, where they will compete in coast defence work with the Garrison Artillery. Afterwards they will sail for Australia. CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., July 9.—Fourth Regiment of Prince Edward Island has been asked to furnish a major to command the composite Canadian Artillery team to compete with the British team at Petawawa. Major Leigh, No. 1 Company, Charlottetown, will be appointed.

DRAWING NEAR THE END OF THE HAYWOOD TRIAL

An Attempt to Secure Further Evidence on the Bradley Explosion, Which Orchard Claims Was Caused by a Bomb and Not by Gas.

BOISE, Idaho, July 9.—The reading of the depositions taken in San Francisco in connection with the explosion at the residence of Fred Bradley, whom Orchard swears he twice attempted to assassinate, continued today as one of the closing features on the side of the defense in the trial of William D. Maywood, accused of the murder of Frank Bradley himself, was coming out of the house smoking a cigar. Bradley was terribly mangled but recovered shortly after the explosion the owner of the house sued the Gas Company for damages, and got a judgment because of an engine of gas which it was claimed caused the explosion. Bradley still maintains the belief that the explosion was caused. It is not likely that Maywood will go on the stand tomorrow. His testimony will probably take one day and on Thursday Haywood will be called.

BENTLEY ON THE STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

Claims That He Was Going Along the Street, When He Was Assaulted by Dr. Bishop—Peculiar Manner of His Arrest

The case of the King vs. John Bentley, charged with assaulting Dr. Bishop on May 24th, was taken up in circuit court this morning. Richard Watson, as the first witness for the crown, he stated that he is employed at the gas works. On the night of the assault he heard a man talking outside the gate which opens to the works. He went to the gate and saw the prisoner who asked him where he could get lodging for the night. The witness told Bentley where he could find a lodging house and then went back to work in the gas house. Shortly after he heard a noise on the street, and on looking out saw two men running down the street. One of them had a satchel and the other appeared to be in pursuit. The gas works, another employee at Louis Watson, another employee at the gas works, gave his testimony, which was about the same as that given by the first witness. John Bentley was then sworn. He said that previous to his arrest he was employed as a fireman on the D. A. R. steamer Prince Rupert. On May 23rd he missed the boat and was obliged to remain here over night. He was standing at the gate of the gas works when an employee came out. Bentley asked him if he would direct him to a boarding house. He afterwards asked the employee if he could spend the night with him in the gas house. This request was refused. He was walking away and met Dr. Bishop. The witness had no intention of seeing the doctor, and was passing him when he (Dr. Bishop) caught him by the throat and brought him to the ground. The witness then struck Dr. Bishop. Shortly after Sergt. Campbell came up and asked the witness if he would know the man who struck him if he saw him. The witness replied that he would, and on the request of the sergeant went to Central Police Station. Dr. Bishop entered soon after he arrived, there and the witness said: "that's the man." He was then very much surprised at being told by the sergeant to follow him to a cell. The court adjourned until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

A Royal Slave Proves an Interesting Play. A well deserved full house greeted the opening performance of A Royal Slave at the Opera House last night. It is an intensely interesting dramatization of General Len Wallace's A Fair God or The Last of the Montezumas, portrayed by an unusually clever company. The scenes laid in Old Mexico are richly staged and the continuing redolent of that picturesque country. John Arthur, who visited us last spring as Tabro Romani, in the title role, Agullita, a royal slave, sharing honors equally with Louise Colonna, a fine type of the scheming mother Countess DeCres. Miss Colonna handled a difficult and thankless role and in her swift changes of role, anger, hatred, sorrow and despair proved an artist to her dignity finger tips. The balance of the cast were above the average and the play one of the best in its class seen here in some time.

PLAYED GOOD GOLF

TORONTO, July 8.—Percy Barrett, the Lambert professional, annexed the open Canadian championship over the Lambert links, leading his nearest competitor, Geo. Cumming of the Toronto Club, by two strokes, 208 to 208. Barrett beat Logey by 8 strokes on every eighteen holes of 72, and the last few were under trying conditions, with a downpour of rain. It was a remarkable situation of steady, clever golf on Barrett's part, and so, too, on Cumming's.

It is expected the crop will be very large this year, the quality of the berries being good as well. Another week will see the berries coming in large shipments. The berries yesterday were selling at 10 cents per box. A few of the wild berries were sent down, commanding the same price as the cultivated ones.

The two small boys Andrew Crawford, of 73 Harrison street, and Arthur Reed, of Fourty Lane, who left the city on Sunday afternoon with the intention, as one expressed it, of "going to Sussex to see the soldiers," returned to the city yesterday. The boys only got as far as Rothesay, where, being tired out, they knocked at the door of Andrew Bair's summer home and asked for shelter. They were taken to Kennedy's Hotel and made comfortable for the night. This morning they got a ride back to the city on a milk team, and were met by Mrs. Crawford, who took her boy home with her. Young Reed did not sit once return home, however, but wandered around the city, fearing to make his arrival known to his parents at once, and causing them much anxiety. When the lad thought his folks would be able to return to the parental roof, tired and homesick, the boys were tired out by their experience and did not seem anxious to carry out their original intention of visiting the camp at Sussex.

WEDDINGS
GROSS-MURRAY.

A quiet and interesting wedding event occurred at Penobscot on Wednesday, July 3rd, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Emma Gross was united in marriage to W. Pitt Murray of Pugsley, N. B., by Rev. Canon St. John. None but the immediate relatives of the family and a few special friends were present. The couple were united by the bride being given away by her mother, Mrs. J. Gross, at whose residence the marriage took place. The bride wore a very handsome gold brooch with pearl and amethyst settings and a number of other valuable pieces of jewelry were also received. The bride was dressed in a suit of champagne Panama, with hat and gloves. Another week will see the married couple proceeding on No. 1 train to St. John and will enjoy a month's honeymoon touring through the province. The bride is the daughter of the late Joel Gross, formerly of the I. C. R. at Penobscot, the groom, Mr. Murray, being formerly of Albert County, and a son of Dr. S. C. Murray of Albert, and spent a number of years in business in Montreal.

Will Repeat Caprice

Mr. Bird has very kindly consented to repeat the performance of Caprice on Wednesday evening next, at my suggestion, the proceeds to be given to the children's playground. I made an earnest appeal last summer to the children to contribute to the fund, but with one exception they failed to subscribe, much to my disappointment. Again knowing how much is required and fully understanding the need of the little children and realizing the happiness of the little ones and knowing how keen their enjoyment, I hope our friends will turn out en masse and fill the Opera House pit, balcony and gallery. Very truly yours, M. KATE H. BEARS.

CARRYING SECRET DISPATCHES.

Appropos of secret dispatches carried through the lines, John H. Burratt, then about twenty years old, acted as a Confederate spy, traveling between Washington and the enemy's boats on the lower Potomac, carrying his dispatches "sometimes in the heels of his boots and sometimes between the planks of a buggy." He said that they never came across a more stupid set of detectives than those employed by the United States government and that they seemed to have no idea whatever how to search him—David Homer Bates in Century.

The Terrible Armaments of Today and the Arguments for Their Reductions—A Great Task Before the Delegates Assembled at The Hague.

(London Daily Chronicle.)

Not everyone can be expected to throw himself with ardor into the technicalities of international law, any more than it would be fair to require the average politician to master every statute and case bearing upon it.

One of the first problems to be discussed at The Hague will be whether floating mines ought not to be prohibited, on account of the danger they involve to innocent neutrals.

Mr. Haldane proposes to have an expeditionary force of 150,000 regulars, ready to be mobilized and sent abroad, in order to provide drafts to fill up the gaps in this force caused by war there.

Physical progress and the furious exchange of hand-to-hand encounters have disappeared. All the glamour and romance of chivalry are gone. A century ago—

"Brave Brook he waved his sword, Crying: 'Now, my lads, let's abroad.' In a modern battle brave Brook would be concealed in the best-protected part of the ship, telephoning to his lads, who would be engaged in destroying or being destroyed by an enemy two or three miles away.

Professor Beesly sees conscription on the horizon: "The nation, suddenly finding itself without the militia, without the volunteers, and a skeleton special contingent, and a phanton territorial army, is expected to resist itself, however reluctantly, to conscription."

fighting by a sense of humor, like the cannibals who, having been to Cambridge, refused to eat a missionary from their own college. In any case, the old idea that war is a noble sport of which it is difficult to have too much has quite disappeared. So, too, has the notion that it is the normal occupation of kings and governments.

How to increase the British Army, and at the same time reduce its expense, is the problem that confronts the Right Honorable Richard Burdon Haldane, Secretary of State for War.

THE DREDGING.

Whether the moving of the Beaver from Sand Point basin to the Clarke and Adams site will affect progress on the D. C. Clark berth is not a live question. There is no reason why anything of the kind should be involved, but the proposed transfer will certainly affect the dredging of the slip, and St. John cannot afford to have steamers stuck in the mud between Sand Point and Rodney wharf. This talk about strengthening the city's case when the government is asked to make a grant for still more dredging is all bosh. The city will, if work is allowed to go on as at present, have just as good a case next winter as it had last winter. The Clarke and Adams berth will be as far advanced by December as the D. C. Clark contract was at the same time last season, and the government did not see fit to criticize the slow construction of the work. Such a development need not be feared now. But if the city sends a delegation to Ottawa to ask for further assistance and has to confess that the first section of the new wharf, complete in itself, is practically useless because of a mudbank which closes the slip, there will be good ground for criticism.

The Beaver is now engaged on a large contract. Keeping in view the necessity for the work which is being done by this plant and desirous of having the second section of the wharf under construction with as little delay as possible, the city asked Ottawa to provide another dredge. In accordance with this request, a contract was made with an Ottawa company, but pending the arrival of the second dredge, the city further requested that the Beaver be allowed to commence clearing the site for the Clarke and Adams berth. The necessary permission was granted, on the express understanding that when the Eugene arrived the Beaver should re-commence operations in the slip. This has been done, and now an untoward effort is being made to complicate matters. The Beaver can find plenty necessary work to do in Sand Point basin and should be left there. Besides this there is the business side to be considered. The Ottawa dredging company brought a plant here to do a certain amount of work at ninety cents per yard. How many men on the newly formed harbor committee, if carrying out a contract of this kind, would be satisfied to have half of it taken away after heavy expense had been incurred on the supposition that the original agreement would stand?

LABOR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Premier Botha of the Transvaal is energetically carrying out his policy of sending back to their homes the Chinese laborers imported a few years ago to work in the mines. Already six or eight thousand have been shipped and others will go as quickly as the necessary arrangements can be made. The policy will undoubtedly result in freeing South Africa from the grip of a comparatively small number of capitalists whose greed for high dividends has retarded progress, and will eliminate much of the restlessness among the blacks which has for the past few years been a source of dread. Previous to the Boer war, the South African natives were practically slaves in their relation to the Dutch, and were compelled by foreigners to labor in the mines for almost no return. During the war thousands of the blacks found employment with the British army and earned what was to them great wealth. Naturally, when peace was declared they were by no means inclined to return to the mines at the former scale of wages, and having accumulated some money during the campaign, assumed an independent attitude. Hence in order that mining might go ahead, the owners were compelled either to pay the wages asked by the natives or to secure cheaper labor elsewhere. This question created much ill-feeling, but the discussion ended in favor of the mine owners, and Chinese coolies were imported. They have not been a success as workmen, nor has their presence in the country been of any value in the general conditions of affairs. On the contrary, the natives, running short of money, have displayed a restlessness at times amounting even to hostility against the coolies and the whites, much the same as when men exhibit towards strike breakers. The government has at last seen that the only real solution of the difficulty is by a compromise with the natives. This of course has all along been strenuously opposed by the mine owners, but the arguments of the latter evidently carry no weight with Premier Botha. He has more regard for the prosperity of the country than for filling the pockets of investors and unless natives are hereafter employed, the mines may remain idle. There is little probability of the latter. Kafirs ten years ago received from the mines from eight to twelve shillings per month, and from Dutch farmers even less. They now demand from three to four pounds, an advance of five hundred percent. When the labor in which they are engaged is considered, and the dividends paid by the mines, their demands are not excessive.

Before the war the mines employed 80,000 Portuguese East African natives; today they employ only 65,000, showing a wide margin still available from that source. "In 1899, 37,371 Basuto natives worked in the Transvaal labor areas; today there are only 10,000, of which number only 6,000 are in the mines, notwithstanding the fact that the Basuto population has meanwhile increased from 262,000 to 330,000. There is thus a further margin available from Basuto labor. Sixty-six thousand Transvaal natives had been employed in the Transvaal in 1892; there are now 20,000, of which number 15,000 are engaged in the mines. Thus a large number of Portuguese, Basuto and Transvaal natives who had formerly been employed in the mines are not now employed but are clearly available. Apart from this there are 8,000 natives from north of parallel 22. The Witwatersrand Labor Association anticipated getting within a few years 30,000 natives from Portuguese territory along north of parallel 22."

Five years in penitentiary is a very mild sentence for crimes such as were committed by ex-Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco. Many a man has served twice as long for what in comparison has been an insignificant offence.

When you come to think of it, isn't it ridiculous that men drawing as high salaries as $7,000 a year and enjoying the full privileges of citizenship should entirely escape taxation? They have as much right to pay as anyone and the wonder is that they have been neglected for so long.

SIR DAN DE LION.

Sir Dan De Lion rode forth one day, With his horsebound at his heels, His melonose Colt's-foot paved the turf, And the blue-bells rang glad peals. And many a lady fair rode too Her Sorrel that beautiful day, There was Pimper-Nel and little Prim-Rose, And Violet, Whin and May. A Man-Drake told them the Mountain-Thyme, So they ate Bread-and-Cheese on the spot, And Creeping Jenny came up and cried, "I pray you, Forget-me-Not." They saw the Bull-rush down to the lake, And they saw the Cow-slip up; And they sat on Road-stools and drank bright mead From a golden Butter-cup. They heard the Crocus, and donned their Furze In the bosky Apple-del; And they all rode home to their flower-beds, As the ghostly Night-shade fell.

An old negro was recently brought before a Justice in Mobile. It seemed that Uncle Moses had fallen foul of a bulldog while in the act of entering the hen-house of the dog's owner. "Look here, Uncle Moses," the Justice said, informally, "didn't I give you ten days last month for this same thing? Some hen-houses you were trying to get into. What have you got to say for yourself?" "Uncle Moses scratched his head. "Mars Willum, yo' sent me ter do chain gang for tryin' ter steal some chickens, didn't yo'?" "Yes, that was the charge." "An' don't de law say yo' can't be charged twice wid de same fence?" "The law no man shall be twice placed in jeopardy for the identical act, yes." "Den, sah, yo' de hab ter let me go, sah. Ah war after de same chickens, sah!"

Woodrow Wilson, President of Princeton, was deploring the promiscuous giving of honorary degrees. "Our universities have learned of late," he said, "to distribute honorary degrees judiciously. But in the past—"

"Well, in the past, I met an unbecoming person at a dinner, and being told by an acquaintance that he had three degrees, I asked why it was."

"Well," said my friend, "the third was given him because he had two, the second because he had one, and the first because he had none."

"This straw," said the latter, "is really better than a Panama, and it's particularly suited to a short man."

"What's the price of it?" asked Sawdoff.

"Twelve dollars."

"Not much! That hat won't do, my friend, for a man as short as I am."

"I want to talk to you, Mary, about that young man of yours," said her father. "When did he say 'good-night' to you last evening?"

"At ten o'clock," replied the fair girl.

"What? Why, it was eleven o'clock at least."

"Oh, that was when he finished saying 'H.'"

Village Constable to villager who had been knocked down by a passing motor cyclist—"You'd didn't see the number, but could you swear to the man?"

Villager—"I did; but I don't think 'e card me."

A LOT OF NEW BUSINESS AT THE HAGUE CONVENTION

THE HAGUE, July 8.—A score of new propositions were introduced today for the consideration of the conference and almost every country represented, including Hayti, had one. Many of them can, however, be grouped together and this will shorten the work of the conference which is expected to come to a close the end of August.

One of the most important proposals today was that brought forward by the American delegation regarding the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague. This outlines the organization and procedure of the court on a basis resembling that of the supreme court of the United States.

Prince Yi Tjing Chi, head of the Korean delegation that was refused recognition, delivered a lecture tonight before the International Peace Club, W. T. Stead presiding. He strongly stigmatized the horrors and cruelties practiced by the Japanese in the occupation of Korea and the club unanimously voted a resolution of profound sympathy with Korea. The club chief expressed the hope that a tribunal soon would be established for the hearing of such cases as that of Korea.

A LOT OF NEW NAMES ON THE ASSESSOR'S LIST

No Less Than 576 Civil Servants Will This Year be Asked to Pay Taxes.

The assessors have about completed the list of civil servants, who under the orders of the treasury board will this year receive tax bills. The number of civil servants in the different departments, affected by the new regulation, is as follows:

Judges	4
Customs House	76
I. C. R.	358
Finance	6
Marine	18
Militia	12
Post Office	103

Total 576

It is understood that those assessed will oppose the action of the treasury board. The judges who will in future receive tax bills are Chief Justice Tuck and Judges Barker, McLeod and Forbes.

MAYOR SCHMITZ SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IN JAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 8.—Eugene E. Schmitz, twice elected mayor of San Francisco, today was sentenced by Judge Dunne to five years in San Quentin penitentiary for extorting from keepers of French restaurants. Before passing sentence the judge made Schmitz stand up before a crowded court room, while the judge scathingly denounced him as a rascal. The audience cheered the condemnation of Schmitz and threw hats and canes in the air.

Dramatic incidents marked the sentencing of Schmitz. Keeping in view the time the case was called until the court was cleared. Then Schmitz issued a formal statement, protesting his innocence and asserting that he would be a candidate for mayor this fall to seek vindication at the hands of the voters. When Schmitz was elected he ran as an independent labor candidate against a business man supported by both parties and all the newspapers.

Schmitz is still subject to trial under four indictments for accepting bribes and it is now thought that these cases will not be pressed.

THE WOMAN WHO WAS SHOT YESTERDAY WILL RECOVER

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 8.—Mrs. David, who was shot today at McAdam by her husband, is resting quietly tonight and will recover, she told her friends that she would rather not go to Lowell, and after arriving at McAdam she made up her mind to return to Woodstock, which angered her husband to such an extent that he shot her.

The usual half-yearly dividend of 3 per cent. was declared at a meeting of the directors of the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, held yesterday.

DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT SAKAMOTO SAID IT

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—Admiral Brownson, chief of the navy department, said today he was satisfied that the Japanese admiral, Sakamoto, who is reported in the Herald, a Japanese anti-governmental paper, to have questioned the patriotism of American naval crews and the ability of the American naval officers, has been misquoted.

Said Admiral Brownson: "While spurred on by a spirit of unrest or homesickness, sailors have sometimes left the American navy, they have always done so in the face of the law. There is no record of a bluejacket deserting in time of war."

At the Japanese embassy the officials discredited the reported utterances of Admiral Sakamoto.

CHARGES AGAINST HOWARD GOULD THROWN OUT

NEW YORK, July 8.—The two most sensational allegations in the suit of Katherine Clemmons Gould for a separation from Howard Gould, were today struck out of the complaint by order of supreme court Justice McCall.

The sections of complaint stricken out are those which allege infidelity on the part of Mr. Gould and that he tampered with Mrs. Gould's money. A third section of the complaint which Mr. Gould sought to have removed from the complaint charges him with having had his wife watched by detectives. This allegation the court allowed to remain in the complaint.

A DOG'S ACADEMY.

There is an academy for canines in a certain South London borough which is known to all the prominent circus people of Europe, and which is the "old school" of many of the performing dogs in Great Britain at the present time. The interior is fitted up with trapezes, etc., and day by day all sorts of performing canines are taught their clever tricks. It is perhaps unnecessary to add that the proprietor enjoys the benefit of a first class income.—London Courier.

STEAMER WRECKED AND SIX MEN DROWNED

VANCOUVER, July 8.—Hudson Bay steamer Mount Royal, plying on the Skeena river was wrecked in Kitlaits Canyon Saturday; six of the crew were drowned. Drowned are W. W. Lewis, first officer, James O'Keefe, purser; Archie Willis, steward; Bert Frayne, fireman; James Morshien, carpenter; Frank Neale, deck boy.

The steamer went to pieces within five minutes. The Mount Royal was coming down stream running dangerous rapids. She struck on the bank in main channel with such force that her bow held firm for several minutes. Captain Johnston ordered fifty passengers ashore on Ringbolt Island in the middle of the channel. As the bow held fast the stern swung broadside to the stream and within less than five minutes the Royal started to break up.

THE MOB OR THE PEOPLE

(From the Canadian Courier.) President Butler of Columbia has well said: "The same individuals constitute both the mob and the people. When their lower nature rules, these individuals are a mob; when their higher nature guides, they are the people. The demagogue makes his appeal to the mob; the politician makes his appeal to the people."

Throughout the length and breadth of this fair Dominion, two sets of men are preparing to appeal for votes. There is to be a general election within the next twelve months. Will the appeal be to the mob or to the people? Will the people who are in power at Ottawa throw post-offices, canals, wharves and civil service appointments to the mob in return for support, or will it appeal to the people on higher grounds? Will the opposition make an appeal for support on the ground that it can give a better, cleaner government, on principles more important than those now guiding those in power, or will it appeal mainly to the cupidity of the office-seeker and the animal hate of the partisan?

Will each side try to blacken the reputation of the other, or will there be a discussion of policies and principles of administration? Will there be oratory worthy of being quoted in the school books, or will there be declamation which even the reporters will be ashamed to transcribe? Will the appeal be to the mob or to the people?

FORESTALLED.

A BLOUSE FOR THE BOY.
The Brown suits are discarded, the small 4143—After Russian blouses and Busby feels very big in the real man's costume without any semblance of skirts. The most approved style for this period is the blouse and knickers which the boy wears until he is quite large and an excellent model is sketched. The blouse is without elaboration of any sort and therefore is well liked by mothers who make them. The closing is effected at the side and the collar closes here too, being low and comfortable and real relief from the linen collar which needs to be changed so frequently. The necessary pocket without which a boy's ex-says would be incomplete is provided as well as plenty of fullness in the knickers so that tumbling and pulling won't stretch them out of shape. Soles is excellent for these suits as it is firm and durable but cheviot or a washing fabric may be used. For the medium size the suit requires 1 1/2 yards of 54-in. material.

PRETTY BLOUSE IN MOHAIR.
6793—The girl or woman who is looking for a waist which she may fashion for herself and which is eminently suited for everyday wear, will be pleased with the accompanying sketch. The waist is developed in a checked mohair which is serviceable for cold weather and retains its good looks as long as it lasts. The blouse has two pleats at each side of the front which end at yoke depth and provide a mouthful fullness. The closing is effected at one side of the front in truly military manner and may be fastened with buttons or frogs. A collar of the same or linen may complete the neck, while the sleeves may be long or shorter. For the medium size 3/4 yards of 27-inch material are needed.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning five drunks were fined $8 each and in default of payment were sent to jail for 30 days.

Robert McGinn was charged by John Pollock with using threatening language to him in the yard of a tenement house where they reside at 147 St. James street.

The magistrate told the plaintiff that if he found that both sides were guilty he would fine both, as he did not encourage these cases, especially when women are brought into the case. The plaintiff said he wished to press the charge and gave evidence that yesterday morning the defendant went to the Pollock back window and announced that he would give only one minute to have a clothes line removed. Mr. Pollock said he started to take down the line, but before he could do so the defendant pulled a shoemaker's knife from his pocket and cut the line down. Mrs. Pollock followed her husband to the pulley line, when the defendant, flourishing the knife, said he would cut her, and would cut the inside out of plaintiff, and if it were not for paying a fine of $20 he "would wipe up the yard with the whole damn family."

J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the defendant.

To Mr. Baxter witness said he had resided there about a week. This was the first occasion on which any dispute had arisen over the clothes line as far as he knew.

To the magistrate Mr. Pollock said it was the first time that his wife had used the line.

Mrs. Pollock gave evidence the same as her husband and said that the landlord had given permission for her to use the pulley. The defendant's daughter cut down a line on Saturday.

Robert McGinn said that the pulley was owned by him. He did not threaten to cut any person, but said if the woman did not take her hand away she would get her fingers cut.

Mrs. Besse Perry, daughter of the defendant, said that she did not hear her father use threats, that she had refused Mrs. Pollock the use of a line on Saturday and Mrs. Pollock threatened to throw her down stairs. She cut the line down and Mrs. Pollock got a new one.

The case was adjourned until another witness was called who substantiated the evidence given by the defense.

The defense also stated that there was considerable noise in the Pollock house at night. McGinn was fined $8 or 30 days in jail.

Charles Graham, aged 23 years was charged by George Akerley with stealing $78 from him. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the defendant.

Akerley said that on Wednesday afternoon John Sheehy, of the South Wharf, paid him $115 for fish sold to him. Witness put part of the money in his pants pocket. After being paid he met a teamster named McGinty, and they had a drink together. At the head of Sheriff street the defendant got on the team. Witness was intoxicated and Graham supported him up and as they drove out the Strait Shore Road Graham put his hand in witness's pocket twice. The first time he was told to take his hand away.

The next morning his wife asked where all his money was and was told that he discovered that he had been robbed. He then remembered that Graham had his hand in his pocket, and he got a warrant out for Graham's arrest.

Mrs. Akerley took the stand and told of her husband being under her care, of liquor receiving money, and being brought home drunk. He had to be assisted home and the prisoner was the person named McGinty. She took what money was left in her husband's pocket and found that $78 was missing. When she asked her husband next morning about the missing money, he told about the same story as he told in court.

The prisoner was remanded to jail until Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The prisoner returned from Eastport yesterday and was arrested on arriving here.

BIG BUSINESS SCHEME IS PROPOSED IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, July 9.—The Is a scheme on foot to purchase the block between Phillips Square and Dorchester street and Beaver Hall and Union Ave. for an Arcade for retail stores and offices. This block is the centre of the uptown district, Phillips Square, taking Morgans, Birks and the Art Gallery on it. The scheme is blocked for the present by Joyce, Confectioner, who has refused $150,000 for his share. If the deal goes through it will involve an outlay of several millions.

THE "TEDDY BEAR" FAD DENOUNCED BY A PRIEST.

CHICAGO, July 9.—A despatch to the Tribune from St. Joseph, Mich., says: "The 'Teddy Bear' fad was denounced by the Rev. Michael G. Esper, from the pulpit of St. Joseph's Catholic church Sunday. The priest said that the toy bear in the hands of little girls was destroying all instincts of motherhood and that in the future it would be realized as one of the most powerful factors in the 'race suicide' danger. Fr. Esper asked all parents to replace the doll in the affection of children and discard the 'Teddy Bear' forever.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—The council of ministers has authorized an annual expenditure of $10,000,000 from 1908 to 1911 for the construction of new warships and their armaments.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Five persons died in Chicago yesterday from the heat. Ten more were stricken and three of these may die.

LONDON, July 9.—Miss A. Besant has been elected president of the Theosophical Society. She will visit America and other countries before returning to the headquarters of the society in India.

GEORGE HANNAH DIED AT ST. STEPHEN TODAY

He Was Eighty Years of Age and Had Been Married About a Year Ago.

ST. STEPHEN, July 9.—This community was shocked this afternoon by the announcement of the unexpected death of George Hannah, a prominent building contractor and one of our most respected citizens. He was seventy ill with pneumonia last spring but had recovered so as to be able to drive out and was about town last week. He was married to Mrs. Carrie Maxwell about a year ago, she being his second. He was eighty years of age. One son, George Hannah, Jr. and two daughters, Mrs. W. A. Dinmore and Mrs. Herbert Dow also survive.

DEMORALIZED NAVY A PERIL TO ENGLAND

The British Empire Startled by Exposure of Inefficiency of War Fleets—Economic Plan Blamed.

LONDON, July 8.—England's navy is demoralized. Skeletonized crews, manning huge vessels, inefficiently trained men and officers who are booktaught only are given as the reasons for the alarming state of affairs which is pictured today in a sensational article in "The Spectator."

The fact that "The Spectator's" article is believed to have been inspired by, or at least echoes the views of, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, coupled with the attention that has been recently directed by the public press to the activity of the American navy, has sufficed to cause a sensation throughout the British Empire.

"The Spectator" describes the British navy as a "fortuitous concourse of naval atoms," and adds—

"Our naval position today is such that if there should be a sudden declaration of war against Germany, the situation will be one of grave peril."

Numerous accidents recently to warships offer a basis for the charge of inefficiency. Since July, 1906, ten battleships, two armored cruisers, eight unarmored cruisers, five gunboats, 22 torpedo boats and three submarines have met with disaster. Most of the accidents were collisions, due to the culpable negligence or inefficiency of officers and crews.

The policy of the admiralty in relegating many warships to harbor duty alone keeping only small crews aboard in order to cut down naval expenditures is blamed for the inefficiency. Neither officers nor men get the proper training it is claimed.

The belief has been growing steadily, too, that promotion goes by favor and that the navy, England's reliance for defence, is drifting into the same state of incompetency which has long existed in the army. Englishmen have been loath to believe this, but at last recognize that the boasted British navy, glorified as the greatest in the world, is far inferior to its paper pretensions.

So far "The Spectator" has been the only paper of independent position to voice this feeling and it has created a bitter pill for the public to swallow.

THE STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B. TUESDAY, JULY 9, 1907.

REFUSED TO SIGN THEIR TENDER

Flood & Bates Wanted $2,500 Additional.

R. Mooney & Sons, Whose Tender was the Next Lowest for Weldon Lot School, Accepted.

A meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held last evening in the board rooms on Union street for the further discussion of tenders for the building of the new school house to be erected on the Weldon lot.

The chairman said that he went to Fredericton and met with the government. He had a nice reception, and the government had no hesitation in granting their request to be allowed to issue debentures for the additional $25,000, coupled with the condition that the city council should be consulted in the previous instance.

The petition was approved. On motion it was decided that the chairman appoint a committee to wait upon the Treasury Board at 3 o'clock today, and that Dr. Bridges be one of the committee.

The matter was discussed at some length. Mr. Maxwell thought that the only fair thing to do under the circumstances was to award the contract to the next lowest tenderer.

It was decided that R. Mooney & Sons be tendered the job for a total of $1,465.25. The amount is made up of the following tenders: R. Mooney & Sons, for mason work, $29,195; T. G. Green, for carpenter work, etc., $14,150; Willard H. Reed, for steel work, $232; Frank E. Jones, for framing and bell system, $124.25; Jas. Fleming, for steel work, $3,500; James McDade, for galvanized iron work and steel ceiling, $2,771; J. H. Doodley, for heating and plumbing, $7,500.

Chairman Coll will complete the arrangements with R. Mooney & Sons. Owing to the fact that one of the painters had carried off the specifications it was decided to have the captain of tenders for painting the High School to Thursday evening next at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Maxwell moved that the secretary notify the Common Council that the term of Mr. Skinner and Robert Maxwell, as trustees, had expired. The meeting was then adjourned.

YOUR NERVES.

The Most Unruly of All Are Those of the Heart.

The most easily tired nerves of the body are the nerves of the heart. They can detect the faintest whiff of perfume. As you pass a rose in the garden the quantity of perfume that gets into your nostrils must be many millions of billions of times smaller than the tiniest grain of sand. But the strongest perfume on your upper lip and in a few seconds you fall to notice it, the nerve of smell is so quickly fatigued.

The heat nerves and cold nerves, which are quite distinct from the nerves of ordinary sensation, also give over working very quickly. A hand that seems quite hot when you step into it very soon ceases to cause any particular feeling of heat.

Nerves of hearing and sight can go through an enormous amount of work. For sixteen hours a day they work hard and are still willing to do more.

The nerves of the heart are the most unruly of all. From the first dawn of life until the last gasp they work without stopping for one instant. And even after death if some salted water is pumped into the heart it commences to beat again, showing that the nerves are still willing—Pearson's Weekly.

It's a sad predicament to be in, when you need help and can't get it. A "STAR WANT" AD. will find help, and that quickly for you.

It is gratifying to be able to announce that the progress and prosperity which have characterized the years covered by my previous reports have been well maintained throughout this jurisdiction during the Grand Lodge year just closed. This has been a year of unusual activity in the history of the order in this province. Never before has such a large proportion of the total revenue received by the Grand Lodge in the largest on record. The largest lodge in the Maritime Provinces is now located in Elgin. As a result of Good Templar activity in recent years, public opinion in reference to the necessity of temperance organization has been quite largely changed. People recognize the fact that public sentiment in favor of temperance is more and more developing more successfully where there are

BURNED MORTGAGE IN HAMPTON CHURCH

The Debt all Paid Off After Persistent Efforts.

Second Meeting in the Silver Jubilee Celebration of the Hampton Methodist Church—Garden Party Today.

HAMPTON, July 8.—The second meeting of the silver jubilee celebration of the Hampton Methodist church was held this evening and drew a crowded audience, who showed their appreciation of its many excellent features by repeated applause. Of the nine pastors who have ministered to the church since 1832 there were present Rev. Samuel Howard of Exmouth street church, St. John; George M. Young of St. Stephen, and the present pastor, George A. Ross, the latter presiding, and all delivered addresses generally reminiscent in character and eulogistic of the faithfulness of those who have passed away as well as of the men and women who still are carrying on the work. There was also a fine address by the Rev. Charles Comben, one of the pioneers of Methodism in this community. Almost all the speakers referred to the harmony which has prevailed between the several denominations and the help which the Methodist pastors and people had received therefrom. Two of the former pastors, the Rev. D. D. Moore and Rev. W. Tippett are living in other lands, but from the rest, Rev. Charles H. Paisley of Sackville, Rev. Thos. Stebbings of Tryon, P. E. I.; Rev. W. W. Cash of Propagation Committee, 706, 68 Cash I. S. Lodge, 48 48 Elton of Woodstock, letters of greeting and good will with strong testimony to the peasant relations which have always existed between ministers and people, were read by the chairman, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Duke, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, told the story of the Ladies' Aid Society under the guise of How We Paid the Debt and of the regular and persistent efforts by which the pleasant goal was reached. The arrangements with its site and furnishing cost over two thousand dollars, of which six hundred was secured by mortgage, now entirely paid off.

At the close of the address Mr. Ross lighted a taper, placed it on a metal stand and called upon Mrs. Wm. Langstroth, president of the aid society, to produce the cancelled mortgage, and upon Mrs. Amelia Robinson of St. John, the first president of the society to apply the torch to it. Both ladies quickly responded and in a few seconds the document was reduced to ashes. As the flame died down the choir sang with splendid effect, the anthem, "Rejoice in the Lord." Other anthems and hymns were sung, both choir and congregation fully entering into the spirit of the occasion and producing most excellent harmony. The Rev. A. Duke, a resident supernumerary, was asked to speak, but as the hour was late said to Rev. Mr. Lodge had made his speech for him, and so pronounced the benediction after the final hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," has been sung. Tomorrow, with fine weather, an enjoyable afternoon and evening will be spent at the garden party.

RECEIPTS. The receipts for the year were as follows: Cash on hand, 65.00; Cash from lodges, 911.97; Cash propagation fund, 179.30; Cash Propagation Committee, 706.08; Cash I. S. Lodge, 48 48; Cash J. THE FIGHTING BLOOD IS STILL IN HIS VEINS. Gerónimo, the Old Apache Warrior, Wanted to Join His People on the Warpath.

CHICAGO, July 8.—A despatch to the Tribune from Cacha, I. T., says:—The old Apache warrior Gerónimo, who terrorized the southwest for many years with his bloodthirsty bands, who attended a celebration at Cacha under parole as the guest of the Comanche Chief Quannah Parker, made an attempt to escape across the Texas border. He was captured by the police and is now being held in a cell in the city. He is reported to have threatened to go to the warpath. He says he wanted to go with his people and help them fight.

ALL OF CHATHAM'S POLICE FORCE WILL BE DISMISSED. Marshall and Officers Given a Month's Notice—No Reason Given for the Sweep.

CHATHAM, N. B., July 9.—A surprise was sprung on the council last night when Ald. Mercereau, chairman of the police committee, reported a recommendation to give the town marshal and the whole police force one month's notice of dismissal as a result of a report of a marshal, policemen and Scott act inspectors. Ald. Morris wanted to know the reason of such an action but beyond stating that the committee wanted to show it had the power of dismissal, Ald. Mercereau would not show his hand. When a motion was put, however, the council adopted the committee's report and the town will advertise for applicants to fill the vacant positions.

WHAT CONSERVATIVES ARE DOING. (Toronto Globe.) A Conservative paper gives currency to the rumor that Sir William Van Horne has been asked to lead the Conservative party in succession to Mr. Borden, and that he has taken time to consider the proposal. The only significance in the rumor is the hint it affords of the feeling of dissatisfaction that prevails wherever two or three Conservatives are gathered together. The latest escapade is the issuance of a broadsheet containing G. W. Fowler's speeches delivered in parliament during last session. So if anyone asks what the great Conservative party is doing he may be told that it is engaged in distributing the speeches of G. W. Fowler, and getting the benefit of his interesting researches among porters, bellboys, hotel registers, and other persons and things that have become of consequence as Conservative campaign material.

WITH TESSA AS PROXY

By Jerome Sprague

(Copyright, 1907, by Homer Sprague.)

"Tessa," said Miss Marlow with decision, "you are not making that bed properly."

"Tessa," tucking in the sheet of the doll's bed, raised limp, inquiring eyes.

"I told you I wanted hospital covers," Tessa wavered, curled a small, red lip and overrode.

"Don't cry, oh, Tessa, don't cry," Miss Marlow expostulated, as the small pink-aproned atom flung itself at full length on the floor.

"Tessa did not move. 'Well I shall have to let Mary Branigan do it,'" said Miss Marlow.

MANY APPLICATIONS FOR THE VACANT POSITION

At Least Half a Dozen Postal Employees are Anxious to be Made Superintendent of Railway Mail Service.

It is understood that there are a large number of applicants after the position of superintendent of railway mail service made vacant by the death of Mr. George M. Ryan, but that those whose qualifications through experience give them an advantage, are mourning because they are on the wrong side politically, fearing that this may injure their chances. Some half dozen names are mentioned. Albert Gross and Bruce M. Colwell are both in the running, and it is said that Mr. Gross has strong support. Mr. Colwell's friends base his claims on seniority, but this is disputed by those who favor other applicants, on the ground that for a number of years Mr. Colwell was employed in Winnipeg, and that his time in the service there should not count in the railway service of New Brunswick.

John Emerson, of Carleton, and Dawson McKendrick, of Paddock St., two other clerks, and both very popular, are also said to be applicants, but it is thought that in consideration of the longer service of others their chances are not very good. Alexander Thompson is another who is mentioned, and it is said that he is backed by strong interests in St. John, and that his chances are good, although he is under the disadvantage of being in the inspector's office instead of the railway mail service. Still another is Charles A. Murray, formerly a mail clerk, and for a number of years assistant superintendent in Mr. Ryan's office. Mr. Murray has carried on the work of the office during the deceased superintendent's illness, and has given general satisfaction. The salary attached to the office is in the vicinity of $1,000.
