HIGHLAND SOCIETY OF N.B. AT MIRAMICHI MEETING

The Highland Society of N. B. at Miramichi held their annual meeting in the Miramichi Hotel, Newcastle, on Friday 13th inst. President, Dr. J. B. MacKenzie occupied the chair. The Treasurer reported $550.00 cash on hand and $610.00 in Bank of Nova Scotia Stock. Mr. A. A. Davidson, the Societies' representative on the Miramichi Hospital Board of Trustees gave an interesting report on the work being done at the Hospital. During the year 1912, five Scotch inmates had been treated free of charge. The building of a Nurses' Home in connection with the Miramichi Hospital was discussed and it was thought that the erection of same would be commenced in the near future.

The annual grant of $250.00 to the current expense of the Hospital, and a supplementary grant of $100.00 to the Nurses' Home was voted.

Miss Edith C. McRae, daughter of Rev. Dr. McRae, of St. John, was awarded the Society's Scholarship at U. N. B. for 1922. The Charitable Committee was voted the usual amount of $30.00.

Mr. Wm. Wilson of Chatham, who has been Treasurer of the Society for the past 25 years resigned and was made an Honorary Member of the Society.

Messrs. A. G. Dickson of Chatham and Benson Robinson of St. John were duly elected members. Resolutions of condolence to Mrs. C. C. Hubbard and family and Wm. Irving family were passed.

CANADA NOT ON DANGEROUS LIST

OTTAWA, Jan. 13.—That the influenza situation in Canada was not a cause for worry was stated by a prominent government health official today, when asked regarding the possibility of the influenza outbreak in Great Britain spreading to this country. It was not thought possible that 'flu' would again sweep through the country as it did at the height of its fury. Protective measures and the fact that those who had already suffered from the disease had won partial immunity removed Canada from the dangerous list.

Recent despatches from Great Britain indicated that influenza was gaining ground there.

PROGRESSIVE IS OPPOSING HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN

Pescott, Ont., Jan. 12.—Nominations of the bye-election for the federal constituency of Grenville were held here today, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen being the Conservative candidate and A. K. Patterson, the Progressive nominee. The Liberals did not nominate a candidate in the field. At the meeting which followed the nomination proceedings, A. Casselman, who was returned at the December general elections, said he had felt it his duty to offer his seat to Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, and he deplored the fact that the Progressives had declined to allow Mr. Meighen an acclamation.

The former Premier said he did not resent opposition but he regretted that Mr. Patterson had had to bring in an outsider to speak for him. Right Hon. Mr. Meighen thanked the Liberals of the county for their decision not to oppose him. He referred to the railway and trade problems and said he thought his government should have been returned on December 6. In regard to the Liberal sweep in Quebec, Mr. Meighen said he had been denounced there because of his attitude towards conscription.

If he were returned to parliament, said Mr. Meighen, he would go there as a supporter of the principles for which he had fought in the House and in the country. Free trade, he declared, could not be practised in Canada. He saw in a strong and effective opposition the best safeguard the country could have in parliament.

A. Roebuck, of Toronto, speaking for the Progressive candidate, declared that in Mr. Patterson the electors of Grenville would take care of their interests well. The majority of the people of Canada had declared on December 6, he said, that they wanted a change and a very large number of them had supported the Progressive policy. The result would be a strong body of Progressive members in the next parliament and Mr. Roebuck thought Grenville people would be well advised to give their support also to the Progressives. Mr. Roebuck dealt with the main issues of the day and declared that the policy of the Progressives as laid down in the recent general election campaign was in the best interests of all Canadians.

CHATHAM TRIMS BATHURST, 9-3

In a one sided game of hockey Wednesday evening Chatham defeated Bathurst by a score of 9 to 3—this giving Chatham's first home game in the northern section of the N. B. and P. E. I. Hockey League. Bathurst played a very good game but did not seem to have the ability to carry the puck, while Chatham got away from their combination style of play and indulged in too much individualism. Indications point now to a play-off between Chatham and Campbellton, in the northern section of the league.

The game was very clean, few penalties being handed out. The first period ended 3 to 1 in favor of Chatham, the second 5 to 2 and the third 9 to 3. Anthony Veno made a satisfactory referee. The line-up:

DEMMAINS GETS A REAL SURPRISE

'I've Been Thankful A Thousand Times That I Tried Tanlac', Says Winnipeg Man

"I never was so surprised at anything in my life as I was at the relief I got from my first bottle of Tanlac and five bottles of medicine have made me perfectly well and strong again," said Joseph Demmans, a well-known college student, rooming at 91 Juno St., Winnipeg, Man.

"About a year ago I caught an awful cold which stayed with me all the winter and kept me feeling far from up to the mark. This last spring I managed to get rid of the cold but my system had become badly disordered. I had such awful pains and cramps in my stomach that I just dreaded to eat, for even the lightest kinds of food disagreed with me, and I bloated with gas and suffered misery. I had no energy for my studies, and felt weak and worn out all the time.

"I read so much about Tanlac that I bought a bottle one Saturday afternoon, and I have been thankful a thousand times that I did, for the medicine has rid me of the indignation and put me in the very best of health. I eat hearty and enjoy my meals now and have gained several pounds in weight too. I have plenty of strength and energy and feel good all the time. Tanlac has been worth so much that I'm only too glad to recommend it."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

KINGS COUNTY LOSES ITS CASE

FREDERICTON, Jan. 10—In an important judgment delivered in chambers here today Mr. Justice Barry upheld the legality of the demands made upon the municipality of Kings county by the department of public health for $7,500, the amount unpaid by the municipality of the demands of local board of health for the county, being part of the amount in the estimates for 1920 and the entire amount for 1921.

Amounts for carrying on the work of the board of health in Kings county had been borrowed from the provincial secretary-treasurer, and the case has been regarded as a test of the legality of demands of local boards of health upon municipalities under the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1918. Queens, Kent, Sunbury and other municipalities in the province have similarly refused to pay the demands of the local boards of health under the act and steps to collect have already been taken by the department of public health in some of these cases.

In rendering judgement, Mr. Justice Barry summed up the points advanced by M. G. Teed, K. C., on behalf of the municipality as follows:

1—That the language employed in the section of the act requiring the sub-district board of health to submit an estimate of the amount required to enable it to carry on its work for the ensuing year, does not carry with it a mandate as obliges the municipal council to vote and order an assessment for the whole amount so estimated, but that the words "estimated and required," simply imply as a discretion in the municipality as to the amount that may reasonably be required having regard to the experience of the past.

2—That as regards the unpaid balance of $2,500 for 1920, an order should not now be made for the payment of that amount out of the municipal rates of the present year; that the expense should fall upon the ratepayers who were ratepayers at the moment the obligation was imposed upon the municipality, and that it would be an injustice to throw upon one set of persons a burden which ought to have been borne by another at a former period.

3—That the remedy is by mandamus and not by this summary procedure.

With regard to the first point, Judge Barry stated in his judgment that after a careful consideration of the language employed in the sections involved it appeared so plain and unambiguous as to permit of no other construction than that in which their ordinary and natural sense they ex-

The act states on this point that the board shall submit to the principal council an estimate of amount required to enable it to carry on its work for the year next ensuing, and that the municipality shall thereupon vote and order an assessment for the amount so estimated and requested, and shall pay the amount to the board.

Regarding the second and third points Judge Barry stated that he could see no reason why the $2,500 which the municipality were in default for 1920 should not be collectible, and why the board should not include this in their estimate for 1921, as they had done. Nor could His Honor see any reason why this summary procedure should not be just as applicable to the one as to the other. If it were true that mandamus is a proper remedy it is not the only remedy.

Immediately after decision had been given in the Kings county case Mr. Justice Barry heard argument in the case of the application by P. J. Hughes, of this city, on behalf of the department of public health, for an order compelling Queens county to pay. This case was not finally disposed of being adjourned until January 20th for Mr. McFadgen, of Sussex, to submit new affidavits for the municipality. A new point arises in the Queens county matter, this being a claim that there was insufficient notice given.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO SCRAPPING SHIPS

Washington, Jan. 11—The "big five" made further progress today in their final revision of the naval treaty but encountered a difference of opinion when they came to lay down rules for the scrapping of proscribed battleships.

For the United States delegation, it was proposed that the surplus vessels be rendered entirely useless. France supported that view, with Italy indicating a similar attitude. Great Britain and Japan withheld assent, however, the suggestion being made that the dismantled ships might be used as harbor vessels or training vessels.

When the five delegation heads adjourned after several hours of debate the question remained unsettled and will be taken up again tomorrow. During their two sessions today, however, they had completed approval of the first of the treaty annexes embodying a replacement chart, and they expressed hope tonight that all of the five annexes might be disposed of tomorrow or Friday.

Except for the article dealing with Pacific fortifications all of the text of the treaty proper already had been virtually approved, and should Tokio's reply on the fortifications decision be received in time a plenary session for public discussion of the completed treaty may be held Saturday or Monday.

TOWN MANAGER MARKED SUCCESS

Woodstock, Jan. 9—The annual town meeting was held tonight, and Town Manager Armstrong in his statement for the year comes out with a credit balance of $8,421.90 with all accounts paid. The large number of ratepayers present were thoroughly convinced that the business of the town is being carried on under modern business methods. Mayor E. H. Mair, in his remarks, said, "the adoption of the town manager plan has meant the saving of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers." In the item of collection of taxes for 1921, despite the business depression, the shortage of money and unemployment, Woodstock closes its year with actually more money collected than the total warrant.

One of the interesting announcements made was that a new contract had been made with the Woodstock Electric Light and Power Company on a basis of two cents k. w. h. for power for pumping station and four cents k. w. h. for street lighting. The whole showing is most creditable, and it is doubtful if any town in the maritime provinces can make a similar showing at the end of their financial year.

The citizens are jubilant over the situation, and the warmest congratulations are extended Manager Armstrong and the council who acted as his advisory board.

Fire Destroys Residence Of Hon. W. P. Jones

Woodstock, N. B., Jan. 11—The fine residence of Hon. W. P. Jones was partially destroyed by fire, which was first seen at three o'clock this morning. An alarm at ten o'clock brought the firemen to the house, where a chimney was found to be burning out. The subsequent fire was, it is thought, from the same cause. Much of the damage was from water. The loss is covered by insurance.

COUNTY COUNCIL
Northumberland County Council opened their annual meeting in the Court House today.

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as-lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Amable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicine I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

A MODEL TOWN

(The Woodstock Press)

Those of our citizens who will attend the public meeting this (Monday) evening, in the Town Hall, will hear a report that should be pleasing—a report that, notwithstanding the bad business conditions existing the world over, Woodstock closes this year with all bills paid and a credit balance of over $8000.

We venture to say that very few towns or cities in Canada have made such a creditable showing at the end of their financial year.

Only two cases, out of many, may be quoted to show the standing of the average small town at this critical time in the existence of towns and governments. We learn from a communication in the latest issue of the Graphic that Campbellton has an overdraft at the bank of $50,000. The World tells that Chatham could not pay its school teachers at the end of the year, the banks refused credit to the town, and the money was obtained to pay the teachers on a note signed by the school trustees.

Woodstock has secured a lot of publicity during the past few years because of its exhibition plant, park, track and town manager form of government. These were great helps to "put Woodstock on the map," as the saying goes. The secret of the town's success, however, is in its correct assessment and collection of taxes. The citizens are almost unanimous in the opinion that they are living in the best town of its size in Canada.

The reform in the assessment of taxes was inaugurated by John S. Leighton, who has been able to produce an almost perfect assessment. This has acted like magic and every body is contented, knowing that partiality has not been shown. This is a selfish world and money is king, but the average man is a good sport and demands a square deal. There can be no contentment when favoritism is shown and when a large element in the community is not properly assessed and even that tax not collected. Where the chairman of each department is spending up to his limit, such conditions cause deficits in the year's business, and the deficits were carried over into the next year's assessment to be paid by the willing payers. That was the system in vogue here since the town which is causing trouble in every town and city in Canada that we know of. Hence the dissatisfaction and unrest prevailing.

That method has been discarded some years ago in this town, never we hope to be resurrected. With every ratepayer contented with his assessment, it was an easy matter for R. Fraser Armstrong, the town manager, after the organization of his office, to make the collections, although he was handicapped under the conditions brought about by money stringency. A proper

TWO LITTLE GIRLS BURNED TO DEATH THROUGH BLUNDER

Canso, N. S. Jan. 11.—Two little girls, one aged three and the other one and a half years, were burned to death, but a piano was saved, when fire destroyed the residence of Fred Johnston on Hazel Hill road near here tonight. Grandma Johnston, a century old, was badly burned, but managed to escape with her night garments on fire, and tumble into a snow bank.

The fire had evidently originated from a heater and spread with extraordinary rapidity. Members of the family, making their escape from the top storey, sustained severe burns. In the excitement Johnston, the father of the two little girls thought they had been taken from the house by other members of the family, and busied himself saving the piano. Everything else, including, it is said, a considerable sum of money, was burned.

MR. CRERAR SPEAKS

From his standpoint, Mr. Crerar, has given his first important utterance as to what the Government should do for the country.

In so far, as the King Government carries out what the National Progressive party demands, the Liberal party will have their support.

Mr. Crerar has declared himself as "willing to work with anyone, seeking to establish in the public administration the measures which the country requires."

On the Railway question he comes out strong. He says frankly that he is suspicious of certain interests operating in Montreal, but gives them to understand that Montreal is not all Canada, nor even Quebec.

He promised that the whole influence of his party, would be thrown into the effort to lower freight rates, etc. and concluded by a call for a reduced tariff and wider markets.

It is well to add that notwithstanding the above expressed willingness to work with any one, where agreement is possible, the Progressive Party will maintain their own complete identity and independent organization.

As to Mr. Crerar's Railway policy above expressed, it is not very far different to that expressed by Mr. Meighen, in his public utterance here, during the campaign.

"A FULL AND FAIR TRIAL"

In treating of our Railways, the expressed intention of the Liberal Party is to give "National Ownership a full and fair trial."

They have commenced the operation by appointing a man to be Minister of Railways, who has only been in the House since 1917, and whose energies have been devoted to the oil and gas business.

The Toronto Globe is our authority for saying that this new Minister, the Hon. W. C. Kennedy has "executive ability." This is a wonderful thing, not possessed by every business man, and possessed by other business men in this Canada of ours who have a much superior knowledge of National Railways, than anything we know of in the case of the New minister.

As it is, while he is giving—as far as he knows how—this "full and fair trial," we are compelled to give him a trial. It is possible when he learns the business, coached by others who have Railway experience, that he will be able to show good administrative work, but we can believe it was quite within the power of the Government, to have found a man already equipped with sufficient knowledge of all our transportation affairs, to make from the very start a more efficient Minister, than Mr. Kennedy can make for some time, we think that even Westmorland Co. could have furnished an able Railway minister, in the person of Mr. A. B. Copp, who has been "shunted into the position of Secretary of State."

MOTOR CARS FOR BRANCH LINE PASSENGER TRAFFIC

The demand for more frequent service on branch lines where passenger traffic is not heavy is something the railways have long had to contend with. The heavy expense of running frequent trains to accommodate a limited number of passengers on branch lines has given railway men much food for thought.

The Occasional Use of a Tonic Ensures a Good Appetite and Good Health

Loss of appetite is a common trouble, and indicates that the digestive system is out of order. Lacking a healthy appetite many people go too long without food, or eat sparingly because food seems to distress them.

They will regulate the stomach and bowels and drive out colds, and by their use the baby will be able to get over the winter season in perfect safety. After writing some letters "May" accepted Lenk's proposal but attached one condition, he must send "her railway fare from Prince Albert to Vancouver and to pay to William Albert Taylor $153 which "she" had borrowed from him to pay the premium on "her" $5,000 endowment policy.
In his possession when arrested were letters proving he had developed the love-making and matrimonial propositions into a fairly remunerative occupation, and that under his own name he was in correspondence with several women with a view to marriage. ### MANY HAVE BEEN MURDERED

Washington—How ruthless has been the policy of political murder instituted in Germany during the past three years against Communists and other radicals by the reactionary parties is told in figures published in a pamphlet which has reached here from Berlin.

Since January, 1919, the reactionary partisans have killed 319 persons for purely political reasons. In the same time the Communists are credited with having killed 16 of their enemies.

There are 184 murders listed as "fatal accidents," 81 as purposely shot, 30 as shot while escaping, 2 executed after court martial, 7 lynched in prison, and 5 killed by bombardment of an open city. The Communists shot 10 in reprisal, arbitrarily killed 5 others and court martialled 1 victim.

This does not cover the defense and taking of Munich, when the Communists killed 12 reactionaries and the latter, upon gaining control, shot down 505 besides those killed in actual fighting. What the German reactionaries call a "fatal accident" includes the bayoneting and smashing of the skulls of 22 radical prisoners in one group.

German courts have inflicted 8 capital punishments, 1 life sentence and 239 years in prison for the 16 Communist murders. For the 319 murders committed by the reactionaries they have given 1 life sentence and 31 years' imprisonment.

HANNA MAY BE AMONG UNEMPLOYED

TORONTO, Jan. 16.—Recent political changes have brought home to D. B. Hanna, President of the Canadian National Railways, the truth of the old adage, "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown. Tonight in addressing the Young Men's Canadian Club, he made humorous reference to the possibility that at almost any minute he might find himself "among the unemployed."

"It's a poor day when the story does not go around that my head is to be cut off," declared the chief of the government railways. He had, however, been enjoying three meals a day and was "hopeful that that will continue for some time to come."

The president was optimistic about the future of the government railways and announced that the gross revenue for December would show a surplus over operating expenses. That meant that since turning the corner last August the system had been more than holding its own. Mr. Hanna was emphatic in the declaration that with the return to normal conditions the National Railways would become a great asset to the country.

Calamity howlers had been saying that the fixed charges totalled $66,000,000. "Such a statement is absolutely untrue," he declared. "The fixed charges of the Canadian National, including the Grand Trunk, are only $33,000,000. And I am going to say this, if we were back to normal conditions, given freedom from politics, it would be only a few years before the system will be earning nearly enough to cover those charges, if not all of them."

"We have government ownership, but not the slightest interference by the government in the management of the railways. There seems to be a doubt existing that we are not free from political interference. I stand here to say tonight, and I speak with authority, that no claim can be made that the operation of the National Railways has been interfered with in any way, shape manner or form, either by the government or by any member of parliament."

PORTFOLIO OF PUBLIC WORKS

OTTAWA, Jan. 12.—Indications are that the portfolio of public works will shortly be taken over by Hon. J. H. King, who will probably resign his portfolio in the B. C. legislature in the near future.

Hon. H. Bostock, the present minister of public works, will in all probability retain his membership in the cabinet without portfolio. He will also be government leader in the Senate.

Progressives To Support King On Desired Reforms

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—Farmers' Progressive members of parliament will support the government in putting into effect reforms which have been advocated by the National Progressive party but the identity of the Progressive party will be maintained. This was made plain this afternoon by Hon. T. A. Crerar, who made his first public speech since the election when he read to the convention of the United Farmers of Manitoba a resolution adopted at the secret conference of Progressive members elect from the three western provinces at Saskatoon on Dec. 20. The resolution was read as follows:

"That this meeting of the western supporters of the National Progressive party having taken under consideration the existing political situation in Canada and the course the Progressive party should follow is of the opinion that the gravity and importance of our many national problems call for a strong government.

"That the first consideration of the Progressive party will be to support the legislation the country needs, both in the economic and administrative sense, and in the larger sense of promoting and developing the spirit of Canadian national unity; and we will extend to the Hon. Mr. King's government all reasonable cooperation and support in any efforts it may make to enact into legislation those economic and administrative reforms which have been advocated by the National Progressive party, while at the same time maintaining the complete identity and organization of the Progressive party."

ULSTER TO OPPOSE IRISH FREE STATE

London, Jan. 9.—Ulster's determination not to enter the Irish Free State has been strengthened, says the Belfast correspondent of the Daily Mail, by the illustration of the "southern mentality and southern methods" given in the Daily Eireann during its discussion of the peace treaty.

Ulster fears considerable damage to the business of Northern Ireland from tariffs to be established by the new government and foresees great hindrance to trade from the location of customs houses on her borders. These evils, however, would be small in comparison with the wholesale disaster, which it is believed in Ulster would follow her incorporation into a state dominated by the Dail leaders and faced at the outset with the possibility of having to quell a republican rising. Ulster is resolved to oppose to the utmost in the British parliament the threatened revision of her boundaries under the treaty just ratified. The Sinn Fein is represented in Ulster as not concealing its intention to get control of the greater part of the counties of Fermanagh and Tyrone as well as of the city of Londonderry and part of Downshire. It is said that if this came about the remainder of Ulster would be too small to bear the expense of a separate government.

Prosperity of Canada Depends on Immigration Lord Shaughnessy Declares Restrictions Must be Removed

The urgent necessity of removing from the immigration laws of Canada all irksome restrictions which are hampering the entry into Canada of good settlers for the farm lands and forests of the Dominion was presented in no uncertain terms by Lord Shaughnessy, Chairman of the C.P.R., speaking before the Junior Bar Association of Montreal in the Reform Club.

LORD SHAUGHNESSY.

"The natural feeling that grew out of the war," said his Lordship, "encouraged the placing of restrictions on immigration that have been most disastrous in their results. We must have these restrictions removed. We must have settlers from all over the world, not artisans, but men who will go out on to our lands and our forests and fisheries and help to develop these resources, and there must be an insistent demand on Parliament to pass legislation that will open the doors to them."

His Lordship further pointed to the need of making good Canadian citizens of these immigrants, and to foster throughout the Dominion the spirit of Canadian citizenship. Mutual understanding and neighborliness between Canadians at opposite extremities of the Dominion must be promoted by every possible means. Win by Work Only.

Alluding to the fact that the members of the Junior Bar were on the threshold of their profession, he pointed out to them the high road to success. Not by luck or by special grace, but by hard work, devotion to the profession, and strict observance of the ethics and dignity of the Bar would they achieve the objects they were aiming at.

Lord Shaughnessy recounted in humorous fashion how in his early youth he had consecrated himself to the legal profession, and had studied law assiduously in his spare time for many years, but just as he was on the verge of entering a legal office to gain the necessary experience prior to embarking in that profession, promotion and advancement in commercial life came to him so rapidly that he decided to remain in the commercial career in which such remarkable prosperity had been his happy lot.

Expressing his admiration for lawyers in general, His Lordship explained how important they were on the staff of a railway organization, not only for their legal abilities, but also because their particular training rendered them specially able to extend valuable help to the operating staff in the working out of practical operating problems. "I do not think we can have any better evidence of the fact that a thoroughly capable lawyer can fill any other position, than in the case of my successor, Mr. Beatty, who was our chief counsel for many years. He was my confidant in connection with everything involving questions of policy, but besides that in dealing with road questions, and every variety of questions that come before a railway commission, and in dealing with officers and men of the railway he acquired a knowledge of the railway business that has made him not only the very excellent lawyer that he has been for many years, but a most capable railway executive, one of the best possible."

Dropping again into his anecdotal style, Lord Shaughnessy kept his audience for some time in continuous laughter with a series of humorous incidents drawn from his own lengthy experience, tending to show that no detail in connection with any legal dispute was to be neglected, though counsel should look at every conceivable aspect of his case for possible ammunition.

They would accomplish nothing through luck, although success would come by good hard work, and devotion to your profession. It must be a matter of constant study in order to keep abreast with the law and if you are to be prepared for the emergencies that arise in trial of cases you must pursue rather a broad course of reading. I have no doubt that we have amongst us here tonight a great many who are not only to be leaders in the bar, but most prominent men on the bench. The important matters for consideration are devotion to the profession, constant study, and due regard for the reputation and the dignity of the Bar.

Like Manly Man.
"I like a manly man, a co-operative man, an independent, not a dependable man, a man of honor and integrity, but he must not be too free from the ordinary human frailties and foibles. I have no special regard for the tin angel, because too frequently it is only tin foil and when that is rubbed off there is a rather objectionable dark substance underneath."

They might sometimes have difficulty with a judge who declined to agree with their interpretation of the law. But they should be consoled with the thought that next week His Lordship might deal in the same way with their antagonist. They might sometimes get their own back on the Court, as did the lawyer in a slander case who asked witness to repeat in court the language defendant used regarding plaintiff. Witness declined, saying it was "so abominable, it should not be repeated in the presence of any decent person."

"In that case," said the lawyer, "probably you will be good enough to whisper it in the ear of the judge."

The members of the Junior Bar had, however, other and very important duties, apart from those incumbent on them as members of the legal profession. "You young men of the coming generation have a duty to perform, as we all have in this generation, to your country, to do everything in your power to make Canada what it should be, one great, happy unit."

"We are peculiarly constituted, with our long stretch of territory from Nova Scotia to Vancouver, and indeed to the Yukon. It is exceedingly difficult to build up neighborly relations between the different sections of the country. It should be our endeavor to do that. True, we have had federation now for fifty years or over and we have come through it quite comfortably and happily. I think the fact we have done so is a great tribute to the wisdom and foresight of the men who framed the British North America Act."

"But conditions are constantly changing in the country and if we are to prevent misunderstandings we must always be alive to anticipate events which may lead to these misunderstandings. If we are conscientious in endeavoring to preach the gospel of understanding and goodwill we shall succeed in achieving the highest ideals of the fathers of confederation."

West vs. East.
"It is quite clear that the farmers, the agriculturists of the Prairie provinces cannot on occasions see eye to eye with the manufacturers of the east. It is equally clear that British Columbia three thousand miles away cannot form any very correct conception at times of the ideas of the Province of Quebec. It can only be done by interchange of views, by the exercise of the greatest possible tolerance on the part of everybody. In the years between 1902 and 1912, the years of our maximum prosperity, there is no doubt that every part of the country participated alike in that prosperity. There was no difference. The farmer in Manitoba or Saskatchewan, or Alberta, or the timber men in British Columbia, the people of Quebec, Ontario and the eastern provinces all participated in the prosperity and they will again. When we have passed the present unfavorable condition of things they will participate again, but in the meantime we may have a time when parts of the country will feel that others are prospering at their expense. We must endeavor by every possible process to correct that impression."

"The foundation stones of our prosperity are our lands, our mines, forests and fisheries. These must be developed as rapidly as circumstances will permit, if we are to make the best of our opportunities in the next few years and to meet the burdens which are laid upon us. We cannot do that without immigration. The natural growth of population will not be sufficient to meet the demand."

Must Have Settlers.
"We must have immigration. We have had very little since 1914. On the contrary, I am afraid, we have lost somewhat. Then, after the war the natural feeling that grew out of the war encouraged the placing of restrictions on immigration that have been most disastrous in their results. We must have these restrictions removed. We must have settlers from all over the world, not artisans, but men who will go out on to our land and our forests and fisheries and help to develop these resources and there must be an insistent demand on Parliament to pass legislation that will open the doors to them to a reasonable extent and will permit them to come in."

"Then there is the need to see that they become good citizens. They must be encouraged or if necessary compelled to become good Canadian citizens, although I prefer the former method if possible. They should be taught that the interests of their children and of their children's children are in Canada."

"We should endeavor to spread through the country the feeling of such ardent fervor in citizenship that every citizen, whether British born or naturalized, when he spoke of home, would mean Canada and no other country in the world."

"Now, gentlemen," Lord Shaughnessy concluded, "I will only say this further, that I wish everyone of you a Merry Christmas, and many years of successful, noble, and, as prayers are wont to furnish a fitting, quite profitable career in your chosen profession."

GRAVES OF PIONEERS.

Remembering the Men Who Cleared Away the Bush.
 Returning from a distance to Huntsville recently, a former Resident found his brother's grave carelessly kept and expressed great surprise that so little respect is paid the last resting places of pioneers of Muskoka. There are many other districts in older Ontario where conditions are not what they should be, but Col. Hugh Clark, M.P., in his Kincairdine Review, draws attention editorially to one fine exception, the Lochalsh Cemetery, which is being restored.
 In the Lochalsh district the messenger of death entered the but recently opened settlement in 1853 and faced the leaders of this community with the necessity of selecting a common burial place. The site chosen, an admirable one, lies on the south side of the boundary between Huron and Bruce Counties, on the brow of the ridge that follows the eastern shore of Lake Huron and overlooking the lake at a distance of about six miles. Energetically the men of the district set to work to clear away the trees and to set things in order for the reception of the remains of Mrs. Donald B. Mackenzie. The fathers of the community never forgot the care of this plot of ground. The sentiment which held Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to the Cave that was in the field of Machpelah was not wanting in them. And it was their wont to gather annually to tend it and to keep in working order their organization of trustees, and secretary. It is now several years since the board of trustees set to work to terrace the west side of the plot and otherwise to level the ground and so to make manifest to men that they are not forgotten in Lochalsh who pass from out the bourne of time and place. Later in order to complete the scheme land to the south and east was purchased, was neatly fenced and a roadway now extends on all sides. Gradually the scheme is being completed and this little country graveyard presents, amidst the trees that surround it, a quiet, restful scene that sends a lesson to all who pass that way.

Bats to Get 'Skeeters.'

The breeding of bats to kill off malaria-carrying mosquitoes has of late been seriously advocated. Not long ago the Carnegie Institution said: "Bats devour large numbers of mosquitoes. Flying at dusk and after dark, and capturing all night-flying insects on the wing, they are important mosquito-destroying animals."
 The mosquitoes that carry malaria are night-fliers. Hence the idea might seem a good one.
 It was with this object in view that a "battery"—in other words, a bat roost—was built on the experimental farm of the Department of Agriculture six miles south of San Antonio, Texas. Another was established at Mitchell Lake, not far from the same neighborhood, which is an attractive body of fluid formed by sewage from San Antonio, its margins offering excellent breeding places for 'skeeters.'
 These structures are about twenty feet high, uplifted on posts, with slanting walls, a projecting roof slightly elevated to allow the bats to pass in and out, and an additional entry space running all the way down one side, with boards slanting upward so as to exclude light to some extent while admitting the winged tenants.
 The roosts soon acquired occupants—about 9,000 in the case of the battery at Mitchell Lake, which was built to accommodate 250,000—and, so far as that went, they were successful. Mexican families residing in their neighborhood have made sworn statements to the effect that the prevalence of malaria has been much less since the roosts were erected.
 This method of fighting mosquitoes will interest Canadians, though many may prefer the pest to bats.

Are the Seasons Changing?

There are many who say that the seasons are changing, but a glance at a weather calendar shows that the "extraordinary weather" at midsummer or any other season of the year is very ordinary indeed if we take long views of things. In January, 1662, Pepys noted in his Diary that a fast day had been ordered by Parliament "to pray for more reasonable weather, it having hitherto been summer weather." In June, 1711, Swift was rendered excessively peevish by the heat. In July, 1757, Walpole writes: "I have made a tour of my garden but once these days before eight at night, and then I thought I should have died of it. For how many years we shall have to talk of the summer of '57!" In 1880, July was so hot that Wordsworth could not sit indoors, and, as Dorothy tells us, "went into the wood and altered his poems."

Animals That Blush.

Poets have for ages regarded the blush as a thing of beauty in the gentle sex; but after all, it is only a rush of blood to the face, caused by modesty or some other emotion. Animals blush, too, we are told, but through fear. Horses blush in their ears, especially the left one. When a horse is frightened his left ear will be found to be very much swollen. This is also the case with rabbits. Cows and similar animals blush just above the hoof, while the dog uses his tail for this purpose. When a dog is frightened his tail hangs limp, as he has lost all control over it. Even insects are said to blush. They do it in their antennae, or feelers.

CANADA'S POPULATION ESTIMATED 8,714,000

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—With the issuing of Quebec's census figures today one may for the first time hazard a guess that the population of Canada as a whole will be in the neighborhood of 8,714,000. Details given by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show that all Canada, excluding the provinces of Saskatchewan and British Columbia, a matter of considerable speculation, and the result cannot be approximated with any degree of accuracy. It is a fact, however, that from 1911 to 1916 Saskatchewan's population increased from 492,432 to 647,830 an increase of thirty-one per cent.

Difficult to Estimate

If in the last five years the increase has been fifteen per cent, the present population would be 745,010. The late years of the war, difficulties in reconstruction, and the falling prices of grain make close estimates difficult. In the case of British Columbia a close estimate is a matter of even greater difficulty. In 1901 the population was 178,657, and in 1911 it was 392,480, an increase of more than one hundred per cent. But, since the war the bottom has fallen out of mining, lumbering has not been too brisk, prices for fruit have come down and it is hard to say how much of the undoubtedly large influx of easterners have really stayed in the province. Giving the province during the last ten years the benefit of a tentative increase of twenty-five per cent its population would be about 490,600 instead of the 600,000 which residents of the province have been vainly expecting.

2,349,067 the unit of representation in the House of Commons becomes 36,139, Quebec always being given sixty-five members. Prince Edward Island will retain its four members in spite of its decrease of population. This privilege was assured it by statute eight or nine years ago. Nova Scotia will lose one member and New Brunswick's membership will remain the same. Ontario loses one seat. Alberta will gain four. Manitoba will gain two members. In all, after redistribution, it is estimated that the House of Commons will have 241 seats.

WHY GERMANY FAILED

Ludendorff, the great war figure of Germany, the man to whose ability chiefly, Germany trusted to win the war, is still busy writing the story of that war. His first book, "War Memories," was typical of the man and revealed him as a Prussian of the Prussians, a militarist of the most pronounced and blatant type. His second volume, "Documents of the High Command," was simply an amplification of the charge that he made in his first book, that the blame for the German defeat rested not upon the generals, nor the army, but upon the statesmen behind the front. Now a third volume is just off the press, "War Leadership and Politics," and in this he undertakes to show that Germany was defeated not because she was too Prussian in her ideals and methods, but rather because she was not Prussian enough and he insists that the only salvation for Germany lies in the repudiation of democracy and the establishment of a government more uncompromisingly militaristic than any Germany has known. It is natural that a character such as his should seek to justify itself, but it seems hard to understand how any military man can write the story of the war and not admit that Germany suffered defeat, and a defeat that was only prevented from becoming a hopeless rout by prompt surrender. Writing now with a fuller knowledge of the situation, he points out that Germany ought to have won the first battle of the Marne, and he deprecates the fact that troops were sent to Alsace-Lorraine to meet the French offensive there when that was only a feint. But he seems completely to ignore the fact that this was the very essence of the French strategy, to compel Germany to retain large bodies in Alsace, while the French hit their chief blow on the Rhine. He finds fault with Von

A SEAT OF CANADIAN LEARNING

Rabbits Inoculated and Rendered Immune against Influenza under Observation by Dr. G. B. Reid and Assistants, at Queen's University, Kingston.

Assay Furnaces under Prof. G. F. Mackay in operation in Metallurgical Building.

The installation of a new Chancellor and a new Principal on the same date will bring a great many distinguished Canadians and Americans to Queen's University, Kingston, on October 16th. For although a comparatively small University, Queen's has sent so many distinguished graduates into the world and has gained such a character for sound learning and enterprise in research and education, that it stands high among the institutions of its kind on this Continent.
 Queen's came to the front under Principal Grant, who was a born leader of men and gathered round him a brilliant staff of lecturers and professors. Under Principal Gordon, who succeeded Grant, the University continued to prosper and the number of students doubled while the number of buildings was trebled. The new Principal, Dr. Bruce Taylor, has already shown his mettle by raising the half million dollars required to fulfil the terms of an endowment of a further half million dollars promised by the late Dr. Douglas. With a young and active new Chancellor such as Mr. E. W. Pearty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, to lend his support, Queen's has every reason to expect to continue to go ahead.

 Recognizing the importance of industry to Canadian development, Queen's has carried on important industrial research work, and Mr. G. Y. Chown, the popular chemist, has contributed $20,000 to the endowment of a Research Club.
 Professor Clark, who holds the Chair of Physics, has established a laboratory for the investigation of substances under extremely low temperatures, with the use of liquid air and liquid hydrogen, the only laboratory of its kind in North America. Dr. Reid has been investigating the causes and suggested cures for influenza, and has made valuable discoveries tending to combat the recurrence of future epidemics. Professor MacClement is an expert on the various forest fires which would destroy our great Canadian forests if left to themselves. Dr. Lathrop has been carrying on valuable research work on trench mouth, with the object of discovering the true nature of this epidemic disease of the European continent.

The Arts Faculty of the Queen's is conducted by Professors, who in their own fields of work, are just as enterprising and the man or woman with a Queen's degree has an excellent chance of succeeding in whatever learned profession he or she may adopt. During the year 1918-19 there were 831 students registered in the Arts Faculty. Special efforts were made by all faculties to meet the requirements of returned soldiers whose scholastic career had been interrupted by the war. A summer School in Engineering restricted to men who had been overseas, saved an academic year to a large number of such returned men, and was conducted without Government assistance at the expense of the University itself.
 For the last three years the new Arts building and the Grant Hall have been used as a hospital by the military authorities, and there has been abundant testimony to the satisfaction that the patients have felt in being housed so well amid such beautiful surroundings. The soldier patients are now transferred elsewhere, releasing the Grant from its use as a hospital, and the space for the growing requirements of the University.

BOARD HEALTH ACT

ASSESSMENT REFUSED
St. John, Jan. 11—The decision was reached today by the finance committee of the municipal council that it would not recommend to the council that assessment be made this year for Board of Health purposes. "Vertiginous" caused seven more to quit. The word "rendezvous" left only three. "Fortissimo," eliminating two, Mrs. Finley became so excited that she missed the next word "tuberculosis."

FORESTRY EXHIBIT

A Forestry exhibit by way of moving pictures was given yesterday in the Opera House. The exhibit was a magnificent success in every way and the official who put on the exhibition was so much pleased that he intends returning to Newcastle at a future date. A vote of thanks was given to the Trustees of the Orange Hall for the use of the Opera House.

TRADE FIGURES FOR CANADA

Examination of Canada's trade figures brings out a number of peculiar circumstances. First of all, the figures demonstrate that we are buying too much from the United States in comparison with their purchases from us. Secondly, while our sales abroad are in a measure satisfactory we are not buying enough from the foreign countries that buy from us.

Broadly speaking, this results in two sets of adverse conditions. The amount we purchase from the United States being too large results in depreciation of the Canadian dollar there. We must equalize our purchases to the basis of what they buy from us, as adjusted. Another condition is that the ships of the Canadian Merchant Marine are at present returning from the foreign ports with inadequate cargoes. It is not sufficient to load ships one way only. Return cargoes are necessary to the economical operation of ships.

The countries to which the Canadian Merchant Marine are operating.

Sale of Ladies and Childrens' Winter Coats AND Furs

We have marked our surplus of Ladies and Childrens' Winter Coats and Furs to clear at

HALF PRICE

A. J. BELL & CO.

British West Indies, China, Belgium, France, Britain and South American ports, offer opportunities for the purchase of many commodities which Canada does not, or cannot produce herself. We must not simply sell to these people, we must "trade with them."

The revision of our buying and selling operations on this basis would result in the advance of the Canadian dollar to par value in the United States and have a most salutary effect on the financial condition of our Nationally-owned railroads and ships by diverting to Canadian Seaports a much larger proportion of the tonnage which for years has entered and left Canada through the seaports of the United States.

The Canadian Merchant Marine is a Canadian Institution—built with Canadian money—operated to further and facilitate the foreign commerce of this country. Somehow or other, a report was circulated to the effect that "outsiders" were employed by the Canadian Merchant Marine to the exclusion of Canadians and British Subjects. In denial of this report, the management of the Canadian National Railways offer the statement that of the 1674 employees on the payroll at December 31, 1920, exactly half were Canadians by birth or adoption and the balance were of British birth. It is the invariable practice of the management and operation of this Government owned line of steamships.

The Canadian National Railways recently issued a chart of earnings and expenses in which it was shown that earnings were increasing and expenses going down. Starting with August, which showed net profits of some $47,000, a steady improvement has taken place, October earnings being some half million dollars greater than expenses. The greater reduction in operating expenses occurred prior to July. This is a most important point because it shows that the reduction in expenses occurred prior to the recent reduction in wages put into effect on July 16th. This is conclusive proof that greater tonnage and greater efficiency in management are primarily responsible for this very encouraging state of affairs.
