Warren Slipped Out in the Night.

HIS GARRISON HAS ABANDONED SPION KOP.

Believed that His Casualty List is Very Large.

Garrison of Ladysmith Watch Buller's Shells.

His Return Effective Week but the Boers are Offering a Stubborn Resistance.

London, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—A cable was received by the War Office from General Buller this morning, announcing that Warren's garrison had in the night abandoned Spion Kop.

TO WAR OFFICE

Regret Expressed That Gen. Warren's Garrison Had Abandoned Spion Kop.

London, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—Message to the War Office is dated at Spearman's camp, Thursday, Jan. 25, noon and reads:—"Gen. Warren's garrison, I am sorry to say, I find this morning had in the night abandoned Spion Kop."

RETROGRADE MOVEMENT.

Waiting For Something to Amortize Loss of Warren's Action—Casualty List Believed to be Heavy.

London, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The bad news of Warren's defeat spread rapidly and the crowds as usual flocked to the War Office for further news of the reverse. Nothing however was forthcoming. It is generally believed that the War Office has further advice, but that they will be withheld for the present. The time on Buller's despatch would seem to indicate it was received hours ago, and was held with the hope, perhaps, that something more satisfactory might come from Buller to ameliorate the sting of Warren's retrograde movement. Friends and relatives of the officers and men serving under Warren are fearful that Warren's casualty list will be heavy. They are anxiously clamoring for a list of losses, but the officials at the War Office say that none have yet been received. In Buller's official despatch of Wednesday night he says that Warren was holding the kop under his most gallant shell fire, and that his losses were severe. This, taken in connection with Warren's easy occupation of the place, leads to the belief that the Boers led the English into a trap. Artillery was probably placed on the

BURNED TO DEATH.

Two Lives Lost in a Bad Fire in Fredonia, N. Y.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Fire yesterday morning did $200,000 damage at Fredonia, three miles south. The power house of the Dunkirk & Fredonia Street Car Co. was destroyed, together with all the cars, and traffic between the two places has been suspended.

Two lives were lost in the flames. Miss Alice Huntington was burned to death in the home of Fred W. Case, while trying to save her personal effects. Warren Leopold Brotski, a printer, lost his life in the Van-American hotel while asleep in his room.

Chloroform Danger Ended.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Physicians at Cook county hospital have just used successfully an invention of Dr. Wm. H. Holder, of Easton, by which it is claimed the objectionable features of chloroform as an anesthetic are eliminated. The essential point of the new device is the admittance of fresh air as the chloroform is inhaled by the patient, which it is said, prevents nausea.

A Racing Circuit.

Hamilton Herald: The Hamilton Driving and Athletic Association is determined to restore the popularity of harness horse racing in this vicinity if such a thing is possible. To this end the directors have instructed Secretary Evans—who has again been prevailed upon to fill that position—to call a meeting of the secretaries of New Hamburg, London, Guelph, Stratford and Hamilton, with a view to arranging a circuit to include these five cities. If such a circuit can be arranged good horses will be offered and a better class of races will be assured.

NOTES STOLEN.

Paper Valued at $25 Stolen From a Walkerville Man.

Walkerville, Jan. 26.—Eugene Ferrari, who resides on Sandwich street, Walkerville, reported to Detectives Camp and Mahoney to-day that his home had been entered and valuable property stolen.

The robbery occurred last evening, and is supposed to be the work of some thieves. The house was left unlocked while Mrs. Ferrari went to the grocery, and the robbers took place during her absence.

The stolen property includes notes aggregating $25, payable to Eugene Ferrari. They were written on Essex County Bank paper. There were three notes, one of $25, another of $20 and a smaller one of $5. All banks have been notified of the robbery and the thief will have some difficulty in negotiating the paper.

Two Kings.

Jack Frost is king again, atmospherically speaking. The Turf is always king of the ten-cent cigars that are on the market. Housinger makes the Turf and it is a delicious roll of tobacco.

surrounding kopjes, with which the Boers poured a constant and galling fire into Warren's garrison on the kop all day Wednesday, making it so hot for the English that they had to slip out under cover of darkness. High military officials refuse this morning to discuss the reverse until full details are learned, but they admit that it may again halt the Natal campaign.

RELIEF OF LADYSMITH.

Boers Offer Stubborn Resistance—Buller's Effective Fire.

Ladysmith, Sunday Jan. 21, afternoon, by runner via Frecs Camp, Wednesday, Jan. 24.—The garrison is watching Gen. Buller's guns shelling the Boers. Their fire can be seen at this distance and appears to be very effective. The movements of the Boers show that they are evidently determined stubbornly to oppose the advance of the relief column. They show no signs of removing their guns, have mounted new ones and are vigorously strengthening their fortification. Our fortifications have been greatly strengthened since Jan. 6th and Ladysmith is now practically impregnable. Owing to the dry weather the fever has diminished and the number of convalescents returning from Intombi Camp exceeds that of the patients being sent there. The supplies are holding splendidly, all the troops having sufficient wholesome food. The heat is terrific. The thermometer registered 107 degrees in the shade.

FIGHTING AT LADYSMITH.

Soldiers of Seventy-Nine Dead Boers Sent to General Joubert.

London, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The morning Post in a second edition to-day prints a despatch from its correspondent at Spearman's camp, dated Jan. 23, which says:—"There was heavy firing at Ladysmith yesterday, Gen. White is attacking and making a diversion. After the Boer assault Gen. White sent to Commandant General Joubert for interment seventy-nine dead Boers collected in the British trenches. The correspondent describes the operations from Jan. 17 to Jan 23, and greatly praises the pluck, nerve and cheerfulness of the soldiers. He says that General Warren's guns fired 2,000 shells on Jan. 20. His left on Jan. 21 moved up Bastion Hill, which opens a cleft in the enemy's lines. The object is no longer to turn the Boer right, but by introducing a wedge of infantry into the cleft to split the right from the centre. The gap was widened during the day, and Gen. Warren's right completed the capture of the whole edge of the plateau and occupied the first line of the Boer trenches, where they found about 200 who had been killed by the shell fire. The correspondent foreshadows Tuesday's attack on Spion Kop, and declares that there is absolute confidence and determination throughout the army. No anxiety, he says, is felt concerning the result."

PRO-BOER KIMBALL.

A Correspondent Who Expresses His Opinions in Regard to Mr. Kimball and His Course.

To the Editor of THE JOURNAL:—SIR,—There has been considerable comment of late on a certain speech reported to have been made in Buffalo a short time since at a pro-Boer meeting by Rev. C. H. Kimball, formerly of this place. At first reading we felt like taking him by the nape of the neck and setting him up in the boot and shoe trade; but after more mature deliberation it looks like a case of sore head. It is reported that his double dealing cost him his situation here, which would naturally make him feel sore. It strikes me that the most contemptible thing he has more than cutting words could do, for a man of his calibre would only glory in any annoyance he could give to those towards whom he felt spiteful. We listened to his Gettysburg lecture with a great deal of pleasure (at that time), but since his recent utterances at Buffalo and the class that he is associated with, think that instead of Gettysburg, we might with more propriety write Rudgeway. It seems to me a case of "love of money" and its fruits. It also seems like a case of the old man and his son in trying to please everybody, he has pleased nobody and he will suffer the loss of himself. In conclusion we would simply refer him to Paul's words to Elymas the sorcerer, as recorded in Acts xvii, 10, (revised version) and bid him beware lest he meet his fate. Yours, A VETERAN OF '63. Aylmer, Jan. 25, 1900.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

Reception in the Officers and Teachers of Grace Church Sunday School.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kingswood, 39 Horton street, last night, on the occasion of a reception tendered by them to the officers and teachers of Grace church Sabbath school, of which Mr. Kingswood is superintendent. Nearly every officer and teacher was accompanied by husband, wife or friend, the assembly numbering nearly one hundred. An excellent programme of music and recitation was rendered, which, with numerous games, reading contest, etc., contributed to the success of the evening's entertainment. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Godwin, acted as chairman in his usual pleasing manner. Among the guests was Rev. J. S. Edges, of London, president of the London Conference.

ALMA COLLEGE BOARD.

Gratifying Progress Made During the Year.

As Shown by the Annual Report—Improvements Authorized—Executive Committee Appointed.

The annual meeting of the Board of Management was held yesterday in the college buildings at 2 p. m. and adjourned shortly after 10 p. m. The members present were:

Mrs. Dr. Carman, Toronto, president; Dr. Williamson, Berlin; Dr. Aylesworth, Kintore; Dr. Henderson, Burlington; Dr. J. St. Charles, St. Catharines; Dr. Fairbank, city; W. W. Shepherd, Muncy; J. R. Gandy, Strathroy; J. E. Lonsdale, Toronto; Geo. F. Salton, Ph. B.; Hamilton; R. W. Woodhouse, Toronto; Joseph Edige, London; C. T. Scott, Aylmer; Messrs. John Baird, city; Jonathan Ellis, Port Dover; David Graham, Logiswood; Thomas Stacey, James H. Coyne, E. A., John MacLusland, F. M. Griffin, Wm. Rindon, city.

The financial statement and the report of the executive were read by Mr. John Baird. Principal Warner read his annual report. These reports were the most encouraging that have been presented for years. The debt has been reduced by over $3,000; the receipts from students showed an increase of almost $2,000 over the preceding year, and the increase this current year promises to be considerable. As an indication of the improved condition of the college the enrolment of resident students for January, 1899, was 63; for January, 1898, 75, and for the present January 26, improvements and repairs have been made to the extent of over $1,100. The teaching staff is strong and most harmonious. The literary staff contains five university graduates and five who have professional standing. The musical programme of studies is most fully in line with the curriculum of studies in music that the Ontario Music Teachers' Association has placed before the Senate of Toronto University for adoption as the standard for the province. This is very gratifying to the friends of Alma as proof of the leading position held by the college in musical studies. The fine work of the students and the department maintains their high efficiency and popularity and the business college department has recently received improved equipment with more in contemplation.

The board authorized the expenditure of $1,200 in improvements, including the steam heating, papering and dormitories and added apparatus. Plans were laid to effect the insurance on two of the young men, Lieut. Westaway and Sergt. Sutherland, of the 25th Battalion, now privates in the 1st Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent.

OUR SOLDIER BOYS.

Only Four of the Six of the First Company Were Insured.

When the six St. Thomas soldiers left with the Canadian contingent and five who were insured to insure their lives for $1,000 each. The insurance was taken by the Farmers and Traders. Each of those who subscribed paid $8.50, but the other day were returned $2.50 the company having declined to accept the insurance on two of the young men, Lieut. Westaway and Sergt. Sutherland, of the 25th Battalion, now privates in the 1st Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent.

SWINDLED WOMEN.

Clever Scheme of a Chicago Fate of Fakirs.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Federal officers have arrested Harry J. King and James Prince, managers of the Embroidery Exchange, on charge of having swindled women in all parts of the country by advertising extensively that women were "wanted to sew at home as a salary of $3 per week." The correspondents were required to make a deposit of $2 for supplies, and when they sent the money they were given a small amount of insurance on two of the young men, Lieut. Westaway and Sergt. Sutherland, of the 25th Battalion, now privates in the 1st Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent. Mr. D. E. Galters & Co., first Canadian contingent.

Gave All Her Mad.

A prominent Montrealer has received a check for $500 from a young Canadian lady now employed in the United States. She wrote:

"Now, I want to ask your advice and help. I have $500. I suppose you will laugh at the smallness of the sum, but it is all I have, and I would like to send it to someone who could spend it on some small comforts for a few of the British soldiers. The trouble is, I do not know who to send it to. Will you find out for me and let me know. If I were a man I should join the forces, and fight, but as I am only a woman, I cannot do more than give what I have."

To Save Her Child.

From frightful disfigurement Mrs. Nanette Gallego, of La Grange, Ga., applied Booklen's Arnica Salve to great sore on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in Sores, Bruises, Skin Eruptions, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, and Piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by F. P. Reynolds, druggist.

THE EVENING JOURNAL, established in 1844, is the oldest newspaper in the Dominion. It is published daily, except on Sundays and public holidays.

THE JOURNAL'S CIRCULATION IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO IS THE LARGEST OF ANY PAPER IN THE PROVINCE. IT IS READ BY OVER 100,000 PEOPLE.

JAS. S. BRIDGEMAN, Publisher.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1900.

LESS WORK AND LESS TALK.

When Parliament opens at Ottawa next week will the words of last session be renewed? Sir Charles, fresh from talking an average of two hours at fifty-six meetings on his western tour, will no doubt feel equal to a six or seven hour stretch again this session while the younger Tupper is said to have been leading himself up again. Sir Charles, too, will probably be as anxious as ever to hear the words of his own voice, and burden himself with speeches which nobody ever reads.

THEIR OWN PATRIOTIC WORK.

The chief Conservative organ in Ontario and one of its satellites are still engaged in the work of endeavoring to see discomfited by misrepresenting the action of the Government and of French-Canadian Liberals in reference to the Canadian contingent, special reference being made in this connection to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Tupper. This is done by garbling the speeches of the Premier and attributing to Sir Charles statements in a paper published by his own and endeavoring to make it appear that these are the words of Mr. Tupper himself. In referring to any discomfited Canadian citizen to the content of the contingent at all, to the sending of them without authority from Parliament, or to the full payment of them by Canada while engaged in review, care is taken to quote only the utterances of Liberals, anything of that kind which may be said by Conservatives being carefully suppressed. If they wanted to be fair they should present all that Sir Wilfrid said at Sherbrooke, when he emphatically condemned the readiness with which the French-Canadian contingent to the effect of the mother country was from different motives than that from which British Canadians responded, the latter being bound to do it by the strongest ties which exist, that of blood, while the latter were impelled by gratitude and a desire to see this country united. They would also quote Sir Charles' clearest avowal of his loyalty to the main plan, the patriotic address of the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec to part of the departing troops of the second contingent, the words of the speech from the throne put into his mouth by Liberal advisers at the opening of the Quebec Legislature, and the unequivocal declarations of loyalty and acquiescence in the principle of Canada assisting in the defense of the Empire made by Conservatives and Liberal alike in the debate in reply.

It is hoped that such a policy of misrepresentation and such an attempt to create division was not a part of the course to be pursued by the Conservative leaders when the House meets in a few days. The consistency with which some of the organs condemn their disreputable work leads to a fear that it will be indulged in there, too. It seems almost impossible to believe that any party should endeavor to secure a reversal of power by any such contemptible methods, and if they do there can be little doubt that they will make just as great a failure as they did by their blundering method of handling the Manitoba school question in 1899.

SIDE SHOWS.

The fact that three fifty-five veterans of the Fenian Raid of 1866 and 1870 in and about St. Thomas is good evidence that the older citizens when young were as ready to defend their own land as the younger ones are to take part in the defence of the Empire at present. The idea of having the medals distributed at the patriotic concert is a good one and will no doubt give an additional interest to that event.

Whatever municipal action may be recommended by the finance committee and adopted by the city council in reference to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, the sum which may be granted cannot be very large, and ought to be supplemented not only by the amount which will be raised by the coming concert, but by such subscriptions as citizens would be willing to give. The calling of a public meeting to organize a committee would be a move which it is believed would be generally approved. If this does not come within the scope of the communication to the mayor from the Lieutenant-Governor, the mayor, it can easily be effected by a resolution of citizens to the mayor requesting him to call a meeting for that purpose.

It is a matter of satisfaction that the change of discrimination of freight and of other matters being given by the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk Railway to the Standard Oil Company is to be made a matter of investigation by the Railway Committee of the Privy Council commencing in January 30th. The price of Canadian oil has been advanced by the Standard oil monopoly five cents a gallon, of which four cents a gallon is additional profit to the company, only one cent, it is said, going to the producers of crude petroleum. Besides the alleged secret rebates it is stated that the rate on oil from Sarnia to Montreal is twenty-five cents per hundred weight, while from Black Rock to Montreal a distance of seventy-seven miles less, it is thirty-five cents per hundred weight. The refineries of the Standard Oil Company are situated at Sarnia and Petrolia.

Coma Doyle, the author, thinks a monument should be erected to the memory of Paul Kruger with this inscription: "To the memory of the man who federated the British Empire." Goldwin Smith thinks the Transvaal war has rung the death knell of Imperial Federation. As far as the trend of public opinion can be discerned at present the former has gauged it much more accurately than the latter. It is true the idea has not passed entirely out of the national state yet, but it is fast assuming shape, and by the time the war is over will be nearer practical-realization than its most ardent advocates dreamed of a few years ago.

The economical management of the public institutions of Ontario has been pointed out time and again. The latest report shows that as the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Belleville the average cost is $168.09 per year, and receives a grant of $98 per pupil from the Government besides, as well as private contributions, bringing the total cost up to about $100 more per year than in Ontario. In the United States 9,332 mutes are educated by different states, the cost varying from $168 per year in Georgia, the lowest, still a trifle higher than Ontario, to $465 in the District of Columbia, nearly three times what it is in this province, while the average cost for the whole of the states from which statistics have been obtained is $205.53 per year, or $187 more than in Ontario. In our own Province of New Brunswick it is $205, or $39 higher.

LITERARY NOTES.

Sheldon's Remarkable Books. We have received from The Poole Publishing Company, of Toronto, a copy of "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong," by Charles M. Sheldon, the well known author of "In His Steps." The book contains over 200 pages, and is a tragic tale showing how a noble man, who endeavored to exemplify the spirit of Christ, was opposed and persecuted. The story is one of intense vigor and pathos. It will secure a wide reading, and it should make a deep impression upon every reader. The Poole Publishing Company have eight of Sheldon's books at fifteen cents each, in attractive paper covers, or thirty cents in cloth covers, postpaid. They are the most widely read books of this generation. For sale at all bookstores.

An older "institution" than St. Nicholas itself is pictured in the frontispiece of the February number of the only American magazine for young folks, to wit, the Sphinx; and picturesque notes about that prehistoric Egyptian creature—facts which all children should be, but are not, familiar—are set forth by Emma J. Arnold, with illustrations by Harry Fenn and Malouin Fraser. The "Unsuccessful Colony," to which Elbridge S. Brooks introduces his little group of historical travelers, was New Albion, sometimes called France's Eden, in honor of Sir Edmund Flourens, to which Charles I. made a large grant which the patentee was never able to execute—a grant that included a considerable tract of the Middle Atlantic States.

The last of the "body" articles in the February Century is the one that will doubtless attract the most attention. This is the first instalment of hitherto unpublished extracts from the private diary of Dr. B. E. O'Meara, Napoleon Bonaparte's physician at St. Helena. The original manuscript of this journal, in eighteen little volumes, has come into the possession of The Century Co., and is found to afford a surprisingly large amount of new material in the way of conversations with the exiled Emperor. These "Talks with Napoleon" will form an important feature of the Century during the year 1900. The editor has evidently had in mind the multitude of visitors to the French Exposition in organizing the series on "Paris of Today," by Richard Whiting, author of "No. 10 John Street" and "The Island of the Blue Isles." The first of these papers, "Paris Revisited," appears in this number. Mr. Whiting, who knows his Paris as few Englishmen know it, takes a bird's-eye view of the city from the Eiffel Tower; but his comments and criticisms on the people and their governmental machine are at least as piquant as his descriptive passages.

It Buries the World. No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Its several tests have been on hopeless victims of Consumption, Rheumatism, Pleurisy and Bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. TILSONBURG.

G. O. McLeod, Journal Agent.
Jan. 24.—Rev. A. Barclay, of Lyndoch, spent the day in town on his way to Mitchell where he will preach on Sabbath.
Mr. John Chaston will deliver his lecture on "A Layman's View of the Evidence of Christianity" in the Presbyterian church at Lyndoch and Carleton on Sunday.
Mr. Wilcox Pichel was in town on business yesterday.
A citizens' meeting was called last evening in the council chamber by the mayor to take steps for the formation of a Tilsonburg branch of the National Patriotic League. The meeting was well attended and enthusiastic in spirit. After some discussion it was decided to hold a grand patriotic concert in the opera house on lines that would unite the entire community and create a widespread interest. A representative committee of management was appointed with Mr. Dr. Neethorn as convener, to act with the committee of ladies in making arrangements for the concert. The ladies' committee will meet in the council chamber to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to complete their arrangements. It was also decided to open subscription lists in the Western Bank, the Trustee's Bank and the office of Ben & Sons, so that all may have an opportunity of contributing a few cents as they are able to this very worthy purpose. A good start has already been made and the lists opened this morning show the sum of $25 already paid in. Mr. John McIntyre was appointed treasurer of the fund, and a statement will be posted up in each of the three places mentioned every day stating the amount contributed to date. With four Tilsonburg boys at the helm, and the deep interest that is felt in the matter, Tilsonburg may be depended upon to do her part in this eminently patriotic work.
"An old-time proverb which has been exemplified in the case of the veterans of the Blue and Red, who received the beautiful blue medals commemorating the event yesterday. It has not the 'old boys' talking of the stirring experiences of those days, and old years are being swapped. The number of names in town are Dr. L. G. Sinclair, A. S. Walker, M. D. Crocker, W. Z. Wain, W. Dalrymple, George E. Colborne, H. Reynolds, W. Fleming, M. Reynolds, Alfred Goodwin, J. J. Hall and W. G. Smith. Historically the medals are highly valued by the recipients and are valuable historical souvenirs.
The welcome news of the occupation of Upper Key by General Warren came yesterday as a great relief to the townsmen. The news of the past days, and not a few gave us a fervent "Thank God" as this indication that the brave and gallant defenders of Lyndoch are to be relieved.
Mr. H. J. Fisher, who has been gradually being proven for some weeks, and has suffered intensely from a tuberculous knee, took a very low and weak condition.
Rev. H. D. Drummond, R. D., of Avondale church this evening.
The post office has undergone a thorough house-cleaning, and from the marvelous change by the application of soap and water to the dear and dusty old rendezvous, it is plain that it did not take place before it was needed.

CHALLENGE.
Chas. A. Challen, Correspondent; Eugene Challen, Challen, Ontario.
Jan. 24.—About 2:45 this morning the fire alarm sounded, and judging from the reflection on the sky there was a large fire. It was, however, a small one at the rear of the house occupied by Mr. Fortino and owned by Mr. George Dick, of Hamilton. The fire was entirely destroyed. Another house belonging to Mr. James DeVal of the same of the factory caught fire, but was promptly put out by the fire department, and was repaired promptly. There was no loss on the part of the factory.
The fire was certainly a case of an incendiary's work, as Mr. Fortino found one of the back windows open on this morning.
Mr. William Collins, who has been lying ill for some time, died this morning.

DELHI.

Jan. 24.—Miss Nina Crayler entertained a number of her friends at her home on Main street last night.
Mr. Fred Cable, of New York, who has been visiting his parents for a few days, left this morning for Toronto.
A very pleasant gathering was tendered last night, after their wedding tour to Cleveland and other eastern cities.
The principal topic of the day is war. Many curious eyes watch the papers for any news.
Mr. Chas. Stoddard, who has been with the Alpha Chemical Co., Berlin, has changed companies, and is now with the Liberty Chemical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
Miss Clara Howey entertained a number of her friends at her home on King street on Thursday evening.

Big Industry Continues Strife.

A Brownsville correspondent writes that notwithstanding the scarcity of food, there appears to be no necessity of haste. On the 20th of Jan. South & Ross shipped from Corinth through their agent, Barrs and son, thirty-nine live hogs and on the same date Thomas & Baxter shipped from Brownsville, 125 live hogs. Again on the 22nd South & Ross shipped from Corinth seventeen live hogs and Freeman & Baxter 148 from Brownsville and it is expected that a shipment from both places will be made again next Monday.

Populations Increase.

It has become quite common for physicians to prescribe Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for patients who are run down by the ravages of chronic diseases. They recognize in it a restorative of invincible worth in which are found the very elements of nature required to build up the system and form new flesh and muscle. Its revivifying action on nerves and blood, places it beyond the reach of rivals as an absolute cure for diseases of the nerves and blood. 25 cents a box.

The best, plainest and largest are the Jeffries-Sharkey Pictures. To-night at the Dun theatre.

THE Y. M. C. A.

Directors Meeting Held at the Annual Meeting.
One of the largest and most interesting meetings in the history of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night, being the occasion of the annual meeting of active members to elect the board of directors for 1900. Mr. E. H. Millington, president of the association, occupied the chair. The following were elected as a directorate for the present year: D. M. Fair, J. F. Oles, D. K. McKinnis, W. Jordan, E. H. Millington, E. A. Stewart, J. A. Kilpatrick, W. T. Mosony, W. V. McDonald, W. J. Robb, F. Stacey, D. Stirling, Hugh Macpherson, M. Upton, W. K. Cameron, G. E. Hoard, Geo. Uddler, J. H. Forsythe, F. W. Wright, John Baker, M. E. Johnson, W. J. Orr, J. E. Hatch, F. J. Waldall, W. W. Olmstead, R. N. Price, D. Meadows, W. W. Sullivan, W. E. Cooper, W. Conforth, Levi Curtis, I. Kingwood, A. H. Kirkpatrick, H. J. Gonda, T. L. Cochran, R. Bova, W. A. Adams, O. Upton, E. O. Harvey, Geo. R. McDoll.
It was decided to call the regular meeting of the board for Saturday evening next at 8 o'clock sharp.

'ADVANCE' THE ONLY ORDER

Gen. Butler's Warning to His Men Against Beer Drinking.
London, Jan. 24.—General Buller's orders to his troops, the substance of which has already been cabled, after warning them to beware of false orders, concludes:
"Your generals will only give one order, namely, 'Advance.'
"Should anyone at any time be surprised by a volley at close quarters he must remember that the only way to safety is by victory. He is rushing upon the enemy for the one thing the enemy cannot stand in a hand-to-hand fight. This has been forced for the lowest and basest motives by an enemy who uses every means of treachery, deceit and conspiracy to gain their ends. Let us bear ourselves as the cause deserves."

The Children's Shelter.

To the Editor of this Journal:
Sir.—A visit to the shelter revealed the fact that we overlooked giving little Helen Smith the credit of the very generous act last Christmas of dressing a doll and saving her pennies to purchase toys for the children at the shelter. It was not intended for a slight to Helen, but an oversight, for we think that such an act of generosity is worthy of imitation by many who can give substantially.
For instance, our trustees can assist when in the making of wills by suggesting instead of giving thousands to already established institutions, advise giving a fair share to other enterprises that are struggling for recognition. A gift of a shawl or a coat would be a great boon to the Children's Aid Society.
Little Lennie, one of the boys, has just gone into a prominent business, and has three little fellows, George, Ambrose and Arthur who would take happiness into my home that would open doors to them.
Every child that leaves the shelter receives the municipality of $2 weekly expense, as well as their standing a far better chance of becoming good citizens, than though they were left drifting, to at last find their way into the streets, from which they come out handicapped for life.
Sincerely,

Files for 25 Years.

Mr. Jacob Bowles, Counselor, Embro, Ont., writes: "For over 15 years I suffered the misery of bleeding, protruding piles. The many remedies I tried all failed. I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and must say that the first application gave relief, after the third day the bleeding stopped and five boxes cured me completely."

THREE BYE-ELECTIONS

The Returns From Winnipeg, Sherbrooke and Lotbiniere.

MARTIN WON BY 49 MAJORITY.

Mr. Fortier, Independent Liberal, succeeds in Lotbiniere—Sherbrooke's Choice Was Hon. Mr. McIntosh, Conservative, by 98 Majority—in Winnipeg Mr. Puttee Will Ask for a Re-count.

Winnipeg, Jan. 25.—The bye-election in Winnipeg yesterday was one of the most interesting ever fought in this city, owing to the absence of the usual party candidates. The election of Mr. E. D. Martin, Independent Liberal, was assured if the vote could be brought out, and final returns give him the seat by 49 majority over Mr. Puttee, the labor candidate. The latter received many Liberal votes, owing to his promises of support to the Laurier Government on all great issues, more particularly his endorsement of the Government's action in sending troops to South Africa. After the result was known speeches were made by both candidates. Mr. Martin thanked for his return. Mr. Puttee, in his remarks, declared his intention of asking for a recount, as his scrutineer informed him that over one hundred ballots intended for him had been rejected by the deputies on the ground that the cross had been made outside the disc on the ballot. There are a large number of rejected ballots.

Another example that THE JOURNAL reaches the people and that its "Want" column meets the advertiser's desires was demonstrated yesterday. Before eight o'clock the same evening a girl at Highgate telephoned an application for the position. THE JOURNAL ads are read.

When the fire department was going to the fire at Harry Thornton's barn this morning a fireman's coat fell off the horse wagon. If it had not been for this there would be no further trouble. There was a small fire at the county building this morning, the fire proof coating of the steam pipes taking fire from the furnace, and burning off several feet before being discovered.

Have been a member of The Globe for 50 years or over, and never was prouder of it than I am to-day on account of the noble part it is taking on this as well as on all questions that concern our country."

"The Great Diamond Robbery" was presented by Marks Bros.' Comedy Company to a large audience at the New Grand Opera House last night, and the production was among the best given by the company this week. As usual a number of excellent specialties were given. The company appear again to-night, give a unique performance to-morrow afternoon, and again to-morrow night.

Vladimir de Pachmann, the famous Russian pianist, will play in the Auditorium, London, on Monday evening, Feb. 5. A subscription list for the concert is open at Murch's bookstore. It is the intention to run a special train from St. Thomas to London and return the night of the concert. Alma Ladies' College will send some thirty students. De Pachmann's Canadian tour is being managed by the Nordheimers.

FIRE AT CLEARVILLE

The Victoria Home and Nearly all the Contents Destroyed—Narrow Escape of Inmate.

Our Despatch correspondent to-day writes: Fire last night destroyed the Victoria Home at Clearville, along with nearly all the contents. The fire originated from the chimney in the main part of the building, and had gained such headway before being noticed, that Mrs. Bond, wife of the proprietor, and children, had to escape in their night clothes. The barns were saved. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $2,000, with but $500 insurance.

DELAYED THREE HOURS.

C. P. R. Passenger Train and M. C. R. Yard Engine Come Together.

An accident occurred in the M. C. R. yards this morning, by which the C. P. R. train for Woodstock was delayed three hours, and the noon train connecting with the Toronto train at Woodstock, did not reach here till after 2 p. m. An M. C. R. yard engine which had been shunting freight cars at the M. C. R. freight shed was standing on the diamond crossing. The engineer of the C. P. R., owing to the way the wind blew the smoke could not see the M. C. R. yard engine, and there was a collision, both engines being badly damaged. C. P. R. had to send to Woodstock for another engine, and the C. P. R. train was delayed three hours.

DISASTROUS MOANING FIRE.

M. Thornton's Barn, With Horses, Cows, &c., Consumed.

Mr. Thornton Receives Painful News in Attempting to Get Horses Out of Burning Building.

A bad fire, resulting in the loss of a barn, horses, cattle, &c., took place this morning at 5.45. The fire was in a barn owned by Harry Thornton, in rear of his residence, Talbot street west. The fire department received a telephone message, but the telephone office did not know where the fire was. Just as the firemen were dressed Wm. Loomis arrived on his bike at the fire hall, and announced that the fire was in Mr. Thornton's barn. The news and contents were destroyed before the department arrived. Complaint has been made that the fire alarm bell could not be heard a block from the city hall.

The barn was a two-story building, containing straw, feed, two horses, three cows, a sow and a number of sucking pigs, a large number of chickens, pigeons, &c., were destroyed.

Mr. Thornton had his face, hands, ears and neck considerably burned in attempting to get out the horses. There is only an insurance of $500 on the barn and contents, and Mr. Thornton's loss will therefore be a heavy one.

IN COUNTOWN.

Cole and Johnson's Company at the Dancombe Opera House.

St. Thomas must indeed be a first class show town when nearly every night thirty or more of the best of the musical people of the performance given has a good deal to do with it. Last night there was a large audience at the Dancombe, when Cole and Johnson and company presented the well known rag-time melange entitled "A Trip to Countown." In one respect the presentation was superior to others here, and in another it was not. The new scenic scenery and the various colored lights introduced this year produced a very pretty effect, but there was more of the high class concert and less of the rag-time show about the performance. The chorus was splendid, much better than last year, some of the male voices being exceedingly fine. The young ladies of the ballet are all very light colored, and some very pretty. Miss Eina Alexander has a fine contralto voice, and her number was enthusiastically applauded. Bob Cole as Willie Wayside, the tramp, was as irresistibly funny as ever, and Bill Johnson as Jimmie, and Sam Jones as Silas Green, are also worthy of special mention. The singing of Mr. Sam King, baritone; Mr. Thomas Craig, bass; and Mr. Loyd J. Gibb, tenor, was magnificent.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Marriage of Mr. W. Birkholm and Miss Mita Mann.

The residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Mann was the scene of a very pleasant event last evening, it being the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mita, to Mr. Wm. Birkholm, of Chicago. The bride was attired in white organdie, trimmed with valenciennes lace, and carried a showerbunch of white roses. Miss Eina Bowers, who assisted the bride, was also attired in white organdie, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Mr. Ernest Mann, brother of the bride, performed smaller duties for the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Crews, after which the guests repaired to the dining-room to partake of the bounteous repast there awaiting them. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents testifying to the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Birkholm leave on Saturday for their future home in Chicago.

THE DEADLY SAW.

Wm. Thayer Loses Part of His Right Foot as Mill's Mill.

William Thayer, aged sixteen years, son of Mr. Simon Thayer, of Iriahtown, met with an accident yesterday, which resulted in the loss of the greater part of his right foot. He is employed at Still's mill and was working yesterday afternoon at a saw which works near the floor. A couple of minutes before closing time the saw became clogged and young Thayer attempted to kick away the rubbish with his foot. The result was that the side of his right foot was sawn off. He was removed to the Alma Wood Hospital, where Dr. Erasmus W. Dancombe assisted by Dr. Mariatti, amputated about half the foot including three toes.

Seven miles of pictures are required to reproduce the Jeffries-Sharkey fight.

First Methodist Social Tea.

The social tea last evening was given by the following ladies: Mesdames Foster, Farley, Teplin, Tuskey, Lipsy, Youmans, McKay and Palmer. It was a most enjoyable gathering and well attended. Quite a number of the members of the Board of Alma College were present, among whom was Rev. Mr. Salton, the former pastor. Rev. Dr. Philip, who presided, called upon him for a short address. He responded and received a very hearty greeting. An excellent programme of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered. Those taking part were: Miss (Dr.) Lipsy, Miss Crutts, Miss Johnson, Miss Smith, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Penwarden and Mr. Norworthy.

Take a Note of This Fact.

The artist who has travelled the world over is necessarily particular of what piano he uses when he visits a foreign field.

If you have taken note of the musical entertainments and concerts held in the large cities in Canada in recent years, you must have been impressed with the fact that invariably it is the Heintzman & Co. Piano that is used.

Artists of the high standing of Friedheim, Burmeister, Alband, Netzel, Wolkoff-Mills, Finkler-Greene and a score of others have made this piano their choice for the fine characteristic sound that gives them any other instrument it measures up to the exacting requirements of the artist.

THE BYSTANDER.

Further Observations of Things in Italy.

The Bystander is leaving Naples for Rome, now unwillingly. Against the glories of the Bay and the softness of the air it is to be set the constant sight of the extremity of human misery, misery, filth, and degradation.

Nothing can exceed the noisomeness of the alleys in which these poor people are huddled. Their quarters are not lighted at night, and are apt scenes for deeds of darkness. The people are against the law; and the police, everybody says, fears to do its duty.

In Northern Italy I shall find a better state of things. Yet in Milan, which is supposed to be the most prosperous of the cities, there were not long ago desperate bread riots. The moral of coarse bread is scratched from the lips of the people by the misadvised government to be made the jingo case of ruin. Bread has risen to double its former price, and the government-monopoly of salt is enforced with utmost rigor.

Over all this misery in Naples rises the newly-built palace of the Minister who is mainly responsible for the present state of things, and whose enormous fortune, nobody seems to doubt, has been annexed by corruption, for which his policy of military expenditure furnished opportunities, though his political power has enabled him to baffle investigation.

Much money, I am told, is spent here in charity. It can scarcely be well directed, or hideous mendacity would not meet you at every turn. The government has established communal schools. But, as a poor girl in Sicily said when she was asked whether to send her child to school, "School is very good when one has bread."

In the chaotic mediocrity, the church, who, with her begging friars, sets the example, may be partly blamed, as certainly she is for the grossness of the popular superstition. The ceremonial and the religious system generally may, as was said before, be congenial to the character and mental conditions of the Neapolitan; but for spurious religion and dogmatism there can be no excuse. They are fatal to the honesty of the priests, as well as to the religious intelligence of the people.

Naples is described to me as very frivolous. They are said to sacrifice everything to show. A carriage with servants in livery and a box at the opera are, it seems, the two things needful to social elevation. For these people are content to live on mazzetta. It is said, however, that the carriage is often hired, and that the box is often underlet. Literary Neapolitan country houses, in this respect, are the envy of two bookkeepers, both of which are third-rate, and fully as much English, German, and French as Italian. There is a famous school of physiology at which our Professor Ramsey Wright is now studying, but it is interestingly not Neapolitan, and was founded by a German for the investigation of the popular products of these waters.

A story used to be told of a foreigner whose pocket had been picked of a valuable snuff-box. Some time afterwards, being at the opera, he espied his snuff-box in the hands of a Neapolitan nobleman in an adjoining box. He told a friend of his side that he was going to recover it. His friend replied that if he did he would run a risk of assassination. "Leave it to me," said the friend; who, passing into an adjoining box, engaged in conversation with the minister, holding the snuff-box and presently came back with the snuff-box in his hand. When he was asked by the owner how he had managed to get possession of it, he replied of it, he replied, "Picked his pocket, of course." This was in the Bourbon time.

Italian papers, of course, are full of the Transvaal war. They perhaps give, as an English resident, a military man, was saying the other day, the version less favorable to England. Still it remains certain that the three relief expeditions have been arrested in their advances, and that there is consequently a full in the operations. This would seem a moment favorable to overtures for peace. But when was England, blind prejudice gets the upper hand, and nations fight like dogs. There are noisy, unhappy, to whom war is simply a very exciting game. Nothing, apparently, will make peace but the exhaustion of the Boer resources, which cannot be far off.

British reverses seem to have cooled the friendship of President McKinley and thrown him back into an attitude of vigorous neutrality. For this let us be thankful. Great Britain is well able to do her minister work alone. Entanglement with Mr. McKinley and his game could only add to the darkness of a business which, unless the sympathies of the whole world are at fault, is dark enough already.

Mr. James Bryce, who is about our best authority on South Africa, and his affairs, contradicts the story of the great Dutch conspiracy against British rule told by Mr. Balfour to reconcile the British people to the reverses and to the war. It was not likely that a small community of farmers, working for their daily bread, would take it into their heads without provocation to levy war against the British Empire. The Jameson raid, and the attitude of British politicians and of the British press in relation to it, were a warning to the Boers of the coming storm. Then they prepared; and they can hardly be blamed for not awaiting the arrival of the army in full force. The attitude of the British Government as the Jameson raid ought to have been studiously reassuring; but unfortunately it was very much the reverse.

Great Britain, when victorious, was victorious she will infallibly be, will have gained a dependency and lost a colony. For CONVICTION QUASHED.

It is Not Illegal to Salute in Public in the Dominion.

Toronto, Jan. 27.—Divisional Court at Osgoode Hall this morning proved to us Jagulionis that British law is no respecter of persons. Jagulionis was bathing on a recent Sunday in the limpid waters of the Sangoon River, when a Boer, Denny, sensible and his wife came along in a buggy. The constable's wife was so shocked that her spouse arrested Jagulionis and had him fined for breaking the Lord's Day by publicly bathing.

It was all right up in Becca, where the Two Commanders and the Shorter-Cutman walk arm in arm, but this morning the Divisional Court quashed the conviction, Chief Justice Armour saying that no offence had been committed.

Seismic-Shock Pictures To-night.

The pictures of the 20th Anniversary night, to be shown at the Danforth Opera House to-night, were taken by direct arrangement with a studio office as manager for Jeffries and Thomas O'Rourke, in the same capacity for Shucky, on one hand, and the other that controls the biograph. All arrangements are understood to have been made for the utilization of the very latest devices in motion-photography in the taking of the films, and it is declared that for the first time the effort to take motion pictures by artificial light was crowned with success. The pictures have been on exhibition in the metropolis in the New York theatre for several weeks, and reports are to the effect that they are the most satisfactory ever shown in regard to a ring-battle. We are told that every movement and expression of the contestants is plainly visible in the pictures, and that a graphic idea of the progress of the fight, and the respective methods of the two men can be obtained in viewing the production. The background of excited spectators—many of whom, it is said, are to be recognized as inveterate patrons of ring-sports, is described as not less interesting than the contest itself.

THE EMPEROR'S FLAG.

Holly round the flag, boys! It's the flag that rules the seas; It's the flag that's braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze. It's the flag of liberty—it's the flag of white and black; It's the flag of the Empire wide, it's the grand old Union Jack!

Its folds are round us all, boys! Old Knickerbocker's hood are we? Its folds go round the world into every living sea. And its folds done to one of us brings an army to its feet. And the distant straits shall right the wrong, brings out the Emperor's fleet.

It's the flag of Wellington, and Cardigan, and all The heroes who have fought, and died, that And the flag that they have handed us, we'll only not nor stain, But we'll compass 'em 'till die, my boys for England's fame.

It's the flag of Empire wide, boys! and we're to them battle Who will try to sever us, my boys, or the Empire divide: And Canada, and all the rest of British blood Prove the Lion's whelps are ready when the call resounds.

Then here's to the flag again, boys! Its colors campaign, throws some welcome light on a matter that has been a good deal of a puzzle to newspaper readers. On the one hand we have read of the splendid heroism of the Boer fighters in battle, and of their magnanimous treatment of their wounded enemies; on the other we have read of the despicable treachery, the most cruel vindictiveness and the absolute lack of a sense of honor. That both sides of the picture are correctly drawn we learn from Julian Ralph. That the picture is a picture of presenting two such contradictory aspects is due to the fact that there are two distinct and widely separated classes of Boers.

The representatives of one class, by better class, come to the scene of action in their Sunday clothes, riding in their buggies or on horseback. They fight no longer as there is hope; but when hope flies they fly with it, take to their horses and carriages and disappear. The other class is made up of a degraded type of Boer, with little intellect as distinguished from instinct, with no sense of honor and less of etiquette. He knows no duty but to kill, and he makes no nice distinctions. If the raising of a white flag improves his opportunities of killing he has no scruples at raising the white flag. He knows nothing about the Geneva convention, and as the red cross presents a good mark he would come fire on it than something that was less distinct. He knows nothing about humanity, and would as soon shoot down the man whose hand is extended in mercy as the man thrusting a bayonet at him. He is little better than the slave of the other Boers. He bears the worst hardships of the war, receives the first shock of battle and remains behind to cover up the retreat. He expects no mercy, even from his own brethren, much less from the enemy; he has no idea of showing any.

Water House and Baster factories. The annual meeting of the Union cheese and butter factory was held at the factory Tuesday, Jan. 23rd.

The secretary's report showed the factory made forty tons of cheese for the past week, but brought an average price of $2.00 per hundred weight for the season, the average price of milk for one pound of cheese being 10.94 for the season, the low average speaks very highly of Mr. Donnelly as cheese maker, so much so the trustees passed a hearty vote of thanks for him and wishing him re-engaged for 1900, which has been done.

The following officers were elected: President, M. Hepburn; salesman and treasurer, W. F. Hepburn; secretary, Chas. Norman; auditors, Lee Lloyd and Arthur Graham; management committee, John Sutton, John Whaley, John Fulton.

The promise is for a good make in 1900.

TERRIBLE CRUELTY.

Little Girl With a Post Fringe Sent to School Suffering Anxiously—How she Was Rescued.

London Free Press: The case of cruelty to a child attending Talbot street school, and already reported in these columns, will be brought before the police magistrate on Monday. The child, a little girl of eight years, was adopted by a man and woman, the husband is sick and the wife supports the family, including a child of her own, by going out to wash. The girl in question and one of her feet severely frozen, but it was neglected, and great care was applied. Seeing her condition, the child's teacher applied bandages, but these were torn off at once. The unfortunate little one was only half-dressed, and her stockings had no feet in them. Finally she was reported to Inspector Sandford. Dr. Nut was sent to examine the child, and he at once took her from school, and she is now at the shelter.

CATARRH

Catarrh has been found to be strictly a germ disease, caused by a distinct specific germ which attacks the air passages. In most cases when these germs are once inhaled they do not stop until they reach the minute air cells at the termination of the bronchial tubes; here it is that they find lodgment, and here it is they must be loved and destroyed, or there is no hope for the sufferer.

Hundreds of different remedies have been tried. Inhalers which produced steam, vapors and sprays were introduced, but turned out useless, as the vapor condensed and the medicaments were left deposited in the large bronchial tubes long before the air reached the smaller cells of the lungs.

Physicians declared Catarrh incurable, because the stomach medicines, sprays and douches all proved useless. They remained firm in their belief until the introduction of Catarrhose, the oceanic air cure.

Catarrhose is the only germicide ever found volatile enough to impregnate every particle of air breathed, yet leaving it FREE from moisture, thus enabling this powerful germ destroyer to reach every part of the air passages in the head, throat and lungs, where it at once kills the bacilli that cause catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, colds, etc.

It cures by inhalation because it can not fall to reach the seat of the disease. It is guaranteed, and incurs not the slightest danger or inconvenience to the patient. Catarrhose cures, complete, $1.00 at all druggists, or direct by mail. Send 10c in stamp for sample bottle, inhaler and testimonials to N. C. A STORY OF THE AUSTRALIAN NEVER-NEVER BY JOHN MACKIE

AUTHOR OF "THE DEVILS PLAYGROUND" AND "DINNERS TWAIN"

COPYRIGHT, 1899, BY FREDERICK A. STONES COMPANY.

Oh, the horror of that long night! Daly sat on one side of the cave, and I sat on the other, but we hardly spoke. We only peered into the gloom, with the senses of sight and sound rendered abnormally acute, and waited for the time when the foot of the Southern Cross should point to a certain quarter and our watch be relieved by Jack and Savile. I had eaten nothing since mid-

After what had passed that day between us I felt about 90 years older. What she had told me had sunk deep into my soul and weighed upon my spirits with the oppression and persistence of some horrible nightmare. If I forgot it for a minute, the very next it would loom up and crush down upon me again with a fuller revelation of its hopelessness. How could I have been so blind as to suppose that a bright young creature like her could come to care for such an old, fever-stricken, rolling stone as myself? I marvelled at my persistent blindness and cursed myself for my folly. I could not blame her. She had never by word or sign encouraged me to hope. What had become of all my fine plans for the future now? What did my altered circumstances matter? Money was only an element that seemed to meek at and make me feel my position all the more, for there was my comrade Jack, the man she had chosen in preference to me, without a sixpence he could call his own in the world. Poor Jack, or rather, happy Jack! And then a strange conflict took place within me, as if some of self-love and jealousy fought for my soul.

Chill, gray-eyed morn looked with was eyes and pallid face into the cave and on the tired, blood-stained human beings it contained. Though I knew that we were all in imminent danger of being massacred or slowly starved to death, there were no dangers appeared as nothing compared with that of the demon of jealousy.

CHAPTER XVII. DALY HANDS IN HIS CHECKS. The usual time for savages to make a sortie upon an enemy is just before dawn—in that still hour when, it would seem, tired nature is sunk in her deepest slumber. But no attack had been made upon us. The blacks must have decided upon another line of action. That it was to starve and weaken us by keeping us in the cave until we made a last feeble effort to break through them I had no doubt. All that we had now in the cave to maintain life were some tea and sugar and half a loaf of yeast bread, which was kept for the sick man. The black boys had sneaked out and dug up a few yams at the foot of the terrace, with which they doubtless kept their hunger in check. As yet I had not experienced any particular discomfort from the want of food. Jack and Savile declared that all they wanted was a drink of tea. They were altogether so cheerful, and made so many jokes about their want of appetite, that any unsmiling person might have supposed they had some connection with a picnic party. Only Daly was strangely silent. He seemed to be thinking, thinking, thinking; but none of us minded him much. I noticed that Elsie Gordon looked at him curiously once or twice, then turned away her head with an expression almost akin to terror in her eyes. Luckily we had plenty of tobacco, so that when we had lit our pipes we were not so badly off. It was necessary, however, to determine upon some line of procedure, it being suicidal policy to remain in a state of inaction, because the longer it continued the less able we would be to cope with the savages. If the squatter did not put in an appearance that day or the next, or some of the hands come up from the station, we must break through the blacks at any risk.

The sun was now high above the horizon line, and the day had fairly begun. The blacks were fitting about under the trees in what appeared to be greater numbers than on the previous day. We could see on the little ironstone ridge already referred to about a hundred of them watching us. They kept coming and going, seeming much interested in our movements.

I sat for some little time beside Gordon, but as he had lost a good deal of blood and was weak and listless I thought it would be kinder to leave him to himself. I knew the proud, stubborn spirit of this man. It was only sheer physical debility that could have conquered him thus.

I had a long talk with Jack and Savile. We discussed the situation and tried to arrive at some definite plan of action. So far as we ourselves were con-

We rolled great boulders of rock on to the terrace. We could have fought our way through the blacks, but there were the women and the sick man, and we could not leave them behind. I went to the narrow fissure which led to the spring and looked upward. It was just barely possible that a man might by staying himself against either wall of rock and by climbing like a goat eventually scale that cliff. If nothing turned up in the course of the next few hours to release us from our unfortunate position, I would have to make the attempt and endeavor to find help. I did not say a word to any one about it, knowing that Jack or Savile might endeavor to prevent me carrying out my plan. Of course I would not leave without letting some one know one of the black boys for instance, who would keep the matter a secret until I had got clear away.

We rolled great boulders of rock on to the terrace so as to form a breastwork that would shield us from the spears of the savages. Toward noon we broke out fast by eating some spinach which Savile had found growing near the spring. It was a native plant called "hat hen." It was pleasant and palatable, but a man could not keep himself in fighting condition on that alone.

It was noon now, and Jack and I were sitting on the terrace keeping a lookout when Savile came to the mouth of the cavern. He looked about him and seemed surprised. "I wonder where Daly can be?" he remarked. "I thought he was here." "Is he not in the cave?" asked Jack. "I'll go back and make sure," he answered.

Jack and I looked significantly at each other. I somehow felt sure that Daly had given us the slip. It hardly surprised me. When we had sat watching together on the previous night, I could not see his face, but knew that he was thinking as to how he could best make his escape.

FIRST SUNDAY AT SEA.

How the 5th of November Was Passed on the Serenissima—Soldiers Enjoyed Their Warm Baths.

We were in the gulf stream—the water in our bath tubs told us that, for it was astonishingly warm, writes Mr. Frederick Hamilton, the special correspondent of the Toronto Globe. On deck we noticed a darker blue in the surface of the water. Perhaps that is because the day is more overcast than it was yesterday; but the churning of the screw shows fewer of the wonderful light green shades that we looked at so long yesterday. And alongside drifts the bits of seaweat that gave Columbus his first hints of his approach to a mysterious new world. Divine service occupied the morning—three services. At 9.30 o'clock Father O'Leary held the Roman Catholic service, which was attended by five or six officers and about 125 men. It was very brief. Father O'Leary considering the celebration of mass an impossibility. The stole was the only one of his vestments which he wore. Speaking alternately in English and French he told his hearers of the blessings which the Archbishops of Montreal and Quebec had uttered upon the expedition. Then he read the appointed portion of Scripture, the tale of our Lord and His walking upon the surface of the deep. This he followed with a brief sermon, making a pointed reference to the men's spiritual needs, and concluding with a short homily upon prayer and its conditions. A series of prayers to the Virgin, "the Star of the Sea," concluded the service.

Rev. Mr. Fullerton's service followed. It was attended by the Presbyterians, Methodists and Baptists, and the parade state showed over 200 officers and men. A small organ, the property of Dr. Barrie, the Y. M. C. A. worker on board ship, aided the singing, and Mr. Fullerton was assisted in the full vestments of a Presbyterian clergyman. The first hymn was "For Those in Peril on the Sea." In how many churches in Canada was that sung to-day? The lesson was the Parable of the Sower, and the sermon was a vigorous, closely-reasoned exposition of the teachings of that passage. As the concluding prayer was being pronounced it was impossible not to be struck by the reverential attitude of the men. God Save the Queen concluded the service.

In point of numbers the Anglican parade, which came third, was the strongest, the state showing over 20 officers and nearly 400 men. Rev. Mr. Almond officiated in cassock, stole, surplice and hood, and morning prayer was said, the responses being noticeably hearty. Mr. Almond's text was "Edomene v. 15." "Remembering the time because the days are evil," and his sermon was a pointed application of the words of the text.

In the afternoon Dr. Barrie, the Y. M. C. A. representative on board, held a long service, which was well attended. In the evening he held a voluntary service on the forecastle. Rev. Mr. Fullerton assisting him. The night was dark and the wind stiff, but many attended and a good service was held.

Through the afternoon Lieut.-Col. Oter and his staff were busy telling off the occupants of the boats. Every person on board has his (or her) definite place in one of the boats. For the rest it was a stand easy day.

A Skin Beautifier

Of Untold Value, Which Positively Cures Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Salt Rheum, and Every Form of Skin Disease, is

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

As great as may be the difference of opinion as to the various types of beauty, no one can see beauty in a face that is disfigured by pimples and blackheads or scorched by means of eczema or other skin diseases. In society the low-neck dress frequently reveals shoulders and back covered with pimples or other skin diseases repulsive to the sight. Why are women content to try to cover up such blemishes by powders and harmful preparations when they could so well cure them and make the skin clear, healthy, and natural by using a preparation so well known as Dr. Chase's Ointment. Eczema or Salt Rheum may be taken as the most severe of skin diseases which destroy beauty and cause acute misery from the terrible itching which accompanies them.

That Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured some of the worst cases of Eczema that have existed is known to all who read the testimonials frequently published in this paper. That it cures Eczema is sufficient proof that it will quickly banish the lower skin diseases, such as pimples and blackheads. No preparation is of such inestimable worth in a woman's toilet, for besides curing the pimples that are usually troublesome as regular intervals, it gives instant relief to the itching to which women are subject and absolutely cures piles.

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or by mail on receipt of price by Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Croup, bronchitis and asthma are promptly relieved and cured by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25c. a bottle.

A RHEUMATIC CRIPPLE'S RELEASE!

A "Jury" of Doctors, Specialists and Medicine Vendors Decried That James Smith, of Grimsby, Ont., Should Spend the Rest of His Days in the Agonizing Chains of Rheumatism.

But Common Sense and Modern Medical Science Produced Rebuttal Evidence and Procured His Release.

The Great South American Rheumatic Cure Turned the Tables, Relieved the Pain in a Few Hours and Healed, Cured and Freed.

To the man or woman suffering the agonies of pain produced by rheumatism, of whatever form, an essay on its causes, its symptoms, and its action, are life; the one desirable objective point with the sufferer is the shortest cut of relief from the pain and efficious of remedies, and to back up their convictions, are prescribing it daily in practice; and doctors have always been the slowest to convince of the merits of any proprietary remedy.

South American Rheumatic Cure is powerful, potent but harmless. It is a specific for all phases of Rheumatic Afflictions; it goes directly to the seat of the troubles, dissolves and eradicates from the system the foreign matters which cause the excruciating pains which stiffen and swell the joints. It acts quickly and surely, and as proof of it there is ample testimony to show that in cases of many years' stand where the patient was almost helpless, bed-ridden and so acute was the suffering that it was necessary to turn the victim in sheets because it was torture to have even the gentlest touch of the hand on the body. In twelve hours after the first dose was taken, all pain was gone, and inside of three days recovery was so marked that the patient walked without assistance. Many have had a similar experience and have testified to it.

James Smith, a dairyman of Grimsby, Ont., was a great sufferer from sciatica and rheumatism. He was almost helpless; could not walk without crutches. He had tried many number of remedies, and had been treated by almost innumerable doctors without any permanent help. He began using South American Rheumatic Cure. In a few hours the pain left him; in a few days he threw away the crutches and has never had a touch of the trouble since. You are at liberty to write him about his own case. No need for an hour's suffering. South American Rheumatic Cure can do as much for you as it has done for thousands.

South American Nervine is a wonderful tonic for the stomach. It cures all disorders of the digestive organs, repairs exhausted nerve-power, puts on flesh, and is a general health builder. South American Kidney Cure is a kidney specific; it cures Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Inflammation of the Bladder and all disorders arising from imperfect working of the kidneys. It gives relief in six hours. Sold by G. R. McGill, H. F. Spencer and T. H. Descombes.

NIGHT ATTACK ON SPION KOP.

Was a Complete Success Boers Made Desperate Attempts to Retake Position Heavy Attacks Fought by Valor of British Soldiers—Enemy's Artillery keeps up Annoying Shell Fire—Major-Gen. Woodgate Dead.

London, Jan. 25.—The War Office has issued the following despatch from Spensman's Camp, dated Jan. 25, 12.10 morning:

"Gen. Warren's troops last night occupied Spion Kop, surprising the small garrison, who had been held by us all day, though we were heavily attacked, especially by a very annoying shell fire.

"I fear our casualties are considerable, and I have to inform you with regret that Gen Woodgate was dangerously wounded.

"Gen. Warren is of the opinion that he has rendered the enemy's position untenable. The men are splendid."

GENERAL WOODGATE DEAD.

Subsequent to Wounds Received in Capturing Spion Kop—His Career.

London, Jan. 26.—A despatch has been received from Spensman's Camp that Gen. Woodgate has succumbed to the wounds he received in the attack upon Spion Kop.

General Woodgate's Career.

General Edward Robert Prevost Woodgate, C.B., in charge of the 9th Brigade, under General Warren, in the attack and occupation of Spion Kop, was born on Nov. 1, 1845, and was the second son of Rev. Henry Arthur Woodgate, B.D., rector of Bolbroth, Worcestershire. He was educated at Rugby and Sandhurst Colleges; joined the 4th King's Own Regiment in 1865, served with it in the Abyssinian expedition of 1868 (medal), served in the Ashanti war of 1874-4 (medal and clasp, mentioned in despatches). In 1878 he proceeded to South Africa on special service, served in the Zulu war of 1879 as staff-officer to Col. (now Sir Evelyn) Wood, V.C. His last appointment before the present war was command of the troops in Sierra Leone. General Woodgate's 9th Brigade contains these troops: 2nd Battalion Royal Lancashire Regiment, 2nd Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers, 2nd Battalion South Lancashire Regiment and 1st Battalion York and Lancaster Regiment (infantry), 25th Company Army Service Corps (supply column), 6th Company Royal Army Medical Corps (bearer company), depot companies Royal Army Medical Corps (field hospital).

"THE MEN ARE SPLENDID."

Gen. Buller's Praise Which Has Reached All England With Pride and Confidence—The Times Expresses.

London, Jan. 26.—(4.15 a.m.)—Gen. Buller's phrase, "The men are splendid," thrills England with pride and confidence. His taking and holding Spion Kop are considered permanent advantages.

Sir Charles Warren's opinion that the position of the Boer trenches are untenable is accepted by most expert observers as obviously true, because of the height of the position, although some point out that it may lack adequate gun platforms to resist artillery fire from the two extended sides.

It is not likely that Gen. Warren will let go anything he holds, and news of further success is calmly awaited. The military authorities recognize, of course, that in the 12 or 15 miles between Spion Kop and Ladysmith there are continuous defensive positions and rugged hills and ravines, which far outweigh Spion Kop, but they are sure the troops who have turned the Boer defiles of difficult places can do it again.

The military expert of The Times says: "It is exceedingly difficult to arrive at any exact estimate of the advantage gained. A definite tactical object has been attained by most definite steps have been taken in the fulfillment of the strategic plan. It is necessary to await fuller information before attaching undue weight to the success thus far attained. At least, there has been steady progress."

The Kildonan Castle reached Durban yesterday (Thursday), with 2,000 additional troops for Gen. Buller, and three troops have arrived from India, bringing, among others a regiment of Lancers. Beyond these it is not publicly known how heavily Gen. Buller has been reinforced, but those having certain connections with the War Office are confident that Gen. Buller will have as many more men as he may need to make his work easier.

The situation in the neighborhood of the Boer armies is much more quiet, but a forward movement by General French is daily expected. A despatch to The Standard from Rensburg describes Gen. French's dispositions as now forming a great semicircle around the Boer positions. The correspondent says he could have taken Colenso, two miles away, at any time.

DEARER THE BRITISH GENERAL.

Under Secretary of the State For Foreign Affairs, Speaks.

London, Jan. 26.—Mr. William St. John Broderick, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, speaking last evening at Newark, said: "The Government have not controlled the generals in their operations nor stinted them in the forces they have demanded. We have implicitly followed the guidance of the military advice."

Later in the speech he remarked: "It will be the duty of the Government and the Parliament to see that our military organization is made equal to the needs of the Empire. We have had a great awakening on the subject."

ANOTHER WAR IN AFRICA.

British Telegraph Construction Party in Lagos, Attacked by Tribesmen.

Lagos, Colony of Lagos, British West Africa, Jan. 25.—Advices have been received here from Jobba that Capt. Carroll, of the Norfolk regiment, and 150 men of the West African frontier force, while escorting the telegraph construction staff, were attacked on January 9, by 2,000 Mitshidi tribesmen. Capt. Mitchell of the East Kent regiment and 12 others were wounded, and one member of the escort was killed. The tribesmen left eighty dead.

Jobba is probably northeast of Lokja on the Niger, in which vicinity apparently the attack was made.

THEY ARE STILL FIGHTING.

Good Work Being Done in the Philippines by Schwab's Column.

Manila, Jan. 26.—A part of Gen. Schwab's column, consisting of six companies with some artillery, drove a force of 500 insurgents from their entrenchments at San Diego near San Pablo on Sunday. The enemy officially reported that they lost 67 killed and many wounded. Our casualties were one killed and 14 wounded, the injuries in most instances being slight.

Another battalion, while executing a flank movement, came upon a hundred other rebels in an entrenched position, and routed them, killing 15. The Americans had two wounded.

Gen. Schwab moved against Maj. Leguina Province, on Tuesday. He found its position almost impregnable, but by lowering men down the steep river banks by ropes, flanked the enemy and drove them out. A part of his command proceeded to San Cruz, killing insurgents.

Gen. Wheeler and his daughter left on Wednesday on the transport "Lafayette" for San Francisco, via Hong Kong and Guam.

RUSKIN'S REMAINS AT REST.

Deposited in Coniston Cemetery—Memorial Service in Westminster.

London, Jan. 26.—The remains of John Ruskin, which were removed from Brentwood on Wednesday, were interred in Coniston cemetery after a funeral almost universal in sadness, and with a ceremony typically rural. The coffin was hidden beneath a mass of blooms, including a floral tribute from the Queen. The body was laid in a grave lined with white tiles and close, according to Mr. Ruskin's desire, to the last resting place of the three Miss Bevers, to whom he had addressed his famous "Brethren" sermon. All parts of the country were represented at the grave site.

A memorial service in honor of Mr. Ruskin was held in Westminster Abbey yesterday morning, and was largely attended.

PROTESTANTS CONVERTED.

The Statement Will Give Active Protestants in Montreal Work in Montreal.

Montreal, Jan. 26.—The statement is being made that as a result of Rev. Father Youmans's mission at St. Patrick's Church, a number of Protestants had entered the Catholic fold. As a result of the mission at St. Patrick's, the Presbyterian Ministerial Association at Montreal will meet Monday, Jan. 29, at the Stanley Street Church to discuss the question of "Roman Catholic Aggression in Montreal." The association is likely to start active missionary work among the Catholics of this city.

Paris, Jan. 26.—A serious accident happened yesterday morning to Brakeman E. Sweetman, aged 26, by which he will lose both his feet. He was on a westbound special freight, and while the trains were switching at the diamond, he stepped out of the way of one train and right in front of another. He was knocked down and the wheels passed over both legs near the feet. Sweetman had only been braking three weeks. He recently left the Toronto fire brigade. His father resides at 312 Dufferin street, Toronto.

The preamble anticipates that the scheme will be completed in 1918, at an annual increase of the expenditure of 11,000,000 marks, which sum is to be raised by loans without fresh taxation.

STRATHCONA'S HORSE

Either 375 or 505 Men Will Sail, Probably on the Monterey.

WESTERN MOUNTED RIFLES.

Will Sail on Saturday—Preparations for the Embarkation at Halifax—A Parade of the Mounted Troops a Part of the Program—Col. Steele's Successor Not Yet Appointed.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—Militia orders issued last night state that the Pontiacian, with the western battalion of the mounted rifles, will sail on Saturday. The Government has decided to concentrate the whole of the Strathcona force in Ottawa, and the men will be accordingly brought down to the city as they are accepted in the west. They will undergo a course of drill. The horses will come along at the same time, and the whole will be quartered at the Exhibition grounds. They will occupy the same quarters as were tenanted by "D" Battery. There will be a parade in Ottawa and a review before they leave here, which will, it is hoped, be attended by Lord Strathcona himself. The force will probably be here for a fortnight or three weeks. It is an open question yet whether the corps will comprise two or three squadrons, that is, 371 officers and men, or about 505. This will depend on the arrangements that can be made for transportation. All the men and all the horses must go on one ship, and if one of the large boats is available the regiment will be of three squadrons. If the Allan Line steamer be accepted there will not be room for more than two squadrons. The Elder Dempster Company have offered the Monterey, which would give ample room for the three squadrons. The Montross of the same line was the favorite a few days ago, but the Monterey, which is of equal size, can be got ready on shorter notice. Lord Strathcona has left the matter wholly in the hands of the Dominion Government, and has signified his willingness to make the number either four or five hundred.

Dr. McEachern was yesterday consulting with Dr. Borden as to the purchase of horses for Lord Strathcona's battalion.

TRIOF NO. 3 "A" SQUADRON

Arrive at Halifax—Green "E" Had Their First Mounted Drill.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 26.—Dwellers at Willow Park military camp have had their number augmented by the arrival of No. 3 "A" squadron, comprising 40 men in rank and file. This is the first detachment of "A" squadron to reach the city, and is for the present attached to Major Williams' command. There are still 100 men to arrive, and then the second contingent will be complete.

The new arrivals had their first mounted drill yesterday morning, and it was evidently the first experience in that line for other horses or men. In deference to the wishes of the public, it has been decided that the parade previous to embarkation on Saturday will consist in part of mounted troops. The men who are to embark on the Pomeranian will parade on foot, but will be accompanied on horseback by the troopers of "B" squadron and four troops of "A" squadron. This will add much to the interest of the procession and give the public an opportunity of seeing the horses as well as men.

The military department here have received no notification yet as to who will be appointed in place of Col. Steele, who left yesterday for Ottawa.

DID HE INTEND MURDER?

Trial of John O'Grady, Charged With This Crime.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—The trial of John O'Grady, charged with shooting at Mr. Peter Small with intent to murder, on Nov. 17 last, occupied the attention of Mr. Justice Ross and a jury in the Criminal Assize Court yesterday. The shooting occurred near the corner of King and Church streets.

Mr. Small testified that O'Grady had opposed the transfer of the American Hotel to J. J. Scanlan, while he (Mr. Small) had loaned Scanlan $500 to purchase the house. On the day of the shooting O'Grady met Small on Toronto street and accused the latter of robbing him. Small tried to get rid of him, but O'Grady followed along King street and again accused the former of wrongdoing.

Finally O'Grady said, "your soul, I'll murder you," and he fired. The bullet went through Mr. Small's clothes and for safety, he dodged into William Hedden's saloon, at King and Church streets. As he went through the door a second bullet struck him in the window.

Cross-examined by Mr. F. B. Johnston, Q.C., Mr. Small claimed O'Grady was generally a cheerful man of business. His wife had died two years ago, however, and since then he had been despondent.

After several other Crown witnesses had been examined, Mr. Johnston stated that there was no dispute as to the facts of the shooting, but evidence would be produced by the defence to prove that O'Grady was not capable of appreciating the quality or nature of the act.

Testimony along this line was then given by Barrister J. Montgomery, Miss O'Grady, Dr. Badgerow, Dr. Atkins and Dr. Strathby. Medical evidence in rebuttal will be submitted this morning. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., and H. H. Dewart, Q.C., appear for the Crown.
