The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

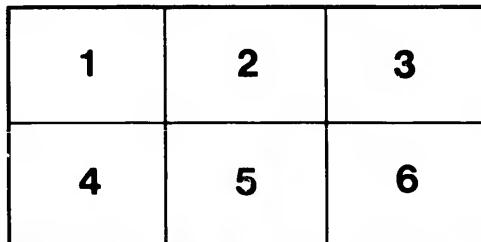

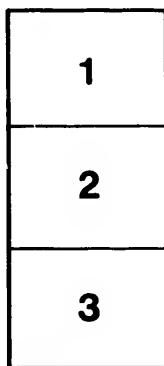

Library of the Public Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

 Newfoundland, with the islands belonging to these lands, on the left, and thereafter to the head or cape of Cape Breton foresaid, lying near the latitude of forty-five degrees or thereabouts, and from the said cape of Cape Breton towards the south-west, to the fore-said Cap de Sable, where the perambulation began, including and comprehending within the said coasts, and their circumference from sea to sea, all the lands and continents, with the rivers, brooks, bays, shores, islands or seas, lying near or within six leagues of any part of the same, on the western, northern, or eastern sides of the coasts, and precincts thereof, and on the south-east, (where lies Cape Breton,) and on the southern part of the same, (where is Cap de Sable,) all the seas and islands southwards within forty leagues of the said coasts thereof, including the great island commonly called Isle de Sable or Sablon, lying towards the south-south-east, in the sea, about thirty leagues from Cape Breton foresaid, and being in the latitude of forty-four degrees or thereabouts ; which lands foresaid should in all time to come enjoy the name of Nova Scotia in America; Which also were vested in William, the said Earl of Stirling, according to a charter of novodamus under the great seal of the kingdom of Scotland, dated the 12th day of July anno Domini 1625, made, given and granted by Charles, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, in favour of the said William Earl of Stirling, (then and throughout named Sir William Alexander,) his heirs and assigns whatsoever, heritably : And by which charter it is declared, that the foresaid William Earl of Stirling should divide the fore-mentioned lands into parts and portions as should seem to him fit, and bestow names on them at pleasure ; Together with all mines, as well royal of gold and silver, as other mines of iron, lead, copper, tin, brass, and other minerals whatsoever, with the power of digging and causing dug from the land, purifying and refining the same, and converting and using them to his own proper use, or other uses whatsoever, as should seem fit to the said William Earl of Stirling, his heirs or assigns, or to those who, in their place, should happen to settle in the said lands: Reserving only to his said Majesty and his successors the tenth part of the metal, commonly called ore of gold and silver, that shall afterwards be dug or gained out of the

AFTER READING and INTERPRETING which precept of seisin, in the common speech, to the witnesses present, the foresaid Sheriff, in virtue of the said precept of seisin, and of the dispensation therein contained, and the office of bailiary therein committed to him, GAVE and DELIVERED heritable state and seisin, actual, real and corporal possession of the said lands and others above specified, with the pertinents, to the before-named Alexander Earl of Stirling and Dovan, heir aforesaid, and that by delivery of earth and stone of the ground of the said Castle into the hands of the said attorney, for and in name of the said Alexander Earl of Stirling and Dovan, after the tenor of the said precept of seisin above inserted, and dispensation contained in the same, in all points.
WHEREUPON, and upon all and sundry the premises, the foresaid attorney asked instruments from me, the undersigned notary-public.
THESE THINGS WERE SO DONE at the said Castle of Edinburgh, within the outer gate there, in virtue of the dispensation foresaid, between the hours of eleven forenoon and twelve noon, on the day of the month, in the year of our Lord, and of the reign of our sovereign lord the King, abovewritten, IN PRESENCE OF David Byars, clerk in the office of the clerk of the sheriffdom of Edinburgh, and William Wilson, second son of me, notary-public, residing in Lyndoch Place, at Edinburgh, witnesses to the pressed, of the said country and lordship of Canada, after the tenor of the aforesaid charter, the union and dispensation contained in the same, and the said precept of seisin above inserted, in all points, by delivery of earth and stone of the ground of the said Castle into the hands of the said Ephraim Lockhart, attorney foresaid, for and in name of the before-mentioned Alexander Earl of Stirling, &c. WITNESSED, and upon all and sundry the premises, the foresaid attorney asked instruments from me notary-public. THESE THINGS WERE SO DONE at the said Castle of Edinburgh, within the outer gate there, in virtue of the union and dispensation aforesaid, between the hours of eleven forenoon and twelve noon, on the day of the month, in the year of our Lord, and of the reign of our sovereign lord the King, above written, IN PRESENCE of David Byars, clerk in the office of the sheriff-clerk of Edinburgh, and William Wilson, writer there, witnesses to the premises specially called and required, and this public instrument with me subscribing.

AND I truly, John M<sup>c</sup>Gregor, clerk of the diocese of Edinburgh, and notary-public, by royal authority, and by the Lords of Council and Session, according to the tenor of the act of Parliament admitted, because at all and sundry the premises, whilst they were, as is before stated, so said, done and performed, I was, together with the before-named witnesses, personally present, and all and sundry the premises I saw, knew and heard so performed and said, and took a note of them, therfore I, being called and required, prepared therefrom this present public instrument, by another hand, upon this and the two foregoing pages of parchment, duly stamped, faithfully written, and have rendered it in this form of a public instrument; and in faith, corroboration and testimony of the truth of all and sundry the premises, have signed and subscribed the same with my sign, name and surname, used and wont.

D<sup>r</sup>. Byars, witness.
W<sup>m</sup>. Wilson, witness.

At Edinburgh, the twelfth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one years, this sasine was presented by Ephraim Lockhart, writer to the signet, and is recorded in the one thousand six hundred and forty-sixth book of the new General Register of Sasines, Reversions, &c, and on the 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, and 119th leaves thereof, conform to the act of Parliament made there-afore in June 1617, by me, depute-keeper of said Register.

AH. WISHART.
