ALLIES TAKE SEVEN VILLAGES THREATEN GERMAN RETREAT

French Drive Wedge Over Two Miles Deep on New Front East of the Oise, Taking 8000 Prisoners—Noyon is Outflanked and German Retreat to Ham May Be Cut Off—British Advance East of Arras Towards Douai.

FROM SOISSONS to the Belgian border the German armies on various important sectors are being put to the test by the French and British. And it is a test that seemingly bodes ill for the Teutonic arms, for nowhere have they been able to sustain the shocks.

Northwest of Soissons, from the Aisne to the Oise, north of the Oise to the region around Roye, in the Arras sector and northward on the famous Lys salient, the Germans everywhere have been compelled to fall back under the pressure of the French and British troops.

In a new offensive launched by the French General Mangin over a front of approximately fifteen and a half miles, from Bally to the Oise to the Aisne, near Soissons, the French in bitter fighting have carried forward their line to an average depth of two and a half miles, and in the first phases of the battle had returned to French possession numerous enemy-held villages and farms. In addition, more than 8,000 Germans had been herded behind the line, prisoners.

At last reports, Mangin's men were still hard after the enemy, and unofficial accounts placed the French on various sectors well in advance of the positions outlined in the French official communication.

Along the Scarpe River, east of Arras, Field Marshal Haig's forces also have kept up their harassing tactics against the enemy, who has been compelled to fall back eastward along the Scarpe River. The Germans resisted vigorously, but all to no purpose, and the British advanced their lines to the east of the village of Fampoux. Altho Haig claims only a slight forward movement here, particular significance attaches to it by reason of the fact that the Germans have been driven back until they are virtually upon the old battle-line as it stood in December, 1917.

Northward, the Lys salient again has been narrowed down by the operations of the British, who, north of Merville, have taken the villages of Vierhoek and La Couronne, and also reached the hamlet of L'Epinette. This gain represents a forward movement of about a mile and a half, and places the British astride the road running southeastward to Estaires.

Taken all in all, the new victories of the allied troops are highly important ones. The advance of the French northwest of Soissons, taken in conjunction with the successful manoeuvres on the Lassigny sector and south of Roye, where Beauvraignes has been captured, seemingly means that the enemy forces from the Somme to the Oise soon must give up their positions and retreat eastward. Indeed, it seems not improbable, now that Noyon is well outflanked on the south and southeast, and the German line is none too well secured north of Soissons, that the enemy will be under the necessity of moving his troops northward from the Vesle toward, if not across, the Aisne.

The Germans still are stubbornly contesting with the British points of vantage on the line south of the Somme near Chaules and north of Roye, which are still in German hands, and which are the keystones to the enemy defence line. With the capture of Beauvraignes by the French, however, Roye apparently is on the eve of falling, and with its fall doubtless the entire line northward to the Somme also will give way.

The Germans in the Merville sector of the Lys salient everywhere are being closely followed by the British as they give up positions under attack, and at last accounts they were showing no indication that an immediate halt is in their mind. On the Lys front, altho the Germans are showing some resistance, they are not putting their wonted heart into their work.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—The French forces fighting east of the Oise on a front of about 15½ miles have advanced to an average depth of about 2½ miles and captured numerous villages, according to the French official communication issued this evening. More than eight thousand prisoners have been taken.

South of Roye the town of Beauvraignes has been occupied by the French after bitter fighting. The text of the communication follows:

"South of the Aisne we have captured Beauvraignes after a bitter struggle. In the course of our advance yesterday between the Matz and the Oise we took five hundred prisoners.

"East of the Oise our troops this morning attacked the German lines on a front of about twenty-five kilometres, from the region of Bally as far as the Aisne.

"On our left we have reached the southern outskirts of the Ourcamp Forest and also the outskirts of Carlepont and Calmes.

"In the centre we captured Lombray and Bierencourdelles and gained a footing on the plateau north of Vassens.

"On our right the villages of Vezaponin, Tartiers, Cuisy-en-Almont, Oly and Courtil have fallen into our hands.

"On all the fronts of attack we have advanced on an average to a depth of four kilometres. We have taken more than 8000 prisoners.

"The number of prisoners taken since the 18th between the Oise and the Aisne is more than 10,000.

French German Divisions Beaten.

With the French Army in France, Aug. 20.—General Mangin's operations of the past two days prepared the way for a fresh advance today. The attack began at 7 o'clock this morning on a front of 20 miles from Pimprez, on the right bank of the Oise, to Fontenoy.

Yesterday's heavy bombardment apparently warned the enemy that an attack was coming, for during the night fresh enemy divisions were brought up from a long distance in the rear in motor lorries, and Jaeger divisions, the capture of Mont Kemmel, were shifted from the Soissons region to help meet the shock of General Mangin's men.

These reinforcements seem to have been of little avail. After three hours of attack the French had advanced an average of 2½ miles along the whole front, and thousands of prisoners are beginning to flow back. The German infantry fought stubbornly and left considerable dead on the ground, but their artillery fire was feeble, and virtually no airplanes took part.

Ground Covered With Dead Germans.

The attack of General Mangin's forces from Fontenoy, on the Aisne, to Pimprez, on the Oise, was progressing favorably when this despatch was filed.

Prisoners were continuing to arrive at the rear to add to the several thousand captured before noon, and the gain in territory at 1 o'clock had been from one to two and a half miles. The enemy was resisting with the greatest vigor at vital spots. Where the fighting is thickest the ground is covered with German dead.

The artillery preparation, which was most violent, began yesterday morning, and the enemy, anticipating an attack, hastened to reinforce his lines, sending up two of his best divisions, which were held in reserve. These divisions arrived during the night in motor lorries.

An hour and a half after the order was given to attack, infantrymen were passing Audignicourt and Vassens, and were followed immediately by batteries of three-inch guns. The first line of defence was then breaking.

The Germans, on retreating, filled the ravine with mustard gas. This, however, proved only a temporary trouble, the entire ravine being turned in a short time and the French troops progressing toward Bierencourdelles, eight miles south-east of Noyon.

Farther to the right Tartieres, 2½ miles southeast of Morsaix, was entered at 9 o'clock, and columns of prisoners began to appear upon the plateau to the rear.

The artillery reaction was very weak over this part of the front.

French aviators, flying way down under the low-lying clouds, kept the staff regularly informed as to the progress of the attack, and harassed the enemy with machine gun fire. No German fliers tried to interfere with their work. Few were seen in the air during the morning.

The Germans made a desperate defence in the hilly and wooded region south of the Oise around Carlepont, Calmes and Lombray, where they held strong positions, which were profusely dotted with quick-firers. The Four-a-Verre and Croissette Farm were taken by the French after a violent struggle, which proved very costly to the enemy.

At noon the line had advanced to the road east of Carlepont, to the Calmes Wood and Bellefontaine, and south of Lombray and Bierencourdelles to Vezaponin, and then southward to the east of Tartieres and to Oly.

According to latest information, General Mangin's line now runs from La Quenotte, north of Bally, to Champ de Merlier, to Petit Maupas, to Cuts, to Hill 160, to Vezaponin and to Valpriez Farm, five miles northwest of Soissons.

The French have captured Vezaponin and are on the plateau east of Tartieres. From that point the line is uncertain, but the French are progressing towards Camelin.

The Germans are making stiff resistance at Hill 160, which is east of Le Mesnil. The advance is over most difficult ground, but the attack is still proceeding.

Operation a Splendid Success.

The operation began this morning by General Mangin's troops between the Aisne and the Oise, southeast of Noyon and northwest of Soissons, looks this evening to be a splendid success. General Mangin has taken from the Germans at Cuts and Mont de Choisy the last heights remaining south of the Oise in that region.

At Mont de Choisy the French troops are within two and one-half miles of the Oise at Fontenoy, the direct road to which is now under the fire of the French batteries.

Carlepont, to the southwest, is also in the hands of the French tonight, and from this place their guns command another road to the Oise at Sempiigny, directly south of Noyon.

General Mangin, with his right solidly on the heights north of the Aisne around Fontenoy, is sweeping the Germans off the high ground south of the Oise, obliging them to retreat across the river or retire eastward. In either event the success of the movement will expose the region about Noyon to artillery attacks from the south, the southeast and the southwest.

The Germans are fighting hard against this danger, relying principally upon machine guns, as in the Thiescourt region, thus indicating that some of their artillery already is across or is on the way across the River Oise. The count of prisoners and an inventory of the booty taken still are incomplete. One corps in this operation had counted 1500 prisoners up to noon, and had immense quantities of captured war materials of all sorts.

General Mangin's offensive forestalled a German attack which officers taken prisoner said had been prepared for 7.30 o'clock this morning. The extremely heavy artillery preparation during the past 24 hours by the French served as a warning to the Germans that the French also had an attack in preparation, and two German divisions, one of Jaegers, and the other of men from Baden, were brought up during the night in lorries to attempt to defend the German line.

On Twenty-Mile Front.

Reuter's correspondent at French headquarters cables under this evening's date as follows:

This morning's advance was on a front of twenty miles, between Pimprez and Fontenoy. During the night the Germans had brought up fresh divisions from a long distance in the rear. These included a Jaeger division which the captors of Mont Kemmel had driven out of Soissons. The reinforcements availed little. Three hours after the attack had begun the French had pushed forward a distance of two and a half miles along the whole front, and had taken thousands of prisoners. The German infantry fought well, but the artillery was feeble. The enemy's aviation arm was practically non-existent. The entire German front line had been taken an hour after the attack had begun. The most difficult part of the operation was the passage of the Audignicourt ravine, the northern edge of which was the German main line of resistance.

British Advance Their Lines

London, Aug. 20.—East of Arras, along the Scarpe River, the British, in sharp fighting, have advanced their line slightly to the east of the village of Fampoux, while farther north, astride the Lys River, the British have reached L'Epinette, and north of Merville have captured the villages of Vierhoek and La Couronne, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication from headquarters tonight. The text follows:

"Local fighting has taken place today on both banks of the Scarpe River. South of the river hostile attacks upon certain posts which our troops have succeeded in establishing east of the enemy's former front lines were repulsed. North of the Scarpe our line has been pushed forward a short distance east of Fampoux after sharp fighting, in which we secured a few prisoners.

"In the course of the day further ground has been gained by us astride the Lys. Our troops have gained L'Epinette and the area east of Merville. North of Merville we have taken Vierhoek and La Couronne. A raid attempted by the enemy early this morning northeast of Loere was repulsed."

Germans Do Not Stop.

With the British Army in France, Aug. 20.—Field Marshal Haig's forces continued to advance throughout the day in the Merville sector of the Lys salient. They are closely following the retreating Germans, who, this afternoon, seem to have gone back to an extreme depth of between three and four miles and are still showing no inclination to come to a halt. Especially to the south of this sector the Germans have left behind them numerous lines of retarding wire entanglements.

The German guns appear to be far behind the infantry in the movement toward the rear. This is indicated by the extremely light enemy artillery fire, even that of the smaller cannon.

In the operations of the past few days on this whole Hazebrouck front, including those between Outtersteen and Vieux Berguin, 13 officers and 845 of other ranks have been taken prisoner. The largest part of this number was composed, until overcome by the advancing British, of rearwards and screens covering the enemy's retirement.

Barren Waste Left.

There has been some fighting, of course, but it has been mostly of a local skirmishing nature. The country evacuated by the Germans is mostly a barren waste. The houses have been either shell-scarred or leveled, and the trees and earth shot to pieces.

South of the River Somme the enemy artillery has quieted down and the situation here for the moment seems to have become calm.

German Morale is Weakening.

Every day now some new document or incident comes to light showing either a weakening of the morale in the German army or the anxiety of its leaders.

The latest is a step to make the soldiers cease whining when writing letters to friends and relatives at home, as it is considered by the German commanders to be bad for home morale.

It is a secret, captured order issued by the commander of the second German army. He states that a special examination of home-going mails discloses a disregard for the army postal regulations. Aside from disclosing the exact location of units, many of the soldiers have told of "successes of the enemy." The destruction of trains by enemy aircraft especially has been mentioned.

Reuter's correspondent at British army headquarters cables under date of this evening:

"If the German retirement is proceeding according to the present plan, they are now confronted with a situation which must complicate their calculations. The hasty abandonment of Merville on Sunday was doubtless due to our unexpectedly obtaining possession of the dominating contour east of Merville. Hitherto we followed the Germans.

"An order signed Solfachwith, Von Hutier's chief of staff, states that outgoing mails of the second army have been subjected to an examination, disclosing a wholesale disregard for the regulations. Officers and men have been writing exaggerated accounts of the enemy's successes, false statements regarding casualties, food and clothing shortages, etc.

"He points out that the writing of pessimistic letters is a punishable offence.

"It is definitely stated that the 418th Infantry Regiment refused to obey an order to attack at Puisseux recently. A written protest has been sent to the regimental commander.

"Nineteen officers and 843 men have been captured in Flanders up to last night. The enemy's losses were heavier."

New Act in Large Drama.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Interpreted at first as a local operation intended primarily to enable the allies to retain complete possession of the initiative on the Picardy front, the rapidly developed success of the French east of the Oise tonight was accepted by many military officials here as a definite and fully prepared effort having a specific part in the larger strategic plans of General Foch.

Latest advices tonight, describing the advance of the French tenth army for 2½ miles on a front of more than fifteen miles, were taken by experts here as conclusive evidence that the major plan of the allied generalissimo, the organization of which came with the attack on the right flank of the Rheims-Soissons salient, is far more comprehensive than has been supposed in many circles. It is believed now to include a series of actions which will occupy every moment until arrival of winter rains makes the plateaus of Picardy and the plains of Flanders impossible for large troop movements.

Most observers agreed that the immediate objective of General Mangin's forces appeared to be the "picking" of the Roye pocket, with the subsequent control of the important supply lines between that city and Noyon. For the larger objective, toward which efforts of the allies are being bent, was seen the capture of Noyon and a resultant breakdown of the German defensive line over a front of scores of miles.

Activities of the British army east of Arras and around the Merville sector are thought to be linked up with this larger plan. Not a few strategists in army circles foresee in the near future a more important thrust by these forces, completing the cycle of offensive from Rheims to the sea.

Preparing for a Defence.

It is possible the enemy may think that if he could arrange to leave a broad space, say of two or three miles, between the British lines and his own, holding the latter with fairly strong forces but keeping the greater part of his armies well to the rear, he would have a better chance to defend himself against the combined operations of the infantry and tanks, the effectiveness of which he apparently has learned to respect.

If this is part of his plan, he seems not to have reckoned that the British would follow on his heels so closely. The Merville withdrawal, however, is the most significant development for a long while, for the enemy has been holding on to this salient as a sort of jumping-off place for the continuance of his Flanders operations, and in holding it has suffered greatly, especially from the allied artillery. The initiative having passed from the Germans, the position ceased to be of value to them. Merville, of course, has been entered, and the allied patrols by this time have operated some distance beyond it.

CROP CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT ONTARIO

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture:

Most of the barley and spring wheat, and a considerable portion of the oats have been cut and stacked, and some threshed. More than usual of the threshing has been done in the open, owing to the favorable weather prevailing.

Barley is turning out a first-class crop, both as to yield and quality. The yield will be well above the average, some fields going as high as 65 bushels to the acre.

Spring wheat has done so well that it is likely to become a more established crop than some have been neglecting it. Marquis and goose have been the varieties mainly grown this season.

Oats also are a bumper crop, and will be considerably over the average in yield per acre. Essex and Kenora report some fields running as high as 80 and 90 bushels to the acre. There will also be a fair crop of excellent straw.

Ruckwheat on the whole gives promise of being a fair crop. Peas for canning and seed purposes have done well, but the vines of the later varieties were affected by the drought and intense heat.

Second growth of clover, which started well, has been somewhat checked by drought, but recent rains have helped conditions.

Corn Growing Fast. Corn has been growing remarkably fast during August, and with favorable weather should do much better than in 1917, or the preceding year.

Potatoes are not a uniform crop, but on the whole have done fairly. The tubers so far are remarkably clean, but the drought has checked growth. There are complaints of blight and other diseases, but there is remarkable freedom from rot.

Field roots are not so promising as early in the season, being much in need of rain.

The fall wheat out this summer, also very small in yield per acre, is on the whole of excellent quality, and will provide good seed for the new crop. The ground has been dry and hard for plowing, but considerable land has already been prepared for this fall's sowing. Tractors are very busy and have much work arranged far ahead.

It is estimated that in Sudbury district alone, $50,000 worth of blueberries have been picked this season.

A building to provide dining-room accommodations for 500 soldiers will be built by the Toronto military authorities at an annex to the old park school, St. David's street. The old park school building, which has now sleeping accommodation for 500 men, is the home of the casualty unit of the Toronto district depot. This unit deals with soldiers who have been returned to Toronto district from overseas war service for discharge or for appearance before a special medical board.

ONE MONTH WOULD COMPLETE VIADUCT

Street Cars May be Crossing to Danforth Any Time Now.

The opening of the big structure at the corner of Broadview and Danforth to permit of street cars getting over the viaduct is expected any day. The rails now extend to the end of the bridge; the track allowance has been paved with crosstied blocks and the south roadway waterproofed to within a few feet of the Rosedale end. Today or tomorrow the laying of the blocks should commence. With this done there only remains the waterproofing and paving on the north roadway to complete the bridge and permit of traffic crossing.

Between the two bridges in Rosedale the track allowance has been graded, the sidewalks finished and rail laying has commenced from the east end of the Parliament street bridge and now extends about half way to the main bridge. The standards carrying the trolley wires are all in place as are also the wires and the hydro lights.

The cement supports to carry the trestle over Glen road, and which were ordered to be removed because they projected out on the roadway were demolished yesterday. The wrecking of the big brick residence on Sherbourne street which stands in the way of the extension of the temporary roadway was also commenced yesterday. It will take about a week to remove it.

If more men could be put on the job everything could be finished up in a month's time, and the viaduct open for its entire length.

Rev. Dr. Moore states that the Methodist General Conference Army and Navy Board considers that in view of the great problems raised by the return to Canada every week of large parties of invalided soldiers, and the conditions incident to the continued sending forward of reinforcements overseas every possible effort should be made by the Methodist Churches to secure the organization of local and inter-denominational soldiers' and sailors' aid committees.

VIGOROUS MOVE-UP FROM LOWER FORMS

Chief Public School Inspector Preparing for Opening of Fall Term.

R. H. Cowley, chief inspector of the Toronto public schools, and his staff of district inspectors are making plans for a comprehensive and vigorous move-up campaign from the overcrowded lower primary forms to the senior classes at the outset of the fall term. The chief inspector in a summary of the conditions caused by the war-time let-up in the erection of new school buildings says: "Some progress has been made in reducing the size of the primary classes, but proper progress in this direction is still hampered for lack of school room accommodation. Any successful effort that the staff of any Toronto public school could make to reduce the number of retarded pupils would have the effect of increasing the seating accommodation of that school by shortening the average time for completing the public school course."

"While accommodations are limited at present the immediate problem in many schools, in respect to numbers in classes, is that of keeping the higher classes larger, in some schools good progress has been made in this direction, but the difficulties presented by the entry of many pupils in the lower forms and the dropping out of many in the higher are not readily overcome.

"Instructions have been given to the district inspectors by the chief inspector to insist upon vigilance on the part of school principals in respect to the progress of repeaters in all the rooms of the school essential to the reduction of retardation and to the consequent shortening of the average time it takes to cover the entire public school course."

STANDING COURT-MARTIAL.

Toronto military district will now have a standing general court-martial in accordance with orders given out by Major-General E. C. Ashton, adjutant-general. The court-martial will have Lieut.-Col. A. J. McCausland as president and Major G. E. B. Bagy, Major A. A. McKennis, Capt. W. H. Richardson and Major C. S. Potts, K.C., as members, with Capt. M. W. Wallace and Capt. A. D. Lindsay as waiting members. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Macdonald will be judge-advocate at the court and Lieut. R. E. Slane, the prosecutor.

ALL MEN ENROLLED NOT FOR OVERSEAS

Limit of 100,000 Men Applies Only to Actual Reinforcements Required.

MANY NOT ACCEPTED

Order-in-Council Passed Making Clear True Interpretation of the Act.

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—In an official statement issued tonight it was stated that a misunderstanding of the terms of the Military Service Act has given rise to the impression in certain quarters that the limit of 100,000 men applies to the number enrolled or recruited under the act. It is difficult to understand upon what ground this interpretation is based. The language and meaning of the act are clear. The restriction does not apply to the number of men enrolled or recruited, but to the number provided as reinforcements to the army overseas. Sub-section 4 of the preamble provides that "Unless further authorized by regulations the reinforcements provided under this act shall not exceed 100,000 men."

From this it is quite clear that the ultimate purpose of the enactment was to provide reinforcements for the Canadian expeditionary force or active service overseas, and it is upon the reinforcements so to be provided that paragraph 4, section 19, imposes the limitation. The section empowering the governor-in-council to call out the different classes covered by the act imposes no restrictions upon the number.

The reason is obvious. There are many causes which may even after the men are called up prevent their being provided as reinforcements to the troops overseas. The purpose of the selective draft is to obtain physically fit men who can best be spared from civil life. It is often necessary in the process of selection to suspend a decision or to require certain probationary service before the class called is productive of more men who are available for service than will supply the limited number of reinforcements.

Not only questions of fitness for military service have to be considered, but also questions of the relative usefulness of the men in their ordinary occupations. Questions of individual hardships also arise. Some men become physically unfit after being enrolled. Many of the men who have reported for duty are therefore, required to stand by pending final selection. This has been accomplished by means of conditional discharge, granting of leave or absence, or the treating of the period of training in Canada as a period of probation, during which a man, also conditionally embodied in the force, may eventually not be accepted for overseas service.

In short, the Military Service Act, in respect to the number of men to be obtained under its terms, makes limits only as to the number of men actually provided for reinforcements to the army overseas, and not as to the number that may be enrolled. While the act does not lend itself to any other interpretation, the government, in order to remove all doubts, and for the purpose of determining the action to be taken by its officers, has under the powers conferred on it by the War Measures Act passed an order-in-council which makes a finality of the matter.

BRITISH MINOR EFFORT MOVES UP LINE ON LYS

London, Aug. 20.—The British war office reports: "A successful minor operation was carried out by our last evening between the Ypres-Berlin and Outtersteen, to the right of our recent advance in that sector. Our line was brought forward to the neighborhood of the Ypres-Berlin-Outtersteen road. We took 182 prisoners. Last night the enemy found our advanced posts established by us northeast of Chilly. On each occasion he was repulsed. "We successfully raided a German post west of Bray. "Our patrols made progress during the night in the area between the Lawe and the Lys rivers, and are now east of the Paradis-Merville road."

WOULD RETURN TO TURKEY.

The grand vizier told the delegates that the Ottoman Government would hasten the re-annexation formalities.

Six People Injured In Motor Car Smash

In Attempting to Pass Car Ahead, W. A. Barker Hits Horse and Buggy at Islington, and Occupants Are Badly Hurt.

As the result of a collision between a high-powered motor car and a horse and buggy on the Dundas road just east of Islington at 10:25 last night, six people were seriously injured, one being in a critical condition, and two others were badly shaken up. Five of the injured admitted to the emergency ward of the Western Hospital last night were: Mrs. W. A. Barker, 157 Rusholme road, fractured shoulder; Thomas Barker, 15, her son, bad laceration of the head; Baby Barker, two, shaken up; Mrs. W. Simpson, Detroit, Mich., fractured ribs; Mrs. Monahan, a daughter of Mrs. Simpson, severe injuries to the legs and knees; Baby Monahan, who was also in the car at the time of the accident, miraculously escaped uninjured. A. H. Brooks, the driver of the buggy, is in critical condition in his home at Lambton Mills.

According to the authorities, the party had left Toronto and were on their way to the summer home of the Barker family at Islington. Mr. Barker was driving, when suddenly a motor car loomed up in front of him. He gave the car in front the horn and the driver of the motor car intended to pass. No sooner had he done so than the man driving the car ahead increased his speed in order to keep in front

FRESH HONORS WON BY SIR ADAM BECK

Port Stanley Railway Shows Big Surplus on Year's Business.

London, Ont., Aug. 20.—Fresh honors for Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the London and Port Stanley Railway Commission, were registered today with the presentation at the city hall of the statement for the year ending June 30, 1918. It shows a net surplus of $28,503.97 on the year's business after all operating and capital charges, taxes and other expenses have been met. With the surpluses of the two previous years of $12,474.14 and $26,511.48 respectively, the road has surplus earnings of $68,559.59 in its credit since the Beck electrification scheme was completed, and the road was taken over for operation by the people in 1915. During these three years a rental of $24,000 per annum has also been paid to the council, increasing the total earnings to the credit of the people of London to $123,559.59.

The results attest the remarkable efficiency of the management under the leadership of Sir Adam Beck, for in accord with the trend of the times, expenses increased very seriously, substantial raises in wages and salaries being recorded. The number of passengers carried which was $22,641,116.82, or a fifteen per cent. advance on the total of the previous year. The total number is now approximately five times the annual total of the days of the steam operation and private management. More than 614,000 tons of freight were also carried.

The year's earnings were $368,914.05 and operating expenses $254,410.08. Rental, capital and other charges made a total of $318,410.03. Passenger earnings increased from $153,312 in 1917, to $177,598, while freight earnings showed a slight falling off from $147,824 to $143,698. Miscellaneous earnings, however, jumped from $18,645.54 to $47,708. This is largely attributable to the development of the park attractions at Port Stanley by the establishment of a $50,000 bath house, cafeteria, incline railway and other revenue-producing utilities. The commission spent $124,828 on construction during the year ending a total since 1915 of $1,191,974 in the Beck scheme.

NEW EAST FRONT PLANS PROGRESS

Allies Meet With Rapid Advancement in Russian Program.

SUPPLIES ON ROAD

Trans-Siberian Railway Will Play Important Role in Campaign.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Information reaching Washington today indicated that assistance being sent to the Czech-Slovak in the Balkan region of Siberia will reach them in time to thwart the efforts of the German-Austrian prisoners and the Bolsheviks, against whom they are fighting. It was learned today that the allies are sending large quantities of arms and ammunition to the Czechs and that heavy artillery is included in the supplies. It is not permitted, for military reasons, to disclose from what source these supplies are being sent out, but a high official in the state department said that this was a part of the bigger program now being worked out in a practical way to re-establish the eastern front with the aid of hundreds of thousands of loyal Russians is progressing far more rapidly than was expected at first. The Trans-Siberian Railway will play an important part in the re-establishment of this line.

German Viewpoint. That Germany appreciates the importance of the part that this line is to play is shown in a despatch printed in an Essen newspaper and reported from Amsterdam today to the effect that soviet troops had blown up the Balkan tunnel. It was pointed out by officials familiar with this railroad that there are no less than 33 Balkan tunnels, all of them hewn out of solid rock, so that any attempt to blow up one of them would simply delay transportation for a short time until the debris could be cleared away. To destroy one of these tunnels, it is said, would require the services of expert engineers equipped with the most modern machinery and high explosives. Members of the American engineers' commission are in the vicinity of Lake Balkal and have been repairing bridges that were destroyed or damaged, and doubtless they will be able to repair any of the property damage that might be done to the tunnel.

Let's Sell Services. Officials here are interested in the report from Berlin, via London, today that Lettish troops batten with rifles in Petrograd. It was pointed out that at the time of the Russian debacle the Lettish army, small, but well trained and disciplined and armed with the only body of troops to remain standing in Russia. It is known that Lettish troops formed the guards for the czar and his family when they were in Moscow and it is assumed that they have become mercenary troops in the hire of Bolshevik leaders. In the past they have been bitterly hostile to Germany under whose rule they have suffered. The suggestion is made that they were compelled to sell their services as, surrounded by enemies they sought to obtain a living in any other way.

FRENCH TAKE VILLAGE EAST OF OISE RIVER

Paris, Aug. 20.—The French war office reports: "There were reciprocal bombardments in the region of Lassigny and Dresincourt during the night. Oise and the Aisne French troops occupied the village of Vassens, to the northwest of Morsain. A surprise attack by the enemy west of Maison-de-Champagne was without result. "The night was calm on the rest of the front. "German airplanes bombed Nancy last night. It is reported that six of the enemy population were killed and a score wounded."

ONLY POLICIES LAID DOWN.

Amsterdam, Aug. 20.—Owing to the multitude and complexity of questions and the short time allotted for the recent conference of the Austrian and German Emperors, details could not be discussed, says the Fremdenblatt of Vienna. Fundamental points of the grain trade in the newspaper says, to be discussed at future deliberations of the two rulers.

DOWNY OUTPOINTS CROSS.

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—Bryan Downey of Columbus, outpointed Chief Petty Officer Marty Cross of the navy, stationed at Philadelphia, in a 15-round boxing match here tonight. Downey had it his own way after the seventh round. He weighed in at 148 1-2 and Cross at 145 1-2 pounds.

COSSACKS ASK ENEMY TO ACCORD SUPPORT

Duke of Leuchtenberg Bears Letters From Don Territory to Kaiser. London, Aug. 20.—According to a despatch from Copchak on to the change Telegraph Company, the German newspapers report the arrival in Berlin of the Duke of Leuchtenberg, cousin and distant of the late Emperor Nicholas of Russia, with a letter from the Cossack general, Kravtsov to the German emperor. The letter states that the Cossacks are opposed to the soviet government, and asks German assistance. The newspapers say that the Don republic has entered into an agreement with the Ukraine and the central powers, and that they declare that Germany cannot accept the proposals at a moment when it is making terms with the soviets.

The Allies' Best Friend
The Merchant Sailor

300,000 Men Brave the U-Boats for Us

The men of the Merchant Marine have given loyal service—yes, and their lives—ungrudgingly and unflinchingly. They deserve the utmost we can do for them! The tragedy is that this splendid body of men is not recognized by governments, no provision is made for the relief of dependents—no separation allowance—no pension! It is left to public subscription to care for the widows and orphans. It is vital work our seamen are doing—for without the supplies and munitions carried by the Merchant Marine it would be impossible to keep our armies in the field.

No Government Allowance for their Dependents!

300,000 seamen of the Merchant Marine "carry on" in spite of the U-Boat and the floating mine. 15,000 have made their last voyage. One hundred and seventy-six merchant ships have been sunk since the war began, without leaving trace of ship, cargo or crew. All this is in the Allies' cause—it is for us! Isn't it the very least we can do, to take care of the widows and orphans, who otherwise will nurse their grief in poverty? Sooner or later, governments may make provision for this vital service, but until such time comes we have an unquestionable duty.

Give! Give liberally!
$1,000,000 is Ontario's objective!
Ontario has never failed!

A MAXIMUM PRICE FOR WHEAT AND FLOUR

Winnipeg, Aug. 20.—The Canadian Council of Agriculture at its session made a recommendation that the price of wheat be fixed at $2.25 1-2. It was explained that this price was recommended on account of the price at Duluth being fixed at $2.24 1-2. A recommendation was read from the Port William grain exchange recommending that the grain trade in Canada be handled the same as in the United States with a maximum price for wheat, and a maximum price for flour.

Special inducements in the way of price reductions will be offered to returned soldiers.

AMERICAN STEAMER RAMMED SUBMARINE

Washington, Aug. 20.—The navy department announced today that the captain of an American steamer reported that his vessel rammed and probably sank a submarine about 130 p.m. on Aug. 17 near Winter Quarter Shoal, off the northern Virginia coast. The captain stated the submarine was struck on her port bow, bringing her alongside. The submarine crew hailed in strong German accents, saying they were friends, the captain said, but he replied they were no friends of his. He kept on his course, he said. The steamer is now in port with a badly damaged bow and a quantity of water in her hold. The captain thinks he sank the submarine.

CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS SHOULD BE REMEMBERED

Many reminders cannot go out to the women of Toronto regarding the stockings that are to go overseas to cheer the boys in the hospitals on Christmas morning. The Red Cross of the city have been asked for 7000, and these are to be shipped early in October in order that they may reach their destination in time. Last year, the appeal went out in September, the shipment was not in time, and the girls filled to arrive until after Christmas. As it is absolutely necessary that notification should be made of all suitable articles, it is suggested that stockings might contain the following: Pocket mirror (cheap style), pocket pencil, pocket knife, cigarettes, tobacco, pipe or match box, writing pad, envelopes, fancy soap, candles, handkerchiefs, necktie, socks and pin cushion, game, book, puzzle or mouth organ, toilet requisites, such as soap, toilet powder, tooth paste, packets of raisins, dates, figs or nuts.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD" MOVES TO MASSEY HALL

Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow. On account of the tremendous success of D. W. Griffith's famous picture "Hearts of the World," which is shown in Canada under the auspices of the British Government, Messrs. Griffith and Jay J. Allen have decided, because of the great number of requests, to continue the showing, and move it from the Allen Theatre to Massey Hall on Saturday. In addition to moving the film, arrangements have been made with Mr. Griffith to bring back the original "Birth of a Nation" orchestra, or as many of them as can be assembled, and to add the mechanical stage effects used in the 4th Street Theatre. New York's Griffith super-production has been playing twice daily to crowded houses at the Allen Theatre, hundreds being turned away every night, unable to get in. It is expected with the extra seating of Massey Hall, the largest auditorium in Canada, exhibition which will be amply accommodated.

The age-old, but ever new theme of young love is the story of this new Griffith masterpiece, and despite the thrills and heart throbs of its majestic battle scenes, it never approaches the border of depression. Unlike the average "war picture," its effect is more exhilarating than otherwise. It was the purpose of the producer to show his "soldiers" the spirit of France, smiling and unflinching in the face of heroic sacrifice, and his success is reflected in numerous messages of appreciation received from high officials of the British and French, both diplomatic and military.

WHITE ROSE DAY.

About fifty of the workers for Queen Mary White Rose Day met at the Edge Institute yesterday afternoon, and later visited the Queen Mary Educational Institute for Consumptive Children at Weston. The visitors were delighted with what they saw in the course of a tour thru the institution, and were inspired to try to heat all records on White Rose Day, September 5, when a great fight will be made to raise $20,000 for the little consumptives. Cars for the outing were lent by many friends interested in the work.

Tan, Red or Freckled Skin is Easily Shed

To free your summer-scorched skin of its blemishes, freckles, blotches or tan, the best thing to do is to use a facial cream. This is easily accomplished by the use of ordinary facial cream. The cream, when applied to the face, gradually softens the surface skin, and as it softens, the outer layer of skin is absorbed, without the least harm or inconvenience. The second layer of skin now in evidence presents a rosy, whiteness and sparkling beauty resembling in no other way. One ounce of facial cream usually is sufficient to completely renovate a bad complexion.

CANADIAN COMMANDER SENDS ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Miss Sarah Bolter of Toronto has been doing her "bit" in a way that has evidently met with much favor from the recipients. Early in the war Miss Bolter thought of making a small flat pin cushion for use of the men overseas, and from that time on many have benefited by her useful little gift. Among the many letters which she has received in acknowledgment is one from General Currie, commanding the Canadians in France.

I acknowledge with grateful thanks the receipt of your letter of May 1, together with the pocket pin cushion enclosed. I appreciate very much this very useful article, but more so the kindly thought which prompted you to send it to me. I also wish to thank you for the kind words used with reference to the Canadian troops. There are none better in all the allied armies. Most cordially reciprocating your good wishes.

PUTTING LAST TOUCHES ON EXHIBITION PARADE

GRAND OPENS SATURDAY EVENING

The Grand Opera House will open the season on Saturday evening, Aug. 24, with the latest and prettiest of Hawaiian plays, "A Daughter of the Sun." Those who are fond of stories of intrigue and romance will find in this splendid drama the most satisfying diversion. The machinations of a subtle Jap who schemes to take possession of the Hawaiian Islands, where the scenes are laid, grip and hold the attention. A breezy American girl, supposed to be a frivolous Broadway actress, but who is a secret service operator, plays no small part in frustrating the plans of the clever Japanese. The love interest is touched with a touch of mystery, and the real atmosphere of the Pacific Islands is given by a group of native singers and dancers, the songs being accompanied on the guitar and ukulele. "A Daughter of the Sun" will be presented all next week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. The sale of seats opens Thursday morning.

CASE IS DISMISSED

Winnie Young, manager of the refreshment pavilion in Kew Gardens, appeared with the police court yesterday charged with a breach of the Lord's Day Act for selling refreshments on Sunday. James Haverson, K.C., who appeared for her, expressed the opinion that only the narrowest bigot would attempt to prevent the public from buying ice cream and candy to eat in Kew Gardens on Sunday, that the police claimed that the stuff should be eaten inside the pavilion. Magistrate Cohen agreed with Mr. Haverson and dismissed the case.

DOROTHY DIX'S TALKS

YOUR CHILDREN'S INHERITANCE.

BY DOROTHY DIX The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer

It is generally conceded that one of the most agreeable indoor sports is making your last will and testament. Indeed, there are those who become so addicted to this pleasant performance that they make a continuous performance of it, and are forever altering and changing their bequests, adding codicils and revoking gifts, to the despair of their legatees and the ultimate profit of the lawyers.

While one makes a will, one has the bitter satisfaction of sitting for time, at least, in the seats of the mighty. One has favors to confer, and it is the thought of what Uncle Ebenezer or old Aunt Jerusha, or grandpa, or grandpa has the power to write down in his or her will that makes many a cranky, crabbed, cantankerous old man and woman a cherished guest at the fireside of relatives, who could not see them thru a telescope if they had no one to leave behind when they went hence. Every one who wishes to be a person grata with his relatives in his old age should cultivate the will-making habit, and if he be known that he practices it in secret.

Aside, however, from will-making being an elegant, graceful and fascinating accomplishment, equally adapted to both sexes, it strikes, in a way, our balance sheet with life. It is the final auditing of our account. It tells the net result of all our efforts, whether we have anything to show as the result of all of our toil and sweat and striving, or whether we have worked all day long just for the day's wage, that sufficed only for the day, and that we go out of the world with hands as empty as those with which we came in.

Nor is this all. Love enters into will-making, too. When we think of death there is no more comforting thought than that we can leave those who are near and dear to us safe from want, nor is there any other thought more torturing than the thought that if we, who are the bread winners of a family, should die, our only bequest to those nearest and dearest would be their wailing and weeping.

SOLD MILLING WHEAT

Joseph Goldstein, 3848 Dundas street, was summoned to appear in the police court for selling milling wheat as chicken feed. Policemen Merr, Lawlor and Boyd of the morality department went to Goldstein's store, and after buying the chicken feed containing milling wheat, seized four bags of the same stuff and took them all to police headquarters. It is alleged the food regulators to sell milling wheat as chicken feed.

To Make Hair Vanish From Face, Neck or Arms

Keep a little powdered delatone handy, and when hairy growths appear make a paste with some of the powder and a little water, then apply over hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair or blemish. This simple treatment is unfailing; but care should be exercised to be sure and get genuine delatone, otherwise you may be disappointed.

After many exciting tussles, the northern district came out on top and carried off the trophy.

Another event which created keen competition was the district relay race for the Sons of England Silver Shield. This was also won by members associated with lodges in the northern district, and presented to them by the supreme president, Bro. David J. Proctor.

LECTURES ON PICTURES SHOWN AT EXHIBITION

The critics who have seen the pictures which the hanging committee are now putting on the walls of the fine art gallery at the Canadian National Exhibition unanimously agree that the exhibit of Canadian and American pictures is quite the finest ever shown here. The foreign exhibit, while small, is also exceptionally good. The work of hanging the paintings is well advanced and will be completed in plenty of time for the private view Saturday afternoon.

Believing that the benefit of the annual exhibition of paintings would be still greater from a public viewpoint if a few words of explanation were given concerning the chief characteristics of the paintings and of the ideas of the artists with respect to the council of the department of fine art has appointed Miss Margaret Maclean of Toronto to the position of lecturer on art. These lectures will be given daily, beginning at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m., lasting for half an hour. Owing to the large number of paintings on view it will be impossible to complete a tour of the galleries in one half hour and the lectures will, therefore, be continued from day to day, beginning on Tuesday next and each will be complete in itself.

TO START WORK ON CASUALTY STATION

Contractors Figuring on Job—New Hospital About Ready. In a couple of weeks tenders will close for the construction of the new buildings at the military casualty clearing station on Rosedale Heights overlooking old St. Andrew's College (about to be opened as a military hospital). The contractors will be required to complete the first unit of the station within 60 days of being notified to commence work so that once work is started things will be rushed along and next spring should see it occupied by soldiers awaiting their return to civil life.

Nearly all the large contractors are figuring on the work, which includes eight separate barracks buildings, three mess buildings, four ablution buildings, one recreation building, one administration building, two sergeants' messes, two guard houses, one officers' mess, one quartermaster's stores building, one company orderly room.

At the Rosedale military hospital (formerly St. Andrew's College) the alterations are almost completed and by September is expected to be open for patients. When the hospital and clearing station are both completed, there will be a military installation of about 4,000 in North Rosedale. The authorities are hopeful that some arrangements will be made for a street car service. The lack of one is the only objection they have to the site.

VETERANS TO DECIDE FATE OF EXECUTIVE

Special Committee Appointed Which Will Report in Few Weeks. Representing the various branches of the G.W.V.A. a special meeting was held at the central club house, corner of Church and Carlton streets last night to consider whether York County executive had outlived its usefulness. For some time past, various complaints have been made by the various branches, and last night's meeting was a preliminary to several to be held to discuss the matter. A committee was appointed consisting of G. Fraser, G. H. Parker, W. A. Heron, J. McGuigan and W. E. Surtees which will meet again next Friday and every following week until a decision is reached, and on its decision will rest the fate of the York County executive, and with also the club house. For some time it has been thought that the funds should be split up among the various branches. The meeting protested against the omission of a representative of returned men on the civic housing committee. Gratitude was expressed to the management of the Canadian National Exhibition which has offered to set aside Monday, August 26, as a veterans' day, when a veterans' button will be sufficient to admit the bearer to the ground together with his family.

THOUSAND CIVILIANS ON RECRUITING STAFF

Over one thousand civilians in Canada are on the recruiting staff of the Royal Air Force. A conference of all these recruiters to be held in Toronto is being planned. Recruiting for the Royal Air Force has been very active this summer, one thousand mechanics having been enrolled since May 20 of this year, when a new recruiting effort was started. The air force aims at enrolling still another 1,000 air-mechanics during the next two months, special opportunities being presented for men in physical category B. One thousand women are now employed in Canada by the Royal Air Force, and more will be enrolled. It is predicted that the Royal Air Force will be stronger at the end of this year than at any time since its work started in the Dominion. The recruits still required by the R. A. F. include carpenters, cooks, shoemakers, medical orderlies, clerks, and a few bakers. The applications for membership in the R.A.F. are being received by the officer in charge of trade tests at the recruiting office, George and Duke streets.

TORONTO'S SAVING ON TABLE WASTE

George B. Wilson, street commissioner, has notified the Canada Food Board that table waste from private homes has fallen off tremendously in Toronto since the commencement of the war. He estimates the reduction of such waste at considerably more than 75 per cent. Between two and two and one-half tons of waste suitable for hog feeding are being collected daily and fed to hogs at the municipal farm.

FORD RUNABOUTS, $600.

In the advertisement of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, of Ford, Ontario, announcing new prices on Ford cars that become effective August 16th, the price of Ford Runabout, as given in The World, was $650. This should be $600. A greatly increased cost of production has made a price increase necessary, but even with the increased price, the Ford car continues to be about the very best value that is offered in automobiles.

SAW STEAMER SELLING
A Canadian Atlantic Port, Aug. 20.—The mysterious cannonading off a port east of here has been explained by the arrival of a fishing schooner at a port still further east, reporting that on Saturday afternoon a steamer was seen about fifteen miles off here engaged in vigorous shelling some unseen object. The captain of the schooner reported that after a dozen shots had been fired by the steamer, she became enveloped in smoke and disappeared from view. He believes that the steamer was either engaged in target practice or else was shelling what was thought to be a submarine, and that finally the ship made use of a smoke screen to escape from the supposed U-boat.
