Enemy Makes Many Violent Attempts to Recapture High Land Between Ypres-Roulers Railway and St. Julien---French Check Hun Movements.

London, Aug. 2 .- Heavy counterattacks by the Germans in the region northeast of Ypres between the Ypres-Roulers railway and St. Julien were repulsed by the British forces today, according to the war office communication issued this evening. The Germans sustained additional heavy cas-ualties in the fighting. The text reads: "In the course of the morning and again this afternoon the enemy made a series of violent but unsuccessful attempts to recover the ground lost

Win-the-War Convention

There was a fine, broad spirit in the win-the-war convention yesterday, especially in the evening meeting, when 5000 people testified their practical unanimity on the questions of national or coalition government during the war, and the conscription of men and resources for the success of our arms, and the preservation of our national life and liberties.

What was arrived at yesterday was the necessity, sufficiently clear, that if there is to be a union war government, then all who believe in conscription and the maintenance of our forces at the front must co-operate in the choice and election of candidates who will be pledged to these issues and nothing else.

As Mr. Rowell said, some people on both sides are more anxious to beat their political opponents than to beat the Germans. He was quite willing to postpone till the conclusion of the war and the victory of our cause any attempt to defeat his political opponents.

The presence of Sir William Hearst, who made a special point of the necessity of co-operation in placing candidates so that conscription Liberals and conscription Conservatives would nowhere oppose each other, on the same platform with Mr. Rowell, indicated the consistent nature of their policy.

Sir Arthur Currie's letter from the front expressing the hope that Canadians at home would not desert the men in the field, or leave our four divisions to be weakened, their Canadian character lost, and their glory forgotten, strangely moved the great audience. If Canada can forget these men she deserves to be forgotten among the nations.

It is unthinkable that Canada should forget or desert them. But conscription is necessary if we are to maintain our forces at full strength. If we think we can support them by voluntary enlistment, as Mr. Rowell well said, we only delude ourselves, and we delude other people. The immediate operation of the Military Service Act when it s passed is necessary to get the needed reinforcements to France in

Above everything else this is the idea that the win-the-wan convention has to drive home, and last night's meeting showed that in Toronto, at any rate, there is patriotic force and feeling enough to move the political leaders. Their speeches showed that they were genuinely moved, and the nation will not fail to respond.

Acadian senators from New Bruns- hold the government to that pledge. wick are standing loyally by the govrnment and in favor of conscription, and today Senator Bourque, the re-cently appointed New Brunswick Acadian, and Senator Girroir, another Acadian, also spoke vigorously in favor of the military service bill. Earlier in the day a report was circulated that Senator Bourque would oppose the bill, but this proved to be a canard. The Acadians have responded splendidly to the call to arms and have enlisted most satisfactorily. Conscription therefore appeals to them with force.

Expect Small Majority. There were ten speakers in the senate today, five against the bill and five in favor of it. Only three of the Quebec Conservatives have gone over to the opposition on this issue, Senators Landry, Montplaisir and Reaupien, and as no Liberals are expected to vote against the Bostock amendment, the government will be able to defeat it with a small majority. Senator Girroir, of Nova Scotia, held that the development of events had rendered compulsory service essential. To many the idea was distasteful, but surely the country should make the effort to meet the need. The country was not being asked to accept compulsion permanently, but merely for a time, that it might not be permanently forced upon Canada by Germany. Tremendous Enthusiasm at Win-the-War Meeting Greets Statements of Speakers Calling for Enforce, ment of Conscription Without Fear or Favor, the Formation of a National Government and More Effective Conscription of Wealth.

With one accord and one voice that spelled determination went forth the message of cheer to the boys in the trenches from 5,000 people assembled the Arena last night that Canada will never forsake the men who are battling for liberty's cause on Flan-ders' fields. It was not a message that admitted defeat or retreat in a trying period of the country's history, tut one that in declaration consecrated itself anew to the principle for which Canada's sons have died and which others are today offering their lives—their all-to uphold. Unity was the keynote of the great gathering. Party politics and partisanship were elements foreign to its make-up, and dissension found no place in the aims and objects of the solemn discussion which tended to one conclusion, that Canada is in this war to the finish, willing to sacrifice every man and every dollar to achieve victory for the allied arms. On three important points the numerous speakers and auditors were in absolute agreement. These were the conscription of the man power of the country to reinforce the men at the fron; the con-soription of the wealth and other necessary resources of the Dominion and the formation of a national government which will operate and enforce the principles of the Military Service Act without fear or favor. In a time like this they declared that politics should be brushed aside and every effort made to attain the object to which the honor and existence of the country is committed. And there must be equal service from all. A premium would not be allowed to placed on wealth instead of on flesh and blood. Enthusiastic Demonstrations The mention of conscription and na tional government was the cue for demonstrations of the most enthusiastic nature by the audience which packed the huge floor and galleries of the building, which became historic by reason of housing one of the most remarkable gatherings in the annals of Canada. The speeches were sincere and inequivocal. So were the demonstrations. Conciliation had, in the temper of the gathering, failed to find a way out of the difficulty, as the voluntary system had failed to provide the nation's quota for over-seas, and force must be employed irrespective of affiliations or racial ties. There was a strong current of feeling against the attitude of Quebec and mistrust of her political leaders among the audience and frequently expression was given to this senti-ment. Laurier's loyalty was even doubted and the mention of his name brought forth cries of "traitor." And when one speaker in discussing the

Just once during the meeting did a section of the gathering become unruly and that was when Hugh Guthrie, M.P., declared that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was sincere in his convictions and was as loyal as any one in the audience. The largest freighter ever built in Toronto was launched at noon yesterday by the Thor Iron, Works. She was presented with a diamond pendant by Mr. James Playfair, of the Great Lakes Transportation Co., and with a Pringle Will Investigate American bouquet of roses.

Dominion Railway Board Reports on Proposed Car Service Rules.

TWO DAYS' FREE TIME

Charges Run From One to Five Dollars Per

The result of the board of railway commissioners' consideration of the application of the Canadian Car Service Bureau for the approval of a revised code of car demurrage rules has just been issued.

The application has been before the board for over three months, and hearings were held in twelve cities through the Dominion. Many of the rules embodied drastic changes and were the subject of much discussion on the part of both the carriers, shippers and consigness.

by the commissioners, is as follows Twenty-four hours after notice of arrival for clearing customs, reconsignmen or reshipment in the same car, stop offs, etc., and 48 hours free time for the unloading of all commodities Twenty-four hours are also allowed to give orders for special placement in the case of consignment.

vate sidings or industrial interchange tracks.

The old rule allowed an additional 24 hours for unloading coal, coke, lime in bulk and for loading and unloading certain kinds of lumber.

Opposed by Shippers.

The new rule was strongly opposed by the shippers and consigness concerned, and, as the matter stood, a coal dealer might be entitled to 24 hours for customs, 24 hours for placement and 72 hours for unloading. The board found that the quicker movement was in the intercets of the public, and particularly the public of Ontario, and tion, was nevertheless urged by Premier Kerensky to withhold his resignation at least until improvement had been achieved, but without avail. Gen. Korniloffs appointment was then approved by the premier. Gen. Korniloff has recommended Gen. Tcheremisouf, the hero of Halicz, to succeed as commander of the southwest front. A special conference of the ministers, held for the purpose of arranging matters regarding the constituent assembly, has disapproved giving the franchise to the Romanoffs.

Fetween the Dniester and the Pruth Rivers, across the Zborcz, in the Carpathians, the Russians are falling back. So tar have the operations of the Teutonic allies been advanced in Eukowina that seemingly the little Austrian crown land soon again will be returned to the Austrians. Numerous additional towns and vantage points along the front have been captured by the Teutons. Berlin asserts that from the Pruth to the eastern, foothills of the Kelemen mountains, a distance of approximately a hundred miles, the Russians are steadily giving ground:

Senator Nicholls Calls For Speedy Conscription

be at the conscription bill was delivered by Hon. Frederic Nicholls of Toronto.

Mr. Nicholls was selected by the government to reply to Senator Bostock. The constraint of the opposition, who profiled us at the critical moment? Do we not know that Russia has failed us at the critical moment? Do the leader of the opposition, who proposed an amendment postpring the conforcement of the bill until after the general election. Senator Nicholls protested against any further delay, protested against any further delay, and testified to his belief in the urgency of the situation by compressing what he had to say in a brief address. It was not words, he said, but actions which live in history.

Note of Canadianism. Mr. Nicholls struck the note of true Canadianism, which, as he pointed out, was notably absent from the deliverance of Senator Bostock. His quotation from the royal letters patent by which honorable gentlemen ere called to the senate, made a deep impression. As he pointed out, his majesty, in calling senators to his council, especially commands them to advise and assist the crown in all "Honorable gentlemen, I am very sorry that my honorable friend, the leader of the opposition (Hon. Mr. Bostock) did not make out a better case. I have heard him to much better advantage. So far as I was able to understand his remarks they were largely in the nature of apologies for the action that had been taken by the leader of the opposition in the other house and the section of the party behind him. I do not know that I ever knew the motto "Qui s'excuse s'accuse' to be better exemplified than in the speech of the honorable true Canadianism struck. Need of Reinforcements.

"There is an old Turkish proverb which says: 'Night is pregnant with the morrow; God knows what the dawn may shine upon.' We know, however, that the dawn will shine on our brave troops fighting and dying for the portection of our country, fighting and dying for the protection of those at home who are heedless of their cry, 'Send reinforcements or we perish.' We know, too, that God alone knows if the dawn may shine on these same brave troops being done to death by superior numbers because of the lack of reinforcements which did not come-and I may it with orrow-which certain sections of our community have hesitated to send. Shall we desert those brave troops at the eleventh hour or shall we flash across the inspiring news "the Senate of Canada, the last parliamentary court of decision, has said and said properly that the cause you are fighting for is your country's cause and your country and fellowcitizens will stand by you to the last man and to the last dollar."

"Honorable gentlemen, we are of mature age. Most of us are past our prime and the shadows of the evening member correctly, reads as follows: Important Trust.

jam and selling it?
Enquirer.—Do you remember. in a description of Sir Launcelot. that Tennyson says: "A red cross knight forever kneeled to a lady in his shield"? The design in a certain deep cream filet curtain net immediately suggests these lines; it is in alternating blocks, one containing a pictorial pattern with the knight and lady, while the other has a rococco scroll of the period marking the close of the days of chivalry; the weave is beautifully fine, the width 50 inches and the price, per yard, $1.75. Another in the same width, priced at $1.15, is of filet with stripes of guipure insertion woven all in one piece. If you prefer something plainer, there is a very pretty ecru marquisette one, with hemstitched border and insertion in either Cluny or filet effect, width 36 inches, priced 75c per yard. Any of these would be delightful for sash curtains for your three casement windows placed together.

The color scheme of your room being brown, and therefore rather sombre, though apparently charmingly carried out, do you not think it would add interest to strike curtains? An English shadow cloth with burnt orange back-ground which I found in the Department this morning appealed to me as being about what is required; the design shows birds and foliage in tones of brown, rose, mulberry and cool blue-green; price, $4.50 per yard. One with a pictorial design showing deer against a background of Autumn leaves in green, brown or crimson would be equally attractive; price, $3.50. Both are 50 inches wide, so only half the width would be required at each side of your grouped windows. With a va-lance across the top and a cushion of the same in some other part of the room, this would be ideal.

The Political Crisis

The Ottawa politicians think more of the crisis than the measures before them. All eyes are now turned to the west to see what the Liberal convention will do t Winnipeg next Tuesday. The western sewspapers are full of the subject. Sir Clifford Sifton has made several speeches and his position has been both criticized ind approved in many directions. The Vinnipeg Telegram, the Conservative saper, said to be inspired by Hon. Robert Rogers, endorses the speech of Sir Clifford in Winnipeg in favor of a unionist government and conscription.

The case for the Liberals has been presented in a vigorous way by The Regina Leader in a whole-page article on Monday last. The opening paragraph is as

Incopening paragraph is as follows:

The situation which has developed at Ottawa has aroused keener interest among all classes of our population than probably any previous political development in Canadian history. This is but natural, as the present crisis is not merely political in character—it is a shilltary, financial, economic crisis, as well as a political one. The fate of party leaders, or of the parties themselves, is of minor importance compared with the wise and proper solution of the real questions and issues which must be decided in the general election now fast approaching. This election is necessary to ascertain the will of the people, create a new parliament fresh from the people, and with a mandate from them, and to put an end to the impossible situation which has existed at Ottawa for many months past, crippling our efforts in the war and creating discontent at home.

It then goes on to charge the Borden reason of lack of action, and says that the Conservatives as a party took up conscription in order to save their political existence. It further alleges that the big interests are associated with the government in research ment in resorting to conscription in order to win the election, rather than win the war. It also attacks Sir Clifford Sifton war. It also attacks Sir Clifford Sifton for opposing reciprocity presented by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1911. Furthermore, it defends Sir Wilfrid for opposing conscription, and claims that had he been in

The concluding portion of the article deals with the duty of the west in the following terms;

And what is the duty of the west in the circumstances?

And what is the duty of the west in the circumstances?

It is to remain true to those principles it has avowed and supported in the past; to refuse to be deluded by any so-called loyalty "Win-the-War" cry; for its people and its provinces to stand firmly and unitedly together and send a solid elegation to Ottawa in support of western views regardless of what other provinces may do.

The great Winnipeg convention of Liberalism composed of men and women of all liberal views regardless of party names, should clearly and unmistakably define the attitude of the masses of the people of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British-Columbia, and then there should be elected by the overwhelming vote of the people of these provinces those candidates who stand pledged to support the platform and policies of that great representative gathering.

It is the duty of the west to stand for the thore organization of this whole port the platform and policies of that great representative gathering.

It is the duty of the west to stand for the thoro organization of this whole country for winning the war. That our western people are a unit for continuing the war until we have achieved all for which we entered the grim struggle cannot be questioned. Canada has not been exerting its full power, and the reason is to be found, not because conscription has not been in force, but because the country has not been organized, because abuses of all kinds have flourished unchecked, and no leadership has been given to the people.

First and foremost, therefore, the vital preliminary step is a change of administrators at Ottawa. Until that change is effected there can be no radical change in prevailing methods. And there must be such a change if progress is to be made.

With a solid western delegation in the next parliament supporting such a war policy there need be no fear in the minds of the people of Canada as to the future of Canada in relation to the war. It will see the war thru to a triumphal end, with Canada playing an ever increasingly noble and effective part.

And after the war a parliament containing a solid western Alexador.

And after the war a parliament containing a solid western delegation representing the views of Liberalism can be entrusted with the very important task of dealing with the "After-the-War" problems. Certainly, a Borden

Coming Railway Changes From

Nationalization

As a matter of fact the Canadian Government will be in a position to run Interccionial freight over the Canadian Northern right into Toronto and use the freight sheds of the C. N. R. for that pirpose; also to collect freight at these terminals. The Canadian Northern has rights in connection with the water front and it has a joint right over the Canadian Pacific's uptown tracks from Eathurst street east, including use of new C. P. R. Yonge street station. It was the intention of the Canadian Northern at an early date to have all its trains in and out of this new station uptown, and most likely the government will carry out this policy.

In the new deal the government gets the G. N. W. Telegraph Co., and this will practically put the government in the telegraph business with a transcontinental service. And this may mean that the telegraph business will be connected up with the postoffice of the Do-

The Canadian Northern also had scheme for a car ferry from Toronto Port Dalhousie and the American side the transfer of coal and other cars.

The radials owned by the Toronto Railway make no part of the deal, altho it was the intention of the Canadian Northen to develop all these radials as feeders for itself. There are those in the city who say some kind of negotiations for the acquirement of these radials and the associated power companies by the Toronto Hydro Power System is under way now, and that if this be done these, with the lines now owned by the Hydro Radial, can all be feeders of the government railways.

It will take time to find out the full effect of taking over the Canadian Northern by government. The changes will be far-reaching in the maritime provinces, in Quebec, in the west; no one can begin to tell just how the change will work out in Toronto, and how the developed or undeveloped schemes of company in this city will be affected.

As a matter of fact the Canadian Government will be in a position to run Intercoionial freight over the Canadian Northern cultivated it and keeps it up. The government will have hereafter largely for the transfer of units, altho this will all have to develop later on.

The Canadian Northern has also built up a very large express business and the government will have to be careful to see that the new administration cultivates this business in the way the Canadian Northern cultivated it and keeps it up. It was stated around town yesterday that D. B. Hanna, the general manager of the Canadlan Northern; Mr. McLeod, manager of the western lines, and A. J. Mitchell, controller of the Mackenzle-Mann Co., and associated with all the Canadian Forthern enterprises, will continue in the service of the government in connection with the Canadian Northern. There will be a considerable dislocation later on of a large number of the employes in connection with the government railways and the Canadian Northern, and there may be some consolidation of offices, duties and services, and some reduction therefore of the various staffs of both concerns.

It is likely that one of the early changes in the train service will be the consolida-tion of the three-day-aweek transcon-tinental service of the government railtinental service of the government rail-ways and the three-day-a-week service of the Canadian Northern into a daily ser-vice; altho it looks for a time as the some of the trains will have to run over the Grand Trunk by Cochrane as at present and some by Sudbury and Port Arthur over the C. N. R. But at an early date it is expected that the most direct ser-vice over the two systems will be selected and that by building 25 miles of a con-necting line near Nepigon between the Canadian Northern and the Transcontin-ental the best read into Winnipeg and the west will be secured from Toronto.

It was stated in Ottawa yesterday that no changes would be made until the necessary legislation had been put thru both houses of parliament. This, however, will be within the next six or seven days and then the work of organization and consolidation will be under way. It is expected that the headquarters of the Canadian Northern will remain in Toronto.

The Mount Royal tunnel in Montreal and the station plans in connection with it become the property of the government and there is a problem yet to be solved as to how the new station can be accommodated to the Intercolonial and the Canadian Northern; perhaps also for the It is believed that large orders have already been placed by the Dominion Government for engines, coal cars, freight cars and passenger cars to be used over the new consolidated system and that deliveries thereof will begin at an early date

Ottawa, Atr. 2.—The book value of Canadian Northern assets is placed at $494,762,483. Taking in the taxes, rents and items which relate to operation, the net operating revenue of the road is given by the company as $10,232,088. An estimate prepared an January last for the year ending June 20, 1917, placed the gross earnings at $42,590,000, and the operating expenses at $31,090,000, leaving a revenue of $11,500,000. In 1921 this revenue, it was estimated, would exceed $20,000,000.

An estimate prepared a few months ago gave the total cost of reproduction at $397,441,567, less depreciation, $40,621,589, making the cost of reproduction of the property $357,409,678. The cost of reproducing the equipment was given as $56,590,418, less depreciation of $11,250,433, making the present value $45,239,985. The two valuations give the cost of reproducing the physical system as $402,749,663.

At dawn yesterday morning enemy ambulances were seen to make many trips, and it is believed several hundred wounded were removed to a sector

Prisoners taken recently declare that the garrison of Lens is so dispirited by continual bombardment and by harassing night operations that it will be necessary soon to replace it with fresh troops to prevent demoralization. Where they are to come from is a serious problem for the German leaders. There seems to be no doubt that at this critical time the enemy finds himself unable to maintain the strength on the front with which the spring campaign was

The case for the returned men was very ably presented by Sergts Shanahan, Knight, Col. Hardy and Lieut. Knight is a very forceful speaker, and drove me his arguments with such reasonableness and precision that at mes it was with difficulty he was able to proceed owing to the ap-plause. Sergt. Shanahan, in dramatic manner which impressed the auditors, told of the brave stand of the Canadians at Ypres that saved the day for the allies. Only one thing mattered Canada at present, he declared, quered territory.

There was no use, he told the audience, slam banging the political leaders thru the press and from platforms. The way country on a war footing.

Compulsory Service Necessary.

I believe the statement made by Sir this war, that we should wait until our own land was threatened by inobert Borden that compulsory miliour own land was threatened by invasion and until our own rights and liberties in this country were imperiled. To those who hold this view I ask: Are we in this country less chivalrous, less devoted to liberty and the cause of democracy, less heroic, than the people to the gouth of us?
Would any man with spirit or a spark of patriotism in his constitution he tary service is necessary to maintain our present divisions at the front is absolutely correct, and we are deluding ourselves with talse hopes if we think voluntary enlistment will continue to meet our meeds. May I express my hearty support of the action of the members of my own party in the federal house of commons who took this view and who voted for the military service bill. I was glad to see that the Ontario members of both parties, with two exceptions, support. of patriotism in his constitution be willing to stand idly by while the Americans sent their legions to maintain the cause of liberty? But not only are we called upon to enter this parties, with two exceptions, supported the bill. I believe these members voiced the real sentiments of the peocontest as a part of the British Empire and for the maintenance of the ple of this province, and once the people thoroly understand the situa-tion and appreciate the issue involved world's freedom, but we are called up-on to wage war with all the force we they will, with unanimity, agree with and heartily support the bill. The members from Ontario in the federal worse than death meted out by the house were practically unanimous in the support of the measure.

Canada is taking part in this war as a nation, by the free and unanimous action of our parliament. Even if we had not been part of the British Empire we should still have been compelled to go to war to preserve our own liberty and the lives of our own citizens who have been cruelly murdered upon the high seas under orders from the German government Must Accept Obligations. We have deliberately joined in waging a defensive war for freedom and democracy against the most powerful, efficient and ruthless military autocracy the world has known. Such war cannot be conducted on the prin-ciple of limited liability. We mus accept all the obligations and conseissue between military autocracy and democracy must be fought to a con-clusion, either in Europe or on this side of the Atlantic. Is it better for Canada to settle the issue on the plains of France and Flanders or to experience the horrors of was within her own borders? There can be but one answer to this question, and we nigh three years have been fighting must appeal to our Canadian national to protect us, and allow their ranks spirit, which has never failed us in to be decimated and destroyed? The any grave crisis in our history, to rise on answer them was to speak as a deligation of honor, the greatest oblition the present emergency and pre-init at the polls.

And yet, to achieve must be greatly increased. We must be able not only to resist all German attacks, but to break thru the strongest possible German defence are we going to ensure its success? Is cannot be done without additional men. Have More Men to Give. Where are the additional men Canada's man-power has been more lightly taxed to provide a fighting force, than, any portion of the Empire. We have a larger reservoir of men available for military service, in proportion to our popula tion, than any other portion of the Empire. Shall we, at this critical time, sound the note of 'retreat' or the note of 'advance?' We cannot strike both notes at the same time We must strike one or the other. The word Canada must send across the sea is not 'retreat,' but 'advance! Unless the sacrifices already made are to be largely in vain, unless the war is to end in a draw, unless our children and our children's children are to live under the constant men-ace of the repetition of the herrors and bloodshed of this war and are to be required to devote their energies to preparing for another Armageddon, we must win, we must prolong the struggle until the power of Prussian militarism is broken. At the present time Canada has four divisions at the front. In proportion to our population we have put fewer men into the battle line than any of the nations, which entered the war at the time we did Under these circumstances the minimum of Canada's contribution in men should be the maintenance up to full strength of our four divisions now at the front. We cannot maintain them at full strength without large additional reinforcements, who should already be in training. If the war last for more than a year 100,000 additional men will not be sufficient We must face the situation that we may require a larger number, and we must be prepared to contribute in proportion to our ability.

Voluntary Enlistment Inadequate. Speaking for the time being solely reference to recruiting conditions in this province. I do not believe any responsible authority in touch with the recruiting situation will say that wemecan secure these reinforcements by voluntary enlistment. If we are to maintain our existing divisions at the front, compulsory military service is essential. We must choose between conscription and abandoning our men and ultimately quitting the field. The sooner we squarely face this issue the better for Canada and our men at the front. Our men across the sea are now anxiously looking to see what we will do. I am just in receipt of a letter from Major-General Sir Arthur Currie, the first Canadian commander of made such a splendid record at the should fairly represent all the strong

"We are all anxiously looking to Canada to see what the result the conscription proposals of Sir Robert Borden will be.

"I am very glad that you have given your support and influence to the cause of conscription. . . . "We are winning this war. . . . and it would seem as if the heroic sacrifices of the Canadians would be forgotten if the troops in the field are not kept at full fighting "I attribute a great deal of our success to our fighting organiza-tion. If our units are not kept up to strength that organization breaks down, and success cannot be expected in the same measure. Furthermore, if our units are kept at full strength, the morale of our troops remains very high; whereas if units are allowed to become weak in numbers, the morale suffers accordingly.

"I pray that you will not relax your efforts in seeing that everything is done by Canada to furnish the necessary drafts of officers and men. The troops here expect it—let them not be disappointed."

Education Necessary : We shall not make progress it shut our eyes to the facts; let frankly recognize that there are many citizens in all the provinces of Can ing ourselves with false hopes if we ada who have not so far come out as at the present time is a campaign the preparatory measures which were taken in England. Germany will not wait. The situation is so urgent that we must have reinforcements without delay. We have worked at the voluntary system so long under the condi tions which have prevailed in Canada that it has lost its appeal, and we must adopt the compulsory methods. We must also remember that we can only effectively protect agriculture, and other essential industries from further serious embarrassment by the selective draft, by taking the men who are not essential here. Our obligation as one of the belli gerent powers is not, however, dis-charged by simply providing reinforcements for our existing divisions. are the only considerable nation at war which up to this time has not en-deavored to thoroly organize the nation and put it on a war footing. We must do so without further delay.

The financial needs are second only in importance to the need of additional men. Canada's further participation is limited by her own financial resources, plus her borrowing powers. Her borrowing powers are now absolutely circumscribed and controlled by the international financial situation. Our government, however, is in tion. Our government, nowever, is in a position to increase our financial resources by increased taxation. At the outbreak of the war Canada found a period of acute industrial depression, button in man-power and food supply

The sacrifices must be shared by all the profits shared by all. When we are exercising the compulsory powers of the state to ask men to give their lives for our defence, it surely is incumbent upon us to exercise the same compulsory powers to ask the men who have profited by the war and those who are earning large incomes, to make some sort of corresponding sacrifice. The representatives of agriculture, both in Ontario and western Canada, and the representatives of labor thruout Canada, foin with the men at the front in demanding that this be done; and I am sure public opinion in Canada will support this measure of justice to those who are making sacrifices on our behalf. It may not be expedient in the public interest to ask all those who have made profits because of the war to turn over the whole of the profits they have made in excess of what they would have made there been no war; but no man would have any just cause of complaint i the state took that position. The state should demand that a very large part of the profits made out of war should go to defray the expenses of the war, and that we should con tinue to take those profits until the war is over. A progressive income tax is a step in the right direction. but we need a war measure, note a peace measure.

As a belligerent power, we should proceed without further delay to the complete organization of our resources. We must distinguish tween 'essential and non-essential industries. We should endeavor ,this coming year to greatly increase our food production. Why should not the state intervene and exercise its power to aid in agricultural production and the harvesting of the crop? should immediately make much more effective our food control. Why should we hesitate to adopt the meas ures which other countries have found likely to secure the election of a ma-

Such a government whenever formed will have my most cordial support. Any government short of this would be unequal to the difficult, complicated and critical situation which we face at this time. The entrance of any two or three Liberals into the present government, as has been some time suggested in the press, would not in my opinion save or materially improve the situation. It would only tend to delay the formation of such a real national or war government as appears to be essential to our continued existence. Such a government as appears to be essential to entrance of labor and policy of such a government, and the practical benefits from such a course are obvious. If the formation of such a government would contribute towards securing the election of a larger number of members pledged to vigorous war policies, and such a government. He declared to vigorous war policies, and such a government can be formed now, then I believe the public interest would be served by its formation before an election; but if such a government of a delay and that so surely as Canada failed to do its duty a day of retribution was coming.

They tion of such a real national or war government as appears to be essen-tial to our continued participation in the war. The Coming Election.

The government has announced that there will be a general election this autumn. There is to be an election whether we approve of it or not. Let us therefore not spend our time in regretting the fact, but accept the situation and make the best of it. The new house of commons which will be elected in a few weeks will be responsible for the conduct of our part of this war until the conclusion of peace, and also for the settlement of the great and the settlement of the settlement of the settlement of the great and the settlement of great and urgent problems arising out of the war and the period of recon-struction which will inevitably follow the war. The character of the house of commons will determine the character of our government during this critical period of our history. "Political parties should now be wiped out when, great issues of national importance present themselves. I see no reason for political parties in times like these. What shall we do to get reinforcements? It is not an easy question to settle. It won't first settled unless there is a strong union of opinion at the polls in the next election. The fight is going to be which we believe to be vital to the nation's life. All Must Sacrifice.

The only people who have suffered financially by the war are those seriously affected by the high cost of living. But the mass of our people are financially better off because of the war than they would have been had there been no war. They do not hest-tate to say so. Communication was a suffered for the people of t which the people gave their judgment on reciprocity in 1911. This is the method by which they can give their vice and the vigorous prosecution of People's Mandate to Rule. The majority for conscription in the present house is made up of the Conrvative and Liberal conscriptionists: and if in the new house of commons the majority of the members elected are supporters of conscription, whether the members are Conservative or Liberal, this will be a direct mandate from the people of Canada to see the law enforced and the necessary reinforcements secured. It will comply with the condition stated by the leaders from the province of Qu bec; and if Canada once speaks with no uncertain voice on this issue, we have the right to expect—and I believe we may expect—Quebec to frankly accept and loyally support this decision.

The two great objectives to which we must work are winning the war and national unity. The unity of Canada is of the utmost importance not only to help us win the war but to ensure our national future. We should be able to re-establish unity We by the mandate which will be given in this election. If we fail, we cer-tainly will have made every honest effort—and the responsibility must rest with those who oppose the na-

Sy a Staff Reporter.
Ottawa, Aug. 2.—The house of commons spent today on the income tax bill. When the second reading was moved Hon. George P. Graham suggested that as there was no dissent from the principle involved in the measure it might as well be considered at once in committee. He complained, however, that no notice had been given that the bill would be taken up today, and the opposition was therefore not ready to discuss its details without further explanation from the finance minister.

There was also some objection to the clause in the bill which permits exemption up to $3,000 for both hus-band and wife where they have separate incomes, and it was argued by a number of members that any married man with an income under $6,000 could assign half of it to his wife and

Sir Wilfrid Inquisitive.

On the orders of the day, Sir Thomas White laid upon the table of the house a number of financial statements furnished by the Canadian Northern official, and certified as correct by the auditors of the road respecting the securities of the road, its gross and net earnings, and other details, which were ordered to printed immediately.

If he had an income of $10,000 and gave $1,000 to the patriotic fund, then for purposes of the income tax his income would be reckoned at $9,000, and he would have $40 a year less tax to pay. FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 3.

Banking Reform for Canada. The World has long advocated in Canada a hanking law similar to that of the United States, involving as it does national currency, a national bank of rediscount and a standard national credit for money to farmers for the improvement of their farms at a low rate of interest. How successful the law passed at Washington has been is well stated in The Satur-Gay Evening Post:

The government has borrowed two billion dollars without any very severe disturbance in the money markets or any check to the country's production and distion of goods. The big payments that were made on or about July first this year footed a billion dollars—consisting of first instalments on the Liberty Loan, dividend and interest disbursements, and so on. Many times, decidedly smaller pay-ments have unsettled the money markets, brought contraction of credits and sent a far thru the commercial fabric. The strain of this war, if it had fallen upon the old banking sys-tem. with its decentralized re-serves and very faulty mobility, would have been almost unbearable. The new system sustains it

We hardly recall an important movement of a political character or depending upon political action that looked less hopeful than the agitation for reform of the banking system did when it started in a systematic way a dozen or more years ago. Oppgress was not only indifferent but hostile. Numberless wiseacras said it could not be done, because any reform worth while must include central exation of banking power and the public was unalterably opposed to a central banking institution,

Yet it was done. True, some supposed prejudice was circumvented by calling the central institution twelve banks instead of Yet essentially it was done It stands now as one of the most unequivocal, indisputable gains that the country has made thru egislative action in this century Those who worked in laying the foundations deserve a credit they have never received. But leaving that aside, it is an inspiring proo that needed reforms can achieved by untiring effort, in spite of a very formidable mass of political indifference and pre-

United States will be good for Canada, and we will be very much surprised if at the next session of parthe coming election, a measure of reform on the above lines is not presented and passed. We should have had it at the beginning of the war.

The Harvest Labor Problem.

It was unfortunate that the board of trade meeting yesterday had not been better organized, as practically nothing was accomplished, and those who arranged the meeting and asked Hon. W. J. Hanna to be present placed that gentleman in a false position. The delegates from Hamilton and elsewhere left for home under a false impression and with the conviction that they had wasted their time.

This is all the more unfortunate since the situation to be dealt with is an urgent one and brooks no delay. It is an immediate necessity and there are only a few days in which to make a start. In fact many of the 10,000 men required for the farms sincers, 2; No. 2 C.A.S.C., 2; No. 2 could be utilized immediately. The C.A.M.C., 6; York and Simcoe Forestcould be utilized immediately. There should have been some foresight exercised weeks ago by those in charge of the matter. Fortunately, later in the evening, some action was taken which promises results.

As Hon. Mr. Macdiarmid pointed out, 5,000 or 6,000 boys have been placed at farm work this summer, and the fruit crop is being handled by women and girls similarly organized. There should have been an earlier attempt to prepare for the harvest as the plowing and sowing was prepared for

Mr. Parsons thought that it wasn't an impossible task to get 10,000 men. It may not seem so, but 10,000 men who are efficient on a farm may be more difficult than appears at first sight. It takes an expert to build a hay-cock, or even to handle a hayfork. Stooking sheaves of wheat so as to turn the weather is not entirely an amateur job. And these are elementary aspects of farm work.

But where are the 10,000 men to be had? Can the employers of labor supply them? Are the ranks of labor themselves not as necessarily to be consulted as the employers?

We do not believe this farm labor question has been regarded sufficiently as a great national question. I is not a question of the wages pe. diem the men are to get, but the millions of crop values that are to be saved to the country.

The farmers were urged to plan and sow, and promised that the coun try would see them thru with the harvest. This promise must be, as it ought to be, implemented in some A suggestion was made that the manufacturers should pay the extra wages that would attract city labor to the farms, and it was met immediately with a counter-proposal that the farmers should pay the men $4 or $5 for their extra labor. Any person who knows the average farmer is aware of the impracticable character of this view. The meeting finally passed a resolution asking the government to pay the difference between by mail. To other Foreign Countries, postage extra-$3 and the $1.10 the farmers are said to be willing to pay. The farmers ought to know that $1.10 is unworthy of them, especially when they are getting record prices for their produce. It is a long time since $1.25 was regular wage with board for casual labor in the vicinity of Toronto.

There was mention of conscription of labor for farm purposes, and it was mortgage bond system based on the heartily received in some quarters. If we had a national consciousness and every Canadian understood, as every Swiss understands, that the welfare of every man in the country depended on the welfare and co-operation of every other man there might be conscription or a voluntary substitute for conscription, such as really patriotic people would furnish. But the resistance to such an imperative necessity as military conscription proves that there is wholly lacking in a large number of people living in Canada the nadonal consciousness that makes a people strong and great, and the fact makes conscription of labor for farm ourposes impossible.

Whatever is to be done must be done by suasion. Labor should be consulted and the situation explained to representatives of the various unions and labor bodies. It should be made clear that the situation is a desperate one, and that their help is needed, on any reasonable terms that their good sense and judgment will determine, all the conditions and mutual benefits being duly considered. There must be more recognition of the labor element of society, and both capital and labor must learn that during the war and for some time after the very issues of life depend on the harmony with work together.

At a conference with some of th board of trade representatives last night with Mr. Hanna the following resolution was adopted and the government will do well to give it effect:

"That the provincial government be recommended to advertise at once for sufficient number of men required for harvesting men required for harvesting the Ontario crop; that the farmer pay a minimum wage of $45 per month and board minimum and that the government devise means to provide for the difference between the wage at present earned by the workman and the minimum wage above suggested."

trade men and the labor men all get What has thus been good for the together the bountiful harvest which has blessed Ontario this year may be securely stored, and it is worth much, not merely to the province, but liament, no matter who succeeds in to the whole human race, facing famine as it is, to make it secure. If the people clearly understand this we believe the response will be adequate.

SOME OTHER OPINIONS

Hon. I. B. Lucas Believes That Hydro Will Benefit by Change.

"The government and I may or we may not agree about everything, but we seem to get along some way or another," was a remark of Sir William Mackenzie yesterday morning that sums up his attitude regarding the action of the government in taking over the C. N. R., which has been the child. creation and materializing dream of Sif William for the past 21 years.

they would take regarding the action of the government, he said he supposed that the attitude of the directors would largely depend on the award of the board of arbitration. William thought that the com-

R. he held to be one of the finest railways in the world, and it only required money to make it a great success The alternative to taking it over was the providing of more money. How much more was a matter of opinion Sir William expressed regret at losing the road, which, he explained

Hon, I. B. Lucas expressed the opinion that the Hydro would welcome the benefit by the government taking over the C. N. R. It meant a lot to the attorney-general, who is also a memally on the Niagara frontier, where radial lines which would have competed with the Hydro radials and in some places would have paralleled This, in the opinion of the Hydro supporters, was nothing but pure rivalry on the part of the C.N.R. With the taking over of the C. N. R. there will likely be a clear field for hydro radials.

"This will result," said Mr. Lucas. "as it ought to, in stooping the par-alleling of the lines either by the Hydro or the C. N. R. There is system in the Niagara district the oposed, Hydro and C. N. R. lines under government control can cooperate and there will be a saving of money.

MADE PRESENT OF GAME TO ROYALS

Poor Pitching Tells Tale of Montreal Win at Island Yesterday.

Dan Howley's Royals refuse to let Larry's Leafs use them for door mats. The Montreal visitors beat us 10 to 5 yesterday in the third game of the series just to show us that they are still in the terday in the third game of the series just to show us that they are still in the league.

There is not a lot of credit due Dan and his band. The Royals could hardly have lost the game if they tried. It was simply a case of having a game handed to them. Jack Warnop and Big Dalley were in poor form. Wildness was the main trouble with the Leaf heavers and Montreal packed away nine runs in the first three innings. This was more than enough to win.

Warnop's stay on the rubber was short. He worked for just an inning and two-thirds and yielded five runs in this time. Dalley's effort was shorter. He made the third out in the second round and tarrical while two died in the third round. Two runs came over in this time and he forced them both in. He issued four free trips to first base. It was the wildest exhition of the year. Leake finished the game and two more runs counted before he retired, the side in the third. Montreal got one run only after this.

and two more runs counted before he retired, the side in the third. Montreal got one run only after this.

The Leafs outhit the Royals 12 to 11 but never had a chance with the big handicap afforded the visitors by the poor pitching handed out in the first three inning. Herche was hit often and hard, but it was useless. Altenberg contributed a double and two singles and Frankle Truesdale supplied three singles.

We will now give you an insight on the poor box work. Warhop waded right into the bad stuff by walking McAuley, Moran forced him at second, but Warhop again got fiberal and passed Zimmerman. Smith popped out and Holden's single sent the first run scampering over. Damrau waited while Warhop again threw four wide ones. Cather rolled to short and Blackburne threw too hard and low for Truesdale to properly handle and all hands were safe. Zimmerman scoring. Dan Howley came thru with a healthy single that scored two and made the total for the inning four. Herche filed out.

McAuley was retired in the second and total for the inning four. Herche flied out.

McAuley was retired in the second and then Moran doubled. Zimmerman rolled out, but Warhop's day was ended when Smith singled to score Moran. Daliey retired the side, but got his in the next round. Dampau was an infield out and then Schultz made a grand pickup of Cather's roller and threw it into the stand. Daliey then got in the fine strokes. He loaded up the paths by walking Howley and Herche and continued the generous streak by giving McAuley free transportation and forcing in a run. Moran flied out, but Dailey came right back with a base on balls to Zimmerman and it forced in run number two. This was the light to open the gate and let Dailey into the barn. Al. Leake was next to try his hand. He was hardly warmed up when called upon and he walked Smith; it meant another run. Holden beat out a hit to Truesdale while yet another scored, but Zimmerman was nipped off at the plate.

Altenberg came running in for Holden's low fly, got behind it and then dropped it. Damrau sacrificed and Holden scored on Howley's smash.

There was not much interest to our run-getting. The handicap was too heavy and we were distant trailers. We banged Mr. Herche solidly thruout. Our first two came in the 3rd. Truesdale beat out a bit to short and Jacobson forced him at second. Whiteman died and Truesdale counted on Larry's hit to left. Schultz singled and Larry came in on Altenberg's rap.

Schultz singled and Larry came in on Altenberg's rap.

The 5th was a two-run inning. Whiteman walked, but Larry raised a pop fly. Schultz singled and was forced at second by Altenberg. Blackburne's healthy double to centre scored both base runners. Our fifth run came in the 7th. With one disposed off Altenberg singled and Blackburne rolled to short. Altenberg was called safe when Damrau dropped the ball and recovered. It was a close decision and the Montreal team kicked loud and long on the decision. Lalonge singled and Leake's roller to first was corralled as the run came over. ### SOCCER

Linfield F. C. beat Parkviews on Saturday in the final of the junior challenge cup. A good crowd was on hand at Earl Grey school to witness the battle between these teams. After half-time Parkviews were leading by 2 goals to nil, and for a time it looked as the Linfield would have to forfeit the cup, but the brilleant work of the latter's forward line saved the situation. Parkviews being unable to score further, while Linfield scored 5 goals in quick succession. For Parkview, Baird in goal played a great game, cleverly saving shot after shot. For the cup winners, Anthony, Hardie, Lavery, Irwit, Torrance and Thompson played great combination, which was the rau to Cather. # TILLSONBURG WON

Special to The Toronto World.

Buffalo, Aug. 2.—The moving of the jack in the last ends might have changed the ownership of the Trophy and Frontier cops in the International Lawn Bowling Tournament. Both losers were well down, but recovered in fine shape and both looked as if they might pass the leaders before the tape was reached. Dr. W. S. McDonald's Tillsonburg rink won the trophy from Skip Jimmy Bell's Londoners, and Ald. Hiltz, of Toronto, skipped his men to victory against Skip McEwan, of Weston. The Bell rink dropped far behind when the Tillsonburg quartet scored a five-end, but that woke them up, and they chased the Tillsonburgers all the way home. By trailing the kitty Bell, with his last bowl, might have wen the game, but he failed to do.

In the Frontier firal the Weston bunch had a hard row to hoe. After the St. Matthews crew had run up the score to 19-6 in the fifteenth end, a four-end gave the Westonians heart and they went to it. At the last end they were only five down, and Skip McEwan, with his last shot, missed the Jack by one inch. Had he carried it back he had a chance of tying the score.

The Woes of Owners Who Raced at Maison

Montreal, Aug. 2.-The finish of the racing season in Montreal, which was breught to a close on Tuesday afternoon, July 31, according to the order in council prohibiting betting after Aug. 1, brought with it a hard luck tale. That the meeting at Maisonneuve was not a successful one was shown by the numerous owners and riders who hung around Freeman's Hotel the next day awaiting the payment of the purses won on the closing days of the meeting at the east end track. The horsemen notified the management of Maisonneuve the end of last week that they would finish out the meeting for reduced purses if they were paid each morning following the races of the previous day. According to some of the members of the horsemen's committee this was agreed to and the meeting continued.

Some of them were but the purses for the Tuesday's racing, which was the last day of the meeting, were not paid. The horsemen say that they were promised payment of the purses and amounts won by them after the last race was won. When they went into the office at the track to collect they were told to go to room D at Freeman's Hotel yesterday morning, where they would receive their money. The majority received only part of their money, as well as the majority of the other employes, but up until a late hour last night the owners who raced on the last day were still awaiting to collect the money won by them.

still awaiting to collect the money won by them.

Several of the owners took legal advice over the matter, while the horses of others were attached for debts, they being unable to meet their liabilities. Numerous stories are told by the owners regarding the promises made over the payment of the purses, and when they arrived at Freeman's Hotel there was no one there to meet them or offer any explanation. While these owners are waiting for their money they are running up expense bills and may lose their horses in the bargain. The crowd remained at the hotel all day long, included in the number being one or two well-known local owners who had no hesitation in stating that they would take action against the management of the club to recover the amount due them.

Marshaled by Lt.-Col. R. S. Wilson, Officer Commanding G.W.V.A.

Two thousand Toronto veterans of the great war again did their bit for King and country last night by parading in the interests of the winthe-war movement. The veterans were led off at 7.30 by the G. W. V. A. band, and marched west on Carlton to Yonge, to Shuter. and Mutual streets. hide hide in little or no demand.

Receipts of cattle at the Union Stock Pards up till Thursday noon for the week have %343 head, a light run, but notwithstanding this, except for choice heavy steers suitable for the New York or Boston market, has shown little improvement over last week. The latter showed an advance of 25c, and more of the same food kind ought to meet a ready market at the Union Yards.

There has been a good demand for best butchers, but medium and common cattle went lower. As stated in the list of representative sales, bulls, stockers and feeders meet with little demand. Good springers and milkers continue to meet with a steady demand at good prices.

Sheep and Lambs.

Light sheep are in good demand at steady prices, but lambs were from 1/4c to 1/4c higher over. Wednesday's prices, and altogether the lamb trade is very strong, ecoring from $2 to $2.50 per cwt. over the close of last week. This is probably due in a great measure to the fact that the farmers are extremely busy haying and a return to normal conditions would, it is generally thought, bring about more or less of a decline. The outlook for the present is, however, said to be for Steady prices. Calves were steady yesterday with Wednesday's quotations.

Government Ownership and Narrow Fluctuations and

The government ownership policy nounced at Ottawa has caused some insternation in financial circles and ther involved the outlook in the rket for securities. The evidenting of unrest which exists is destricted of any confidence, and the lative issues consternation in financial circles and further involved the outlook in the market for securities. The evident feeling of unrest which exists is destructive of any confidence, and the wonder is that more liquidation of the speculative issues does not foliow. Exchanging of ordinary stocks for the war loans is also feared, and this again is against the general market. Yesterday's business on the Toronto exchangewas small, and facing another threeday holiday the market cannot be expected to show any vim. Except for dealings in the war loans the trading was extremely limited. There was some little activity in Brazillan and the price was again adjusted above the 39 was extremely limited. Wheat Runs Up at Chicago Owing to Short Covering.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Corn ran up in value today owing to disappointment over the scantiness of rains in the southwest, and to increasing urgency of industrial demand. The market closed firm, 1% to 2c net nigher, at $1.17% to $1.17% to $1.17% to $1.17% to $1.17% to pecember, and $1.15% for May. Wheat finished strong, 13c up, at $2.31 September. Oats gained 1%c to 1%c, and provisions 20c to 42c.

It was quickly apparent to a majority of corn traders that the relief which rains had afforded to crops in the southwest and elsewhere did not amount to nearly as much as expected.

Wheat prices fluctuated widely on a very limited trade. By far the greater portion of the cay's advance took place in the last few minutes of the session, as a result of a little short covering when the market was bare of offers.

Notwithstanding that the oats market was easy during the first half of the day, advances finally took place in response to the strength of corn. Liverpool advices were at hand that entente countries were making liberal purchases of the new American crop.

BRITISH KEEP RIDGE BY HARD FIGHTING

Germans Fail to Regain High Ground About Pilkem.

British Front in France and Bel-gium. Aug. 2—(By the Associated Press.)—"The situation is virtually unchanged."

This sums up yesterday's news from the wide zone along which the British and French Tuesday hurled British and French Tuesday hurled Prince Rupprecht's forces back to the supporting defences at a depth varying between one and three miles. Artillery activities continued with great intensity, the British pouring a steady stream of high explosive shells into positions which the Germans /now hold but there was comparatively little infantry. The allies yesterday were busy conpositions, these did not 'materialize. This was perhaps due partly to the heavy rain, which continued without cessation since last night, filling shell holes with water and turning the ground into a deep mud, over which it is difficult to fight.

German Bombardment.
The German guns, however, many of which had been withdrawn to posi-tions farther back before the rain began, have been carrying on a steady bombardment, especially against the territory captured by the allies on the northern side of the Ypres salient, but their firing has been more or less erratic because of the storm, which blocked the work of the observation officers. As usual, the Germans are employing great quantities of gas Due to the complete preparation made for yesterday's assault, the British casualties have not been excessive, but the condition of the battlefield and statements by prisoners indicate that the German losses were exceedingly heavy. The British med-

the beginning of the war. Particularly noticeable was the scarcity of veteran non-commissioned officers on boulders which have penetrated and the large number of Youths from the 1918 class who are nothing more than raw recruits. One veteran of many battles freely expressed his high tide (the ship grounded at about high tide) contempt of these younveters, who, he half elbb) to pull her from her dansaid, lacked stamina to stand up gerous position with tugs. The tide under the hardships of war, and was at its height at 6.20 last evening.

DIPLOMATIC DEFEAT

Military Critic Says British Have Been More Clever Than Huns.

Zurich, August 2.—The military critic of The Munchener Neueste Nachrichten, regrets that British diplomacy has been more clever and successful than the German. He says it has been constantly making new allies until now there are 1,350,000,000 foes against Germany's 150,000,000, and declares that Great Britain's greatest gain in this respect is America. Nothing is more foolish than to underestimate "Economically, politically, and ancially an Anglo-Saxon circle has now been formed and threatening to rule the world unless we oppose a central European and Asiatic com-bination against it. The military im-portance of America is equally great.
