Canadian Press hotel, which was filled with travellers at the time, and eight houses, were destroyed last night in a conflagration which threatened to wipe out the village of Daaquam, Montmagny county. The fire broke out in the hotel, whose guests had to make a rapid exit in their night attire, and quickly spread to the neighboring houses.

Among the dwellings destroyed were those of M. Gosselin, telegraph operator; Leon Gouldbout, merchant, who lost his store and a large stock of goods; J. Lachance and others. Some of the guests in the hotel suffered burns in making their escape.

Royal Cruise To Australia

THE battle cruiser Repulse is now in Portsmouth Dockyard undergoing slight changes for the trip of the Duke and Duchess of York to Australia. The cabin accommodation is being slightly increased and the furniture in the royal quarters is being covered with a blue chintz, chosen by the Duchess. The voyage starts January 6, the route being via Las Palmas, Jamaica, Panama Canal, and the Fiji Islands, arriving at Auckland, N. Z., February 22. After a month in New Zealand their Royal Highnesses will proceed to Australia, and on May 9th will officiate at the transfer of the Commonwealth capital to Canberra, leaving for home May 23, via Mauritius and the Suez Canal. Our picture shows a splendid view of the main deck of the Repulse, looking from her bow, and showing her four 15-inch guns. Inset are pictures of the Duke and Duch ess of York.

Great pressure, he said, was being brought to bear upon the British gov-ernment to do something impulsive and prevocative in the Far East and was essential that public opinion should be aroused. "I record my warning," he de-

AT HANKOW

HANKOW, Dec. 4-Last minute efforts to prevent a general anti-foreign strike here which originally was planned to begin today, were made last night, but in the absence of conclusive results, foreign concessions are strengthening their barricades because of continued threatening demonstrations at their borders. Five United States gunboats and one British de-stroyer lie in the harbor and have reinforced their nationals with extra landing parties. A French destroyer is expected momentarily.

The city is under the uncertain rule of recently-formed labor unions whose pickets have practically dominated the situation for a week. The helplessness of the Cantonese officials, was il-ustrated by the imprisonment of its commissioner of foreign affairs in his own office for several hours by thousands of striking workers. Family Skeletons Rattled as Counter-Statements Made

Canadian Press Despatch. LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.-Overtures for a truce between Charles Chaplin and his estranged wife, having failed, they settled down today for a finish fight in court, after an exchange of statements which brought some of the family skeletons out of the luxurious closets of the film comedian's Beverly Hills mansion.

Chaplin late last night, issued a statement in which he denied Mrs. Chaplin's charges of cruelty. He declared he had opened his circle of friends to her with the intention of making her happy, but that she preferred acquaintances of her own and not intellectual," and of his calling her sence of Mr. Chaplin. He also charged she had abused the privilege of unlimited credit he had granted her in limited credit he had granted her in the shops and cafes of Los Angeles.

CALED HER "YELLOW"

Shortly after this statement was issued, Mrs. Chaplin countered with one in which she accused the film concian of avoiding her because she "was not intellectual" and of her calling for its "typellow" and her friends "comfamily "yellow" and her friends "com-mon!" She also maintained she had made many of her own clothes after

Men Entertained

A street railway trolley wire broke in Douglas avenue last night near the corner of Alexandra street. The break was first noticed by a resident in that vicinity, who immediately telephoned to headquarters and men were sent to the scene. There was no interruption to traffic, as cars coasted past the broken wire. The citizen who reported the break was so pleased with the quick response of the workmen, he entertained their work to coffee and sandwiches.

signs along the roads of the province to guide and warn the motorist. At its meeting last evening it was decided to have a committee appear before the Government and bring to its attention the matter of remarking the roads, and some other changes in the interests of good roads and of safety. The public are indebted to the Association for its useful activity in the past, and the Government has wisely recognized the value of its service and co-operation. The matter of road signs is one of importance. The highways in some parts of the province are much better provided with signs than others. This is a matter in which the municipalities should be interested, and co-operate to bring about the necessary improvements. The roads in some sections suffer greatly from the passage over them of very heavy loads in the late fall and in the early spring. If the Automobile Association, by directing attention to this matter, can get some action to protect tion to this matter, can get some detail agreed upon will involve the case of other emservice of great value; because it will in that way ployes, who have been requesting an advance in reduce the cost of road repair to the taxpayer as well as ensure a smoother passage for highway

ITALY'S POLICY

UNDER Fascism Italy is without doubt making progress as a power in a manner that savors of the old European spirit rather than that of the League of Nations. Italy insists on colonial expansion, and on being consulted in regard to matters which concern the Mediterranean even when, as in the case of Tangier, Italy's interests are not directly involved. Now her "pact" of friendship and security" with Albania seems likely to upset the balance of the Balkans and has already aroused adverse comment in Jugo-Slavia.

In Belgrade it is felt that this pact means no less than an Italian protectorate over Albania, and that the spirit of the recent treaty between Italy and Jugo-Slavia is violated thereby. The Rome announcement admits that the pact is based on a "unilateral guarantee of Albania's territorial integrity." Albania's independencepossibly this and territorial integrity possess different shades of meaning-was already guaranteed by Italy's treaties with Jugo-Slavia, Greece and Rumania. The new pact also contains a mutual agreement to refrain from making treaties with other nations affecting the reciprocal interests of Italy and Albania. A glance at the map might easily be the affair of other nations, and Italy's existing Balkan treaties certainly seem to cover possibilities in this direction. Doubtless matters will be straightened out eventually, but it is unfortunate that Italy cannot be content to pursue a somewhat more gradual and less aggressive policy to secure what is plainly her intention, virtually undisputed control of the Mediterranean. But what, one wonders, is Italy's attitude towards those three red dots which dominate the Tideless Sea-Gibraltar, Malta and

BUFFALO EXPECTS MORE

THERE has been much protest in Canada against a condition which enables mills in Buffalo to import Canadian wheat, mill it and export it under exceptionally favorable freight rates to compete with Canadian flour. The Food Research Institute of Stanford University, California, expects to see an expansion instead of a curtailment of this business. In a recent publication it says that 15,583,000 bushels of wheat were so imported and milled during the fiscal year 1925-26, chiefly by mills in the states bordering on the Great Lakes. It says Buffalo is the great centre for this milling, both for domestic consumption and for export, and it expects an expansion of the business there because American wheat good enough to mill into standard flour for export is becoming too expen-

As a matter of fact, the United States does not produce any wheat that can compete with the hard wheat of Canada. The Financial Post points out that when the American miller buys Canadian wheat and exports the flour he gets a rebate of the tariff of forty-two cents per bushel. Because he is enabled to do this, Canadian mills lose business; and the Financial Post says: "It looks as though it were time to consider seriously whether Canada should not impose a forty-two cents a bushel exort tax on wheat shipped into the United States for milling in bond." Some men interested in the grain and milling trade would go so far as to prohibit the export of wheat to be converted into flour for export by American mills. The problem is not easy of solution, but the Financial Post says: "Any good citizen might feel justified in taking objection to the fact that nothing seems to have been done seriously to find

The Maritime Provinces are interested, because if more grain were sent this way for export there might be a possibility of getting mills at Saint John and Halifax. The mills have followed the grain as far east as Montreal, and that they have stopped there must be to a considerable extent due to the fact that so little grain has been coming this way for export. If we could secure these mills it would be of great benefit to the dairying industry, because bran and shorts and other mill issued by the Department of Agriculture at November 11, the price of bran in Ottawa, on bags in Manitoba was twenty-four dollars, in Alberta and British Columbia, twenty-five dollars, in Ontario, twenty-nine dollars, Quebec thirty dollars and forty cents and Nova Scotia, thirtyeight dollars. Shorts in bag per ton were twentysix dollars in Manitoba, thirty-one in Ontario, thirty-one sixty-six in Quebec and forty dollars in Nova Scotia, while in British Columbia it was only one dollar more than in Manitoba. Surely it should be possible to do something to change this state of affairs,

GOOD ADVERTISING

The Evening Times=Star READERS of the London publication "Canada," have had their attention directed very parhave had their attention directed very particularly in its issue of November 20 to the Maritime Provinces as a field for farm settlers. The A RECENT issue of the Winnipeg Tribunc first page contains a picture of a very fine farm on the Saint John river, and one of another in Nova Scotia. Reference is made to the meeting of the three Premiers from the Maritime Provinces with President Beatty of the Canadian Pacific and Col. Stanley of the Hudson's Bay Company, of the ocean and in Great Britain. relative to a colonization scheme for these provinces, and also to Nova Scotia's own policy to secure immigrants. The same issue of "Canada" notes the fact that "Canadian apples have again been attracting the attention of the British public through their successes at the Imperial Fruit Show." Editorially, "Canada" makes a very vigorous protest against the action of a section of the London press in "making unfair and ignorant criticism of Canadian mining ventures." The same issue has a very interesting picture showing a crowd of people around a Canadian Government exhibition van loaded with Canadian products at Stocktonon-Tees on market day. All of this is valuable publicity, and it is to be regretted that "Canada" has not a wider circulation among the people who should get the information it presents.

The country breathed easier yesterday when word was received that a compromise had been effected between the two great railway systems and the conductors and trainmen, so that a strike at the beginning of winter, which would have been averted. The contention of the railways gress in America during the last 20 years, differinflicted enormous loss upon the Dominion, has was that they could not afford to increase wages without increasing their rates. The men insisted that they were not receiving adequate pay. The compromise agreement provides for some increases, but not to the full extent demanded. President Beatty points out that the increase wages. For the present, however, the trouble is averted; and it may be hoped the spirit of mutua goodwill that appears to have characterized the negotiations just concluded will prevent any serious trouble in the future.

Winnipeg is now considering the matter of a City Manager. The Civic Legislation Committee of that city will decide in the near future whether or not a plebiscite on the question will be taken along with the civic elections in 1927. Winnipeg already has a form of city managership, in that several departments have been placed under the city engineer. The Taxpayers' Association, however, has asked that the scheme be adopted in its entirety. An article on this matter is published in column three of today's issue.

Several buildings in Montreal are being constructed of stone from Manitoba. Stone from that province has also been used for construction purposes in Toronto and Quebec. There is an abundance of building stone in the Maritime Provinces. Would it be possible to find a market for some of it in the Central Provinces?

(Manchester Guardian) PROTESTS at the humiliation of having trade advertisements stamped by the post office on correspondence may recall the days when postal communication of any kind was considered a little lacking of dignity. Miss Louise Courtney in her reminiscences says that "when the London twopenny post was first established, it was not ctiquet to make use of it for private letters. I remember my father's annovance when a stupid ootman posted a letter to Sir Robert Peel instead of sending it by a groom. Winnipeg To Consider City Manager System

"The Civic Legislation Committee is scheduled to consider the desirability of taking a referendum a year hence on the city managership question. Whatever may be thought of the city manager plan certain it is that widespread interest obtains in this form of civic administration, both on this side

"Winnipeg, it may be recalled, has recently moved in the direction of city managership by placing half a dozen or more different departments under the city engineer. But the Taxpayers' Association urges that the full city managership plan be applied to Winnipeg and has presented a petiasking that a plebiscite on the question be taken on civic election day, 1927.

"So far there has been insufficient experience of the working of the city manager plan to warrant anything in the way of a final verdict. This seems to be admitted by the proponents of the plan. A large number of the cities that have appointed a city manager are smaller places, and for the most part they made the change in the wake of the "Cleveland is the largest city to adopt the city manager plan. Development In Advertising

(New York Herald-Tribune)

DEVELOPMENT in the field of advertising is one of the outstanding events in the recent history of this country. In his address before the American Association of Advertising Agencies at Washington Wednesday night President Coolidge did not overemphasize in the least its influence on American life. This country has advanced the art of advertising to the point where other nationals regard our standards as guides and the basis for all comparisons. Our economic development, the growth of big business enterprises and the standardization of innumerable products would have been impossible without advertising. With the evolution of advertising there has come an improvement in its ethical standards provement in its ethical standards.

Mr. Coolidge says that advertising is "the most potent influence in adopting and changing the habits and modes of life, affecting what we eat, what we wear and the work and play of the whole nation." There can be no difference of opinion regarding this statement. Advertising has had the effect of raising the general standard of living, of bringing what were once regarded as luxuries within the reach of the masses. A visitor coming to America for the first time is often struck by the similarity in dress, especially of the men. Thousands wear clothes cut on the same lines, hats of the same shape and color, shoes of the same last. Advertising is often responsible for slang phrases. Generally these popular words and phrases are short-lived. They sweep over the country and are forgotten in a few weeks or months. The more popular they are the more boring they become. Such uniformity has its Truthfulness in advertising is a subject which has received much attention. Advertisers have learned that straight dealing, avoidance of exaggeration, pays. The improvement in the quality of advertising has been followed by an increase The results of clean advertising campaigns are now being realized to the profit not only of the public but of the producers as well. Here is the only solid basis of advertising as a force making for real progress.

Valet Hero to His Master

(London Correspondence, New York Times)
THE old adage, "No master is a hero to his valet," may or may not be true, but anyhow it became clear here today that at least one valet in history has become a hero to his master. This valet attended the late Lord Curzon, Viceroy of India, for years, and in a book just published, Lord Curzon relates many anecdotes about him, showing how he considered the valet a remarkable man This valet was actually discovered here in Lon don today by an enterprising newspaperman, who told him how highly his former master esteemed him and what a prominent place he occupied in the Curzon book. The valet gave his name as Harris, and he is a real person, not a male counterpart of Dickens' "Mrs. Harris." He was agreeably surprised by the fame suddenly thrust upon him. He is now valet to another nobleman. "I had no idea Lord Curzon had taken so much notice of the incidents," he said, referring to mentions of him in Curzon's book. "I think I may say I was looked upon as his friend and I always accompanied him as his sole personal servant." Harris was asked as to the truth of various incidents, especially one mentioned by Lord Curzon to the effect that a certain Indian potentate had promised 16 tigers would be killed by Curzon on one tiger hunt planned in his honor, whereupor the valet—masquerading as Curzon's military aide—poked the potentate in the ribs and remarked: "Half that figure, and once again." The truth of his estimate was shown next day, when not 16, but only four tigers were sighted by Curzon and his fellow hunters. Referring to this yarn, Harris said today he

In this way he saved the latter considerable trouble when the Viceroy did not want to go through arduous official receptions etc. Once Harris and Lady Curzon's maid posed little appreciated. istmasy gift. It is something that will give mother lots of pleasure, bessaving her so much work.

Surprise her with an Easy Washer this Christmas.

CONVENIENCE—

All other things being equal, the washer which is most convenient and which saves the greatest amount of labor is the one you want. The large, open, self-draining tub of the EASY being perfectly round, is conveniently accessible from all sides and is set just at the right height, making this machine easiest to load, unload and clean. It has a light, strong cover, the polished aluminum suction cups, light but strong, are instantly removable, giving easy access to the clothes. The control levers and switch are placed where the hand most naturally rests. There are no heavy parts to lift and no back exertion is necessary. Can be drained most conveniently and quickly, with a permanent pipe or hose connection to the sewer, or by an auxiliary suction device to tubs. As a convenient labor-saver, the EASY saves more work than any other machine. (Electrical Dept.—Third Floor.)

First Note Whether the Girl is Sweet or High Tempered; Watch How She Treats Her Family; Check Up On Her Brain Power and Test Her for Nagging - But, Above All, Find Out Whether She Loves You Before

"CAN you tell me any sort of a thirty-third degree test that you can apply to a girl before marriage that will reveal if she has the objectionable traits that put the kibosh on things later?" asks a man.

You cannot tell with absolute certainty, son, complete mental and moral somersault on the way from the altar, and reverses all of her ways and habits and previous records.

I have seen butterflies turn into grubs. I have seen lazy, selfish girls, who never had a thought for anybody but themselves, make of themselves doormats for their husbands and children. FIRST. I should ascertain whether the girl was sweet-tempered or high-tempered, for the wife's temper is the barometer of the home. There is sunshine and fair weather in it if she is jolly and goodnatured, and there are storms and hurricanes that makes a man want to set sail for another port if she is peevish and cross.

Watch out, then, for the girl who is nervous and whose voice gets a razor edge on it; who is irritated by little things, and who takes offense at trifles. She will make the sort of a wife who is cross and fretful, and who keeps her husband walking on eggs for fear of offending her.

F YOU marry her, you will have to wipe your feet on the mat before you enter your own doorway; you will have to punch the time clock on the dot, or get a bawling out for being late. You will have to furnish an alibi for every hour you are away from home and live in a state of perpetual apologies for the things you have done and the things that you have left undone that you should

THEREFORE, if I were a man who was seeking a woman with whom I expected to spend many thousands of evenings I would be very sure that I had found one who made me sit up and take notice when she opened her mouth, and who was so entertaining that I was thinking up things to talk over with her when I was FINALLY, in picking out a wife I should take particular note of whether a girl can say a thing once and let it alone. For therein lies the acid test of the nagger.

AND most of all would I notice whether the girl loved me well enough to put my happiness before her own, for, after all, that is the great thing in marriage.

THE wife who loves is nearly always a successful wife. DOROTHY DIX

Rows on rows of men and the messengers of Spring to the winds their notes will fling; joyous carols their notes will arise to the changeful April skies.

It is a strange scene in a strange makes 20,000,000 dolls a year.

The special wood flour used in make women stand at the daily toil of feeding unbreakable heads takes about 15,-000,000 feet of timber annually.

Thousands of bales of cotton and the air He who learns from Winter's mood sees life's seasons filled with good; in dark changes time may bring sees how Winter leads to Spring. He who waits with patient strength reaps his sure reward at length. Naught of sorrow, sting or smart harms the man with steadfast heart; he has arms invincible in the knowledge: "All is well!"

Thousands of bales of cotton and thousands of yards of cotton and the babies they are feeding are rosy-faced dolls. With the holidays near, with patient strength reaps his sure reward at length. Naught of sorrow, of helpers of Santa Claus. Artists are employed in the work, too, painting in the eyebrows and eyelashes and properly shellacking each dolly's cheek.

CONTENTMENT is the twin of thousands of bales of cotton and thousands of yards of cotton and thousands of yards of cotton and silk fabric go into the making.

And the smiles the thousands of skilled workers will bring on Christmas morning will stretch, end to end, across the land.

MORE than three-quarters of the doll factories in the United States, Flapper Fanny Says | I am told, are here. Thousands of New Yorkers labor at this task of making Margie's mummers. Huge machines with special molds turn out the unbreakable heads, which are made in two sections. Each machine is capable of making a halfmachine is capable of making a half-dozen doll heads in one operation.

The heads are sandpapered and smoothed on buffing wheels. Then they are ready for their bath. A dip into the sizing material makes the head as smooth as the skin of a baby and imparts the ruddy glow of health. Holes are drilled for the eyes, the rosy cheews sprayed on. THE head, its facial makeup complete, is taken to a circular saw. The top is cut off and the doll's eyes are inserted. Then the head is ready for its wig, sometimes real hair, some times silk. Dolls have followed the styles of humans. Most of the dolls now have bobbed hair, permanently waved in the latest fashion. DOLLS used to be rather stiff persons. Their diet then was sawdust, but that is changed now. American dolls have soft, cuddly bodies plumply filled with cotton.

Alcohol and Longevity

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN UNFORTUNATELY, when alcohol becomes the topic for consideration, even the most scientificallyminded person is likely to be influenced by his prejudices. Statistics have been manipulated by the proponents of both teetotalism and the unflimited use of alcoholic beverages to who know they will not get it if the proposition of the drinking is hepeficial.

CLASSIFIES DRINKERS

Drinkers were classified into groups according to the amount of liquor generally taken. Moderate drinking of alcoholic beverages did not shorten life, according to the report. On the contrary, moderate, steady drinkers exhibited somewhat lowered rates of mortality and greater expectancy of life than abstainers.

Studies made upon animals lead to the view that alcohol has a specific selective action on the germ cells, killing off the weak and defective, and leaving the strong and sound to survive and perpetuate the race. It is not certain, however, that these experiments have any practical human significance.

Unemployment and serious business depressions have come with the rise of the French exchange which hit 25.82 to the dollar today, double its value in mid-July when it was quoted in New York at less than two cents. It was 31.10 a month ago and 35.52 two months ago.

Textile mills are idle in the north, 15 Limoges shoe factories are preparing to shut down, while automobile, machinery and clothing manufacturers are reducing forces. About 250, 000 men will be out of work soon, Leon Jouhaux, general secretary of the French Federation of Labor, told the grant at show of hands, voted the appropriations as a whole. The haste of the premier in driving through the budget was due to the fact that he desired that the income side might be approved and the budget become law on New Year's Day.

The premier's rosy budget anticipations are not shared by all, however, this is notably true in business and financial circles. The continued rise in the exchange rate on the franc yester-day was attributed to the success with which M. Poincare's budget proposals were going through the cham-

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is, pine has a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. This makes 16 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good, and pleasant—children like it

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and hoarseness.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Dec. 3— As calmly as she had sat through 24 days of trial, Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall tonight heard a Somerset County jury say that she and her brothers, Henry and Willie Stevens were not guilty of the murder of Mrs.

Eleanor R. Mills. Five hours and twenty minutes after they left the court room the jurymen returned with the verdict of acquittal. The C. N. R. Sustains Heavy Finannames of the defendants were called one by one, Mrs. Hall's being the last.

CROWD GIVEN WARNING.

Before the jury entered, Justice Parker issued a sharp warning to the crowd not to make a demonstration of either approval or disapproval. His injunction was followed to the letter but there was some cheering in the rotunda outside the room, almost the minute the first "not guilty" was the court, and was dragged by three

Upriver Growers More Optimistic Now Than Before, is Report

NOT for many years have the potato producers in the northwest part of the province been so optimistic as at present, according to A. D. McCain, of Florenceville, one of the big potato shippers in the up-river district, in a longdistance telephone conversation yesterday afternoon. Good average yesterday afternoon. Good average crops last year and this year, with high prices in 1925 and fairly good prices this year have gone a long way, he said, in putting a cheerful aspect on the whole situation. While shipments by steamer from Saint John had been somewhat the last weet this condition. fewer than last year, this condition was more than made up for by the fact that large lots had been sent forward this fall to Upper Canada and United States markets, he said. In fact, he added, the shipments out of storage to date were about 40 per cent. more than they were at this time in 1925. Although the yield per acre was not up to the first estimates, the crop was a good average one, Mr. McCain said, netting 80 to 100 barrels an acre.

A WART is your best friend—always on hand.

The low quotation this year was 1.93 3-4 on July 20. The shippers, he declared, were looking forward to brisk market for the rest of the season. While the price paid last year went as high as $4.50 The restorative power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is truly remarkable as is proven by the experience of the writer of this letter. And yet

Miss Jennie Kent, 139 Northumberland St., Brantford, Ont. writes:—

"The strain of nursing my mother through a long illness left me in a weak, run down condition which affected my nerves. I had severe pains in the nerve centres of my arms and limbs which often kept me awake for hours at night. I also had a heavy dragging pain across my back and lelt all the time as if I would not be able to keep on much longer. A treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has removed these symptoms, however, and built me up wonderfully."

Miss Jennie Kent, 139 Northumberland St., Brantford, Ont. writes:—

"The strain of usual experience of a barrel, it was expected that with more rapid handling and a better crop the results of this year's marketing. With the price now in the vicinity of $2.50 a barrel, would be well up to the 1925 figures.

At the present time an average of one steamer a week for Cuba and points south is leaving from Saint John, each vessel taking from 10,000 to 12,000 barrels, or about 35,000 bushels. In addition, the consignments to New England and Upper Canadian markets continue.

Summarising the whole situation, Mr. McCain said that it was very satisfactory and, following up last year's successful scason, there was a feeling of security among the farmers and points scattered that with more rapid handling and a better crop the results of this year's marketing. Canada's Immigration Problem

THE MARITIME PROBLEM—RAILWAYS AND POPULATION SAL-VAGING BRITISH AGRICULTURE

It was clearly brought out at the last Dominion Boards of Trade Con- so we cannot profitably scrap any convention at Winnipeg, that Canada's key problem centres around the population question. Whatever difficulties confront us are directly traceable to an inadequate agricultural producing and consuming population compared with our industrial, business and governmental machine. We suffer from a lack of economic balance—the almost universal complaint. In Canada's case, however, we have the power and opportunity to apply corrective measures, which the older nations have not. They find themselves in a cul-de-sac from which they are unable to smerge. It has always been a popular superstition in Canada that the immigration question is a purely western one. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The highly developed province of Prince Edward Islanu is probably not specially interested. The same may also apply to the self-contained Province of Quebec, whose virile, agricultural population is multiplying at a rapid rate, furnishing ampie recruits for the development of the vast hinterland and of the very finest pioneer type, used to hard work and following a standard of living in mie with the requirements of this arduous task. DECADENT FARMING

The real reason for the prostration of the Maritime Provinces lies in a lecadent agriculture. The reduction in copa area between 1901 and 1925 of nearly half a million acres tells an doquent story, amply explained by a locatent story, and lear that past methods will not secure such a result within generations. The question for the people of Canada to decide is, whether they are prepared to wait for an unlimited period bedief the country is put on an even keep commendally. tural population is multiplying at a rapid rate, furnishing ample recruits icon the development of the vast hinterland and of the very finest pioneer type, used to hard work and following a standard of living in one with the requirements of this ardious task. Ontario faces a particularly difficult on the rorthern areas, which so far has ever been seriously attacked.

At the convention above referred to there was a large delegation from the Maritime Provinces which told in eloquent terms the calamitous story of caversity that has betailen that part of the Dominion since confederation. It has been to the told in official to the told in official to the told in official to the trapit of the trapit of the development in state of the past and the present. It is a province to the past and the present.

No country in the world depends so abjectly and completely upon the highest degree of efficiency in transportation as Canada does. Our great exporting area, contributing the bulk of the rapit of the Dominion since confederation. It is dominion to the United States was referred to. The stagnation of industry, owing to Ontario and Quebec competition, was acknowledged to the past of the past of the past of the past of the past and the present.

But there was a deplorable absence of constructive, remedial suggestion. The development of maritime or population as to eliminate the terrible handless. In addition to this we find in Great tries. The agricultural population of Great Britain—the world's greatest market for food products—is decreasing. During the last 60 years 4,000,000 acres of arable lands have gone down > migration effort involving a total public expenditure of $37,000,000, in addition to the much larger amount our railways and other agencies have contributed, to add 5,992,000 to our population. In this connection it is interesting to note that our annual immigration as far back as 1882 was well over 100,000. In the light of past experience, and the fact that we can no longer offer the strong appeal of the free homesteads and in face of a constantly falling birth rate, it should be fairly obvious to almost anyone that the task of adding a possible $,000,000 people to our present population may well be regarded as one of herculean proportions. It should be abundantly clear that past methods will not secure the minds of our Federal immigration leaders. Political expediency is of paramount importance and the traditional policy of following the lines of least resistance has its irresistible ap-

EXPERT OPINIONS.

Where are we to get people for Can-ada's vacant spaces in the immediate future? Dr. Black, the director of colonization for the National Railways, recently summed the situation up as

"We can't get Germans by any enticement. The German farmer is enjoying unprecedented prosperity. The joying unprecedented prosperity. The Scandinavian and Dutch people, who Scandinavian and Dutch people, who we are so anxious to have, are not easily induced to leave home. In some of these countries it is a punishable crime to make a public speech urging a man to leave his fatherland for citisenship under another flag. In Holland all applicants for emigration must proceed the service of the pass before an old army officer whose word in this respect is law. France and Belgium have colonies of their own to accommodate their surplus of population. Indeed, France is today drawing immigrants from other European countries to replace war wastage. That leaves Central Europe as the only recruiting ground."

Colonel Dennis, chief commissioner of colonization for the Canadian Pacific is, if possible, even more emphatic in his statements regarding the difficulties in the way of considerable Northern and Western European immigration. He also looks to Central and Eastern Europe, where the great human reservoir of the white race is at present located. He sees no hope for

To-night! Clean your bowels and stop headache, colds, sour stomach

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out-the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the con in the bowels. Then you will feel

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

But what of the man with a wife and children, who refuses to take out life insurance, and says: "I'll take a chance on living and providing for my family"?

Isn't he taking the greatest chance

Why should he take such a chance, when there are Mutual Policies that would not be a burden to any man? And the generous Mutual profits can be used to reduce the cost to the lowest possible point. The Mutual Life of Canada, as you know, is famous for the low net cost of its profit-paying policies.

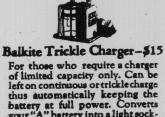

The Mutual Life agent will be glad to furnish particulars of the low cost of Mutual Life insurance.

The new Balkite La Trickle and High-Rate Charger

For those who require a charger of limited capacity only. Can be left on continuous or tricklecharge thus automatically keeping the battery at full power. Converts your "A" battery into a light socket "A" power supply. Charging rate about.5 ampere. Over 300,000 in use. Price $15.

Balkite "B" eliminates "B"batteries and supplies "B" current from the light socket. Three models. Balkite "B". W at $39 for sets of volts. Balkite "B"-X, for sets of 8 tubes or less, including power tubes—$59.50. Balkite "B"-Y, for anyradioset—$96. Mostowners of even small sets will buy Balkite "B"-X for it has ample power to serve nearly any set you may buy in the future.

Supplies automatic current to both "A" and "B" circuits. Serves any set now using either 4 or 6-volt "A" batteries and requiring not more than 30 milliamperes of "B" current at 135 volts. Practically all sets of up to 8 tubes. Price $83.

converts your "A" battery into a light socket "A" power supply with ample power for the largest sets

The new Balkite Charger with both low and high charging rates is easily the greatest charger value in radio. It combines the advantages of both trickle and rapid charging. At the low rate, as a trickle charger, it keeps your "A" battery automatically at full power, and in effect converts it into a light socket "A" power supply. The high rate provides a ready reserve of power ample for the largest sets.

The Balkite Charger is noiseless in operation. In most cases it can be used during reception. Like all Balkite Radio Power Units, it has no tubes and nothing to wear out or require replacement. It is a permanent piece of equipment. Can be used with either 4 or 6-volt batteries. Ask your dealer. Price $27.50

DOMINICAN SISTERS GRATEFULLY ENDORSE FATHER JOHN'S MEDIGINE

Two Communities Praise Its Value for Coughs, Colds and as a Body-Builder

From two such widely separated spots as Detroit, Michigan, and Lowell, Massachusetts, have come letters from The Dominican Sisters praising Father John's Medicine. Writing from the monastery of The Blessed Sacrament in Detroit, the Sisters say: "We have used Father John's Medicine for colds and coughs and we are certainly willing to advertise its value. The medicine is most useful for colds, restoring lost strength; in a word, a wonderful strength-builder." The Dominican Sisters at Lowell are especially emphatic in testifying to value of Father John's Medicine, for they write:

"We have used Father John's Medicine in our home for many years and it has always had the best results for colds, coughs and as a body-builder. We think we could not get along without it." These are but two of many Institutions, Hospitals and Homes in which Father John's Medicine has won the confidence and esteem of those in authority. They realize that this old-fashioned medicine is free of alcohol and danger ous drugs and may be given safely to the youngest child as well as to feeble old people. For more than 70 years, Father John's Medicine has performed its mission of supplying the body-building nourishment which is needed to build up pale, frail, under-nourished children and to give young and old alike the strength and vigour to throw off those heavy, deep-seated coughs and colds.

Reaches Highest Level Since Collapse Last July

PARIS, Dec. 4—The French franc, whose recent steady rise has caused lear of business depression in industrial circles, today continued its steady upward movement, closing on the bourse at 24.95 to the dollar, the highest that it has reached since its collapse last July.

The franc opened at 25.46 to the dol-nar and 123.50 to the pound sterling, and closed at 24.95 and 121.40. Yester-day's quotations were 25.82 and 124.90.

Morning Stock Letter

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—For some days the greater part of the strength in the stock market has been in the industrial specialties with Steel and General Motors, particularly the latter, being held back. Yesterday buying shifted to these two issues with a notable advance in General Motors. Under cover of the strength in these two stocks yesterday, however, there was considerable profittaking in some of the specialties and some reaction in these over the weekend would not be unlikely. Nevertheless, we still think the market is in a strong technical position and the trend of prices in the immediate future is towards higher prices. Thus, if any reaction does develop in such issues as Air Reduction, WKM., Int. Harvester, Case Threshing and South Porto Rico Sugar, we thing they can be bought. With the strength in General Motors, we still look for higher prices for Chryster and Hupp, and while the steel trade reviews are not optimistic, we think U. S. Steel and BS. will both reach higher prices and are a purchase here. In yesterday's letter we said, following the publication of the wage increase to eastern railroad employes, high grade carrier issues should do better. Most of them showed some advances yesterday. We expect this movement to continue. Among other specialties we look for higher prices in Montgomery Ward and Sloss.

Performing a National Service

With the exception of the United States, Canada produces and exports more wheat than any other country in the world. Canada is essentially an agricultural country, and the development of her rich Western territories has contributed very considerably to her wealth and progress. A most important factor in this development has been the successful operation of great systems of grain elevators, located at strategic points on the railway throughout the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, for the purpose of storing, handling, and finally shipping, in sound condition, the farmer's grain to market.

This valuable and necessary service has been performed by The Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, which, with its predecessors has been in successful operation since 1902; since when its business has expanded commensurately with the growth and development of Western Canada. Today the Company owns 319 country elevators, a large terminal elevator at Vancouver, and controls substantial interests in terminal elevators in Port Arthur and Fort William.

We recommend the 6% First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of The Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, as a sound investment. Net earnings for the four years ended June 30th, 1926, after operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation and taxes, averaged more than four times the annual bond interest requirement of

THE Saint John Hockey Club as a body has joined the 62nd Fusiliers and in the future will play under the colors of that regiment. The team will have the full financial aid and backing of the regimental athletic committee who are now, in conjunction with Captain Brad Gilbert, rounding up all promising material and making plans for the coming winter. Under the new management Saint John hockey fans can rest assured that every effort will be made to give them the best possible team; a team worthy of their support.

The new arrangement is part of a program being carried out by the regiment in getting young men interested in it by making it attractive to them through the formation of inter-com-pany and regimental teams in hockey football, basketball, indoor baseball bowling and other sports. Commit tees have been appointed to deal with the various branches of sport and aiready ensiderable enthusiasm is being displayed. The arrangement is part of the voluntary training scheme. The pay of the men will go towards the promotion of sport and in this way teams will be assured of full financial assistance and compact equipment.

ALL WILL TAKE PART

The regiment is commanded by Lt.-Col. George Keefe and was formerly the 26th New Brunswick Battalion.
The membership is now about 200 and Shift in Standings Expected as gives promise of making the club one of the largest social and athletic clubs in the city. Due to the voluntary system of training, the officers, non-com-missioned officers and men are linked together in a way previously unknown in military circles in these parts. Miss Marion Belding Will Represent Maritimes at W. A. A. F. Annual

SUPPORT for the resolution fostered by the Quebec branch of the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada to reduce the period of noncompetition for physical instructors will be given by the Maritime Province branch, according to Miss Marion Belding, of Saint John, president of the Maritime branch, who will be the only delegate from the east at the annual meeting next Tuesday in Mont-

"The Quebec branch's proposal to reduce the period from five years to two years for girl physical instructors is entirely reasonable, and it will receive our support. Keeping a girl out of sports five years emply because she has taught physical simply because she has taught physical exercise is hardly reasonable,"

Belding says.

Be the Best Man on Earth

Give the Gift that saves you a hundred a year in fuel economy alone—that provides nicer meals - and takes hours of toil off your wife's daily grind. Only safe way is to order early-free installing, low installments.

Cut your cooking heat bill down below $4 a month -some get by under $2. Thrill your wife with a Moffat Electric Range—the fireless cooker that keeps the whole house cleaner by doing away with gassy, sooty, dusty heat and needs no tending, not even polishing. On and off by a button turn. Everlasting construction and free choice of any type element made.

A Tremendous Help

Don't wait—be sure of your Moffat by deciding early and getting dated up for installation, which is free. Hydro keeps only so many models on hand. Avoid last fortnight's rush. Never mind how long you've had your present stove-it becomes a terrible waste alongside a Moffat Electric. Take the doubt out of your wife's cooking, free her from fretting over bad drafts, flues and fuel. Hydro heat is instant heat and sure. Saves ten hours a week in cleaning up alone, saves meat shrinkage, preserving juiciness and flavor, cooks safely for hours with no one near. Many Husbands giving this Range right now so wives can get through Christmas cooking more smartly. Come down and judge the Moffat-the largest selling, farthest forward, perfected Electric Range. Monthly payments as low as $7.50, or what Hydro heat saves over others. Look in tonight.

"It is illegal not to sound the horn under some circumstances. Hundreds of motorists, however, overdo the thing. Informed that they must give a warning when passing another vehicle, rounding a curve or going over the crest of a hill, they regard the regulation as giving them 'carte blanche' to descend upon the horn button with the vigor and 'sticktoitiveness' of the neophyte driver applying his brakes in a ticklish traffic situation.

According to the Motor Vehicle Act, trucks having a weight up to 10,000 and 12,000 pounds are permitted to travel over the roads. It was pointed out that the transferring of portable mills by heavy slovens worked much damage on the roads. It was decided that a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Wigmore,

"Elimination of needless noises is sought in an appeal to motorists by the New Brunswick Automobile Association which points out that the motor car has brought an approximation of bedlum' into hundreds of communities throughout the country. It is inevitable that the use of signal devices on automobiles will produce some noise, but there is much that is rancous in motordom that can be eliminated to the advantage of everyone. Signals must be given on the streets and highways, but there is an intelligent standard in signalling that every motorist should try to attain.

GIVING OF SIGNALS.

"While the giving of signals produces the greatest volume and variety of sound from New Brunswick's 24,000 automobiles, officials of the N. B. A. Steamer Majestic Goes Into Dry Dock-To Be Over-

The river steamer Majestic went into dry dock yesterday to undergo an over-hauling before tying up for the winter at her moorings in Indiantown. The motorship D. J. Purdy is still in the Market slip, where she has been for several days in order to undergo the government inspection of her shaft, which is required every two years. The Purdy will go into winter quarters at Indiantown in a short tilme and it is expected that the Majestic will be out of dry dock and ready to tie up for the winter by the end of next week. The Premier and the Hampton are already at their moorings in the North End.
