Terms of Covenant of Society of Nations

Text Made Public In Paris—Provision For Reduction of Armaments—Free Interchange of Programmes of Nations, Military and Naval

Paris, Feb. 14.—The covenant of the League of Nations was made public this morning. It provides—

Article I.—The action of the high contracting parties under the terms of the covenant shall be affected through the instrumentality of a meeting of a body of delegates representing the high contracting parties, of meetings at more frequent intervals of an executive council, and of a permanent international tribunal to be established at the seat of the league.

Article II.—Meetings of the body of delegates shall be held at stated intervals and from time to time, as occasion may require for the purpose of dealing with matters within the sphere of the league. Meetings of the body of delegates shall be held at such other places as may be found convenient and shall consist of representatives of the high contracting parties. Each of the high contracting parties shall have one vote, but may have not more than three representatives.

Article III.—The executive council shall consist of representatives of the United States of America, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, and of representatives of four other members of the league. The terms of office of these four states shall be determined by the body of delegates on such terms and in such manner as they may think fit. Pending the appointment of representatives of the other states, the representatives of the United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan shall be members of the executive council.

Article IV.—All matters of procedure relating to the league shall be decided by the body of delegates or by the executive council, as the case may be. The body of delegates shall have the right to call upon any power to send a representative to any meeting unless such power has previously refused to do so.

Article V.—The permanent secretariat of the league shall be established at the seat of the league, and shall be under the direction and control of the secretary-general of the league. The secretary-general shall be chosen by the executive council from among the members of the league.

Article VI.—Representatives of the high contracting parties who are engaged in the business of the league shall enjoy diplomatic privileges and immunities and the facilities accorded to diplomatic agents.

Article VII.—Admission to the league shall be open to all states which are invited to do so by the league, and which are able to accept the obligations and to observe the provisions of the covenant.

Article VIII.—The high contracting parties recognize the principle that the maintenance of peace will require the reduction of national armaments to a point consistent with national safety and the enforcement by common action of international obligation, having regard to the geographical situation and circumstances of each and the executive council shall determine the procedure for the reduction of armaments.

Article IX.—The high contracting parties agree to manufacture and implement of arms and munitions and to agree to the execution of the covenant to advise how the evil effects attendant upon such manufacture can be prevented, due regard being paid to the necessities of those countries which are not able to manufacture for themselves the munitions and implements of war necessary for their safety.

The high contracting parties undertake in no way to conceal from each other the condition of such of their industries as are capable of being adapted to various purposes or the scale of their armaments, and agree that there shall be full and frank interchange of information as to their military and naval programmes.

Article X.—The high contracting parties agree to submit to a permanent commission to advise the league on execution of article 8 provisions and on military and naval questions generally. Article 10 provides for the territorial integrity of the states of the league. Eleven gives the league right to take action on any threat of war. Twelve provides against war before arbitration or inquiry. Fourteen deals with a permanent court of international justice.

The rest reached the Times too late for publication. Paris, Feb. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The plenary session of the peace conference to be held in the famous clock room of the foreign office this afternoon, may mark the conclusion of the first, and possibly the most important, phase of the work of the world's greatest international gathering. Subjects of great importance are still to come before subsequent meetings, but in the opinion of qualified students of the history of other conferences, the adjournment of today's session may reveal that the foundation for the settlement of all questions that will follow has been laid.

The view taken by many delegates early in the conference was that nearly every important subject to be adjusted depended for satisfactory settlement upon the good will of the nations. This it became the custom to give a patient hearing to everybody who came to Paris to present the claims of oppressed and distressed peoples, and then refer the claims for justice to the society of nations to be created.

While the great project of a society of nations is under consideration by the various governments represented at the conference, preliminary to the vote, the conference, through its commissions, is expected to prepare a great mass of material relating to the many subjects that will make up the docket of the society.

So soon as the conference has relieved itself of this burden, it is expected to adjourn sine die. It has been said that the date of adjournment would be about June 1.

Paris, Feb. 14.—Leon Bourgeois, in giving France's adhesion to the society of nations today at the plenary session, will make it understood, says a French report, certain reservations in the name of the French government.

Paris, Feb. 14.—The permanent secretariat of the league shall be established at the seat of the league, and shall be under the direction and control of the secretary-general of the league. The secretary-general shall be chosen by the executive council from among the members of the league.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—A decision which is expected to end the strike of eastern textile workers was given by the war labor board last night when a temporary working basis of an eight and one-half hour day and a five day week was announced. It was estimated by labor leaders that at least ninety per cent of the idle employees would resume work on Monday.

INQUIRY INTO FERRY TRAGEDY

Coroner F. L. Kenney, M. D., Selects Jury

Evidence Will be Taken on Tuesday Night—Condition of the Injured Today—Statement by Superintendent Waring

An effort is being made today to determine if possible the cause and place the responsibility for the appalling disaster which occurred last evening on the ferry steamer Ludlow, when she struck the rocks on the West side of the harbor and one of the large stacks of piling broke off and killed a boy and injured five other people, three quite seriously.

Mr. Waring said that there was no objection on Captain Norwood, who was in command of the ferry at the time. When the accident happened, he said, the captain went below to ascertain how the men on the wharf were getting on and a doctor and the ambulance and had them meet the ferry on the East Side. As several of the passengers maintained that some persons had fallen overboard he backed out the ferry but it was soon evident that no one had gone overboard.

Superintendent Waring said that the piling was secured with an iron bolt and that this snapped when the ferry struck the bunters and the large log crashed to the deck of the ferry.

During the night and again this morning he kept in touch with the injured people to make sure that all were receiving the best treatment possible. He was informed this morning that Miss Belyea, who was employed as a deck hand on the ferry, was slightly injured by the accident. Her condition was much the same as that of the other injured persons, but she was considered quite serious, while Miss Myrtle Martin and Miss Elsie Whipple were suffering quite badly from shock. Miss Alston's injuries were painful, but not considered so serious.

This morning Coroner Kenney empaneled a jury of seven men, including British, American, and French. Harry Belyea, Harold Mayes, James McLeelan, Samuel Irons, and Joseph Northrup, and at two o'clock they went to the hospital and viewed the body of James Buffington Charters, who was killed. At half past five this afternoon they went to the scene of the accident and inspect the piling. Evidence will be heard on next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in City Hall, West St. John.

Another Victim The Times is informed this afternoon that Miss Leona Jennings of 132 Winslow street, West St. John, is today kept by her bed from injuries said to be received from the piling. The informant states that Miss Jennings is injured in the back. When the piling tumbled onto the deck of the steamer Miss Jennings was so near it that it drove her wrist watch into her flesh.

The city engineer, G. G. Hare, who was on the ferry steamer when the accident took place has been making an investigation. He found that the piling which was broken off and which fell on the ferry was comparatively new and that the bolt which was secured by a one-inch iron bolt. The bolt also was new and the break showed that there had been no rust on it. A pressure of about 80,000 pounds would be required, he said, to break off such a bolt.

It has been pointed out by persons familiar with the ferry that, while there is now only one cross piece to which the piling is secured in former years there were two, so that if the piling had been fastened in one the other still would support the piling.

Believed He Helped In Edith Cavell Tragedy

French Authorities Hold Man Named Krein, Said to Have Assisted in Making Case Against Martyred Nurse

Paris, Feb. 14.—French military authorities now hold, on a charge of dealing with the enemy, a man named Krein, who is alleged to have played a leading role in the Edith Cavell tragedy. A report made on Krein for Judge Advocate Chesnut by Public Inspector Choix states that the man was in jail at St. Quentin at the beginning of the war. He was released by the Germans and went to the mansion of Prince and Princess Czernin in Belgium, where he denounced the prince and princess as having aided French prisoners of war to escape. As a result the princess was condemned to ten years imprisonment at hard labor.

Krein is said to have then gone to Brussels, where he was taken into Miss Cavell's hospital service and helped to "work up" the case against her. Constantinople, Feb. 13.—It is reported that Dr. Besideh, former yall of Diarbek, accused of complicity in Armenian massacres, who recently escaped from custody, was sent to earth by the Turkish police and shot himself through the head to avoid arrest.

BERNSTORFF NOT A DELEGATE Ebert, German President, Makes Announcement of Government Policy

Weimar, Feb. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Count Von Bernstorff will not go to the peace conference as a German delegate. Germany plans, for the time being at least, a policy of non-participation in the general conference. Germany will announce within a few days her intention to carry out complete disarmament and disbandment of the German army, a measure made up of the democratic, Centre and Socialist parties is now discussing details of the proposed programme. Bernstorff is an informal talk with foreign newspaper men yesterday.

Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, foreign minister in the provisional cabinet; Dr. Eduard David, the president of the National Assembly; and many persons experienced on economic lines, President Ebert said, would probably attend the peace conference for Germany.

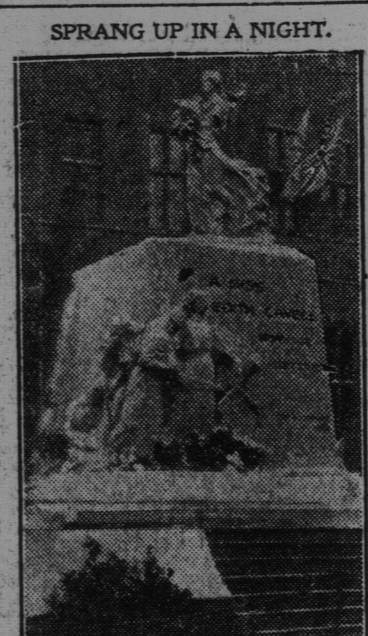

The programme of the new German government includes equal rights for men and women, the improvement of the educational system, conscription along democratic lines to establish a people's army, rationing of maximum prices of food and necessities of life, care of the wounded and the families of those killed during the war, the socialization of all industries ripe for such treatment, particularly the coal and iron mines, and considerable assistance toward rehabilitation of German prisoners of war, and for the establishment of a league of nations, with disarmament and an obligatory court of arbitration, and that may be made impossible in the future.

C.P.R. SAYS EMBARGOES ON FREIGHT LIFTED Montreal, Feb. 14.—The Canadian Pacific Railway announces that all embargoes on freight have been lifted.

Bands of thieves are reported to have the German city of Hamburg in a panic. There is a possibility of a strike on Monday by printers of Quebec newspapers over the wages scale.

Phelix and Phermand WEATHER REPORT Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. R. F. Stuart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis—The storm is now centered in Illinois and is dispersing. The weather is mild, and rain is falling in southern Ontario, and it is fairly cold in northern parts of the Dominion.

An Edith Cavell memorial in Brussels, which was set up by the Belgians a few hours after the Germans had evacuated their capital. The inscription reads: "A Miss Edith Cavell, Martyred 22 November, 1914."

RECOMMENDATIONS ON MATTERS OF LABOR Administrative Committee of National Catholic Council in States

Washington, Feb. 14.—The administrative committee of the National Catholic War Council composed of four bishops from every country all over the civilized world. This is not surprising when we consider the fact that tens of millions of men have gone through the "hell" of earth at the front, and also when we consider the financial strain upon the people of the warring nations produced by war. I do not wonder at the interest which is natural under the conditions.

We must see that all that can be done to relieve this state of unrest is done and in reference to the unemployment situation there is probably no class that will play such an important part as the engineers. We realize that there is unemployment in Canada. It is not so apparent east of Montreal, but increases as one goes west. Therefore, we find unrest all through the west.

There is one thing I wish to refer to which affects your profession in particular—that is the construction of highways. I know of no way in which money can be so advantageously used for both unemployment and value as in the making of good roads. This project can be successfully undertaken by the government only with the hearty cooperation of the engineering profession, and I hope that all parties concerned in this undertaking will realize the importance of the engineers, first, last and always.

Quebec's Trouble Over LIQUOR TO SOLDIERS Quebec, Feb. 14.—There were indignant protests last night at a meeting of the civic finance committee when it was learned that Sir Wm. Price of Quebec had sent telegrams to the mayors of Ontario cities asking them to wire Quebec's mayor to protest against the sale of liquor to soldiers here.

MILITARY GOVERNOR OF PARIS DIES AT DINNER Paris, Feb. 14.—General Moliner, military governor of Paris, died suddenly last night while at dinner at the home of Jean Cruppi, former minister of foreign affairs.

HOME VIA PORTLAND. Of Canadian wounded soldiers returning from England by way of Portland, Me., only those men going to Nova Scotia were to pass through the city today. All New Brunswick men were to go to the district depot at Fredericton by way of Fredericton Junction. The Boston train was not expected until after 2 o'clock.

The Allies have demanded from Germany a declaration of all stocks of war materials available in Germany or under construction.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM Will Spend Money Where it Will do Most Good—Advocates Construction of Good Roads and Asks for Co-operation of Engineers

Ottawa, Feb. 14.—"I think that there is a great deal too much talk in some of the newspapers and amongst the public about the troubles of the returned soldiers," said Hon. Frank Carvell, minister of public works, at a luncheon of the delegates to the Engineering Institute Convention yesterday, "and when the government passes an order-in-council which it firmly believes is in the good of the soldiers and which will prevent them from being exploited there is a great outcry about the insult offered to the returned soldiers. This also causes unrest and discontent."

Hon. Mr. Carvell forecasted the future policy of his department. He said in part— "In addressing you for a few moments I realize gratefully that you have given the government part of the credit for pulling this country through the war. I wish to inform you that an equally important task is now before the government and that is getting this country back on a peace basis. An abnormal condition of mind is existent throughout the country. In fact, it exists in every country all over the civilized world. This is not surprising when we consider the fact that tens of millions of men have gone through the "hell" of earth at the front, and also when we consider the financial strain upon the people of the warring nations produced by war. I do not wonder at the interest which is natural under the conditions.

New Proposals For Irish Government

London, Feb. 14—Dramatic developments are impending in the situation in Ireland. The Daily Express is given to understand that Lord French, viceroy of Ireland, has come to London to place before Prime Minister Lloyd George tentative proposals for a radical change in the existing system of Irish government. These proposals are supported by Ian Macpherson, the new chief secretary for Ireland, and have been approved by the section of Unionists.

The striking feature of the scheme is that it deals with Ireland as a whole, the "clean cut" of the Ulster counties is absent from Lord French's plan which, however, makes an effort to meet the desires of the Ulster Unionists. Thus far Lord French's reconciliation proposals have not met with the approval of all sections in the government. He has been trying for two months to obtain the release of the Sinn Fein prisoners, but without success.

"The Worst is Yet to Come" Billy Murray

"Can You Tame Wild Wimmen?" Billy Murray

"The Worst is Yet to Come" is a cheerful ditty which everybody will enjoy, except his ex-majesty, William Hohenzollern. It is that amazing blend of gay humor and grim earnest which is so typically American, and so incomprehensible to minds of the Junker mould.

hits along to a jaunty rhythm, breaking toward the end into the melody of "Glory Hallelujah with different words. In short, the song writers, Sam M. Lewis, Joe Young and Bert Gran have provided Billy Murray with the kind of song that is meat and drink to him. Nor is he he happily fixed in "Can You Tame Wild Wimmen?" by Andrew B. Sterling and Harry Von Tilze tamer do his stunt, and figured that a man who could "make a mule stand on his head" might do something to tame his wife! Billy Murray has some very clever patter through the mus between verses, in which he imitates the circus "barker"—absolutely to life. Hear it on it Victor Record at

NEW YORK TIMES BUYS McLEOD PLANT OUTRIGHT.

Halifax, Feb. 13—The output for the year of the McLeod pulp mills at Liverpool (N. S.) has been purchased by the New York Times. It amounts to about 20,000 tons wet and is worth in the vicinity of $25 per ton.

In the U. S. senate, Senator Par- of Georgia yesterday demanded re- of all restrictions against the free portation of cotton not only to e- but also to neutral countries.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 14, 1919

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

NATIONAL HOUSING.

The Times prints today an article from the Toronto Star on the subject of housing, in which it is pointed out that the federal government passes the problem on to the provincial governments and these to the municipalities, which take no action, and thus the country is just where it started.

This view of the situation has also struck Canadian Finance of Winnipeg. They need at least three thousand new houses in Winnipeg, and Canadian Finance agrees with the special housing commission of Toronto that municipal construction of houses is not desirable.

"The city has been urged to take advantage of the government's proposal, but your commissioners are unable to see what advantage it would be to Toronto, since the whole risk, both capital and interest, falls upon the municipality. On the contrary, we view the plan with much apprehension and as being fraught with grave danger, inasmuch as it invites municipalities to undertake building schemes and assume liabilities which may seriously involve them."

While believing, however, that the building should be done by the ordinary contractor, the Winnipeg Journal concedes that at the present cost of construction the private builder is not eager to erect houses, and could not erect them to rent at a figure within reach of the workingman's income. Hence it believes the federal government should give real financial assistance for the benefit of the tenant. It says:—

"Houses constructed during abnormal times must of necessity cost more than they would if constructed in normal periods. This means that the individual or municipality desirous of providing work for the building trades during the readjustment period is to be penalized by having to pay an abnormal price for house construction. This does not seem fair and will retard building activities unless the individual receives some practical assistance from the authorities. As the problem is admitted by Sir Thomas White to be a national one, it might be advisable for the Dominion government to follow the example set by Great Britain and shoulder the extra cost entailed by construction during 1919, and thus encourage home building. Such direct financial assistance would be practical demonstration of the federal government's interest in a national problem, and it would then be doing more than merely acting as the financial agent of the provinces in procuring funds for financing the project. This would be preferable to building inactivity and much to be preferred to the other alternative, i. e. municipal construction, which would result in the extra cost being finally charged up to the home-purchaser."

It is perfectly clear that some one of the governments, federal, provincial or municipal, must do more than lend money at five per cent in order to get houses built cheaply enough to be within reach of people of small income. The British government regards housing as a necessity, which must be faced nationally. We have not yet begun to face it nationally in Canada.

SCHOOL SOCIAL CENTRES

An effort has been made in St. John to persuade the people that the use of school buildings as social centres is dangerous to the community. Here is what Mr. A. L. Stoughton, adviser to the Greater Winnipeg Plan Commission says of such community organizations as the South End Improvement League in St. John. His reference is to country and village communities, but applies equally to cities. He says:—

"The organization may be called a Community Club or any other name, but it should welcome to its activities every member of the community, without restriction. It should be absolutely free from bias of religious or political or other opinion and dedicated wholly to the betterment of the community and every member of it. It should have a programme of meetings and entertainments extending through the season, pre-empting one night of the week for it which would afford sufficient variety to satisfy everyone. These would properly include lectures, readings, debates, concerts, plays, good moving picture shows, entertainments, social gatherings, suppers, fairs and competitions for farm and home products. Local efforts would be largely used, with an occasional lecturer or musician brought from without. All sorts of matters of real personal interest would be discussed, from husbandry, dairying, stock and fruit raising and housekeeping, to history, political economy and world movements. The social spirit should always animate the proceedings, to promote cordiality and good feeling. The hearty greeting and the warm hand-grasp are worth more than the knowledge acquired."

"The club meeting would be the place in which all questions of public interest would be considered and policies decided upon, whether of projects for raising money for charitable purposes, or of schemes for village improvement, where everyone would have a voice, as in a town meeting, the town council being in this way reliably informed of public sentiment. It would thus have a variety of functions, fostering education, recreation, entertainment, the public concern, improvement of farming, etc., but its essential beneficence would be its knitting together all elements and individuals of the community in a common sympathy and interest. The place of meeting should preferably be in a good school building, as the more young and old are brought to the school for all purposes the better."

Such an organization is really more needed in the city than in the country, and the school building should be the centre of its activities. In St. John, however, the use of an unused room in a school building one night a month has been refused.

A HOPEFUL OUTLOOK.

Addressing the members of the Engineering Institute at Ottawa yesterday Hon. F. B. Carvell pointed out that as a result of the war an abnormal condition of mind exists throughout the world. He agrees that everything possible must be done to relieve the state of unrest, but regards the future with a confidence which should mark the utterances of every Canadian at this time. Among other things he says:—

"We have troublous times ahead unless we practically eliminate unemployment, as this condition is the source of Bolshevism. Therefore, it is the duty of every employer to see that every man possible is employed at a fair wage. This should especially be done by the great corporations who have made money during the war."

"There is no country, concerned in the war that is in a better economic condition than Canada, and notwithstanding the fact that the war has caused a very large public debt, I have absolutely no doubt that Canada will rise to the occasion and continue to be one of the most prosperous countries in the world."

Mr. Bonar Law says that the dangers he fears most in England are lack of credit and fear to engage in new enterprises. He urges the people to keep their heads, in which case he believes there will be no great danger of serious unemployment. This is wise counsel, but the government must be as bold and firm in grappling with the problem of unemployment as it was in dealing with war problems. Otherwise the discontent will grow.

Action must be taken to prevent in future such accidents as occurred at the west side ferry floats yesterday afternoon. This is the second within a year, and each had serious results. Yesterday's tragic event brings the matter to a climax. If nothing else can be done passengers can at least be prevented from going forward of the cabins while the boat is being docked.

Hon. F. B. Carvell: "We feel it our duty to take steps to spend the public money to remedy these causes of unrest, and we are going to spend this money where it will do the most good towards relieving unemployment and for the benefit of the returned soldiers."

It was the great ambition of one of the characters in a recently published short story to fill the office of Sacred Wolloh in a fraternal organization. That would be a good title for the chief custodian of a St. John school house.

The municipal authorities will commit a serious blunder if they merely repair the old court house. If at all practicable a proper municipal building should be erected on that site.

The new president of Germany says his government is arranging for complete disarmament and demobilization. That is a very wise policy for Germany.

Was Pulled Through THE TRYING TIME IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. H. Menbury, 325 Seaton street, Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and found them to be of great benefit to me, in fact, I consider they saved my life, and I have told many of my neighbors about them."

Two years ago last November I was in poor health. The doctor said it was change of life, as I was over forty years old, and that I would have to be very careful of myself. Shortly after that I received an awful shock that nearly killed me. The doctor my husband sent for said I would soon be all right, and sent up some medicine, but it only seemed to increase the trouble. I was then taken to the hospital. The doctors examined me, but could not understand my case.

Then they sent for a specialist, as they began to think it was my mind. When the specialist came he was baffled, for I answered his questions all right. Every day I was getting weaker, and when my husband came he could see that I was going, as I could read his thoughts, but said nothing.

Next day a friend came with a cab and took me to their home. They got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I started taking them and began to get better, and at the end of two weeks I could walk around the room. I am now well and able to do my own work. Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

JAMES CHARTERS, TWELVE YEARS OLD, KILLED ON FERRY

Three Others Seriously and Two Slightly Injured When Piling Crashes to Deck of Steamer Ludlow

A very serious accident occurred shortly after 5 o'clock last evening when the ferry Ludlow while approaching the west side of the West Side crashed into the piling and one snapped off, falling on the unprotected heads of the passengers on the boat. As a result James Buffington Charters, aged twelve years, of St. George street, West St. John, was so seriously injured that he passed away shortly afterwards, and Mrs. Thomas Frear of St. James street, West St. John; Milton Belyea, deckhand, who resides in Cedar street, and Miss Myrtle Martin of St. James street west were all seriously injured, while Miss Elsie Whipple and Miss Mary Alston, both of West St. John, were slightly injured. R. W. Wigmore, M. P., and T. T. Lantalam were on the ferry and witnessed the accident. They assisted in extricating Mrs. Frear, who was pinned under the fallen log. Immediately after the accident the seriously injured—The Charters boy, Mrs. Frear and Milton Belyea—were carried into the cabin and medical aid was summoned. At the same time a call was sent in for the ambulance to be ready to receive the injured at the east side floats. According to George H. Waring, ferry superintendent, no medical aid was available at West St. John. The seriously injured were then brought to the east side, on the 5:30 trip of the ferry and willing hands among the passengers did everything possible to relieve the suffering of the injured. The three were in an unconscious condition. At the east side the ambulance received the patients and rushed them to the General Public Hospital where the Charters boy died within ten minutes. Little James Charters, aged twelve

Did YOU Save That Dollar On Your Sunday Dinner?

An ordinary dinner on the last Sunday in January cost a dollar less than it did the Sunday before, according to one market expert, who is showing how the tide of food prices so long at the flood is beginning to turn. The Philadelphia Evening Public Ledger considers the "dissolution of the league of rations" to be in sight when "eggs have begun the Humpty-Dumpty act; butter charges are in a melting mood" and "meat bills are facing a decline." The drop may not be any "shocking, joyous surprise," but the Boston Globe is certain that "gradually it will wiggle its way down to the things we buy at the corner store."

INTERESTING REPORT OF MUTUAL LIFE

This year's financial statements of the various Life Insurance Companies will be examined with more than usual interest in view of the unprecedented straits to which our organizations have been subjected by the war and the epidemic of influenza. A perusal of the Annual Report of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada will be a pleasant surprise even to the friends of that Company who, in view of the war mortality and that accompanying the influenza, might, with some reason, have expected a report less favorable. But the financial strength of this Company, carefully conserved during many past years, has made it possible to pay the unwarred claims and yet leave a substantial surplus. Thanks to the care and foresight exercised in the past the Mutual has won through with splendid credit and, remarkable to relate, with undiminished dividends. The Mutual has, during the war, dispensed to beneficiaries and their friends about two million dollars in addition to the normal mortality. Yet the present position of the Company is magnificent and never before was Canada's only Mutual as popular as it is today. This is evident from the fact that the amount of new business during the month of month, The Company holds a reserve greater than required by the government by $5,813,000 and the assets exceed by $5,813,000 the amount required by the government standard. The amount of Premiums received during the year was $5,211,518.20 and the receipts for interest, rent, etc., amounted to $1,999,884.87, making a total income of $7,211,403.07. This constitutes a wonderful record of usefulness and one of which the individual members of the organization may well feel proud, leaving, as it does, the essential stability of the Company unimpaired. That the Mutual is extremely popular is shown by the fact that during the last five years the production of new business exceeded that of the preceding five years by 63 1/2 per cent. Hugh Cannell is Provincial Manager with offices at 76-78 Prince William street.

International Labor Journal

Paris, Feb. 13.—The peace conference commission on international labor legislation examined today the articles dealing with the procedure of a proposed international conference body. In this process it reached Article XVII, of the draft. This announcement was officially made this afternoon. The commission, the announcement stated, has decided to issue a journal dealing with the problem of international industry and employment. It was agreed also to appoint an international staff, the duties of which would include distribution of information on all subjects relating to international conditions of industrial life and employment.

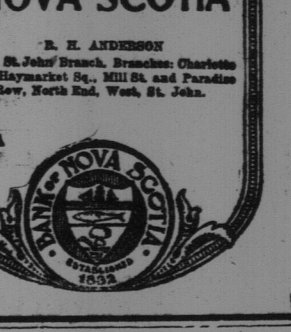

THE CITY'S DEBT.

The funded indebtedness of the city was increased during 1918 by $294,000. At the end of 1917 the indebtedness stood at $4,721,226.66, and on December 31, 1918, at $5,015,226.66. Following is the schedule of the funded debt of the city of St. John on December 31, 1918:

TO PRODUCE MORE EGGS

Ottawa, Feb. 14.—Representatives of the various provincial poultry associations and others, together with representatives of the different agricultural colleges, comprising some fifty or sixty delegates, and the most progressive men in the Canadian poultry business from coast to coast, will meet representatives of the dominion department of agriculture in conference on Feb. 18, 19, and 20, to consider means for increasing the production of eggs in this country and for improving the quality of Canadian eggs as placed on the market. It is recognized that the demand for Canadian eggs of standard quality has grown far beyond the present supply. During the war as a substitute for meats and other foods needed for export, Canadians learned the food value of eggs, and as a result 40,000,000 dozen more per year were consumed in Canada than in pre-war years. In addition to the increased domestic demand, Canada can easily market at least 40,000,000 dozen eggs per year in Great Britain. The department of agriculture estimates that the Canadian producers could profitably market 125,000,000 dozen more eggs than the production in 1918, which amounted to 140,000,000 dozen.

Major-General Newburn, minister of militia, says that a committee is giving special consideration to the problem of reorganization of the active militia which will preserve the history of militia regiments and perpetuate the identity of overseas battalions.

MOVED TO SACKVILLE

Sackville Tribune.—Sackville has another lawyer in the person of J. M. McIntyre of Sussex. Immediately on the death of the late Mr. McCord, A. B. Copp, M. P., sought to secure the services of a lawyer, who could look after his business during his absence in Ottawa. Mr. Copp has been most fortunate in arranging temporarily with Mr. McIntyre, an experienced Kings county bar-ister.

Laying New York's Latest Style At The Feet of The Ladies' of St. John

Literally and figuratively, this store makes it possible that the latest footwear style of New York is laid at the feet of the women of this city.

In New York, with the upper Four Hundred, the very latest thing in drawing-room footwear is the Gold and Silver Pumps. Every woman listed in the Blue Book is a devotee of this new idea in exclusive social footwear. And no wonder. The Gold and Silver Pump is the neatest and most attractive creation ever evolved by designers.

Made on the long vamp pattern which is so effective in showing the foot to the proper advantage without excess to the comfort of the foot; and, of course, the Louis Heel.

This store is particularly fortunate in having the first showing of this new idea, and we are anxious to have you see the style of these, the soft, beautiful shades, the extra fine workmanship.

COACHMEN REPORTED Seven coachmen who were reported by Policeman Roberts of the I. C. C. for standing in front of the rail at the Union station yesterday afternoon on the arrival of the Boston train, were to be heard in the police court this morning. Two of the men, Fred Worden and Frank Donnelly, appeared, the other five did not. Mr. Donnelly pleaded guilty and was fined $2. Mr. Worden pleaded not guilty and the case was adjourned until tomorrow morning for evidence. The magistrate told him that he would be fined $20 unless he could prove himself innocent. The other five men will appear before the court on summons later.

Britain Planning Light Railroads

Equipment Used for Army in France To Be Utilized

London, Feb. 14.—As part of a great scheme of rural development the British government propose to provide a large number of light railways connecting the country districts with the main railway system.

The plan, drawn up by the ministry of reconstruction with the warm encouragement of Dr. Addison, will require parliamentary authorization, but the general features have been already agreed to by many of the interests concerned.

Commissioners have surveyed the country to find out where the railways are needed. It is proposed that the cost should be borne partly by the local county authority and partly by the government. When built it is proposed to lease the lines to operating companies with guarantees as to wages and fares. This is a practical adaptation of a system found successful in Belgium.

The government will utilize the enormous quantity of light railway material, especially rails which were laid down in France, to maintain army supplies. By this it is calculated that the lines can be built for $12,500 a mile, half the pre-war cost.

The main object is to provide cheaper and more rapid means of marketing country produce, but also in the country also will be made more agreeable and less isolated by these traveling facilities. The lines will run alongside country roads, linking villages with big towns.

RETURNED OFFICER GOING INTO BUSINESS IN ST. JOHN

Lieut. Gordon C. Emmerson, who returned from overseas on the S. S. Olympic last December after an absence of four years, has decided to go into the coal business in this city.

Mr. Emmerson enlisted as a private under Lieut.-Colonel C. W. Pick, V. C., D. S., in October, 1914, joining the 80th Battalion. Soon after arrival in England he was transferred to the 7th Infantry Battalion in France. Being severely wounded he was later transferred to the staff of the general auditor, London, and from there transferred to the Canadian railway troops with commissioned rank.

Mr. Emmerson was accompanied back from England by his wife and family, who will spend the winter and spring on the Pacific coast. He is a son of the late Judge F. W. Emmerson of Moncton.

MILITARY NOTES

Capt. H. O. Evans, formerly of the depot battalion, has been appointed a military landing officer for St. John, and is employed under the clearing services command.

Lieut. C. F. West from No. 7 district depot, has been appointed to the office of district paymaster.

Lieut. H. McInerney, who went overseas with the 104th Battalion, has been taken on the strength of M. D. No. 7 for disposal.

Capt. John Douglas Black has been struck the strength of the Canadian expeditionary forces.

A general court martial will assemble in Fredericton next week for the trial of a private. Lieut.-Colonel J. L. McAvity has been appointed president, and Majors C. J. Morgan, F. F. May, G. R. Barnes and B. Smith are members. Capt. R. McL. Keswick is to act as prosecutor.

Major J. J. Bull, who has retired as second in command of No. 7 district depot, Fredericton, will return to his home in Woodstock and probably will resume his former occupation as a farmer.

ORDERS PLACED FOR 100 OCEAN LINERS

London, Feb. 14.—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuters, Limited)—British shipyards have recently booked orders for more than 100 vessels representing a very large tonnage. This is probably a record. The Ellerman-Bucknall line alone ordered more than fifty steamers on the northeast coast. The British-India Company is building nine large liners; the Cunard, eight; the Donaldson-Ancher Line, and Donaldson Brothers, six; Elders and Fyffe, four; Shaw-Savill-Albion, three; Union Castle, Commonwealth and Dominion companies, each two.

The shipbuilding outlook is of the brightest, provided labor settles down.

SOME THAT MIGHT BE HOUSED IN A NEW BUILDING

Offices Now Scattered Throughout The City

Courts Civic Departments, Records and Other Branches of Community Life and Where They Are Now Located

Some idea of the need of a centralized law court system and for that matter a centralized group of the various civic and provincial governmental offices, as suggested to succeed the old county court house, may be gained from the following list of scattered departments:

- City Hall, Prince William Street. The chamberlain's office. Offices of the comptroller. Council committee rooms. Office of the common clerk. City's vaults and archives. Offices of commissioners. Office of the mayor. Office department public works. Office department public safety. Board of assessors rooms. Assessors' records and files. Office city engineer. Office road engineer. Ferry Building, Water Street. Superintendent of ferries' office. The building inspector. The harbor master. Almshouse commission. Police Building, King Street East. Office chief of police. Magistrate's court. Magistrate's offices. City court clerk. Police guardroom and lockers. Bread inspector's office. Temporary cells. Registry Building, King Street East. Vaults for court purposes. Registry for general public. City morgue. Quarters county jailor. Court House, Sydney Street. Offices of high sheriff. Municipal council chamber. County court room. Jury rooms. Coroner's court. Judges' quarters. Pugsley Building, Princess Street. Law library. Equity court chambers. Probate court chambers. County court chambers. Supreme court chambers. Chief justice's chambers. Admistratively department. Local government offices. Workmen's compensation board. Prince, Wm, Street—Other Buildings. Office of county secretary. Office of chief liquor inspector. Bureau provincial licenses. Local government meeting rooms. Office factory inspector. Office inspector motor and ticket taxes. Ritchie Building, Princess Street. Offices of board of health. Registry vital statistics. Office chief medical officer. Office district medical officer. Palmer's Chambers, Princess Street. Registrar probate and vaults. Water Building, Leinster Street. Office superintendent of waterworks. City weather records, etc.

The general discussion of plans for the replacement of the antiquated court house being on many interesting topics. It is generally thought a wise scheme to include the local government offices in any new and modern structure that might eventually be decided upon. In fact all the offices and headquarters named, people say, could be grouped under the roof of a comprehensive civic plant, concentrating and centralizing the official life of the community and giving untold convenience to the public as a whole.

With a building large enough to take in the offices mentioned—or as many of them as would be convenient by such a grouping—the cost of maintenance would be distributed in a widespread way, making the expense to each office much less than if the structure were erected for a few bureaux only. It is argued that the absorption of the higher courts and local government offices would make a splendid structure possible.

In some Canadian and American cities of St. John's class, and even smaller, this civic and government centre idea has been adopted in erecting official buildings. Handsome structures have thus been made possible because of the shared expense on the other hand the assurance of long and profitable leases.

It is expected the legal fraternity will follow the law courts wherever they may be located. There are a building large enough to rent office suites to professional men would have still another source of revenue to carry the interest on the original outlay. In fact, as one prominent citizen said this morning, St. John has now a typical western opportunity to jump into something new and up-to-date with a reasonable assurance of co-operation from associated authorities like the government and law courts. Serious conferring, with the proper officials, might bring about a forward step of great importance and make the city a model in the civic centre idea.

Many of the offices now scattered around town are of the most inconvenient and out-of-date character, merely makeshifts. Records are distributed here and there and it is asserted that there is little rhyme or reason to the whole unsystematic system.

THEY MET BY CHANCE

Chatham World.—Hon. L. A. Dugal, M.P.P., who, from his place in the legislature, preferred the charges which drove Ex-Premier Fleming from public life, was a passenger on a train out of St. John a few nights ago. The car was well crowded when he entered, but one seat had only a single occupant, a gray-haired man who was intently gazing out of the window. Hon. Mr. Dugal, after tossing his satchel into the hat-rack, sat down in the vacant seat, and it was not until then that he caught the eye of his seat-mate, and who do you think it was?—Ex-Premier Fleming. So far as can be learned there were no words of greeting exchanged, but both must have done some tall thinking. So says a steamed correspondent, but we will bet dollars to doughnuts that Mr. Fleming miled sweetly, extended his hand, and said, "How are you, Dugal? Glad to see you!"

REVERSES DECISION OF BOARD OF CENSORS

Judge Crocket Sees Picture That Was Condemned Here and Says it is All Right. Judge O. S. Crocket of Fredericton has handed down a three-folio judgment quashing the decision of the full board of N. B. moving picture censors, the individual judgment of the chairman of the censor board and allowing for public exhibition a cinematograph play condemned some months ago in this city, a picture booked to a local theatre. The picture was of the society type of story with an especially piquant title, although its producing owners and agents claimed it to be nothing but a natural depiction of the foibles and flirtations of a butterfly class of men. A great deal of money was expended in making the picture measure up to the wealthy classes which it represented, and the local manager of the company handling it felt that a grave injustice had been done, not only the film, but his business in cancelling it for this territory. Dr. H. S. Bridges at first condemned it, then his entire board reviewed it with the same verdict. Legal proceedings were taken through T. P. Beagan and the local government appointed Judge Crocket to view the picture in its entirety. The judge did so in the Gaiety Theatre, Fredericton, on Wednesday night, and his judgment reverses the decision of the censors. His Honor says the story is not immoral, but teaches a fine lesson, is not indelicate nor suggestive.

DUCKS ARE EARLY. The first ducks observed are regarded as one of the surest signs of an approach of spring, and since they have appeared weather prophets may draw their own conclusions. While at South Bay on Sunday, A. G. McMullin of the city ball staff saw a flock of ducks flying, or possibly saw the same flock twice. As he first observed them flying north and the next time the flock was headed south, it might be argued that the ducks had decided that they had made a mistake in heading northwards so soon.

MARINE NOTES. There were no arrivals in port this morning and no vessels cleared at the Customs House. With the exception of Sand Point there was little activity in evidence about the harbor front.

The Furness liner Kanawha, which sailed from London on February 9 for Halifax, has been diverted to St. John to land cargo here and will then go to Halifax to load. She is due here on Saturday.

Another steamer bound to Halifax has been diverted to St. John. She is the Lord Byron, which sailed from Naples on February 27.

The steamer Scottier, which sailed from Palmouth on January 28 for Halifax, has been diverted to St. John to proceed to Portland, Me., to load.

The steamer Blackheath arrived in Halifax on Wednesday from St. John with a cargo of lumber to take on bunker coal. When she has finished coaling she will proceed to Avonmouth.

Another steamer that arrived in Halifax from this port for bunkers was the Frankburn, which will also sail for an Atlantic port.

The schooner, Armored arrived in Halifax on the 7th from this port. The Halifax wrecking steamer La Canadienne from St. John for New York, passed City Island on the 9th inst.

The Dominion Line boat Cassandra is on the way out with troops. She is the first Dominion Line boat to bring troops to St. John.

The steamer Montcalm and Montisfont are going to Halifax from here to load apples for England.

The S. S. Trident is expected here this afternoon from Halifax in ballast. She is consigned to J. T. Knight & Company and is to load here for a trans-Atlantic port.

TRANS-ATLANTIC RATES. Washington, Feb. 14—Minor corrections in shipping board rates previously published for trans-Atlantic trade with Europe and the United Kingdom are announced by the board, making general cargo rates to English ports from America, South Atlantic ports, $1.07 1/2 per hundred pounds and increasing for other destinations to a maximum of $1.33 per hundred pounds for cargo to Barcelona, Spain. To Holland and Belgium the rate is $1.33 per hundred pounds, and to Genoa and Naples, Italy, $1.38. From American gulf ports to United Kingdom ports rates are fixed at $1.15, increasing for continental European destinations to $2 per hundred pounds for Barcelona.

Going Ahead

New Capital for the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company—Reports Disclose Prosperous Conditions.

The chief feature of the annual and special meetings of the shareholders of the Maritime Telegraph & Telephone Company, held in Halifax the other day, was the information that business is expanding much more rapidly than the company can undertake it as illustrated by the fact that in Halifax alone there are at present 250 orders on hand for telephones that cannot be supplied—that is, the company is that far behind in its orders. The increase in subscribers during the year was 2,463, as compared with 1,552 for 1914 and 1,479 for 1913. Had the company been able to take care of all the business offered, the increase would have been almost twice as great. At the end of the year the number of subscribers was 24,686, to which may be added 4,903 connecting stations, making in all 29,589 telephones connected with the system.

The issue of 61,700 shares of the new 7 per cent preferred stock, approved by the board of public utilities, the president's report stated, has been all sold, or contracted for. In order to place the directors in a position to obtain the funds for further capital expenditures, when required, a resolution was adopted at a special general meeting held immediately after the annual meeting, providing for the issue when required of $1,000,000 more capital in 100,000 7 per cent shares of $10 each.

It is not anticipated that this capital will be needed this year, but an amount of $288,000 is now being sold which will exhaust all the capital at present authorized.

The statement showed a balance for the year of $7,695. The surplus at the end of 1914 was $22,988, but after adding this amount the net surplus at the end of 1915 was only $25,548. The reason for this, besides a provincial government tax of $13,471, is shown by the following clause in President Brookings' report, which was read by the vice-president, O. E. Smith:

"The shares of the telephone company of Prince Edward Island, previously held by the company, but which were sold in 1914, were repurchased, which accounts for the deduction of $21,369.50 from the surplus. This amount represents the profit the company was able to send on the sale. These shares are again being carried on the books at their original cost."

Hon. George E. Faulkner dealt fully with the statement. The company had increased the pay of its employees $67,000 and he said 75 per cent of the shareholders reside in Nova Scotia, while between 400 and 500 shareholders held blocks of ten shares or less.

The total revenue of the company was $288,470 and the net 1915 year is $28,000. The old board of directors were unanimously elected. Afterwards a special meeting of the shareholders was held at which a resolution was adopted to increase the capital by an issue of 100,000 new 7 per cent shares of a par value of $10.

CONDENSED NEWS. A British service machine yesterday made a record flight between Paris and London, covering the distance in one hour and fifty minutes.

In New Haven yesterday Mrs. Annie F. Monahan was charged with the murder of her third husband, John H. Monahan, by administering poison, was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The Imperial War Conference will meet in Canada in the autumn of 1922. A decrease of $340,644,681 in the total of Canada's trade for the ten months of the fiscal year ended January 31, as compared with the same period last year is shown by the monthly trade statement issued by the customs department yesterday.

The Roumanian legation in London does not credit yesterday's report of disturbances in Jassy.

The Los Angeles Times announces the death of Mrs. Sarah Walker Patterson, wife of Thomas C. Patterson, of Los Angeles, on Dec. 8. She was a native of New Brunswick and was formerly of South Devon, but moved to Los Angeles about seven years ago. She was 76 years of age and is survived by her husband, three daughters and two sons, all residing in Los Angeles.

IN WALL STREET. New York, Feb. 14—Oils and shipplings were again the outstanding features of today's market. Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch and Marine preferred gaining one to two points. Tobacco, American Smelting and several of the high grade rails, notably Southern Pacific and Reading, advanced large fractions and New Haven made further recovery from yesterday's sharp decline. Baldwin Locomotive, Bethlehem Steel and Steel Foundry represented the firm to strong equipments and industrials. Liberty bonds were steady.

TRADES & LABOR. Regular meeting this (Friday) evening in their hall, Market Place, West St. John, at 8 o'clock, was attended to attend. By order of the president.

NEW YORK CITY AUTOS
NUMBER 137,708

A total of 468,561 motor cars, including commercial vehicles, were registered in New York state in the last year, a gain of 13 per cent over 1917. Passenger cars showed an 8 per cent increase and commercial cars a 24 per cent increase. These are the figures up to January 15. A total of 28,538 motorcycles were registered during the year, a decrease of 102 from 1917.

The registration of cars and the licensing of chauffeurs, operators and dealers brought a revenue to the state during 1918 of $4,946,978. Compared with 1917, this is an increase of $662,864 in revenue and 51,994 in motor vehicles.

Of the total number of cars registered last year, New York city, including all its boroughs, has 137,708 cars, or about one-third of all the cars in the state. The increase in cars in the city last year amounted to 12,607 and from indications in the present registration there will be an early heavy increase. The year saw a decrease of sixty-seven dealers in New York city.

It is reasonably safe to predict that by the close of the present year New York state will have 530,000 to 575,000 cars in use.

There is now an automobile for every twenty persons in the state. Three years ago there was a car to every thirty-one residents.

RED-CROSS PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE
(London Times.)

Women in all parts of the British Empire have given so many pearls for the Red Cross that a recent sale of part of them in London realized £84,000 ($420,000). "A single necklace, or at most a rope," says the London Times, "was the humble objective" of those who originated the plan a year ago. Great demands, it was feared, had already "almost dried up the founts of charity," but the owners of pearls "had other views; no human neck could have borne the weight of the gems they poured in on the jewelers appointed custodians of the gifts." The movement, we read, was sanctioned in high places:

"The queen gave a lovely gem from the royal store and pearls of great beauty came also from Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria (who became president of the committee), and other royal ladies. These were the early days of last March. In April nearly 700 pearls were received; before May was out there were more than 2,000, and there were nearly 3,000 when the exhibition of single gems was held in June. Today the pearls which are to be sold number close on 4,000.

"Instead of one necklace the women of Great Britain, of the dominions, and of friendly nations have given forty-two ropes of pearls, many of them worth possessing. The gifts were so wonderfully given, pearls came as readers of The Times can not forget, in memory of men who had given their lives in the great war, of regiments that had helped to make history."

THE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

Forty-Ninth Annual Report 1869-1919

The following is a summary of the 49th Annual Report submitted to the policyholders at the Annual Meeting held at the Head Office, Waterloo, Thursday, February 6th, 1919:

War and Pestilence. In the long history of life insurance the Companies have never borne a heavier burden than during the year 1918. Through that fateful year of war and pestilence The Mutual Life of Canada has come with unimpaired stability, having met all claims—foreseen and unforeseen—and yet the Company has been able to maintain the distribution to policyholders of the liberal dividends of past years.

Intrinsic Prosperity. The adverse conditions of war and a virulent epidemic have not been without compensations. The great value of life insurance has been demonstrated as never before, resulting in a very marked impetus to the business and an enlarged sphere of usefulness and service for the Company. The new assurances procured during the year were the largest in the history of the Company.

Notable Progress. During the five-year war period just closed the Company has enjoyed a marked expansion of business, the new assurances written being 63.5% greater than in the preceding five year pre-war period. And this was achieved without any increase in the percentage of the income required to meet the general expenses of administration.

Victory and Peace. Not only have the exactions of the war period been met, but the Company, like the nation of which it forms a part, has come to the close triumphant, with the brightest prospects of prosperous development during the ensuing years of peace.

Is it always the Husband's fault?

IS the wife never to blame? Has a man no right to seek companionship and sympathy when they are missing in his own home? Is Clayton Spencer to be reproached for what he did?

"What do men want, anyway?" Mrs. Haverford had asked. And Audrey, brilliant, audacious, under the impulse of her own hurt, had answered flippantly, cynically: "They want different things at different ages. That is why marriage is such a rotten failure."

Was she right? Must the modern man inevitably outgrow the woman he marries? Can the woman help it?

This is the problem—the great problem of modern married life, which Mary Roberts Rinehart has taken hold of in her latest novel. Fearlessly, she portrays this absorbing situation that confronts men and women today.

Clayton Spencer, brilliant, successful, eager for greater achievement—Natalie, beautiful, frivolous, selfish, the wife with whom he had not a thought in common—could there be greater tragedy? Was Clayton Spencer to be denied forever the love and understanding he craved? Could Natalie have satisfied the needs of his deepening years?

And when he finds the woman of his craving—the woman of greater heart and deeper understanding—what? Must he renounce her?

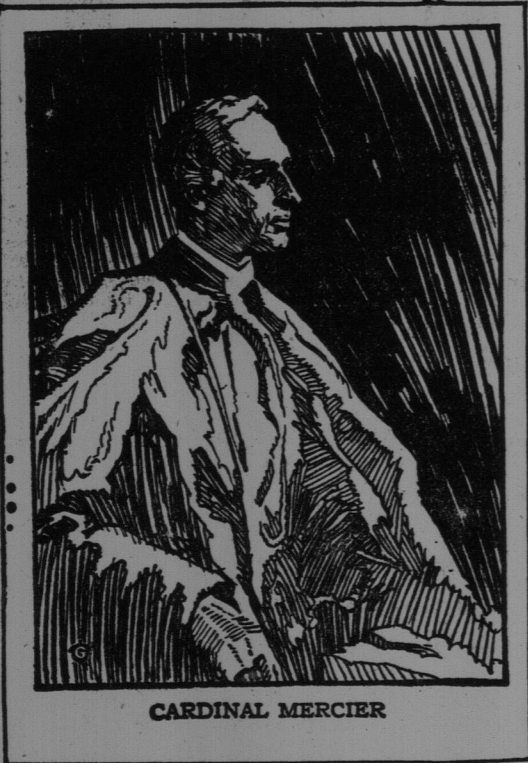

With the vigor and wholesomeness we have come to look for from her, with the compelling interest of her superb story-telling art, Mrs. Rinehart handles this problem of holding the man you marry.

"Dangerous Days" is a novel that every man and woman will want to read. It marks another milestone in Pictorial Review's progressiveness and vision—the progressiveness that women recognize as clearly in the forcefulness of Pictorial Review's fiction as in its broad comprehension of women's interests.

Begin this vital and compelling story in the March Pictorial Review today. You can complete it in three installments after that—a regular $1.60 novel in four big issues.

Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig By England's greatest living portrait painter

Pictorial Review has secured the exclusive rights in this country to reproduce Sir William Orpen's great $10,000 painting in its actual colors. In this masterly portrait you can discern the iron resolution, the cool inflexibility of the soldier who led Great Britain's forces to victory.

"Our Engineers at Cambrai"

Your heart quickens at the sheer, amazing bravery of our boys, in Howard Giles' wonderful picture. Engineers, sent "over there" to build bridges, to locate camps, these boys of ours, when the Huns came swarming through the lines, beat them back with picks, shovels, any implement at hand! A picture that makes you proud you are an American.

"Kamerad"—Half a dozen Germans to two Americans!

Ever hear of Chateau-Thierry? Ever hear of our boys routing a nest of concealed snipers? You can actually see them at it in N. C. Wyeth's powerful painting. The shell-torn sky, the cringing enemy, the cool courage of the two Americans make a picture of the war you cannot forget.

Inter-Allied Army Plan Defeated at Conference

Paris, Feb. 13—(By the Associated Press)—The Bourgeois proposition for an inter-allied military force to confer peace was defeated by an overwhelming vote at the meeting of the Society of Nations Commission today.

London, Feb. 13—The British delegates at the peace conference have been definitely instructed to claim an indemnity which will include the cost of the war as well as the damage actually caused, so it was announced in the house of commons by Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the commons, in reply to a question.

He said that a commission is now considering the amount to be claimed, the method by which payment should be made and the means of enforcing the payment.

HERE'S QUICK RELIEF FOR YOUR TIRED, STRAINED MUSCLES

When your muscles become tired and swollen and the joints become stiff, your circulation poor, and your suffering makes you irritable, an application of Sloan's Liniment gives you quick relief—kills pain, starts up a good circulation, relieves congestion. It is easier and cleaner to use than musky plasters or ointments, acts quickly, and does not clog the pores. It does not stain the skin. Made in Canada.

For sprains, strains, bruises, "black and blue" spots, Sloan's Liniment reduces the pain and eases the soreness. Certainly fine for rheumatism, stiff neck, sciatica, lame back, toothache. You don't need to rub—it penetrates. Its use is so universal that you'll consider Sloan's Liniment a friend of the whole family. Generous size bottles at druggists everywhere.

Witnesses Tell Of The Accident

Driver of Wrecked Car Before Court on Charge of Driving Without a License

"For God's sake, go slow," were the words spoken by some occupant of the motor car driven by Thomas W. Dickens just a few seconds before the automobile accident happened at the corner of Carleton and Coburg streets early Wednesday morning when Lieutenant James Carr and Miss Mary Irvine were seriously injured, according to evidence submitted in the police court yesterday afternoon when the chauffeur, Dickens, was before the magistrate charged with furiously driving a car without having a registered chauffeur's licence.

Major E. O. Thomas, O. C. St. John military hospital, gave evidence regarding the injuries received by Lieutenant Carr and of his condition. J. S. Collins told of the accident at the G. W. V. A. rooms when Miss Irvine tripped and fell downstairs, of his efforts to secure a car at various garages, of meeting Dickens and of the latter consenting to make the trip, although he was not supposed to be out.

Sergeant E. J. Puddy told of the accident at the hall.

J. J. Irvine, father of the injured girl, also gave evidence. Major K. W. McCrimmon, D. S. O., and A. D. S. T., M. D. No. 7, who was in the car when the accident happened, said that he is in company with Lieutenant Carr had reached the G. W. V. A. rooms about midnight. On entering the hall he remained downstairs while Carr went upstairs to deliver a message. The latter returned shortly and witness said that there was talk about some one trying to get a cab to take a girl home who had been injured. Witness said he was asked to secure a military car, but as it was for a civilian patient he refused. He, however, attempted to get another conveyance, but in the meantime the car from the St. John Garage arrived. He said that Miss Irvine, the injured girl, her sister, and another woman, were apparently unaccompanied, and Lieutenant Carr and he offered their assistance.

Lieutenant Carr took hold of the injured lady's arm and her sister walked on the other side. She was assisted to the automobile which was in charge of the defendant, Dickens, whom witness identified.

Major McCrimmon said that Miss Irvine, her sister, and Mrs. Laver, the other woman of the party, and Lieutenant Carr got in the back seat while he got in front with the chauffeur. The latter hesitated, witness said, as he did not want to start without seeing the man who secured the car. However, he eventually started. The car moved out Wellington Row and into Carleton street at a fair rate of speed. As the driver approached the corner of Coburg street, there was a burst of speed and some one shouted "For God's sake, go slow." The car slid and then went backwards into a fence. Witness said he was up he immediately inquired if any one was hurt. Some one answered "yes," and he then ran back to the G. W. V. A. rooms to telephone for an ambulance. Knowing the number of the military phones, he telephoned for the military ambulance. It took some time to get what he wanted, but so soon as he did, he returned to the scene of the accident again. Soon the city as well as the military ambulance appeared and he supervised the transfer of the patients from the wrecked car to the ambulances.

L. P. D. Tilley, who appeared for the prosecution, questioned the witness. To Mr. Tilley, Major McCrimmon said that when he started to run back to the Veterans' hall, he heard some one running. He looked around and saw the chauffeur coming towards him. Witness asked him where he was going, to which Dickens replied:

"My God, I am in serious trouble, I have to get a car to haul away that wreck." Witness said that he told the driver to never mind the wreck, but go back and look after the people.

This concluded the hearing yesterday and Mr. Tilley asked for a postponement. This was granted and the magistrate said that the hearing would be taken up again on Monday afternoon.

The charge of driving a car without a chauffeur's licence was read to Dickens yesterday afternoon, to which he pleaded guilty. William McQuade, provincial tax inspector, said that according to his books Thomas W. Dickens was a registered chauffeur in 1918, but had not taken out his licence for 1919.

Dickens, who is under arrest, was remanded.

PLANS FOR MONUMENT. Representatives of the various chapters of the Daughters of the Empire met with Colonel E. T. Great Diamond Found
In South Africa

Blue-White Stone Weighing 388 1/2
Carats Yielded by Famous Jaeger-fontein Mine

A soft blue-white diamond weighing 388 1/2 carats, has been found at the Jaegerfontein mine, Orange River Colony, Africa. This promises to become one of the diamond fields' historic gems.
Diamond of soft or pale blue-white lustre have today the highest market value. The diamond weighing 388 1/2 carats, in the rough state, found at the Jaegerfontein mine, is the largest stone unearthed there since the Cullinan diamond was discovered in 1905. This in its rough state weighed 3,026 carats, or 11-8 pounds. It was presented to King
Edward by the Transvaal government.
Amsterdam diamond cutters made nine large stones and several smaller ones from it. The largest still weighs 610 1/2 carats and is said to be the most valuable and brilliant diamond in human possession today.
In 1893 the same mine gave forth a stone weighing 973 carats, which was cut into ten stones, each weighing from sixty-eight to thirteen carats.
Among authenticated diamonds of great value is the Orloff, weighing 195 carats and cut in rose form. Its origin is doubtful. It was purchased from an Indian traveler in 1772 for $400,000, a title and an annuity of $4,000 for Empress Catherine of Russia, and up to the time of the Russian revolution of March, 1917, was in the Czar's imperial treasury.
The Koh-i-noor, weighing 108 1/2 carets, belongs to the British royal family and originally came from India, where there is a tradition that it once weighed 794 carats. It had passed down the centuries through a long line of Indian princes until the British secured it in Punjab in 1757.
The Regent or Pitt diamond in the Paris Louvre weighs 186 carats. It is a blue-white stone valued at $2,000,000.
The Hope diamond, weighing only 44 1/2 carats, is a blue stone valued at

FATHERS AND SONS AT Y.M.C.A. BANQUET

"What shall it profit a father if he gain the whole world but lose his own son," was an adaptation which adorned the menu at the fifth annual Father and Son banquet given last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building. The quarters were too small to accommodate the 260 or more persons who attended the dinner, but nevertheless the late comers were able to squeeze in somewhere, and besides a comfortable feast of eatables all enjoyed a feast of forams. The banquet was the outstanding feature of "Father and Son Week," which is being observed simultaneously throughout Canada and the United States. The purpose of the week is to bring to the attention of fathers a new and larger responsibility to their sons, especially during the days of reconstruction also to bring before the boys and their fathers a realization of their joint relationship to the home, church, school and community. The idea is to bring fathers and sons together in comradeship and mutual understanding.

Mayor Hayes presided and spoke in praise of the movement which the gathering typified. G. E. Barbour, president of the association, welcomed the fathers to the building and asked for their cooperation. The toast to the King was received with musical honors and Rev. H. A. Goodwin spoke on the King and the Empire. Ronald W. Shaw, one of the juniors, proposed The Boys' Work Division, and A. M. Greig, secretary of the department, responded, telling of their work and their plans for the future. George B. Nasse of the boys' department proposed "Our Dads" and W. C. Cross responded in a thoughtful address. The chief address of the evening was given by Lon A. Buckley of Halifax, maritime director of boys' work who dealt with the relationship which should exist between father and son. A. Selwyn Coster proposed the health of the ladies and Mrs. Ralph M. Fowler, president of the boys' work auxiliary, responded.

F. J. Punter and E. C. Girvan were heard in solos. The concerters, Mrs. E. S. Stephenson, Mrs. Roy Gregory, Mrs. Tilton and Mrs. F. Z. Fowler, were ably assisted by others of the ladies' auxiliary.

NEED FOR PLAYGROUNDS

One very striking need of St. John was emphasized last night at the Y. M. C. A., Cliff street, when official presentation of prizes for the ice sports, was made. Joseph McNamara, physical director, and under whose auspices the sports were conducted, urged the community to get together and do something toward providing grounds for sports in both summer and winter. He spoke of the champion sportsmen, oarsmen and speed skaters St. John has turned out in the past. He said there was abundance of similar material here yet but the lack of grounds was depriving it of its proper place in the world of sports.

Rev. William M. Duke, chaplain, also expressed the same view and he argued strongly in favor of a general get-together to have something done in the matter. E. L. Rising, who was present, reiterated the views of the chaplain and physical director. The meeting, which was largely attended by members, the competitors and winners in the races, was presided over by H. J. Sheehan. Smokes were provided and a programme was enjoyed. The depot band attended and furnished some fine selections. There was a solo by Robert Carson, solo by Dewitt Cairns, J. L. Mullaly, acting as accompanist. A. Boves gave a violin selection.

The event concluded with the presentation of prizes by Mr. Sheehan and Mr. McNamara.

COURTENAY BAY LOTS

The mayor, city commissioners, a committee from the municipal council, G. A. Knodell chairman of the board of commissioners of the Municipal Home, Dr. Hugh Farris and others representing the St. John County Hospital the county secretary, and A. R. Desfrere, chief engineer of the St. John Shipbuilding & Drydock Co., met yesterday afternoon at the county secretary's office and discussed the application of the shipbuilding company for water lots and foreshore rights at Courtenay Bay to the west of the Municipal Home. Different views were expressed and finally a sub-committee was appointed to go more fully into the question and report back.

Warden W. E. Golding presided. Others present were Mayor Hayes, the city commissioners, Councilors John O'Brien, J. E. Bryant, T. B. Carson and Henry Shillington, G. A. Knodell, chairman of the Municipal Home board and other of the board, Dr. Hugh Farris of the St. John County Hospital, W. J. Dean, chairman of the hospital commission, W. E. Scully, A. M. Rowan, Fred Green, William Walsh, and A. R. Desfrere of the shipbuilding company.

Final February Wind-up Sale!!

When a stock of Footwear as extensive and diversified and as high grade as ours is

Marked Down

It means that your selection is not confined to a lot of odds and ends and left-overs that nobody wanted, but that you can take your pick from an almost endless variety of the most desirable styles in sizes and proportions to fit feet of all builds.

And when former prices were as low as ours were on this stock, it means a much larger saving of real money than the actual price reductions show, because the original prices represented big savings. Don't hesitate to buy whatever you expect to need for next winter. We see no possibility of prices being nearly as low then as they are now, and qualities can certainly be no higher than these we are now offering.

CLEVER PERFORMANCE GIVEN BY AMATEURS

"The Man on the Box" Presented in the Opera House—Exceptionally Good Specialties

The seating capacity of the Opera House was taxed last evening at the performance of "The Man on the Box," which was presented under the direction of Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson and the auspices of the Great War Veterans' Association.

The cast of characters follows: Officer Cassidy—Q. M. Sergeant G. L. Duplisa.

Two specialties were features of the performance, and Mrs. Wilson must have devoted considerable time in order to perfect these two pleasing attractions.

The young ladies who participated in the two specialties were: Between Acts I and II—The Calling of the Twilight Shadows.

Between Acts II and III—The Rainbow Song. Soloist—Miss Geraldine Melick.

Plans for a new club house were considered yesterday afternoon by the Women's Golf Club, which held its annual meeting at the provincial government rooms in Prince William street.

recent despatches received from England. Lieut. Holman and his brother, Harry, left here with the 6th Mounted Rifles, both enlisting as privates. Later they went to the signalling branch of the Engineers. About eighteen months ago they were recommended for commissions, but Harry decided to remain in the ranks.

SMOKE BEN BEY. THEY ARE MILD. A meeting of the I. O. D. E. was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing with Colonel Sturges, president of the board of directors of Fernhill Cemetery, the erection of a monument in the soldiers lot in Fernhill. The representatives decided to ask the president to submit the plans to them for their approval, after which the monument will be erected.

Toronto Paper Criticizes The Governments

"Passing The Buck"

Says the Work is Being Passed Down the Line and That There is Lack of Courage in Dealing With the Matter

(Toronto Star.)

In our article of yesterday on the housing problem we find that we did the civic authorities of Toronto a great injustice.

All our authorities, federal, provincial and municipal, know the urgent need for action, but all, we said, run away from the facts.

The dominion authorities profess deep concern about housing, but all they do is offer to lend money to the provinces. The provincial authorities are deeply concerned, but what they do is offer to loan money to the municipalities. They hand the thing on to the city. Then, we asked in our article of yesterday, "what does the city find when it takes up the problem?" "It finds," we said, "that the buck can be passed no further, and all activity ceases."

In saying that, we did the civic authorities an injustice. The committee appointed by the City of Toronto has just as much fertility in the ways of futurity as any federal or provincial commission, and in its report the civic committee recommends that, instead of the city taking this money for housing and becoming responsible for it, the province should lend its money to the loan companies and let them handle it and lend it out, and that private housing companies should get busy. So we find that the city, too, following example, has passed the buck, and there you are. That is as far as it has got yet.

They all know because nobody can look into the problem at all without discovering, that the offering of money at 5 per cent will not cause to be built on suitable sites houses that can be sold or rented at reasonable cost, because land is at too high a speculative value and because building materials cost too much. The federal, provincial and municipal commissions all know this, but they all run away from the facts.

The federal authorities expect the provincial people to show the courage the case needs; the provincial experts hope the municipal authorities will show the courage; the municipal committee hopes—or perhaps only wonders—if the loan companies couldn't take cheaper money than their own and work the miracle of producing cheap houses on dear land and with expensive materials.

"PURITY OATS MAKES BETTER PORRIDGE"

Three of our governments admit the great, the pressing urgency of this problem, but they hand it along, doing nothing with it but making talk, until it is plumped down in the possible hope that private business interests, like the loan companies, may be able to do something with it. But this brings it back and leaves it pretty much where it lay before any government commission or committee ever had anything to do with it. There is a shortage of houses because the building of them does not pay. That is where the problem started and that is where it ends after all the talk and the tons of matter that has been printed about it. All our governments, high, low, and middle, know the facts. We quoted the dominion government's housing expert yesterday, and the best he could say about 5 per cent money as an inducement for anybody to build houses was this: "The saving would be equivalent to about 20 per cent on the cost of a house, and will go a long way to counteract the present high cost of building." A long way, but not all the way. He knew about the present high cost of materials and he also knew that suitable land is held out of use at figures that make it impossible for use in building workmen's houses. He wrote in his report: "One of the most important questions which will arise in connection with housing schemes is in regard to the purchase of land. Some simpler procedure should be introduced in the provinces to enable land to be acquired at a low price for erecting small houses. At present the workingman has too many 'interests' against him in wanting a site at reasonable cost for a home." He knows, and they all know. But none of the authorities, high, low, or middle, offers to do anything beyond suggesting that some other authority do something. If we are going to see anything done, that almost unknown thing, courage, must put in an appearance in our various governments and all their various commissions. Land must be expropriated for building purposes here as the government in England has had the courage to do. The cost of building must be substantially reduced to the builder, if not in one way then in some other. The government in England has faced the fact and has adopted a way to overcome both these difficulties. Do we want houses? If so the causes of the shortage must be removed.

War-Savings Stamps

A Nation of Bond-holders

Before the War, Canada looked outside her borders for Capital. During the last three and a half years, Canada has become a nation of Capitalists,—for the man who buys a $50 Victory Bond, or a $5 War-Savings Stamp, is a Capitalist of the best type.

By the discovery of ten times the number of Capitalists, or Bond-holders, that she previously had, Canada has made a great stride forward. Interest charges, necessarily high at this time, do not withdraw money from the country. Home industry is fostered, and the problem of the War Burden is solved.

EVERY CANADIAN SHOULD BE A CAPITALIST. The opportunity is provided by the offer of War-Savings Stamps at $4.01 this month, and redeemed for $5.00 on the first day of 1924.

Buy War-Savings Stamps, as many as you can, as often as you can, at Money-Order Post Offices, Banks and other places displaying the Beaver—Triangle sign.
