CRYSTAL PALACE CENTRE OF EMPIRE

Earl's Suggestion for a Memorial of King Edward

COLONIES' PART

Would Have Them Take Sections for Exhibition Purposes—Queen's Own Stand March Well—Hague Decision Grows More Favorable to Britain

Times' Special Cable London, Sept. 9.—The Earl of Plymouth proposes that the Crystal Palace in London should be made the empire centre at a cost of $700,000 as a memorial to King Edward. Among his suggestions are that the overseas dominions should erect pavilions there for exhibition purpose.

C. E. Goad, of West Toronto, left an estate of £39,071 in England. Tenders are invited for an Australia Nova, Honolulu and Vancouver steam service.

Lord Brassey will devote the greater part of his address at the Associated Chambers of Commerce to the question of trade relations between Canada and the mother country.

In a private conference, the Bishop of London endorsed the account of the warm welcome accorded him in Halifax.

Col. Mason, Major Bennett and Captain Higginbotham will accompany Col. Pellatt to Montreal on Monday with Color Sergeant Macdonald, Sergeant Pasmore, Corporal Freeman and New and Privates H. M. Dunn, P. Newton, Hammond, McAe, W. P. Muir, Stickney, Forsythe, and Scroggie.

The Queen's Own second division arrived at the manoeuvre area yesterday. Not many fell out during the whole march, despite the heat, and the fact that several were footsore. On Wednesday night the feet of one of the officers were almost raw, but he marched again yesterday.

At every centre of population the Canadians got a hearty reception. Today the Queen's Own are participating in the defence of Westchester.

The Hague Award London, Sept. 9.—Reflection on the Hague decision more than confirms the first impression that Britain, Canada and Newfoundland have done very well. A study of the full text of the award makes it plain that the gains are more substantial than first appeared. On the points where the award was stated to have gone in favor of the United States, there are qualifications which give Newfoundland what British diplomacy claimed for her.

The counsel in charge of the British case are being congratulated on all sides for their brilliant and successful advocacy. The Chronicle expresses the hope that the award will remove some of the soreness said to exist in the overseas dominions because it was felt that British diplomacy often paid too little regard to the interests and susceptibilities of the colonies. Satisfaction is also expressed that the award is received so well in the United States.

The News thinks that the Hague tribunal has given Britain full satisfaction but very much less to Newfoundland. British sovereignty is recognized fully but Newfoundland's attempt to use the fishery matter as an economic lever against the United States is defeated.

The Morning Post again attacks the British government for its part in the controversy declaring it left the premier of the smallest colony of the empire to fight unaided for the rights of his countrymen against a strong aggressive power.

LEPER ESCAPES AND FLEES FOR HIS HOME

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 9.—John Koker, a Greek, in an advanced stage of leprosy, who has been under quarantine here for the last three days, was missing yesterday from the tent in which he was quarantined, and it is learned he had taken a train on Wednesday evening intending to go to New York and thence to Greece.

Funds for the journey were provided by his countrymen here. His friends would not divulge the route he has taken. The left hand, it is said, is almost ready to drop off.

Cholera Riot in Italy

Rome, Sept. 9.—The action of the municipality of Ascoli Satriano, in allowing two persons from the cholera-infected district to enter the town has provoked a great rage here. In a riot yesterday the authorities were stoned and two were seriously injured.

THE WEATHER

Storm south-west, shifting to Northwest winds, showery, clearing and cooler tonight Saturday, fine and cool.

CLOUDY FOR BIRDMEN IN BOSTON MEET

English Aviator May Make Effort to Stay in Air Four or Five Hours—Entries for International Contests

Boston, Sept. 9.—Heavy gray clouds enclosed the Boston-Harvard aviation field at Atlantic today and it appeared during the morning hours as if some of the big events of the day would have to be postponed. Claude Graham-White, the popular English aviator, was disappointed at the bad weather. Satisfied with his lead in the number of points he now maintains for the various prizes, Graham-White, it was stated, would today, if weather permitted, attempt to lower the field record for duration and distance.

He has at this time a large lead in every event with the exception of two, Ralph Johnston, the Wright aviator having the best score in the distance and duration flights. An attempt will be made by White, it is stated, to stay up for four or five hours. With the exception of William H. Hilliard and W. Burgess, none of the amateur aviators appeared on the field during the early hours today, and to all appearances the Harvard cup for amateurs and the other amateur prizes may have to be kept.

Despite the rain and a stiff easterly breeze that was blowing, Hilliard was given permission to attempt a few flights.

He has chosen a site in the King's Way between Keeley and Kimball streets. He will dedicate two boxes to the exclusive use of the lord mayor of London and the King. To carry out his plans he will leave for England at the end of this month.

BULLET IN BRAIN FOR ELEVEN YEARS

Former Soldier is Still Alive With Mauder in His Head

New York, Sept. 9.—As a physical proof that a bullet is a cruel foe for many years in a vital part of his anatomy without suffering any ill effects, the attention of the surgeons attending a young Glasgow while the latter lay in St. Mary's Hospital, was called to John Greizer, jr. Greizer has carried a bullet in his brain for eleven years, or since the Spanish war.

It is believed that the decision not to operate or attempt to remove the bullet from Mayor Gaynor was largely influenced by Mr. Greizer's present excellent physical condition.

Greizer was a member of a Nebraska regiment during the Spanish-American war and was sent to the Philippines. During an engagement a spent Mauser steel-jacketed bullet struck Greizer in the forehead over the right eye. It took a course directly back, finally stopping about an inch from the rear wall of the skull and between the cerebrum and cerebellum. Greizer dropped in his tracks as soon as he was struck. He was taken to the reserve hospital at Manila, but the hope was expressed by the army surgeons of his recovery. For the first twenty-four hours he was unconscious.

At first Greizer suffered from a slight paralysis of the right side, defective vision of the right eye and some mental confusion. After two weeks in the hospital these symptoms left him and he began to rapidly improve in health. He was shot on March 27, 1899, and in three months he had regained his regiment.

GRIPPEN TRIAL OFF UNTIL SEPTEMBER 14

Prosecution Forging Chain to Convict—Inspector Dew's New Point

London, Sept. 9.—The crown prosecutors are slowly unravelling a chain of evidence with which they expect to convict Dr. Hawley H. Crippen of the murder of his wife, the music hall singer, Belle Elmore, and Ethel Le Neve, as accessory after the fact.

It was expected that important medical testimony would be given early in the court proceedings, but its presentation has been delayed until the expert for the defence had an opportunity of viewing the remains. The trial therefore has been adjourned to September 14.

A marked change in the demeanor of Crippen is noted. He is less downcast. He carried on a whispered conversation with his former stenographer in court yesterday. Miss Le Neve replied in monosyllables, keeping her eyes on the ground. She was much agitated throughout the hearing and had trouble in controlling herself when the circumstances attending the finding of the remains were narrated by Inspector Dew. The inspector brought out a new point, testifying that he found in the garden, under a heap of rubbish, some clay similar to that in the cellar.

Well Known Horseman Dead

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 9.—T. Edward Ryan, a well known horseman, is dead here. His identity was not known until yesterday when a number of messages came from friends entering the undertakers to give him a decent burial. He came here for his health from New York. He was known in all the big tracks.

JUDGE PARKER ON THE TARIFF

Declares Republicans Will Not Carry Out Taft's Revision Idea and Best Thing is to Defeat Party

Rockland, Maine, Sept. 9.—Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, one time democratic candidate for president, in the third and last speech, which he contributes to the democratic campaign in Maine last night, warned his hearers at a local rally not to accept the programme of President Taft for a reduction in the present tariff rates, one schedule at a time.

He assigned as his reason that if the republican machine could pass safely over the present crisis, it would no more heed the demand for a substantial reduction than it had previously. "While president Taft's purposes, undoubtedly, are honest," he said, "the fact of President Arthur's tariff commission should be remembered. The only way safely for the people to make their demands known is by overwhelmingly defeating the party that has dared to lay them for a mass of postage."

Judge Parker declared that oppressive burdens which he claimed exist under the new tariff are the work of "the corrupt national republican machine which has for years traded away the rights of the people in return for money used to strengthen the machine and to buy votes in doubtful congressional districts. He denounced the republican national policies and explained the reasons for the large number of patriotic republicans in every congressional district have decided to secure justice to themselves and to all the people by defeating the bosses who have brought shame upon their party."

HAMMERSTEIN FOR LONDON

Will Build Grand Opera House in King's Way—Boxes for King and Mayor

New York, Sept. 9.—Debarred by the terms of his contract with the Metropolitan Opera Company of this city from the Park race track, where that nation hopes to regain the blue ribbon of the air, has been definitely arranged. Alfred LeBlanc, Hubert Latham and Leon Morane, the three French cracks, will compete for the international championship trophy now held by Glenn Curtiss. Morane replaces LeBouchere whose broken leg will prevent his participation in the October meeting. All three men are more successful monoplane and will use specially constructed racing machines. In addition to these, the French Aero Club will send M. Aubert and Count Jacques de Lesseps to compete for other prizes.

Italy will send Signor Cattaneo and Belgium probably will delegate N. Olier-lagers to take part. Neither Sir Olier-lagers nor Switzerland will be represented. M. LeBlanc's assistant in the international balloon contest will be Jacques Faure, the noted French balloonist.

Believe Storm HAS SPENT FORCE IN MID-OCEAN

Keywest, Sept. 9.—After a night of anxiety on the part of seafaring men along the southeastern coast of Florida, following danger warnings issued by the weather bureau, conditions became more favorable today with only a light wind blowing. The barometer still is lower than normal, but it is believed the tropical storm on the way from Porto Rico has spent its force in mid-ocean.

BASEBALL CLUB FOR SALE

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 9.—The Lawrence baseball club of the New England league is to be sold. The directors were empowered last night to dispose of their holdings. It is understood that several offers have been made for the team and franchise. Manager Hamilton of the Lenox team and several Boston interests are mentioned as possible purchasers.

Toronto Newspaper's Guess

Toronto, Sept. 9.—(Special)—An Ottawa special published in the Mail and Empire today says:—"With the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and party from the west, the impression here is pronounced that Premier Sirton, of Alberta will be called to the Dominion Government, presumably to supplant Hon. Frank Oliver as minister of interior."

INVESTITURE WILL TAKE PLACE IN WALES

London, Sept. 9.—For the first time in hundreds of years the investiture of the Prince of Wales will take place in Wales. After a keen competition between Cardiff and Carnarvon, for the honor, the King has decided in favor of Carnarvon. The ceremony will be in July.

AMERICAN DOCTOR IS ARRESTED IN NAPLES

Naples, Sept. 9.—A man giving the name of Dr. Benedicte De Angelis of Hoboken, N. J., has been arrested here on the charge of having defrauded several druggists. He represented himself as having been connected with a large American chemical company. The arrest has caused considerable surprise, for he has been on the list of the members of the local medical society lavishly.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

Our esteemed fellow citizen Mr. Peter Binks was in high good humor this morning. Mr. Binks is strong on politics. The city is filled with members of parliament, members of the legislature, first lieutenants, second lieutenants and captains of the guard. Mr. Binks is sure that something will happen. The first sod of the Valley Railway was turned, champagne may be held on Courtenay Bay flats. Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Hazen may give their brains together, or a special meeting of the city council may be held to give the visitors an illustration of parliamentary debate.

Mr. Binks requests this paper to suggest that the managers of the Pike gather the politicians together as a special attraction for Saturday afternoon. Each could be

POPE PIUS PLEASSED AT WELCOME IN CANADA FOR EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Says Britain and Dominion Have Taught Lesson in Tolerance and Liberty—Telegram to King Royal Declaration Was At Command of His Holiness

Rome, Sept. 9.—(Special)—The Pope is very pleased at the warm reception which he has received in Canada for the Eucharistic Congress. He has telegraphed to King George V. congratulating him on the success of the congress and expressing his confidence in the future of the Dominion.

The Pope is very desirous of conveying his gratitude to the British government for the excellent reception which he has received in Canada. He has telegraphed to the British government expressing his confidence in the future of the Dominion.

DOCTOR ORDERS TY GOBB OUT OF GAME FOR A WHILE

Detroit, Sept. 9.—The oculist to whom Ty Cobb, the ball player, submitted his inflamed eye for examination, has issued an official statement in which he says:—"Ty Cobb is being treated by me for chrysis of the right eye. The condition is serious, as it is an inflammation of one of the most important structures of the eye. The binocular vision is seriously affected. The treatment demanded in his case necessitates the relaxation of the focusing apparatus of the eye. I have advised him to remain out of the game for several days at least. I feel sure that no permanent injury to his sight will result from this inflammation, provided he now takes a strict rest."

HE'S AGAINST THE BALLINGER RESOLUTION

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 9.—Representative Edwin Denby of Michigan, a republican member of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee, last night denounced the action of the five members who adopted a resolution declaring Secretary Ballinger "not a faithful trustee of the United States who should be removed. Representative Olmstead, of Pennsylvania, will not arrive in time for today's session, and the republicans still will be in the minority. Mr. Olmstead, however, is expected to arrive tonight, and it is thought certain that a quorum will remain broken until he can attend.

The presence of Messrs. Olmstead and Denby would give the Republicans five votes on any question. The Democrats feel certain they can obtain the support of Mr. Madison, the insurgent-republican from Kansas, who introduced the Ballinger resolution, in which case they would have a like number.

Fire in Princeton, Ont.

Princeton, Ont., Sept. 9.—(Special)—An unoccupied building owned by W. H. Wells was destroyed by fire yesterday with the residence of Mr. Chesewright. The Bank of Hamilton and offices suffered damage.

STRIKE COST OPERATORS AND MEN $27,000,000

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The strike of 44,000 coal miners in Illinois, which was settled yesterday, is estimated cost the miners $27,000,000 in wages. The loss to the operators during the five months shut down is placed at $15,000,000. The annual production of coal in Illinois amounts to 50,000,000 tons and the shortage this year, due to the strike, will be in the neighborhood of 20,000,000 tons.

STRIKE COST OPERATORS AND MEN $27,000,000

The strike of Illinois Coal Miners acted twenty-three weeks. It was brought to an end by the signing of an agreement adopting the wage scale outlined by the Peoria miners convention. The men will return to work Saturday morning. The agreement carries a general increase of three cents a ton throughout the state, an increase of five cents in the Northern fields and six cents in Franklin and Williamson counties. The operators also agreed to an increase of 5.53 per cent for all day laborers. This will increase their cost between two and three cents for each ton.

ANOTHER LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

ED. LANE IS KILLED IN CARLETON

Young Man of 21 Crushed to Death Between Cars Today—Coroner Kenney Will Hold an Inquiry

Edward Lane, aged about 21, of Winslow street, West St. John was almost instantly killed in a collision of two street cars at the West Side ferry dock a little before 1 o'clock today. The frightful accident happened during a busy time when crowds were returning to work and much excitement was occasioned for a time.

Whether the dead man was attempting to cross between the cars or how he became caught does not seem to be clear as it all happened so quickly. The bridge car in charge of Conductor Johnson and Motorman Christopher was standing at the end of the track, having just arrived and the fender had been changed to the other end of the car. The motorman was in the act of removing the handles to attach to the forward motor when the Blue Rock car struck with great force.

After the collision, and as soon as it was seen that a man had been jammed between the cars, the conductors and motorman of both cars and other people near by made haste to extricate him. The task was no easy one as the fenders were crumpled into a mass of tangled wire and tightly bound about Lane. The vestibule ends of the cars had come together holding the man in a vice like grip.

It was at once seen that he was terribly injured. Dr. F. L. Kenney was sent for but Lane was dead before he arrived. Dr. Kenney, after viewing the body, gave permission for its removal to Beattie's undertaking rooms. A jury will be empaneled and an inquest held.

Edward Lane was the son of William Lane of Winslow street, a superannuated letter carrier. Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Alice aged about 16 and Grace aged 12.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMME

7.30 p.m.—Concert by the Boston Orchestra in main building. 7.30 p.m.—Performance in both amusement halls. 8.00 p.m.—Grand open-air concert programme by 62nd Fusiliers Band. 8.00 p.m.—Grand programme of amusement features in front of the stand, concluding with the magnificent display fireworks. 9.00 p.m.—Performance in both amusement halls.

Another record crowd is looked for in the Dominion Exhibition today. Though the weather was rather unsettled this morning and there was a high wind it was not thought that the attendance would be affected to any great extent. With excursion trains pouring in big crowds all morning and afternoon it is probable that the grounds will be the scene of much activity. Again the turnstiles clicked merrily as the out-of-town people passed into the grounds.

Yesterday there was only one special excursion train, while today there are half a dozen specials bringing in sightseers from all parts of the country. As this is Society Day, the fraternal societies are expected to be represented in large contingents. Among the visitors to the grounds this morning was James W. Power, of the Halifax Recorder. Mr. Power expressed himself as much pleased with the length of the show. Speaking of the 21st day's net week, he said it was a lesson that everyone should see. They had the men in Halifax a few years ago and they drew immense crowds. Their evolutions are simply marvelous.

There will be a display of fireworks tonight unless the weather man prevents and the big free attractions will be carried out before the grand stand both afternoon and evening. Every night next week there will also be a fireworks display and in addition to the Swing of Death and the high wire artists, the Canadian Military Dragons will perform their musical ride. A telegram was received this morning stating that the dragons had left St. John's, Que., and would arrive here tomorrow morning in two special cars. The horses will be stabled in the barn used for the thoroughbred, formerly the poultry house and the men will be given quarters near the grounds. It had been thought that they would camp in military fashion, but the men declined to do this as it might injure their highly burnished accoutrements.

Major Nelles has written that he has been granted permission from Ottawa to accompany his men, which is a matter of much satisfaction to the management as he was the originator of the evolutions that has made this corps famous.

This afternoon the Piper Band will play in front of the grand stand and this evening the 62nd Band will give a programme.

PAPER HAS PUT INTO DIFFICULTIES

Colon, Sept. 9.—The "Star-Herald" editorially quotes Richard O. Marsh, the American charge d'affaires in Panama, as hinting that the United States will occupy and annex Panama if the Panama assembly ignores the wishes of the United States in the matter of the selection of a president of the republic.

It is openly stated that Marsh has in his possession a protest from many prominent Panamanians, members of the Conservative party, who claim that the assembly is illegally constituted. This protest, it is said, is not to be forwarded to Washington if Samuel Lewis, who is regarded as the choice of the United States, is elected president.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Instructions to promptly and publicly repudiate the interview he is alleged to have given at Panama have been cabled to Richard Marsh, the charge d'affaires by acting secretary of state Wilson.

THE POLITICAL EFFECT.

The Montreal Herald speculates upon the political effect of the western tour of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. That it will have an effect beneficial to the party of which he is the leader cannot be doubted. The remarkable reception tendered him, the addresses delivered by himself and colleagues, the publicity given to the incidents of the tour, and the personal impression made upon the minds of the new as well as the older settlers of the west are all elements which contribute to his prestige as prime minister, and as "Canada's most illustrious statesman" to quote the words of Premier McBride of British Columbia.

CREED AND LIFE

There are, and there always have been, pure souls who could not subscribe to the doctrines of the church to which the eloquent Father Vaughan belongs. Not all the souls numbered among the members of that church—or any church—are pure. One is able to turn from the fiery denunciation by Father Vaughan of all that is non-Catholic in religion and find in other folds lives as pure, ideals as lofty, and the principle of sacrifice and service as fully exemplified as in that which Father Vaughan is a pastor.

A MILD BOAST

The National Review of London has an article based on the assumption that the Duke of Connaught will be the next governor general of Canada. It praises the duke as a man of democratic habit, and makes this comment: "His inclusive geniality will be a salutary influence in Ottawa, where the clerk in the civil service does not care to be seen in the street with a storekeeper. For the rest it is good for Canada that a society should have a head, and that a society should be set of social decency. All this helps to repress the spendthrift barbarity of the nouveaux riches which has reached such a pitch in the United States, and is practically non-existent in Canada, thanks chiefly to the cultured common sense of its statesmen capitalists, but in some measure to the example of the governor-general."

at the suggestion that "the clerk in the civil service does not care to be seen in the street with a storekeeper," and observes that it will come as a fearful and wonderful surprise firstly, to "the clerk in the civil service," secondly, to "the storekeeper," and thirdly, to the people of Ottawa generally. The Free Press makes some caustic comments on the habit of some British journalists who know nothing of Canada, but who write as if they knew it all. It adds:—"There is no social oligarchy in Ottawa. There are no caste divisions in this city. The capital of Canada, like Canada itself, is a social as well as political democracy. At the Governor-General's annual drawing-room a welcome is extended to all—the civil servant and the storekeeper among the rest."

Touching the suggestion of the National Review that there is "need of a standard of social decency, the Ottawa paper aptly remarks that if this meant anything it is a reflection on Earl Grey and other governors-general, but that there is really no cause for loss of sleep over the matter, since Canada can look after its social decency without importing the article. The Review's reference to the "statesmen capitalists" moves the Free Press to ask who they are, and to make the following entertaining remarks:—"Up to the present time, Sir Wilfrid Laurier hasn't been appointed president of the Bank of Montreal, Hon. W. S. Fielding hasn't figured in very many meetings, Hon. Wm. Templeman hasn't been plugging in the stock market, Hon. G. E. Foster hasn't organized any new trust companies, nor has 'Billy' McLean been elected a director of the C. P. R."

Canada's representatives at the Hague are well pleased with the fisheries award. The British aviator is having things very much his own way in Boston this week.

The Labor Party in Australia is progressive, and its leader is a man of broad views. He proposes a very extensive programme of railroad construction across the continent.

St. John people should take advantage of the exhibition to learn more about the products and possibilities of the country in agricultural, industrial and educational departments.

After Sir Wilfrid Laurier had passed out of British Columbia, Premier McBride sent a parting message to "Canada's most illustrious statesman." How does that strike the St. John Standard?

St. John people have never seen as many people at one time within an equal area in this city as were massed in the grounds and buildings of the exhibition last evening. The crowd in itself was a very interesting study.

Seldom is there greater pathos in a tragedy than in that which involved the death of a boy at the exhibition grounds yesterday. He was there to earn a few cents for a sick mother who had four other children. The case is one that should appeal to the generosity of the public.

Premier Hazen continues to do his road work in the columns of the St. John Standard. Needless to say, this will not make the roads any better, nor mend any bridges. The Standard foolishly keeps up its attack upon Mr. Bentley, although that gentleman is as well able to take care of himself in this controversy as he was when Mr. Hazen brought his cohorts into St. John county in the vain effort to accomplish Mr. Bentley's defeat.

Sir George Garneau of Quebec says:—"It is high time that our people should be educated to understand the insensible importance of good roads, not for pleasure purposes only, but from the strictly economical standpoint of facilitating transportation." Commenting on Sir George's statement the Montreal Star says:—"A campaign along these lines would be of as much material benefit to the province as any other suggestion for public improvement that has come up for discussion in many years past." All of which is respectfully commended to the attention of Premier Hazen.

Decline of the Moustache

(London Express) Permission to wear a moustache was eagerly sought after in the middle of the last century. But now the vogue has almost been discarded. Why? In those old days the Bank of England would not allow its officers to wear it, and issued an order which might have come more appropriately from a Bank of Ireland. It was to the effect that the moustache was not to be worn in business hours! A large druggery firm in London objected not only to the moustache, but to hair parted down the middle.

There is more tolerance now and his moustache is often a young shopman's most precious possession. Men look younger when clean-shaven. They are also more readable without the protection given by the moustache to the upper lip. If hearts can be worn on sleeves, thoughts can be read on upper lips. But is it always wise to leave the legend unhidden? Men seldom like to be divined, as La Roche-foucauld remarked once and for all time.

Visitor—"Who is going to pay for such a fine road in this country community?" Farmer—"Why, you see, the automobilists will get to speeding on it, and then the fines will pay for the road."

WITH EVENING COMETH REST

When the circling swallow glideth, O'er the deep and silent lake, And the fleecy, dreamy shadows, Float o'er mountain and o'er brake, When the sunset's golden glories, Gage the light with honeyed beams, Spraying beauty through the gloaming, Delve deep thought from memory's mine.

Thoughts of years when youthful fancies, Gilded all our days with joy, Promises of golden harvests, Faith and love without alloy.

Faith that vanished in the gloaming, Of life's hard and rugged road, Withered ere the seed was sowed.

Friends who once we fondly cherished, Faded from our touch and sight, Naught, but holy memories linger, Since that gliding in the night.

Morn and noon long since have vanished, Evening's stars their advent make, Earth's long quest will soon be ended, And eternal dawning break.

So our hopes may have fruition, And our faith its soul's behest, When life's weary strife is ended, And we gain eternal rest.

UNCLE SAM TO RAISE PURE BRED CATTLE Experts Will Try to Solve Problem of Marketing Wholesome Milk

Last month the United States government purchased a new farm of about 500 acres at Belleville, about thirteen miles from Washington. The department of agriculture purposes to use this farm for the breeding of pure bred cattle, pigs, chickens and also for experimental work in dairying and to make the farm of great interest to live stock people all over the country.

The department claims the need for such a farm has long been felt, as it has seen without proper facilities for making important investigations in breeding for which farm conditions are required. Some breeding work has been done on the government farm at Bethesda, Md., but it has not been considered safe to conduct work of this kind on the same premises where investigations or contagious diseases are being made. The farm at Bethesda will be maintained for experiments relating to diseases, but the breeding will be transferred to the new farm at Belleville.

At the new farm it is intended to put in a dairy herd and to have facilities for doing work in connection with the many problems of production and control of the milk supply. There has been but little of this kind of work done heretofore, and that little has been in co-operation with individuals in various parts of the country. It is expected that this work will keep the authorities more closely in touch with the practical side of the milk problem, and will also enable the government to take up some very important problems connected therewith. For instance, the feeding and breeding of dairy cattle as well as that of herd management. Present plans include breeding, as it applies to the grade herd, that is, the partially improved stock. By breeding it is proposed to establish as pure a breed of dairy cattle as possible.

One of the most important matters to be taken up will be that of the transportation of milk and the manufacture of it into its various products, cheese, etc. It is claimed that in order to get milk for experimental purposes it is necessary to control the conditions surrounding the production of it. By this means definite results are expected to be accomplished, and with this object in view the government will erect suitable buildings on the farm.

In this connection it is proposed to take up the study of a special bacteria, "streptococcus," a germ that is always present in milk, especially after the milk has soured. Very little appears to be known about this bacteria, some authorities claiming it is injurious to health, while others claim it is not. The government intends to settle this question for all time. Among other things, it is proposed to try and reduce the expense of marketing milk, and the question as to whether it would pay to freeze milk before shipment will also be considered. The department will look into every phase of the milk question with special reference to the delivery of milk in the best condition to the consumer, with the least possible expense, both to the producer and the consumer.

The work of the Bethesda farm has been principally of a pathological nature. Some years ago the government started experiments in animal breeding guinea pigs, etc., and also in poultry raising. Recently a small flock of sheep and of goats have been added to the Bethesda farm, and will be transferred to the new farm at Belleville. The breeding of sheep heretofore has been confined to cross breeding—crossing delaine merino sheep with sheep from the Isle of Barbados. All of this work will be done at Belleville, only on a larger scale.

GOOD SCHOOL SHOES Beware of trash! Many stores are crying school shoes at prices wonderfully small. What of it, if the shoes are poor—coarse leather, spongy soles, carelessly made? Economy doesn't lie along that route. Pay as much as you can for school shoes; get Goodyear welt, if possible. It is stronger, easier, holds its shape better and is cheaper, though it costs more. STRONGER, because only the best leather can stand the terrific pounding of the machine. EASIER, because the welt gives flexibility, and because the stitches are side-ways, not up and down; no hard ridge inside and no tacks in the shoe. CHEAPER, because it wears longer and can be repaired better—the new sole can be sewed on—in others it must be pegged or nailed on. Goodyear Welt Shoes for Boys and Girls, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50, all sizes. Other good School Shoes at $1.50 and $1.75.

RUSSIA ALARMED BY AUSTRIA'S POLICY. Clash May Come, it is Believed—Intrigues With the Turks. St. Petersburg, Sept. 8.—There is a growing expectation here that another collision with Austria is approaching. The officials of the state department believe that Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austrian foreign minister, intends to continue to advance along the road he entered upon nearly two years ago by the Bosnian annexation. His agents at Constantinople are conducting an energetic anti-Russian agitation.

A BEAUTIFUL EVENING FROCK OF VEILED PERSIAN SILK

Gorgeous materials and trimmings are used in the evening gowns of today, and many of the models of Paris make cost their owners well over five hundred dollars, so rich and costly are the fabrics employed. Persian silk in gold and yellow tones, veiled with black chiffon, is extremely delectable under bodice of cream combined with plain black satin and or-

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I WAS reading in a new thought book the other day of the importance of going to sleep in a good frame of mind because the thoughts that dominate the mind at the time of falling asleep, the physiologists declare, dominates it most of the night.

I am not consciously a new thoughtist. Although I realize of course that there is a great deal that is interesting and helpful in this rejuvenation of the doctrine of the supreme power of mind over matter, I don't think it is the whole of the truth.

I recognize it as one of the facets of the diamond but not by any means the diamond.

Just as I believe that osteopathy and Fletcherian and sleeping out-of-doors, and all the other health ideas that have come to us lately, are each valuable but no one alone sufficient.

But new thoughtist or not, I am deeply impressed with this idea of going to sleep in the right frame of mind.

If you were to think of some worry or difficulty steadily all the morning or afternoon it would undoubtedly affect your physical state to a certain extent. Even the most conservative and old school doctors admit that.

Now if by going to sleep in any mood one continues it half the night, as the physiologists assert, it certainly behooves us to take mighty good care in what mood we go to sleep.

It is more important to prepare the mind for sleep than the body. The mental bath is even more necessary than the physical one. "Saturate your mind with pleasant memories and with dreams of great expectations. Just imagine yourself the man or woman you long to become, filled with happiness, prosperity and power," says Dr. Weston J. Martin in the new thought book to which I refer.

And again—"The devotional attitude on retiring to sleep is of very great value, inasmuch as it tends to soothe, calm and reassure the mind; to destroy all fear, worry and anxious thoughts and to put one in tune with higher, nobler thoughts."

Why not just as you feel yourself slipping off, say some fragment of beautiful and noble poetry that you especially cherish, or some bit that has the peace of thought—borrow the language of the "new thoughtists"—very strong within it.

"Sleep sweet within this quiet room My guest who e'er thou art, And let no mournful yesterdays Disturb thy peaceful breast. Nor let tomorrow fright thy breast With dreams of coming ill. Thy Maker is thy changeless friend, His love surrounds thee all. Now please don't say "That sounds fairly reasonable," but go the one step further that makes all the difference in the world. Add will to thought.

In other words—try it tonight.

Daily Hints for the Cook

PLAIN CUSTARD FOR ICES. Bring a pint of milk, to which a quarter of an ounce of leaf gelatine and a tablespoonful of Swiss milk have been added, to the boil. Beat an egg, and stir in a tablespoonful of flour. When the milk is boiling pour it into the beaten egg, stir well, replace in the saucepan and stir until the mixture thickens. It must on no account be allowed to boil, or it will curdle, and the ice will not be good. When it is quite cold flavor to taste.

JAM ICE CREAM. Make a pint custard in the usual way using the yolks of three eggs to each pint of milk. Dissolve four tablespoonfuls of jam, pass it through a sieve if it contains bits of fruit-skins, stir into the custard, sweeten with syrup to taste, and add a little coloring if necessary. When perfectly cold stir in two tablespoonfuls of whipped cream, and freeze.

LEMON WATER ICE. Peel three lemons and an orange as thinly as possible. Put the rinds in a basin. Bring three-quarters of a pint of syrup to the boil, and pour it over the rinds. Leave until cold. Strain in the strained juice of the fruit, strain again, and freeze.

SALMON LOAF Roll 3 soda crackers. Mix with 2 eggs well beaten, a small piece of butter and a can of salmon from which liquor has been drained. Add sweet milk to make a stiff mixture, form into a loaf and steam. Take liquor turned from can and thicken with flour, add 1 cup of milk or cream and cook till thickened. When salmon has cooled one-half hour turn gravy over it and serve hot.

Autumn Opening of Millinery at M. R. A.'s. Of more than ordinary interest to St. John ladies and more particularly to visitors will be the grand exhibit of the very latest Parisian, London and New York styles. All the very latest of the season's creations will be on view, including a great number of decidedly beautiful models by our own expert artists. This will be a wonderfully effective demonstration of ready-to-wear and pattern hats for ladies, misses and children, and will have to be seen to be appreciated. Friday and Saturday in the millinery department.

BRIDE SUES HUSBAND FOR WEDDING GIFTS

New York, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Lillian Patterson Dale, who became the bride of Francis Colgate Dale, a real estate broker, at No. 43 Exchange place, a little more than a year ago, has filed in the Supreme Court a suit against her husband to recover $5,000 worth of jewelry which she claims he gave to her as a wedding present and recently took away from her.

Mrs. Dale is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newhall Patterson, of No. 51 West 43rd street. On January 1, 1909, she was married to Mr. Dale in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. Her ornaments at that time were a necklace of diamonds and pearls given to her by the bridegroom, and a brooch of the same gems, with a large topaz in the center. Immediately after the wedding the Dales sailed for Europe on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Dale charges, in her complaint, that prior to July 16, and July 29, last, the two days on which she alleges her husband took possession of her gems, she was in the possession of the jewelry. One topaz brooch, ornamented with diamonds and pearls.

Has $5,000 Damages, Too. On the two days mentioned, Mrs. Dale asserts, her husband "wrongfully and forcibly took the jewelry from the plaintiff's possession. She demands judgment for the possession of these jewels, or $5,000 in case the possession thereof cannot be given plaintiff, and the sum of $5,000 damages in addition thereto.

BLACK HAND SUSPECTS PUT UNDER ARREST. Reggio Di Calabria, Italy, Sept. 9.—The police have arrested thirty persons, among them two who recently returned to Italy from the United States on suspicion of having knowledge of the murder of Policeman Rovolino and his wife and six children. All the members of the family, except a little girl, were killed with an axe.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

A Mountain Alarm Clock

An American and a Highlander were walking on the top of one of the Scotch mountains, when the Scotchman, wishing to impress his boastful "cousin," produced a famous echo to be heard in that place. When the echo returned clearly after nearly four minutes, the proud Scotchman, turning to the Yankee, exclaimed: "There now, ye canna' show anything like that in your country."

HERE ARE FASHION'S DECREES FOR WOMEN

Ladies! Do you know that? The "Boy Scout" suit is to be the smartest thing for the fall! The Jungle Suit is to give it a good run for popularity? Brown is to be the color most worn? Coats are to be outlined in furs a la Russe? Also, are you aware that? Paris, nowadays is constructing her most Frenchy gowns of American made silks? American designers are drawing and cutting the daintiest things made in the French capital? Three-fourths of the gowns shown here as "right from Paris" are really right from New York? All of this information came from the National Association of Ladies' Tailors, in meeting last night at No. 20 East Thirty-third street. They are going to have a Style Show October 10th on the Post of the Hotel Astor.

THE WORK OF THE LATE WILLIAM HOLMAN HUNT

William Holman-Hunt, O.M., D.C.L., whose death was announced in the Times on Wednesday, was one of the three founders of the pre-Raphaelite movement which left a profound permanent impression upon British art. He was known throughout the British Empire, and indeed everywhere where religious art is honored, by his great symbolic paintings of Christian faith, and particularly by "The Light of the World," the original of which is at Keeble College, Oxford, and a life-size replica of which by the artist was sent on tour throughout the British Dominions some five years ago before being placed in St. Paul's Cathedral, London. This replica was exhibited for many weeks at the Art Gallery in Montreal and attracted great crowds. Probably no work of modern art has been more extensively reproduced, and copies of it in the form of stained windows may be found in almost every city, there being one in a church in Montreal.

HARRY BRUNDAGE IS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED ON THE PIKE

Harry Masters Brundage, the eleven-year-old son of Mrs. Joseph Brundage, Broad street, was accidentally shot and killed on the exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon by William Humphreys, a young lad of twelve years, who was assisting Patrick Walsh, manager of a shooting gallery on the Pike.

HOW GEO. B. JONES M. P. P., AT APOHAQUI, OBSERVES THE LAW

A few days ago an enterprising photographer had occasion to visit Jones Bros. mill, which is situated on the Millstream very near its junction with the Kennebec. There is an immense pile of sawdust along the Millstream at that point, the foot of the pile being in the bed of the stream, so that at every rise of water the stream enters into the bottom of the pile and carries away great quantities of the sawdust. As the autumn rains and high water may now be expected soon, it is evident that many tons of the sawdust will be swept away and carried into the Kennebec, and evidently the sawdust is dumped on the Millstream bank with the expectation that it will be so disposed of. This is the old story.

The photograph herewith published gives some idea of the extent of the sawdust pile, and shows a man with a horse and dump cart on top of the pile. This exhibit is a particularly interesting one because of a letter written by Jones Bros. a few weeks ago when the dominion fishery inspector was in the neighborhood further infraction of the law against the pollution of streams. In that letter Mr. Jones or his firm (George B. Jones is one of the members of the legislature for Kings county) solemnly asserted that while he had attempted to prevent sawdust from being dumped into the Millstream, or so placed that the stream might wash it away, he could not always ward his men and that early in the spring they had ignored his instructions and actually dumped some sawdust where it was subsequently reached by an unusual rise of water.

The picture of the man with the dump cart on top of the pile of sawdust would seem to indicate that Mr. Jones' employees are still ignoring his strict orders in this matter of the sawdust, and that, although Mr. Jones has not yet discovered it, some of the men in his employ are placing him in such a position that a careless and censorious public might almost be led to suspect that Mr. Jones' right hand did not know what his left hand is doing.

How the photograph is to be reconciled with the statements made in Jones Bros' letter at the time of the complaint made by the dominion fishery officer is a question upon which light is needed.

FATHER VAUGHAN SPEAKS STRONGLY

Scores Present Day Life in Address at Eucharistic Congress—Cardinal Gibbons Arrives

Montreal, Sept. 8.—The arrival of Cardinal Gibbons today brings the number of princes of the church now in Montreal for the eucharistic congress up to three. His eminence from Baltimore was met at the Windsor station by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy whose guest he will be during his visit.

Tonight Cardinal Gibbons was with Cardinal Vanutelli the central figure at the monster reception tendered by the mayor and aldermen at the city hall. This was the biggest event of the kind ever held here and thousands thronged the council chambers and were presented to Cardinals Vanutelli, Logue and Gibbons. The congress proper opened today with the English and French sections meeting to discuss doctrinal issues.

Father Vaughan addressed a large audience of women on The Eucharistic Life as an Antidote for Modern Life, in the course of which he said:

"We are living," said Father Vaughan, "in a day of headlines, snapshots, taxicabs and music-halls; in a day when the scramble for the prizes of life has become a mad passion. It is a day of fever, fret and fumes, open competition for earthen toys is so keen, and the margin of profit in commerce has become so fine that the one eye beating through the air is 'hurry' and no one seems to have time for patience till, worn out in the pursuit of gew-gaws and vanities, a rest cure becomes imperative, the clock stops, and all action mental or physical must be prescribed as a prohibitive for an eighth part of a year. 'We are living in a day when the high ideals of old are fast yielding to the pressure of creature comforts, when principle is being exchanged for expediency, in a day when self-sacrificing Catholicism is being bartered for self-centered materialism, when the Christian sense of sin is being regarded as a bygone superstition; in a day when it matters not what you believe, but only what you do, and when you may do

STATUE OF SIR LEONARD UNVEILED

Hon. Mr. Pugsley Pronounces Eulogy in Address at Ceremony—Premier Hazen, Sir Sanford Fleming and Mayor Speak

The unveiling of the monument to Sir Leonard Tilley yesterday afternoon in King square was one of the most interesting functions ever held in St. John. Among those present besides the speakers, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Premier Hazen and Sir Sanford Fleming, were many who are prominent in the councils of the temperance party with which movement Sir Leonard had identified all his life.

The unveiling of the monument to Sir Leonard Tilley yesterday afternoon in King square was one of the most interesting functions ever held in St. John. Among those present besides the speakers, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Premier Hazen and Sir Sanford Fleming, were many who are prominent in the councils of the temperance party with which movement Sir Leonard had identified all his life.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Hon. Mr. Hazen, the general public inspected the statue and were in the best of spirits. The statue is a beautiful work of art. The acting president of the Women's Canadian Club, Mrs. E. A. Smith, presented to James A. Belyea, K. C., chairman of the ceremonies, a handsome wreath of laurel which hung on the side of the pedestal. The Artillery Band was present and furnished appropriate music. A detachment from the Artillery Regiment under the command of Lieut. Colonel Baxter was also present, and occupied the walk immediately to the south of the monument.

Surrounding the platform on which the speakers stood, seats had been arranged for 300 invited guests. The two front rows of these seats were reserved for Lady Tilley and her descendants. All these seats were occupied, and many of the guests had to be content to occupy standing room near the barriers. All the walks in the square near the scene were crowded, and every point of vantage was occupied. The band stand was filled with people and the memorial fountain at the edge of the square was occupied by many adventurous boys. The weather was ideal for the occasion, and all the speeches were of a high order of merit.

The proceedings were opened promptly at 4 o'clock by the chairman, J. A. Belyea, who expressed regret at the illness of George Robertson, chairman of the committee, which prevented him from being present. He referred to the generous liberality with which both the dominion and the provincial governments had aided the erection of the monument. He read the letters of regret for inability to be present from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lieutenant-Governor Tweedie, R. L. Berken, leader of the federal opposition; Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. W. S. Fielding, who is at present in England. Lieutenant-Governor Fraser of Nova Scotia also sent his regrets. He was glad to see so many of the friends of temperance present, whose principles Sir Leonard Tilley had always advocated at all times and all seasons.

Premier Hazen
Premier Hazen, before unveiling the monument, said it had been recognized in all countries that it was only fitting that the memory of men who had ungrudgingly given of their strength and talents for the public weal should be perpetuated in marble and bronze. This was nothing more than right, because most of them could have advanced their own material interests by using their talents in that direction. Canada had perhaps not taken such an advanced position on this matter as other countries, but they had made a notable beginning and he hoped the good work would go forward increasingly.

Mr. Hazen went on to sketch the life of Sir Leonard Tilley and said that he owed his success to no mere accident of birth. He had none of those advantages of education which are open to youths of the present day, and whatever he achieved was altogether owing to his own persistent effort. His career as a business man was very successful, and after entering political life he suffered defeat at the polls only twice. It was his good fortune to have been a member of a government or to have been lieutenant-governor during nearly the whole of his career. Except for a brief period after his first election to the house of assembly, he never sat in opposition.

Personally, Sir Leonard was a man of charming manners and kindly disposition. His possessed attractive powers which have been a member of a government or to have been lieutenant-governor during nearly the whole of his career. Except for a brief period after his first election to the house of assembly, he never sat in opposition.

Following the unveiling, the chairman called on Hon. Mr. Pugsley, who said, in effect:

"When it was suggested to me that it would be fitting that the Government of Canada should join with the provincial governments and personal friends and admirers of Sir Leonard Tilley in erecting a monument to his memory it gave me great pleasure to recommend the proposal to the favorable consideration of my colleagues. The fact that the government responded so readily and so generously to my request, and that parliament unanimously supported the proposal affords striking testimony to the large place which the distinguished statesman, to honor whose memory this vast gathering has assembled, filled in the public life of the country, and in what high regard his memory is held by the people not only of this city but of the dominion as a whole. He was a loyal New Brunswicker, in that he formed one of a number of unimpaired provinces, having but slight intercourse with, and still less interest in, each other. Sir Leonard, with Sir John A. Macdonald, the Honorable George Brown, Honorable Charles Fisher, Sir Charles Tupper, that other eminent New Brunswicker, Honorable Peter Mitchell, and many other distinguished statesmen of that day of comparative small things, had visions of the grand results which would follow both to the provinces and to the empire, from a union of the provinces of Canada, consisting of upper and lower Canada, with the maritime provinces, and directed all their energies towards its accomplishment. Many public men, of great influence, of undoubted wisdom and sincere patriotism opposed the project as being likely to result in disaster rather than benefit to the maritime provinces especially. Forty-three years passed since Confederation was accomplished, and while at times during that period the progress of the dominion has not been entirely what might have been expected, and the development has at times been slow, yet upon the whole it has been satisfactory, and now, when we are approaching the close of the first half century of our history as a United Canada, few are found to question the wisdom of the great movement which resulted, first in the act of Confederation and subsequently in the bringing in of Prince Edward Island, Rupert's Land and British Columbia. Today the dominion extends from coast to coast, Sir Leonard Tilley was one of the ablest, most prominent and most influential of the Fathers of Confederation, and his memory, with a prophetic eye he looked into the future and steadily onward in the path which would lead to the accomplishment of that destiny which he so clearly foresaw. For this every patriotic Canadian honors his memory.

"He, too, clearly saw and in eloquent language often predicted the old world would come when, with the settlement of the west, its prosperity would be reflected upon the east, and would lead to vast enterprises in commercial and industrial enterprises.

"His prediction in this respect has come true. His optimism was boundless. He liked to look always at the bright side of the picture. He ever sought to inspire our people with faith and confidence in their country and in its future.

"I can remember him as a young man I was impressed by his strong and confident prediction that the time would surely come when this city would be the 'Liver' pool of America.' He predicted that a large portion of the vast stream of traffic which would pass between the old world and the Canada which he helped to create, would flow through the port of St. John.

"His prediction in relation to the city which he loved so well, and which deserves our warmest affection, should inspire the citizens of St. John to work shoulder to shoulder and strive earnestly toward the realization of the hopes so often instilled upon our minds by the great statesman whose memory we are today honoring."

Dr. Pugsley referred to Sir Leonard's loyalty to the empire and said:

"It was my good fortune to serve as one of his honor's advisers when Sir Leonard Tilley was lieutenant-governor of the province and the late Honorable A. O. Blair was premier. In that position I naturally enjoyed confidential relations with the governor and had a very good opportunity of forming a correct judgment regarding him, not as the politician, but as the man.

"He was always kindly and considerate and I look back upon that period as among the happiest among the many of my life. His private life, his charitable disposition, and kindly acts all made for the happiness of his friends and the benefit of his fellowmen.

"It is fitting that in this city, which he so long represented in the councils of the country, this city, which for many years has his home, in this, one of the city's beauty spots, should be erected this chaste and strikingly beautiful monument, and that as a token of the esteem in which he was held by those who have assisted in securing its erection, and by

ROOSEVELT HINTS HE MAY AGAIN BE IN PUBLIC LIFE

Warns Manufacturers, if He Does, He Will Show Them No Mercy

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 8.—Colonel Roosevelt admitted today that there is a possibility of his returning to public life. In this connection he issued a warning to corrupt corporations that any aid they might extend him in obtaining any official place, would be at their own peril, and not with the idea of getting official favors or pardons later. The statement was in his address in connection with the fair of the various national organizations of railroad employes for the benefit of the home-land. In this address he said that he was in sympathy with the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, introduced him.

"I don't suppose I ever shall be in public life again," Colonel Roosevelt said, "but if I am there is always the chance that sometime it may come up when I shall make my words good. No corporation, no politician must ever support me for anything under the idea that I will pardon that corporation or that politician if he or it is corrupt.

"If either corporation or politician, either one or the other helps at any time to put me in a position of influence let them remember that if they are corrupt, if they encourage corruption in others or if they benefit by it themselves, they help me at their peril, for I will hurt them if I get the chance."

Colonel Roosevelt also read an open letter to Wm. R. Hurst, in which Mr. Hurst advised the colonel to return to New York and take up the fight on the Republican organization there saying that if he did so, Mr. Hurst would be in sympathy with him.

The colonel said: "I am going back to my state, as mentioned by Mr. Hearst, to fight with the bosses. I welcome the support of any man who wishes to aid in that fight."

Colonel Roosevelt's experiences on the way from Milwaukee here were lively. At the various towns at which the train stopped large crowds were out to greet him, and he made a number of speeches relating his decision of honesty and good citizenship.

LOCAL NEWS

Thorne lodge No. 239, I. O. G. T. will meet tonight in Haymarket Square hall at 8 o'clock.

Arthur Kennedy, 52 Somerset street, has been reported by the police for wilfully breaking a window in the store of Michael Harley, Main street, yesterday.

About noon today in King Square a railway ticket good for a passage from St. John to Bathurst was picked up. It may be had at central police station by the owner.

At Sunday morning service in Trinity church, pew holders will be admitted at the vestry door at 10 o'clock, and the general public will be admitted at 10.30.

The Canadian Pacific steamer Lake Manitoba from Liverpool was reported by Marconi six miles east of Belleisle at 2 a.m. today. She should arrive at Quebec about 10 p.m. on Sunday.

A horse with double seated carriage attached was found by John Kelly wandering about Rockland road last night and was placed in the stable of Walter Campbell, Leinster street, where the owner can get it.

The funeral of Mrs. Nellie Cunningham took place this morning at 8.45 o'clock from her mother's residence Metcalf street. Requiem high mass was sung in St. Peter's church by Rev. Father Holland. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

Miss Gertrude Miles is visiting Miss Ada L. McIntyre, Adelaide street, after an absence from the city of some time. She was formerly in the employ of the W. H. Johnson, Co., Market Square, but is now engaged as stenographer with the legation at Helena, Montana. She is located in Missoula, Montana.

The death of Miss Mary Carney occurred this morning, after an illness of several weeks, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Humphrey O'Leary, 138 City Road. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. O'Leary and Mrs. James O'Connell, of Colchester. The funeral will be held on Tuesday next at 2.30 o'clock.

In the probate court yesterday in the matter of the estate of R. V. De Bury, Thomas P. Regan and E. T. C. Knowles, the executors, filed the accounts of their administration, which were not final, with petition asking for citation to pass them. The citation was issued returnable on Monday, October 3, E. T. C. Knowles acts for himself and co-executor.

BIGGEST RUSH TO CITY IS ON TODAY

An unusually large rush at the depot this morning was due to some of the trains being late, and as a result the local officials found difficulty in handling the crowd. The depot was certainly a busy place with people here to witness the big Dominion exhibition.
A special train from Amherst brought in about 300 people; this was immediately followed by the Maritime Express, which was an hour and forty minutes late. The Montreal and suburban trains also had large numbers, and a large crowd was expected on the Boston.
The information bureau is today finding difficulty handling the applications for lodging.

DOCTORS RETURN

Dr. W. W. White, G. A. B. Addy and W. A. Christie arrived home today on the Montreal train after having spent some time in the old country. While in London they attended the British Medical Association meetings which lasted four days. After that their time was spent in following post-graduate work in hospitals, especially in London.
Their trip across was in the Royal Edward, and rough weather was experienced. Dr. White spoke very enthusiastically of the trip and was greatly pleased with the manner in which they were treated.

Rev. Father LeBlanc, musical professor in St. Joseph's University, was a passenger to the city on the maritime express.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM BULLET WHICH KILLED BRUNDAGE

Wm. P. Keith's Coat Grazed As Lead Messenger Sped On Way

Thos. J. Phillips, Proprietor of the Shooting Gallery, Taken In Charge—Coroner Berryman is to Hold an Inquest

Another turn was taken this morning in connection with the accidental death of Harry Brundage at the exhibition grounds yesterday, when Thos. J. Phillips, owner of the shooting gallery, from which the shot which caused the lad's death came was taken in custody on a charge of having under his control a dangerous thing (the shooting gallery) in the grounds of the exhibition association, and neglecting to use reasonable precautions and exercise reasonable care to avoid danger, whereby the death of Harry Brundage was caused.

Mr. Phillips, who is a fruit and confectionery dealer, was notified to come to court and he occupied a seat in the guard room for a good part of the morning, as did Patrick Walsh and Wm. Humphrey, the two young fellows who were working for him at the fair.

Ball was fired for them this morning in the following amounts: Humphrey, $1,000, in two surties; Walsh, the same figure; and Phillips $1,000 pledged by himself, and $1,000 in two surties of $500 each. Up to 1 o'clock, however, they had not been liberated. H. H. Pickett is appearing for them.

All of them feel their positions very keenly. Walsh who is a manly young fellow of twenty years, when a friend shook him by the hand this morning, to offer sympathy, said that whatever sympathy was to be given should go to the Brundage family, as their plight was certainly a sad one.

Coroner D. E. Berryman will this evening empanel a jury to view the body, and will commence an inquiry tomorrow evening.

MONEY SCHEME ON PIKE IS CUT INTO BY POLICE

Youthful Operator is Arrested But Let go to Get Out of the City

An abrupt ending was put to a game being conducted on the Pike at the exhibition this morning by Samuel Kitz, aged 22, a native of Austria, when he was arrested by Deputy Chief Jenkins on a charge of keeping a common gambling game. In a short time he had made a considerable sum of money, principally from a man named Mary, of Debye Junction, but the stake market closed with his being compelled to leave town, which he promised to do at once.

Kitz had a space on the Pike wherein he ran a sort of lottery, the chances costing a dime, and the prize ranging from five cents, at the same time promising the speculator, that should he put up a quarter Kitz himself would double this sum, and should the former win, he would get back his quarter and the half as well.

The lure of the mighty dollar proved too strong for several and they "bit" quite easily and readily. Kitz raised the amount, and continued to do so, until it had reached the $5 mark. Then the police stepped in and visions of a rich harvest faded rapidly from before the young man's gaze. He was brought before the court, and, promising to leave the city, was allowed to go.

I. C. R. MEN AT CHATHAM TODAY

Inspect Route of Nelson-Loggieville Railway—Tracadie River Man Has Hand Cut Off

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 9.—(Special)—The deputy minister of railways, A. W. Campbell, with F. P. Brady, E. Tiffin and D. Pottinger of the I. C. R., board of commissioners, Chief Engineer McLennan, Superintendent Price and Trackmaster Grass of the I. C. R. staff arrived in Chatham late last night. The party left Fredericton yesterday on a special train of three cars, went over the branch line to Stanley and came down the Indiantown branch to Chatham via Derby Junction.

This morning they drove over the route of the Nelson-Loggieville branch, now under construction, and were met at Nelson by their special. They will go to River du Loup to inspect the Temiscouata Railway. They expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the work done on the new branch.

Peter Archer was yesterday fined $100 for a second offence against the Canada Temperance Act.
John B. Legere of Big Tracadie River, had his right hand cut off in threshing machine on Wednesday night. He was clearing away the straw from the drum when his hand caught and was horribly mutilated. Legere was taken to the hospital at Tracadie. What remained of the hand was amputated at the wrist.

COUNTY COURT CHAMBERS

The non-jury case of J. Lewis Kerr vs. Henry Gilbert of Rothesay was tried before Judge Forbes in the county court chambers this morning. This is an action for moneys sold to the defendant and the amount involved is $40. The plaintiff was on the stand all morning. The case is being continued this afternoon.

H. H. Pickett appeared for the plaintiff and W. A. Swing, K. C. for the defendant.

How Are You Fixed For WARMER UNDERWEAR

It will soon be time to put on heavier underwear—some are already wearing warmer underwear. It isn't good policy to wait until you are chilled. Buy it now, and if it is too warm you can have it handy, for cold days will come.

At any rate we will be glad to show you our lines of underwear, whether you want to buy now or later. We have supreme confidence in our ability to please you, knowing that our quality and prices are right. We go further into the details of the underwear business than most stores—we look into the seemingly little details of finish, knitting, stitching, shape and quality.

Men's Medium Weight Natural Wool Underwear, guaranteed unshrinkable, $1.00 to $1.50 per garment.

Stanfield's Medium Weight Pure Scotch Wool Underwear, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 per garment

Stanfield's Heavy Weight, $1.25, $1.50 per garment.

Special in Stanfield's Underwear—We have had a special garment made for us in heavy weight all wool, guaranteed unshrinkable, which we are selling at $1.00. The best garment for the money you can get.

Woolsey Unshrinkable Underwear, in medium and heavy weights, $1.50 to $3.50 per garment
