VECETINE For General Debility.

DANFORTH, ME., Oct. 2, 1877 MR. STEVENS:— My health has always been poor. Have taken a great many kinds of mediume, but never took anything that could begin to help me like the VEGETINE. One year ago last March, I had the Lung Feeer, it left me very feeble for a long time. I could do but very little work and hard for me to do a little. I had never heard of VEGETINE. One day I saw the advertisement in a paper. I felt if I could get that it would help me. I sent the next day and got one bottle, and before I took one bottle I could see good effects from the medicine. After taking a few bottles I could do a good washing. I have taken seven bottles, am sixty-flev years old, never was so well in my life and never was so feshy, for which I feel grateful to you and to our Heavenly Father. I recommend it to all around me, for I prize it above all other medicines.

Meanwhile the Opposition, weak in numbers, but strong in debating power, claim that in the justice of their corded by the Freeman, whose editor, cause, as well as in the strength of their nts, they have the better of the Mr. Domville tried to defend Mr. Tilley.

Mr. Anglin said that his assertion that he could not obtain a hearing at the St. John hustings, and that he was threatened with personal violence, was untrue.

Mr. Domville undertook to prove that it was true by reading an article from the Freeman, in which the electors of Kings County were warned that Mr. Domville, if elected, would vote for the duties on floor, meal, etc.

He then asserted that Hon. Mr. Burpee told Mr. Levi Young that the Mackenzie Government would give him protection.

Mr. Burpee denied that he ever told any one that the Mackenzie Government would propose a protective tariff.

Mr. Domville then said that overtures

Mr. Tilley has found it strongly condemned by his own Province, and knows that to all the just interests of the entire Maritime section, excepting the coal interest, it is very unpalatable. His policy has been boldly arraigned in the House, and he has not been able to grapple with the points presented against him, and just on the back of this comes the voice of the Thunderer—the London Times, across the sea, and in behalf of the people of England, tariff debate, and their hopes are revived sea, and in behalf of the people of England, offered that King would pay $2000 it the scribin were dropped.

Mr. King denied that he ever authorised any one to make any such proposal.

Mr. Domville next attacked Mr. Snowball, asserting that that gentleman had come to St. John to offer his support to Mr. Tillow. Mr. Tilley.

This Mr. Snowball positively denied.
Mr. D. said he received a telegram from some one in Miramichi, telling him to be on the look out for Mr. Snowball, and elicited so rigorous and cutting a retort that the hon. Minister will not be likely to repeat his attack, in that quarter at least. pose.

He was called on for the name, but prudent in this respect, he withheld it.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH. -On Monday last an inquest was held by Dr. J. S. Benson, Coroner, on the body of Alex. Lambert late in the employ of Mr. Thomas Buckley, lumberman. From the evidence it appeared that deceased, in company with Mr. Buckley, and a man named Pitman were walking over a landing of logs on the Napan River, on Monday morning, when a few of the logs started from under their feet. Buckley saw the danger and warned the other two men to look out for them selves. Deceased and Pitman ran ahead while Mr. Buckley stepped back. The deceased either stepped or fell into a hole and one of the logs struck him on the right de and knecked him down. Pitman, 1. the meanwhile, had ran and sprung into the river, and when he looked out of the water he saw Mr. Buckley trying to raise the log resting on deceased's arm. Deceased was then carried to the house of Mr. Cribbs and was visited by Dr. J. S. Benson. He was suffering from shock and was pulseless at the wrist, and the heartbeat was scarcely discernible. There were no bones broken and no external injury was apparent except a scratch on the The jury returned a verdict of accidental

To the Editor, of the Miramichi Advance SIR :- I am sorry my last did not seem to please. It was not written with the gratitude. I am afraid I should occupy too much space if I took notice of all your sacastic remarks on my last.

In your issue of the 17th you requested your correspondents to be brief. As you hope I will continue my letters I shall trouble you with a few more remarks: about this obnoxious duty on farm produce that is so much troubling you and some of your contemporaires.

The Editor of the St. John weekly Telegraph April 16th, says, farming is the great industry, which above all others it supports and gives life and direction toevery other industry. He says to the farmer, this protection is peculiarly odi-

The Bass-Gaspereaux Matter.

NELSON, April 29th '79. MR. EDITOR :- I need not tell you of any one else how the Advocate has been crying out these ten years past about any one catching or killing bass anywher else save in the North WestRiver, But in its issue of 23rd inst., it excels all previous efforts. It says "we are glad to hear that 'the seining for gaspereaux has been pro-"hibited in the river and harbour of Mira michi and Bay du Vin and Black River We meant what we said and we are glad 'to hear it, and so are the bass fishermen of 'the Northwest." Yes, Mr. Advocate th Chief Priest was glad when Judas went to sell his Master and so was Judas when he got the cash in his hand, and so the Editor of the Advocate said he was glad when the seining was stopped. God created great whales and every living creature that moveth and which the waters bringeth forth, but the Advocate claims all tor the rich and its pet lambs of the Northwest. Our rulers ought to know that the greater part of the petitioners who complained of the seines destroying bass were farmers. Everybody in the county who knows anything about bass fishing knows that it was the scoop nets that destroyed the bass. Yes, the Advocate is glad Many shall run through and fro and knowledge shall increase, but did the Advocate increase in knowledge? If is did it would see that these last two years the bass have decreased in the Northwest, the Southwest and they increased hundred fold in the Southwest The Advocate wants knowledge, and let it ask and night during fishing time, or th Captain and crew of the Andover and it will find out how wrong it has been. It widows and ornhans are not. There are tive orphaned families in less than half a mile of shore and two of them have lost father and mother. God sends them fish out of the great and wide sea to their very doors. They can see them, but must not eat them, but, never mind, He that heard the young ravens when they cried to Him for food will hear the widows and orphans also. We must, I suppose, bear our wrongs in patience. NELSON.
