THE Subscribers being desirous of retiring from the Dry Goods business, have this day sold to Messrs, LANSDOWNE & MANTIN the whole of the Stock contained in Store No. 1, Imperial Ruildings, and Warerooms over same. In leaving, this Stock and Premises to their successors, they feel warranted in saying, that from an experience of nearly twenty years in their employ, the public will receive the same courtesy and attention to their wants which has contributed so much to their own prosperity.

MAGEE BROTHERS.

SPECIAL.—Magre Bros. will, during the next year, occupy Store No. 2 same building, where they intend disposing of the remainder of their stock, which consists, pri cically, of Staple Goods, at such decided reduction from present marked prices as will ensure a thorough clearance.

33-All persons having bills against the firm will please present the same for payment: and it will confer a great favor if those of their customers who have had bills presented up to January ist, would call and make an early settlement.

A CARD. WE have this day purchased from Magee Bros, the entire Retail Stock in No. 1 Store, Imperial Buildings, Colonial and Continental Church Society PRINCE WILLIAM STREET, where we purpose continuing the DRY GUODS BUSINESS on the same principles which have characterised the management of the late firm. It shall be our constant aim to procupe Stock from the best and most reliable English and Continental Markets, suitable for a first-class Local and Foreign Trade, and with due diligence and strict attention to business, hope to merit a continuance of the very extensive patronage so liberally accorded to our predecessors during a business career extending over a period of Thirty Six Years.

One sunny morning lately, as I was luxuriating in the fine crisp fresh air, I came upon a young woman, with a sleeping babe upon her arm, remonstrating with her husband, who was just about entering a dram-shop, against spending his week's wages. With an oath, he bade her "go home." She retused, with the tears streaming down her cheeks, and pointed to their baby. With another oath, he clenched his huge fist, but the blow descended, not upon the poor wife, but upon the tiny arm of the baby, which hung limp, as it uttered a sharp cry. The maddened mother uttered a howl like a wild animal, and tried to return the blow. I caught her hand, and said, "Oh, don't kill your baby!" "Oh, madam! oh, madam!" sobbed the young mother, as she sunk upon the nearest door step, convulsed with her misery, I spoke to a man near to keep off her husband, who was returning for another blow. Shrugging his shoulders, he said, "Better leave 'em to the pericee, mum," and went his way.

W. H. ATKINSON'S Champion Plate Polish WHICH will save considerable time and trouble, and will be found invaluable, as well as produce a most brilliant polish.

The Proprietor can, with the greatest confidence, recommend his "CHAMPION PLATE POLISH" as an article superior to anything of the kind ever offered to the public. One trial of it will ensure constant use: and as it saves so much time and labour, besides producing a very lasting polish, Housekeepers will find it worth their while to use "ATKINSON'S CHAMPION PLATE POLISH," for cleaning and polishing all kinds of silver and plated goods.

This article is done up in fancy boxes, of different colcurs, at seventeen cents each.
