CAPT. ARTHUR LEGERE HONORED AT DALHOUSIE

Banquet Tendered Him by His Friends Monday Night—Very Pleasant Time

Dalhousie, N. B., March 7th.—A banquet was given last evening at the Queen Hotel by the leading citizens of Dalhousie, in honor of Capt. A. J. Legere of the 165th Batt. Capt. Legere enlisted as a lieutenant from Dalhousie in the 26th Battalion and received his promotion to the rank of Captain shortly after he reached the firing line. He was the first French Acadian officer to offer his services in the present war and when the French Acadian Battalion started he was recalled to help in its formation. The Banquet was a success in every way and the menu reflected great credit on the popular proprietor of the Queen, Mr. E. R. Gaudet. Those present were Capt. A. J. Legere, 26th Batt., Capt. W. H. Hattie, Halifax; Lieut. J. B. McKay, B. Douglas and A. Frenette, Mayor W. S. Montgomery, Hon. C. H. LaBilloy, Rev. A. A. Boucher, A. J. LeBlanc, P. H. Sheehan, Allie LeBlanc, Wallace Sheehan, J. B. Delaney, S. Blanchard, G. McKenzie, Frank Troy, A. J. Arseneault, M. McKay, F. Barriere, D. G. Stewart, P. B. Troy, E. R. Richard, M. S. Brennan, Alex. Murchie, Chas. Vanstone, James M. Barthe, H. J. Guignard, C. E. Little, A. Powell, A. B. McKinnon, H. A. Trudelle, P. E. Samson and E. R. Gaudet.

Mayor Montgomery acted as toast master and proposed the toast to the King which was responded to by every one singing the National Anthem. Hon. C. H. LaBilloy proposed the toast to "Our Guests", responded to by Capt. Legere in a most interesting address about his experience at the front. Mr. E. Rene Richard proposed "Our Friends in Khaki", responded to by Capt. Hattie, Halifax, and Lieutenant Douglas. The toast to the clergy was proposed by Mr. M. S. Brennan and responded to by Rev. Father Boucher. Mr. A. B. McKinnon proposed the toast to "The Ladies", responded to by Messrs. J. Allie LeBlanc, Lieut. McKay and Frenette.

"Our Town and County" proposed by Mr. E. Rene Richard, responded to by Mayor W. S. Montgomery, Mr. A. J. LeBlanc and County Warden A. Murchie.

GREAT CONGESTION IN FREIGHT TRAFFIC

I. C. R. Blocked and Freight Traffic Tied up.—Hardship to Importers

Owing to the tie up in freight traffic, the I. C. R. authorities have taken the Ocean Limited off the route for a time, and a special effort will be made to get things cleaned up. There are thousands of cars of freight destined for St. John and Halifax lying in the sidings and yards between here and Montreal, and freight shipments have been weeks on the way from Montreal, and have not yet arrived at destination.

The cause of this congestion is set down as the recent storms, and while this is true to a certain extent, it is not wholly so. It is said to be largely due to the lack of practical railway experience of the new officials, both here and at Montreal.

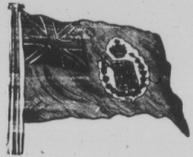

Early in the season, an old trackmaster in discussing railway matters, made the statement in the presence of a Graphic representative that the officials were "trusting to providence" to keep the line clear, but wait until the February storms come!

Well the February storms came and found the facilities entirely inadequate to deal with them. No plows, no engines, consequently even the through express trains were days behind time and freight traffic held up a week at a time.

It is hoped that it will be a case of experience teaches, and that matters will soon be back to normal.

RECRUITING MEETING

Col. Daigle and Capt. Arthur Legere held a recruiting meeting in the Council Chamber, Saturday, which was well attended. Capt. A. T. LeBlanc acted as chairman. Addresses were delivered and recruits asked for. One responded, but we understand he had previously failed to pass the medical examiner.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND

A Further Appeal For Funds to Carry on This Good Work.

Campbellton, N. B., March 6, 1916. To the Editor of the Graphic, Dear Sir: At a public meeting lately held in the Town it was decided to again ask the citizens to subscribe to the Patriotic Fund. A committee was appointed of which John Harquail, Esquire, is the chairman, to have a thorough canvass of the Town made.

I deem it only fair that the public who have subscribed liberally in the past and who will be asked to increase their liberality, should have some explanation given them as to how the money has been expended and why we make this second appeal to them. The work for the County of Restigouche is done by a Committee appointed at a public meeting called for the purpose of organizing a branch of the society here.

All parts of the County are represented on the Committee, but in practice the work is done by the members of the Committee resident in Campbellton.

In November 1914 two families were granted aid, but by January 1915 the number of families was increased to seventeen. We are now granting aid to 150 families. We began by an expenditure of $77.00 in November 1914. At the close of the year 1915 the expenditure for that month had grown to $1746.90 and in February we paid out $2419.00.

At the end of the year 1915 we had paid to the different families receiving aid $11202.25 at a total expense of $240.66, or at the rate of $17 per month. A very considerable portion of this expenditure was for postages and stamps on cheques issued.

We believe this expense bill will compare favorably with any branch of this society in Canada.

What amount ought Restigouche to raise for the current year?

The sum we will require will be well over $30,000, but we do not ask our people to raise and pay in this amount. At the first of the year it was announced that $8,000,000 would be required for the Patriotic Fund for 1916. Since then the Government of Canada has announced that 600,000 Canadians will be enlisted for overseas. This means that a much greater sum than $8,000,000 will be required.

If all Canada has to raise $8,000,000 that would figure out at one dollar per head of population. Of this amount on that basis, Restigouche should contribute over $16,000. We cannot accurately estimate how much greater sum than $8,000,000 will be required because of the increased number of men it is proposed to raise in Canada, but an increase of 33 per cent may reasonably be expected for the year 1916, which means a total for Restigouche County of at least $20,000.

How is this money to be raised? A great many persons say by taxation of the County. Have the County vote the amount required, issue bonds for a part of the amount and assess for the balance. A strong delegation from Campbellton and other parts of the County waited upon the Municipal Council at its January session and strongly urged upon the Councilors the above method of meeting the requirements of the Patriotic Fund. The result was that they voted $833.33 per month for the current year up to the first day of July, or $5000.00. Our information is that the Council expressed their willingness of voting $5000. more at the July session of the Council, should the needs of the Fund require it.

From the above statement it is apparent that the excess of $10,000 required to be raised in this County must be obtained by voluntary subscriptions. It will not avail us to assess. The County ought to tax for this amount because this method has been urged upon the County Council. To any one who still urges "his method," I would ask what have you done towards influencing the Council to the course you advocate? If you have done nothing it will become you to insist longer on taxation. We must be practical if we hope to accomplish our object.

I have heard the statement made that the money will be raised whether we continue to pay or do not. I believe that statement true. This would mean that we are relying on other parts of Canada to pay not only their just share but to add to the sum we ought to pay. Citizens of Campbellton are you prepared to accept this position? Do you want to be a "Shirker" in this world war? Or do you want to do your share? When our boys come home from war scarred Europe leaving behind many of our dear ones, who have found a last resting place in northern France, what will you say to your neighbor's son when he clasps your hand in friendly greetings? Will you tell him you could not go and had no son to send, but you helped the families of the men who did? Will you say, I determined to do my duty as best I could at home? Will you be able to add, I not only prayed for you but I worked for you and I saw to it that your dear old widowed mother was supported in comfort? No other answer will suffice if you expect to retain your self respect, but you want the respect and esteem of your fellow townsmen? You can have it in full measure by simply doing your duty. Show the boys who have gone to the front and those who enlisted but are still with us, that we are prepared to make sacrifices for our Country, and our Flag and the cause they represent. No man can say I have no responsibility in this war. I am exempt from all the calls of duty and patriotism. If we say this we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. We must share each other's burdens and responsibilities. I cannot fight but I can pay. You cannot pay but you can fight. I pay for you and you fight for me. The man who neither fights nor pays is a "Slacker". What is the measure of your duty? To whom much is given much is required. Give generously, freely and voluntarily. Will you not support the committee in this cause. We are trusting in your loyalty to the cause we represent, to your love for the old Flag and the land of The Maple Leaf. Let your slogan be "We will never let the old Flag fall."

Yours sincerely,
H. F. McLAUGHEY,
President of the Patriotic Fund for the County of Restigouche.

BOYS IN KHAKI ENTERTAINED THURSDAY

Ladies of Protestant Churches Provide Good Things for Soldier Boys—Will be Continued

On Thursday night last the soldiers under invitation, met at the St. Andrew's Hall. A committee of ladies looked after the refreshments and welcomed the boys to the Hall. A little programme was provided, consisting of short speeches, readings and singing. The boys themselves proved good entertainers and it is expected that as the rooms are to be kept open for them here three nights of the week, that they will feel themselves at home and avail themselves of all the advantages.

A Committee of men and women from each of the churches are appointed to look after the comfort of these men—both in a physical and literary way, and it is expected that many pleasant hours may be spent in the Hall. The Committee in charge, representing as it does the different Protestant churches, expect that any or all of the boys will feel themselves specially invited to attend and to use the Hall as provided. It is understood that the Catholic church is looking after its own people in its own way.

B. OF TRADE WORKING FOR C'N.-GASPE S. S.

Department of Trade and Commerce Asking For Tenders For Usual Service

The Campbellton Board of Trade has received a letter from the Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of the Department of Trade and Commerce which states:

"I have your letter of the 22nd February and have delayed answering it for some little time, waiting to see what developments would take place with reference to certain associated services.

"The company which performed the service last year have contracted to take the route from Gaspe to Montreal and is therefore unable to perform the service from Gaspe to Campbellton. I have today issued instructions to call for tenders for a suitable vessel, if such can be found, for the Campbellton to Gaspe service."

There is considerable doubt whether a vessel can be procured for this service, owing to the great demand for such this year.

The Board of Trade will meet Friday evening to discuss the matter.

PATRIOTIC FUND COMMITTEE MEETS

The Patriotic Fund Collecting Committee met on Thursday the 2nd Inst. for the purpose of organization. Mr. John Harquail was chosen permanent chairman of the Committee and Mr. M. A. Kelly, Secretary. Mr. H. A. Carr was added to the Committee. Matters incidental to the collecting campaign were talked over and active work will be begun very soon. All the members of the Committee were present.

Uninformed with suspicion should realize from these warnings and the warning from Ontario as well, that the present is a time for house-cleaning on a broad scale.—Globe.

HON. CHAS. MARCIL FAVORS PROHIBITION

Makes Strong Plea for Action by House of Commons.—Some Convincing Figures

Ottawa, March 5th.—The question of Dominion wide prohibition was up in the House of Commons today. H. H. Stevens, M. P. of Vancouver moved the resolution. Hon. Charles Marcil seconded the motion. He announced that he was a convert to the cause of prohibition. He had voted against prohibition in the past. He felt, however, that in view of the great cost of carrying out Canada's part in the war, in view of the attitude of the people of his own constituency, and of the action taken by the provinces that parliament had a mandate to act and to act promptly. He was convinced that the people would support parliament in such action as it might take and that in supporting the resolution he was doing something in the interest of the country.

"Can we not give up whiskey in this country when our sons are giving their lives in the cause of empire?" said Mr. Marcil. "We must show that those who cannot go to the front are animated by the same spirit as those who go. The time has come for Canada to economize. There is no one who will not agree that drink is a luxury. That fact alone is enough to call for action. We all know, however, the moral consequences which follow in the path of liquor. If we have not got the courage to get up and do away with this luxury, I do not think we are worthy of the positions we occupy."

Mr. Marcil said that in the year ending March 31, 1915, the expenditure in Canada on spirits, wines and malt liquors amounted to $87,531,654, or $10.84 per head of the population. He said that as long as the manufacture and importation of liquor were permitted it would be impossible for the provinces to put down the traffic. Therefore, he thought that the dominion parliament should act. He felt, moreover, that if a prohibition measure were put into force for three years, it would never be repealed.

Parliament, said Mr. Marcil, had dealt with the question of prohibition any time, and had never said "No" to it. Parliament had, in fact, agreed to the principle of prohibition and in 1898 a referendum had been submitted to the country. The electors had, unfortunately, not taken that interest in the issue which might have been expected, only half of the voters going to the polls. However, the net result had been a majority of 14,000 in favor of prohibition. Quebec province had, unfortunately, returned a large majority against it, of 94,344 votes, and as a result of its determined opposition the government of the day had decided not to introduce a prohibitory measure.

Immense progress had, however, since been made by Quebec. Out of 73 provincial constituencies 42 were now dry. Mr. Marcil was satisfied that if a referendum were submitted tomorrow in Quebec, prohibition would be adopted by an overwhelming majority. Mr. Marcil told of the progress made toward prohibition in the United States, France and Russia and said that Germany had since the war began, reduced the production of beer fifty per cent. The time might come, he asserted, when England would have to deal drastically with the liquor problem. If Britain were defeated in the war its downfall would be due to inherent weaknesses due to the liquor traffic. He felt that it was the bounden duty of parliament to give prohibition a trial not only for economic reasons but on the moral ground.

"Our age prevents many of us from doing what we should like to do in this crisis," he continued, "but there is one thing we can do and I intend to do. I intend to give my vote and my influence and my work to retrieve what I did in 1898. I am glad to say that twenty years have ripened my wisdom and to assert that it is the bounden duty of this parliament to bring in prohibition at least during the war, to let the boys who are going to the front feel that we are doing something for the cause, that we are doing away with all these luxuries and all that is unnecessary."

CAMPBELLTON BOYS ENLISTED IN THE WEST

Postmaster MacKendrick has received word from his nephew, Walter MacKendrick that he has lately joined the North B. C., 102nd Batt., which will train at Prince Rupert and Comox, Vancouver Island. Arnold Murray, son of the late William Murray, has joined the Signaling Corps at Hamilton, Ontario. Among other Campbellton boys who joined in the West are Pearl and Lyon MacKenzie, both of whom have gone overseas.

NEW ZEALAND ARMY MEDICAL CORPS WORK

Erected Quarters Under Fire and Attended to Wounded—Much Heroism

Now that it is all over, stories of the work of the Anzacs are beginning to drift into the papers. Mr. Malcolm Ross, the official press representative with the New Zealand expeditionary forces, writing to the London Standard quotes from a book of military medical regulations: "Dressing stations should be established out of the fire zone, beside a road, and near a good water supply," and then making no comment tells something of the work done by the doctors and the Army Medical Corps at Anzac. The New Zealand Field Ambulance, which landed on a shrapnel-swept beach on the afternoon of April 25, 1915, and promptly opened a small dressing station, was the first New Zealand medical unit that ever went into action. Earlier in the day this unit had arrived off the beach, and at once was surrounded by barges filled with wounded—the landing at Anzac Bay is a tale that never will be fully told. The transport on which the unit was, became a hospital, its saloon an operating room. In the afternoon a bearer corps went ashore and got together as many of the wounded as was possible. Sometimes men were found in such inaccessible places that the bearers could not carry them down to the shore, but gave them what first aid was possible, and then as gently as they could rolled them down the scrubby slopes to the shore. In the face of a continual fire, the bearers made trip after trip in search of the wounded. The first three days twenty trips a day was the record made by some of these men, a single trip meaning a two-mile walk over an unbroken country. These men who first came ashore at the Gallipoli peninsula were spoken of among their comrades as the oldest inhabitants of Anzac, that bay whose name will always recall the heroism of the Australian-New Zealand army corps. One section of the New Zealand Field Ambulance, writes Mr. Ross, was taken by a destroyer to within four hundred yards of the shore and then, the night being dark, was rowed in in small boats. It was cold and raining heavily; no one could find anything, any one, and the shore was unknown territory. Finally a landing was made, the equipment piled up and covered; a search instituted for the wounded, who were promptly got at and given hot drinks and their wounds looked to under a fire of shrapnel and bullets. At dawn these plucky ambulance men dug in as well as they could, and here they remained for three months. Their tent, in which all their work was done, was riddled with shrapnel. For a fortnight work never ceased night or day, and during that time between four and five thousand wounds were attended—and the shrapnel firing never ceased. The beach was crowded, and men were shot outside the dressing station—and men were shot inside the dressing station, and no one could help it. With the warm weather came terrible conditions and it was not possible to do operations. The bravery of the Australians and of the New Zealanders was beyond description. The stretcher-bearers had captured a number of donkeys that had strayed away from the Turkish lines and these they used for taking in the wounded. Sometimes a man would ride right into the tent and drop upon the operating table. Often a cheerful "coo-coo" would be the first announcement to the officer in charge of the arrival of a new patient. The spirit of the men is illustrated by many stories, but let one suffice. A soldier who was carrying water to the tiring line on a ridge above the beach was finally badly wounded by shrapnel, a bullet also making a hole in his water can. He was found a little later lying down, his fingers stopping up the hole in the tin while he was shouting loudly, not for help for himself, but for some one to bring a fresh tin for the water. Water was very scarce. It is not always possible even in the finest army in the world to abide by a regulation that says "Dressing stations should be established out of the fire zone, beside a road, and near a good water supply."

After the distribution of prizes came the exciting auction of buckets, the winning talented pianist, the untidy contents of which proved very appetizing. Music was furnished by our two young talented pianists, Miss Eveline Bernard and Aime LeBlanc. Some fine duets were executed by Miss Bernard and Miss Martel.

Much credit is due the zealous organizers—Mrs. J. A. Bernard and the Misses Julienne LeBlanc, Leonie LeFebvre and Gertrude Landry, operator of the Bonaventure & Gaspe Phone Co. The total proceeds amounted to $75 net. Another Whist Party is being organized for Easter Monday.

Among the visitors present at this Whist Party were: Miss Rosie Arsenault, Mr. James Barthe and Private Maillure of Dalhousie; Misses Dora and Emily Mill, Messrs. John and Frank Mill of Maria; the Misses Laetitia, Bertha, Corinne and Alphonse Allard of Robitaille; Miss Yvonne Frenette and Mr. Polydore Arsenault of St. Jean l'Evangeliste; the Misses Nellis and a brother of St. Jules, Quebec.

The happy union of Emmanuel Thibault of St. Pierre de Malbaie, with Miss Henedine Boudreau, teacher, daughter of Albert Boudreau, postmaster of Little Carleton, took place on Monday morning, March 6th in the parish church, St. Joseph of Carleton. The blessing was given by Reverend J. A. Verreau, Canon. The young couple received numerous and beautiful gifts. They are leaving Carleton on the Q. O. Ry. for their future home, St. Pierre de Malbaie, accompanied by the best wishes of their numerous friends.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Charles Cullen, who a week ago had the misfortune of breaking her wrist. Through very old she is recovering rapidly.

Miss Rosie Arsenault of Dalhousie is the guest of Mrs. Louis LeBlanc, Carleton Centre.

Private Ormer LeBlanc, who is following a drilling course in New Carlisle, spent Sunday here with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Charlo, N. B., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Bernier on Sunday and Monday last.

Mr. Paillette of New Carlisle and heir of the late L. J. Riopel, was in our vicinity this week on business.

Mr. Napoleon LeBlanc, our popular hackman, had the misfortune of losing his valuable horse Monday noon. Mr. LeBlanc hopes to have the latter replaced soon.

Registered at the Wilfrid this week were Messrs. J. E. Morand and Arthur Noreau of Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cyr of New Richmond were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Lefebvre and Mrs. Edmond Cyr.

CARLETON MERCHANTS PLANNING DOLLAR DAY

Meeting Will be Held Monday Evening to Set Date and Perfect Plans

The Campbellton Merchants are planning to hold a Dollar Day in the near future. A meeting of the interested merchants will be held Monday evening at which full details will be arranged. Dollar Day last year was a great success and no doubt it will be this year.

CARLETON

On Sunday, March 6th, a most enjoyable Whist Party was held in the spacious rooms of our well known convent. Over two hundred persons attended this party, presided by our Reverend J. A. Verreau, Canon. A large number of visitors had come from the surrounding places. Beautiful prizes were given, of which the lucky winners were: 1st prize for ladies, a silver fruit plate, won by Miss Alma Alain; 2nd prize, a silk muffler, won by Mrs. Edouard Martin; Booby prize, Miss Lavioie, organist of St. Jean l'Evangeliste. Mens' prizes, 1st prize, a costly brass clock, won by Mr. Wilfred Cote, of Maria Capes; 2nd prize, a fancy letter box, won by Mr. Stewart Verge, sheriff's officer of Carleton; Booby prize, Mr. Octave LeBlanc of Pointe Bonpue.

After the distribution of prizes came the exciting auction of buckets, the winning talented pianist, the untidy contents of which proved very appetizing. FARM MANAGEMENT IS FARM BUSINESS

A Summary of an Address by Mr. J. H. Grisdale

Farm management is farm business, stated Mr. J. H. Grisdale, director of Canadian experimental farms, speaking at the recent Ottawa Fair on

SEVERE SENTENCE FOR SELLING LIQUOR

Caught in the Act, Two Offenders Have Been Put Behind the Bars

Police Magistrate Matheson is being commended for the manner in which he is dealing with those found guilty of selling liquor to the soldiers, and it is hoped this evil will soon be stamped out. Last week two men appeared before Judge Matheson for selling liquor to soldiers.

One, Edward Huard, was caught by Officer Mann delivering the goods to a soldier. He was fined $100.00 or 3 months. He went to jail. John Parent, clerk at the Arsenault Hotel was convicted of two offences and fined $75.00 or 3 months in jail for the same offence. He also went to Dalhousie.

This is the fourth case of this kind and in all good stiff sentences have been imposed. "Farm Management". The reason why the specialist did not make good as a farmer was because he did not have good managers. Farmers in general were not balancing labor and investment against the profit. The farmer must be careful of his investment, and not let sentiment and similar influences distract him. He could point out a dozen farms where the scenery was fine, but that did not help the interest any; others, also, that the farmer's grandfather had owned, but too much sentiment was not wise in that direction either.

The farmer fell down, besides, on working capital; many hate to put a little more money in as working capital into just a little better horses, implements, building, etc., though some believed that an adequate working capital was necessary and that money investment should not be overlooked for satisfactory returns.

"We must have a knowledge of farm values," said Prof. Grisdale. "This makes the farmer able to grasp the importance of the little things which are an indication of thrift. It is a mistake to spend too much time on little things, for farming is a big enterprise."

There should be the proper balance of farm livestock and crops. He liked to see just a little more livestock than the farm could carry rather than the other way, so that one could be sure that all the material would be used up, and a small investment to carry the balance would not hurt. The right kind of livestock should be kept. The farmer who made a success must produce at low cost and utilize the feed for the greater money-earning possibilities.

Dealing at length with the cost of production, which he said was one of the most important problems in the country to-day, Prof. Grisdale first stated that all operations must be timely. "I believe honestly," said the speaker, "that 25 per cent of our farmers are not timely in their operations; either they don't know or they procrastinate, for they fail to do the right thing at the right time."

The question of power, meaning horses available, was of neglected or mismanaged. There should be four or five horses at least on a farm of 100 acres for to be underhanded meant to be under-cultivated. He gave some interesting observations on the cost of wintering horses, pointing out that, on one Government farm, this was being satisfactorily done on oat straw and a handful of grain, while on some other farms the cost was several times greater.

Big machines were valuable to bring about lower cost of production, and he advised that the next machines bought by his auditors be large ones. A large seeder, for instance, would cut the cost of seeding almost in two.

One of the most important of details in farm management was to have a system of some kind with regard to crops. This was so much a fad of his that he would refrain from discussing it at length, except to say that the man who did not follow a good rotation would get only one-half or one-third of the crops he ought to have.

Winter work was important, for there were many odds and ends that should be attended to, which were too often overlooked. The market was worthy of deep and close study. It was not sufficient to simply operate as their fathers had done; farmers must become more thorough business men. He could point to a place not 200 miles from Ottawa where the capital invested in a farm amounted to hundreds of thousands, and where large profit had been made this past year.

Co-operation Good. Co-operation would be found most advantageous in many ways, continued Prof. Grisdale, for it was a good way to obtain large returns, besides paying the way to the introduction of the large machine. Co-operation could be practised in working, buying, and selling, and would do much to increase the chances of profitable returns. It was HUGH A. CARR, Solicitor for Estate. March 7-4 wks. true that returns were pitifully small, on the average, in Canada, and they were still smaller in the United States, according to government bulletins.

Dealing with the question of money crops, he said that it was not necessary that everything grown must be consumed on the farm. On almost every farm there was some possibility along this line, and to have some smaller thing for sale at different times of the year was very acceptable indeed. "Concluding," Prof. Grisdale said, "the whole thing practically is that if we would make the most out of farming operations, we must be prepared to use business ability to a much greater extent. I am not strong for an extensive system of book keeping, though I have seen lots of systems, and had them submitted to me for purchase by the Government or for recommending to the farmers. I have

VISITED HIS OLD HOME

Downpatrick, Saturday, Feb. 19th, 1916.—Company Quartermaster-Sergeant D. K. Graham, of the 26th New Brunswick, returned to France on Wednesday after spending a few days with his mother in Downpatrick-street. Graham first left for Canada in January, 1891, nor did he set foot in Saintfield again until 11th July last year, when his battalion was going to France. In the South African war he was one of the Ladysmith garrison. But the present campaign, he says, eclipses anything he saw in South Africa.—Down Recorder.

LOCAL APPLICATIONS

Catarrah Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrah Cure was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the best tonics known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Catarrah Cure is what produces such wonderful results in catarrah conditions. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

ENTERTAINMENT

The ladies of the Catholic Ladies Aid Society entertained the soldiers at the Murray Hall Tuesday evening and a most pleasant time was spent. Mr. Jos. Gallagher acted as chairman. A fine programme was rendered and refreshments served. A visiting French clergyman of Bathurst delivered a stirring address. The only regrettable feature was that more of the boys in khaki were not present to enjoy the evening.

JOHN C. JOHNSTON OF 26TH KILLED

Pte. Robertson Kept up Communication Despite Loss of Leg. Belonged to Sayabec

St. John, N. B., March 8.—The news that Lance Corp. John C. Johnston of the 26th Battalion was killed by the same shell explosion which wounded Private Egbert Robertson, formerly of this city, of the same battalion, is conveyed in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Gilbert Wayne, 356 Tower Street, West St. John, from Private Harvey Wayne.

The three young men all enlisted here in the signalling section of the 26th and had been chums ever since. When the shell struck the dug-out in which the signallers were working, Johnston was instantly killed and Robertson had his left leg blown off four inches above the ankle. In telling of the affair Private Wayne says that Robertson acted with the greatest heroism and kept up the communication, despite the loss of his leg, until he was relieved.

Lance-Corporal Johnston belongs to Sayabec, P. Q., where his parents reside. He had been working up river with the Donald Fraser Lumber Company, with whom Wayne was employed also. They threw up their positions and came to the city to enlist and joined the 26th. Those who knew him, speak in the highest terms of the young soldier as a fine young man of splendid character.

PETITIONS FILED

Petitions have been filed with the town clerk asking that an election be held in Wards II. and III. as to whether or not licenses should be granted in these wards. At present license is in force in Ward III. Both petitions were signed by a little over 25 per cent of the ratepayers of each of the wards interested, twenty-five per cent of the ratepayers being required in order that the election may be held. The town council will meet on Tuesday evening next when the election will no doubt be ordered held on the third Tuesday in April.

NEW RICHMOND

The hockey team of New Richmond added another feather to their cap in again defeating the New Carlisle boys last Thursday evening, in what was the hardest match ever played in the New Carlisle rink.

The ice was in grand condition and the game was fast and clean, the referee Mr. Bedard, manager of the Banque Nationale, handling the game to the satisfaction of both teams.

The first half was played through without a score for either side, New Richmond scoring the two first goals about the middle of the second half. New Carlisle evening up shortly afterwards. New Richmond scoring the odd goal shortly before the end of the period.

The line-up of the two teams were the same as at the match in New Richmond, except that Scott Robertson replaced his brother Weston, who had been injured in practice the day before the match.
